Mexico is Good Now

General Carranza's leading man Nafarete has been promoted, and he now speaks as on having authority. He says "My boys didn't shoot across the river." We are very glad to learn this. Then we did n't shoot his boys across the river. Whose boys then? He would probably say no boys, or he might express it in the usual Spanish slang "quien-sabe". And that is the amen of it. This recalls the saying accredited to General John R. Baylor, viz: "A good Indian is a dead Indian," and to apply the doctrine to the Mexican bandits we might say "Yes, those Mexicans are innocent, and many of them are good Mexicans" not Carranza's boys.

Mrs. Pate Died

Mrs. Pate the mother of the six children heretofore mentioned as being cared for by public charities, died Tuesday about 7 p. m. One of the children, the youngest, died last week. Two are sick in the Tucker Hospital. The father of the children, has been with them doing all he could for them. He is said by his most intimate neighbor.

To Bore for Oil

Now, that's the way it is. Some tellers over yonder at Jacksonville are going to bore for oil. That is because they saw us at it. They needn't be too smart, and try to beat us to it, because they might bore a dry well or a water well, instead of an oil well. Wait and watch us. We are experts.

Rev. Jephtha Haynes Swann who has been rector of Christ church here for a year and a half, left Wednesday for New York. He will spend the winter there in a seminary. His sister, Miss Swann, accompanies him as far as Chicago, and later will join Mr. Swann in New York. Nacogdoches regrets their departure.

WAGONS

Do you want to own an "Owensboro?"

They are best, because--

The wheels are made of the very best grade whiteoak timber with extra deep felloes. "A" select and second growth spokes; extra large whiteoak hubs. Each wheel is saturated with linseed oil before being painted.

The gears are made from strictly clear whiteoak and nothing but up-land second growth hickory is used for axles, single-trees, double trees and neck-yokes. All parts extra large and well proportioned.

The ironing on the "Owensboro" you will find heavier and better than on any other wagon. The tires are bolted and set hot under hydraulic pressure.

These are just a few reasons why the "Owensboro" wagon is the best wagon for you to own. We are anxious to show you the wagon ITSELF.

Will you come in and look at it?

Johnson Alive, A Captive
Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 27

—Mexicans living near Progreso Crossing have spread a story that Private Richard J. Johnson of the Twelfth Cavalry, who has been missing since last Friday's fight, was seen a prisoner on the Mexican side of the river shortly after the fight. The last heard of Johnson he was believed to have been sent he Progreso river from, with several hundred Mexicans in the brush near him, either across the river or on the American side. Unless corroborative evidence is developed no serious reliance be placed on this report. Major Edward Anderson of the Twelfth Cavalry went today to the vicinity of Progreso Crossing for further investigation of the situation there.

Austin Favored For Epworth.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—At least two members of the committee appointed to select permanent grounds for the Epworth League encampment of the Methodist Church at Austin, one of these being A. K. Ragsdale of San Antonio, chairman of the committee, who recently spent two days here looking over proposed sites on Lake Austin. Mr. Ragsdale was particularly pleased with the country along the lake front, declaring he did not suppose that Austin could boast of such scenery. A meeting of the committee is to be held within the next month or so, when it is expected that some definite action will be taken in the matter.

Ransom Money To Bandits

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 25.—W. C. McCabe, foreman of the Cudahy ranch at Santo Domingo, reached Villa Ah today with the ransom money for the release of E. P. Fuller, manager of the ranch who is held captive in the Rancheria Mountains, fifty-five miles back from the railroad at that point. McCabe is expected to reach the bandits by tomorrow. The outlaws are said to be, commanded by the Miranda brothers and include in their number one of the leaders who held Edward L. Edgewise of the Pearson corporation for ransom recently. The band is said to be composed of followers of the late General Orozco.

Indians Burn Train With 80 Passengers.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 27.—Eighty passengers of a Southern Pacific Mexican train were thrown into a car containing hay and the car set on fire by a band of Yaqui Indians Friday near Torros, Sonora, according to radio advices received here from Hermosillo, via Guyamas. Only 20 passengers have been accounted for thus far, the others having been burned to death.

So far as is known, no Americans were on the train.

For National Defence

Were the National conventions to meet tomorrow instead of next year there can be no doubt that they would declare National defense the paramount issue.

Former Senator Theodore E. Burton's confession of faith in his conversion to a greater navy is a wholesome sign of the change which has come over the former peace advocates.

Had the recommendations of the general board of the navy been accepted by Congress the navy of the United States would have remained the second in the world and at least ten additional super-dreadnaughts, with proportional quotas of other types of naval vessels, would now be in commission. Congress chose instead to accept the role of inferiority, with the consequence that the United States is learning the bitter truth that "to be weak is to be miserable." Dreams of universal peace have been dispelled and 14-inch guns are the only diplomats listened to with respect.

Too much precious time has already been lost to waste more in recrimination, but the United States, having learned the lesson, would be guilty of criminal folly if any effort were now neglected to regain lost ground.

Without omitting any elements of naval strength necessary to regain our position, the situation demands an immediate and drastic increase in submarines. Admiral Fiske has shown us that five years would be required adequately to prepare the navy for war. Drednaughts or battle cruisers laid down the earliest possible date would not be ready until 1919. The shipbuilding plants and navy yards of this country have a capacity for producing one hundred submarines within the year, and doubtless would accomplish this feat were the Nation involved in war.

The cost of these vessels would be less than England is spending every four days of the war. The first act of the next Congress should provide for this submarine program as best and quickest means of securing safety at home and respect abroad.—Beaumont Journal

The Sentinel was not informed as to the exact number of bales of cotton shipped last week over the N. & S. E. Railway and as to the point to which it was shipped nor the whys and wherefores. There was only 275 bales, and it went to Galveston. The Sentinel did not say why, and is not posted. But men differ on matters of business, and this seems to be in that line. As to going around home enterprises and patronizing others, there is no argument. Everybody favors home business, if the price is right. But sometimes personal feelings lead off wrong. As to the financial features of handling cotton the Sentinel is not prepared to debate.

