WHO IS SADDAM HUSSEIN?
Before the events of the past couple of weeks, few Americans could have told you, unless they had paid strict attention to world politics.

Hussein, Iraq's strongman and architect of the recent invasion of small Kuwait, is the latest "bad guy" of world politics. He is vying for a place alongside Hitler, Hirohito, Stalin, et al.

Their recent eight-year war with Iran left Iraq bankrupt. It was said that Saddam, as he is known in the Middle East, borrowed $60 billion to pay for his country's war expenses, and even that wasn't enough.

The press reported that at a recent Arab conference, Saddam told his Arab neighbors that he needed to borrow another $30 billion, "And if they don't give it to me, I'm going to take it from them."

Kuwait had personally loaned Saddam $15 billion for his country's debts, and Saddam wanted Kuwait to write off the debt. Saddam apparently felt as though Iraq's battle with Iran was partly on Kuwait's behalf. In addition, he felt like Kuwait was helping drive down the world price of oil by pumping more oil than it was allotted under quotas established by OPEC.

Kuwait's location blocks Iraq's access to the shipping lanes of the Persian Gulf. For years Saddam has attempted to lease two islands off the coast of Kuwait for shipping purposes, but to no avail.

Kuwait, which achieved its independence from Great Britain in 1961, had become almost obscenely wealthy from its oil. Its residents built themselves three-story marble mansions.

The country boasted a shopping mall called Sultan Center, which featured French fashions and an ice-skating rink.

Kuwaitis paid no income tax, enjoyed free education and medical care, and received a $140 per month allowance per child and a bonus of $7,000 for getting married. With its government's help, thousands of Kuwaiti young people have received college educations in America.

But Kuwait was said to sometimes flaunt its wealth, and this was part of the reason some of the neighboring Arab states hesitated to rush to their aid following the recent Iraqi invasion.

Many people, including those in the Middle East, see the Iraq-Kuwait issue as an Arab problem, and deplore the action by the United States in sending troops and equipment to Saudi Arabia.

However, a specialist on Iraqi politics said recently that if the outside world had failed to react to the Kuwait invasion, Saddam would take over Saudi Arabia's oil fields within 30 days.

Historians are quick to equate this scenario as resembling too closely Germany's power-play that led to World War II.

Saddam, meanwhile has been equated with Hitler, and even by a fellow Arab, who called him "as blood-thirsty as Hitler ever was."

When he took power in 1979, Saddam had 22 of his top rivals executed.

An Egyptian newspaper reported that Saddam had 120 Iraqi officers executed recently for questioning the wisdom of the invasion of Kuwait.

The expectation that Iraq would use poison gas in warfare is based on the fact that during the recent war with Iran, Saddam ordered the use of such chemical weapons against rebel non-combatants in his own country.

Our leaders hope that Saddam is not reckless enough to provoke a war over Saudi Arabia. However, in 1980 he decided to claim a strip of land across the nation's border in Iran, and that brought about the eight-year war.

EXCHANGE STUDENT.... Pictured is Marko Lesic (right) of Yugoslavia and Cain Neal. Lesic will be living with the Tony Neal family and will be a senior at Bovina High School. He says he is happy to be in this country and in Bovina.

Marko Lesic Here From Yugoslavia

Marko Lesic will be a foreign exchange student in Bovina High School this fall, and comes from Zagreb, Yugoslavia. He arrived in Bovina late Monday night and will be spending ten months in the home of Tony and Dottie Neal.

Marko visited America for a couple of months some time ago and likes the country.

He said the culture and way of life is somewhat different. The people in America are friendlier and more "loose" than European people.

Lesic's mother and father are Dubravko and Jasna Lesic and he also has a younger brother. The family lives in a town with one million population.

Marko and friend, Cain Neal, have been to the school for their schedules and Marko will be a senior student. He only lacks one history and one English class to graduate. He speaks four languages. Marko began learning English in the first grade, Russian in the fifth grade, and also speaks German. The language of his country is Croatian.

Following graduation he plans to study computers and electronics. He enjoys playing tennis, basketball, soccer, volleyball, handball and will be playing football for the first time. He spends time snow and water skiing in Europe.

He said the weather here is about like it is in his country but in Yugoslavia there are flat lands, mountains and the sea.

He said he liked every type of food and is happy to be in this country, and to be in Bovina.

