2 teens arrested for robbery

By Leigh Castillo
Contributing Writer

Two local teens were arrested for burglary of a habitation on January 4.

Trevor Clementz, 17, and a 16 year old, male juvenile were arrested after a resident of Unit 3 at Fort Clark Springs reported their home had been broken into at approximately 8:40 p.m. last Thursday.

According to Kinney County Sheriff LK Buddy Burgess, a deputy and a Texas game warden were dispatched to the scene and while they were taking pictures of the window and door that had been broken, they were able to obtain other physical evidence that led them to question two teens found near the residence.

As of this morning, a total of four homes had been burglarized; one home in Unit 7 and three homes in Unit 3. The young men are accused of stealing various electronic items including a television, game stations and cell phones.

At press time only two people had been arrested, but Burgess says others are expected to be questioned in the coming days.

Clementz was released on Tuesday, January 11, after posting a $5,000 bond. The juvenile was taken to the Val Verde Juvenile Probation Department in Del Rio.

Clementz' case was presented to the Kinney County 63rd Judicial District Grand Jury on January 10, where he was indicted for one count of Burglary of Habitation, a second degree felony.

Fort Golf Course Improvement Project

Submitted by
Fort Clark Springs
Golf Committee

Early this fall the Fort Clark Springs Golf Course Committee restarted their monthly meetings. It soon became evident that a chief concern with the deterioration of the course fairways due to a lack of proper moisture in the soil. It was further determined that this problem could be attributed to three major facts: First, the drought which made proper sprinkling unaffordable considering the large area of fairways; Second, the deficiency of topsoil depth in many areas prohibiting proper root development of a fairway grass and making aeration of these areas a futile gesture and; Third whatever topsoil does exist is not of a texture suitable for good absorption and retention of moisture, also necessary for good root development. A number of suggestions came forth during the discussion but two stood out as being the most viable: Change the course from a standard fairway to a desert type with intermittent grass landing areas surrounded by coarse sand (ornamentation can be added to improve the ambience of these areas and the removed topsoil added, where necessary, to the landing areas) and improve the existing topsoil by developing our own compost from the voluminous organic waste we have available (leaves, twigs, grass, etc.) plus horse manure, also available on the fort and from friends in Brackettville. It was decided that, with the incentive provided by the drought it was time to quit talking and begin doing.

We have begun. Before we can do much with the golf course we need the compost and so, with the financial and volunteer labor help of the Men's Golf Association, we have constructed compost bins in an area just north of the maintenance complex. These bins were completed this past Monday, January 9 and, with the huge supply of leaves already collected by the Fort plus the horse manure obtained from the corrals, filling will begin shortly.

Volunteer help will be needed for monitoring the composting process and aiding the Fort maintenance department in turning and re-moisturizing the compost process when deemed necessary. As regards the remodeling of the existing fairway areas, the following procedure is being recommended; Surveys are to be conducted in order to provide accurate topographic drawings of each hole as they now exist. In addition a sufficient number of core samples will be taken on each hole to determine both where topsoil should be added and where topsoil is available. At least six weeks before any work proceeds on any hole the drawing of the existing hole, with an overlay showing suggested changes and the cost of materials for these changes, will be posted at the clubhouse. Any person(s) wishing to make changes to those displayed on the overlay may request a copy of the existing hole on which to make their own overlay which, along with an estimate of their material costs, must be turned in no later than four weeks after the original posting. At sometime after the submission deadline but before any work commences, a general meeting will be held to review all submission and arrive at a consensus for the final design of the hole.

Now to the heart, soul and back pocket of accomplishing what has been laid out in the preceding, "MONEY". We can't afford to make the changes necessary to support our golf course if we must depend upon outside contractors to do the work. Imported material costs are sustainable through tournament proceeds and sponsor donations but outside labor and equipment costs are prohibitive. The solution to that lives in one word, "VOLUNTEERS", and I am speaking of both men and women. (Along that line the committee wishes to thank those 7 to 10 men who have spent the last three Monday mornings constructing the compost bins.) To that purpose, as an aid to both those seeking volunteer help and those willing to volunteer their services, it has been proposed that a sign-up board, detailing the scope, date, time, duration, tools, etc. for a project, be located in the Green Room.

Regarding the money aspect of this venture we, will request permission to monitor golf course accounts in order to not only assure the project does not monetarily infringe on normal, budgeted operations but also demonstrate any achieved financial improvements.

Let us hope we are planting a new seed in, what many consider, the womb of Fort Clark Springs. Only you who volunteer in this and associated endeavors can figuratively and literally provide the fertilizer necessary to bring it to life.

Note: This is a multi-year project of (best guess at this stage) six years to completion.

Brackett News Weekly Photo by Ashley Castillo Sandoval -The newly constructed compost bins placed at the FCS Maintenance Dept. are the first of many projects the Golf Course plans over the next few years.