Peanuts, Pindars Goobers or Groundpeas

The Shelby Optimist says in a few words quoted below.

Peanuts (or "pendars" as they say in South Carolina and goober as they say in Georgia) are being harvested here in great quantities and will be used for various kinds of feed. The yield has been heavy, and hogs, mules and cattle all will come in for a liberal share of the luxury when the winter months arrive. Peanuts are the choicest feed for fine blooded stock, and should be fed sparingly to poor white trash and sorry niggers.

But the use of the name is peanuts in Texas, and some other southern localities, and in Georgia it is goober, where the "goober grabblers" grow and in Louisiana and West Indies, it is pindars. But where they are called ground peas, and what their botanical name is has not been revealed. All the same, what's in a name if the stuff is good.

Test of Divorce Law

(San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 23.)—The authority of the legislature to prevent a divorced person from marrying again within one year from the date of divorce is to be tested in the local district courts. A case in point has occurred and the matter will be brought probably before District Judge S. G. Tayloe, Attorney A. B. Cowen presenting the facts.

A couple was divorced by Judge Tayloe and within two months the woman married again. The former husband has retained Mr. Cowen to test the law and have his wife cited for contempt of the court's decree or else punished for breaking a state law.

The divorce had been granted on the ground of "cruel and inhuman" treatment and legislative enactment which says that neither party may marry anyone else within the year. Mr. Cowen's client wants the law upheld he says.

England Wants Economy

The war has put England to studying economy. Money has become very scarce and the forecast is gloomy as to how to run the war and other expenses.

The parliamentary war savings committee is asking for a pledge toward economy in a list of expenditures which it says has been drawn up by experts before being adopted officially. This pledge binds the singers, men as well as women, for the period of the war:

Not to build a house for personal occupancy.

Not to give any present except in the form of war loan vouchers.

Not to use motor cars unless for charity or on official business.

Not to entertain in restaurants.

To ignore the changes of fashion.

To limit expenditure on mourning attire and on funerals.

To discharge all servants except those absolutely necessary.

President May Call Special Session of Senate

Washington, Sept. 22.—The advisability of calling a special session of the senate within the next month is being seriously considered by President Wilson, it was said today at the White House. If the session is called it will be primarily to give the senate an opportunity to revise its rules in order to curtail debate. The president, it was said, would reach a decision in the matter within a week or ten days.

If a special session is called pending treaties with Colombia and Nicaragua would come up for consideration. Senator Stone, the foreign relations committee, told the president today that he believed a session should be called.

The signs for peace in Mexico are not visible just yet. If the conference should decide that Carranza be recognized, it would provoke increased opposition from Villa and his followers, and also from other disgruntled sources. And these opposing factions could and would continue their resistance indefinitely and informally. If Villa and Zapata both are not satisfied, no peace can be enforced. They will stir up trouble all around.

Honor Roll Veterans

The Shelby Optimist has the following praiseworthy expression of good sentiment: Passing down the street last afternoon the newspaper man met Capt. Jas. W. Truitt and Judge John T. McLamore, two veterans and what might be correctly termed, hero citizens of the county, who are important parts in the county's history. In fact, they have been prominent here for half a century or more, and how appropriate it would be to show them, along with the others of their kind and order, some special honor to brighten their lives in their declining years and make the cup sweet to the very bottom. The Optimist believes in bestowing flowers upon the living where it is so greatly deserved.

Fire Insurance Key Rate

Daily Sentinel,
Nacogdoches, Texas.

Dear Sirs: In compliance with your personal request of recent date, I am pleased to inform you of the purpose that necessitated my visit to your city, relying on your discretion and good judgment to utilize same along lines which I trust will tend to the benefit of your citizens collectively.

Within the past few months many suspicious fires have occurred in your city; and, apparently, but inefficient, if any effort, has been made to trace the cause or source of their origin; and, from observation, indications are not promising but that a like inefficiency in investigating such fires will continue.

The State Fire Insurance Commission has credited the city of Nacogdoches by a reduction in its key rate for the appointment of a paid City Fire Marshal and the embodying in its local ordinances that of the Department's "Advisory Ordinance" in which is fully set forth the duties of a city Fire Marshal.

These duties consist of a monthly inspection being made of the mercantile district of the city, and where dangerous fire hazards are found such should be corrected or removed by him; the origin of all fires occurring within the corporate limits should claim his immediate attention by a full investigation of their cause and the then forwarding to the State Fire Marshal in detail the results of such investigation.

As stated, for this service the city has been credited with a reduction in its key rate, but I regret to say, no compensative returns up to the present have been received by the State Fire Insurance Commission, and it presents inadequate Fire Marshal's services are permitted to longer continue the Commission will be impelled to raise the city's key rate.

It must be borne in mind that the primary object in granting a reduction in key rate to all cities and towns furnishing the services of a competent paid Fire Marshal is that the fire waste throughout the State may be reduced to a point where a general reduction in fire rates would be permissible.

I am hopefully confident that, in the interest of the insuring residents and citizens in general of your city, your city officials will see their way clear to give this Fire Marshal question their immediate future attentive consideration; and, with your able assistance in contributing to this end, I can buoyantly anticipate favorable action.

Thanking you for courtesies received, I am, with esteem regards,

Yours very truly,
Fred Wilson,
Special Inspector, S. F. I. Com

Wheat Will Kill Hogs

There is very little wheat grown in this county. Three or four hundred bushels is about the total raised this year. But every body should be taught that wheat fed to hogs will kill them.

Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Maryland "Father of Religious Liberty in America"

HISTORY proves, to their eternal honor, that the Catholics were the first in America to advocate the Freedom of all sects to worship at any shrine they chose to bend a knee. Of all the cavaliers of Maryland, none were more noble and none adored Liberty more than Charles Carroll, who, with his kinsman, Archbishop John Carroll, strove for the hereditary rights of mankind to practice Civil and Religious Liberty. Carroll was one of the richest and most learned men in the Colonies and when he proudly affixed his name to our immortal Declaration of Independence he courted the confiscation of his vast estates. A bystander facetiously remarked, as he did so, "There goes a few millions." He was elected to the National Convention which adopted the Constitution of the United States, but illness forbade his attendance. His cousin, though, Daniel Carroll, signed our National Law, which forever guarantees to Americans Civil, Religious and Personal Liberty.

Carroll's manners were easy, affable and graceful; in all the elegancies of polite society few men were his superiors. His hospitality was nothing short of royal and he was a lifetime user of light wines and barley brews. He died in his 95th year, the last survivor of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and was looked upon with reverential regard by rich and poor alike. Fifty-eight years ago Anheuser-Busch launched their great institution and have always brewed honest beers—the kind the illustrious Carroll loved to quaff. Day by day their famous brews have grown in popular favor, until 7500 people are constantly required to keep pace with the public demand. Their great brand BUDWEISER, because of its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sales of all other beers by millions of bottles.

Peace on Rio Grande.

Brownsville, Sept. 22.—As an evidence of the restoration of security from bandit attacks on this border some requests to withdraw troops were made today to Colonel Robert L. Bullard by rural communities near Harlingen and San Benito. A statement signed by about two hundred Mexicans was published here today promising co-operation with the American residents of this valley in restoring order. A strong force in restoring quiet appears to be the stoppage of indiscriminate killing of Mexicans which has been charged against some peace officers. No violent deaths of Mexicans without the semblance of legal formalities have been reported for several days.

To Relocate King's Highway.

Beaumont, Texas, Sept. 24.—Captain V. N. Zivley, appointed by the Governor to relocate the king's highway across Texas, is in Beaumont making up his party which is to start from the Sabine River Monday morning.

He has made a preliminary survey and is now planning to make the final survey.

Through the influence of the Daughters of the Republic a bill was passed at the last Legislature appropriating the money for this work.

GERMANY CONCILIATORY

A late dispatch from Washington says: "Considered with reference to the entire controversy between Germany and the United States, the Frye note is regarded as an indication that the Berlin foreign office is anxious to avert a break with the Washington government. This increased today interest in Germany's attitude toward the negotiations with regard to the Arabic."

Defending Panama

When national defense problems are given the really serious consideration during the fall and winter months, especial attention should be given to the Panama Canal and its fortifications, for in truth it is one of the greatest naval assets today possessed by the United States. So long as it can be held successfully, there will be little trouble in being able to handle our fleets between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans with all possible speed. And so long as it can be held successfully, our fleets will enjoy a wonderful advantage over any nation that might seek to invade the United States—something that may never happen and yet must be provided against.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful to-night and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

The following from the Dallas Times-Herald will be read with interest by many people.

"Honoring Rev. Dr. George W. Truett and Mrs. Truett, several hundred members of the First Baptist Church, where Doctor Truett on last Sunday closed his eighteenth year as pastor, gathered at the church Thursday night. The reception was informal. During the evening hundreds of people not members of the Baptist Church called to pay tribute to one of the most beloved and best known ministers of the South.

"As a token of the high esteem in which Doctor Truett is held, he was presented with a fine seven-passenger automobile. The presentation was made by Hon. Cullen F. Thomas, master of ceremonies for the evening. Doctor Truett responded with touching words. He paid a glowing tribute to his wife and declared that his success in life must be attributed to her and to the members of his church. He was especially grateful, he said, for the harmony in which the church members had worked during these years.

"During the evening several addresses were delivered. M. H. Wolfe of the board of deacons reviewed the work of the church since Doctor Truett became its pastor. Rev. J. Frank Smith, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, spoke on 'Doctor Truett, the Preacher.' It was a glowing tribute. Mayor Henry D. Lindsley spoke on 'Doctor Truett, the Citizen.'

"So large was the crowd at the reception that for more than an hour Dr. and Mrs. Truett stood in line to shake hands with the callers. In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. Truett, Mr. and Mrs. Cullen F. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Wolfe."

The Newton News tells of two men having found twenty three rattlesnakes and a wild cat in a hollow log near the Sabine river. A log like that ought to be a sufficient prescription to procure about fifteen gallons of the usual remedy for snakebite in dry territory.

Mesa Verde Cliff Dwelling
Many visitors to the prehistoric Cliff Dwellings of the Mesa Verde National Park in southwestern Colorado are astonished to find that what is commonly described as a dwelling is not properly a dwelling at all but a village or city. The celebrated Cliff Palace is not a palace. Neither is the Spruce Tree House a house, nor Balcony House a house. Each of these is a complete town which once, in the dim ages before the earliest Indian tradition, was an organized community, often of considerable size.

The arrangement of houses in a cliff dwelling of the size of Cliff Palace, for example, is characteristic and intimately associated with the distribution of the social divisions of the inhabitants. The population was composed of a number of units, possibly clans, each of which had its own social organization more or less distinct from others, a condition that appears in the arrangement of rooms. The rooms occupied by a clan were not necessarily connected, although generally neighboring rooms were distinguished from one another by their uses.

Garrison Glories
Editor Sentinel:

Garrison certainly appreciates your kindly notices of the price being paid for cotton here. Cotton is coming from all sections of the country and business has quadrupled in the past week. This is all due to a live-wire business organization. Cotton sold here today for 11 7-16 and we are, all, business man farmer, feeling good and "happy on the way." Good health, modern school, superior mineral water, enterprising local newspaper, and a virile business league, have Garrison placed on the map.
Yours appreciatingly,
Rho Garrison.