Hereford Lands $11 Million Plant

Operations at the Holly Sugar factory in Hereford will be expanded as construction gets underway on the sugar industry's newest ion exclusion facility, a state-of-the-art extraction process that produces refined sugar from beet molasses. Ground breaking on the site of the new plant is scheduled for Thursday, September 13, 1990.

The new $11 million addition, which extracts the sugar which remains in molasses following the traditional processing of sugar beets, will increase plant utilization and create additional jobs in the Hereford area, according to Holly President Roger Hill. Holly already is the area's largest employer, with more than 375 workers on the payroll during the sugarbeet harvest.

"For the 25 years since it was built, the Hereford factory has been virtually idle at the end of the annual beet-slicing campaign," Hill said. "Now we can use the facilities longer with an economical process that produces more sugar and benefits the community. If all goes as well as expected here, it's quite possible ion exclusion capabilities could be installed at the other Holly facilities."

According to Hill, officials at the Colorado Springs-based Holly Sugar Corporation and its parent,

Supply List Given For Jr. High

Bovina school officials this week released the list of school supplies that the students in junior high will be needing.

The list is as follows: one three-ring notebook; seven subject dividers; regular rule notebook paper; zipper pouch to hold pens; black or blue ball-point pens; two red ball-point pens; map colors; number two pencils.

Imperial Holly Corporation of Sugar Land, Texas selected the Hereford site as the prime choice because of the spirit and support of the Hereford community. "Sugar beets are in good supply and Hereford has a good market for cattle feed that uses beet sugar by-products," Hill said. We want to reassure our growers that Holly is planning for now and the future and that includes the support of our mutual interests in sugar beets with the newest technology available."

Richard Hopping, formerly production manager of Holly's Hereford factory and now production manager, ion exclusion, will direct and supervise construction of the new facility scheduled to begin full operation by August 1991.

Imperial Holly Corporation was formed in 1988 when Imperial Sugar Company, Sugar Land, Texas, acquired Colorado-based Holly Sugar Corporation. The combined Imperial Holly Corporation, with eight beet sugar factories and the cane sugar refinery at Sugar Land, is now the second largest publicly held sugar company in the United States and ranks among the Fortune 500 industrial corporations.

Lumbrera Refuses Extradition To Texas

A 32-year-old former Bovina resident accused of murdering four of her children has refused to waive extradition to Texas, where three of the charges are pending.

"I'd rather go through all this here and just wait," Diana Lumbrera told Finney County District Judge J. Stephen Nyswonger on Monday.

Lumbrera is charged in Finney County with the smothering death of her four-year-old son, Jose Antonio Lumbrera.

She carried the child into the hospital emergency room May 1. Doctors and emergency room personnel worked for an hour trying unsuccessfully to revive the child.

Her first-degree murder trial is scheduled to get underway September 19.

Last week, a Parmer County grand jury indicted Lumbrera on three counts of capital murder stemming from the deaths of three other children: Melissa Lumbrera, three; Melinda Ann Garza, two; and Joanna Lumbrera, three months.

The charges allege she killed the children for insurance money.

Two more of Lumbrera's children, 14-week-old Jose Lionel Garza and five-month-old Christopher Daniel Lumbrera, also died in her care, as did Erica Lenore Aleman, the six-week-old daughter of a cousin.

Grand juries in three Texas counties, Castro, Bailey and Lubbock, are investigating the other deaths.

With the exception of Jose Antonio Lumbrera, all the deaths occurred in Texas between 1976 and 1984.

Lumbrera, who had been free on a $50,000 bond in the Garden City case, was arrested on the Texas warrants last Wednesday. She appeared without an attorney Monday and remained composed throughout the 25-minute hearing.

Nyswonger told her she could waive extradition and have Texas authorities pick her up or wait until Texas had completed all the paper work and Kansas Governor Mike Hayden issued a governor's warrant. She chose the latter.

Nyswonger also ordered she be held without bond because the charges, if proved, carry a possible life sentence or death penalty in Texas.

He ordered her returned to court September 7 to see if the governor's warrant was issued. If Parmer County still hasn't filed the necessary paper work, Nyswonger said he could grant an additional 60 days.

Parmer County has set $100,000 bond on each of the three charges there, but Nyswonger said those bond amounts apply only when and if Texas assumes custody of Lumbrera.

