THE BATTLE IS OVER

Another Two Years Before Another Election Can Be Held.

For the past three weeks there has been waged one of the hottest local option campaigns ever pulled off in an East Texas county has been waged in old Nacogdoches county. Day and night the advocates of local option have been hard at work; the county has been flooded with literature setting forth both sides of the question.

Some of the best local option speakers in the south have been stumping the county and every precinct in the county has had from one to three speakers to address them upon the question. What effect these speeches have had upon the voters is told in the following table of election returns:

BOX	Poll	1906	1903

Well, to say the least of it the agony is over for the next two years. It will take several months for the people to fully recover from the present campaign, but when they do every one will get busy, and forget the many hard things that may have been said or printed, and all will go to work for the upbuilding of the town and county.

Penitentiary Board to Meet at Rusk With Governor Lanham.

Rusk, Texas March 13—The penitentiary board will meet in Rusk this week and Governor Lanham is expected to be here during the meeting.

It is rumored that the purpose of the meeting is to consider the sale of the state railroad leading out from Rusk in the direction of Palestine. The negotiations have been pending for some time, but the deal has been held up to wait the result of burning coke at the furnace—the railroad being built to haul wood to the furnace—and as the use of coke has proved to be a grand success, the road will probably be sold, and in this event will be extended to Palestine.

FROM the way the trees in the woods are budding the matter of spring is only a few days off.

TAKE a little care of the chickens and they will be one of the best diversifiers on the farm.

A FEW well bred hogs will pay for themselves in a few years and improve the stock you have on hand. Try it.

A FEW acres planted in peanuts this spring will be found to be a good investment. Peanut hay can always be sold in the Nacogdoches market.

A LITTLE patch set, aside for a garden will assist in keeping the table supplied with good things that the man in town has to pay good money for.

THE SENTINEL wants the neighborhood news and would like to have a correspondent at every post office in the county. If your community is not represented suppose you write the paper a letter.

THOSE who were inclined to knock the hardwood plant have since found out that it was a good thing. If a furniture factory was located here it would soon become the pride of the entire section called East Texas.

PROSPECTS are exceedingly bright for Nacogdoches to get another big saw mill, and if the Business League will go after it in the right way Nacogdochea would have another mill. It is worth trying for, to say the least of.

TEACHING the young to observe all the laws of morality around the fireside, will assist the officers of the law to suppress crime. It is also a good place to begin to teach the young mind that in a "glass of pure water there is no demon lurking" and temperance in all things is one of the greatest virtues in men.

THE newest paper to reach this desk is The Texas Woman published at Sherman by Mrs. Mary Winn Smoots, and who is known to thousands of Texas newspaper readers as "Aunt Lucindy." She is an excellent writer, and no doubt, her most sanguine hopes will be fully realized. The price of The Texas Woman is $1 per year, The Sentinel is satisfied that every issue of this excellent little paper will be worth the subscription price.

THE special session of the twenty-ninth legislature will convene on Monday the 26th. There will be some other matters that will be more than likely be discussed in connection with "bleeding section 120" of the Terrell election law. The blanket primary may be one of the stunts the law makers will work upon. The primary election law as it now stands is good enough for all parties, and The Sentinel can see no reason for making a change.

WITH the professional office-seeker, a fixed principle, save the one to get office, is an unknown quantity. His only ambition is office, and to get it he will bend with every passing breeze. What Texas is badly in need of just now is a man in each office that regards a public office as a public trust.—State Topics.

THE location of the Hayward mill in this city has proven to be a good thing for the city, and as there is a chance for the location of another big mill in this part of the state, the Business League could take the matter up, and probably land the new mill for Nacogdoches. It is worth trying to get.

THE SENTINEL would like to hear from some of the truck growers on the subject of organizing a company for the purpose of putting in a canning factory in Nacogdoches this summer. There is not much time to fool away, if it is intended to get one in operation in time for the fruit crop of this season.

Now that the election is over, don't keep talking about the question. The sooner the matter is forgotten, just that soon will every one get in a good humor and be friends again. Not that there has been any enemies made during this campaign, but there will be more of less bitter feeling toward some who have been in the past good friends.

THE city election will be held on the third of April. A mayor, recorder, and two aldermen are to be elected. There is not enough interest taken in the city elections, and it is a hard matter to get a good man to place his name on the ticket. In fact it appears as if the majority of the people here are ashamed for the fact to become known that they are connected with the governing of the city's affairs.

