Reprieve at Last Moment.

Florence, Ariz., May 28.—Five Mexicans, sentenced to be hanged for murder today, late this afternoon were granted a nine week's reprieve by the state board of pardons and paroles in order that they might be hanged one at a time instead of all together. The reprieve came when it seemed that every legal obstacle to the execution, including the strenuous opposition of Governor Hunt, had been set aside. No executions have occurred in Arizona under state auspices since statehood was granted.

The County Commissioners court is in session acting as a board of equalization on the county tax assessors lists.

CUT CONFEDERATE PENSIONS TO $13.

Lack of Funds Caused Big Reduction for Past Quarter.

Austin, Texas, June 1.—Texas Confederate pensioners for the quarter ending May 31 will receive a pension of $13 instead of $22 which was paid them during the two previous quarters. This reduction was due to the lack of money accruing to the pension fund. The amount of money for Confederate pensions is not fixed, varying nearly every quarter. It has been as low as $10.50.

Pensioners from all over the State are sending letters to the pension, comptroller's and treasury departments inquiring why the pension has been reduced. In answer to these letters the State pension commissioner is sending out the following:

"We have 18,623 pensioners, each of whom receives at least $13, which for this quarter amounts to $242,229. There is a tax of 5 cents on the $100 levied for the Confederate pensions. This aggregates over $1,000,000 a year. The past year each pensioner re-

The board of equalization sent out notices to tax payers to appear and show cause why their valuations should not be raised. Some of them came 30 miles, spent 30 hours, and more than three times 30 cents rail road fare, hotel bills not counted. Their raise in valuation did not raise their taxes 30 cents, or it looks like 30 cents.

Confederate Pensions.

The intention and purposes of the Confederate pension law are and noble and good, but there is a lot of what Governor Hogg would call the dad-blamedest red tape nonsense flung into it by various quibbles and detects that can be imagined.

For instance, a veteran in need must crawl up to a young officer's cozy nest, and beg for recognition like a pauper. Then he must hunt up some witnesses, who may live in Jerico, any prove some facts that nobody could doubt.

And there are veterans in every town who can't find a witness to it, and more than a witness to his date of birth, yet everybody knows he was a Confederate soldier. Well, after he climbs over all this and more gets his application passed upon by some young clerical inspector, he is informed that he must starve on till the end of the quarter, some arbitrary date, usually about 80 days ahead, and after then his pension begins to run and will be paid some time after the end of this new quarter.

The Agents.

The agents are a cheerful bunch, whose talk has optimistic pitch; they have the nerve, they have the punch, yet few of them get beastly rich. I wonder why they try to sell such junk as no man wants to buy? They come and seek me where I dwell, and talk until I wish to die, and always what they have for sale is something I would never use; why don't they try to get the kale by selling overalls or shoes? Why don't they handle mops or brooms or books a normal man would read, or offer made-to-order toms, or something you and I might need?

MI-MI AND HO-HO.

An Indian Story of Early Nacogdoches.

This story is true. It is purely traditional, but it was related by parties who knew it and was handed down to modern times, from older people to younger people.

Just one hundred years ago that is to say, in the year 1815, this town of Nacogdoches was a mere village, in a strange land, but it was traversed by a rude road unworked, but much traveled. This road, the original old St. Denis trail, afterwards became the old San Antonio road, leading from Natchitoches, a French town on Red River, westward to the Rio Grande via Nacogdoches, at 100 miles distance, and via other settlements or villages of less importance, and along this road there passed many adventurers, fortune hunters, renegades and outlawed refugees, of different types and nationalities, Indians as well as whites.

There was one special arrival that this story is to note and relate. It was a young Indian brave. He avoided observation as much as possible. There was a reason. He had absconded from his tribe east of the great Mississippi river, and he wished to evade inquiry. His name in his tribe was Ho-Ho, which meant young buck, or a wild young male deer. He was remarkable for his perfect physique, his skill as a hunter and his superiority in general.

But a change came over the spirit of their dreams. On a certain occasion he went off on a hunt to be gone half a moon. He promised to return on a certain time, but, designedly, he told her that if he failed to keep the promise she might know that something was wrong. He told her where to search if he should be missing.

The truth was that he intended to desert her, and abscond with her father's fine gun, and go to the strange distant land in the west, to which the Indian trail or road was said to lead. The promised return did not come to pass. Search for him was made, and of course it proved fruitless. But it gave a clue that Ho-Ho had skipped, and had played her false, and had also taken her father's gun and was gone to stay. Mi-Mi was forlorn and grieved, but not without hope of her lover's return. She fondly expected this. But she was distressed with doubt and she weakly hoped.

Not so the chief, her father, and his braves. He organized a pursuing party, which was composed of his son and three others, one an aspirant for Mi-Mi's love, a jealous rival of Ho-Ho. They were sent to find and slay the traitor, no quarter was the order, no failure—it was a search for death without fail.

In time, these four braves reached Nacogdoches. They stealthily and separately entered the village, by an agreed method to avoid observation. They soon located Ho-Ho, and according to plan, closed in around him. At once he saw his fate. No words were necessary.

All understood what was coming. Almost in silence, and at least with no demonstrative action, they suddenly and savagely looked at each other. Ho-Ho spoke—"Let me drink a quaat of whiskey first." A grunt of assent was made. The whiskey was brought. The fine gun was discovered and set by a tree under which the five men silently stood in the grove out in front of the noted old stone fort house. Ho-Ho proceeded to drink, as it were, dram after dram, and in half an hour he had drank the entire quart of whiskey. He was not only drunk to a finish, but was down helpless and insensible.