UNUSUAL SIGHT.... An unusual sight in Bovina is an umbrella but Arlene McCallum was caught using one as she came across the street Tuesday morning. The total rain for the week was 1.6 inches.

School Considers Half-Day K'garten

Bovina Schools are currently considering a half-day kindergarten program in the afternoons to supplement the morning Head Start Program.

If you have a child who will be four years old on or before September 1, 1990 and you would be interested in enrolling that child in the pre-kindergarten program, please come by the elementary office at the big school during the week of August 20-27.

A birth certificate, immunization records and a Social Security number are required for registration.

NEEDED PANTS.... This little one was running to get her pants on when she saw the Blade editor with a camera. The rain caused water in ditches around Bovina and lots of fun for the youngsters.

FOOTBALL PRACTICE is underway in Bovina and team members practice each evening from 6-9 p.m. The first scrimmage will be against Texico in Bovina August 25 at 7 p.m. The team scrimmages Tahoka at Whiteface September 1 at 7 p.m. The first season game will be at Whiteface September 7.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON
Staff and residents had an unexpected activity this Tuesday. We really enjoyed watching the beautiful rain for the better part of the day. I don't think we could ever get tired of watching it.

Our "Thank You's" this week go out to: Sam Mears Farms for delicious corn on the cob, everyone enjoyed it and we had extra staff members eat that day; Mary gave some pillows that are always useful; Odell Holley brought grapes that he grew, they were very good; Bruce and Charlene Shaffer brought grapes and assorted fruits; Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Gresham brought magazines; and Cassie Perkins gave us cucumbers. Thanks!

I would like to personally apologize to Jeanie Determann for misspelling her name in last week's article. Would also like to thank her again for volunteering her time to come read and visit with the residents. They really enjoy her.

We would like to welcome Effie Hartman to Prairie Acres. We look forward to getting to know her. She's a fine little lady.

We know people half his age with high cholesterol.

There's no need to panic. Just be aware: High serum cholesterol levels have been found in some children as young as age two. Especially children with a relative who has suffered a heart attack or stroke as a young adult. But, thanks to AHA-supported research and educational efforts, millions of families have learned that lowering their cholesterol levels helps reduce their risk of heart disease. Breast Screening Set At Friona Hosp.

The Breast Cancer Screening Program of the Don and Sybil Harrington Cancer Center and High Plains Baptist Hospital of Amarillo will continue community breast cancer clinics at Wesley Community Center in August for women in need of financial assistance.

Funding is available through the Texas Cancer Council for screening mammography for Texas residents qualifying for financial assistance.

Early detection of breast cancer is the major goal of cancer control for each woman seen in the clinic. The clinic provides low cost screening which includes a breast exam by a Registered Nurse trained in breast cancer detection, teaching of breast self examination and a mammogram.

Currently, the most effective method known to win the battle against breast cancer is early detection. Early detection is best done by following the guidelines recommended by the American Cancer Society for breast cancer screening for women who have no signs or symptoms of breast cancer. The guidelines are:

1. Learn and perform breast self examination every month.
2. Have a physical examination every year.
3. Have a mammogram according to the recommendations by age.

Age: 35-40, one baseline mammogram; 40-50, a mammogram every 1-2 years; over 50, yearly mammograms.

A clinic will be held on Wednesday, August 22 from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Friona at the Parmer County Community Hospital. Exams are done by appointment only. For information about the clinic or to make an appointment, please call the Harrington Cancer Center at our toll free number 1-800-274-4673. Locally, for more information, contact Elda Hart at 247-2754.

By M.D. McCALLUM

It's a calm late summer morning. The sun is beginning to peek over the canyon wall of the quiet cove you have just entered. Scanning the cove you spot several scattered fish hitting bait on the surface.

You spot an isolated clump of brush on a pile of rocks jutting out of the water a few yards from the shore. Grabbing your rod you heave a small floating jig just past the bush. After waiting for the initial motion to subside, you twitch the bait sharply three or four times then stop. Waiting again for the ripples to quit, the surface explodes as your bait disappears into the mouth of a bass. It races down and away from you only to turn back to the top jumping as it throws your lure back at you like a bullet.

