Brackett News Staff Reporter

Monday evening, April 15, at 6:30, a Joint Meeting of the City Council and County Commissioners met in the City Hall, along with representatives of Fort Clark. This may prove to be a positive move forward on some issues that seemed to be mired in conflicting opinions of solutions available.

Mr. Steve Simpson of Southwest Sound and Electronics, Inc., San Antonio made a presentation of Storm Warning Devices. He outlined a plan that would benefit Brackettville, Spofford, Kinney County, and Fort Clark.

showed members of the assembled group what it would take to protect the citizens from disasters that could be averted if early warning detection was available. All agreed to have Mr. the very near future. Simpson make a joint proposal to the City, County and Fort Clark.

911 ISSUE DISCUSSED

Berta Rocha was present to explain the 911 system in answer to many outs of City/County equipment is citizens questions. One of the questions asked, "Who takes the calls and how are they routed?" She explained that the calls would come into an office designated by the City/County. The calls would then be ing. routed to the appropriate receiver -

A previously determined charge of $30,000 has been dropped. It was to update the switching system in the Southwestern Bell office: This will be done before the 911 system is to be installed here and this charge is to be dropped.

Ms.Rocha promised to get more information and will arrange for a representative of S.W. Bell to address the questions more fully.

STREET CLEANUP/REPAIR

The details will be worked out in

FAIR DISTRIBUTION OF EQUIPMENT USAGE

LAS MORAS DRAINAGE

The Las Moras Drainage problem is being addressed. This would be a large undertaking involving the County, City, and Fort Clark. New bridges or new low-water crossings would have to be built. Roadbeds would need to be raised or lowered, and drainage areas would have to be cleaned out and channeled to accommodate excess runoff in the event of heavy rains.

The City, County and Fort Clark have agreed to ask for the Soil Conservation Department to get an engineering survey to study the problems and solutions further.

There is a possibility that a grant may be available to assist with financing.

SWIMMING

Do we have a swimming pool yet? It looks like it. Low bid was submitted by Gary Pools of San Antonio. The bid was $107,512.00. The grant for the pool is $77,200.00. That leaves a short-fall of $30,312. The City agreed to pay approximately $15,000.00 if the County would pick up the rest.

It was agreed by the County to put the request on the Agenda of their Special Meeting to be held Monday, Silver has turned to gold for the residents of Kinney County this year. 1991 is the Silver Anniversary of the Kinney County Public Library.

1958 was the year of small beginnings. After many years 'of dedicated service and a special love of books by many in 1966, a real library came into being. It was open three days a week from 3:00 to 6:00 and operated by volunteers.

On June 13, 1973 the Commissioners Court of Kinney County moved that a County Free Library be established in Kinney County. In the minutes of that historic meeting it was determined that "it would be to the best interest of the County and the citizens thereof that a County Free Public Library be established and maintained.

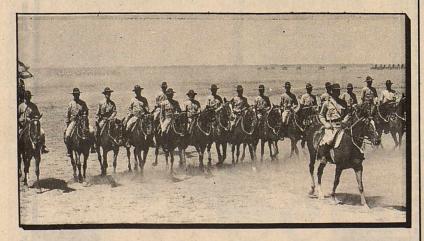

In 1983 the building as it stands now was completed and moved into. After 8 years of service this lovely building is not large enough to serve the growing needs of the County, so once again, the County Commissioners agreed to enlarge the library

For the past few months, some of the same dedicated volunteers who took part in the library's early beginnings have been hard at work promoting the library expansion of today

Not only will the expansion benefit the County citizens, it will add a new and beautiful building that was destroyed by the ravages of time. The Mellifont building will be rebuilt and incorporated into the library system.

Truly this Silver Anniversary year has turned into a golden opportunity for Kinney County residents who want quality library services at their fingertips.

Fort Clark Troopers

Brackett News Contributing Writer

The old cavalry post of Fort Clark in Brackettville will be bustling with troopers again during the Sixth Annual Fort Clark Troopers Reunion April 26, 27 and 28, 1991.

Fifty years ago the 5th Cavalry Unit marched out the front gates of Fort Clark for the last time and their successors, the 112th Cavalry Unit took over the post. Members of these two units will come together to celebrate that anniversary and share memories of their Fort Clark tour.

The Fort Clark Troopers Reunion, sponsored by the Fort Clark Historical Society and the community of Fort Clark Springs, honors the military, heritage of the frontier cavalry post, and the troopers who served during its active years.

The troopers, primarily from the 5th and 112th Cavalry Units, will spend the weekend at Fort Clark Springs swapping stories, touring the Fort and visiting the commissary building, old guardhouse, cavalry museum, and Shahan's Alamo Village movie location.

