VOL 68

HEDLEY, DONLEY COUNTY, TEXAS SEPT. 15, 1978

NO. 49

To Our Friends

In case some of our out of town subscribers do not know what has happened, your editor has been unable to work since having surgery June 1st.

To avoid throwing away costly newsprint we are using odd page that I printed before the surgery, so that date will be wrong.

All subscribers who were paid up on June 1 will have three extra months coming, but it will take some time to get all of the dates changed.

WTU Opposes Innovative Rates

West Texas Utilities Co. has urged the Public Utility Commission of Texas not to adopt innovative utility rate structures or new electric use management controls until it is proven conclusively that benefits outweigh costs and that the customer will readily accept the changes.

WTU opposes widespread time-of-day pricing, mechanical load management techniques, and life line rates.

Lioness Club

The Lioness Club meets the first Thursday of each month, breakfasting at 6:30 and regular meeting at 7:30.

Martha Tarver is president of the group.

Biography Issued Of Cal C. Wright

"With God in the Light," a biography of one of the major figures in Northwest Texas Methodism, the late Cal C. Wright, was published June 1, by McMurry College Books.

The life of "Brother Cal" was written by Dr. Joseph D. Stimesy, chairman of the McMurry College philosophy department. The 164 page volume contains both illustrations by artist Shari Burns and photographs.

Wright served as pastor of the Hedley United Methodist Church from 1917 to 1920.

The hardback edition of this biography will sell for $9.50 after publication date. The paperback edition will sell for $4.75.

Corn, Sorghum Prices

Good corn and sorghum prospects, both in the U. S. and abroad, will keep prices low in the coming months, says a grain marketing specialist with the Texas Ag Extension Service. However yields will be down in Texas due to drought conditions. Corn and sorghum prices should be near the 1977 rate in the coming weeks.
