

LAST DAY OPENS

GREAT CROWDS UNABLE TO OBTAIN ADMITTANCE AT CLOSING DAY AT TRIAL.

THE DEFENDANT'S FAMILY

Gathered About Him in the Court Room as Scrah Arraigns Haywood.

Wichita, July 26.—Senator Borah continued his argument for the prosecution in the Haywood trial this morning.

As early as 7 o'clock the court house was packed to the limit. Senator Borah being popular as an orator, in this his home city. So was the throng that the court officials and others who had business in the trial, had to find their way into the building by various ways, many of them climbing the steep, improvised stairs in the rear. The jury also brought up these stairs. Inside the court room as next to the day of the trial began, Haywood was surrounded by his family. His wife, whose hopeless condition of mind attracted so much attention and sympathy, sat immediately at his right and next to her was his gray haired mother, who on yesterday could not restrain her tears which swelled to her eyes as Clarence Brown, the Chicago attorney made his last plea for the life of her son, the prisoner's daughter and sister were also in the family circle, the only ones being his little ten-year old son, Henrietta. Mrs. Frank Steunenberg, wife of the murdered Governor, and her son, Judian were early in the room and when they had been given seats inside the attorney's railing, they sat themselves within seven or eight feet of Haywood himself. The attorneys from many cities in the west have come to Boise for the last arguments and constitute a large proportion of today's big audience. When the last seats were occupied, disappointed hundreds remained on the court house lawn to catch what they could of Senator Borah's address as the words filtered out the windows.

Senator Borah began by reviewing the points made in the opening hour of his address to the jury last night, taking first the murder of Governor Steunenberg and looking over some of the most important incidents developed in the testimony.

"I hardly need tell you sensible men," declared the speaker, "that the Wagoner detectives had nothing to do with the assassination of Frank Steunenberg. That was one of the most absurd things brought into this case by the counsel for the defense."

Senator Borah in laying the foundation for the argument to show a conspiracy pointed out that Orchard went to Caldwell from Denver and fresh from his association with the officers of the Western Federation of Miners he regarded Steunenberg as an enemy.

He touched upon the fact that Arthur Moore, officer of Western Federation of Miners, testifying for the defense admitted that he agreed with Orchard to deceive Orchard's wife, when Orchard wished to desert her. Then Harry Orchard left Denver with a smile in his heart. The impelling force came from Denver. George Peterson helped Orchard to pack the contents of murder in his trunk. Why Peterson not here to deny it? His absence is a confession of guilt. Peterson's absence is an absolute corroboration of Orchard.

FALLING OUT AMONG THIEVES.

Attempts Are Made By Rival Factions of Gamblers to Blow Up Houses.

By Associated Press.
Chicago, July 26.—An attempt to blow up the residence of Mont Tennes an aged professional operator of a gambling house was made last night by some persons unknown to the police. The miscreant was armed with a steel cased bomb. Five days ago a similar attempt was made to dynamite a saloon operated by ex-state senator John F. O'Mallory. This case was kept secret. Both attacks were barren of serious results. In other respects they were similar to that recently made upon the residence of "Blink John" Condor an assistant of Tennes. The whole series of incidents is said to grow out of the jealousy between the warring factions of the gamblers.

Elections of consequence cannot be held until January or February. The situation so far as the elections are concerned are disappointing to the Cubans.

CHANGE OF PROGRAM

FOR THE JAPANESE NAVY WILL NOT BE MADE.

JAPANESE GOVERNMENT

The Japanese Government Has Made Plans For Navy and These Plans Will Be Carried Out.

By Associated Press.

Paris, July 26.—Gil Blas publishes today and interview on the Japanese navy with Admiral Ijima commander of the Japanese squadron now at Brest. The Admiral was asked if Japan had decided in view of the recent happenings to enlarge her naval program. The Vice-Admiral replied: "We have a naval program for several years ahead and we will execute it punctually and rigorously as do the great nations of Europe. But this program has not been enlarged during recent months and stands as it did when originated by the admiralty last year." "We are satisfied with our navy," the Vice-Admiral went on, "and we believe this branch to be able cope with all eventualities. The Japanese parliament while refusing to do anything for the naval defense, holds us rigorously to the naval appropriations and these we never exceed. We are building three warships of the type of the Trukuba but more powerful than it and they are to be constructed in Japanese yards from material furnished by Japanese industries."

