ALL TO SIGN NAMES.

Governor Vardaman Will Be Editor in Chief of Paper.

Governor James K. Vardaman announces that he will on January 1, 1908, begin the publication of a new morning newspaper in Jackson, Miss. The governor will occupy the position of editor-in-chief. The paper will be a new departure in Mississippi journalism and in many ways it will be a novelty. Every writer employed by the papers, even to the reporters, will be required to sign their names to their articles and news stories. Discussing his plans for the paper, Governor Vardaman said:

"It is the purpose of The Issue to tell the truth at all times and in regard to all public matters and public men. It will be a mirror in which the truth of all public men and measures may be seen, and the higher a man gets the more certain will the truth be told of him. No man will be employed to write for the paper, not even a reporter, who does not have the courage to stand by his statements and the integrity to state nothing but the truth. Every man who writes for the journal will be required to sign his articles. The plant will be the best equipped morning paper plant ever established in this State. Canvasers will be placed in the field at once to solicit subscriptions and advertising.

Baptist Association.

The Nacogdoches County Baptist Association will hold its annual session with the First Baptist church of Nacogdoches, beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 21st, 1907.

Rev. R. T. Holloman of Cushing will preach the introductory sermon.

A. J. Miller, Pastor, Dr. W. F. M. Smith and Dr. A. A. Nelson are moving into their new offices over Stupling, Haselwood & Co. in the Bloom building.

A NEW INDUSTRY.

Spoke and Handle Factory Secured for Nacogdoches.

Messrs. H. A. Rathke and Theodore F. Cooley, late of Saratoga, Texas, have bought the old foundry and machine shop building, located near the show case factory, from T. J. Williams, and they will at once install a complete handle and spoke factory here.

Mr. Rathke has already moved his family to Nacogdoches, and he informs The Sentinel that part of the machinery for the new factory has already been received.

Mr. Rathke states that his firm will make all kinds of vehicle spokes, and axe, pick, maul, canthook and perhaps shovel and spade and hoe handles.

This is an industry that Nacogdoches has long needed, and one that will certainly prove a profitable one to the enterprising promoters.

School Opening.

The next session of the Nacogdoches Public Schools will open Monday, September 10, 1907, and because of the fact that the school authorities have found it necessary to employ another teacher in addition to the number heretofore employed in the High School, and also in view of the fact that quite a sum of money will have to be expended in the way of improvements, the Board of Trustees has found that it will be necessary to have one month of "Pay School", and they have decided to make the first month "pay month."

The tuition rates per month will be the same that they have been here for a number of years, and are as follows: $1.50 each for the first, second and third grades; $2.00 each for the fourth and fifth grades; $2.50 each for the sixth and seventh grades; $3.00 each for the eighth and ninth grades; $3.50 for the tenth grade; and $4.00 for the eleventh grade.

Please remember that all tuition is payable in advance.

Very respectfully,

R. F. Davis,

Superintendent

Spreading Out.

Mr. J. V. C. T. Christensen is adding a foundry to his machine shop, and has already begun to place material on the ground for the additional building.

Mr. Christensen purchased the cupola, moulds, etc., of the old foundry from Mr. T. J. Williams, which he will use.

This is an enterprise that will be worth a great deal not only to Nacogdoches, but to the mill men of this section of the state who will be enabled to have their machinery repaired in shorter time and at less expense than heretofore.

SHOOTING AT DOUGLASS

Two Negroes, a Gun and a Pistol do the Work

A shooting affray took place on a farm near Douglass yesterday, between Frank Forney, colored, and another negro named Twines.

From the report sent in over the phone to the county attorney's office, it was learned that Twines had shot at Forney several times with a pistol, when Forney shot at Twines with a shot gun, seriously wounding him.

The report also stated that Forney had been arrested by Constable Rogers, and a charge of assault to murder made against him. County Attorney Russell has gone to Douglass today to conduct the examining trial, which was to have been held before Justice J. J. Watkins this afternoon.

Timpson Topics

Timpson, Sept. 2. Yesterday was quite a busy day for the Lord in our town. Four sermons were preached, several Sabbath schools met in splendid order and attendance. We are glad to say the good people of Timpson love to attend church.

Miss W. C. Simpson and Miss Lou Edna Huff, from Garrison, are visiting here.