Relatives are in receipt of letters from Capt. T. S. Garrison, who is now in Houston stating that he is improving rapidly, but that he is unable to walk. Capt. Garrison underwent an operation at Galveston sometime ago; was there during the great storm, but was later moved to his son's home in Houston, where he has been ever since. Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Willis left here several days ago for Houston to be with him and administer to his wants until he fully recovers.—Timpson Times.

Foot Ball Fad.
University of Texas, Sept. 22.—On account of the unusually large number of football candidates, the Longhorn squad will be divided tomorrow. Work has already begun to put Breckenridge Field in readiness to receive part of the squad in order to relieve the congested conditions on Clark Field.

With the arrival of Bob Sherrill on tonight's train, the "family of High School Stars" which the coaches and officials were so anxious to bring to the University will be complete. Sherrill is the last of the much-sought-after stars to join the Texas camp and he is also one of the most desirable ones. "Tex" Ramsdell who had an opportunity to see Sherrill in football for two years at Marshall Training School declared him to be the best center ever developed in Texas High School-Academy class. In appearance he is the typical football husky possessing a wonderful combination of brawn and speed. His experience in San Antonio gives him a sound knowledge of football, and the devotees here hail him as the one great find of the season of whom a great deal is expected in the hard games ahead of the Longhorns.

With the arrival of Sherrill 72 men will be in the Texas camp. Eleven of these are veteran "T" men of one, two and three years standing; seven are second team men from last year; three are transfers from other colleges who were ineligible last year, and thirteen other players who have had one or more years' experience under Allerdice.

Among the swarm of High School Stars who have been here are Lee Sens of Corpus Christi who won the individual medal in the Interscholastic meet last year and played football on the High School team, Homer Waits another Marshall Training School football and track star, Alford Kilgore, last year's quarter back on the San Antonio High School team, Charles Lingle, one of the backs on the Denison team last year and who is making a strong bid for varsity quarter.

More and more Austin people and visitors in the city are being attracted to Clark Field daily to see the practice, and when scrimmage work is begun it will seem like a paid attraction. Coaches Allerdice and Trenkman are putting the men through harder and harder work each day; one of their real problems is to be sure to give everybody a chance and not overlook a star when the culling begins. With the completion of the field some sort of culling must be done, but nobody but the coaches know upon what basis the division will be made.

Misses Alma Houston, Geneva Harris, Ruth Barham and Mintie and Mary Price of Nacogdoches arrived this morning to enter the University. Misses Houston and Barham will be candidates for B. A. degrees this year.—Austin Statesman.

Fifty Falsely Labeled Medicines.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 20.—More than half a hundred legal actions have been terminated successfully under the Sherley Amendment to the Food and Drugs Act, which prohibits false and fraudulent claims as to the curative or therapeutic effects of drugs or medicines. Criminal prosecutions against the manufacturers were brought in 25 cases, but in 31 instances the falsely and fraudulently labeled medicines were seized while in interstate commerce.

It is pointed out that traffic in medicines for which false and fraudulent claims are made is not only an economic fraud of the worst kind, in that a worthless preparation that costs but a few cents is frequently sold for a dollar or more a bottle, but that health, and even life, is endangered by failure to secure the service of a physician in such serious diseases as tuberculosis, diphtheria, pneumonia and scarlet fever, until too late, because reliance may have been placed in the curative powers of some worthless preparation which is claimed to be a never-failing remedy. The deluded victim may not realize his danger until the disease has reached a stage too far advanced for even the ablest physicians to cope with it.

Garrison still seems to lead in cotton quotations. The price there is near 12c. The quotation in Nacogdoches is above 11c.

Talk about peace in Mexico—pshaw—how can wild men be trained. They must be trained in raising. The Mexican masses grew up with bloody education—wild and woolly.

The timid old lady asked the baggage master if her parcel would reach "Frisco intact."

Said that official, "Let's see."

Thereupon, he threw it on the floor. Once, "That's for Chicago." Twice, "That's for Kansas City." Third, "That's for Denver." The fourth time, he dashed it on the floor with extra violence. The box broke. The contents were scattered about.

"You see, mum, it wouldn't reach."

Fortunately, you are not in that position. You do not have to RISK the trial of the various things you need in your home or business. You can pick out a well-known article, one that has been tried and tested for years under high Selder actual working conditions in other reported cases. Among such articles the trade mark "Texaco" has secured for Texaco Products Corporation recognition to which their careful preparation and their suitability for the purpose entitle them.

Whether you use steam, electricity, or gas; whether you operate a farm, cotton gin, laundry, ice plant—anything.

There is a Texaco Product for you—under the "Made-in-Texas" Red-Star-Green-T emblem. Order from your agent.

The Cotton Boll Weevil

The weevils are very numerous over the most of the cotton belt, and unless some means are used this fall to destroy them or unless weather conditions this winter or next spring and summer is favorable for their destruction it will be hard for the farmers to produce even a light cotton crop next year.

Cotton should be gathered as early as possible and cattle put on the fields as soon as cotton is picked. Where practicable it will be well to plow up stalks and burn them as soon as cattle has eaten all foliage off the cotton stalks. By this means and a continued fight next season we should produce a normal crop in spite of the weevil.

But let us not go crazy over cotton, let us plant plenty of feed crops, as we have this year. Let's make our cotton acreage small but profitable. By getting busy now and keeping busy we can greatly increase the yield per acre next year if we don't try to cultivate too much. Success to the farmer.

New Political Party

Over in California there is a city called Fresno, and at this city there is a paper called the Nationalist, and this paper has "started something" and calls it the Nationalist.