The Congressional Youth Leadership Council is a mon-profit, nonpolitical educational organization with over 300 members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives on its bipartisan advisory board. The purpose of the National Youth Leaders Conference is to identify and honor a select group of exceptional high school students and allow them the opportunity to witness history in the making: to meet the leaders who fundamentally affect the workings of the executive legislature, and judicial branches of the federal government; and to bring to life the American Constitutional process.

Fewer than two percent of all secondary school students nationwide are eligible to serve as Congressional Scholars. Students may be nominated only by their school principal or directly by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council.

Susan Hale, a sixteen-year old junior at Brackett High School, and daughter of Kenneth and B. J. Hall, has been nominated as a Congressional Scholar to represent BISD of Brackettville, and our community in a delegation of Texans at the 1991 Congressional Youth Leadership Council in Washington, D. C.

In order for Susan to attend the NYLC, she must raise $685.00 by April 24, plus an additional $405.00 for airfare to Washington. If there are questions abut the program, feel free to contact the NYLC at (202) 638-0009.

The conference is directed by a full time staff of professional educators. All Scholars will stay at the beautiful campus facility of Georgetown University in Washington, DC. Scholars are supervised 24 hours a day from the moment they arrive, by professional faculty advisors and staff at a ratio of 1 to 17. A registered nurse will be on call at all times.

The conference will allow the students to witness history in the making, meet the leaders who affect the workings of the federal government, executive, legislative and judicical branches included. All activities are coordinated around the theme, 'The Leaders of Today Meeting the Leaders of Tomorrow.

Our community and school have every reason to believe Susan Hale will represent Brackettville with flying colors.

Susan's address is Box 541, Brackettville TX 78821.

In order to keep the 911 office manned 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, it is obvious that more personnel would have to be hired. It is not clear at this time what the official position the Sheriff, City Police would play in this service. Is it possible to use the present dispatcher? That is a question that still has to be answered.

The charge now being levied for 911 to telephone subscribers was explained. To get the service there is an $11,100.25 charge before the service can be initiated. This is a non-recurring cost. The charges now levied are to pay this up-front fee to Southwestern Bell.

"After another week-long ride on the school finance roller coaster, the Texas Legislature Thursday, April 11, finally passed a compromise school funding bill that lawmakers hope will equalize school dollars and end the battle over Texas' school funding system," states The Legislative Report, a publication of the Texas Association of School Boards.

Some of the items included are a bill to consolidate tax bases, extend the school year by five days, and provide for a three-year-old prekindergarten program.

For a child to be eligible for the three-year-old prekindergarten plan, a child must be unable to speak or comprehend English or come from a family whose income is at or below the state subsistence level. There also must be at least 15 eligible three-year-old students in the district to qualify.

The bill includes the technology allotment in the basic program. The amount of the allotment is $30.00 per student for the 1992-93 school year, $35.00 for 1993-94, $40 for the 1994-95 and $50.00 for the 1996-97 school year. The money must be used for computer software, hardware, training, and related services. 75% must be used for actual classroom instruction purposes.

It has been agreed by the County and City to give an Historical Exemption of ad valorem taxes to the Wainwright and Patton houses on Fort Clark.

LANDFILL

The first steps to a landfill solution is in the works. City Council, County Commissioners, and Fort Clark all agree that "something needs to be done." 'All were invited to the Fort Clark Board Meeting, Saturday, April 20, at 9:00 a.m. there will be further discussion on the problems facing the landfill issue.

April 27, at 7:00 p.m.

UNITY

Much was accomplished by the Joint Meeting of City Council and County Commissioners. There is still much to be accomplished. Many of the items discussed can not be settled in a short time.

The Storm Warning System, Las Moras Drainage situation, swimming pool, and 911 all are problems that will take time and cooperation by all involved.

Thanks to Fort Clark was expressed by the City Council and County Commissioners for their active participation in the meeting.

The "over the hill gang," that is what some young folks say that old folks belong to. Well, this year many will involuntarily join that "gang."

Some have the decided opinion that members of that "gang' somehow become useless when they get "over the hill.

Look around. See how many folks are over 65. As a matter of fact, one Texan in five is over 65 . . . the fifth highest ratio in the United States.

Even Congress recognizes the fact that older workers maintain their value as the years creep by. Because of that Congress abolished age-based mandatory retirement formost private-sector jobs in 1986.

Locally there are many who serve in the community who are past 'retirement age.

Louis Dimery and Manuel Hernandez are two such "retired" workers. They both work at the rest.

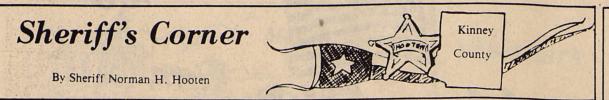

area about 7 miles east of Brackettville. They rotate on a three-day shift and are responsible for keeping the grounds beautiful and welcoming folks.

Mr. Hernandez says, "I have seen all kinds of people since I have been here. People from all over the world stop by. I have had many interesting conversations and met a lot of nice folks.