The nice, refreshing rain that came last week was a joy to every one. Cullis Wilson has gone to Melrose on a visit to his old home which he thinks he can not abandon. Every bird loves its own nest. Home, the only spot on earth where the faults and failings of humanity are hidden under the mantle of charity. Home, the father's kingdom, the children's paradise, the mother's world. So mothers, let us make homes that will satisfy every want in life.

Rev. Jim Wilson, who has been an invalid for some time, spent a week with us for his health, and glad to say he was much improved.

Miss Lois Simpson will spend the week in Beaumont.

Plenty to eat here—pork and turnip greens, beef and sweet potatoes, if you don't believe it, come and see. We have a fine country to live in and why shouldn't we be happy. L. W.

Pulled off Pine Top

Mr. J. A. Bloom seldom looks back a lot. While he is working in the mountains of Colorado, he remembered a crowd of workmen who had erected his buildings here were probably hot and dry, so he wrote to Eugene to pull down the pine top from his buildings with full form and ceremony. It was done Saturday evening in a manner that would have done credit to the old country.

Mill Supplies

We can supply you with almost anything wanted around a saw mill. Pipe Fitting of all kinds, Shafting, Lace Leather, Pulleys, Lath Yarn, Circle Saws, Lumber Buggies, and many other items not named here. You will also want a Log Wagon to haul your logs, or a Lumber Wagon to haul lumber. We them in different makes and sizes. For lumber hauling buy a Studebaker or Mitchell. They stand up and do your work when other makes break down. We don't try to see how cheap a wagon we can sell, but how good Commissioners' Court.

Colored Teachers' Institute

The county commissioners' court will meet Monday to take up the tax rolls as prepared by Tax Assessor A. Y. Donegan. By appointment of Superior Judge W. L. Tilly, Mr. Donegan has his rolls intended for ready use, and it will be one of the most interesting events held in the county since the county assessor's report on the tax rolls, which includes property made conforming to the law. This is explained regarding the work of this court by the fact that the tax rolls have been so changed as to make certain property tax money collected. In the case of the tax rolls, the court will also likely be held by the fact that the tax rolls will be a continuation of the other regular August term.

TOBACCO MANUFACTURE.

The Bureau of the Census has just issued a report on the manufacture of tobacco, prepared under the supervision of Mr. William M. Stewart, chief statistician for manufactures. The statistics presented relate to the production of cigars, cigarettes, chewing and smoking tobacco, and snuff. Census statistics of the manufacture of tobacco appeared first at the census of 1810. The classifications were "American segars," "Spanish segars," and "tobacco and snuff." No totals were presented for the entire country, but the returns for Pennsylvania gave a total of 3,898,999 Spanish segars, valued at $26,560; 29,064,000 American segars, valued at $44,253; and 2,186,757 pounds of tobacco and snuff, having a value of $410,910. For Virginia were returned 2,726,713 pounds of tobacco and snuff, of a value of $469,000. At the census of 1840, out of 30 states and territories the manufacture of tobacco was reported for 28, the total value of products as shown in the recapitulation being $5,819,568, of which Virginia reported $2,495,671. The returns at the census of 1850 were for "tobaccoists;" the value of products was reported as $13,442,117, of which $5,157,652 was from Virginia; the number of establishments in the United States was 1,518; the capital, $5,008,205; the number of wage-earners, 14,336, of which 1,975 were females; the cost of labor, $2,420,208, and of materials $7,341,728. The enormous growth of the industry since 1850 is indicated by the fact that the value of products for the year covered by the census of 1905, was $331,117,681, the capital employed being $323,983,501. In the same year the industry expended $126,088,608 for materials; $62,640,303 for wages; $8,800,434 for salaries; and $80,115,016 for miscellaneous expenses.

From a statement issued by Assistant Attorney General Hawkins, it is inferred that the attorney general's department has under consideration the question as to whether or not the anti-pass law impairs the right of contract between the railroads and the newspapers. Judge Hawkins says: "I see that there is going the rounds a newspaper clipping to the effect that the attorney general's department has held that the new anti-pass law applies to and impairs the obligation of certain pre-existing contracts. The report is unfounded in fact. We have expressed no opinion whatever upon the question, but now have it under consideration. Preparation of an opinion thereon has been delayed by press of work, but I hope to have it ready in the near future."

