We are authorized to announce Richard P. White as a candidate for county clerk of Nacogdoches county. Mr. White is a progressive young farmer living in the Fairview community and is well qualified for the office for which he asks. He is the grandson of Dr. R. P. White, who was one of the first white settlers of the county, and a son of R. T. White well known as one of our most substantial citizens, and is a native of the county, living here all his life. He is painstaking, industrious, sober and faithful and if elected will discharge the duties of his office with care and efficiency.

Obituary.

On 19 inst. we were made to weep with those who weep over the death of our friend and neighbor Mr. Joe Mooney. Mr. Mooney leaves a wife, two children, a mother, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn his loss. While he is our loss he is heaven's gain. He has paid that debt that we all must pay and his soul has gone to its reward.

His death has cost his family the loss of their best friend and his community, (Etoile) a good and faithful worker. We are glad to know that his life has been such that it is worthy of praise.

We regret the loss of him who was so dear to us, but we feel assured that he has gone out of great agony into eternal rest, and we must be reconciled to the will of God who does all things well, and in his own good time. He was a young man that lived a true life. God takes our friends from us and transplants them in that land beyond the sunset's radiant glow. Let our lives be such that we shall meet him in that land ere long where parting is no more.

Lester E. Winder.

Announces for Sheriff.

To the voters of Nacogdoches county:

After serving as deputy sheriff of this county for the past three years, and two years of this time as first deputy, I have decided to ask the good people of the county elect me as their sheriff. My duties as deputy sheriff has been such that I am fully acquainted with work to be done by the sheriff. I am a young man 33 years old and single and therefore have no incumbrances to hinder me in the full discharge of my duties should I be selected as sheriff by the voters in the July primaries.

I will make such a canvass of the county as I can without neglecting my duties as deputy sheriff and hope to see most of the voters between now and the primaries.

If you see fit to thus promote me I shall spare no pains to discharge the duties of the office diligently and faithfully, treating every body alike when it comes to the discharge of my official duties.

Earnestly soliciting your votes and influence, I beg to remain,

Yours Respectfully,
M. F. Maples.

The Texas administration is in the hole to the tune of $1,750,000, yet it appears that some thirteen or more citizens are very anxious to assume the reins of government and incidentally this debt. Every voter in the State should consider seriously before casting his vote this year, to the end that a sound, practical business man may be placed at the head of affairs in Texas. Prohibition is alright, and no one wants to see Texas a State-Wide prohibition State more than we do, but we don't want to see the people make the issue on this subject alone, because this, above all others, is not time to place a fanatic in the governor's chair in this State. It's time to call a halt from extravagance and inability in the administration of affairs, and lets don't confuse the issue.—Mt. Enterprise Herald.

The Hookworm Disease

An interesting fact in connection with the study of the hookworm disease is that it was first discovered about 1895 by Dr. Allen J. Smith, professor of pathology and bacteriology in the medical department of the University of Texas. At that time Dr. Smith examined eighty medical students of Galveston and found eight infected with hookworms.

Robbing War of One Terror.

In the year just ended but two cases of typhoid fever appeared in the army. Before typhoid vaccination there were hundreds. Scores died. Even the two present exceptions are partly accounted for. One contracted the disease just before enlisting. The other was among troops in China and it is doubtful if he was ever inoculated. In the navy, where the vaccine was adopted somewhat later, there were seven cases in one and one-half times as great a number of enlisted men as in the army. Of those four received three inoculation at the remote tropical station where the vaccine had deteriorated. These figures tell a story which only the antivaccinationists will fail to appreciate. Even making no allowance for the slip-ups which in no way invalidate the prophylactic excellence of the procedure, the record of but nine cases in 130,000 men represents an achievement of which science may justly feel proud.—Boston Herald.

We expect to vote for whom we please and how we please and this is the concern of no man except ourselves. One of the troubles of Texas today is the Big Bugs in high places butting in and presuming to tell the people how to vote. Nine-tenths of these Big Bugs are humbugs and the further away from the business of the people they can get and stay got, just that much better off will the people be.—Brenham Banner Press.

The best leader is the one who does not lead at all, and that is the only leader by whom the average Texan can be led.

Martha Washington's Will.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 14.—Senator R. E. Thornton introduced resolution in the Virginia Legislature today, providing that legal steps be taken to recover from the estate of J. P. It passed into the possession of Mr. Morgan and recently came to light among the collection of old manuscripts.

