AGREEMENT OF TROUBLES BETWEEN OPERATORS AND COMPANIES REACHED.

RESOLUTION OF COMPANY

is a Letter and is Satisfactory to the Operators.

Associated Press.
New York, June 20.—As a result of the visit of Commissioner of Labor Neill and following suggestions made by him the adjustment of the differences between the Western Union Telegraph Company and its operators has been reached and there will be no strike. President Clowry of the company today addressed a letter to Neill, accepting the position of the company, which is admittedly satisfactory to all concerned.

Declares Efforts Useless.

Chicago, Ill., June 20.—Secretary of Labor Russell said that the efforts of Commissioner Neill to bring about a settlement would be useless, and that a strike might be ordered at any moment. Mr. Russell telegraphed the company's representative in New York to the Commissioner and present the company's side of the controversy.

If the strike order is issued 2,500 commercial telegraphers in Chicago will leave their keys and every Board of Directors in the country will be tied up.

Dallas was in a state of excitement last night.

seriousness was thrown into the situation by Secretary Russell.

It was said that it was probable that if the railroad telegraphers, who belong to the order of Commercial Telegraphers, might go out on strike.

There are 50,000 of these operators, and most of them handle Western Union messages as well as train messages. The official said he understood that if a strike was called the telegraph companies would endeavor to send their business messages over the wires of the Commercial Telegraph and Telephone Company. They are all owned by the same people," he said, "and will doubtless try to handle some business that they are doing that, and there are many ways to make trouble for them."

REMAINING TIME SHORT.

Known at Austin What Action Will Be Taken by Liquor Men as to Closing.

Tex., June 20.—The time is passing near for the liquor interests of the State to decide what they will do with reference to the Attorney General's construction of the Baskin-McCarty liquor regulation bill. The attorney general's opinion holds that the law must close during the issuance of the new licenses following the effectiveness of the act on July 12, which would mean from ten to twenty days. Copies of this opinion, also of the law and the necessary blanks for complying with the law and the construction given it are being mailed out of the Controller's department to the county officials over the State in anticipation of the act becoming effective on July 12.

The attorney for the Texas Liquor Dealers' Association was here yesterday looking around, but gave out nothing in this city for publication. He declined to discuss the probable action of the liquor dealers on the ten-day closing proposition to those who asked him about it. Some have believed that the liquor men would go into the courts at the very first moment possible and seek to enjoin the effect of the opinion, while others have guessed that the saloons would simply remain open and take the consequences, expecting to have the opinion of the attorney general held wrong when the cases come up on prosecution. It will be an interesting situation at best.

IN FEDERAL COURT

JUDGE BRYANT APPOINTS RECEIVER FOR WATERS-PIERCE OIL COMPANY.

DORCHESTER IS NAMED

Reasons Set Out in Petition For Seeking Protection of Federal Court.

Sherman, Tex., June 19.—A bill of complaint against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company was filed in the United States district court today by S. B. Cantele, an attorney of Fort Worth, representing Bradley W. Palmer of Massachusetts, a stockholder, who prays for the appointment of a receiver for the company.

It is claimed by the applicant that the judgment rendered by the district court of Travis county has been superseded by a sufficient appeal bond, which was signed as security by the American Security Company and John H. Kirby, and that in addition as further evidence of their solvency the Waters-Pierce Oil Company has deposited $2,000,000 with the security company for its protection.

That the company has also filed a supersedeas appeal bond superseding the order appointing a receiver and that Judge Brooks of Travis county has suspended all receivership proceedings after the bond had been filed pending the appeal in the State Court.

That the oil company has a small amount of tangible property in Texas compared to the real and commercial value of its business in the state and has contracts to supply thousands of persons and corporations in Texas whose business would be disturbed and impaired if interfered with, entailing innumerable suits and claims for valid damages.

That the company is willing to sell out and has an offer of over $2,000,000 and can sell within reasonable value if a safe title can be made.

It is represented that drastic and penal statutes enacted by the Thirtieth Legislature regarding employees of any company conducting business in violation of the anti-trust laws will make all employees sever their connection before July 11 and render it impossible to get others.

That the company is ready to abandon Texas and stop business, but cannot sell its property for anything like its value because of the lien fixed by the laws of the State.

That the company is threatened with additional suits for penalties under the said anti-trust laws.