Vice-Admiral Ijima knew nothing of any intention on the part of Japan to build warships for China.

THE LEGENDARY CUP

IS INLAID WITH SILVER

Cup Found Near Glastonbury, England, is Believed to Be Vessel of Arthurian Legend.

London, July 26.—The Express prints a story of the discovery near Glastonbury of a glass vessel of beautiful workmanship and apparently of great antiquity which one at least of the discoverers believes is the Holy Grail of Arthurian legend. The Holy Grail is the cup from which Christ is said to have drank at the last supper, according to ancient tradition, it was brought to England by Joseph or Arimathea after the crucifixion. The vessel is decorated in bishlah green glass cunningly inlaid with silver leaf. A number of eminent persons including some of the Peers with ecclesiastical interests, Ambassador Reid, Prof. William Crook and Rev. William Bell, have examined it. It is now in the possession of Prof. Crook and who will undertake to solve its history.

APPROPRIATES $50,000.00.

Alabama Legislature Provides Fund For Defense of Railroad Laws.

Montgomery Ala., July 26.—A bill appropriating $50,000 for resisting the fights made by the railroads on the rate and regulation laws of the state has been passed by the house and now goes to the Governor. As it is one of his bills, he will sign it at once. Mr. John of Jefferson said in discussing the bill, the money was necessary, that the people had to ask the consent of the federal judge before they enforced the laws, enacted by the legislature and as it is becoming a question of the rights of the people to govern themselves, the money should be given and fight made to the last ditch. The local situation is much like that in North Carolina where there is a clash between the state and federal government.

Before 7 o'clock the body had been sent out. Coleman was hanged for the murder of J. A. Finley, a white man who was first killed and then whittled into minced meat with a big knife. On the scaffold Coleman implicated a white man, and another negro, saying that the white man killed Finley and helped to cart off the body.

OLD SETTLER.

Speaking about being "equal to an emergency" and, "that necessity is the mother of invention," and similar trite sayings, it reminds me of my first night in old Fort Griffin in the year 1876. The town that surrounded the military post was alive with cow boys, buffalo hunters and Indians. The cow boys especially, took a malicious delight in filling up with bad whiskey and, then worked off their surplus energy by shooting up the town.

As night approached, George Wilhelm, clerk in the general supply store, offered to share his blankets with the tenderfoot. It was 10 p. m. when the store closed and the kindly disposed clerk led the way to the rear where all the boxes, bundles and sacks containing the heavy merchandise was piled in a circle, leaving a space in the center large enough to spread the blankets. "Observing, that you are a tenderfoot, I guess we had better sleep in here remarked Wilhelm."

"Is there any particular reason for this precaution," asked the tenderfoot.

"Ask no questions, tenderfoot, you will find out later."

It may have been midnight or later, when the cow boys began a series of yells, emphasized by the firing of six-shooters. As they came up the avenue toward the store the yells increased and the firing became a fusillade. When in front of the door the patter of the bullets told the recklessness of the cow boys.

"Do you think you know what this circle means now, tenderfoot?"

"Yes, I know without being told, and if I had wings or could dig I would soon be out of sight."

Livery Stable Horse.

You ought to treat him as if he were your own. If you drive ten miles you ought not to attend to your wants until you see him properly cared for. If an honest man you will remember that you are under twofold obligation, an obligation to the owner and an obligation to the animal. You are a debtor of both, though you pay the price of the horse no money can release you from the moral claim and duty involved in the bargain between yourself and the owner. To neglect the poor and speechless beast that cannot appeal to the commiseration of a passer-by, is simply unpardonable, and the man who is guilty of such neglect is worse than a brute.—Dumb Animals.

An Emblem of Power.

If called on to name the most significant emblem of power and dominion in the United States, some people would say the flag, others would point to the splendid array of battle ships, others again to the army, to the vast and untold material wealth—all would be wrong.

The correct answer is "trousers."

Trousers casts the ballots, man the guns, guard the temples, rule the forum, fight the battles, hog the honors and then usurp monopoly of telling how it was all done.

Thousands of bright and energetic young women today would be acting as letter carriers in the cities but for that one fatal word of male prerogative, trousers.

The postal regulations fixing the qualifications and uniforms of letter carriers have no word against young women's alertness, correctness, faithfulness and ability to serve Uncle Sam and the public, but the martinet who got up the rules had the military germ working in his mind at the time, and he had to prescribe a certain style of trousers carriers must wear. Now, trousers, as in generally known, are pantaloons, pantaloons are pants, and pants are breeches.

