A Short Talk on a Grave Subject

Druggists as a rule don't go much on graveyards. No doubt they all get there in the end same as other people, but we mean during life. In his leisure hours [if he has any] the druggist seldom puts in his time in the graveyard. If he is out for a stroll he is more likely to turn his steps away from it. This is usually for one of two reasons. If he is a good druggist and understands his business he regards the graveyard as a sort of enemy which he is fighting all the time trying to keep his customers out of it. If he is a dealer who thinks more of his profits than his customers, he fights shy of the graveyard for conscience sake; remorse perhaps for having substituted something cheap in filling prescriptions for the deceased. We have as much antipathy for graveyards as most druggists, not because our conscience troubles us. We stay away because it makes us feel bad. We are always sorry when one of our friends and customers is called to "the life beyond," but if we had anything to do with his last illness our conscience is clear. We filled the prescription exactly as the doctor ordered. It is our duty to fill prescriptions. It is our principle and invariable rule to fill them exactly as ordered and we never let the work be done by inexperienced help. We use the right drugs, the right proportions and of the quality the doctor expects; with this our duty is done. Bring your prescriptions to us where you get what the doctor wants you to have.

PERKINS BROS.

TWO CROPS OF CORN.

Gathered From the Same Ground This Year.

Messrs. Lindsey & Harris have on exhibition two well matured ears of corn that are from the second crop grown on the same ground this year. On March 1st, Wm Stewart, a farmer living four miles south of town planted a crop of corn on a few acres, which matured, ripened and gathered on June 15th. On the same day Mr. Stewart ploughed up the patch and planted it in June corn, which is now matured and will be gathered Sept. 1st. The second crop, while not as large in ear, is well developed and might be called a splendid crop, especially considering that not an ounce of fertilizer was used for either crop. Mr. Stewart will plant the same ground again in some quick maturing crop when he gathers the present crop of corn and will then make three crops this year from the same piece of ground which is the ordinary sandy up land, and entirely without fertilizing.

THE GINNING SEASON.

The Clevenger gin has been overhauled and put in first-class repair for the present ginning season. Thanking you for your liberal patronage in the past and soliciting a continuance of same, assuring you that it will be appreciated.

Respectfully,
Hayden Clevenger.

Notice.

I will buy cotton seed for the Merchants & Planters Oil Co., of Houston, during the present season and will be glad to bid on your seed before you sell.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

A. F. Beckham Shot From Ambush at Patroon.

Special to The Sentinel.

Center, Tex. Aug. 20.—A. F. Beckham, a substantial citizen of Shelby county, was shot by an unknown party early last night while sitting in the midst of his family. The shot was fired from the outside of his residence through a window, the weapon used being a pistol. The bullet struck the unfortunate victim in the side passing through the body. A runner was sent immediately to Center for the doctor, and at last report Mr. Beckham was still alive though in a critical condition with little hope for his life. There is no clue to the assassin, and the wounded man claims that he has no knowledge of the existence of an enemy who would seek his life.

Take it to Barret's Cotton Yard.

Farmer friends:

I am now prepared to weigh and sample your cotton. I will occupy the same place I did last season, viz, just across the iron bridge on east side of town. I will appreciate your patronage very much and will do all in my power for your best interest. I am an experienced sampler and you can not get a good price for your cotton without a good sample, and no one can get you a fair sample of your cotton unless he knows just how to draw it. I have made arrangements with a good firm in our state where I can ship your cotton if prices you are offered here do not suit you and can get within $5.00 per bale advanced on it what the market value of your cotton is on day of shipment and if your cotton is shipped I will put it in the best market in our state and you will only have to pay 25 cents per month for the use of the money and this will cover insurance and your cotton will be fully protected from all danger of fire. Thanking you one and all for past patronage, I am,

Yours truly,
Jim Barret.

The county commissioners finished their work Friday and adjourned after a two weeks' term, lacking one day. The prolonged session is due to the heavy task of going over tax rolls of the assessor, which of course were found right up to the dot. Very little was done except the passings upon the tax rolls, allowing accounts and receiving reports of officers, road overseers, etc.

Hale, at Appleby, has furnished more teachers than all the schools of the county.

JOE WEAVER KILLED.

Shot Dead by Will Whitaker at Douglass.

From Tuesday's Daily:

Joe Weaver was shot late yesterday afternoon by Will Whitaker at Douglass. Both are colored. The killing grew out of the interruption of a game of ball by Weaver in which Whitaker was interested. It appears that the game had interfered with the affairs of Weaver by taking some boys away from their work to play ball and that he went out and took possession of the paraphernalia. For this Whitaker became enraged and he rushed up to Weaver and shot him down. Whitaker came at once to Nacogdoches and voluntarily surrendered to Sheriff Spradley and is now in jail.

The shooting occurred near 4 o'clock and Weaver died at 7:30 in the evening. It is alleged that the killing was almost a coldblooded murder, as Weaver was only endeavoring to get his boys to return to the field and help him tie up some fodder before night.

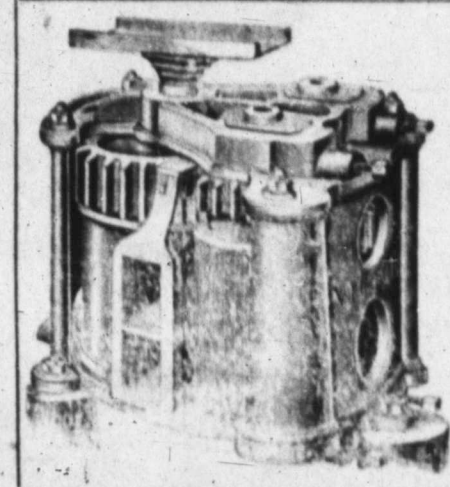

By an oversight only the grand jury and petit jury for the first week of district court are given this issue. Lists of second, third and fourth weeks will be given next week.

W. F. Martin, of Attoyac, was in the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to western points. He will leave again about the middle of September for Utica, N. Y., where he will enter Cornell University, as a student. He will leave in time to spend a week or ten days at St. Louis and visit the World's Fair. Three other Texas University boys will go to Northern Universities, as follows: C. W. Ramsdell to Columbia, with fellowship in history; J. T. McLendon to University of Pennsylvania, with fellowship in geology; Conrad S. B. Shuddemagin to Harvard, with scholarship in physics. S. R. Ashley holds Cecil Rhodes scholarship at Oxford England.

Had the Wrong Man.

Sheriff Spradley returned from La Fayette this morning but did not bring Dr. Cox back with him. The description furnished by the Sheriff who arrested the man fitted Cox so well that there was no doubt of his being the right man, but it proved different upon Sheriff Spradley's arrival at La Fayette and it turns out that Dr. Cox has not been caught as was announced.

The good news comes from Appleby that W. T. Skeeters, who was reported dangerously sick, and whose recovery had been almost despaired of, has passed the critical period and is recovering. He is now thought to be out of danger.

FROM MAHL.

Aug. 22nd—The farmers are all busy gathering their crops. Good corn crop made throughout this section.

Two weeks ago we had the best prospect for a cotton crop we have had in four years, but for the last two weeks the boll weevil has devoured the top crop. Young cotton will make scarcely anything, while those that planted early have already got a fairly good crop made.

