SUBMISSION AND GIBSON BILL BALLOT

State Executive Committee Puts Both Issues Up to the Voters of Texas in Primary.

Dallas, June 12.—By a vote of 27 to 3 the Democratic executive committee voted to place the question of submission of state-wide prohibition on the ballot to be voted on at the primary election in July. The subcommittee which considered the question submitted a majority and minority report. The majority report was sustained by the committee as a whole.

The committee decided to place the "Gibson bill question" on the ballot at the July 23 primary and voted to hold the August convention at Houston. The question of placing submission on the ballot caused a long argument which stretched into the afternoon.

Dallas was an active candidate for the convention but it was early apparent that Houston would be selected.

The Gibson bill seeks to amend the Robertson insurance law which requires foreign insurance companies in Texas to invest in the state a certain per cent of the earnings from insurance written in the state.

THE DEERING

Known as the Long Life Light Draft Mower

To those who have used MOWERS there is no need for us to say anything—they will buy a DEERING because they are the men who know from experience.

To you who have never owned or operated a mower we want to say a few words. We want to explain the DEERING MOWER and DEERING REPAIR SERVICE to you. Come to our store and let us talk it over. It will not take long because a DEERING is so simple you just can't keep from understanding it and also seeing just why it is the best MOWER for you to own.

Come to see the DEERING and let us tell you about it. It's worth knowing about and we are glad to show the DEERING whether you buy or not.

92 NEGROES PAROLED BY GOVERNOR FERGUSON

Austin, Texas, June 11.—Governor Ferguson Friday granted pardons to 92 negroes now serving in the State penitentiary. These pardons are designated as June 19 pardons and will be issued to the recipients in time for them to spend June 19 at their former homes. The board of pardons had made recommendations for executive clemency for these prisoners.

George W. Graham of Houston, who was for many years a resident of our city, and was engaged in the meat market business, died there a few days ago, after a long spell of paralysis. He was well liked here and had many friends. He has been gone several years.

given at the beautiful and hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Maroney of the Trinity community, four miles east of town.

This was given under the auspices of the B. Y. B. U. of that place. About two hundred people of that excellent community and the adjoining communities came together in a social way, which will long be a pleasant remembrance by all present. An abundance of ice cream, cake and lemonade was served, and splendid music rendered throughout the evening by members of the string band from Appleby.

GEORGE CHANCEY KILLED YESTERDAY

The following is a part of a report of the killing of George Chancey, a well known citizen of Angelina county, appearing in yesterday's issue of the Lufkin News:

From the best information obtainable by the News, there was not a single eye-witness to the tragedy about 7:30 o'clock this morning which resulted in the death of Mr. George Chancey at his home near Homer, some few miles south of Lufkin.

The news of the disaster was received in this city about 9:30 o'clock, and Sheriff Will Evans, in company with others, hastened to the scene.

After the return of officers, it became known that Mr. Rufus Walker had been arrested for the killing and placed in the county jail. Mr. Walker is comparatively a young man, supposed to be about twenty-eight years of age, is married and was living upon the place of Mr. Chancey. Report gives it that there was a dispute over some kind of a business settlement which led up to the tragedy. However, The News at this hour has no facts at hand to warrant a full statement of the details.

UNION SPRINGS PICNIC.

Our friend, Frank Vardeman, of the Union Springs community, was in to see us Tuesday, and asked to make a little correction as to the date of the forthcoming picnic to be held at Union Springs, making it read the fourth Saturday in June, which will be the 24th day of the month. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public, with a special invitation to the candidates.

Mr. Vardeman says that crops are coming out and looking fine in his section now, and that the health of the community is good.

DEAL BANDITS

SEVERE BLOW

Field Headquarters Gen. Pershing, June 12.—Via wireless to Columbus, N. M., June 13.—The finishing blow was given the largest surviving band of Villa followers in Chihuahua at daylight June 9 by twenty men of the Thirteenth United States cavalry under Capt. Otto W. Rethorst in a dashing fight in a canyon twenty miles north of Santa Clara, near here. The Americans were unhurt.

The Americans routed 25 Villa bandits, killing three, wounding several, and capturing all their horses and saddles, some rifles and several thousand rounds of ammunition.