And the women dassen't wear them. That's the whole story, and explains—Current Issue.

FEUDIST'S BATTLE FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

ONE FATALLY WOUNDED AND THREE OTHERS SERIOUSLY INJURED.

PEARSONS V. S. COLLINS

The Pearsons Filled With Bug Juice Met the Collins' and the Battle Begins.

Sweetwater, Tenn., July 26.—A shooting affray, in which one man was fatally injured and three others seriously shot, occurred here last night. It is the sequel to a feud of long standing between the Pearson and Collins families. Elijah Pearson was shot through the left arm and in the left breast near the heart.

It is feared that his injuries will prove fatal. Ross Pearson was shot in the left leg. William Collins received a bullet in one arm, Enoch Col-flesh wound being inflicted by the bullet. It is said that the Pearsons obtained alcoholic beverages in town and after imbibing they met the Collins boys when a battle ensued. It is not stated who fired the first shot. Both sides engaged in the shooting. No arrests have been made.

EGG FRIED BY SUN.

Falls on Pavement, Spreads on the Hot Cement and Sizzles.

About this time every year the village joker—he used to be a joker, now he's a nature faker—comes out with the story of the hot sun that fries an egg.

Here's this year's one:

A small boy, returning home from the grocery drops an egg from the bag. Note, it lands evenly upon a brick, the shell falls away and the egg spreads out, as if it were in a frying pan.

The boy watches. Presently he hears a sizzle, he sees the egg turning hard and he calls the two men. Yes, he did, the men say so. Strangely no one thought to salt the egg as it fried, and it was not eaten. If you don't believe it, ask the egg.

Took No Chances.

Time was when it was a very common thing for well to do transatlantic travelers to carry along certain articles of food that they could not depend on finding of the desired quality on the steamer. Bread, which only in recent years has been what it ought to be at sea, and butter were frequently taken on board by passengers and consigned to the steward, to be doled out carefully during the voyage. In these days, when luxury follows luxury on the big liners so rapidly that one has difficulty in keeping track of the very latest thing, it would hardly seem worth while to include any common article of food in one's impedimenta; yet a family that sailed recently by one of the "last words" in the way of steamship construction actually took with them a full supply of eggs, butter, milk and lettuce.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Home Hints.
The continual wearing of gloves at night causes the hands to assume a yellowish tinge. An occasional wearing is all right.

Large pores on the nose and chin may be reduced by applying several times a day a lotion made of lemon juice and glycerin or one of alum and water.

After using borax and rosewater for the removal of tan and freckles a little cold cream should be applied, as borax makes the skin dry.

A cure for hiccoughs is to inhale as much air as the lungs will hold and retain it as long as possible. If one inhalation is not enough, repeat as often as necessary.

A simple mixture of equal parts of lemon juice, honey and cologne is an excellent lotion for whitening the hands if they are abnormally red. Apply at night, rubbing well into the skin.

Bran Water For Cleaning.

Few people know the value of bran water for household use. For cleaning woodwork, and particularly paint, it is invaluable, for not only does it remove all dirt, but it also leaves the paint in as good condition as new, as it does not affect the varnish or finish, as does an alkali. Colored goods, prints, etc., which under ordinary conditions fade in washing, will never lose their color or newness if washed in bran water. In washing the hair it will be found a thorough scalp cleanser, and the hair will retain its natural color and appear glossy. The water is easily prepared. Fill an ordinary salt bag with bran, place it in a pail or other receptacle, then pour hot water over same, and it is ready for use. The hands never suffer from the use of this water. On the contrary, they are softened and whitened.

Raspberry Shrub.

Of all summer drinks this one is much considered: To eight quarts of berries allow one pint of acetic acid and four quarts of water. Put all the ingredients into a stone jar and allow to stand for forty-eight hours, stirring occasionally. For each pint of juice add a pound of sugar. Boil for fifteen minutes and bottle while hot. Pound the corks in tightly, cut close to the bottle and dip in hot wax to seal.

Rolling Rocking Chair.

To instantly change a rocking chair into a wheeling or invalid chair is made possible by the recent invention of a California man. An ordinary rocker is employed, a pair of rubber tired wheels being journaled close to the center of the rockers. When the device is used as a wheeling chair, a rod attached to the framework is hooked to the axle of the wheels. To transform to a rocking chair the lever is released and the end hooked to the framework. Those who are intrusted with the care of invalids will instantly appreciate the usefulness of this combined chair. The invalid will also recognize the advantage of this simple device.

