BLOCK IS BURNED AT GRANDFIELD

FIRE DESTROYS ENTIRE SQUARE OF BUSINESS BUILDINGS THERE.

LOSS IS FIFTY THOUSAND

Will Probably Reach That Figure—Volunteers Check March of the Flames.

News was received here early today of a disastrous fire at Grandfield, about twenty-five miles northwest of this city on the Wichita Falls and Northwestern. One entire block of business buildings was destroyed and two buildings on an adjacent block.

The fire started in the Dallas bakery at about 4:40 this morning and had made considerable headway before there was any organized effort to check it. A gasoline stove exploded in the building which was formerly occupied by the Farmers' Bank. All of the buildings in the path of the flames were frame structures and these caused the fire to spread quickly. Volunteers turned out to fight the flames and were able, after hard work, to keep the blaze confined almost to the block where it started. Two stores in an adjoining block were destroyed, but there was no further spread.

All of the buildings destroyed were business buildings and there were but few sleepers in them. So far as learning, all of these made their escape from the flames safely.

No estimate of the damage has been made with any accuracy, but it is believed the loss will be close to the fifty thousand mark, with about twenty thousand insurance. The nearby towns are furnishing all needed assistance to Grandfield and will see that there is nothing lacking.

Grandfield is a town of about eighteen hundred population and is one of the most thriving stations on the Northwestern. Reports received here this afternoon indicate that practically all of the destroyed buildings will be erected very shortly. Telephone connection with the town is impaired and the complete details of the morning's fire are not available.

The destroyed buildings included a hardware store, furniture store, bakery, restaurant, pool hall and several others, all occupied.

M. Kearney of Milwaukee presided at the opening session of the convention, which met in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. Annual reports were submitted and a number of questions relating to the rural service and its betterment were discussed.

The show will continue six days. The entries this year are numerous and of an unusually high class. The stables of J. E. Harriman, Reginald Vanderbilt and other prominent exhibitors are represented at the show.

WICHITA NINE WINS TWO FAST GAMES

By winning two games from the "High Life" team of Fort Worth, the Wichita Falls baseball aggregation has justified its claim to the support and patronage of Wichita people. In two fast, well-played games, the visiting nine was defeated, although it took eighteen innings to do the work in yesterday's game. Saturday's game was won easily for the locals, who hit the opposing slunker freely, but on yesterday they won only after having practically lost the game several times.

Saturday's Game.
Wichita Falls took the lead in Saturday's game at the start, but it was not won until the seventh, when numerous hits rolled up six runs. Two more were added in the eighth, clinching the contest. Fort Worth scored in the second, but was not able to do anything more until the last inning, when a batting rally brought in four runs. Timely hitting by Smith and Henson for Wichita was a feature. Hewitt pitched a masterly game from the start and pulled out of three bad holes, having a man on third and only out.

Weber's fielding was classy and fast. The score:
Wichita Falls...2 0 0 0 0 1 6 2 X 11
Fort Worth...0 1 0 0 0 0 0 4 5
Batteries—Hewitt and Law; White and Smith.

Sunday's Game.
Space will not permit a detailed account of the game yesterday. Hewitt was again in for Wichita Falls, while Humphries opposed and was good all the way through. In the fourth inning the locals tallied, only to see the visitors tie things up on hits in the sixth. The end of the game found the score tied up hard and so it stayed until the sixteenth. Then a couple of long drives for Fort Worth sent a man across the plate and the rooters thought it was all over until the Wichitians did almost the same thing in their half. In the last half of the eighteenth, the big thing happened, a long drive by Weber bringing in the local victory and cheer to the hearts of the local fans. The score:
Wichita Falls—
Fort Worth—
Batteries—Hewitt and Law, Humphries and Smith.

Both pitchers lasted all the game in good form, each striking out fifteen opposing batsmen. Hits—Wichita, 9; Fort Worth, 12.

NEW SCHOOL FOR WICHITA FALLS

If Wichita Falls will put up $10,000 for the building, F. W. Lewis of Hillsboro will this summer establish a new educational institution in this city, opening for registration next fall. Mr. Lewis wants Wichita Falls to put up $10,000 of $25,000 needed for the building, and in return he will give a $60 scholarship to each $50 donor. These scholarships he writes are worth their full face-value and the $10,000 to be put up is in reality merely a loan.