The four avengers surrounded the prostrate man, drew their big knives, and by concert of action, quickly dispatched their victim, and quickly and silently they vanished.

On arrival back at the wigwam of their chief, Mi-Mi's ever watching eye first saw them. She rushed out to them, but made no out cry, nor uttered a word. A look into their faces revealed all. They did not speak. She divined that Ho-Ho was dead. She silently swooned, and was taken up by the four avengers and tenderly carried to her pallet. She never as much as moved a finger. Her heart was broken. Poor Mi-Mi was at her end.

"Real potlicker, the only variety worthy of discussion, is distilled—preferably in an iron kettle over a wood fire—from hog jowl and wild greens. It gets from the jowl the flavor of clover leaves and dew imparted to that part of the pig's anatomy during happy hours of grazing in rich pastures. There is also a suggestion of the fragrant leaves of sassafras bushes and the nutlike quality of flint corn. The commingled essences of wild greens—dandelion leaves, lamb's quarter, 'pepper grass,' and a dozen other varieties—with a bouquet added by the denigrant wood smoke that envelops the pot in which the greens caress the jowl, make the true potlicker of the South ambrosial to both the 'houn dawg' and the twins."

Sweet Sentiments "I am going back to Tennessee in a few days. Before I leave, I do want to make a plea and do one kind act for little friends, the birds more especially those out at the cemetery—beautiful Oakwood I go out there often myself and stroll under the trees and among the flowers, finding the names of those I used to know and love, when my happy girlhood home was Waco.

While reading the dates and names, I listen to the songs of the birds, and watch them in their graceful swoop down to the mouth of a dripping hydrant; they sip the drops so thirstily. There are so few drops falling, and it is with such difficulty that thirst is appeased, I can but wish that mercy to bird be shown at the same time we are merciful to beast. The dear, little helpless birds who give us so much pleasure! Would it not be worth the cost to provide a tiny fountain in the center of Oakwood mound? Above all places, our birds are afforded protection in Oakwood.

Estate Of Mrs. Sapp Suit was filed in the district court on Tuesday morning against Thomas Van Auken by T. H. Nees, as acting temporary administrator of the estate of Mrs. Ellen I. Sapp, deceased, to enforce payment of a promissory note of $7000—executed by defendant on July 27, 1914.

It is alleged that on said date Mrs. Ellen I. Sapp, deceased, loaned to the defendant, Thomas Van Auken, $7000, and that the above note was given by the latter as an evidence of the loan. It is further alleged that although this note was made payable to E. E. Sapp, as the husband and agent of Ellen I. Sapp, the loan was in fact made by Ellen I. Sapp and the note belongs to her and her estate.—Beaumont Journal.

Fraternal Resolution.

To The Worshiptul Master, Wardens, and Brethren of Milam Lodge No. 2 A. F. & A. M.

We, your committee to draft resolutions upon the death of brother G. W. Dennis, beg leave to report:

1st. Brother G. W. Dennis was born near Wetumpka, in Elmore County, Alabama, April 9, 1848. He came to Shelby County, Texas in early manhood, and later to Nacogdoches County, where he died February 21, 1915, at the age of more than sixty-six years of service which his fellow men are not ashamed of, for both in war and in peace he did the work of a full grown man, serving the Southern Confederacy with all the ardor of his young manhood when southern rights were imperiled. He was wounded and carried as a prisoner to Chicago, Illinois. After the war he served just as faithfully in the United States border service. His labors were just as earnest with his plow after peace as were his with the sword during the war, for he truly believed that he whose labors alleviate the suffering and minister to the wants of man is to that degree a benefactor, and we with others say "give him of the fruits of his hands and let his works praise him" Brother Dennis was loved and revered by all who knew him, and the reason for this was his faith in God and the right and his love for his fellow man

2nd. While our hearts are saddened with the knowledge that we shall no more this side the sunny banks of sweet deliverance grasp the welcome loving hand of our dear brother, and Milam Lodge has lost a true and valiant member whose place will remain vacant in the lodge below, but whose deeds of charity and pure beneficence have cast their fragrance and influence over our hearts, yet we can truly say and believe our brother has gone to that lodge above whose maker and builder is God who will forever bestow the rewards and wages due the member who loved and served his Supreme Grand Master and his fellow man.

3rd. The State, county and community has lost a man whose heart was always attuned for the right and for the uplift of others.

4th. His surviving wife and three children have lost a friend who never failed them and whose example is an incentive to love, labor, and higher living.

5th. Resolved that a copy hereof be furnished the family of our deceased brother under the seal of the lodge, that it be furnished the county papers for publication, and that it be spread upon the Minutes of the Lodge.

Respectfully submitted,

Marshall TP's Meet Their Waterloo!

In one of the longest drawn out and most interesting games ever played at East End Park, the Elks defeated the crack T. & P. team from Marshall yesterday 7 to 6.

No longer may it be said that the local Elks team is not a pennant winner in the highest sense of the term. They have again proven their ability to turn on their adversaries and overcome a temporary advantage gained by the opposition on errors or loose playing.

Frank Smith pitched air tight balls the entire fourteen innings which the game ran and was good for fourteen more when the winning run was made. He struck out nineteen men, was especially effective in pinches and had perfect control. He is being idolized, and justly so, for the showing he made, and everywhere one hears the echo and re-echo "Warhorse Smith."

Clarence Smith started the tune in the fourth, and before the smoke cleared the locals had made five runs on five hits, Ketchum having relieved Hill in the midst of the fray but failed to stop the slaughter until the batting streak of the locals had spent its force and lost its novelty.