Mr. Louis Dimery serves as City Councilman in Brackettville. He says, "I enjoy being out like this. I worked at the jail for 12 years after I retired from ranching and it was stressful. This is a good job for a retired person."

Mr. Dimery and Mr. Hernandez are just two of millions of older Americans who have chosen to return to part-time employment after their retirement. They have proved to be loyal and energetic workers. Maybe, just maybe, they are proud to belong to the "over the hill gang."

April 18, 1991

Constable Bill Lindeman responded to a call for assitance from Marcella Hooten (my mother) who was visiting at my residence on Wednesday, April 10th while I was out of town attending an F.B.I. training course. It seems that she heard the dogs barking in the back yard and when she stepped out on the back porch to investigate she heard the distinct sound of a rattlesnake "rattling" its warning and saw it coiled, ready to strike near where one of the dogs was tied. She immediately contacted the Sheriff's Office and Constable Lindeman was dispatched to the scene. Upon his arrival he quickly located the snake and 'eliminated'' it. The snake was a little over 3 feet long with six rattles.

This should serve as a reminder to all Kinney County citizens and residents that as surely as April showers bring May flowers, this time of year rattlesnakes (and other poisonious snakes as well) leave their winter dens and start crawling in search of food and new locations in which to spend the rest of the year. Most of us who have lived in rural areas for any length of time are aware of the safety precautions to take to lessen the chances of painful and always dangerous snakebites, but it doesn't hurt anything to be reminded every once in awhile and for those who may not be familiar with those precautions I have included just a few precautions that need to be taken in our area, particularly this time of year and in the fall when snakes are headed back to their dens.

If we will all be aware and take a few simple precautions the danger of being bitten by any kind of snake, especially a poisonous snake, is small. Caution should be exercised anytime you are out of doors near grass, weeds, wood piles, etc. If you hear a snake "rattle" stop all motion until you can locate the snake and then move slowly away. But remember, the rattlesnake is the only one that gives "warning" that it is distrubed. Others such as the Copperhead, Cotton-Mouth water moccasin, etc. do not warn before they strike. And some, such as the Copperhead will actually attack if disturbed sufficiently.

The decision to kill a poisonous snake once located is yours to make, personally, I do in most cases in order to eliminate the danger of future encounters. There is no real reason to kill any of the non-poisonous reptiles so prevalent in our area as they are beneficial in that they eat mice, frogs, etc. Some of them, such as the "bullsnake" and the "blacksnake" (Blue Indigo) catch and eat rattlesnakes. The "bullsnake" has markings very similar to that of the rattlesnake and grows to a very large size when mature. It is sometimes killed by mistake due to its markings and its ability to "rattle" its tail when in dry leaves or weeds. It vibrates its tail at very high speed when disturbed, thus the "rattling" sound in the weeds and leaves. It has also been maligned as being a "chickensnake" because of its like for eggs and its habit of raiding nests of chickens on farms and ranches. Its benefits, however, far outweigh its detractions however because of its feeding on mice and other rodents and the fact that it will track down and eat rattlesnakes, it literally swallows them whole, headfirst while they are still alive!

LATE BREAK: This week's column is dedicated to the memory of Seberino "Prieto" Cruz, Jr., 60, of Spofford, Texas who passed away from a heart attack on Monday, April 15th. "Prieto" was an old saddlemate of mine and we "cowboyed" together on numerous occasions in years gone by. He worked as ranch foreman for Darrel Franks on his ranch east of Spofford for many years and was a top hand with a horse and rope. He had most recently been employed by Ft. Clark Maintenance.

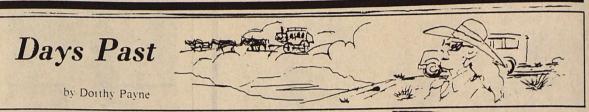

"Prieto" was a good man and a good friend. He will be sorely missed and our hearts go out to his family in this hour of loss. THAT'S ALL!

THE CHEAP SHOT HEARD AROUND THE WORLD

April 30, 1871 - Another Apache war began in New Mexico and Arizona Territories with the massacre of more than 100 Indians at Camp Grant, Arizona. This conflict continued until it ended in the capture of the Apache leader, Geronimo, in 1886.

April 11, 1873-A peace council with the Modac Indians, who had holed up in the lava beds in Northern California, but it turned into a massacre. Modac leader Captian Jack shot and killed Brigadier General E. R. S. Canby; another Indian killed the Reverend Eleazer

Thomas. A. B. Meacham, a former Indian agent, was shot but survived. Leroy S. Dyar, a fourth member of the peace commission, escaped unharmed. Then began a month long chase of 50 Modac Indians by almost 1000 soldiers, before Captain Jack and his band were forced to surrender.