Preparing Salsify.

Women waste time in scraping the outside skin off salsify or oyster plants, besides discoloring their hands. Wash plants clean and boil whole in salted water until tender. Then plunge in cold water for a moment, when skins will slip off as easily as from young beets. Slice and add to hot cream and butter, with a slight thickening of flour if desired.

Substitute For Corkscrew.

If you have no corkscrew handy take a common screw and tie a string around it. Now screw it into your cork and pull it out with the string. Or take two forks and stick into the cork on opposite sides of each other, not too near each other nor too near the edge. Then pass the blade of a knife through the forks and give a quick twist.

To Avoid Blood Poisoning.

For a bruise or cut or crushed fingers: Put two hot coals on a shovel and turn over them a small amount of any oil. Sewing machine oil will answer the purpose. Hold the wound in the smoke that arises. Pour on more oil if needed. This will take out every bit of soreness. Take the coals out of doors before applying the oil.

The sidewalks in the business part of the city present a greatly improved appearance since the passage of the ordinance for the removal of boxes and other unsightly obstructions. This suggests that a like improvement can be made on the residence streets if the property owners and tenants will only do a little exercising with a hoe or sythe and clear the streets and premises of the growth of weeds, which in many places are very rank and certainly are not ornamental.

From all sides is coming a demand that the city of Wichita Falls provide a better fire protection. The method now employed is inadequate and is better fitted for a cross roads town than a growing and prosperous city. The city council is fully cognizant of the situation and the blame will rest upon them unless something is done at once to give our people better fire protection.

The best way to bring most people to a realization of many things is to touch their pocket books. Will the property owners of Wichita Falls wait until the insurance rate goes up before they make better provisions for fighting fires?

ARCHER TO OLNEY

CONTRACT FOR GRADE IS AWARDED TO J. W. OWENS.

BY THE 15TH OF OCTOBER

The Rails Will Be Laid to Olney and Cars Will Be Running Over the W. F. and S. Ry.

Late yesterday afternoon the contract was let by the Wichita Falls and Southern railroad, for the grade from Archer City to Olney, in Young county.

J. W. Owens, of Galveston, was the successful bidder and will start work on his contract at once.

The grade is to be finished by, by October 1. Shipments of steel rails and the rolling stock are beginning to arrive and track laying has begun between Wichita Falls and Archer City. It is now announced that the contractor expects to have its cars running into Olney by October 15th.

Kell Citizens Refuse to Budge.

Eschita, O. T., July 25.—"The inhabitants of Eschite, extend to you a cordial invitation to come over to our town and make your home. You will be heartily welcomed. There is room for you here, and the city of the Big Pasture needs you. Do not think that there are any hard feelings in Eschite's heart toward you."

The above invitation handsomely printed, was circulated among the citizens of Kell, one of the Big Pasture townsites that has been built by the Wichita Falls and Northwestern railway company and has become a rival of Eschite, one of the government sites recently sold by the Indian commission.

But Kell refuses to budge. A deputy United States Marshall served its citizens with the legal papers of warning several days ago and they promised to move right off, but they have changed their minds and declare that it will take an action of the United States court to compel them.

A True Bill Returned.

Asheville, N. C., July 26.—A telegram received by the railroad officials here from Marion today says the grand jury reported one true bill against the ticket agents there. This indicates that at least one arrest will be made during the afternoon.

Chicago Grain Market.

Chicago, July 26.—Wheat—May, 100%; July 98%; Sept 91%; December 95% @ 1/2.
Corn—May 50% @ 51; July 53%; September 53%; December 49%.
Oats—May 40% @ 41; July 44%; September 38%; December 30%.

The members of the volunteer fire department are young men, many of them without any property interests in the city. They serve without pay, yet they have always stood ready to drop their work and dash away to fight fires, in which often they ruin clothing and run risks of physical injury. Is it right to ask these young men to make cart horses out of themselves?

The testimony of all firemen who have ever been questioned—is that the sooner a fire can be reached the more chance is there of preventing its spread and the less the damage. Three minutes in the early part of a conflagration is often worth more than half an hour fighting after the blaze has a good start.

A Better Scheme.

