Lumbrera To Stay In Garden City

From Morris News Service
Former Bovina resident, Diana L. Lumbrera, who faces three capital murder indictments in Parmer County, will remain in Garden City, Kansas, to stand trial for the May 1 suffocation death of her four-year-old son, Jose Antonio Lumbrera.

Judge Paul Handy on Monday denied a request to have Ms. Lumbrera extradited to Texas. Prosecutor Ricklin Pierce and Ms. Lumbrera's attorney, Michael Quint, both requested that the Garden City case be tried before she is allowed to be tried in Texas.

Ms. Lumbrera, 32, has remained in custody since August 7 when the Texas warrants were issued and bond was set at $300,000.

In Texas, Ms. Lumbrera is facing charges in connection with the deaths of three of her other children:

*Joanna Lumbrera Garza, three months, died November 30, 1976, at Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona.

*Melissa Garza Lumbrera, three, died October 2, 1978, in Parmer County Community Hospital.

*Melinda Ann Garza Lumbrera, two, died August 17, 1982, in the Lumbrera's Bovina home. The children were under Ms.

Bovina's Pop. Total In Gain

Bovina's "partial and preliminary" totals from the 1990 census stood at 1,534, according to City Officials.

This is a gain of 35 from the final totals for 1980, or two per cent.

With the county showing a loss of 10.9 per cent from 11,038 to 9,830 in its preliminary figures, Bovina officials were heartened.

The preliminary report showed Bovina had 68 vacant housing units. "We haven't had time to stop and count the vacant units ourselves," said Doris Strawn at City Hall.

Program Targets Youth

The largest simultaneous prayer meeting in Texas history was held September 12 when Christian youth gathered around the flag poles at hundreds of high schools and junior high schools across the state.

Rallying around a theme of "See You At The Pole," the youth prayed for spiritual awakening, for their fellow students and for God's power to overcome such negative influences as alcohol and drug abuse, sexual immorality, depression, suicidal tendencies and Satanic cult influences, said Chuck Flowers of Dallas, youth associate in the Texas Baptist Evangelism Division.

The statewide youth-led prayer meeting is an extension of "Shout It Out," a program which began with rallies to train youth and share their Christian faith.

In June, red wrist bands were given to a record crowd of more than 20,000 young people at the Texas Baptist Youth Evangelism Conference in Dallas and to 4,000 youth at Super Summer Schools of Evangelism at Baylor University, Waco, and Wayland Baptist University, Plainview.

The young people were encouraged to wear the bands which contain the words, "Shout It Out. Joshua 6:16," from the scripture, "And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the Lord hath given you the city."

"It is urgent to equip Christian students to be positive influences among their peers," Flowers said.

"In Texas this fall, there are about 1.5 million students in grades 7-12. Statistics show that 85% of the people who do not accept Christ before the age of 18 will never become Christians," he concluded.

Program Offered

The disease of alcoholism and the patterns of co-dependent behavior that evolve within the family will be the focal point of a 12-week program which will be offered at the Care Unit at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon.

Shirley Sherwood, a private practitioner in Amarillo, will facilitate the group.

"In the past, family groups such as this were not available in our area," Mrs. Sherwood said. "It is a personal journey of recovery and growth for family members, and enhances the chances of recovery for the alcoholic member of the family," she added.

It is not necessary to have a family member in treatment to attend. This group helps family members learn how to deal with the alcoholic loved one.

All family members are welcome to attend. A group for children from 5-12 years of age is offered on Saturdays from 3-5 p.m. at the Care Unit.

The family group started a new quarterly session on Tuesday, September 11 from 7:30-9 p.m. and will continue for 12 weeks at the Care Unit at Palo Duro Hospital.

In the past year, over 500 people have participated in this group which has significantly enhanced the recovery process of this family disease. Space is limited. For more information and registration, please call the Care Unit at 806-655-7723.

Area Gets Rainfall

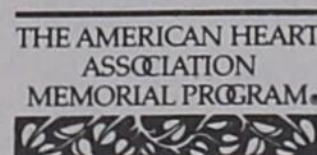

Bovina received some moisture this week. On Friday, it rained an inch and one-tenth. On Saturday and Tuesday of this week, we received .05 of an inch each time, making a total one inch and two-tenths.

