NUMBER 42.

PRESIDENT IS SILENT

ROOSEVELT WILL MAKE NO REPLY TO HASKELL'S CHARGES MADE PUBLIC LAST NIGHT.

FUND BY SUBSCRIPTION

Proposed By Haskell for Money to Fight Roosevelt and Hearst is Not Viewed With Favor.

Special to the Times. Oklahoma City, Oct. 1.—Gov. Haskell's appeal for popular funds with which to fight Hearst and Roosevelt was received with mixed opinions today, many condemning the plan and other leaders wanting to drop the entire dispute. So far Haskell has not filed any suits against the president or Hearst and does not intimate when he will.

Roosevelt Will Not Answer Haskell. Special to the Times. Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—Otto Praeger, correspondent of the Texas news service, was advised by Secretary Loeb today that President Roosevelt had read Haskell's scorching letter in the morning papers today and that he, Roosevelt, will not reply to any of Haskell's charges.

Haskell Wants Funds to Fight Roosevelt and Hearst.

Special to the Times. Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 30.—Governor C. N. Haskell, recently resigned treasurer of the democratic national committee, has made an appeal to the people of Oklahoma for financial assistance to enable him to make a fight against President Roosevelt, William Randolph Hearst and Oklahoma interests whom, he asserts, are attempting to blacken his character. This novel procedure is included in a signed statement published in the Guthrie Leader today. After reciting the facts leading up to his resignation, the governor states that he "fights for honest people" and asks "will I have their support?"

The Oklahoma interests, whom he says as governor he has opposed, encouraged Hearst and the president to aid and lead their fight. "Can any sensible man realize why Hearst and Roosevelt should have made their fight on me when I am not a candidate," he asks, "save only at the instigation of the machine existing in Oklahoma?"

Believes in Bryan. "I was from the beginning and am now a firm believer in W. J. Bryan. I believe he stands for the principles of government that will lead the American people out of the wilderness of trust control and monopolistic oppression."

The Governor says that the Oklahoma interests have large funds; that the president has at his command the organization of the federal government and that Mr. Hearst has unlimited means and a string of newspapers.

"As for me, I am not possessed of wealth," the statement concludes, "and receive a salary but barely enough for the expense of my family and myself. I am giving my entire time to the welfare of Oklahoma. I can make the fight against all of these interests and win with the support of the people."

Frank With Honest Men. "I want to be frank with every honest man in Oklahoma, and, in that frankness, it is proper for me to say that I not only want your moral support, but some small financial assistance to pay the expense of this great conflict. Postage, paper, labor and other items of expense can only be incurred when I have the means to meet them, and I do not consider that I am going beyond the bound of propriety when I say that the very fact that I am being fought within our State by the element I have mentioned should be conclusive proof to the common people that I am standing firmly for honest government and against graft, greed and corporate oppression. This being the case, I ask for your assistance, not in large amounts, because a few thousand dollars will be ample for the fight, but I do ask that the multitude weigh this matter, realize the great odds against me and render such financial assistance as they deem proper."

Meet in Chicago Next Year. By Associated Press. Denver, Colo., Oct. 1.—The American Bankers' Association today voted to meet next year in Chicago.

Revolutionary Leader Arrested. San Antonio, Tex., Oct. 1.—Callisto Guerela was arrested today by United States Marshal Lancaster, charged with violating the neutrality laws, growing out of an uprising at Las Vegas, N. M., last June. He is believed to be a revolutionary leader. His hearing will take place tomorrow. Twenty arrests are on for other alleged revolutionary leaders.

Gin Owner's Narrow Escape. Special to the Times. Mexia, Tex., Oct. 1.—W. B. Jackson, white, narrowly escaped an awful death at his gin this morning when his clothing became caught in the shafting and he was whirled around, but the engineer, K. Storey, risked his life and held Jackson. All of the latter's clothing was torn off and his injuries are not serious.

Alderdice Will Go on the Stump. Special to the Times. Waxahachie, Tex., Oct. 1.—J. M. Alderdice, recent candidate for the nomination for the office of State superintendent of public instruction, today accepted an invitation to stump in Eastern States for the national democratic ticket.

WICHITA EXHIBIT AT OKLAHOMA CITY

From Saturday's Daily. Secretary F. H. Gohlke of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce this afternoon is packing an exhibit of farm products from the Wichita country for shipment to the Oklahoma State fair, which opens next week.

Farmers of this section have contributed liberally to the exhibit, which will fairly illustrate the diversity and quality and yields of the crops grown in this section. John Young, of the firm of Ward & Young, has been selected to go to Oklahoma City to look after the exhibit and to explain to all inquirers the agricultural opportunities offered in this section. Mr. Young is well qualified for that purpose and it is expected that good results will follow the exhibit.

