

Thousands Came to Spur Monday for Trades Day

Thousands came to Spur Monday for trades day. People were here from every community within the trade territory, and from a distance of 50 miles. We heard the crowd variously estimated at from five to fifty thousand people here that day, but a more conservative estimate of the number would be from three to five thousand people.

The leading attraction for the day was the giving away of a Jersey cow. C. P. Witt of the Watson community being the fortunate farmer to win the cow.

Albert Jordan won a three pound can of coffee, during the progress of the contest, for having the biggest foot in the crowd, his foot, they say, measuring fourteen inches.

During the day a meeting of a large number of poultry raisers was held at the theatre building, for the purpose of cooperating in producing infertile eggs and securing better prices, the groceryman of Spur agreeing to pay a minimum of 20 cents a dozen for marked infertile eggs, and possibly more later.

On the trading grounds there were horses, mules, cattle, vehicles, farm implements, farm products, seed, and varied other items for sale or trade, many sales and trades being made during the day.

Merchants of the city offered special prices and trade inducements for the occasion, and all enjoyed a big volume of business, and are unanimous in stating that the day was a wonderful success in this as well as all other respects.

This was the first really successful trades day we have had. Everybody cooperated in making it a success, and the day was both pleasant and profitable. The Merchants Association will give away another Jersey cow next First Monday Trades Day, and other premiums will probably be added. An auctioneer will also again be provided in assisting farmers to sell or trade anything which may be brought to Spur on the occasion.

Spur Merchants In Egg Market Boost
(By E. L. Tanner, County Agent)
I have the following signed agreement in my office. It is just what it says and the eleven grocery stores which operate in Spur all signed it:

"We, the undersigned grocerymen of Spur, Texas, agree to pay a MINIMUM price of 20 cents per dozen for fresh, clean, infertile, stamped eggs after May 15, 1929. Should prices justify, a higher price will be paid."

Signed: Spot Cash Grocery, Hokus Pokus Grocery, M. Grocery Company, City Grocery Company, Virgil Smith Cash Grocery Company, Bryan-Link Company, Piggly-Wiggly, Joplin Grocery, Melvin Landers, Gibson Grocery, A. M. Shepherd, Lucky Corner Grocery.

This is a good start. All these men have said that they will not pay less than twenty cents for stamped infertile eggs after May 15th which next Wednesday. They all agree that they are going to pay all they possibly can for infertile eggs. They are always done this in the past, but they are going out to find a market from now on and encourage production of more and better eggs going for quality. It is my prediction that they will be paying 22 cents for these eggs in a very short time and if they get a volume of eggs they will find a market which will give them even a better price than this.

It is the way to get into this market. First, get your roosters off your farm if you have had already one and in three weeks your eggs will be infertile and you can then sell them. You can get your ink pad from Mr. Patrick, chamber of commerce at Spur cents. This stamp will be used in your own name and you will be held responsible for all eggs that show up with your name on them. It will be necessary for you to sell your cockerels before they are ten weeks old for

Story by a "Home Writer" Will Appear in The Texas Spur

The first installment of a serial story will appear soon in The Texas Spur. This story was written by a citizen of the town, and which will interest every reader, not only because it is a "home product" but because it is interesting and will hold the attention of readers from week to week. Watch for the first installment which will appear soon.

Trades Day in Dickens Saturday Was a Big Success

Trades Day in Dickens, last Saturday, the first Saturday of the month, as has been designated permanently as trades day, was a success in every particular, there being a large crowd in the city for the occasion which was made both pleasant and profitable to all.

In the contests Fred Arrington was awarded first prize of $15.00 in cash; Olen Powell second prize of $10.00; and J. P. Goen the third prize of $5.00.

The crowds were entertained with free picture show programs, and other entertaining features throughout the day.

An auctioneer was provided and farmers made numbers of sales and trades of stock and other farm items.

The merchants made special prices and trade inducements for the day and experienced a large volume of business in all lines.

Dickens has designated the first Saturday in each month as trades day, and on the next first Saturday will again offer special inducements to farmers to come to town to trade and mingle together in advancing the community interests of all.

