What's the Use

Of having a good doctor to write the prescription if the druggist doesn't fill it properly filled? It's just as important to have a good druggist as it is to have a good doctor, and therefore, people should be equally discriminating in their selection of a druggist as a doctor.

A Man Who Knows

This, together with our care and accuracy, makes every bottle of medicine that goes out of our store absolutely reliable. It contains just what the doctor orders in its purest form, and in just the right proportions when filled at

An Aged Citizen Dead.

Mr. Wm. Wood, an aged and honored citizen of Nacogdoches county, died at his home near Attoyac at 5:30 o'clock last Friday evening, and was interred in the Nacogdoches cemetery at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. Mr. Wood was born in Pulaski county, Ga., April 1, 1823, and was 78 years, 4 months and 16 days old at the date of his death. He was married in June, 1844, to Sarah Ann Adkins, with whom he lived happily until her death in 1887.

He came to Rusk county, Texas, in the spring of 1870 and moved to Nacogdoches county in the fall of the same year, remaining a citizen of this county to the date of his death. He was married the second time in 1888 to Mrs. Nancy Layton, who survives him. Twelve children blessed his first union, six of whom survive him. They are Wm. Wood, of this city; Jack Wood, of San Augustine county; Joe Wood, of Beeville; Tom Wood, of Attoyac; Mrs. Conford, of Ironosa, San Augustine county, and Mrs. Power, of Libby, this county.

Deceased became a member of the Baptist church in 1853 and lived a consistent member all his life. He joined the Masonic fraternity in 1857. He lived an active, energetic life and worked hard up to within a few days of his death. His last sickness came on him while at the plow on his farm. He was a good man, beloved by all, and his death is universally regretted.

Hurt By a Horse.

Wiley Monzingo was severely hurt Saturday night by a horse falling and throwing him against a tree. Monzingo was riding rather fast on the road between Oak and North church when his horse stumbled and fell, throwing his rider against a tree. He was knocked senseless and remained unconscious until he was discovered about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. We have not learned the extent of his injuries, but he is reported out of danger today.

A FAMINE IS IMMINENT.

Provinces of European Russia are Said to be in a Deplorable Condition.

London, Aug. 17.—Advices from Moscow say Russia is on the eve of another famine. Nearly a third of the provinces of European Russia are officially declared to have produced "insufficient," others "sufficient," and others still "under the average" crop of cereals. Only two provinces out of seventy have really good harvests. Among the "insufficient" are the best wheat growing districts. The official "insufficient" means utter starvation.

The famine stricken area exceeds a half million square miles, and about the same area as that of the great famine of 1891. The population numbers 43,000,000. The hopes founded on the report of two months ago have vanished. The havoc has been wrought by the intense heat and entire absence of rain when needed. Afterward there were torrential downpours and hail storms. The appearance of innumerable pests is completing the destruction.

As the harvest is now in progress, there are no final reports. It might be supposed that Russia would still be able to draw on her vast resources in Siberia, but matters have not gone well there, though the figures have not been finally issued. Moreover, the bumper crops of Siberia avail little, for Russia has no roads but the railroads. Of the hundreds of thousands who perished directly or indirectly from typhoid and other epidemics induced by starvation during the previous famines, the great majority were within 100 or 200 miles of the railroads.

Escaped Convicts Caught.

The two "trustees" that made their escape from the Rusk penitentiary several days ago, were captured in the Northern part of the county yesterday evening. One was captured by Moss Adams at Wragg's mill near Garrison, and the other was caught by Sheriff Spradley at Garrison.

The Rain.

The rain fall in Nacogdoches last night was 70-100 inches. It did not extend far west, but reports received today from the eastern portion of the county show that it rained in spots, covering the greater portion of the red land districts.

Uncle Dick Robinson, who lives six miles from town on the Melrose road, says it rained about half as much in his neighborhood as it did in Nacogdoches.

E. C. Muckleroy, who lives in the Trinity community, says it rained nearly as much there as it did in town, but the rain was light between his house and town, covering the piney woods section.

Will Parmely says they had scarcely any rain in the Red Oak community.

Henry Stack reports a good rain Sunday night at Shady Grove, and a good shower last night.

Reports from the Alazan community say it has not rained out there.

From Eden.

Eden, Aug. 17.—Cotton is beginning to open and people will soon be picking.

Peaches and melons are holding out well and some of the best varieties grow in this community.

Mr. Lawrence and Miss Lucy Jones are attending the singing school at Douglass, conducted by Mr. Joe Day. They say they're having gay times and learning to sing too. We like Day singing all right at Eden.

Quite a number from here have been attending the meeting at Alazan, which has just closed, having both good crowd and meeting for nearly a week.

Mr. Walter Stricklen has completed his house and nearly all the boys want to go to see the new house.

Miss Cora Clevenger is visiting her sister now.

Miss Ada Leonard has gone to Rusk to spend a few days.

Everybody would be pleased to see a rain now, as there is so much dust and hot weather.

Miss Hattie Raney and her mother have been visiting relatives in this community.

Health of community good.

Timpson's First Bale.

The first bale of new cotton came in on the 16th. It was raised by W. D. Hairston, in the Tennessee community, classed good middling and was bought by R. T. Blair for eight cents. A premium of $15 was paid to Mr. Hairston. His bale weighed 550 pounds and was shipped to Wallis, Landes & Co. at Galveston, by the purchaser. —Timpson Times.

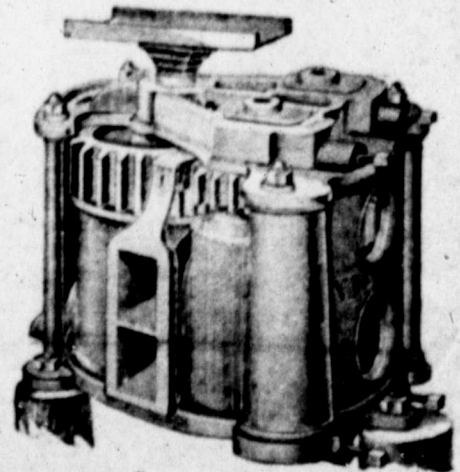

THE BAIN WAGON.

It is beyond question the strongest ever before sold in this place. It is made of the very best material and by skilled labor, and while it will cost you a few dollars more than any other wagon, if you will only spare a few minutes of your time with us we will show you where it will be economy to buy one.

Do you want to own a better wagon than you ever did before? If so come and buy one of our improved Bain wagons, which is noted all over the world as being the best proportioned wagon on the market and therefore it must be light or lighter than any other.

VICTOR CANE MILL.

And it seems folly to mention the Victor Cane Mill as it has a world-wide reputation, being the only mill that has no knife or guide between the rolls, therefore you have nothing to cause it to choke and it positively will not. It works easy, being freed from all clogging between the rolls, and the rolls themselves being lifted from the bottom plate so as to touch only at the bottom, just so as to louch only at the end of the shafts, it is freed from most of the friction common to other mills. Now if you want a medium Juice Mill we have by far the best on the market. The Great Western. And our line of evaporators both large and small are second to none in the place, not only in price and quality, but in advertisement buggies it is not necessary. Hundreds of our satisfied customers in this and adjoining counties are advertising this line. We have absolutely any style, kind or grade of buggy, surry or hacks and at prices lower than ever.

CASON RICHARDSON

THERE is a demand for fifty new residences in Nacogdoches right now.

It is time to plant turnips if it would only rain a good season.

WITH our present water facilities what would become of Nacogdoches in case a big fire should get started here.

THERE is universal complaint about the condition of roads throughout the county. Half the roads do not seem to have any overseers.

THERE are no new phases or developments in the oil fields. Everything is going on as "smoothe as oil," so far THE SENTINEL can learn.

WITH all the complaint about increased taxation, how real estate owners are here who will sell their property at what it is assessed?

If the appearance of the advertising columns of the Herald are a fair criterion, Alto is getting to be a city. It is evidently a good newspaper town.

THE editor of the Huntsville Item has returned from Buffalo and has much to say about the pleasures of his visit to the Pan-American exposition.

