LITTLE THINGS OFTEN LACKING

Nearly every house constantly lacks some useful item in drug store sundries. An extra hair brush or comb is needed, whisk brooms are too few—perhaps there is but one and that brittle and worn—or the clothes brush has served its usefulness, the purchase of a new supply of toilet soap is often forgotten, and many other items less necessary but equally useful are never thought of. All this is due to oversight rather than economy, and we mention these things merely to remind you.

Our sundry stock is always complete. The same regard for quality that we exercise in the selection of drugs rules our buying of sundries, yet our prices are never beaten.

Douglass Doings.

Douglass, Aug. 8.—Mrs. R. T. Weaver and several of her children are spending a week visiting her father, Capt. McKnight.

Arch McKnight spent several days at his boyhood home this week. He went from here to Rusk Wednesday accompanied by Miss. Sudie McKnight, his sister, Phil Sanders and his sister, Miss Jennie, in order to be at the "big" ball game to be pulled off between the Nacogdoches and Rusk teams.

R. W. Murphey spent several days in Nacogdoches this week. It is supposed he will move to that city soon. It was commonly reported on the streets Wednesday that he had resigned as postmaster at Douglass, but since his return he denies the charge. Mr. Murphey has been postmaster here since October, 1, 1893. At the time he was appointed we only had mail three times a week. By his efforts the service was increased to six times a week. Two post offices have been established, viz. Nat and Libert. Nat was a wayside post office between Douglass and Loneyville. By his suggestion and co-operation of the post masters Nat, Loneyville and Toliver, Nat was placed on the route from Toliver to Douglass, thereby giving all the country north of Douglass good mail service. The mail will come three times a week from Toliver to Douglass, service to begin Monday the 11th inst. Mr. Murphey secured the money order business at Douglass last October which is a great convenience to the general public. The Douglass post office was declared to be a distributing office sometime last year, and the postmaster was allowed $10.00 per annum for clerk here. The cancellation for the two quarters past, showed up better than any time previous, reaching to $75.70. The sale of postage also passed the average mark, the sales for the past two quarters being $121.10. For the nine months commencing with October 1, 1900, he has deposited at Houston for the money order business $2632.47 besides the fees received. He has issued up to date 233 money orders. Mr. Murphey has given the people good service since his appointment as postmaster, making some mistakes as most busy men do. There have been some "kickers," as always are at public men, but they are mostly chronic "kickers" and in most cases don't get much mail.

Excuse this long epistle. I feel it is justice to the postmaster at Douglass for his untiring efforts to give the patrons of the office the best service possible. His wife has been his assistant for five years. He has had other help also. Mr. and Mrs. Murphey are both courteous and kind, ever ready to accommodate all who may call upon them for assistance, to which numbers of the people will testify.

Health good, crops sorry, weather hot and dry.

A Small Wreck.

A small wreck occurred at the crossing of Cox street and the H. E. & W. T. railroad, near the compress, last night. A box car loaded with coal and a flat car loaded with lumber were ditched and completely demolished. The wreck was caused by the opening of a switch, allowing one car to follow the main track and the other to take the switch. No one was hurt, though it is said there was a brakeman on top of the box car. The wreck did not obstruct the main line sufficiently to cause delay in the passenger trains.

FIRST BALE OF NEW COTTON.

Sold For 8 3-4 Cents With Premium of $24.75.

The first bale of the 1901 crop was brought in this morning and was sold at auction by Capt. Jno. S. Doughtie. The cotton was raised by W. L. McBride and Sam Moses at Melrose, was ginned at Mangham's gin. It was classed good middling and was knocked down to Mayer & Schmidt at 8 3-4 cents. "It was weighed in Sanders yard, weighing 536 pounds. A premium of $24.75 was made up which was given to the raisers, which added to the price of the bale netted the raisers $71.65.

The seed from the bale were also sold at auction, but owing to the absence of representatives of the various oil mills only one bid was made, and they were sold to Mr. T. J. Roquemore for the Southern Cotton Oil company, of Houston at $11.00 a ton, the seed from the bale netting $5.50.

The first bale last year was brought in on Aug. 16th, three days later than this year. It was raised by J. W. Byrd and ginned by Jesse Millard. It weighed 492 pounds, was classed as middling and sold at auction to W. N. Bailey at 13 cents, which together with a premium of $25.00, netted the grower $88.96.

The Second Bale.

The second bale of new cotton was brought in yesterday just an hour behind the first. It was raised in the same community as the first by Mrs. W. P. Sullivan, a widow lady, was ginned at the same gin, but arrived at the gin just an hour behind the McBride and Moses bale. The cotton was sold to Mayer & Schmidt at 8 cents a pound.

Letter List.

The following is a list of letters remaining uncalled for at the Nacogdoches post office August 12:

Jno Appel, J L Barksdale, S B Bowdin, Jno Booker, Willie Caldwell, S Cannel, Geo Green, Ben Jones, B A Jones, J B McKinley, M Marrinez, Rogers McCary, Johnnie Watson, Melindez Perez, G E Perez, A H Sheffield, Zach Tchnekrauf, L M Smith, L R Smith, Gaston Therrell (2) R D Whitaker, Geo Williams, J M Woodard.

Fire at Lutkin.

Another fire visited Lutkin Saturday night, destroying the Lutkin Avenue Drug Store and the printing office of the Lutkin Tribune. The loss of the Tribune is about $3,500, including the building, with $1,400 insurance on the printing material. The fire broke out in the drug store about midnight and was too far under headway when discovered to save either building or their contents. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Prof. and Mrs. W. P. Arnold are now in Lockhart, Texas. In a private letter to the editor, Prof. Arnold writes: "We spent twenty days in boating and fishing on the Upper Neuces. We caught all the fish we needed and greatly enjoyed camp life. Wife's friends and pupils may be pleased to learn that she climbed several mountains and caught more fish than any other member of the party. I got the 'blue ribbon' for landing the three largest bass that were caught. The water of the Upper Neuces is as clear as crystal and is in the most beautiful pools I have ever seen."

Buy your cane mills, evaporators, turnaces, etc., for your syrup making from Mayer & Schmidt. We also have the jugs, kegs and barrels to put your syrup in.

TEN MORE BUILDINGS

Reduced to Ashes by the Lutkin Fire Fiend.

Geo. H. Matthews, Esq., came up from Lutkin this morning, where he had been on a business trip and says he witnessed the conflagration there last night by which ten more of Lutkin's business houses are reduced to ashes.

The fire broke out after midnight in the Crutchfield millinery store, a wooden building adjoining the National bank building. The fire was soon beyond all control and in less than an hour the Crutchfield millinery store, the bank, Hodges Dry Goods company, W. L. Sington, the Jones saloon, the Johnson Drug company and four or five other buildings were burned to the ground.

The origin of the fire is not known, but following in the wake of other fires from which Lutkin has suffered sorely of late, there is strong suspicion of incendiarism.