Sam Lazarus Estate Buys J. C. Jones & Son Ranch in Dickens Co. at a Consideration of $60,000.00

This week a sale was consummated whereby J. C. Jones & Son sold their seven and one-fourth section ranch northwest of Dickens and in Dickens county, to the Sam Lazarus estate, the consideration being approximately $60,000.00.

The Sam Lazarus estate owns the old George Gilkerson ranch of six sections, adjoining the Jones ranch, and after July 1st the two ranches will be thrown together, and managed, we understand, by John Jackson who was formerly manager of the Matadors.

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICES

We have arranged for special Mother's Day programs at Foreman's Chappel, Dickens and Kalgary. All members and friends are invited to be present.

I will be at Foreman's Chappel, C. W. Parmenter, Pastor, Spur Methodist Circuit.

fertile eggs will again appear unless you do.

In order to establish the market these men are striving for eggs should be gathered every day and placed in the storm cellar until they are brought to town. Bring them as often as possible, but at least once each week. Remember, we want to build up a reputation for eggs and to do this it will take the cooperation of every one in the Spur territory who is willing to produce this product. It is my belief that we can build up to the point that by next spring we will be able to put in a cold storage plant like we have been talking about and get never less than 22 cents per dozen for eggs. We want, and by "we" I mean the farmers, a carload market instead of a dozen market. Every cream check should have a sister in the form of an egg check and the way for us to get it is to produce a quality product. Our 20 cent minimum is not the top but remember that it is a whole lot better than ten to fifteen cents

LET SPUR NEVER REST 'TILL HER GARDENS ARE THE BEST

All entrants in the yard beautification contest must be in by May 15. Gardens will be judged the last Friday in each month from May to October.

Prizes to the white people will be first $15.00, second $10.00, third $5.00. To the colored folks first prize $7.50, second $5.00, third $2.50.

We hope there will be many entrants in this contest. Now do not think because your yard is small and your home maybe not as pretentious as some others you will not have a chance to win, for you will; this is to encourage everyone to make their homes more attractive, and if you make your little home more lovely by surrounding it with flowers, your neighbor will catch the spirit and Spur will soon be living up to our motto.

Now is a good time to plant many of the best growing flowers, so you may begin now and win; and if you fail to win a prize you will be winner anyway, for you will get real joy out of this work. You never know how beautiful flowers really are until you plant, water and watch the tiny plant as it develops, then see the first bud that shows a touch of red as it bursts forth to gladden the world.

Spur Civic League begs to join heart and hand in this splendid move to: "Let Spur never rest 'till her gardens are the best."

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Basham, of the city, underwent an operation for appendicitis Monday at the Nichols Sanitarium. The boy is only eight or nine years of age. The appendix had burst when the operation was performed, and he is now reported in a very critical condition.

Car Wrecked in Collision, Occupants Escape With Slight Injuries

Last week two cars made a head-on collision on the highway between Spur and Dickens, with the result that one of the cars was almost completely demolished, having, it is said, turned over five times. Paul Trimnig, Pat Rogers and Caralwood Harris were in one car, while S. M. Newberry, Cecil Lawson and Bert Shepherd were in the other. None of the occupants of the cars were seriously injured, while both cars were badly damaged.

Dr. Morris is Building and Improving Modern Farm Home

Edwin Morris reported this week that he had just completed a new and modern farm home for Dr. Morris on his farm in the Espuela community. Aside from the farm house building and improvement, a five hundred barrel elevated tank was placed for water which is piped into the house, and stock lots, for the convenience of tenants. Eventually the farm homes of this country will have all the modern conveniences and improvements now furnished the city dwellers.

Edwin Morris is now engaged in the construction of a new bungalow residence in the city for E. C. Hull of the Red Front Drug Store.

Miss Ince and L. S. Wilson Married at Home April the 25th

Miss Lillie Mae Ince, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ince of the city, and Mr. Leland S. Wilson, were united in marriage Sunday, April 28th, at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are now at home to their friends in the city. L. S. Wilson is a young business man of ability and integrity, having lived in Spur and been identified with business interests here a number of years, while his bride is a young lady of charm and womanly accomplishments.

