NUMBER 28

CROWDS ATTEND BURKBURNETT AUCTION

WAS LIVELY
AT RATE OF ONE A MINUTE.

GOOD PRICES

Bought First Two Lots at $585.00 Each.

Wichita Daily.

Wichita, Tex., June 6.—A big attendance at the auction this afternoon and the bidding was the liveliest sort. The lots were sold at about the rate of one lot at the present rate not a lot will be left unsold tonight.

A big rain here last night has swollen the Oklahoma streams into young rivers, and account only a small number of people reached the city at the noon hour. Many of the streams are yet impassable this morning were most of the county people. On the other hand pulled out of the Falls city for the new town this morning were three hundred passengers, of whom nineteen were women.

About seventy-five lots were sold before dinner and the prices realized were good.

Burk Burnett of Fort Worth, for whom the new town was named, purchased the first two lots offered for sale, paying $585.00 apiece for them.

Other lots in block 26 brought all the way from $275.00 to $550.00 and many of them were purchased by Wichita Falls people.

Lots in the residence section are selling all the way from $60.0 to $250 each.

Altogether, the auction is considered a very successful affair and the interest in the bidding augurs well for the future of the new town.

Two men, one of them much the worse for drink, complained to Officer Pickett Wednesday night that they had been robbed of a sum of money amounting to nearly a hundred dollars. The officer could get no satisfactory account of the affair from the men, but believes they were actually robbed. Home talent "dips" are thought to have done the work and certain parties are now under sur-

CONTRACTS ARE SIGNED.

Frederick Gives W. F. & N. W. Railway a Bonus of $30,000 and Right of Way.

The Frederick railway committee has signed up the contract for the extension of the Wichita Falls & Northwestern railway to that place. The contract binds Frederick to pay a subsidy of $30,000 and to give the right of way through the big pasture and the ground for the depot and the terminals in Frederick.

The surveyors are now in the field getting ready to locate the route.

At present they are following the route first selected, which will throw them about six miles north of Quanah, Oklahoma, but they will probably have to make several changes in the route as originally surveyed.

If that line should not be satisfactory the surveyors will drop to the south, about midway between the first line and the line which runs by Quanah, and will run a trial line.

The line that passes through Quanah will probably not be followed, as it ran about five miles south of Frederick.

The officers of the road state that the exact route will be determined by the engineers in the field with a view of securing the best grade at the least expense of maintenance.

They hope to have the line in operation to Frederick by October 1, 1907.

Houston, Texas, May 27, 1907.

Editor the Times:— There will be a public meeting of the Texas Five Million Club at Fort Worth on June 14 and 15, 1907, for the purpose of deciding among other interests, whether a Texas Diamond Jubilee and Southwestern Exposition shall be held in the year 1911, the "Diamond" Anniversary of the Independence of Texas.

Federal appropriations can be secured for this Exposition if we organize for it, request it and show by home support that we deserve it.

It is earnestly desired that you be present. Please answer on the return card attached, and greatly oblige, Yours for Greater Texas,

JOHN H. KIRBY, President.

Settlers are coming into the Red River and Wichita Valleys from all over the United States. How many more would come if some systematic and organized effort was made to advertise the advantages of this country is hard to estimate.

ONLY TEN VOTES

AT THE GILBERT DISTRICT LOCAL OPTION ELECTION.

THE DISTRICT GOES DRY

The Vote Stood Seven for Prohibition and Three Against.

From Monday's Daily.
The local option election in the Gilbert school district last Saturday passed off very quietly. The vote was exceptionally light and the polls looked as deserted as a soda fountain in December.

Only ten votes were cast during the entire day. Of these, seven counted for prohibition and three were anti. There are no saloons in the Gilbert district and the purpose of the election was to keep them out of the new town of Burkburnett.

The Longest Day of the Year.

On June 22 at 9 a. m. the sun enters the sign of Cancer and summer begins.

June 22 is the longest day of the year. The sun will then rise far in the northeast and set in the northwest; for a few hours in the morning and evening it will shine on the north side of houses and walls which run east and west. On a dark night the sunset glow can be followed all night long until it becomes the sunrise glow in the morning. Even at midnight the sun will be so short a distance below the ground that its radiance may be clearly seen lighting the sky in the north and extending upward toward the pole star. In Scotland the summer twilight is very high all night long, while in a slightly higher altitude the sun will, of course, not sink below the ground in the north, but will remain showing in the sky throughout the entire twenty-four hours.

BIG INCREASE

In Receipts of Local Postoffice—Index to Town's Growth.

The report of Acting Postmaster Ralph Darnell shows that during the month of May the receipts at the Wichita Falls postoffice from the sale of stamps, registered letters, money orders, etc., amounted to $1,351.98.

During the same month last year the receipts amounted to only a little more than $900. Year by year and month by month the postal receipts are steadily increasing.

Mr. Darnell also reports that there is not an unrented box in the office, over 1,100 boxes being in use.

Wichita Falls now receives fourteen mails by train each day, in addition to which there are two star routes and three rural routes.

COURT CONVENE

Grand Jury Sworn in and is Now in Session.

From Monday's Daily.
Judge A. H. Carrigan this morning convened the June term of the district court. Most of the morning was taken up in filling up the grand jury, which began its investigations immediately after the dinner hour.

Among other cases that will come before the grand jury is the shooting of the man at the City park several weeks ago by Officer Pickett.

It is rumored that another case of a sensational nature is to be investigated and the grand jury's report is awaited with much interest and speculation.

A Runaway—But No Damage.

From Monday's Daily.

This evening, about five o'clock a team hitched to a buggy and driven by W. M. King, of Munday, Texas, became frightened on Seventh street near the depot and ran up Seventh and down Indiana Avenue to the Moore-Richolt lumber yard where Mr. King reined them into the fence and stopped them. Neither he nor the buggy was injured in the least, the only damage being a slight breakage of harness. He steered the team clear of every obstruction and no loss was sustained by running into other vehicles.

Conductor Flack was promoted Wednesday to the position of train master of the first division with headquarters at Wichita Falls. This is a deserved promotion and his friends along the north end will be pleased to hear it.

TIMES WANT ADS.

They Cost But Little and Bring Big Results.

The efficiency of the Times want ads have been proven in the results they have brought on more than one occasion.

Jackson & Moore, real estate agents, are ready to testify to this fact. Several days ago they inserted the following advertisement in the want columns:

For Sale—For immediate acceptance 190 acres of land 1 1/4 miles from town. $14.50 per acre. Jackson & Moore.

Within less than two hours after the paper made its appearance upon the streets they had a customer for the farm and had closed the deal and held a certified check conditional upon the land being as represented.

The customer afterwards investigated and found everything as represented and the deal was closed.