A night ride brought the Americans into the canyon at daybreak. Riding at a gallop they rounded a turn within 200 yards of where the bandits were encamped in a grove. It was a complete surprise. There was a headlong rush among the Villa followers, who, half clad, grabbed rifles and fought from behind trees.

The Americans dismounted and within three minutes had routed the bandits, who abandoned everything and fled to the mountains. For four hours the Americans continued the pursuit, climbing over the mountains afoot and fighting from the shelter of rocks. Several Mexicans were shot, but neither their bodies nor the wounded were found.

Returning to the Mexican camp, the Americans added the bandits' breakfast to their own repast. The bandits had only beef and coffee.

This band is said to have been the largest surviving remnant of the force of Candelario Cervantes, who was killed three weeks ago in a brush with Americans, regarded as the most important accomplishment of the campaign.

ANTI-AMERICAN FEELING GROWS IN NORTH MEXICO

Washington, June 12.—Increasing excitement and anti-American feeling throughout Northern Mexico is described in today's dispatches to the state department. In many cases, it was said at the department, the Carranza authorities appear to be indifferent to what is going on.

Neither details of the reports nor information as to the points heard from were made public, on the ground that the work of American consuls would be handicapped.

Officials made no attempt to conceal their anxiety over the situation, which apparently is crystallizing in the Northern Mexican states. Many dispatches bearing on the subject have been received during the last 48 hours.

Equally disquieting reports reached the department of justice from its agents along the border and in the interior of Mexico. They were turned over to the state department.

O. M. GIBBS, Editor

News from the country districts report the crops to be growing mighty fast now and the farmers working overtime.

While the idea of "preparedness" is spreading to all stations and vocations of life, why not let us try it with some sidewalks. No preparation would bring greater blessings for the labor and money expended.

Come on, "fellers," and let's build up a belt of sidewalk for the old town before we are swallowed up with the enthusiasm for rural roads. The Sentinel gives hearty endorsement for better rural roads—but we want some sidewalks first.

The "colonel," the "big stick" with headquarters from Oyster Bay, sends word that he will stump the country for Hughes if he, Hughes, will come across to his way of thinking in our relations with Germany. The Colonel is a great old bluffer.

We don't know just what to say about sidewalks today, but something must be said. It might be a new idea to suggest that good sidewalks would make the Sunday afternoon stroll more joyous, and if so, this would be another argument in their favor.

A majority of the people of any street of Nacogdoches can force the issue for good sidewalks if they will so petition the city council. The civic pride and duty as a patriotic citizenship should secure these petitions quickly and let the good work be inaugurated without further delay. What street will be the first?

Sunday's issue of the Beaumont Enterprise contained a picture of the Girls Ganning Club of Nacogdoches county, as it appeared in a recent issue of this paper, together with a list of the names and a report of the splendid work being done by the club. This is a good advertisement for the county which our people will greatly appreciate.

Let us not forget, and let us teach it to all, that there would be no dignity in life, that it would not be worth while to live, if annihilation were to be our lot. What is it which alleviates and sanctifies toil, which renders men strong, wise, patient, just at once humble and aspiring, but the perpetual vision of a better world than this, whose light shines through the darkness of the present life? For myself, I believe profoundly in the better world; and after many struggles, much study and numberless trials, this is the supreme conviction of my reason as it is the supreme conviction of my soul.—Victor Hugo.

Let a young man at twenty years of age put twenty dollars in the bank at interest, instead of spending it for tobacco. Then at the beginning of the next year repeat it, and include also the principal and interest of the preceding year, and thus continue from year to year until he has reached the age of seventy; then the amount he would realize would exceed thirty thousand dollars. How many of you young men will try it?—Beckville Review.

The estimate is correct, and spirit of economy lofty, but the average young fellow does not look down to the evening of his life when his earthly career has been finished, preferring the enjoyment of his earthly earnings as he goes along.

The Sentinel is much encouraged with the growing interest by the people of the county for better roads. Good roads remove distance, save time and labor in the transportation of all kinds of traffic, and draw people closer together in ties of friendship. No country ever amounts to anything until it has a system of good roads, and this very condition explains why East Texas, first in history, has not kept pace with Central and West Texas in settlement and development.

