Texas Women Dies Age 91.

Fort Worth, Tex., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Priscilla Jane Johnson, one of the few women who lived in Texas at the time of the Texas Revolution of 1836, died here today at the home of her son, Hiram A. Johnson, 1210 College avenue, at the age of 91 years. She had been a resident of the state for eighty-two years.

The body was forwarded tonight to Houston, her former home, by the L. P. Robertson Undertaking Company, and will be buried there in the Glenwood Cemetery. Her son and Mrs. Hiram Johnson accompanied the body.

Mrs. Johnson was born at Granada, Miss., May 23, 1823. She came to Texas in 1832 and lived a number of years at Nacogdoches, during the time when the early settlers were troubled by the Indians and Mexicans. She later moved to Houston, and until last year resided with her daughter, who died in September. Her husband, Hiram A. Johnson, died in 1861.

The pioneer woman is survived by her son, who is ticket agent for the Santa Fe and Houston and Texas Central at Fort Worth, and two grandsons, Dr. Harold V. Johnson and Denny Johnson of this city.

Sneffels, Col. A. J. Walsh was badly done up with rheumatism and sent for Foley Kidney Pills which was the only thing that would cure him. Geo. Potter of Pontiac, Mo. was down on his back with kidney and bladder trouble and Foley Kidney Pills made him well and able to work. It is a splendid medicine and always helps. Just try it. Confederate Pension Increase.

Austin, Tex., Jan. 5.—Texas Confederate pensioners will receive a pension of $15 for the quarter ending Feb. 28, an increase of $4.50 over the customary apportionment. The increased apportionment was fixed today by Pension Commissioner George W. Kyser, who has been given estimates that by March 1 next there will be sufficient money in the State Treasury to the credit of the pension fund to meet the increase. This will be the highest amount of pensions the Confederate pensioners have received in a number of years. Several years ago there was an increase from $10.50 to $16.50 but since that time the amount has stood at the $10.50 mark.

The number of Confederate pensioners in Texas is close to 14,000 and the total amount which will be paid them for the present quarter be will $210,000.

Commissioner Kyser is not able to say at this time whether or not there will be a reduction in the pension for the quarter beginning March 1.

We are authorized to announce Geo. M. Rainbolt as a candidate for re-election to the office of tax collector of Nacogdoches County. Mr. Rainbolt is so well known in the county, that anything that could be written in his behalf would not be add to his reputation as an efficient officer. He appreciates the confidence and the support which the people have formerly bestowed upon him and if elected again will attempt to render as faithful service in the future as in the past.

Mrs. John H. Reagan Will Testify.

Palestine, Texas, Jan. 5.—The celebrated International and Great Northern general office case, in which the road is being sued by Palestine and Anderson County to compel it to bring the general offices back here from Houston, is scheduled for trial on its merits at Rusk today. The case will be tried before a jury and District Judge Lee Guinn. Over 100 witnesses will be examined by attorneys for both sides, and some of the most prominent citizens of Palestine, including Mrs. John H. Reagan and others will testify as living witnesses that this city and county had a contract with the road to maintain its offices and shops here for considerations made the railroad.

Attorneys representing Palestine and Anderson County are T. B. and A. G. Greenwood, W. C. Campbell, R. C. Sewell and County Attorney Strickland of Palestine, J. C. Box and R. O. Watkins of Jacksonville, Perkins & Perkins and John B. Guinn of Rusk.

Attorneys for the International and Great Northern are N. B. Morris and W. I. Sims of Palestine, Wilson, Debney & King of Houston, N. A. Steadman of Austin, F. A. Williams of Galveston, Andrews, Ball & Streetman of Houston, and Normrn & Shook, W. E. Donnelly and Frank Guinn of Rusk.

This suit will be one of the greatest legal battles ever fought in the state, and is attracting the attention of not only Palestine, but entire Texas is watching with great interest the out-come of the battle. If the jury decides that Palestine and Anderson County had a binding contract with the railroad, then the offices will be compelled to move back to Palestine and pay heavy damages besides.