The Texas Spur joins heartily with their friends in extending very best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Family night tonight at Spur Theatre.

Three New Residences Now Going Up in the West Addition

That the building progress of Spur is uninterrupted is substantially evidenced in that this week construction work was commenced on three new residences in the West Addition to Spur. A. C. Hall is having a nice bungalow residence built. E. L. Tanner, the county agent, is also building a residence in the West Addition, as is Leo Klingman.

In addition to these residences started this week, M. Hargrove has his new gin plant under construction, the Spur Masonic Lodge is having a two-story brick erected for a business place below and a hall above, and W. T. Wilson is having a forty room brick hotel completed this week, in the business section of the city. The American Legion boys will soon begin the construction of a large hall in the west part of the city, and other buildings are being contemplated and plans drawn.

Altogether, Spur is building most substantially, permanently and rapidly.

Appointments for the party were in the wedding motifs, consisting of ice cream wedding bells in the pink, with tiny white cupid, decorating them with the individual cakes and the card announcing that "Lucille is engaged to Vandyke" and the date of the wedding, May 26th on back of cards. Plate favors were tiny rose buds.

The guests for this party were: Madames Baisden, Foster, Elkins, Wooten, Jennings, Wilson, Love, Newman, Smith, Watson, Hight, and Stotts; and, Misses Dorothy Williams, Thelma Cadaway, Nellie B. Albin, Jane Douglas Wilson, Lora Barrett, Maude Margan, Adline Scudder, Lena Belle Scudder. Out of town guests were Mrs. Chas. F. Spur Schools Will Close Term Friday, May 17

The 1928-29 term of Spur Schools will close Friday, May 17th. The commencement programs are now being had. The Junior Class had its class play Tuesday night, entitled "Nothing But the Truth," and it is said that it was one of the very best plays ever presented by a school class or home talent in the city. McAlpine Wednesday and Thursday nights gave recitals by their pupils in music and expression, the programs and presentations evidencing ability and accomplishments on the part of both teachers and pupils.

The graduating exercises will be had Friday, May 17th, at Dr. W. A. Jackson of Tech College will make the class address.

Foley Motor Company Moves to New Location on Harris Street

Last week the Foley Motor Company, local Studebaker dealers, moved from the Ramsey Garage on Harris Street, across to the building formerly occupied by Virgil Smith grocery on the south side of the street, and where their salesrooms are now located and afford more commodious quarters and better display of cars.

Since establishing the Studebaker agency in Spur Foley Motor Company has established an extensive business and enjoyed a large number of sales. The Studebaker is a standard, fine car, and in their new location Foley Motor Company no doubt will enjoy a much larger business in the sales of different model Studebakers now on display.

Spur Municipal Light Plant is Now in Full Operation

On the first of the month the Spur Municipal Light Plant commenced its operations within the city limits.

The city, throughout, in both residential and business sections, have been fully lighted, giving the appearance of a "white way." In fact, for miles in every direction at night the city of Spur can be seen, and the wayfarer is directed and lighted into the commercial center of this territory.

While those familiar with electric light plants, it is said by those who do not know that the Spur plant is one of the finest and neatest plants within the state, and of ample capacity to care for the electric needs of the city for the present and years in the future. The plant was installed by Fairbanks & Morse Co. equipments, which company is to be reimbursed for installation from the net earnings of the plant operations.

"Rooster Saturday" Desires O' Agent

(By E. L. Tanner, County Agent)
Monday we had a fine meeting on the egg situation at the Spur Theatre. There ninety-five men and women present who lived in the country. They were all there to see about a better market for their summer eggs.

We had it round and round as the boys say. Such meetings as that are good. They just go to show the other fellow that he is not alone in wishing to better himself.

From that meeting I am confident that there are at least 300 farmers in the county who are going to get rid of their roosters and begin to produce infertile eggs. Thirty of those present signified their belief that a cooperative poultry association should be formed, however, after discussing the matter it was decided to let this drift for awhile and see how we come out on our present plan.

