MARTINSVILLE, JULY FIRST.

Woodmen and Farmers Union Give Big Picnic Largely Attended.

One of the most largely attended and highly enjoyed public affairs held in the county, so far this year, was the picnic given by the Woodmen and the Farmers Union of Martinsville, assisted by their friends, at that place last Wednesday, July 1. Nearly all the county candidates were in attendance.

The exercises were opened at 10:30 by Judge C. D. Mims, candidate for district judge, who was introduced in a few choice remarks by J. A. Ennis, acting as master of ceremonies. Judge Mims referred briefly to his own candidacy and then made an instructive talk on Woodcraft. He was followed by the candidates for the legislature, and they in turn by the candidates for county attorney. Dinner was then announced and the people were soon reveling in the enjoyment of one of those sumptuous feasts for which the good country people of Nacogdoches county are noted for spreading on such occasions.

After dinner H. F. Marr was introduced and for some forty-five minutes discussed the principles and purposes of the Farmers Union and the Woodmen of the World. He showed very clearly both the necessity of organization for protection on the part of the farmers and the essentiality of carrying insurance for the protection of the widows and orphans.

The candidates for the other county offices, together with Mr. Jack Roberts, who made a prohibition speech, took up the remainder of the day, and late in the evening the people began disperse to their respective homes, each feeling that the day had been well spent, and that the good people of Martinsville were among the most royal entertainers in the land.

The writer took occasion to observe closely the condition of the crops on the road from Nacogdoches to Martinsville, and with the exception of a narrow strip running about north and south in the Fairview church community, where corn has suffered considerably for lack of moisture, found the crops to be the finest he has ever seen in the county. The cotton crop seems to be exceptionally fine and is fruiting fast and holding everything it is putting on. So far there is absolutely no evidence of boll weevil, and with favorable weather there can be no doubt of a good yield.

The acreage in corn, as is the case all over the country, is the largest in years, and the yield on many farms is going to be exceptionally heavy.

Miss Myatt Dead.

From Monday's Daily: Miss Ray Myatt, after a brief illness, died yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at her home on North Fredonia street.

Her illness was not considered serious until Friday night, but since then little hope of her recovery was entertained. Miss Myatt was born January 12, 1889, at the time of her death being 19 years, 5 months and 23 days of age. Funeral services were held at the family residence this afternoon at 5 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. W. Mills, interment in the City cemetery.

From Tuesday's Daily:

The remains of Miss Ray Myatt were interred yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the City cemetery. A large number of friends and acquaintances were present and many beautiful floral offerings were made.

CAPTAIN GARRISON DEAD.

Well Known East Texas Citizen Succumbs to Bright's Disease.

From Tuesday's Daily:

The Sentinel was apprised this morning, by S. M. King, of the death of Captain J. H. Garrison at his home at Garrison, Texas, which occurred just after midnight.

Captain Garrison has been a sufferer of Bright's disease for some time and about two months ago was confined to his bed; since that date his condition, at times, has been quite serious, and while his demise was a great shock, it came not altogether as a surprise. Captain Garrison was 73 years old and the greater part of his life has been spent in this section of Texas. In the death of this venerable gentleman, a true son of the old South is gone; a loss that will be felt greatly by his home people and by the entire citizenship of East Texas. He was truly a leader of his people; a man who wielded a splendid influence in a business way, politically and socially.

The funeral has been announced for 5 o'clock this afternoon at Garrison, with Masonic honors. Hon. S. M. and Langston King of this city went over to attend the funeral.

Cushing Picnic the 18th.

Instead of being today, the 8th, the picnic at Cushing takes place the 18th. The error in advertising the affair for today was caused by a misunderstanding in a telephone message. All candidates and others are warned here and now that they will be expected to be on hand early, to remain all day and also all "bidders for suffrage" will be asked to make speeches, no one being allowed to talk more than three hours and 15 minutes.

Rainfall in Texas.