Hot weather is still with us. The temperatures have been in the 80's and 90's for the highs and in the high fifties and low sixties at night time and in the early mornings.

About two weeks ago a freakish hail storm on the Fowler place southwest of town damaged melons and cantaloupe in the Fowlers' garden and on Pat Ware's cotton field around the corner from the Fowlers. The hail was small and didn't last long according to Sue Fowler.

Matt Howell Wins First Grid Event

Matt Howell was the winner in the first week's Bovina Blade Football Contest.

Howell and Jerry Rocha were the only contestants to correctly pick as many as 11 of the 14 contest games. Howell claimed first place on the basis of the Dallas-San Diego tiebreaker score, when he missed the game score by 13 points. He picked San Diego to win, 17-7.

Rocha had to settle for second place when his tiebreaker prediction of San Diego 27, Dallas 7 was 23 points off the actual score of Dallas 17, San Diego 14.

Three other contestants correctly picked ten of the contest games, and of this group, Mike Read claimed third place after missing the tiebreaker score by nine points. Read picked the game to end in a 20-20 tie, which was one of the better tiebreaker predictions.

Howell receives a check for $10 for placing first; Rocha received $7.50, and Read $5.00.

Also picking ten games were Stephanie Wines and Juan Arce, who both missed the tiebreaker score by 20 points.

Nine contestants correctly picked nine games, just missing a chance at one of the weekly prizes. They were Chuck Teague, Frances Willard, Cheryl Howell, Irma Hernandez, Matt Hromas, Eddie Don Lide, Darla Stormes, Ruby Jones and Windy Jones.

Howell's only three misses were Happy-Highland Park, Penn State-Texas and Houston-Atlanta.

Rocha missed Happy-Highland Park, Oklahoma-UCLA and Houston-Atlanta.

Read missed Happy-Highland Park, Penn State-Texas, Miami-B.Y.U. and the L.A. Rams-Green Bay.

Contestants are competing for a grand prize of $100 to be awarded at the end of the 13-week promotion. Football fans are urged to turn to the contest page and fill out their entry blank and turn it in at the Blade office.

Standings of the first week's entrants may be found elsewhere in this issue.

Mustangs Host Lorenzo Friday

The Bovina High School Mustangs will host the Lorenzo Hornets in their home opener Friday night at Mustang Field. Game time is 8 p.m.

Both teams are looking for their first win of the season, Lorenzo having dropped a 14-0 decision to Paducah while the Mustangs were losing, 22-0 at Happy.

Coach Rock Stanley said he felt that the team played very well in every aspect of the game except offensive blocking, which they needed to improve. Defensively, he singled out Corey Kirkpatrick, defensive halfback, and Robert Guevara, defensive cornerback, for their good defensive work.

The Mustangs will be playing Friday without the services of Isobell Marrufo, who suffered a slight concussion, and Robert Guevara, who has a badly sprained ankle. Both players are expected to be ready next week when the team visits Highland Park for their third game of the season.

Holli Clayton, Nathan Read United In Church Ceremony

Holli Michele Clayton and Nathan Lynn Read, both of Bovina, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, August 18 at 7 p.m.

Officiating at the wedding was Rev. J.L. Bass of Brownfield and former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Bovina.

The ceremony was performed at the gazebo in the garden area of the E.B. Black House in Hereford. The yard was in full bloom with roses, geraniums, daisies, snapdragons and Rose of Sharon.

Holli is the daughter of Dickie and Bonnie Clayton and Lynn is the son of Billy Don and Joyce Read.

Music was provided by Stephanie Bowen of Dalhart and Craig Zinck of Farwell. Stephanie played the harp and Craig, the trumpet. Selections were the "Lord's Prayer" and "Hymn of Joy."

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown designed of ivory satin. It had a portrait collar adorned with beautiful floral lace, iridescent with a candy box bow. The neckline led to a fitted bodice with matching lace and jewels, connected to a floral length full ballroom skirt with wire fluted bottom. She wore a hairpiece that complimented the wedding ensemble.

The bride carried a garden bouquet of white roses, dendrobium orchid sprays, pixie carnations, monte casino asters, baby's breath, sprengeri fern and ornament fern tied with imported lace. The bouquet was accented with a watch belonging to her grandmother, the late Buster Cochran.

Honor attendants were Shana Gober of Muleshoe and Tim Garner of Clovis.