"That house I have taken from you," said the dissatisfied tenant, "is horribly drafty. When I am sitting in the middle of the room my hair blows all over my head. Can't you do something for the windows?"
"Don't you think, sir," replied the house agent suavely. "It would be easier and cheaper for you to get your hair cut?"—Philadelphia Inquirer.

PRANKS ARE PLAYED

BY LIGHTNING DURING A DESTRUCTIVE STORM AT AUGUSTA, GEORGIA.

THE COTTON WAS IGNITED

But the Fire Was Extinguished By a Second Bolt Which Turned On Automatic Sprinkler.

By Associated Press

Augusta, Ga., July 26.—The storm which swept over Augusta last night did much damage to property and incalculable damage to fruit and shade trees. It also played some queer pranks. One bolt of lightning, which set fire to the cotton in the card rooms in the Augusta Cotton factory was followed by another which turned on the automatic sprinkling system, quickly extinguishing the fire by flooding all parts of the building. Large quantities of manufactured goods were ruined and the damage to the machinery will be very heavy. The telephone, telegraphic and electric lighting and street car companies suffered heavily and the sewers and drains were greatly damaged by the floods of water.

FOR SALE.

Decline of Trade Secrets.

The day of trade secrets and monopoly privileges is ending. At every trade convention, at every craft gathering, at every professional association, new discoveries in principle and new methods of practice are offered free to those engaged as competitors in the same business. It is recognized that no man is able to think a thing through to its ultimate application. His suggestion is instantly seized upon by others and comes back to him and to society vastly improved. If this is true of mechanical and professional invention, it must be true of business improvement. The methods by which a great business is organized, the plans by which its capitalization is secured, its relations to other organizations and individuals, on any just theory of progress deserve to be known. Every individual and every institution gets a great deal more out of society than it gives. This is particularly true of institutions specially chartered by society. Trade secrets are out of date.—Lincoln (Neb.) State Journal.

Germany's Rulers.

Germany is ruled by one emperor, four kings, six grand dukes, seven princes and one simple count. These sovereigns occupy very different degrees of importance, even in the eyes of their own immediate subjects, but in one degree or another they all enjoy the dignities and privileges of kingship, and all have to face some of the responsibilities of state. Every one of them has a capital and a court of his own. Some of the capitals are not very big cities, but they are all very proud. Among them are places with populations of 11,000, 8,000, 6,000 and 5,000. Arolsen, the capital of the principality of Waldeck-Pyrmont, has only 2,620 inhabitants. The entire population of the principality of Liechtenstein, the smallest of them all, is about 9,500 souls. The capital is Vaduz, with 1,130 inhabitants.—Boston Transcript.

Atoms of the Elements.

So important is an exact knowledge of the atomic weights of the various chemical elements that there is an international commission which undertakes to revise the list of such weights once each year in accordance with the latest researches. The list for 1907 contains seventy-nine elements. Among these there are seven whose atoms are heavier than those of gold—namely, mercury, thallium, lead, bismuth, radium, thorium and uranium, which has the greatest atomic weight known. The weight of an atom of hydrogen, still the lightest of all known substances, is fixed at 1.008, that of an atom of oxygen at 16, that of an atom of gold at 197.2, that of an atom of radium at 225 and that of an atom of uranium at 238.5.—Youth's Companion.

Concrete Lighthouse.

By the use of concrete a tall lighthouse was constructed in a short period of time at the Point de la Coubre, at the mouth of the Gironde river, in France. The building is 225 feet high and about thirty-five feet in diameter at the base. It was finished in nine months after the beginning of the work and cost $30,000. The haste was due to the fact that the sea threatened to wash away the old structure.

Don't Marry For Love Alone.

By THEODORE P. SHONTZ, Former Chairman of the Panama Canal Commission.

THE only love that really stands the test of time, the only love that can be permanent, is the affection that has ABSOLUTE RESPECT for its basis.

A MARRIAGE BASED SOLELY ON SENTIMENT OR ON ROMANCE, AS YOU TERM IT, IS RARELY HAPPY.

The trouble is so many women are affected in their judgment and in their attractions by purely external things. Clothes, position, personal appearance—these are not the essentials. The questions every woman should ask concerning the man she would marry are these:

Is he IN EARNEST? Does he aim to do something large and worth while—something that will add to the education, the progress, the power of the world? UNLESS A MAN HAS HIS AIM HE IS NOT A MAN in any large or enduring sense.