The Waters-Pierce Oil Company voluntarily appeared to this bill of complaint, waiving service of notice and admitting the truth of the allegations and prayed for the same relief asked by the stockholder.

Chester B. Dorchester of Sherman was appointed receiver for all the property of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company in Texas. Judge Bryant notified the attorneys that he did not intend the receivership to last for a long period.

ADMINISTRATION FORCES ARE DEFEATED.

The Test Came on the Report of the Committee on Credentials.

By Associated Press.

Denver, Colo., June 20.—The first test of the strength of the administrative and anti administrative forces in the Public Lands Convention came today with the report of the committee on credentials. After considerable discussion, it was decided to adopt the report of the committee, except in regard to the delegates representing the national organizations whose membership is not confined west of the Missouri river. This was referred to the American National Live Stock Association.

RESOLUTION AGAINST GENERAL STRIKE

Adopted at the Conference of Social Democrats in Finland.

By Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, Russia, June 20.—The social democratic conference, which has just ended in Finland, adopted a resolution against the proclamation of a general strike on the ground that an attempted walkout of the men would only play into the hands of the government.

SETTLEMENT REACHED.

Striking Carmen Return to Work at Old Wages.

By Associated Press.

San Francisco, Cal., June 20.—A settlement has been reached between the South San Francisco railway and the former carmen, whereby the union will return to work at once at the same wages as before the strike, pending the settlement of the strike against the United Railroads.

Arrested on Serious Charge.

While returning from Oklahoma with two witnesses who are to tell the grand jury what they know about a criminal abortion at Haskell several months ago, a constable from that place accidentally met the man who is wanted to answer to the abortion charge in the Denver depot in this city this afternoon and promptly placed him under arrest. The constable placed the man in jail and proceeded to Haskell with the witnesses. The abortion is alleged to have been committed on the prisoner's 13-year old sister-in-law.

GEESE AS CHOPPERS.

Red River County Farmers Find Substitutes for Negroes.

Clarksville, Tex., June 19.—Several farmers of the Garvinville community south of this city, have turned flocks of geese into the cotton fields and report that as far as young grass is concerned, no better cotton choppers could be found. One prominent farmer has twenty-eight geese on a field of thirty acres of cotton and declares that absolutely no grass can be found in the field. The present scarcity of labor has served to make the geese even more valuable.

AOKI OUT OF FAVOR

JAPANESE AMBASSADOR'S RECALL PARTLY DUE TO PRESIDENT'S DISPLEASURE.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., June 20.—Viscount Aoki, the Japanese Ambassador has incurred President Roosevelt's displeasure because of his lack of delicacy and discretion in conducting the negotiations relating to the San Francisco attacks on the Japanese. Aoki's recall is due in part to his being out of favor with the President. It is said that just before the President's departure for Oyster Bay, Aoki diplomatically hinted to him that the United States should pay indemnity to Japan for the San Francisco mob outrages. The President remained silent. Mistaking the silence for acquiescence the Ambassador made a definite proposition for indemnity. The President then forcibly expressed his disapproval of the proposition and dismissed the Ambassador with the advice to conduct his negotiations in the future with the State department.

By Associated Press.

Ottawa, Kan., June 20.—William H. Taft, Secretary of War, arrived here this morning to address the Chatauqua Assembly. His subject is "The Panama Canal." In his address here yesterday, William J. Bryan urged Taft to endorse President Roosevelt's stand on the income tax and treatment of swollen fortunes.

READ TO THE JURY

APPLIED TO STEUNENBERG BY MINERS' MAGAZINE.

TO SUPPORT CONTENTION

Of the State That Federation Officers Incited the Murder of the Governor.

By Associated Press.

Boise, Idaho, June 20.—When court opened this morning Judge Wood announced his decision on the admissibility of the articles in the Miners' Magazine, as evidence. He said the court was thoroughly satisfied as to the admissibility of articles showing the animus of the Western Federation of Miners during the period of the commission of the crimes confessed by Orchard, and alleged by him to have been incited by the officers of the Federation. Articles appearing after that period, he said, would not be admitted.

Judge Wood said: "The court will admit articles bearing on former Governor Steunenberg, Governor Peabody, Judges Gabbert and Goddard and several others. As to articles following the commission of any crime, the court has some doubt and will reserve that doubt in favor of the defendant." Defense excepted to ruling.