April 1876-When gold was discovered in the Black Hills the notorious town of Deadwood was founded in western Dakota Territory. It was occupied by 7000 miners who rapidly turned it into a center of frontier lawlessness.

April 3, 1881-The notorious bank and train robber, and murderer, Jesse James was shot and killed in his own home in St. Joseph,

Missouri, by Robert Ford. Ford had previously made arrangements with Missouri Governor T. T. Crittenden, to kill Jesse James in return for immunity from Missouri authorities for his past crimes. After the shooting of James, the Fords went to the nearest telegraph office where Ford sent the governor the one-line message, "I have got my man."

April 22, 1889-Tens of thousands of eager settlers crowded the borders of the unassigned lands in central IndianTerritory waiting for the 12 o'clock signal to rush in and stake their claims. Some jumped the gun and sneaked across before the signal which caused the future state of Oklahoma to be known as the "Sooner State." Exactly at noon, the real rush began, resulting in such towns as Guthrie, Oklahoma City, Stillwater, and Norman. By sunset, every available homestead lot had been claimed. Oklahoma City alone became an instant population of 10,000 citizens.

Generally, research seems to prove of the IUDs hinged upon the desire of the researchers to fix blame. Blasted out over the nation by irresponsible news media, the stage was set for the disaster. Liberal judges by irresponsible actions fed the flame. Untold millions found their way into the financial maw of money grubbing "victims" and their lawyers. All this based on false reports.

Many people seem to eagerly await reports of dangerous products, and actions. Don't disturb them with the facts. Their minds are made up. A kook airs his "report" on allar and suckers take the bait and apple growers lose millions.

All facts considered give the lie to the dreamed up danger but many people want something to be bad and unfortunately these "out loud" the facts.

It's high time the people turned a deaf ear to fancied problems and get on with life. This nation was not built by setting up straw men in order to bat them down. All is not good, but the good so outweighs the harmful so as to make it almost insignificant.

Grandma's Kitchen By Grandma

Here we go again - When I was a kid, I used to pick persimmons right off the tree. They were delicious. That's because I got the ripe ones.

This little bright orange fruit known as "kaki" is grown all over the U.S.

Many people imagine them to be extremely sour, but in fact, they can be quite palatable - somewhat astringent, but rich and sweet. The key is ripeness: commercially grown persimmons are picked and marketed unripe because of their extreme perishability. They must be held at room temperature until quite soft for the flavor to develop.

Raw persimmons when combined with a little horehound herb, brewed into a tea, is excellent for relieving the throbbing headache. This tea is also good as an antedote to reduce the symptoms of poisoning encountered when eating any kind of spoiled seafood such as raw sushi or oysters for instance.

Bring 1 pint of water to a boil, add 1/2 cup coarsely chopped unpeeled ripe persimmons and 1/2 Tbs. fresh or dried coarsely cut horehound herb. Cover with a lid, remove from the heat and steep 40 minutes. Strain and drink the entire contents while still lukewarm.

Willie Lena, a Seminole town chief in Wemoka, Oklahoma, said that his tribe often made a tea of the fruit to stop diarrhea. Six near ripe persimmons were cut into sections and steeped in 3 cups of boiling water, covered for 20 minutes before straining. Drink 2 cups in a 4 hour period for chronic diarrhea.

The fresh juice of the fruit may be taken, but the tea seems to work better.

Other Native Americans employed persimmon juice for cleansing gangrenous leg ulcers and wounds, to stop bloody bowel discharges, and to wash out an infant's mouth to cure thrush (a yeast infection caused by Candida Albicans). This tea can also be used as a vaginal douche to eradicate this infection as well.

The juice of one ripe persimmon mixed with 31/2 Tbs. of warm water makes an excellent gargle for sore throat brought on by the common cold and influenza.

Now here's one I'm not sure I believe - researchers have found that depression, long suspected of reducing the body's immune defenses - doesn't appear to increase a person's risk of developing cancer. In addition, they are questioning whether depression really has any effect at all on the immune system. I think they'd better keep on studying on this one before they come out with a definite answer. The latest activity for this event was The Book Signing by coauthors Else Sauer, J. Lee Ballantyne, and Charles Wilson on Monday morning, April 15 in the Library.

The Friends of the Library are sponsoring a benefit dance at the Civic Center on May 4 with proceeds to go to the expansion project. Several persons have volunteered food and/or door prizes for the dance. If you wish to make a donation (yes, money will be accepted also) call the library and arrange for pick-up, or you may drop it off at the library.

"The Friends" are investigating the possibility of providing beautiful tiles with individual's names fired into them. These would be used in the floor of the connecting passageway between the two buildings. We are hoping to have the smaller tiles available for around $25.00 and the larger for $100.00. We will keep you informed as we get more information on this, and other projects.