They can beat the No. 1's, but they can't play ball no how. If they beat the Figaros and Hills, then we'll beat 'em with the "Horned Frogs," the "Tadpoles" or the "Minnows."

THE BAIN WAGON.

It is beyond question the strongest ever before sold in this place. It is made of the very best material and by skilled labor, and while it will cost you a few dollars more than any other wagon, if you will only spare a few minutes of your time with us we will show you where it will be economy to buy one.

Do you want to own a better wagon than you ever did before? If so come and buy one of our improved Bain wagons, which is noted all over the world as being the best proportioned wagon on the market and therefore it must be as light or lighter than any other.

VICTOR CANE MILL.

And it seems folly to mention the Victor Cane Mill as it has a world-wide reputation, being the only mill that has no knife or guide between the rolls, therefore you have nothing to cause it to choke and it positively will not. It works easy, being freed from all clogging between the rolls, and the rolls themselves being lifted from the bottom plate so as to touch only at the bottom plate so as to lounce only at the end of the shafts, it is freed from most of the friction common to other mills. Now if you want a medium Juice Mill we have by far the best on the market. "The Great Western." And our line of evaporators both copper and galvanized are second to none in the place in both price and quality. We do not advertise buggies it is not necessary. Hundreds of our satisfied customers in this and adjoining counties are advertising this line. We have absolutely any style, kind or grade of buggy, surry or hacks and at prices lower than ever.

Thursday's Locals.

Dave Doyall, of Melrose, was here today.

John Thompson returned to San Augustine this morning.

George McMillan, of Linn Flat, is in the city on a business trip today.

J. J. Choate, of Nat, was in the city this morning and paid THE SENTINEL a friendly call.

Uncle Jesse Mitchell, of San Augustine county, was here today on a trading trip.

L. E. Hammond, of Linn Flat, was a caller at THE SENTINEL office this morning.

J. A. Flores, of Martinsville, is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. F. W. Harlocher.

Mr. Wilson, of San Augustine, was in the city this morning on his way to Henderson on a business visit.

Wylie McCall, of San Augustine, was among the visitors from San Augustine in the Stone Fort City today.

H. G. Kennard is among the Nacogdoches merchants who have gone to the markets to buy goods for the fall trade.

Judge McDonald, of San Augustine, was here today on his way to Galveston to attend the County Judges' Association.

Rev. A. Tubbe, of Tubbe's Mill, is in town. He says folks can now get off and on the T. & N. O. passenger trains at his switch.

J. J. Baker and family have returned from Nachitoches, La., where they spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends of their old home.

Six new accessions were received into the church at North Church last night. There will be a big baptizing at the close of the meeting.

Dick Doughtie, of Helena, Ark., came in last night to spend a week or two on a visit to his parents, Capt. and Mrs. Jno. S. Doughtie, of this city.

Judge Middlebrook packed his grip to attend the County Judge's convention at Galveston, but backed out when the time came to leave and will not go.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Dotson, and Miss Virgie Busten, of Garrison, spent several days last week in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Chandler. We are glad to know that Mrs. Dotson has recovered her health since her return to Garrison.—Center Champion.

Mr. W. T. Wilson, the merchandise broker, now owns the Milner place on Mound street and all the vacant lots opposite. He has, at his own expense, greatly improved the streets, bordering on his property, and all that is needed now is a good bridge across the ditch that crosses Mound street just beyond the college grounds. It would be a great boon to Nacogdoches if more of her citizens would imitate the example of Mr. Wilson.

Deputy Marshal Doc Watson made a raid on the negro quarter in the northern suburbs yesterday evening. Seven daughters and one son of Ham were "took in" for a general row and disturbance of the peace. Abe Finley was the "buck" of the flock, and he was brought before Judge Middlebrook on a charge of aggravated assault and battery, having knocked down one of the women and otherwise keeping up a racket.

Henry Spradley has sold his interest in the saloon of Spradley & Dial to Mr. Hardy Dial, who will continue the business at the present stand. Henry has one of the best farms in Nacogdoches county and will find profitable employment looking after his farming interests. He has been in the saloon business five years and has had a prosperous trade, for which he thanks the public and his friends. He retires from the business for no other reason than that he prefers to follow some other avocation.

A writer who forgot to sign his name, informs THE SENTINEL that the biggest ice cream supper of the season was given by Mr. John Y'Barbo at his home near Chireno last Saturday night. Ice cream, lemonade and soda water were the "bill of fare," of which there was a great abundance and a large crowd present to partake of it. The writer says there were five hundred present, and there was plenty for all. John never does things by halves. He goes the whole hog, and even on this occasion he killed a big fat porker.

Sam H. Dixon, immigrant and passenger agent of the Houston, East and West Texas, can with more propriety be called a peach than any other man in local railroad circles. While at the Farmers' Congress this week a luscious new variety of that fruit without a name was honored with that of Mr. Dixon's. The Dixon peach is to be planted in Texas and if it is as fruitful as are the results of Mr. Dixon's efforts in the interest of the road he represents it will be a leader in the markets.—Houston Post.

Pitser Hardeman leaves today for St. Louis, where he has a position in a big wholesale dry goods establishment.—Rusk County News.

Just think of it. Pitser is the son of Jno. S. Hardeman, a native of Nacogdoches and an old chum of a lot of us "youngsters." It hardly seems possible that he should have a son, grown up to manhood, educated, accomplished and already on the topmost rounds of successful business life. But time flies and we are all growing older, and we must inevitably stand aside to make room for the generation following in our wake.

Friday's Locals.

J. B. Payne, of Linn Flat, is in the city.

Tobe Albritton, of Loueyville, is in the city.

Capt. A. I. Simpson, of Garrison, is in the city.

Tell us the oil news so we can tell it to the other folks.

There are fewer people than usual on the streets today.

H. G. Kennard returned yesterday evening from New Orleans.

Abe Edell, the well known knight of the grip, was in the city today.

The big meeting at North church is in a big way and the harvest will be rich.

Ireson Bros. are building a new cottage for Hulén Crain on East Pillar street.

All Knights in the city are invited to attend Lodge meeting tonight at Castle Hall.

Mrs. Frank Cain, of Wylie, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. O. Woodall, in this city.

Seale & Donegan will soon begin work on their big warehouse to be built in rear of their store.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown, of Martinsville, spent yesterday with their niece, Mrs. Robt. Hall, in this city.

Giles Haltom has shipped his household effects from Vinita and will arrive with his family by the middle of next week.

L. E. Baird, of Huntington came up yesterday evening and spent last night in the Stone Fort city on a business visit.

The cow boys in the employ of the town corporation are doing a "land office" business. The pound is full all the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jones and daughter, Miss Genevieve will leave tonight for Henderson springs, near Marshall, to spend a month.

There is not an unusual amount of sickness in the vicinity of Nacogdoches, taking into consideration the increased population.

Mr. and Mrs. Frost Thorn and baby, of Tyler, who have been visiting relatives in Nacogdoches the past week, have returned home.

Little Louis Goldberg was able to walk down town this morning, the first time in a month. He has had a hard spell of typhoid fever.

