On Forthcoming Vote --

Citizens Express Varied Opinions

Cash and Mildred Richards and family moved to Lubbock a couple of weeks ago. But they kept their home here, too.

Cash says that he isn't going to officially move until summer. "Then I'm going in my wagon (which has been a regular feature of parades in which members of Bovina Roping Club rode during the past couple of years) which will be pulled by my mules, Blondie and Dagwood."

The way Cash figures it is that after he gets the trip made and it's story-telling time in Lubbock, he'll be able to accurately tell that he moved there "in '67" in a wagon pulled by a team of mules.

He is evidently one of those people who believes good conversation is one of the things which help make the world go 'round.

We're inclined to agree with that way of thinking, of course.

This Spring-like weather in January is the greatest thing since indoor plumbing. If you like it, enjoy it; it isn't going to last forever.

Mention of "nice" weather brings to mind the fact that it has also been dry... as well as warm. Commenting on that subject, a wiseguy said this week, "We probably won't get any rain until this dry spell is over."

"Yeah, uh huh," is about the only appropriate comment with which to reply to such a statement.

Weather predictions are a touchy subject. needless to say. But they can also be expensive at one business place in Bovina. It cost a quarter at Bonds Oil Co. to quote a certain Amarillo TV weatherman. They have a cigar box appropriately labeled with a coin (quarter-size) slot in it. Anybody guilty of quoting the aforementioned weatherman is eligible to drop a 25-cent piece in the box.

As we understand the situation, it's all right to predict the weather, but you'd best be careful about where you get your information.

Unless you're qualified, and certainly we're not, it's bad business to predict the weather. We tried it last Fall, even though we knew it was a poor policy, and sure enough, no sooner had we done it than we were wishing we hadn't.

We guessed that the Winter of '66-'67 (this one) was going to be a hard one.

First, Bovina Weatherman Willie Williams cautioned us about infringing on his territory. We've long had an agreement that if we wouldn't predict the weather, he wouldn't sell any newspaper advertising.

Second, the Winter turned out to be a mild one. Not hard at all. This will remain true, we're thinking, no matter what the remainder of the cold weather season holds. Too much of this Winter is already passed for this one to be considered a rough one.

A good portion of this page of this week's issue of The Blade is devoted to Tuesday's voting on the school bond election. We'd hope that voters could find all the information they want in this information. This is, however, probably an impossibility; but an honest effort has been made by The Blade staff to present the information as we understand it.

Certainly, we've tried to print all the facts that we're aware of, nevermind what our personal opinion is about the election.

We've been somewhat disappointed that people against the election haven't explained their views in The Blade via the letters to the editor column. A couple of letters from people favoring the election have appeared in recent weeks.

A sidelight of the Tuesday election will be the voter turnout under the present no-poll tax voting system. This will, of course, be the first election here that has been completely divorced from the need for a poll tax.

A public opinion poll within the Bovina Independent School District was taken recently with citizens asked to express their feelings on the school bond election, which is scheduled for Tuesday.

Several voters had not made up their minds on the issues, both being presented for construction for the Bovina Schools and others preferred not to be quoted.

However, 15 citizens gave their opinions on the issue, both pro and con. Names were chosen at random from the telephone directory.

Of those whose opinions were given, eight were women and seven were men. They include people who have school age children, those who no longer have children in school, and some who have pre-school age children. Some are connected with businesses in Bovina and others are connected with farming.

Consensus of opinion of those expressed here seemed to be split about half and half.

Following are some of the comments made by citizens: Mrs. Dellie Horton: "I don't want it because it will make the taxes too high. I don't believe in raising taxes. I am a widow lady and can hardly pay them now."

James C. Russell: "This is possibly something that is needed and will be needed in the near future. The boys in there (on the school board) know what's needed."

Mrs. Oakley Stevenson: "I'm for the classrooms if they need them. Educating the children comes before athletics. Of course, I'm for helping athletics, but education comes first."

F. R. Burnett: "I'm against it. I think if they'd put more into book work instead of athletics we'd be better off. I'm for progress, but in the right way."

O. W. Rhinehart: "It is out of time to consider a bond election right now. We are at the very pinnacle of high interest rates of the last 50 years. We might save money by waiting another year. It would cost $25,000 to $30,000 a year overhead expenses for separate plants over the one plant system. We should be sure of projected population trend. Some towns increase, but there are indications of a decline here."

Tom Bonds: "I think we sure need it. The schools are getting crowded and need more room. The cafeteria needs more room. Kids have to rush through and don't have time to eat. I think the cafeteria is a big factor. I'm for it 100 per cent."

Mrs. Lillian Rogers: "I am in favor of having a better school, but not in favor of a tax raise. I haven't really made up my mind."

Mrs. Henry Minter: "I think we need the school, if we need the room we need it. I was for it the last time and will be the next time. Our community is as good as the school. If you find a school run down, you find the community run down."

Outcome Vital --

Austin Conference Holds Dam Future

Bovina and Parmer County citizens met with the Texas Highway Commission in Austin Tuesday to secure help from the state in raising the Oklahoma Lane FM Road which crosses Running Water Draw.

No reports have been received as yet as to the outcome, but whether or not Bovina receives the help may decide whether or not a dam can be built at a site on the George Trimble farm at the south edge of Bovina.

Travelling to Austin for the conference were Mayor Bedford Caldwell; Chamber of Com-

Bovina I.S.D. Bond Election February 7, 1967

(NOTE: Voter's signature to be affixed on the reverse side)

Ballot Features 3 Propositions

Tuesday, taxpayers living within the boundaries of Bovina Independent School District will go to the polls for the third time within the past 12 months to mark a ballot for or against a school construction program here.

Three proposals, totaling $268,000, will be submitted to the voters and will be voted upon separately, as they were in the December election, when they were turned down. A $600,000 bond issue was vetoed last spring.

This election was called after a petition signed by 56 citizens of the district was submitted to the school board. A meeting had previously been held to hear opinions of the voters and to explain any phases of the program which have been declared by board members as needed in Bovina.

Polls will be open to voters at the American Legion Hall from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Tuesday.

Absentee ballots may be marked at the office of Mrs. Pearl Dodson, school tax assessor-collector, through this Friday, according to Bob Estes, fiscal agent.

