

Weekly Sentinel.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT wears a No. 8 shoe and an enormous pistol pocket

"Money talks," but it seems to be particular about who it is shaking hands with these days.

EAST TEXAS had good rains throughout during the past forty-eight hours and the five weeks drought has been broken.

All the public spirited citizens of Nacogdoches will meet with the business league tomorrow night. At least they ought to.

THERE are fourteen pronounced cases of yellow fever in Laredo. The Sentinel was in error yesterday in saying there was yellow fever in Gonzales.

THERE are strangers in the city all the time. There ought to be some special effort made to entertain those who come prospecting. It would be a good investment.

MISS RUTH BRYAN, daughter of W. J. Bryan, is to marry an artist next Sunday. He is only 22 years old but she will be his second wife. His name is Homer Leavitt.

TURNS will be moving this way with an exceeding lively move, if the right kind of effort is kept up for a few months. There are many "strings" for Nacogdoches to pull on, if he will just take hold of them.

THE Rusk county News is doing a little "biz" at the old stand these days. It is now coming out regularly with from sixteen to twenty pages. Henderson will never be a dead town as long as she sends out papers like that.

JUDITH BRYAN, of the federal court, has granted a permanent injunction against the publication of the result of the prohibition election held in Bowie county August 27th. The pros will at once take steps to hold another election.

BROWN is keeping the cotton speculators in a tremendous flurry in New York. He bought all the cotton they had in sight a day or two ago, and now they are buying it back an advance of six dollars a bale to fill contracts with. He seems to have completely cornered cotton in New York.

"SURE" George Nelson, the oldest citizen of Polk county, died at his home in Livingston a few days ago. He was born on board a vessel coming over to this country from England 98 years ago. His parents landed in Boston and in 1842 he settled in Polk county having first lived several years at San Augustine. He served in the Texas army under Gen. Sam Houston and was in the battle of San Jacinto. He was a blacksmith by trade.

POOR MACK STEWART is still confined in a lonely dungeon in Chehuahua, and seems doomed to die there. Effort after effort has been made by his friends in the United States to effect his release without avail. Three long petitions have just been presented to Gov. Latham requesting him to use his influence with the governor of Chihuahua. Stewart, it will be remembered, killed a Mexican constable years ago under what was thought to be exasperating circumstances. He was confined in jail for six or seven years before the case came to trial, was convicted, and has now been in jail eight years under sentence originally for life, but now reduced to 20 years. His long confinement has wrecked and shattered his health and is thought to be sufficient punishment for his crime. Unless pardoned and released his death is only a question of a short time, so it is said by those who know. Stewart was born and raised in Caldwell county, Texas. He was a gallant soldier in the Confederate war and was always a good citizen until misfortune overtook him in the killing of that Mexican and his falling into the clutches of Mexican tribunals.

"Hon. R. S. Bryarly is in receipt of information that he is one of several heirs to the estate of a cousin, M. C. Bryarly, deceased, of Clarksville, Tennessee. The estate is valued at several hundred thousand dollars, and Judge Bryarly's share will amount to something like forty thousand dollars. The matter is now before the courts, and it may take some time to settle it."—Center News.

We congratulate Judge Bryarly upon his good fortune but we fear that if the matter remains in the courts very long that forty thousand dollar roll will be awfully "swunk up" by the time he gets his share.

The Palestine Herald is trying to pick a quarrel with the Sentinel. It says Palestine is the best advertised town in Texas when it knows 'taint so. Nacogdoches has had more free printers ink inside the past twelve months than any dozen towns in Texas.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Editor Halton has evidently not been reading his exchanges closely lately.—Palestine Herald.

Yes, but we have. We've "got the papers" on this subject. They have been talking a little about a fair you had over there for a few days, but they talk about Nacogdoches all the year 'round.

The Czar's salary, according to some painstaking statistician is $81 a minute; and yet some people expect the President of the United States to exercise all the power of a Czar on a salary of less than 1 percent of that.—Washington Times.

The President of these United States being one of the number with this strange idea.

As an item of news, it is not out of place to note that the Nacogdoches Sentinel employs the prefix "Mr." in front of our name, which is a distinction not indulged in by our contemporaries. It is out of the ordinary, and is therefore, news.—Center News.

Charge it up to the snake editor.

HOUSTON has expanded until, she has had to increase her salary budget over fifteen thousand dollars a year.

THE largest cargo of merchandise ever sent from the United States to Argentina has just left the port at New York to land at Montevideo. The cargo consists of 11,395 cubic tons of farm machinery, hardware, railway material, oil and general merchandise.

THE Houston Post has put on a new dress and widened itself out somewhat since it has moved to its permanent home. The Post is constantly expanding to keep in front of the tremendous wave of progress that is now making things move lively in Texas.

FRANCIS SNYDER, the inventor of the swinging hobby horse and manufacturer of toys, died at his home in New York a few days ago. He was known as "the children's friend" because of the variety of toys and playthings he manufactured for the amusement of the children.

THE Alcalde Chronicle is a neat little paper printed on the 10th and 25th of each month by the convicts in the Rusk penitentiary. The Chronicle is successor to the "Prison Light," though under the same ownership and management. For some reason not explained the name of the paper has been changed, while the volume numbers have been kept up.

THERE are prospects of a great change in the management of the government printing office at Washington. That establishment has been dominated for years by Union labor, demand upon demand having been acceded to by the Public Printer until they have become unreasonable and very noticeable. The President's attention has been called to the matter and it is likely that a number of changes will be made and the printing establishment will be transferred to the department of commerce and labor.