That Texas may better understand the necessity for road maintenance Governor Ferguson, by request, has secured the service of the superintendent of road instruction of the office of public roads. This expert will co-operate with any county or division thereof on any phase of road building from utilization of material at hand to inaugurating a system of maintenance in the single fact that Texas, since 1910 has expended about $75,000,000 in road and bridge funds. Good roads represent investment. Unless good roads are systematically and economically maintained in the state, the investment soon wears into bankruptcy. Governor Ferguson is on the right track.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Some author has said: "The source of Power is in human emotion—in human desire." Men get what they work for, and in just the measure they work for it. The measure of success is the measure of desire." Inspired with this philosophy The Sentinel has been possessed with much human emotion for sidewalk improvement in Nacogdoches; we have desired and worked for it in all the ways we know how, but as yet that measure of success which we crave is not in evidence. Come on, you lazy rascals, and save us. You need the walks and all the advantages that would come with them; your neighbor and your town needs them, and if you fail you will lack this much in the makeup of good citizenship.

Forty-two thousand dollars Rusk county pays the State. Seventy thousand dollars is the amount the State sends back to educate our children. And then we are too stingy, too penurious, too down-right close to build decent roads for those children to travel over to get to the school house.—Col. Milner, in Rusk Co. News.

A similar condition obtains in all these East Texas counties. For every dollar we invest in state government we receive two in return, a glorious condition made possible by our illustrious forefathers who provided for future generations by setting aside big endowments of the idle lands for educational purposes. The present generation is not doing as much, and some are prone to complain of the small amount they are forced for present needs.

WOMAN AND THE LAW.

So much has been said and written recently of the demands of women for "political equality" and "equal rights before the law" somewhat to understand what rights women now have and what privileges they now enjoy under our "man-made" laws.

An investigation of our statute laws and court decisions will disclose the fact that women now have many right and enjoy many privileges not accorded to men. It is my purpose to mention a few of them.

Under the law as it now is man is legally responsible for the support and maintenance of his wife and her minor children, while woman is not liable for the support of her husband or their children. The law does not even require a wife to assist her husband in his efforts to provide her with the food she eats, the clothes she wears or the roof that shelters her from the storm. She is not required by law to keep house for him while he is engaged in the work of earning her livelihood.

The husband's separate estate—the money and property owned by him before marriage—may be seized and sold to pay for his wife's support and maintenance and to pay community debts contracted by the husband or the wife during marriage, while the wife's separate estate is not liable for community debts contracted by the husband during marriage.

The rents and revenues from the husband's separate estate including the interest on his separate money and dividends on his stocks and bonds, is community property and is also liable for community debts contracted by the husband and wife during marriage, but all such rents, revenues, interest and dividends from the wife separate estate may be controlled and disposed of by the wife alone, and are not liable for community debts. The personal earnings of the husband during marriage are liable for all community debts, including those contracted by the wife, for the maintenance of herself and the children, but the personal earnings of the wife during marriage are subject to her control and disposition and are not liable for community debts contracted by the husband, though incurred for the support of the wife and the children.

Not only is the husband's separate liable for the wife's support but he is held responsible for her support by our criminal law, and should he fail to perform his duty in that regard he may be punished by imprisonment in the county jail.

Upon the death of a man leaving a wife surviving him she is entitled to have set apart to her out of his estate, free from the claims of creditors, first a homestead or allowance in lieu thereof to the amount of $5000; second, an allowance for one year's support not to exceed $1000; and third, an allowance in lieu of exempt property not to exceed $500. For example, if a man dies leaving a wife surviving him an estate of the value of $6500, and owing debts amounting to the value of his estate, the widow may have the entire estate set aside to her and the creditors get nothing, even though the claims are secured by mortgages upon his property. On the other hand, should the wife die leaving a surviving husband, he is entitled to none of these allowances.

Men may be compelled by law to attend court as witnesses in civil cases, while women cannot be. Men may be compelled by law to work the roads five days in each year, while women are exempt from such service. Men may be compelled to serve on juries, aid in the arrest of criminals and serve as members of a posse comitatus to suppress riots, preserve the peace and protect property. Women are exempt from these duties.