The proposals on the Feb. 7 ballot include a $212,000 elementary school and cafeteria to be built on land purchased last year by the school district on Ninth Street. It would include six classrooms built in hexagon shape and attached to a section which would house a cafeteria, offices, library and lounge. The plans, designed by Architect Arnold Maeker of Lubbock, would provide for additional hexagon-shaped classrooms to be added to each corner of the cafeteria section if needed here in the future.

The elementary school will appear on the ballot as proposal No. 1. It was defeated in December by a 155-125 margin.

Proposal No. 2 would provide for $30,000 in bonds to build a new football stadium to seat 1,000 people in the home stands and 500 in the visitor's stands and to build a track around the football field.

Proposal No. 3 would provide for $26,000 in bonds to construct a new field house near the football field.

Voters turned down the football stadium and improvements by a 173-101 margin in December and the field house by a vote of 174-104.

Enrollment has increased each year, according to school officials, who have pointed out that classes continue to be crowded in the local schools at this time. Enrollment passed the 700 mark for the first time in history this fall, and although it has dropped at this time, is still higher than at the same time last year. It is expected to increase again during the next 12 months.

Enrollment for January this year stands at 624, as compared to 612 at the same time last year, school officials say. Enrollment is always at its lowest during the month of January, and will increase as soon as a rain comes, if trends of the past few years continue.

Trustees have pointed out that the present proposal is not one that will take care of enrollment over a long period of time.

Gospel Meet Begins Here February 6

Bovina Church of Christ will begin its gospel meeting Monday, Feb. 6.

Services will continue through the following Sunday, Feb. 12, according to the minister, Lavern Stewart.

Jack Pape of Artesia, N.M. will be the evangelist for the seven-day event, the first gospel meeting held in the Bovina church during 1967.

Services will be held on week days at 9 a.m. and 8 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend, Stewart says.

JACK PAPE

Public Meeting Monday

A public meeting has been set by the school board of Bovina Independent School District for 8 p.m. Monday. It will be in the schools cafeteria and will be for the purpose of explaining and discussing the proposed building program, according to Oris Spears, superintendent.