THE Texas newspaper fraternity ought to stand ace high with the president considering his race culture doctrine. The editor of The Nacogdoches Sentinel is the eldest of twenty children, and the editor of The San Antonio Light is the first of a flock of twenty-one. There are 855 newspapers published in Texas. All the returns are not in yet.—Orange Tribune.

The editor of the Review is eldest of a family of ten children and has one dozen of his own living and doing well.—Athens Review.

The Chronicle can not prohibit other newspapers from duplicating its typographical make-up, but it has the consolation of knowing that mere mechanical imitation doesn't fool the public. It is what is put into type that really counts.—Houston Chronicle.

The Chronicle is evidently very much "sticked" on itself. We fail to see any especial feature of originalty about its make up.

Rev. Boynton, of San Augustine, is in Nacogdoches today.

The above are object lessons showing that you should not trust your eyes to incompetent persons calling themselves opticians. Judging from my increased patronage and the universal satisfaction given, you are safe in coming to me. No charge for examination, and moderate charges paid for perfect service. My Chrystal Periscopic, Toric and Lenticular lenses scientifically fitted and adjusted give perfect satisfaction. R. C. SHINDLER, Graduate Optician.

A Brave Girl.

The following story is from the associated press dispatches of recent date: By her heroic action, Manuela Flores, the beautiful eighteen-year old daughter of Col. Mariano Gomez, mayor of this city, has attracted the attention of President Diaz. The Mexican congress will vote a medal to her.

That honor will be conferred upon Miss Gomez in recognition of her brave and untiring services to the people of this city during the yellow fever epidemic. For several weeks she has been acting mayor of Lenares.

Surrounded by the dying victims, and with her father lying at her home stricken with the malady, she assumed the duties of mayor. She has directed the affairs of the city in its time of distress with an ability that has won the praise of the highest authorities of the Mexican government, including President Diaz.

When death entered her own home this woman remained at her post of duty. She saw the population of the city reduced from 15,000 persons to less than 3,000 by death and panic.

When her associates were fleeing to the mountains to escape the scourge Miss Gomez was devising and carrying out plans for improving the sanitary condition of the city and using her best efforts to quell the spread of the disease.

All the other city officers were stricken with the yellow fever and died. As they dropped out one by one Miss Gomez took up their duties.

Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds go burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Our Lady of Pilar.

In the queer old Spanish land records of this part of Texas, Nacogdoches is always spoken of as Our Lady of Pilar of Nacogdoches.

This name, those who know say, came from an old Catholic church which was established down on the Loco. From this Pillar street takes its name the added L baffling many who wish to know why the street was given that name. "Pilar" is Spanish for "Pillar" and means exactly the same thing, ever to the secondary meaning of a person as "A pillar of the church."

Reading the old documents gives many bits of information about the old town and county.

Chireno was named after a Mexican who owned most of the land; and in transfers dated 1838 the name of the noted Richard Parmalee, who was Deputy County Clerk at that time appears.

In one transfer of some land now in the oil field, "two skillful men" declared that as the "soil was poor and infested with ticks and small insects injurious to cattle" fifty dollars was the outside limit that the land was worth. Could the two skilled men see that same place today they would not know it, and their judgment as to the value of land has been outlawed long since. Many times fifty dollars would not buy it today, and "Our Lady of Pilar of Nacogdoches" is transformed beyond recognition.

May the old records never be destroyed, for the traditions that cluster around this, nearly the oldest town in Texas, are one of its chief charms.

Spent More Than $1000.

W. W. Baker of Plainview, Neb., writes: "My wife suffered from lung troubles for fifteen years. She tried a number of doctors and spent over a $1000 without relief. She became very low and lost all hope. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and thanks to this great remedy it saved her life. She enjoys better health than she has known in ten years." "Nigga-demus," was the reply.—Alcalde Chronicle.

ORDER OF THE COMMISSIONER'S COURT DECLARING THE RESULT OF PROHIBITION ELECTION.

Whereas on the fourteenth day of September 1903, the Commissioner's court of Nacogdoches county passed the following order to wit:

"Nacogdoches, Texas, Sept. 14, 1903.

This day the court met in special session, all members being present, and proceeded to open the polls, and count the votes of an election held throughout Nacogdoches county Texas, on the 3rd day of September 1903, for the purpose of determining whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors should be prohibited in said county, and it appearing to the court that said election was held in conformity to the laws of the state of Texas, and the court having counted the votes, find that seventeen hundred and thirty six votes were cast "For Prohibition," and that seven hundred and ninety five votes were cast "Against Prohibition," and that a majority of the votes are "For Prohibition;" it is therefore declared by the court and so ordered that the sale of intoxicating liquors is absolutely prohibited in said Nacogdoches county, except for the purposes, and under the regulations specified in the laws of the State of Texas, until such time as the qualified voters of said county of Nacogdoches, may at a legal election held for that purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise."

Therefore I, Robert Berger, County Judge of Nacogdoches county, Texas, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of said order passed by the Commissioner's court, as aforesaid and that after the publication of the same for four successive weeks, in the Nacogdoches Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published in Nacogdoches county, said order shall then be in full force and effect.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Nacogdoches this 14th day of September 1903.