The law recognizes that women have not the strength or endurance of man and in many of the states it protects female employees by limiting the hours their employer may require them to work, requires that they be furnished with seats, rest rooms and facilities to promote their comfort and protect their health, but such consideration or protection is not extended to men.

In our criminal statutes the same preference and privileges appear. An assault committed by a man upon another man or by a woman upon another woman is simple assault, the maximum punishment for which is a fine of $25, while an assault committed by a man on a woman is an aggravated assault, the maximum punishment for which is two years in prison and a fine of $1000. If a man should make a statement reflecting upon the character of a woman he is guilty of slander and may be made to suffer a severe penalty, but a woman may make the same charge against a man and she is guilty of no offense against the law.

Many other criminal statutes might be cited in which the same purpose is manifest to extend to woman a preference and protection which is not accorded to man.

I have referred to some of the advantages and privileges accorded to women by our written laws but the unwritten laws and customs of men, which are so well known and universally recognized as to render their mention unnecessary, accord to her still greater consideration and protection than our written laws provide.

Now the question is, does woman desire to surrender these superior political and legal rights and accept a position of equality with man? Does she desire to exchange her present legal and political position of superiority for one of equality? Surely she cannot expect to become a man's political equal and at the same time retain these privileges and prerogatives which would be in-

KITCHENER'S BIOGRAPHY.

Born in Ireland June 24, 1850, of English and French stock.

Entered army at 21 and saw brief service with French army in Franco-Prussian war.

Helped survey Western Palestine and later organized system of courts in Cyprus.

Volunteered for service in Egypt when trouble started in the Sudan in 1882, and acted as intelligence officer in the ill-fated Gordon relief expedition. As a result of his service there was made governor of the Red sea territories and later sirdar of Egypt.

Carried out famous campaign for capture of Khartoum, which made him a popular hero in England and caused him to be raised to the peerage of Baron Kitchener of Khartoum.

Became lieutenant general and chief of staff to Lord Roberts in South African war and finally succeeded him as commander-in-chief. Made general and viscount for his achievements there.

Served seven years as commander of British forces in India and carried out many far-reaching reforms.

Returned to Egypt as governor general and promoted much improvement work.

Had just returned from Egypt and been given an earldom when European war broke out.

Made secretary of state and within a year, without conscription or compulsory service, brought the English army from less than 1,000,000 to more than 4,000,000 men.

Homer Blackburn, a well known young teacher of the county who has been attending the past session of the State University, arrived home Saturday afternoon for the vacation.

MR. LESTERJETT TO DRILL A NEW WELL

Mr. A. G. Lesterjett, the well known driller of this city, made this office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon, and in the course of conversation with the reporter said that he has perfected arrangements for the drilling of a new oil well at Huntington, on which he will begin work the first of the coming week.

Mr. Lesterjett is very optimistic with the outlook of bringing in a good producer with his new well. He says that in the other well he passed through forty-five feet of oil bearing sand, in which he is confident he could have brought in a good producer, but went a little too far and struck salt water which he could not handle. The next well will be only thirty feet from the first, and he will thoroughly test the sand this time, profiting by his experience in the first.

Mr. Lesterjett's friends in this city trust that he will be richly rewarded for his perseverance.

Bowel Complaint in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa, churches, a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with him and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventive and cure for cholera. ### MEXICANS RAID RANCH.

San Antonio, June 11.—Mexican bandits raided an American ranch on the Texas side, northwest of Laredo Saturday night, but were driven back across the border by a troop of the Fourteenth cavalry under Capt. Olo W. Bell.

Eighty horses were driven off. No damage was done to the ranch property. The raid was reported to headquarters by General Mann at Laredo.

The raid was reported to General Funston by T. A. Coleman

ARBITRATION DISCUSSED.

Washington, June 8.—Arbitration of differences between the United States and Mexico through international commission today became a possibility.

Diplomats, particularly those of Central and South American republics, were much interested in information that administration officials are considering seriously proposing such a course to Gen. Carranza. If they definitely decide to suggest this, it would be sent as the United States answer to Carranza's last note. Acceptance would then depend on the de facto government.