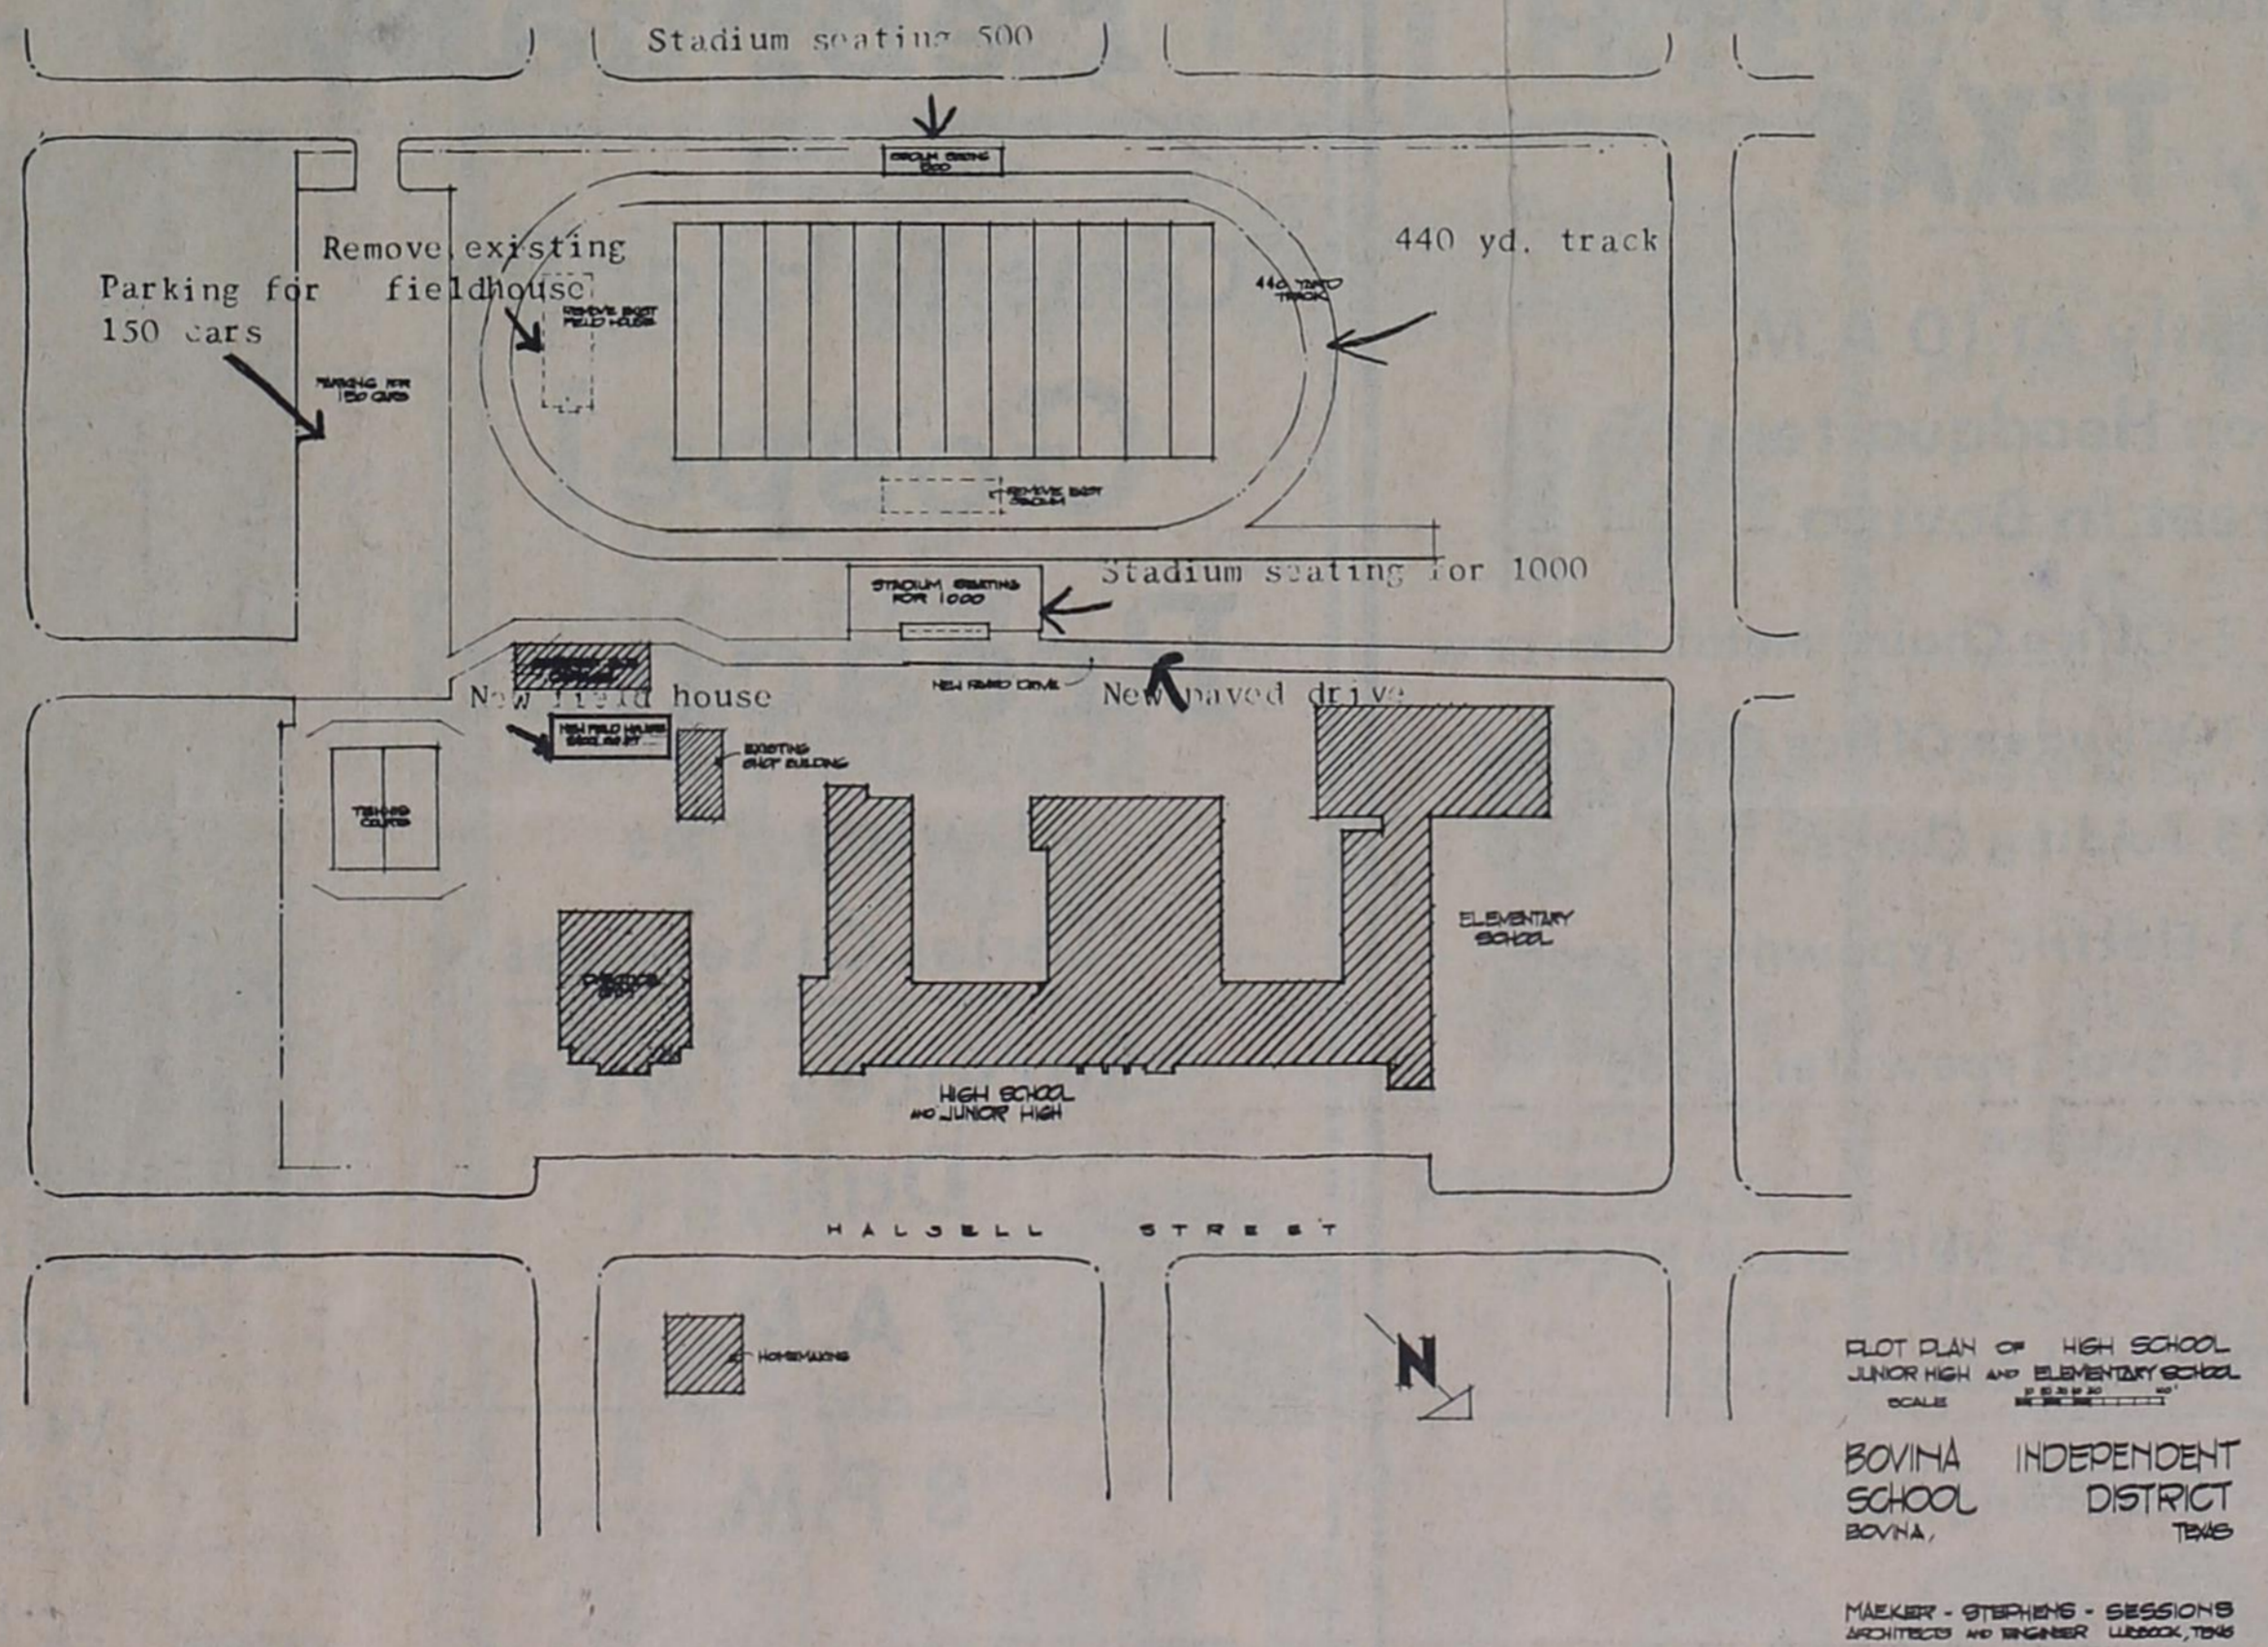

This is scheduled the night before the bond election on Tuesday.

The school board members urge all people of the district to attend. Coffee and Spumuts will be served.

Weather by Willie

Dry, ain't it? Slight chance for a little moisture this week. A lot more moisture in February than we had in January.

---Willie

PROPOSED SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS -- This drawing indicates changes and improvements which would be made on the present campus if Tuesday's school bond election carries. Existing buildings are the shaded areas. Increased stadium seating would be erected at the football field, a track would be built around the field, the present field house, shown at the left of the field, would be moved and a new field house would be erected behind the present gym. Also, a paved drive would be put in between the school buildings and the football field and additional parking would be made available. Football field improvements are Proposition No. 2 on the ballot. The new field house is Proposition No. 3. Total estimated cost for the two is $56,000. Proposition No. 1 on the ballot will be for construction of a six-classroom elementary school building. Estimated cost of this project is $212,000. School authorities say a 10 per cent tax increase would be necessary to pay off the bonds.

Boxcars, Office Equipment --

Auction Set Here Saturday

Two boxcars and numerous office equipment items will be sold at auction Saturday morning by Panhandle Growers Labor Association.

The auction will begin at 10 a.m., announces J. W. Wright, former manager of the association. It will be at the former headquarters of the organization on east Main Street.

The boxcars include the one which has been used for an office by the association and another which has been used for storage space, Wright says. Other items include, typewriters, a calculator, desks, filing cabinets, a safe, etc. The association was formed and operated to handle bracero labor in this area. When the bracero program was discontinued, the organization became dormant.

Wright says the office will be open Saturday morning at 8 for public inspection of the items to be sold. They may be seen prior to that time by calling Wright at 238-6031.

A more complete list of the items to be auctioned appears in an advertisement in this issue of The Blade.

Bond Election --

It is one that is needed to take care of the present enrollment. The architect's plans are designed to only ease the present crowded conditions. If these become crowded within the next few years, addition can be made as needed.

They also explain that the present plan is the most economical one feasible. If additions are made to the present schools, there will be no playground space. The cost of building a new high school instead of elementary school would be far greater, since various departments such as vocational agriculture, homemaking, science laboratories, etc. are already installed at the present location.

