The main parade today was reviewed by General O. O. Howard.

Seven Thousand in the Parade.

Chicago, Ill., May 30.-Memeorial Day was marked by the largest parade in Chicago's history. It is estimated that more than seven thousand men marched past the reviewing stand. Governor Deneen reviewed the parade.

Bryan Orator of the Day.

Norfolk, Va., May 30 .- William J. Bryan was orator of the day at the celebration of "Patrick Henry Day" at the Jamestown Exposition. "Taxation without representation is tyranny" was his subject.

Impressive Ceremonies at Washington.

Washington, D. C., May 30 .- With olemn, impressive ceremonies, Memorial Day was observed in the National capital on a more elaborate scale than usual. Exercises perpetuating the memory of the dead were held in the eight National cemeteries in this vicinity. The principal exercises took place in the National cemetery at Arlington, where 18,000 graves were strewn with flowers. A touching featus as the decoration of the graves of & prederate dead.
