He requests any farmers who are interested and willing to go to let it be known to him. The trip will be one of great value and as irrigation here is still in the experimental stage it will repay any one to go. This is the first meeting of this congress outside the states and Calgary is located near a highly irrigated section.

Our Mill has been thoroughly overhauled and we expect to start up Monday, 14.

We are now ready to buy seed at the highest market price for cash. We will also have a very attractive exchange price to farmers who will bring their seed direct to us and carry back with them meal and Hulls. See us and have the exchange feature explained.

If you owe us for fertilizer or for anything else, we will be glad to take your seed at a very liberal price on your account or note. We want sound, clean cotton seed more than we want money.

Ligature Gets Busy

Austin, Texas, Aug 24.—Call of the roll disclosed quorum present in both branches of the legislature when it assembled for the extra session this morning. In the Senate the question arose over the matter of president pro tem. V. A. Collins of Beaumont was elected to that position at the last session. Lieutenant Governor Mayes resigned in the meantime, Collins succeeding to his office. But Collins was defeated for re-nomination at the July primary.

Senator Waton objected to his serving as president pro tem for the extra session and the senate took a recess until 3. p. m., after a resolution calling for a ruling on as to the eligibility of Collins from the attorney general had been adopted.

The house organized without a hitch and one hour after it had been called to order received a message from the governor, which was read and ordered printed in the journal.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a well written lengthy obituary that does not show from where or by whom it is written, nor even give any definite information as to the identity of the deceased party. These omissions prevent publication. They are indispensable requisite. The item is also longer than is proper for this paper. If one be admitted others expect it, and become over burdensome, if too lengthy. They are not rejected unless the paper is short of space. If in proper shape and authenticity they are welcomed.

W. P. Lane, comptroller, was a candidate for re-election. The El Paso state convention declared Jeff McLemore to be the legal nominee over Lane by a small majority in the late primary election. Lane is contesting the election, and shows that there were some unlawful returns counted against him and a number of counties that went largely in his favor that were not counted because returns were not made. He has been granted a temporary injunction and is to have a legal decision soon.

A Weighty Cotton Letter.

Nacogdoches, Tex. Aug 26 Hon. W. W. Collier, Commissioner of Banking & Insurance, Austin, Texas.

Dear Sir: We note the call of the Governor for a special session of the Legislature for the purpose of a Public Bonded Warehouse measure all of which is very pregnant of good.

Having a varied experience in the cotton business, covering some thirty years, as buyer, warehouseman and compress man, we feel that we are qualified in a small way at least to offer some suggestions on the quickest and fairest to all method of meeting the coming congestion which is as sure as fate.

We believe that a ruling by your department to the effect that any cotton ticket offered as collateral to a State Bank, to be accepted, shall be issued by a corporation of the State of Texas, shall bear on its face the number of the bale, the weight, and the grade, It shall also set forth the charges on such article in such a manner that anyone handling said ticket can arrive at the charges against said bale of cotton.

We say said ticket should be issued by a corporation for the reason that such paper, if it is to become collateral for loans should be issued by a concern which would be under the regulation of the state banking authorities; whereas it is a question whether such a condition could be enforced against privately owned warehouses.

These corporate warehouses should also be backed by a bond in a Surety Company to a sum of not less than $5000.00 guaranteeing the conditions or promises of the ticket will be fulfilled.

We believe that the bond should be made by a surety company in preference to a private bond for many reasons, chief among which is that it is easier and safer to the state and all parties at interest to convict, and collect on such a bond than it is on a private bond, as the bond companies are very careful as to the risks they assume, whereas any man can make a bond by private solicitation.

I have never known any bond company to refuse a bond to a man who was entitled to receive same, while on the other hand I have known the state, as well as private individuals to be mulcted on bonds executed by private parties, several of them occurring here in this section.

We can not see why this measure would be against any man or set of men entering into the cotton warehouse business, as the state would allow any one to meet the conditions, and anyone can by associating himself with two others incorporate his business.

As to the crying need of public warehouses, it will never be met as long as it is possible for any man whose capital invested consists of a few pounds of barbed wire, any sort of scales and lot of inexperience to open a cotton yard and have his ticket be worth as much for collateral as the who has invested money in grounds and buildings, and buildings, and is willing, and can be forced whether willing or not, to meet his obligations as set forth by his cotton ticket.

We believe further that if your department will make such a ruling that it will have an immediate effect, whereas any relief offered by legislative enactment will necessarily take at least, under the most favorable conditions, sixty days. These same views have been expressed by Mr. McAdoo, as to the rating of the U. S. banking authorities on cotton tickets offered as collateral to the regional.

Soliciting your consideration of these views I beg to remain. Yours truly, X. X. X.

The Boiled Shirts.

Sweet youth you come and ask for admision, you'd have me preach and counsel you a spell; and so I say, to better your condition, go, learn a trade and learn it passing well. The world is short on skilled and drilled mechanics, but it is long on trifling human squirts, who facing work, are prone to fits and panics who wear kid gloves and boiled or scolloped shirts. The man who toils at bench or loom or anvil is worth a gross of those who talk or write; twould serve them right to bring some cans from Canville, and put them in, and seal the bunch up tight. The man who takes his tools from out their locker, who swings a sledge or plies the shining saw, is more worth while than any tireless talker, who boosts the Flag, or yet expounds the law. The country swarms with men demanding payment for dizzy schemes, the thought of which appalls; the country swarms with men in princely raiment and what we need's the man in overalls. Go forth, fair youth and learn to be a tinker, a plumber bold a tailor or a cook, and men will say you are a peach and clinker, when on the product of your skill they look.

