Mattie Rushing-- Her Life Touches Three Centuries!

by BILL ELLIS

Mattie Carrington Rushing is one of those rare individuals whose life has "touched" three centuries.

The former longtime Friona and Parmer County resident was born June 1, 1898, at Natural Dam, Arkansas. She married Eric Vance Rushing, on May 30, 1917, in Ada, Oklahoma.

She attended the same teacher's college that Eric's sister Mary attended. She came home with Mary for a weekend, and that is how the couple met.

The couple's children were Eric M. Rushing, born September 2, 1920 in Ada; Roberta, born September 2, 1920 in Ada, and Bonna Lee, born February 15, 1922 in Francis, Oklahoma.

His doctor told Eric that he should seek a drier climate. The family came to Clovis, N.M., in 1926, but later returned to Oklahoma. Shortly after their return, Eric suffered a severe bout with pneumonia, and as soon as they were able, the family returned to this area.

This time they landed at Friona, where in March of 1927 they bought a grocery store from Glen Weir, turning it into a general store in Friona, in the site on Main Street later owned by the Turner family, who sold appliances and radios, and later TVs.

The Rushing family set up housekeeping in the back of the store. The children enrolled in Friona schools, where Roberta learned that her teacher didn't approve of her checking on her doll during classes!

After a couple of years, the Rushings bought a half-section of land just west of Friona, and soon moved to the farm. Later still, they bought a variety store from "Uncle" Andy Wentworth, and leased the farmland.

They operated the variety store until 1931, when Eric V. decided to run for Parmer Co. District and County Clerk. Receiving the majority, he took office January 1, 1932, and held that office for eight years, during which time the family lived in Farwell.

After graduating from Farwell High School, the three Rushing children, Eric, Roberta and Bonna Lee all enrolled at Texas Tech. Eric and Roberta graduated at Tech, but Bonna Lee went to Washington, D.C., getting a job with a senator. She later continued her education at George Washington University.

After his political year, Eric (Sr.) bought a ranch south of Clovis, where he and Mattie moved. The couple lived there until his death in 1970.

Eric M. Rushing joined the U.S. Navy after his graduation from Tech. He married Ruth Sachs, pioneer residents of the Rhea community, on December 25, 1942. After World War II and his release from the Navy, Eric M. and Ruth moved to the Clovis area, where their two sons, Eric Vance and George Ray Rushing were born.

In April of 1948, Eric and Ruth moved their family to the Rushing farm just outside of Friona, eventually buying the land. In 1958, Eric leased the farmland and established Rushing Insurance in Friona, which he operated until his death in 1975.

The two sons of Ruth and Eric, Eric V. and George, eventually formed a partnership in operating the farm at Friona.

These two sons have made their home in Friona. Eric Vance and Linda's children are Eric Marion, Rebecca Lee and Michael Barrett.

George and Leslie's children are William Mark, Sarah Ruth and Robin Elaine.

Their other children were Janet, who married Lynn Phipps. They now live on the Rushing home place south of Clovis; Jane, a 1974 graduate of Texas Tech, and a son Billy, who was fatally injured in a car accident in 1969.

MATTIE RUSHING

and other trivia:

This week's news has centered around animals in one way or another. Since our reading audience comes from a background that has historically been involved with animals, Ye Editor wanted to share these tidbits, in case you missed them on TV. (Maybe you were watching "Who Wants to be a Millionaire?")

*One of the networks' nightly newscasts this week came from our neighboring large city of Lubbock. A cowboy on the rodeo circuit, who lost the sight in both eyes a few years back, has returned to the arena, thanks to a bet he made jokingly with a friend.

Our featured cowboy's event is team roping, which involves two participants. When a friend was having a particularly bad run of luck some time back, the blind cowboy told him "Newt, I think if you'd tie bells on the calf, I could beat you!"

One thing led to another, and after a period of practicing, the sight-challenged cowboy found that with the sound of the bells, and his well-trained horse, he could still do a reasonably good job of roping the calf.

The TV reporter asked one of the participants in team roping what it would feel like if he were beaten by a blind roper. The cowboy answered "I think he just beat me today!"

*A lot of folks may look down their noses at people like Carol and I, who have a cat and two dogs, all of whom are house-pets. The girls at the office have been trying for five years to convince Ron that he needs a cat, but he's not weakening.

A recent edition of "20/20," focused on a couple in Montana, whose housepet was a quarterhorse. This was not a small breed, but a regular-sized horse. They brought the animal in when she had pneumonia, and they didn't have a barn to keep her in.

The couple showed how the horse even had its place at the table on occasions. "She was much more easily trained than a dog," the woman said. After the disease was conquered, the horse decided it wanted to continue as a houseguest, particularly in the winter.

They have a screened-in porch where the horse sleeps. The unusual housepet goes to the door and asks to be let out, and returns when she has finished her business. The horse has yet to have an accident, according to the owners.

*Animal rights activists in Seattle are trying to cancel a scheduled appearance of Ringling Bros. Circus, on the grounds that circus animals are mistreated. Their lives of being caged or chained up for 22 hours a day is inhumane, the activists say.