The new pamphlets being gotten out by the Chamber of Commerce will be distributed by Mr. Young. After the Oklahoma City fair is over the exhibit will be shipped to Dallas to be exhibited at the Dallas State fair.

THE RATE HEARING.

Will Conclude Hearing in Austin and Washington.

By Associated Press. St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 1.—The hearing which the interstate commerce commission is conducting here to protest against the increased freight rates to and from the southwest will be completed at Austin and Washington, according to the announcement made today. The session at Austin will be held late in November.

R. A. Thompson, engineer for the Texas commission, took the stand today.

From Monday's Daily.

H. C. Willey happened to a painful and quite serious accident last Saturday afternoon, while working on the Clara school house. The scaffold on which he was working broke loose from the building and he fell with it to the ground, breaking his collar bone and was otherwise bruised up. Dr. McGehee set the bone and Mr. Willey is getting along nicely.—Burk Burnett Star.

BUSINESS MEN TO GO TO STAMFORD

An invitation from the Stamford Commercial Club was received by the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce to assist in the welcome to Messrs. Yoakum, Trumbull and others at Stamford October 6th. At a directors' meeting this morning the invitation was favorably acted upon and a business men's excursion will be run on that date. It was decided also that an excursion be run to Byers and Petrolia on the 8th inst. to cultivate closer relations with the outlying territory.

A proposition from Pell City, Ala., from a firm of shovel manufacturers, was received, but as the plant would be in the nature of an experiment, owing to the manufacture of a new patent it is doubtful if serious consideration will be given it.

Messrs. Kell, Bean and Huff were appointed a committee to further investigate the telephone situation with reference to improved service pending the installation of a new equipment.

Roosevelt Sends Confidential Friend to Look into Disension in Republican Headquarters.

By Associated Press. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 1.—W. J. Bryan arrived here early today, after campaigning nearly a month in the East, Middle West and Northwest. A Romantic Episode.

New York, Sept. 30.—A special to the World from Brockton, Mass., says: It is said that the fact has never been published that Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, before she became Mrs. Bryan, was once expelled from school on account of taking a carriage ride with Mr. Bryan. The Rev. Julian S. Wadsworth, pastor of the Central Episcopal church of Brockton, accompanied them on that memorable ride. The future Mrs. Bryan was then attending the Jacksonville Presbyterian college in Illinois. It was when Mr. Bryan and Wadsworth were students in Jacksonville. She was later reinstated, and still later became valedictorian of her class, as did Mr. Bryan of his class.

Roosevelt Sends Spy to New York. By Associated Press. Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—It was learned today that President Roosevelt had sent a confidential friend to New York to look into the workings of the republican national committee headquarters there, where dissatisfaction is said to have arisen regarding the conduct of the campaign.

Houston, Tex., Oct. 1.—Henry Bates, aged 45 years, a real estate dealer, was attacked and beaten unconscious as he was entering his home early today by two men who made good their escape. It is believed that they assaulted Bates because of an old grudge instead of for the purpose of robbery, as nothing was taken from his person. The men were well dressed. Bates is unable yet to name his assailants.

HEADQUARTERS SHOWS AMOUNT CONTRIBUTED THROUGH THE NEWSPAPERS.

TIMES FUND IS GROWING

Common People are With Bryan on Question of Publicity of Campaign Contributions.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 1.—The democratic national headquarters today made public an itemized statement showing that the campaign contributions from newspapers to date had reached a total of $84,994.

If no other result has been accomplished by the recent disclosures concerning men prominent in the councils of both the republican and democratic parties, much attention has been directed to the campaign funds of the two parties and in his last letter, Mr. Bryan has driven President Roosevelt into silence.

The republicans are in a hole on the publicity subject. Roosevelt says the reason why they don't want publicity before the election is that the democrats would seek to misrepresent the motives of some of the corporations contributing to the republican fund, and would seek to cast unjust suspicion upon the republican candidates if the names and amounts were made known before the election.

In answering Mr. Roosevelt, the commoner says: "Your argument, if sound, would prevent publication after the election, for why should an unjust suspicion be cast upon officials after the election any more than before?"

"Does not the secrecy before election increase this suspicion? We are going to give you an opportunity to misrepresent the motives of those who give to our campaign fund and to arouse all the suspicions you can; we are going to prove to the people that we are making a fight for the whole people and not for those who have been enjoying privileges and favors at the hands of the government and we expect that the honest sentiment of the country will rebuke the party whose convention refused to endorse any kind of publicity and whose candidates are not willing that the people should know until after the polls are closed what predatory interests have been active in the support of the republican party."