W. H. Gray of Chireno came to the city late yesterday on a motor car from a point about eight down the N. & S. E. where a freight wreck prevented the passage of the north bound train on which he was riding.

Mr. Gray says that the big fire at Ghireno left the people in a bad fix temporarily, but that new houses, some of them brick, will be built without delay and Chireno after a short depression will again be the best town in the county.

U. S. Ownership of Railway.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Representative Bryan, progressive, of Washington is preparing to bring up governmentship of railroads when the house takes up the Alaska railway bill next week.

Besides leading a fight against the proposal to lease the new Alaskan railroad to a private corporation after the government builds it, Mr. Bryan intends to embody his ideas of government ownership of railroads generally in a separate bill.

J. E. Phillips of Melroe is in the city on business.

The trade of the United States in South Africa is undergoing a rapid and substantial growth, and our success in this market is a strong refutation of the oft-repeated assertion that German competition is driving American manufacturers from the field of foreign trade.

When a boy gets the idea into his head that the business men are not watching him every day of his life, he is mistaken. They are always looking out for a suitable boy to make a good clerk or a boy to fill some other position. Try each day to so live that your life will be clean and useful.—Jacksonville Progress

We are in receipt of a complimentary pass to the Sixth National Corn Exposition which is to be held in Dallas, February 10 to 24, at the Fair Grounds. This is one of the biggest things for Texas that has or will be pulled off for along time. Exhibits will be there from every state and several nations, and prominent men will deliver addresses.

Hudson Maxim, the inventor of the deadly Maxim gun, in an address delivered at the theater in New York where Dr. Modison C. Peters conducts his weekly services on "Peace," stated that the American nation chews away every year in gum the price of three dreadnaughts. By making such a remark, Maxim thus proved himself a good salesman as well as an inventor; but we wonder that if he had had as much financial interest in a "gun" factory as he has in a "gum" factory, would he have made that statement? He is like some other would-be reformers—always trying to pull some other fellows' business down and at the same time boost their own.—Kennedy Advance.

Until the people of East Texas come to a better realization of the value and appreciation of printers ink, and give better support to the newspapers, the county will lag in the onward march of industrial and commercial development. Every man engaged in any business—industrial, commercial, or professional—which depends upon public patronage can employ some advertising profitably, and a newspaper published in a town that gives it this kind of support is the greatest asset the community has. The newspaper goes into the homes of the country, carrying its message direct to the firesides where it can be digested without interruption, and it reflects the commercial life of the town in which it is published, through advertising of the various concerns soliciting patronage sandwiched with the news in which the reader is interested, it appeals to him with much greater force, and is read with much greater interest than would be a mail order catalogue.—Garrison News.

Geo. B. Terrell not a Candidate for Congress.

Alto, Tex. Jan. 1, 1914.
To the Democracy of the second Congressional District:

I deem it proper at the beginning of the year, to state that I will not be a candidate for Congress in this District.

If I were financially able to make the race, I would be glad to do so provided, I should be the only candidate against the present incumbent.

I think it imperatively necessary that only one man be selected to make the race against the present Congressman.

The result of the last race ought to be sufficient to teach all honest, moral progressive democrats, the folly of dividing their forces, when progressive democracy is an issue and the virtue and sound morals of the district are at stake.

I still believe the agricultural interests of this district ought to have a representative in congress, but the result of the last race is not sufficiently encouraging to induce a farmer to make the race again any time in the near future. It seems that the great agricultural interests which are so vitally affected by legislation, do not realize the importance of having representation in Congress.

This being true, I am willing to support any good moral man, who stands first for honesty, sobriety, and the sacredness of the home, and who will uphold Woodrow Wilson and W. J. Bryan in the great fight they are making for the masses of the people and not denounce them, or either of these as a "Socialist" and an avil Genius hovering over the flanks of democracy.

It is time the people had a representative in Congress. With the exception of the two years represented by the late M. L. Brooks, this district has not had a representative in twenty years whose campaign was not partly financed by the "special interests."

