FIFTH NATIONAL CORN EXPOSITION. Farmers Cooperative Societies a Special Feature.

Columbia, S. C. Jan. 18—A complete presentation of the farmers' cooperative societies of the western states, will be an interesting educational feature of the Iowa State exhibit at the Fifth National Corn Exposition, which opens here the 27th of this month. The exhibit will show the methods by which these societies conduct their affairs, and especial emphases will be laid on the cooperative grain elevator organizations. A model grain elevator will be demonstrated in actual operation, and the exhibit will be supplemented by a series of lectures giving full knowledge of the various phases of these cooperative societies.

The development of these farmers' cooperative societies in Iowa has proceeded to a greater extent, probably, than in any other State of the Union, and it is especially fitting that such an exhibit should come from this State. The exhibit has been prepared under the direction of the agricultural extension de-

This Iowa exhibit is an illustration of one of the fundamental purposes of the National Corn Exposition—to emphasize and explain the valuable results which have been achieved by individual farmers and farmers' organizations in various sections, in their efforts to facilitate the handling and systematize the distribution and marketing of the products of the farm, making this process more satisfactory and less expensive to the producer.

The story of how medical officers of the United States Army risked their lives and solved the question of yellow-fever transmission is told by Joseph B. Bishop, Secretary of the Isthmian Canal Commission, in the February Scribner. He then describes the application of this knowledge to the complete "Sanitation of the Isthmus," making it one of the health spots of the American Continent.

Boll Weevil Wrecked.

The morning train on the T. & N. O., due here at 5:30, known as the boll weevil, was wrecked about a mile above the junction this morning. Five freight cars left the track, tearing it up for quite a distance, one of the cars was loaded with horses and it is reported that this car turned completely over and did not injure any of the horses. The passenger train is still out at the wreck, but the passengers came on into town on the engine.

Boy Scouts.

There will be a meeting of Sam Houston Troop, No. 1, Boy Scouts of America, Friday afternoon immediately after school at the Main Street Presbyterian Church. Each boy who has paid his dues will receive a badge and manual. The Scouts are growing fast, and we want all boys who are thinking of joining to do so soon, in order to be up on all work and training by early spring. Be on hand, and be prompt.

GILES M. HALTOM, MANAGER

Our Austin Letter.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 15.—On January 14th one hundred and seventy-three Democrats, good and true, sat down at the loom of state to weave the destinies of Texas. They are filling the shuttle with the thread of industry, smoothing out the tangled skein of progress and spinning yarns as all good weavers do.

The 33rd Legislature is filled with real men who aim for big things and the passion for results was never stronger in any legislative body. The people are going to have an opportunity of witnessing alert intellect at play in the higher zones of development during the present session and the great ferment of opinion that is now going on at the capital will yield a wine of progress that will tone the system of state.

Many high priests in the Democratic party can be found in the Legislature and likewise many new faces beam with the first joy of power and, taken as a whole, they are as able a lot of fellows as ever hurried the scimitar of destiny or played hands with opportunity.

The election of Speaker of the House was accompanied by the usual tense interest and the contest was won by Hon. Chester H. Terrell and in doing so he was compelled to defeat a good man. All evidence of the contest has disappeared and those who were arrayed against each other are now as chummy as Mormon elders. In the Senate Lieut. Gov. Mayes makes his initial appearance and wields the gavel with the skill of an experienced parliamentarian.

There is going to be plenty of excitement during the session. Dispatches from Washington announce that Morris Shepherd has thrown his hat in the ring and will contest Col. R. M. Johnson the right to sit in the United States Senate until March 4th.

Judging from the herd of bills that have been introduced, the session is going to be an unusually interesting one and while platform demands may temporarily block the gang way, there are many good measures that have no royal blood in their veins that should be knighted on their merits. Then the redistricting of the state is going to involve the hopes and aspirations of many good Democrats and men who sweep wide circles with their political scythes are going to be present ready to swap work or to mow down opposition as in their opinion the best interests of the public demand.

The skyline of Texas was never brighter, the breezes of prosperity have blown away the dense fog of factional strife the crisp atmosphere of hope has given us a new born longing for a wider life and the spirit of progress is rising everywhere, filling the air with its fragrance and swaying men with its power.

Receiving Entries in Crop Contests.

The first application for entrance in the 1913 prize crop contest of the Texas Industrial Congress has been received. Zach Roquemore Langston of Mt. Vernon, Franklin county is sixteen years of age and has entered as a contestant in both the Texas Corn Club and Texas Cotton club. The Texas Corn club calls for the cultivation of one acre of corn, and is open to Texas boys and girls over ten years and under twenty years of age. Prizes are offered in this class as follows: First prize, $500; Second prize, $300; Third prize, $250; Fourth prize, $125; Fifth prize, $75; and for the fifty next best results $25, each will be given.

The Texas Cotton Club calls for the cultivation of one acre of cotton, and the awards are governed by the same general rules as in the Texas Corn Club. Prizes are the same, aggregating $2,500 in each. An additional or combination prize is offered to the boy or girl who shall win the first prize in both the Texas Corn Club and the Texas Cotton Club. This makes it possible for a single boy or girl to win $1,500 in the contest.