Everybody knows my belief in cooperation among farmers and I do not believe it will be long until the farmers of this county will solve their own problems along this line of egg marketing.

Let us make this coming Saturday the most deadly one on roosters that has ever happened in Dickens county. I am going to find out how many of them are sold and reported next week.

"Bring me the winner!"

THE story is told of a man dining in a restaurant, who was served a lobster with only one claw. Upon complaining he was told by the waiter that this happened occasionally because the live lobsters fought among themselves in the kitchen. "Bring me the winner!" said the diner.

At the General Motors Proving Ground, a fleet of specimen cars, built long in advance of factory production, fight a battle of hills, bumps, and every other sort of torture. These cars are torn down and rebuilt until they are able to beat every test. The tests involves speed, power, endurance, braking, riding comfort, handling ease; fuel, oil, and tire economy; body strength—every phase of car construction and performance.

Only the winner of all these tests is sent back to the factory to be used as a model for the construction of the car you buy. No matter what driving condition you face, your General Motors car is equal to it. You have the winner.

Middle Life Troubles

"ABOUT twenty years ago, my health was very bad," says Mrs. Mat Howard, of Terrell, Texas. "I was passing through a critical time in my life, and I suffered a great deal. I was not at all strong, and my nerves got all upset. I had hot flashes, and sometimes would get suddenly so faint I could not stand up. My head would whirl, and I could not see a thing. I would have to lie down for hours at a time. I improved so much after I had taken Cardui for a while. I continued the medicine for some months, until I had passed the critical period. Since then, I have given Cardui to my five daughters. All of them have continued the use of Cardui in their homes. We have all been better for having taken it."

1925 BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED

A very pretty party was that of Wednesday when Mrs. E. L. Tanner entertained her club and other friends at her home in West Spur. The reception rooms were made attractive with beautiful roses and baskets carrying a delicious salad. Five tables were at play throughout the social hour. Mrs. Robbins was most fortunate in holding high score while Mrs. Jewel Smith held high guest score; both receiving very pretty favors. Unique hand painted nut cups were passed during the progress of the games and baskets carrying a delicious salad course were passed at the conclusion to Mesdames Hill Parry, Frank Laverty, Jas. B. Reed, C. L. Love, Nell Davis, R. E. Dickson, Riley Wooten, Shirley Robbins, Oran McClure, Jimmie Smith, Aubrey Jones, E. A. Russell, W. E. Flint, William Manning, Dan H. Zachry, R. C. Forbis, Margaret Newman, Robert L. Cathy of Oklahoma City and Misses Julia Mae Hickman and Arline Scudder.

Family night to-night at Spur Theatre.

Mrs. B. F. Simmons, of north of Dickens, was brought to Spur the past week to the Nichols Sanitarium where she underwent a successful surgical operation at the hands of Dr. Nichols. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, who formerly lived near Spur, is now reported doing nicely and recovering.

S. L. Porter, of the Duncan Tank community, was in Spur Wednesday of this week. He stated that crops would probably have to be replanted in his section as well as throughout the country. Crops were planted shallow, expecting rains soon, and the seed after sprouting died as it reached the top of the ground.

J. T. Rose, of the Plains, was in the city Monday with the crowds of trades day visitors.

H. B. Lewis, of Croton, has been here drilling water wells on the guarantee plan the past several weeks. Mr. Lewis believes in his witching strong enough to guarantee whether or no pay—regardless of whether or not he can locate the streams.

Mesdames H. V. Lnk and Raymond Evans, of Aspermont, spent the past week in Spur visiting Mrs. Link's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, and other relatives and friends of the city.

PRE-NUPTIAL SHOWER HONORING MISS SCUDDER

Mrs. P. C. Nichols honored Miss Lena Belle Scudder with a pre-nuptial shower Tuesday afternoon at the Nichols home in west Spur. The house was artistically decorated with festoons of pink carnations with pink rose buds, roses and snapdragons placed at vantage points throughout.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Nichols and the honoree, Miss Lena Belle Scudder, and Mrs. W. B. Williams.