The foregoing advertisement cost for one insertion only 12 cents.

NEW FIRE FIGHTING APPARATUS

Purchased by City Council at Abilene. Our Needs in Same Line.

Over at Abilene the city council has contracted for the purchase of a new combination hose wagon and chemical engine. The engine has a cylinder with a capacity of thirty-five gallons, and the wagon carries two hundred feet of chemical hose and one thousand feet of water hose. In addition it carries two extension ladders. This wagon will be a valuable addition to the fire fighting apparatus in our neighboring city and something that Wichita Falls needs badly.

Wichita Falls has about outgrown her present fire fighting apparatus and it is only a question of a short time until we will have to keep a fire team at the City Hall to run out with the hose wagon when an alarm is turned in.

A combination hose wagon and chemical engine, such as has been purchased by Abilene, it appears, would about fit our needs.

The letter stated that the company had closed a contract for the machinery for the new compress and that they would be ready to begin work immediately.

ELECTION ORDERED

BY COMMISSIONERS TO VOTE IOWA PARK DRY.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19TH

is Date Set for the Local Option Election.

Upon a proper petition being presented, the county commissioners ordered that a local option election be held in the Iowa Park district on Wednesday, June 19th.

Until recently there have been two saloons at Iowa Park, but a few months ago one of the saloons was absorbed by the other, and the only saloon in the town is conducted by O. E. Holley.

At the session today, the commissioners also ordered that an election be held in the Enterprise school district to determine whether or not a school tax of twenty cents should be voted.

No other important business was transacted at today's session and the court adjourned to meet next Monday as the board of equalization and to audit the books of the tax collector and other officers.

The Wichita Falls Development Company have awarded Smith & Schenk, architects of Fort Worth, the contract to draw up plans and specifications for twenty-four new residences to be built on the company's plat of ground across Crescent Lake from the court house. As soon as the plans are completed the company will advertise for bids for the construction of the work.

COUNCIL IS CONSIDERING

The Proposition Made by Gainsville Capitalist—Decision Saturday.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Will McKemie, of Gainsville appeared before the City Council at a called meeting last night to ask for a franchise to put in a sanitary sewer system in the city.

Mr. McKemie was accompanied by attorney Stewart also of Gainsville, and the two gentlemen presented their proposition to the Council in detail, and also submitted a draft of franchise which was thoroughly discussed by the Council members.

As Council wished more time to consider and to investigate some of its features more fully, the session last night was adjourned to convene again at half past ten o'clock this morning when the matter was again taken up with the result, it is believed, that Mr. McKemie and the Council came to an understanding and agreement as to the terms of the franchise.

Mr. McKemie and Mr. Stewart returned to Gainsville this afternoon, where they will make another draft for a franchise which will probably be submitted to the Council on Saturday morning.

If a franchise is granted him Mr. McKemie says that he will at once forgo the work of laying the sewers. Mr. McKemie, it is understood has considerable means himself and is associated with others who have almost unlimited capital.

Mr. McKemie and his associates are asking for a franchise for the use of the streets and alleys for the purpose of constructing and maintaining a system of sanitary sewers for a period of fifty years. A provision of the franchise provides that the city may buy the sewer system at the end of twenty-five years, the value to be appraised by a board to be appointed in a manner set out in the franchise.

Mr. McKemie binds himself to put the street back in repair where excavations are made for the sewer.

The ordinance provides that all patrons of the sewer shall be charged at a uniform rate and that the following shall be the maximum charges:

Stores and Offices—Water closets each per annum, $12; urinals, $6; sinks, $2.40.

Restaurants, chop houses, etc.—Water closets, $12; urinals, $6; sinks $2.40.

Barber shops.—Water closets, $12; urinals, $6; bath tubs, $3.

Livery stables and factories.—Same as barber shops, excepting attachments for drains and waste water which shall be $12 each.

Boarding houses and hotels:—14 rooms and under: Water closets, $15; urinal basin $7.50; sinks, $6. Over 14 rooms: Water closets, $20; wash basins, $10; sinks, $6; bath tubs, $2.50.

Private houses.—Water closets, $12; baths, $2; sinks, $2; lavatories, $2. Or all the above connections for a private house for the lump sum of $15 per annum.

When the gross receipts of the company reach $5,000 the franchise provides that there shall be a reduction in the charges of 25 per cent.

Mr. McKemie proposes to pay the city $2,000 for the sewers already laid in addition to which they propose to lay 15,000 feet additional. They ask the City Council to incorporate in the franchise an ordinance which will compel the property owners to tap the sewers when the mains are laid within a specified distance from the property affected.

While driving to town this morning from their home eight miles west of the city, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Allen encountered a terrific hail storm. The hail fell so heavily as to cause the horse to lose its way on the road and to prevent an accident on this account Mr. Allen crawled out of the buggy and groped along the shaft until he reached the bridle bits, to which he held and kept the horse from straying until the storm had abated. Mr. Allen was beaten severely in the face by the hail stones, but his injuries are not serious. After the storm Mr. and Mrs. Allen drove on to this city, where Mr. Allen is one of the members of the grand jury.

Ringgold, Texas June 5. A severe wind storm accompanied by rain struck Ringgold this morning at about 8:30. Several houses were blown from their foundations as were also the three churches. The Methodist church is almost a complete wreck. The Ringgold State Bank, the City Drug store, and the Davis and Cromwell grocery were damaged by falling bricks. A number of barns were unroofed and fences were blown down everywhere. The cotton gin which was under course of construction is a complete wreck. Local telephone wires are a tangled mass. No one was hurt.

STRUCK BY CYCLONE

SEVERAL BUILDINGS WRECKED AT RINGGOLD.

NO ONE WAS INJURED

But the Damage to Property Will Amount to Several Thousand Dollars.

From Thursday's Daily.

A small cyclone at Ringgold, a town about thirty miles east of this city near the boundary between Clay and Montague counties on the Katy road this morning wrecked a number of buildings and did great damage generally. The storm struck Ringgold at about 7:30 o'clock, unroofing buildings and lifting houses from their foundations. Among others, the bank building and two churches, the new cotton gin and two other brick buildings are reported to have been completely wrecked. All telegraph and telephone communication was broken during the storm and it was several hours before the actual extent of the damage could be learned. On this account rumors were afloat that the whole town had been destroyed and that a number of persons had been killed. So far as can be learned no fatalities resulted from the storm and no one was seriously injured.

REPORT OF DAMAGE

STORM'S FURY WRECKS BUILDINGS AND INJURES CROPS.

LOSSES ARE VERY HEAVY

In Many Sections But No Fatalities Resulted.

From Wednesday's Daily.