THE Farmer's Union which is in session at Dallas is getting things in shape to bring the warring factions of the Union together. The delegates to the Dallas convention should remember that in union there is strength and if the organization is divided against itself it will in a short time become one of the has-beens. The Farmer's Union is organized upon the right plan, and all the members have to do is to live up to the principles as are set forth in the literature of the organization.

France is prepared for war. In the Chamber of Deputies a few days ago the question was asked and affirmatively responded to. Indeed, the spokesman of the Government assured the people of France that there were plenty of shoes for the soldiers. Persons reading that would probably be surprised if they did not know that in the Franco-German war France was hurried into it with her soldiers so utterly unprepared that they were without footgear, for which no provision had been made.—Galveston News.

Stay By The Home Merchant.

It seems that some of the large department stores of the larger cities have hit upon a scheme to take that which has been practically wiped out through the activity of the country press. This scheme involves sending out parties on a visit to the smaller cities and towns with an assortment of goods which are placed on display at a hotel or other public place, and the public is invited to come in and purchase at city prices.

This is the mail order business worked over. It means that those who patronize the itinerant emporiums are not one iota more loyal to the home merchant, by paying their money to the representative of this department store who makes a personal call, than are those who order from the catalogue and send a money order remittance.

If one of these traveling emporiums strikes your town, give it the marble heart. The big city department store pays no taxes in your community, contributes nothing to the support of your own business and does not deserve to receive a dollar's worth of your trade. Your home merchant does all this, and he is here to chip in every time the church needs a little money, every time a charity fund is to be raised, every time any movement designed to promote your town or community is put on foot to help boost. In nine cases out of ten his goods are just as good and sold at just as low figures, quality considered, as the city department stores, and he is right with you to make the purchase right if it is not satisfactory. Stay by him, and thereby stay by yourself.—Oklahoman.

FROM every source of information at this time the indications are that the farmers will plant a much larger crop of cotton this year than they did last, and while The Sentinel is not a prophet, yet it will venture the assertion that the farmers of the cotton growing states will see 6 cent cotton next fall. If there was a good cotton mill in operation here, there would possible be some show for the farmers to get a better price for the raw product, at least the difference in the freight. This is a matter that the Farmers Union could discuss with profit to the organization, and the entire country as well. With the location of a good cotton mill here the stockholders in the enterprise would find it to be a good thing and the farmers would have a market at home for their cotton.

MONK GIBSON TRIAL WANTS THE MEETING

Case Set in District Court at San Antonio for April 2

San Antonio, Texas, March 8.—District Attorney Baker has set the case of Monk Gibson, charged with the murder of the Conditt family at Edna, for April 2. This will be Monk Gibson's second trial and the entire testimony which was brought out at the preceding trial will be gone over again. Gibson has grown somewhat taller and stouter since his appearance in the court room last December, showing that the food served him in the Bexar county jail has agreed with him. Since his trial the colored people of this city have been active in raising a fund for defending Gibson and with the approaching date of the second trial it is expected that the colored people will double their efforts in his behalf.

For County Treasurer.

The Sentinel is authorized to announce the name of W. E. Thomason as a candidate for county treasurer, subject to action of the democratic primary election. Edgar, as he familiarly called by his friends is one of the best known men in the county, having taught school for ten years or more. Aside from having the necessary educational qualifications, he is a Nacogdoches county boy, his parents having also been raised in this county. Edgar Thomason is well qualified to fill the office for which he aspires. He solicits the support of the democracy and will appreciate any favors shown his candidacy.

AT SAN AUGUSTINE IMBODEN AT AUSTIN

Templars Were Splendidly Entertained by Their Hosts.

The party of Beaumont Knights Knight Templars which attended the initiation ceremonies at San Augustine Thursday, Friday and Saturday, returned home last night and report having had a fine time. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Junkert and daughter Nyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kyle, B. G. Quickcall, Capt. Geo. W. Kidd, John Orchard and W. S. Davidson. The Beaumont Knights helped confer the degrees of the order on a class of twelve candidates. Saturday night there was a banquet in the Masonic rooms, and of this banquet the Beaumonters love to talk. The tables were placed in the form of a cross and were waited upon by the wives and daughters of the Masonic fraternity of that city. The menu was a tribute to the skill of the ladies of San Augustine as well as to their artistic tastes in the manner of serving. Speeches were made by S. B. Davis, George L. Crockett and T. B. Saunders of San Augustines, and Guy W. Junkert of Beaumont, the address of the latter being said to be a strong lecturer.