Those who are opposed to the treatment of circus animals have made enough of a "stink" that the city commission of Seattle has agreed to take a vote on having or not having the Ringling Bros. show.

How do you suppose the world has made it all these millions of years without the bleeding hearts telling us what we should and shouldn't do??

We're aware that the group mentioned here would also like to shut down rodeos on the same argument. One thing detracting the activists on the rodeo level is that probably the cities on the "rodeo circuit" probably wouldn't give this group the time of day, let alone a spot on the city's council agenda.

One of our goals for our new millenium in this country, it would appear to this old country boy, should be for Americans to "re-take" our country from the special-interest groups who would like for us to have a whole new set of laws.

Seems like these folks could do like the 17th century Europeans did, and go find a new land that they could run to suit themselves.

Mustangs, Fillies Lose To Olton and Farwell

The Bovina Fillies ended a tough season last week, finishing with a 0-10 district record as they head for the equally tough 1A classification next year.

Last Friday at Olton, the Fillies lost 71-27 in a game that was never close. The Olton girls led 47-23 at the end of the third quarter, then lit up the basket with a 24-4 point run in the fourth quarter.

Scoring for Bovina were K'Leigh Scroggins, 10; Melissa Cano, 8; Christen Stowers, 5; and Letie Vargas, 4.

The state-ranked Farwell Lady Blue invaded the Bovina gym Tuesday night. The Fillies hung in but Farwell's famous full court press and speed led to a 65-32 Fillies loss.

Scoring for Bovina's girls were: K'Leigh Scroggins, 8; Marisol Antillon and Jennifer Cantu, 6 each; Melissa Cano and Letie Vargas, 5 each; and Marissa Rodriguez, 2.

The Mustangs had point spread problems too in losses to Olton and Farwell as they close out district play at 2-8 with two victories over Morton.

At Olton last Friday, the third quarter score ended with Olton leading only by 49-45.

Final score, Olton 79,

NEWS AROUND TOWN...
I had a nice telephone visit with Helen Isaac, former Bovina resident who now lives in Lubbock. Helen and Edward and family lived here many years and had the department store on Main Street.

A couple weeks ago, publisher Bill Ellis was in his ophthalmologist's office in Lubbock when Helen came in, accompanied by her daughter-in-law.

Bill said to Carol "I think that's Helen Isaac who used to live in Bovina." Finally, he became sure enough to go over and ask "Aren't you Helen Isaac?" and they had a good visit while waiting their turn to see the doctor.

Their children are Tina, who teaches at the university in Lawrence, Kansas. She will be getting her phd in May of this year.

The Isaacs' son George and his wife, Carolyn live in Orlando, Florida and he manages a Hilton Hotel. They have two daughters, Emily 10, and Erika, 8.

Their son, Eddie and his wife live in Lubbock and he manages the Isaacs' store, The Brandon Iron; and she said they are expecting their first child on Friday of this week.

Helen said she still misses

Bovina so much and wanted to say "hello" to everyone, and also invites residents to come see them at their store, at 3320 34th Street in Lubbock.

Bobby and Irma Jo Englant visited in Kansas with their daughters and families. They all work for Pioneer Communications and daughter, Carissa and her husband, John Weiser went to Hawaii for a few days and Bobby and Irma Jo stayed with their daughter, JaQue, who is now sixteen years old. They have another son, Donnie, who is attending college at Emporia, Kansas.

The other daughter, Davanee, and her husband, Galen Cogburn, also live at Ulysses, Kansas with their two sons, Andrew 5, and Kyler 2. The Englants had to delay their return trip for a day because of the six inches of snow at Ulysses.

Houston and Laura Bartlett have returned home recently from a cruise through the Panama Canal on the Royal Caribbean.

They toured other islands in the area and Laura said they learned lots of interesting facts about the Canal. It was completed in 1904 and 40,000 people worked on the job.

She said when the gates are raised for the ships to go through, there was only six inches of clearance on each side. Each time the gates are raised there are fifty-two millions gallons of fresh water released to go into the ocean. Each ship has to pay a $165,000 toll as it passes through.

She said it was beautiful place and everything was so lush and green.

They were away from home ten days on their trip.

Rose McCain was honored on her birthday with a dinner hosted by friend, Mearle Morgan, former resident now living in Dimmitt. Leslie and Rose and Jack and Ona Patterson were served a Mexican food dinner and birthday cake. Rose said they had a great day.

Jack Clayton was hospitalized in Clovis with heart problems but has been released and he's getting along real well now.

Friends of Keith Garner said he was back in church the last two Sundays and looks great after spending time in the Amarillo hospital and rehab following a bad accident. *****

SMILE: A man walks into a bank in New York City and asks for a loan officer. He says he is going to Europe on business for two weeks and needs to borrow $5,000.

The bank officer says the bank will need some kind of security for such a loan, so the man hands over the keys to a new Rolls Royce parked in the street in front of the bank.

Everything checks out and the bank agrees to accept the car as collateral for the loan. An employee drives the "Rolls" into the bank's underground garage and parks it there.

Two weeks later, the man returns, repays the $5,000 and the interest, which amounts to $15.41.