Mr. Bryan need not make any explanation or apology for the publicity plank in the democratic platform, but every democrat should approve this plank by sending in a dollar to aid in the cause of the people.

The Times Bryan and Kern campaign fund is growing in response to the lively interest aroused in the campaign by the passages between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Roosevelt.

Every day sees more dollars added to the fund which will soon reach a hundred dollars.

AGAINST GUARANTEE

AMERICAN BANKERS' ASSOCIATION OPPOSES DEPOSITORS' GUARANTY PLAN.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Condemning Guaranty Law—Will Pass By Overwhelming Majority. Meeting Closes Today.

By Associated Press. Denver, Colo., Oct. 1.—In an address before the American Bankers' association this morning, William C. Connell of New York spoke against the proposed depositors guaranty law as outlined in the Democratic National platform.

The following is a condensed statement of his argument: The adoption of a plan for government guarantee of deposits, based upon a fund contributed through a tax upon all banks, would introduce into a great business of trust a principle fundamentally unsound and sure to be productive of disastrous effects in the future.

The method of building up deposits is by conservative and capable management of the bank's affairs. A government guarantee of deposits would induce unwise, if not reckless liberality in loans, rates of interest and other indulgences in order to win deposits. The conservatism, which characterizes present bank management, would no longer obtain.

A tax guaranteeing deposits would eventually be paid by the borrowers. The number of banks in which loss to depositors ensues, amounts to a very small percentage. The very large percentage of people, who are not responsible, would have to pay the tax. It is a tax levied upon ability to compensate inefficiency.

Discrimination by depositors as to character of bankers now deters inefficient and dishonest people from engaging in the banking business. Under universal guarantee this restriction would be removed.

Because of the high character and ability of the bankers at the present time, losses are kept to a minimum figure. A great increase in speculative loans and resulting losses would necessarily follow the operations of incapable and untrained people under the proposed guarantee of deposits.

The credit of a bank should be and is the result of long continued, assiduous application of conservative methods, ability, skill and earnest effort. Under government guarantee an attempt is made to create such credit instantaneously, which cannot be successfully accomplished, since it is violating all the natural rules of conservative procedure.

Banking failures would not be prevented by ultimate guarantee of deposits; such failures are the result of unwise investment and management. A guarantee plan would tend to increase, rather than to diminish them. Runs would not be prevented, as depositors would elect to take their deposits at one from threatened institutions, rather than to await ultimate payment by means of a guarantee fund.

In view of the prominence given to this question at the present time, we deem it important that the American Bankers' association place itself on record in opposition.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the American Bankers' Association is unalterably opposed to a system of government guarantee of deposits, believing that it is sophistical and fallacious from an economic standpoint, superficially pleasing, but full of evil consequences and that its tendency will be to lower the standard of banking ability and conservatism that has been maintained for nearly half a century, and which has resulted in a fractional minimum of 1868 in handling the enormous sums entrusted to the care of banking institutions in the United States during that period.

By Associated Press. Denver, Colo., Oct. 3.—At the closing session of the American Bankers Association today officers will be elected and resolutions that may have a far-reaching effect will be considered. The report of the federal executive committee will bring up the resolution against the bank deposit guarantee proposition. From the present outlook it seems that the resolution will be overwhelmingly carried.

Mrs. M. J. Shivers has returned from Fort Worth and Dallas, where she had been visiting relatives and friends.

TOWN CLOCK TIME

Alton, Ill., Sept. 26.—The mystery of the two-faced clock of Alton has been solved, but for a long time the residents of Alton wondered just what sort of strange, unheard-of influence was responsible for the fact that the north side of the clock on St. Mary's church was always twenty-five minutes faster than the south side.

This was more puzzling from the fact that the hands on both clocks were worked by the same mechanism. There wasn't anything the matter with the works. An expert sent to examine the clock settled that point beyond a doubt. Yet there continued to be a difference of twenty-five minutes in time between the section of Alton north of the church and the district south of it.

Father J. J. Meckl, pastor of the church, has the true Alton spirit of research. He kept a watch on the clock.

The first thing he noticed was that the glass on the north dial was broken, the right half being shattered and the left half still intact.

By reason of this the minute hand was under glass on its trip around the dial, but was exposed on its downward journey.

Not until sunset did the pastor reach a solution of the mystery. He saw a big, fat pigeon alight on the church gable. It was 5:40. The hand was moving up. Patiently the pigeon sat there until 6:05, the exact time at which the hand was free of the portion of the glass casing which remained.