Walt Mason

American farmers are not likely to forget the fact that it was their presumptive friend, the republican party, that for years denied them the opportunity to borrow money from national banks on the same terms of equality with the trusts. They will also remember that it was the democratic party, now being painted by republican orators as the enemy of agricultural development, that amended the law so that half a billion dollars will be available for farm loans as soon as the new banking system is perfected. Hereafter national banks may loan 25 per cent of their combined capital and surplus on farm lands. Which illustrates the difference between talk and deeds.—Bryans Commoner.

Prohibition Doomed!

After 64 years of activity by the friends of prohibition the average American today consumes almost six times as much liquors as did the average American of 1850. In spite of this there is less drunkenness. With this wonderful change for the better, prohibition has had nothing whatever to do. The real reason is found in the fact that today there is a vastly greater amount of beer consumed. And beer is not conducive to drunkenness.

Prohibition is a failure and has had but one effect wherever tried: to put a ban upon the open and above-board drinking of beer and other light beverages and to drive men to secret, immoderate drinking of the strongest stimulants. This is notably true of Maine, a prohibition state. There is ten times as much drunkenness per capita as there is in France.

"Oh, William Henry," said the boss, "I find you are a total loss you fill me with disgust; your mind is never on your job and when you work you fairly sob with sorrow, that you must. You're thinking of the baseball game when you should hump your lazy frame at cleaning up the floor; your thoughts are all of having fun, you do not try to earn your mon—I'll need you here no more." I would not give much for the boy who does not find a mighty joy in corking games of ball; but in this weary world of prunes we must improve some afternoons—amusement isn't all. MOTHER OF SCHOOL GIRL

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Daughter's Health.

Plover, Iowa.—"From a small child my 13 year old daughter had female weakness. I spoke to three doctors about it and they did not help her any. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had been of great benefit to me, so I decided to have her give it a trial. She has taken five bottles of the Vegetable Compound according to directions on the bottle and she is cured of this trouble. She was all run down when she started taking the Compound and her periods did not come right. She was so poorly and weak that I often had to help her dress herself, but now she is regular and is growing strong and healthy."—Mrs. MARTIN HELVIG, Plover, Iowa.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you are ill do not drag along and continue to suffer day in and day out but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a woman's remedy for woman's ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

To The Voters of Nacogdoches County.

I write these words for the purpose of thanking my friends and supporters for the confidence the showed and the general interest they took in me during the entire time I was making the race for assessor. And also for the purpose of getting the idea out the minds of some people that I am to contest the election recently held. No such thing has ever entered my mind and why that such reports should continue to be circulated I cannot understand. The vote was very close but there being eighteen in favor of Mr. Vondersmith he won. If there had been but one vote that would have been a majority and I am always willing to abide a majority. I wish Mr. Vondersmith success in his career as an officer and my every effort shall be to make his administration a success. I hope my friends and supporters will join his in this same direction.

With best wishes and kindest feeling to all, I am, Respectfully yours, B. S. Shirley.

Attention Teachers and Trustees of Schools of Nacogdoches County.

Your attention is hereby called to an act of the 33rd. legislature. Chapter 70 provides the teaching of the classifying of cotton.

When you meet in your county institute in September as required by the law you can provide for the ways and means by which this law can be observed and obeyed. The law itself requires that all country public schools shall teach the classification of cotton except in those districts having scholastic population of 500 or more and those districts that have less than 10 per cent of the acreage in cultivation of said district planted in cotton, and is optional in those districts embraced in the exception to have classification of cotton taught by order of school board or trustees.

The Nelms Mystery

Eugene, Ore., Aug. 19.—Victor E. Innes, who together with Mrs. Innes was arrested last night at their home near Deerborn, this county in connection with the disappearance of Mrs. Eloise Nelms-Dennis and Miss Beatrice Nelms, will remain in the Lane county jail until the requisition granted today by Governor Colquitt of Texas arrives.

That he will make a strong fight against the writ was indicated today when he talked over the telephone with his attorney John McCourt of Portland.

Innes still refused to talk for publication other than to say he knew Mrs. Dennis having obtained a divorce for her in Nevada.

Mrs. Innes will be brought to Eugene tomorrow and placed in jail. She is being guarded at her home by a representative of the federal bureau of investigation.

San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 19.—Deputy Sheriff Altonso Newton of Bexar county and Marshall Nelms of Atlanta, Ga. announce tonight they would leave here early tomorrow for Eugene, with requisition papers from Governor Colquitt for the purpose of bringing to Texas Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Innes, who reside near Eugene.

Nelms who is a brother of Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Eloise Nelms-Dennis, both of Atlanta, who have been missing since last June, said he expected to reach Eugene next Monday. Innes and his wife are wanted on warrants sworn to by Nelms in connection with the mysterious disappearance of his sisters for whom a nationwide search has proved futile.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 19.—Gov. O. B. Colquitt today issued requisition papers on the governor of Oregon for Mr. and Mrs. Victor E. Innes, wanted in connection with the disappearance of Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Eloise Nelms-Dennis, both of Atlanta, Ga., and who have been missing since June last.