It has a code of propositions that sound like Socialism, but it is evidently intended to admit all sorts of politicians who propose and oppose things in general. And this "code" of a catch all trap is to reform the government and perform the feat of operating the peoples business and improving the finances of the land. Man proposes—God disposes.

The European War

It is not easy to tell how the war in Europe runs on. It has too many angles and, as many sides and directions. The dispatches are now to the effect that the German allies have not won in their late efforts. They can whip some fights some times, and all fights some times, but not all fights all times.

The State is probably willing enough to see the taxes of Chambers County remitted until the county recovers from the damage resulting from the coast storm. The difficulty in the way is that if a special session of the legislature must be convened it would cost Texas several times more to remit the taxes than they amount to.—Ex.

The case of the state against Dennis in the district court went to trial Monday. The jury gave the defendant four years. The charge was cow theft. The defendant lived over in Cherokee county near Linnwood.

Geo. W. Cavin is promoting an oil well test, proposition. The site or location in view is 21 miles south of the town of San Augustine, White City, at the terminus of the Cotton Belt railroad. Mr. Cavin took a party down to look over the field. The following named parties were in it: Mr. Snell, an expert oil well man of Shreveport, Mr. Jett, another oil man from Houston, and from Nacogdoches were: Emmett Barham, Bob Lindsey, Luther Swift, S. M. King add Oscar Baxter, and Frank Tucker from San Augustine. They are all convinced.

The pro rata of murders in comparison between this nation and others, and this state and others, shows up badly for us. Why? For two leading reasons, one being the uncertainty of punishment and the other being moral education, which places a low value on human life and a high estimate on honor in deadly personal combat.

W. J. Bryan is billed for a speech in Houston next Sunday night. His subject is "The European War and its lessons for us." It is presumed that the lesson of preparedness will not be endorsed. George Washington favored it, but his day has passed.

Churches to Unite

Ocean Grove, N. J. Sept. 27 —Plans were completed today for a campaign to unite the men of all churches in an effort to extend Christianity under the direction of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. At a conference held here under the direction of the board of foreign missions of the Methodist Church, ended yesterday, preparations were made for a series of meetings of laymen of all churches to be held in 75 of the largest cities of the United States. The first of these conferences will be held in Chicago October 14 to 17 and the final national missionary will be held in Washington April 26. Speakers from churches of all denominations will address these conferences.

That Ardmore Catastrophe

The horrors and the enormity of that gasoline explosion in Ardmore, Okla., is appalling. Fifty five people were killed. Many more were injured, and many had miraculous escapes. Great buildings in entire blocks were demolished, some of them blown away like dust. The destruction was awful.

An Oil Promoter

The Sentinel had a pleasant visit from Mr. A. A. Snell, of Shreveport. He is a practical oil developer, oil well borer, and prospector. He knows the business in every minute detail, and he is enthused over the oil field now being "mobilized," by Geo. W. Cavin.

Assist Your Stomach

To Get Rid of the Poisonous Gases and Fermenting Food.

A good long fast will do this sometimes. A trip to the mountains. Tramping. Roughing it. Yes, very good remedies. But are you going to avail yourself of either one of these remedies. No? Then the next best thing is to try a bottle of Peruna. Take it according to directions. You will have a natural appetite. All gas and fermentation in the stomach will disappear.

Read what Mrs. Emma Bell, Box 204, Fort Pierce, Florida, says: "I was taken suddenly with swelling of the stomach and bowels, and great distress. Very painful. Three doctors gave me no relief. Could not eat anything. Everything soured. I was starving to death. I began taking Peruna and was soon strong enough to do work. After taking five bottles I can truthfully say I am well. I gained twenty pounds."

The soldiers and citizens in the Brownsville region on the Rio Grande have become enraged at the dastardly depravity of the Mexican bandits. The soldiers are furious since they were fired upon and slaughtered, and the citizens have far more to be mad about. There may be some doubts as to what Mexicans are in it, but it is outrageous and unprovoked.

BUILDING CAMPAIGN NOW LAUNCHED FOR CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Many people will be interested to know that the Christian church of this city has launched a building campaign and will in the next few days secure a lot and begin the erection of a suitable edifice in which to worship. The congregation has secured the services of Rev. Tolbert F. Weaver to conduct the campaign and aid them in this worthy enterprise. Mr. Weaver is well known in Eastern Texas and has made a splendid record as a church builder. The congregation is enthusiastic and determined to carry forward the enterprise to a splendid success.

The church has held their Sunday school services in the Ideal Theater for the last several months, but they feel that the time has now come when they must have a real church home. Other churches have been kind enough to allow them the use of their buildings for preaching services for some time, and all Christian hearted people and good citizens will be in sympathy with the efforts they are putting forth to serve the community as a moral force and as a worthy factor in the religious life of our city. Last Sunday Rev. Weaver spoke to an interesting congregation at the First Presbyterian church and began the solicitation of members for financial donations yesterday. meeting with an encouraging response. After canvassing the members it is the intention of the committee to ask the co-operation of all people who are interested in the religious and moral welfare of the community. Bro. Weaver will preach on Sundays during the time he is here and the place of meeting will be announced in the Saturday paper. Committee.

Death Calls Mrs. H. M. Mayo
Mrs. Anna Virginia Mayo, wife of H. M. Mayo, died Monday morning at 2 o'clock at her home, 1507 California Avenue, Hyde Park, after an illness of only a few days. Mrs. Mayo had been ill, but had rallied and it was thought would be much improved Monday morning, but died during a sudden relapse.

Mrs. Mayo has lived in Houston since the fall of 1889 during all of which time Mr. Mayo has been with the Sunset-Central lines, at present acting as head of the industrial and immigrating bureau. She was born in New York City in 1859, and moved to Louisiana shortly afterwards, where she was married to Mr. Mayo in 1885.

Mr. Mayo has many friends in Nacogdoches who will feel a kindly sympathy for him.