S. M. Butcher, of Iowa Park, was in town today and said that there was nothing in the rumor that that place was visited by a storm this morning. He said the rain was not heavy there, but between here and Iowa Park there was a very heavy rain. East Pond creek being out of banks and still rising when they came across it. There was a heavy hail in that part of the country. The water near Pond creek is running over the Denver tracks and a washout is threatened.

TENT BLOWN DOWN.

Methodist Meetings Will be Held at the Church

For the third or fourth time since the series of revival meetings begun the tent under which they are being held has been blown down by the storms.

When the tent was blown down this morning the canvas was badly torn and Rev. Stuckey authorized the Times to announce that the meetings will be held in the church until further announcement is made.

Hail Causes Loss.

Reports from the farmers near Wichita Falls, and from other nearby towns indicate that the heavy hail accompanying this morning's rain at many places, did great damage, particularly to the corn crop which was just in the stage of growth that it could easily be damaged by hail. No loss of live stock or serious damage to property has been reported.

Damage at Stoneburg.

Passengers from Bellevue on the north bound Denver train report that a storm at Stoneburg nine miles northwest of Bowie blew the Christian church off its foundation; damaging it to a considerable extent; and unroofing several houses, blew down small outhouses and barns. No loss of life was reported.

A report that two or three houses were destroyed at Jolly this morning could not be verified and it is thought that there was no storm at that place.

Damage at Byers.

The wind accompanying the rain and hail at Byers this morning damaged property to the amount of $300. The names of parties sustaining loss could not be ascertained.

Good Pasture For Stock.

I have plenty of fine grass pasture, on my place 1 1/2 miles north of town. Those having stock to be pastured can learn my terms by calling at my farm.

E. V. FRIBERG.

It is authoritatively announced that C. L. Fontains, commercial agent of the Katy at Galveston after June 10 will become general freight and passenger agent for the Wichita Falls & Northwestern, with headquarters at Wichita Falls.

From Wednesday's Daily.

During the rain and windstorm this morning the residence of J. L. Powell was shaken to such an extent that a large amount of plaster in the house fell from the walls and ceiling, but luckily none of the family were under it when it fell and no one was hurt.

HARGROVE ARRESTED.

Must Answer to Charge of Carrying Concealed Weapons.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Walker Hargrove, late of Bowie, but now a resident of Wichita Falls, who is reputed to be a dangerous man and whose presence at Bowie is the occasion of instant armament on the part of a number of citizens there, was placed under arrest by Sheriff A. M. Davis, Saturday night. Sheriff Davis learned that Hargrove was carrying a revolver and Saturday night found him in Higg's saloon near the Denver depot. Hargrove came along with the officer very quietly and peaceably and surrendered his weapon without protest.

His bond was fixed at $200 for his appearance before the county court yesterday morning, but on account of his having to appear before the court at Montague at that time, his hearing was postponed until a later date.

The gun found on Hargrove's person was an automatic Colt's of .34 calibre.

The new well gives every indication of producing fifty barrels and possibly more.

For several months there has been little activity in the Petrolia field, but since the new well has been brought in, there has been a great revival in interest and just now things are booming at Petrolia.

NEW TOWN OF QUANAH.

Government Selling Off Lots in Third Site in Pasture.

Lawton, Okla., June 3.—Sales began today at Quanah, the third Government town to be placed upon the market in the Kiowa-Comanche Indian pasture reserve, located nine miles west of Eschitt, which was sold last week. Bidding was spirited all day. The town is named after the great half-breed chief of the Comanches, Quanah Parker, and was selected by the chief as the most desirable spot in the reservation for a town. The chief and his three wives attended the sale and added much to the interest in the sale.

BOLT EXPLODES GAS TANK

Oil Tank Ignited in Turn and Flames Spread Over Entire Plant.

Special to the Times.

Gainesville, Tex., June 4.—Last night during the progress of an electrical storm lightning struck a gas tank in the vicinity of the Keel Grain & Elevator Company's plant, exploding the gas in the tank, which in turn set fire to the Keel Grain Company's oil tank, causing it to explode. The flames spread rapidly to the elevator, which at the time of the fire contained 50,000 or 60,000 bushels of wheat, and the entire plant together with its contents were soon destroyed.

On the railroad track alongside of the elevator were box cars loaded with wheat and they were also burned.

It is thought that the plant, together with its contents, were reasonably well insured, and an estimate of the total loss to the company, after the salvage has been sold, will not amount to more than $15,000 or $20,000.

No other buildings of any consequence were destroyed by the fire.

STRUCK BY A BALL

ARTHUR HUFF RENDERED INSEN-SIBLE BY BLOW ON HEAD.

VICTIM HAS RECOVERED

No Serious Results Will Follow the Accident.

While playing in a practice game of baseball at the park yesterday afternoon, Arthur Huff, the eighteen year old son of Judge R. E. Huff and wife, was struck on the back of the head by a pitched ball and a few minutes later fell in a faint upon the field and was unresponsive for nearly half an hour.
Young Huff was placed in a wagon and driven to the office of Dr. Burnham and Walker where he was recovered to consciousness and later returned to his home where he has already completely recovered from the effects of the blow. This morning he is able to be up and around as usual excepting the soreness caused by the bruise on his head, felt no bad effects from the severe blow.

Arthur was at the bat when he was hit and other than being rendered dizzy for a few seconds, experiencing no immediate injurious effects from the blow. He was able to run the bases and it was not until after his father had been retired and he went out to his place in the field that he fainted.
His father thinks perhaps that the reason in running the bases had something to do with his fainting as well as the blow.

The young man's hat was pushed back upon his head and protected it from the full force of the blow, which probably had had serious results but for this fact.

No Denial Can Be Made.
The mud Bowliettes have waded through this week emphasizes the need of good street crossings.
Who will deny this?—Bowle Cross members.

The people of any town will finally get tired of wading through mud shoe deeps. Then they will build side walks and street crossings, as Wichita has been doing and as Bowle will do.

Have you numbered your house?
Don't let the idea get covered with cobwebs.

WRECK ON THE VALLEY.

Five Cars Were Derailed at Dundee
Last Night.

The heavy rains yesterday morning were responsible for a freight wreck on the Valley road last night near Dundee.

Five freight cars were dished when the tracks gave way, and the resulting smash almost completely demolished the five freight cars.

No one was injured in the smashup

From Friday's Daily.
Public announcement was made today of the organization of the Wichita Falls Investment Company, a corporation having a capital stock of $50,000 fully paid in, organized for the purpose of investment in Wichita Falls real estate and the improvement of the same.

The stockholders in the new concern are Frank Kell, J. A. Kemp, J. C.
Whaley, A. F. Jones, George E. N.
Ball, T. R. T. Orth, T. B. Noble, Judge
Carrigan, Jobe Barnett and J. Markowitz.