Keep your eyes on your local papers for the latest information on these activities

Dr. James Harber purchased tax rolls from 1861-1910 on microfilm from the Texas State Library in Austin. He also donated a roll of microfilm which deals with a variety of subjects including the battle where Claron A. Windus won the Medal of Honor.

Mrs. J. Lee Ballantyne donated all her back issues of the Desert Magazine which provides a wealth of information from the past. These will join our back issues of National Geographic. She also donated the works of Joseph Conrad and O. Henry which will add strength to our classics collection.

Mrs. Jewel Robinson is currently having the history of her building (The Flatiron Building) traced and has promised us a copy of the resulting document. Perhaps this will become a common occurrence which would greatly increase the probability that newcomers and visitors would be able to obtain information about our many historical buildings.

Thanks to Dr. Harber, Mrs. Ballantyne, and Mrs. Robinson for their gifts to the library.

We have received several new books dealing specifically with the Cherokee Indian Tribe, and generally with other Southwestern Tribes.

If you did not attend the April 15 meeting of "The Friends," you missed an important one. Please watch for future meetings.

As always we invite you to visit the coolest, friendliest Little Library in Kinney County.

Coca-Cola USA and Texas Coca-Cola Bottlers are contributing 50,000 33-gallon trash bags to the volunteer cleanup effort and launching extensive efforts to promote the Don't Mess with Texas antilitter message.

The Coca-Cola system also will provide aluminum-can recycling bins and one million book covers bearing the antilitter message to schools in the fall. In mid-April, half-a-million automobile litterbags will be available free at displays for Coca-Cola classic in retail stores throughout Texas.

"We are proud of the thousands of Texas volunteers who participate in our antilitter programs," said Mr.Clark. "Their efforts to make America litter-free reflect the community spirit which prevails in our great state.

"Our public-private partnership with Coca-Cola helps ensure the continuing success of these much needed environmental programs. The Coca-Cola system's commitment to Don't Mess with Texas gives the campaign tremendous visibility."

In May, the antilitter message will be seen on packages of Coca-Cola classic and caffeine-free Coca-Cola classic.

Rain Doesn't Halt Cleanup

Brackett News Contributing Writer

Rain on the morning of Thursday. April 11, did not stop the Fort Clark Springs VFW Post # 8360, and its' Ladies Auxiliary from honoring their committment to keep Texas clean. They have a contract with the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation to clean a stretch of roadway on each side of a two-mile stretch of Highway 90 just East of Brackettville four times a year.

Post Commander Tom Faulkenberry, Donald Kimberlin, Thomas (Gerry) Whalen, Lee Cremer, R. H. Salmon, Walt Fithian, Darryl Earwood, and Auxiliary President Dot Fithian met at the Highway Department at 9:30 to pick up trash bags and reflective vests furnished by the Department. After the bags are filled with litter, they are left by the side of the highway for pick-up by Highway Department trucks.

Wet and hungry, at 11:15, the workers returned to the NCO Club for hot dogs, chili, baked beans, salads and desserts prepared and served by Food Chairman Ellen Hazelton, Eva Ashby, Hazel Earwood, Jonnie Salmon, Marge Geeze, Lydia Cremer, Inez Kimberlin, Deronda Kimberlin, Jean Faulkenberry, Josie Monroy, and Marcie LanCelle.

The rain was a blessing, the highway is clean, and the fellowship was great. Next pick-up will be in June.

It is claimed by some members of the male population, that back in the beginning, when the game of golf originated that the letters G.O.L.F. stood for "Gentlemen Only Ladies Forbidden." Well, guys, if this is true someone neglected to tell Mary, Queen of Scots, back in the 1500s because she was so fascinated by the game that she sometimes ignored her queenly duties in favor of chasing that little white ball.

Today there are almost as many avid women players as there are men who play. At Fort Clark, we have one of the most active Ladies Clubs in the country. Now that the Spring Fling is history, exciting plans are being made by the ladies for fall. The Sugar and Spice Tournament is scheduled for October 18 & 19.

Now that spring is definitely here, and it has been a wet one the past couple of weeks, it has presented a mowing problem. It is almost impossible to keep up with the sudden burst of growth. Please bear with the Club Manager, have patience, and soon our course will be green, well-mowed, and beautiful again.

Our compliments go out to maintenance for our great looking sign. Monday Golf Scramble

On Monday, April 15, at 9:00 a.m., six teams of four each participated in the Florida Scramble at the 3-par course.

With a 2 under par 25, the team of Charlie Smith, Bob Burkpile, Dutch Schoolfield, and Ron Frisby won 1st place.

Four teams tied for second at even par. To determine an outright 2nd place winner, each of the four teams chose their best chipper for a chip-off on number 4 green. Chosen to represent the teams were Bob Barnett, Charles Evans, Carl Bordiga, and Roger Berset.