According to the government report, for the week ending yesterday, Texas is faring better this year for rainfall than last. While some sections of the state are badly in need of moisture, the average for all parts is good. Eastern Texas has not enjoyed any of the "wetness" however, and is found in the want list, central, north and parts of the west getting a full share. The atmosphere has been some what pleasant in all sections, caused by cool nights, the highest temperatures being noted at El Paso and Corsicana, 100 degrees; the lowest at Amarillo, 56 degrees. Nacogdoches weather for the past week was, highest 91, lowest 63, mean 79 degrees.

TO GEORGIA AND BACK.

A Visit to Scenes of Childhood and the Changes Noted.

On June the 8th I took the train for a trip to Birmingham and to LaGrange, Ga., first to attend the reunion of the old Confederate veterans and to visit my old home in Bastrop county Georgia; the home of my childhood days, it having been forty years since I had left there. The next day about three o'clock I reached Birmingham; there I met many of the old battle scared veterans. The hand of time had done for them what it has done for me. Our shoulders were stooped with age and leaning on our staff, our heads frosting for the grave.

To say that it was a pleasure to meet my old comrades is putting it too mildly; indeed I was glad to grasp their hands and look into their faces once more in life. No one but an old soldier knows the feeling of one to the other; we have a feeling for each other a little akin to brothers. It having been the only reunion I have ever attended it was something new to me, something a little exciting at first. I spent Monday and Tuesday night at Birmingham domiciled with an old friend of my childhood days, T. H. Sledge; he surely treated me nicely, he and his family did every thing to make me comfortable and happy.

Wednesday I boarded the train for LaGrange, Georgia, to meet home folks, one in particular, a dear cousin, Edwin Bradfield. We were both almost reared by our grandparents on our mother's side, both of our mothers dying when we were small and our fathers marrying the second time. We remained with our grandparents. When we met each other it was like brothers meeting for he is like a brother to me, and I am satisfied I feel the same to him. We hadn't met before in forty years. I didn't know him and the only way he knew me was by my walk; as I limped a little and hold one shoulder a little lower than the other having been wounded in the war and had to go on my crutches about eighteen months. I never enjoyed anything better in my life; it was like an "oasis" in the desert to my life. Cousin Edwin did everything he could to make me feel at home. He sent word to others through the county papers; to my old friends in the county that I was there and to come see me for I would only be there a short while. He gave a dinner and invited my old friends and schoolmates to dine with us. Oh it was simply grand to be his guest. May the Lord bless him. I saw nothing there that looked natural. LaGrange had taken on a new face, the people were all strangers, dependants of those that I had known in childhood days, came to me and shook my hand and told me whose sons they were.

After spending several days in and around LaGrange I went on to West Point to spend the remainder of my time with a niece who has reared a family of children in the forty years that I have spent in Texas. Everything was as strange to me there as at LaGrange. When I left there my niece was a school girl of fifteen years. She, too, did all she could to make my stay pleasant and happy.

The people seem to be doing as well or better than we Texans, even if the country is old and worn. I thought it was worn out when I left there forty years ago, but we that live in Texas could learn a whole lot by their example if we would go and see; the timber is all cut; lots of the farms are fenceless; the finest roads I ever saw, all graded and level. In driving you have nothing to do but to give your horse the road and he will trot you to your place of destination in a short while.

It did me good to see my old home and friends once more in life. I came back with new energy and inspirations in life. N. H. Neil.

ONE of the city laws says, "cut the weeds."

THE many new homes being built indicates prosperity.

A FAIR in this city would mean a fair for all of East Texas.

IT'S time some work was being done on the fair proposition.

IT'S not a question of pro or anti, but initiative and referendum.

NACOGDOCHES is noted for its pretty homes—but the weeds ought to be cut.

JULY 4—78 killed, 2594 injured. Three more dead and 53 more injured than in 1907.

MRS. S. W. T. LANHAM, wife of ex-Governor, died Thursday night at her home in Weatherford.

FROM the wagon loads of peaches, melons and other fruits daily seen on the streets, Nacogdoches people are a happy lot.

THE negroes of Waco have signified their intention of joining the Democratic party in order to rebuke the "lilly whites."

A CINCINNATI justice solved the question of ownership of a parrot by placing the bird on the stand to give its own testimony.

THE farmers of the county have some fine products this year and only need an opportunity to show them—want ed, a fair.