The farmers are all turning their interest to truck raising in this community. They organized a truck growers association on August 13th with 25 joiners. Think they will have about 75 members when they all join that are going to. I think this is one of the best steps that the community has ever taken, if they will only give it a reasonable portion of their attention. They will have their meeting every 2nd and 4th Saturday.

The old depot has been moved away from here and a new one being put in its place.

Dr. Stuckey reports the health of the community distressingly good.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stuckey, of Ponta, were visiting relatives at this place Saturday and Sunday.

A nine month school will open the first Monday in October, conducted by Prof. J. L. Winder and any young man or lady desiring to fit themselves up for higher positions in life couldn't do better than to see the faculty or write the teacher.

A crowd composed of W. H. Stuckey, W. E. Whitton, W. H. Stanley, Bob Stuckey and J. M. Conner left for the river this morning where they will spend a few days hunting and fishing.

Mr. C. B. Watkins took the train Saturday for St. Louis. Some of his friends expect him to return fitted up for house-keeping.

Appleby school opens Sept. 12th. It is the best school in the county for country girls and boys.

THE defenders of Port Arthur have replied to the formal Japanese demand for the surrender of the fortress by declining to do so, and now the little brown men will get busy for the final heat.

THE Foo seems to be headquarters for all those preposterous Russian lies sent out to mislead the public about the situation at Port Arthur. The work of the Chee Foo liar is enthusiastic but inartistic.

COL. G. W. BRACKENRIDGE, the San Antonio millionaire, respectfully declines to be considered as a republican candidate for a governor of Texas. The Col has a "bird" but he is too wise to tap it in a hopeless cause.

THE tax rolls of this county for the current year tell a tale not to be disputed of the growth of Nacogdoches county. The sum of $329,400 represents the increase in taxable values over the year 1903. Not a bad showing.

WHERE law is a farce and anarchy a fact is the strictly accurate characterization made by the Galveston News of that part of Georgia where a mob seized two negroes condemned to death by the law and burned them to death at the state.

TOM WATSON was notified in New York City Thursday that he was the nominee of the populist party for president and in accepting the nomination he spoke highly of both Parker and Roosevelt but "roasted" the parties they stood for with true populist fervor.

PEACE to the ashes of good old Col. Prentiss Ingraham who has just died at Beauvoir, Miss. He came out of the war a Confederate colonel, lived to write nearly a thousand novels to delight the hearts of the boys and girls of America and made a literary fame of its kind unequalled in its generation.

THE SHREVEPORT (La.) TIMES steps into Texas politics long enough to sensibly and pointedly say: "Don't worry about Hogg. He's all right. He is in the same class with Bryan. The Nebraska made a fight, lost, then supported the ticket, though he made a wry face over it. He worked off some of his spleen. Now Hogg has worked off some of his, and he will be the better for it."

EVIL communications corrupt good morals. An Indianapolis war correspondent who was shut up in Port Arthur and made his escape and returned to this country, says the Japs have lost 120,000 thus far, that Japan is denuded of men fit for soldiers and will be beaten from sheer lack of resources. The veracity of this correspondent needs a long period of separation from Russian influences before it can hope to reach the convalescent stage.

A MASTERLY SPEECH.

THREE cheers and a tiger for John Sharp Williams! He was already high in the esteem of his party and the admiration of the country generally, but since he made that speech last Tuesday at White Sulphur Springs, Va., notifying Henry G. Davis of his nomination as democratic candidate for vice-president he has mounted to first place in the affection of his party and has made even his enemies confess his genius. It was the greatest speech of the kind ever delivered on this continent—sparkling as the most brilliant jewel, irresistible in logic, copious in striking illustrations, rich in rarest humor, irony and sarcasm, strong in historical reference, a veritable masterpiece worthy of the best days of eloquence. With the bold, free, sweeping strokes of which genius alone is capable this superb deliverance has brought out all the sins and follies and crimes and weaknesses and arrant hypocrisies and preposterous cant of the republican party and the strenuous humbuggery of its leader in the White House, and grouped them so effectively and in so clear a light that it cannot fail to appeal most powerfully to the country and is sure to make democratic votes wherever reason and conscience prevail. Williams is a uniquely great man, the only one of his kind, and there's nothing too good for him.

THE SENTINEL has received from Mr. Herbert S. Stone, chief of the department of publicity of the Philippine exposition at the World's Fair a beautiful little booklet copiously illustrated and elaborately describing the wonderful Philippine display at the fair. This display occupies forty-seven acres of ground and to see it is about as good as a visit to the Philippine Islands. It alone is worth a trip to the big fair.

HON. GEORGE F. HOAR, the distinguished United States Senator from Massachusetts, is reported to be dying at his home at Worcester in that state. He is about the last of the really great republican senators—a wise old man, gentle, kindly, tolerant, philosophic and eloquent, and among democrats no less than republicans he is profoundly respected for his personal virtues and the stainless integrity of his long political life.

IN combating the position of the Sentinel that political convictions have not yet been driven from daily newspaper offices by sordid commercialism the Tyler Courier says: "Why, these are the days of commercialism and political convictions are not considered any more. You remember that Judge Parker's strength before the national convention was embodied in the fact that the people did not know anything whatever of his political convictions." On the contrary his strength was in the perfectly well known fact that he was a lifelong democrat of the Jeffersonian school, that he voted for Bryan both times and that he was the highest type of a man personally in whose private life and record a hostile and argus-eyed republican press could discover no disqualifying blemish. The nomination of Judge Parker was the triumph of anti-commercialism in the politics of this era.

LABOR day, Sept. 5th, will be celebrated in Houston with ex-Governor Hogg as the big drawing feature of the occasion. In response to an invitation by the Houston Labor Council he has consented to be present and deliver an address. He is so much in the public eye just now that he can be sure of an eagerly attentive audience when he talks on Labor Day.

THE World's Fair at St. Louis will not show a shortage in attendance because of any fault of the people of Texas. The Texans seem to be rolling in there by the hundreds every day. They are taking lots of money out of the state but they are putting it into education, for only a man short on gray matter can fail to shed his provincialism and enlarge his mind if he stays long enough with the St. Louis show.

THE last issue of State Topics announces that Jeff McLenore has associated Mr. Lon Wasson, a very strong writer, with him in the publication of the paper, which is to be enlarged and improved and hereafter published by State Topics company. Jeff is a free lance in the journalism of Texas and while he may not always be right he rarely fails to be interesting, and we are glad to know that State Topics gives assurance of being a permanent institution.

TWENTY-SIX delegates from the truck and fruit growing district of East and Central Texas left Wednesday for California where they go charged with the important mission of thoroughly investigating the California method of handling fruit and truck and getting it to market on the most advantageous terms. California has a perfect system and if our people can adopt it profits to the fruit and truck grower will be largely increased. Nacogdoches is well represented in the delegation to California and another season will probably show benefits to this section derived from the trip.