The female attendant wore a black waltz length moire taffeta dress with a candlelight portrait collar of organza.

Chad Clayton, brother of the bride, served as usher.

The reception was held in the dining room of the E.B. Black House.

The table was covered with a candlelight lace tablecloth, three tiered chocolate wedding cake with white icing and was decorated with baby's breath and fresh daisies. Silver appointments, nuts, mints and punch complimented the table setting. The bride's bouquet completed the table setting.

Serving the cake were Kendal Hance of Amarillo and Joana Windel of Clovis, New Mexico, both cousins of the bride.

Donnel Garner served coffee and punch to guests and Stacey Whitecotton of Norman, Oklahoma, registered the guests. Assisting with the wedding party was Allison Wheatley, cousin of the bride from Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Lynn Read

The couple took a wedding trip to Seattle, Washington, Victoria, British Columbia and Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Scooter's Scoops

By SCOOTER RUSSELL

Summertime is still with us, but the mornings are getting cooler. Some of us are at the track early, so if you want to take a walk in the cool morning air, come join us. We begin about 5:30 a.m. Many of you have told me about loved ones you have in the service since we asked, but we need pictures and addresses for them.

Rita Caldwell passed away and services were held Monday in Bovina Cemetery with Rev. David Evans of Trinity Baptist Church officiating. She died after a lengthy illness. She lived in Bovina many years and was a cousin to Bedford and Tom Caldwell. She is survived by two brothers, Ed of Garland and George of Amarillo. Our sympathies to the family.

Margie and Jack Owens of Austin have been in Bovina visiting with Margie's parents, Clifford and Julia Leake. They came a week ago Wednesday and stayed until Saturday. They were on their way to Las Vegas, according to Julia.

Leona McCain has been in Bovina visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Les and Rose McCain. Monday, Rose and Leona drove to Hereford and visited with other family members.

Joe and Dorothy Harris drove to Dallas recently and attended the Shelby family reunion. It was held at a cousin's lake house near Dallas and Dorothy said there was a bunch there. Their son, Carl and Cathy Harris of Amarillo, and their children, met them there.

Officer Gary Coleman and his wife, Sue, will be moving from Bovina to a job near Houston. More information will be printed next week but a reception is being planned for them.

Gary is certainly "one of the good ones," and we're sad about he and his sweet wife leaving us. We wish them much happiness in their new residence.

Robert and Emmagene Calaway had company over Labor Day weekend. Emmagene's sister and her husband, Audine and Bill Wells of Midland, and Emmagene's aunt from Lubbock, Orpha Wickard. They enjoyed visiting and eating out in Clovis.

The Calaways visited in Truth or Consequences, Alamogordo, and Ruidoso this past weekend and reported green grass all the way.

Father Timothy, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church here, is visiting in the city of Rome, the Republic of Italy, according to Father Clifton Joseph Patrick from Saint Joseph Hall, Panhandle.

Father Timothy and Father Paul of Anson, Texas are making a special retreat, spiritual exercises with Catholic ecclesiastics from around the world.

Father Timothy will be returning to Bovina later this month. Pastor Clifton will be in Bovina staying in the parsonage until he returns. He said Holy Mass will be held at 8:30 a.m. daily except Wednesday and Sunday Holy Mass will also be at 8:30 a.m. and all Blade readers are invited.

Idella Owens was taken to Parmer County Community Hospital in Friona by Bovina Ambulance early Monday morning. Talking to her husband, Jim, he said on Tuesday that she would have to be hospitalized until her infection was gone.

Richard Villarreal's mother called Tuesday morning and said he was leaving Ft. Hood this week and his wife and son would be coming back to Bovina. Richard is in the armed forces and will be leaving for the Middle East. His address is: SPC Richard Villarreal, 585-90-2039, BCO 15th FSB IC, D. APO New York, 09306.

All of our service people would love to hear from home so do drop them a line and let them know we care.

THINK ABOUT IT...

We are always reading and hearing ways to stay healthier and this week we received Health News from Methodist Hospital that stated that the American Cancer Society suggests adding these protective factors to your daily life:

*Eat more cruciferous vegetables. Foods from the cabbage family appear to protect against colorectal, stomach and respiratory cancers. Those include broccoli, cauliflower, brussel sprouts, all cabbages and kale.