Articles denunciatory of Steunenberg and other figures of the labor wars of Idaho and Colorado published in the Miners' Magazine, were read to the jury. An important article read was titled "The Passing of Steunenberg." It appeared in the issue of January, 1901. In this editorial epithets without stint were applied to Steunenberg, who was charged with getting rich on the "greasy dollars of the Standard Oil Company and mine owners, whose servant he had always been."

Condemning Steunenberg as a vile thing, deserving only contempt, hatred and political death, the article bids farewell to the "creature over whose political tombstone should be inscribed the words, 'Here lies a hireling and traitor.'" Judge Woods allowed the state to introduce a decision by the Supreme Court of Colorado, declaring unconstitutional the eight-hour law. Judge Goddard participated in the decision. When luncheon adjournment was taken, Senator Borah announced that the State would probably close tomorrow.

NEW ROAD PROJECT

RUMOR THAT RAILROAD IS TO BE BUILT FROM FORT WORTH TO BENJAMIN IN KNOX COUNTY.

PROSPECTORS AT WORK

Route Has Been Looked Over, But No Definite Announcement Has Been Made.

We have been reliably informed that several parties have had men to tour the counties of Jack, Young, Baylor, King and Dickens and probably farther to the West during the last few months, with a view of selecting the best route over which to construct a railroad.

A route through the counties mentioned can be had, and as stated has been gone over, whereby a railroad can be constructed from Ft. Worth West, crossing the Wichita Valley at Seymour and the K. C. M. & O., at Benjamin and on through Guthrie and Dickens, going on the plains through the Yellow House Canyon just North of the Salt Fork of the Brazos without the construction of a single bridge across any stream of any consequence; which is a fact that is known to very few, and will at the same time be a route which will in most part be through a thickly settled and well developed country, and also passing through the coal deposits in Jack and Young county which is supposed to some day, when railroad connection can be had, prove to be the best mines in the South. It will be remembered that only last week a party of Kansas City men came into Benjamin from the West and had crossed the country over about the same route that we above refer to, but they would give out no statement for publication as to their trip or what they thought the outcome would be. They left Benjamin the next morning over this same route on to Seymour and further to the East. We only state the facts in regards to this as far as we have been informed.

We are further informed by one of our citizens who has recently visited Fort Worth that Burk Burnett and others were also figuring on the probability of building a road from Seymour West to Guthrie, King County, and extend the same East to connect with the Mineral Wells & North Western in Young County near the immense coal fields there, thereby giving the people of this section of the country a direct route to Fort Worth and the East, and would be the nearest route for the citizens of something like twenty counties in this section by which to reach Fort Worth, the 'hub' of this section of the state.—Benjamin Post.

The Way With a Brute.

A writer in an agricultural paper says: "Kill your dog and buy yourself a pig; the scraps you feed to a dog would, if fed to a pig, net you a neat little sum every year."

Yes, kill your dog. Kill him, you infernal brute. And then, after you have murdered the noblest and best friend man ever had in all the animal kingdom, buy yourself a hog. It will be a more fitting companion for a man of your type. Then when you return at night worn out with the toil of the day, or harassed by the worries of business cares, expect your pig to leap and frisk about you, to lick your hand in welcome, while his whole body quivers with the joy his poor dumb soul feels at being in your presence; and when you lie down to sleep expect your pig to guard your couch, a faithful sentinel who would gladly lay down his life before he would suffer harm to you or yours; or when misfortune overakes you, or come great sorrow comes upon you, and you feel that you have been forsaken by every human friend and you sit in silent grief and misery in the solitude of your room, expect your pig to steal softly to your side and lay his head in silent sympathy upon your knee, while his great, honest, soulful eyes look up into your own with a mute eloquence and truth more potent than might be portrayed by human language, and that says: "No matter what may be your sorrow, your misfortune, or even your disgrace, I will share it with you, and though the whole world may turn from you, I will gladly stay by your side to the end"

And then— then, you contemptible, miserable misfit caricature on the name of man— if you find that your pig falls in this, you can at least satisfy your sordid, grasping degraded and shriveled soul with the knowledge that by murdering your faithful dog because your dastardly greed begrudges him the scraps he eats, you are able to sell the pig for a pittance that is more precious to your avaricious soul than would be life-blood of your devoted dumb friend and faithful protector.—Dumb Animals.