Summer Constipation Dangerous

Constipation in Summer-time is more dangerous than in the fall, winter or spring. The food you eat is often contaminated and is more likely to ferment in your stomach. Then you are apt to drink much cold water during the hot weather, thus injuring your stomach. Colic, Fever, Ptomaine Poisoning and other ills are natural results. Po-Do-Lax will keep you well, as it increases the Bile, the natural laxative, which rids the bowels of the congested poisonous waste. Po-Do-Lax will make you feel better Pleasant and effective. Take a dose to-night. 50c. at your Druggist.

Banker and Farmer

"On account of the war in Europe, it is impossible to ship cotton aboard. All the cotton exchanges have closed and for the time being the only cotton moving is that being taken by the American mills. "We would advise you to store your cotton in the local warehouse, bringing your receipts to the bank, and if you need some extra funds we are perfectly willing to assist you and also, if necessary, we will extend notes due us by farmers who are unable to meet them until they sell their cotton. We do not want you to sacrifice your cotton. The Corpus Christi National Bank wants to assist you in obtaining a fair price for it. In return, we expect you to properly protect us by having your cotton under a good roof, protected from weather and fire. With this kind of collateral, you may rest easy knowing that as soon as conditions adjust themselves you will be able to convert your crop into money at we hope a good price. "This is a time when the bankers, merchants and farmers should all work together. If you owe your merchant and the bank, we suggest that you bring your cotton warehouse receipts to us, and if you want to protect your merchants, you can give notice to the bank that upon sale of your cotton we are to make certain payments to the merchants. In this way you can deposit all your warehouse receipts in your bank and, at the same time, protect the merchant whom you owe. We think this is the proper thing for our farmers to do, and we feel sure that the merchants will be willing to extend all reasonable accommodations to those entitled to receive them. "Now that we have some rain we urge the farmers to put their ground into a thorough state of cultivation. We hope you will put in a heavy acreage in feed, and also put in some livestock, especially hogs, which are very profitable in this country. The bank is willing to extend reasonable accommodation to farmers who will invest in good livestock." Special attention is justified to the extremely valuable suggestion in regard to giving the ground thorough cultivation. Then the feed crop will have a 100 percent better chance of making a heavy yield per acre, which means a bigger profit on the hogs.

Infection and Insect Bites Dangerous

Mosquitoes, flies and other insects, which breed quickly in garbage pails, ponds of stagnant water, barns, musty places, etc., are carriers of disease. Every time they bite you, they inject poison into your system from which some dread disease may result. Get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment. It is antiseptic and a few drops will neutralize the infection caused by insect bites or rusty nails. Sloan's Liniment disinfects Cuts, Bruises and Sores. You cannot afford to be without it in your home. Money back if not satisfied. Only 25c. at your Druggist. dw

Remarkable Cure for Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers. dw

Casely Treatment

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow Ark. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers. dw

Fortune From Alaska

Seattle, Wash.—John Bauman and James Schofield, miners and prospectors of Wiseman, Alaska, are in Seattle after seven years on the Hammond river, where they extracted a fortune in gold. With Dr. Charles Schofield, a brother of James they are on their way to visit their home in Jefferson, Ohio.

The mine from which their fortune came was discovered in 1901 by James Schofield and his two prospective partners, Pete Dow and Dan Sullivan, who worked the shallows of the Hammond after staking out most of the promising parts. Then they left it and their claims lapsed.

In 1906 Schofield and a new partner, Bauman returned to find that others had staked on their original claims and were digging with fair success. They bought into No. 4, above the original discovery obtaining a two-thirds share. From that time they worked the mine steadily with enough success to keep them hopefully at it until in 1912 it began to pan better and better. Last year they had similar luck, and up to date about $200,000 has been taken from that one claim, about one half of which belongs to these two partners. A third partner, Jack Halzer, is still inside. The best nugget taken from the mine weighed 137 ounces and was valued at over $2500. This was sold in Nome. They have with them one weighing eighteen ounces, of very high grade gold, valued at about $818. Dr. Schofield will remain in Jefferson, but his brother and Bauman will return to the Kovukuk river of which the Hammond is a tributary.

Manipulators Blamed For The Rise in Sugar

Chicago, Aug. 20.—Responsibility for the recent advance in the price of sugar was placed primarily on alleged manipulators of New York in reports made here today by investigators to James L. Bruff, chief of the bureau of investigation of the Department of Justice.

Chicago wholesalers, the investigators reported, made corresponding increases on their own accounts.

Peking—Over a hundred Chinese students, among them twelve graduates of the Tsing-hua College, will sail for America in a few days to take up post graduate work in the United States. The number includes the graduates of the classes of 1913 and 1914, and twelve of the class of 1911, who temporarily abandoned their plans for foreign study at that time owing to the revolution. Their work in America will be under the direction of Dr. Y. T. Tsur-M. A., principal of Tsing-hua college.

A MISTAKEN IDEA

There are some people who still resort to drugged pills or alcoholic syrups to overcome colds, nervousness or general debility, and who know that the pure, unadulterated nourishment in Scott's Emulsion is eminently better, but refrain from taking it because they fear it may lead to excessive fat or obesity. This is a mistaken idea, because Scott's Emulsion first strengthens the body before making flesh. Its blood-forming properties aid nature to throw off sickness by building health from its very source, and flesh is formed only by its continued use. Avoid alcoholic substitutes for SCOTT'S.

The Nacogdoches East Texas Fair, Oct. 14-17, is the people's Fair, and for the people. Stand by it.