Marshall came back strong in the fifth, scoring four runs on four hits, after which both pitchers settled down and one of the most thrilling pitcher's duels ever staged on any diamond, the majors not excepted, took place, with the honors decidedly in Smith's favor. It was during this period of the game that Smith's strike out pitching was used with such telling effect.

And thus Dochess took the first game of the series in the most gruelling contest they will probably have to endure during the season. But one criticism can be heard on the streets, and that is that the people of Nacogdoches are not patronizing the game as they should. Certainly a team like ours deserves liberal treatment at the hands of the business men, it is one of the best advertisements any town can have.

The Marshall boys are a clean, law abiding, well trained set of gentlemen ball players, and may be expected to give a good account of themselves in all engagements.

The Score:
Marshall—R6, H5, E4.
Nacogdoches—R7, H15, E4.
Batteries, Marshall—Hill, Ketchum and Meade.
Batteries, Nacogdoches—F. Smith and Rulis.
Umpire Wood.

Marshall Won.

The Marshall TPs took the last two games from the Elks 5-3, 4-3, but were given the scare of their lives in both engagements.

One little measly bingle would have meant victory instead of defeat for Nacogdoches in both games, but somehow the boys couldn't deliver.

Burke and Drewry both pitched a good game, both were unsteady in the first innings but settled down and pitched winning ball. The ### Announcement Dinner.

At six o'clock Saturday evening Mrs. Frank Sharp entertained twelve young ladies including Misses Hughes and Miss Frances Buell, of Dallas, who were honor guests. The mode of entertainment was an elegant five course dinner.

The center piece of rich red roses on the exquisite linen, seemed to speak of a secret, held beneath their beauty, but the guests were so absorbed in the present entertainment they were guileless until the hostess bid them pull the card attached to a red ribbon under the bowl to their places, which hither to had only held the significance of a place card. On each card was a letter, and when the twelve were pulled and put together they spelled the names of Blount-Huffor.

The guests learned to their "sweeter understanding" the wedding of Miss Emma Blount and Mr. Earl Huffor would occur June 30th. Miss Blount, is the third daughter of Hon. S. W. Blount and a young lady whose gentle womanliness is a sweet influence among all her acquaintances.

Mr. Huffor is a young gentleman of exceeding worthiness. He has been with the Central High School the past four years as teacher and proved himself such in high-est capacity and the past two years, has been principal of that valuable institution, and recently has been re-elected.

Seniors Give Dinner.

Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Muller, the 1915 Seniors elaborately entertained their faculty, with a handsomely appointed dinner.

Between the several courses served, toasts were given in which both faculty and seniors expressed sentiments relative to their causes, the cares and pleasures of school days as thru each vision. There was probably some chaff and competition over which they had most cares. Altogether the evening was most pleasantly and delightfully spent.

The decorative scheme carried out the class colors, delicate purple and white. This blended softly with the beautiful hues of the sweet pea and nasturtiums, the table being a vegetable rainbow of these collors.

Visitors Complimented

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. W. F. Price entertained fifty or more guests in honor of the visiting ladies and hostesses of the city. The informality of the occasion gave this delightful party distinctive pleasure. The guests were bid to change places at the sound of chords from the piano and new partners gave occasion for new topics for talk and afforded every guest the opportunity of meeting each other. Refreshments of the most delicate and delicious combination were served.

Lee's army had a chance to kill many hundreds of citizens of Gettysburg. By accident it shot just one. "Joe" Stuart's cavalry raided through Pennsylvania, but no civilian lost as much as a little finger.

When Sherman marched to the sea he took all the provisions he could find, but no lives. Russians burned Moscow to drive out Napoleon, but the French army, which was ruined by the act, did not kill residents of the city in retaliation.

General Shafter's little army had many a Spaniard at its mercy in East Cuba in the summer of 1898, when Santiago surrendered, but spared all of them. History fails to show that Sampson's fleet at Santiago even sank a rowboat belonging to a non-combatant.

This war has been the birth of three new agencies: The effective submarine, the airship and the murder of on-lookers.—The Philadelphia Ledger.

Hard Luck.

Little Willie's pulling weeds, and his gentle bosom bleeds, for the fish are fairly thick 'way down yonder, in the creek. So he thinks his fate is hard as he sweats around the yard, and his eye with moisture blurs while he pulls the cockleburrs. Gentle Willie, slay the weeds, are the blamed things go to seeds; while the other fellows fish, let your sickle go swish-swish; pull them, hack them with your knife—for that sort of thing is life. All of us who earn our hay thus are toiling, day by day; doing things that break our hearts, in the workshops or the marts, at the loom or at the plow, earning bread with streaming brow. All of us profoundly wish we might quit our work and fish; but in vain we long and yearn, for the call of life is stern; we must strive until the end. What's the answer, Willie asks. Let's pretend we like our tasks. Let us to our comrades say, "You go fishing—we will stay pulling these delightful weeds!" Let us make our work a joy; that's the answer, Willie boy.

Big School Convention to be Held Here.

There is to be a convention held here June 8 and 9, of the school superintendents of all counties in East Texas. It will be a large meeting, as every school superintendent in East Texas with his wife will be here, and be taken care of as guests by the citizens. Railroad rates will probably be secured, and these guests will be entertained in royal style.

Prof. Doughty, of Austin, will be here. Also Prof. Horn and Prof. Pugh, of Houston, and other men of note. Public addresses will be made, and every body will be invited and these will be great days.