GOV. SAYERS has issued a proclamation setting apart Monday, the 2nd day of September as labor day, requesting the citizens of Texas to observe it in appropriate manner.

THE taxable values of Nacogdoches county have increased $971,120 during the past year. The increase is mainly due to the vigilance of the county tax assessor and the board of equalization.

THAT "Mule" of Col. Bowers is attracting a good deal of comment from the press. They are all guessing whether it will be a gray mule, a kicking mule, a bucking mule or a jackass.

IN our opinion Nacogdoches will not be particularly stuck on the proposition to string up with Cherokee and Anderson counties. We had as soon Beaumont would "dictate" to us as either of the other "political centers."

THERE are prospects of a fight between the coal and lignite interests and oil as fuel. An effort is being made to get a reduced freight rate in favor of coal and lignite with the view to driving the fuel oil producers out of business.

NACOGDOCHES would be in the middle of a bad fix if a bad fire was to break out here, if the waterworks are to be taken into consideration. Nacogdoches is past the stage, when "toy" waterworks will suffice. The town had better take up the matter and go into the waterworks business or give a franchise to somebody that will put in a system adequate to the demands.

OUT OF PLACE.

Somebody has pertinently remarked that the average legislator is never so happy as when he is investigating something. Or, it might be added passing resolutions about something.

The latest instance of the latter had occurred in the house of representatives when Judge McFall introduced a resolution of sympathy for the steel strikers pledging the members individually to contribute a dollar a week each to the maintenance of the laborers as long as the struggle lasts.

The Tribune shares Judge McFall's sympathy for the strikers and would do nothing to hinder public expression in their behalf, least of all to prevent money contributions to their cause, but the Tribune holds that the legislative body should confine itself to the business of law making and to affairs of state. The resolutions habit is a bad one at best, and when it goes beyond the ordained sphere of legislation it is almost sure to provoke trouble. In this case there will be found none to defend the trust, yet the expression is of no effect and it will cause cynical people to hint that it is not designed to help the strikers so much as to give opportunity for politicians to say nice things about labor and to thereby promote individual aspirations. Such demagogery has been practiced elsewhere, and there are those who think Texas public men not above it.

The members of the legislature are called together to do certain things. They will please the public best and serve their own interests in the highest degree by doing those things promptly without meandering into other realms.—Galveston Tribune.

ACCORDING to the estimate of the Gal-Dal. News, which is accepted as approximately correct, the cotton crop of Texas for 1901-2 will be 2,622,000 bales. The crop of 1900-1 was 3,450,000 bales, nearly a million bales more than the estimated crop of the present season.

At Navasota a diversified farmer has marketed a watermelon weighing seventy-seven pounds. That shows what diversification can do. Mc Kinley has nothing to do with it.—Terrell Transcript.

We operated on an eighty-five pounder from Nacogdoches last week that we know McKinley had nothing to do with, for it was fresh and sweet.—Houston Post.

THE Gallaway bridge on Starr street is going to the demnition bow-wows for want of attention. A heavy drift has lodged against it, the approaches have washed so badly that it cannot be crossed and the road in its immediate vicinity would be impassable in bad weather. That street is outside the corporation and there is no overseer to look after it. What is to be done about it? Mr. E. D. Lawson was overseer, but he has moved off that road and his successor has not been appointed.

CORN is selling at 82 cents a bushel up in the heart of the corn growing sections of the United States. No danger of it going below a dollar in this country for the next twelve months.

KANSAS farmers are planting turnips and sorghum for winter forage for stock. Their example is a good one for East Texas farmers to emulate. Sorghum and turnips flourish here as well as any where.

WE observe that our home printing offices are still unable to fix up office stationery to the liking of some of the county officers. A pretty tablet of letter heads on the desk of the district clerk this morning which was printed by Clarke & Courts had a very attractive appearance and was quite fascinating to THE SENTINEL man while visiting that office.

HALF a dozen men held up the M. K. & T. passenger train at Caney tank in the Indian Territory Monday night. They got only about $300, after blowing up the express car and the safe and making the passengers "cough up" what change they had. All the robbers were arrested within two hours after the robbery was committed.

THE Haden-Cranfill trial at Dallas last week resulted in a mistrial. This is the third trial of this celebrated case, and has cost Dallas county already over seven thousand dollars. The first trial resulted in a verdict of $30,000 in favor of Haden. The case was appealed and reversed by the court of appeals. Two mistrials have resulted since.

THE steel trust, in threatening to remove its mills from McKeesport, Pa., has stirred up the mayor of that city, who is hurling defiance at them. He says the people at McKeesport have been used to these threats for twenty years, and if the mills were actually moved their places would be filled by local capital. It is too good a field of operation to be abandoned.

We are sorry to hear of the late fire in Lufkin. It seems that the little city is up against the real thing in the way of misfortunes. The Lufkin Tribune was among the best papers coming to our desk and we shall miss it. But of course brother Daniels can't be held down and will start the Tribune again soon.—Moscow Progress.

What are you talking about? The Tribune never missed an issue, and was not over twenty-four hours behind its regular publication day.

THE proposed new Judicial district bill by which it is proposed to bunch Houston county in a district with Walker, Brazos, Grimes, Leon and Madison will not suit our people at all. The experiences this county had thirty years ago with Mongrel Judges is not entirely forgotten. This is not the only sound objection to this proposed district but this is enough. We hope our representatives will scotch this measure if it isn't knocked out in committees.—Crockett Courier.

This is a sample of the "kicks" that are coming now.

HOW SHALL WE CUT IT?

The following letter explains itself:

Austin, Aug. 14, 1901.
Hon. R. W. Haltom,
Nacogdoches.

Dear Sir: We write you to ask whether, in your opinion, your people would prefer to be placed in the 13th senatorial district composed of Anderson, Houston, Cherokee, Angelina and Trinity counties, or to remain where they are. We are anxious, with your people's consent, to have Nacogdoches with us.

Please let us hear from you at your earliest convenience and oblige. Yours truly,
L. LLOYD,
W. B. O'QUINN.

We haven't had time to canvass this matter, but we are inclined to believe the people of the 14th senatorial district would prefer to remain right where they are, than to tack on the district suggested. Let us hear from the people. All speak at once. Write your sentiments to the committee, or express them through these columns immediately. Don't delay. The legislature is going to act on the matter right away and we may be shuffled around until we won't know "where we are at."

Giles M. Haltom, of Vinita, I. T., arrived Wednesday morning and will henceforth be a citizen of Nacogdoches, where he spent his boyhood days and many years. The Pd. extends the glad hand to Mr. Haltom, with the suggestion that its latch string hangs on the outside.—Plainsdealer.

It's all right about the latch string, but is the dog tied?

TYLER is the proper place for the State Industrial school for girls, but our citizens appear to be too busy to urge this fact before the committee charged with selecting a location for the school.—Tyler Courier.

Sh! Tread softly, brother. Greenville isn't too far off to hear, and you are liable to have all sorts of trouble.

The editor who is taking up his time and space in trying to show the public the supposed faults of his neighbor editor is small potatoes and but few in the hill. He is fit only to do the work of a scavenger.—Tyler Courier.

Why don't you let that Palestine editor alone, then?

THE Lufkin Tribune is before us as natural as ever, even it did have to be printed in Nacogdoches, shipped to Lufkin and them mailed back. Bro. Daniels will soon have another first-class printing office in operation at Lufkin, and until his outfit arrives he will continue to print his paper in Nacogdoches.

About one-third of the counties in Mississippi have adopted the contract system of improving the public highways, instead of adhering to the old plan of calling out the road workers two or three times a year for a picnic and pretense of road working without any intelligent direction. The Mississippians appear to have finally realized the importance of good roads and to have determined on having them, even if it is necessary to go to some expense in that behalf.—San Antonio Express.

ADMIRAL CERVERA the commanded the Spanish flees in Santiago Bay has been interviewed by the Chicago American. Admiral Cervera declined to express an opinion concerning Admiral Sampson, saying "I do not know Admiral Sampson; I have never met him; he was absent conferring with Shafter when the fight took place." This gives emphasis to the absurdity of insinuation wherein the Admiral whose face appears upon the medal to be worn by the participants in that fight had never even met the commander of the enemy's forces, and who was "absent when the fight took place."—The Commoner.