Our State Senator V. A. Collins of Beaumont, narrowly escaped being Lieutenant Governor at this special session of the legislature. Lieutenant Governor Maves had resigned and Collins was in the line of succession.

"This is a holy war, the holiest of all wars that have ever afflicted humanity," writes Sarah Bernhardt in a letter to the Petit Parisien.

Great heavens! What could be more unholy than this inhuman war.

The Nacogdoches East Texas Fair, October 14, 15, 16 and 17 should be talked and ventilated to the fullest extent. It will surely be worth while. It will in fact be a big Fair, and fill our people with joy and pride.

We made a mistake in a man's account and he came in like a man and called our attention to it and never swelled up like some people would have done. He said he knew it was possible for mistakes to occur, as he had been in business himself. The man who never makes mistakes has long since been buried.—Jacksonville Progress.

It is altogether commendable that we have shown the greatest solicitude for our European tourists who were caught on the continent and in England by the outbreak of war and who have been inconvenienced by difficulty in getting money on their letters of credit and by the disarrangement of sailing dates. We have sent them merchant liners, army transports and battleships loaded with gold and we have done everything that could be done to save them from annoyance and inconvenience.—Ex.

The Sentinel emphasizes and world have every reader impressed with the fact of the big flower parade to be enjoyed daily at the Fair, on Oct. 14 to 17 inclusive. Every body is invited to join in the parade and its advancement. Adjoining towns and counties are especially solicited to fall into line. Lutkin and Chireno have already been registered. Rusk and San Augustine are expected. Cushing, Garrison and others are expected. Get busy and confer with Bob Lindsey about it.

To contributors—The Sentinel is only a small local paper. Its latitude and capacity, its purposes and policy, are necessarily very limited. It is designed to give all the local news possible and as much general news as may seem essential and appropriate with an occasional literary variation, a respectful moral and religious coloring and a shade of science and politics. But it is not a literary paper, and of course not a magazine catering to style, eulogies, poems and effusions of the type suited to school rooms and pulpits.

Disproved Some Texas History.

Doctor H. E. Bolton, who has taught in the University of Texas Summer School and who is a member of the faculty of the California, and who has been doing some exploring along the Texas gulf coast, tells us that we have been dealing out some historical data in Texas that is not warranted by the actual facts. Doctor Bolton claims to have discovered the exact spot at which La Salle, the great French explorer, located his last colony on the shores of the gulf of Mexico in 1685, and that he has proven accepted history wrong in this and in regard to the death place of the great explorer.

Dr. Bolton is an enthusiast on early and unwritten Texas history. He made a special trip overland to this city and through East Texas a few years ago to establish the localities of the tribes and trails of Texas Indians as first known to the whites, and he decided that the name of Texas was first used among the Tejas Indians at a point in this county west of the old village of Douglass and east of the Linwood crossing on the Angelina river.

Secret of Cheerfulness.

How you admire that lady who seems to be all brightness and cheerfulness, and yet she is as the rest of us in household duties with everything to do. Listen, and we'll tell you the reason why she seems to have more time than the rest of us; she wastes no time in fretting; she has learned the true value of things. She never frets and she never scolds. It doesn't pay. Fretting and scolding leave ugly marks upon the face and upon the character. Is everything wrong, the day upside down, the fire won't burn, the children out of sorts, a picked up dinner, and company at the last moment. She does the best she can and lets the consequences take care of themselves. Worry will not help matters; and then she has a secret, a secret that she is willing to tell all her friends. Every day at a certain hour she goes to her room and locking the door has half an hour absolutely to herself. If she is very tired she wrings a towel out of water hot as she can bear and winds it about her neck, renewing it till the weary muscles relax and she can lie down and sleep for a few minutes, arise refreshed and invigorated for the rest of the day. Try it, weary mother. Be good enough to yourself and those who depend upon you to take time for rest and refreshment.—Ex.

This city is congratulating itself upon the discovery of a most efficacious deposit of gravel or soil for macadamizing streets and roads. It is of a brick red color and is easy to mine. It is located in a park owned by the city about eight hundred yards north east of the court house. It should be called Mimes Park, for good reason. This dirt packs and wears well.

The Big War. Awful Contests. Germans Invincible.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Berlin by wireless telegraph has brought news of German victories over the French.

Official announcement is made in the German capital that a German army has defeated a French army at Neuchateau, capturing guns and prisoners, including several generals. The Germans are pursuing the French vigorously, in one case beyond Longwy.

Another German army captured 150 French guns in the French departments of Meurthe-et-Mosell.

The Germans are reported west of the river Meuse, advancing against Maubeuge. They have defeated an English brigade of cavalry it was said.

Reports are in circulation at Paris that the Germans have occupied the unfortified city of Nancy in France.

The great battle of the forces of England and France against the invading German army continued today with no word from the front. Official information in London states that the British forces were engaged all day yesterday with the enemy in the neighborhood of Mons, Belgium. The English held their ground, according to the official statement.

The conflict between the allied forces and the Germans in Belgium extends along the line of contact, and the French embassy at London has received information that up to the present the battle has been without advantage to either side.

The bombardment of Tsing Tau, China, by the Japanese fleet has begun, according to Yamtto, which published an extra edition in Tokio. The message giving the news of the bombardment was passed by the navy department censor at Tokio.

The German troops, according to reports from Upper Alsace, are making another offensive movement against the French army which is occupying Muelhausen and vicinity.