The school will be a normal during the summer and provision will be made to fully equip students for teaching. In addition, business and English courses are to be maintained the year around. A correspondence school department will also be a feature.

The matter will be taken up at the meeting of the chamber of commerce directors, and definite action taken. It is more than likely that Wichita Falls will do her part.

BURGLAR ENTERS BLOUNT STORE

The store of Blount and Company was entered by an unknown party shortly after midnight last night, and a small amount of merchandise taken. The night watchman on his rounds found the door of the store open and saw someone inside. He quickly got Mr. Blount on a nearby phone, but when the proprietor arrived the man had escaped. Mr. Blount stated this morning that he was unable to tell what had been taken, but that the loss was small. The matter is in the hands of the authorities.

GEORGE SIMMONS BECOMES LOCAL WEATHER OBSERVER.

George Simmons of this city is now voluntary weather observer here and has been equipped with rain gauge and thermometers for recording the weather conditions. Daily reports of maximum and minimum temperatures will be made and incorporated in the government bulletins. The rainfall will also be gauged and recorded. Mr. Simmons succeeds F. H. Gholke, who took charge of the work temporarily.

Hereafter when Wichitians are not satisfied with the kind of weather handed out, they can read the riot act to Mr. Simmons, and compel him to furnish more breeze. The right of the American citizen to use the weather man has long been considered invaluable.

O. B. COLQUITT FOR GOVERNOR

IS AGAINST STATEWIDE PROHIBITION AND IN FAVOR OF LOCAL OPTION.

SILENT AS TO 2 CT. FARES

Criticizes Present Administration and Says Texas Has Enough of Restrictive Legislation.

In the following letter dated at Austin, May 29, Hon. O. B. Colquitt announces his candidacy for the governorship:

Mr. Charles E. Graves, Blue Ridge, Collin County, Tex.: Dear Charlie—Your letter of May 22, in which you say that a number of your neighbors have asked if I have positively announced, or would be a candidate for Governor next year, and expressing the belief that Collin County would be for me, if I did run, was duly received.

In reply to your letter, I am writing to say that I will be a candidate. This statement is without any strings to it. At the proper time I will state my views fully. Briefly stated, they are as follows on the questions mentioned:

1. The preservation of the personal rights of the citizens unimpaired, under the Constitution. Included in this is his right to trial by jury, when charged with violation of the law where the offense is committed, or, in the county of his residence unless it is shown, as provided by law, that neither the defendant or the state can get a fair trial. By this I mean to express my opposition to any law such as has been proposed that would provide for the appointment of deputy revenue agents and send them out as detectives to arrest citizens whom they might think had not rendered their property for taxes at full value and bring them to Austin or to a neighboring county for trial as criminals. Such laws would be worse than despotism, and I am opposed to all such tyranny.

2. The full protection of the citizen in the enjoyment of his property and in the pursuit of happiness.

3. The separation of the objects of taxation for state and local purposes and the abolition of all unnecessary public offices and expenses.

4. I am in favor of further improvement in our public school system and the enlargement and betterment of the University and branches.

5. We have good laws regulating corporations, and I favor their enforcement in order that they may fulfill the purpose of their organization and thereby be a benefit to the citizen and general public. But such organizations should be held strictly within their rights under the law and should not be allowed to transgress the rights of the individual citizen.

6. I am opposed to State-wide prohibition. The Constitution of the state now provides for local option in counties and subdivisions of counties and I would favor any reasonable amendment to the present local option laws of the state which might result in a better enforcement of the same. When the people of a county adopt such a law upon themselves, I believe that they are entitled to a fair and full enforcement of it. I do now and always have favored a strict and just enforcement of the laws of the State and would see that this was done in accordance with the Constitution. I have also in the past favored a strict regulation and control of the liquor traffic and believe those engaged in the manufacture and sale of the same should be required to observe the laws regulating them.