ITS enemies—or more probably, idle newspaper gossip—are trying to drag or nag the Texas Farmers' Union into politics before it is well out of its swaddling clothes. Already they have it conspiring with the State Federation of Labor to seize the ship of state, so to speak, with Jim Hogg at the helm and the democratic party, Culberson, Baffey, et al, put out of commission and sunk to the bottom of the political sea. Truly a mare's nest! The men who make up the Farmers' Union are not unmindful of what happened to the old Farmers' Alliance when it listened to the siren song of the politician, and we feel sure that they are too wise to invoke a similar ate for this new movement of the farmers of Texas. We prefer to believe that their readers are sincere when they say that the organization will devote its energies toward abolishing the mortgage system in the South; toward encouraging diversification and scientific farming; toward combining when practicable in selling the products of the farm and combining when practicable in buying such necessities as the members of the local unions are forced to buy and to the study of the best means of disposing of the farm products.

IT must have gone hard with Teddy to keep away from the G. A. R. encampment at Boston, where he would have had a glorious opportunity to spout valorous platitudes to his heart's content, and remain tamely in Washington like a little boy under discipline. The exigencies of the campaign require him to be good until election day, and as he has a bad habit of putting his foot in it when he opens his mouth his managers knew it would never do to let him go to Boston.

OUR old acquaintance, the pistol toter, still comes in for an occasional dig from the Texas press and he of course deserves all he gets and more too, but we doubt if he is now so completely the swaggering despot of unchallenged authority that he once was. The practice is now largely confined to weakminded young men who either can't read or don't read if they can, and consequently never know in what contempt they are held by men of intelligence and courage who obey the laws of their country.

GOOD old fashioned political enthusiasm, the kind they had in the days of Henry Clay is pretty nearly a thing of the past, but there is a little of it left. Capt. Edward O'Brien of Jacksonville, Fla., president of the American Pilots' Association went up to Esopus the other day, saw Judge Parker and talked to him and when he got back to Washington City he delivered himself in this wise:

"I have seen Judge Parker. I am convinced that he is the greatest statesman and politician brought forth in the last twenty-five years. All that the people have to do is to have a good look at Parker and he will win hands down."

We commend the enthusiasm but have our doubts about winning "hands down." There are too many republicans in this country to permit that.

ONE of the resolutions adopted by the county farmers' union yesterday is that the organization will aid in the effort to bring the price of cotton up to twelve cents and keep it there by withholding it from market except when the price is satisfactory. If the union could cover the entire cotton producing section of the United States it is probable that this plan would accomplish the result, but the tendency to get into politics and the consequent clash between partisan farmers destroy harmony and unity of action and brings subsequent failure. The Sentinel trusts that the union will succeed in every undertaking for the betterment of the condition of the farmer, but it will take a strong organization with no trace of politics in it to dictate prices for both selling and buying, and it cannot be possible if politics are allowed to creep in. The fate of the Farmers' Alliance should be a warning.

WHEN Bob Haltom gets to the legislature, we shall expect good roads in this part of the state. He knows the need of roads throughout East Texas.—Rusk County News.

Who is Bob Haltom, and what kind of a road system do you expect. This road problem is a good deal like Brer Rabbit's rain. It will be easy enough to get it after the people decide how they will have it, but just now there are as many ideas about good roads as there are road workers. The only good plan is to build roads by taxation, and that is not a popular one. If "Bill" Haltom succeeds in being elected to the legislature, he will surely interest himself in this road question, but it won't do to expect too much.

IN the district court at Marshall last Wednesday Judge Levy rendered a decision in a contested election case which if sustained by the supreme court will have a very material bearing upon primary election results in this state. The case before Judge Levy was a suit brought by W. L. Woodley against R. A. Martin to contest the latter's nomination for justice of the peace by the primary election on July 9th. Defendant pleaded that the court had no jurisdiction to try contests for nomination by a political party and the court sustained the plea, holding that the statutes gave no jurisdiction to try other than election cases, meaning final election to office; that a primary election is not a final election and is a political issue purely with which the court can have nothing to do.

REV. HENRY A. HODGES, an East Texas preacher, has administered a scathing rebuke to the mob spirit that should be published far and wide, for it is strong and pointed enough to get through the thickest skull in any mob of lynchers that ever assembled to brutalize and disorganize society by trampling the laws of their country under foot. Recently in Georgia a brother of Rev. Hodges with his wife and three children were cruelly murdered by a band of negroes. Two negroes suspected of the crime were arrested and it took the presence of troops to save them from a mob before they could be tried. Rev. Hodges went to Georgia to attend the trial, and in the court room thronged with an excited audience ready with the slightest encouragement to override the law and lynch the prisoners, he opened the proceedings with prayer, praying for sound minds in the jury, a Godly judgment, an unbiased verdict and for the observance of the laws. His prayer was answered and the trial was concluded in an oreery manner with a verdict of guilty. That preacher, with the strongest temptation to even join with the mob in summarily avenging the death of his murdered brother and family, proved himself a moral hero of the highest type and deserves the thanks of the whole country for the brave and effective stand he took in behalf of civilization, law and order against the proposed crime of a lawless mob.

No well informed man should feel any sympathy for Russia in the humiliation which Japan is putting on her. The big brute of a nation richly deserves all she is getting, for tyranny and cruelty and treachery and falsehood and duplicity are the qualities that have marked her career even in dealing with her own people. Russia is a monstrous anomaly in this enlightened Twentieth Century and Japan is doing God's work in thrashing her. Only through her thick hide can her heart and head be reached. We wish that a Japanese army might march to St. Petersburg, take possession of the government and hold it long enough to permit Japanese civilization to destroy Russian barbarism.

TWO negroes guilty of murdering an entire family of whites were burned at the stake in Statesboro, Ga., Tuesday after they had been tried, convicted and sentenced to death by the court. Nothing is surer than that they would have been hung if the law had been permitted to finish its work, and it is equally sure that they would have been just as dead after the hanging as they are now; and in addition their testimony would have been secured to convict other negroes suspected of complicity in the crime. The militia was overpowered by the mob to get the negroes and hundreds of people, including many boys, witnessed the awful tragedy at the stake. Doubtless a majority of these left the scene with their minds and hearts brutalized by what they had witnessed and with a profound contempt for the laws of Georgia so easily overthrown and trampled under the feet of an irresponsible mob. Meanwhile the telegraph has been busy disseminating the news of this awful affair with all its hideous and revolting details throughout every state in the Union, and now that the national campaign is on, republican politicians at the North will ring all the changes on it as a campaign text. As the democratic party of the South is held distinctly responsible by northern people for the public sentiment which permits the burning of human beings at the stake, who can say that this affair will not change enough northern votes next November to defeat the democratic nominee for president? It doesn't lie in the wit of the brightest mind on earth to figure out a gain of any kind whatever to the cause of justice and civilization from the Statesboro burning.

Rev. J. C. Judd passed through town today on his way to Nat to hold a protracted meeting. He has just closed a good revival meeting at Mt. Moriah with eight additions to the church.

Mr. W. B. McKnight, wife and mother returned yesterday from Center where they went to attend the funeral of his brother, Rev. Thomas McKnight, who died in St. Louis from the effects of a fall from a street car. The funeral took place in the city cemetery at Center Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, immediately upon the arrival of the remains at that place.