Prospects for a good cotton crop at Thornberry have very much improved during the last ten days. Mr. George W. Rigsby, who bought the Reed place writes that he has bought a 60-horse power gasoline engine for the gin on his place. He will put in three more stands, which will make the gin one of the best equipped in this part of Texas.

FRIDAY, THE 13th
By Thomas W. Lawson

ing the past two years it would be impossible for him to work with them, even if his salvation depended on it. The mention of any of the big 'System' men drives him to a fury. He has to-day made more money than any one man ever made in a day since the world began, and he had only commenced his work when he quit to please me. As I stand in the Exchange and watch him do it, it seems commonplace and simple. Afterward it is beyond my comprehension. At the gait he is going, the Rockefeller, Vanderbilt, and Gould fortunes combined will look tiny in comparison with the one he will have in a few years. It is beyond my power of figuring out, and it gives me a headache every time I try to see through it."

pull down the entire wall street structure, to rush in and fairly drag him off. But with his growing madness my influence was waning. Each raid it was with greater difficulty that I got his ear.

Finally, on the fourth anniversary, in a panic that seemed to be running into something more terrible than any previous, he savagely refused to accede to my appeal, telling me that he would not stop, even if Randolph & Randolph were doomed to go down in the crash. It had become known on the floor that I was the only one who could do anything with him in his frenzies, and my pleading with him in the lobby was watched by the members of the Exchange with triple eyed suspense. When it was clear from his

CHAPTER VIII.

A number of times during the following year, and finally on the anniversary of the Sands tragedy, Bob carried the Exchange to the verge of panic, only to turn the market and save "the Street" in the end. His profits were fabulous. Already his fortune was estimated to be between two and three hundred millions, one of the largest in the world. His name had become one of terror wherever emphatic gestures and raised voice—for he was in a reckless mood from drink and madness and took no pains to disguise his intentions—that I could not prevail upon him, there was a frantic rush for the poles to throw over stocks in advance of him. Suddenly, after I had turned from him in despair, there flashed into my mind an idea. The situation was desperate. I was dealing with a madman, and I decided that I was justified in making this last try. I rushed back to him.

"In Ten Minutes You Will Get Word That Jim Randolph Has Cut His Throat."

stocks were near in. Wall street had come to regard his every deal, from the moment that he began operations, as inevitably successful. Now and again he would jump into the market when some of the plunging cliques had a bear raid under way, and would put them, to rout by buying everything in sight and bidding up prices until it looked as though he intended to do as extraordinary work on the up-side as he was wont to do on the down. At such times he was the idol of the Exchange, which worships the man who puts prices up as it hates him who pulls them down. Once when war news flashed over the wires from Washington and rumor had the cabinet members, senators, and congressmen selling the market short on advance information, when the "Standard Oil" banks had put up money rates to 150 per cent and a crash seemed inevitable, Bob suddenly smashed the loan market by offering to lend one hundred millions at four per cent; and by buying and bidding up prices at the same time, he put the whole Washington crowd and its New York accomplices to disastrous rout and caused them to lose millions. He continued his operations with increasing violence and increasing profits up to the fourth anniversary of the tragedy. On the intervening anniversary I had been compelled by self-interest and fear that he would really

"noo, good-bye," I whispered in his ear, "good-bye. In ten minutes you will get word that Jim Randolph has cut his throat!" He stopped as though I had plunged a knife into him, struck his forehead a resounding blow, and into his wild brown eyes came a sickening look of fear.

"Stop, Jim, for God's sake, don't say that to me. My cup is full now. Don't tell me I am to have that crime on my soul." He thought a moment. "I don't know whether you mean it, Jim, but I can take no chances, not for all the money in the world, not even for revenge. Wait here, Jim." He yelled for his brokers, and several rushed to him from different parts of the room. He sent them back into the crowd while he dashed for the Amalgamated-pole. The day was saved.

Presently he came back to me. "Jim, I must have a talk with you. Come over to my office." When we got there he turned the key and stood in front of me. His great eyes looked full into mine. In college days, gazing into their brown depths, by some magic I seemed to see the heroes and heroines of always happy-ending tales, as the child sees enchanted creatures far back in the burning Yule log flames. But there were no joyous be-lings in the haunted depths of Bob's eyes that day.