Admires Editor of Sentinel.

To the Proprietor of the Sentinel:

I desire to felicitate you on the character and qualities evinced by the editor you secured to take the place of Mr. Littlepage. I had never read the Daily Sentinel much, having devoted my limited moments to spare to the perusal of the state and national papers. I have known your present editor Emmett W. Smith since his return to Nacogdoches, but I confess that I did not know that he possessed the splendid editorial qualities so fully shown in his writings—fluency, sagacity, diction and above all "editorial backbone." I admire an editor with those qualities, especially firm convictions and the backbone to assert them. If there is anything on earth that fills my soul with mingled chagrin and sorrow it is a public man, an editor or statesman, whose very name is a miserable misnomer. When I see that kind of a man trying to fill some position that moulds public sentiment without the genuine grit to stand up and contend for what is right and condemn what is wrong trembling with the abject fear that an honest expression might change a dollar to the debit side of his ledger—I say when I see that kind of a man it causes me to wonder if the good Lord could have made a mistake in making that man instead of making him a genuine backbone just used a shoe string. I abominate a weak and vacillating policy and pity the public man who pursues it. Firmness incites the admiration and loyalty of friends and the respect of everybody. If you are weak and cowardly you have no place in the public life of this progressive age. Your proper position is that of choir-master where they sing just two lines like this:
"I could if I would, I can but I won't,
I'll be danged if I do, I'll be dinged if I don't."

In editor Smith you seem to have a man who knows something to say and who says it without quibble. Whether his policy meets the approval of every body or not it will have their respect if they are fair minded and manly and I believe your publications will meet the approbation of nine tenths of the people. I had rather read a home paper when I can learn something from it and shall watch the columns of the Daily Sentinel with interest.

Jefferson Baker.

There's no use talking, Horrace Chilton is the solution of the gubernatorial situation in Texas. He is being strongly urged to allow his name to be used by both pro and anti. He seems to be the one man upon whom all factions can unite and the only one that can run for governor without the prohibition question dominating the race. Texas needs such a governor as he would make and he could be elected overwhelmingly. —Center Champion.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind.—"My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine. "I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know."—Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner? If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Moon and Weather.

The moon has no influence upon the weather, so far as the Weather Bureau has been able to detect, after a long time spent in studying the changes of the weather and the course of the moon. There is always a storm in progress somewhere around the world, and if a full moon occurs it is evident that it will be stormy where the storm or low barometer is at that time and fair where the high barometer is while the change of the moon occurs at the same time to all parts of the country. Storms have no connection with the phases of the moon.—Scientific American.

C. R. (Collie) Brown For Commissioner.

WEAK KIDNEYS OFTEN THE RESULT OF OVERWORK

On several occasions I have been unable to work and suffered severe pain in the back, due to my kidneys. I called on a doctor of Ripon, Wis. but received no relief. I tried Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root which gave me instant relief. I was then able to resume work. Swamp-Root is the only relief I can get from kidney disease which I am subject to in the spring of the year. I am writing this testimonial through my own free will that sufferers of kidney and bladder diseases will know of the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root. I recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root whenever I can and always have a bottle of Swamp-Root in my home. I purchased Swamp-Root of Mr. C. J. Burnside, Druggist, of 202 Main Street, Ripon, Wis. Very truly yours, THOMAS J. LYNCH, 525 Newbury Street, Ripon, Wis. I have read the above statement that Thomas J. Lynch bought Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root at my store and made oath the above statement is true in substance and fact. E. J. Burnside, Subscribed and sworn to before me this 15th day of November, 1911. F. A. Preston.

The Telephone Girl

With a clamp on her head like a cage for her hair, She sits all the day on a stiff little chair, And answers her calls that come over the wire From people of patience and people of ire; And "number" she queries of Noble or churl— A wonderful voice has a telephone girl.

She has to be pleasant, and hustling and keen. With a temper unruffled and ever serene. There are forty five things she must think of at once, Or some rough subscriber will call her a dunce. Since it seems a general custom to hurl— The blame for your grouch on the telephone girl.

It's wearisome work on the nerves and the brain Continual hurry, continual strain, And Central gets tired—as other folks do— And needs to be thoughtfully treated by you; So think of her doing her best mid the whirl And try to be white to the "Telephone girl." A friend of telephone girls.