The loan officer says, "We are very happy to have your business, and this transaction has worked out nicely, but we are a little puzzled."

"While you were away, we checked you out and found that you're a multimillionaire. What puzzles us is why you would bother to borrow $5,000?"

The man replies, "Where else in New York can I park my car for two weeks for 15 bucks?"
Have a great week,

Grace Lucille Miller Submits Her Life Story

Every month a resident of Prairie Acres Nursing Home submits a story about his/her life's history to be submitted in the home's newsletter, "The Prairie Times," and for printing in this issue. This month we feature Grace Lucille Miller.

BY GRACE L. MILLER

I was born in East Texas in Hamilton on March 23, 1915 to J.J. Haile and Alice Lynch Haile. I had four brothers, D.J., Cecil, James and Wilbur, and four sisters, Oliver, Mable, Lillian and Eva Merrill. Still living are Cecil Haile and Eva Merrill Smith.

We moved to Hale Center when I was seven years old and I started school there. My father farmed and my mother was a housewife. My brothers, sisters and I helped out on the farm and worked in the fields. We raised hogs, cows and chickens. We milked cows and separated the milk and sold the cream. We rode on horse and wagon. But later we got a Model T.

As a teenager, I met Lewis Miller at a dance. We became well acquainted and later I began to date him. We dated for a long time and in November 1935, we married and lived in Plainview, Texas.

Later we moved out on a farm near Hale Center and worked for a man who had two Ford tractors. I drove one and Lewis drove the other.

We moved to Dimmitt for three years and worked for the Killingsworth Cement Plant and later transferred to the one in Friona where Lewis was the manager and I helped with the book work.

We accepted Christ in our hearts and became Christians. I remember asking the Lord to help us get a decent home. He provided one for us and we lived in it for 38 years.

Lewis and I were married 48 years when Lewis passed away in December of 1983, just two days before Christmas.

In April after Lewis passed away, I got a poodle named "Bozie." He worshipped the ground I walked on. I continued to live by myself for 17 years and in the month of October 1998 I came to live at Prairie Acres because of poor vision. A couple of months later, Bozie died. I still remember him!

492 Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

This is a dramatized version of facts taken from the Book of Exodus intending to show some of the customs of these ancient and traditional times.

MOSES AND PLAGUES OF EGYPT

IN ORDER TO REMOVE THE PLAGUES FROM EGYPT, PHARAOH HAS AGREED TO LET THE ISRAELITES GO INTO THE WILDERNESS TO WORSHIP GOD - BUT NO SOONER THAN THE PLAGUES END, PHARAOH, REFUSES TO LET THE PEOPLE GO.

PHARAOH SAYS THE PEOPLE SHALL NOT GO!

AND MOSES STANDS BEFORE PHARAOH, ONCE AGAIN...

BEHOLD THE LORD HATH SAID: ALL THE CATTLE OF EGYPT SHALL BE DESTROYED!

BUT OF THE CATTLE OF THE ISRAELITES, NONE SHALL DIE!

BEHOLD! IT IS THE WORK OF THE ISRAELITES' GOD! OUR CATTLE ARE DEAD AND THEIRS LIVE!

AND ON THE MORROW ALL OF THE EGYPTIAN CATTLE DIE - BUT THE ISRAELITES' CATTLE ARE UNHARMED!

GREATER TUNA

Hereford Hosts ALT Production

The Hereford Community Concerts Assn. is sponsoring a production of "Greater Tuna," performed by the Amarillo Little Theatre group, which will be presented Friday, February 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Hereford High School Auditorium.

For ticket information, call Nancy Edelman at 247-3497 or Johnnie Walters at 265-3375.

Celebrating the 12th anniversary of its very popular touring project, the ALT is presenting the hilarious Lone Star treat, "Greater Tuna," by Jaston Williams, Joe Sears and Ed Howard.

In this entertaining and endearing send-up of small town mores, two talented actors portray the entire population of Tuna, Texas (including both men and women!) through a tour de farce of quick-change artistry, both in costuming and characterization.

The two larger-than-life personalities who portray all of the characters are ALT's Raymond Girard and David McKnight, Jr.

Among the many hilarious personalities represented here are the News Anchors at local radio station OKKK, Thurston Wheelis and Arles Struvie, who keep Tuna abreast with their own brand of colloquial humor.

Also to be found are the tight-lipped Vera Carp and the bombastic Reverend Spikes. Both members of the Coweta Baptist Church, they are officers in the Tuna Smut Snatchers Assn., which closely patrols the local libraries, removing books from shelves and words from dictionaries that are found to be "offensive" to the genteel sensibilities of this pious bunch.

Then there's the Bumiller family with its absent husband and father Hank, the always soothing, always cooking mother, Bertha; the twins, Stanley a dead-beat delinquent, and Charlene, "always a cheerer, never a cheerleader"; not to forget Bertha's Aunt Pearl, known for poisoning the town's dogs, and the earnest Petey Fisk.

Parmer County residents should take advantage of this opportunity to see what has become a Texas classic and Amarillo Little Theatre is proud to be taking their show "on the road."