The meeting will be held in the High School auditorium, which will be properly prepared for the occasion.

"Flowers for the Living" Club
The Temple Daily Telegram is strictly a unique paper. It is "in a class by itself." Among its special features, it has a column under the above standing heading, with the following lines beneath it:

Constitution and By-Laws.
If with pleasure you are viewing any work a man is doing.

If you like him or you love him, tell him now;
Don't withhold your approbation till the parson makes oration

As he lies with snowy lillies o'er his brow;

For no matter how you shout it, he won't really care about it;

He won't know how many tear-drops you have shed;
If you think some praise is due him, now's the time to slip it to him.

For he can not read his tombstone when he's dead!—Masonic Observer, Minneapolis.

Denver Suffragettes.

One earnest woman, Mrs. Martha J. Crammer, member of the state board of pardons and a pioneer in the suffrage movement in Colorado, expressed her opinion of this condition in these words:

"The matter is that most of the women have become disgusted and quit voting. One might as well be frank about it. Only a few more elections and all the women in Denver will quit voting. The women have shown they can't stand together. They have divided into factions and instead of going down the line for a good cause they spend their time knitting one another I am completely disgusted. I shall never vote again."—Ex.

Paderewski in Chicago in a New Role.

Chicago, May 29.—With his health and much of his fortune gone. Ignace Paderewski, the noted pianist, came to Chicago, unheralded and almost unattended, in a new role today. He was a passenger on the Twentieth Century whereas in former years he came in a special train with a retinue of attendants.

Instead of appealing to the musical vein of Chicagoans, the famous pianist, who has scarcely touched a piano since the war began, will make an appeal for funds to aid the sufferers in his country—Poland.

Wavahachie Man Pardoned.

Wavahachie, Texas, May 28.—Jack Egbert, under sentence of two years in the penitentiary, was today pardoned by Governor Ferguson. Egbert was convicted of manslaughter in connection with the killing of a county convict near here last winter. The recommendation for pardon was made yesterday by the Board of Pardon Advisers.

Stenotypewriting: The Stenographic Marvel of the Age.

Stenotypewriting is the writing of the Byrne Simplified Shorthand with the ordinary typewriter instead of with a pencil. The principles of the Byrne Simplified Shorthand have been applied to a system of writing known as Stenotypewriting. By this system the stenographer is able to take dictation on the Underwood, Royal, Oliver, or any other make of typewriter with greater speed and accuracy than is possible with a pen or pencil. Just as the typewriter has displaced the pen and pencil for correspondence in the business office, it will eventually displace the pen or pencil for reporting in the courts and handling the dictation of the business office.

Our Prof. Byrne again takes the lead in the stenographic art, being the first author to put his system of Shorthand into type and make it thoroughly practical on the typewriter. This, however, was not accomplished in a day; it took years of hard work and much careful study and thought.

Students enrolling in the Tyler Commercial College may take up the study of the Byrne Simplified Shorthand, either to be written with a pencil or on a typewriter, as they prefer. However, anyone who has examined the merits of Stenotypewriting or the writing of the Byrne Shorthand on the typewriter will never want to spend the time necessary to learn to write and read any system of shorthand that is to be written with pen or pencil.

Stenotypewriting is as legible a print, because it is print. Every letter is made mechanically correct. The Tyler Commercial College will control the teaching of Stenotypewriting in this part of the country just as it controls the teaching of the other Byrne systems, which have made the Tyler Commercial College famous, and made it the largest commercial training school in America. If you want to get the most modern method of taking dictation or doing reporting it will be necessary to attend the Tyler Commercial College. Our work in Stenotypewriting is absolutely a money-back guarantee proposition; any student, who, at the completion of the course, is not satisfied that it is better than any system of shorthand written with a pencil or pen, upon request, may get his tuition back.

Stenotypewriting is learned in less time than shorthand, is more legible and rapid and the day's dictation or reporting is taken with much less fatigue. Students of Stenotypewriting make better typewriter operators than those who study shorthand, as all the work of note taking done with a pencil in shorthand is done on the typewriter in Stenotypewriting, thus giving doubly the amount of practice on the typewriter while taking the course. We make no extra charge for stenotypewriting, the cost of the course is the same as that of shorthand, fifty dollars, for a complete scholarship and seven dollars for books and supplies.

Richmond Reunion.

Richmond, Va., June 1.—Pledges of support to the president of the United States "in these perilous times" and prayers for righteous peace of the world characterized the opening of the reunion.

To the tunes of "Dixie," "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," and "Stonewall Jackson's Way," thousands of wearers of the gray from all parts of the Southland marched through the gaily bedecked streets of the old capital of the Confederacy to the city auditorium, where they were welcomed to the Old Dominion by Governor H. C. Stuart of Virginia.

Inspired as they filed into the hall by hundreds of "stars and bars" waved aloft by a concourse of boys and girls, the aged survivors of the armies of the Confederacy shouted themselves hoarse, later displaying boundless enthusiasm at the sight of a black clad little woman, the widow of General J. E. B. Stuart, a cavalry hero of the South, who was presented to the assembly.

At the outset ceremonies the spirit at the time was reflected in the invocation delivered by Chaplain W. J. Bachmen of Chattanooga, Tenn. With bowed heads and nods of approval, the gray host received the chaplain's appeal for "blessings upon our country, our chief executive and all in authority in these perilous times," and the petition that the American people "may stand with faces of flint for righteousness and the peace of the world."

Senator S. M. King and representative A. T. Russell are emphatic in their advocacy of the Gibson bill. They think it is for the good of the people. And they are in good company.

