GOVERNMENT CROP REPORT.

Condition of Cotton Up to August 25 Was 77.3 Per cent.

Washington, Sep. 10.—The crop estimating board of the department of agriculture estimates the condition of the crop of 1906 up to August 25, to be 77.3.

Average condition of cotton August 25, was 77.3 as compared with 82.9 on July 25, 1906; 72.1 on August 25, 1905; 84.1 on August 25, 1904, and a ten year average of 73.2. Congress requires the condition reports of the cotton crop by this bureau to be issued on the same date as the first ginners report by the bureau of census during months in which both classes of reports are issued.

CAMPBELL NEEDS REST

Democratic Nominee Goes to Springs for Vacation

Dallas, Texas, September 9.—Hon. T. M. Campbell, democratic nominee for governor, spent this afternoon in Dallas, on his way to Hot Springs, where he goes, as he puts it, "to take a rest and get over being tired."

Mr. Campbell insists that he is in no wise sick, but is simply tired out from the unusual experience of the State political campaign. His looks bear out the assertion, for his face is full of natural color, and apparent normal vigor, possesses his frame. His eye is also clear. It is Mr. Campbell's intention to remain about three weeks at Hot Springs and then make a short visit to Mountain Valley, another Arkansas resort, a few miles from Hot Springs. He has planned to return to Texas in October and make speeches for the democratic ticket at such places as he and the State democratic executive committee may determine upon.

Mr. Campbell is keenly interested in having a large democratic vote polled in Texas in the coming November election. During his stay in Dallas today he was the guest of State Chairman George A. Carden, at democratic headquarters.

Mr. Campbell said to The Post correspondent:

"I wish the democratic newspapers of the State would aid the State committee and the party candidates—State, district and local—in arousing interest among the voters in the coming election. I would like to see an old-time democratic vote polled in Texas. I urge upon the voters in this State to not let party zeal lag. They should take as much pride and as much interest in voting at the November general election as they do in the party primaries. They owe it to themselves to do this. It will show that they indorse the party's platform demands and will be an aid to the party's candidates, when placed in public offices, to carry out and make effective these demands and pledges as public policy. I urge every democratic voter to do his duty by going to the polls and voting in November."

Mr. Campbell departed for Hot Springs tonight.

AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION.

The school commissioners of Cecil county, Maryland, have determined to establish an "agricultural high school," to be opened for students next month, and the Baltimore Sun commends the plan as in all respects admirable, since all the counties of Maryland but two or three are agricultural. "It is only necessary," says the Sun, "to go through Eastern Pennsylvania, Western New York and some of the States of the Mississippi valley to satisfy anyone that Maryland needs better farmers. The carefully tilled fields of those States, the clean fences, the wellkept and handsome farm buildings, form a marked contrast with many Maryland farms, where fences are almost concealed by briars and bushes, lands neglected and buildings unpainted and uncared for."

The Sun continues: "One of the greatest obstacles to progress in Southern Maryland is the fact that so many of the active and promising young men of the section abandon it to seek a living in other fields. If agricultural methods can be improved by educating the young men and farming made more profitable, it would largely counteract the tendency to emigrate and the activities of the sons of farmers would be available for the improvement of their native counties."

All of which is applicable to Texas. We need better farm methods in Texas and are going to have them when the policy proclaimed in the nineteenth plank of the Dallas platform is placed in operation. Texas farmers work as hard as any people in the world, and they accomplish much, but there is no doubt that they can make their efforts more profitable by keeping in touch with the improved methods which are constantly being evolved by the agricultural leaders of the State and country.

The lands of Texas are just as fertile as any in America and the farmers are just as industrious, but old methods and a lack of knowledge regarding the several branches of agricultural science condemn thousands to lives of poverty and hardship.

We need no better proof that agricultural science properly applied can make Texas rich beyond estimate. There are already in the State thousands of successful farmers who grow rich side by side with other thousands who never succeed. By teaching the children of the country how to farm the right way, we will have a generation hence an agricultural industry that will be uniformly prosperous.

There are in each county of the State men who are capable of disseminating useful information and the new State department of agriculture, aided by the Federal department, the experimental stations and the Agricultural and Mechanical college will before very long arouse the interest of all the agriculturalists in better methods. Eventually, it will be possible to have an agricultural high school in every Texas county, which will extend the benefits of the policy upon which the State is now about to embark. The time will yet come when farming in Texas will be a most attractive and profitable vocation, and education of the right kind is going to make it so.—Houston Post.

A Texas Idea.

Writing in the Reader Magazine, Ethel Hutton says:

"I do not know another State in which the people so generally hold the views which produced both the Texas railroad commission and the laws which it was created to enforce. These views may be stated briefly:

"1. A corporation is the creature of the State; it has, therefore, no natural rights as a person has, but only such privileges as the State may give it.

"2. It is created to serve the people; if, instead, it becomes strong and insolent, and oppresses them, it should be destroyed, not by violence and anarchy, but by legal action of the State which created it and can revoke its charter.

"3. The power which creates and which may destroy may also limit; and so the State may, and should, control corporate activity as the welfare of the people demands, subject only to the constitutional limitations which forbid confiscation or destruction of property.

"On these three propositions, to which few Texans, I believe, would refuse assent, are based the laws regulating transportation within the great State. The size of the State, and some other conditions peculiar to it, have made it possible to enforce these laws with a completeness which might not be achieved elsewhere."