Sunday morning the visitors were driven around the city, which is the third oldest in Texas, and they all think it one of the finest little cities in Texas. The hall used by the Masons of San Augustine for their meetings is said to be the oldest Masonic hall in Texas having been occupied continuously by them since 1839. The minutes of the Masonic fraternity of that city are complete from the year 1837.—Beaumont Journal.

Popular Rusk Attorney Has Gone Into the Farming Business

Austin, Texas, March 7.—Hon. Wiley Mangum Imboden is here for a few days from his home in Rusk. His friends around the state house are asking him about his farm, and every time the word "farm" is mentioned the Hon. Wiley is forced to smile. He tells about it gracefully, but he can not exhibit any corns in his hands. He is a diversifier and has everything planted, all the way from goobers to Jersey cows. He has a few chickens and some ducks besides about 30 acres in oats and some sugar cane. He reports fine prospects, and, with a good season, will come near being in the millionaire class next fall.

He is a very ardent supporter of Colonel Cambell, and hopes to see him land in the governor's office at the July primaries. He says Judge Bell is a mighty good man, but that he is too conservative.

The popular district attorney is grieved over the death of ex-Governor Hogg. He thought a great deal of him, and is of the opinion that Texas will never again produce such a man.

OPPOSES BLANKET PRIMARY.

Murray of Wilson Is a Candidate for State Senator.

Austin, Texas, March 9.—Representative W. O. Murray of Wilson county is here on business with the state departments and says he is a candidate for the senate from the Twenty-second district.

In speaking of blanket primary idea which is being indulged in by North Texas politicians, he says that South Texas is strictly opposed to it, and if the idea is carried out it will ultimately lead to republican congressmen and other republican officials in South Texas.

He contended that it might lead to a division of the state if carried out to the extent of North Texas getting all the state offices.

THE EMPORIA MILL

The Saw Mill of Carter Brothers Destroyed by Fire.

From Thursday's Daily: Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the large saw mill plant of Carter Bros. located at Emporia, south of this place was destroyed by fire.

The exact loss and the insurance cannot be ascertained at this time.

The Houston East & West Texas railroad company, lost five box cars in the burn.

By hard work the employees of the mill saved the company's store building nearby, and the planer was also saved.

It is now given out that Carter Brothers will not rebuild the mill at Emporia, but that they will build a new mill on their property in this county at Press, the new station on the Houston East and West Texas. The Carter Brothers own many thousands of acres of the very finest timber in East Texas in this county and they have already several miles of standard gauge railroad built into their holdings.

SAW MILL BURNED

The Saw Mill Plant of Carraway Lumber Co. Destroyed.

From Thursday's Daily: Last night the saw mill plant of the Carraway Lumber Co. located about two and a half miles west of the city was destroyed by fire. Loss estimated at $2500.00, with no insurance. Yesterday the mill property changed hands and the books were turned over to the new owners, J. F. Summers and W. J. Arthur.

From every indication it is a clear case of incendiarism. The matter has been placed in the hands of the officers and the matter will be sited until the guilty party or parties are apprehended.

NATURE'S WARNING.

Nacogdoches People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.

But nature always warns you through the urine.

Notice the kidney secretions. See if the color is unhealthy—

If there are settlings and sediment,

Passages too frequent, scanty, painful.

It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills,

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in Nacogdoches.

Ben Heflin, farmer, living seven and a half miles north east of Nacogdoches, Tex., says: "Doan's Kidney pills acted effectively in my case. I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble for six years. During that time I tried many different remedies and doctored until I was tired, but still the dull grinding ache in the small of my back was always present. If I stooped or lifted it seemed as though my back would cave in. The secretions from the kidneys at times were as red as blood and accompanied with a burning sensation. I procured Doan's Kidney pills at Perkins, Kleas & Mast's drug store and they did me more good and in less time than any other preparation I had tried, in fact, after using one box I felt like a different man."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.

Simon Spencer Will be Legally Executed for Murder.

This morning the sheriff brought into court, Simon Spencer, and Judge Perkins read the following sentence to him:

You, Simon Spencer, were tried upon the charge of the murder of Isaiah Mayfield at the March term, 1905, of this court and by the verdict of a legal and competent jury of the county were found guilty of murder in the first degree and your punishment assessed at death; the judgment of this court was therefore on the 30th day of March, 1905, rendered in accordance with said verdict and you appealed from said judgment to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas and said court thereafter on the 25th day of October, 1905, affirmed said judgment of this court as evidenced by its mandate now on file in this court, and you are now brought into the presence of this court for the purpose of having the sentence of the law pronounced upon you in accordance with the terms of said judgment, and to the end that the said judgment may be executed and enforced.