The Russians, according to Paris reports, now occupy territory fifty miles wide on the German frontier.

A Vienna report filtering through Udine, Italy says the Austrians are about to abandon their operations against the Servians on the Drina river in order to concentrate against the Russians advance.

The agreement of Austria to dismantle her cruiser, the Kaiserin Elizabeth, now at Tsing Tau, has removed the danger of a war between Japan and Austria, according to diplomatic information in Washington today.

The Standard Oil Company United States Steel corporation and the United Fruit company have notified the government that their fleets will be put under the American flag.

Japanese war moves in the Far East are proceeding under sphinx like silence of the officers of the army and navy. Communication between Japan and China has been severed for 24 hours and it is believed the cable between Shanghai and Nagasaki has been cut.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador to the United States, arriving in New York today, denounced as false the reports that the German crown prince, Frederick William, had been shot either in the streets of Berlin or in the battle of Liege. Only 5000 or 6000 German soldiers were engaged in the assault upon Liege, he said.

Famous Waterloo

The present big war in Europe being in the vicinity where the great Napoleon was vanquished, and the probability of a military conflict upon the memorable Waterloo battlefield, suggests reference to the noted poem of Lord Byron, the first stanza of which is here given:

There was a sound of revelry by night,

And Belgium's capital had gathered then

Her beauty and her chivalry, and bright

The lamps shone o'er fair women and brave men.

A thousand hearts beat happily, and when

Music arose with its voluptuous swell,

Soft eyes looked love to eyes which spake again,

And all went merry as a marriage bell,

But hush! hark! a deep sound strikes like a rising knell!

The gay ball was broken up by the roar of battle, and turned into a new channel.

History repeats itself.

The Fire in Houston.

Murder and arson are the charges filed in Judge Andral Vann's court against Alex. Andrew and Jim Chiacos and Mike Mitchell, who formerly conducted a cleaning establishment where the Main street fire early Sunday morning resulted in the death of two men and the serious injury of more than a dozen others.

Bond of $5,000 each has been fixed in the arson cases and the men are held without bond on the murder charge.

Judge Andral Vann is conducting a fire inquest, gathering all the evidence obtainable. Several witnesses already have been examined.

Among other things he has learned the cleaning establishment and the barber shop downstairs were insured heavily and that the business was on the market for sale. Voices were heard coming from the room used as a pressing and cleaning establishment a short time before the fire was discovered. One of the defendants was seen in the vicinity a few minutes before the fire broke out, another witness testifies.

The investigators learned that cans of gasoline were kept in the second story of the Steward building, which was used by the defendants as a cleaning and pressing establishment. The same men owned the barbershop downstairs.—Chronicle.

Death of Pope Pius X

There is mourning in Catholic homes throughout the world over the announcement of the death of Pope Pius X, which occurred in the Vatican at the hour of 1:20 o'clock, Thursday morning, August 20, 1914.

The Pope had been in ill health for several weeks, but no fatal results were feared or anticipated, until last Wednesday, when His Holiness began to sink and his physicians and attendants recognized that the end was near.

To a complication of bodily afflictions, was added mental worry and anxiety over the pending war in Europe, which, it is claimed, tended largely to hasten the final summons.

A few hours before his death, His Holiness addressed the following exhortation to the Catholics of all the world:

At this moment, when nearly the whole of Europe is being dragged into the vortex of a most terrible war, with its present dangers and miseries and the consequences to follow, the very thought of which must strike every one with grief and horror, we, whose care is the life and welfare of so many citizens and peoples, cannot but be deeply moved, and our heart wrung with the bitterness of sorrow.

And in the midst of this universal confusion and peril, we feel and know that both fatherly love and apostolic ministry demand of us, that we should with all earnestness, turn the thoughts of Christendom thither "whence cometh help"—to Christ, the Prince of Peace, and the most powerful mediator between God and man.

We charge, therefore, the Catholics of the world to approach the throne of grace and mercy, each and all of them, and more especially the clergy, whose duty, furthermore, it will be to make in every parish, as their Bishops shall direct, public supplication so that merciful God may, as it were, be wearied with the prayers of his captains and speedily remove the evil causes of war, give to them who rule to think the thoughts of peace and not of affliction.

From the Palace of the Vatican, the second day of August, 1914.

Arsenical Cattle Dip

Washington, D. C. Aug. 24.—The U. S. Department of Agriculture has just issued a 16-page Farmers Bulletin (No. 603) on methods of preparation and directions for the use of arsenical cattle dips. These are the dips which are effective against the Texas fever tick.

The Bulletin gives farmers and stock raisers explicit practical directions for the making and use of boiled and self-boiled dips. The measures prescribed for the safe handling of these poisonous substances should be read attentively by every one who wishes to dip his own cattle.

The bulletin will be sent free to any one who will send a postcard to the Editor and, Chief, Division of Publications, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

A Healer in Town.

To the Sentinel:

I don't want to butt in or go into a show, but you have failed to report a sensation that is abroad in our land, namely a healing prophet or at least a man with some such stunt.

"Doctor" Lewis a dark colored man about forty years old, who claims to have come from some fated land of fortune, empowered and authorized by some source of credentials or credulity to warn sinners as well as to relieve bodily sufferers, and who is a mysterious man as well as a man of mysteries having one wife along and claiming to be a preacher in the baptist faith, and a doctor in some kind of faith, is attracting great attention among the people, not only in these parts but in parts distant. He has an office on Midway street. Midway between several points in and around this city, and he has office hours, a day of distinction of colors, a day for whites and a day for others, crowded continually by waiting visitors and applicants for treatment each one of them expected to hand in one dollar for examination—and then some. Some of these patients come on canes and crutches but walk away carrying their sticks joyfully. Some come in wagons or other vehicles but leave on foot. And the half has not been told hereby. You can get much more by going after it.