The seeds sown by the late John H. Reagan, who was, in truth, the father of the interstate commerce act, are responsible for these good results in the Lone Star State. The Reagan spirit dominating faithful public officials in Texas has given to that great State the signal honor of being foremost in the maintenance, so far as the enactment and execution of laws are concerned, of the democratic doctrine that a corporation being the creature of the State must be the servant rather than the master of the people.

The Texas idea is spreading. Let us hope that it will take as firm hold upon the people of all other States as it has upon the old neighbors of John H. Reagan.—The Commoner.

It is now alleged that there is a gentleman in this county who proposes to test the Terrell election law in regards to independent candidates. The law makes necessary provisions for independent candidates, and as this gentleman has fooled along and let the time pass to get his name on the ticket, he has no one to blame but himself.

Capt. Kellie.

Jasper, Texas, Sept. 7th, 1906.—Having been nominated by the Democratic party in convention assembled at Beaumont, on Aug. 25th, as the party candidate for State Senator from the 14th district, I take this means of returning my thanks to the people of the District for the honor and confidence conferred on me. I fully realize the importance, magnitude and responsibility of the office and it is with fear that I accept the nomination, knowing full well my incapacity to fill so important a position. I did not seek the office but was forced into the race by true and tried friends who thought I was the man for the place. No man ever had more loyal and true friends all over the ten counties and to them and not myself, belongs the credit of my success in receiving the nomination.

To my competitors, I owe a debt of gratitude I can never repay, for their universal courtesies and the many nice things said of and about me when I was not present. Each one of them has, and always will have, a warm place in my heart.

I desire here to thank the newspapers throughout the district for the many nice and flattering notices given me throughout the canvass and I shall do my utmost to deserve the good opinions they expressed.

Being a life long Democrat, if I am elected, I shall vote for, and do all in my power to see that all demands in the Democratic platform are enacted into laws. I shall always keep in mind the fact that I am the servant of the people; that I am in the senate to represent them. I have no ambition for self. My only ambition and hope is that I will be under an honor to, and can do good for my people. If elected, I will be under no promise to a living soul, I have made no promises and have not been asked to.

Important matters for legislation will doubtless come up, in which the people of the district will be deeply interested, and I shall freely seek the advice and be guided by the will of the people and shall always endeavor to cast my vote where it will be for the best interest of those concerned, and for the greatest good to the greatest number of our people.

If I am elected, I shall feel that I am the servant of the whole people. I do not know who voted for or against me; I do not care; they are all my people now and I hereby promise to serve you with all the energy, perseverance and ability I possess and when my term of office expires to return my commission to the people with as clean a record as when they placed it in my hands.

With heartfelt thanks, I am,
Sincerely yours,
E. I. Kellie.

The Chew that's Sweet and Clean

No wonder SCHNAPPS is popular—it's the chewing tobacco that suits the man who chews to get enjoyment from the tobacco, instead of the mere habit of chewing and expectorating

SCHNAPPS is made from choice selections of the well matured, thoroughly cured Piedmont leaf, with an aroma so delightful and appetizing that it popularized the chewing of tobacco. There's no other tobacco in the world that requires and takes so little sweetening.

That's what makes the difference between SCHNAPPS and the many excessively sweetened imitations—and it's such a difference that once a chewer chews SCHNAPPS, he is never deceived with any imitation.

The sweet, tasty and exhilarating quality of SCHNAPPS tobacco has made the Reynolds factory famous as the manufacturers of the best and most popular brands of chewing tobacco, and as the largest and best equipped flat plug factories in the world. They contain every modern appliance for producing the best chewing tobacco, by clean, sanitary and healthful processes. The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company is under the direction of the same men who have managed it since 1875, and who have made the chewing tobacco business a life-study.

THE proposed amendment to the constitution to pay the members of the legislature a salary of $1000 for the term and $5 per day extra sessions would be a wise step if the representation was cut down—say to one third of the present number. But leaving the representation as large as it is now would make the legislature a rather expensive piece of machinery. The Sentinel would like to see the proposed amendment defeated by a handsome majority, and believes that when the voters understand the measure thoroughly that they will snuff it under at the November election.

It is said that all applications for places under Governor Campbell's administration are being consigned to the waste basket. The Sentinel always said that Governor-elect Campbell was the proper man for the place and his action with the place hunters confirms everything The Sentinel has said. He will not make a selection for his appointments until after he is inaugurated.

Don't forget that there will be a democratic rally in Nacogdoches some time before the general election.

San Antonio Fair.

While the agricultural department of the San Antonio fair this year will be the largest in the history of the association, this is also true, perhaps, to a greater degree of the live stock department. "Scrub" cattle, "razor-back" hogs and "common" goats in Texas, are giving way to better specimens of cattle in both the beef and dairy breeds; the Poland China, Berkshire and other breeds of swine have largely taken the place of the "old-time razor-back," while the beautiful Angora has largely taken the place of the common and unsightly "billie-goat." The improvement in the grade of horses and other live stock in Texas during the past 10 or 15 years has been equally as marked. Much of this improvement has been due to the fairs of this state. These fairs have been the means each year of placing thousands of animals of improved blood on the farms and ranches of this state.

The San Antonio International Fair association this year, as heretofore, offers more money in premiums for live stock than any fair or exhibition ever held in Texas or the south. Thus, nearly every stall of cattle, horses, sheep, swine and goats has been engaged for this year's fair, and the association is now busily engaged in erecting buildings for additional exhibits in the live stock department. The association has just completed a new swine barn, measuring over 900 feet around it, for the accommodation of the swine breeders of Texas.