Another story is now going up on the L. Zeve building now occupied by Tucker, Zeve & Co. Work was begun on it this morning.

The subscription list to THE WEEKLY SENTINEL is increasing some in the Alazan community by the aid of the new postoffice out there.

Misses Lizzie and Allie Harrison, of Sulphur Springs, are visiting relatives and friends in our city. They are now at Dr. Mayfield's.

Jno. W. Lewis, of La Nana, was in the city today. His visits to the hub are more frequent since the abolishment of the postoffice at La Nana.

If we haven't got exactly the stock you want in job printing, we will get it, if it to be found on earth.
Haltom & Haltom.

Mrs. H. P. Matthews and Miss Genevieve Jones left last night for Houston. Miss Jones returns home while Mrs. Matthews goes to spend a month with relatives and friends.

THE SENTINEL office was honored this forenoon by a friendly call from Mrs. J. T. Chamberlain, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. S. L. Smith, of Waco. Of course the Colonel was with them.

Mrs. Rew, of Shreveport, who has been visiting Galveston, stopped at Nacogdoches this evening on her return, to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. I. A. Foye. Her daughter, Miss Louise Rew, is with her.

John Watkins, who lives in the Red Oak community, was in town today and says rain is badly needed in his neighborhood. Cotton and potatoes will be a failure if rain is delayed much longer.

J. C. Curtis, of Rusk county, was in Nacogdoches this morning with a wagon load of fine peaches. He used to live near Nacogdoches and it was so natural to see him here that we could hardly realize that he had moved.

The Nacogdoches base ball team returned from Rusk this morning without any laurels. They lost the first day on a score of 13 to 10, and yesterday they quit on the 5th inning on a tie of 4 to 4. The Empire was too "rocky" for them, so George Partin says.

Will Ruark, of Mt. Enterprise, was here yesterday on a trading trip. It will soon be time for our Mt. Enterprise friends to come in crowds with their cotton. Mr. Ruark says his section will produce plenty of corn for home use and present prospects are fair for cotton.

C. G. Monzingo has sold 5000 peach trees this week to a firm in Arkansas. He has had a fine business this year and is now budding new stock at the rate of three thousand a day. The stock he is now budding will be ready for planting out two years from now.

The city authorities have started a good move in breaking up a lot of the low negro dives around town. The good people of this town would blush with shame if they knew half the truth in connection with these filthy places, which are numerous around Nacogdoches.

Elmer Burrows has bought the Millard Livery and Feed Stable on Peca street and will continue the business at the old stand. He solicits the business of the public. Horses boarded by the day, week or month at moderate rates. He also runs a bus and meets all trains.

R. W. Haltom, Notary Public, will go to the "jumping off place" for your depositions, acknowledgments, etc.

Carbon paper, 5c a sheet.

Saturday's Locals.

T. J. Hall, of Melrose, was in the city today.

Dr. A. M. Hooper, of La Nana, is in the city.

J. R. Richardson, of Melrose, was here this afternoon.

A large crowd took the one o'clock train today for Galveston. More will go tonight.

Mrs. Will Hellenkamp has been very sick for two months but is reported better today.

Will Stewart and wife, of Center, were here last night, on their way to Chireno on a visit.

W. G. Barron is building an elegant new residence on Fredonia street near the college grounds.

Uncle Wesley McKinney, an old citizen of San Augustine county, is in the city on a business trip.

T. B. Lewis, Esq., and wife and Miss May Blake went to Galveston on the excursion train this afternoon.

The Shelbyville road from Nacogdoches to the Cariso creek has recently been worked and is now in fine condition.

Arch Watkins and sisters, Misses Theresa and Grace Watkins, are visiting friends at Minden and Henderson this week.

John Windser returned from a visit to Tyler county yesterday. He spent a week visiting in the piny woods down there.

W. B. Cade, of Attoyac, was in the city last night. He reports Uncle Billy Wood dangerously sick and not expected to recover.

The attendance at the K. of P. lodge has greatly improved since the lodge has changed its regular meetings to every Friday night.

Miss Allie Harrison, of Sulphur Springs, who has been visiting Mrs. Dr. Mayfield, left this morning for Beaumont to visit relatives.

Miss Weeks, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, will leave today (Friday) for her home in Nacogdoches.—Rusk cor. Jacksonville Banner.

D. B. Hatch, of Houston, representing the Scarff & O'Connor Printer's Supply company, of Dallas and Houston, was in the city this morning.

Miss Eula Camp, who has been visiting her Uncle, Capt. I. L. Sturdevant, in this city the past month, returned to her home in Longview this afternoon.

Miss Mary Todd, of Lufkin, who has been visiting Mrs. F. D. Houston in this city the past week, left yesterday for a visit to relatives at San Augustine.

Bro. Tardy says he will revive and enlarge "The Leaflet" and will keep it going after Sept. 1st. It has been missed this summer since he quit getting it out regularly.

Uncle William Collins, of Sterne, is shaking hands with his friends in Nacogdoches today. He says he feels a little bit like he was growing old, but he is still hale and hearty.

John Aikin, of Shelby county, is in the city. He is visiting relatives and old friends in and around Nacogdoches, after an absence of several years. He used to live in the Hickory Flat community.

The ball game Wednesday between Rusk and Nacogdoches was one of the most interesting ever played here. On the ninth inning the game stood ten and ten, and it was agreed to play off the tie, which resulted in a score of 10 to 13 in favor of Rusk.—Rusk Cor. Jacksonville Banner.

Prof. O. Orum, of Swift, is in the city today. He is arranging for a school on a larger scale than ever at Swift. A new building is about completed and ample accommodations for board have been secured, a splendid faculty has been employed and Swift is going to maintain her reputation for possessing one of the best schools in the county.

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Benningville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long sufferings from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at R. C. Shindler & Son's.

Another Oil Well.

Mr. T. W. Lockefeldt, representing the Kiser, Kelly company of Beaumont, is now managing the company's interests in Nacogdoches county. He has contracted for a derrick to be erected five miles east from Nacogdoches and will begin boring a well as soon as everything can be got in readiness and the machinery placed in position.

It now begins to look as if something besides talk and windwork is going to be done, and we doubt not that several hundred derricks will be in evidence within the next few months.

Killed by a Mule.

John Tindall, son of Leonard Tindall, living in Red Oak community, was thrown by a mule Tuesday night while on his way to preaching at North Church, and was so badly injured that he died Thursday morning. He was buried at North Church cemetery Friday morning, Rev. S. F. Baucom conducting the burial ceremonies. The family have the deepest sympathy of the entire community and all acquaintances.

To Save Her Child.

From a frightful disfigurement Mrs. Nannie Gallego, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in sores, bruises, skin eruptions, cuts, burns, scalds and piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by R. C. Shindler & Son, druggists.

Big Fire at Shreveport.