CULBERSON AND THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

The effort being made by some of Senator Culberson's pretended friends to induce the senior Texas senator to allow the use of his name as an aspirant for the Democratic presidential nomination is not succeeding very well. Mr. Culberson seems to understand the situation pretty well, and while he differs with Bryan on some very important national issues, he is not ready yet, from all indications, to join in with the political enemies of the great Democratic leader in defeating him for a third nomination for the presidency by his party. He also recognizes the fact that if there is a chance for the Democrats to win in the next presidential contest, that the chances of winning with Bryan at the head of the ticket are far better than they would be should the leadership or nomination be given to some other prominent Democratic statesman. It is charged also that those most interested in booming Culberson for the presidential nomination look upon it as a nice way in which to get him to give up his present position in order that some of their friends can succeed him. The real friends of Culberson and the Senator himself, for that matter, recognize that no Southern man can at this day and time, ever hope to carry a single Northern or Eastern State as the candidate of the Democratic party for president, and his friends do not want to see him sacrificed in that manner. There may be a chance for the Democratic party to elect Bryan. Certainly the chances for a victory with him at the head of the Democratic ticket are much better than if the ticket was headed by any Southern man, and if he will accept the nomination, it is his for the asking. The party can never expect to win a victory so long as it permits conventions, who, in the event its enemies to participate in its nation things do not go exactly to suit them, are always ready and willing to either bolt or go bodily over to the Republican party and use their influence to elect the Republican candidates. Bryan and the Democratic party owe at least two national defeats to this element of the Democratic party. In order to cause their influence to be less felt, the party should cut them out to start with. Most of them are better Republicans than Democrats, the only difference being that the Republican party uses better judgment than the Democratic party does and will not permit these bolters to take a leading part, except as bolters. The Republicans think, and justly so, that such people should be satisfied by taking up a position in the rear ranks and voting the ticket for at least two successive presidential elections, before thrusting upon them the positions of leaders. The Democratic party could well afford to follow the plan of the Republican party in this respect.

ORCHARD'S RECORD.

Exchanges are reproducing the wonderful record of Harry Orchard, one of them being like this:

Here is the self-confessed record of Harry Orchard, on the strength of whose testimony the State of Idaho expects to send to the gallows William D. Haywood, Charles A. Moyer and George A. Pettibone, leaders of the Western Federation of Miners:

Killed Charles McCormick and Melbeck with a bomb at Vindicator mine in Cripple Creek.

Killed a dozen men by blowing up the depot at Independence.

Shot Deputy Sheriff Gregory in Denver, when the victim was helplessly drunk.

Killed Tom Wally with a bomb intended for Judge Gabbert of Colorado Supreme Court.

Killed former Gov. Frank Steunenberg of Idaho on New Year's evening, 1905.

Made unsuccessful attempts to kill Gov. Peabody of Colorado, Judges Gabbert and Goddard of the Colorado Supreme Court; Gen. Sherman Bell, Millionaire David Moffatt, Frank Hearne and dozens of other Colorado men, and Frank C. Bradley in San Francisco.

Born in Canada, from whence he eloped with another man's wife, abandoning his own wife and baby.

Later he deserted the second woman and committed bigamy.

Been an ore thief, powder thief, firebug, and stood ready at all times to commit any crime or betray anyone for money with which to gratify his passion for gambling.

Just why they do not stop the court and hang him (unless he be lying) is what we would like to know.

BREAKS PADLOCKS.

Prisoner at the County Jail Defies Bolts, Locks and Bars.

Three padlocks broken within less than twenty-four hours is the record of F. F. Hughes, one of the prisoners at the county jail. The breaking of the padlocks in itself is not so extraordinary, but when it is taken into consideration that Hughes is locked on the inside of his cell and the padlock is on the outside and so far the search of the officers cannot discover any instrument or object with which he could reach the lock, the feat becomes remarkable.

Hughes is convicted of burglary. Marshal Gwinn, Sheriff Davis and others made a careful search of all the prisoners and of the cells and corridors this afternoon, but found nothing. Through a discharged prisoner information came to the sheriff that Hughes is in possession of a file and a pair of pliers, but if he has these articles he has managed to hide them very effectively.