The Panama Canal

On August 14th, the liner Nebraskan sailed through Golden Gate en route for New York, via the Panama Canal. The notable feature of this voyage is that the Nebraskan is the first ship in the world's history to carry a cargo from San Francisco to New York without rounding the Horn.

She bears greetings from Mayor James Rolph, Jr. and the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to Mayor J. T. Mitchell of New York and the commerce of the Atlantic Coast. A miscellaneous cargo California products, rides in her hold.

The vessel left San Francisco amid the cheers and farewells of almost the entire San Francisco population who considered the event worthy of a holiday. The Nebraskan will no doubt be greeted by a similar demonstration when they arrive at their destination at New York City. The Panama Canal will eliminate over 7000 miles of travel.

Young Girl Loses Life in San Saba River

The Man Hog.

There is a fellow who gets the pleasure of every other man he meets and as road travel becomes more general and traffic increases he comes more and more into disfavor with his neighbor or with the stranger he meets. Some people refer to him as the road hog. Sometimes he drives an auto and claims the middle of the road against all comers; he comes like a cyclone down the middle of the road, and other cars or wagons or buggies can get out of the way or take the consequences. Sometimes he drives a wagon, perhaps a big farm wagon, and here again he takes the very center of the road, and refuses to give an inch when he meets some one traveling in the other direction; if he puts his neighbor in the ditch he counts it a satisfaction. He sometimes drives a single buggy, and delights in seeing the heavier vehicle take the bad road or the ditch. Sometimes he rides a rawbone mule and manages to block the center of the road and make a tool of the mule as a pretext to cover the road, and some times he walks, and strides in front of a driven vehicle, and causes cold chills to run over the auto driver.

This paper believes in regulating auto traffic and compelling the drivers to observe safe road rules. And then it believes the road hog should be regulated; believes that a man who deliberately makes of himself a nuisance and a menace on the public highway should be arrested and punished just the same as the man who is reckless with an auto. In this day and time every man should be too much of a man to let his cussedness hinder traffic and he should always be considerate enough to give his neighbor a fair part of the road.—Palatine Herald.

for one month President of the Republic, serving between the retirement of General Huerta and the coming of General Carranza, was an arrival in Galveston this morning as a passenger on board the steamship Mexico from Vera Cruz.

The retired provisional president was accompanied by Senor Lic Jose M. Lugia formerly Secretary of the Interior in the cabinet of Huerta and by a number of prominent army officers in the Federal army, among whom were General Cuellar and Colonel Cabrero.

Dallas Pastor Big Sensation at Chautauqua

Will A. Watkin has received letters from his daughter, M. S. Fred Ingram, and others in Chautauqua, telling of the enthusiastic reception given to Rev. George W. Truett at the New York Chautauqua, at which place he spoke twice Sunday, Aug. 16.

Dr. Truett was chosen to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the 1914 Chautauqua class. In the course of the sermon he had occasion to mention the liquor traffic, and it is said that his eloquence was so overpowering that the congregation with one accord burst into applause. A second time in his sermon, when he referred to the Wilson Administration, the 6,000 people present applauded. This is the first time in the history of the Chautauqua that a sermon has been applauded, and the breaking of all precedents is looked upon as a remarkable manifestation, and a signal honor to Dr. Truett.

After spending a few days at Chautauqua, Dr. Truett, at the personal invitation of John D. Rocketteller, went to Cleveland to occupy the pulpit of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church, Rockefeller's church. On next Sunday he will preach at the Dudley Street Baptist church in Boston, returning home then to be with his own congregation the following Sunday.—Dallas Evening Journal.

Returns from practically 600 men, representing all the members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers for the Southern Pacific lines east of El Paso, have been received by General Chairman J. F. Cowgill, and he declares the returns indicate the telegraphers are practically unanimously in favor of a strike.

The keymen are asking for a 12½ per cent raise in salaries and a reduction of working hours.

It will take some time to get the returns from the western division, where 1,200 men have been balloting on the question, but Chairman Cowgill says the men everywhere on the line are favoring the strike. He thinks 98 per cent of them are for a walk-out unless their demands are granted.

State University to Aid in Good Roads Movement.

A laboratory for testing road making materials will soon be installed by the Bureau of Economic Geology and Technology at the University of Texas.

Its purpose is to supply the demand for information concerning materials best suited for road building. This service will be performed for the public free of charge, and road commissioners, county engineers, contractors, quarry men, and all others interested in state and highway construction may make use of the office in determining the best material for any particular job.

The laboratory will be in charge of Doctor Wm. B. Phillips, Director of the Bureau, and it is proposed that a man be sent into the field to collect samples from such known Texas deposits as warrant attention. This information will be kept on file for the benefit of the public and the museum at the University will also be open to all.

"It is a step in the right direction," said John W. Warren, President of the Good Roads Association. "This will enable people to secure information about the qualities of the material for which they are spending their money. When tests show that a certain material is not suitable they can discard it and select something better and thus save money. The people of Texas are spending millions of dollars each year for roads, yet not a nickle has been expended to see that the best results are for the vast outlay."