Ours is a Constitutional and representative government and I am in favor of preserving it as such. When changes in the organic law of the state are proposed in the manner and form provided by the Constitution, there can be no objection to their submission. But every citizen, whatever his political affiliation, is entitled to a voice in proposing such changes, partisan and political demands for such changes, by a minority of voters, is out of harmony with the spirit of the constitution itself. Political partisanship may be one thing, but constitutional and representative form of government is another.

Political partisanship may demand the enactment of a statute, and if that statute is displeasing to the people, the people can demand its repeal through their representative by a succeeding legislature, but a change in the constitution can only be proposed by two-thirds of the members of both

DISTRICT COURT OPENS SESSION

GRAND JURY IS EMPANELLED AND BEGINS ITS LABORS VERY PROMPTLY.

CHARGE BY CARRIGAN

District Judge Suggests Look into Finances of This County. Calls Docket.

The 30th District Court opened its spring term this morning at 10 o'clock when Judge Carrigan read the charge to the grand jury and called his docket. The personnel of the grand jury is: T. C. Thatcher, foreman; W. H. Gwin, Ike Richardson, S. B. Jenne, J. S. Fore, C. H. Hardeman, J. C. Ward, T. W. Roberts, T. E. Ragsdale, J. F. Hund, S. E. Trevathan, R. B. Smith.

In his charge to the grand jury, Judge Carrigan suggested that they recommend the appointment of a finance committee to look into county finances, and audit the reports of the officers retiring last winter. It is customary to appoint such an auditing committee annually, although as Judge Carrigan pointed out, no discrepancies or errors have been discovered in this county for over ten years.

Very few of the pending civil cases have been set for trial, most of them being jury cases. Several damage suits are pending.

branches of the legislature. If changes in the constitution are to be proposed by instruction of a mere plurality of partisan voters, then the stability of the organic law, which the constitution itself provides for, will be destroyed. And if such partisanship can bring a change in one particular it can do so in all instances. This being a government of law, changes in the constitution should be proposed in the manner and form prescribed by that document.

8. In a speech delivered by me at McKinney on May 12, 1906, I made the following statement:

"It is not that we need new laws so much as we do the enforcement of those we have."

In my opinion, we have all the restrictive legislation in this State now that we need. I see no necessity for further legislation at this time which would needlessly hinder the people in their personal or business affairs, or in their efforts to make a living and accumulate a competency, or restrict them in their personal enjoyment of the same.

9. I am in favor of home rule and local self government. I am opposed to the unnecessary concentration of power in the State government at Austin.

"If a man cannot be left to the control of himself and his own affairs, how can he expect to govern the affairs of others?" I recognize the differences in temperament and business interests of the people of the different sections of this State, and believe that the happiest and best government which we can give to our people is to remit the control over local affairs, which affect them directly, to the people of the several counties and several municipalities of Texas.

10. We should devote the energies of the State government, as far as is consistent with good judgment, to a more perfect and prosperous development of our agricultural resources, our live stock, the timber and mineral industries of the State and to the development of the State generally.

By giving more attention to these great undertakings we would have less division among ourselves. We need rest from restrictive and harsh legislation and time for the citizens of Texas to adjust themselves and property rights to the laws we already have. We need a rest from agitation and from frequent elections and political hatred and acrimony, and if I should be elected governor of this State I would use my best endeavors to bring about these salutary results.

Upon the foregoing principles I propose to make the fight, and I sincerely trust to have the co-operation and active aid of yourself and all other friends throughout the State, as well as of all persons who believe in a constitutional and representative form of government. Yours truly,
O. B. COLQUITT.

Are you getting everything just as you think you should. If not try us through June and let us show you how well we can serve you.

TWO NEW RURAL ROUTES ESTABLISHED IN COUNTY.

The increasing population and importance of Wichita county is again evidenced, this time by the establishment of two additional rural routes. One of these will start from Electra, the other from Iowa Park, serving over one hundred families each. These new routes will be started on August 2, by which time the carriers will have been selected.

These new routes will prove a great convenience to the families served as they were heretofore compelled to come in for their mail.

FRANK KELL AND HUFF BACK FROM OKLAHOMA.

General Manager Frank Kell and General Attorney Huff of the Wichita Falls and Northwestern returned yesterday morning from Mangum, where they were in consultation with the Chamber of Commerce regarding the proposed extension of the road from Altus to Mangum. There are no new developments in this connection, it is stated.