New Normal Postponed

Austin, Sept. 27.—The plan to have the members of the Supreme Court change their attitude relative to the appointment of two members of the committee to select the sites for the three proposed state normals, as provided for by an act of the legislature, has been abandoned, according to Lieutenant Governor W. P. Lobby. This means there will be no new state normals until the next legislature convenes and amends the law so as to provide another method of selecting the locating committee.

Young American

"Jeff, come yur to me!" commanded Mr. Bragg Johnson, a prominent resident of the Straddle Ridge neighborhood, in the Grand Old Commonwealth of Arkansas, addressing his small son.

"Go to hell!" was the somewhat reply.
"Looky yur, you young varmint!" roared the father. "Hain't you got no manners a-tall? Say, 'I won't do it!' if that's what you mean. Who do you think you're talkin' to, anyhow—yer maw?"

Mrs. Samson, widow of the Presbyterian educator of Texas who was recently lost in the wild mountain of Estes park in Colorado, will return to Texas. Her husband has not yet been found.

Free Methodist Annual Conference to be Held Here

At the last session of the Texas Annual Conference of the Free Methodist church, we voted for a division of the conference and the organization of a new conference to be known as the East Texas Conference. The general conference, which met in Chicago in June was memorialized to grant the division. The division was granted, and the new conference ordered to be organized and Nacogdoches was selected as the place to hold the first session. It will convene at the Free Methodist church in this city on the 27th day of Oct. at 2:30 p.m.

Now, as we are expecting quite a number of preachers and delegates to be in attendance at this conference, we are going to necessarily be compelled to call upon our friends out side of our denominations to help us entertain them.

This is the second time that we have had the privilege of bringing one of our annual conferences to this city. The first one was held in the old Methodist church about ten years ago, many of you can recall to your memory now the great sermons preached by Bishop Hogue, who presided over that conference.

Now, since the division we will not be so large, but we trust to be in quality the same. The conference will be presided over by Rev. E. Ballenger. I am.
Yours faithfully,
J.N. Tinsley, Pastor.

Lumber Suits to be Settled

Austin, Texas, Sept. 27.—Certain suits filed by the State of Texas against lumber companies for violations of the anti-trust laws in combination of capital to the restraint of trade may be settled within a few days. Attorneys for the lumber companies met today in the office of the attorney general. The issuance of a perpetual injunction against the companies for any further combinations of the nature charged and the payment of a nominal monetary judgement is the likely settlement.

Rev. J. H. Swann, who has been rector of Christ Church for the past eighteen months, will leave next Tuesday, the 28th, for the east, and he will take a course of study in the General Seminary this winter in New York.

The departure of Mr. Swann and his sister will be regretted by their numerous warm friends here, not only in their own church, but in the general citizenship. Each and all who have met them have become attached to them in affection and kindly feeling.

This was manifested last Thursday night at an entertainment given to them at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Tucker by the Guild, which was largely attended by friends as well as members.

Obituary

In remembrance of our friend and school mate, Hardy Burt: One less, one less at home! The charmed circle broken; A dear face missed, day by day from its accustomed place; but, cleansed and saved and perfected by grace, one more in heaven! One less at home! One voice of welcome, hushed, and one farewell word spoken; on the shore where partings come; not, one soul landed more, one more in heaven! one less at home! a sense of loss that meets us at the gate; within a place unfilled and desolate; and far away, our coming to await. One more in heaven! one less at home! chill as the earth, born mist the thought would rise and wrap our feet steps round and dim our eyes; but the bright sunbeam darts eth from the skies. One more in heaven! one less at home! This is not home, where, cramped in earthly mold our sight of Christ is dim, our love is cold, but there, where face to face we shall behold, is home in heaven, one less on earth. Its pain, its sorrow and its toil to share, one less the pilgrims daily cross to bear; one more the crown of ransomed souls to wear at home in heaven, another thought to brighten cloudy days; another theme for thankfulness and praise; another link on high our souls to raise to home and heaven! one more at home! that home where separation can not be, that home whence none is missed eternally, Lord Jesus, grant us all a place with thee, at home in heaven!

A friend.

Street Gravel

The Urbana Gravel Company, whose location is down near Houston on the H. E. & W. T. Ry., has made our city an offer to test their gravel for street paving or Macadamizing, which has been accepted. The offer is that the company will furnish four car loads of gravel f. o. b. there, and the city is to pay the freight and use the gravel for a test, and on thorough inspection for a test space, the selection was made on Pilar street from the Banita bridge to the square, this being two blocks in length.

This space has always been a hard proposition on account of its clay and its being so much used by heavy freight wagons.

The four car loads of gravel have arrived and are being put down. Some of this gravel has been used here and proved satisfactory. The city has bought another team, and will rush the work.

British War Debt Eleven Billion Dollars.

The British chancellor of the exchequer, in answering the new budget, estimated that the revenue for the year would be $1,360,000,000 and the expenditures $7,950,000,000. The debt at the close of the fiscal year, he said, would be $11,000,000,000. In order to meet the extraordinary expenses, the chancellor proposed to parliament the most drastic and far reaching scheme of taxation in the history of the country.

Two of those little Pate children that have been cared for recently by the public charities had to be taken to hospital. They are very sick. One of the six had died. Three are yet with the mother.

The Conqueror

Who is this man of stately mien, who gains applause where'er he wends, who makes a hit in every scene, who has all people for his friends? The rich and poor, the high and low, behold his coming with glad smiles, the women say he is a jo, the merchant princes lift their tiles. He is no soldier, who in vain a million quarts of blood has shed; he has not cultured up the plain with ricks and windrows of his dead. He is no statesman who has held a senate breathless while he spied, and he has never whooped and yelled throughout the broad Chautauqua field. He is no author, who has made a book with fire in every line, that made Gene Stratton Porter fade, and H. Bell Wright take in his sign. Who is this man of lordly air, whom all the people thus applaud, and greet with fervor everywhere, whenever he may walk abroad? Why does he cut such scads of ice? What has he done that is sublime? He is the man who has the price—the man who pays his bills on time.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Broadway Cayed

The caving in of portions of Broadway, the famous street of New York City, is a sensational event. This happened at two different points and on two different days in the same week.