MR. BRYAN says he will not be a candidate for the presidency next year. His reason for this conclusion is, he states, though the people want him to run, the leaders do not. What a confession, my countrymen! That the leaders have much influence in the country's politics there is no question, but that they control the masses and their suffrage to such an extent as to be able to make whom they please president of these United States, is a reflection upon the independent manhood of this nation. The sovereign people should rule and every man should be his own leader.

THE Nacogdoches county tobacco crop was not as large as was expected it would be at the beginning of the season, owing to unfavorable weather conditions, but the price that is being received by the growers is entirely satisfactory. Some are receiving 17 cents a pound for their tobacco that was contracted for at 15 cents.

THE national Irrigation congress, will convene at Sacramento, California, next Tuesday, September 3. One of the attractions promised the delegates and visitors is that the Ogden-Tabernacle Choir will sing. This choir is said to be the greatest musical organization in the west. The convention will be opened with the "Irrigation Ode," sung by 200 voices, a song written expressly for the occasion.

THE Timpson Times says: "H. A. Doolittle of Nacogdoches has been in the city a day or two. He delivered a very nice piano to C. O. Holland yesterday. Mr. Doolittle is anxious to move to Timpson, but is unable; no vacant house that he can get." While we would regret to lose Mr. Doolittle and his excellent family, yet it is a fact that there are half a dozen families waiting for the house occupied by them to be vacated so they can rent it.

"If the party managers at Washington have a real desire to make all the Pacific coast states solidly democratic they cannot do better than keep tussling with the tariff and trying to evade the plain letter of the law," says the San Francisco Chronicle. The real trouble with the party managers is that they have been trying to evade the plain spirit of the people. As to the "letter of the law," it has been evaded for ten years by a plutocratic senate.

THE Austin Statesman makes this pointed and timely suggestion, which will no doubt be heeded: "Congressman Cooper ought to get himself down to doing something tangible with that proposed inter-coastal canal as soon as he re-enters congress, for that is the biggest enterprise ever attempted in behalf of the people of Texas and the growing and great southwest. It is immense. Nothing quite so large or important was ever before set upon foot, and it ought to be prosecuted with all earnestness and intelligence."

"IS A SHIP a lady?" asks a contemporary. Well a ship requires a lot of paint.—Galveston Tribune.

And it could not get along very well without a man.

PEOPLE often have occasion to marvel at remarkable decisions of courts and unreasonable contentions of attorneys, but they have been doing that since courts were first instituted. Frequently the action or decision of a court reminds us of the cow story that the late Gen. S. B. Maxey, former United States senator from Texas, used to tell. As the story goes, a cow dealer sold a cow to a man in the city. Soon after the sale the dealer was surprised with a summons to appear in court and answer to a suit. At the trial the purchaser said: "I asked him if the cow was a good milker." "And what did defendant say?" asked the court. "He said, 'she'll astonish you,' but since I've had her the cow has not given a drop of milk." "Then, said the justice, "I should say she has astonished you. Verdict for the defendant."

THE boom of Charles A. Towne for the democratic presidential nomination is not likely to be taken seriously. The former senator is a spellbinder of considerable ability, and otherwise merely a demagogue. Eleven years ago he participated in the sensational bolt of the free silverites at the republican national convention. After posing as the head of the free silver republicans until only the head was left, he moved to New York city, got into the good graces of Tammany, and was sent to congress by order of Boss Murphy. No Tammany henchman can be elected president of the United States.

THE Nacogdoches Sentinel remarks that "the man who buys Nacogdoches property now is wise," while the Houston Chronicle says that "labor is the law of wisdom." As we understand it, he is wise if he buys Nacogdoches property, and must labor, all of which we do not doubt in the least.—Center News.

THE conclusion is this: The man who invests the fruits of his labor in Nacogdoches property is the personification of wisdom.

THE time has arrived when Nacogdoches county needs a good old fashioned hanging to stop the murder epidemic.—Cushing Enterprise.

THE old rule of catching before hanging has been amended in Nacogdoches county to read, conviction before hanging. Hence hangings in this county have been few.

The South and the Nomination. Memphis Commercial Appeal.