"It is a common misapprehension among people who know nothing about farming," says the New York Press, "that anybody can be turned into a useful farmer or farm hand at a moment's notice, but any farmer will tell you that five thousand of the unemployed men of the metropolis dumped, without experience or aptitude, on a farming section would be as useful and desirable as five thousand woodchoppers dumped into steel rolling mills, or five thousand plow hands dumped into a cigar factory, or five thousand sailors put to setting type in printing offices.—Shreveport Journal.

ON one of the abandoned farms of Massachusetts a farmer from Long Island, who knows something about farming, has this year planted thirty-seven acres with potatoes, from which he is now gathering a crop of from 125 to 150 bushels per acre, disposing of same in Worcester at from $4.50 to $5.00 per barrel. At the lowest figure he will receive over $10,000 for the crop, or at least twenty times the amount he paid for the land. Poverty of brains rather than poverty in the soil and the competition of the western farmer is what has caused the abandonment of most of the deserted farms of New England.—Shreveport Journal.

SHERMAN is to be a "dry" town on Sundays hereafter. One day last week the ladies of Sherman, Tex., served notice on the mayor of that place that every saloon which attempted to do business on Sunday hereafter would be wrecked. The notification came from a committee of ladies who represented those who intended to execute the threat. The mayor was impressed with the warning and at once sent the city marshal to notify the saloon keepers that he positively would not stand for any violation of the Sunday law. As a consequence it is expected that Sherman will hereafter be dry, as it has been observed in the past that saloons will stay closed on Sunday if an effort is really made to enforce the law. Mayor Fielder declares that he believes that the threat to hatchet the bar rooms would be carried out, and that he would feel disgraced if such a thing were to occur in his town, and he was any way responsible for it.

THIS APPLIES TO NACOGDOCHES.

Jacksonville Banner.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, if taken at its flood leads on to fortune," or words to that effect.

That tide is rapidly approaching the Jacksonville citizen, who has money enough to build a nice cottage for the horde of house hunters who are now infesting our town. We hear the question on every corner, "Do you know who has a house for rent?" Invariably the answer is "No."

Present conditions are not to be compared with what will follow the entrance of the T. & N. O. railroad into town.

A prominent landlord remarked this week that if he had 100 houses he believed he could rent them before Saturday night. He further stated that he had incidentally remarked that he might build a house on a vacant lot he owned, and every day since he made the remark, he had applications for the house. Applicants never asked what kind of a house but wanted to know if they could engage it before any one else got it.

If lot owners would build some cottages on their vacant lots they would find no trouble in renting them to desirable tenants at a rate that would draw a larger interest than almost any investment they could make, and at the same time their property would increase in value at a much greater ratio than if their lots were left vacant; for anybody knows that you can take an hundred dollar lot, put a three hundred dollar house on it and sell it for five hundred dollars quicker than you can sell a vacant lot for one hundred dollars. The reason is obvious, for when a man wants to buy a home he doesn't generally have time to build, and had rather pay a little more than to wait for a house to be built.

It is very gratifying to see from the daily papers that reports of the shortage of corn in the Western States has been greatly exaggerated. Recent rains in Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska give promise of half to three fourths of an average crop, while Iowa, Illinois and Indiana each promise average crops.—Rusk Journal.

The reports from the daily papers apply only to the very late corn crops. Rains cannot bring early corn to life after it is actually dead in the field. The late corn will possibly produce a half crop but it will only amount to a drop in the bucket compared to a full crop of corn for the corn growing districts. Corn will be scarce this winter at a dollar a bushel, and there is no guessing what the price will be before another crop is made.

About 950 Texas men drew homesteads at the recent land lottery in Oklahoma. This is about one-fourteenth of the whole number of prizes. Those who drew early numbers, and consequently had early choice, had a good thing. But many of the last chances will be unsatisfactory, as many of the quarter-sections are comparatively valueless, and will cost to perfect title about $300, besides the expenses of the expedition.—Farm and Ranch.

THE RUSK REUNION.

The Famous Trib Band Treated Royally by Ruskites.

Edwin Tribune.

Last Wednesday and Thursday the Trib Band filled a two-day's engagement at the Confederate reunion at Rusk, furnishing music for the occasion and helping the people of Cherokee county enjoy a couple of days of genuine pleasure and good feeding.

Every courtesy was shown the famous East Texas aggregation of music, and the especial thanks of the band boys are due Sheriff Reagin, Wood Francis, W. E. Donley, Charley Emanuel and others, who led the boys a gait at "the pace that kills," and the trip was the most enjoyable the band has yet had, and will long be remembered by them.

No trouble was experienced on the return trip, as an old circus man got "Shorty" in his cage in the car, and he was brought right in with an ordinary ticket.

Where is Clarisso?

We clip the following from the Houston Post, and suppose it has reference, to the oil well now being bored near the Lucas ranch, but we did not know the place was named "Clarisso" before:

Nacogdoches, Aug. 12.—The Mammoth Oil, Mineral and Land company, which commenced operations on the 31st ult., one mile from Clarisso and twenty miles east of this town, struck a rock twenty feet below the surface and have reached a depth of sixty feet in the rock. Everything was stopped last Friday, and a new drill ordered. The rock encountered is the blue shell which is indigous under the surface in the oil region, and varies from twenty to 180 feet in thickness. After this is penetrated no other article to hinder the drill is encountered.

Several other companies have secured land, and before 60 days roll around the country will be astonished at the production of oil from the first county in the State where it was discovered.

Law in Sabine.

Judge Davis and District Attorney Donley are coming down next week in their war paint. And then what a roarin' and bellerin' and pawin' up dirt there will be! Things will come to light that people have never dreamed of, and the law will show its power. At least this is our view of the matter. Others seem to think there will not be much done. A great deal rests with the juries. Will they be men and do their duty? They had better or some of these times there will be a law and order league organized in Sabine county that will arraign and try men every ten days without waiting for district court to convene.—Hemphill Messenger.

It does not pay to gamble with your conscience. Many a man starts out in life intending to be honest, then comes a temptation. It is so easy to take an unfair advantage of some one, so much, apparently, to be gained by it. It is easy for a young man to borrow his employer's money. He is so sure he can replace it. That so many before him have thus played fast and loose with their consciences and came to grief, bears no weight with him. He is confident that he can escape scot free. It is with very little things that he begins, a rickie for a cigar; a bit of goods that will never be missed; time taken when he does not bear detection; these lesser lapses from honesty lead many a man to great breaches of good faith and trust and bring ruin in their wake. Their is no real profit in dishonest gains. One loses self-respect, he knows himself not worthy of trust and comes to feel that others do not trust him and are watching him. He is in constant fear of detection. One cannot make little dishonesties a habit and not be found out in it. By being dishonest one sows seed from which a very bitter harvest is reaped. The dishonest man cannot be really happy or free. Be strictly honest and truthful in small things, and you will be the stronger to resist the greater temptations that come to you. What money or gain can compensate for the loss of self-respect of those that know you? A reputation for strict integrity is something worth striving for, something satisfying to the soul.—Orange Leader.

The democratic party stands for definite positive principles, and the Kansas City platform is the party creed until another national platform is written. Those who argue from the standpoint of expediency seem willing to sacrifice any principle or endorse any policy if they can thereby win. But there is no way of judging what is expedient; we can only do what we believe to be right and accept the consequences. We may deserve to win is the surest road to success. If any one tells you that success can be won by a surrender of democratic principles just remind him of the campaign of 1894 when we lost both our principles and our candidates.—The Commoner.

A Red River county renter who moved to western Texas last winter in order to secure a home of his own has just moved back. He declares that when it came to a choice between paying a third and fourth of his crop to a human landlord or three-thirds of it to the daddened grasshoppers he decided unanimously in favor of the former.—Clarksville Times.

Nacogdoches County's Assessed Values.