THERE will be more brains and information in Denver this week than ever before; likewise more cocktails and mint juleps.

A THOROUGHbred association for this section would do more toward promoting the raising of good stock than anything else.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON called on President Roosevelt to talk "matters over." Taft also gets his instructions from the same source.

THE fact that the streets and public square is full of people almost every day, is evidence that business is pretty good in Nacogdoches.

THE Jefferson Jimplecute is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, papers published in East Texas. It celebrated its 40th anniversary last week.

WITH all the pretty, stylish roadsters that this city and county possesses, we need a thoroughbred association—and a race track. Sombody start the ball rolling.

ABOUT 100 students of Columbia University, a few nights ago, had a "night shirt" parade, for something new. Many a "hubby" has that every night and with a "collicky" accompaniment.

PROFS. C. W. Hutson, Felix S. Puckett, A. J. Neff and W. W. Evans have been asked by the Board of Directors to resign as instructors at the A. & M. College.

NINETEEN "frosty" joints were closed Thursday in Tyler and efforts to get a permanent injunction against the sale of "Uno," "Ino" and "Frosty" will be made.

GROVER CLEVELAND, it seems, is the only dead Democrat that will play any part in the Denver convention. Most all in the Republican convention were "dead uns."

MARSHALL Texas, has inaugurated a sidewalk building movement which promises a "mile of concrete walks each week" until the appropriation of $90,000, recently made by the city, is spent.

COL. WYNNE, at Abilene Friday, used the epithets, "liar," "scoundrel," "coward," in reference to Attorney General Davidson. The Col. is well known for his "polite language."

THE Edgewood Journal has announced that it will be discontinued and the plant moved to Grand Saline where "The Grand Saline Journal" will be issued. Jud Riley will be editor of the new paper.

THE commissioners court of Bell county has reduced the tax rate from 49 to 24 1-2 cents on the $100 valuation, for the year 1908. The people of that county are well pleased with the full rendition law.

DENVER Chestnutt has associated himself with G. E. Watford at Lufkin in the publication of the Tribune. Denver is a young man, a hustler and with Mr. Watford it makes a strong newspaper team for that city.

AND now come some Galvestonians with another sea serpent tale—this time it is a green eyed monster, 200 feet long—that is the serpent. Seems like those folks could have postponed that affair until after the Denver convention.

JOSEPH RITZ, a New Yorker who had four ounces of his brain removed, is dead, although he lived about four months "brainless." According to the press the only thing Ritz was able to do after having his brains taken out, was to learn to play chess.

R. R. WILLIAMS, the man who is running against Governor Campbell, has become very much displeased, all of a sudden, with the way things have been going on in Texas. Well it's a man's privilege to run as fast as he can and kick as hard as he wants to—in Texas.

CHARLES A. TOWNE of Minnesota, one time prominently mentioned as a candidate for the presidential chair on the Democratic ticket, is now being boosted for second place. Mr. Towne is an excellent man and would lend much strength the coming ticket as Bryan's running mate.

WITH the discovery of gold in Brown county, sulphur in Liberty, an oil field in Markham and natural gas emanating from a blacksmith shop in Cumby, Texas bids fair to keep in the limelight for some time.

"BLEEDING" Kansas is reaping a golden harvest from wheat fields this season. Although about 20 per cent of the acreage was destroyed by the heavy rains, the yield will be very large—probably 85,000,000 bushels.

THE little town of Ethel, in Grayson county, claims to have Attorney General Davidson and Col. R. M. Wynne on the program for speeches at a Woodmen picnic to be had there July 8th and 9th. That part of the state is noted for cyclones but this is the first time one has been arranged for and its coming advertised.

CONDITIONS throughout the country point to an early return of prosperity. Bank clearings, and railroad earnings are below those of a year ago, but the gap is steadily narrowing. There are fewer idle cars than there were at the beginning of June. The July interest and dividend payments this year in New York, the country's financial center will be $177,000,000, as compared with $184,000,000 in July 1907. Thus the falling off is far less than had been expected. About $46,000,000 of gold has been exported since the present outward movement began in the middle of April, but as we gained over $100,000,000 of gold in November and December last, and as we can get as much as we need from the outside world at any time we may need it, this movement does not disturb anybody. The rates for money are about the same as they are in midsummer of normal years.