Why Do You Like COFFEE?

We take it for granted that you do, but it is very likely that you cannot tell off-hand why you like it, except that it is good.

Just why it is good may puzzle you somewhat, but to assist you in selecting the kind you want the following information may be of interest to you.

The looks of the coffee has very little to do with the quality of it, for it is not the bean itself that satisfies your Coffee appetite.

The bean is composed of a large number of little cells, invisible to the naked eye, but which contain the essential oil.

Before the Coffee is roasted these little cells are not worth anything, but they contain the oil, that after being roasted to a certain point produces the flavor which makes coffee a delightful drink. There are therefore, two things which must be watched in buying coffee:

1st. To get a blend of growths which shall contain just the right kind of oil, and second, to have that blend so roasted so as to make the rich mellow flavor which you like so well our Spurr's Concord is especially recommended to suit your taste, packed in 1 pound bags at 25 cents per pound. Or better still, Spurr's Revere Mocha and Java in two pound tins at 75c per can. All we ask is a trial of either, the coffee will do the rest.

PLAYERS ARRIVING

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE BALL TEAM ALREADY HERE.

OTHERS ARE EXPECTED

And in a Few Days Manager Lucid Will Have Full Quota of Players.

Several players for the Wichita Falls baseball team have already arrived and are ready for work. Among those who are here are Catcher Brockman of Tucson, Arizona; Carl Earthman, the crack third baseman of the Ardmore team, and Carl White, an infielder also from Ardmore, W. H. Ham H. Wynn, the star pitcher of the Oklahoma University team, is expected to come in tonight or in the morning, as is also pitcher Dabney of the A. & M. team.

Manager Lucid is experiencing considerable difficulty in getting the kind of men he wants, as nearly all of the players are tied up with contracts for the season. However, he has in view several more good players whom he hopes to land within the next few days. Several local players, who have been making good showings, will be placed on the team and as has been announced, the opening game will be played next week.

AT NIAGARA FALLS.

The Texas Bankers See the Wonderful Sights and Enjoy Trolley Rides.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 12.

Editor Times:—

Our train was due here this morning at 7 o'clock, but the Grand Trunk railroad company must have miscalculated the weight of 180 Texans, as it put a small engine to the train which could not make the schedule and which bumped us around considerably in getting under headway. However, they put on a double-header after awhile and a big engine when we got to Hamilton.

In Canada the apple trees are in full bloom and the farmers seem to be getting ready to plant corn, though in a few places the corn seemed to be peeping up.

Appearances indicate that Ontario is a great fruit country, for orchards and vineyards were very numerous. The country has a prosperous appearance, but to Texas eyes it looked like the first of February.

We saw numerous rail fences and what was new to us—stump fences—made entirely of the stumps of trees pulled up and set on edge so close together as to make a fence that seemed to be cow proof.

We arrived at Niagara Falls rather hungry and prepared to enjoy a good breakfast at the International Hotel, but from some cause, the breakfast was not up to the mark. However, the hotel management redeemed themselves on the other two meals taken there, so we erased the black mark we had just put down in our books.

It was about 11 o'clock when the whole party in trolley cars started on the trip through the gorge. The electric line runs by the Falls (Canadian side), then down the Niagara river to Lake Ontario, running on top of the bluff and gives a good view of the river on the return trip, which comes up the river on the American side through the gorge.

All the way the river was like a mill race and dashes over rocks in a furious way.

At one of the most picturesque places on the river, when most of the parties were going into ecstasies over the scenery, three members of the party, one of whom is an ex-president of the Texas Bankers' Association and weighs about as much as Jim S— of Wichita Falls, were discovered to be fast asleep, but they were certainly waked up.

At Brock's monument, where the British government has built a fine monument for the memory of General Brock, who was killed by the Americans in the war of 1812, curio sellers began to shout: "All off for Brock's monument! See the great Brock monument!" A young banker from Beaumont, to the great horror of our Canadian friends, noisily inquired: "Brock's monument? What did Brock do?"

Judging from the comments of the party, however, they were thoroughly satisfied that Brock was entitled to a monument for being killed and only regretful that our soldiers had not made more eligible for monuments.