Sailing gracefully to the tower, the pigeon alighted on the hand. He remained there until 6:25, when he was forced to leave his roost, as the hand again passed under the glass. There he sat until 7:05 when he again lit on the hand.

It was clear to the pastor. For twenty minutes on its passage around the dial the downward movement of the hand was increased by the weight of the pigeon. This caused the difference in time. Apparently the pigeon flew to the hand at the intervals of forty minutes all through the night; the total variation which it caused being twenty-five minutes a day.

A new glass was put in and that night the pigeon roosted on the gable, and now the clock, though still two-faced, is as truthful as it could be expected to be in Alton.

A LYNCHING AVERTED

CLAY COUNTY SHERIFF GETS NEGRO FIEND AWAY BEFORE ATTEMPTED DEED IS KNOWN

ENTERED GIRLS' ROOM

Surprised By Their Father and Shot. Later Arrested and Spirited Away to Gainesville.

Henrietta, Tex., Sept. 25.—Excitement ran high in Henrietta this morning when it was learned that Harrison Loftin had made improper advances to the two daughters of Robert McMillan early this morning and had not Sheriff George quickly spirited the negro away to Gainesville, a lynching would undoubtedly have taken place.

With the motive either of rape or robbery the negro entered the home of Mr. Harrison at about 2:30 o'clock this morning. Going into the room occupied by the two young ladies of the household the fiend crawled into their bed. This at once awakened the young ladies and their screams brought Mr. McMillan to the rescue.

A desperate encounter followed, in which the negro attempted to use a revolver, but was overpowered and the weapon taken from him by Mr. McMillan, who fired a shot through the negro's forehead, with no other effect than to stun the brute. The shot brought Mr. Snealy, a neighbor, and a son of Mr. McMillan's, who stood guard over the negro while the father went to summon the sheriff.

The report of the affair did not become generally circulated about town until this morning after sun-up and in the meantime Sheriff George had improved the opportunity to get out of town with the negro, whom he took to Gainesville.

Had any considerable number of citizens known of the affair early this morning it is believed that nothing could have prevented a lynching.

The affair early this morning has aggravated the feeling against the negroes at this place and a number of blacks are leaving town in fear of an attack.

Requisition for H. H. Pearce.
Austin, Tex., Sept. 28.—Sheriff Hickmann of Tom Green county today obtained a requisition upon Oklahoma for H. H. Pearce, jailed at Ada, Okla., and charged with the misappropriation of the funds of the First National Bank of Robert Lee, Texas.

Bankers at Denver.
Denver, Colo., Sept. 28.—Although the sessions of the American Bankers' Association proper will not commence until Wednesday morning, the sectional meetings began today. The savings bank section and that of the clearing house section met. Committee reports were made and special formal addresses were delivered and discussed. Both sections elected and installed officers before adjourning.

ON TO THE ORIENT.

Stillwell Road Will Be Hooked With Denver By Middle of Week.

Official advices from Chillicothe are to the effect that the Orient road now has its tracks into Chillicothe and that the transfer tracks between the Denver and the Orient will be laid by Wednesday or Thursday. This means a new route to Kansas City for those who care to patronize it. The same rates will prevail via this route—the Denver to Chillicothe, thence over the Orient to Kansas City—as prevail on the other lines. The question of through passenger service over this new route is a matter that has not yet been discussed.

The northern terminus of the south end of the Orient is now on the north bank of the Pease river. The southern terminus of the north end of the same road will be pushed to this river with all possible speed, and it is believed that within another six weeks or two months the Orient will be operating through from Kansas City to Sweetwater and that by Feb. 1st the trains will be operated through to San Angelo.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Swine Supply Threatened.
General Freight Agent Sterley of the Denver road sounded a warning in the Telegram the other day that ought to be heeded while there is yet time. Mr. Sterley says the present high prices in Fort Worth for hogs is having a tendency to deplete the breeding swine herds in this State. The old story of killing the goose that lays the golden egg points the moral that should prevent such a condition from coming to pass.

Hogs are bringing high prices now because the demand is greater than the supply. By cutting down the source of the supply where will the hogless hog raiser profit, even should hogs go to $1 a pound?

In shipping hogs to market ship the marketable hogs only. Save your young breeding sows. Raise more hogs.

If the hog raisers of Texas don't permit the penny in sight to hide from view the pounds of the future there will be money in hogs in Texas for the next two or three generations anyway. This is a good time to send hogs in condition to kill to market. But this is not, nor will the time likely come in many years when young brood sows should be sent to slaughter.—Fort Worth Telegram.

