GOOD ROADS DEMONSTRATION. of road which he guarantees

The United States Government to Give us Lessons.

Nacogdoches county is to be tavored with a practical demonstration of the fact that good roads can be made on our clay hills and sand beds.

Mr. James T. Voshell of Washington, assistant engineer in the public roads department of the agricultural bureau, is in the city with a proposition that will no doubt be accepted by the county and city authorities, as well as by the citizens and tax payers of the county.

Mr. Voshell proposes to make the demonstration on any mile of road that may be selected by the people of this county, and he asks that the test be made upon the worst character of roads in the county. He agrees to superintend the work and furnish such machinery and tools as to be permanently good.

He further asks that the county furnish the labor, which can be secured at a reasonable cost.

It is estimated that this mile of road can be built at a but money profitably spent

MR O'NEAL said in his speech that if there was line to the discredit of Joe Bailey in the record of the legislative investigating committee that he would eat the book. The mere fact that the investigating committee did not agree and stood as a hung jury should be sufficient reason for Mr. O'Neal to proceed to eat that book.

TALKING FOR TEXAS.

Agricultural and Commercial Convention Convened Last Night.

From Saturday's Dally:

The convention of the commercial and agricultural interests of East and Southeast Texas convened last night at the opera house.

The meeting was called to order by President Robert Lindsey, who explained the smallness of the attendance which he thought was due to the present political stringency. Some prominent men were on the program, but at the last moment were unable to come, which was of great disappointment to the association.

Here is my way:

First. I would place the work in charge of a competent engineer who is experienced in road building, and pay him a salary to tell the rest of us how do the work the best

Second. I would buy for present and future use a good road machine and roller, with which to build the road.

Is Pe-ru-na Useful for Catarrh?

e would be obliged to admit without serve that each one of them was of bted value in chronic catarrhal as and had stood the test of many ers' experience in the tre issases. THERE CAN BE NO DISPUTE ABOUT THIS WHAT-EVER. Peruna is composed of the most efficacious and universally used herbal remedies for catarrh. Every ingredient of Perune has a reputation of its own in the cure of some phase of catarrh Peruna brings to the home the COM-BIN _D KNOWLEDGE OF SEVERAL ment of catarrhal diseases; brings to the home the scientific skill and knowlge of the modern pharmacist; and last but not least, brings to the home the vast and varied experience of Dr. Hartman, in the use of catarrh remedies, and in the treatment of catarrhal diseases

The fact is, chronic estarrh is a dis-ease which is very prevalent. Many thousand people know they have chronic catarrh. They have visited doctors over and over again, and been told that their case is one of chronic starrh. It may be of the nose, throat, ungs, stomach or some other internal organ. There is no doubt as to the nature of the disease. The only trouble is the remedy. This doctor has tried to cure them. That doctor has tried to prescribe for them.

BUT THEY ALL FAILED TO BRING ANY RELIEF.

Dr. Hartman's idea is that a catarrh remedy can be made on a large scale, as he is making it; that it can be made honestly, of the purest drugs and of the strictest uniformity. His idea is that this remedy can be supplied directly to the people, and no more be charged for it than is necessary for the handling of it.

Mo other household remedy so universally advertised carries upon the label the principal active constituents, showing that Peruna invites the full inspection of the critics.

Malaria is due to impurities and poisons in the blood. Instead of being rich, strong and healthy, the circulation has become infected with germs o disease which destroy the rich, red corpuseles that furnish nourishment and strength to the body, and reduced this vital fluid to such a weak, watery condition that it is no longer able to keep the system in health, or ward of the countless diseases and disorders that assail it. The loss of these red corpuscies takes the color and glow of health from the cheek, and we see pale, sallow faces and washed out, chalky complexions among the first toms of Malaria. But Malaria is a general systemic disease, and as the blood becomes more heavily loaded with its germs we have more serious and complicated symptoms; the impure blood having its effect on all parts ence, says: of the body. The appetite fails, digestion is weakened, chills and slight lever are frequent, and the sufferer loses energy and ambition because of a constant tired-out and "no account" feeling. The lack of necessary nour-

To cure Malaria both a blood purifier and tonic are necessary, in order to remove the cause and at the same time build up the system from its weakened and run-down condition. S. S.