Architect Maeker also pointed out that the existing wing of the elementary school could be remodeled for junior high classrooms far more easily and inexpensively than could the high school classrooms be converted.

Should Proposal No. 1 be approved, the first two grades would be housed in the new elementary school, thus easing crowded conditions, especially in the first seven grades and also in the present cafeteria.

Since Bovina schools have advanced to Class A, schools with larger followings will be attending football games here. The present stadium does not measure up to facilities of other Class A schools, which usually provide from 1500 to 2000 seating capacity or more.

The field house, a converted barracks building, is in need of replacement to take care of added numbers in physical education classes and to provide adequate dressing rooms and shower facilities, according to school officials.

The Old Timer

"The new math may produce more problems than it solves."

Opinions --

Wilbur Charles: "I feel that maybe we should wait awhile. I haven't really decided how I feel, but seems like it's being rushed. Times are tough and taxes will have to be raised. Maybe it would be better to hold off awhile."

Mrs. Thomas Rhodes, Jr.: "I think that Bovina will continue to grow and we need to be progressive about our school children. I especially feel we need the elementary classrooms. The traffic situation will be an added benefit in moving away from the present plant. If we are going to continue in sports, it is a disgrace to have the worst facilities when our community is as prosperous as it is. I hate to see an increase in taxes, but we can't have benefits without paying for them."

P. O. Dixon: "Places are talking of having school 12 months over the year. I'm thinking we're going to have to change the system of teaching. They should do something without voting bonds. I'm in favor of looking over the situation before deciding."

Mrs. Glenn Hromas: "I think we need qualified teachers and stress education more. Facilities would be wonderful to have, but we also need more dedication from our teachers."

Mrs. Edwin Lide: "I'm in favor of building an elementary school. From all I can hear there is a need for it. If there isn't enough room for those who need extra help, this should be corrected."

Mrs. Wilfred E. Sikes: "I'm for improving our school. The main thing I'd like to see is for us to get good teachers that would stay. I can see where we'll need more room."

Thomas Beauchamp: "I feel like we need it. I went to the meeting and according to statistics, there is continued growth from year to year. Anything pertaining to education, I'm for."

merce; County Judge Loyde A. Brewer; other Parmer County commissioners and possibly others.

If the state decides to help raise the road, which will cost approximately $78,000, citizens feel it is the major step in securing the dam. County commissioners have agreed to moving pipelines at a cost of about $40,000, but do not feel they can raise the road in addition.