Decoration Day is Observed.

The postoffice and banks are today closed in observance of Decoration Day a national holiday. This is the only local observance of the occasion, there being no public exercises, or any organized decoration of soldiers' graves at the cemetery.

Macabees in Session.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 31.—One hundred and fifty delegates and many visitors are attending the State convention of the Knights of the Macabees, which assembled in this city for a two days' session. A feature of the convention will be the initiation of 200 candidates into the order.

GLASS FACTORY OUTLOOK GOOD

A proposition to establish a glass factory here is the latest thing on the chamber of commerce slate, and if anything tangible is forthcoming, the chamber will be ready to do its part. No definite offer has been made yet, but several letters have been received inquiring about conditions here and making tentative offers. This city is ready to put up the site and go further if necessary. The combination of water, silica sand, and natural gas that Wichita Falls can offer can be duplicated by no other city in the state and there is every reason to believe that the efforts to get glass manufacturing capital here will be successful. Secretary Gholke of the chamber of commerce is arranging to have the sand tested to determine its silica bearing properties.

Civic League to Meet.

ROBBERY SEEMS CAUSE OF MURDER

Texas News Service Special. Dallas, Tex., May 31.—The officers today reached the conclusion that Nathan A. Board, whose body was found with a bullet through the heart in Oak Cliff last night, was murdered and robbed. It is known that he carried a large roll of bills shortly before he was killed. No arrests have been made.

OUTLOOK FOR DRUG HOUSE HERE IMPROVES.

Dr. J. H. Throckmorton, who has been here looking into the wholesale drug condition, recently returned to San Antonio. Dr. Throckmorton considers Wichita Falls an ideal place for a wholesale drug house and if he succeeds in interesting San Antonio capital, as he hopes to do, this new addition to local industries will be made. Local parties are rendering all possible encouragement, realizing the value of the proposed business.

Fine Sample of Oats.

Mr. J. L. McConkey brought to this office this afternoon a sample of a field of 60 or 80 acres of oats, grown by J. W. Henderson, two miles south of the city.

From the sample shown, the field, in the estimation of Mr. McConkey, should make an average yield of forty bushels to the acre.

TRIPLE VISITATION CHAPTER OF HORROR

WATER, WIND AND FIRE WORK SAD HAVOC WITH TOWN OF ZEPHYR, TEXAS.

THE DEATH LIST LARGE

Many Are Instantly Killed By Cyclone. Property is Destroyed in the Flames.

Texas News Service Special. Brownwood, Tex., May 31.—Baptism by wind, water and fire was visited early yesterday-morning upon the people of Zephyr, fifteen miles east of this city, and as a result, nearly one hundred are killed, many more injured and many buildings destroyed. From this city and other points aid has been rushed to the scene in automobiles and the situation, while still very bad, is rapidly improving. An accurate list of the dead and injured was secured with difficulty.

The horror of the catastrophe grows with each succeeding report. Following a heavy hail storm late Saturday night, there was a decided lull and it was thought the storm was over. Then suddenly with a roaring rush the tornado came, crushing houses almost like egg shells and spreading devastation in its path. Men, women and children rushed from their crashing homes in search of safety and were killed before they could escape. Before the roar of the wind had passed, or the crashing of walls ceased, there came the cry of "Fire" and a second horror was soon impending. Before the flames could be checked, most of the larger buildings had been strayed and the town was nothing but one heap of smoking and crushed debris.

OPENING OF NEW AIRDOME IS GREATLY ENJOYED.

Wichita Falls new Auditorium at 808 Indiana avenue opened up Saturday night and the initial performances were viewed by nearly two thousand people during the evening. The new attraction is an airdome, thus combining comfort with amusement in a very gratifying manner. Saturday night's performance was an unusually attractive one and was heartily enjoyed. It is said to be one of the most expensive acts of its kind ever exhibited in this city, showing that the few airdome will be an up-to-date amusement place. The new auditorium has already made good, so far as amusement seekers are concerned and it bids fair to become one of Wichita Falls chief sources of enjoyment.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to offer to all our friends who so kindly and lovingly gave to us their sympathy and help in the last sickness of our wife and mother our warmest and sincerest thanks for all they have done for us. We can never forget our neighbors and friends, but will always treasure in our memories your many tender and loving deeds. May the richest of blessings of the Divine Father be with every one of you as our wish and prayer.