Formal application for a charter for the new company has been filed with the Secretary of State at Austin and the following officers have been elected: President, T. B. Noble; Secretary, Jobe Barnett; General Manager, T. R.
T. Orth.

The company has established its headquarters in Room 12 of the Kemp-Kell building at the corner of Ohio avenue and Eighth street.

The company has already acquired over $50,000 worth of property in Wichita Falls, including the building occupied by Kerr & Hursh's hardware store, the Ed. Gorsline property, the old broom factory site, seven vacant 50-foot lots on Ohio avenue and the Presbyterian manse.

Spider Bites Prove Serious.

While picking blackberries last week
A. C. Guesner, a farmer living about six miles southwest of Wichita Falls, was bitten on the hand by a spider.

The flesh about the bite soon became inflamed and the hand was swollen to several times its natural size.

Blood poison set in and it may yet be necessary to amputate the member.

Miss Oda Pickett, the eighteen year old daughter of Deputy Marshal R. T.
Pickett, awoke several mornings ago to find her face swollen from the bite of an insect. Although applications to relieve the pain and to reduce the swelling have been applied, her face has continued to swell and the bite is causing the victim excruciating pain.

BUYS PARTNER'S INTEREST.

The W. F. Jourdan Furniture Company
Now Numbered Among Wichita's Mercantile Houses.

W. F. Jourdan has purchased the half interest of his partner, K. A.
White, in the Jourdan-White Furniture Co., and is now the owner of the entire business. The deal was closed yesterday and included the transfer of $12,000 in stock, all notes, accounts and other property in the business from Mr. White to Mr. Jourdan. The terms of the sale are private.

The business will be conducted at the old stand at the corner of Indiana avenue and Eighth street under the new firm name of the W. F. Jourdan Furniture Company.

Both a retail and wholesale business will be conducted by the firm and the Times wishes it unbounded success.

It is understood that Mr. White will soon go on the road for a big furniture house in St. Louis.

Another Runaway.

The horse that is worked to Burt Bean's delivery wagon became frightened near the residence of Mr. J. A.
Kemp yesterday afternoon and ran at breakneck speed down Ohio avenue.
He ran into three buggies along the way and all of them were more or less damaged. One of the buggies belonged to Dr. Coons and the names of the owners of the other two were not learned.

Near Tullis' paint shop a serious accident was prevented by the runaway wagon smashing into a telephone post. In a buggy just ahead was Mr. Darnell, who is old and almost helpless. If the post had not been struck his buggy would have been struck broad side and the collision might have resulted fatally for the old gentleman.

A MOVEMENT IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

At last people who have money to invest have decided to do what the Times has all along advocated—invest it in Wichita Falls property. For the past two years or more the demand for residences could not be supplied and it is known that many families have been compelled to leave here merely from the fact that they were unable to rent a home, and did not feel inclined or else were unable to buy a lot and build one of their own. The situation along this line will now be relieved, at least to some extent. Yesterday afternoon two companies were organized in this city for the express purpose of building homes for desirable tenants or purchasers and to otherwise develop the resources of Wichita Falls. One has a paid up capital of $20,000 and has already awarded the contract for the construction of fifteen neat cottages. The other and larger company is capitalized at $50,000, and will very likely use the money towards making improvements in the business and manufacturing portion of the city. And the Times will right here make the suggestion that a model opera-house for Wichita Falls should be one of the very first enterprises to be considered. This is one thing that the city needs and must have before we can lay claim to being the most enterprising city of 5,000 population in North-west Texas. Another important matter that should come in for consideration and action is an adequate sewerage system for the resident portion of Wichita Falls. At present the Times understands the city is not financially able to extend the sewerage system beyond its present limits, and if we are to secure a sewerage system for the resident portion at any time in the near future, private capital will have to put it in. It is believed that if the city council would agree to take the system off the hands of those who might be induced to put it in at actual cost after a certain term of years, that people with money to invest could be induced to take hold of the matter and push it through.

AS TO SEWERAGE.

The Times believes that the great majority of the citizens and taxpayers of Wichita Falls are opposed to the granting of a fifty-year franchise to Will McKenzie of Gainesville, or for that matter, to any other person, which will give him or them a virtual monopoly over the sewer rights of the city.

If possible the people of Wichita Falls want the city to own and directly control a public utility for this purpose. Their own experience with privately owned public utility corporations and the experience of other towns influence them to this view of the question.

The Times, without having consulted expert opinion, is under the belief that a satisfactory sewer system could be put in at a comparatively small cost. Whether this should be done now or whether we should wait until the town has grown larger and the necessity becomes more apparent is a question for the people themselves to decide.

In any event, before the city council give to any individual or corporation a monopoly over the sewers of this city, we believe that they would do well to wait, and to investigate the feasibility and probable cost of the city putting in its own sewers.

Wichita Falls in 1908 should have a population of 10,000 people. With the completion of the number of enterprises now under construction, this figure can easily be reached, and will be if we only keep pushing. Nothing is ever accomplished by pull-backs. They are town-killers instead of city builders. Wichita Falls fortunately has but few if any of them. Our people work together, and their united efforts are having the desired effect. With our six railroads, a cotton oil mill, corn press, mill, elevators, broom factory (the largest in the State), wholesale grocery house and numerous small concerns, we now have a tolerable large dinner-pull brigade. Other enterprises are in store for us, and we will secure them. By the time the Wichita Falls & Southern is finished, which will be not later than the early part of 1908, it will open up one of the large coal fields in the United States, and this of itself will attract the eye of large manufacturing enterprises. Before the end of this year, the Times firmly believes that it will be in a position to make the announcement that a large cotton mill company will among the various other enterprises that will be secured for this city. In all, the future of Wichita Falls is never greater than now, and day by day, and by leaps and bounds the prospects for making this city the commercial and railroad center of North-west Texas grow brighter. Our leaders are now thoroughly awake and their good work they are backed by the hearty good will and co-operation of our entire people.

The Times has been requested to make an appeal to the pride of all enterprising citizens of Wichita Falls and enlist their aid and encouragement in raising a fund for the purpose of making it possible for this thriving little city to have and maintain a brass band. We have the necessary talent and the boys are willing and ready to devote two or three hours of their time each night towards practicing, but do not feel that they are able to pay out of their own pockets $75.00 or $100.00 per month for the pay of a teacher, and for room rent and lights. As is well known, at present we have no brass band, and the need of such a musical organization is being felt now more than ever before. If some enterprising citizen will take hold of the matter and push it, the Times believes an amount sufficient to re-organize the band boys and place the organization on a firm financial footing can be subscribed in a day's time. Who will be the man that will take the matter up and push it along?