David Starr Jordan, the noted chancellor of Leland Stanford, Jr. University, delivered an address before the Texas University advocating peace, and showing up the evils of war.

Union Missionary Meeting

The initiative meeting of the United Missionary Societies was held in the First Presbyterian Church Monday afternoon at four o'clock. There were a goodly number of ladies present. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. H. Smith. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Cunningham. A nice program had been arranged. China was the subject, and a representative from each society read a paper, setting forth facts concerning the work of her church in the vast heathendom. Miss Eleanor Thomas sweetly sang, "He is so Precious to Me." The space forbids giving each number the special mention they so richly deserve. Altogether the meeting was both inspirational and instructive.

The next meeting will be with the Baptist Society on the next fifth Monday.

Edgemont Ideal 38598

Record 2.15 1-4. Trial 2.08.

The breeding of Edgemont is the sort that delights the student of blood lines. His sire, the sensational young Stallion Beau Ideal 2.15 1-4, was a fast race horse and a grand show horse, winning everything at National horse show, New York, in 1904. Dare Devil 2.09 1-4, his grandsire, and Mambrino King, his great grandsire, both won everything before them at National horse.

Edgemont Ideal won three year old class and second in grand championship class at National show. He has also shown in six saddle rings and never been defeated. The above stallion is without doubt one of the hand-somest horses in the country and good judges pronounce him an improvement on his sire.

Edgemont Ideal is making the season of 1915 at the Fair Grounds, Nacogdoches, Tex., at the reduced rate of $25.00 with return privilege.

At 5:30 p. m. at the Banita hotel, this dignified organization was royally banqueted.

There were 30 guests served this feast and many toasts given, in brilliant style from the speakers.

INBREEDING IN EDUCATION

"In round numbers," says a special writer for the San Antonio Express, in a recent issue of that paper, "2,500 students obtain instruction yearly within the walls of the University of Texas. Above 1,000 students go out into the state yearly, a portion with a full university course to their credit, the remainder having done one, two, or three years work in the institution.

"This leaven of advanced education being mixed and absorbed by the state each year makes incalculably for progress. There is danger of inbreeding in education, just as there is danger of inbreeding in people or in cattle.

"Suppose, for a moment, a state without higher institutions of learning to carry on the work begun in the common schools. Is it not clear that education would thus be reduced to narrow limits? The high school graduate becomes a teacher in the lower grades, and is eventually promoted to the higher grades and on to the high school. The high school then becomes officered and taught by its own graduates who have received no further training. There is no introduction of new thought, no widening of the horizon of knowledge or of methods, no new inspiration, or new ideals, and the machine's original impetus is overcome gradually by natural friction until the thing barely moves at all. It dies down like an unaided pendulum. You have inbreeding in education with all the deformities and weaknesses incident to inbreeding in the animal world.

"The higher educational institution of a state," continues this writer, "are the natural intermediaries between the common schools and the vast world of ideas and inspiration developed by the best thought and the highest paid talent in all the great educational institutions of Christendom. For example, a new and improved method of teaching modern languages is developed in some foreign country. It is the business of the higher educational institutions of a state to secure an exponent of this method direct from Germany for its faculty. This teacher teaches his students in the new method, they, in turn, go out as teachers in the state spreading the new method, and pretty soon it has permeated the whole educational system of the state. This is merely an example. It may not be a new method, but a new and original thought, or a new store of knowledge that is communicated in the same way. The point is that the higher educational institution maintains touch with the world of ideas and transmits new and advanced methods and fresh knowledge throughout all of its dependent institutions. It is as important to the vast school system of the state as the switchboard is to the telephone exchange. It is 'central' for the communication of new ideas, new methods, fresh knowledge, vaster inspiration."

There was an important meeting of leading business men held in the city hall Wednesday morning. There were fifteen men present and they talked over several matters of public interest. Good roads was a prominent topic, and the importance was shown by the fact that Douglass is going to Alto for trade, on account of better roads, but ought to trade here, and would do so if the roads were right.

Uncle Sam doesn't want to spring a row with Mexico Germany or any body. She is neutral as to other peoples disputes. She has business at home, and doesn't want to start a racket.

TESTING TEXAS ROAD MATERIALS. UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS BUREAU OF ECONOMIC GEOLOGY

Millions of dollars per year are voted for road building in Texas, and increasing millions will be voted as the state becomes wealthier and more populous. The proper spending of this money is an enormous problem. The University of Texas is contributing to the solution by training young men in engineering and the installation of a first-class roads material testing laboratory, where over a thousand samples of Texas roads material have been tested in the last few months and recommendations made concerning each sample.

Above is a scene in the roads testing laboratory, at the University of Texas, in Austin, where the Bureau of Economic Geology is testing various stones and gravels which are found in Texas, with a view to determining their suitability for road construction. The United States Office of Public Roads maintains such a laboratory in Washington, but the University laboratory is as complete an establishment of its kind as can be found in the country. The director of this laboratory hopes to be able to test, analyze, catalogue every material of use in road-building in the state, and publish results of all such investigations for free distribution. County road engineers, commissioners, owners of gravel pits or limestone quarries, or indeed, any one interested in having tests made of available road material can secure a report upon the same by sending samples to the University Bureau of Economic Geology.

City Water

Mayor Matthews says that the city authorities are greatly distressed about the muddy water in the hydrants, and they have been doing their very best to obviate the trouble, or to clear up the water. Much could be said about it, but to make it short, they have decided to use the artesian water for all ordinary purposes, and, in case of fire, they will turn on the pond water also.