A poor man cannot make the race with any hope of success, unless the people who expect no favors will help him and this they will not do, hence the man backed by the "special interests" is nearly always elected and this accounts very largely for the deplorable condition of affairs in both State and Nation today. May God speed the day when the people of this district and of this state, can elect men to office, who are not supported and controlled by the lumber and liquor interests.

Respectfully,
Geo. B. Terrell.

Speak Ill of Nobody.

On a page devoted to New Year resolutions in the January Woman's Home Companion a Kentucky contributor suggests the following as the best resolution for 1914:

"If your readers have seen the great evil resulting from this great evil of tattling, as I have, they will surely join me in saying that no better resolution could be offered for the betterment of all than the one firm resolve to speak no ill of anyone, nor to repeat anything of an unkind or evil nature told by another."

For County Judge.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches County:

After being solicited by many of those who supported me two years ago, as well as by many of those who voted against me, I have decided to again make the race for county judge of this county.

I expect to conduct my campaign again upon a high plane, and promise if elected, to give the people of Nacogdoches county, the very best there is in me, and with the assistance of God and the cooperation of the good people of the county, I earnestly believe I can fill this important office satisfactorily.

Of my friends, I only ask your earnest, hearty and loyal support; of those who oppose me I only ask a fair, clean and honest deal.

Thanking all for the favors extended me in the past, I am yours for further consideration.

Invest Texas Money in Texas Properties.

The passing of one of our largest industrial concerns from Texas to outside control should serve to emphasize the importance of investing Texas money in Texas properties. We have the business genius sufficiently powerful to burst open new pathways of progress, but many of our financial chieftains look askance upon Texas securities unless it is a vendor's lien note or in such shape that it will draw money like a cart horse.

The spirit of ownership of industry does not abound in local financial circles. Our builders are compelled to sell in a foreign market, but with the title goes the birthright of industry and the passing of opportunity to become a powerful factor in the world's trade. If our money only had the courage of men, we could grapple with gigantic forces in business and move the Finish Each Task.

On a page devoted to New Year resolutions in the January Woman's Home Companion an Alabama contributor tells, as follows, what the aim of his life is to be in 1914:

"To keep the loose ends of my life tied up. If there is a garment unfinished on hand, finish it before undertaking anything else. If there is a letter owing, write it at once. If there is a bill due, pay it before incurring any other expense. Simple? Certainly, but keeping this one resolution means things actually done, not merely thought about and, moreover shipshape affairs that permit freedom to take advantage of any change in fortune that may come.

Have You Got the Punch.

Mary Heaton Vorse, writing a story in the January Woman's Home Companion, makes one of her characters describe as follows a tremendously successful man who is one of the principal figures in the story:

"Look at him now. He isn't a man—he's a force. Men like him are this country—they make it. Every thing else is subsidiary. Nothing else counts. They are politics. They are power. They are it. And how am I—how am I going to play in this game? I tell you, I haven't got the punch.

Honest Injun, we did not booze a booze, nor smile a smile, nor wink a wink, but just before dinner Christmas day we drew a glass of peach cider, our own make, and just had to sample it, then we drew another, and after dinner, for a desert, we had it and a hunk of fine cake and felt as well as if we had boozed, smiled, winked and made a darn fool of our selves.—Huntington Herald.

The Passing of Col. Exall.

In the death of Col. Henry Exall, Texas has lost its master optimist. His life was a tremendous answer to the pessimist, the doubter and the indifferent. His body returns to dust, but his spirit will lead the pioneers of progress for generations to come and his life stands as a beacon light of hope, and a challenge to despair. He was more than a builder; he was a creator of human purposes, and an organizer of mankind. He was one of the most kingly men that America ever produced and he crowned his life with the jewels of self-sacrifice. He loved everybody and his magnetic personality swung men around him.