Not a few Northern papers continue to urge on Democracy the advisability of nominating a Southern man as its standard bearer in the presidential campaign. The South, of course, appreciates the spirit of the suggestion and recognizes with these Northern journals that in this section are to be found, not only able men for the presidency, but also statesmen who are true exponents of the old-fashioned, shon-pure brand of Democracy. This paper would take delight in seeing a Southerner thus honored. But with all this, it is quite evident that no Southern man is strong enough to win this fight with the nation, and as the South has so often in the past waived its own meritorious claims in the hope of seeing Democracy triumphant, it is now, too, thoroughly prepared for yet another sacrifice of the same kind.

No doubt the South is growing presidential timber; no doubt some of it is now looming up strong and tall beyond that of other sections; but in spite of the many kindly and encouraging expressions from the Northern and Eastern press in connection with this nomination, the South is convinced that the time is not yet ripe for one of its sons to reach forth and take the leadership of the party. This time is coming of a certainty, and it is not very distant, but it is not to be this time. Southern Democracy itself is not prepared for it. Northern Democracy urges it not altogether with the enthusiasm of confidence, and Western Democracy would not take kindly to it in the least.

If it were not for the many strange gods which have found at least temporary riches upon Democracy's hearthstone, there might be the shadow of a chance for some stalwart, true-blue Southern Democrat to carry the country, for the whole nation is leaning some toward Southern statesmen as examples of honesty in public life and as more or less removed from those corrupting influences that have tainted the reputations of so many of the public men of the North and East. But, as we have said, the South will not be found seeking the nomination this time; and, indeed, under the circumstances, this section ought to pass it up, for it is on record as offering it elsewhere, and unless the unexpected occurs in some most pronounced degree, there will not be justification for any change.

The Home Mission Field. The Italian colony in Birmingham, Ala., has begun the publication of an Italian paper in the interest of the immigrants and Italian laborers. During the past year 224,080 Italians entered this country through Ellis Island. The Home Mission Society has established a day and night school where 278 Italian children are taught the rudiments of Christian education.

The Seagriff and Bible Training school at Kansas City, Mo., though owned by the M. E. Church South, is opened to Christian women of all evangelic churches. They are trained in Home and Foreign mission work. Missionary nursing, Bible teachers. The school has students from nineteen states, Texas having twelve.

The Methodist Dormitory at Denton, Texas, is nearing completion and it is hoped will be ready for the opening of the College of Industrial Arts, Oct. 15. Quite a number of students have already applied for rooms. Texas conference will support one girl this year. Nacogdoches Auxillary will cheerfully pay her part.

Married in New York.

News has been received here that Mr. E. B. Barker, a popular employe at the Hayward mill, was recently married in New York. Mr. Barker was spending a few weeks vacation visiting New York and other eastern cities, and his reported marriage was quite a surprise to his Nacogdoches friends. He will return with his bride within few days, when they will receive the hearty congratulations of their hosts of friends.

There is millions in peanuts; if you don't believe it try a crop next year.

Houston had a $100,000 fire Monday night. At that rate Houston will soon catch up with Nacogdoches.

The Texas Diamond Jubilee is to be pulled off in 1911 instead of 1910. But where, deponant knoweth not. It will be in Texas, however.

In 1905 the cotton crop of Nacogdoches county was 5455 bales, and the indications are that the crop of 1907 will not exceed this number.

Several cities and towns in Texas have experienced a water famine recently. Not so with Nacogdoches. Whatever else may be lacking in the East Texas metropolis, there is no scarcity of water.

The Galveston News of Sunday, September 1, contained an exhaustive and commendable writup of the Texas coast country, and embraced 60 pages. Such enterprise deserves to be rewarded.

A NUMBER of starving rats attacked a Chinaman in San Francisco, and the grapevine special states that the famished rodents would have made a meal off the Mongolian had not other Chinamen come to the rescue. The story has a moral: Be careful what varmint ye eat, lest ye be by it eaten.

The statement is made that the American farmers' earnings are $1,000,000,000 greater this year than last, according to the preliminary report on crops which will be published in the next issue of the American Agriculturist. This big gain has been entirely due to the increased price of farm products.

The circus season is upon us, and with it an important question confronts the newspaper man. Will he be allowed to accept complimentary tickets to the show without violating the anti-pass law? The attorney general will kindly answer this question quick, for there is a circus in Texas right now.