Shreveport sustained a serious loss Tuesday. The destruction by fire of two large mercantile establishments meant more to the Queen City of the South than a few charred walls and the loss to trade of the contents of the buildings. It meant the temporary disappearance of two important business factors, the destruction of two currents in the maelstrom of commerce. While the ravages of the fire fiend are a serious loss to the owners of the buildings consumed, Shreveport feels more keenly the curtailment of her volume of business.

The fire of yesterday morning attracted unusual attention, not alone because of the important interests involved, but on account of the water pressure and the work of the fire department at the conflagration. The latter was faultless. The firemen worked with untiring energy and dauntless bravery to save life and property. They succeeded, in the face of almost overwhelming odds, in saving the Phoenix hotel and other valuable property. In one or two instances the firemen displayed great heroism in saving their comrades from death in the flames.

As for the water pressure, it was beyond criticism. It was the first opportunity the public had since the memorable ice works conflagration of studying the efficiency of the waterworks system during fires, and the test was beyond expectations. The firemen worked with unremitting assiduity, but their efforts would have been futile if it were not for the excellence of the waterworks system.

Shreveport is now prepared to successfully combat the fire fiend, and future conflagrations will hardly be traced to the door of the waterworks company.—Shreveport Times.

A young man of Glenco, O. T., says the Evening Wisconsin, is offering 3,000 tickets or himself as husband which he is selling at $5.00 each, and it is said that they are going like hot cakes. This is how he explains his scheme: "By selling 3,000 chances at $5.00 each, it will bring me $15,000, which is a sufficient sum of money to attract any young woman desirous of marrying. I may not get the prettiest girl in the country, but I will get one, I am sure, who is anxious to marry me. I sell numbers for $5.00 and agree when paid the number to marry the holder of said number, provided she draws the lucky number at the raffle. I will have the raffle conducted by fair and square means, by parties entirely disinterested in it. Numbers from 1 to 3000 will be placed in the box and a blind-folded party will draw out one number. The girl holding the similar number shall become my wife. I will marry her as soon as she is ready. The money will be invested so as to support us handsomely. I shall take the bride on an extended wedding trip.

Jim Snell, charged with killing his brothers, was tried at Gazal and sentenced to serve five years in the penitentiary.

The farmers over the cotton growing section of Texas will be pleased to learn that a practical farmer of Lamar has given it out as a certainty that there will be no boll worms this year. He says that the boll worm is the same worm that appears in the corn earlier in the season, and after the corn gets too hard to eat the worms go out of the ears into the cotton; that the severe drought this year dried up the corn, and as there have been no worms in the corn it follows that there will not be any boll worms.—East Texas Reformer.

The Weekly Sentinel.

HALTOM & HALTOM, Publishers
R. W. HALTOM, Editor.

THERE were three thousand people present at the Confederate reunion at Rusk last week.

NOTHING but individual experience, it seems, will teach people the danger of kindling fires with coal oil. Coal oil disasters are distressingly numerous.

THE cigar makers of Tampa, Fla., that were induced to go out on a strike, are tired of it and think they have been imposed upon by misrepresentations.

NACOGDOCHES sincerely and deeply sympathizes with our sister city, Lufkin, in her terrible misfortunes and disasters. Verily the fire fiend has cursed our fair neighbor.

IF East Texas does fail in her crops, she has got her timber, her oil, coal and iron to help out the fruit crop. It is possible that she can pull through one more year.

IT is estimated that the rice crop of Jefferson county will turn out only one third of a full crop. That is a better average than either the corn or cotton crops of Texas.

THE strikers and the trust are staring each other in the face like tigers bidding defiance to each other, and there the matter stands. The people will suffer after awhile.

THE Lufkin Tribune was destroyed by fire last Saturday night, which now leaves Lufkin without a printing office, the Press being burned in the fire of last spring. Editor Daniels will print his paper in Nacogdoches until his new outfit arrives.

A FRIEND writes us from Henderson, "Nacogdoches will have to hurry, as Henderson is on a boom; lots of new enterprises going up." But our friend has got the wrong idea about it. Nacogdoches has been hurrying these many years, and that is what is forcing Henderson to do something. Nacogdoches sets the pace.

THE compress and electric light plant are putting in apparatus for using oil for fuel as a substitute for coal and wood. It is only a question of a short time when all machinery will be run with oil as a fuel for generating steam. It is cheaper, saves labor and is handled by means of tubes and pipes which convey it to the burners just like water hydrants. Verily this is a fast age.

THE redistricting bill so far agreed upon leaves Nacogdoches in the Second congressional district, which will include Jefferson, Orange, Hardin, Jasper, Newton, Tyler, Sabine, San Augustine, Nacogdoches, Shelby, Panola and Harrison counties. Six counties are dropped from the old district which added to Galveston and Trinity counties comprise the First district. Congressman Cooper is still in our district.

AN OIL EXPERT ON TEXAS.

C. F. Z. Caracristi, who is reputed to be second, if not first authority as an oil expert, of the world, speaking of the Texas oil field to a New Orleans Picayune reporter, says:

"There is no question in my mind, and I said many months ago that there are vast pools of oil in the valley of the Neches river and vicinity, mentioning particularly the counties of Shelby, Nacogdoches, Augustine, Angelina, Tyler, Hardin, Jasper, Orange and Jefferson. The truth of this statement has been demonstrated by the discovery of the Lucas well No. 1, which was predicted by me in the Manufacturers' Record of January, 19, 1900.

"This was based upon scientific observation, made sometime before that by me, and upon similar examinations of the rest of the same formation in South America, the West Indies and North America.

"The Texas discovery is no new thing. The field was first operated for oil in the spring of 1867-68, when a well producing 300 barrels a day was discovered, and 80 other wells were drilled, but the field was abandoned on account of the fact that under the then condition of the science of oil manipulation it was impossible to distill enough kerosene from the product. Now we have a different proposition altogether, which has been so fully discussed that it is not necessary to go into differences at this time.

"The formation in which the oil is found is tertiary, and that is a formation that is little understood as it occurs in the United States. This formation is found from the gulf to the Red river, on the west coast and in Georgia, extending south to the West Indies, and crossing the Caribbean sea, thence through Columbia and Venezuela and south to the Amazon river. The branch of the formation reaching the Pacific coast crosses the isthmus of Panama.

"I am confident that the gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea littorals will be the oil producing section of the world for the next two or three hundred years."

Mr. Caracristi is now in Beaumont as the representative and reporter for the Manufacturers' Record, in order to make an exhaustive study of the field and its present scientific and economic conditions, that he may intelligently discuss them in the columns of that paper. A number of articles have recently appeared in the Record from his pen, and they have attracted the attention of the oil world, but it seems desirable he explains, that a new view of the situation be taken, in order that no condition may escape consideration in arriving at conclusions, their economic value depending upon the completeness of the data upon which they are based.

SIREVEPORT received her first bale of new cotton from Longview Saturday. It weighed 400 pounds.

ADMIRAL SAMPSON had better be praying for a mountain to fall on him before the Sampson-Schley investigation begins.