His titanic nature shook the state. His life is one of the State's greatest heritages. He taught lessons in citizenship that made patriotism common and benevolence popular. His iron courage, sublime faith and magic enthusiasm lifted him into an altitude of greatness that made his life little less than a miracle. He is gone, but we can all dwell in the reflection of his glory, warm in the glow of his soul and walk in the pathway illuminated by the powerful rays of his mighty life.

Have Taken Over A Big Saw Mill.

Messrs. W. Y. and G. F. Garrison and T. M. Harris, all of this city, have taken over the big saw mill at Rockland, and Mr. Harris is now in charge of the enterprise.

This is reported to be one of the best saw mills in East Texas, with a large supply of timber, and the new firm will push it after the manner they usually stir things with which they are connected, as a result of which the success of the enterprise is assured in advance.

Having taken over the mill the firm has abandoned the idea of rebuilding at Cleveland for the present.

Schribar Corn.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 3. —A sorghum designated as "Schribar Corn" has been extensively advertised in Oklahoma during the past summer and fall. Numerous inquiries have been addressed to the Department regarding it. According to those promoting this crop it was produced by crossing two or three strains of sorghum secured in Southern Europe and Northern India. Samples of this sorghum on exhibit at the International Dry Land Congress, Tulsa, Oklahoma, October, 1913, as well as head samples submitted to the U. S. Department at different times, were indistinguishable from Feterita, a sorghum secured by the U. S. Department of Agriculture from Khartum, Sudan, in November, 1906, and now distributed quite widely over Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas. Feterita is very different from any other known sorghum and there is no reason to believe that Schribar Corn differs from it in any way. Seed of Feterita can be purchased at reasonable rates and there is no need for farmers to pay a fancy price for it under another name.

WEAK KIDNEYS OFTEN THE RESULT OF OVERWORK

On several occasions I have been unable to work and suffered severe pain in the back, due to my kidneys. I called on a doctor of Ripon, Wis. but received no relief. I tried Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which gave me instant relief. I was then able to resume work. Swamp-Root is the only relief I can get from kidney disease which I am subject to in the spring of the year. I am writing this testimonial through my own free will that sufferers of kidney and bladder diseases will know of the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root. I recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root whenever I can and always have a bottle of Swamp-Root in my home. I purchased Swamp-Root of Mr. C. J. Burnside, Druggist, of 202 Main Street, Ripon, Wis. Very truly yours, THOMAS J. LYNCH, 525 Newbury Street, Ripon, Wis. I have read the above statement that Thomas J. Lynch bought Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root at my store and made oath the above statement is true in substance and fact. E. J. Burnside, Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of November, 1911. F. A man who thinks he can ride to horses going in opposite directions isn't smart enough to be governor of Texas.—East Texas Register.

Maybe he wants to be sure of getting out of the race by leaving at both ends of the track.

In this issue we are publishing an interesting communication from Mrs. Leah Harde man Wilson, which was sent us some time ago and over looked until today. It is what printers call time-matter,—good any time—and we gladly give it space, though long delayed.

It was reported this morning that enough money has been subscribed to put up two ornamental street lamps on West Main street between the public square and the court house, their exact location not yet determined. Five are already up, extending from Church Street to the Northwest corner of the square. When all are ablaze the principal portion of the business section will be a thing of beauty.

It will pay you to read the article entitled "City Ownership" published elsewhere in these columns.

If some liberal candidate or other good Samaritan will make the Sentinel a present of an office clock—a cheap little clock that will keep good time—we will embalm his name in a living mode and more seriously consider him as the proper man to serve the people in a public capacity, and as a fit subject to fall heir to a home of happiness beyond the grave. Substitutes are running the paper this week and are getting out of the public every thing that can be jarred loose.

The father of a large family of children was trying hard to read the evening paper. "What's that terrible racket in the hall, Martha?" "One of the children just fell downstairs." Conditions in Texas.