ROBERT BERGER,
Co. Judge, Nacogdoches Co., Tex.
Attested by E. M. WREKS,
County Clerk of Nacogdoches county, Texas with the Seal of said court affixed by B. J. Ivey, Deputy.

Big Fire at Monterey.

Monterey, Mexico, Sept. 29.—Fire destroyed the entire plant of the Industrial Cotton Furniture company early this morning. The loss is thought to be not less than $200,000, although much of it is covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was discovered a few minutes before 1 o'clock by the watchman. Before help could arrive the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible for the fireman to do little more than watch the flames and keep back the crowd that gathered, notwithstanding the late hour and the distance from the center of the city. The company, which is one of the oldest industrial concerns of the city, has among its members Francisco Belden, of the Bank of London and Mexico; Constantine Tarnavo of the Milbo bank, and Vicente Ferrar, president of the steel plant.

Conditions About Rusk.

Rusk, Texas, Sept. 29.—The recent dry and warm weather has been very favorable for gathering cotton, and the farmer have made good use of it. The crop is found to be very short—not over 40 per cent of last year's crop—and notwithstanding the hot, dry weather, the boll weevil and sharpshooters have been forcibly at work for the past four weeks. The pests have got in their work, and they seem to have multiplied very rapidly, for in this month they have ruined all the top crop and are now working on the bolls, and all the farmer can expect is to get the first crop. Besides the devastation of the weevil and worm, there are places in which the cotton from some unknown cause, has died. The Chronicle correspondent has visited a large portion of the county and finds that the boll weevils and sharpshooters are as plentiful as the leaves and can be obtained at any time of the day. The whole country seems to be infested with the pests. The entire crop will be gathered within two or three weeks.

That we have been Cotton Factors for over 30 years and that our Senior continues to give his personal attention to every detail of our cotton business.

That we own the largest compress and the most extensive and best equipped warehouses in the South, enabling us to have direct supervision over every bale of cotton from the time we receive it until we sell it.

That our business has steadily increased from year to year until we are receiving shipments of cotton from every County in the State and the Territories where cotton is cultivated.

That our books show the names of cotton shippers that for 25 consecutive years have never sold a bale of cotton in the country.

That we would not continue to ask for shipments of cotton unless we had produced results that have satisfied thousands of shippers and made them permanent customers.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Nacogdoches, Tex., Oct. 3, 1903.

We have this day leased the Daily and Weekly Sentinel to S. W. Blount, Jno. T. Garrison, W. M. Imboden, June C. Harris, and others, until further notice. Respectfully,
HALTOM & HALTOM.

OUR POSITION.

Strike till the last Saloon expires;
Strike for your altars and your fires;
Strike for the green graves of your Sires;
For God and Native Land.

The Sentinel is in the hands of an orderly, organized, mustered in, armed, officered, ready-for-battle Regiment of Nacogdoches county yeomanry.

The Haltoms have done well; they need rest, recreation, and a good time, and we are giving it to them.

The Soldierly now in charge of The Sentinel make no apology for the paper nor for their present relation to it. They come from all parts of Nacogdoches county, and there isn't flunky nor a quitter in their army.

It's the saloon we are after. 'Tis the saloon we are going to see go from Nacogdoches county.

The mighty will of the sovereign people by a vote of more than two to one in an election confessedly honest, fair and square so decreed, and by the eternal it shall be so, and that without delay, without hindrance, without halting without parleying as to the manner of their going.

The thing is go, and go they will at the appointed time.

He who dallies is a dastard; He who doubts is damned. This is not a government by injunction; never has been, and never can be.

While our district court was in session with a just Judge, learned in the law, presiding an application for an injunction was made to a Houston Judge for a writ to prevent the Haltoms from completing the publication of the proclamation of the County Judge of Nacogdoches county, declaring the result of the prohibi-

GOODBYE Saloon! And may thy shadow grow less and less and less till at last there is none at all.

WHAT'S the good of a prohibition injunction, no how less'n it fails to engine? Its failure to engine is what makes it the thing of beauty and the joy forever that we all know, it is.

ONE side of this issue of The Weekly Sentinel had been run through the press before our lease took effect and we say this in explanation of the fact that the name of Haltom & Haltom appears on that side as proprietors and editors. For verily they are not.

WHEN Gabe Scoggins made that injunction affidavit what did he mean by stating therein that Judge Hamblen was the most "accessible" Judge? Judge Simpson was holding court here when Scoggins left town for Houston and was holding court in the Nacogdoches court house when Scoggins made that affidavit and when it was presented to Hamblen.

WHAT right in law, in reason, or in good morals, had that Houston Judge to issue an Injunction on an entirely local matter affecting Nacogdoches county purely when at the very time he did so a District Judge was holding a session of the District Court in the Nacogdoches Court House? He did it all the same, and 'twas done in violation of the spirit of the law, against justice, truth, and all propriety. But even though he did do it, his injunction isn't worth the snap of your finger. 'Twas a piece of impertinent intermeddling that will be and is being fittingly rebuked.

WHAT think you of this? The saloonist, Gabe Scoggins, who made the affidavit upon which Judge Hamblen at Houston Friday issued his (un)gracious writ of injunction against our Nacogdoches prohibition, stated among other things in his said affidavit that Judge Davis was absent from this district and Judge Hamblen was the most accessible Judge, when the truth is, Judge Simpson was holding court in the Nacogdoches court house at the very time Judge Hamblen was asked to grant the injunction. Wouldn't it have been fine if he had just made that affidavit in Nacogdoches instead of Houston?