Under the treaty of 1848, between the United States and Mexico, the presidents of the two nations might appoint an equal number of commissioners to whom could be submitted all the vexatious questions arising of relations between the two countries during the last four years. Among these might be: Withdrawal of American troops from Mexico.

Indemnification for American lives lost, and property destroyed or damaged during recent Mexican revolutions.

Disposition of customs revenues collected during the American occupation of Vera Cruz, now held for property damage growing out of the Vera Cruz incident.

Long pending disputes concerning the exact location of certain portions of the international boundary line.

The commission probably would meet in some South American country.

Whether President Wilson had reached a final decision on the question of proposing arbitration to Gen. Carranza was not indicated today.

The treaty of 1848 provides that "should such a course be proposed by either party, it shall be accepted by the other unless deemed by it altogether incompatible with the nature of the difference or the circumstances of the case."

Interest in the suggested plan here today was based largely on the belief that it would tend to benefit relations between the United States and South American nations.

BERGMAN-DREWRY.

From Saturday's Daily.

Much to the surprise of her many friends, Miss Clyde Drewry and Mr. S. E. Bergman were quietly married this morning at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. O. T. Hotchkiss, officiating.

The bride is the fair and accomplished daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Drewry of this city, and has won for herself the admiration of all for her lovely character and sweet winning ways, and her many friends will miss her, but will join everyone in wishing her much happiness in her new home.

Mr. Bergman is a live, energetic young man from Timpson, where he holds a very responsible position with the railroad. He is the son of one of the leading business men of Polk county, Mr. Jake Bergman, and has scores of friends that will rejoice with him in his new found happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergman left immediately after the ceremony by automobile for Timpson—their new home.

Geo. C. Ingraham and family are in the city visiting with Mr. Ingraham's father, Judge Ingraham, and family, and renewing acquaintance with old friends. They came through the country in an automobile. Mr. Ingraham is a native of this city who has gone out into the world and made good in the business affairs of his country, now being a prominent banker of the town in which he has chosen to make his home, and has a host of admiring friends in this, his old home.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS.

The real old-timers who read The Sentinel will understand the letter published below, but for those who do not, it is well to explain that Judge Edwards, the writer of the letter, was born here about 1844, and spent his boyhood as well as the early part of his manhood in this historic town. He belongs to the historic pioneers, Haden Edwards and family, that were here in the twenties and were always on the Sam Houston side in politics. This letter is highly appreciated by the writer of these traditions, and will also be appreciated by the readers of The Sentinel, but it was not designed for publication.

Judge Edwards' father, Gen. Haden H. Edwards, lost his life by the burning of a steamboat on the Ohio river in 1866. He and Miss Mary Raguet of Nacogdoches were passengers at the time. The letter follows:

El Paso, Texas, June 9, 1916.
Dr. J. E. Mayfield,
Nacogdoches, Texas.
Dear Joe:

Your "Nacogdoches Traditions" in the Sentinel of June 1st, reminds me of an incident in my father's life. In your article you say that Gen. Sam Houston usually wore "a soft hat with medium low crown and broad brim, usually called a plush or beaver hat, of a yellowish color." Referring to the later pictures of him, in a sitting position, where he has a large broad-brim, light-colored hat in his hands, I want to tell you that this hat was presented to him by my father in the fall of 1859. My father had ordered the hat from Canada, and it was a great deal too large for my father—I think 7 3/8—and Gen. Houston was visiting at my father's and my father asked him what size he wore and brought the hat to him (it never had been worn) and it fitted Gen. Houston exactly and father made him a present of the hat, and this is probably where you got your idea that he usually wore a "soft or beaver hat."

I am always much interested in your "Nacogdoches Traditions," and usually read them very carefully. You are wrong in referring to Houston as ever having a "rough-style." He was probably the most courtly man who ever was in the United States Senate, and was especially remarkable for his correct and courteous manners. This was marred, of course, by his fancy to wear sometimes outre in his dress—such as fawn-skin vest, boots up to the knee outside of his pants, and blacked side to top.

Trusting that you are well and prosperous, I am,

Your friend,
PEYTON F. EDWARDS.