The project is that of the Soil Conservation Service, which is planning a series of dams to control flood waters in the Plainview area.

If the state does not agree to help raise the road, the dam will possibly go to the east side of the county. Ware said before leaving for Austin.

The dam itself will be constructed at a cost of about $250,000.

The farm-to-market road is in need of repair anyway, citizens point out. Shoulders are crumbling and the road is becoming so narrow as to be dangerous.

Our present observation, which has undergone a change from last week, is that the number of voters is apt to be increased here by the elimination of the $1.75 voting charge.

That's as it should be, we'd guess.

Owen Patton was in this week ordering Blade subscriptions for a couple of fellows over in Oklahoma. "I want those people to know what's going on in Bovina," he said.

Management School --

Savings, Investments Topic Next Session

The fifth meeting of the "Get In Step 1967-Management School", will be held Feb. 7 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at the Hub Community Center.

Subjects that will be discussed at this meeting will be "Savings and Investments." This subject will be discussed by Allen Robinson, of Murrell-Lynch-Pierce-Fenner Brokers firm of Amarillo.

"Insurance" is another topic to be covered at the school. Three people from Parmer County will bring information on this subject. Life, Medical and Education Insurance will be discussed by Dan Ethridge, of Ethridge-Spring Agency of Frona. Fire Casualty and Liability will be discussed by Mrs. Bob Estes, Inman Insurance Company of Bovina; and Crops Insurance by Jimmy Ware Bovina Insurance. Chairman of the meeting will be Fred Chandler, president of Farwell Jaycees.

Parmer County and has included in its first four meetings a variety of subjects pertinent to farmers and other residents of the area.

Speakers at the meetings have been leaders or experts in their various fields. Everyone is invited to attend. There is no charge.

Know The Truth

By Lavern Stewart

God does the saving, but men must do the preaching. Neither Jesus nor an angel would tell one what to do to be saved, Acts 9:6; Acts 11:13, 14. God adds the saved to the church, yet He arranged for man to have a part in it also. Notice, 1 Cor. 1:21, "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Surely, God gives the increase, yet man must sow the seed of the kingdom, Luke 8:11; Paul said that he planted, Apollos watered, and God gave the increase, 1 Cor. 3:6. Further, the need for pure Gospel preaching is set forth in Rom. 10:13, 14, "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved, How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?" However, God does not save by mere "preaching," but by what is preached; Jesus said the blind cannot lead the blind, Matt. 15:14; Paul wrote that one can be lost by believing a lie, II Thess. 2:10-12; and Peter warns against wresting the Scriptures, II Peter 3:16. The truth must be preached if men are to become free, John 8:32. Since the Gospel is God's power to save, Rom. 1:16, then the preaching of something else will not save. Rather than save, the doctrines of men will turn from the truth, Titus 1:14. Paul required that Timothy stay in Ephesus so as to charge some not to teach some other doctrine, I Tim. 1:3. It does make a difference what is preached.

Come to hear the Gospel preached in our series of services beginning Feb. 6th, and lasting through the 12th. We will have services at 9:00 a.m. and 8:00 p.m. Evangelist Jack Pape from Artesia, New Mexico, will do the preaching.

Poodles Combination Business, Pleasure

What began as a business project quickly emerged into a hobby as well as the home of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Wines on Ave. D.

In November of 1960, the Wines bought five female miniature poodles and one male from Mr. Wines' brother, Charlie, who was raising the dogs in Dallas. Since that time, the Bovina kennel has produced what many dog experts say are the "best anywhere around."

They have never raised dogs before, on a large scale, Mrs. Wines, known to her friends as Opal, said. Their son, Ronny, had always had some kind of dog, but it never made any difference to him what kind it was.

The couple now have two females and a male in their kennel and three other females they plan to keep. Two of them are "favorites" and are both toy poodles. A black one is named Princess and a white one is Lizette. Both are one year old. The Wines raise more silver poodles than any other color, but have had all colors, including brown ones.

Three puppies at the Wines, all black, are four weeks old, and they are just one litter that have been raised here among nearly 500 dogs during the past six years.

Sometimes, the Wines have as many as 24 puppies at a time as each female will have from three to nine dogs in a litter twice a year. Their dogs have been sold to people as far away as Albuquerque, El Paso, Oklahoma City and Dallas. Sometimes a pet shop buys an entire litter.

The dogs sell from about $50 for the miniatures up to $125 for the toys, Mrs. Wines said. Dogs with good backgrounds of show dogs bring the most money. She says all their dogs have good blood lines.

Nearly three hours a day can easily be spent taking care of the dogs, she said, but longer time is required for bathing and grooming. Mrs. Wines said she would spend more time with the dogs but she also holds a job in the school cafeteria.

Poodle owners bring their dogs to Mrs. Wines upon occasion for grooming. She bathes them, clips their hair and nails.

She trains her own dogs to stand or sit while undergoing the clipping process, and sometimes they seem to enjoy it so much they fall asleep.

Mrs. Wines had had trouble with other owner's dogs, however, who are not accustomed to the grooming treatment. She says grooming the feet is the most difficult job.

Poodles are good natured and usually friendly dogs. Sometimes one, such as Lizette, is shy. However, Mrs. Wines says perhaps one of their strangest traits is their aversion to strong odors. At the whiff of a strong medicine, antiseptic, hair spray, etc. They sometimes go into all sorts of contortions, including sneezing.

The Wines are not in the poodle business just for the financial angle, however, which is not difficult to discern while talking with them and watching them tend their dogs and puppies.

Before entering the poodle business, Mr. and Mrs. Wines raised two sons, Dean who has returned to Bovina from the National Guard, and Ronny, who lives in Orange, Calif. Both are married and each has a young daughter.

Mrs. Jess Walling states that Mrs. Murry furnished the building free of charge for the sales and has offered the building to the project again in the Spring if it hasn't been rented.

Also helping with the sales this year was the ladies' organization of St. Ann's Catholic Church, the Guadalupe Society. The ladies worked at the sales every second Saturday of each month, Mrs. Walling said.

A total of $281.88 was raised this year for the Clinic Fund by the rummage sales.

