A school-wide Halloween Carnival will be held in the school cafeteria Saturday, November 2, from 6-9 p.m.

There will be booths, games, and concessions. There is no admission charge for the carnival. Kids can participate in a haunted house, duck pond, and ring toss. Bingo will be sponsored by the middle school student council at $1 per Bingo card.

Prizes for the evening have been donated by local and area sponsors.

IN EARLY OCTOBER, I was chastizing today's "millionaire baseball players," whom, I charged, were ruining the sport. Guess what? A team that hasn't a single millionaire; in fact not even close, has just won the World Series!

How sad that longtime owner, the late Gene Autry, didn't live to see his beloved Angels finally win a World Series. In fact, they won in their first-ever appearance in baseball's Big Show, playing in what was the first all-wildcard series.

Autry, the singing cowboy of Saturday movie fame, was awarded a franchise, and his California Angels debuted in 1961, which was also the year the Texas Rangers had their start-up in Arlington, as their owners bought the former Washington Senators and moved the team to Texas.

The Angels quickly became the sentimental favorite in the '02 World Series. With the possible exception of the Minnesota Twins, the Angels may have had the lowest average salaries in the majors in the season just ended.

It may have helped save Major League Baseball from extinction in the fact that the Angels and Twins advanced to the league championship series, after the Angels eliminated the N.Y. Yankees.

While it was the California team's first-ever World Series, their opponent, San Francisco's Giants, had only been there one other time, in 1989. The Giants started out in New York. Their last World Series title was in 1954, led by the young Willie Mays, and coached by Leo Durocher.

Ye Editor, with friends Clinton Dillard, Wayne Bristow and Joe Coffey, followed the Giants that year. The team made an amazing comeback from about 20 games behind Brooklyn's Dodgers, to win the pennant after a one-game playoff. That's when I became a baseball fan. We couldn't see many games on TV at that time, but listened to the radio broadcasts!

Rounding out the Angels' "rags to riches" season is the fact that John Lackey, 24, became the first rookie to gain a seventh-game series win in 93 years this past Sunday!

Lackey was born and raised in Abilene, Texas, where he pitched high school baseball. He wasn't even on the Angels' roster until June of this year, having started the season with the Anaheim team's AAA farm club, Salt Lake City.

Having bounced from one minor league team to another in recent years, Lackey had worked in the off-season at such jobs as a pest exterminator. His wife was working as a waitress to help the pair make ends meet.

Since his future in baseball was in doubt, the Lackeys had stored their furniture in Albuquerque, N.M., planning to get it after the season, when they'd know for sure where they would be headed. Lackey's World Series bonus may be more than he earned the rest of the 2002 season!

Last Sunday evening, the Angels' manager hoped Lackey would give the team five strong innings. The game was supposed to belong to Ramon Ortiz, but he developed tendonitis in his right wrist. Lackey, who had pitched the previous Wednesday, was moved up a notch due to the injury.

Lackey retired the first four batters he faced, including Barry Bonds. In fact, he was one of the few Angel pitchers to challenge Bonds, and got him out twice and gave up only a single to the Giants' home run king, who set homer records in spite of being walked several times during the series.

The World Series hero is bigger than he might have looked on TV, at 6-6 and 205 pounds. He had a 9-4 record for the Angels, pitching 18 games with a 3.66 earned-run average. He struck out 69 and walked only 35.

Lisa Lane Landed First Place Money in Contest

She missed the first four high school games on the Week 9 entry form. But she aced the next 12 to be the only Week 9 contestant to pick as many as 12 correct. So the $20 first place check goes to Lisa Lane of Bovina:

Only one player managed to pick 11 correct. That would be Eufemia Torres of Muleshoe who carries away the $10 second place check.

We used the (Go Cowboys) tie-breaker of Dallas 14, Seattle 17 to determine the winner of the $5 third place dough among the four contestants that picked 10 correct.