Tax Assessor R. A. Hall furnishes THE SENTINEL with the following figures from the assessor's rolls of 1900 and 1901, showing an increase in valuation of $977,120 for 1901 over 1900:

Total value of Nacogdoches county for 1900:

Total value of Nacogdoches county for 1901:
Resident roll	$3,172,870
Non-resident roll	322,280
Unrendered roll	69,010
Railroad	466,920

Chickens Come Home to Roost.

The iron and steel strikers seek to gain public sympathy by dwelling upon the fact that their adversary is a corporation having a capital of $1,100,000. It is worthy of note in this connection that the tariff protection which made this combination possible was inflicted upon the American people by the votes of the men who are now on strike. The Morgan trust can always depend upon the support of the Shaffer trust at the polls however it may be elsewhere.—Shreveport Journal.

W. N. Bailey, of Nacogdoches, and O. H. Polley have just consummated one of the largest real estate deals ever made in Center, the consideration being, we learn, about $24,000, for which Mr. Polley transfers his two story brick store, his two hotels, the Polley Hotel and the Air Line House, and his livery stable. This shows Mr. Bailey's faith in our town's future growth and importance as a trading point.—Center Champion.

Bailey l'owed a few days ago that he owned about half of Center now. If he ever moves to Center he will own the whole thing. He may not own it all at one time, but if he lives there five years here will be mighty few pieces of property that has not passed through his hands. He has owned at least half of Nacogdoches.

Bailey says he has an unbounded faith and confidence in Center becoming the metropolis of East Texas. He says there is a dead sure thing that Center will have one railroad soon, and she almost has a cinch on two. He will not move to Center at present, but will probably become a citizen of that town in the near future. He has let the contract for two new brick stores and is contemplating putting up an extensive hardware and furniture establishment there in a short while.

TENAHA has received her first bale, for which she paid 6 cents a pound.

AN exchange says "it does not pay to gamble with your conscience." It doesn't pay to gamble with some other fellow's conscience either.

ANOTHER terrible storm has raged along the coast of Alabama and South Carolina during the past week destroying a great deal of property and several hundred lives.

THE Tenaha New Era came in this week looking like a real newspaper. It has put on a new dress and now comes out in six column folio size, just as it did before the fire.

TIMPSON is to hold an election on the 31st inst to determine whether or not Timpson shall constitute an independent district, which will be district No. 5 of Shelby county, if carried.

TENAHA, Timpson and Lufkin have all been through the fiery ordeal within the past twelve months. Garrison and Nacogdoches have escaped so far. Logansport had her share several years ago.

HON. HORACE CHILTON has resumed the practice of law, with his office at Tyler. He announces that he will give attention to all business entrusted to him in the State and United States courts.

HENDERSON received her first bale on August 10th, for which she paid an even hundred dollars. It was raised by M. F. Dunklin, classed as midding, weighed 430 pounds and sold for 23 1/4 cents a pound.

THE average of the corn crop of 1901, according to government bureau report is 54.0, against 87.5 for 1900. The average covering the past ten years is 87.6. A little more than an average half crop is estimated for this year.

THE negroes of Savannah, Ga., assisted in lynching one of their own color last week for assaulting a white woman. Sensible negroes are as ready as white people to rid the earth of such demons, even if they do happen to have black skins.

ANY old thing will do THE SENTINEL, for it is about out of politics any how, but with the experience Nacogdoches county has had with Cherokee, we should hardly think she would be in haste to tack on to Cherokee for any sort of district.

THE Houston Post and Waco Times-Herald are in a dispute over the acts of State Treasurer Robbins in allowing nearly $400,000 of the State's funds to lie in the Austin National bank, which recently failed. The Times-Herald is using language concerning Treasurer Robbins that would cost it dearly if it were the Galveston News or the Houston Post.

HAS A SENSATIONAL ASPECT.

The following is a synopsis of the report of the legislative committee appointed by the house to investigate the failure of the First National bank of Austin and its effect upon the State treasury. At a glance it would seem that State Treasurer Robbins and his bondsmen are in a fair way to have trouble, and the whole transaction savors somewhat of the sensational. The committee reported as follows:

1. That the secretary of state had on deposit on the 3rd day of August with the First National bank of Austin $39,000 in round numbers. His bondsmen are T. W. House, James A. Baker, Jr., S. E. Allen, C. H. Milby, Andrew Dow, H. M. Curtin, D. C. Smith, L. M. Rich, Theo. Keller and H.C. House. It is for $25,000. It seems that the law contemplates that the secretary of state should settle with the State treasurer every thirty days. In the meantime whatever money he receives is held at his own risk.

2. The custom of the State treasurer (Mr. Robbins) has been to collect through the banks all payments for land sales and leases, which are usually made in checks, the banks collecting them without exchange to the State. In this it appears that he has followed the practice of his predecessors. During his term of office, with the exception of a few weeks at the beginning of his first term, this business has been transacted through the First National bank of Austin until it closed.

3. When the bank was closed by the National bank examiner, John W. Robbins, as State treasurer, had a balance to his credit of $358,208.89.

4. That at the close of business on December 31, 1900, $283,440.46 the credit of the State treasurer in the First National bank, this being checks in the course of collection, (so-called).

5. The total amounts of deposits since the 1st day of January up to and including the 3rd day of August, 1901, was $774,800.65. The amount of cash received by the State treasurer from First National bank for the same time was $700,032.22. The average daily balance in the bank to the credit of the State treasurer and alleged to be in course of collection for that period was $255,469.

6. The report of the committee which counted the cash in the State treasury shows that the books of both the treasurer and of the comptroller shows that there should have been in the treasury on the 13th day of August $2,709,043.83. The committee found by actual count that there was only $2,465,665.81, showing a difference of $252,378.02. This is explained by the statement that the treasurer had the comptroller to charge him (the treasurer) with that amount of money before it was actually received from the bank.

7. The treasurer has advised the committee under date of August 16 that of the $358,208.89, reported as being in course of collection $289,300.09 had been received for, leaving $68,908.80 un-receipted for.

8. The bond of the treasurer is for $75,000. Sureties are W. E. Wortham, J. S. Myrick, A. Pfaffin, Margaret I. Raymond, H. P. Haldeman, W. L. Drake, R. S. Timmin, J. H. Burnett (now deceased) and John H. Kirby. It appears that the bond of the treasurer was not examined in June by the attorney general, as is required by law. The attorney general, however, stated to the committee that he had recently examined the bond and found it to be a good one.

9. The temporary receiver of the First National bank has stated that within five weeks the bank will pay all the depositors at least 50 per cent. As to further dividends or payments he declined to express an opinion.

10. Mr. Wortham, president of the First National bank, expressed the hope to the committee that all depositors would be paid in full.

CHEROKEE county wants to join Nacogdoches county in making up a Judicial and Senatorial district. The proposition sounds nice, but knowing Cherokee's trading proclivities and her innate selfishness we are (as an individual) inclined to be "agin" the proposition. Cherokee is in the 2nd Judicial district, and she traded Nacogdoches out of the district judge. She is in the florial district with Angelina, but notwithstanding she had a representative of her own she refused to let Angelina have the floater. She also holds down the job of State senator for a Cherokee county man. The only thing she failed to get was the congressman and she tried hard to scoop that plum. But as we have said, this is an individual sentiment with us. We don't care what the people do about it. We can stand it if they can.

DOUBTLESS there are more brick houses under construction in the three counties from Sabine river to Angelina inclusive than any other section of the State. Four at this place, four at Timpson, several at Nacogdoches and Lufkin are now in course of construction. — Tenha New Era.

Nacogdoches is putting the finishing touches on four brick stores, and has eight more on the string to be built during the next twelve months. Lufkin is building brick houses as fast as she can get the work done, without limit as to number.

It would be well for our people not to forget themselves and go to sleep on the old survey of the Kirby railroad. The trains are running into Jasper, and work is being pushed between that place and San Augustine. Still more flattering news is the fact that they have adopted the old line all the way up to Center, and will no doubt adopt it on to Tenaha.—Tenaha New Era.

Be sure you sleep with one eye open, whatever you do. That Kirby road will bear watching.

PRESCRIBED BY LAW.

The following notice has been sent out from the State Department of Education and is self-explanatory:

Austin, Aug. 13, 1901.