There were consternation among the dozen or so ponies grooming themselves for the governor's race when they heard the neigh of a thoroughbred last week.—East Texas Register.

Who is this thoroughbred? We would like to see him and to hear him neigh.

Stone Fort National Bank

On Tuesday Jan. 13th 1914 pursuant to published call the stock holders of the Stone Fort Natl. Bank met and elected the following share holders as a Board of Directors for the ensuing year Chas. Hoya W. U. Perkins D. K. Cason S. B. Hayter S. H. Watkins F. B. Sublett and L. L. Sturdevant. A careful review of the past years business revealed the fact that although "13" is considered a "Hoo Doo" the year "1913" was to the Stone Fort a very successful one and the results produced by the management were satisfactory to the stockholders who take this occasion to express their most hearty appreciation to each and every customer of the bank, both great and small for their patronage and solicit a continuance of the same. The only regret of the occasion was the knowledge of the fact that a few people who had not done business with the Stone Fort, had missed a "mighty good thing."

After the adjournment of the stockholders the newly elected Board of Directors met and the following named gentlemen were chosen as officers of the bank for the ensuing year: I. L. Sturdevant President, W. U. Perkins, Vice-President, F. B. Sublett, Cashier.

By unanimous vote the Directors accepted for the Bank the New Currency Plan as set forth by the Government and made application for membership.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heart burn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by All Dealers. dw

Industrial Congress Convention Feb. 21.

The prizes offered by the largest net profit per acre in the several lines of farming, aggregating $10,000 in gold, will be distributed at the convention, and the program; to include a public memorial service in commemoration of the great, unselfish service of Colonel Exall, will be announced later.

As To Alaska.

The largest body of unused and neglected land in the United States is Alaska. It is now nearly half a century since we purchased this territory, and it contains today less than 40,000 white inhabitants, less than 1,000 for each year it has been in our possession. The purchase was made as a means of protection against the possible aggression of a foreign nation and without the hope that it would be even self supporting. In the intervening 46 years we have given it a little more than the most casual concern, yet its mines, fisheries and furs alone have added to our wealth the grand sum of $500,000,000.

For almost a generation it was the rich harvest field of a single company. Individual fortunes have been made in that country larger than the price paid to Russia for the whole territory. How rich its waters are we know, because they have been proved; but how rich its lands are in gold and copper, coal and oil, iron and zinc, no one knows. The prospect has gone far enough, however, to tell us that no other section of our land today makes so rich a mineral promise. And in agriculture the Government itself has demonstrated that it will produce in abundance all that can be raised in the Scandinavian countries the hardy cereals and vegetables, the meat and berries off which 9,000,000 people live in Norway, Sweden, and Finland. It has been estimated that there are 50,000,000 acres of this land that will make homes for a people as sturdy as those of New England.

Dead May Number 10,000.

Tokio, Jan. 17.—An indication that the loss of life on the island of Sakure, which was devastated by the eruption of the volcano Sakura-Jima may be much larger than had been supposed, is given in a report received here today from an official of the Interior Department who was sent to Kagoshima and its vicinity to investigate. He reported that 9000 out of Sakura's population of 19,000 had been accounted for up to the evening of the 16th.

Orange Jan. 18.—On account of the increasing business, the paper bag factory at this place is preparing to double its capacity. A carload of machinery is on its way to the plant and will be installed immediately upon its arrival. This is the only paper bag factory in Texas, or in the south, of any significance.

Parcels Post Extension.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Recent experiments conducted by the Postoffice Department with a view to increasing the weight limit of the parcel post have proved so successful that parcels weighing 100 pounds soon may be shipped by mail. Postmaster General Burleson is giving the subject serious consideration and is known to favor it. The weight limit of parcels at present is fifty pounds.

"The 100-pound weight limit has no terrors for me," the Postmaster General declared today. He expressed the belief that 100,000,000 parcels would be transported through the mails during the next year with a revenue of about 10 cents each.

"Very broad powers were conferred upon the department in developing this service," said Mr. Burleson. "We propose to go ahead with it until we reach the point where we feel the service has been developed as far as it can be to meet the requirements of the people."

Jury Finds For Palestine.