The guests were registered in a dainty "brides book" after which a fine arts program was enjoyed. Little Miss Lavaris Lee followed by Peggy Jane Hogan in amusing readings, Miss Hazel Mullins gave a vocal solo. Mrs. Zachry's musical readings were most appropriate for the occasion and Miss Arline Scudder sang. Each number was rendered in a charming manner and was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jack Rector gave a toast to the bride, Mrs. Hull to the groom, Mrs. Link to the absent mothers and Miss Lora Barret to the girls left behind.

Very amusing was the contest in which Miss Lena Belle won the prize. In came little Misses Peggie Jane Hogan and Lavaris Lee as little fairies looking for "the Bell." Miss Lena Belle responded and was asked to follow the ribbon they held which would lead her through wonderland and at last to the hidden treasure which was a table loaded with lovely gifts which were passed and admired.

After which the following guests were served with a portion of the lovely frozen flower garden and individual brides cakes: Mesdames D. Y. Twadell, H. O. Events, Smith, Lewis, Lawis Lee, W. B. Lee, Collier, E. S. Lee, Sneed Twadell, Williamson, Link, Dunwoody Reed, Schrimsher, Whitener, W. S. Campbell, Manning, Blackwell, Hull, Elkins, Laverty, Jho. L. King, Roy Harkey, Perry, George M. Williams, Sol Davis, Oran McClure, C. Hogan, R. C. Forbis, Langston, Bushy, E. J. Cowan, J. E. Johnson, Rector, Zachry, Godfrey, Caraway, Ramsey, Ned Hogan, L. R. Barrett, Carson, Laine, B. F. Hale, C. B. Jones, G. L. Spring housecleaning hint for Husbands

Radford paused in the upstairs hall. "What!" he exclaimed, "not through yet—"

From amid the chaos of housecleaning, Mrs. Radford looked up in exasperation. "Get that coat off and help me put up this bed," she ordered, wearily shoving a stray lock of hair back beneath the towel about her head.

"How do you expect me to be through? I can't clean the upstairs, and spend the best part of the afternoon downstairs talking over the telephone, can I? I've been up and down those stairs forty times."

Radford had weathered many spring housecleanings. Wisely, he pulled off his coat and began to roll up his sleeves.

"I think," he observed sympathetically, "that an extension telephone up here in the hall might save steps and—"

"Then suppose," interrupted his wife grimly, "that you order one for me tomorrow."

"How do you expect me to be through?"

Telephones where you need them save time, patience, housewifely strength.

Few know that one or two additional instruments cost considerably less than the single telephone they now have!

By a wisely-placed "extension" or two, and perhaps a rearrangement of the equipment you already have, an expert telephone man can often double the convenience of your telephone service. Just mail the coupon.

Texans Responsible For Appropriation For Terrace Study

There is one small item in the agricultural appropriations bill of the present Congress that deserves a story. Undoubtedly other features in this outline of the House Representatives for the expenditure of agricultural funds would merit consideration here, but in this lone appropriation of $160,000 for the "Investigation of the causes of soil erosion and to devise means to be employed in the preservation of soil and the conservation of rainfall by terracing or other means" is found almost the first national legislative recognition of the importance of soil and rainfall conservation. As such this item deserves mention, and it should be a matter of pride to Texans that the inclusion of this appropriation is the work of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, the Extension Service, and civic organizations and was introduced and championed by Texas representatives.

Here is the story. Whatever the cause, Texas has been pioneering in the field of soil conservation. Since 1914 or even earlier, county agents have been demonstrating terracing as the only practical method of preventing huge soil and rainfall losses. About ten years later the idea was so thoroughly accepted by Texas farmers that the demand for county agent service in running terrace lines became so great that the terracing school for training farmers to do their terracing was adopted. Since then the terracing school has been pushed on a state wide scale by the Extension Service assisted by the Federal Land Bank at Houston.