*Add more high-fiber foods. Fiber can be found in whole grains, fruits and vegetables. A high-fiber diet may protect you against colon cancer.

*Choose foods with Vitamins C and A. Fresh foods with beta-carotene like carrots, peaches, apricots, squash and broccoli are the best source of Vitamin A, which is necessary to help protect against cancers of the esophagus and stomach, and it's readily available in fresh fruits and vegetables like grapefruit, cantaloupe, oranges, strawberries, red and green peppers, broccoli and tomatoes.

*Add weight control. Obesity is linked to cancers of the uterus, gallbladder, breast and colon. Exercise and lower calorie intake help you avoid gaining weight. Walking is an ideal exercise for most people.

Have a great week and thank you for helping with the news and Scoops....Scooter.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

WISE KING SOLOMON: A GREAT LOVER OR — A GREAT DIPLOMAT ?

I KINGS, CHAPTER 11, TELLS US... "SOLOMON LOVED MANY STRANGE WOMEN... THE DAUGHTER OF PHARAOH... AND WOMEN OF THE MOABITES, AMMONITES..." ETC., ETC... AND SOLOMON HAD 700 WIVES, 300 CONCUBINES!

SOLOMON FIRST MARRIED AN EGYPTIAN PRINCESS, THE DAUGHTER OF PHARAOH SIAMON XXIST DYNASTY (976-958 B.C.) WITH A FATHER-IN-LAW LIKE THIS, HE DIDN'T HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT TROUBLE ON HIS SOUTHERN BORDERS — IN FACT, EGYPT CONQUERED THE PHILISTINE STRONGHOLD OF GAZA, GIVING IT TO SOLOMON AS A WEDDING PRESENT!

ALL OF SOLOMON'S WIVES WERE PRINCESSES OF OTHER COUNTRIES AND FROM THESE MARRIAGES CAME GREAT TREATIES AND COMMERCE — SUCH AS CEDAR FROM LEBANON TO BUILD HIS TEMPLE, FROM FATHER-IN-LAW, KING HIRAM OF TYRE!

HAVING THE RULER OF ALL HIS NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES AS A FATHER-IN-LAW, SOLOMON WAS SAFE FROM ATTACK AND SPENT ALL HIS TIME AND ENERGY IN MAKING HIS KINGDOM THE RICHEST IN THE NEAR EAST — IN THE ENTIRE 40 YEARS OF HIS REIGN, ISRAEL NEVER HAD TO GO TO WAR!

IT WORKED SO WELL, HE EVEN MARRIED OFF ALL HIS CHILDREN IN THE SAME MANNER!

NEXT WEEK: A MAN CAN WIN A BIG FIGHT JUST BY HOLDING HIS HANDS UP!

Angler's Corner

By M.D. McCALLUM

One particular species of fish has so dominated fresh water fishing, that it has grown into a multi-billion dollar a year industry. That fish is, of course, the largemouth bass. Besides the bass tournaments and bass television shows, there are monthly bass publications, bass boats, bass busters (small water boats), an avalanche of bass lures, bass tackle, bass clothing, bass trinkets and even the bass themselves for stocking (if you haven't already guessed it) a bass pond.

You can purchase bass instructional videos, bass pattern books and computerized bass games to just name a few of the informational items available. The sport of bass fishing has elevated all forms of freshwater fishing even extending its influence into the world of saltwater fishing.

The desire to pursue this particular sunfish has brought boats, electronics and tackle into the modern age. Built in upright and level flotation for boats as well as improvements in deep vee and semi-vee hull technology have evolved as a result of the demand of this market. Today's boats are much safer than those of even ten years ago.

You see them on almost every lake, plying the waters near the shoreline or drifting the drop-offs and channels. Elevated casting decks and every available space stuffed with tackle describes the typical bass boat. The helm and bow bristle with electronics.

Once awkward baitcasting reels have evolved into smooth casting tools designed for all anglers. Through the handle rod blanks have brought sensitivity to the forefront. One touch spinning reels with heavier construction are commonplace. Fishing line has become an entire industry in itself.

With all this taking place, the largemouth has become subjected to a condition not even thought of a few years ago, that being "fishing pressure."

Simply stated, the sheer amount of angling hours put into an average lake for this particular species will not only deplete improperly managed fisheries, but will also force the largemouth to adapt to the pressure and change its habits.