Rusk Tex., Jan. 17. In the case of Anderson County, et al. vs. International and Great Northern Railway, which has been on trial here for two weeks and which was submitted to the jury last evening at about five-thirty o'clock, after the ablest argument ever heard in a case on each side, returned into court this morning at 7:40 answering all special issues submitted to them in charge by the court in the affirmative, which means for Palestine.

The case has all the way through created a great deal of attention as it is no doubt one of the most important cases ever tried in this State. The verdict of the jury, unless set aside by the Higher Courts, means that the shops, general offices and round-houses of the railroad company named shall remain at Palestine forever.

The defendants gave notice of appeal all the way up and it is understood that the case will finally be settled in the Supreme Court of the United States of America, at Washington.

Underwood and Panic Preachers.

Washington, Jan. 13.—"An industrial awakening that will put the panic preachers to shame" was promised today by Democratic Leader Underwood after republican members in the house had painted dark pictures of ruin and desolation as a result of the democratic administration.

"The democratic party," declared Mr. Underwood, "has achieved for the American people more than has been accomplished heretofore in the history of the government. We have secured the results which the republican party gave their pledges to secure and which for many term of congress, were left undone. Look forward to unusual prosperity throughout the country in the next year."

Since the brick-yard at Garrison closed down, Beaumont is about the nearest point from which brick can be obtained. Nacogdoches has excellent clay for building purposes. The organization of a company to establish a kiln on a scale large enough to supply this city and nearby places is an enterprise worthy of serious consideration.

Before it was discovered that Dr. Cook did not discover the north pole, he received the degree of L. L. He is now enjoying the shades of a very private life.

Appropriations by congress for the year 1914 are as follows, in sound numbers:

Support of the army 94 million dollars,
Naval service 140 million dollars,
Pensions 180 million dollars,
Total 314 million dollars.
And in time of peace and no nation large enough to harm us nearer than three thousand miles and an ocean rolling between!

The Nacogdoches Sentinel says: "The Panama Canal will be in condition to pass steamships all the way across the isthmus within sixty days unless unexpected obstacles are encountered. This is the judgement of an official high in canal circles." The Panama Canal with our deep water is going to help Houston, which without it has already become Greater Houston.—Houston Chronicle.

E. M. House is coming to Texas very soon. That information we get from sources thoroughly reliable. E. M. House has had a big hand in the election of a President of the United States. Likewise he has been electing a Mayor in New York City. At one time he was the Warwick of Texas politics. His interests here have never been disposed of, and Austin is still home, though he spends most of his time in the East and abroad. He is close to President Wilson, and President Wilson has an interest in politics as wide as the United States. It would not be at all surprising to hear that Colonel House will this year manifest an unusual interest in the Texas political affairs. Business is picking up right along. And it may get even better in the future.—Austin Statesman.

It Horace Chilton could be persuaded to enter the race for governor it seems to us that all the uncertainties would be settled and Texas would elect him without the need of elimination primaries or preliminary conventions. Beaumont, Enterprise.

A warehouse to protect cotton from the weather during the time it is held at this point before shipment would save many dollars, and the cotton men in Nacogdoches are considering the proposition of establishing one in the city. The columns of the Sentinel are open for the discussion of the enterprise, and cotton raisers and cotton buyers are solicited to write their views concerning it.

Nacogdoches now has a trunk full of "booze" locked up in her jail house, which was taken from the depot, although the owner cannot be found. That goes to prove that Nacogdoches is forever trying to imitate Lutkin, for we have had a trunk of the stuff in jail down here for several weeks, which also came from the depot, and its owner cannot be found. It had been a bailable case, however, the trunk would have been out long ago, but it seems that it was sent up for life and the "suspended sentence" law does not apply.—Lutkin News.

As the initiative and referendum amendment to the constitution is to be voted on in the November election, there is at least one issue in Texas besides prohibition, and that issue is whether a few or all there people shall rule.

One of our exchanges suggests that as Governor Colquett has issued no proclamation for the mobilization of an army to invade Mexico, the assumption is that he intends to give that torry republic one more chance to calm itself.

Chihuahua, Mex., Jan. 15.—After his decisive victory at Ojinaga, General Francisco Villa, rebel military chief, returned here today with his army. He gave directions for the early departure of his troops southward to attack Federals about Torreon and to carry the revolution into southern cities. With General Villa were General Teribio Ortega, General Monclovis Herrera and General Panfilo Natera, who fought at Ojinaga.