It is possible that the supply of artesian water will be sufficient for family use. It not so the other water will be turned on with the artesian water.

In order to use the artesian water a pump is necessary, and alderman Reid has gone to Beaumont to buy the pump Mr. G. A. Blount says that if the pump fails to meet the demands air pressure can be used, and he has no doubt of its success.

To sum up the situation, good water is coming, and that at the earliest possible date.

Symphony Reception

The south ell of the beautiful home, of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lindsey, which is the commodious music room, was filled to overflowing Tuesday afternoon with eager guests to attend the Symphony reception.

It consists of vocal, violin and piano numbers in solos, duo, quartets and choruses and each number is a production of the highest class music.

The club is highly pleased with the number of friends who attended, the interest shown was beyond expectations.

Delicious brick cream in delicate pink and white colors was served.

Miss Mary Crawford left Sunday for Denton, where she will enter school.

Washington, May 28.—In line with his announced determination to develop the submarine arm of the navy and amend its present faults, Secretary Daniels today designated Capt. W. L. Grant, one of the highest ranking officers of his grade, to command the Atlantic submarine flotilla and exercise general supervision over that branch of the service.

Captain Grant, who now commands the battleship Texas, will assume his new duties next month with headquarters aboard the flotilla flagship. He will have his assistants Commander Yates Sterling now commanding the flotilla and an expert on underwater craft whose testimony before a congressional investigation during the last session gave the public some details about the weaknesses of the boats under his charge.

A department statement issued tonight said:

"While Captain Grant will be in active command of the Atlantic submarine flotilla and aboard the flagship assigned to the commander of the flotilla, he will also have general supervision of the submarines in the Pacific and in other parts of the world, the idea being that a determined effort be made to put every effort unit of the submarine flotilla in first-class condition. Captain Grant will be given large powers."

It is reported from Washington City that President Wilson is about to "read the riot act" to Mexico. In other words he is going to say to Mexico "quit your follies." As a matter of fact, Mexico is not governed by the people, nor is the war authorized by the people. There is no lawful rule. Disorder and confusion reign, and humanity suffers, not only there but also in lands connected therewith. So, listen for the word.

Ed R. Ashley, of Decoy, five miles south of here on the H. E. & W. T. railway, brought the Sentinel a collard stalk 7 feet high, and with branches loaded with seed spreading out 4 feet. It is a whopper. He also brought a bunch of oats that is yet green and having a bunch of stems about equal to a bundle of oats. He says this bunch was cultivated and he thinks cultivated oats would pay.

The Cotton Belt going north this morning had among its passengers six representatives from Alto en route to Richmond, Va., to be present at the reunion of the confederate veterans. The Ross Ector camp sent as its delegates, Chas. Scully and W. M. Armstrong of Alto and others! Accompanying these were H. W. Berryman, Sam Harrison, M. S. Pyle and Geo. Terrell. The Jacksonville camp, U. C. V., will not be represented at the reunion; T. T. Martin was elected a delegate but is not going. —Jacksonville Progress.

The Dallas News says that the bill to establish three more normal schools in Texas seems to have fallen by the wayside, and that there was no necessity for them, and therefore "the failure of this bill was a happy mischance." It furthermore says the scheme seemed to have sprung from political sources rather than educational, and that it will await another session of the legislature. If the News be correct as to the status of the bill there will be quite a lot of disappointed people.

The Gibson bill, that has created a great fuss in the Texas legislature, and was designed to allow the big life insurance companies to return to Texas, was lost in the senate by 16 to 11 votes. Gov. Ferguson, Senator King and Representative Russell all favored it.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES YOUR LIVER! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and You Don't Lose a Day's Work

Live up your sluggish liver! Feel fine and cheerful; make your work a pleasure; be vigorous and full of ambition. But take no nasty, dangerous calomel because it makes you sick and you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into your life like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. Listen to me! If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working; headache and dizziness gone; stomach will be sweet and bowels regular.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of Calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

Germany's Reply Seen.

London, May 28.—The Evening News publishes a dispatch from The Hague giving reports from Berlin that Germany's reply to the American note will be prepared tomorrow.

"It will be of a temporizing character," the dispatch continues, "and will ask the United States either to affirm or deny that the Lusitania carried ammunition destined for the allies."

The county jail is empty. It has not had a prisoner for days and days. This is the first time in years that the jail has had no prisoner. Sheriff Spradley says there is but little chance on prospect of an arrest. The criminal dockets are nearly clear. There are just a few cases on them. So in a general way our big old county is good, and may remain good.

Five years ago it was thought nonsense to try automobiles in this county. Good roads had barely started. But, oh, what a change has come. Good roads are all the go, and automobiles are here to the number of nearly 200, and increasing rapidly.

For 16 senators to differ with the governor and 12 senators, and stand pat against the Gibson bill, is much like divided opinions on theology. All claim to be for the people, and accuse their opponents of being biased by personal prejudices. The point of view and color of optics are misleading.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

Colored Wedding.

A wedding occurred Wednesday evening at the Gallilee colored church which a number of white folks will be interested in. The parties were Mrs. Lizzie Curl to Rev. Garland of Henderson.

Lizzie is a well known colored woman and very much liked by "the white folks."

The wedding was quite a tasty affair, the bride being dressed in pale blue messaline and her attendants, the flower girls and maid of honor in pretty costume to harmonize with the bride's.

Congratulations are extended to Rev. and Mrs. Garland.

Governor On Life Insurance Bill

"We lost. It was no trouble to answer the arguments of the stockholders and general attorneys of Texas life insurance companies out of the Senate, but the votes of stockholders and attorneys of the Texas insurance companies in the Senate were too much for us.