The Study Club expresses its appreciation to everyone who helped with the sales in any way, a spokesman for the organization said.

You can reclaim a flooded house and its furnishings and prevent further damage by understanding and following a few rules, says Mrs. Laura J. Russell, Texas A&M University Extension and housing and home furnishings specialist at Denton. Remove moisture as quickly as possible by opening all doors and windows to dry out the house. Then clean away any accumulation of mud or silt; correct any buckled flooring; and plane, sand and refinish the areas which require it. Further information may be obtained from your county Extension office.

Only one marriage license has been issued from the office of County Clerk Bonnie Warren in the past week. The license went to Scott Aaron Walter Fischer and Linda Sue Brandon. It was issued on Jan. 26.

Society Visits Home, Children In Panhandle

Members of the Guadalupe Society of St. Ann's Parish made their annual trip to the Children's Home in Panhandle on Jan. 23 to spend the day with the children and to assist the sisters with their chores during the day.

The Society's first trip was made in January, 1961 and every year thereafter. Members say they look forward to the visit each year.

The day began with Mass at St. Ann's Church at 7:30 a.m., after which coffee was served at the rectory. The group left Bovina at 8 a.m., accompanied by Father Claver Giblin S.A.

Making the trip this year were Mrs. Gil DeLeon, Mrs. Pete DeLeon, Mrs. Luis Serna and Mrs. Conrado Perez. Two members of the newly organized Guadalupe Society of St. Teresa of Jesus in Friona also accompanied the group, Mrs. Ruben Martinez and Mrs. Sam Perez.

A check was presented to the Superior of the Children's Home, Sister Valentina, as a donation from the Guadalupe Society.

Mrs. Horn Has Club

Also attending were Mrs. Dean McCallum, A. M. Wilson, Bob Wilson, Ernestine Sides, Durward Bell, Vernon Estes, Bedford Caldwell and Jim Hemka.

Refreshments included dips, chips, old fashioned plantation pie, Cokes and coffee.

An Italian dinner, complete with salad and homemade bread was served the group.

During the evening several dads were chosen for special honors.

Following the selections, the entertainment ended with a ballroom race.

Scoopin' Around

By Pat Jacobs

Piled the kids in the car the day the wind decided to blow and went out to see the race horses at Robert Read's place. We had really intended to take some pictures, but the blowing "snow" decided differently.

Instead, we all got a big "kick" out of watching the horses being worked by some of the owners, Wendol Christian, C. E. Trimble, and trainer Ben Alonzo. Robert stayed pretty busy inside rubbing them down with something that C. E. said would close a gopher hole so an ant couldn't get in.

Reminds me of a story being passed around: Darrel Read (looking at brother Robert's horse): Tell me what on earth are you going to do with that horse. Robert: I'm going to race him, of course. Darrel: You'll win.

They have some pretty good horse flesh out there, though, that have been winning some races. We'll tell you all about it one of these days.

Some of you who lived here "in the olden days" may remember one of the nation's greatest collegiate basketball players, Price Brookfield, brother of Bovina's Mary Richards, who played his high school ball at Friona.

He went on to play at West Texas State where he made All American on what was then called the "Tallest Team in the World" and rated No. 1 in these United States.

That's where we knew him and even though the occasion was a sad one, we were overjoyed to visit with him while he was in Texas for funeral services of his mother in Friona.

"Brookie" was always quite a guy, and hasn't changed a bit. His feats on the basketball court were almost phenomenal, if you remember. It was nothing for him to stand in the center of the court and put the ball through the basket without touching the rim in the last second of a game.

After playing pro ball with Rochester, N.Y. and Chicago, Brookie entered coaching and is still at it in Greenville, Indiana. He has a senior son who is being sought after by many colleges. We asked Brookie if the son is as good as his pop, and Brookie said, "He's better--got a better shot."

Brookie gave credit for his basketball ability to his old junior high basketball coach (adding to proof that stars are made in the grades). He also recalled a year while playing at Friona when the Chieftains were playing in the same district with the Amarillo Sandies.

"We went up to Amarillo," he said, "and beat 'em."

He has a daughter who is a junior and a son in the second grade. The younger son was ill, which prevented his wife, Mary Lou, and family from coming to Texas with him.

Will never forget the night he married Mary Lou -- Brookie was never that nervous in a sudden death overtime.

Church Chuckles by CARTWRIGHT

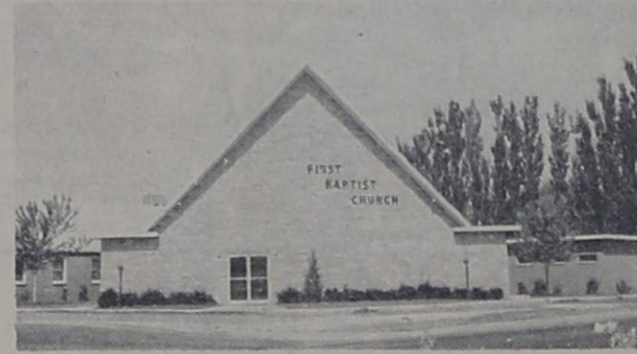

"Nothing serious, Reverend. They just had a little argument over who's the better Christian."

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins (Matt. 25:1-13) was a favorite of the early church. This is scarcely surprising in view of their expectations of the prompt return of Christ. Yet in our day with its somewhat different expectations the main thrust of the parable is as valid as ever. It must remain so as long as there is such a thing as individual responsibility or individual response. The lesson here is the necessity of personal preparation or readiness. How often have some men said, "My wife attends to the religion for the family." Or another person says, "Now my parents were thus and so." It won't work. This parable and the history of mankind testify it won't work. Righteousness cannot be transferred. Your wife's religion or your parent's is not going to do you much good in either good times or bad. Joy for good times (as in the parable) and strength for the bad times are very personal things and must be prepared for and received personally.

Tuesday Morning --

City, School Tax Collections Good

Tax payments Tuesday morning for both City of Bovina and Bovina Independent School District, were "very good" and both were expecting a higher percentage to be paid before the deadline at midnight Tuesday.