General Villa expects to go to Juarez to confer with some of his chiefs before he personally joins the southward march. He probably will go there early next week.

Reports from Torreon said the Federals there, commanded by General Jose Refugio were greatly alarmed and that they probably would flee if the rebel army appeared in force. The Federal army around Torreon had hoped that General Morcado at Ojinaga could resist the rebels, who thus would not be in a position to march south without fear of a rear attack.

The rebels already occupy the suburbs of Torreon. Federals were reported comping in the railroad yards, so they might evacuate quickly.

Some steal a thought and clip round the edge and challenge him whose 'twas to swear to it.—Stolen.

Although 42 years old he has never been a candidate before, and he intends to make a through canvass of the county. He does not drink or gamble or have other bad habits, and promises if elected to discharge his duties in a clean and impartial manner.

Tyler, Tex., Jan. 19.—C. H. Day, a farmer living five miles south of Tyler, was shot and instantly killed yesterday afternoon. His son, Albert Day, surrendered to the officers. The killing was done with a double-barrel shotgun, the charge entering the left breast.

FOR THE GRIP

Peruna is Sometimes Used With Good Results

A great many people use Peruna for the grip. Some use it as soon as the grip begins, taking it during the acute stage of the disease, claiming for it great efficacy in shortening the disease, and especially in shortening the after stages.

Many people take it after they have had the grip. Their convalescence is slow. They have suffered along for a month or two, without any signs of complete recovery. Then they resort to Peruna as a tonic, with splendid results.

Mrs. Jane Gift, R. F. D. 1, Athens, Ohio, whose portrait appears above, writes: "I think I would have been dead long ago if it had not been for Peruna. Six years ago I had the grippe very bad. The doctor came to see me every day, but I gradually grew worse. I told my husband I thought I would surely die if I did not get relief soon.

"One day I picked up the newspaper and accidentally found a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of grip by Peruna. I told my husband I wanted to try it. He went directly to the drug store and got a bottle of Peruna. I could see the improvement in a very short time and was soon able to do my work. I continued using it until I was entirely cured."

Mr. Victor Patneade, 323 Madison St., Topeka, Kan., writes: "Twelve years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and I never really recovered my health and strength, but grew weaker every year, until I was unable to work.

"Two years ago I began using Peruna and it built up my strength so that in a couple of months I was able to go to work again. This winter I had another attack of la grippe, but Peruna soon drove it out of my system. My wife and I consider it a household remedy."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

This is to inform Editor Molloy of Timpson that we beat him to it and have already sa'ely trod the battle-scarred pavements of Nacogdoches town.—Center Champion.

About the only reason we can account for you getting ahead of us Harrison, is because Littlepage left before the paving was finished and the new editor of the Sentinel failed to tell us when the "walking was easy."—Timpson Times.

The walking was not so easy when Littlepage left Nacogdoches or when Harrison "trod its battle scarred pavement" but it is growing more easy every hour. The paving is approaching the depot at a rapid stride and in a short time all ye editors and other men of prominence will have easy walking and automobiling in the metropolis of East Texas.

Major General Wood wants $6,000,000 for the army. Major General Wood hasn't yet perceived that the American people are coming to realize the truth; that an army is a band of organized murderers, but such is the case. Therefore he will not get his $6,000,000.—East Texas Register.

And organized wealth is the power behind this band of organized murderers. The day may not be very distant when the sword will be beaten into the ploughshare, and armies inland sea sent into the ranks of productive toil, reducing the high cost of living, and "infinite man-slaughter" be no more.

The Fact Remains

No amount of misrepresentation by the peddlers of alum baking powders, no juggling with chemicals, or pretended analysis, or cooked-up certificates, or falsehoods of any kind, can change the fact that

A Typical Texas Farm.

Perer Radford, in delivering one of his lectures, told the following amusing story:

"The average Texas farmer is awakened by a Connecticut clock, buttons his Chicago suspenders to his Detroit overalls, puts on a pair of shoes made in Cleveland, washes in a Pittsburg basin, uses Cincinnati soap, dries on a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sits down to a Grand Rapids table, eats breakfast food from Battle Creek, biscuits made from Minnesota flour, Kansas City bacon and Iddiana grits, tried in Omaha lard, on a St. Louis stove; buys Irish potatoes grown in Michigan and canned fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices; fills his pipe with Kentucky tobacco, puts on his hat, made in Philadelphia, harnesses his Missouri mule, fed on Iowa corn, with New York harness, and plows his farm, which is covered with a Massachusetts mortgage, with an Indiana plow. At night he crawls under a New Jersey blanket and is kept awake by a dog, peculiarly a Texas product, and wonders why he is so poor."