"Re-employment days" are becoming general. St. Louis had one on June first, when 15,000 idle persons were put to work. On a far larger scale the Pittsburg district will have one on July sixth, when every plant of the United Steel Corporation, the largest concern in the world in its field will resume operations. The other shops of that corporation, all over the country will, it is expected, all be running by August first. All the independent steel concerns in the Pittsburg district, it is announced, will be at work with a full force by the first week in August.

THE Department of Agriculture in Washington says the crop outlook is better, on the whole, than it ever was before at this time of the year. It estimates that the value of the country's farm products of 1908 will reach the $8,000,000,000 mark, will leave all records far behind. It will be more than double the value of the farm yield of 1900, which was $3,764,000,000. Big crops have always heretofore meant good times for the country, and they will mean the same this year.

The sweet perfume of new mown hay combined with pure atmosphere of the gentle zephyrs that daily sweep across our verdant meadows is the life-giving ozone that purifies the blood of Wils Pointers.—Wills Point Chronicle.

And these things, with the heavy laden orchards of dimpled cheeked Elbertas, monster redland melons, delicious beyond comparison, makes living in old Nacogdoches county one continuous round of genuine pleasure.

The Cleburne Enterprise reprints the following tribute to girlhood, said to have been paid by the late Senator Vest:

When God made the maiden he sent his angel messenger throughout all the star-strewn realms of space to gather all there was of beauty and brightness, enchantment and glamour. When these angels returned from their harvesting of beauty and threw down their glittering burden at his feet, he began in their wonderful presence the fashion of the virgin. He wrought with the gold and the gleam of the stars, shifting glories of the rainbow hues and palled silver of the moon. He wrought with the crimson that swooned in the rose's rubied heart, with the pure, sweet snow which gleams from the lilly's petals and the fire of the flames that dash and leap from the jewels depths. Then, glancing deep into his own bosom, he took of the love which gleamed there like some rare pearl beneath the wind-kissed waves of a summer sea, thrilled into the form he was fashioning, and all heaven and earth rejoiced, for lo! he had wrought a virgin.

Gallatin claims to have the stingiest man in Tennessee, if not in the world, and a premium is offered for his superior in closefistedness. He got married to a home girl to save expenses. They walked around the square for a bridal tour. He bought her a nickel's worth of stick candy for a wedding present, and then suggested that they save the candy for the children.

JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS, familiarly known as "Uncle Remus," died Friday night at his home in Atlanta Ga. "Uncle Remus" has been a household word in almost every Southern home, and the children and grownups too, who have not read his animal stories, are possibly few. The literary world has profited greatly by this man's life and the young Americans, in his death, have indeed lost a friend.

A Treatise on Horse Collars

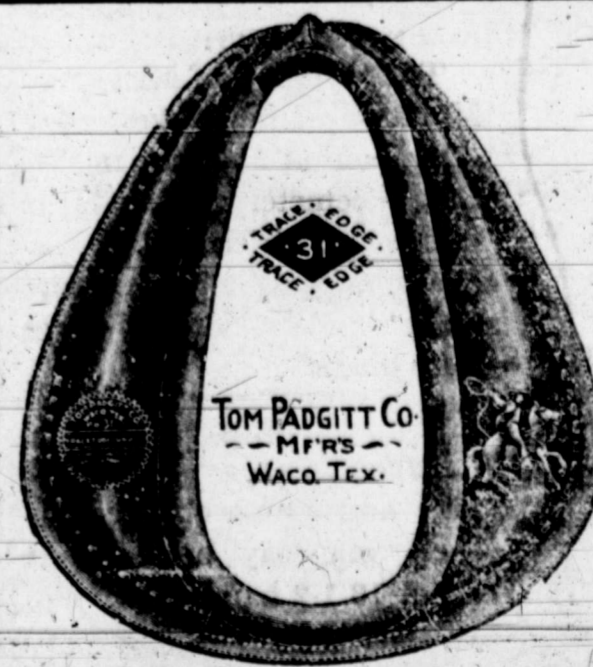

BOTH men and horses wear Collars. The difference is not only in size and character, but a man can select a fit—a horse can't. Therefore the necessity for good judgment in buying the equine kind. A cheap, badly stuffed collar of inferior leather will not only harm a horse's skin, but break in important parts before it has been in use, maybe, a couple months.