The Houston Post issued a huge trade edition of 68 pages on Monday, Sept. 2. In addition to an exhaustive portrayal of the progress and growth of Houston and Harris county, both in population and industrial enterprises, the big paper contained a complete review of the various manufacturing, industrial, commercial, mineral and agricultural resources of the state. One important industry, however, was neglected or overlooked by the Post's compilers, and that was tobacco growing in Texas. With this exception the Post's trade edition was a complete resume of Texas' resources, and should be given the widest circulation possible.

The Peanut Industry.

In his address before the National Editorial Association, Governor Glenn, in referring to the great industries of North Carolina that are now making that country rich, referred to the growing and marketing of peanuts as one of the state's greatest resources. While he did it in a humorous vein, his statements were the truth, for not only are North Carolina and Virginia now furnishing the country with two-thirds of the peanut crop, but by giving care to its improvement and by judicious dissemination of information regarding the peanut as an article of diet, the demand has doubled in the past few years. The peanut is now almost regarded as a staple crop without which the world would get along quite badly. The demand for it will grow right along with the consumption of other nut crops, for the people are yearly becoming greater nut eaters. There is little fear of over doing the business any time soon, for the import business is growing as rapidly as the home demand. The peanut is easily cultivated, responds to the poorest soil—and usually with an abundant harvest. It has been the means of reaching much of worn out land of the states mentioned as well as of Georgia, Alabama and a few other Southern states. Texas farmers should give their attention to this crop, where the soil is adapted to its growth. It is a sandy land crop, thrives in any kind of loose, sandy soil, and as a money crop on this kind of land will beat cotton badly. Almost every county in Texas has some good land for growing peanuts. In the states where the crop is most extensively grown, the exhausted condition of the land requires fertilization, which is hardly necessary in any part of Texas, our poorest lands being fertile enough. Cotton is a good crop and a profitable one while the price is so high, but there are other things that can be as successfully grown as cotton and peanuts are among those things.—Brownwood Bulletin.

The Somerville Standard calls attention to a pertinent fact in this way: "Lawyers stand up in the court houses before jurors, in the presence of large audiences, and denounce men as liars, scoundrels, thieves, and perjured villians, and when court adjourns the men appear to harbor no ill will against them. But let a newspaper faintly intimate that a man's character is blemished and he has to confront a horse pistol, stand a libel suit or suffer what the people think to be the greatest of all mortification—lose a subscriber." The Standard should not complain on account of the fact to which it calls attention. It only emphasizes the reliability and influence of the newspaper man and demonstrates that the people care little for what a lawyer says under certain circumstances.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN.

Suppose the Comet Should Strike the United States.

Mille. G. Renaudot, a noted writer on scientific subjects, and a member of the Astronomical Society, who has been observing the comet of 1907 from the Juvisy Observatory, in France, has formed an opinion of what would happen in event this comet, which is described as a great puff of wind, of fantastic shape, about 20,000,000 miles in length, would collide with the earth. "In all probability," she says, "the first effect would be diminution of oxygen in the air. There would be extremely low spirits, a general depression, a dull, lethargic stupor. All business would cease, and a cold terror would fall on the earth, until the comet passed away.

"Then, with the diminution of nitrogen, and the increase of oxygen in the air, a great reaction would be produced. First there would be a happy satisfaction and irresistible gaiety, then would come nervous excitement, caused by a more rapid combustion of the blood in the lungs and its more rapid circulation. A wild orgy would follow. The whole of humanity would palpitate to the beating of one heart, and in the end the brain would be attacked. The world would be transfixed into wild madness, and participate in the wildest extravagances, ending in final exhaustion.

"But this will probably never happen."

The Galveston News of Sept. 1 shows a wonderful advancement made by the port during the past year. Galveston ranks second among the ports of the United States in the value of foreign exports and second in the total of foreign business. Galveston ranks eighth among ocean and gulf ports in the value of foreign imports and twelfth among custom districts. Galveston holds first place as a cotton and cotton by-products exporting port in the world. Galveston has a minimum depth of thirty feet in the harbor channel and 28 1-4 feet on the bar. Many times vessels drawing 28 1-2 feet can put to sea. The protection work along the beach is now so far advanced by the completion of the seawall and the raising of the grade of more than half the area to be filled that one can get a definite idea as to how the entire work will look when completed. Galveston has a total seawall protection of 4.37 miles, extending completely around the gulf side of city. Eight blocks of the Seawall Boulevard have been completed.