ANOTHER lynching is reported from Georgia. Joe Washington, a negro, was lynched near Savannah for assaulting Mrs. Clark. He confessed his guilt and was bound to a crow bar with a chain and burned to death. The negro died game and without a groan.

SUIT is about to be filed against the United States Steel corporation for alleged violation of the trust law. The corporation is charged with failing to comply with the law requiring foreign corporations to file certain reports with the State officers and to pay the tax of one-tenth of 1 per cent upon the proportion of its capital stock used in Ohio. It is believed that the reply to this notice will be used as the basis of action. Between the courts and the strikers the steel trust is having its hands full these days.

From Eden.

Eden, August 9.—We are still enjoying the pleasure of health and happiness, eating trash and listening for something good to tell our neighbors and teacher, though "the last is always the worst."

The meeting failed to attract, only had preaching Sunday and Sunday night. But Bro. Hutson is an able preacher and the meeting will prosper in the future.

The school is moving nicely, but some have dropped out on account of singing schools and meetings. It will be out the 30th of August.

Mr. S. F. Bates, of Wharton, informs us that there is prospects of a good cotton, cane and rice crop, but corn would be only about half crop in Wharton county. We have the prospects of peas and cotton, but corn will be short throughout this locality.

Mr. Newton Snell is visiting relatives and friends in the community.

Mr. Lawrence Jones is working for his brother-in-law, Letcher Smith, at Alazan. He says they are to begin a meeting at that place Sunday.

Douglass was well represented here last Sunday, especially those that are trying to play the part of hearts.

Rah for Nat. We notice the children up there are all getting married, from 12 years old up.

Mr. Paine tells us that they have killed thirteen bats within the past month and a half where he stays. They must raise bats to kill over there.

CUFF.

There will be some more changing around soon among the business firms of Nacogdoches. As soon as the Hazle building is completed Cason Richardson & Co. will move from the Hardeman building to the Hazle building, and it is said the Chancey saloon will be moved to the Hardeman building.

We have the new Gin Books, made to conform with the new law regarding marking cotton. Perkins Bros.

COMMITTEE MEETING CALLED.

H. S. Edler, of this city, who is a member of the committee appointed at the recent Farmers' Congress to push the matter of obtaining three sub-experiment stations for Texas, has received the following notice from the chairman of the committee:

Dallas, Aug. 10, 1891.

Dear Sir: As chairman of the committee on additional sub-experiment stations for Texas, I hereby call said committee to meet at the Driskill hotel, Austin, at 10 o'clock a. m. Thursday, Aug. 15, 1901, for purposes set forth in resolution passed by general session of the Farmers' Congress July 25th. Very respectfully,
F. P. HOLLAND, Ch'm.

It is important and essential that this matter be pushed at once as the legislature will be memorialized at the present special session to pass a law providing for three experimental stations. Mr. Edler is not able to devote his time gratuitously, to say nothing of the expense necessary to make this trip, and it has been suggested that the people of Nacogdoches "chip in" and make up a purse sufficient to reimburse him for time and expense necessary to give faithful service and attention in this matter. It is one of more importance than most of us are inclined to regard it, and we should not delay action.

THE strike situation grows worse. Thousands of workers are joining the ranks of strikers daily. There is little prospect of a settlement and mills are standing idle. The people will be paying for all this in a few months. Prices of products effected by the strike will be going skyward.

Douglass Doings.

Douglass, Aug. 13.—Mrs. R. T. Weaver and children returned home Sunday.

Arch McKnight, Phil, Jennie and Nellie Sanders returned home Sunday evening accompanied by Miss Annie Fisher, of Alto.

J. J. Watkins, Esq., is on a visit in Panola county.

We hear that the R. D. Whitaker place, now occupied A. D. Acrey, has been bought by a Mr. Barnett, who will move to our town soon.

F. B. Paine and family returned a few days ago from the west, where they have been living for the past two years. Bee says he has come to stay. Still they come back.

Prof. Joe Day is teaching a ten days' singing school here. He has 25 pupils.

Prof. Goener, of your city, is up in this country looking after his insurance business.

Everything green—but us—is fast burning up from the heat of the sun.

Everything is needing rain. Corn will soon be ready to put into the cribs. The yield will be lighter this year than for a number of years past.

Cotton very sorry. We hear many farmers say the lice have made their appearance.

IN THE DAILY SENTINEL of the 12th inst. there is a communication from Douglass which refers to us, and says: "It was commonly reported that he had resigned as postmaster," etc. We would correct that by saying that it was reported we would resign in a short while. The writer of the letter referred to above was only repeating what was told to him, and cannot bear any of the blame. For the benefit of those who wish to know the truth of the matter we will say that our resignation will be sometime in the future, and cannot state now how far in future it will be.

R. W. M.

WE'RE A PILE OF ASHES.

The Great Family Journal Burned Saturday Night.

Lufkin Tribune.

Saturday night about 12 o'clock an alarm of fire was given from the corner of Lufkin avenue and Second street, a blaze having been discovered in the Lufkin Avenue Drug store, adjoining the Tribune office.

The flames spread rapidly, and before sufficient assistance could arrive to extinguish the fire, the building and contents were virtually doomed.

A few lines of hose were procured and an effort made to save adjoining property, but the great $10,000 principal and $28,000 interest waterworks system again proved a white elephant, and was about as poor an excuse for fire protection as the present long distance telephone system is as a public enterprise.

In a very short time the drug store was a mass of flames and the Tribune building, 50 feet distant, was seen to be another victim to the flames, which soon caught the roof and consumed the building and its entire contents with the exception of the books and papers and a small amount of job printing paper.

No cause for the fire could be learned, and some seem to think the building was fired by some one, but it is very probably that rats and matches were the incendiaries.

The loss to the Lufkin Avenue Drug company on stock and fixtures is about $2200, with one thousand insurance.

The building was owned by J. J. Singleton and was valued at $650, with no insurance.

The loss to the Tribune was about $4000 on the building and printing plant, with $1400 insurance.

While the fire was a pretty tough jolt to the great trouble eradicator, and its tail feathers were lost, it's going to try and play Phoenix and poke its head out of the ashes and keep on grinding. No issues will be missed, and the paper will be printed at Nacogdoches until a new plant can arrive, which will only be a short time.

So now, boys come across with the small amounts you are in arrears and make as early settlement of your subscription and other accounts as you can, as the Trib needs every cent due, and must have it, in order to carry on business.

DAMAGED 50 PER CENT.

Editor SENTINEL:

Melrose, Aug. 8.—Come out and look at our cotton crop. The dry weather has cut the crop short one-half in the last ten days.

Z. T. MAST.

This kind of report comes in now from every section of the country. If it does not rain immediately the cotton crop will only amount to what is now matured on the stalk. Cotton is popping open fast and it will not amount to one-fourth of a crop if the drouth continues a week longer.

The fire fiend seems to have it in for Lufkin.

The Weekly Sentinel.

HALTOM & HALTOM, Publishers
R. W. HALTOM, Editor.

THE oil boom of course will keep the building boom going.