H. W. Schultz left yesterday for his home in Germany, after an absence of nearly twelve years. Mr. Schultz was a soldier in the United States army during the Philippine war and received injuries which disabled him for the remainder of his life, for which he has been granted a pension of ten dollars per month. He received a check a short time ago for four hundred dollars back pay.

Rev. S. F. Baucom, of Sacul, dropped in to see The Sentinel this morning and reports that he had just closed a splendid meeting at Cold Springs with thirteen additions to the church. He was assisted by Rev. G. W. Jefferson. This closes eleven years work of Rev. Baucom as pastor of Cold Springs and the church now numbers about two hundred members. A good new house has been built and all are working in perfect harmony. A great deal of this is owing to the splendid character of the membership.

"Teethina" always soothes and then it also cures the baby when All else has failed; and 'tis true It often saves a life for you. "Teethina" cures cholera infantum, overcomes and counteracts the effects of the summer's heat, aids digestion, regulates the bowels and costs 25c at druggists.

"WHAT'S BRED IN THE BONE. WILL OUT IN THE FLESH"

Is true of mankind as well as lower animals. We do not expect blooded stock from common sires, physical giants from dwarfs and midgets, nor well-developed, robust children from tainted ancestors and sickly parents. It is contrary to the laws of nature and heredity, which are inviolable, unchangeable and fixed.

Children not only inherit the features, form and disposition of their parents, but the mental and physical qualities, infirmities and diseases as well. That certain diseases are transmitted from parents to children, are bred in the bone and handed down from one generation to another, can not be denied, for we see evidences of it every where and every day.

SCROFULA, a disease almost as fatal as Consumption, is a disease of the blood, is bred in the bone and will out in the flesh in the form of glandular swellings, deep abscesses and sores, boils and eruptions. It affects the eyes and ears, weakens the digestion and destroys the red corpuscles and solids of the blood, resulting in emaciation, stunted growth and poorly nourished bodies.

RHEUMATISM is handed down from gouty ancestors and rheumatic parents. The acid poisons in the blood that cause the sharp, shooting pains in muscles and joints have been there may be from birth, and exposure to bad weather, night air, or cold, easterly winds only hastens the attack by exciting the acid blood. The blood must be purified and the poisons filtered out of the system in order to get relief from this painful disease.

CATARRH is something more than a cold in the head; the poison extends into the Throat and Lungs, attacks the Stomach, Kidneys and Bladder, and every part of the system. We inherit a predisposition or tendency to Catarrh, just like other blood diseases; it is bred in the bone and can not be reached with sprays and salves, but requires constitutional treatment and a thorough cleansing of the disease-tainted blood.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON is responsible for more suffering than all other diseases combined, and none is so surely transmitted from parent to child. Fearful ulcers and sores and disgusting skin eruptions often break out in infancy, and those whose blood is tainted with this awful poison are handicapped from birth, and unless the poison is eradicated carry the taint through life.

CANCEROUS ULCERS and old sores seem to pursue some families through generations, and in spite of washes, salves and ointments, continue to spread and grow because the taint is in the blood; is bred in the bone and grounded in the flesh.

Nothing but a real blood remedy like S. S. S. can reach these deeply rooted, inborn diseases. It goes to the fountain source of the trouble, uproots the old taint, drives out the poisons that have been lurking in the blood for years, and tones up the weakly constitution.

S. S. S. reaches diseases of this character that no other medicine does or can. It has been tested in thousands of cases during the nearly fifty years of its existence, and its reputation as a cure for chronic blood troubles is firmly established.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and suited to old and young and persons of delicate constitution. If you have inherited a predisposition or tendency to some family taint, the sooner you begin a course of S. S. S. the quicker and more certain the cure. The disease may develop in childhood or later on in life, but is sure to make its appearance sometime, "for what is bred in the bone will out in the flesh," as sure as you live.

Our physicians make diseases of the blood and skin a special study. Write us all about your case, and medical advice or any special information desired will cost you nothing.

Constable's Sale.

By virtue of a certain execution issued by W. D. Peevey, a justice of the peace of Precinct No. 1 of Nacogdoches county, on the 14th day of July, 1904, in a certain cause wherein B. M. Hall & Son, a firm composed of B. M. Hall and O. L. Hall, are plaintiffs and Masey Logan is defendant, in favor of said plaintiffs in the sum of $138.77, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum, from date of judgment, together with all cost of suit, that being the amount of a judgment recovered by the said B. M. Hall & Son, plaintiffs, in the Justice Court, Precinct No. 1, Nacogdoches county, on the 28th day of March, 1904, I have levied upon, and will, on the first Tuesday in September, 1904, it being the 6th day of said month, at the court house in the city of Nacogdoches, Nacogdoches county, within legal hours, proceed to sell for cash to the highest bidder all the right, title and interest of the defendant, M. Logan, in and to the following described real property, levied upon as the property of Masey Logan, to-wit: Being a part of Mathew Crawford preemption of 160 acres, abstract No. 454, about 12 miles N. E. of the city of Nacogdoches, in Nacogdoches county, Texas, and being 61 acres of same, and generally known as the Masey Logan tract of land, and bounded on the east by lands owned by J. A. Flour, Dr. Martin and E. A. Blount, and on the north by Jeff Little tract, and on the west by lands owned by plaintiffs herein and on the south by lands by T. H. Carnley home place.

The above sale to be made by me to satisfy the above described judgment for $138.77 in favor of B. M. Hall & Son, a firm composed of B. M. Hall and O. L. Hall, together with the costs of said suit, and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction thereof. T. H. Lambert, Constable Precinct No. 8, Nacogdoches County, Tex.

The first bale was received at Tyler on the 9th. It only brought ten cents a pound with a premium of twenty-five dollars. Nacogdoches beats them all.

Mrs. Jenkins Dead.

From Thursday's Daily: Mrs. J. P. Jenkins died last night at 8:30 o'clock at the family home on North Fredonia street, after a long illness with typhoid fever. She will be buried in the City Cemetery this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Jenkins was a devout member of the Baptist church and a most estimable lady, and her death is lamented by all who knew her. She was the sister of Mr. D. E. Clifton, and leaves a number of other brothers, sisters and near relatives to mourn her death, besides a husband and several children, some of them quite small.

The entire community is in sympathy with the father and children in the loss of wife and mother, the dearest of all earthly creatures.

Stop That Cough!

When a cough, a tickling or an irritation in the throat makes you feel uncomfortable, take Ballard's Horehound Syrup. Don't wait until the disease has gone beyond control, Mr and Mrs J A Anderson, 354 West 5th street, Salt Lake City, Utah, writes: "We think Ballard's Horehound Syrup is the best medicine for coughs and colds. We have used it for several years; it always gives immediate relief, is very pleasant and gives perfect satisfaction." 25c, 50c, $1. Sold by Perkins Bros.

Henderson received her first bale eight days later than Nacogdoches. The bale sold for 13 cents a pound with a premium of $40.50, and netted the grower $94.20.

It is now estimated by local merchants that the cotton crop is 15 per cent worse than at this date last year. The ravages of the boll weevil the past ten days has greatly changed the prospects.

THE boll weevil has found its way across Red river and has tackled the Arkansas crop.