Several yards to your left a school of small baitfish start leaping out of the water. Anticipating the movement of the tiny school you cast into the midst of the baitfish. Your lure floats a few seconds then vanishes into the depths as the bass fights to free itself. As before the fish starts racing to the top, jumps, shaking its head vigorously. Which one of you will triumph this time?

The scenario above is common to a particular class of artificials known as topwater lures. While this type of fishing can have its frustrations, I have never yet come across a bass angler that didn't love, make that crave, topwater fishing. It seems one of the reasons for this is the fact that it requires a calm day. This of course implies that if you are a panhandle angler you've put in very little topwater time which in turn makes that time very precious. There is something special about being able to see your bait work.

The topwater lures are notorious for losing fish as a majority of anglers usually set the hook too soon or there is slack in the line. With this type of lure a short pause between the initial strike and setting the hook will give the fish time to consume the bait. If you react to the water boiling around your plug, you'll more than likely pull the plug away from the fish.

Slack line is inherent to any lure that floats. The pause between the strike and setting the hook affords an excellent opportunity to reel in some of the slack. Most anglers develop a method such as two or three quick turns before setting the hook.

After taking the bait, the fish will often dive, a good hard hook-set is needed to drive home the points of the treble hook. Sharpen old hooks or replace them. Some baits require cutting off the original hook. Use an appropriate sized slit ring to attach the new hook.

A poor hook-set will quickly show itself if the bass runs to the top and jumps. Keep steady pressure on the fish so that the lure will not fly out as it shakes its head. Set the drag as tight as the line weight will allow.

A good firm, medium action rod at least 5'6" in length will have the backbone and action to set the hook properly. Spin-casting, spinning or baitcasting reels with 8-10 pound test should work in this area.

One of the most effective presentations is to keep the bait still after casting until all the ripples subside. If there is no strike then twitch your rod tip a few times to rip the bait across the surface. Pause and repeat the process back to the boat. This method works well with propeller baits, stickbaits and chuggers. Chuggers such as the Jitterbug have a wobbling action when steadily retrieved.

A vastly different type of topwater lure is the buzzbait. This lure is similar to a spinnerbait except that it has rotating buzz blades instead of spinner blades. When retrieved at high speed these buzz blades keep the bait on top while making a buzzing sound.

Floating minnow imitations can be cast out and twitched or reeled in a few turns, pause and repeat. When using these, try to match the local forage in color.

"Walking the Dog" is another popular presentation used with stickbaits in particular. Raise your rod tip up and down as you reel in line. When you have attained the proper timing, the bait will pop side to side. While harder to master, this method is a documented producer of quality bass.

Early in the morning, late in the evening or night are the best times to fish topwater. The water is cooler so the fish are shallower. It is usually best to cast past your intended target and retrieve the lure through or by the target. If you are casting to a school of jumping baitfish, cast to the front of the school. Spring and fall are best times of the year for topwater action.

Once you've had a successful topwater encounter with a mean tempered bass, you will understand why a smile comes to most anglers faces when discussing this type of fishing.

Hope you've had the time to bend a rod on a few fish lately. Keep that line tight and good luck.

Child Welfare Bd. Met Here July 23

The Parmer County Child Welfare Board met July 23 in the Community Room at First Bank in Bovina. There were six board members in attendance and one guest. Those in attendance were Tonya Gober, Kitty Gallman, Janice Stowers, Joan Ahrhart, Jo Blackwell, Anne Norton and our guest, Lauri Huseman, the caseworker from Hereford.

Jo Blackwell, chairperson, read a letter of resignation from June Rhodes. The resignation was accepted by the board. The board expressed their appreciation for June's many years of service as a member of the board and for serving in the capacity of secretary-treasurer. Anne Norton was elected to fill this position.

Kitty Gallman is to talk with the Friona United Way about getting the Parmer County Child Welfare Board program included in the annual budget.

The Friona Methodist Church is going to be asked to continue their support for the foster children's school clothing. The church may just donate money to be divided among the three Parmer County foster children as they are teen and seem to be responsible with their money.

Lauri Huseman gave the caseworkers report. All three children have part-time jobs and seem to be adjusting to their surroundings. Some of them are doing outstanding academic work as well as participating in extracurricular activities.

Motion was made and seconded to provide the necessary school clothing and school supplies for several Parmer County school children that their family is in need of assistance.