Basing the estimate upon the increase in 1912 to 4,025 contestants from 1,765 in 1911, the Congress expects to have not less than 10,000 contestants in this year's contest

Auto Speeding Injures Roads. Beaumont, Texas, Jan. 16.—The county commissioners again discussed the damage done to the county's shell roads by the high speeding of vehicles and it was agreed that some regulation is necessary in order to cut down the present high maintenance cost. Attorney George D. Anderson explained the present law at length, and it was shown that the commissioners are handicapped by it in dealing with the situation.

A bill for presentation to the legislature will be drafted by County Judge R. W. Wilson and Attorney Anderson, and after being submitted to the approval of the commissioners will be forwarded to Austin, where legislative action in the matter will be sought. It is pointed out to the commissioners that the present high cost of maintaining the county roads is due largely to the high speed at which self-propelled vehicles are allowed to traverse them, and the effect of this also was shown by Road Expert J. R. Shidler, who addressed the commissioners on the subject Tuesday.

Why is it that Texas packeries are sending something like $850,000 a month to other states for hogs to slaughter, and packers and jobbers send out more than $400,000 a month for pork products? Why is it that, with our immense sheep and cattle herds and numberless pelts to tan, we are sending out of the state for practically all of the boots and shoes and harness and other leather goods we use here? Why is it that, when we are producing a third of the cotton raised in the United States, we are dependent on New England mills for nine-tenths of the cotton goods we consume? Why is it that when we produce millions of bushels of peaches and pears and plums and berries, peas and beans and corn we are using canned good made in other states?—San Antonio Express.

Statement From County Attorney S. M. Adams Asking the Dairymen to Have Their Herd Tested for Tuberculosis.

To the citizens of Nacogdoches County.

There is being waged a battle in which the whole people should join. It is the fight against the common enemy of the people—Tuberculosis.

There has not yet been given to the medical world a cure for this disease, and it is each one's duty to use his every effort to curb and eradicate same, so far as it is in his power.

There was created by the Legislature of 1909 the department of Dairy and Food Commissioner, and at present J. S. Abbott is such commissioner and is doing a wonderful work in this department, and has asked the combined effort of the officers of the state is trying to curb and eradicate as much as possible this disease. There has been issued lately a bulletin that should be read by every citizen, as I feel sure that would cause us to be more diligent along the lines given. It is claimed that the disease is spread more through milk than any other way, and we have a law requiring that all those selling or offering for sale dairy products that they shall have their herd tested for this disease before the products are put upon the market, and I have been informed that there are a very few of the people in and around this city that have complied with the law in this, and I have written all those whom I knew personally to be in the dairy business and asked them to have their herd tested, and I wish to give those who I did not write warning that they must have their dairy herd tested. If you own one cow and are selling milk it is your duty to have that one tested, for this one might spread more disease than could be curbed in a life time. The good old county of Nacogdoches should have no citizen who objects to using this much precaution for his neighbor and friend's welfare, and I wish to advise all those who are now engaged in selling dairy products be it in small or large quantities, that you must have your herd tested, and if you refuse to comply with this in a reasonable time I shall be forced to ask the Dairy and Food commissioner to send a representative here and will have the test made myself, and should there be found in your herd an infected cow, you would be prosecuted and the penalty is quite a severe one, and the testing would cost you less than a prosecution, and it seems that each and every man should want to do this any way for the protection that it would give him and his immediate family, taking out of the matter the selling to some other.

I would appreciate each person knowing a person selling dairy products to inform them that they are required under the law to have their herd tested and that they must comply with provisions of the law at once. Asking the co-operation of

You can drive a man into dishonesty by treating him as a thief. For instance, if a tenant is not able to pay you his house rent at the very time it comes due, that doesn't necessarily mean that he is a dead-beat; but treat him as an honest man should be treated, and in a great majority of instances you will thereby get security for your debt that will be far better than stocks and bonds. "It is easier to lead one hundred men than to drive one."—The Free Lance.

L. A. Sitton, Sr., of Trarwick, was a visitor in the city today.

The Rockdale Reporter concludes that the parcels post will be a benefit rather than an injury to the small merchants if they will take advantage of the opportunity to sell their goods through judicious advertising. It looks as if the Reporter is correct. About the only merchants who will be in danger of suffering from the new system will be those who have been in the habit of sitting down in their stores and waiting for customers to "drop in." Under the new way the out-of-town customers are going to do much "dropping in," but they will send their orders to the hustling merchants who are enterprising enough to advertise their goods.—San Antonio Express.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC CATARRH

When we say S. S. S. cures chronic Catarrh we do not mean that it merely checks the symptoms for a time. Some local applications will do that simply cleansing and soothing the irritated mucous membranes. But all the while the cause which produces Catarrh is left in the system, and as soon as the local treatment is left off, the trouble returns with all its annoying symptoms. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. It goes into the circulation and attacks the disease at its root, and removes every trace of impurity that is causing the trouble. Under the purifying effects of S. S. S., the inflamed membranes are healed by rich, pure blood which is carried to these parts, the offensive discharge from the nose ceases, and severe headaches and neuralgic pains are no longer felt. In fact every symptom of Catarrh disappears, the stomach is toned up and the disease is thoroughly cured. Thousands of chronic cases of Catarrh of the most stubborn character have been completely cured by the use of S. S. S. The inflammation which produces chronic Catarrh can never be permanently relieved until the cause has been removed from the blood. This S. S. S. will do, and then nature hastens the return of perfect health. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who write and request same. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Old Citizen Dies Suddenly.