To county school superintendents, and to principals and superintendents of schools of towns and cities having a population less than ten thousand:

Gentlemen: At a meeting of the State Text Book Board held August 10, 1901, a resolution was adopted directing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to call your attention to certain provisions of the Text Book Law, and to the tenor of the State's contracts with the publishers of books adopted under said law.

The precise editions adopted (such as are distributed by the agents of the contracting publishers) must be used in the schools; and the law permits no deviation from this rule unless "the contractor fails or refuses to furnish the books provided for in this act at the time required for their use in the respective schools."

The editions adopted are in some cases special Texas editions (the geographies, for instance, have special Texas supplements, etc.); and other editions, though by the same authors and published by the same firms, are not books of the State adoption, and the use of them is prohibited by law under severe penalties upon teachers and trustees.

The books adopted by the State have the contract price printed on the outside of their covers and are easily distinguished by this means, as well as by other characteristics of the Texas edition of these works.

There are reasons why it is timely that all parties be warned against violations of the law in the particulars mentioned, and you are respectfully instructed to so warn the teachers and trustees with whom you have official connection. Very respectfully,

ARTHUR LEEFEVER,
State Superintendent.

The plant and buildings of the Palestine Pork Packing Company, about one mile from the city, was burned to the ground on the 8th. It will be a total loss. Besides the buildings, over $10,000 worth of meat was burned and destroyed. The fire company, though out in full force, was helpless on account of the distance to go and having no water connections. The loss will reach about $30,000, a good part of which is covered by insurance. The plant may be rebuilt.—Crockett Enterprise.

The burning of this plant will be a serious calamity to Palestine, in case the enterprise has not been satisfactory to its promoters. If it has paid to their satisfaction, of course it will be rebuilt, but if it is still in an experimental stage it is very doubtful if it is re-established. There is no doubt out that it would have been a great success in the end.

The Judicial district composed of Cherokee, Nacogdoches, Angelina and Tyler counties suits us to a T. It is convenient, compact and not too large nor too small.

"QUICK SALES, SMALL PROFITS."

The FALL SEASON

Of 1901

Is now approaching and your problem is to decide on the proper place to do your trading. It is to your interest to carefully compare prices and qualities.

"A Dollar Saved is a Dollar Made."

Experience, observation, and common sense should and does teach you that a small merchant takes up less room, pays less house rent, less electric light, less clerk hire, less expensive displays, and less expense generally. Then a common sense proposition is, "Where should you buy? From whom should you buy? Where do you buy?"

Price elsewhere, but don't buy. Now to the point. I do not ask for all your, but do ask for a part of it, other things being equal, and if a small profit is an inducement, will get it. I am new in the business and will have to build a trade. I am going to build it. I am going to build it, I must have it. My plan is small profits and quick sales. I aim to do that. I am going to do it. I shall do it. So

If a Bargain Counter is what you want to see, See mine.

If Dry Goods is what you are after, buy mine.

If Shoes and Hats are wanted, take a peep at mine.

If Coffee, Sugar, Tobacco and Snuff are what you have got to have, get mine.

COME AND SEE. If you don't buy, I have no high priced salesmen to worry the life out of you, nor to show the hidden beauties—to mesmerize you—nor any beautiful magnetic displays to draw you in anyhow—but I have the goods to wear and the groceries to eat, and last but not least everything I have is for sale, and I am going to sell; didn't buy 'em to keep. Will go, must go, got to go. Yours for trade,

Chas. A. Hodges.

THURSDAY'S LOCALS.

Wm. Cubbins, of Garrison, is in the city.

Mrs. Bailey and sister Miss Moore, are visiting in Garrison this week.

Business seems to be picking up a little with the wagon yards already.

Mr. Josh Ivey, of Melrose, is now with Joe Zeve, of this city, as salesman.

The thermometer has registered at 99 in the shade several days the past week.

Lester Walker, recently from New Orleans, is now with John P. Davidson of this city.

The change in the temperature of the weather between sundown and sunrise is remarkable.

Mr. Ed Willis, of Denison, is visiting his daughters, Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. Perry, in Nacogdoches.

Alf W. Cheesman, commercial agent of the H. E. & W. T. Ry. of Shreveport, was in the city today.

Mrs. Jas. I. Perkins, of Rusk, is visiting her niece, Mrs. W. F. Summers in Nacogdoches.

Dr. G. T. Mitchell, of Denning, San Augustine county, spent yesterday in the city on a business trip.

Reports from every section of the county place a gloomy prospect on the cotton crop outlook.

Miss Jennie Langston left last night for a protracted visit to relatives and friends at Mineola, Omen and Rusk.

W. G. Barron has been sick several days, but will be able to attend to business again in a day or two.

W. H. Taylor, Wm. Dorcherty, of the H. E. & W., and J. F. Ryan, of the T. & N. O. railroad, were in the city yesterday.

Hardy Dial and family have moved back to town and now occupy the Harry May place on South Fredonia street.

John Areola and Mrs. Alvina Procella were married at the court house this morning, Judge Middlebrook performing the ceremony.

W. H. Roquemore, of Irvin, Rusk county, returned home this morning, after a two days' visit to his brother, T. J. Roquemore, of this city.

Col. J. J. Watkins was in the city last night on his return from Panola county, where he spent several days on a visit to relatives and old friends.

Mrs. W. E. Brown returned home to Galveston several days ago, accompanied by her sister, Miss Alma Hall, who will remain several weeks in the Island City.

E. Z. Mast was in the city yesterday. He came up from Melrose, where he is visiting the home folks. His home at present is at New Braunfels, whither he will return in about two weeks.

THE SENTINEL erred yesterday in stating that Mayer & Schmidt bought the second bale of cotton. It was bought by B. M. Hall, at 8 cents.

Joe Rogers, of Alazan, was in the city today. He reports terrible dry weather and everything dull, except in religious way in his community. He says they are having lots of big meetings out there.

Nacogdoches will take one of the fastest Ball teams to Beaumont on the 25th of this month every organized outside of the leagues. Maloney and Alexander, late of the Southern League, have been signed to play with them.

Mr. Charles Claton, of Douglass, was in the city last night. He came down to meet his wife who returned this morning from Birmingham, Ala., where she has been the past two months on a visit to a sister, who she had not seen in thirty-eight years.

Dr. Campbell relates a very humorous experience with the well borers at Toliver. He says they have a rope stretched around the premises and no one is allowed to enter inside the enclosure. The doctor could get no nearer than anybody else, there being no need of his services at the time of his visit. He says the people come there in droves every day to see the drilling go on. Wagons, buggies and horses are in sight in great numbers constantly. But for all that no one can induce the operators to talk.

Capt. H. A. Harris, of Attoyac, Nacogdoches county, spent two or three days in Center last week, visiting his son, J. R. Harris and family and friends. The Captain gave the Champion a pleasant call while here and his subscription now stands over a year in advance. He says that he cannot do without the Champion his old home paper. Captain Harris has many friends in Center who are always glad to meet him. He left Saturday to visit his daughters, Mrs. J. H. Padon and Mrs. J. A. Bigger, of Center Ridge, and Mrs. Russell Duncan, of Oakland.—Center Champion.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since our last report by County Clerk Weeks.

Walter Hawkins and Pearl Grayson.

Larkin McKnight and Rhoda Martin.

J. T. Humphreys and Ada Wiggins.

John Sanders and Abelnia Norris.

W. P. Byars and Annie Brown.

E. C. Coats and Lena Collins.

John Areola and Mrs. Alvina Procella.

Rusk Ain't In It.

The ball game yesterday between the Rusk boys and the Hill team, of Nacogdoches resulted in Nacogdoches' favor by a score of 15 to 14.

The game was spirited and the boys all played well and it was considered a good game by those who witnessed it.

FRIDAY'S LOCALS.

John Lynch, of San Augustine, is in the city.

Dr. C. C. Pierce returned this morning from Cushtusa, Ala.

Constable W. J. Green, of Melrose, was in the city awhile this morning.

Julius Mora has bought the old Hazle wooden store and is tearing it away.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Stack, who live on corner Pecan and Cox streets, last night.