Several persons were killed and many were hurt. Automobiles and other vehicles plunged into the yawning chasm, which was about three hundred feet deep. The collapse created a great roaring noise, and was a most shocking catastrophe. It was caused by the extensive undermining done for the subway, or underground street cars.

Dallas, Sept. 23.—Leaving negro associates, after having been reared among them until he was 24 years of age, Frank S. Taft not a Candidate

San Antonio, Sept. 23.—William Howard Taft will not be an aspirant for the republican presidential nomination in 1916, if Henry Waters Taft, his brother, has any "inside dope" on the ex-president's intention. He said he had talked with ex-President Taft in California, and felt confident his brother will resist any overtures to become the republican nominee.

Vice President Visits President Washington, Sept. 24.—Vice President Marshall called at the White House today and discussed with President Wilson the international situation, national defense and other problems confronting the administration. It was Mr. Marshall's first visit to the president since congress adjourned last March.

Whether the political outlook was discussed was not indicated and Mr. Marshall would not comment on it afterward. He says he was not a candidate for renomination.

Mr. Marshall told the president that an extensive trip through the country had convinced him that the people were pleased with the manner in which international affairs had been managed. He said he favored an adequate army and navy, but had no specific recommendations to make regarding details.

The question of calling a special session of the senate to permit it to revise its rules before the regular session begins in December also was taken up. Mr. Marshall said afterward that the president had not indicated any decision in the matter. The vice president expressed opposition to a special session of the whole congress at this time.

Great preparations are being made to do honor to these venerable heroes. Be it so. They are well worthy of all honor. And to say this is to compliment the patriotic and heroic southern soldiers who fought them to a finish, and who were their worthy foes on the battlefield, with honors equal to the victors.

MISS RUTH LAW FLIES AT FAIR.

The most thrilling entertainment in the history of the Louisiana State Fair is promised this year, when Miss Ruth Law, a famous young woman aerial performer, will give daring exhibitions. She will make her flight Wednesday, November 3, and render her second program on Sunday, November 7, and all of these attractions will be absolutely free to the visitors to the Fair. Miss Law, who operates with a Wright bi-plane, measuring 40 feet from tip to tip, gains an altitude of about 4,000 feet, and goes through stunts that compel spectators to hold their breath in amazement. Cork-screw and spiral glides and plunges of hundreds of feet are among the venturesome feats she tackles. As the great machine shoots downward it looks as if it will plunge into the earth, carrying the courageous little driver on to her death, but her nerve and familiarity with the mechanism of the apparatus make it possible to avoid a catastrophe.

After making an exhibition by herself Miss Law swoops down and picks up a young man, who is taken between 2,000 and 3,000 feet into the air. From that altitude he climbs to the bottom of the bi-plane, catches hold of the wires, swings his body down and then jumps. In his hands he has a parachute. This saves him from disaster. It is declared to be one of the most marvelous aerial feats ever accomplished.

Miss Law, who is one of two female license holders under the Aero Club of America, was engaged at big expense for the pleasure of the Louisiana Fair visitors.

The Fair runs from November 3 to 8, inclusive. Write to Secretary L. N. Brueggerhoff, Shreveport, for details.

STATE FAIR SCHOOL FOR FARMER BOYS.

Boys participating in the exhibit and judging contests at the Louisiana State Fair, November 3 to 8, will have the privilege of instructions by agricultural experts, the benefit of talks and lectures by prominent visitors, and the pleasure of recreation on the Fair Grounds and the novel experience of living in a tent. This will all be furnished through the State Fair School for Farmer Boys. Accommodations free of charge in the tent, which will be pitched near the agricultural building, will be furnished all the boys exhibiting in the corn, pig, agricultural school and other juvenile departments, as well as those participating in the boys' judging contests.

This feature of the Fair will be under direction of G. E. Nesom, who has charge of extension work for men farmers in Louisiana, and A. I. Rolif, of Baton Rouge, who has charge of the poultry. They will take the boys around the grounds and through the buildings each morning and lecture on various features of the big show. In the afternoon there will be recreation for the boys, and at night they will have the privilege of attending illustrated lectures by prominent agriculturalists, livestock men and other State Fair visitors, in the lecture room. For catalog and other information address L. N. Brueggerhoff, secretary, Shreveport.

MANY SPECIMENS OF FINE POULTRY.

In a building 80x160, thoroughly ventilated and illuminated and conveniently located along one of the large concrete walks and drives there will be found the poultry exhibit at the Louisiana State Fair, November 3 to 8 inclusive. There will also be found hundreds of fine chickens, turkeys, ducks, pigeons and other valuable and attractive poultry specimens on exhibit, judging by the interest being taken in the plans for the mammoth show.

Fifteen hundred dollars in premiums will be awarded in this competition, which is open to the world. Many Louisiana fowls are to be shown, evidencing the growth of interest in poultry raising in this state. There will be furnished good pens, the Empire sort, and capable attendants.

Besides poultry, there will be a display of supplies, such as incubators, brooders, etc.

W. M. Gates of Baton Rouge will be superintendent; C. P. Van Winkle of Dallas the judge, and R. E. Bruce, New Orleans, assistant superintendent.

Apply to Secretary L. N. Brueggerhoff, Shreveport, for catalogue.

High Court Banquet At Beaumont.