Uncle Jno. R. Hobbs died last Saturday night at his home at Woden and was buried Sunday afternoon at Simpson Camp Ground, a large crowd of sorrowing friends attending the funeral. Mr. Hobbs had been in failing health for a number of years, and Saturday night he started out to supper and fell in the floor. He was picked up and carried to his room, but never regained consciousness, dying in a short time. Uncle John was one of the old citizens of the county, being past sixty years of age, and was one of the most highly esteemed citizens of his section of the county, considered by all a good man and a splendid citizen. He leaves several sons and daughters to mourn his loss.

SURELY BANISHES CATARRH.

Where there's catarrh there's thousands of catarrh germs. You can't get rid of catarrh unless you kill these germs. You can't kill them with stomach medicine or sprays because they can't get where germs are. You can kill these germs with Booth's HYOMEI, a penetrating, antiseptic, balsamic air that you breathe a few times a day directly over the raw, sore, germ infested membrane. It does not contain morphine or any habit forming drug. For catarrh, croup, coughs, and colds. HYOMEI is sold on money back plan by Stripling Haselwood & Co. Complete outfit, $1.00. Extra bottle of Booth's HYOMEI if afterwards needed, only 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.

PROGRESSIVE DEMOCRACY.

Editor Sentinel. The State of Oklahoma, which is considered by many statesmen the most progressive of any in the union, incorporated into her constitution the principles of the populist party, which came into existence about twenty years ago and disappeared a few years later. Oklahoma has the graduated land tax, the guaranty of bank deposits, the initiative, referendum and recall, and other progressive legislative enactments and among the members of all political parties there is a strong sentiment in favor of the government ownership of all public utilities. Progressive democrats occupy the position held by the peoples party twenty years ago. The fight that is now on, the fight which the populist party had the honor to begin, is a fight between the predominating form of wealth and the disinherited—a fight between the exploiter and the exploited—between the robber and the robbed. The privileged few who have hitherto held the reins of government attempt to scare the people by crying "Socialism," just as they cried "Populism" twenty years ago. The people are entitled to socialism, if socialism is best for the country, and many of its principles seem to be. The endorsement of these principles by a progressive does not make him a party socialist, but stamps him as a lover of his race. David Lloyd George, the author of the bill adopted last year by Great Britain under which fifteen million workers are insured by the government against sickness and three million against unemployment, said to an audience in Wales: "It is incumbent upon those who have been blessed by providence to make sacrifices for others. This is said to be talking socialism. Let us get rid of these cuckatoo phrases. Let us get to the terrible human facts and see things below." Every measure is entitled to a consideration on its merits, regardless of its endorsements by a political party or all of them. Progressive democracy today was populism yesterday and may be socialism tomorrow. Why a favored few have been allowed to control and reap the profits of industry is one of the greatest marvels in the history of the human race. Emmett W Smith.

Woodmen Pay Fountain Policy

The Woodmen of the World have paid to the mother of Cicero Fountain, deceased, the amount in full of the policy he carried in that order. The Great Western Life Insurance Co., in which deceased carried two policies, one for $4,000 and the other for $1,000, have refused to pay their policies on the ground that the death was caused from suicide, and the widow of deceased has filed suit in the district court here against the company. Fountain was a member of the Woodmen lodge at Libby in this county. The death of Garrison some time ago was under peculiar circumstances, or at least under such circumstances that no one can explain just how it happened. The Woodmen made the same investigation as did the other company, and as stated, paid the claim.

Billie Griffith Dead.

Billie Griffith, familiarly known as "Billie the Ditcher" died yesterday at his home a few miles east of the city, after an illness of only a few days from pneumonia and was buried this afternoon at Fairview. Mr. Griffith was taken sick last Sunday and rapidly grew worse until yesterday when he passed out. Deceased has been a resident of this section of the county for more than twenty years, and came here when there was a great deal of ditching needed to drain various parts of the city, and engaged in this work, hence the name by which he is known. He was an industrious citizen and was liked by all who knew him. He had reached his 74th year when death called him.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our number our esteemed friend and tellow fireman Grover Sanders, and Whereas, in his death we feel that not only has his family and relatives sustained an irreparable loss, but our city has been deprived of one of the most promising young business men and the fire department one of its most faithful and valued fire fighters, therefore, be it Resolved that we, as members of the Nacogdoches Volunteer Fire Co. No. 1 deeply deplore the loss of our fellow member and that we extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family, and be it further, Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Fire Department, published in the Daily Sentinel and a copy furnished the family of our deceased member. Most Respectfully, L. I. Muller, Ben Tucker, J. R. McKinney, Committee. Nacogdoches, Tex., Jan. 16 '18.

FOR HOW LONG?