JUDGE PARKER'S front porch at Rosemount promises to become as famous as McKinley's was at Canton four years ago.

THE strike of the Chicago cattle butchers has reached the stage of barbarism and brutality that makes a South American revolution seem like a pleasant social function by comparison.

THE state election occurs in Vermont the first week in September and the state election in Maine a week later. Both states have always been considered reliably republican and if they shall continue that way it will not disturb democratic calculations.

A COTTON picking machine has been invented and is in operation over in Williamson county which gathers nearly 85 per cent of the cotton in the open bolls without harming the unopened bolls. Two mules have heavy pulling in drawing the machine between the rows.

THE HOUSTON CHRONICLE agrees with The Sentinel that the barbarous and infamous crime of a Georgia mob in recently taking two condemned negro murderers from the hands of the officers and burning them at the stake may cost the democratic party the next national election.

THE secretary of the Panama Commission says he now has on file about seven thousand applications for positions of various kinds and that out of these only about one hundred have a chance of acceptance. It is a safe bet that none of this army of applicants sought a job that called for a pick and shovel.

YESTERDAY Galveston celebrated the completion of her seawall, an event of enough importance to have statewide interest. We haven't heard of railroads in this section making any special rates for the occasion, which is strange enough, for our railroads are generally alert to such opportunities to haul a crowd.

ALL things seem to work together for the good of John D. Rockefeller. It is now generally accepted that kerosene oil is the cheapest and surest way to head off the great American mosquito, and one Captain Neville, of Southwest Texas, now comes to the front with the discovery that kerosene oil sprayed on the cotton plant will so turn the stomach of the boll weevil that it will cease its ravages and go off and die with a broken heart. No wonder the baldheaded old oil king believes that he is in partnership with providence.

Under the searchlight of the press facts are being brought out concerning Roosevelt which reveal his personality in a new and most unattractive light. We all know that he is an egotist "dead stuck on himself," loving the pomp and tinsel of military life, avaricious of power and full of the firm conviction that Napoleon Bonaparte, Frederick the Great and Oliver Cromwell are more or less reincarnated in himself, but it was not suspected until quite recently that he was a deliberate slanderer and falsifier of the facts of history. Roosevelt was a writer of books before he got into national prominence, and very poor books they were which quickly dropped out of sight. One of them was the life of Thomas Benton, the famous Missouri statesman, and in this book professing to be truthful history he charged that Jefferson Davis while governor of Mississippi actively aided and abetted in repudiating certain bonds guaranteed by that state before the civil war. Mr. Davis was never governor of Mississippi; was in private life when the bonds were repudiated and used what influence he had to prevent the repudiation. Roosevelt's attention was called to these facts after his book was published, but he refused to retract the slander, and finally, after much persuasion by his friends, Mr. Davis wrote to Roosevelt and in the most courteous terms informed him fully of the inaccuracy of his statements. For reply he got a slip of paper on which Roosevelt had written the words: "Mr. Theodore Roosevelt desires no communication with Jefferson Davis." Fully convicted of the worst form of falsehood and slander he was without the manliness and moral courage to admit his error or make any attempt to rectify it, choosing instead to deliberately insult a man so great and noble even in misfortune and defeat that he would have conferred honor and dignity upon Roosevelt by selecting him as his valet. That a president of the United States should write lies of the most slanderous personal character and seek to embody them in permanent historical form is a degradation never reached by any president before; and that he should not only refuse to correct them but add insult to injury after the clear proof of his slander was presented to him by the victim himself, puts the stamp of baseness upon him too deeply to ever be effaced. We have suspected heretofore, in spite of the Booker Washington episode and his preposterous vanity and strutting, that Roosevelt was a gentleman and really a good man at heart, but what unprejudiced man, be he democrat or republican, can think, so now that he stands convicted of the foulest form of slander.

No man is better informed as to the trucking development of Texas than General Manager Trice, of the I. & G.

that within the last five years the truck and fruit shipments of the state have grown from twenty cars to seven thousand cars, bringing into Texas this year about $4,000,000. And this development is only fairly started.

It is now announced that President Diaz will certainly visit the United States this fall and that he will leave the city of Mexico October 15th, for that purpose, coming by way of El Paso, Ft. Worth and New Orleans. No potentate in Europe is the equal of Diaz as a man and ruler, and he is entitled to a big welcome all along the line when he comes.

SENATOR CULBERSON is in demand up in Maine just now where the campaign is hot, to make democratic speeches, but he pleads prior engagements in Texas as a reason for not going. We trust that senator will later on be able to do some speech making in doubtful northern states, for he is just the kind of man to reach the reason and conscience of the independent voter and convert him to the cause of Judge Parker.

THE world is accustomed to startling news nowadays but is hardly prepared for the extraordinary story which comes from Sherman in this state that a citizen of that town who was in the Spanish war has refused to accept his pension on the ground that his conscience would not permit him to take the money. With what disgust the G. A. R. must look upon this man, half freak and all sucker in its patriotic, pension-grabbing estimation! The Spanish war was worth almost what it cost to have produced one such angel.

ONE George Rice of Marietta, Ohio, thinks that he has discovered a new way to head off the Standard Oil octopus. He has just brought suit against that company for $3,000,000 damages for the alleged ruining of his oil business. He charges that the Standard Oil Company compelled railroads to charge his customers exorbitant freight rates; that the company opened grocery stores to break down his competition and in other ways succeeded in taking away from him 4,000 customers, an oil refining plant worth $750,000 and a business worth $50,000 a year. This suit is brought under the interstate commerce act of 1890.

THE Grand Army of the Republic is a fraternal organization made up of Union veterans of all shades of political opinion and for that reason it has been urged in its behalf time and again that it has nothing to do with party politics. But it met in Boston the last time and Boston got in its work. Just before the encampment adjourned it passed a resolution declaring that "any modification of the voting franchise should be along lines of intelligence and fitness and not along lines of race and color." This is a direct recognition as a slap at her for daring to protect her suffrage and keep her state government in the hands of decency, honesty and intelligence. With the supreme court of the United States on her side in this issue the South has no fear of universal negro suffrage even with the G. A. R. to champion it.

THE Center papers are making much ado about somebody wanting to move from Nacogdoches to Center because house rent is too high here. The fact is rents are very moderate in Nacogdoches, considering that it is the liveliest town of its size in the state and there are about 'steven applicants for every vacant house here and the applications are always made before the house becomes vacant. Nacogdoches needs several dozen houses for rent right now at present prices.

ONE of the best signs of the returning sanity of the nation is the complaint of the prize fighting fraternity that the approaching mill between Jellreys and Monroe for the heavyweight championship is arousing little if any public interest. Roosevelt, his friend Bat Masterson, the Denver tough, the editorial staff of the Police Gazette and a few others are keenly alert to the event but the great mass of the American people are so indifferent that they don't know either the time or place of the fight.

THERE will be warm times in Ft. Worth today. The republican state convention is meeting there to put out a full state ticket and—what is most important—to settle the disputed question of whether or not Col. Cecil Lyon is "the whole thing" in Texas republicanism. The colonel apparently thinks that he is, but there be a few audacious souls disposed to think contrarywise. The ticket the republicans will put out will not have sufficient strength to even amuse the state democracy, but it's federal patronage under the national administration that Lyons and his rivals will quarrel about. Pie—federal pie and the dispensing thereof, is the milk in the cocoanut, but as Parker is going to be elected it makes no difference who wins out at Ft. Worth.