Peggy Hargrove of Bovina was only 5 points off to win third place. The other three at 10 correct and their points off the tie-breaker were Bruce Scroggins 6, Susan Kerby 7, Sally Gonzalez 8.

Blake Sudderth of Austin, who managed only 8 correct in Week 9, did hold on to the overall point total lead with

93. Next best is 89 by Jo Blackwell, Jeremy Dearing and Roy Lee Stowers. Standings are elsewhere in the paper.

There are four more weeks left until we award the $150 grand prize to some lucky contestant. Good luck and good pickin'!

St. Ann's Turkey Dinner Nov. 3

St. Ann's Catholic Church of Bovina will sponsor their annual turkey dinner Sunday, November 3. Serving time is 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Parish Hall.

Menu is turkey, dressing, creamed potatoes, gravy, green beans, cranberry sauce, relish plate, homemade bread, desserts, tea and coffee. Donations are $7 for adults and $3 for children under 6 years. Take out will be available at no additional cost.

Bummer: Free Burger & Parent's Night Forfeited

After a lot of excitement, work and generous donations, the free burger tailgate party and parent's night had to be canceled. Bovina's game with Kress, scheduled for tonight, November 1, will not be played. Due to a lack of players remaining on the squad, Kress has forfeited the last three games of its district schedule.

The free hamburger tailgate party, sponsored by the Bovina Fire Department, Excel, Lowe's and the Lion's Club is tentatively rescheduled for November 12, prior to the Bovina basketball games with Olton. More details later.

Caprock Contributes to Community Network

The unique BCN program makes computers available to the community. In addition, more than 160 high school students are able to "checkout" computers to use at home.

"This project will help bridge the technological gap that exists in many rural communities today by allowing people access to technology when they would not otherwise get the opportunity," said Lonnie Busch, general manager of Caprock Cattle Feeders in Bovina. "Caprock and Cargill are pleased to do our part to address this growing local need and we look forward to future opportunities to partner on worthy community projects."

This contribution was jointly funded by Caprock Feeders and the Cargill Partnership Fund, a corporate program that matches contributions made by Cargill facilities to support special projects and services in their communities.

Through volunteerism, partnerships and grant-making, Cargill contributes more than $18 million each year to civic and charitable organizations to help fulfill the company's vision to be the global leader in nourishing people. In recognition of Cargill employees and retirees' commitment to the community, Cargill was the recipient of the Points of Light Foundation 2001 Award for Excellence in Corporate Communications.

Since 1996, Cargill has owned and operated the Caprock Feeders location in Bovina which produces more than 115,000 head of cattle annually. Cargill, Inc. is an international marketer, processor and distributor of agricultural, food, financial and industrial products and services with 97,000 employees in 59 countries. The company provides distinctive customer solutions in supply chain management, food applications and health and nutrition.

Nazareth Swifts Slam 'Stangs 41-13

Bovina traveled to Nazareth last Friday. The Swifts welcomed them with 413 yards of offense and a 41-13 whipping.

After the forfeit by Kress tonight, Bovina now has a 4-5 record and ends the season at Farwell next Friday night.

Senior receiver B. J. Shepherd scored 12 of the 13 points for Bovina on two pass receptions for touchdowns from Jeff Casas. His performance earned Shepherd the offensive player-of-the-game plaudits from the coaching staff.

The Mustangs had 144 hard earned yards rushing. Nemecio Rodriguez led with 11 for 44 yards. John Nelson was 9 for 46, Jonathan Chisom was 9 for 27, Casas was 6 for 27 and Jake Steelman carried one time for minus 3 yards.

On the year, Rodriguez has carried 123 times for 842 yards, a 6.8 yard per carry average.

Go Maroon! Beat Farwell!

"Scary Tactics Often Seem To Work"

Politics has become a nasty business. In many ways, so has religion.

It is Halloween season, a totally useless celebration in my opinion. Why can't we just let kids knock on the door and ask for candy any time they like without the ghosts and goblins stuff?

But the scary tactics are not reserved for harmless little kids dressed like demons and princesses running around the neighborhood gathering candy.