Nacogdoches Raises a Pertinent Question. When a neighbor tells us that he has recovered from a serious illness, the first question that naturally arises is, "How long will he keep well?" Temporary relief is one thing, but a lasting cure is altogether different. There is nothing temporary about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills as the following Nacogdoches evidence proves beyond a doubt. Mrs. H. M. Reid, 412 S. North St., Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "I suffered for several years from severe pains in the small of my back, so intense at times that I was unable to sleep or rest. I tried nearly every so-called kidney remedy but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured Mast Bros. & Smith's Drug Store (now Swift Bros. & Smith's Drug Store.) They completely cured me and the cure has been permanent. I can re-endorse this remedy in the highest terms." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. FARMER'S WIFE ALMOST A WRECK

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Own Story.

Westwood, Md.—"I am a farmer's wife and do most of my own work when I am able. I had nervous spells, female weakness and terrible bearing down pains every month. I also suffered much with my right side. The pain started in my back and extended around my right side, and the doctor told me it was organic inflammation. I was sick every three weeks and had to stay in bed from two to four days. "It is with great pleasure I tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have followed your directions as near as possible, and feel much better than I have felt for years. When I wrote you before I was almost a wreck. You can publish this letter if you like. It may help to strengthen the faith of some poor suffering woman."—Mrs. JOHN F. RICHARDS, Westwood, Maryland. A. T. and L. S. Mast have rented the old Ingraham building on the west side of the square, where the pool hall once was, and are fixing up the building preparatory to installing an up to date garage. The business will be known as the City Automobile Co., and we understand they will carry a line of automobiles, besides will maintain a complete repair shop, sell gasoline, oils and greases for machines, and will furnish free wind for owners of automobiles (will pump up tires).

Double Tracking Texas.

Future events will give us the laugh if the present Legislature does not meet situations which will be created by the opening of the Panama canal. This is the last Legislature that will be in session before the canal is open and if the flood of commerce that will move southward to pass through the canal is to secure an outlet through the Texas ports, Texas must be doubled tracked. It will also require 10,000 miles more of railroad to afford market facilities for the products of our fertile farm lands and our public highways must have millions of dollars spent upon them in order to properly handle the traffic. Legislative machinery is necessary to accelerate construction and it is for the inventive mind of the Legislature to afford relief.—Commercial Secretaries.

Easter March 23rd

Easter bonnets will blossom earlier this year than they have since 1856 and earlier than they will burst into bloom for another century. The earliest date on which Easter can fall is March 22, but that has not happened since 1818. This year it will be March 23, the same date on which it fell in 1856 and 1845.

The Rev. Father Martin S. Brennan, a noted St. Louis astronomer, told a Post Dispatch reporter Monday that tables computed by mathematicians have not been carried far enough to show just how long it will be before Easter again falls on so early a date, but that it will not occur until some time after the year 2000. The rule for fixing the date of Easter originally was that it was the Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox. The equinox falls March 21 according to a ruling of the council at Nice, if March 21 is Saturday and there is a full moon on that day, the following day will be Easter. This year March 21 will be Friday and there will be a full moon Saturday. Post Dispatch.

Birth Registration.

The newly created Children's Bureau, in the Department of Commerce and Labor of which Miss Julia C. Lathrop is chief, has just issued its first monograph—a plea for the complete registration of all births. The pamphlet points out that not a single state in the Union has a thoroughly effective registration system, and that in 1910 the New England States, Michigan, and Pennsylvania were the only States where laws were sufficiently good and sufficiently well enforced to register nine births out of ten, and nine out of ten is poor registration. The Children's Bureau finds that this absence of good laws, well enforced, is hampering the work for the study and prevention of infant mortality. This country, according to the best estimates available, is now losing 300,000 babies a year, and experience has demonstrated that at least half of these lives could be saved if the simple methods already known to science could be brought to bear. But to apply these methods two things are necessary, good vital statistics and an immediate report of every birth.

Mrs. L. BROWN, of Modesto, Fla., writes: "I bought one bottle of your Liniment and it did me good in the world. My throat was very sore, and it cured me of my trouble." GOOD FOR COLD AND CROUP. Mr. W. H. STRANGE, 3721 Elmwood Avenue, Chicago, Ill., writes: "A little boy next door had croup. I gave the mother Sloan's Liniment to try. She gave him three drops on sugar before going to bed, and he got up without the croup in the morning." Price, 25c., 50c., $1.00 Sloan's Treatise on the Horse sent free. Address Dr. Earl S. Freeport Facts is the name of a new weekly paper recently started at Freeport by T. H. Bell, who is also publisher of the Comanche Chief.

The grocery stores of this city are supplied every morning with nice fresh vegetables, but they are shipped from South Texas. Make a note of this Mr. Truckgrower.

CITIZENS in from the country say that the streets in the city of Nacogdoches are much worse than are the roads out in the country. The roads are muddy in places and there are great ruts cut in some sections, but you can find a dry place to drive around the mud holes.

A nice fat frying-size chicken will cost you 35 cents anywhere now, and a dozen eggs are worth 80 cents. Wonder why this industry does not receive more attention from the rural citizen who could raise any amount of this kind of fruit at practically no cost at all.

HAVE you paid that poll tax yet? Better attend to the matter at once, for there will be something doing before the year is out, and don't you forget it. If you have a poll tax you will have a say in the matter, but if not all you can do is growl, and take your medicine.

FARMERS in from the country say that there is more new land being put in this year and more fences being built than at any time for years past. This does not indicate that the farming interests of the country are going to suffer to any marked degree. Some of the new fences being built are inclosing "hog pastures."