Mr. Brackett says..... "CITY FIRST". If we ever hope to correct the course Brackettville has been on for the last 12 year, that is what we as voters will have to do. We can no longer base our votes on a candidate who is family, friend, or foe unless they are qualified to really help pull us out of this hole that has been dug. Let us consider the qualities and the qualifications for a viable candidate: They need to be self-confident because the truth is no one will make all the people happy all the time. They must be willing to spend the time to do good research and study as a part of each decision they make. Unfortunately there will be some difficult situations which will be awaiting the new council but with proper preparation and a knowledge base gained from research, the best decision will come to light. They must have the courage of their convictions. We need leaders now - not followers. There must be a passion for the job to be done. Otherwise we will get more of the same mediocre, complacent "go-along-to-get-along" attitude which leads to more of the disastrous results you have been reading about in these writings. We need candidates who have organizational abilities. There is a desperate need to reorganize the city's departments to make them more efficient. This will reduce the cost of operation to the taxpayers and translate into increased services, renewed streets and a better living environment for all.

Dedication to the task of renewing our town is a must.

Just remember: "If you vote the way you've always voted.....you'll elect what you've always elected." VOTE SMART!!

Hopes and Dreams

Fly Lady Marla Cilley

What is hope anyway? What happens when we don't have hope in our lives? Today I read my morning meditation and there was a reference to hope. That once the hope is realized; it is not hope anymore. Without hope we find ourselves in a sad way. My birthday is January 11th and 111 is a special number to me. One day I decided to look up those numbers. I have been trying to put this together for weeks now and today it all came clear in one of my favorite Bible verses. Hebrews 11:1, here is what I found. Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

We all need something to hope for; this is our dreams. We have the ability to make our dreams come true. My friend Rita Davenport taught me about hope; what good are low hopes! We need to Dream Big and visualize those dreams in our minds eye! I like to keep my dreams in front of face. I use my computer to do this. I put pictures of my dreams as my computer screen saver. This way when I walk away from my computer and come back to it; I see those dreams and my hope is energized.

I don't allow any negativity to slip in and beat me up. I deserve to have my dreams come true! My hope keeps those dreams alive. Without hope we lose our will to go from one day to the next. Hope and faith are connected. Hope is the dream and faith is the affirmation that those dreams will happen. We see it; we feel it and we can experience it in our imaginations and before we know it those dreams become a reality!

We have to watch our perfectionism in this process. We want what we want and we want it now! Anything worth having is worth working for and we have to learn to take babysteps to get to where we want to be. Where do you want to be? Do you know or have you stuffed those dreams into a deep hole?

Then we have our perfectionism to cause us to give up when things are not happening fast enough. This is when we just throw in the towel because our dreams seem too out of reach. As Rita and Ryan Shupe would say, "What good are low hopes? Dream Big!"

Everyone asks why we have to shine our sinks to get started. It is really quite simple; that shiny sink is a ray of hope for you! Something small that can grow into your dream! Right now we struggle with just trying to find our keys. As the clutter and chaos disappear one babystep at a time we give ourselves the freedom to Dream Big. I never knew that I could be an author or anything other than someone who was beaten down by life. With each new habit I acquired, I found a little bit more of me! I didn't set out to be the FlyLady. I just wanted to be nice to myself. That became the fuel for my routines.

In the beginning all I knew was there had to be something more than just surviving and that God had something for me to do. Each new habit along with every item I got rid of uncovered my purpose in the deep hole. It wasn't long until I could feel hope blossom inside of me.

That hope is still there today! Where is your hope? I have faith that my dreams will come true. It only takes a little mustard seed of faith to see those dreams become a reality.

When should you start taking Social Security

Emily Cooper
Edward Jones in Del Rio

If you're of a certain age, the new year means you're that much closer to a day you may have anticipated with a combination of humor and resignation — specifically, the day you're eligible for Social Security. But just because you can take Social Security, it doesn't mean you must take it. So, should you?

Before we get to that question, let's review the basic rules governing Social Security payments. You can typically start collecting benefits at age 62, but you'll get only about 75% of what you'd receive if you waited until your "full" retirement age, which varies according to your birth year but is most likely 66. You'll get even bigger monthly checks if you delay collecting them until you're past 66, and you'll "max out" on your payments once you reach 70.

So, the question boils down to this: Should you start collecting Social Security early — thereby receiving smaller, but more numerous, checks — or later, when your checks will be bigger but fewer?

If you really need the money once you reach 62, you've already got your answer. But if you could potentially afford to wait, we recommend you view your decision through a LENS:

-L: Your projected lifespan — You can't see into the future, but given your family history and general health, you can make an educated guess about your projected longevity. If you're fairly confident that, once you reach 66, you've still got another two or more decades in front of you, you may want to consider delaying taking Social Security past age 62.