J. C. CARNES, MISS MAUDE CARNES AND THE FAMILY.

Notice to Property Owners.

Editor Times:—Assessments of property will still be received during this week. The law requires that I furnish the commissioners court with a list of all persons who fall or refuse to render their property when called upon, and the court then presents such names to the grand jury. Come to my office and render, please. Very truly,
W. J. BULLOCK, County Assessor.

UNBURIED BODIES AT BROWNWOOD

Texas News Service Special. Brownwood, Tex., May 31.—According to reports received here, the total number of killed in the tornado is 30, but the death list may be swelled to forty. It has been learned that Rodney Campbell, who was reported dead, is still alive. There are not enough coffins in the town to bury the dead and the bodies of Mrs. Hicks, Gertie Haston, Eva Ware and Ruth Campbell are awaiting caskets. Twenty-seven of the most seriously injured were taken on the Santa Fe to Temple and are in the Santa Fe hospital there. The road (Continued on Page 4.)

NEW PHONE SYSTEM IN WORKING ORDER

"CUT OVER" MADE YESTERDAY MORNING AND IMPROVEMENTS INSTALLED.

MODERN IN EVERY WAY

Some Facts About New Service and Its Added Convenience to Phone Patrons.

As announced in The Times on Saturday afternoon, the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone Company cut over to its new improved service system early yesterday morning, and the city is now enjoying the up-to-date methods installed. The change to the new system was made expeditiously and with a minimum of inconvenience to the night patrons. Work was straddled shortly after midnight and long before daylight everything was in working order.

It will, of course, take several days for the patrons of the company to get accustomed to using the phone without the turning crank, as heretofore, but it will not be long before everyone is familiar with the new system and call for central in the proper way. The new system makes things easier for the patrons, as well as for the operators as well.

After the board was cut over and the efforts of those who put in the strenuous hours of labor were repaid by being able to watch its successful working, the following statement fitted well as a good wish. To see a telephone in every office, in every home, in every farmhouse, in every factory, yes, to see the farmer use a telephone from the tableboard of his wagon, to talk to his merchant in the town is our wish for Wichita Falls, and the company who is to operate their installation.

What the telephone means to the development of a progressive western town is too little appreciated in its entirety. Past installations tell the story and the telephone has been more than a convenience, more than an agent of civilization, more than the promoter saviour of human lives and an angel of mercy and a maker of destinies. No man can say how many lives have been saved, how much suffering has been relieved, how many enterprises have been preserved in the remote regions of the country through the telephone alone. Going where the railroad and telegraph are never seen—across the country where the mails are irregular and slow—the telephone has no rival in the west.

And especially is this true when we are separated for some distance from friends and the cities in which we live and do business.

Another important aid to the farmer which is neither business or social is its protection features. How many lives have been nipped in the bud on the country farm by the bucket brigade; the telephone is never forgotten in those cases, but is a friend in need. A story is told of its protective features against cyclones. Bill Brown, a western farmer, one day noticed a Kansas zephyr picking up things about the country. Bill ran to the phone and called up Frank, a friend some twenty miles away. The following was the conversation: "Say Frank, we've got a cyclone down here; its headed your way; look out."

Blag, went the phone at Frank's end, and he and his family to a deep ravine just in time to dodge a funnel-shaped cloud which completely wrecked the house and destroyed other things about the country.

A cooperation of this nature means not only dollars and cents, but also the saving of human lives.

The story of the growth of most of the western towns is short, but nevertheless most interesting.

The growth of Wichita Falls is not among the slowest and the installation of a telephone exchange, certainly means progress. The new switchboard, which has just been installed by the Western Electric Company, the largest manufacturing company of telephones in the world, equipped the local exchange with the best apparatus obtainable. The telephone service will now be the best, and it only depends now upon the hearty cooperation of the subscribers to make the system the best in the state.