THE Lufkin News is complaining about the fearful condition of the streets in that city, and remarks that on some of the principal streets of that city it is dangerous to drive a vehicle. Lufkin has our sincere sympathy, and we know how to sympathize with a town under such conditions, for we are up against the same thing here. It is not a violation of the gambling laws of the state we would like to bet Lufkin the cokes that the streets of Nacogdoches are worse than those of Lufkin or of any other town in East Texas. They are simply fierce.

Like the face of an old friend, the Nacogdoches Sentinel looks upon its last night from the pile of exchanges that daily come to our table. The writer wrote the first editorial that the Sentinel used, and even now he well remembers what it was about. The Sentinel is a good paper, although its founder, Will Haltom, has crossed the silent stream that separates those who have gone before from those who are yet to go. Nacogdoches county is in a great and prosperous section, and the Sentinel is its good prophet.—Denison Herald.

To Speak at National Corn Exposition.

Columbia, S. C. Jan. 16.—Announcement is made here that Sir Horace Plunkett of Ireland, prominently known as the leader of Irish agricultural reform, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address at the Fifth National Corn Exposition which opens here the 27th of this month. Sir Horace will speak on National Farmers' Union Day, which has been set for Thursday of the first week, January 30. The program for National Farmers' Union Day is being arranged by officials of the National and State farmers' union organizations.

Sir Horace is now in this country, having recently come over from Ireland. He had previously spent many years in America, and is as familiarly known here as many of the most prominent Americans. The invitation to speak at the Fifth National Corn Exposition was extended to him soon after his arrival in this country through Mr. Clarence Poe, editor of the Progressive Farmer, of Raleigh, N. C.

Marries Lufkin Couple.

Last Saturday afternoon at the Episcopal Rectory, Rev. T. J. Sloan united in marriage Mr. Edwin Alderson and Mrs. Lela Mantooth, both of Lufkin.

The contracting parties came in on the afternoon train and went immediately to the pastors residence.

Mr. Alderson is a traveling man and represents the Lufkin Iron Works. His bride has been a teacher in the Lufkin high school.

The Register is not going to quarrel with anybody who thinks the legislature should confirm Governor Colquitt's appointment of Col. R. M. Johnston to the United States senate, but we cannot advise it because Col. Johnston is not our kind of a Democrat. Believing as we do that his much vaunted "service to the party" has been, in the main, treason to democratic principles, we cannot endorse him.—Carthage Register.

From several of the farmers who have been in the city today, we learn that there is considerable uneasiness felt for the fruit crop this year. These warm days has put the grass to growing faster than has been noticed for some time, and it is very likely that in a few more days the fruit buds will be putting out, and then, if a freeze comes, which is almost certain, the fruit will be killed or greatly damaged.

A Philadelphia judge ordered for the first time in the history of that city a "mothers' pension" in disposing of a case of children whose only offense was poverty. The order of the court directed the county commissioners to pay the mother $1.87 a week for each of the three children, and with this nucleus of a fund for her maintenance the experiment, under a recent act of the Pennsylvania Assembly, will be watched with interest.

County Court.

The first term of the county court to be held in the new court house was convened this morning with County Judge Geo. F. Ingraham on the bench. Quite a lot of visitors are in the city to attend the court, and the scenes around the courthouse are lively.

The new county judge seems determined to start things off in a business like manner, and as soon as the court was called this morning he began to push things along. Indications are that this term of the court will transact a lot of business and will save a good deal of time to the people too.

To have owners of property demand an exorbitant price for property that is needed for a public enterprise or public improvement purposes is an ancient and common experience. Would there be any injustice, in a case of this kind, to subject the property to condemnation at a price, say 100 per cent above its assessed value? Some such as this, we believe, would greatly facilitate the making of public improvements in this State.—Dallas News.

The News has not indulged in the building of a new railroad for several days, but presumes that the extension of the Cotton Belt from here to Beaumont is going steadily on, the construction crew working mostly at night while other people are asleep and do not hear the sound of the spikes which are being driven nor the dull thud of the scraper as it empties its tonnage of dirt upon the dump ahead of the laying of the rails.—Lufkin News.

Representative R. S. Humphrey of Trockmorton county will introduce the bill in the House seeking to amend the stock and bond law, so as to permit railroads to issue bonds for extensions and improvement purposes. Mr. Humphrey came thirty miles in a stage coach to get to a railroad station in order to get to the Legislature and is deeply interested in getting railroads for West Texas.

Under the direction of Speaker Terrell, the House transacted its preliminary business one week earlier this session than ever before. All committees were appointed early in the week and after the inauguration, both bodies of the Legislature settled down to active business.

If thou thinkest twice before thou speakest once thou wilt speak twice the better for it. Better say nothing than not to the purpose, and, to speak pertinently, consider both what is fit and when it is fit to speak. In all debates let truth be thy aim, not victory, or an unjust interest; and endeavor to gain rather than to expose thy antagonist.—William Penn.

Beating swords into plowshares will become literally true in Texas if the transfer of Fort Brown from the War Department to the Agricultural Department of the Federal government, is made.

Abe Martin's Sayings.