W. T. Thomas, of San Augustine, was in the city today. He is hauling out a lot of machinery for his gin near Denning.

Mr. Eugene Blount is now regularly installed in Wettermark's bank, and has charge of the correspondence and collection department.

Sam Hayter, of Huntington, has returned from the markets. He was in the city yesterday and was a pleasant caller at this office.

Avery Barron will attend to any repairs necessary in connection with the water works during his father's sickness.

Now is the very best time to haul wood on subscription to your local paper. You will be too busy in two or three more weeks.

There is a new oil boring outfit at the depot, consigned to Mr. Jno. T. Gaffey. It will be put to work east of town five or six miles in a few days.

Mrs. I. D. Schurman, who has just recovered from a severe spell of sickness, was able to walk up town today for the first time in more than a month.

Mrs. Chas. Thomason was called to the home of her parents in Rusk county yesterday on account of the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. L. H. Thrash.

Another caravan of graders passed through Rusk recently, going south. They came from the Athens end of the T & N. O., and were headed for the Nacogdoches division.—Rusk Journal.

Rev. G. D. Wilson and son, Pierce, came in last night from Cotton Gin, Texas. They went to Melrose today where Bro. Wilson will begin a ten days Methodist protracted meeting, beginning tonight and lasting until next Sunday week.

Mrs. E. E. Baldwin returned Wednesday from a two month's visit to her parents at Jeffersonville, Mo. She is very much improved in health and says she had a most enjoyable trip after she recovered from the attack which she had when she left here.

D. A. Bridwell, of Toliver, was in town this morning. He says there will be plenty of corn made in his neighborhood, but that the lice and honey dew are ruining the cotton fast, and unless a hard rain falls very soon there will be scarcely any cotton gathered in that section of the county.

W. T. Wright, representing Paul Jones & Co., Louisville, Ky., was in the city today. He established an agency here for the celebrated Paul Jones whiskey, placing the handling of those goods in the hands of N. B. Chancey.

The people on Irion hill say there is some sort of frequent "owl meetings" being held at the West Nacogdoches Institute building these nights. What does it mean? Henry Turner, Judge Middlebrook, Dode Sander, W. B. Pearson, or some other "sage" of the West End will please explain.

Lindsey & Harris seem to be doing some business in the real estate line. Since June 1st they have sold twenty-two pieces of real estate, have rented scores of houses and now have seventeen applications for houses docketed, to say nothing of the vast number of inquiries being made daily by people who do not leave their names. The town is full of new comers hunting homes to live in. There is lots of idle money here. Why isn't more of it used in building houses for the people to live in?

A gay party of young people—all young and all gay—had a moon light picnic, without the moon but not without the fun, out at North Street Methodist church, three miles from town, last night. They call the affair a broil. They had about a dozen chickens and other stuff suitably fixed up, and drove out to the selected place and broiled the chickens, as well as themselves, over a big brush fire in the pretty grove. Here are some of the names: Mr. Emory Ray, Miss Lizzie Harrison, Mr. Dick Doughtie, Miss Georgia Garrett, Mr. Frank McGee, Miss Eva Bowers, Mr. Bassett Rives, Miss Gusta Ray, Mr. Zeno Cox, Miss Mary Doughtie, Mr. Bryan, Miss Nannie Cubley, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Mayfield, Mr. Felix Thomason.

A SENTINEL reporter in conversation with Mr. Robt. Lindsey, of the firm of Lindsey & Harris, real estate and insurance agents, was informed by Mr. Lindsey that he had application from seventeen different men for houses to rent, and that at this time there is one vacant in the town, he has been unable to locate it. Mr. Lindsey says that all his applicants are good substantial white people, most of them new people who desire to locate at Nacogdoches. This condition of affairs suggests the question: Why is it that people who have money to invest don't build houses to rent? Doesn't the scarcity of rent houses retard the growth of the town? Is it not a good investment? The town is not on a boom, but is undergoing a gradual, substantial, healthy growth, and it is not reasonable to suppose that such investments would not be safe. It is certain that the town cannot grow unless people who come can find places to live. Business men and those who have money to invest ought to consider the situation seriously.

SATURDAY'S LOCALS.

Donald Barnett, of Chireno, was in the city today.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reid last night.

Tom and Grad Gillis, of Libby, were in the city today.

J. A. Richardson, of Chireno, is in the city again. He had just as well move up here and be done with it.

W. H. Wood is attending his father, who is dangerously sick at his home near Black Jack.

L. B. Hatchell left a few days ago for El Paso, where he will engage in the stock business.

We would be under lasting obligations to anyone who would "fetch on" a few good cooks to Nacogdoches.

Prof. E. R. Williams, President of Alexander Collegiate Institute, Jacksonville, Texas, is here in the interest of his institution.

Rev. T. F. Gallaher returned yesterday from Renssler, Mo., where he has spent the past month on a visit to his parents and home folks.

Will McMillan is moving to town and will occupy the Belton Reid place on South Fredonia street. He is going to work for C. W. Butt.

Miss Emily Moffitt, who has been spending two weeks with Miss Lela Jackson, returned to her home in Lufkin Thursday.

The carnival flag will not float much longer over the opera house. Only a few shreds of it still cling to the flag staff.

Misses Rosa and Bobbie Christopher returned to their home in Lufkin this afternoon, after a week's visit to relatives and friends in Nacogdoches.

The people of Black Jack and Chireno enjoyed a big picnic at the oil derrick Thursday. A large crowd was present and good things to eat were in great abundance.

J. C. McKey, of Attoyac, was in the city this morning. He says cotton is damaging fast in the eastern portion of the county. He reports Uncle Billy Wood slightly better.

Marion Hall has sold his place on North Street, two miles from the court house, to Mr. Fondren, of Tyler county. Mr. Fondren will move to Nacogdoches in the near future.

Rev. S. F. Baucom's meeting at Cold Springs is great. Thirty-five additions to date, twelve for baptism last night. Rev. Geo. W. McCall, of Plano, is assisting Rev. Baucom.

J. M. McClure of the Parish community came near getting his hand cut off while riving boards yesterday. By some mishap he was struck by a hatchet, badly cutting his hand.

The prettiest place in the city is the Furniture display room of Cason, Richardson & Co. on West Main street. Their display would do credit to any city. Drop in to see it first time you are down town.

Ed Muckleroy was in town today and was telling some big fish and snake stories. He has just returned from a big fishing expedition over in Angelina county and said he killed a rattle snake sixteen feet long with six rattles, or six feet with sixteen rattles, dogged if we haven't forgotten which.

W. H. Swift, sold his old home place at Swift yesterday to Mr. Worsher, of Beaumont, and bought again in the immediate vicinity, being now the owner of the Widow Brown place near Swift. Mr. Worsher will move up from Beaumont at once and become a citizen of Nacogdoches county.

Mike O'Connor left on the 1 o'clock train today for Palestine where he will sign for Nacogdoches ball team Hill, Alexander and Maloney, three of the best players of the Southern league. Nacogdoches intends to win this game at all hazards. The team has been playing ball away from home with a patched up team and losing every game, and with those crack players should be able to go against anything in Texas, and Beaumont may expect a good game on the 25th.

OIL NEWS.

We have nothing absolutely certain in the way of oil news to report. At Chireno the well has been sunk to a depth of about 90 feet, but no oil has been struck yet. Another well is to be bored soon in the direction of Black Jack, so we are informed.

The well at Clarisso has reached a depth of about 160 feet, according to scientific guessing. It is said that the water that comes out from the drill looks "greasy" as if they were getting pretty close to oil.

There are several outfits in transit and a half a dozen wells will be started in different sections of the county within the next few weeks.

It is said that there is no land on the market, nor can it be leased in the vicinity of the wells now being bored. The high price of land and the refusal of owners to lease, in all probability will seriously retard the development of the Nacogdoches oil field.

Their Secret Out.

All Sadiesville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whitaker, who had for a long time, endured untold sufferings from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. "It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe case of whooping cough." It positively cures, coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at R.C. Shindler & Son's drug store.

Strayed Off.