The committee on Statistics and Standards of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States has prepared a survey of conditions, as of the last of November, and reports Texas as follows:

Sufficient grain was raised for feed last year, which is a matter of great importance to the state, since in years past where grain crops were short something like $15,000,000 annually had to be paid out for imported grain. Cotton is a smaller crop than last year, being hurt seriously in August by drought, and later much damage has been done by floods, thus reducing the quality. The recent overflow affected the entire state except the extreme west and southwest. The fruit crop was hurt by frost, and made but small yield. Sugar cane in eastern portion is in good shape, and there is a large crop of pecans. Dairy industry is in good shape and improving. Cattle command a high price, and are quite scarce in number, and it will take some time to replenish the depleted herd. Lumber interest is poor; sheep industry is in good shape. Rice has been much damaged by excessive rains.

Governor Still on War Path.

In a recent interview Gov. Colquitt said: "I am convinced that the United States is neglecting its duty to the world in permitting the continuance of the butchery and uncivilized warfare that is now in progress in Mexico."

The governor of Texas has abandoned the charge of vacillation and fallen upon the charge of negligence. He would substitute for small war a gigantic war of years duration and deem it not a butchery. He is itching for a fight that will bring him the small degree of prominence which his four years as governor failed to bring.

On the same day Mr. Bryan said: "I do not want men to die before guns for their country. I want them to live for their country."

Here in a nutshell are the views of the smallest man and the views of the biggest man in the western world.

Government Wire Line.

The postmaster general has stirred up a hornets nest among financial interests of the country. Men who are interested in collecting juicy annual dividends and more juicy stock dividends are in a state of horror bordering on the jim jams for fear the government will establish a wire line and save the people a lot of money.

No objections are heard except from the direction of the citadel where money power is entrenched. The president of the Mackay companies says: "Government services would be a joke as composed with the present service." That is true, but the joke would be entirely on the Mackay and kindred companies. They would have nothing left but the water they injected into the business which could be used with profit in the regions of the west.

EAST TEXAS FAIR

Exhibitions and Races Better Than in Previous Years.

1910 we held our first Fair with an unfinished track as well as grounds. The farmers did not seem to know what the fair was really for and did not exhibit enough to make it look as though we needed an exhibit hall at all. Our live stock exhibit was so small that they could be tied to trees. There were about 10 head of Jersey cattle and fifteen head of hogs, all breeds, mostly not registered and our race horses numbered 17. The races were good for their kind, but in order to make a program we were compelled to allow one owner to start as many horses as he liked in a race and regardless of the class they were eligible to. The 2.25 pace was won in 1.19. The tree for all pace 1.07 3-4, the track record for that year. Our running races were made up of cow ponies and we gave them the same amount of money as we do now for first class horses.

1911 saw some improvement. The farmers came out and exhibited more farm products and stock, for there were some standard bred stallions in the county and registered Jersey males as well as Duroc Jersey, Berkshire, Tamworth and Hampshire hogs brought in, and the farmers saw the difference between the piney woods rooters they had been raising as well as the sorry calves and milk cows. So the East Texas Fair was responsible for their buying, it not the pure breed, at least graded stock and breed their mares to horses instead of using a cold blooded stallion that never could increase the value of a colt. Our races were far better as we had 28 head of horses stabled and would not allow an owner to start more than one in a race and then in a class in which he belonged. The track record was lowered to 1.05, and running races raised from 1-4 mile to 3-8 mile and 1-2 mile distances and we had some thoroughbred runners. In the cattle we had about 10 head, and hogs 30 head.

1912 found the East Texas Fair needing more room to house the horses, cattle and hogs so they built a large cow stable to accommodate 82 head of cattle, also 21 pens to care for about 75 or 80 head of hogs. These were easily filled and the horse show ring was the largest ever had in East Texas. Those were some farmers who brought good graded stock to exhibit but found they could not compete with the pure bred kind. Our poultry show was pronounced by competent judges to be one of the best ever held by a county Fair in the state.

The racing part of it was so much improved in quality as well as in number of horses that we were compelled to build 30 new stalls. These with what we had already, numbered 82 stalls and they were all filled as well as some horses stabled on the outside.