If Judge Hamblen was not guilty of the grossest usurpation of judicial power when he granted that injunction, what would you call it? Why did he so word it that it might not be settled finally till the coming Spring term. If, by the petition presented to him, he thought the saloon keepers entitled to protection and that there was equity in their pretense that they had not been in all things legally voted out of business, why did he not content himself with issuing a temporary restraining order so that the Judge here could determine upon a full hearing of all the facts if such was the case? His conduct we declare was a gross and outrageous usurpation of judicial power.

We hear that Judge Hamblen very much regrets that he issued that injunction. We don't doubt it. And wouldn't be the least surprised if all the engineers are not so sorry, they had to do it they don't know what to do. On the whole they are a sorry lot, anyway.

The whiskey sellers petition for injunction, every allegation in which is sworn to, says that the profits on his business is worth to him at best ten thousand dollars per annum. Now if this is true most of the saloon men in Nacogdoches county have made money enough to live on. And on this sort of allegation Judge Hamblen of Houston grants injunction.

THE whiskey seller's petition for injunction to restrain the effectiveness of local option in Nacogdoches county, alleges, among other things that the poll tax amendment to the constitution of Texas is itself unconstitutional and that thereby 1400 votes in Nacogdoches county were illegally prevented from voting, and of this number about 1400 were opposed to prohibition and would have voted against it, if allowed to vote. This allegation is sworn to as a fact, that is, that they were illegally restrained, that there were 1400 of them and of this number about 1400 would have voted against prohibition. And on this sort of stuff the convenient Judge Hamblen granted an injunction. Will it enjoin?

...of at least five election notices twelve days before the holding of a Local Option election, and the Court of Criminal appeals has held that unless as many as five notices are posted the length of time anterior to the election required by law the election is void and of no force or effect whatever. In the case of this Nacogdoches county Local Option election the thing that causes the tears to burst forth from the eyes of those saloonists who respect not two thirds majorities is that the five notices were not posted the twelve days as directed by the law, but there were seven notices (two more than the law requires) posted just precisely as the good law directs. And so it is, that in this God blessed old Anti-saloon Nacogdoches county the election was ordered and was held in strict accordance with the law of the land; and dunt yer ferget et. It is possible that one or more of those notices may have been torn down by one of those imps of the devil who is without respect for the constitutionally expressed will of an overwhelming majority of Nacogdoches county voters, but that does not alter the situation in the slightest degree. The courts have uniformly held that it matters not what happens to the notices after they are posted. The test is: Were they posted? If so that is all sufficient. Our Nacogdoches prohibition is all right; it is the blown-in-the-bottle variety; iron bound, copper lined, brass rimmed and hickory handled; all wool and a yard wide, and warranted not to bag at the knee, stump at the toe, rip at the seat or tear at the heel. More than all of this: It is the prohibition that will prohibit.

THE whiskey sellers petition for injunction alleges that the elections held in Boxes No. 1 and No. 12 (in the Court House) were illegal because the Court house was not situated in either precinct, the several voting precincts cornering near the Court House and the Court house being the place designated by the Commissioners Court for holding all elections in said precincts. This very question has been decided by the Supreme Court. See 28 Southwestern Reports 452, as not affecting the legality of the election so held. And said petition for this says that it all the voters in said 2 precincts had legally cast their votes prohibition would have been defeated in the county. That is, that these two precincts which gave a majority of 200 for prohibition would have given more than 700 majority against it if those boxes had been selected in the said districts and not in the Court house. And Judge Hamblen therefore issued his famous ukase enjoining prohibition in Nacogdoches county.

OUR LOSS = YOUR GAIN. NOW ON.

Cash is a mighty factor in every channel of trade and the great procreator for the comforts of this life. It is absolutely necessary that we have some of it at all times. Cash this fall is scarce as a result of the short cotton yield and as a matter of fact, and economy, the little there is to spend should be made to do for all the utmost of its buying capacity. We made contracts when the prospects were very bright for an immense fall trade for more goods than we now can sell at our regular prices, even though they are the lowest, and the RESULT is we are forced to inaugurate the most stupendous and unparalleled Sale, ever known in Nacogdoches, on new stylish, seasonable merchandise; fresh from the looms to our store at prices less, in many instances, than wholesale and at a time when the goods are most generally wanted, thereby extending the benefits to the greatest number of our friends and customers. No limit will be placed on your purchases and nothing will be held in reserve, all must go.

MISTROT BROS & COMPANY.

BIG MILL FAILURE.
Turner Lumber Company Now in the Hands of a Receiver.
The Turner & Nabors Lum- ber Company, of Beaumont, are of the biggest saw mill- ing concerns of the section has gone into the hands of a re- ceiver for the benefit of credi- tors. The company has been operating a number of saw mills all along the line of the T. & N. O. and other roads between here and Beaumont, and recently took charge of the Jeans mill about four miles south from Nacogdo- ches. There are several credi- tors in Nacogdoches, amount- ing in the aggregate to several hundred dollars, but none of them are seriously effected. The failure of these people was a great surprise to Nac- ogdoches people, it being generally understood that there was unusual life and activity in lumber circles and that the mills were doing a thriving business.
The receivership was grant- ed by Judge Pope of the Beaumont district court on ap- plication of W. H. Turner, a member of the firm, J. B. Hooks being appointed re- ceiver.

