To Assist Taxpayers

Austin—State Comptroller Bob Bullock announced he is sending a representative from his Amarillo Field Office to Okmohdo on Wednesday, Nov. 15, to assist local taxpayers and answer questions about State Taxes.

He will meet with local taxpayers at the County Judge's Office in the Courthouse from 2:00 p.m. until 4:00 p.m.

Social Security

A Social Security parade will be at the court house in Okmohdo from 9:15 to 12:00 every Thursday in November except the 23rd.

He will also be at the City Housing Authority in Memphis from 9:15 to 11:30 every Tuesday in November.

Mrs. Joe Miller

Funeral services for Mrs. Nettie Pearl Miller of Memphis, who passed away there last Monday, were held there Wednesday. Burial was in the Memphis cemetery by Spicer Funeral Home.

Funeral bearers were Roger Meader, W. C. Quisenberry, Connie Hartwell, M. C. DeBard, C. R. Hunsucker and Truett Stovall.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Brey of Fort Worth and Mrs. Virginia Welch of Vega; a brother, Truett Wiseman of Hersford; five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Winter Pastures Increasing

More and more Texas farmers and ranchers are planting winter pastures, says a forage specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The main reasons are that hay supplies are short due to the drought and that winter pastures can provide high quality grazing during the winter and early spring. Planting wheat, oats or ryegrass on a prepared seedbed is best although they can also be seeded into bermudagrass sod.