We need the Campbell ideas in office today. We would not have a forty five-cent tax rate if he or some man like him were in the executive office; and there wouldn't be a scandal in the financial affairs of the state, either.

The Light is right in commending to its readers the advantage of rational and intelligent study of the affairs of state government, but it shouldn't cast reflections upon officials who have served Texas as well in the past. That isn't business-like.—The Austin Tribune.

$300 From One Tree.

Ballinger Jan. 17.—A peon grower living at this place claims to own the best producing pecan tree in Texas, speaking from a remunerative basis. The tree netted its owner $300 last year. The pecan crop in Central Texas was worth about $200,000, and amounted to approximately 90 carloads.

Government Ownership

BY DAVID J. LEWIS.

There should be a telephone in every American home.

Let the government take over the telephone system of this country and operate them in connection with the postal department and then the time will not be far distant when every home will have a telephone!

But never under private ownership!

Why?

Because the limitations of the development of our telephonic network of private capital have been practically attained with its extension to the prosperous offices and well to do homes of the country. Of the present service Mr. Vail, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Company, correctly remarks in the Bell report:

"Instantaneous and immediate transmission of (electrical) communications is yet a convenience and luxury, although under modern methods of business and commerce it is an economical alternative to the cheaper mail service in business operations. The use of the telegraph may be a convenience but it is not a necessity, and is confined still to the comparatively few, and for that reason should be at the cost of the few that find benefit profit in that use."

In effect, this means that the masses, without the wealth to enjoy the luxury or the commercial affairs to justify the payment of these abnormal rates, must go unserved!

But the fathers of the Republic intended that they should be served, and the Constitution directs Congress to make provision as to the great function of communication.

And why should they not be served? Does not the farmer need this communication in marketing his product? Does not the town consumer need it, too, to buy from the farmer direct? And when the plain citizen's child is sick does he not need a physician as quickly as his richer brother?

The benefits to come from the application of postal rates, extension and efficiency, to electrical communication, "a phone in every man's house," are difficult to describe or even to exaggerate.

Other countries, recognizing the inadequacy of the private motive with respect of national intercommunication have all postalized the telephone and telegraph.

List of countries owning both telegraph and telephone: Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bosnia-Merzegovina, Bulgaria, New Caledonia, Dahomey, Denmark, Egypt, Formosa, France, Tunis, Germany, South Africa (Union of French Guinea, Servia, Hungary, Roumania, India (British), India (Dutch), French Indo China, Italy, Norway (greater part), Japan (including Korea), New Zealand, Luxemburg, the Netherlands, Russia and Siam.

Why has not ours?

narrative of social institutions but a stirring story of the gigantic achievements of individuals in the domain of private finance. You can think of the names of a half dozen such men quicker than you can recall the names of the contemporary presidents of the republic.

Meanwhile the substantive powers of our national life have belonged not to the States or the government representing society as constitutionally organized, but to private individuals and their personal empires; really great princes of finance with potencies exceeding those of the States and collectively directed, exceeding, too, the active resistant powers of the national government.

At some points their private activities have trenched over onto the government domains, with the result that some of its functions have been partly diverted and others suspended in their interest. Such has been the masterliness of their control that even the most popular national institution, the postal system, has had to yield two of its principal functions, the parcel post and the electrical method of communication. But a new era has come.

Why should the postal system be longer denied its full rights? For a half century it was deprived of the parcel function. Now like influences are trying to withhold its function of electrical communication.

Their efforts raise this issue which patriotic citizens will not ignore: Which is to be paramount in this country—the government or certain ambitious financiers?

Congress has already answered this question for the express monopoly. If I understand my associates in Congress they have the same answer in waiting for the telephone monopoly.

W. W. Dexter.

William Wentworth Dexter, editor and publisher of the Texas Bankers' Journal, died at his residence in Houston Monday night at 8:10 o'clock at the age of 62.