At 9:30 a.m., the City had collected a total of $21,311.93, or about 84 per cent of the total tax roll of $25,425.08. However, Mrs. Mary Ruth Martin, city secretary, said an accurate percentage was difficult to establish since a three per cent discount was given for payment of taxes during October, a two per cent discount in November and a one per cent discount in December.

Mrs. Martin said about $7,000 had been collected the last "three or four days."

All taxes not paid before midnight Jan. 31 will be assessed a penalty for both City and School. At the school tax office, Mrs. Pearl Dodson said that 89,30 per cent of the 1966 tax roll had been collected. This represents $182,903.16. Total tax roll of the district is $204,794.10. No discounts are given in the school district for early payment of taxes.

All payments made at the offices Tuesday or received through the mail postmarked not later than midnight were accepted without penalty.

In Panhandle --

Swine Production Untapped Wealth

Swine production is an almost untapped source of better returns for Panhandle agriculture, according to the recently issued Panhandle Economic Program report.

The PEP study indicates increased feeding of cattle, sheep and hogs could increase income from livestock sales $20-million each year.

Texas A&M University Extension livestock specialists say the Golden Spread has a number of advantages over other hog producing areas.

One major problem is that few farmers have the experience and desire to perform the top management job for a successful hog operation.

Advantages listed by the livestock men include a moderate climate that reduces cost of building and temperature control, a good market potential because Texas imports more than 70 per cent of its pork needs, and an abundance of grain sorghum for feed.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT -- Automatic, electrically heated livestock waterers can save stockmen time and trouble in the winter months ahead and provide the livestock herd with the ice-free water they need. Texas A&M University Extension agricultural engineers say many types of automatic livestock waterers are available to meet individual needs.

Varsity, 'B' Boys --

Texico Wins Two Games

Texico won two boys basketball games there Tuesday night, taking the varsity battle, 77-66, and the "B" boys game, 59-41.

The winners jumped into an early 23-16 first quarter lead and held a 44-29 halftime lead. Third period score was 65-47 before Texico won 77-66.

Randy Jones tossed in 22 points, Carl Harris, 19, Galen Hromas 11, Alfred Stanberry nine, Lynn Murphy four and Mike Grissom one for the Mustangs. Williamson sank 31 points for Texico.

The "B" Mustangs were ahead 11-10 when the first quarter ended in their game, but Texico hit a hot streak when Bovina couldn't hit and went ahead 26-16 at the half. Fourth period score was 40-26 and then Texico won by a 59-41 margin.

Scoring for Bovina were Larry Lee with 15, Ricky Kunselman nine, Gary Rogers eight, Randy Hutto five and Larry Mitchell four. Ricky Lee, Felix Trevino and Kenny Stone also saw action. Taylor made 12 points for Texico.

Each of the four county precincts has two directors, elected on alternate years.

D. L. Carmichael, vice president of the association, presided at the meeting in the absence of Parr. He explained progress which has been made during the past year in regard to association members obtaining natural gas at more economical rates.

Fish replaced Carl Schlenker, who had served as secretary.

Carmichael pointed out there has been "no raise in the gas rate since this organization was formed."

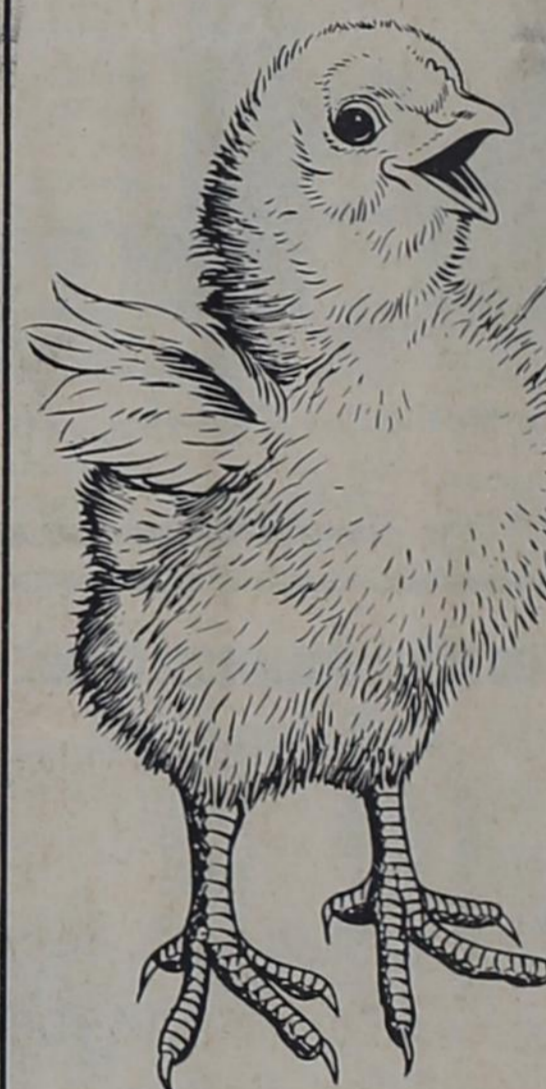

The vice president told those in attendance to "ask your neighbors to pay dues to the association. We have done good and can do more good in the future, but it takes money all the time."

Due to the association are $2 per irrigation well per year for each member. In other words, if a farmer has two irrigation wells, his annual dues are $4.

Prentice Mills, county ASC office manager, explained points about the 1967 farm program at the meeting's beginning.

At Festival --

Stage Band Gets Rating

Bovina Stage Band received a III rating at the West Texas State University Stage Band Festival held in Canyon Saturday.

No Class A stage band received higher than a II rating, according to Joe Wayne Harper, director.

Four Class A bands performed at the festival, Bovina, Sunray and Spur, which both received ratings of II, and Canadian, which also received a III.

Some of the highlights of the day was the performance of the Paschal High School Stage Band from Fort Worth, a nationally top-rated organization.

Harper said the high school band is now preparing for the Interscholastic League concert and sightreading contests to be held this Spring. He pointed out that the Bovina band only has one senior and seven juniors in its organization this year. The band is primarily made up of eighth grade and freshmen students.