THAT puny imp of satan who tore down one or all of those election notices may have supposed he was invali- dating the prohibition election then about to be held—and doubtless the poor fool did not know that the courts have invariably held that it is wholly immaterial whether the notices are torn down or not, that what the law requires is that the notices shall be post- ed twelve days preceding, and that when they are posted twelve days prior to the elec- tion the law in that respect has been fully complied wit- and the election perfectly valid entirely irrespective of whether miscreants tear down the notices or not. So when the County Attorney proves by the good men that he will prove it by that seven notices were posted twelve days be- fore the holding of the election we would like to see the color of the Sun-of-a-gun's eye who will swear they were not. Our prohibition will prohibit,

DOINGS AT DOUGLASS.
The Local News Gathered from the West End.
Douglass, Oct. 5.—It is raining this morning.
Prof. and Mrs. O. P. Coats have returned from their brid- al tour and Prof. Coats open- ed his school this morning and we hope for a profitable ses- sion.
Mr. T. B. Paine took pos- session of the postoffice at this place this morning as suc- cessor to Miss Bobbie Leon- ard, who was forced to retire on account of ill health.
For the past week we have been enjoying a profitable meeting. Bro. Self and Brown began the meeting, but were forced to go away to appoint- ments elsewhere. Bro. Low- erty is continuing the services. The Christians have been re- vived and many sinners con- verted. There will be ser- vices tonight.
Mr. Bob King left yester- day for Omen, where he will enter school.
Mr. J. F. Bingham left sev- eral days ago for Arlington, where he expects soon to take his family and make his future home.

Mr. A. A. Wortham is about recovered from a long and tedious illness.
Mr. George and Beatris Campbell came out from Nac- ogdoches Saturday p. m. and attended church while here. We are always glad to see them.
Messrs. Willie Watkins, Joe Russell and Jim. Thomas, of Aito, were visitors in our town yesterday.
Mr. J. J. Watkins got back from Court Friday, feeling very much indisposed.
Miss Mollie Choate, of Nat. has been the guest of Miss Lennie Paine for the past few days.
Miss Cora Murphey is visit- ing friends at Sacul, at this writing.
The people of Nacogdoches county adopted prohibition be- cause they had the constitu- tional right to adopt it, and having adopted it they are go- ing to have it because they have the constitutional right to have it. All whiskey jud- ges take notice!

Court Notes.
From Saturday's Daily:
Judge Simpson returned to Tyler yesterday, after adjourn- ing court for the remainder of the week.
The grand jury took a recess yesterday until the 19th inst., when they will resume the present session.
W. O. Ridly, charged with assault to rape was convicted yesterday and sentenced to ten years confinement in the penitentiary.
Two of the cases against Ed Kendrick were tried this week resulting in a hung jury in both cases. The third case will come up the early part of next week, the latter being on the charge of shooting Luther Swift.
Lost.
Several hundred dollars worth of notes. May have put them in somebody's safe for safekeeping. Will thank person in possession of them for information and return of same. C. G. Monzingo.
Go to Appleby for a goo education. Prof. G. M. Hale has the school there this ses- sion.

The whiskey men's petition for a junction alleges (and such allegation is sworn to) that the Judge of this district is absent and that Hamblen is the most "accessible" Judge, when dur- ing the whole last week Judge Simpson was here on the bench in 200 yds of Seagrains' saloon, and of the other saloons in town. Yet who doubts that Judge Hamblen of Houston was the most "accessible" Judge. Has Judge Hamblen been imposed upon or is he endeavoring to impose upon the people of this and other counties?
The Nacogdoches county prohibition election was held with the most perfect regular- ty. Every notice, every or- der, everything required by law has been and will be done in the utmost and most exact accord with the law. There has not been and will not be an irregular detail when the time is up, and the saloon must go.
We will buy your scrip and sell you Drugs and Jewelry cheaper. Stripling, Hasel- wood & Co.

WEDNESDAY'S LOCALS.

Wm. Butler, of Woden, was trading in the city today.

Mr. S. W. Blount is home again from a short business trip.

Nobody puts soul into his work as much as a shoe maker.

We got the rain this morning and it was very welcome.

Perry Eddings, of Lufkin, was in the city several hours today.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomason returned to their home in Center this morning.

Taylor Dean and brother, of Attoyac, were trading in town this morning.

Rev. Geo. L. Crockett left for his home in San Augustine this morning.

About half the people in Nacogdoches are planning to attend the Dallas Fair.

L. C. Brown, of Martinsville, is in the city this afternoon on a trading trip.

Prof. F. W. Malley came down from Garrison at noon and spent a few hours in the city this afternoon.

J. A. Sloan, the well known representative of the Galveston News, is in the city today on his usual trip.

Mrs. Ellen Day, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Anna Paine, in the city, the past two weeks, returned to her home in San Augustine today.

Mr. G. W. Carter, editor of the Timpson Star, was in the city yesterday afternoon on his return from Cushing, where he has been prospecting with a view to establishing a newspaper.

The rain has already shown the good results from working the road, but it betrayed that the sidewalks are full of holes and need gravel. They just turned to dust and blew away during the dry spell.

J. F. Baucom who left a few days ago for western Texas for his health, was compelled to abandon his idea of going to Laredo, on account of yellow fever which is raging there and he is at San Marcos for the present.

How much wool is produced annually in the United States? is a question in the query column of an exchange. Enough for the Republicans to pull over the eyes of the Democrats of the country every election.