Taft at Gettysburg Dedication, Gettysburg, Pa., May 31.—A brilliant and distinguished assemblage gathered on the Gettysburg battlefield today and witnessed the unveiling of the first memorial erected to the troops of the regular army who fought in the historic Gettysburg campaign. The event was attended with interesting and impressive ceremonies, in which the president of the United States, members of his cabinet and many distinguished war veterans took part.

A salute of twenty-one guns greeted the arrival of President Taft and his party. Drawn up in line across the field were two thousand regular troops, including a squadron of the 15th Cavalry from Fort Meyer, the 5th Regiment of Infantry from Plattsburg, N. Y., four companies of Coast Artillery from the artillery district of the Potomac, four companies of Coast Artillery from the artillery district of Delaware, and five companies of Coast Artillery from the artillery district of Baltimore.

Immediately back of the memorial on the President's stand, which was completely covered in red, white and blue bunting and decorated with American flags, sat the president and several members of his cabinet, members of Congress, official representatives of Pennsylvania and other States, prominent veterans of the Civil war and army officers from Governor's Island, Washington and other points.

A blare of a score of trumpets announced the opening of the exercises. After an invocation, President Taft was introduced by the presiding officer and was given an enthusiastic welcome from the great crowd gathered about the stand. The president delivered an eloquent address in which he called attention to the lessons of duty and valor to be learned from the battlefield, and paid tribute to the courage of the soldiers of the South as well as the North.

As the president concluded his address his daughter, Miss Helen Taft, was escorted to the edge of the memorial where were fastened the silken cords attached to the American flags in which the shaft was shrouded. Miss Taft gave one tug at the cords and the silken folds loosened from around the mass of granite. Straightway twenty trumpeters of the army drawn up in front of the president's stand sounded one prolonged note, and as the flags slowly parted and the memorial came into view the crowd gave a prolonged cheer that almost drowned the notes of the "Star Spangled Banner" played by two Coast Artillery bands. The ceremonies closed with a national salute fired by two batteries of the Third Field Artillery.

The memorial consists of a handsome granite shaft, 96 feet in height, and was erected by the United States government at a cost of $75,000. It occupies a conspicuous location in that part of the battlefield known as "The Angle," where the most sanguinary fighting of the memorable conflict took place. Within view are many of the monuments erected by the several States to the volunteer troops.

The national memorial is the first to be erected in memory of the regular soldier who fought and fell at Gettysburg. The organizations commemorated by this memorial are Batteries E, G, H, I, and K, First United States Artillery; A, B, D, L and H, Second United States Artillery; C, F and K, Third United States Artillery; A, B, C, F, G and K, Fourth United States Artillery; C, D, F, I and K, Fifth United States Artillery; the Second, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Fourteenth and Seventeenth Regiments of United States Infantry; the First, Second, Fifth and Sixth Regiments of United States Cavalry and the United States Engineers' Detachment.

B. D. Donnell City Editor

Wichita Falls, Texas, May 31st, 1909.

There may not be anything in a name, but the town of Zephyr was struck by a tornado Saturday night and nearly wiped from the face of the earth. It might have happened just the same had it bore a different name.

Senator Bailey says he has no desire whatever to become a candidate for governor of Texas. To be more accurate, he is quoted as saying he has no desire to become governor of Texas. This eliminates at least one from the long list of aspirants.

A careful reading of Hon. O. B. Colquitt's letter announcing his candidacy for the governorship fails to show how he stands on the 2-cent railroad fare issue, which, for the past year or so, has been his hobby. Is it possible that Mr. Colquitt has made as complete a change in his views on this important matter as he has on the prohibition question? When local option was an issue, he was an anti-local optionist, and now when the issue is state-wide prohibition vs. local option he says he is in favor of local option and against state-wide prohibition. Colquitt has the reputation of being a fearless campaigner, one who has well defined ideas on all questions, and the courage to give expression to them, but in this one instance it looks very much like he was dodging the 2-cent fare question.

THIS IS MY 22ND BIRTHDAY.
Mabel Talliferro.