A new COTTON-SOYBEAN

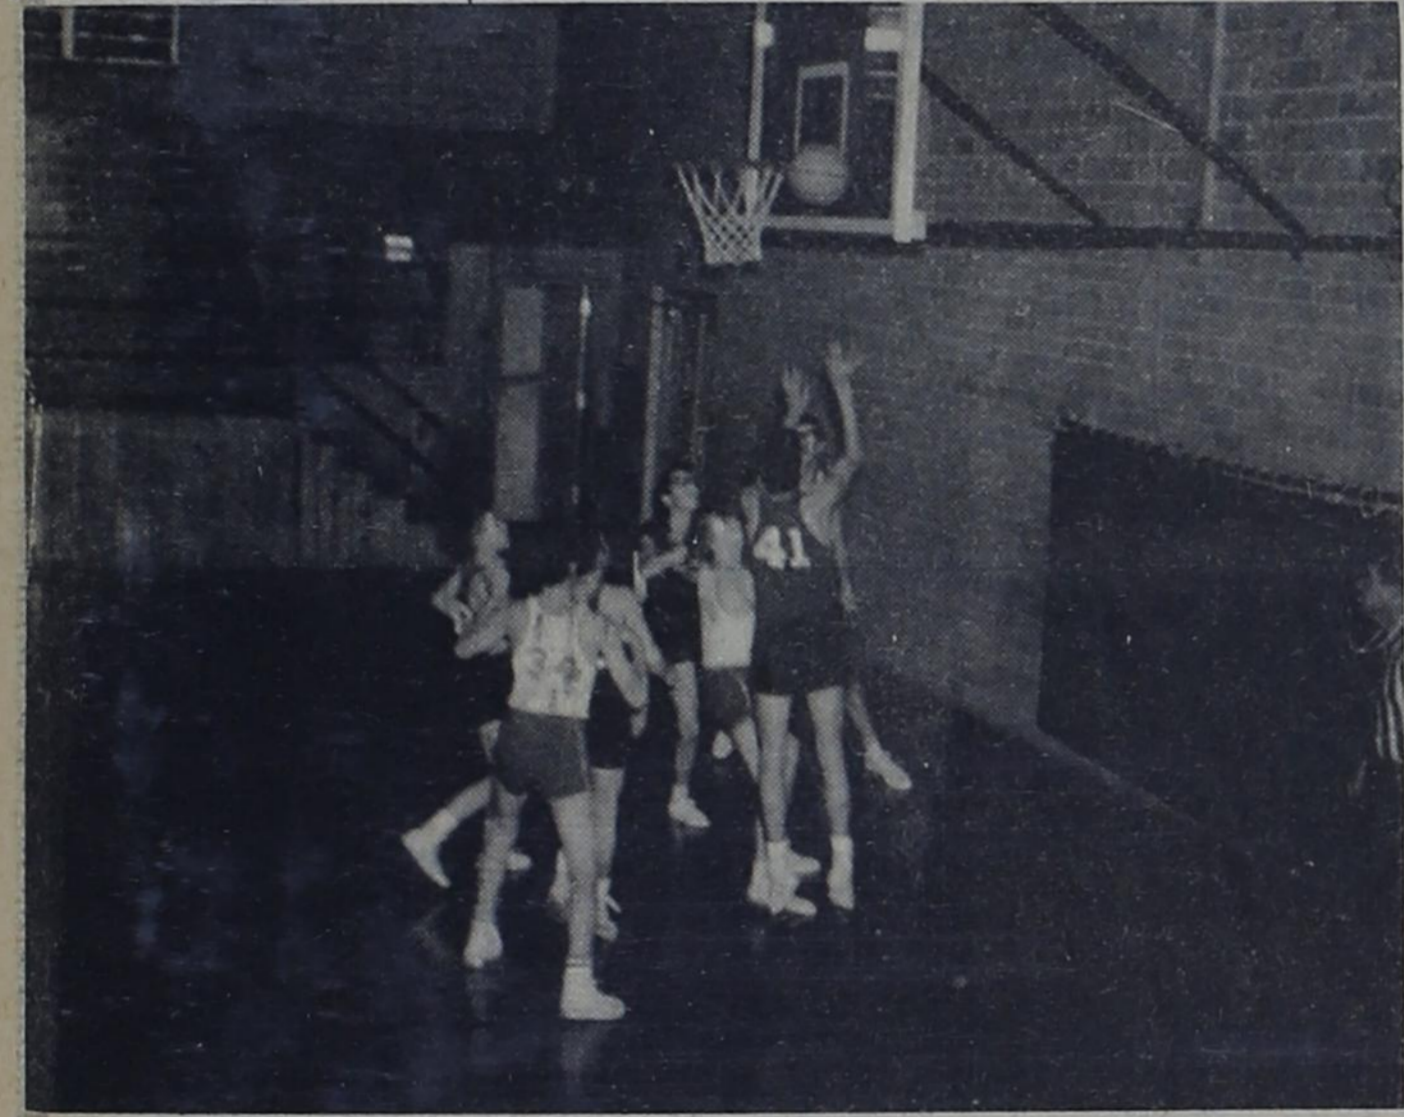

weed-control chemical that is effective under all weather conditions.

PLANAVIN® Herbicide, a selective pre-emergence weed killer is a product of Shell research and is now available to cotton and soybean farmers for the control of annual grasses and broadleaf weeds.

Check the Planavin advantages against your present weed control program.

1. With Planavin you don't have to depend upon either irrigation or rain to start it working.
2. You don't have to worry about a drought period after application, Planavin still works.
3. Although Planavin can be incorporated immediately after application, incorporation is not necessary, but should follow within a few hours. INCORPORATE — BUT TAKE YOUR TIME.
4. Planavin is versatile — use it by broadcast or row treatment. It can be applied by ground rig, plane, or in fertilizer mixtures.
5. Although Planavin has proven to be effective without pre-mixing, some growers prefer to mix a slurry before use.
6. Controls over 20 different grasses and broad leaf weeds.
7. If cultivation is needed at lay-by time, Planavin prevents uprooted weeds from re-rooting.
8. Once incorporated, Planavin will not leach away, move to the end of rows or lose its potency for months.
9. If cotton must be replanted — go ahead and replant. Planavin will not harm the cotton seed and will keep on controlling weeds.
10. Planavin kills weeds before they come up.
11. Planavin can't freeze.
12. No bottles to break or metal cans to destroy.