Mr. Hal Tucker collided with an electric fan yesterday afternoon with the result that he has a cut lip, and the fan is minus a blade, which was snapped off short. It looks as though the fan came off second best, but it really was a narrow escape, for those fans are terribly powerful.

The annual anxious inquirer who wants to know how to tell mush rooms, is again appearing in the columns of the press. Don't tell 'em; keep as far from them as possible. They taste like corks stewed in dish water when they are genuine, and probably much worse when they are not.

The mad dog killed on North street yesterday evening bit among other dogs the pretty little brown and white spaniel belonging to Mrs. Loyd Bowers. The animal is a pet with every one on the street, and as the dog killed was only a "suspect" will be kept up to see whether it takes hydrophobia or not.

There is some talk of Nacogdoches and Beaumont parties digging a deep hole at Oil City soon, and a strong probability that it will be done. Heretofore the oil struck has been surface oil, and there is hardly a doubt that if a well was sunk 2000 or 2500 feet that a gusher would be struck.

Husband and Wife Disagree.

Husband and wife often disagree about some matters that concerns each other and frequently the husband finds that his wife's judgement is the best, the case of Mr. John W. Young, of Lincoln, Ill., is however an exception, he says: "My wife and I both had a severe cold and we decided to get some kind of medicine. I bought myself a bottle of Harts' Honey and Horehound and taking it as directed was well in a short time. She wanted another kind and with the result that she still had a cough. I advised her to take Harts' Honey and Horehound and think she will have to do so if she gets well this winter." Sold by Perkins Bros. druggist.

The continued dusty weather delayed the fall opening at Mayer and Schmidts Millinery department, but contrary to their expectations they have been so busy and had so great a demand for hats that they have had to duplicate many orders, and get in a new consignment of street and shirt waist hats. Their stock is now complete in all styles, and announcement of their opening will be made in the next few days. In the meantime, all the ladies are invited to call at any time. They will be as well suited in style and becomingness as though they purchased their fall millinery in New York.

From Well Known Publisher.

Our readers will be interested in the statement of Mr. John Edmond, editor of the Daily and Weekly Courier at Lincoln, Illinois. He says: "I have long been a sufferer from constitutional constipation and have used Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup. I found it an agreeable medicine and just the thing for men engaged in sedentary pursuits. I take pleasure in recommending Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup as safe and effective, without any griping and nauseating effects common to similar remedies. Sold by Perkins Bros. druggist.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation, which will be found in another page of this paper, ordering the death and destruction of all dogs running loose and unmuzzled after the 3rd of Oct. Those having fine dogs please take notice.

"Watch the Kidneys."

"When they are affected, life is in danger," says Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys. Sold by Perkins Bros.

THURSDAY'S LOCALS.

E. A. Davis, Esq., of San Augustine, is in attendance at district court.

Uncle Love Legg, of Eden, was in the city today on a business trip.

Wallace Ireson is very sick with fever at his home on South Fredonia street.

Bob Haney, of Appleby, was in Nacogdoches this morning selling cotton and trading.

A large force of hands began clearing on the Hayward mill grounds this morning.

The Shakespeare Club meets tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. Steve King.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and Miss Tommie Murph left this afternoon for Dallas to attend the fair.

W. J. Garrett, the County Clerk of San Augustine county, is visiting relatives in Nacogdoches.

Dr. W. H. Campbell, now located in Trawick, is spending a few days in the city with his family.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the lectures at the opera house tomorrow night at eight o'clock.

The first murder case to be tried at this term of district court is that of Barney Roberts, set for next Thursday, Oct. 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Floyd have returned from Marlin, where they spent the past month for the benefit of Mr. Floyd's health.

Zeno Cox Sr., began today with Jno. W. Davis as salesman. He came up from his farm on the Angelina yesterday.

From information obtained from visitors to the city from distant parts of the county, the rains of the past two days have been general.

Mrs. R. W. Haltom and children, Master Maury and Miss Ruby, went to Dallas this afternoon to take in the State Fair for a few days.

Today is the Jewish Day of atonement and most of their places of business are closed. They fast from six o'clock yesterday afternoon to six this afternoon.

Mr. Hartman, the restaurant man, moved from the Harry May place on South Fredonia street today to his new home out on Logans port street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Whitaker and Mrs. E. B. Williams and little daughter Banita, took the afternoon train for Dallas today and will spend a few days at the Fair.

The editor is "slap kerdab" out of stove wood. Wonder what has become of all those subscribers who made us promise to take a load of wood before they would subscribe for the Weekly Sentinel?

J. J. Kline, the popular and well known drummer, of Shreveport, spent yesterday in the city. Mr. Kline is a great favorite with the boys and numbers them by scores as his friends wherever he goes.

C. B. Smith, a lessee of Nacogdoches today, busy with stock and looking after business generally. Mr. Smith has one of the largest sugar refineries in this section and farms on a large scale.

"The Wrecker."

Dyspepsia is the wrecker of homes, it destroys happiness, business, and has added more to the sum of human misery than war and pestilence combined. Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup cures dyspepsia and what is better, prevents dyspepsia. Sold by Perkins Bros. druggist.

Mrs. Edgar Wade has been in the city the last few days, seeing that their household effects were being packed for shipping to Sacul to their new home. Mrs. Wade left today for their new home. Mr. Wade has been in Sacul for two or three weeks.

Open Your Mouth.