Mabel Talliferro, who in a few years achieved stellar prominence as an actress, was born in New York City, May 31, 1887, and began her stage career when a child. In 1889 she appeared in "The Children of the Ghetto," making her first marked success. The next year she appeared in "The Price of Peace" with Mrs. Sarah Cowell Lemoyne, and in "Yeats," "The Land of Heart's Desire." She resumed her studies in Massachusetts for a year, and upon her return to the stage in 1902 she played in company with J. E. Dodson and Miss Angie Irish. In 1904 she created the role of Lovey Mary in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." For the past two seasons Miss Talliferro has played the title role in the sentimental comedy, "Polly of the Circus."

ANDREW JOHNSON MEMORIAL EXERCISES

Greenville, Tenn., May 31.—Scattered over the green sward in and surrounding the National cemetery, which for the past forty years, has served as the resting place for the body of Andrew Johnson, the seventeenth president of the United States, thousands of the descendants of his old time neighbors and friends in east Tennessee today took advantage of the first memorial celebration since the transformation of the private cemetery into a national institution to do honor to the memory of the former distinguished citizen by organizing the Andrew Johnson Memorial Association.

The people came from all portions of the vast and picturesque East Tennessee country, and while most of them were of the present day generation, there were some old timers who boasted of having known the Tennessee commoner in his day, and who spoke of the fact with much pride. The orator of the occasion, Martin W. Littleton, came all the way from New York to speak in terms of highest eulogy of the one president who, during his term of office, was tried on impeachment charges.

Mr. Littleton is a native of East Tennessee, and he expressed high appreciation of the honor conferred upon him in making him the orator of the occasion. He reviewed at great length the life of the distinguished man in whose honor the people had assembled, and predicted that the day would come when the entire country would be pleased to do homage to the memory of Andrew Johnson.

The place at which the celebration was held was on the edge of the city burial ground, which, a year or two ago, was purchased by the government and has since been made into a national cemetery. It is a beautiful spot just outside of the town in which, for several years in his early life, Mr. Johnson worked as a tailor. It is splendidly cared for and commands a fine view of the mountain range which separates Mr. Johnson's adopted State from North Carolina, the state in which he was born.

Many visitors came from the outside, and the residents found especial pleasure in pointing out the still preserved sign of "Andrew Johnson, Tailor," which continues to decorate one of the humblest buildings here.

The people also manifested much pride in the fact, that notwithstanding the almost successful effort to forcibly eject Mr. Johnson from the White House, the private cemetery, in which he is buried, is the first of such cemeteries to be given a national character by Congress.

Among those present and participating in the proceedings was Hon. Walter P. Brownlow, member of Congress from this district, himself a near relative of the late Parson Brownlow, Mr. Johnson's most distinguished compeer. Mr. Brownlow was largely responsible for the creation of the national cemetery, and while he occupied no assigned part in today's program was by common consent awarded a position of general prominence.

In addition to Mr. Littleton's speech, the program consisted of the singing of "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner," by a choir of 200 voices; an invocation by Rev. John S. Eakin, and the introduction of Mr. Littleton by Hon. James C. Park, closing with the organization of the memorial association. There was a notable orchestra in attendance, several members of which were old-time fiddlers, who had furnished music at the political gatherings during the notable Johnson-Gentry campaign for governor before the Civil war. Many of them were in reminiscent moods, and between tunes manifested great willingness to entertain visitors with the stories of the dim and distant past. Altogether it was a memorable day for Greenville, and visitors generally voted that they had been well entertained.

PROHIBITIONISTS TRY TO FIX ON CANDIDATE.

Dallas, Texas, May 31.—Eight prohibitionists, four of them supporters of Senator Bailey and four of them his opponents, were appointed by the Anti-Saloon League of Texas in March to concentrate upon a Democratic candidate for Governor, and possible State officers, favorable to prohibition. This committee met in Dallas recently, the only absent member being D. E. Garrett of Houston and John Mobley of Athens, and after lengthy consideration issued a statement in which request is made that friends of State-wide prohibition withhold their pledges on all candidates for the present.

Of the seven prohibitionists in attendance, all, with the exception of Rev. J. Frank Norris of Dallas expressed themselves as favoring Hon. Cone Johnson of Tyler as the prohibition candidate for Governor. They determined, however, that no statement to this effect should at present be given to the press.

The members of the committee are: R. F. Spearman of Greenville, D. E. Garrett of Houston, C. H. Jenkins of Brownwood, John Mobley of Athens, S.