The races were all the best we had ever had and track record dropped to 1.02 1-4 a half and 2.12 3-4 a mile. The running races were lengthened out to 1-2 and 5-8 mile and were filled almost entirely by thoroughbred horses and were of the highest class.

We filled two barns and had some in the old Swift barn. Our track record was lowered to 1.02, and by several watchmen broken, making 1.01 1-4. The 2.20 pace was better and faster than our very best races in 1910-1911, being 1.03 3-4 to 1.05. Our running races extended to 7-8 and 1 mile, filled by some of the best runners that will race at Juarez all winter. Now all this has been on unfinished Fair Grounds that have never been free from debt, and I am sorry to say over heads of some stockholders who can never do a thing but knock and cry for dividends, and who I believe are responsible for farmers getting the notions in their heads that the Fair is a money making scheme for the city fellows. Let me say one thing that had the Dallas Fair association ever declared dividends instead of putting it in improvement we never would have had the greatest State Fair on earth.

1913 found our fair badly intertered with by bad weather, causing a postponement. The most injurious thing that can happen to one, especially after it has been thoroughly advertised as ours had been. But after much hard work on the part of only two or three of the Fair association we pulled it off and filled the cattle barn, and were compelled to rig up some new hog pens, and then had to turn away some hogs, being unable to pen them. There were 145 head of hogs shown more than was at Shreveport state Fair. There were about 40 head of Jersey cattle and they were all looked over by a Jersey and Hog Judge who assists at Dallas and the Fat Stock Show, and he pronounced them as good as he had seen at either place. He also was surprised to find so much classy stuff at so small a place. Our races were still a marked improvement over 1912. We had horses from South Dakota, Illinois, Kansas, Kentucky, Texas Louisiana, Oklahoma and Indiana. The horses had been racing all meetings this year at the largest held in the west and north as we now have. The farmers and also lots of city folks believe we should give less to the races and more to the exhibition, now let me try to make this clear to you. In the first place we do not charge any entrance fee on exhibits, something you must pay at every fair you go to except in East Texas, consequently the premiums are a dead loss to the association.

In the races we will take for example, the $1000 purse was advertised because some people believed and talked about the Fair association giving so much money to a race. Now it read:

20 to enter at 2 1-2 percent —50.
9 to start at 2 1-2 percent —22 1-2.
5 percent from 4 money

were all the best

Put up by horsemen—92 1-2 percent of the $1000, leaving the awful sum of 7 1-2 percent and get advertised as giving the largest purse ever given in the state outside of Dallas. One Interested.

Chicken's Crow Gold.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 4.—H. D. Fisher of Omana yesterday, purchased a chicken, took it home and when the crow was opened found forty-one gold nuggets, ranging from the size of a small pellet to one that was half an inch long, three-sixteenths wide and one-sixteenth thick.

Everybody concerned to-day tried to find where that chicken came from.

The gold is valued at about $30. The chicken cost 78c.

For County Treasurer.

To the voters of Nacogdoches County:

I am asking you again for the office of County Treasurer, it being the only office that I can fill on account of my age. It is yours and you can give it to whom you see fit by your vote. I have tried to perform the duties of the office under laws of our State, and have been found in my office most of the time and think that I have complied with every promise made in my campaign last year, and hope that you will say so by casting your votes for me for re-election and I promise that I will still stay at my post and fill the office to the best of my ability.

I hope to meet most of you between now and the primaries in July, and talk this business over.

Wishing you one and all a prosperous year, I am,
Yours to serve,
Jno. C. (Uncle Cal) Fall.

Government Ownership.

Of the fifty-four countries in the world thirty-two own all their railways and forty-eight own a substantial part of all of them. These facts are not generally known, because our magazines and metropolitan papers are rather averse to the dissemination of such pregnant truths. The proposed bill for government ownership of railways, to be prepared by Representative Bryan, as seen else where in this issue of the Sentinel, will result in a wide spread enlightenment, and at some time in the future become a law of the land.

Washington, Jan. 6.—Plans for the government to buy the Bull Run battle field and make of it a national park, are indorsee in a report by a board of army officers, presented to Secretary Garrison today.