This feature of this great fair affords an opportunity for breeders and buyers to get together once a year for mutual good.

this week from a trip to Dallas and Fort Worth where he went looking for a place to locate. The Sentinel reporter met him yesterday and asked why he returned. Mr. Henderson said: "To tell you the truth about the matter it is simply this, Nacogdoches is the best all round town in the state and all a man has to do to find this out is to take a trip off to some of the larger towns and make an investigation. It is an old story, but nevertheless true, when a fellow once drinks water from the Banita in Nacogdoches he is simply located for life. No thanks I will not take another trip soon looking for a better place than Nacogdoches."

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Nacogdoches People Know How to Save It.

Many Nacogdoches people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill-health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is the statement of a Nacogdoches citizen who has reclaimed good health by the use of this remedy:

W. H. Wood, farmer, living in Northern part of Nacogdoches, Tex., says "I first began to be troubled by a constant dull aching across the small of my back. I never thought for a moment that my kidneys were out of order until a short time ago when I noticed the kidney secretions were rather scant at times and were accompanied by a burning pain. I tried several remedies without finding any relief. Hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills and the benefits many of our citizens had derived from their use, I went to Perkins, Kleas & Mast's drug store and got a box. They certainly did me a lot of good. My wife has also used them with excellent results. I therefore take great pleasure in recommending this really valuable kidney medicine."

"Obituary."

On the twenty-eight of July the angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Wilson, and claimed for its own, "little Kline," their only child. Age two years eight months and twenty-four days. He was sick only a few hours, was playing sweetly at 10 a. m. with his little playmate. Died just as the sun went down. Life was extinct fully ten minutes before the fond parents could realize that their darling had left his earthly home.

His death has cast a gloom over our town for he was loved by all who knew him.

Was unusually bright, so sympathetic and so kind for one so young. The grief of his parents seems almost unbearable. May God give them grace to say, "Thy will be done" They will soon move from their scene of sorrow, may God's richest blessing rest upon them.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach.

For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the opposite. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of the juices of natural digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

relieves all inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the stomach, protects the nerves, and cures both chronic and acute cases of flatulency after eating, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles.

FREE OF YELLOW FEVER.

Louisiana Health Board Declares New Iberia now Clear.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 5.

—President Irion of the State Board of Health tonight officially declared New Iberia free from yellow fever; the required twenty days having elapsed since the first and only case, without any other infection developing. Every dwelling street and public building in New Iberia has been fumigated under the immediate direction of Dr. Irion, who has been in personal charge of the situation since the case was first diagnosed.

The New Iberia presented Dr. Irion and his assistant, Dr. Mayor, with handsome umbrellas in testimony of their good work in sanitizing the town.

ADVERTISING is the corner stone of fortunes.

ATTEND the tobacco growers' meeting Saturday September 22.

NACOGDOCHES public school property and buildings are worth something like $100,000.

THE preserves are no longer in demand in East Texas. The fibron cane syrup is now being placed on the market.

DEBT is a millstone around the neck of millions of people. Take the sharp knife of self-denial and cut loose from the debt habit.

THE government's cotton report may show an increase in the cotton crop of the United States, but this part of the cotton producing country is painfully short on the fleecy staple this year.

JUST as well try to break up a bad spell of fever with one dose of quinine, as to try and sell a stock of goods with one dose of advertising. When business gets sick, a good course of advertising will do the work.

EAST TEXAS farmers who went west several months ago are returning home again, and it is the opinion of nearly all that have chased the pot of gold tied onto the end of the rainbow, that they stand just as good show in East Texas as anywhere on earth.

WITH spring chickens selling in the market at 30 cents, and eggs at 20 cents per look, the good women who look after and care for the chickens on the farm should be receiving quite a lot of pin money. It should also induce them to take better care of their chickens and breed them up to standard strains. They would then get better money for the chickens and also for eggs.

DR. MAYFIELD'S letter on the tobacco question yesterday strikes the key note. He is a man of deeds and not idle talk. When he says that he will have the acreage doubled next year, even if he has to do all the planting himself, you can count on him doing it. He has been spending the summer in Colorado, but he has been in touch with the tobacco interests every day of his absence.

THE farmers of this county will meet in this city Saturday, September 22 for the purpose of organizing the Nacogdoches Tobacco Growers' Association. Every farmer in the county who expects to engage in the culture of tobacco should make it convenient to attend the meeting. This section of East Texas is well adapted to the growing of the finer grades of cigar filler tobacco, and if the farmers will take hold of the matter in a business like way, there can be no doubt but that all will find it profitable, as those who planted this year will testify.

REPUBLICANS LOST HEAVILY.

Election in Maine Produced Most Startling Results.

Portland, Me., Sept. 11.—The result of the election in this state yesterday when the republican plurality for governor, which usually approximates 25,000, was reduced to about 8000, while at the same time the total vote was greatly increased over the figures of four years ago is attributed to the operation of the prohibition liquor laws.

Although republicans re-elected Governor William T. Cobb, and all four congressmen of the State, and have a working control of the state legislature, the pluralities are so generally reduced as to occasion surprise in many quarters. Both Governor Cobb and Congressman Littlefield, in whose district the most vigorous battle of the campaign was waged, are of the opinion that the Sturgis law providing for the enforcement of the existing prohibitory law by state liquor deputies, was a leading factor in the results. The democrats made resubmission of the liquor prohibitory amendments to the people a part of their platform while the republicans stood squarely for the indorsement of the prohibitory plan and strict enforcement, of the result is evident in the cities, the democrats carrying all 21 municipalities of the state with the exception of four smaller ones.

The vote in the county districts, however, where the resubmission idea never gained any noticeable following, more than offset the democratic gains in cities.