From the hill on which this Brock monument stands, it is a beautiful

At 10 p. m. a very tired party again boarded the cars for a night trip to Kingston, where we expect to take a steamboat down the St. Lawrence river to Montreal. Everybody well.

IOWA PARK GOES DRY

PROS CARRY ELECTION BY SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY.

PROHS 57—ANTIS 32

Remaining Saloon Will Be Closed When Local Option Becomes Effective.

The Prohibitionists carried the day at Iowa Park in the local option election Wednesday by a large majority. A good vote was polled and when the ballots were counted last night it was found that the vote stood 57 for prohibition, against 32 wet.

An Enjoyable Affair.

The dance given Monday night by the young men of Wichita Falls in honor of out of town visitors was well attended, there being about 50 couples present. This dance was the closing feature of the past week's round of festivities such as house parties, garden parties, sailing parties, auto rides, dances, and moonlight picnics, which were given to entertain the guests of the Misses Kemp and Mrs. Blair's house parties, and other visitors to the city.

The following were present at the dance: The Kemp house party, composed of Misses Florence Cowan, of Ft. Worth, Bertine White of Bonham, Lillian Turner of Gainesville, Tyree Cave of Dallas, and the Misses Kemp of Wichita Falls, and Messrs. Griswold and Joe Bob Cave of Dallas, The Hughes house party, composed of Misses Eugenia Hubbard of Paris, and the Misses Lysaght of Wichita Falls. Other visitors present were, Misses Spann of Dallas, Cox of Ennis, Wyatt of Henrietta, Babcock of California, and Dickson of Paris, composed of prominent young people of Wichita Falls, and several married couples.

The dance was an informal affair and proved very enjoyable to all present. Punch and other refreshments were served in the hall, and nothing was left undone to complete the pleasure of the occasion.

Promptly at 9:30 the orchestra began the grand march, the march being gracefully led by Mr. Joe Bob Cave of Dallas and Miss Florence Cowan of Fort Worth, and the dancers "tripped the light fantastic" into "middle of the night", when they reluctantly left the hall after the last strains of Home Sweet Home had died away.

Newspapers and Mistakes.

A California editor desires to make it an offense, with a heavy fine attached, for any editor who would publish any kind of a lie. Right here we will venture the assertion that said editor is the biggest liar in the newspaper business in California today.—Bonham Favorite.

The aforesaid editor must be a neophyte or a fool, and in such a bill, he would doubtless allow an honest mistake to be no defense. When a person thinks of the amount of matter that appears in the papers and compares it with the number of mistakes made, he must be convinced that the newspapers are pretty good things after all. If a baseball player had as many chances and made as few errors as the newspapers, he would have a fielding average that would make all the others grow green with envy. It is a fact, however, that some people will refuse to give out the news when they are in position to give it correctly and force the reporters to go to other sources, possibly less reliable; then, if he makes a mistake, they will give him a tongue-lashing.

We have a nice lot of fresh tomatoes and cucumbers. Phone us your wants.

HARVEST IN FULL BLAST.

From One-Third to Half a Crop at Dundee.

Special to the Times.

Dundee, Tex., June 20.—A good rain fell here yesterday about 5 o'clock, which will be of great benefit to cotton and growing crops.

The little daughter of Mr. Sam Jackson, who had an attack of diphtheria, is convalescent and there is now no fear of contagion from this case.

Harvesting is in full blast. Wheat and oats were badly damaged by the green bugs, but the yield promises to be from one-third to one-half a crop.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF.

Jury Awards Terry $650 in a Suit Against John Fennell.

After being out several hours this morning the jury in the county court returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the suit of Joe Terry vs. John Fennell and awarded him a judgment for $650.

The suit arose from a difference over the payment of a claim for $960, which Terry alleged was due him as commission for the sale of a section of land for Fennell.

The defendant says that he will appeal from the verdict of the jury.

ASSESSED VALUATION RAISED.

Notice is Given Property Holders of Increased Assessment.

Secretary Rye of the City Council is sending out postal cards today to property holders in the city, notifying them that the City Board of Equalization has raised the assessed valuation of their property and that a meeting of the board will be held July 1st, at which the property holders may show cause why their assessments should not be raised.

Judge Rye is sending out between three and four hundred of these notices.

It is estimated that the increase in the taxable values in the city have been raised nearly half a million dollars, and that the total valuation will exceed $1,500,000.