One hundred trams daily is very good, and the town that has them has very little kick a-coming; don't you think?—Austin Statesman.

That's what we've been telling the people of Nacogdoches, but they don't seem to appreciate it. Fact is, few of them believe it.

The latest industry secured for Nacogdoches is a spoke and handle factory. Next!

CITY COUNCIL MEETING.

Office of City Attorney Created by Ordinance.

The city council met in regular monthly session Tuesday afternoon with all the aldermen present, except Alderman Blount, and Mayor R. T. Shindler presiding.

The presence of Alderman Floyd was very gratifying to his colleagues, he having been absent the last two or three meetings on account of sickness.

The question of filling up the big ditch on East Main street from the top of the hill to LaNana bridge, and thus widening the street, was discussed, and the matter was referred to the Street and Bridge committee with power to act. It is quite likely that the work will be done.

An ordinance was passed creating the office of city attorney, and Moss Adams, Esq., was elected by the council to fill the position, but he has not yet decided whether or not he will accept it.

The city secretary was instructed by the council to notify the company to ship at once the 1000 feet of fier hose and two hose carts, ordered by the council some time ago, and Alderman Floyd was authorized to sell the old hook and ladder truck.

It was unanimously decided by the council to postpone action on the question of reducing the city water rates until after the new system has been completed and installed.

The city attorney was instructed to prepare a dog ordinance with the view of preventing so many worthless and useless dogs running large in the city.

A proposition from the Missouri Bridge and Iron company of Leavenworth, Kansas, to widen and improve the bridge over LaNana creek on East Main street was read, and a committee consisting of Mayor Shindler and Aldermen Baker and Blount was selected to confer with the commissioners court with the view to securing assistance from that body in making the much needed improvement of the bridge.

The following accounts were allowed:

Why Remain Blind

Or Partially Blind
 Why Suffer From Any Eye Disease or Deformity

If you will call on Dr. Adams he will tell you plain facts about your case and will guarantee to cure if your case is at all curable. If not curable he will tell you so and you are out nothing. He has a proven record of success in Texas covering 12 years' active practice. Has cured hundreds in Texas who were led to his office and now they see to read. Thirty people in East Texas led to him in past few weeks, some of them led for years (30 led to office, 28 of them now enjoy good sight). Doubtful cases investigate. Ninety out of every hundred can be cured, hence there is little or no excuse for you to be led about.

Dr. Adams has 15 years' experience in this work and is not a traveling oculist. His home and sanitarium for care and cure of difficult cases in Houston, Texas. Branch offices at Lutkin and Nacogdoches.

Watch this space for his visits to Nacogdoches. He will guarantee you sight. Write for symptom blanks. He may cure you at home. He cures many at their own home. Address GORDON ADAMS, M. D. Eye Specialist. 468 and 419 Mason block, Houston, Texas. Or meet him at Nacogdoches. Watch this space for dates.

Nacogdoches Man Honored.

Mr. Henry E. Turner left for Austin yesterday afternoon in response to a phone message from Comptroller J. W. Stephens, notifying him that he had been appointed to a clerkship in the tax department of the comptroller's office. The appointment was unsolicited and unexpected by Mr. Turner, as he had not even thought of making application for it.

The selection of Mr. Turner was a wise one on the part of Comptroller Stephens. Having served Nacogdoches county for six years as tax collector especially qualifies Mr. Turner for the position, and no doubt his selection was due to his splendid reports made to the comptroller's of-rice during his incumbency in office.

Mr. Turner has not yet definitely accepted the appointment, but merely went to Austin to further inform himself as to the duties and emoluments of the position.

Hay Fever.

Hay fever is one of the many other things that happen in summer to make us enjoy the winter.

Hay fever is a combination of cold in the head, morning after, indigestion, headache, stiff neck, neuralgia and many other things too numerous to mention.

It is said to be caused by the drifting pollen from the golden rod. This is why, in the room of a hay feverite you may see a little wall card bearing some one's beautiful verses about the golden rod. The surface of the card is covered with dents, indicating where the patient has hurled his shoe at the sublime thoughts of the poet.