One bay mare, about 3 years old; good size for age, has long mane and tail, fortop sheared; has on halter with leather rain 4 or 5 feet long. Any information will be liberally rewarded.

Died in the Service Of the Lord.

We are called upon to announce this week, with much sadness, the demise of one of Jacksonville's most estimable and Christian ladies. Mrs. Mills, wife of Rev. Mills, whose untimely death occurred Monday night about 10 o'clock.

Rev. Mills and wife left Jacksonville Monday morning for Earl's Chapel, where a protracted meeting is in progress. A prayer service was being held before the usual morning sermon, and Mrs. Mills was asked to lead in prayer, which she did, and as she finished her prayer she attempted to rise when her head dropped over and she fell to the floor unconscious. Medical aid was called but she never fully regained consciousness, lingering until the hour above stated when death came to her relief.

Her remains were carried to Neches Tuesday for burial. She was over sixty years of age and leaves an aged husband, several children and many friends to mourn her loss.—Jacksonville Reformer.

The Confederate Home.

There are, it appears from the minutes of the board of managers of the Confederate home, seventy-four indigent veterans who, for lack of room, cannot enter that institution, though their applications for admission have been approved and they are in every way entitled to the enjoyment of its comforts. Some of these needy old soldiers have been waiting as long as a year for a realization of their hopes of a shelter for their decrepit bodies in these, their last days, and unless something is done for them mighty soon they will never get a chance to partake of the benefits of a residence within the asylum provided for them by the State. Realizing the urgency of their cases, Brigadier General Commanding Beavens of the First brigade, Texas division, United Confederate Veterans, has issued a circular letter to all camps within his jurisdiction urging them to promptly petition the legislature to make the necessary appropriation for the enlargement of the Confederate home. His suggestion should be acted upon with unanimity and every effort made to impress the legislature with the importance of doing something in the premises, as it is a pity that the home's capacity should be so restricted in view of the small outlay required to enable it to accommodate as much as one hundred more inmates.—Houston Post.

Crops at Garrison.

For a radius of five miles from Garrison the crops have stood the drouth remarkably well and the prospect has been promising until within the last ten days. But the dry, hot winds have damaged the cotton at least 40 per cent in that time. The lice and rust are destroying the stalk, the stalk, and the small bolls are shedding, and unless there is a radical change in the weather the cotton crop is a failure. A fair crop of corn is secured and if taken care of will enable the farmers to make another crop without having to buy. Late peas and potatoes are injured by the drouth.—Garrison Signal.

Items From the Tax Rolls.

THE SENTINEL gleaned the following information from the tax rolls of Assessor R. A. Hall:

Total number of acres on the resident roll, 492, 443.

The total number of horses, 8469; value $248,475.

Total number cattle, 19,067; value, $142,390.

Jacks, 30; value $1,635.

Sheep, 1865; value $1,760.

Goats, 1340; value $1305.

Hogs, 17,926; value $20370.

Dogs, 13; value $230.

Buggies, waggons and hacks, 2,714; value $70,845.

Goods and merchandise, value $279,170.

Material and manufactured articles; value $58,125.

Steam engines and boilers; value $77,625.

Money of bank; $93,110.

Money other than in bank; $53,885.

Credit, $174,010.

Stocks and bonds other than United States bonds, $2,930.

Miscellaneous property, $21,610.

Total fall list 4400, against 4200 last year.

There are $7,000 worth of buggies and wagons assessed this year more than were assessed last year.

Favors the Change.

Austin, Aug. 15, 1901. Dr. J. E. Mayfield, Nacogdoches, Tex.

Dear Sir: Please write me whether or not your people will be willing to come into our senatorial district with Cherokee and Angelina counties. As it stands now your district extends to Beaumont, and your county has never had a senator.

We will be glad to have you with us. If you cannot see many people in regard to this matter please give me your personal views at your earliest convenience. Respectfully,

GEO. B. TERRELL.

I am decidedly in favor of the change, because of the contiguity and common interests these three counties and their various social and business relations. What say others?

J. E. MAYFIELD.

Center Letter.

Center, Texas, Aug. 15.—W. N. Bailey, of Nacogdoches, was here this week and we are informed has bought out Mr. O. H. Polley. The deal involved quite a large sum of money. We understand Mr. Bailey is going to put up a large two-story brick on opposite side of Hon. A. H. McKnight's office. Mr. Bailey is an enterprising man and we are glad to have him with us, at the same time we hope Mr. Polley will remain here, for a more enterprising, liberal and public spirited man has never lived here.

Miss Julia King, who has been spending the summer in Tenaha, has come home.

Miss Julia Bryan, who has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Rushing, went home Friday evening.

Mr. Jno. Redditt, Mrs. Dr. Bryan and Fred Bryan took in the excursion to Galveston.

Mr. Tom McKnight has gone to Leesville, La.

Ace Burton was shaking hands with his friends Wednesday.

Chas. Tindall, of Nacogdoches county, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Claude Oliver.

Mr. Webb, relative of our townsman, Jno. Webb, was buried here yesterday. Mr. Webb was killed in the Philippines last April. His body was embalmed and sent here for burial.

Mrs. E. L. Pleasant is still very low, not expected to live.

Messrs. Jim King and Buel Wallace, of Nacogdoches county, were over here Saturday to make arrangements for board. They will enter the Center High School next term.

Lucky Huntsville Boys.

R. A. (Tony) Josey was a visitor in the city Sunday. He and Robert Cox, also, an old Huntsville boy, enjoy the distinction of being the only individual owners of a gusher in the Beaumont oil field. When oil excitement first broke out Mr. Josey was a successful speculator and when the Hogg-Swayne syndicate bought and sold out in small tracts a body of land on Spindle Top, Messrs. Josey and Cox bought one-sixteenth of an acre for $6500. Before the work of putting down a well commenced they were offered $10,000 for the site but refused and have the satisfaction of now owning one of the finest gushers in the field. If they do not make a satisfactory sale they will proceed to put the oil on the market.—Huntsville Post.

Astounded the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long sufferings from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters which helped her at once and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c at R. C. Shindler & Son's.

An Accident.

While Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rice were on their way home from preaching at Gravel Ridge Sunday, a limb fell from a tree that stood near the road and struck Mrs. Rice on the jaw near the mouth, cutting the upper lip severely and damaging several teeth to such an extent that they had to be removed Monday. The limb was a small one, and had it been larger its effect would probably have been fatal.—Plaindealer.

To Save Her Child

From a frightful disfigurement Mrs. Nannie Galleger, of La Grange, Ga., applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve to great sores on her head and face, and writes its quick cure exceeded all her hopes. It works wonders in sores, bruises, skin eruptions, cuts, burns, scalds and piles. 25c. Cure guaranteed by R. C. Shindler & Son, druggists.

Figaros Won.

The game of base ball yesterday evening between the Figaros of Nacogdoches and the Rusk team resulted in favor of Nacogdoches by a score of 20 to 7. The Hill team will entertain the Rusk boys this evening.

Summer Clean-Up of WARM WEATHER WEARABLES.

Right now is the time when Summer Fabrics are most needed, and it is at this season that we start our cleaning up of spring and summer novelties, so that we may get them out of the way before our buyer buys our fall stock. A little ready cash at this time will get some magnificent bargains here.

MONDAY'S LOCALS.

J. B. Fenley, of Douglass, is in the city.

J. J. Williams, of Etoile, was here today.

Joe Green, of Melrose, was in the city today.

Tom Fall made a flying trip to Houston Saturday.

Mr. Will Rulfs is quite sick at his home on South Fredonia street.

Jess Ellis and Clyde Stegall, of Lufkin, were in the city yesterday.

John Durst returned to Tyler yesterday after a week's visit in Nacogdoches.

R. Furman, a prominent business man, of Shreveport, was in the city today.

Miss Ida Mayer, of Mineola is visiting her cousin, Miss Lena Zeve of this city.

A. C. Meador has sold his farm, one and a half mile South from town to Mar on Hall.

E. E. Baldwin will build a new residence immediately on Forbes Hill near the home of Bob Monk.

Louis Council came up from Houston yesterday and spent the day with his mother and homefolks.