Abe Martin, the Indian funny man, writes a number of quaint sayings in the February American Magazine. A few of them follow:—

"Speak Moots is at home from th' reformatory, an' says that two terms is 'enough for any man.'"

"Tell Binkley says a toun' car is like a baby: ever' thing happens t' it th' second summer."

"Folks that blurt out jist what they think wouldn't be so bad if they thought."

"When you do find a boy that's tryin' t' git a education he seem t' think ever'body in th' world ought t' help him."

"It pays t' be honest, but it don't pay enough t' suit some tellers."

"You kin allus tell a self-made man if you'll keep your ears open"

"We all like our relatives when we're little."

"Flatter won't hurt you if you don't swallow it."

"Nobuddy works as hard fer his money as th' feller that marries it."

Jno. S. Doughtie adjutant of Camp Raguet Confederate Veterans here, has addressed a letter to Hon. D. M. Reedy of Smith county, in the legislature at Austin, protesting against some of the provisions of the bill introduced by Mr. Reedy in the legislature yesterday regarding the pensioning of widows of ex-Confederate vetrans. The bill provides for a pension of $8.00 a month for widows of Confederate soldiers who were living with their husbands at the time of the war. Mr. Doughtie points to the fact that scores and scores of the Confederate soldiers were too young at the time of the war to be married men, but married after the war closed, their wives, however, were of the good women of the South, toiled for the benefit of the cause, knit socks for the soldiers, and suffered every privation incident to the times. Mr. Doughtie does not see why these Daughters of the Confederacy should be deprived of a pension simply because they were too young at the time of the war and were married after the war closed.

"I wish I could do something in this world to better the condition of the man who works twelve hours per day for the privilege of a shanty existence. I wish I could tear down every hotel in the United States and build in its stead a decent comfortable home for men in the lower walks of life. I wish I could rip the degrading, spirit-crushing, soul-damning rags from the limbs of poverty and clothe the disheartened man, the despondent wite and helpless babies in garments suitable for human beings. I wish to God I could drive the grim clouds of hunger and suffering from the doors of the humble poor, and bid them come forth like men and women unabashed into the pure sunshine of Peace and Plenty."—Harpoon.

Adventists Remonstrate Against Religious Legislation.

The meeting at the local Seventh Day Adventist Church held at Lone Star, Saturday of last week, resolved itself into what might be termed a mass meeting, when resolutions were passed remonstrating against proposed Sunday legislation now before the United States Senate in Congress in Washington, D. C. The resolutions were brought before the congregation by J. A. Smith and W. H. Sanders. Elders of the church, and were passed unanimously. They read as follows:—

Whereas, the Johnston Sunday Bill, now pending in the Senate of the United States, is religious in its character, in that it is designed to foster the religious observance of Sunday, and,

Whereas, the exemption clause attached to one of the sections of this bill indicates most clearly its religious character, by exempting from the application of this section those who belong to a religious society which observes some other day of the week than Sunday as a Sabbath, and,

Whereas, religious legislation is contrary both to the spirit and letter of the Constitution of the United States, and it carried to its logical conclusion means a union of church and state, and the persecution of dissenters; therefore,

Resolved, That we respectfully, but earnestly, remonstrate against the passage of this bill, or any other bill requiring the observance of Sunday as a rest day which may come before the Senate.

Similar resolutions were passed in every one of the 2000 Seventh Day Adventist churches in the United States, thus showing that about 70,000 members in this denomination alone are strongly opposed to any kind of Sunday legislation.

Elder J. A. Smith said the reason Seventh Day Adventists are so vigorously opposed to the Johnston Sunday bill in Congress is because the passage of it would be the first step towards the union of church and state, which ultimately brings persecution upon dissenters. It was stated that not only are Seventh Day Adventists opposed to Sunday legislation, but also thousands of those who love religious liberty.

Texas has some legal hangings, but the fact that most of the principal actors are negroes prevents any pronounced conviction that the laws are being fairly and impartially enforced. Hanging some of the white murderers would go far toward restoring confidence in Texas justice.—Chronicle.

The Handle Factory.

The Gates Handle Factory, situated in the southwestern part of the city, and occupying the old site of the Craven-Lumber company, is an enterprise that the people in general know little about, both as regards the number of men employed and the amount of material that is used all of which is bought right here in the country.

The Sentinel had occasion yesterday to visit this enterprise, and was shown through the works, by Mr. Miller who is one of the managers. We found that they work quite a force of skilled men and also unskilled, besides a number are employed in getting the material on the grounds from the forests. Hickory is the principal material, but there is a great deal of white oak also used. The factory has a capacity of two thousand six hundred handles per day. The handles are gotten out in the rough at the plant here, stored in the dry room until they are properly dried and then are shipped to their finishing plant at Beaumont, from where they are furnished to the trade. Mr. Miller advises us that the hickory of East Texas, or in fact any other section where it is sandy, is faulty to a great degree as compared to the hickory where the land is supplied with quantities of lime, and for this reason there is an item of waste that is considerable. As it is here the factory has a waste of about fifty per cent of the timber that is cut.

The scrap from the mill is sold for fire wood and furnishes quite a business in this line.

It is quite a sight to see the machinery in this factory at work, turning out axe handles, pick handles and such other handles, cutting the proper curve and shape from the timbers.

FOR HOW LONG?