Our No. 64 and 66 have never failed to give comfort to the horse and double the money's worth to the people. We are always particular about the fit, that's why we have so many sizes.

It's "Kool Kolorado" today.

The July weather is up to its annual reputation.

Talk for Nacogdoches all the time; it pays to talk.

PATRONIZE home industry; it makes you a better citizen.

The picnic season is in full blast; also the political season.

"HELLO girls" in Fort Worth went on a strike and won in just ten minutes.

JULY and August are excellent months to do civic work—let's cut the weeds.

The fact that Nacogdoches has no street sprinkler is no sign she doesn't need one.

SNOW banks in the streets of Denver are very appropriate at this particular time.

The Nacogdoches ball team is a strong aggregation and their games deserve better patronage.

The crop of June brides has not all been harvested; the time is extended to January 1, 1909.

TEMPLE, Denton and Teague have instituted "clean up" campaigns. Let the good work go on. Who's next?

DR. DAVID F. HOUSTON has resigned as president of the State University, effective September 1, and will accept a position as chancellor of the Washington University at St. Louis. Dr. Houston will be succeeded by Dr. B. E. Mezes, now dean of the academic department. The latter gentleman is now in Egypt and the election is unknown to him.

ONE of the most important meetings in Texas for the year, is now in session at College Station. The Farmers Congress has already done some excellent things for the people during its eleven years of existence and we believe is destined to do still more and better things. The teaching of agriculture, and the kindred subjects, such as dairying, stockraising, etc., are of vital importance and will eventually find their way to every class of the school rooms. "Back to the farm" is not only a cry heard in the cities but it's a truth, that in time will be heeded by people of every walk of life. "Back to the farm" is worthy of every true citizen's attention; and any organization that has for its object the teaching of those subjects which tend to make better farmers, better dairymen and better everything that has to do with tilling the soil and rural living, is an organization that should number as supporters all good citizens. We heartily commend the Farmers Congress for its past work and hope for its realization of its highest aims.

A Preparatory School. J. Denton Guthrie and M. L. Lilly of Tyler, Texas, were in the city yesterday, in the interest of a preparatory and commercial college for Nacogdoches. Mr. Guthrie informed us that the citizens had given them much encouragement thus far and he felt sure a school would be in operation here in a few weeks. A preparatory school will possibly be run until September and a commercial college added at that time. Both gentlemen were formerly with the Tyler college and are well versed in their respective lines. They went to Jacksonville last evening but will return here the latter part of the week.

Elks Band to Carthage. Members of the Elks Band and Prof. A. Cruze, instructor, will leave on the 3 o'clock train tonight for Carthage, to attend the W. O. W. picnic which takes place there tomorrow. The band has been engaged to furnish music for the occasion and expect to treat the people with the very best music going. Tomorrow night the boys will give a concert at the Armory Hall at Timpon and will return home on the early morning train Friday.

Mr. Louis P. DeMouche, the famous Nacogdoches Cigar Company's man, is traveling for his company in in southwest Texas, about Corpus Christi and Victoria. Our Twisting Friend. The little town of Ethel, in Grayson county, claims to have Attorney General Davidson and Colonel R. M. Wynne on the program for speeches at a Woodmen picnic to be held there July 8 and 9. That part of the state is noted for cyclones, but this is the first time one has been arranged for and its coming advertised.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Colonel Wynne will be there all right, but the attorney general ain't going to go any nearer that place than he has to be. He may have and doubtless did accept an invitation to be there, but he did not know Colonel Wynne was expected to be there and as Colonel Wynne will be there the attorney general won't be there. He's a good deal more afraid of Colonel Wynne in joint debate than the average man you meet is of one of those "cyclones" you talk about. The attorney general says he is running on his record, but he is afraid to go where it is attacked to defend it. No, he'll not be at Ethel on the 8th or the 9th of this month; he ain't built that way.—Austin Statesman.