Wichita Falls has too many or not enough of the negro race. There are a few negroes who reside here whose services can be depended upon, but a great majority of them are idlers and worthless to any city or community. There should be a cleaning out of the worthless sort—both male and female, and the time for the work to begin is now at hand. If something is not done in an official way to compel these idle negroes to work, violence of some sort may be expected. Just how these idlers, who have better clothes than the negroes who work manage to get hold of them, is a question that no one seems able to answer satisfactorily. It is not the desire or the purpose of the Times to work up public sentiment against any industrious negroes. The few we have should be protected and will be. The balance of them should be forced to either go to work or hike.

The Wichita Falls & Southern will be running its trains into Archer City by October 1st. Nobody here or at Archer City doubts this statement. The only people that pretend to doubt reside at a little town down the road commonly known as Henrietta. They are a "quiet" people, and naturally it takes time to convince them of anything that has a tendency to do things. They finished their town nearly twenty years ago and seemingly think that all other towns should have followed their example. They should invest a sufficient amount of their capital in a railroad ticket and send one of their leading newspaper men up to Wichita Falls to see how we do things. After he got back he would probably be in a better frame of mind and instead of being jealous of the enterprise and push of Wichita Falls, would probably advise his people to wake up and do likewise.

It is now up to the Waters-Pierce Oil Company to reorganize and come back into the State with clean hands. The Honorable George Clark of Waco will no doubt show the company how to do it.

That fine of a million and a half is all right, provided that the Texas courts see that the money comes out of the offending corporation and not out of the pockets of the people who use the product. If the Waters-Pierce Company are permitted to work another re-organization scheme upon Texas, the matter of paying the million and a half in fines will not bother it much nor deter it from conducting its business by the same methods as heretofore.

T. H. Libby created a sensation at Houston by walking into the court house, accompanied by his attorney and his pastor, and asked the judge to grant him a new trial on the charge of lunacy. Libby had been convicted on a lunacy charge last March and sent to the asylum at Terrell, but made his escape from the second story of the institution by means of a rope made from bed clothes, and his appearance in the court room at Houston yesterday was the first news the authorities of the asylum at Terrell had heard of him since his escape. He was granted a new trial.

Some of the republican papers are citing as proof that it will not do to elevate union labor leaders to positions of public trust the case of Mayor Schmit of San Francisco. They are silent, however, as to the conduct of the numerous hoodlums that have held the office of mayor of the city of Philadelphia. The only reason for this presumably is that the hoodlum mayors of Philadelphia have dignified their hoodlum methods by making liberal contributions of their ill-gotten gains to the national republican campaign fund. Had Schmit done likewise his troubles now would not hang so heavily upon him.

Don't worry. Wichita Falls is all right. So are all of her neighbors. They are prosperous and growing, and Wichita Falls does not envy any of them their prosperity. Envy never built a city yet. It takes push and pull to do this. We have both and they are at work and are too busy to pay any attention to the petty jealousies of some narrow minded people who happen to be citizens of some of our neighboring towns. Their tactics will not work.

So long as we have no sewerage system beyond a few blocks in the main business portion of the city, a good trash mover and gully washer rain like that of this morning are welcome visitors to most citizens. The fellow who happens to have his home situated on a low lot, however, is forced to take care of all the tin cans and rubbish in his immediate neighborhood, or else have it carted off at his own expense.

The Daily Times is growing. So is the Weekly Times. Advertising space in either is worth all or more than is asked for it. We have no circulation liar on our force, but our subscription list is growing daily and our books are open to the inspection of advertisers. For the present the price for advertising space will remain as now, and due notice will be given when an advance will take place.

Waco is warning the idle colored bucks that they must go to work or hike. Ableme is hitting them for about fifteen dollars or a term of thirty days exercises on the county road, which is, itself, a fair warning—Ableme Reporter.

Dallas, Fort Worth and other towns are busy now making their population claims. Wichita Falls has a population—well, let us see—about ten thousand, anyway—but they're not here yet.

The Times observes that many people in Wichita Falls have cleaned up their remises and have cut the weeds. Have you?

No, this is not a boom. Just a steady and substantial growth. Something that Wichita has been getting for all these years.

BENEDICTION.

The most pleasing features of the program was the class song.
It made a decided hit and is so good that the Times reproduces it about your colleges fair Harvard and old Yale.

Whose banners brave the gale
The flag of Cambridge, and old Oxford's noble blue.
The shores of England over hearts both staunch and true.
From the shores of Frisco up to distant Portland, Maine,
To the Philippines and away back home again.
College, University or school can ever show
So true, so great a crew of students as we know.

Chorus.

Oh, students of our Texas land, we've got the sand,
We've got the violet and white,
Our motto is "Excelsior." Rah! Rah! Rah!
The kind who do just right,
The students of our public schools,
Who are violet and white,
They shall be, Rah! Rah! Wichita! Wichita!
The one you think us bright.

about your oil fields, railroads, coal fields and what not,
The Times brimful of news just off the telegraph,
The things you hear down town, we're sure we've not named half,
The thing to be found in the town is up on Thirteenth street,
Our room—our class the same that here you meet,
Our young damsels fair and three bright youths so pure,
Another such a class, of this we feel quite sure.

GRUESOME STORY

ORCHARD RESUMES STORY OF CRIME AND ASSASSINATION.

THE BOMB IS PRODUCED

With Which It is Alleged Orchard and Adams Sought the Death of Governor Peabody.

Boise, Idaho, June 6.—Harry Orchard, who says his true name is Albert Horsley, and who assassinated former Governor Frank Steunenberg at Caldwell on the night of December 30th, 1905, continued his gruesome story as a witness against William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners this morning.

Orchard began his day's testimony by giving the names of several persons he met in San Francisco when he went there to assassinate Fred Bradley, who had formerly been manager of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine, in the Couer d'Aleno district in Idaho. These names were related in order to pave the way for the possible corroboration of Orchard's testimony on this point.

Orchard said he was known a part of the time in San Francisco by the name of Jarry. Leaving California, Orchard returned to Denver, wearing the uniform of a federal soldier. He said he immediately called Pettibone on the telephone. "Pettibone asked me how Bradley was," continued Orchard. "I told him Bradley was alive when I left San Francisco, but that it was reported that he had lost both eyes in the fight and would probably be deaf for the rest of his life. Pettibone said 'That is better than if he had been killed outright; that Bradley would now be a living example.' Orchard said that he asked for money and received $125.00 from Pettibone, with the assurance that he would get more whenever he wanted it. Orchard said Haywood next asked him "to go to work on Judge Gabbart of the Supreme Court of Colorado." "He said Judge Gabbart," Orchard went on, "had been rendering decisions against Moyer, who we were trying to get out of the Telluride jail on habeas corpus. I went to Judge Gabbart's house the following Sunday night with Steve Adams and we were armed with shot guns, but we did not see the Judge. Haywood also wanted us to try again at Governor Peabody, saying he did not care how we got rid of him. At this time it seemed that Peabody was about to be elected for another term. Steve Adams, Billy Aeberman and I set to work and made a bomb. We put it under the side walk at Thirteenth street and Grant avenue in Denver. Governor Peabody walked along here every morning. Adams and I watched for the governor as he came out. Just as the governor walked over the place where the bomb was two heavy coal wagons came out of an alley and passed over the wire leading to the bomb and we could not pull it."