I regret that the bill did not pass. I am not sore or discouraged. The people will speak in due time and the politician will run to cover. One of the issues to be decided in the next campaign will be: Shall we have an insurance money trust in Texas?"—Governor James E. Ferguson.

A band of Mexican bandits from Villa's forces, came across the Rio Grande near Valentine, and routed the Texas rangers and river guards. The Mexicans captured the horses, and may have killed two of the Americans, as they are missing.

Chief Justice Brown of Texas Court Dies
Greenville, Tex., May 26.—Chief Justice Thomas J. Brown of the Texas Supreme Court died in a hospital here today after an illness of three weeks.

Chief Justice Brown's home was in Sherman. He had been here for treatment for cancer of the stomach.

Judge Brown, who was in his eightieth year, had been on the supreme bench 22 years having been appointed by Governor Hogg. For the past five years he had been chief justice. He was born in Jasper county, Georgia, coming to Texas before the civil war.

He served as captain in the Confederate army. He was widely known throughout the state as a successful lawyer for many years before he was appointed to the Supreme Court, and had been a member of several prominent law firms. He lived at McKinney before moving to Sherman.

The chief justice is survived by four daughters, Mrs. C. E. Craycroft and Mrs. L. C. Chapman, both of Sherman; Mrs. J. S. Myrick of Anstine and Mrs. J. H. Blocker of Dallas.

Burial will be at Sherman. Definite arrangements will be made later.

No Redistricting

Austin, Texas, May 25.—Senate committee on congressional districts today held a meeting and reported favorably its bill by Senator Clark; that is, the Clark bill was substituted for the bill passed in the house. This means that there will be no congressional redistricting, as the two bills are radically different.

First Peaches.

Green Curtis, colored, living 4 miles north of town, brought in the first peaches that we have heard of being marketed this year Monday and shipped them to Dallas. He said they were the Mamie Ross variety. — Jacksonville Progress.

Buying at Home

I bought some rags of Tailor Skaggs, and paid him when I got 'em; he wept with glee; "For now," said he, "I'll pay my bills, dod rot 'em." So on the run he took the mon, and paid the corner grocer, whose trade was bad, and who was sad, because the wolt drew closer. This made him smile, and for a while the man of teas and sages, thought cheerful thinks, forgot the kinks, and paid his clerks their wages. And William Burk, the old head clerk, put up some thankful phrases; his wife was ill—the druggist's bill had worried him like blazes. The druggist cried, "Doggone your hide, I thank you for these roubles; I'm in the hole and need a roll to ease my weight of troubles." The druggist paid that winsome maid, his first assistant, Anne, and just for luck she blew a buck for roller skates for granny. And thus my seads brought help to lads and girls beyond the counting much trouble ceased, and joy increased, and kept on mounting, mounting. You see, my friend, if you should spend your coin with local dealers, you're spreading glee and ecstasy to beat the sunshine spielers. Walt Mason.

Chicken Salad Case

Austin, Tex., May 27.—The so-called chicken salad and punch injunction case, wherein Representative Middleton is plaintiff and Comptroller Terrell defendant, was on trial today before Judge George Calhoun in the Fifty-third district court. It was decided to waive a jury. Judge like D. White, an Austin attorney, is representing Governor Ferguson. At the session today grocers who sold merchandise to the executive mansion during the Colquitt administration were on the stand. Former Governor Colquitt may be called upon to testify.

The Jacksonville Progress is correct, as quoted below. Nacogdoches expects to get that Normal, because of her merits. But we don't intend to abandon all other good purposes.

No matter whether Jacksonville gets the normal or not we should go right ahead with our work of improving the town and the country adjoining. Lets have better roads.

And, at last the pinnacle of trouble has been reached, as a result of the wars and the rumors of wars. Diamonds have gone up. That is awful. In fact it is sickening. It is now in order to wear sack cloth and ashes. Oh humanity, humanity, let us weep and wail and gnash our teeth, and tear our hair. The world has gone crazy.

Governor Removes Prison Commissioner.
Austin, Texas, May 26.—By a proclamation issued today by Governor Ferguson, W. O. Stamps was removed as a member of the board of prison commissioners. The proclamation alleges that he "has been guilty of acts calculated to disrupt discipline in the penitentiary system of Texas."

"It is alleged in the proclamation that Commissioner Stamps agreed to the sale of many thousands of bushels of corn, raised in the prison system, which he well knew at time would soon be needed in cultivation of the penitentiary farms, and agreed to the sale of same at approximately 60 cents a bushel, when by the use of ordinary business precautions, he knew or must have known that the system must within a few months have to pay approximately 90 cents a bushel." It is also charged that Stamps has agreed "to the sale of many thousands of gallons of syrup, needed in the feeding of the prisoners of the penitentiary system, at 20 cents a gallon, when by the use of ordinary and reasonable business precaution he knew or could have known that the prison system would have to and is now being required to purchase new syrup at approximately 40 cents a gallon."

Five to Die by Hanging.

Florence, Ariz., May 28.—The state board of pardons and paroles debated for an hour this morning without result the fate of the five Mexicans condemned to die today between 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. Warden Sims' secretary at 10 o'clock entered the cell of the condemned men to take their last statements and their wills. Guards meanwhile drew lots to determine who should spring the trap.

Great Lakes to Gulf Water Route.