Not only should a suitor have a large purpose himself, but he should hold the proper view of the woman, should think of her as a HELPMATE, should be willing and glad to recognize her ability to aid him in his life work. Woman is a MIGHTY FACTOR in the progress of the world, and a true man will realize this and will encourage her to help him.

The happiest marriage results when both husband and wife have this large aim and when both work together for its realization.

DON'T MARRY MERELY BECAUSE YOU "FALL IN LOVE." ASK YOURSELF FRANKLY, IF YOU ARE IN LOVE WITH THE MAN HIMSELF OR WITH UNIMPORTANT DETAILS OF DRESS OR LOOKS OR MANNER THAT HAVE CAUGHT YOUR FANCY.

Public Life Not Attractive to Good Men.

By Secretary of the Navy BONAPARTE.

CRITICS have often seen a source of DANGER TO OUR COUNTRY in the assumption that the democracy would not know how to choose fit men for rulers. This assumption has been belied by American history. Given good men to choose, I believe the American people CAN BE TRUSTED IN THE LONG RUN TO CHOOSE GOOD MEN.

Our institutions give the nation good men to choose. Is public life sufficiently attractive to those fitted in the public interest to enter it? UNFORTUNATELY IT IS NOT. And since we know it is not, since it cannot offer them such prizes as await eminent success in professional, commercial or scientific life, we so train young Americans in patriotism, in sacrifice, in devotion to duty that they are willing to give up HAPPINESS AND REPUTATION for their country in peace, as they would give up LIFE for their country in war.

IT IS OF VITAL MOMENT THAT THEY SHOULD BE SO EDUCATED, FOR THE MOST SERIOUS DANGER THAT OUR COUNTRY HAS TO FACE, AS I SEE THE FUTURE, IS THAT WE MAY HAVE A PERMANENT UNCONSCIOUS STRIKE OF OUR NATURAL RULERS; THAT PRIVATE LIFE MAY BECOME SO PROFITABLE AND ATTRACTIVE TO MEN OF MORAL AND INTELLECTUAL EMINENCE AS TO LEAVE FOR THE PUBLIC SERVICE ONLY SECOND CLASS MEN WITH THIRD CLASS PRINCIPLES.

Clubwomen Not Averse to Home Life.

By Mrs. CLARENCE BURNS, Leading Clubwoman of New York.

YOU will find that THE BEST CLUBWOMEN MAKE THE BEST HOUSEKEEPERS. I have been a clubwoman for more than seventeen years, and I have yet to hear of a divorce among us.

With the exception of one or two clubs composed of women of means, there is NO PAINFUL STRIVING AFTER DRESS, and, as to neglecting their homes, if you could hear some of the women on club days worrying about getting home to their husbands or to see about dinner you would not lay that charge of neglect against them.

No; far from having a disintegrating effect upon the home or tending to cause dissension between husband and wife, it has quite the opposite effect.

IT BROADENS WOMEN, GIVES THEM A WIDER HORIZON AND SOMETHING BETTER TO TALK ABOUT THAN THE PETTY CARES OF THE HOUSEHOLD AND MAKES THEM BETTER COMPANIONS FOR THEIR HUSBANDS.

JOY TURNED TO GRIEF.
Capt. Lipscomb Learns of Brother's Death While on Way to Visit Him.
Yesterday's Times contained two separate items, one telling of the arrival of Captain Smith Lipscomb of Bonham for a visit with his brother at Holliday and the other being an announcement of the death of W. A. Lipscomb at Holliday.
These two items have a pathetic connection. W. A. Lipscomb, the dead man was the brother whom Captain Lipscomb came to visit. Captain Lipscomb arrived in Wichita Falls on Wednesday evening at about the same hour his brother died. Not knowing that his brother had been critically ill, Captain Lipscomb remained with friends here Wednesday night and did not learn of his brother's death until Thursday evening after the body had been shipped to Bonham for burial. Even then it was only in an accidental manner that Capt. Lipscomb learned of the death of the brother with whom he was contemplating a pleasant visit. His joyful anticipations were turned to sorrow and he returned to Bonham on the first train to arrive there if possible before the interment.