IT is a universal habit among women and girls to carry pins in their mouths in the most reckless fashion and they manifest the greatest scorn and contempt for men when the latter warn them against the foolish and dangerous practice. Here is a warning brought home to them by a press dispatch from New York City which may be more effective. It is under date of August 15th and says: "A sudden fit of sneezing has caused the death of Rose Biggio, a candy maker. The girl was dressing at her home in Roosevelt street and after the custom of her sex, had several pins in her mouth. Suddenly she was seized with an irresistible desire to sneeze.

a brass one with a black head, slipped down her throat, lodging in the trachea. An incision was made in the girl's throat and the windpipe was opened by the doctors, but in some manner the pin slipped from its position and could not be removed. A second operation followed and the same thing happened again, the pin dropping still further down, this time into the left lung. Oedema of the lung set in and the girl died in less than three days."

WE observe that many towns in Texas are adopting the sales day system and it has been so uniformly successful that the merchants and farmers are delighted with it and it is safely out of the experimental stage. Nacogdoches might as well swing into line if it wants to be up-to-date and corral the trade its competitors are reaching out for. The new system was tried in Mexia last Wednesday and a dispatch from there describes it as follows:

"Yesterday was sales day in Mexia, and it was pronounced a big success. It was the first sales day held here, and many of our people regarded it as an experiment, but they are now ready to pronounce it a successful one. There was a large crowd in town and business was good in most lines, although cotton has not yet commenced to come in enough to make much of a change in business. Prizes were awarded for the best cotton, corn, oats, cane, peanuts, potatoes, peaches, apples, hogs, horses, mules, chickens, butter, preserves, honey, and everything else raised on the farm, and the exhibits were a wonder to people who did not know what this section will produce. The exhibits were arranged in the city hall, and it looked like a regular fair in full blast. The sales days will be regular monthly affairs in future."

THE following from the Sabine (Jefferson county) News is the timely correction of a widespread error that Shelter is the father of the tobacco industry in this section. The only mistake in the article is in making Judge Helencamp a native of Cheeseland, Angelina county. He is a native of Germany. He had a brother who did business at Cheeseland. The News says:

"The Houston Post is lauding 'Col. Shelter' as the discoverer of the fact that East Texas is adapted to tobacco growing equal to the Cuban article. Thirty years ago a man named Helencamp raised tobacco near Nacogdoches and made and marketed cigars equal in flavor to any that 'Col. Shelter' or anybody else has made or will make from Texas or Cuban tobacco. Helencamp was born and raised at Cheeseland, an old-time cross roads postoffice in Angelina county. He was never mixed up with government expert tobacco growing, but he grew and manufactured the article, and marketed it, his patrons attesting the excellence of the goods.

When Will Haltom gets to the Legislature we shall expect good roads in this part of the state. He knows the needs of roads throughout East Texas.—Rusk County News.

We shall like to see Mr. Haltom in the Legislature, if he is a good roads advocate, and we shall further be delighted to see him securing legislation which will give East Texas the right kind of roads. For, if that part of the state gets them, then it goes without saying that other parts will get them. But he will find that road which leads to legislation, by which the state will get the right kind of highways, about the toughest one he has ever traveled. Two years ago the democratic party in its platform announced for the working of short term convicts on the public roads. If the party was ever emphatic in its commands to its legislative servants, it was that way on the occasion mentioned. But various incidents and forces combined against the legislation attempted, and it was beaten. Let Mr. Haltom first feel the thrust of the opponents of the system of working short-term convicts on the roads before he expects too much. Still, we shall see, and he may win.—Galveston News.

True, we know the need of good roads in this country and it is also true that The Sentinel has ever been an advocate of good roads and road improvement. But Haltom is not making the road issue a hobby upon which to get elected to the Legislature. Every member of that body from this county for years past has made some effort to improve the Nacogdoches county road law, and none of them have succeeded in giving the people a satisfactory law. It is impossible. What pleases some is objected to by others and the road question is no nearer a solution than it was ten years ago. There is only one solution to the question and the people are not yet ready for that. Building roads by taxation, under contract and using convict labor as far as practicable is the only plan. When the people of Texas are willing to do it that way we will have good roads. This plan is working successfully in other states, why not in Texas?

THE controversy over the refusal of the postoffice department to name a hamlet in Mississippi after Governor Vardeman of that state has brought out very clearly the fact that the people of Mississippi for the first time in their history have elected a governor who is not even a gentleman. Vardeman confesses that before his election he wrote for his paper the brutal and indecent article concerning the mother of President Roosevelt which induced the action of the postoffice department. The longhaired executive of Mississippi is a weak imitation of the late W. C. Brann of this state without Brann's genius and culture.

An Attempt to Kidnap.

One day first week Master August Schmidt, the 12-year old son of Mr. John Schmidt of this city, who with his parents and other members of his family is now visiting in Beilville, Ill., had an exciting experience which seems to have been nothing less than an attempt to kidnap him. He was standing in front of the postoffice at Beilville looking at a buggy and horse standing in the street, and the owner of the team, a stranger, invited him to take a ride. The boy accepted and got in the buggy, stating that he wanted to be put out at a certain store up the street. The man drove off at a lively gait, reached the store in question and when August stated that he wanted to get out there, the man lashed the team to a more rapid speed and kept it up, paying no attention to the protests of the boy. Master August was now thoroughly alarmed and as there was no other way to escape he threw himself out of the buggy while it was going as fast as the team could pull it. Fortunately the wheels missed him and he made his way back to town bruised and frightened but not seriously hurt. The man kept on his way and did not attempt to stop. It is known in that section that Mr. Schmidt is a wealthy man and the supposition is that an attempt was made to kidnap his son and hold him for a ransom.

After Mr. Burgess made his eloquent talk the temporary organization was organized, and quite a few names were enrolled.

The next meeting will be here next Saturday at 7 o'clock at the court house, and it is hoped that a large crowd will be in attendance.—Center News.

 output of Batson Sour Lake and Spindle Top is only forty thousand barrels a day, which is about equal to the production of one good gusher, and the supply is decreasing.
 There are now three rigs in the Nacogdoches oil field.
 There will be several more in the next thirty days. There are a number of oil men already here and others are coming on nearly every train.
 Large tracts of land are being sold to men of capital who will begin operations at once.
 There will be something doing
 on a large scale and that pretty soon.

W. N. Irwin was up from Nacogdoches Sunday to see the home folks. Mr. Irwin has charge of the Mally Nursery Co's orchard at Nacogdo-ches and is the exact man for that place. He has established quite a reputation as a successful potato grower in the past few years, and deservedly
 so. He cleared a nice amount on spuds this year at Elkhart—Garrison Gleaner.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.
 G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Sold by Perkins Bros.

Nacogdoches leads all other neighboring towns in the price and premium on the first bale. She will lead them all on the price clear through the season, too. See it she don't,

Littleton Herrin has about completed the extension to the B. M. Hall & Son building and says he is going to make an effort to organize a stock company for the purpose of manufacturing brick. In other words he wants to convert the Austin & Herrin brick plant into a stock company and operate it on a more extensive scale than heretofore.