Washington, Jan. 6.—President Wilson will end his southern vacation and leave Pass Christian, Miss., at 11 o'clock Sunday night, arriving in Washington some time next Tuesday. A telegram received by Secretary Tully today from Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the president's aide, announced the plan and said the president was in excellent health.

Suffered with Throat Trouble.

MR. B. W. D. BARNES, McMinnville, Tenn.

Mr. Barnes used to be sheriff of Warren County, Tennessee. From exposure to the elements he acquired throat trouble. He supposed that his health was entirely ruined, in spite of all the treatment he could procure. After using four bottles of Peruna he claims that he was entirely restored to health. Catarrh of the throat is not only an annoying disease of itself, but it exposes the victim to many other diseases. We are constantly breathing into our throats numerous atmospheric germs. Disease germs of all sorts. This cannot be avoided. If the throat is healthy the system is protected from these poisonous germs. But if the throat is raw and punctured with numerous little ulcers, by catarrh, then the disease germs have easy access to the system. Keep the throat well and clean. This is the way to protect yourself against contagious diseases. Gargle the throat as explained in the new "His of Life," sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Barnes says: "I had throat trouble and had three doctors treating me. All failed to do me any good, and pronounced my health gone. I concluded to try Peruna, and after using four bottles can say I was entirely cured."

Shirley whose announcement appears this week for tax assessor was born and raised in Nacogdoches county; attended country schools and the Garrison high school, and graduated at the Sam Houston Normal Institute, and afterward taught school for years in the county. He is now farming and ginning. He is widely and favorably known as a man of fine business ability, and has had experience in the line of work required in the office to which he aspires, having been deputy assessor of a large portion of the county. It elected he will discharge the duties of the office admirably.

Ex-attorney General Dead.

Washington, Jan. 5.—Judge J. H. McLeary, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, but since the Spanish-American War Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Porto Rico, died at a military hospital in this city today. The funeral will take place at Arlington Wednesday after, the burial services to be performed by William H. Nichols, past grand master of the masonic grand lodge of Texas.

Judge McLeary was born in Tennessee July 27, 1845, and moved to Texas in his youth. He served in the Confederate Army, afterward practiced law in San Antonio; served in the State Legislature and was elected Attorney General of the State. Later he was appointed a Territorial judiciary by President Cleveland. He served in the Spanish-American War as Major and Judge Advocate on the staff of Gen. Lawton, and at the close of the war was appointed as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Porto Rico by President McKinley. He came to Washington last fall to visit his son Lieut. S. H. All Blood Disorders Quickly Driven Away

Astonishing Results With the Greatest Blood Purifier Ever Discovered.

Strength, Power, Accomplishment are all Typified in S. S. S.

Some blood disorders become deeply rooted in the glands and tissues, and the mistake is made of resorting to drastic drugs. These only aggravate by causing other and worse troubles. A host of people know this to be true. They know from painful experience.

To get right down into where the blood is vitiated requires S. S. S., the greatest blood purifier ever discovered.

This remarkable remedy contains one ingredient, the active purpose of which is to stimulate the tissues to the healthy selection of its own essential nutriment and the medicinal elements of this matchless blood purifier are just as essential to well balanced health as the nutritious elements of the meats, grains, fats and sugars of our daily food.

Not only this, but if from the presence of some disturbing poison there is a local or general interference of nutrition to cause boils, carbuncles, abscesses and kindred troubles, S. S. S. so directs the local cells that this poison is rejected and eliminated from their presence.

Then, too, S. S. S. has such specific stimulation on these local cells as to preserve their normal welfare and a proper relative relationship to each other.

In a very brief time S. S. S. has the reconstructive process so under control that remarkable changes are observed. All eruptive places heal, mysterious pains and aches have disappeared, and from head to foot there is a conscious sensation of renewed health.