What is a Newspaper.
Looking at the question from different angles a newspaper appears to be a great many different things. It exists to make money; it is a newsgatherer and distributor; it is a sleuth, it is a civilizer and edifier; it is a freak advertiser and it is a conveyor of compliments and calumny. These are some of the angle views one gets of a newspaper's sphere, but getting away from the angles of observation and looking the subject full in the face the highest and best service a newspaper renders is that of a safe guard to the people. First of all the public builds an idealistic wall of protection about its press in every community. It may scold and criticize its local papers and all the newspapers at times, but there lies underneath this surface censure a feeling of security in the morale of the press, a reliance in its formed character and establishment upon higher and safer principals. The press is a watch in the night to the people. It stands for the holiness of our firesides, for the education of our children, for the succor of the needy, for the punishment of the guilty and protection of the innocent; in fact, for the safeguarding of our general interests.—Progressive Printer.

PERSONAL MENTION

Riley Walker has returned from Medford, Okla., where he went to harvest his wheat crop.

Mr. M. M. Murray, auditor of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern went over to Kell this morning to take charge of the depot while the regular agent attended court at Lawton.

Mr. T. J. Riley, foreman on the track laying department of the Wichita Falls and Southern reports that work in his department is being pushed with all possible speed.

Misses Sibly, Jewell, Flora and Berthamag Kemp, left yesterday afternoon for Colorado Springs, Col., where they go to join their mother, Mrs. J. A. Kemp, and little son, J. A. Jr., to spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. C. M. Jones returned yesterday from the Big Pasture over in Oklahoma, where he has a claim located one half mile across Red River, due north of Burnett's ranch. He reports fine crops in that section of Oklahoma.

Master Dudley Jackson has returned to Dallas after a visit with his father Frank Jackson of the Wichita Falls Implement company. Master Dudley is a bright young man and enjoyed his visit to the limit.

Miss Thelma Anderson now employed at the Fort Worth and Denver dispatchers office has accepted a position with the Western Union office and will take the place made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Stone next Monday.

George Wilhelm, of Erick, Greer County, Oklahoma, was in town today on his way to the site of old Fort Griffin in Shackelford County, where he has real estate interests. Mr. Wilhelm conducted a supply store at the old Fort in the early days. He is an old friend of Judge Edgar Eye, with whom he made a pleasant call this morning.

Mr. S. P. Hawkins of Nestorville, came in on the train from Burkburnett this morning and will remain over night in this city. He is one of the most successful farmers in Wichita County, and therefore is an authority on crop conditions. Asked about how crops were in his neighborhood at this time, he said "We will raise more corn than we will be able to gather. Cotton is looking fine, and if Jack frost holds off long enough the yield on the fleecy staple will be enormous.

Mrs. J. D. Wheat and children of Sherman are the guests of Clark Fowler and family.

Mrs. B. M. Musser, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Job Burnett for the past month, left yesterday for Roswell, New Mexico.

A Rapid Transit.

Stranger—Why are you hanging that man to a telegraph pole?
Citizen—Well, that's the best way to dispatch him.—Princeton Tiger.

A Happy Couple.

The Man—None of their relatives will speak to them since their elopement.
The Girl—They ought to be a very happy couple.—Puck.

Costly Enthusiasm.

"Well, doctor, you've saved my wife's life. There can be no doubt of that. How much do I owe you?"
"I'm going to charge you the full price. I generally find it necessary to make big discounts in such cases, but you appear to be really glad."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Prefer the Modists.

"Well," remarked the observant young man, "there's only one funny thing about self made men."
"What's that?" demanded his friend.
"They seldom have daughters who care for self made dresses."—Philadelphia Press.

Better Not.

Mrs. Henry—Did you go around saying you were a henpecked husband?
Mr. Henry—Oh, how could I?
Mrs. Henry—You could, all right, but I was just wondering if you'd have the nerve to do it.

Here is Something We Never Mentioned! Although we have handled it for 15 years

Its Hudson Table Syrup—a blend of Pure Vermont Maple and Cane Syrup—not a drop of glucose or any other foreign substance. Maple and Cane Syrup only—one as pure as the other—complies with all pure food laws, State and National. Our sale on this syrup has been so large and satisfactory we have not deemed it necessary to advertise it, but have concluded it is to our best interest to let everybody know about a good thing. If you were not told you would not know but what it was a strictly pure maple syrup and in fact if you will take the trouble to read the labels you will find that most of the high-priced, so-called "pure" Maple Syrups are pleading to a mixture of cane. So, why pay from $1.50 to $1.75 for an article you can buy for $1.00. That's the price of Hudson. Your money cheerfully refunded if not satisfied.