NOW IS THE TIME TO HELP.

The appeal of the national committee for funds suggests the propriety of again directing the attention of the democrats of Texas to the urgency of making a reasonable response thereto. Up to this time, thousands, perhaps tens of thousands, have thought that the prospects of victory were so remote as to make a contribution to the fund a waste of money.

Of course, no one can tell in September what will happen in November, but the reports from every section of the North and West are as encouraging for the democrats as they are discouraging for the republicans. Not since 1892 has the country witnessed such democratic enthusiasm or such republican alarm. Not since 1892 has the country witnessed such democratic unity or such republican dissension. Apparently, the republicans are not harmonious anywhere, and October is near at hand with no evidence that their differences can or will be composed.

With these cheering prospects, it would be the height of folly for Southern democrats to remain indifferent or to refrain from a generous participation in the popular campaign fund movement which Mr. Bryan has inaugurated. To sacrifice a victory when it is within the party's grasp would mean an indefinite prolongation of the evils of republicanism.

No one is expected to contribute beyond his means. While it is desired that all who can afford to contribute large sums shall do so, Mr. Bryan himself has laid stress upon the small contribution, and it is a fact that the small contributors have thus far contributed the bulk of the fund.

The popular contribution plan is new, but the people cannot fail to see it is the proper one. If corporations are to be permitted to pay the money to conduct campaigns, the people can not reasonably complain if special privileges are granted them to exploit the public. The corporations do not contribute from philanthropic or patriotic motives. If they pay, they expect privileges in return, and the bestowal of these privileges has resulted in the oppression of the people.

It is the hope of the National committee that thousands and tens of thousands of democrats who can spare a dollar or two will do so at this time.

The splendid progress we have made so far can be sustained throughout the remainder of the campaign if these contributions from the people do not fail. And it is likewise important that the collections be frequently remitted rather than held for round sums, since the time has now come when the need of money is urgent. The best way is to send frequent collections and keep the work up.

Let the call of the committee not go unheeded by the splendid democracy of Texas.—Houston Post.

The Times' Bryan and Kern campaign fund only needs thirty more dollars to make it an even one hundred. Who are thirty men that are willing to contribute this amount before Saturday, October 3rd, the day another remittance will be sent to the treasurer of the democratic national campaign committee?

Can Taft win the electoral vote of Ohio without the loyal support of Foraker is a question which is now engaging the attention of the republican campaign managers. Foraker is a power in that State. In fact, he is as much loved and worshipped by one faction of the republican party of that State as is Senator Bailey by a faction of the democratic party of this State, and when we take into consideration the fact that Foraker is not going to submit to being snuffed out of politics by Roosevelt and Taft, it really begins to look as if the democrats could manage in some way to carry Ohio in November for Bryan.

Gov. Haskell, in resigning the trusteeship of the Democratic National Campaign Committee, has done the proper thing, though there is no more proof that he was connected with the attempt to bribe Attorney General Monnet of Ohio with Standard Oil money than there is proof that President Roosevelt owes his election to money contributed by the robbing trusts. Unlike President Roosevelt, Haskell has resigned and asked for a thorough investigation. Roosevelt not only has not asked for an investigation but flatly refuses to accept Bryan's challenge and cause a list of the contributors to the Republican National campaign to be published.

The Times has received a fresh supply of campaign buttons containing the picture of Bryan and inscribed as follows: "I Gave My Dollar. Did You?" All loyal democrats who want to wear one of these buttons are asked to call early before the supply is exhausted.

From all appearances it seems that Standard Oil is going to be the paramount issue in this campaign.

Removal Notice.
After Monday, September 28th, I will move my office to the Moore-Bauman building, up stairs, at head of the stairway, corner of 8th street and Indiana avenue, where I will be pleased to meet all my patrons and as many new ones as choose to place their business with me.

ONE FIREMAN KILLED

FOUR OTHERS BURIED UNDER A FALLING WALL IN DALLAS FIRE RESCUED.

LOSS REACHES $200,000

Blaze Starting in Liquor House Destroys Building After Building, Resisting Efforts of Fireman.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 29.—All four of the firemen injured in the Elm street fire last night will recover. It was announced today that the funeral of J. M. Parlin, who lost his life in fighting the blaze, will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

It is estimated that the loss is $200,000, and is partially insured.

Following is a partial list of the losses and the insurance:

L. Craddock, Liquor Company, loss $70,000, insurance not known.

J. W. Turner, building, loss $12,000, fully insured.

Unknown owner Kelly building, loss $12,000, insured.