Bomb Produced.

The bomb buried by Orchard in Canyon City for the purpose of killing former Governor Peabody was produced in court.

Indictments Returned By Grand Jury.

Indictments have been returned by the grand jury and bench warrants issued and the persons indicted taken into custody of the court as follows: Zed Wilson of Electra, charged with rape; F. F. Hughes, charged with burglary at night and a man named Stockdale, alias Stocky, on the same charge. The last named individuals are indicted for the robbery of Robertson's store on the night of February 5th. They are now in jail at Montague.

Other indictments have been returned, so it is reported, and the grand jury will probably finish its business next Saturday.

RAIN AND WIND STORM

Swept Over Wichita This Morning, But No Damage Resulted. From Wednesday's Daily.

The storm which swept over this city at an early hour this morning did so great damage in this vicinity, so far as has been learned.

The threatening clouds which overcast the sky had all the characteristics of a cyclone cloud and caused scores of people to seek the shelter of storm cellars.

During the storm daylight turned into darkness for several minutes. Rain fell in torrents and for half an hour the streets resembled canals.

Some hail fell in Wichita Falls, but not enough to cause any damage.

The wind blew things about a bit, but the blow had no serious consequences.

Sullivan Gets New Berth.

R. J. Sullivan, who recently resigned as superintendent of the North Texas division of the M. K. & T., has been appointed as superintendent of the Shreveport and Mineola divisions and the McKinney branch of the same system.

His health, brought on by the excessive duties of handling the large North Texas division, was given as the cause of Mr. Sullivan's retirement, and at the time it was said that he would take a trip to Mexico to recuperate. Before he could make his preparations to leave, however, officials of the Katy persuaded him to accept the post at Greenville, where the duties are much less arduous than at Denison.

Will Not Defy Injunction.

Muskogee, I. T., June 6.—William H. Murray will not call an election in the new state in defiance of the federal court injunction. Acting upon the advice of prominent Democrats of the state, he has decided to withdraw his call sent out yesterday, but not published. He will reconvene the constitutional convention after the supreme court decision is rendered, not later than June 14, to set a new date for the election.

As a further proof that railroads settle up the country, no sooner was the contract signed for the building of a road into Archer City, two large pastures, one belonging to H. J. Scott of Toronto Canada, containing 40,000 acres, and one owned by J. W. Harris of Kansas City, also containing 40,000 acres, were cut up into small tracts and placed on the market for sale to actual settlers.—Mineral Wells Index.

FULLY ORGANIZED

OFFICERS OF THE WICHITA DEVELOPMENT COMPANY.

FIFTEEN MODERN HOUSES

Are to be Built at Once and Improvements Made in New Addition. From Saturday's Daily.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Wichita Development Company in this city yesterday afternoon the following directors were elected: C. W. Bean, J. W. Stone, T. C. Thatcher, T. R. T. Orth, and J. T. Montgomery.

The above mentioned directors have organized with the following officers: President, C. W. Bean; Vice-President, T. R. T. Orth; Secretary and Treasurer, T. C. Thatcher.

As was stated yesterday, the Wichita Development Company is a corporation with a capital stock of $20,000, organized for the purpose of building residences and cottages on ninety-nine lots owned by the company across Crescent Lake, northwest of the court house.

Plans and specifications for fifteen of architects and as soon as completed will be submitted to contractors for bids.

Other contracts will be let as soon as the first fifteen houses are under construction and the entire addition will be covered with substantial and tasteful structures.

Cement sidewalks are to be put down at once and the streets will be graded and gravelled. Shade trees will be planted and the water mains will be extended through the addition and electric lights will be established.

A member of the board of directors of the new company stated to a representative of the Times this morning that houses and lots in the new addition would either be rented or sold on the payment plan as the prospective customers might prefer.

The capital stock of the corporation is fully paid in, and the life of the corporation can be continued as long as its business is found profitable.

SOME SPRINTING, SURE ENOUGH.

Prisoner Leads Officers 5-Mile Chase and Then Gives Them the Ha, Ha. From Saturday's Daily.

Talk about the sprinting qualities of antelopes, jack rabbits, greyhounds and other animals noted for their speed. They are snails compared to the fleetness of foot of one Sid Davidson, who made his escape from servitude on the street gang yesterday.

Davidson was working out a fine imposed for some public offense, but freedom appealed to him. Watching his chances, he sneaked away and was out of sight before his absence was noticed.

Upon the discovery of Davidson's escape, George Dobson, the overseer, at once communicated with Marshal Gwinn, and the two started out behind a speedy horse to recapture their man.

They came upon Davidson unawares about a mile from town and were about three hundred yards from him when he discovered his pursuers. Dobson says that they never succeeded in getting any closer to their man and Gwinn corroborates the statement.

The fugitive calmly stretched forth his nimble limbs and skimmed across the terra firma, over fences and through briars and brush as swiftly and as easily as an April breeze across the prairie. Dobson and Gwinn followed panting and breathless, in relays in which the horse and buggy was brought into service, but when Davidson waved them a farewell salute before disappearing into a thicket over the Archer county line, the distance between the pursued and his pursuers had not been diminished by the hundredth part of an inch.

From Friday's Daily.

E. H. Thomas of Frederick was the guest of his uncle, I. W. Gullahorn, today. Mr. Thomas reports that everything is on the boom at Frederick and that the town is growing at a rapid rate. He is much pleased with Wichita Falls and says that next to Frederick there is no place he likes as well.

An indication of the activity in the Wichita real estate market is shown in the records of County Clerk Reed. The transfer record shows that during the last three days in May property valued at over $50,000 changed hands.

OLD SETTLER.

From Thursday's Daily.

"Thank goodness, there is a happy medium between self importance and abject diffidence; else this old world would go topay turvey.

"That reminds me that in the early days of the Texas frontier a young man came from an Eastern college loaded down with theory. In his estimation, what he did not know was not embodied in book form. He was the portage of a rich uncle, who sent his nephew west to learn ranch life, with a view of making him a cattle baron.