Springfield, Ill., May 25.—By a vote of 107 to 41 the lower house of the legislature late today passed Governor Dunne's waterway bill, providing for the construction of an eight-foot channel connecting the Chicago drainage canal with the Illinois river, thereby creating a direct water route between the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico via the Mississippi river.

At present the Illinois is navigable up to LaSalle and the Chicago drainage canal extends from Chicago to Joliet. The bill passed today provides for the building of a connecting waterway over the 65 miles between Joliet and LaSalle at a cost of $5,000,000. The bill was immediately sent to the senate, where further action may be had on it this week.

Pope to Pray for Italy.

Rome, May 27. Via Paris—Our prayers will go out more frequently than ever to those who have in their hands the fate of nations," is a declaration made by Pope Benedict in a letter to Cardinal Vannutelli, published in the Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ. The Pontiff recalls his first encyclical, in which he urged the belligerent nations to make peace, but points out that his voice was unheeded, and the war continued until "the terrible conflagration has extended to our beloved Italy."

Poor Poland, and poor Belgium are not all the distresses, not by a lot. Poor Mexico is on the list. The masses of the people there are not taking stock in the war, but they are suffering for food and shelter. What is to become of them.

THAT TIRED FEELING

Do You Continually Feel Sluggish, Disinterested?

If you do, it is probably caused by your liver. When the liver fails to perform its functions properly, the system becomes clogged with poisonous matter, that weighs you down mentally and physically.

The liver gets out of order very easily, and if neglected chronic trouble usually results. Don't delay if you feel badly. You knowingly lay yourself open to life long pain, when you allow yourself to continue in a run down condition. Cure yourself quickly and harmlessly with the natural vegetable remedy, Liv-Ver-Lax. It has all the effectiveness, but not the effect, of calomel.

Genuine Liv-Ver-Lax bears the likeness and signature of L. K. Grigsby, and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Insist on it. For sale by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

Mrs. Will Reagin returned home Sunday from Groveton.

H. L. Austin's Death.

Many people in Nacogdoches have never forgotten H. L. Austin, the brick man who lived here so long and worked here so much. He died in the Terrell assylum last Saturday, and was buried at Cushing last Sunday.

He was born and raised at Shreveport, but no relatives are there. He came to Longview, and there laid brick with John M. Duncan. From there he came here, thirty one years ago, and he lived here, married here and raised his family here, for many years before he moved to Cushing, his last home. Most of his time here he was a partner of Lit Herring in brick work, and they did lots of building. Adversity and misfortune hit poor Austin hard during his last years.

He lost his wife and six or seven children, besides her parents Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith. Then he lost his health and holdings, and even his mind.

He is survived by a son and two daughters who now live at Sacul. One of the daughters is Mrs. Williamson. They still have the little family home at Cushing.

Mr. Austin in his better days handled heavy contracts here and did a large business. In the Wettermark bank failure he lost out, and never recovered his business.

He was a member of the Baptist church, and was kindly esteemed by all acquaintances.

Library Report.

This report falls short some 300 copies this month, the out put being 500 volumes compared to 800 in April.

This is largely due to the busy days of school closing but the management hopes the parents and children will enjoy its books together this vacation. A common interest helps hold people together stronger than any other one thing and if the parents will read with their children, both will broaden.

Miss Burrows was out last week on account of illness, but the library is open again now, and books are requested to be returned this week or fines will have to be imposed. There are about 60 books unreturned, many past due and these are wanted also.

Scarborough Front.

Editor Sentinel:
I thought I heard some one say, Scarborough Front. Where is it?

It is so large until I thought every one knew where it was so I will try to give the location and a description of it.

It is located just 6 miles from Nacogdoches on the Nacogdoches and Looneyville road surrounded by beautiful pines and bays.

An accident occurred to the Front last Wednesday night. A large oak tree blew across the steam pipes pulling them loose from the engine, and knocked the smoke stack down, and demolished it, therefore the grinding was delayed until Saturday afternoon.

We had quite a storm here Wednesday night. The wind blew and the rain and hail fell, and this dog gon old sand went rolling off toward the Angelina. We will soon have a claim in the river bottom if it keeps going, and we will just move down on it.

But we still have sow stomach, potatoes, beans, cabbage and dewberry pie to let in spite of the panic.

H. C. Myers, says it thunders one time in June he will lose his crop. He has three plow hands and 0 hoe hands, and has 10 acres in cotton and 15 in corn.

Willie Manning entertained a few of his friends Saturday night and served ice cream.

A crowd of young people went to Nat Sunday and report a nice time.

Willie Manning and his sister Bertie, were callers at the Dorsett home Sunday.

Eugene Pettey also called at the Dorsett home Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. G. B. Campbell visited Mrs. Stacy Sunday.

Hollis Parmelly of Cherokee county, spent the week with relatives and friends.

S. S. Myers and Wiley Stone say they will have to leave the country if they ever get married, for the old folks always tell them there is plenty good room down the road. We wish those 2 young men a great success in their undertaking.

Fieldon Myers says he is tired of living in Nacogdoches county and he thinks he will move to Cherokee county soon but he says all he hates about moving is he will have to cross the Angelina river, and it always makes his head swim to cross big waters.

Floyd Harvin was seen passing through the country Sunday on horse back we do not know why he wasn't in his buggy unless the boys have all deserted him.

Scott.

The Sentinel yesterday clipped an item from the Dallas News, about the musical talent of little Miss Lena Rulfs, daughter of Tony Rulfs, born and raised here, and who has parents, relatives and friends here, and by accident failed to explain these facts. Little Lena is only nine years old and is almost a musical prodigy. She occasionally visits her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Rulfs in Nacogdoches.