Eagan-Ferry Electric Company, loss $18,000, insurance $11,000.

H. J. Blakeney, loss $3,500, insurance $2,300.

William Kelly, stock (partial loss), $10,000, insurance estimated at $7,000.

A. H. Peacock, loss $500, insurance none.

The fire was discovered at about 10 o'clock last night in the second-floor of the Craddock liquor house on Elm street. An explosion occurred shortly afterward, shaking the building and sending showers of sparks onto the roofs of surrounding structures, burning many buildings.

FIVE PRISONERS ESCAPED FROM THE COUNTY JAIL.

From Monday's Daily.

Five prisoners, three whites and two blacks, escaped from the county jail last night and up to noon today had not been recaptured.

Among the five prisoners who escaped were W. M. Rank and Lewis Hughes, who are charged with horse stealing. The other white man who got away last night is charged with highway robbery. One of the negroes is charged with robbery, and the other is charged with assault to commit murder.

The prisoners made their escape shortly after 7 o'clock, before they were locked in their cells for the night.

As in other instances, the escape was made by climbing on top of the cage and raising a trap door leading to the roof. From the roof the prisoners reached the ground by means of a rope made by tying strips of bedding together.

A man passing through the court house yard saw the jail breakers on the roof and ran to the city hall, where he reported the fact. The city officers telephoned to Sheriff Davis, but in the meantime the five prisoners had made good their escape.

Among the other prisoners who were in jail, but who it appears did not join in the attempt to escape were Rotramel, the Archer county prisoner, charged with an attempt to murder his wife, a man named Randle sentenced to a term in the State penitentiary and several other prisoners awaiting trial on felony charges.

Old Settler Gone.

From Saturday's Daily.

Uncle Tom Longley died at his home southeast of Archer City Monday and was buried here Tuesday afternoon. His death had been expected for some time, as he had been in feeble health for a long time and complications had arisen which usually prove fatal to one of his years.

Mr. Longley came to this county in 1878 and has had a very active life since coming. He has been identified with the stock raising interests of the county. He had amassed property valued at $40,000.

He was buried under the direction of the Masonic lodge at this place. He leaves a large family and many friends to mourn his death. The Dispatch offers its sympathy to the bereaved family.—Archer City Dispatch.

A Loyal Lady Democrat.

Mrs. M. S. Skinner is the first lady to contribute to the Bryan and Kern campaign fund, and is now the possessor of one of those Bryan buttons with the inscription, "I have paid my dollar, have you?" The supply of buttons is not yet exhausted, and the Times feels sure that Mrs. Skinner is not the only loyal democratic lady in Wichita Falls.

Gins Started Despite Warning.

ML. Pleasant, Tex., Sept. 29.—Ginners and officials of the Farmers' Union in Titus county today said that if the night riders repeated their threats of raid they would call for the state rangers.

Several gins resumed work today, despite the warning that harm will befall the plants. A citizens' committee is raising a large fund to arrest the riders.

POLITICAL GOSSIP

Good Nature in the Campaign.
 Brooklyn Eagle.
 There has been a distinct restraint from personal attacks in the presidential canvass so far. Messrs. Taft and Bryan head different parties or organizations, holding different views, but have not made reflections upon the sincerity, the capacity, or the patriotism of each other. To be sure, their remarks have not been without animation and without earnestness, but the imputation of bad motives, of mean purposes, and of insincere and nefarious designs has not been indulged. Old campaigners can recall nothing akin to this since the orderly contests between Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison in 1888 and in 1892.

Independence in Maine.
 New York World.
 So far as the republicans tried to make of the Maine election a preliminary test on national issues they failed, but by their failure the Maine democrats profited in carrying out their campaign policy. The most significant thing in the election is that in a republican stronghold where urgent appeals were made to the partisanship of the majority a large body of republicans should have been willing to desert their party and vote independently in a purely State matter, without regard to the effect on the presidential election.

The Burden of Cannon.
 Providence Journal.
 It is idle to expect from Mr. Cannon any realization of the enmity he has roused among self-respecting Americans. He will not refrain from taking an active part in the campaign out of any solicitude for the political safety of his associates. He has already begun his own campaign by a bitter personal attack upon Mr. Bryan, thus bringing into the discussion for the first time those personalities which Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft have alike, to their credit, avoided. He will be from now on a prominent figure in the contest; and Mr. Taft's friends, however much they may fear for the results, cannot repudiate him. The republican party will have to carry its Old Man of the Sea to the end.