In the meantime, the Spur Sub-Experiment Station began in 1925 one of the most remarkable experiments in the United States. Every one agreed that much rich top soil washed away each year but it took the Spur Station to throw the bomb shell that awoke the State that a nearly level field in a country of relatively light rainfall loses forty tons of top soil in six months time! Speaking another way, soil erosion is proceeding at the rate of the loss of the top six inches of dirt,—the farm in other words,—in forty two years.

This has been determined by completely enclosing the sides of several small plots of land, each with a different slope and each treated differently as to cropping; and providing storage reservoirs at the low end for receiving and measuring the eroded soil and the rainfall run off. It has been found that frequently as much as fifty per cent of the total rainfall of a year is lost to crops by run off. But the experiments didn't end here. Out on the station farms fields were terraced in various ways and some left without terraces. The are ample justification of the Extension terracing program, for the terraced fields out yielded the unterraced from fourteen to forty two per cent in cotton. Furthermore, the practice of using level terraces with no slope whatever allowed the terraces, as used for a number of years by the county agents, has shown to be productive of bigger crops in the Spur country than the older types where several inches fall was allowed per hundred feet of terrace.

The experiments are not ended and will extend indefinitely, but it must be remembered that the Spur Station conditions are not typical of the entire state, much less the entire nation. More such work is needed and needed quickly. With this in view the Bryan chamber of commerce initiated a request for Congressional aid. The East Texas chamber of commerce took the matter up, as did the Bryan Lions club which enlisted the support of Lions International. Then Congressman J. P. Buchanan of Brenham, already famed in Extension circles for securing relief funds for additional Extension work last year moved an amendment to the appropriations measure in the House in December, calling for $160,000 for the work previously referred to. A. B. Conner of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and his whole hearted advocacy of the measure, aided by Congressman Luther Johnson of Corsicana, resulted in the adoption of the item without opposition.

How and where the money will be spent is a matter of the Bureau of chemistry and Soils to decide but that the work will be patterned after the Texas experiments there is little doubt. It is hoped that among the points selected for conducting the experimental work will be included one in the blackland of Texas and one in East Texas for there is much data needed by county agents in these regions in the vital job of saving Texas lands for future generations. — Texas Extension Service Farm News.

Four Cows Make Living For Family Of E. H. Blakley

E. H. Blakley, of Elton met us Monday on the streets and handed us another dollar and fifty cents for the renewal of his subscription for another year, and for which he has our appreciation and thanks. In talking further with Mr. Blakley, he stated that he was milking four cows now on his place and that these cows were not only "making the living" for the family, but were also paying the expenses of the farm. Mr. Blakley has two more cows coming in soon, after which time he expects to have a surplus of funds with which to provide luxuries for members of the family. We have heard the assertion that two good milk cows would make a living for the average family, and that more than that number would provide a daily income. While practically every farmer of the country now realizes that cows and chickens as well as pigs are necessary in the operation of a farm, Mr. Blakley was among the first to adopt these diversified interests and is among the most prosperous and successful farmers of the country.

Feels Twenty Years Younger, Says Porter

"Sargon was a godsend to me, and I bless the day I first bought it; I feel like a new man," said J. F. Porter, of Keller, Texas. Mr. Porter is 73 years old and has been a deacon in the Missionary Baptist Church 52 years. He is also a Mason.

J. F. PORTER

"I suffered day and night for the past three years with stomach trouble. My gall bladder gave me serious trouble and pain. A most severe pain would strike me about two or three o'clock in the morning and would continue for hours. My entire system was out of order. I was so constipated I had to take laxatives almost every night.

"I put off buying Sargon for weeks, but read so many endorsements for it from good people in Fort Worth that I bought some, and it has worked wonderfully for me. I would not believe such results could be accomplished unless I had the experience myself. Those terrible pains are gone and I sleep the whole night through. My stomach is right now and I eat what I please. I am strong and feel twenty years younger. My gall bladder doesn't bother me; my liver is active, and I am no longer constipated.

"I feel it my duty to my fellow-man to tell how Sargon has benefited me."

Sargon may be obtained in Spur at the Red Front Drug Store.