One can imagine the self-importance that oozed out of this young man, who had listened to the wise professor's lecture about the anatomy of a cow but if called on to pick out the cow that gave buttermilk (?) would have been compelled to confess their ignorance.

"The first morning's experience did much to knock the halo from around this young man's theory.

"The outfit was preparing for a day of marking and branding and little time and attention was given to the college graduate from the East. But he did not propose to be ignored. He got busy asking questions and was always referred to the 'range boss' by the other boys.

"Now this same range boss happened to be a wild Irishman by the name of O'Connor, who had an utter contempt for what he called a 'spid-er-legged dude.' Consequently, when the young man had chased around from place to place trying to locate O'Connor, he found him dismounted near the cook's shanty, cinching up his broncho.

"I say, me good fellow, how far is it to where those gentle bovines are to be decorated with the insignia of ownership of me dear uncle?"

"O'Connor looked up from beneath his shaggy brows and eyed the young man with contempt, as he blurted out, 'Oh, to blazes wid yez foine talk, ye blubberin' idiot. If I had me way I'd chunk ye down a prairie dog hole where yez could tell yer story to the snake and owl, instead of snoopin' around here with yez baby talk.'

"But, my good man, you do not seem to understand me. I take great interest in this ideal life of the cowboy."

"I suppose so," remarked O'Connor. "I don't know what yez mean, but I am willing to do what is right about it."

"Then if you will kindly order me a horse, I will take great pleasure in accompanying you, so that I may take observation and make suggestions that may prove helpful in simplifying your work."

"Say, Tucker," shouted O'Connor to a cowboy near by, 'saddle up that old flea-bitten gray and turn him over to this dude—I'm off for the pen'."

"Following instructions, Tucker saddled one of the old outlawed cayuses that had been turned loose for a year. This old skate always took the bit in his teeth and ran away.

"So it happened when the young man from the East was mounted one of the boys came galloping up, yelling 'Yip! Yip! Yahee!' Away went the old cayuse like he was shot out of a gun, carrying the young man from the East far out over the prairie and it was the noon hour before he returned, sore, dejected and humbled."

Seymour's Compress.

Work on the compress and ice plant is going forward rapidly. The walls of the ice plant building are about completed and it will be finished in a short time. The main trouble now is getting the machinery. Ice plant factories are overwhelmed with orders and it will probably be the middle of July before our plant begins to turn out the frozen product. The compress will be ready in ample time for the coming season. Thomas Self, who has the contract for putting in the plants, was up from Crockett this week to see how things were getting along.—Seymour Banner.

POLLARD STANDS PAT.

Holds to His Opinion on the New Liquor Bill.

Austin, Tex., June 4.—Thomas B. Love, speaker of the house in the Thirtieth legislature, was here today and had a conference with Assistant Attorney General Pollard regarding the latter's ruling on the Baskin-McGregor liquor bill. Mr. Love submitted authorities to Judge Pollard to show that the ruling made by the judge to the effect that all saloons will have to close for a period of from ten to fifteen days is a wrong construction of the law. It appears that most of the authorities had been submitted to Judge Pollard by the delegation which was here Saturday. Judge Pollard, however, has not shown any inclination to change or modify his ruling on the question.

Speaker Love said that he still maintained the position he had taken as announced in an interview, that the saloons will not have to close their places of business from the time that the law goes into effect until a new license is issued. He contends that under the law the old licenses will not expire until the new one is issued.

He takes issue with Judge Pollard, as contained in the latter's statement, that the intent of the legislature can not be taken into consideration as a basis for the construction of a law. Mr. Love declared that the intent of the legislature is what is to be taken into consideration in construing a new law, and all the facts surrounding the enactment of the law must be taken into consideration.

Continuing the speaker asserted that all courts have so held in passing on the acts of the legislature. Strictly speaking he declared that the legislature can not do anything unintentional. He said that an effort had been made to provide that all licenses shall not expire on July 11, or the time that the new law became effective, but this was defeated.

A Fair Census.

Poppyland.

In Washington the census bureau is even now making preparations for the national census to be taken in 1910. It is a vast work, involving infinite detail, and must be carefully planned. The millions of people who inhabit the United States are to be enumerated, together with the live stock, and comprehensive reports also are sought on the innumerable industries of the country, its development and resources. That all of this can be done with absolute accuracy is out of the question, but it can be done in a far more thorough manner than the census records of the past bear out in many, many instances is certain. The faithful enumerators are in the minority, and in self-protection the interested public should see to it that returns as nearly correct as it is humanly possible to make them should be sent to Washington for final summing up and publication.

FOUND DEAD IN WELL

BODY OF MRS. McCURT WHO HAD BEEN MISSING SINCE MAY 24.

HEAD HORRIBLY CRUSHED

And Body was Only Partly Clothed.
Brother-in-law Suspected.

By Associated Press.
Minneapolis, Minn., June 5.—The body of Mrs. Catherine McCart of Minneapolis, Minn., who has been missing since May 24, was found yesterday by detectives in an abandoned well upon the farm of George Kattelbach, a few miles from the city. Her head was crushed and the body was partially clothed. Kattelbach is a brother-in-law of the dead woman. He barricaded himself in his house last night.

Iowa Park, Tex., June 4.—The teachers for our public school next year have been selected as follows: Lee Clark, superintendent; John J. Clark, principal; Misses Johnnie Arnold, Ada-lee Gallman and Emma Haynes. The only change made in the faculty is that John J. Clark takes the place held this year by E. M. Yeakley, who did not apply for the position. The school will be in excellent hands and we predict a very successful year.

Mrs. J. Kaufman and daughter, Miss Blanche, who have been living two miles east of this place, left this evening for Sulphur Springs, Ark., where they have rented a home to spend the summer vacation, but they contemplate locating somewhere near that

ABOUT READY.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Nearly everything is in readiness at the broom factory for the turning of the wheels tomorrow in the initial day's work in the new enterprise.

A number of hands are already at work preparing the straw for the winding and stitching machines.

The new factory is equipped with seventeen winding machines and three stitchers, and the machinery throughout the factory is of the latest and best patterns.

A number of the old hands who left the city when the old factory burned are returning to go to work again.

About sixty hands will be employed from the start.

Terrific Hail at Amarillo.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Amarillo, Texas, June 4.—One of the most terrific hail storms ever known here inflicted damage in Amarillo and surrounding country yesterday evening. It came at about six o'clock, when many vehicles were on the streets.
Hail made horses frantic and caused many runaways. The hail broke many window lights in town and injured field crops. The storm was accompanied by high wind and considerable rain.

Receiver is Probable and Methods of Standard Oil Co. May Be Exposed.