In the Second congression district, where Samuel Gompers, president of the National Federation of Labor, conducted a vigorous campaign to defeat Congressman Littlefield the latter's majority was reduced from that of four years ago by several thousand votes.

The congressman attributes the result not to the campaign against him, but to the general sentiment regarding the Sturgis law.

Dr. Mayfield Talks Tobacco.

Cloraday Springs, Colo., Sept. 7.—To The Sentinel: During all of my protracted absence from home, seeking health, I have kept tab on the tobacco business in our red land section. The superiority of our product over any thing else in the United States has been established and I note, with great satisfaction, its wonderful progress, from seed to cigar. I was one of the original promoters of tobacco culture in East Texas, and have never lagged or doubted its success. I think it the biggest thing in our reach, the refuge of the cotton slaves, the enrichment of its participants, and the best thing going for the farmer who can reach it.

I shall be at home in a few days, and complete and proceed to operate a Texas Leaf Tobacco Co. to grow, buy, sell and manufacture. I have bought and will buy every pound that has quality, am having a systematic sweating or packing house operated, and a superb Cigar Factory, all to encourage the work and promote the general good of our section.

Next year I intend to double the acreage of tobacco if I have to plant it myself. A Missourian can be shown, does a Texan need more?

J. E. Mayfield.

Sixshooters and Crops.

The difference between a sixshooter and a hoe in Waller county is about $860. Last fall a man in that county bought 40 acres of land near Hampstead at $10 per acre on credit. He planted 38 acres in watermelons and had sold twelve cars at $105 per car paid for his land, and is now "toting" a bankbook in his pistol pocket showing a balance of $860. And he has enough melons left of later growth to start a bunch of hogs on the road to future fatness. The Missouri hen will please pause in her loud exuberant cackling long enough to note that the rattlesnake melon is no slouch of a fulcrum of a fulcrum in a mortgage-lifting contest. —Handley Herald.

Obituary

Another home was made desolate by the death of Frank F. Skeeters, Sept. 8th, 1906.

Frank, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Skeeters of Appleby, was born at the Skeeter's old homestead, now known as the Well's place, on July 7th, 1878.

His father being a farmer he worked on the farm and attended the Appleby school until he was twenty one, when he entered college at Waco, Tex. to take a course in commercial book-keeping.

While at Waco he was stricken down with a very severe case of measles and for quite a while his life was despaired of.

After recovery he interred the firm of W. L. Skeeters & Son, as book keeper.

After three years he became a member of the firm which is now known as Skeeters Bros.

On June 15th, 1902, he was united in marriage to Miss Bettie Tucker, at Bethel church. He became a member of the Baptist church in the year 1902, and has since lived a consistent christian life.

The remains were entered at Bethel cemetery by the Woodmen of the World, Woodmen Circle and Christian hopors, an Sept. 8th, at 5:20 p. m.

He leaves a wife and child besides many relatives and friends who mourn his death.

Obedient son, affectionate husband and father and kind generous christian gentleman, he has left a vacancy in a home, church, and community. Although young in years, being 28, his memory will ever be cherished by his many associates.

Bereaved ones, may God sustain you in this sad hour of trials, let us console ourselves with the blessed assurance that Frank has gone back in the "sunshine of God's love" where heartaches can never come, and where he awaits us in that beautiful home above.

The Nacogdoches Public Schools.

Those who are interested in such things have observed many changes in the public schools of Nacogdoches during the past half dozen years. From a district of very meager facilities for schools she has become one of the best if not the very best equipped school district in our state. All of her students—even the colored students—are housed in modern substantially constructed brick school buildings that are equipped with the latest improved school furniture. Her buildings grounds etc. are worth between seventy five and one hundred thousand dollars. What district with the same population of Nacogdoches can make such a showing?

During this half dozen years our schools have grown to such an extent that instead of employing six white teachers we now employ eighteen exclusive of music and art teachers of which there are about six or eight that work with us in this great task of educating our children.

At the beginning of this period our schools were in such an unorganized and chaotic condition that it was almost impossible for pupil or parent to tell anything of the child's advancement. Now instead of this we have a well graded and well organized system of schools that stand for something; a system in which our boys and girls have given a portion of the course laid out for a year's work and our pupils go on from year to year completing a grade each year and when they have graduated from our school they receive a diploma that also stands for something. As evidence of this fact our High School has been affiliated with the State University, the A. & M. College etc. and our graduates may enter these institutions of learning without examination.

We now have well defined courses in our High School in English, History, Mathematics, Latin, the Commercial branches, and we are prepared to give a through course in German.

Our school authorities have recently added another grade to our course which gives us an eleven grade system of schools. This will enable our boys and girls to stay at home and do some work that, otherwise, they would have to do after they enter college.

All of these things have taken and are still taking in educational affairs. Our people are alive to their duty and I believe they are determined to do it. Our Board of Education have been untiring in their efforts to give us the best schools in the land and they cannot be complimented too highly for the work they do. Our pupils are awake and they too, take more pride than ever before in doing their work well and in caring for their new buildings and furniture. Last but not least, we have a corps of well trained teachers. They know what their duty is and they strive to do it. They are a body of harmonious workers; they love their calling and they have made special preparations for it.

Now when the above conditions obtain in any community, good schools and great men and women will be the ultimate result.

While the above statements are true, at the same time, our funds are not sufficient to enable us to have nine months of free school and the result is that we must have part of the "pay school."

Some one will say, why not have an eight months' term? The answer is, that the average pupil cannot finish a grade in our school in less time than nine months.