This sounds just like some of Wind Mill Imboden's blowing, but we people in East Texas know him and have learned from long acquaintance that he can blow like a "twister."

To The Voters of Nacogdoches County.

When I announced myself before the Democratic primaries of this county for the nomination to the office of representative, I fully expected to see at least a majority of you, and to appear before you and define my position on all political questions confronting the people and which are pertinent to this campaign. But I have been disappointed in this on account of the serious sickness of my wife, she having been confined to her bed with typhoid fever for the past four weeks and needing my presence and attention constantly. Also three more of my family sick with the same fever. However, I want to say that while I am not in a scramble for the office, I am not regarding it with indifference and do not wish to be so understood. I am ambitious to represent you in the legislature, and believe that I am qualified to serve your interests well and that I am worthy of your consideration.

I regret very much that I have not had the pleasure of meeting and mingling with you, and I still hope to be able to make a short and hurried canvas of the county.

I promise that if elected I shall do all that is in my power to represent you well, and that I shall hold myself subservient to your wishes and your interests. And upon the issue of "submission," which has recently become an important question, I desire to say that I am unqualifiedly in favor of submitting to the people of Texas an amendment to the constitution providing for state-wide prohibition of manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors in the State of Texas.

Hoping that I still may have the pleasure of appearing before you before the close of the campaign, I am, Pretty Home Completed.

The elegant new home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Blount on North street has been completed and they will move into it Monday. The home is eight room bungalow, old mission style, and is one of most modern built and equipped in this section. A noticeable feature of the home is its roomy appearance and a visit inside reveals the fact that it is just as it looks, and every part is arranged for solid comfort and convenience. The reception hall, first and second parlors are finished in oak, with richly colored wainscoting and natural oak wood floors. To the rear of the second parlor is the dining hall, finished in cream, then the butler's pantry and kitchen. Back of the reception hall are bed rooms and the bath. The latter is finished in pure white, is water proof and is arranged for tub and shower. At the rear of the house is a long porch, screened, while the upstairs will be finished for dancing. Closets and other places for special convenience are in plenty. The front entrance door is of beveled glass with just a frame work of wood. Mr. Blount stated that every particle of the material used in constructing the home, except the hardware and glass, was made at home. The entire place is beautiful in design, workmanship and finish all which makes it one of the most elaborate homes in the whole of East Texas.

Do You Need It?

Would you want a doctor who had graduated in a High school but who had never attended a medical college to wait on you, if you were seriously ill? Would you want a lawyer who had graduated in a high school but had never taken a law course to handle an important case for you in court? If not, why not? The reason is plain. Then why, young man or woman, will you figure on going into the business world to make your living, to make your success or failure in life, without attending a first class business training school, one that gives thorough, complete and practical courses, that meet the demands of the progressive business world, one that employs none but the most expert teachers in their particular lines, and uses the best modern systems and best business methods? To expect to successfully go into business for yourself or work for others in a business capacity without first obtaining a practical business education is just as unreasonable as it would be for you to expect to make a success of law or medicine without attending law or medical college, and making special preparation along these particular lines. At business you must make your living; you are living in a commercial age, and in the greatest commercial nation on the globe. Enter the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, and go into a commercial life prepared to successfully cope with competition without having to tussle at the bottom of the ladder for a number of years to get a start. Large illustrated catalogue may be had free for the asking.

BIG CREDITORS SALE

Beginning Saturday, July 11th

On account of the panic our creditors extended the time for the payment of our bills; the panic is over and our accounts are now falling due. We are compelled to raise some money. Our creditors have agreed to accept 50 cents on the dollar now, and wait for the balance. It means that we have to raise some money for our creditors; it means that we have to sacrifice our goods. There is no putting it off longer; it has to be done now. In order to raise this money we are going to put our entire stock of Dry Goods, Clothing, Shoes, Notions, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Millinery, etc., on the market at just half the regular selling price-- 50 cents on the dollar.