Austin, Texas, June 3.—The verdict rendered by the jury in the Waters-Pierce Oil Company amounts practically to a confiscation of the property of the company in Texas, while the threatened receivership would mean an exposure of the Standard Oil system and its methods.

The testimony in the defense of the trial showed that the company has about one and one-half million in accounts in Texas. Should the penalties in Texas be collected in full, County Attorney Brady of Travis county, will receive one of the largest fees ever earned by an attorney in Texas. The penalties amount to a total of $1,623,- 000, of which $1,459,500 accrues under the anti-trust laws of 1899 and $74,000 under the anti-trust laws of 1903.

Under the anti-trust laws of 1899
County Attorney Brady receives 25 per cent of the penalties as a fee, and under the anti-trust laws of 1903 he receives 10 per cent of the first $1,000 and 5 per cent of the balance of the penalties. This will give Mr. Brady a fee of $391,045.

Receivership Would Expose Trust Methods.

The administration of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company by a receiver, if one should be appointed by Judge Brooks next Saturday, pending the decision of the higher courts on the case, will be a new regime in the oil business in Texas.

Under the receivership the business will be open more or less to publicity, and it is predicted that methods which have prevailed in the oil business will no longer exist.

The law under which application for a receiver was made was enacted at the last session of the Legislature.
Texas had no law covering this point in penalty cases, and when the Waters-Pierce Oil Company was ousted six years ago, the State was never able to collect penalties.

The new law creates a lien on all the assets of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company in Texas, and in this way prevent the disposal or removal from the State, so the State will be able to collect penalties if the case is affirmed by the higher courts.

"The State is in a position where it believes it will be able to collect its penalties," said Assistant Attorney General Lightfoot today. "There will be no compromise. The State can collect the penalties under this law, and it will, do it if the case is affirmed."

Many residents of Wichita Falls were badly frightened last night by the ominous black clouds, torn and illuminated with the wild, zig-zag flashes of lightning. The cloud spread over the heavens in the north and west, the air was still and the heat was almost insufferable. This combination of atmospheric conditions was enough to give rise to apprehension in the imagination of many, but the clouds suak back against the horizon after a sprinkle of rain-drops and the danger had passed.

From some inexplicable cause a work train consisting of about twenty cars and carrying 200 men, mostly Mexicans, has been held in the yards here since yesterday evening. This crew is on its way to Amarillo to push building and ballast work on the Fort Worth and Denver between that place and Washburn.

THE SHRINE OF SILENCE.

WRITTEN FOR THE TIMES.

"Be still, and know that I am God."

Go, thou, into the silence,
There thou shalt find thy God,
Who knoweth every pitfall
Along life's thorny sod.

Go, then, where 'tis quiet;
There thou shalt surely glean Golden truths from the Master
To make thy mind serene.

When weak in mind and body,
There thou shalt find relief;
There thou shalt hold communion
With one who taught belief.

Seeking for the unseen censors,
Swinging from faith's stout rod,
There thou shalt leave thy sorrow,
There be one with thy God.

Dig in the mine of mystery;
Have faith and thou shalt know
That deep down in cool, still dells
The fairest flowers grow.

Leave behind the rushing throng
And go where all is still;
There thou shalt be lifted up,
And understand God's will.

Discoveries sweet and strange,
Shall make thee stand in awe
With throbbing heart, with bounding pulse,
Before revealed law.

Oh, go into the silence,
The surest place on earth,
To find the fount of wisdom;
To know thy greatest worth.

The Status of the Street Railway.

It is believed that Wichita's prospects for securing a street railway at least in the immediate future have gone glimmering.

At a meeting about two weeks ago the city council referred the franchise back to the promoters, after making some changes from the original draft.

Here so far as the general public was concerned all track of the franchise and the proposed railway was lost.

The sewer franchise renewed interest in the street railway proposition and this morning the Times learned that the street railway prospects had been given a quiet burial.

From the information given the Times, it appears that the city council learned that the railway promoters did not intend at this time to build more tracks within the city than would give them a line to and from the irrigation lake, where it was proposed to establish a pleasure resort.

The majority of the council, it is said, were adverse to giving the promoters a blanket franchise, giving the rights to the use of any and all streets in the city under these conditions, and on the other hand the promoters would not accept a franchise under any other conditions.

This is the situation in which the proposed street railway rests and it now seems improbable that any attempt will be made to re-secure the franchise from its position of "inocuous desuetude."

HOME TALENT BALL TEAM.

Organized to Play Other Home Talent Teams in Neighboring Towns.

From Thursday's Daily. At a meeting held at Collier & Hendricks' clothing store last night, an organization was perfected for an all home talent baseball team.

This team will not in any way interfere with the salaried team which is to be organized here soon. The boys are arranging a game with Bowie for next week and will get dates with other towns as soon as they can be arranged.

We urge that you patronize the games, as we are depending on the gate receipts for the support of the team.

The Revival Meeting.

From Thursday's Daily. The services last evening were held at the Methodist church. The threatening weather about church time kept many at home and the congregation numbered twenty-six including the preacher and the singer.

Rev. L. S. Barton had gone to Sherman for a day or so and the services were conducted by the singer, W. J. Ramsey. A test showed that four of the twenty-six present were not Christians.

Bro. Ramsey had prepared a sermon for the hour, but after the congregation proved so small he discarded it and made a common sense heart to heart talk to those who were unconverted.

As a result of the services two young ladies gave their hearts to God. Rev. Stuckey, being the only minister of the town present, opened the doors of his church and in the absence of the other pastors, their church doors also. The ladies who were converted gave their names for membership in the Methodist church and Rev. Stuckey announced that they would be received next Sunday evening.

Services will be held at the Methodist church until further notice at 9:30 a. m. and 8:30 p. m.

In our mention yesterday of the organization of the Wichita Falls Investment Company the capital stock was named at $50,000. This is just half the amount that the capital really is. The Times can be excused for the error because it has not become accustomed to think in such big figures.

An interesting little program will be rendered by the boys of Mary Immaculate Academy, Friday, June 14, at 7 o'clock in the auditorium of the Academy. These young gentlemen have issued invitations to their exercises and their parents and friends will feel proud of the efforts of "our boys of the 20th century."

"CAMERA DELEGATE"

Supplements the Walking Delegate the Unions.

Chicago, Ill., June 6.—The International union "walking delegate" was placed yesterday by a person using a "snap shot" camera under his hat. The "camera delegate" is a new innovation in organized labor circles, a combination "walking delegate" and "camera delegate" who takes pictures of buildings under construction, so that he can call a strike on the office without visiting the building. It is planned to photograph every building in Chicago where union men are at work as well as a number of non-union men are employed. The pictures will be given in evidence with the pictures to enable the officials to keep track of every building industry from day to day.