Are you going to send your child to school during "pay month?" Are you willing for your child (because he is out of school one month) become discouraged and have to be dragged over his work or to cause his classmates to have to be held back on his account?

Are you willing for him to have to remain in one grade two years and perhaps, lose all interest in education and grow up in ignorance?

One of these things is likely to happen to those pupils who do not start to school at the beginning of the session and remain in school until the close of same.

As a general rule those who attend all of the time have no trouble in completing a grade per year, while those who are in only a part of the time become discouraged, the require more than a year to complete a grade, this causes dissatisfaction at home and the pupil rarely ever graduates and the parents rarely ever like either the schools or the teachers. Who is to blame for this?

Let's see that all the children enter school Monday morning, September 10, and see that they stay there during the entire session. Do not allow them to become discouraged because we have failed to do our duty. We owe this to ourselves and to our children.

Our schools will open under brighter auspices than ever before and I bespeak for teachers, patrons, and pupils a pleasant and profitable year's work.

Pledging my best efforts, to all concerned, to accomplish any and all things that will tend to the betterment and upbuilding of our schools, I am, Very Respectfully,
R. F. Davis, Supt.

Mollie Bailey Married

The announcement that Mollie Bailey, the veteran show woman, is married will be quite a surprise to her many acquaintances, over the State. Mrs. Bailey was united in marriage to Mr. A. M. Hardesty in Brady the 16th of last April, Justice E. P. Lea performing the ceremony. For some cause Mrs. Bailey asked Mr. Lea to keep the marriage a secret until the 1st of September, which he did. A report was circulated over the State last winter to the effect that Mrs. Bailey had made an attempt to get married, but was prevented from doing so by her sons. Mrs. Bailey is something near 60 years of age and her husband is a comparatively young man. Good wishes are a little late, but here's hoping that their remaining days may be happily spent.—Brady Enterprise.

Exchange Comment.

It will soon be time for the mail order houses to send to the people of the rural districts their catalogues telling of the wonderful saving to be made by sending off for supplies. It is right here that The Sentinel wishes to remind its readers that it is a duty they owe their home merchant to first see him and get figures on the proposed purchase.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

If the Nacogdoches merchants will use the columns of the Nacogdoches papers in displaying their wares in an attractive manner as the mail order house in Chicago uses to display the bargains offered, there will be more interest in home goods at home prices. The mail order house gets business because it offers the attractive inducement through the artful aid of ads.—Houston Post.

The shade tobacco grown here this year yielded 1,350 pounds per acre and sold on contract price at 40c per pound. Some day the Nacogdoches farmers will be growing tobacco, the same as cotton, and the cotton crops of East Texas will be little patches. When this condition of affairs, i. e., small cotton patches, prevails all over the cotton producing States, the farmers will then be getting about 25c per pound for their cotton.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

The land adapted to or suitable for raising the tobacco which brings 40c a pound is rare in this land of ours. In fact, the Soil Survey Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Washington says that this land is to be found only in a few localities and the Nacogdoches land is better than elsewhere. The Nacogdoches land is especially recommended as adapted to growing fine cigar filler tobacco, and the cigars made from it have proved the correctness of the department in its statement that the Nacogdoches land is as good for fine tobacco as the cigar tobacco lands of Cuba. If State Press is not in error, the tobacco sold for 40c a pound, as stated above, was sold before the crop was planted. Offers were made for it at that price, if the farmers producing it would do so under the supervision of Government experts. In a late issue of a Nacogdoches paper it was said that one of the tobacco growers had made $60 an acre from his crop. That appears to be a very high price, and if the crop can be made at three times the labor required in raising cotton the tobacco crop ought to supersede cotton and other kinds of crops in the tobacco growing locality. Land which will raise tobacco as good or even nearly as good as the best tobacco of Cuba will eventually be devoted wholly to tobacco.—Gal-Dal News.

Will Organize Saturday

On Saturday afternoon, September 22, the tobacco growers of this county will meet here for the purpose of organizing the Nacogdoches County Tobacco Growers' Association. The meeting will be called to order at 2 o'clock. It is hoped that every one interested in the growing of tobacco for profit will be present, and take part in the deliberations.

Mrs. A. J. Lock and children, are visiting relatives at Attoyac this week and Jack is keeping batch.

Oak Ridge Notes.

The protracted meetings are not over yet. The Baptist commenced one at Melrose yesterday, (Sunday) with a good attendance. Services conducted by Rev. Girard.

Douglass and Audie Patton, Clyde Stallings, Wattie Gaston and Keith Simpson, all from this neighborhood, have gone up to enroll themselves in the Nacogdoches high school.

Iva Gillikin has returned from Houston and Galveston and reports having had the time of her life. She, too, will enter the Nacogdoches high school, next week.

Allan Moss of Chireno, passed through, Saturday enroute for Salado, where he will enter the "Thomas Arnold Preparatory school" at that place.

Mrs. W. D. Lambert and little tots were Oak Ridge guests for the last two days.

Mr. Andy Thomas still has the western fever. Several others are catching it.

Mr. Jas. Stalling had the misfortune to step on a nail, which inflicted a severe wound in his foot and causes him great pain.

Why it is Successful!

As a general strengthener and family medicine Browns' Iron Bitters is renowned the world over, because it is an honest reliable remedy that has stood the test of a quarter of a century. The Log Rollers' Association.

The executive committee of the Nacogdoches county Log Rollers' Association met in the hall of Liberty Elm Camp W. O. W. last night and decided to hold the next meeting on the second Friday in October. The meeting of the association will be held in the afternoon and at night the work will be put on by the team from the camp at Travick.