The scariest tactics are being carried on every day by supposedly intelligent adults who think the rest of us are total idiots incapable of having even one thought that matters.

To be more specific, I'm referring to Democrats and religious morons, both of whom want to scare you into next week and make you think the world is coming to an end unless you let them handle it.

(Did you ever stop and think that all the people who say the world is coming to an end will be dead and gone when the world actually does come to an end?)

There are enough things in life that scare me. Like the fact that Wal Mart already has the store packed with Christmas stuff. And the really scary part is, people are already buying it.

We are not supposed to be afraid of Islam either 'cause it is a nice, peaceful religion. The only trouble is, all the killers and terrorists today are named Willie Joe Muhammad, or Saleyah Shalon Abdul Johnson.

And they kill people like you and me in the name of Islam and their god which they choose to call Allah. And I'm not supposed to be angry and afraid?

You don't see any serial snipers named Bobby Joe Enright murdering people in the name of the Baptist faith. Besides, I've never been very scared of a Baptist.

Except some of the Baptist preachers when I was a kid in Hillsboro tried to scare us with sermons warning about eternal hellfire and brimstone, especially if we didn't come to Sunday School next Sunday.

Election Day is next Tuesday. Democrats and Republicans don't really care about you and me. They care about their political careers, their re-elections and maintaining a majority for their party in the House and Senate.

Our esteemed and highly dignified "gubernatorial" candidates in Texas should both be in prison if the campaign ads are to be believed.

Democrats in New Jersey showed total disregard for the law when Bob Torrecelli quit the Senate race. Anything to keep a Democrat on the ballot.

Same in Minnesota. Paul Wellstone met a violent and tragic death in an airplane crash. Instead of reverence, 20,000 Minnesotans, plus Billy Jeff Clinton and Algore turned a memorial service into a 4-hour political rally. Keep the seat at all costs. The dead (and most of the living) be damned.

It was a blatant and nasty spectacle. They should be ashamed, but there is no shame in politics. They like to scare us that the Republicans are going to take away Social Security, or the Democrats are going to take away our guns.

Is there a solution? Yes.

Go vote Tuesday.

And it isn't enough that Islam is scaring the "bejeebers" out of everybody. Some folks over in Clovis, New Mexico, are saying that nearly half of the people who accept Biblical prophecy believe that the antichrist is on earth now.

For you folks in Bootleg, my dictionary defines antichrist as a great antagonist expected to fill the world with wickedness but to be conquered forever by Christ at his second coming. If he (or it) is on Earth now, does that mean the second coming is coming soon? Some think so.

The Time of the Beast. That was the title of the Prophecy Crusade in Clovis. The brochure about the crusade had a picture on the front of five really mean looking red dragons and a woman who was dressed like Wonder Woman trying to beat 'em up or ride on 'em.

One of their seminars, "Countdown to Armageddon" said that we are living on the eve of Armageddon, but there is also a bright future. I didn't go find out what kind of bright future could remain after "the battle on the great day of God Almighty." (Revelation 16:14)

It also warns to stay awake and keep your clothes with you "so that he may not go naked and be shamefully exposed." Which, if the world is going to end and you are going with it, I'm not sure how important clothes would be at that particular moment.

Some other topics they listed were: As the World Ends; Revelation's Hell Fire; The Beast 666 Identified; and The New World Order.

Kind of scary isn't it? We live in scary times. But I don't believe in "scare" religion any more than I approve of "scare" politics. It is presumptuous to think we can predict when the world will end or what the federal government will do.

Life today seems to be just one big trick or treat. Scary isn't it.

Dear Fellow West Texans:

When I first ran for Congress, I promised I would bring honest, disciplined leadership to the problems facing us. I have tried to do that.

During this Congress we passed many important pieces of legislation. We passed the largest tax reduction in history. We strengthened both our military and our homeland security against terrorism. We enacted a comprehensive farm bill and educational legislation. All of this, in my view, will benefit the people of West Texas.