In connection with this recital of the judicial history of your case it may not be amiss for me to explain to you that the law inflicts this extreme penalty of death with no disposition to avenge the cruel death you inflicted upon your victim, but solely for the protection of society and public of which you have proven yourself an enemy against the repetition of such crime by you and with the hope that the example may deter others of murderous disposition such as your act has evinced from the commission of such crime.

The experience of men and of Governments has demonstrated that no other punishment short of which you are to undergo is so calculated to stay the hand uplifted with murderous intent as this dire and ultimate one first written into law by a hand inspired by God Himself and sanctioned and demanded by the universal law of self preservation which society here invokes.

Your trial and conviction has not only been judicial and fair, but you have had the fullest benefit of all those aids and safeguards which the liberal and humane laws of our State gratuitously award to and throw around the person charged with crime however humble his station in life or, however vile and infamous may be his character and crime.

Having no means to employ counsel you have had the gratuitous services in this capacity of Judge V. E. Middlebrook and Moss Adams, Esq., whose fidelity, earnestness and ability displayed in your defense is not only creditable to them, but reflects the highest credit upon the honorable profession to which they belong. Not content with the laborious and able service they had rendered you on your trial in this court, and with the preparation of a record for the inspection of the court of last resort on appeal, which was the full measure of their legal duty they followed your case to the Court of Appeals and there represented your case without fee or reward with all the zeal and ability that hired counsel of an opulent client could have displayed. The evidence of your guilt, self confessed as well as otherwise proven was too conclusive, however, to be overcome and this same law in its same humane spirit allows you that which you denied to your unsuspecting victim ample time for reflection and preparation for that state which comes after death. In addition to the months which have already elapsed since you were apprised of your fate, you will be granted more than thirty days yet in which to prepare for the ordeal of death and for that which lies beyond.

It is taught and believed by many learned and good men that even your crime, the greatest in your catalogue, may be atoned and forgiven by earnest application to that boundless mercy which is vouchsafed by the Christian God and to this endeavor I would advise that you devote the days that may yet be left you and that you be not lured away from this devotion by any delusive hope that you will be reprieved of or your punishment commuted by the governor. Such hope if indulged is likely to be disappointed and it behooves you in this extremity to banish such from your thoughts or contemplations.

I now ask you, have you anything to say why the sentence of law should not be pronounced upon you in accordance with the aforesaid judgment?

You having answered nothing in bar of such sentence, it is therefore considered and ordered by the court that the defendant, Simon Spencer, who has been adjudged to be guilty of murder in the first degree and whose punishment has been assessed by the verdict of the jury rendered against him herein at death be taken by the sheriff of Nacogdoches county, Texas, to the place of execution on Friday, the 20th day of April, 1906, in Nacogdoches county, Texas, and there be hanged by the neck until he be dead. And it is further considered and ordered that the clerk of this court shall issue a warrant for the execution of this sentence of death and direct and deliver the same to the sheriff of Nacogdoches county, Texas, who shall execute the same in the manner provided by law.

If you see a chance to make a good trade and should happen to need a little money to assist you in making it—Just go to the Stone, Fort National Bank and get it. They are doing a right nice little business helping good men handle good paper. 2d w

UNION HEADS RESIGN

The Texas Board Cease Their Functions As National Officers.

Dallas, Tex., March 10.—Agreement has finally been reached between the opposing parties in the Farmer's Union, and at a meeting of the National Executive Board in Dallas today the resignations of all old National officers who were in the city were received and accepted, and as each was acted on a successor was chosen. The work was done by the executive committee. The transfer of National functions and business was effected, and in the next few days all the old officers will have resigned and their unexpired terms filled, these to be effective until the National meeting in August, when regular action in all lines will be had.

Thus ends the story of the discord in National affairs. J. H. Garrett of Houston is the new president; H. S. McCulloch, Arkansas; the secretary and treasurer, S. A. Daws, Shawnee, Ok., organizer; W. S. Miller of Delta County, Campbell Russell of Hereford, I. T., and C. S. Barrett, Atlanta, Ga., are the new executive committeemen. Of the older official board, sometimes called the Texas Board, the other members will continue to transact National business until their resignations are accepted and successors chosen.

These are J. W. Wheeler of Belton, Vice President, J. D. Jameson of Whitney and G. N. Garner of Snyder, executive committeemen.

D. J. Noll of Cisco, lecturer, resigned from the old board, but will act temporarily.

It was agreed that the difficulties that have been in the organization over the matter of nationalizing shall be at an end.

The amended charter obtained by the Texarkana movement is, by agreement, to be annulled, and the pending injunction suit will be no further prosecuted.