Bob Barnett was closest to the hole to win for his team of Jan Chism, Lou Sofaly, and Frank Eckenroth.

Were you aware that Brackettville had a horse race track? According to our historical experts Mrs. Vondy, Ms. Wilson, and Ms. Sauer, the track was situated in the same area as Tiger Football Field is today. A 10 cent racing program of April 1932 was exhibited.

Mr. Warren Outlaw offered an album of photos from approximately 1896 thru the 1940's. Old buildings that were in their hey-day were displayed.

Mrs. Agnes Vondy and Ms. Charles Wilson were recognized as Smithsonian Institute Members.

Archives preserves and makes available records that date from very early days to the present. To preserve documents, the temperature and safety should be especially considered.

Libraries' archives should have certain conditions to be present for adequate preservation. Sometimes library patrons are willing to donate their private collections if they feel that such collections are preserved for research and study by future generations.

AUSTIN- Hunters donated more than 7,000 pounds of venison to 13 food banks across the state during last winter's Hunters for the Hungry program.

The program, in its first year, received 7,411 pounds of venison from 212 deer. That provided about 22,233 meals for the hungry, according to figures from the End Hunger Network. Hunters for the Hungry is supported by the End Hunger Network-Houston, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, the Texas Department of Agriculture, the Texas Department of Health, and the Exotic Wildlife Association.

The venison was given to members of the Texas Association of Second Harvest Food Banks, who then distributed the food to agencies who feed the hungry, Klinger said. "It all went to volunteer organizations who feed the hungry."

The areas participating cover many parts of the state. The two cities with the most donations were San Angelo and Austin. Other cities participating were Amarillo, College Station, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, McAllen, Odessa, San Antonio, Tyler, Victoria, and Waco.

Organizers will meet in May or June to work on a plan for next season. The Fort Clark Springs Community Council met at Town Hall on Saturday, April 13. President Richard Hirsch called the meeting to order, commented on the straw-vote results, and the March 31 Financial Report given at the Fort Clark Springs Association Annual meeting. He also announced that the proposed Bylaws revisions would be voted on at the May 11, 1991, Community Council meeting.

A motion passed to pay 1/2, or a maximum of $750.00, for fish to restock Las Moras Creek. A motion was passed to pledge $500.00 to The Friends of the Library for the library expansion. Also approved was an expenditure of $3,000.00 for tables, chairs, and a cabinet should the former NATT Sales Building become available for use by the Community Council for bingo, and other activities.

Plans were made for volunteers to meet at 2 p.m. Monday at the Adult Center to start repainting street signs on the Fort. Re-numbering properties was listed as another concern. Members are getting back to the "good ole days" when the Community Council had a lot of fun projects going for the good of the Fort.

The Honorable Tim Ward, judge of Kinney County was the guest speaker. He traced some county history - in 1873, a parcel of land was taken from Val Verde County to form Kinney County. The first Kinney County judge was J. Robinson. In 1919, four different men served as county judge. Judge Ward is the 22nd judge of Kinney County. Tommy Seargeant is the only other living man who served as a Kinney County judge. The first county owned courthouse (1910) is now owned by the Masonic Lodge and also houses the Kinney County Appraisal District offices.

Judge Ward named the responsibilities of the county judge, and they are many. He said that the current budget is $1 million, and that the county has 41 full-time employees. Among the many concerns the county is now working on are redistricting and a storm warning system.

Judge Ward made special remarks concerning the necessity that young people, as well as older people, need to have valid wills and that the will be kept in a prominent place where it can be easily found at a person's demise. Otherwise, the state becomes responsible for the settling of the estate.

At the request of the people, Judge Ward agreed to come back at a later time to discuss specific topics in detail.

Door prizes were won by Vern Ebert, and Anna Owen.

The next meeting will be at 9 a.m. Saturday, May 11, in the Sabre Room.

County Agent News by Allan L. McWilliams

Energy conservation is a word we do not seem to hear as much as we used to. But it is still something we must be concerned about and deal with. Did you know you can conserve energy around your home by planting and strategically placing trees, shrubs and vines in the landscape? Homeowners can reduce the energy required to keep homes and surrounding areas more comfortable during environmental extremes.

Plant decidous trees on the south and west sides of your home to reduce inside summer temperatures up to 8 degrees. Place the trees a minimum of 20 feet from the house. Two or three well placed trees are usually adequate for the south and west sides of the average home. When the deciduous trees drop their leaves, the winter sun warms the home

Planting evergreen windbreaks on the north and northwest sides of the home can eventually cut winter fuel bills. Maximum wind reduction is achieved by placing windbreaks a distance of 4 to 6 times their mature height from the home.

For example, groups of Afghan pines should be placed no more than 100-150 feet from the home. Twelve to 15 foot spacings of these pines in staggered rows are most effective on a large scale. Windbreaks can be grouped with other evergreens in plantings that are not necessarily straight lines for a more natural and attractive effect in the landscape. This same type of windbreak planting can be placed beyond the deciduous trees on the southeast side of the property to help control strong spring winds. Windbreak plantings require water and weed control.