Saturday morning there will be speeches and a general all round good time held in the town of Caro, and at the noon hour there will be spread one of the finest dinners (so the delegates said) ever placed before a bunch of hungry Woodmen.

A good band of music has been secured for the occasion and the Caro-Travick camps promise all who may attend a good time.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Acts on Nature's Plan.

The most successful medicines are those that aid nature. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. Take it when you have a cold and it will allay the cough, relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and aid nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. Price, 25 cents. Large size, 50 cents. For sale by Perkins Kleas & Mast. dw

A Complete Backdown.

Seeing the overwhelming popularity of the Byrne Simplified Shorthand and Practical Bookkeeping, a few of our would be competitors, using some of the old moss back systems have yelled themselves hoarse about what can't be done with the Byrne; but are as silent as the tomb about what can be done with the old system they teach. To all of these we have made for the past two years and still make the following standing offer which they have absolutely declined to accept: They to select five students from their school who have not studied any system of shorthand more than five months, and we will select an equal number of Byrne writers from our school who have not studied any system more than three months; they to select one judge; we select one; these to select a third; these judges to test the speed and accuracy of their students and ours in new and unfamiliar matter, court reporting, legal briefs, and business letters, five consecutive minutes on each class of matter.

If their students make a better record than ours, we pay all expenses of the contest; if our students make a better record than theirs, they pay all expenses of the contest. The fact that their students have two months more preparation than ours is not to be considered in the contest.

Since the other schools have admitted that we can give a better course in two months less time than they, and since we secure good positions free of charge for every graduate, would it not be complimentary to your good judgment to make your arrangements to enter the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas at the earliest possible date? Large illustrated catalogue free for asking.

When two strong men come to blows, even if they are well matched, it is not a pleasing sight, but if the man who gets the worst of it will use Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve, he will look better and feel better in short order. BATTLESHIP LOUISIANA

This Monster Vessel Will Visit New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 11.—The United States Navy Department has announced that the Battleship Louisiana, the newest and biggest war vessel in the Navy, will come to New Orleans about Dec. 1 to receive the $10,000 silver service given by the people of Louisiana, the value of which equals that to the Battleship New York, heretofore the most expensive in the navy. Considerable diversion was created during the past week by the statement supposed to emanate from the Bureau of Navigation that the passes at the mouth of the Mississippi River were too shallow to admit the Louisiana which draws 26 feet three-fourth inches, full loaded. As ocean-freight vessels drawing several feet more than the Louisiana and having 50 per cent more length, pass in and out of the river almost daily, the story evoked a storm of indignation and the New Orleans Progressive Union wired Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte demanding an investigation. Congressman Davey of Louisiana was in Washington and a visit to the navy department resulted in a complete change of front, he being advised that the Louisiana would be sent about Dec. 1, that the naval board demanded by the Progressive Union to take soundings would be sent here meanwhile, while the Chief Engineer's Department of the War Department asserted there was ample water at the passes for the Louisiana. The river in front of New Orleans has a depth of nearly 200 feet and a fine harbor is afforded vessels of all sizes.

On numerous occasions when vessels were wanted here for special features, reports have cropped out of Washington calculated to inspire fear that such vessels might be damaged. It was decided to settle the matter finally, hence the board of inquiry was demanded. The largest floating steel dry dock in the world, except the Dewey at Manila, is located opposite the United States Naval Station at New Orleans and the government has thrown it open to the use of all vessels, many of which make the Louisiana seem small in comparison.

"Per-una has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me."—Mrs. O. D. Robinson.

Mrs. O. D. Robinson, 43 St. Felix St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
 "I have taken Per-una and it did me more good than all my two years' treatment by special physicians. I can really say that I feel like another person. No more swollen feet and limbs. No more bloating of the abdomen. No more shortness of breath. No more stiff and sore joints. You have no idea what your treatment has done for me. It has prolonged my life and made a new woman of me.
 "O, such a blessing I have received through your kindness, Doctor, and the assistance of the medicine which you so kindly prescribed.

Mt. Moriah News.

Mt. Moriah, Sept. 9.—The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Stoker is reported to be worse at this writing, and the parents are greatly distressed on account of the continued sickness of the child.

The young people were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stoker this evening. The young people gathered there and engaged in an old time singing. Mr. and Mrs. Stoker opened up their home to the youngsters and entertained them in a royal manner.

The handsome new residence of R. E. Stoker is nearing completion, and he says that when it is completed that he will dedicate it with one of the old time singings. The young people are looking forward to the event with pleasure.

The church here has called Rev. J. C. Foudren for another year. He will preach here next Sunday.

MRS. CHADWICK AGAIN.

Pittsburg Man Anxious Lest She Talk a Little Too Much.

Pittsburg, Pa., September 5.—Former Judge Francis J. Wing of the United States court at Cleveland practically admitted today that he had threatened Cassie Chadwick, the dethroned "queen of finance," with the adverse influence of James W. Friend of Pittsburg in case Mrs. Chadwick applied for a pardon and release from the Ohio penitentiary at Columbus, where she is incarcerated. Judge Wing was a witness in the case brought by the widow of W. C. Jutte to secure possession of her husband's estate, which she alleges was wrongly taken from him. Several hundred thousand dollars are involved in the case. Shortly after the suit was entered, notice was given that the deposition of Mrs. Chadwick in the penitentiary would be taken, because she was known to have dealings with Mr. Friend, and it was said that she had knowledge of the business transactions between Friend and Jutte. This deposition is now in the hands of Judge J. D. Shater, and a bitter fight will be made when the time comes to rule it out. The case has been on trial for some months.