While these accomplishments will improve the lives of people here in West Texas, I believe there are still great challenges ahead. We must have a comprehensive energy plan that promotes, not restricts, oil and gas production. We must provide our citizens with better access to affordable health care. I believe with the strong leadership of President George W. Bush, we can accomplish this. With your vote I believe these things can be accomplished.

Sincerely,

C O N G R E S S M A N

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

ENEMIES, NOT FRIENDS!

MOSES' ADMONITION TO THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL TO STAND SEPARATE FROM HEATHEN WAYS REMAINED A PART OF THEIR HERITAGE DOWN THE AGES. EVER SINCE THEIR DEPARTURE FROM EGYPT TRADITION DEMANDED THE HEBREWS AVOID FRATERNIZATION WITH PAGAN WORSHIPERS, STAYING WITHIN THEIR OWN FAITH. IT WAS THOUGHT THAT ONLY BY THIS MEANS COULD A TRUE WORSHIP OF GOD REMAIN SACRED AND PURE, BUT THE STRINGENCY OF THEIR TEACHINGS CAUSED MUCH TROUBLE AND MISUNDERSTANDING WITH THE PEOPLE WITH WHOM THEY CAME IN CONTACT. IN THEIR WANDERINGS THEY MET MANY PEOPLE AND THE TEMPTATION TO DEVIATE FROM THE STRICTNESS OF THEIR LAWS WAS ALWAYS PRESENT. ALMOST A THOUSAND YEARS LATER MOSES' STERN INSTRUCTION WAS FRESH IN THEIR MEMORY. AS IN THE CASE OF ZERUBBABEL, LEADING THE JEWS IN THE REBUILDING OF THE TEMPLE AT JERUSALEM, A DELEGATION OF SAMARITANS ARRIVES OFFERING HELP.....

...THE SAMARITANS SUGGEST THAT THEY HELP THE JEWS TO BUILD THE TEMPLE FOR, THEY SAY, "WE WORSHIP THE SAME GOD." ZERUBBABEL, THE LEADER OF THE JEWS, KNOWS THAT A GREAT DANGER LIES IN THIS CRAFTY SUGGESTION, FOR, IF HE ACCEPTS THE HELP, THE SAMARITANS WILL ALSO HAVE ACCESS TO THE TEMPLE AFTER IT IS BUILT AND SOON WICKED, PAGAN PRACTICES WILL CREEP INTO THE DAILY LIFE OF THE JEWS—HE ANGERS THE DELEGATION BY COLDLY REFUSING THEIR OFFER!

New help for rural Texas

The Office of Rural Community Affairs (ORCA) was created in 2001 during the 77th legislative session to provide programs targeting rural Texas communities focusing on the state's health, economic and community development.

It is also designed to coordinate rural programs offered by the various agencies across the state.

ORCA is composed of the Community Development, Outreach and Training Services and Rural Health units.

Clinics Are Set For Nov.

Immunization clinics offering vaccines protecting against several childhood diseases are scheduled for November throughout several Panhandle communities.

Protection will be against polio, diphtheria, lock-jaw (tetanus), whooping cough (pertussis), measles, rubella, mumps, HIB (Haemophilus Influenzae Type B) and varicella (chicken pox).

All flu clinics are for high-risk individuals only, including people who are 65 years old or older, people with chronic illnesses, or people living with someone with a chronic illness. Costs are $10 for flu vaccine and $15 for pneumonia vaccine, for those without Medicare.

The Texas Department of Health is charging fees to help with the cost of keeping the clinic open. The amount of money charged will be based on family income and size, and the ability of the individual or family to pay, but no one will be turned away if not able to pay.

The vaccinations will be administered at 616 Euclid in Friona, Friday, November 15, from 9:30-11:30 a.m. and 1-3:45 p.m.

Vaccinations will also be available at the Bovina EMS Building, Monday, November 4, from 10-11:45 a.m. and 1-3 p.m.