Mr. Dexter was born June 29, 1851, in the city founded by his grandfather in 1819, Montgomery, Ala. In 1823 the grandfather came to Texas and purchased 386,000 acres of land from young Spanish captains at Nacogdoches, at 5 cents per acre. Mr. Dexter was one of the six heirs of this vast estate, and came to Texas in 1874 on this account.

In 1879 he became an editor of the Galveston News, and in 1886 created the Waco Trade Review, which was published in Fort Worth, Dallas and Waco until 1894.

In 1895 Mr. Dexter returned to this city at the request of the Houston Cotton Exchange, and organized the Houston Business League, now the Chamber of Commerce. Later he resigned as secretary and became editor of the "Coast Country Magazine" for the Southern Pacific Company under a guarantee of $10,000 a year.

The Texas Banker's Journal was founded in 1907, of which Mr. Dexter was editor and publisher until the time of his death. He recently made a tour abroad to study financial conditions.

Robert E. Lee.

In the "Story of a Soldier's Life" Field Marshal Viscount Wolseley, commander in chief of the British army, speaking of his visit to Lee during the civil war, says in part:

"Every incident in that visit is indelibly stamped on my memory. All he said to me then and during subsequent conversations is still fresh in my recollection. It is natural that it should be so, for he was the ablest general and to me seemed the greatest man I ever conversed with, and yet I have had the privilege of meeting Von Moltke and Prince Bismarck.

General Lee was one of the few men who ever seriously impressed me with their inherent greatness. Forty years have come and gone since our meeting, and yet the majesty of his manly bearing, the genial winning grace, the sweetness of his smile and the impressive dignity of his old fashioned style of dress come back to me among the most cherished of my recollections. His greatness made me humble, and I never felt my own insignificance more keenly than I did in his presence. He was indeed a beautiful character and of him it might truthfully be written "in righteousness did he judge and make war."

Bull Weevil is Pest

Washington, January 12.—The weevil has caused a loss in the production of cotton in excess of 10,000,000 bales, which, at a value of only $50 a bale, represents a financial loss of $500,000,000. This is only the loss in areas actually planted. The reduction in the production of cotton due to the fact that farmers refrained from planting because of the fear that the weevil would not allow the plants to mature can never be estimated.

These and other interesting facts and statistics concerning the toll weevil are given in a little pocket pamphlet just issued by Director W. J. Harris, of the Census Bureau, Department of Commerce.

Out Lines His Message.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 15.—President Wilson today gave Cabinet members his ideas on the Government's relation to "big business," the field anti-trust legislation should cover in the present session of Congress and the spirit in which he believed the task should be approached.

Peace, and not war, a friendly feeling of conciliation, rather than of hostile antagonism, and yet a constructive program that will eliminate uncertainty about the law and stimulate the growth of legitimate business. These are the fundamentals of the President's plan of action to be embodied in the message he will read at a joint session of Congress next week.

Eufaula Battery

Nacogdoches, Texas, Jan. 17, 1914.

Editor Sentinel:

Yesterday I received a copy of the Eufaula Times and News published at Eufaula, Ala., my old home. In the paper there was an extended notice of the death of one of my old friends and comrades S. J. (Joe) Flournoy. We were both members of the Eufaula Battery during the Confederate war and belonged to the same gun. Joe was No. 2 and his duty was to place the charge in the gun. I was No. 7 but in battle carried ammunition from No. 6 who dealt out shot, shell and canister as called for from the timber chest. Many times in battle have I carried armfuls of ammunition and laid them at Joe's feet. On my visit to the Confederate Reunion at Mason Ga. in 1912 I stopped off at Eufaula for a week and on the night of the 14th of May 1912—the survivors of the Eufaula Battery living in that community were invited to take dinner with one of our old comrades, A. H. Merrell. C. T. Massey, age 76, S. J. Flournoy 71, A. A. Courie 70, A. H. Merrell, John Ingraham 67, and myself composed the party. At 11 o'clock that night we separated with a love feast which was very pathetic, and when Joe and I separated he threw his arms around my neck and remarked in a broken voice, "Jack old boy I have a good mind to kiss you." I told him to kiss away, and now that he is gone, I will carry the imprints of that kiss with me to the grave in remembrance of one who was honorable, noble and brave.

John S. Doughtie.

Wilson Would help Japanese.