Nacogdoches Raises a Pertinent Question.

When a neighbor tells us that he has recovered from a serious illness, the first question that naturally arises is, "How long will he keep well?" Temporary relief is one thing, but a lasting cure is altogether different. There is nothing temporary about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills as the following Nacogdoches evidence proves beyond a doubt.

Mrs. H. M. Reid, 412 S. North St., Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "I suffered several years from severe pains in the small of my back, so intense at times that I was unable to sleep or rest. I tried nearly every so-called kidney remedy but got no relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured Mast Bros. & Smith's Drug Store (now Swift Bros. & Smith's Drug Store.) They completely cured me and the cure has been permanent. I can re-endorse this remedy in the highest terms."

Advice to a Young Man.

Remember, my son, you have to work. Whether you handle a pick or a pin, a wheelbarrow or a set of books, dig ditches or edit a paper, ring an auction bell or write funny things, you must work. If you look around you will see the man who are most alive to live the rest of their days without work are the men who work hardest. Don't be afraid of killing yourself with over-work. It is beyond your power to do that on the sunny-side of thirty. They die sometime, but it is because they quit work at 6 p. m. and don't get home till 2 a. m. It's the intervals that kills, my son. The work gives you an appetite for your meals; it lends solidity to your numbers, it gives you a perfect grateful appreciation of a holiday.

There are young men who do not work, but the world is not proud of them. It does not know their names, even; it simply speaks of them as "Old So-and-so's boys." Nobody likes them. The great busy world does not know that they are there. So, find out what you want to be and do, and take off your coat and make a dust in the world. The busier you are the less harm you are apt to get into, the sweeter will be your sleep, the brighter and happier your holidays, and the better satisfied the world will be with you, says Bob Burdette.

Resolutions of Respect.

The Supreme Grandmaster of the Universe has seen fit to summons the presence of our beloved friend and brother W. P. Menefee to give an account of the earthly proceedings and add glory to the celestial world. Loosening the feverish grip of his body, the spirit bid farewell to friends, brethren, and loved ones here, and left a brilliant example to illuminate our intentions. He lived a life to corroborate the divine teachings of our ancient order. As a man he ever walked upright, cheered the discouraged, and loved those who were censured, and he was ever ready to do kind and charitable deeds.

Too, his smile revealed his love for man, and in our hearts the memory of him abides in the sangtum sanctorium.

Brethren, when we are on the banks of the stream of life, watching the human flow, let us dip our hands into the sacred stream and emblemize our lives with the Cross of Jesus, thus preparing to embark when God shall call us.

This reminds us that one by one the chilled waters of the Great Eddy whirls our spirits to Him, who shall hallow our name and when the gloom of death enfolds our forms, we shall caress a life of sleep until the Builder of heaven and earth shall sound the incorruptible gavel in the New Jerusalem.

Resolved: That in the death of our brother, W. P. Menefee, New Star Lodge has lost one of its best and most efficient members; his children a kind and loving father, and friends, one who was true and loyal.

Resolved that a copy of this resolution be sent to the bereaved family.

DRUGGIST GIVES MONEY BACK.

Dodson's Liver Tone Gets a Four Square Guarantee From Stripling Haselwood & Co's. Drug Store.

When an article is sold a druggist who is willing to give it his personal guarantee, it's a mighty strong proof of real merit.

That's exactly the case with Dodson's Liver Tone. It is a pleasant-tasting, vegetable remedy for a slow and sluggish liver. Since Dodson's Liver Tone came on the market the sale of calomel has gone way down. The reason is simply this: Dodson's Liver Tone is safe and harmless and guaranteed to be satisfactory—Calomel is often uncertain, sometimes dangerous, and no druggist wants to guarantee that it won't knock you out of a day's work and maybe send you to bed. Stripling, Haselwood & Co. sells Dodson's Liver Tone and guarantees it. For you and for your children, it's a good thing to keep a bottle always in the house.

Stripling, Haselwood & Co. will give you your money back if you think Dodson's Liver Tone is not worth the price. "Keep your liver working and your liver will not keep you from working." is good advice to go by.

After any Sickness

nothing so rapidly restores health and vigor as SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is the essence of natural body-nourishment, so medically perfect that nature immediately appropriates and distributes it to every organ, every tissue—feeding, nourishing and restoring them to normal activity.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is not a patent medicine, but is nature's body-nourishment with curative, upbuilding properties and without a drop of drug or alcohol. It contains superior cod liver oil, the hypophosphites of lime and soda with glycerine, and is so delicately emulsified that it enters the system without digestive effort—builds, tones and sustains.

After croup, whooping cough, measles and other child ailments it is nature's ally in restoring health.

After grippe or pneumonia it imparts strength and health, and for colds, coughs, sore, tight chests and throat troubles SCOTT'S EMULSION gives the greatest relief known.

We understand that these gentlemen received valuable information and feel very much encouraged at the outlook.

The N. & S. E. Extension

For some time past it has been known that the Nacogdoches & Southeastern contemplated extending their road further into the timber holdings of Frost-Johnson Lumber company, and considerable speculation has been indulged in with reference to connections which this road would probably make with other lines of railroad.