Vines can have a cooling effect on outside walls that receive direct summer sun. Trellised Virginia creeper, Boston Ivy, honeysuckle, trumpet vine, silverlace vine, wisteria or queens wreath can absorb the rays of the sun on southern and western walls. Evergreen species such as English ivy and yellow jessamine are effective on sunless walls where their persistent foliage deflects winter winds and insulates. Vines may also be trained on overhead structures above terraces.

Dear Friends:

Thank you for this opportunity to address you. By now you have probably heard me speak about "Points of Light." By Points of Light, I mean the countless number of individuals and organizations-places of worship, businesses, schools, unions, clubs, groups, and other institutions -- who, by engaging in direct and consequential community service, share responsibility for solving the social problems that darken too many lives Historically houses of worship have been the centers of their communities. No other institution in our society has done more over the years to help those in need. Houses of worship have served as forces of reconciliation and healing, as beacons of compassion and hope. We cannot measure the good that has sprung from the hearts of people whose love of God has moved them to help someone else.

While government has a critical role to play in meeting social needs, there is an equally critical role for communities. And so it is with the active engagement of people and in-

A rousing dramatization of the infamous "monkey trial" will light up the Uvalde Grand Opera House when Inherit the Wind opens on April 19. Presented by The Uvalde Arts Council and Southwest Texas Junior College, the drama recounts and explores the renowned trial and the recurrent questions it stirred up.

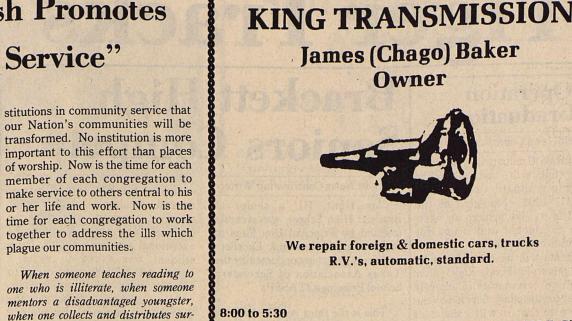

The drama's characters are vivid recreations of the well-known persons who played the key parts in that early-day media event. The titanic struggle between the prosecution and defense and the adherents of each is the essence of good theatre, and the dramatic climax when the people's favorite falls from favor is a moment of both triumph and pity.

Marilyn Nunley is directing Inherit the Wind. Performances are April 19, 20, 26, and 27th at 8:00 p.m. and April 21 at 2:30 p.m. tickets are on sale and seats may be reserved by calling the Grand Opera House box office at (512) 278-4184.

Drowning Number One Killer Of Farm Children

Brackett News Contributing Writer

With summer coming on, more and more rural children will be heading for the nearest stock tank or river to cool off. However, their parents should know that drowning has been the number one killer of Texas farm children in the last five years.

Twenty-three deaths or 30 percent of the total recorded child fatalities resulted from drowning, said Thomas Valco, agricultural engineer with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

Most of the accidents occurred during the summer months and occurred when children were swimming in stock tanks, stepped in water over their head, fell into an irrigation ditch, or fell into a flooded creek.

"Farm ponds and stock tanks are popular but all have contributed to accidental drownings." Valco said.

"Victims range in age from toddlers to young adults. Children get too close to the water and lose their balance. Others wade in shallow water and fall into deeper holes, he said.

Lack of close adult supervision, underestimating a child's curiosity, and adults overestimating a child's sense of judgment all contribute to drownings, he said.

'Even though a child verbally acknowledges a warning, it does not mean that he or she understands the hazard or risk," he said.

The short attention span of a child, plus the attractiveness of the water as a play area, render most verbal instructions ineffective, Valco said.

In general, he recommended that all ponds and tanks be fenced and posted to keep uninvited persons out. Non-posted, non-fenced tanks increase the risk of a lawsuit if uninvited simmers drown.

"Restrict entrance to your pond or tank." he said.

Supervisors must be alert at all times, he said.

"Drowning is a silent killer. When a child drowns, a supervisor won't hear a cry or even a splash," he said.

He suggested other tips to avoid drowning tragedies:

...Don't allow children to play near water without close supervision.

.. Teach children at the earliest possible age how to swim or at least how to stay afloat until rescued. Even if a child has had swimming lessons, don't consider him or her water safe.

.. An adult supervisor should never lose eye contact with a child playing near a pond or tank. In seconds, a child can leave, walk to the edge of the water, and drown in only a few inches of water. .. If for any reasons you discover the child to be missing, check the pool, pond, creek or stock tank first.