TAKE care of your corn. Weevil dust is now selling almost same as gold dust.

OUR neighboring papers say Nacogdoches will have to build factories to hold her own. So let us build factories.

CARPENTERS and brick layers are both scarce in Nacogdoches, though there is no scarcity of labor. Skilled workmen are in demand.

ALL trouble has been adjusted between the carpenters and the Builders' Exchange of Shreveport, and the carpenters have returned to work after a tie up of several weeks.

PEOPLE who have not visited Nacogdoches in four or five years, invariably express surprise at the growth of the town during that time after viewing the city as she is at present.

THE SENTINEL will have lots of oil news to tell the folks pretty soon. The oil movement is in its incipency in Nacogdoches county yet. We will have "oil to burn" the next you hear from us.

THE Athens Review got out a most creditable "Old Citizens" edition recently. It was profusely illustrated with photographs of old settlers, and contained a splendid write up of Henderson county.

THE Tillman-McLaurin fight in South Carolina doesn't seem to be settled so far as the principals are concerned, but with the democracy it seems pretty well settled that McLaurin is not in it any more.

MCLAURIN has his stinger out now in dead earnest. He comes back at the committee with a vial of wrath for asking his resignation and says he recognizes nothing at their hands, and will go before the people for vindication.

DURING the fire in Shreveport Tuesday an officer of the Fire Department was relieved of duty for conduct unbecoming an officer. His offense was plundering the burning buildings. A deeper disgrace could hardly be named.

CAPT. ROGERS and the two rangers that were here returned to Austin several days ago. All is peaceful now, and those papers that have had so much to say about the "riot at Nacogdoches" will do the Stone Fort City a kindness by making note of the fact.

THE SENTINEL has been asked if a wholesale candy factory would pay in Nacogdoches. Of course we don't know, but we believe it would. There is a big territory contiguous to Nacogdoches, and with the facilities we will soon have for shipping, it would seem that all such enterprises would do well here. If we were in the candy business we would not hesitate to try it.

AS TO OIL NEWS.

Somebody is after THE SENTINEL every day for not publishing "the oil news." What oil news, please? How are we to obtain oil news? Where is the fellow that will tell us anything about oil? Point him out and we'll have our "gimlet" into him before he can make his escape. We have been "ripped up the back" even by the oil experts themselves for not blowing the oil movement of Nacogdoches. But when we ask the same fellows for news they say they are not talking for publication. They not unfrequently ask us not to even put their names in the paper, for fear some other oil "spert" may catch on to their movements and beat them out of a "scoop." They will consent once in a while for us to say that "Col. Blank, of Blankville is in the city," but we daren't mention their names in connection with oil.

As to the truth of the matter, there is oil here—billions of it. The earth is full of it. It can be had for the boring on half the lands in Nacogdoches county, and there is no question as to it existing in paying quantities. Why is it not developed? Now, that's the "mainest" question. Of all the maneuvering and "mokeying" only two concerns have ventured to begin operations by actual boring. All other operations have been on paper. Those who are boring have not brought in a spouter yet and there is no "oil news." It is easy enough for us to say every day that so and so is boring away and hasn't struck anything yet. No trouble to keep up with those who are actually endeavoring to develop the oil fields, but a daily report of their operations and progress would soon become monotonous. As to those who are only "feeling around," and are doing the most of the work by proxy or on "spec," we think it safer to keep mum as to their movements, even if we caught on to something. We have already got into a "hornet's nest" by publishing a "news item" from one of those "sperts," and hereafter we shall have all the oil news that comes in analyzed and assayed before it gets into these columns.

Brother Haltom, of the DAILY (Nacogdoches) SENTINEL is making a most interesting publication of that paper. Like the Courier, it finds no pleasure in setting on the fence while important questions are being discussed.—Tyler Courier.

Thanks. THE SENTINEL means to let the folks know "where it's at" at all times, at all seasons and under all circumstances.

In the recent congressional election in the Dallas district, every voting precinct except one gave a democratic majority. One box in Ellis county, Pecan Grove, gave Lindsley 20 votes to 19 for Wooten. Wooten received a majority in every other box in the district—something without a precedent in the district, and doubtless unprecedented in the nation.—Greenville Herald.

It is strange that so many people refuse to sign the petition for experimental stations, when it is so plain that such a thing is needed to stimulate those engaged in agricultural pursuits. An experimental station at Nacogdoches would be of inestimable benefit to the farming class.

THE present predicament of the Nacogdoches post office in being unable to secure a desirable building ought to add strength to the movement which Postmaster Cooper has on foot for a government building. It is certainly needed right now.

How would it do to get up a fair association and give an annual fair in Nacogdoches every fall? Some of our neighboring counties have tried it successfully, and we believe that Nacogdoches can do anything as well as Henderson, Rusk, Palestine and Tyler can. Let's try it.

An East Texas writer ventures the opinion that all the saw mills of the state will shortly be absorbed by the Kirby company. The commercial spirit of the hour has possessed Texas, and the octopus and the hunter are lying down together.—Galveston Tribune.

Just as well be owned by one company as continue under the present condition. Its all the same price.

LUFKIN is talking about erecting a $40,000 court house. It is a good idea to build a good one and be done with it. And then it might settle the county seat question definitely. Angelina has paid enough for elections and cheap court houses already to build the one now in contemplation.

THE talk of the town is that the post office will be moved. But where to? That is the question. It is impossible to secure a building in the business center and everybody objects to it being moved on to one side. The government refuses to pay more than $200 a year for a building and thirty dollars a month is as low as one can be had anywhere near the public square. A government building is the only thing that will settle this trouble in future.

HON. JASPER COLLINS, who is the proprietor and editor of the Panola Watchman, has been warned not to monkey with "The Mule," the paper which Col Bowers is to start soon at Carthage. But Jasper knows a thing or two about mules, and isn't a bit afraid. He says: "The boys are having a lot of fun at our expense, by anticipating trouble between the 'Texas Mule' and us. It has never been our habit to borrow trouble. It always comes soon enough. So, ament the arrival of the Mule, we shall be composed. We learn that it is to be a kind of a patent adjustable critter, prepared to kick at either end. Now we have had considerable experience with the animal and we do think the boys give us credit for having mighty little sense, when they think we don't know any better than to go monkeying around the business end of a mule."