It is noticeable that in the whole transaction and agreement no mention is made of a Texarkana official board. The agreement was brought about by the consent of both O. P. Pyle and E. A. Calvin. The other officers followed their example. It is also true that Thursday night it was feared that all efforts at a settlement on the Childers plan, that was finally adopted, would fail and the representatives from other States had left the city. They were recalled by telegraph when the resolution passed shortly before adjournment. As introduced by J. W. Childers this is the resolution:

Whereas, The Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of America has expanded from its original home and has outgrown the State boundaries of Texas, so that the organization has extended into all parts of the South and of the West; and

Whereas, The Texas officials have been called upon to discharge the functions of both State and National officers; and

Whereas, We believe it to be a matter of courtesy to the membership of the union outside of Texas that the Texas officials shall not be compelled to discharge the twofold duties; therefore be it

Resolved, That this convention requests the Texas State officials to resign from their National capacity that they may be the better able to discharge their duty as State officers, and that as their resignations are accepted the executive committee shall fill their places until a full crop of National officers shall have been elected to serve until the regular annual meeting in August.

Presidents Calvin and Pyle signed the agreement based on this resolution and the other officers present agreed. President Calvin resigned and was succeeded by President Garrett. Secretary Chapman was replaced with McCulloch. J. R. Luce was relieved by Campbell Russell. F. W. Davis then resigned and was replaced by W. S. Miller. D. J. Neal resigned as lecturer. M. A. Clifton was followed by C. S. Barrett of Georgia. President Pyle had previously placed his resignation in the hands of the executive committee and that body had refused to accept. As several of the members of that body are now taken into the new executive committee the office of president is, with the other actions of the Texarkana movement, allowed to pass. Temporarily headquarters will remain at Dallas for National affairs. Until the old charter be changed it must remain within the State. The matter of selection of a National headquarters will be taken up in April.

When the injunction suit comes up it will be by agreement dismissed.

There was a reunion and jollification at the close of the agreement. Both President Pyle and President Calvin favored the action taken. Nobody is claiming the credit for the peaceful outcome, and all are agreed to go right ahead with the work.

O. P. Pyle, now a private in the ranks, has agreed to go to Mississippi, where a State union is to be formed at Jackson on March 13. Now it is declared that except as a principle the Texarkana movement is as if it never was and the movement is to go as if nothing of a disagreement had never arisen.

Oak Ridge Notes.

It seems that we are in the midst of a drouth. Many farmers have suspended planting until it rains. The gardens too, are some what retarded.

The fruit crop does not seem to seriously injured by the light frost, and we begin to feel safe on the fruit question.

The roads are unusually good for this season of the year, and many are taking advantage of the fact visiting friends and relatives.

R. O. Robinson, has gone to Chireno to see his daughters Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Lambert, where he will remain a few days.

Miss Smith is prolonging her stay with her sister, Mrs. Jackson, at this place. The young people hope to keep her quite a while.

Miss Bunch Carter, a sister of Mrs. J. D. Gaston's, is preparing to leave us for a while, to visit her old home and relatives in Alabama.

The Editor of This Paper

Knowing that we usually change our advertisement every few weeks, has phoned us about "steen" times since Monday morning to bring him the change, but we will just have to ask the editor and our good friends to excuse us again.

The fact is, around our store is the busiest place in the country and we just can't stop to write advertisements. We have a long list of valued customers here in town and in the country near by. Looks like they all want some HARDWARE, BUGGIES, WAGONS, FARMING IMPLEMENTS, SAW MILL MACHINERY, ENGINES, BOILERS, EDGERS, TRIMMERS, and THAT THEY WANT TO BUY FROM US, and unless you could just stand around our office for a day and see us take in the phone orders from our hundreds of other good friends and customers for 50 miles around, you could not imagine how busy we really are. We are shipping so many items from our big stock every day that the freight men at the depot and our shipping clerks and porters are all about to resign.

Speaking of shipments, the makers of AMERICAN HOG FENCE (that is the square mesh, pig, hog, and bull proof kind, the kind that is heavier and better than any other you know) say they ship us more fencing than any other customer they have in East Texas. You ought to see us when you need Hardware. You owe it to your family and ours to do so.

Saw Mill at Libby.

Mr. A. A. Meador of Libby was in the city Saturday on a business trip and while here he met The Sentinel man and in answer to the inquiry for a news item, informed the reporter that about the newest thing that he had was the fact J. J. Bowden, A. A. Meador and A. W. Meador had formed a co-partnership and would engage in the lumber business under the name of the Bowden & Meador Lumber Co.