Was in Poor Health for Years.
 Ira W. Kelley, of Mansfield, Pa., writes: "I was in poor health for two years, suffering from kidney and bladder trouble,
 and spent considerable money consulting physicians without obtaining any marked benefit,
 but was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure, and I desire to add my testimony that it may be the cause of restoring the health of others." Refuse substitutes. Perkins Bros.

We, the undersigned citizens of Chreno community, hereby tender our thanks to you for the splendid vote given our candidate for sheriff in the two primaries, which now makes him the democratic nominee for that office, and by the largest vote given any man for either the other county office. Eugene Buckner was born and raised within the limits of this voting box, and has lived here all his life. We have known him intimately from boyhood to manhood, and would especially call your attention to this fact, that out of a vote of 95 polled here in the last primary he lost only six.
 We again offer him to you,
 not alone as the democratic nominee, but as a native Nacogdoches county boy worthy to receive your support.

C. D. Mims, Esq., has moved his law office from the Perkins building to Hazel building, corner Main and Church streets, up stairs.
 Mr. Mims is now alone in the practice of law, having recently dissolved partnership with Geo. S. King, Esq. Since
 his arrival in Nacogdoches,
 Mr. Mims has built up a splendid practice, has acquired an elegant home and has thoroughly established himself as a fixture in Nacogdoches and as a lawyer, citizen and man who stands high in the estimation of the people, as his recent election to the chari-smanship of the democracy of Nacogdoches county, together with his splendid success in the practice of his profession will testify. The Sentinel delights in his achievements and bespeaks him success in all future undertakings.

War Against Consumption.
 All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague"
 that claims so many victims
 each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption.
 Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and insist upon having it. Perkins Bros.

This day personally appeared before me the undersigned authority, Robert Berger, county judge; J. W. Byrd, J. O. Thomas, R. L. Williamson, and G. L. Muckleroy, county commissioners of Nacogdoches county, who being duly sworn, state upon oath that they have complied with Art. 867, Chapter 1, Title 25 of the Revised Statutes of the State of Texas, as amended by an act of the 25th Legislature at its regular session, and that the cash and assets in the hands of J. O. Ray, treasurer of Nacogdoches county, belonging to the county, as shown by the quarterly report of said treasurer, J. O. Ray, to the August term, August 8, 1904, of the Commissioners' Court, have been fully inspected and counted by them, and after a full examination of said treasurer's quarterly report, they find the condition of the different county funds to be as follows:

For Sale.
 80 acres of land, all under fence on Logansport road 3 1-2 miles N.E. of Nacogdoches, all fresh land under good fence, 58 acres in cultivation, 20 acres in hardwood timber, 2 acres in hog pasture, 8 acres of commercial peach trees 2 years old, one six room dwelling, one two room tenant house, two wells of lasting pure water, two never failing springs, lot and cribs and one 50 foot packing shed. This farm is about one-third red sandy land, balance gray land, comparatively level, just the place for fruit and vegetables, or anything else that is raised in the South, and in one of the best neighborhoods in the county. This farm must sell in 15 days. For further information write to
J. M. Avery,
 Nacogdoches, Tex.
 R. F. D. No. 2.

Removal Notice.
 I have moved my office
 from rooms formerly occupied by Mims & King in the Perkins building to the third room in the Hazel building, where my friends and those of the public desiring my legal services will find me at all times ready for business.
C. D. Mims.

The Nacogdoches Southeastern Telephone and Telegraph company has just been organized and a charter applied for. When the latter has been received the work of constructing a telephone and telegraph line along the Nacogdoches and Southeastern Railway will begin.

L. C. Brown, of Martinsville, says he was fortunate enough to head off the boll weevil this year and has a fine prospect for a big cotton crop on his plantation. He did not buy the imported seed but was careful in selecting the seed that he planted, fertilized
 heavy and cultivated well.

Timpson's First Bale.
 The first bale of new cotton came off the government demonstration farm. It was picked and ginned yesterday, brought to town last night and sold this morning by Joe W.
 Kile, the grower. The bale weighed 470 pounds and was bought by H. Scherz for 10 3-8, a total of $48.76. A premium of $17.50 was paid to Mr. Kile, making a total of $66.26. John W. Clements weighed the bale on his brand new cotton scales and had all his books and everything ready for the cotton when it was driven into the yard.—Timp-son Times Aug. 16th.

Arrested Boot Legger.
 Janus Childress was arrested this morning and jailed on a charge of boot legging.
 There are two positive cases against Childress, both for selling whiskey to other negroes.
 It is said that Childress went to Michelli last night and bought two and a half gallons of whiskey, put up in bottles, and returned this morning and begun peddling it with impunity. His career as a boot leg-ger, however, was of short duration, as he was behind the bars within a few hours after he returned from Angelina county.

Report comes from Woden
 that a difficulty that came near being quite serious occurred at church there last night.
 The Sentinel refrains from mentioning particulars as it seems to be an affair in which jealousy got the upper hand, and all parties are of leading families and of the highest respectability.

The big engine of the Nacogdoches and Southeastern
 railroad is now hauling in logs
 for the Hayward mill in trains of ten cars at a time and making two trips a day. The mill lake will soon be filled with stock ready for a big start when put in operation.

COSTS NOTHING UNLESS CURED.

A Fair Offer Made by Stripling, Haselwood & Co to All Sufferers of Catarrh.

Stripling, Haselwood & Co are selling Hyomei on a plan that has caused considerable talk among their customers.

The plan is different from that followed by other remedies, but the remedy itself is different also. This treatment for the cure of catarrh has such an unusual record of cures that Stripling, Haselwood & Co offer to refund the money if it does not give the desired benefit. This is certainly one of the fairest offers that can be made and any one who has catarrh and does not take advantage of it is doing himself or herself an injustice.

The Hyomei treatment consists of a small hard rubber inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomei. The complete treatment costs but $1.00 and as the inhaler will last a lifetime the medicine is very inexpensive. Many people who have used it write that for the good Hyomei has done them they would willingly pay thousands of dollars.

Extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured for use with the inhaler at 50c.

Do not suffer any longer with tickling, smarting, burning, eye-watering troubles that afflict those who have catarrh. Hyomei will cure you, but if you should not find it adapted to your case, Stripling, Haselwood & Co will refund the money.

Another One.

T W Alexander, Bracken, Mo. writes: "I had a chance to purchase and use one bottle of Hunt's Lightning Oil. I think it the best liniment I ever saw." Mr. Alexander speaketh wisely and truly. 25 and 50c bottles.

Walters—Fitch.

From Thursday's Daily: Mr. C. L. Walters and Miss Minnie Fitch were married last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Fitch, on North street, Rev. W. W. Watts officiating.

The groom is the son of C. M. W. Walters of this city and is popular with a large circle of friends.

The bride is the daughter of the well known proprietor of the Nacogdoches Music Store, where she has filled the place of clerk for several years. She is extensively acquainted and is universally popular.

The Sentinel joins their host of friends in extending congratulations.