From the fact that S. S. S. is purely a botanical preparation, it is accepted by the weakest stomach and has great tonic influence. Not one drop of drugs or minerals is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and insist upon having it. And if you desire skillful advice upon any matter concerning the blood and skin write to The Swift Specific Co., 205 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some zealous clerk to larrup the atmosphere in eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. Beware of all counterfeits.

Killed Under Wheels.

Early this morning the remains of Randolph Smith, colored, were found on the H. E. & W. T. tracks at the tank near the electric light plant, the body having been cut in two just about the waist line.

Randolph had been at the barber shop, where he worked up until about 8 o'clock when the shop closed, and so far it has been impossible to find anyone who saw him later in the night. It is supposed that the midnight passenger train or a fast stock train ran over him.

When found the lower part of the body was lying on the outside of the rails, as though he had been laying face down and the upper part of the body was on the inside of the rails, face up with the arms raised. There was a gash cut over one eye, and the body seems to have slid some few feet.

Judge Perritte went down this morning and viewed the remains and ordered them removed for burial.

Aunt Amelia Christopher, Dead

From Saturday's Daily:

Mrs. P. A. Christopher died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. Burrows, north of the city, from paralysis of the brain. Funeral arrangements have not been made pending word from her sons at Waxahachie, who were telephoned this morning, and are expected here on the night train.

Mrs. Christopher was 84 years of age, and for the past several years has been in remarkably robust health, never suffering an ache or pain any kind. She arose this morning, dressed herself and as she stooped over to tie her shoe laces, she complained of a pain in the head and said that she was sick. She was assisted to the bed and lay down, apparently asleep and remained in that state for about an hour, when she died.

Deceased came to Texas from Alabama in 1852, and has resided in Nacogdoches county most of the time since. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church, and a splendid old lady. She is survived by three children, W. D. Christopher and M. C. Christopher of Waxahachie, and Mrs. H. Burrows of Nacogdoches. Her husband died in 1871 from an attack of pneumonia.

President Wilson proved himself quite a volunteer fire chief when, while coming in from the golf links at Gullport, Miss., he discovered a blaze on the roof of a large dwelling. The automobiles were stopped, and under his direction the chauffeurs and others in the party unstrapped the fire extinguishers and rushed to the top of the house and extinguished the blaze. —Kennedy Advance.

Innocent, But in Jail.

Quite an unusual occurrence has just been reported to us, in which a young boy of about 18 or 19 has been confined in the county jail for the past ten days on a charge of theft, but appears to be innocent altogether.

It is reported that some days before Christmas a sum of $65.00 was missed from the home of a Mr. Milstead at Garrison, and this young man was suspected and complaint was made against him. Yesterday it was reported to the justice of the peace at Garrison that the money had been found by Mrs. Milstead hid away in a pillow slip, evidently where she had hid it herself.

Appreciates Work of Fire Boys.

Capt. I. L. Sturdevant, chief of the fire department is in receipt of the following letter, which is self explanatory. The fire boys deserve the thanks of every citizen for their efforts, and when the thanks take a substantial turn the boys appreciate them just that much more:

Nacogdoches, Jan. 2, 1914.
Mr. I. L. Sturdevant,
Capt. Fire Dept.
City.

Dear Sir:—I enclose you CK for 5 dollars to Fire Co. as a small token of my appreciation for valient service and work in saving my house on Taylor Avenue from total destruction.

Yours very respt.
J. F. Summers.

Mesdames J. H. and J. D. Ellington and Miss Zelma Bell are visiting Mrs. Frank Sublett of this city this week.

Succumbs to Pneumonia.

After a heroic struggle for nine days, during which time every effort of the physician and the most careful nursing was of no avail, Lawrence Cash, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cash, passed away with the closing of the day January 1st, 1914.

The funeral services were held at the family home yesterday afternoon, Rev. T. J. Sloan of Lutkin, conducting the services, and the remains were interred at Oak Grove cemetery.

Lawrence was an exceptionally bright little fellow and was the idol of the home, he being the only son, and was also loved and admired for his many many traits of character.

The bereaved parents and his three little sisters, have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and after three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.