Battle of Gettysburg Skirmish Compared to Present Battle

Gettysburg, the great decisive battle of United States history, pales into insignificance, and relatively speaking assumes the proportions of a skirmish when compared to the great battle which is now being fought between the Germans and the Austrians on one side and the French, Belgians and English on other side, on the French Belgian frontier. According to the best authorities, the losses at Gettysburg were:

|-------------------|--------|
| Union Army..... | 23,001 |
| Confederates..... | 20,448 |
| Total, | 43,449 |

Dispatches published in American newspapers since the European war was declared have told of several battles wherein the loss was much greater than shown for instance, the Russians report one battle where killed wounded and prisoners was given as over 60,000. Germany has reported battles in which it indicated that the loss perhaps as great.—Dallas Journal.

Emperor Joseph Reported About to Die.

Copenhagen, Aug. 25.—News from German sources confirms the report that Emperor Franz Joseph has been stricken and is in a very serious condition.

It is reported in Berlin that his exertions in endeavoring to get the army ready to assist Germany, brought on an attack which forced him to his bed, and he has gradually grown worse.

One report reaching here stated that his death was considered only a matter of hours.

It is impossible, however, to obtain news of his exact condition or the nature of his malady.

The Big War.

Washington, Aug. 25.—The German army captured 10,000 soldiers and several Generals, members of the French army under Gen. Joffre, and now controls Longwy and the greater part of the Belgian-Franco frontier, the Berlin Foreign Office, by wireless, today informed the German Embassy here.

One dispatch read: "German troops chased French troops defeated in battle between the 17th and 21st of August. German troops passed through French towns in several battles.

"Numerous ensigns, over 150 guns, 10,000 prisoners in the capture of Luneville. Took army of Gen. Joffre, dismembered, no more capable of action. German Crown Prince's army chased French west of Longwy. Army of the Duke of Wuertemberg marched through Belgium, crossed River Semois.

"Completely crushed advancing French army. Numerous guns, ensigns, prisoners, several Generals captured. German troops advance west of River Meuse toward Maubeuge-France.

"Defeated English cavalry brigade. Semois (the river), Longwy (fortified city), east part of Belgian-French border, in German hands. Concentric advance of all German armies toward Paris probable."

The other dispatch reads: "German marines return Scutari, part in Austria fighting against Serbia, and stormed in first line mountain 1,000 meters high on River Drina.

In Memory.
While strolling through the Fairview cemetery, I paused at a new-made grave of a dear, sweet girl friend, one just merging from the spring time of youth into beautiful woman hood. And naught but pleasing recollections came before me of the brief but happy life of Bobbie Stallings.

The 24th of June 1895 she came, a little white soul with a fragile body, and on the 27th of May 1914, that soul winged its flight to a home beyond the grave.

How short the span of life and how quickly the tale is told! And yet how much may be compressed in that small volume.

Bobbie's life from beginning to end was one of loving, thoughtful kindness, and faithful devotion and service, to those she loved. Hospitable and sincere to her friends, strong in her convictions, loyal to truth, and guileless in every word, thought, or deed, she won the love of her associates, her teachers, and all who knew her. And most especially was the inexpressibly tender regard and thoughtful care she had for the dear old home-folks, "mother and daddy," whose every wish and thought we e for her good and happiness.

Unselfish, and unspoiled by this world, she left us to bloom in a fairer home. Truly, "of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

She well deserved the eulogies of her beloved pastor, Bro. McKinney, at the funeral service, and the sympathy, kind attention, and the floral tokens, all evinced the high esteem in which she was held.

Radium Ore Deposit in Pennsylvania.

With the prominence given to the subject of radium, some interest attaches to a brief report by Edgar T. Wherry describing a deposit of carnotite near Mauch Chunk, Pa., published as Bulletin 580-H of the United States Geological Survey. Carnotite is one of the radium-bearing minerals, and this deposit is believed to have been formed by precipitation from the ground water and can now be seen in process of formation where water trickles out through cracks in the rocks. The deposit is of significant interest, but the present knowledge regarding it is insufficient to warrant any statement as to its workability. So far as is now known the total area covered by the carnotite-bearing lenses is very small, the observed outcrops being confined to a strip but a few hundred feet in extent. A copy of Mr. Wherry's report may be obtained by application to the Director, United States Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

The Dying Pope

Rome, August 20.—Pope Pius X died at 1:20 o'clock this morning. He had been ill for several days, but alarming symptoms did not develop until Wednesday morning.

Throughout the day Doctors Marchiafava and Amici devoted their utmost energies to stimulating their patient and keeping him alive.

The cardinals were notified of the Pope's grave condition and some of them who entered the sick room describe the scene as heart rending, especially when the pontiff, rousing himself from time to time, spoke. Once he said, "In ancient times the pope, by a word, might have stayed the slaughter, but now he is impotent."

Prayers were said by thousands and church bells sounded when the sacrament was exposed upon all the altars. When the court learned of the pope's condition there was the deepest concern.

Extreme unction was administered by Mgr. Zampini, sacristan to His Holiness, amid a touching scene. The pope's sisters and his niece were overcome with grief.

Cardinal Merry del Val knelt by the side of his bed, where other cardinals joined him, members of the household, intoning prayers.

The dying pope, in a moment of lucidity, said: "Now I begin to think as the end is approaching, that the Almighty, in His inexhaustible goodness, wishes to spare me the horrors Europe is undergoing."