We have to have the money, we are going to sell at half price to get it; it's to your advantage too for the time has never been when good, dependable, new and up-to-date merchandise could be bought so cheap. Read these prices; they will astonish you, but we must raise the money.

A STRONG STATEMENT

A South Bend Watch Frozen in Ice Keeps Perfect Time.

South Bend Watches are accurate to the minutest fraction of a second. They are not affected by heat or cold; you might freeze a South Bend Watch in ice without affecting its time-keeping qualities to the slightest degree. They are proof against variations caused by railway travel, horseback riding, automobiling or any of the many jolts and jars and bangs of every day use.

After we have regulated a South Bend Adjusted Watch to your person, we, and the makers, absolutely guarantee it to be a perfect time-keeper.

South Bend Watches are made in all standard sizes and styles at prices to suit any purse.

If you will call at any time, even if you do not intend to purchase a watch immediately, we will be pleased to show you our line of these watches and explain to you how, through the wonderful South Bend Balance Wheel, a South Bend Watch adjusts itself to every temperature automatically.

News Notes From "Rose Bud."

Shady Grove, July 7.—The health of this community is exceptionally good for this time of year.

Prof. Joe R. Day is teaching a singing school at Trinity church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Strahan's little son fell from a tree yesterday and was painfully hurt but not seriously hurt.

Mr. W. T. Weaver visited Nacogdoches Saturday and was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Jennie, who has been attending the summer normal at that place.

The Shady Grove debating society met on last Saturday night with a very large attendance. The subject discussed was, Resolved "that Cuba should be annexed to the United States." The judges decided in favor of the negative.

The society also had a challenge from the Swift debating society offering the subject "Resolved, that the future destiny of our country depends on our navy." Our society quickly accepted the affirmative side of the question, which will be discussed some time in August.

Mr. F. P. Marshall of Nacogdoches was with us and delivered a very able address on the subject of education. The lecture was most highly enjoyed by all who heard it and we look for more interest to be manifested in the upbuilding of the school of our community.

Owing to the continued drouth which has been on us for the past six or seven weeks the corn crop will be cut short. Cotton seems to be holding up and doing very well.

Mr. J. J. Arthur is remodeling the residence of Mrs. Fuller and when completed it will be a very neat cottage.

Rose Bud.

It is for sale by Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

H. V. Sublett of San Augustine is visiting his son, S. D. Sublett and family.

Constipation.

For constipation there is nothing quite so nice as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They always produce a pleasant movement of the bowels without any disagreeable effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free. Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

Asa Hatton of Pine Springs district, Shelby county, was a visitor in the city today.

Just a little Cascasweet is all that is necessary to give your baby when it is cross and peevish. Cascasweet contains no opiates nor harmful drugs and is highly recommended by mothers everywhere. Conforms to the National Pure Food and Drugs Law. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dw

Over Thirty Five Years,

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy for treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

W. G. Helenkamp has returned from a pleasant visit to Forney, Texas. Mrs. Helenkamp will remain for several weeks yet.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians; both of them gave him up. We then gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured him and believe saved his life.—William H. Stroling, Carbon Hill, Ala. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with castor oil according to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

George Harris, working out a fine for carrying a pistol, made his escape last night from the county farm and so far no trace of his flight has been found. Sheriff Blackburn and his deputies are very busy on the case and to expedite matters he has offered a reward of $10 for the arrest of Harris. He has only been on the farm about one month.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 18, 1907, had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which gave prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred dollar doctor's bill." Sold by Mast Bros. & Smith. dw

Louis Council and family came down from Timpson yesterday and will visit friends and relatives here for several days.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia says of Kodol for Dyspepsia: "E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill.—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than twenty years from indigestion. About eighteen months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not digest a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs; in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefitted. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co dw

"Start Young"

To train a child into good habits. There is no habit that will add so much to the good character, the general happiness and thorough contentment of a life as the good habit of saving. The best way to start this habit is by opening an account "at this bank" for the child. The child will become as interested in watching this account grow as it would be with a toy. This interest will harden into a habit, and the habit into character.

You can open an account at this bank for your child with as small an amount as One Dollar if you like. Better come in today and do this.