CORBETT'S POLITICAL ASPIRATIONS

It is said that Jim Corbett has political aspirations and that he has his eye on a seat in congress. He is as "sharp as a whip" and is liable to turn some political tricks that will startle the public. An exchange passes the following eulogy on the "cunning pugilist," who has recently been closeted with the Tammany ruler who is now on the other side of the pond where he may be interviewed without molestation: "The latter's last caper," says the exchange, "was in the shape of a visit to political boss Croker, who is sojourning abroad for his robust health. Corbett's visit to the Tammany chief is supposed to have been for the purpose of fighting back at his enemies in New York, whom he declares have almost ruined his business by having his whiskey dispensary juggled by the police. But Corbett may not have visited Croker for any such purpose; in fact he may have had a far different idea, and it might turn out that the greatest boxer that ever lived has political aspirations, like John Morrissey, who went to congress, and by no manner of means disgraced his constituents while he was on the floor of that august assemblage. Corbett is a good talker, has aptitude and is as ambitious as he can possibly be. He knows that he is handsome; he knows that he has pushed himself forward; that he was clever enough to make a stepping stone of the prize ring, for in his heart he always detested the business, although it was never policy for him to say so except to those who would not use it against him while he was playing to the followers of pugilism. Brady fitted him for the stage in astonishingly short time, and no matter what else may be said of the pugilist, it must in justice be admitted that he easily eclipsed many actors who had 'been there' before. Corbett lives in a section of New York where he might easily be first elected to the general assembly, from which body, if he performed well and made friends, he then might be chosen for a seat in the house of representatives at Washington, from which position, being a New York democrat, he could jump with both feet on republican administration measures until he got blue in the face. Corbett is cunning and he will bear watching. So watch him with your weather eye wide open."

THE colored population of Dallas have put their heads and their money together and have put a move on foot that means much to themselves and sets a worthy example. The corner stone of the New Century cotton mills (a negro enterprise) was laid recently with much ceremony near the northern limits of the Houston & Texas Central railway. The mill equipped is to cost $50,000. Grand Master J. W. McKinney of the A. and F. lodge of negro Masons of Texas went from Sherman and conducted the ceremonies. Distinguished negroes from various parts of the State were present.

LYNCHINGS will continue to take place throughout the land as long as detestable brutes live to outrage the gentler sex. There is nothing so sure as the destruction that awaits the inhuman demon, white or black, that assault our mothers, sisters and daughters. No use to talk about laws to prevent it.

REPORTS from the various counties of East Texas are not over flattering to the crop prospects. There are some good crops, both corn and cotton, but they are in spots. The crops as a general thing will be short. Long dry spells and hot winds have caused the cotton to shed at a fearful rate.

THE trees growing on the farm of Daniel Webster near Franklin, N. H., have been recently sold to a match factory for $2800. Daniel Webster's eloquence was matchless, but no doubt the trees which listened to many of his speeches as he practiced them from the fence tops will make good matches.—Houston Herald.

THE democratic party is looking for a man to nominate for president in 1904. In this connection there is a great deal of talk all over the nation about the advisability of seeking him in the South. Should it be determined to do this, Gainesville, Cook county, Texas, has a citizen whom the people of this State will vouch for as filling all the requirements of the position.—Rockwall Success.

Wonder if it is the editor of the Success?

GOV. SAYERS has appointed Hon. R. T. Milner, of this city, as one of the thirteen commissioners, one from each congressional district, to select a location for the Girls Industrial School provided for by the last legislature. The appointment was evidently voluntary on the part of Gov. Sayers, as it was made without solicitation or the knowledge or consent of Mr. Milner, and is therefore the greater compliment. Mr. Milner is in thorough sympathy with the industrial school movement, and a better appointment could not have been made.—Rusk County News.

THE Tyler Courier is the "toniest" paper that comes to this office. Printing on eighty pound book paper is getting "up in the pictures" for a country sheet.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

THE Courier has been abused so much of late that it has grown a bit indifferent over it. But if the Sentinel should speak of Tyler's "dress parade, folks as country people they would "puff up" for days and days. Tyler is three miles long and just as wide as it is long. In fact, the sun revolves around it once in twenty-four hours only; and the sun is said to move pretty fast. Of course, Tyler needs and has a tony paper in the Courier.—Tyler Courier.

A paper that isn't abused isn't worth a "cuss." But it was not our intention to indulge in abuse by calling the Courier a country sheet. Country sheets are conceded to be the only simon pure article of honest journalism, and to insinuate that the Courier is a metropolitan "rag" would have been far more dangerous. Is it not so?

THINK OF THIS.

The next time you get a letter from Sears, Roebuck & Co., or Montgomery, Ward & Co., write and ask them if they are willing to help pay off the indebtedness of our local churches or to contribute to the fund for fighting the boll weevil or to help out a poor widow and children. If they refuse, spend your money with those who are always willing to help out in those things, and the next time a solicitor calls on you from the Dorsey Printing company or Clark & Courts, ask him if his firm will advertise your home industries, help your churches, give you and your business complimentary notices and last of all if his firm will spend their earnings in your town.

When he gives some plausible reason for not doing so, give your printing to the home offices. They may charge a little more but you get it all back—printers have to wear clothes and eat and they always trade in their home towns.—Kaufman Herald.

A TAX collector at El Paso has made a remarkable capture. The captive is a bug and the Herald calls it a vinegarone. It has a body like a centipede, claws like a crawfish and a tail like a lizard. Just what sort of bacilli it has, whether yellow fever, small-pox or bubonic, can not be told, perhaps, until some newly graduated scientist has got it in hand.—Beaumont Journal.

Alexandria is a town of municipal ownership. It owns the water works and electric light plants, which are said to be good things, and which accounts for the Town Talk wanting to go a step further. That paper wants the town to build, own and operate an ice factory and an electric street car line. The good people of Alexandria will most probably give the Town Talk all it asks for—in the sweet bye and bye—including the municipal ownership of a newspaper.—Shreveport Journal.

Municipal ownership is good for anything the city needs in its business. If it needs ice it ought to put up an ice plant. If it needs a newspaper in its business, why let it start a newspaper. Why not?

BANKS fail just like other institutions. They are run by individuals just as other institutions are run by individuals. They are allowed under law to use the depositors money, and when it is not wisely invested losses follow and if they are heavy losses the crash comes and down goes the bank. The government is safe, having already held back its security, but it administers on the property just as if it was a heavy loser and directly concerned in handling the assets to the best advantage for the creditors. In fact, it takes charge of a business that rightfully belongs to the creditors and winds up the business in a way to suit itself, but the depositors are charged up with all the costs that follow, and they are sometimes enormous.—Tyler Courier.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Negro Rapist Pays For His Crime at the Hands of a Mob.

Birmingham, Aug. 7.—With agonizing screams and his eyes bulging from his head, John Wesley Pennington, a negro, was burned at the stake near Enterprise, Ala., before a crowd of 500 enraged and determined citizens of Coffee county this morning. The assemblage was composed of both whites and blacks, and though the suffering wretch pleaded for mercy and frantically endeavored to break the chains that tightly bound him, not a trace of sympathy was shown on the faces that peered at him through the lames. Pennington had committed a brutal assault upon Mrs. J. C. ... one of the most prominent farmers of Coffee county, and confessed his guilt.

Center Letter.

Center, Texas, Aug. 7.—Mrs. E. L. Pleasant is quite sick at her home on Tenaha street.

Miss Julia Bryan, of Tenaha, is a visitor to Center this week.

The little folks were highly entertained by Miss Alice Boyd last Monday evening. She was celebrating her fourteenth birthday.

Mr. J. M. Swanzy's baby is quite sick with fever.