The board has two film strips and cassettes available. They are "Penelope" and "For Pete's Sake." These film strips are available to schools and organizations. They are stored at Prairie Acres Nursing Home in Friona. To obtain the film strips, contact any board member.

The Parmer County Child Welfare Board will have a booth at the Friona Bazaar in November. The board is seeking suggestions for items to raffle at the booth. "Spider Man" child abuse books were ordered to be given away at the bazaar.

The next meeting is to be held September 24 at First Bank in Bovina.

1990 Property Tax Rates in City of Bovina

This notice concerns 1990 property tax rates for City of Bovina. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 84,503.02
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ -0-
= Last year's total taxes	$ 84,503.02
+ Last year's tax base	$ 18,270,923
= Last year's total tax rate	$.4625 /$100

This year's effective tax rate:

1990 Property Tax Rates in Bovina ISD

This notice concerns 1990 property tax rates in Bovina ISD. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 463,109.53
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ -0-
= Last year's total taxes	$ 463,109.53
+ Last year's tax base	$ 49,828,442

x 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$ 1.0038 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$ -0- /$100

(A school district must insert the following lines)

= This year's rollback rate before adjustment	$ 1.0038 /$100

BACKPACKING AND RAFTING.... These are a part of the forty-seven people who have recently returned from Colorado where Steve Venable, pastor of the Bovina Methodist Church and two other pastors led a group backpacking through the Collegiate Peaks Wilderness. They backpacked five days then took a day rafting almost twenty miles on the Arkansas River.

Pastor, Youth Take Backpacking Trip

Steve Venable, pastor of Bovina's First United Methodist Church, recently returned from Colorado where he and two other pastors led a group of 47 youth and adults backpacking through the Collegiate Peaks Wilderness. The trip was an official "off-site" camp offered by the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The group backpacked five days and some 17 miles west of Buena Vista, Colorado. Following the backpacking adventure was an all-day white water rafting trip covering almost twenty miles of the Arkansas River.

Kody Wilson, son of Kregg and Brenda Wilson, was one of the participants on the trip.

In Steve's weekly newsletter to the members of his church he said, "Five days of backpacking in the

The families enjoyed visiting, swimming, singing, sightseeing and fishing. Tabitha and Randa Englant, daughters of Mark and Kathy Englant, were the biggest fishermen this year, with both of them catching a fish each. No one else had any fish luck at all.

There were ninety people attending this year including: Bessie Webb, Polly Mills, Anna Lee and Floyd Englant, Randy and Renee James and children, Mark and Kathy Englant and children, Kathy Jarrett and son, Mel and Pam Clark and children, all of Bovina.

Also, Tony and Angela Englant and children of Clovis; Sam and Rhonda Webb of Farwell; Al and Kathy Webb, Kirk and Leann Pigg and children, Junior and Beth Casas and children of Dimmitt; John and Karen Webb and children of Lawton, Oklahoma; June and Tommy Muse and children of Lubbock.

Also, Wayne and Juanita Webb, Kenneth Webb and children, Carolyn and Wayne Karr, Eddie and Becky Webb and children, Jim and Sherry Webb and children, Gary and Tammy Karr and children, all of Azle; George and Cora Webb of Irving; Frank and Iva Webb of Trinity, Texas.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

A group from the Baptist Church attended the Billy the Kid production at the Caprock Amphitheater near San Jon a week ago Friday evening.

Those enjoying a meal of barbecue and the show were: Grady and Dorothy Sorley, Eddie and Phyllis Steelman, Don and Juanda Murphy, Richard Carson, Maggie Terry, J.B. and Sue Barrett, Keith and Laqueta Garner, Richard and Velma Gresham and Donald and Nita Dale.

Galen and Judy Hromas and their children, Matt, Darren and Lisa, have been to Pagosa Springs, Colorado at their cabin. While there, Galen and the boys had fun backpacking, fishing and camping out. Judy and Lisa spent time shopping and sightseeing. The family went to Durango sightseeing. They had a good time and returned home August 9.

Maggie Terry had company over the weekend. Their grandson, Terry J. Collins, his wife Barbara and their son Josh from Hedley came and helped Maggie can peas, beans and corn. Said they enjoyed a good visit.

Members of the "Youth for Christ" group went to Angel Fire to the Hodnetts' cabin on Friday, August 10. Eleven youngsters went and were accompanied by adults: Linda Kelly, Judy Hodnett, Mike and Brenda Jansen and Steve Venable.