Twenty years ago, the bass did not have to contend with as much boat traffic. As the traffic increased, the fish headed to areas almost inaccessible to boats. As these fish stuck tighter to cover with the increased activity, a technique known as flipping was discovered. This allowed an angler to get close to heavy cover, and with the use of a long rod, flip the bait directly into the habitat. Soon the bass were going deeper into the cover, so then did presentations. The cycle continues making the largemouth harder to catch.

Lake Fork is thought to have the potential to produce the next world record bass. Its proximity to Dallas turns the lake into a parking lot for boats subjecting the fish to an extraordinary amount of pressure. The once easy trophy lake is getting more difficult as time goes on.

Gibbons Creek near Bryan was expertly managed from the initial construction phase. Fishing was banned for four years to allow the bass to grow to record weights. Before it was opened to the public, the press and a few pros were invited to fish. Boating 50 to 60 bass that day were common occurrences.

Once opened to the public, a reservation system became necessary as the impound was inundated with anglers and boats. The fishing pressure grew to incredible proportions. As time passed, the catch rate fell to the point to where the reservation system was dropped and stories of long days with no fish became commonplace.

Gibbons Creek looks like a bass angler's version of heaven. It is a shallow impoundment completely covered with trees and underwater obstructions. It has it all from standing timber to lilly pads. Therein lies part of the problem. Early pressure aside, the amount of cover boggles the mind. A Panhandle angler that is used to fishing shoreline brush and subsurface cover can only stand on the bow in awe of the sheer amount of structure. How can you spot "isolated cover" in thick forest? Where do you cast? Every spot could hold an armbreaker.

This illustrates the fact that the bass are reacting to the pressure, their characteristics are adapting to the changes around them. Throw in an overabundance of cover and you can understand the problem.

While thick cover is certainly not the bane of the Panhandle angler, fishing pressure is. It is estimated that over 600,000 people visit Conchas per year. Just take a small percentage of that figure as anglers. Be conservative, say 20%, which would be 120,000 fishermen or about 328 average per day probing the depths and pounding the shore. Other area lakes face similar pressure in relation to their size.

All this considered, one can see that today's bass angler needs to be armed with as much information as possible to consistently catch bass. As more boats hit the water every year, so increases the pressure. Bass fishing is evolving into a finesse game with tight cover. Longer hours on the water with fewer strikes could befall the uninformed angler. It's you against the fish, and you can bet the fish has the advantage.

This is the last of the series of Angler's Corner and I hope that at least some of this information has been helpful. This sport has a future only if we practice conservation as the angling population explodes putting more people on the water. Everyone has a right to keep fish within the law and no one should have to defend their right to do so. Without conservation, we will surely lose that right.

Keep a tight line and above all, be careful on the water. Good luck.

Hospital Observes Housekeepers Week

Parmer County Community Hospital observed National Housekeepers' Week from September 9-15. The annual event was established to recognize the important contributions of hospital housekeeping and environmental service personnel.

Often taken for granted, the cleanliness of the hospital environment reflects the continuous attention paid to routine maintenance and housekeeping procedures. While hospital appearance is important to hospital employees and patients, it also makes a lasting impression on visitors or potential patients.

Letter To The Editor

To the residents of Parmer County: Thanks to everyone who came out and participated in our booth during Maize Days, and making it a huge success.

Special thanks to the City employees of Friona and Bovina, the Conoco Station in Bovina, Kerby Welding, the Bovina Lions Club, Parmer County Implement Co. and American Canvas in Friona for their special donations.

We appreciate the help and support of everyone in helping the Parmer County Sheriff's Department get the D.A.R.E. program underway.

Sincerely,
Karen Britten

Sanitary housekeeping procedures are essential in the control of infection in the institutional setting.

Elda Hart, business manager at Parmer County Community Hospital, commented that "state health department and Medicare inspection reports reflect the pride that the housekeeping staff takes in the performance of their duties. Inspectors also comment on how clean and well-maintained our facility is," she said.

A good rule of thumb for housekeeping personnel is to clean every room as if a loved one will be the next patient occupying the room. The investment in a well-trained housekeeping staff is a positive reflection of a hospital's commitment to quality care and plays a vital role in infection control.

Parmer County Community Hospital salutes its housekeeping staff that includes Lupe Peace and Herminia Pena.