The plant of the Bowden & Meador Lumber Co. will be entirely new. Mr. Bowden went to Shreveport and purchased the machinery last week, and within the next few weeks it will arrive and the work of erecting the mill will begin. Mr. Meador informed the reporter that the company had quite a lot of fine timber and that they would push the lumber business if all there was in it as soon as the mill was in operation.

What are You Going to Do About It?

Yes, you've lived off your father about as long you ought; it's about time for you to think about earning your own board and cloth. Will you do it at law? 'Twill take two years study and ten years of starving. At Medicine? Four years study and years of charity practice and waiting; for, like law, that profession is overcrowded. At teaching? It's overcrowded, too, and salaries are small and last only a few months. At business? 'Tis never overcrowded. A few weeks in the Tyler Com'l. College will prepare you for one of the thousand positions always seeking those prepared. Success is speedy it is certain, to those who get ready.

The Tyler Com'l. College teaches eight hours a day, requires regular attendance, good lessons, good conduct, teaches the famous Byrne systems. Do you know another college that can say as much? Haven't you heard boys say they could do just as they pleased if they only paid their tuition? Haven't you known them to fail and to waste many a heard earned dollar, simply because the college didn't require them to attend and study? Honestly, haven't you? And is it right or honest to take your money and pull off the bridle and say "come when you please, go when you get ready?" That's not the idea. That doesn't teach promptness, duty, self-control, business, bookkeeping, shorthand, telegraphy—anything but idleness or worse. Even the Byrne systems, the simplest, require study. Get into a college that requires something—that guarantees results, that gives an honest day's work that teaches the only face-to-face business bookkeeping course, and the only shorthand system with a speed of 150 words per minute guaranteed. County Convict Captured.

Andrew Kinney was convicted several months ago for bootlegging whiskey, made his escape a few weeks ago and went to Louisiana, but he soon tired of that country and returned to Texas. Mr J. J. Bowdon was in the city yesterday and told The Sentinel reporter he stated that in the write-up of the Bowdon Lumber company at Libby, there were some corrections to be made.

Instead of the company being a co-partnership, that the company had made application to the secretary of state for a charter.

The first officers of the corporation are: J. J. Bowdon, president and general manager; A. W. Meador, vice-president and mill superintendent; A. A. Meador, secretary.

Mr. Bowdon stated that the mill while it would be small, yet it would be first-class in every respect. That they would be prepared to manufacture yellow pine lumber and put it on the market ready for the builder, having a first-class planing mill in connection with the mill plant.

Will Go To Austin

Moss Adams, Esq., who was one of the attorneys for Simon Spencer, stated to the reporter this morning that he would go to Austin next and place Simon's case before the governor, and endeavor to get his punishment commuted to confinement in the penitentiary. If Mr. Adams fails in this effort, Spencer will hang Friday, April 20.

Sheriff Buckner took a bunch of convicts to the farm yesterday afternoon. There were four negroes and one white man. They were convicted for gambling.

The farmers in this section of old Nacogdoches county have been very busy for the past few weeks getting the land in shape for the crop of this year. From present indications the cotton planters are determined to get in at least half a crop before the boll weevil puts in an appearance.

WOMEN FIGHT DUEL

Met on the Streets of Middleboro and Started Ball Rolling.

Chicago, March 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Middleboro, Ky., says:

In a pistol duel yesterday between Mrs. Alice Moore and Mrs. Lucy Tucker as the result of a long-time quarrel, Frank Maden was killed by a bullet from the revolver of Mrs. Tucker.

The women met in front of a saloon, and after exchanging a few words both drew weapons.

Mrs. Tucker was the first to open fire. At the third shot Mrs. Moore turned and ran down the street unharmed, although her clothing was twice pierced.

It was this last shot which struck Maden, who was near the saloon door engaged in a game of pool. The bullet hit him squarely in the forehead, causing instant death.

The cause of the trouble is said to have been a love affair.

'I've had these legs for forty years and the wind has never blown them away yet, but I just bought this hat for $18, and I don't intend to lose it.'"