Death of Louis H. Luecke.
 From Friday's Daily.
 Mr. Louis H. Luecke, who, for the past three weeks has been confined to his bed with an attack of typhoid-malarial fever, died at his home in the southern part of the city at 11:55 p. m. last night. For the past week he has been very low and his death was not a surprise to the immediate friends of the family.

Deceased was a native of Missouri and at his death was 42 years, 5 months and 14 days of age. For the past fifteen years he has been a respected citizen of this city, following the trade of a blacksmith and carriage maker. He was an honest, upright citizen and the widow and two children who survive him have the sympathy of all in their great sorrow, which has deprived them of a loving husband and a kind and indulgent father.

Rev. E. Deffner, pastor of the German Lutheran church, of which the deceased was a consistent member, will conduct the funeral services from the family residence at 3:30 this afternoon. A short service will also be held at the church, after which interment will take place at Riverside cemetery.

W. D. WINDOM, GOVERNMENT ARCHITECT, HERE TO INSPECT PROPOSED SITES.

DECISION IS MADE

Part to Establish Federal Court Here. If Successful, Will Necessitate Larger Appropriation.

W. D. Windom of the supervising architect's office, Washington, D. C., is expected to be here at the St. James hotel, having come to this city for the purpose of selecting a building site for Wichita's Federal building.

A Times reporter called on Mr. Windom at his room at the St. James this afternoon in quest of a news item and found him to be a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman and willing to give out any information regarding his mission here as, in his judgment, the public is entitled to.

His first work was to look over the various sites offered the government, and after doing this he addressed the prospective bidders, asking them that in the event they desired to talk with him personally to call at his hotel, where he will be until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

In the course of the short interview, Mr. Windom said to the reporter that the building would be constructed of either light brick or light stone and would be located on one of our most prominent streets; that it would be a one-story structure with basement; have a frontage of 70 feet and be 50 feet deep. The postoffice floor is to be three feet above the grade level; the basement to be used for heating purposes, storage rooms, lavatories and rooms for mail carriers and postoffice employees.

In his opinion it will be about 30 days before it will be known who the successful bidder for the site is, and that after it is made known the United States Attorney General will pass on the title.

Owing to the fact that the government architect is considerably behind with his work, he thought it would be about two years before work on the building would begin.

An effort is now being made to have the government establish a branch of the Federal court here, and in the event this effort is successful it will call for an additional appropriation and

Mr. Windom, during his short talk with the reporter, said nothing that would give the slightest idea as to which one of the half dozen or more sites offered the government he would or had selected, only saying that the building would be located on one of our most prominent streets.

Funds Get a Boost.

From Monday's Daily. Eleven more dollars were received by the Times to noon today to send to Herman Ridder, the new treasurer of the Democratic National Committee. The total contributions for a democratic victory received by the Times up to date have been $63.00.

Wichita county democrats are now beginning to take more interest in the campaign and the hope of democratic success next November is now stronger among the loyal Wichita county democrats than in many years.

The Times wants to send every dollar that can possibly be raised to the treasurer of the National committee at the earliest possible date. Send in your dollar today.

Wichita county democrats ought to contribute not less than $500 for Bryan and Kern. The Times proposes to keep this matter before your attention as long as the National committee needs money and as long as there is a prospect of raising another dollar. Get in the band wagon. Send in your dollar today.

Today's contributions were as follows:

O. J. Pickle, $1.00; J. O. Bentley, $1.00; M. Y. Yeager, $1.00; J. H. Barwise, $5.00; Ed. Howard, $5.00; Ben. Donnell, $1.00; B. C. Williams, $1.00.

Farmers Not Night Riding.

By Associated Press. Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 29.—"Farmers are not doing this night riding," declared Colonel Sam Hampton, organizer of the Farmers' Union, upon reading yesterday the notices posted on signs near Mount Pleasant, warning ginners not to gin any more cotton.

"I have ridden, slept and worked with the average Texas farmer," he continued, "and I know that there is not a more law-abiding citizen on earth. I think this Mount Pleasant affair is a joke, perpetrated by some sharper who wants to stir up a little excitement. There is no danger of this night riding business spreading in Texas and no one should become alarmed. When chist you may as well get your gun to protect yourself."

Allendale News Notes.

From Tuesday's Daily. Allendale, Tex., Sept. 28.—A good rain fell Saturday evening.

Services were held yesterday by the Baptist pastor, Rev. O. J. Harmonson. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, there were but few out. After the services a Baptist Sunday school was organized with Mr. Seph Ludolphus as superintendent. Allendale now has three Sunday schools, the Methodist, Baptist and Christian.

There were quite a number of people from the Bowman neighborhood at church last night.