Hay fever is indicated by a red nose, red eyes and general red-headedness of temper with disinclination to smile, and a continuing desire to swat someone.

Any doctor can cure hay fever, until he gets it himself. The best thing to do for hay fever is to go away from home; otherwise the family and friends suffer too much.

FREE mail delivery service will be inaugurated in Orange tomorrow. Nacogdoches is just as much entitled to free mail delivery as is Orange, and the citizens of Nacogdoches are to blame for not having secured this service long ago.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

Large Salaries.

The graduates of the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, draw the largest salaries of any business college graduates in the state. The reason is plain. This school gives the most thorough, complete, and extensive courses of stenography, business training, and telegraphy to be found anywhere. With our advantages of the modern famous Byrne systems of bookkeeping and shorthand, we reduce the time required for completing a course from two to four months over what is required in other schools.

If you are acquainted with the average business college graduate, you know they go out and work in offices as helpers, or where the work is light, at most any price to get a start, many working for $6 and $8 per week. This is not so with the graduates of the Tyler Commercial College. Our thorough practical courses gives the student the training and experience that enables him to go into and hold the better class of positions vacated by experienced help, and thereby draw a good salary from the very first. The advanced salaries that our students draw over the salaries received by graduates of other schools would make it cheaper for the student to attend our school and pay the full rate of tuition than to attend another school with tuition free.

We mention the salaries of a few of our students who were but a few months ago without our course of practical training and were not able to earn $25 per month: A young lady who worked in her brother's store at $6 a week, finished a course with us in ten weeks time, and is now drawing $85 per month. Another young lady who was not earning anything and could not pay her tuition was placed in school by some friend of her father. She is now drawing $1200 per year. Another young lady who was not earning a cent, finished her course, and is drawing a regular salary of $125 per month. A young man who was working on a farm as a day laborer, spent three months in our school and his first four months wages averaged him $175.00 per month.

He is now earning from $2500 to $3000 per year. Another young man who was working at a saw mill at $1.50 per day, took our combined course of bookkeeping and shorthand and is now manager of an extensive business at a salary of $2,500 per year. We could give hundreds of similar cases from those who have enrolled with us during the past two years. No other school in America can show such salaries from students just from school. It is our superior practical training that enables our students to draw these excellent salaries. It is a positive fact that we cannot supply the demand for our graduates of bookkeeping and shorthand. Write for and read our $100 guaranty on page two of our catalogue. No other school will back their advertising with such a guaranty. If you can't enroll with us now, write us why. Our advice has helped thousands to accomplish their aim. Write us a confidential letter at once. Yours for a practical education: Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia nearly all the time. Their food may satisfy the appetite but it fails to nourish the body simply because the stomach is not in fit condition to do the work it is supposed to do. It can't digest the food you eat. The stomach should be given help. You ought to take something that will do the work your stomach can't do. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids, digests the food itself and gives strength and health to the stomach. Pleasant to take. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

W. D. Lambert of Chireno has returned from St. Louis, where he purchased his fall stock of goods. He says prices have advanced some but that he will still be able to sell goods at reasonable prices.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses have been issued by County Clerk Spears since last report:

- W. L. Bradshaw and Miss Ruth Pruitt.
- D. D. Owens and Miss Maggie Wilkerson.
- R. G. Bobbett and Miss Rossie Cruse.

Occasional headache, belching, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite and slight nervousness are symptoms of indigestion which, when allowed to go uncorrected, will develop into a case of dyspepsia that will take a long time to get rid of. Don't neglect your stomach. At the first indication of trouble take something that will help it along in its work of digesting the food you eat. Kodol For Indigestion and Dyspepsia will do this. Kodol will make your food do you good and will enable you to enjoy what you eat. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dw

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main street, says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisis, stops hemorrhages of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed at Mast Bros. & Smith's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. dw

Indigestion for 23 Years.

Mr. W. G. Manuel, Biloxi, Miss., says: "I suffered for 23 years with a most severe case of indigestion. After I had been treated by three physicians with no benefit, I began to use patent medicines. I used everything I could hear of without results, until I got the wonderful Pa-Nol. It gave me quick relief. My appetite is fine, and I scarcely have any symptoms of my old trouble, although I have used only two bottles up till now.