The group had a good fellowship, cooking out and spent a day in Taos, shopping and had dinner. Youngsters going were: Corey and Kimberly Kirkpatrick, Angie Beauchamp, Kory Mitchell, Darla Stormes, Mark Jansen, Stephanie Rackley, Rusty Venable, Lance Teague, Jo Linda Hodnett and Misty Stewart.

We understand Bob Wilson was the lucky winner of the $100 gift certificate from Pay-n-Save sponsored by the junior high cheerleaders.

Bessie Webb had a nice surprise recently. A good friend for 63 years visited in Bovina with her. Farrell Davis of Blair, Oklahoma came a week ago Friday and spent the weekend. They had not seen each other in ten years.

Bessie said this lady was with her when her first child was born and Bessie and her husband share cropped with her dad the second year they were married. The ladies had a good visit.

Bovina has two foreign exchange students who have come to Bovina to live with the Tony Neals and the Charles Walters. We will be having feature stories on these youngsters when they get settled.

Austin Clayton, son of Ted and Starla Clayton, celebrated his sixth birthday with a party at Roller World in Clovis a week ago Saturday.

Those attending were Trent Black, Lacey Young, Courtney Jamerson, Jordan and Joel Barrett and Austin's sister, Morgan. Austin's grandparents are James and Sandra Clayton and Pat and Nita Wilmeth of Clovis.

Mike and Debra Beauchamp and children, Angie, Lori and Tony, also Mike's niece and nephew, Gina and Richard Beauchamp, have recently spent time vacationing in Ruidoso, New Mexico. While there they enjoyed hiking, riding horses, riding go-carts, shopping, playing golf and riding the bumper boats.

Joe and Kim Black and sons, Brandon and Trent, vacationed at Kim's grandparents' cabin in Ruidoso. They enjoyed all the fun things there and also White Sands, near there. Said they had a good rest and really enjoyed eating out and sleeping late.

Brenda Jansen's father suffered a stroke and Brenda took a flight to Texarkana. We understand his condition is a little better. Our thoughts are with the family. Brenda and Mike Jansen are newcomers to Bovina and Mike is the new superintendent.

Al and Susan Kerby and sons, Jason, Tyson and Josh, have recently returned from vacationing in New Mexico. They drove to Albuquerque and went to the zoo, and on to Santa Fe to see the horse and spent time fishing at Eagle Nest.

Lowell Primrose underwent surgery on a leg and is a patient at the High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo in room 494. The address there is 1600 Wallace Blvd., Amarillo, 79106.

Jimmi Dawn Jones, daughter of Joe and Denise Jones, had her tonsils removed on Tuesday of this week. She was treated as an outpatient at Clovis High Plains Hospital and her mother said she is getting along real well.

Amy Venable, daughter of Radford and Kay Venable, was one of the more than 2,000 people entertained at Clovis Musical Festival Dance by Michael Martin Murphy. Her picture was in the Monday, August 13 issue of the Clovis paper. Said it was a lot of fun.

700 LEFTIES!

ALTHOUGH MODERN BASEBALL HAS PRODUCED SOME AMAZING LEFT HANDED PITCHERS WHO THREW WITH EXTREME ACCURACY, SUCH AS LEFTY GROVE, WHITEY FORD, CARL HUBBEL, JOHNNY VANDER MEER, SANDY KOUFAX, IT CAN'T MATCH THE BIBLE'S SEVEN HUNDRED "LEFTY" SLING SHOOTERS!

THE SLING SHOOTER WAS THE COUNTERPART OF A MODERN ARMY'S RIFLE MAN AND THE TRIBE OF BENJAMIN HAD SEVEN HUNDRED CHOSEN MEN LEFT HANDED (JUDGES 20:16) ALL OF THEM COULD SLING STONES AT A HAIR'S BREADTH AND NOT MISS. ALL THE SHEPHERD BOYS USED SLINGS TO PROTECT THEIR HERDS FROM BEASTS OF PREY AND THIS CONSTANT PRACTICE AS THE YOUTHS GREW UP TO MANHOOD ASSURED ISRAEL OF A CONSTANT SUPPLY OF SHARP-SHOOTERS IN TIME OF WAR.