..Learn how to perform CPR on infants and young people. Contact your local chapter of the American Heart Association or American Red Cross about registering for classes. ...Know the telephone numbers to call for emergency medical service.

At the beginning of Paleozoic era, animal life was entirely confined to the seas. The characteristic animals of the Cambrian Age were the trilabites, and among the Mollusks, the earliest snails existed in this period.

The Paleozoic life dates back to 450,000,000 years ago. So you can see why Mr. Duran is proud of his find, especially since both fossils are complete ones.

Chamber Meets

The Nueces Canyon Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met at the Old Timer Restaurant in Camp Wood on Tuesday, April 9, the day before the regular Chamber meeting.

Most of the directors' meeting was taken up with the appointment of people to help on different committees for the Old Settlers Reunion on the first Saturday in August. A list of the Committees, and who are on them, will be available at a later date.

Bill Dillard from the First State Bank in Uvalde announced that the bank had made application for a mobile bank in Camp Wood. He said that there was a 30 day waiting period after the application was made to see if it was ok-ed. No time was given as to when the bank would be in operation.

There is going to be a lot of new things in connection with the Old Settlers Reunion concerning Lindburgh who crashed his airplane in Camp Wood many years ago. Lindburgh Park will have a rededication service with a lot of other events concerning Lindburgh. Among other things discussed was the the 22nd World Soaring Championships to be held in Uvalde July 19 through August 11, 1991, and how the Canyon could tie in to that event with the Old Settlers Reunion by having a Camp Wood Day at the Soaring Championships. It would draw a lot of people to the Old Settlers Reunion.

Cal Newton announced that the new telephone booth in Montell was being used.

Turkey Stamp

Senator Bill Sims of San Angelo has introducted two bills: a turkey stamp, and a non-resident turkey hunting license. The two bills passed the Texas Senate and will be going to The House this week.

The stamp would cost $7.00 and be required in addition to a hunting license to hunt turkey.

It was stated that the revenue generated by the bill would be earmarked for turkey research and restoration of the eastern species of wild turkeys in East Texas.

If this bill passes The House, and is signed by gov. Ann Richards, the law would go into effect on September 1, 1991.

Old Friend Passes On

We lost another good friend, not only to me, but many others as well, when Alex Barragan was laid to rest in Uvalde on Saturday, April 7, 1991.

I first met Alex back in the early 50's when I was working with the Community Council Program out of Uvalde.

Barragan was a well-known area musician playing the trumpet and violin for many events including the Old Settlers Reunion here in Camp Wood.

In 1930, Barragan organized his own band which was the "Uvalde Serenaders." Alex played the trumpet, Santana Tafolla played the banjo, Gonzalo (Primo) Oriegas the saxophone, Tine Martinez played the drums. Later, Louise Pope joined the group as the pianist. This was when I saw them play.

Alex Barragan, Jr., will surely be missed by his many musician friends.

Around The Canyon

The First Baptist Church in Camp Wood has announced that their Vacation Bible School will be held June 24 - 26.

The Bible School will be three full days this year. Everyone is encouraged to sign up to work. If you want to have part, then please let them know in plenty of time, so they will know who all their workers will be. They need your help.

Rains Greatly Appreaciated

The rains came some time Thursday night, along with lightning, thunder, and some wind. I measured only 1 inch in my gauge, while our neighbors to the north of us in Barksdale measured more. H. N. Barrows, who lives near the north city limits of Camp Wood, reported 1.10, and Lori Wright in Barksdale gauged 2.50. In Montell, Freida Rogers reported only .09 inch of rain, but a mile south of Mon-tell 2 inches was recorded. What rain we did get was greatly appreciated as it was getting dry.

Saturday night lightning was visible to the south and northeast of town, but it was too far for us to receive any moisture.

Meditations by Preston Taylor

A new sense of joy, of exhilaration belongs to every Christian -- or its potential awaits discovery.

Our sins are forgiven. When we come to faith in Jesus Christ, He takes our sins away. He buries them 'in the depths of the sea...He casts them behind His back, never to be remembered against us anymore...They are removed from us as far as the east is from the west." All this is Scripture.

We have a new sense of strength. The Holy Spirit abides in the life of every Christian. One who has Jesus has the Spirit of God dwelling in Him. He, the Spirit, is present to give unlimited strength -- divine power. Now we can "do all things through Christ who strengthens us.'

St. Andrews

We have a new fellowship. We're part of the "body of Christ." It's great to come together three and four times a week with fellow Christians. The early Christians usually met every day!

We have the assurance that our names are written "in the Lamb's 5:00 p.m. at Chapel A of Don's Book of life." This excites any one who makes the grand discovery. All fears vanish. Because Jesus has conquered the grave, death, and sin, we are on the Victor's side. We, too, "shall overcome."

The big invitation from God's Word is that each one come to personal repentance and faith in Jesus Christ. No one matches what God offers those who trust Him.