And swallow one. Cheatham's Laxative Chill tablets combines all the qualities of the best liquid chill tonics. Dose always ready. Dose always the same. No cure—no pay.

Charley Thompson, who moved from Nacogdoches to Center, while doing well over there, still seems partial to Nacogdoches. He has not given up all interests he holds here and we expect some day to welcome him back to our citizenship. He spent several days here this week, in company with his wife, returning to Center yesterday.

Devoured By Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from inattention, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermitige will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at Perkins Bros.

Must Be an Anti.

The Kahn Liquor company of Shreveport is using printers ink extensively to increase its business and we notice that it has placed a bold half page ad in the Shreveport Times special edition, right under the Center, Texas special write up. These little Texas prohibition towns like Center have made Kahn, and other Shreveport liquor sellers immensely wealthy, and they can well afford to spend money on advertising to hold their trade.—Center News.

The Government Inspectors.

Are keeping in close touch with the doings of the food manufacturers, and it is right as a protection to the users. The public is induced often to use the preparations that are injurious to health. Harts' Honey and Horehound is a certain remedy for coughs and colds, contains no opiates or other injurious ingredients. Sold by Perkins Bros.

WOLCOTT WAS VICTORIOUS.

Achieves a Complete Victory in Republican Organization.

Denver, Sept. 29.—Former United States Senator Edward O. Wolcott won a decisive victory today in the contest before the republican state central committee between the rival factions in this city, and afterwards in the state convention, the committee by a vote of 71 to 18 placed the Wolcott delegates on the temporary roll call of the convention and the convention by unanimous vote made the temporary roll call permanent. No opportunity was given the anti Wolcott delegation to make a contest before the convention.

Mr. Wolcott was chosen temporary chairman without opposition and in a carefully prepared speech he criticized his opponents in the party and pleaded for harmony. A strongly worded resolution endorsing President Roosevelt for re-election was unanimously adopted without reference to the committee on resolutions. Only one office, that of justice of the supreme court, is to be filled this year, and for this chief justiceship John Campbell was honored with renomination by acclamation.

Struck by a Jack Rabbit.

Last Friday Mr. T S James of the Cartwright Ranch, was in his field picking cotton and his wife went into the field to keep him company and to pick a little also. While she was sitting down something hit her with the force of a pile driver and knocked her breathless. Her husband ran to her assistance and found that that a jack rabbit, running for life, had run against her. The rabbit was stunned by the force of the impact and was lying helpless on the ground, and Mr. James kicked the life out of it and then carried his wife to the house. She was painfully but not seriously hurt.—Kaufman Sun.

Scalded to Death.

From Thursday's Daily: Mr. E. R. Ashley received a telegram yesterday from Lincum, La., bearing the sad news that his son, W. E. Ashley, had been badly scalded in a boiler explosion at a mill at that place. This morning he received another message that his son died yesterday at 3 o'clock. The remains will be shipped here for interment and will be buried in the Christian cemetery, near Lola, tomorrow afternoon.

Grateful Book-keeper.

Mr. Steve Schilling, a book-keeper of Lincoln, Ill., states: "As a user of Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup I wish in a small way to show my gratitude for the good as done me. I have been a sufferer from constipation and my digestion has been impaired, heartburn and sometimes sick headaches and biliousness. Since I began taking Re-Go Tonic Laxative Syrup I have had none of these troubles. The Laxative effect is truly the most pleasant that I have ever experienced, mild but sure, without the griping effect so common with many such remedies. Re-Go is certainly a wonder. Sold by Perkins Bros.

W. F. Price came in today for a short time.

SIXTY EARS TO THE BUSHEL.

The Fine Corn at Stone Fort National Bank Brought Five Dollars.

The Stone Fort National Bank held a corn auction yesterday afternoon, and sold the corn which had been brought in to compete for the five dollar prize offered by them for the best specimen of corn raised in Nacogdoches county. The prize was won by R. T. Fante living near this city. Messrs. Eli Russell, Jim Weaver and Andres Flores, being the judges. The specimens that had been brought in by various parties, were shelled, fiftysix ears making 52 pounds, the average corn shelling 120 ears to the bushel. The corn was then auctioned off, the bidding being spirited. Mr. Chas. Hoya bought it in for five dollars. A number of people were present, and the collection of samples from all sections of the country was declared to be as fine a lot of corn as was ever seen. Chas. Hoya will have a splendid corn patch next year if he plants that seed. The Stone Fort National Bank donated the money received from the sale to the road and bridge fund of the county. The contest has done much toward making the resources of the county known to outsiders, it has been of great interest to the farmers, and led them to experiment with this crop more than ever before, and the public spirit of the Stone Fort National Bank in the matter has been of much value to the county.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunk, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed at Stripling, Haselwood & Co.'s drug store.

Made the Only Talk.

We learn that Mr. Prince, of Nacogdoches gave a very interesting talk on the question of growing tobacco last Saturday during the session of the farmers Institute, in fact our reporter says that was about the only question that was discussed. Next meeting will be held in Rusk on Saturday, Dec. 5, the Reformer will have a special reporter there and we hope to meet a large attendance.—Jacksonville Reformer.

"Goaded" the Snake Editor.

Mr. Elebert Summers presented the snake editor of the Sentinel office yesterday with a most astonishing gourd. It is five feet in length and something less than four inches in diameter, being a dipper gourd that some how missed the combination and came to the conclusion that length would make up for breadth; a mistaken idea that some lecturers are possessed of.