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"Taking his meals out."
Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destriving process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.
A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness.
In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

OLD SORES SAP THE VITALITY AND UNDERMINE THE HEALTH

Old Sores that refuse to heal are a constant menace to health. They sap the vitality and undermine the constitution by draining the system of its very life fluids, and those afflicted with one of these ulcers grow despondent and almost desperate as one treatment after another fails. They patiently apply salves, washes, plasters, etc., but in spite of all these the sore refuses to heal and eats deeper into the surrounding flesh, destroying the tissues and growing to be a festering, inflamed and angry mass. The source of the trouble is in the blood. This vital fluid is filled with impurities and poisons which are constantly being discharged into the sore or ulcer, making it impossible for the place to heal. It will not do to depend on external applications for a cure, because they do not reach the real cause, and valuable time is lost experimenting with such treatment; the most they can do is keep the ulcer clean. Any sore that will not heal is dangerous, for the reason that it may have the deadly germs of Cancer behind it. A cure can be brought about only through a remedy that can change the quality of the blood, and this is what S. S. S. does. It goes to the very bottom of the trouble, drives out the poisons and germs with which it is filled, and purifies and builds up the entire circulation. By the use of S. S. S. the sore is supplied with new, rich blood which corrects the trouble, soon stops the discharge, and allows the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. also reinvigorates the entire system, and where the constitution has been depleted or broken down it quickly builds it up and restores perfect health. Write for our special book on sores and ulcers, and any medical advice you are in need of; no charge for either. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

TO PURCHASE DIRECT

English Spinners Are Working Out Plan—Representative Here.

Waxahachie, Texas, March 8.—Plans are being worked out by which spinners propose to inaugurate a system of buying cotton direct from the producers.

R. Maudsley, representing a firm of spinners at Manchester, England, is spending this week in Waxahachie in the interest of a movement of that kind. Mr. Maudsley stated that his mills used nothing below middling grade, and his purpose in Texas was to locate those sections which produce the best grades of cotton and establish agencies there.

He visited the cotton mills yesterday afternoon and procured samples of the different grades of the staple grown around Waxahachie. These he will forward to his firm at once. He gives it as his opinion that to buy direct will not only be a money saving proposition to the spinners but will be helpful to the farmers.

Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and La Grippe. Guaranteed at Stripling, Haselwood & Co. drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FROM A TENNESSEAN.

Pecan Tree Coming to Mark Grave of ex-Governor Hogg.

Austin, Texas, March 9.—T. W. Branzelton, a nurseryman at Winchester, Tenn., and a great admirer of Gov. Hogg, has written Gov. Lanham that he has forwarded to him a soft skelled Pecan tree to be planted over the grave of the ex-governor, in compliance with his wishes. Governor Lanham answered the letter, thanking him, and then turned the original letter over to Undertaker Weed. The tree will be planted according to the request of the Tennessean.

On Change of Venue.

Last June Pete Sososman was shot in the town of San Augustine by a negro, by the name of Allan Maddox. This case was called at the recent term of the court in San Augustine and a motion was made that the case be tried in some other county on a change of venue. The Judge granted the motion, and the case was transferred to Nacogdoches county.

THE BLIND TIGERS

Are Being Put Out of Business in San Augustine.

Beaumont, Texas, March 8.—Information has reached this city of aggressive efforts being made by the citizens of Brookeland, near San Augustine, to rid their town and community of the blind tiger establishments.

Monday evening the officers of the village located a blind tiger establishment on the outskirts of the town. They discovered 120 quart bottles of whiskey hid away in the house. Being unable to locate anyone who would lay claim to the booze, the officer of the law had the stuff loaded on a wagon and carted off to the calaboose, where the red eye is "under arrest" pending the appearance of the owner. Several blind tigers have recently been broken up in that section of the country and some arrests have been made.

The following is taken from a special to the Houston Chronicle dated at Hillsboro, and shows that the farmers are making preparations to raise the largest crop of cotton for some years back: "One of the county correspondents of a local paper published here has the following to say with reference to the cotton crop of 1906. "Judging from the best information I can obtain this crop in acreage will be the largest ever in the history of Hill county and instead of cotton selling at 10 cents, should the plant fruit well, you will see cotton selling at 5 cents per pound. I think of a man and his hired help cultivating 135 acres in cotton, 10 acres in corn, 5 acres in oats and 2 or 3 acres in sorghum. Yet, such is the case, and I find it so all over the country."

A Scientific Wonder.

The cures that stand to its credit makes Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mullford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa. of a distressing case of Piles. Women Are Martyrs.

Mapp, White Plains, Ga., writes: "I was broken down in health and suffered from extreme nervousness and severe neuralgia pains afflicted different parts of my body. I took many remedies, but found none that did so much for me as Brown's Iron Bitters. I always praise it to my friends who are likewise afflicted. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. druggist.

WHO SHE WAS

SKETCH OF THE LIFE OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM

And a True Story of How the Vegetable Compound Had Its Birth and How the "Panic of '73" Caused it to be Offered for Public Sale in Drug Stores.