Governor Ferguson, Lieutenant Governor Hobby, the justices of the supreme court, of the court of criminal appeals and of the civil appellate court at Galveston and judges of every district court in the Ninth supreme judicial district were yesterday invited to attend the great banquet of welcome to be tendered the three justices of the new civil appellate court here late in October. This week invitations will be sent to every attorney in the Ninth district and it is probable that those senators and representatives who voted in favor of creating the new court will also receive bids to attend the feast.

Judge F. J. Duff, chairman of the committee on program and invitations, announced yesterday that Chief Justice Nelson Phillips of the state supreme court has been asked to deliver the chief address. In addition there will be addresses of welcome from members of the local bar, who will be hosts.

Ten-minute talks are to be made by Governor Ferguson and each of the higher court justices, while responses will be made by Chief Justice Conley and Associate Justices Brooke and Middlebrook.

Judge L. B. Hightower, Sr., of Liberty county, will deliver the address in behalf of the district judges.

The plans for the banquet are only tentative, but will probably be carried out as announced yesterday following a meeting of the program and invitations committee. Besides Judge Duff the members of the committee are: Attorneys Minor, Wowan, Foster, Hightower, Greer and Cooper.—Beaumont Journal.

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. Which is Mother

A big contest over the identity of a boy claimed by two women as his mother has puzzled the courts at Ft. Worth, and attracted great interest.

This recalls this old story: Two boys, children of neighboring women, were kidnapped when very young. When about ten years of age they were recovered, but as they were of the same age and resembled each other somewhat the mothers were unable to agree as to which boy was hers. Each knew that one of the boys was hers, but neither could be certain as to which boy she could claim.

Every device that could be thought of was resorted to in an effort to recall to the boys some incident of their childhood that would identify them. A few playthings that had been treasured through the absence of the children were brought out and exhibited, but these proved of no value, as neither boy could identify them.

Incidents in the life of each child were recounted, but as they were stolen from their mothers, neither could remember the things told him.

Finally one of the mothers remarked that she used to sing a certain lullaby to her boy when he was a little fellow nestling in her arms and it he did not remember that lullaby she could think of no way of identifying him.

Trembling between hope and fear, she started singing the old lullaby. She had sung but a few bars when one of the boys, with a glad light in his eyes, sprang into her arms, crying:

"That's my mother!"—Beaumont Journal.

Concerning The Rural Schools.

The problem of supervising the schools in Nacogdoches County and really classifying the work in such a way as to accomplish the end sought to the least cost to the people and the shortest length of time, is of vital importance throughout the rural districts. I have given this question quite a good deal of study and hope to be able to accomplish quite a good deal for the year 1915-16, that will be a step forward in giving the children of the rural districts the benefit of a school worth while.

The school problem can be solved by the people of the rural districts throughout the county by strict co-operation. I absolutely know that I am correct beyond any question when I say that just at this time the people throughout the rural districts of Nacogdoches County should be more interested in schools, the proper establishment, proper equipment, and the manner of teaching, than any other item that confronts them.

For the purpose of organizing the schools of the County into a working group, I have arranged the schools of Nacogdoches in the following groups. Each of these groups of schools will have problems peculiar to that section of the County to work out. These problems can be worked out to a great extent by the proper co-operation of the people and the teachers in charge of the schools, and I hope that each citizen will see fit to do his part and let these problems go through:

Group No. 1. Chireno, Beth-el, Long Ridge, Black Jack, Spring Hill, Brewers Chapel, Smyrna, Cross Roads, Etoile.

Group No. 2. Woden, Prospect, Frost-Johnson Camp, Dorr Creek, Persimmon Grove, Little Flock.

Group No. 3. Harmony, Spradley, Bernaldo, Eden, Alazan, Gravel Ridge, Moral, Mt. Horeb, Palestine, Pleasant Grove.

Group No. 4. Cushing, New Harmony, McKnight, Sacul, Myrtle Springs, Libbert, Douglas, Friendship, Nat, Oak Flat, Flat Woods, Red Flat.

Group No. 5. Linn Flat, Union Springs, Owensville, Lone Pine, Trawick, Caro, Twilight.

Group No. 6. Red Oak, Hickory Flat, Mahl, Lone Star, Sand Ridge.

Group No. 7. Garrison, Pine Hill, Center, Clear Branch.

Group No. 8. Appleby, Maytown, Cedar Bluff, Pisgah, Happy Land, Campbell, Holly Springs, Pleasant Hill.

Group No. 9. Swift, Mariinsville, Blake, Trinity, Fairview, Oak Ridge, Melross, Jamesville, Libby, Shady Grove, Mt. Moriah.

At a later date there will be something special to put before these respective groups to be worked out, and I assure you that these problems will be well considered before they are put before you and will be worthy of your thoughtful consideration and active support.

Just here, permit me to say that in my opinion the schools of the county are suffering for the want of people to respond to the efforts being put forth by the teachers and some of the pupils who are trying to make a start to develop new things. It is not sufficient for a parent, guardian or citizen to be willing for a thing to be advocated or worked at by the other man, but remember you are a part and parcel of every undertaking of this county and that you are called upon from a sense of duty to do something in a positive way to help these propositions go.

Among the things I wish to call your attention to that will be considered at a later date, in my opinion through the schools is the proper medium through which to reach them, are better roads, a closer study of farming interest, with a view of taking care of the land producing the things most profitable to the farmer; better homes, better equipments for the schools, prevention of diseases, especially those that come to us through insects and unsanitary surroundings.

Beginning on November 15th, and continuing nine days the Extension Department of the University of Texas has kindly agreed to come to this county, bring an expert on better condition and better schools; better homes and better living; better farms and better roads and spend one day in each of these groups at some central school and discuss these points. At this time the schools of that group will be asked to dismiss and bring their school children and patrons to the central school to hear these people lecture and demonstrate some of the things above mentioned.