C. H. Rich, of Douglass, was in the city Saturday, and was a pleasant caller at THE SENTINEL office.

Miss Sallie Meadows, of Yoakum, is visiting in the city, the guest of Mrs. Chas. Clark.

Miss Anna Brown and Mr. Carpenter were married last Friday night at the home of the bride's parents near Martinsville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Fussell, of San Augustine county, were in the city and honored THE SENTINEL with a friendly call.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Schurman left last night for Mineral Wells, where they go for the benefit of Mrs. Schurman's health.

Joe Zeve and Uncle Charley Hoffstadt left Saturday night for St. Louis, to spend two weeks in the dry goods market.

W. N. Bailey returned yesterday from Center where he had been on a business visit. He says Center is on a regular boom.

The college building is being repaired, and if the work is completed in time school will open the first Monday in September.

Vernon Brown has given up his job with Blackburn's meat market, and is now taking a weeks rest by visiting his cousins up in Rusk county.

Bennett Perkins, Esq., of Rusk, is visiting among his relatives and friends in Nacogdoches and vicinity. He was a pleasant caller at THE SENTINEL office today.

J. M. Robinson, of Saron, came up Friday to see his sister, Mrs. Chas. Clark, and while here he purchased land in our city and will build soon and move up this winter.

J. O. Martin, of Martinsville, was in the city Saturday and was a pleasant caller at this office. He is building a new residence near Martinsville, which will be an ornament to the community when finished.

Henry Schmidt, manager of the Nacogdoches opera house, is having the opera house renovated and brightened up to be ready for the season which will soon open. The first attraction is billed for a date early in October.

J. P. Bruton is buying cotton seed for the Nacogdoches oil mill. He began on the 15th of August and will continue to work for the mill until the season closes. Henry Stack will begin buying for the same mill on the first of September.

J. W. Paup came up from Beaumont Saturday. He has accepted an offer from the Standard Stuff company, of Nashville, as traveling salesman for the Shreveport territory and will go on the road again, with headquarters at Nacogdoches. His family will remain in Nacogdoches. He still retains his interests in Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hogan, sr., were in the city on a shopping tour Saturday, and while here paid THE SENTINEL a friendly call. Mr. Hogan sends three copies of THE WEEKLY SENTINEL to his brothers in Arkansas, as well as is a reader himself. He is one of the best farmers and a most substantial citizen of the Hickory Flat community. He reports good health among the people of his immediate neighborhood, but that everybody are wearing long faces on account of the sorry crop prospects. But if all were in as good shape as Mr. Hogan they would be fixed for another year. He sold a load of old corn Saturday at 80 cents a bushel, and says he can spare a good deal more. He also sold 200 pounds of pork on foot to the market while in town, to be delivered this week.

Oil News.

The oil news is all rumor. There is nothing we hear that can be relied on. It was rumored this morning that two veins of oil had been struck in the Chireno well, but that the well would be sunk to the depth of eight hundred or a thousand feet, and that the company were assured that a regular spouter would be struck.

Nothing new is reported from the Toliver well.

The town is full of oil men every day, but they are as dumb as a wooden Indian. They don't take newspaper men into their confidence, to say the least of it.

G. B. Layton, attorney and agent. Collecting a Specialty.

TUESDAY'S LOCALS.

Hamp Green, of Melrose, was on the streets today.

Sebe Brown, of Attoyac, was in town this morning.

Oscar Matthews is off on a business trip in the interest of the Hicks Co., of Shreveport.

Wm. Cubbins is now a citizen of our city and will henceforward "hang out" at the Delmonico restaurant.

R. W. Haslewood has gone to San Augustine and Sabine counties on a business trip in the interest of Stripling, Haslewood & Co.

The county commissioners got through with the tax rolls yesterday and finished up the business of the term and adjourned today.

D. A. Ballew, of Lufkin, came up yesterday evening to superintend the burning of a couple of kilns of brick at Shearer's brick yard. He will be with us for the next two weeks at least.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kelley, who have been spending the summer at their old home in Rusk county, have returned to the city and Mr. Kelley will resume his work with R. C. Grambling.

The new piping for the mains of the water works company has arrived and the company will begin putting them down as soon as an expert plumber can be obtained. The new mains will be of six inch pipe—about twice the size of the present mains.

D. M. Rawlinson and daughter, Miss Hattie, of Looneyville, were welcome visitors to THE SENTINEL office yesterday evening. Mr. Rawlinson says he thinks he will gather a half crop off his farm but that his neighborhood will not average that well.

Mr. John Bailey, of Short, Shelby county, was in the city today. He says the dry weather spoiled the finest prospect for crops his section of Shelby county has had in several years. The dry weather and lice have ruined the early cotton.

A peculiar accident occurred at the Wade & Miller mill a night or two since. A horse running around loose, got himself tangled up in the guy wire that held the smokestack in place, pulling the stack down and breaking it all to pieces.—Timpson Times.

The Red Men were rained out last night and didn't hold any meeting to speak of. The next meeting will be held in the new hall, over Tom Smith's saloon, which is being fitted up and arranged in "applepie" order for the Red Men and the Woodmen, both lodges having rented the hall jointly. The Red Men meet every Monday night and the Woodmen every other Wednesday night.

J. B. Eaves, an old timer here, but now of Nacogdoches, spent a few days visiting friends and relatives here. His daughter, Miss Ollie, was recently married to a most estimable young man of San Augustine, Texas.—Groveton Herald.

J. R. Engledow, of Troupe, is in the city.

J. W. Vinyard and family are visiting in Lufkin.

W. H. Rushing, of Center, is visiting his Nacogdoches friends and kinfolks.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Haltom, at Swift, on the 18th, inst. This is their No. 12.

Mrs. Dr. F. C. Ford has gone to Beaumont to spend two weeks with friends and relatives.

A good season of rain has fallen in town and turnip planting and preparing for fall gardens is the order.

We have never "rubbed up against" so many strangers as are constantly seen on our streets just at present.

Mr. Henry Terry, of Mineola, and Miss Jessie Langston, of Nacogdoches, were married last Sunday night.

The baseball boys are in good trim and they seem to feel sanguine that they will walk off with the laurels when they meet the Beaumont team next Sunday.

Rev. G. W. McCall, of Plano, who has been assisting Rev. S. F. Baucom in conducting several revival meetings in Nacogdoches county, has returned to his home.

Geo. W. Cavin, of Garrison, was in the city today. He came up from Houston last night and says it has not rained in the coast country yet.

Wiley Parmelly is just back from a big trip out west. He saw Joe Howerton and Dr. Hollis and others at Abilene and other points. He says they are all doing well and cotton is still green and fresh out there, and we hate to say it, but he thinks he would like to live out there.

S. B. Brown, of Attoyac, who was here yesterday circulating a petition on behalf of Mrs. Blankenship, requests THE SENTINEL to thank the people of the town for the contribution of $38.00 to the distressed widow.

A. J. Richter, of Houston, traveling agent for the excursion department of the Southern Pacific and Houston & Texas Central railroads, was in the city yesterday in the interest of the Beaumont excursion to take place next Sunday.

Rev. S. F. Baucom writes that he is having a glorious meeting at Cold Springs, with 76 additions to the church, 55 baptised and one yet to be baptised. He was assisted by Rev. McCall, of Plano. Bro. Baucom has just closed his eighth year as pastor of the church at Cold Springs and has been called for another year with a raise of fifty dollars to his salary. He writes that the church and the people of Cold Springs are noble and generous and he is proud to be their pastor.

Notice.

The heirs of Nicolas and John L. Bodin, who were the sons of Laurence Bodin, will find it to their interest to write to Scarborough & Carver, Nachitoches, La.

Residence Burned.

Mrs. Ad Blakenship, of Attoyac, had the misfortune to get her residence and all its contents destroyed by fire last Saturday night. The family were visiting in Angelina county and no one was at home when the house was burned, and it is believed that it was set on fire. Mrs. Blakenship is a widow lady with slight means of support and this loss is a severe blow to her. A petition has been started for her relief, so we are informed.