This remarkable woman, whose maiden name was Estes, was born in Lynn, Mass., February 9th, 1819, coming from a good old Quaker family. For some years she taught school, and became known as a woman of an alert and investigating mind; an earnest seeker after knowledge, and above all, possessed of a wonderfully sympathetic nature.

In 1843 she married Isaac Pinkham, a builder and real estate operator, and their early married life was marked by prosperity and happiness. They had four children, three sons and a daughter.

In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies—calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest in the study of roots and herbs, their characteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so bountifully provides in the harvest fields and orchards vegetable foods of all kinds; so, if we but take the pains to find them, in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search these out, and prepare simple and effective medicines for her own family and friends.

Chief of these was a rare combination of the choicest medicinal roots and herbs found best adapted for the cure of the ills and weaknesses peculiar to the female sex, and Lydia E. Pinkham's friends and neighbors learned that her compound relieved and cured and it became quite popular among them.

All this so far was done freely, without money and without price, as a labor of love.

But in 1873 the financial crisis struck Lynn. Its length and severity were too much for the large real estate interests of the Pinkham family, as this class of business suffered most from the fearful depression, so when the national year dawned it found their property swept away. Some other source of income had to be found.

At this point Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was made known to the world.

The three sons and the daughter, with their mother, combined forces to restore the family fortune. They argued that the medicine which was so good for their woman friends and neighbors was equally good for the women of the whole world.

The Pinkhams had no money, and little credit. Their first laboratory was the kitchen, where roots and herbs were steeped on the stove, gradually filling a gross of bottles. Then came the question of selling it, for always before they had given it away freely. They hired a job printer to run off some pamphlets setting forth the merits of the medicine, now called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and these were distributed by the Pinkham sons in Boston, New York, and Brooklyn.

The wonderful curative properties of the medicine were, to a great extent, self-advertising, for whoever used it recommended it to others, and the demand gradually increased.

In 1877, by combined efforts the family had saved enough money to commence newspaper advertising and from that time the growth and success of the enterprise were assured, until today Lydia E. Pinkham and her Vegetable Compound have become household words everywhere, and many tons of roots and herbs are used annually in its manufacture.

Lydia E. Pinkham herself did not live to see the great success of this work. She passed to her reward years ago, but not till she had provided means for continuing her work as effectively as she could have done it herself.

During her long and eventful experience she was ever methodical in her work and she was always careful to preserve a record of every case that came to her attention. The case of every sick woman who applied to her for advice—and there were thousands—received careful study, and the details, including symptoms, treatment and results were recorded for future reference, and to-day these records, together with hundreds of thousands made since, are available to sick women the world over, and represent a vast collaboration of information regarding the treatment of woman's ills, which for authenticity and accuracy can hardly be equaled in any library in the world.

With Lydia E. Pinkham worked her daughter-in-law, the present Mrs. Pinkham. She was carefully instructed in all her best won knowledge, and for years she assisted her in her vast correspondence.

To her hands naturally fell the direction of the work when its original founder passed away. For nearly twenty-five years she has continued it, and nothing in the work shows when the first Lydia E. Pinkham dropped her pen, and the present Mrs. Pinkham, now the mother of a large family, took it up. With women assistants, some as capable as herself, the present Mrs. Pinkham continues this great work, and probably from the office of no other person there so many women been advised how to regain health. Sick women this advice is "Yours for Health" freely given if you only write to ask for it.

Such is the history of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from simple roots and herbs; the one great medicine for women's ailments, and the fitting monument to the noble woman whose name it bears.

Shreveport, La., March 8.—A special from Colfax, La., to the Journal says: E. E. Stuckey, editor of the People's Demand of Pollock, La., was shot and killed at the depot this morning by A. M. Goodwin, editor of the Colfax Chronicle. Feeling is said to have existed between the men, and an article appearing in the People's Demand yesterday is alleged to have brought on the final tragedy. The Journal correspondent at that point wires that Stuckey was at the depot to board a train, when Goodwin fired. Stuckey was 37 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children. PURITY IN COMPOUNDING

Even the purest drugs are of little good if they are not compounded in a pure way. A dirty mortar will contaminate the purest prescription. A bottle that has contained one medicine will change the whole nature of another put into it. Only two instances of the many that occur in some places. Our ways are different—they are purity ways.

Letter to Alderman Henning.

Nacogdoches, Texas.
Dear Sir: If it took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devoe, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa. always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devoe took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint, that goes furthest in covering, wears best too.

All paint, true paint, and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short-measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was.