Chief Sams Voyage Started.

Galveston, Texas, August 22.—Chief Sam and his ship, the Liberia, have sailed from the port of Galveston. This leader of negro colonists left, however, with only about one-third of the number of passengers that he intended to take away with him. There are great numbers of negroes yet left in Galveston who came here to go to the fabled Gold Coast Utopia.

The manifest shows that the Liberia is to stop at many ports on the way, but no explanation was given for the leaving of two-thirds of the colonists behind. The Liberia departed suddenly, and no notice of the sailing was posted beforehand.

The negroes have little to say about the matter and evidently their faith in Chief Sam remains unshaken, despite the failure of the chief to take them along.

The colonists began to gather here more than six months before the ship arrived, and have been a problem on the hands of the city authorities for several months.

Lassen Peak Active.

Chico, Cal., Aug. 20.—Two eruptions of Lassen peak, which occurred yesterday, more violent than any previous disturbance, and spread ashes ten miles. A forest ranger, sixteen miles distant from Lassen peak, measured the columns of steam by means of a transit and reported its height as 7000 feet.

Among the old time friends of Judge Edwards who came to meet him yesterday, special mention is due two of these. One is E. M. Weatherly of Appleby, who is eighty-five years old, and who has lived only at one home, his first after marriage, ever since 1855. Appleby had never been dreamed of then, and wonderful changes have since occurred. Uncle Mitch, as he is tenderly called, came to town with Judge Edwards having him as a guest at his home Wednesday night and remained over here till today. The other is F. M. Rainbolt of Garrison who also has resided there from March 6, 1846 and who was one of the original members of Raguet's company that went to New Mexico, and who was first lieutenant and later commander of this company, to which Judge Edwards belonged. When they met they embraced in a most touching manner. There are only a few of these men left.

STOMACH TROUBLE FOR FIVE YEARS

Majority of Friends Thought Mr. Hughes Would Die, But One Helped Him to Recovery.

Pomeroyton, Ky.—In interesting advices from this place, Mr. A. J. Hughes writes as follows: "I was down with stomach trouble for five (5) years, and would have sick headache so bad, at times, that I thought surely I would die. I tried different treatments, but they did not seem to do me any good. I got so bad, I could not eat or sleep, and all my friends, except one, thought I would die. He advised me to try Theford's Black-Draught, and quit taking other medicines. I decided to take his advice, although I did not have any confidence in it.

I have now been taking Black-Draught for three months, and it has cured me—haven't had those awful sick headaches since I began using it.

I am so thankful for what Black-Draught has done for me."

Theford's Black-Draught has been found a very valuable medicine for derangements of the stomach and liver. It is composed of pure, vegetable herbs, contains no dangerous ingredients, and acts gently, yet surely. It can be freely used by young and old, and should be kept in every family chest.

Everybody admits that the recent rains will be a great benefit to the pea crop, and there are not many folks but who know that corn field peas and a given quantity of corn bread are mighty hard to beat when it comes to this thing called eating.—Lutkin News.

The Sentinel agrees to the above in spirit and in truth, but it is said that the pea crop is being damaged by too much rain, which causes surplus of vines without fruit. There will yet be plenty of dry hot weather to supply the needed blooms.

Camp Blount, August 26, 1914

Editor Sentinel:
Bright and early Monday morning the Sam Houston Troop of Boy Scouts of America started on their annual hike with Henson Island away down on the Angelina River near G. A. Blount's farm as their point of destination with Scout Masters, Ben F. Wilson, Arthur Marshall and W. E. Thomason in charge. Though the roads were heavy and several showers of rain had fallen, by three o'clock twelve miles had been covered and not a grunt had come from a single Scout. Though it had been but a few hours since we had left the monotonous hum of the city, we were now surrounded by the somber shades of the dense forest and every one was reveling in the rustic beauties of nature's paradise. After we arrived at the puncheon bridge on the moral we turned south and after a two mile hike we forded the Bonalda and laid siege to Henson Island. It was soon captured and in a short time permanent camp was located on the highest point on the island which is something like a hundred feet above the surrounding county. A more beautiful spot could not have been selected as everything is high and dry, with beautiful shades on every side with an open court in the center which is surrounded by our tents. In the center of this large court, which is covered by green grass, a flag pole has been erected at the top of which floats the stars and stripes. The flag is raised every morning at sunup and lowered at sunset.

Our equipment consists of five patrol tents 12 to 14 feet, one dining tent 14x30 feet, one commissary tent and twelve individual tents all erected in the form of a hollow square.

Our bill of fare consists of plenty of beans, potatoes, bacon, eggs, syrup bakers bread and flap-jacks with onions and tomatoes when needed. Every scout does his own cooking and a merry time they have when meal time comes.

The time is spent in doing camp duty, playing games, fishing, bathing and scout work. Every scout is under the personal observation and constant direction of a scout Master who looks after the wants and needs of every one under his care and with a special view to the safety of each.

Every one today, Wednesday, in camp is well and hearty and enjoying life to the fullest extent. We have missed Scout Commissioner Johnson who has not been with us on account of the death of his sister but we are looking for him today.

We would feel that we were ungrateful if we did not mention the many kindnesses that we have received at the hands of Mr. G. A. Blount who furnished a four mule wagon to convey our supplies to our camp, besides he furnishes us every morning with barrels of good pure well water and has furnished us with a large ice box and