Washington, Jan. 15.—President Wilson, as president of the America Red Cross, late today issued an appeal to the American people for funds to assist the people of Japan, who are suffering not only from the earthquake, but from the failure of crops.

The president's appeal follows:

"Our sister nation of Japan is suffering from two very serious disasters. The failure of crops in the eastern part of that country has brought hundreds of thousands of persons face to face with the terrible misery of slow starvation, and in the southwestern island of Kyushu a sudden great volcanic eruption has carried death and desolation to large numbers in a thickly populated district.

"I appeal to the humanity of our American people that they may give expression to their sympathy for the suffering and distress for so many of their fellow men by generous contributions for their aid. Such contributions can be made to the local Red Cross treasures, or sent directly to the American Red Cross, Washington."

Wonderful Blood Remedy That Works in the Tissues

The Very Latest Theory About How and Why the Blood is Disordered.

S. S. S. Means Pure Blood Which Insures Long Life and Health.

The great experts in Chemistry and Physiology now declare what has long been contended by the Swift Laboratory that the germs of blood disorders find lodgment in the interstices of the tissues. And herein is where S. S. S. goes to work rapidly, effectively and with wonderfully noticeable results. This famous blood purifier contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the nutritive elements of wheat, roast beef, and fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration. As a matter of fact there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply; why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming eczema, rash, pimples, and all skin afflictions.

E. A. Blount for Governor.

Some time ago John H. Broocks made the suggestion that another of San Augustine's gifted sons would make a good Governor of Texas. We refer to Hon. E. A. Blount, who of late years has lived at Nacogdoches. While never a politician, he would be much better suited for the office than many who have announced therefor, and his many friends in San Augustine would be glad to pledge him their hearty support, should he enter the race.—San Augustine Tribune.

Sickened with politicians, Texas needs a broad-gauged business man for governor, and E. A. Blount is the man. Socrates, regarded as the wisest sage that ever lived, said in substance that any one who makes a success of his own affairs is a fit ruler for a city or a nation. Mr. Blount in addition to being a success in a large way keeps in close touch with public questions and a clearer thinker or a better informed man can scarcely be found. It would be at a great sacrifice of dollars and cents for him to accept the governorship, but that is the kind of man Texas needs. He would know both how to save a dollar on a contract and to turn loose a million of the state's money if it is needed. He would do things as governor in the same successful way he does things as a private citizen.

James D. Greer, Industrial agent for the Sunset lines is in the city. He reports a very active interest among farmers throughout the country. Jim is very much interested in the East Texas Development Association which is to be held in Timpson on the 18th and 19th of February.

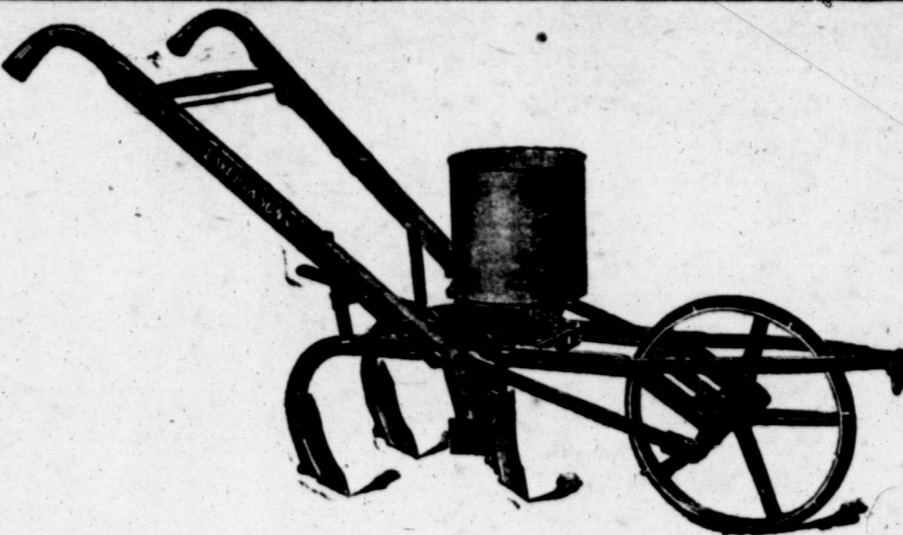

Hon. A. T. Russell authorizes us to say that he is a candidate for reelection as Representative of Nacogdoches county in the next legislature. His formal announcement will appear soon.