Mr. R. L. Dunlap started his new cotton gin this morning.

Mr. Will Clare and family of Archer county are visiting Mrs. Clare's sister, Mrs. A. A. Priebe.

Mr. H. Billingsley of Fort Worth spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Billingsley.

Miss Minnie Allen, who has been visiting for the past five months at Sayre and other points in Oklahoma, returned last week. She was accompanied by her little niece, Eula Allen.

HASKELL FILES SUIT AGAINST FLYNN.

Oklahoma City, Ok., Sept. 28.—Governor Haskell today filed suit against the State Capital, a Guthrie newspaper, and Dennis Flynn, in which he seeks an injunction against the sale of the plant. He charges illegal manipulation and also that he had loaned the paper money and that it is now insolvent.

An effort is being made here today to circulate a non-partisan petition, asking Haskell to resign his office. He still retains a large and loyal support, however. The agitation in the western counties is reported to be spreading.

Haskell Will Sue Hearst.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.—A special to the Times from Guthrie says that Governor Haskell announced on his arrival there from Chicago that he will bring suit against William R. Hearst on next Wednesday. When asked on what charge, he said: "To make him prove that what he said was not true."

Taft in South Dakota.

Aberdeen, S. D., Sept. 29.—The South Dakota campaign of Judge Taft began here today with a big meeting. His day's work will be concluded with a rally tonight at Sioux City, Iowa.

NATIONAL FARMERS' UNION SAYS COTTON SHOULD BRING THAT PRICE NOW.

THE FIRST MINIMUM PRICE

Secrecy Apparently Dropped—Texans Say They Can Get Fifteen Cents By Holding.

Special to the Times.

Port Worth, Tex., Sept. 28.—In effect farmers of the South are seeking to hold their cotton for 12½ cents, by the National Farmers' Union cotton committee. An address to the public has been issued from the committee headquarters at Memphis and copies are being distributed in Texas from the State headquarters in Fort Worth. This address declares that not a bale of the crop should sell for less than 12½ cents, but discreetly avoids bluntly advising the farmers to hold for that figure. Neither is anything said regarding a minimum price, and notwithstanding the plain inference to be drawn from the address regarding the secret price, Texas officials maintain that the call does not give away the minimum price.

When it is recalled that the national convention at Fort Worth fixed a secret minimum price, but left the question of its permanency to the cotton committee, the announcement of the committee of its belief that 12½ cents ought to be realized this year would indicate clearly to the mind of the layman that 12½ cents is the secret minimum sought. Changed conditions, however, may alter the opinion of the committee, and in such event it has the power and authority to raise the minimum price. A later call advising that a still higher price is within the hope of attainment may therefore be expected if the market and spinning conditions tend to warrant.

Texans Hold For 15 Cents.

President D. J. Neill of the Texas union was out of the city yesterday and Secretary Charles Smith would not discuss the cotton committee's address. Bud Terry, assistant lecturer and organizer, combated the suggestion that 12½ cents is the minimum price by stating that many Texans are holding for a still higher figure. He himself is holding thirteen bales of cotton and expects to get 15 cents "or let it rot."

The novel plan of each farmer, bus-several bales of cotton and storing it for higher prices, thus holding it from the market and aiding in the holding movement, is proposed by the cotton committee. The people of the South are reminded that the present presents the opportunity for the South to assert herself and bring prosperity.

CHILD'S TERRIBLE INJURY.

Round of Chair Penetrates 4-Year-Old Boy's Brain.

Taylor, Tex., Sept. 27.—This morning while Gottlieb Greig, a farmer of the Turkey Creek neighborhood, six miles northeast of Taylor, was playing with his 4-year-old son by bouncing him in the air above his head, the child fell from his grasp, his head striking upon an upright broken round in the back of a chair.

The contact broke the child's skull, producing a compound fracture, the round penetrating its brain to a depth of one and a quarter inches. Physicians were summoned and five pieces of broken skull bones were removed from the child's brain. Its condition is serious.

NOTED KENTUCKY FEUDIST DEAD

Thomas Cockrill Run Over By a Train in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 27.—The body of a man who was run over by a train and instantly killed in the Kentucky and Indiana railroad yards last night was identified early this morning as that of Thomas Cockrill, the noted Breathitt county, Kentucky, feudist. Cockrill's presence in the yards has not been explained, but it is presumed that he was either on his way or returning from a visit to his old home. He was a brother of Jim Cockrill, who was at one time marshal of Jackson, and who was assassinated. Tom Cockrill was also involved in several feud battles and had killed at least one prominent member of the Hargis faction.