The snake editor was deeply touched and grateful for the gift, which will do as a receptacle for column rules, or yard sticks or most anything else. Mr. Summers made a most impressive presentation speech which he spoke modestly of the care with which he had watched that gourd grow, and that he brought it to protect the snake editor from the reptiles, as it is well known that snakes will not remain near gourds or gourd vines. And the snake editor remarked in return that the man whose head resembled that gourd would be pretty long headed.

It was an affecting scene and the office was almost in tears before the incident closed.

Estray Notice.

The Snake Editor.

"Well you've done it at last," blazed the sporting editor coming in this morning as though he had been shot out of a cannon, and speaking to the snake editor. "What did you say that the boys caught a fox for the first time Monday night, in yesterday's paper and have the whole gang raising a rough house with me for?"

"I thought it so nice and tender hearted of the boys not to kill the fox every time," rejoined the snake editor calmly. "Fox hunting is noble sport when they spare the frightened animal at the last, but sixteen men and twenty-five dogs looks to me like an unfair proposition against one poor little terrified reynard."

"There you go, wandering from the subject as usual," stormed the sporting editor. "This is the 22nd fox they have caught and what they said to me when they read your local, was a plenty."

"Yes and put it in the local column, so they'd think it was me, instead of signing your name so they'd know it wasn't so," added the city editor reproachfully.

"And rendered the office liable to a damage suit," said the chief severely. "I was told that that article of yours spoilt the sale of four hounds at a hundred dollars a piece."

"Oh" said the snake editor desperately. Then giving one despairing look at the unfriendly frowns around him he jammed his hat on the back of his head, dashed out into the pitiless storm and was lost.

"I would have bought those hound pups myself if I'd have known we had hurt him thus," murmured the chief regretfully.

"Huh," said the office boy, "this is Weekly press day and he has gotten out of working again."

Cotton in Far West.

Waxahachie, Texas, Sept. 29.—H. A. Pierce of Waxahachie, who owns a large ranch in West Texas, arrived home last night from a stay of several weeks on his ranch. He brought with him several stalks of cotton that were grown by him this year in Hockley county, being the first cotton ever planted in that part of the state. Mr. Pierce has in 10 acres and he thinks he will gather at least a half bale to the acre. The stalks brought here compare favorably with the black land plant and were well loaded with bolls, a great many of them being open. Mr. Pierce says grass is good on the range and that cattle are fattening right along.

Mr. W. T. Lloyd, who has charge of the Jones & Loyd well near Woden, was in the city this morning. He reports slow progress on his well during the past few weeks, owing to trouble he is having with casing. He says he had very encouraging prospects at the time he quit drilling and thinks he will make an oil strike very soon after he overcomes his present difficulties.

ORDER OF THE COMMISSIONER'S COURT DECLARING THE RESULT OF PROHIBITION ELECTION.

Whereas on the fourteenth day of September 1903, the Commissioner's court of Nacogdoches county passed the following order to wit:

"Nacogdoches, Texas,
Sept. 14, 1903.

This day the court met in special session, all members being present, and proceeded to open the polls, and count the votes of an election held throughout Nacogdoches county Texas, on the 3rd day of September 1903, for the purpose of determining whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors should be prohibited in said county, and it appearing to the court that said election was held in conformity to the laws of the state of Texas, and the court having counted the votes, find that seventeen hundred and thirty six votes were cast "For Prohibition," and that seven hundred and ninety five votes were cast "Against Prohibition," and that a majority of the votes are "For Prohibition;" it is therefore declared by the court and so ordered that the sale of intoxicating liquors is absolutely prohibited in said Nacogdoches county, except for the purposes, and under the regulations specified in the laws of the State of Texas, until such time as the qualified voters of said county of Nacogdoches, may at a legal election held for that purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise."

Therefore I, Robert Berger, County Judge of Nacogdoches county, Texas, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of said order passed by the Commissioner's court, as aforesaid and that after the publication of the same for four successive weeks, in the Nacogdoches Sentinel, a weekly newspaper published in Nacogdoches county, said order shall then be in full force and effect.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Nacogdoches this the 14th day of September 1903.

ROBERT BERGER,
Co. Judge, Nacogdoches Co., Tex.
Attested by E. M. WEEKS,
County Clerk of Nacogdoches county, Texas with the Seal of said court affixed by B. J. Ivey, Deputy.

We Said

Last week something about shoes, coffee and tobacco. We want to make a few remarks about some other goods that we have. We are headquarters for hosiery, have a large stock on hand and can do you good in this line and in winter underwear for ladies and gentlemen. We are still selling crockery and glass ware at way down low. We can also furnish you with all the tinware you need and you will not grumble at the price. We have in stock a large lot of stationery, clocks, shirts, pants and well we can't tell you all of it, you will have to come and see what we have, as we have about five hundred different kinds of goods that we are anxious to sell at small profit. Without making a big blow about it, we can show you better than we can tell you. See that you get your tickets for the amount that you purchase, as we are still giving the beautiful decorated ware as premiums. Come. C. W. Butt.

I have opened up a cotton yard on the lot formerly occupied by Will Taylor, and solicit the patronage of the public. I have just received a new pair of Fairbanks scales and can guarantee correct weights. Lawrence Clark.

A complete stock of all kinds of farm wagons. Special low prices will be made on a few Bain wagons.