The fact that on one or two occasions officials of the Cotton Belt were in the parties who have visited this road and gone over it, has led some to believe that the Cotton Belt people had an eye on this property and would be heard from whenever the extension was made. This matter, of course, is still a matter of speculation.

The extension of the Nacogdoches & Southeastern has practically begun. Monday of this week engineers began running out and establishing the line for the road. When this is finished they will cross-section the route and stake the grades for the grading crew, and as soon as this is done the grading will begin. It is expected that the work of grading will begin sometime about the middle of next week. The rails for the extension are now on the ground, unloaded yesterday, and the cross ties are already on hand, so it may be expected that the extension will be well under way in a very short time.

The Nacogdoches & Southeastern will extend its line about two miles, which will give it a connection with the Angelina & Naches River railroad, from Chireno to Lutkin, the connection being between ten and twelve miles west of Chireno.

Has Written the Game and Fish Commissioner.

J. R. McKenney, city secretary and also one of our sportsmen, has written the state fish and game commissioner, W. G. Sterritt, with reference to the oil which is flooding Banita creek and killing all the fish, and has asked his department to look into the matter and see if we cannot get some relief.

Banita creek is one of the finest breeding streams in this section, and it is an outrage for its waters to be polluted with oil so as to kill the fish. Fish from the lower waters come up into this stream to spawn and raise their young. This is demonstrated by the fact that when seining for bait young bass are frequently caught and others are seen to jump over the net.

You may be 30 in years, but if you are baldheaded or gray, people will surely take you to be many years older.

Returned from Deep Water Convention.

The Logansport delegation who passed through here last Monday enroute to Orange to attend the Sabine deep water convention, returned yesterday and spent several hours in the city, until the night train on the H. E. & W. T. These gentlemen report a splendid time on their visit to Orange, say that the convention was a grand success, that they are going to get the ditch dug alright, and that the Orange people are splendid entertainers.

The Logansport delegation were very much pleased that a representation from Nacogdoches went and appreciate the efforts of Messrs. Steve King and Tom Baker from the young Mens Commercial Club of this city. Messrs King and Baker did not go down on the same train with the Logansport crowd, but arrived next morning in time to get in on the convention and help in the proceedings.

Cut the High Cost of Living.

W. H. Chapman, Winnebago, Neb., tells how he did it. "My two children had a very bad cough and the doctors did them no good. I got a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and before it was all used the children were free and cured of their cough. I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. No opiates. Swift Bros & Smith. eod

J. T. Watson and wife of Grandall, are in the city and are guests of their daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hellenkamp. Mr. Watson was a resident of this city for about twenty years, but moved away some six years ago. He is meeting his many friends here, and is also enjoying noticing the improvement that Nacogdoches has made since he lived here.

A mean stuffy cold, with hoarse wheezy breathing is just the kind that runs into bronchitis or pneumonia. Don't trifle with any such serious conditions but take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly. Quick and beneficial results are just what you can expect from this great medicine. It soothes and heals the inflamed air passages. It stops the hoarse racking cough. Swift Bros & Smith. eod

Collier Brothers Convicted.

Messrs. Blount & Strong are in receipt of a message from San Augustine today announcing that the jury which tried Raymond Collier, charged with the murder of A. C. Lynch in that county in 1911, had brought in a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree and assessed a penalty of six years.

This verdict convicts the other brother charged with the killing of Lynch, as Henry Collier was convicted last week and given two years for manslaughter.

Blount & Strong assisted in the prosecution.

Hints for Housekeepers.

Keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always on hand, and you can quickly head off a cold by its prompt use. It contains no opiates, heals and soothes the inflamed air passages, stops the cough, and may save a big doctor's bill. In the yellow package. Swift Bros. & Smith. eod

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

Developing Southwest.

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 18.—The completion of a stretch of railroad 150 miles long, from San Diego to Yuma, Ariz., promises to exert a mighty influence upon the commerce of the Southwest and this line, the San Diego and Arizona railroad, is being pushed eastward rapidly. Railroad officials say the effect of this small bit of railroad enterprise will be felt as far as the Mississippi river, because it will afford to every state now dependent upon the Gulf of Mexico as a tidewater outlet another direct line to ocean ships.

The railroad maps show several lines leading toward the southwest by various connections, the most southwesterly, the most southwesterly point being at Yuma west of which the haul is northwesterly. San Diego is due west of Yuma, and the San Diego and Arizona Railroad, to be opened within a few months, will shorten the distance from Oklahoma and Texas, and other Mississippi Valley states, to the Pacific coast by several hundred miles.

National Highway Association.

San Diego, Cal. Jan. 18.—Preliminary organization of the Southern National Highway Association has been affected here, and at a convention to be held at Asheville, N. C., on January 30 next, this will be made permanent. The organization will include ten states of the Southland, the purpose being to secure a permanent highway across the United States swinging around the Atlantic coast to the national capital. This would connect with a projected highway through New England to the Canadian line, and at San Diego with the Pacific Highway through California, Oregon, Washington, to British Columbia. When this is completed the auto tourists may travel over a magnificent road in a great circle around the United States.

The automobile, like the bicycle, had many quaint and curious predecessors. The February Motor Number of Scribner's Magazine contains an article on "Steam-Coach Days," with illustrations in color showing the forerunners of the motor car, which ran regularly in England a century ago.