Logansport received the "first bale" last Tuesday, Aug. 19th.

New Oil Company.

Local and outside capitalists have just organized an oil company in this city for the purpose of developing certain parts of the Nacogdoches oil field and within the next thirty days this company will have some fine firstclass rigs in the field engaged in sinking wells deep enough to thoroughly test the ground. The development will be near the old Oil Springs property. The Sentinel is not at liberty just now to give the names of those interested in the new enterprise but will do so later on.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev W L Riley L.L.D., Cuba, N. Y., writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatica rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment; the first application giving my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Perkins Bros.

Arrested For Burglary.

From Thursday's Daily: Sheriff Spradley arrested a Mexican named Will Orena, alias Will Rivers, this morning on a charge of burglarizing the residence of Manues Arada, also a Mexican, near Black Jack. It is alleged that the house was entered through a window. Rivers is in jail.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E W Sullivan, prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O. T., writes June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, $1. Perkins Bros.

J. A. Spears has accepted a position with Tucker & Zeve and will henceforward be found with that firm, where he invites his friends to call and see him when in the city. During the recent campaign, as candidate for county clerk, Prof. Spears made many new acquaintances and many friends who will rejoice to know that he has secured a splendid position, though he met disappointment in the election by a very close vote.

Test Its Value.

Simmon's Liver Purifier is the most valuable remedy I ever tried for constipation and disordered liver. It does its work thoroughly, but does not gripe like most remedies of its character. I certainly recommend it whenever the opportunity occurs.—WMTomlinson, Oswego, Kan. 25c. w

Cushing paid $72.30 for her first bale Tuesday.

A-Sad Death.

The nine months old babe of one of the preachers now conducting a protracted meeting at Zavalla, fell from the bed Saturday night and in some manner was hung between the bed and the wall and died while its mother was preaching to the congregation not a hundred feet away. The accident was heartrending and heartbreaking to the parents and elicited the deepest and sincerest sympathy from the congregation and friends of the bereaved.

Herbine

Renders the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and the over indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days. G. L. Caldwell, Agt M K & T R R, Checotah, I. T., writes April 18, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. Sold by Perkins Bros.

In speaking of the first bale for Nacogdoches The Sentinel has never considered the seed that came with it and were sold to the Nacogdoches and Farmers Cotton Oil Co., of this city. The seed sold separately from the cotton and brought a little over four dollars, making the total amount received by the producer for the cotton and seed nearly $102.

Always Ready

Cheatam's Laxative Tablets cured me of third day chills and rid my system of malarial poison. They do what you say they will. I now carry a package in my vest pocket. They are always ready.—L M Duncan, Pleasant Hill La. Price 25c per box.

It is stated that H. R. Doolittle, who has been merchandising at Appleby for several years, has rented the building now occupied by C. W. Butt, and will open a general merchandise business in this city. Mr. Butt has leased the building next door, recently occupied by the Bowling Alley club and will move about Sept. 1st.

Where Others Fail.

"Each Spring for five or six years I broke out with a kind of eczema which nothing seemed to relieve permanently. Finally I tried a box of Hunt's Cure, which promptly cured me. Two years have passed by but the trouble has not returned."—Mrs. Kate Howard Little Rock, Ark. 50c. w

Grand Jury.
Following is the grand jury drawn for the September term 1904, of the district court for Nacogdoches county: C W Butt, Chas Hoya, Henry Millard, D K Cason, W R Stripling, J F Tucker, E S Thrash, Z D Garrison, J W Boyd, J W Gariker, Henry Satterwhite, B K King, Mat Whitaker Sr, W L Sparks, J M Fuller and A E Carter.

Cures Eczema, Itching Humors, Pimples and Carbunkles—Costs Nothing to Try.

B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) is now recognized as a certain and sure cure for eczema, itching skin, humors, scabs, scales, watery blisters, pimples, aching bones or joints, boils, carbunkles, pricking pain in the skin, old eating sores, ulcers, etc. Botanic Blood Balm taken internally, cures the worst and most deep-seated cases by enriching the blood, thereby giving a healthy blood supply to the skin. Botanic Blood Balm is the only cure, to stay cured, for these awful, annoying skin troubles. Heals every sore and gives the rich glow of health to the skin. Builds up the broken down body and makes the blood red and nourishing. Especially advised for chronic, old cases that doctors, patent medicines and hot springs fail to cure. Druggists $1. To prove B. B. B. cures, sample sent free and prepaid by writing Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Describe trouble, and free medical advice sent in sealed letter.

Captured in Louisiana.

From Saturday's Daily: Sheriff Spradley left last night for La Fayette, La, in answer to a telegram informing him that Dr. J. R. Cox had been arrested, and lodged in jail at that place. Dr. Cox is wanted here for alleged assault to murder and several minor charges, having forfeited his bond at the last term of district court.

Was Wasting Away?

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally I tried Eoley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by Perkins Bros.

MONDAY'S LOCALS.

David Greer, of Appleby, was a caller at The Sentinel office.

It is reported that J. V. Russell, of Sterne, is dangerously sick.

J. P. Clevenger, who came home sick from the mill last week, is up again and was in the city today.

Mr. J. R. Lanier spent yesterday with his family at Appleby. He reports the dangerous illness of Mr. O. C. Branch.

Prof. G. M. Hale, principal of the school at Appleby, was in the city today. He is talking up the big school there and says it is going to be better than ever.

Mrs. Milton Tutesch, of Chireno, came home with her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Kinsey, who visited her last week, and will spend this week visiting in Nacogdoches.

Dock Watson left on the early morning train for Terrell with Miss Dollard, daughter of Dr. J. J. Dollard, whom he was conveying to the insane asylum at Terrell for treatment.

TUESDAY'S LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rose, of Melrose, were in the city today on a shopping trip.

H. Muckleroy, of Martinsville, was in the city today on a trading trip.

The Misses Swift of Omen are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Lee, of this city.

Mrs. E. M. Weatherly and children returned to their home in Garrison this morning after a visit of several days with relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clinton returned to their home in San Antonio today. Alie Rusche accompanied them and will visit there several months.

Joe M. Fuller, of Attoyac, came up on a business trip to the hub this morning. He reports prospects still bright in the east end of the county.

Prof. R. W. Tillery and wife of Appleby are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thomason. They report W. T. Skeeters improving and that doctors say he has fine prospects for recovery.

Mr. Chas. F. Shepherd of Company E, 11th U. S. Infantry now stationed at Fort Russell, Wyoming, who is home on furlough visiting his uncle, I. M. Shepherd, of Garrison, was in the city yesterday as the guest of S. T. King.

Mr. T. M. McClure and daughter, Miss Annie, of Rusk county, are visiting his son, J. R. McClure, the handyman, of this city. They were visitors at The Sentinel office yesterday afternoon, accompanied by Mr. J. R. McClure and his little daughter.

Dr. Tucker, of this city, was called by telephone to Patroon Saturday to see Mr. Beckham, whose life was attempted by an assassin Friday night, but later received notice not to come, as the wounded man was not considered dangerously hurt. Dr. Tucker was however called to San Augustine this morning to see his brother, Frank, who is reported to have typhoid fever.