Mr. W. B. Wood and daughter, Miss Mattie, visited Center Monday and Tuesday.

Miss Weatherly is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. B. Short. Will Bridges, of Tenaha, was in town this week.

Mr. Lunsford Rogers and sister, Miss Mary Ella, are visiting friends in Louisiana this week.

Mr. Tom Bridges, of Newburn, died and was buried in the grave yard at that place last Saturday.

Notice.

Teachers will please remember that the school year closes August 31st, and that no contract runs for a day longer. If you expect to draw your pay for the month of August, without making a new contract, you must present your voucher and term report not later than Saturday, Aug. 31st. There will be no departure from this rule.

Obediently yours,

V. E. MIDDLEBROOK,
Ex-Officio Supt.

Another Sad Story of a Coal Oil Can.

Wednesday evening about 6 o'clock Agnes Whitehead, the 11 year old daughter of Mrs. R. E. Whitehead, attempted to start a fire in the stove with coal oil, when the can exploded and set the house on fire.

The house belonged to Mr. A. Newton and was occupied by the families of Mrs. Whitehead and Prof. L. D. Washington. The house and contents were consumed, and Agnes received burns from which she died at 10 o'clock Wednesday night, and was buried Thursday evening at 4 o'clock.

Little Sadie Washington, age 4 years, was burned to death. She was up stairs with two other children, and they all came out on the roof. The oldest one pitched the baby to

T. N. Mathis and he caught it and then she jumped to him, but little Sadie went back and was consumed by the flames.

Mrs. Whitehead was also badly burned about the hands.

This is the saddest accident that has befallen our little city in some time and has cast a gloom over the community. The two families lost everything they had. The house was valued at about $1000 and was not insured.—Jacksonville Banner.

Their Secret Out.

All Sadiesville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whitaker, who had for a long time, endured untold sufferings from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. "It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe case of whooping cough." It positively cures, coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R.C. Shindler & Son's drug store.

Robbed the Mint.

San Francisco, Aug. 9.—The police are convinced that John Winters, or "Buck" Taylor, now in custody here, is the man who planned and executed the robbery of the Selby Smelter at Valejo. The stolen bullion is now thought to be buried near Winter's cabin not far from the smelting works, or sunk in the shallow waters of the bay nearby. Winters, who has been an employe of the Smelting Company, was missing soon after the robbery, and on the door of his cabin was found a notice which read: "Any one who enters here will be shot."

A number of articles found by the police in the cabin, it is now thought, will be strong evidence against Winters. Winters is a native of Prussia, and is about 35 years old. He has led a roving life, seldom staying more than a few months in any one place. On the plains of Texas he was a cowboy, breaking bronchos for a monthly pittance. In Los Angeles he was a contractor. In Dallas, a conductor. In Memphis, a car driver; and in Chico, Cal., a rancher. $280,500 in gold bullion is the amount carried off by the robbers.

Foster & Abney, Lawyers.

Last week a new law firm was opened in Lufkin, Foster & Abney, two bright young graduates from the State University at Austin. Dixon F. Abney and T. L. Foster are well and favorably known here, the former having been raised in Lufkin, and their friends are numerous. The office of the new firm is in the front of the second story of the new Abney brick, where they will soon have the handsomest double office in Lufkin, and supplied with an extensive law library. We wish them success and commend them.—Lufkin Tribune.

Garrison Gossip.

From the Signal.

Mr. J. B. Harrison and wife returned Tuesday to their home in Sulphur Springs, having spent several weeks here on a visit to relatives.

There was a crowd in town last Saturday and business was fair. Most of our farmers report the crops fair and Garrison will do a thriving business this fall.

J. F. Moore left Monday night for Mexia to attend the Baptist general convention that convened near that place on the 7th.

Mrs. Wiley is rebuilding the Garrison Hotel. The brick foundation is laid and the framing up. The building is a two-story and will be extended to sixteen rooms. Mr. J. D. Smith of Lufkin is superintending the building.

Capt. Z. B. Garrison returned Tuesday from a week's visit to the camps of the T. & N. O. Ry. The Capt reports the work on the road progressing well. The road is complete and running trains from Athens to Frankford, a distance of twenty-five miles; a bridge across Neches will be complete, and grading of the road bed is now in Cherokee county. The Capt. says that oats for the teams were very scarce and that unless a supply came in last week, work with the teams would have stopped.

Men Wanted.

Men of brawn and brain to occupy the rich and fertile valleys of Central East Texas. Men to plow, to hoe, to sow and to reap—to grow fruits and vegetables, to work in factories and develop the natural resources.

They can find here unparalleled opportunities for home building and home comforts. The sluggard, the drone and the shiftless are not wanted, but the industrious and frugal are welcomed by as hospitable a people, occupying as healthful a country, as genial climate and as rich and fertile soil as can be found anywhere.

Write to Sam H. Dixon Pass. and Imp. agent, H. J. & W. T. Ry., Houston, Texas, for thirty page folder giving full information about the new Eldorado.

The North Church Meeting.

The big Baptist meeting is still going on at North church and will continue today and tomorrow. Rev. McCurdy has returned home, Rev. Bacon will go to Cold Springs to begin a protracted meeting and the meeting at North church will be continued by Rev. Tardy until tomorrow night. So far 23 accessions have been received in to the church at the present meeting, twelve of them for Baptism. Baptizing will take place this evening at 5 o'clock at Leander Lyles place, three miles from town. During the past three months thirty-two new members have been received into the church.

In the Legislature.

Austin, Aug. 9.—The house sub-committees on congressional districts have completed four districts. The intention is to form five districts along the gulf coast, one each for Beaumont, Houston, Galveston, mouth of the Brazos and Aransas Pass. The sub-committee on representative districts is nearly ready to report while the senatorial committee has made no progress. No bill to redistrict the State has been introduced. The senate met and adjourned until Tuesday.

John Barleycorn's Victims.

Dayton, Tex., Aug. 9.—Two brothers named Barber were in town yesterday and left under the influence of liquor. Their bodies were found today, both having died while asleep. The coroner's verdict was death from natural causes. Five hundred dollars was found on the bodies, being the earnest money of a sale of oil land, of which they owned a considerable amount.

Happy Couple.

The Trib learned too late for publication last issue of the marriage last Thursday of a couple on Crawford creek, the happy couple being Sol Bennett and Mrs. Lou Bennett, aged 80 years respectively. The groom is well known, and has lived here for the past 20 years. The bride moved here from Nacogdoches about three years ago.—Lufkin Tribune.

Two Day's Stand.

The Trib Band, the famous musical organization named after the great family Journal and trouble eradicator, left on yesterday morning's early train for Rusk, where the boys have a two day's engagement to play for the big reunion being held there, together with a barbecue, picnic and general blow out.—Lufkin Tribune.

Brooke Dies.

W. D. Brooke, who in a fight with W. P. Nix at Brookeland several weeks ago was shot in the hip, died last Saturday morning. Nix is still suffering from his wound, and his death is reckoned as a possibility.—Hemphill Messenger.