GOOD WORK.

Done Daily in Nacogdoches and Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Nacogdoches still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

Ben Heflin, farmer, living seven and a half miles northeast of Nacogdoches, Tex., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills acted effectively in my case. I have been a constant sufferer from kidney trouble for six years. During that time I tried many different remedies and doctored until I was tired, but still the dull grinding ache in the small of my back was always present. If I stopped or lifted, it seemed as though my back would care in. The secretions from the kidneys and ureters were as red as blood, and accompanied with a burning sensation. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Mast Bros. & Smith's drug store and they did me more good and in less time than any other preparation I had tried. In fact, after using one box I felt like a different man."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Miss Cornelia Harrell of Martinsville is the guest of her cousin, Miss Katie Harrell.

No Race Suicide Here. An interesting fact has just been disclosed and the attention of The Sentinel called to it. To ten families residing on Iron Hill in this city, there have been born 107 children, an average of over ten children to the family. There is no evidence of race suicide in that portion of the city, and if every family in Nacogdoches had a record like that the city's population would not only be much greater than it is, but the Five Million club would be given a big boost and Nacogdoches would be entitled to the Diamond Jubilee in 1910.

Big Price for Cotton.

A bale of new cotton was sold in Nacogdoches today for 14 1-2 cents per pound. The cotton was raised by a colored man, and came from near Chireno. He says he will have two more bales for the market within the next week.

Strongest and Best.

Royaline Oil, the great Antiseptic, outlasts them all, it stops pain and heals wounds like magic. It wins trade from everything of its kind on the market, because it does the best work, inside or outside, for man or beast. Your Last Day on Earth.

Just now the jokesters and even those more seriously inclined are paying attention to the hypothetical question: "If this were your last day on earth, how would you spend it?" The question produces a sort of a bump when its true significance is forced upon you. You stop a moment and begin to think and thinking, assume that it is not so and you are ready to joke about it. One of the best conceivable answers was given by Gen. Robert E. Lee in that memorable letter to his son in which was written, "Duty is the sublimest word in English language."

The general told of a town meeting in a New England village. The members had met in the afternoon for the transaction of business. The sky became dark. In those days there was a good deal of talk about the end of the world. Someone suggested that the catastrophe might then be upon them, and excitement spread to all but one man. He firmly commanded that candles be brought to lighten the low ceiled room. He moved that the regular business be resumed. "If the end of the world is about to come," he remarked, "I know of no better way to meet it than by doing our duty."

Gen. Lee's illustration of his point answers the question of how to spend the last day of your life, and every other day for that matter.

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an East bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to Le Grande, Ore.," writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. "I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic, her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whiskey. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water into it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into Le Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into Le Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car." It's Up to the Juries.

Nacogdoches county last week was the scene of a murder that from the published accounts was a most deliberate and cold blooded affair. Ollie H. Branch was in his buggy with his wife and baby near Appleby, when Dr. J. J. Lockhart, a prominent physician, met them in the road. Dr. Lockhart, from accounts drove his team in front of them forcing them to stop. He got out of his buggy, went to the buggy of Mr. Branch and after a few words began shooting, several shots of which took effect, resulting in the death of Mr. Branch. Dr. Lockhart was placed in jail but afterward released on a bond of $4,000 by the justice of the peace. Murder can never be stopped in East Texas until a higher value is placed on life by the people, the courts and juries.—Hemphill Leader.

SHORT TALKS, by Boothe.

Some of the old things we did in our younger days, we still do. Some of us cling to the same old style in hats, clothes and shoes. Years ago we kept our bed-room windows closed, but now we keep them up. Some people who have suffered for a life time from different maladies, are still taking drugs that they took in their childhood. Mrs. Sarah Reitz, of Juniper, Ga. has the right idea. She writes:

"BROMONIA CO.
Gentlemen: I have not been able to eat any solids with comfort for twenty years. I saw your ad. offering free Bromonia to any sufferer. In pure desperation, I applied to our local druggist and received a free bottle. I feel that I should write to you and tell you that its effect was magical. I ate, for the first time in twenty years, a meal without pain. I have recommended it to many other sufferers who think I am their best friend on earth."
New things are sometimes the best. Try Bromonia. Your local druggist will guarantee, if you follow our directions to cure you or refund money.