-E: Your employment status — If you're under full retirement age — between 62 and 66 — then for every two dollars you earn over $14,640 (in 2012), you'll lose one dollar in Social Security benefits. In the months before you reach your full retirement age, for every three dollars you earn over $38,880 (again, for 2012), you'll lose one dollar in benefits. But starting in the month you reach your full retirement age, you can earn as much as you want without losing any benefits.

-N: Your need, including your other sources of retirement income — If you have a pension, or you've built substantial resources in your IRA, your 401(k) or other employer-sponsored retirement plan, and you can support your income needs with modest withdrawals from these accounts, you might decide it's worthwhile to delay taking Social Security to maximize your benefits. Remember that regardless of your Social Security decision, you typically would have to pay a 10% early withdrawal penalty if you started taking withdrawals from these accounts before you reach age 59½.

-S: Your spouse/marital status — If you're single, you basically just need to think of yourself when making this decision. But it's a different story if you're married. If you die first, your spouse can keep receiving his or her own Social Security benefit or receive yours — whichever is larger. Consequently, you and your spouse will want to coordinate when you take Social Security benefits so that you can maximize the benefit for the spouse likeliest to live longer.

The choice of when to start taking Social Security can affect your lifestyle throughout your retirement years — so weigh all the factors and make the choice that's right for you.

January 2012 declared School Board Recognition Month

Submitted by BISD

As citizens who serve children and represent their communities, individual school board members face complex and demanding challenges. Yet, few people fully understand the scope and far-reaching implications of board members' responsibilities. All Texans should recognize the vital contributions of these men and women and focus attention on the crucial role these elected leaders play in the education of our children. They truly make a difference every day. Their job is to establish a vision for the education program, design a structure to achieve that vision, assure schools are accountable to the community, and strongly advocate continuous improvement in student learning. That job entails an endless string of meetings and school functions to attend; reams of reports, agendas, proposals, and other information to read and study; and a host of difficult decisions to make. School board members come from all walks of life. They are farmers, secretaries, doctors, lawyers, homemakers, teachers, truck drivers, business owners, professors, architects, ranchers, and real estate agents, to name just a few. While they wear many hats in the workday world, school board members put on a collective hat when they get down to the business of leading their school districts. Board members must pull together as a team toward a common goal—helping our students achieve. While they may individually disagree on certain issues, their role as a board is to consistently strive toward excellence. Board members contribute hundreds and hundreds of hours each year governing their districts. Whether crafting policies, hiring administrators, listening to staff and student concerns, or recognizing outstanding programs, board members always keep their eyes on the goal of student achievement. The time spent in board meetings represents just a small fraction of the hours school board members devote to their jobs. They work hard at seminars and training sessions to keep abreast of the latest changes in state and federal regulations and learn trends in educational leadership. They also are deeply involved in community activities, and spend many hours in the schools and at extracurricular events. Their love of learning and concern and caring for students, staff, and the community drive board members' desire to ensure every student can succeed. In recognition of this service, January is designated as School Board Recognition Month and countless districts across the state will take this opportunity to say thanks to our trustees for giving so much to their communities. Make a special effort to tell each school board member that his or her hard work has been noticed and is truly appreciated.

By Tyler Smallwood
First Grade

The name of my city is Tyler City. It has a population of 100 kids. Everybody has a disco party every night. School is only one day a week.

No one needs a license to drive, everyone drives motorcycles. All the kids start trick-or-treating at one and bedtime is at 11 at night.

The restaurants in the city are Tyler Lobster, McTyler's, Appletylers, and Chick-fi-Tyler. Kids live in their own houses with their pets.

Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury continue STRONG commitment to FFA

Submitted by FFA National Foundation

Ford Motor Company's 2011-2012 commitment includes substantial support of National FFA events, and $1,000 collegiate scholarships for hundreds of FFA members; Ford, with local dealers such as Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD, has awarded 6,590 scholarships since 1997.

For the 2011-2012 school year, Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD is sponsoring 2 Built Ford Tough scholarship(s), helping students attend the college of their choice.

FFA develops students' leadership, business skills and community service in preparation for a career in agriculture, which accounts for 1 out of 5 U.S. jobs.

January 9, 2012 - Today, Jesus Rodriguez announced that Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD would join Ford Motor Company in its ongoing commitment to the National FFA (formerly known as the Future Farmers of America).

Ford has committed to a fifteenth year of the Built Ford Tough - FFA collegiate scholarship program, which will award $1,000 scholarships to hundreds of FFA members, each co-sponsored by Ford Dealers like Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD.

Ford has supported the National FFA since the first F-Series truck was introduced in 1948, and has sponsored the Built Ford Tough collegiate scholarship program since 1997. The program, equally funded by Ford Motor Company and Ford dealers, has awarded almost $6.5 million in scholarships to FFA members.

Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD is sponsoring the Built Ford Tough collegiate scholarship program for Brackettville High School and Rocksprings High School. For the 2011-2012 school year, they are helping 2 local student(s) attend the college of their choice.

To be eligible, FFA members must submit an online 2012 Scholarship Application at www.ffa.org and take the required Signature Page to Del Rio Ford Lincoln Mercury LTD for the dealer endorsement and official dealer code; thus providing FFA members the opportunity to meet - and thank - the dealer for their support of continuing education.

"We're pleased to be able to support the local chapter and Ford Motor Company in its strong commitment to the National FFA", says Jesus Rodriguez. "All our previous scholarship recipients tell us how grateful they are for the financial support and how the FFA experience has changed their lives."

"Visit any local farm and you can see that trucks - particularly F-Series - play an integral role in the agricultural industry," says Jesus Rodriguez. We want to help these future leaders succeed and become our customers from the start of their careers to the end - just like many of their parents and grandparents."

Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation donates $500,000 to Texas State Parks

Submitted by TPWD

AUSTIN - Today, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation board of trustees voted to donate $500,000 to Texas State Parks, which are facing a $4.6 million revenue shortfall caused by heat, drought, wildfires and a drop in park visitation.

"Our hope is to encourage many other donors large and small to step up and help keep our Texas State Parks open," said

Kelly Thompson, TPW Foundation board chairman. "Our mission is to support the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, and there has never been a greater need for private support of our parks. We will be aggressively seeking donations for state parks from private individuals, corporate partners, and other foundations to help reach the $4.6 million goal."

Not counting today's foundation donation, more than $460,000 has been raised since Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials appealed for help Dec. 6. That includes online and mailed donations and contributions through the new Texas motor vehicle opt-in donation program.

"We are deeply grateful to the foundation for today's generous contribution, and to all those who have donated in recent weeks," said Carter Smith, TPWD executive director. "We have a long way to go yet, but with this gift we have raised close to $1 million toward our $4.6 million goal, a remarkable achievement in a short time. This is yet another indication of how much Texans care about their state parks."

Park officials continue to stress three ways Texans can help keep state parks open:

•Go to <http://www.tpwd.state.tx.us/helpparks> to make a tax-deductible donation.

•Make a donation when you renew your motor vehicle registration.

•Finally, because visitor fees pay for about half of park system operating costs, visit state parks often with family and friends.

Park leaders are continuing their call for people to visit state parks, touting cooler weather, parks greening after recent rains, and campfires now allowed again in almost every state park. Check each park's web page online for the latest information.

To learn about the various Texas State Parks and their offerings, or to make online camping reservations, visit <http://www.texasstateparks.org>. Or call state park information at 1-800-792-1112, option 3, between 8 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Resources for news media, including photos of drought and wildfires, downloadable video, and radio news soundbites, are in a Park Awareness News Roundup online.

Since 1991, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Foundation has been the official non-profit funding partner for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. By bringing together companies, corporations, communities and individuals, the Foundation has successfully raised more than $70 million benefiting a wide variety of projects.

Bird blind at FCS Water Treatment Plant

Submitted by Louisa Stone

The newly formed Fort Clark Springs Birders have accomplished much in 2011. Most importantly, in partnership with the Fort Clark Springs Municipal Utilities District, the bird blind at the FCS Water Treatment Plant is now complete. The club would like to thank the many contributors who helped in the construction of the blind. First and foremost, we want to thank the Board of Directors of the FCS Municipal Utility District for granting permission to construct the blind on MUD property. Special thanks go to the following organizations and individuals who made monetary contributions: Fort Clark Springs Community Council, the Bank and Trust, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Holloman, Mrs. Rayé Halamecek, Ms. Andrea Pearson, Mr. Brian Gresty, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Stone, Ms. Ann Watts, Mr. Len Zorn, and Mr. Tom McNew. The construction of the blind would not have been possible without Mr. Len Zorn and Ms. Ann Watts who conceived of the idea and designed the blind. Mr. Zorn, with the help of Mr. Gresty and Mr. Stone, built the blind and the fence leading to it. Other appreciated contributors of materials and labor are: Mr. Randy Castilla, Mr. Ron Stuard, AAA

Roofing, Mr. and Mrs. James Bader, Mrs. Jan Swarm, and Mrs. Diane Kelsey. The blind is a wonderful addition to the many recreational activities on the Fort. Birders from all over the US and other countries travel to Fort Clark Springs to view the many species of birds that winter over and migrate through this area. Now we have a blind to aid in the viewing of the many waterfowl that winter over at the treatment ponds. If you are interested in viewing the birds from the blind, contact the Fort Clark Springs MUD office at 563-2828 or email Louisa Stone FCS Birders contact person at louisahs@sbcglobal.net.