W. Blount of Nacogdoches, W. P. Lane of Fort Worth, Eugene Williams of Waco, J. Frank Norris of Dallas.

Secretary H. A. Ivy's suggestion to the commercial secretaries is about as follows:

"Judging from their pronouncements the commercial secretaries seem anxious to promote the material development of Texas. That is a noble mission they have set for their organization provided they will see that their campaign for the material development of the state is conducted in a way that will insure that its moral development keeps pace with its material growth. But if they are in dead earnest about promoting even the commercial and industrial development of the state, I can give them a suggestion that if followed will work wonders in that line. If the commercial secretaries will join the State-widens in their efforts, stop the waste of $50,000,000 annually spent now in supporting the 4000 saloons in Texas and caring for their victims, the run-made vagrants, criminals and lunatics, and turn the $50,000,000 annually into better living for Texas homes and let the millions now invested in the making and selling liquor in Texas be turned into legitimate commercial and industrial enterprises that will manufacture and sell things that will help and not hurt folks, Imperial Texas will 'hump herself' and strike a double-quick step in her march of progress. Let the commercial secretaries join in our demand upon the liquor octopus to turn Texas loose and let her soar, so to speak and unshackled from this useless burden of the liquor traffic. Texas will surprise the world. If they refuse to help free the state of the impetus to her material and moral progress, they are a bunch of jokers, and deserve to be re-christened the 'Comical Secretaries of Texas.'

ELKS TO PARADE AT NOON TOMORROW

With banners flying and the band playing music, the Elks' minstrels will parade the street tomorrow at noon in full minstrel regalia, consisting of high hats, fancy coats, dark trousers, white over-garters, black shoes and canes. The parade will be worth going a long way to see as it will be a dandy, but it will only be a forerunner of the real fun which takes place at the Wichita theatre at night. Everything is about ready for the performance, the scenery is in place, the costumes are being pressed, the boys have had their first rehearsal with the orchestra and with the rehearsal tonight the big show will be in 'ship-shape.'

Abe Marcus, whose picture is presented above will appear in song and dance and those who have seen him rehearse say he is the 'candy-kid' of the show. Abe has had his voice carefully trained and now has it under perfect control; it will jump through a hoop, eat out of his hand or lie down and play dead and the audience need have no fears of its breaking away and doing any damage. The sale of seats opened this morning at Mater-Magner's drug store and it is evident that everyone and his neighbor expects to go to see the Elks Minstrels. If you haven't secured your seats do so at once while there are some good seats left.

PROS HOLD FIELD DAY: AND NUMBERS ATTEND.

Yesterday was Prohibition 'Field-Day' in Wichita Falls and prohibition advocates spoke at the churches morning and night and at the court house to a well-filled hall in the afternoon. Attendance was excellent at all of the meetings and the workers feel well satisfied with the results of their campaign here. The speakers were H. A. Ivy of Sherman, W. P. Lane of Fort Worth and R. C. Dial of Clarendon. Sterling Strong, State Superintendent, was scheduled to be here, but went on to Henrietta, where he conducted a successful meeting.

An interesting suggestion ament the coming campaign was made yesterday afternoon at the court house by H. A. Ivy of Sherman, who wants the Commercial Clubs to take the matter up. In his talk yesterday he said that if these clubs really had the interest of their cities at heart, they would endeavor to bring about prohibition, making the towns cleaner and more attractive to outsiders. This suggestion is a trite one, despite its novelty.

W. P. Lane, of Fort Worth, a member of the 30th legislature and one of the Prohibition leaders, spoke at the First M. E. church, South, yesterday morning and his forceful address was well received. R. C. Dial of Clarendon spoke at the First M. E. Church and Mr. Ivey at the First Baptist church.

All three of the visitors spoke to the court house mass meeting in the afternoon. A pretty feature of this meeting was the singing, led by H. A. Ivey and participated in by several little girls who waved Texas flags to the tune of 'Bonnie Blue Flag' and 'Bringing in the Sheaves.'

The speakers in addition to painting the evils of the saloon, emphasized the need of concerted action and endeavor on the part of all workers. They urged all to enter actively into the campaign until the desired results had been accomplished.