Judge Wing was formerly Mrs. Chadwick's attorney. According to the testimony; Mr. Friend engaged Judge Wing to go to Columbus and see Mrs. Chadwick in the penitentiary and try to induce her not to make disclosures of his dealings with her and which were thought to have no bearing on this case. Attorney A. Leo Weil, for Mrs. Jutte, in examination, had Judge Wing practically admit that he had threatened that Mr. Friend would oppose her if she ever wanted a pardon in case she told too much.

FIFTY CENTS

IN some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

SCHOOL OPENING.

Large Attendance of Patrons and Pupils This Morning.

From Monday's Daily:

Never in the history of the schools of this city was there a better attendance of the patrons and pupils, than the opening this morning.

The large auditorium was packed and while the opening exercises were informal, yet they were impressive and appropriate. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Robinson, after which several songs were sung, and then Prof. R. F. Davis delivered a short talk to the pupils and also patrons of the school. In addressing the pupils he said:

"Children, this is your school and the success of the school is what you make it. If you have come here this morning with the determination to make this one of the best school years in the history of the schools of this city, you will find it so at the end of the term—good children and pupils make good schools and it is your co-operation with your teacher that will make the school the pride of this part of the state."

The parents are extended a cordial invitation to visit the school as often as they desire and see the work that is being done, and if it is not what they wish it to be they can tell me. The trustees of Nacogdoches schools have done a great work for these schools and the people cannot say too many good things about them. They are all business men and they have neglected their places of business many times to attend the meetings of the board. These good men have the interest of the schools at heart and are doing every thing that they can for the success of the Nacogdoches schools."

"Now there is one more word to the children, and that is that the first bell will ring at 8:15 every morning, and children should not be on the campus before that time. There is such a thing as children coming to early. The second bell will ring at 8:45, when the regular work of the school will begin, and tell your parents that you will have time to leave home, after the first bell and not be tardy."

Alter the close of Prof.

Davis' remarks County Superintendent J. A. Spears, Prof. R. W. Tillery, (county superintendent elect,) Rev. A. J. Miller, and Prof. Page, principal of the high school made short talks. Talks which contained much good thought and if heeded will add materially to the work of the school during the present term.

The teachers are assigned as follows:

First and second grades—Miss Clark, Miss Davis, and Miss Vinson.

Third and fourth grades—Miss Cook, Miss Julia Flournoy, and Miss Clara Cook.

Fifth and sixth grades—Miss Kate Flournoy, Miss Hammock, Miss Slaughter.

High School—Prof. Page, Miss Batson, Miss Wilson, Miss Wadlington, and Prof. Davis.

For Twenty Years.

Other chill remedies have sprung up flourished for a brief season, then passed away—even from memory—but for twenty long years Cheatham's Chill Tonic has been in the field of action. A Fine Melon.

Mr. J. D. Greer has the thanks of The Sentinel for a fine melon of his own variety. It resembles the Georgia rattlesnake melon, but has a different flavor. The seeds are somewhat different. This melon, Mr. Greer says was grown on very poor quality of sandy land and without the use of fertilizer. It tipped the scales at twenty-one pounds, and for this season of the year is certainly a fine specimen, and when he will have brought this specie of melon up to his expectations, will have introduced one of the best melons in the south.

WILL TEST ELECTION LAW.

Citizen of Nacogdoches Wants His Name on the Ticket.

Nacogdoches, Texas, September 3—The Post correspondent was informed this morning by a party in this town that he was going to test the constitutionality of the Terrell election law by offering his name and pay to go on the general election ticket. If his request it refused as an independent candidate, then he would apply to the courts for redress.

The party who proposes to make the test is fully able financially to prosecute his case, and will carry it to the court of last resort. He claims that the present election law deprives a citizen of his liberties granted by the constitution of the United States, and of Texas, and that no law in conflict with the organic law can deprive a citizen from offering for office at any time before an election.—Houston Post.

Letter to H. L. Turner. Nacogdoches, Texas.

Dear Sir: If you could get the exclusive sale of a sweeter sugar for five miles round—1/2 lb as sweet as a pound of usual sugar, and cost no more—you'd jump at it, wouldn't you? There wouldn't be 100 lb of any other sugar sold in a year in your town; you'd gobble the trade; and it wouldn't hurt your whole business.

Devoe is like that among paints; it is twice as sweet as some; it is sweeter than any; not one exception; one gallon is two or one-and-a-half or one-and-three-quarters.

Better than that; has to be painted; that costs $2 to $4 a gallon. A gallon saved is $2 to $4 saved in labor, besides the paint.

Even that isn't all. A gallon Devoe put-on wears as long as two gallons put-on at a cost of $2 to $4 a gallon and two gallons more put-on at $2 to $4 a gallon. Count all that. The paint that wears double costs less 3 gallons of paint and 3 gallons of painting; that's about $15 a gallon for those superfluous gallons.

That's as good as a double-sweet sugar, isn't it?

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co. New York.

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. Mary Koehne

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. This statement is the positive truth. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary L. Koehne, 371 Garfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for years in my family and it never disappoints; so when I felt that I was nearing the change of life I commenced treatment with it. I took in all about six bottles and it did me a great deal of good. It stopped my dizzy spells, pains in my back and the headaches with which I had suffered for months before taking the Compound. I feel that if it had not been for this great medicine for women that I should not have been alive to-day. It is splendid for women old or young, and will surely cure all female disorders." Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

SORES That REFUSE TO HEAL

There is no surer evidence of a poisonous, polluted condition of the blood than that manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Every symptom suggests pollution; the discharge, the red, angry flesh, the inflammation and discoloration of surrounding parts all show that the ulcer is kept open by a constant drainage through it, of impurities from the blood.

When the blood is pure and healthy any cut, bruise or wound will heal readily; when from any cause, however, the blood has become infected with germs or poisons the place becomes a sore or ulcer, sometimes scabbing over, but never fully healing, because it is kept irritated and inflamed by the impurities in this vital fluid. Often the rough handling of a wart, mole or pimple which has never shown any sign of trouble, a slight scratch or abrasion of the skin or insignificant hurt of any character will become a sore that refuses to heal, and remains for years, eating into the surrounding flesh, resisting treatment and sometimes terminating in Cancer.

The poison in the blood may be the remains of some constitutional disease, the effects of a long spell of sickness leaving disease germs in the system, or the absorption of refuse matters of the body which have not been properly expelled through the channels of bodily waste. But whatever the cause the vitality and purity of the blood is so weakened and polluted that it cannot properly nourish the system, and the sore or ulcer is kept up. Those most usually afflicted with chronic sores and ulcers are persons who have reached or passed middle life; the vitality of the blood and strength of the system have naturally begun to weaken and the poisons in the blood which perhaps have been inherited and lain dormant in the system for years cannot be as effectually held in check as in early life when the system was strong and vigorous. While the old or middle-aged are the usual sufferers, the young are not exempt if the blood becomes infected with the germs. Salves, plasters, lotions, etc., cannot cure old sores and ulcers because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. Such treatment keeps the place clean, relieves pain and perhaps reduces the inflammation, and in this way is beneficial, but can never permanently heal them. The only treatment that can do any permanent good is a competent blood purifier, one that goes to the very root of the trouble and removes the cause, and for this purpose nothing has ever been found to equal S. S. S. It goes down to the very fountain-head of the disease, drives out all poison and morbid matter, builds up the weak, sluggish blood, gives energy and strength to the entire system, and allows the sore to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, being made of roots, herbs and barks possessing cleansing, healing properties, and is not only the King of blood purifiers, but the greatest of all tonics. If you have a sore that is slow in healing do not waste time with external treatment nor experiment with unknown medicines, but begin the use of S. S. S. and by removing every vestige of the cause, cure the trouble permanently. Special book on sores and ulcers and any medical advice desired furnished without charge to all who write.

Louisiana State Fair.

The Sentinel has received press counties from the State Fair of Louisiana, which will give its initial exhibition from November 17 to 25 at Shreveport.

Big inducements have been offered to probable exhibits in the way of premiums. Altogether nearly $40,000 will be given away. $10,000 for race purses and $30,000 to winners in the exhibit contests.

The Fair Grounds embrace 80 acres, located a little over a mile west of the city. The property formerly belonged to the Country Club was known as "Cadao Downs." Thirty thousand dollars was the amount given for the grounds, which are being placed in pretty shape for the exposition. An addition is being added to the grand stand at a cost of $1000, and when finished the grand stand will have a capacity of 3000 people.

The Midway will be under the supervision of a carnival company which operates 15 shows, and has engaged many additional attractions.

Dan Patch and Croscow, the famous pacer and trotter, have been engaged to run against the world's record.

In addition to these features of entertainment the directorate of the Fair Association has closed a deal for airship flights by the Baldwin Arrow.

Nacogdoches and Southeast Texas will take great interest in the Louisiana State Fair, because Shreveport is "our near neighbor."

Jesse Turner from Martinsville and Alvin Harris of Melrose are here today on business.

The Nacogdoches Association.

The meeting of this body of Christian workers at Appleby on Saturday September 22 will be of real interest and benefit to all who attend.

Dr. J. B. Gambrell, secretary of missions of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be in attendance. Mrs. M. J. Nelson of Corsicana, who has long been an active and efficient leader in denominational work, will be at the association and on Saturday afternoon will deliver an address to the ladies present.

This is intended to bring about a more thorough organization of the work done by our women.

Appleby has thrown open her doors and invited us to enter. We should accept the generous invitation and go there with a full delegation from all the churches.

Pain from a Burn Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Perkins Kleas & Mast. dw

H. Rich of Hallettsville arrived in the city yesterday to spend the winter here. He is connected with the government's tobacco growing experiments in Texas and will assist Mr. Olson in the work of curing and packing the Nacogdoches crop of filler tobacco now in the packing house here.

No one would buy a sailboat with sails that could not be reefed. There is always that possibility of a little too much wind that makes a cautious man afraid to go unprovided. The thinking man, whose stomach sometimes goes back on him, provides for his stomach by keeping a bottle of Kodol For Dyspepsia within reach. Kodol digests what you eat and restores the stomach to the condition to properly perform its functions. Sold by Perkins, Kleas & Mast. dw

A new addition to the business facilities of this city is the new two horse delivery wagon of B. M. Hall & Son's which is suggestive of the increase in their trade as well as being such a neat, attractive reminder of the city's progress.

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so agreeable and so natural you can hardly realize that it is produced by a medicine. These tablets also cure indigestion and biliousness. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Perkins, Kleas & Mast's drug store. dw

WAS A VERY SICK BOY

But Cured by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"When my boy was two years old he had a very severe attack of bowel complaint, but by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy we brought him out all right," says Maggie Hickox, of Midland, Mich. This remedy can be depended upon in the most severe cases. Even cholera infantum is cured by it. Follow the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Perkins Kleas & Mast. dw

Starving to Death.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair, St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die. I was induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed. "Best health tonic on earth, 50c.