As to General Houston's courtly manners, there was no dispute. He was exceedingly affable and entertaining on occasions where such deportment was in point, whether public or private. But on the outside, when it suited purposes and occasions, he had a free and easy or rollicking deportment. He dressed and acted to suit each special occasion and was distinguished for his superiority. He was ever a leader at ease in dignity and simplicity alike. Many anecdotes of his impressive address and personal peculiarities have been recited. One of our respectable San Jacinto veterans, the late M. G. Whitaker, who was a political adversary of Houston, but a life-long friend, even away back in Tennessee, always said there was never but one Sam Houston. He had seen Houston in many places in his eventful life, and considered him exceptionally unique and unequalled.

HUGHES AND ROOSEVELT SPLIT THE PARTY

On the third ballot in the Republican convention Saturday, Justice Charles Evans Hughes was nominated for president on the third ballot, with Charles Warren Fairbanks as his running mate.

While the regular republican convention was naming Hughes and Fairbanks the progressive wing of the party was busy nominating Col. Theodore Roosevelt for president with Col. Jno. M. Parker of New Orleans as his running mate.

Justice Hughes was once governor of New York, while his running mate was once vice-president. He is at present associate justice of the supreme court, and is a man of considerable prominence in the councils of his party.

Col. Roosevelt issued a conditional statement to the effect that he could not accept the nomination, leaving it to the wisdom of the committee as to whether or not he should make the race.

The man who gives his attention for years to horses can discern the beauty of a horse; no horse passes him on the streets whose points he does not narrowly and critically observe. The man who gives his attention for years to cravats and waistcoats is a connoisseur in these things; he observes the dress of every man he meets. And it is quite possible to form the habit of observing the beauty of grass and flowers, of delicate leaf and branching foliage, of cloud piles, and blue discances, of winding streams and willows and water-courses. You can see these things if you think them worth looking at, worth giving attention to; and when you have formed the habit of seeing them * * * the heavens will declare to you the glory of God and the firmament will show you his handiwork.—Washington Gladden.

No man can work well with a torpid liver or constipated bowels. A few doses of Prickly Ash Bitters will quickly remove this condition and make work a pleasure.—Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special Agents.

Prof. Huffor, principal of Nacogdoches High School, left today for Austin, where he will attend the summer session of the State University.

AN ELECTRIC STORM IN SHELBY COUNTY

The following report of a severe electric storm in Shelby county is taken from this week's Center Champion:

A very severe electrical storm visited this section last night, striking Center at 12 o'clock and lasted for more than 30 minutes.

The Santa Fe depot at Nueville was struck by lightning and caught fire, the building and contents being a total loss. Agent Nueville came here this morning and informs The Champion reporter that no other damage was done at that place, though the storm was heavy here.

The damage here was light. At the light plant a small dynamo was damaged and the company sustained considerable wire trouble.

Many telephones were put out of commission, though no estimate of the amount of damage can be arrived at.

Lightning struck a chimney at the home of C. P. Smith and destroyed it, though no one was hurt beyond a slight shock.

A China tree in the yard at H. H. Pones' residence was struck and demolished though no one at this place was injured.

Many items of slight damage could be detailed but so far as this reporter can learn there was no loss of life in this section. The rain that accompanied the storm was light and fell slow, thereby doing a great deal of good, for a light rain was needed.

Telephone communication with Shelbyville states that the storm was bad there, though no damage done. At Arcadia it seems to have been lighter than here, though a nice rain fell and some wind was had there.

The common expression on the streets this morning is, "it was the severest electrical storm I ever witnessed," and "I didn't get up only to put down the windows, but was awake all the while," and "I was up and remained up all the while; it certainly was bad." These expressions tell just about how the people felt about the condition as it existed here at that hour.

Good appetite and cheerfulness follows the use of Prickly Ash Bitters. It purifies the blood, liver and bowels, and makes life worth living.—Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special Agents.

The Sentinel

HALTOM & GIBBS, Proprietors
G. M. HALTOM, Manager
O. M. GIBBS, Editor

Capt. Doughtie says the cows were a little more particular about trespassing upon his sidewalk this morning. It pays to advertise—and advertising never fails of results when the advertiser has the confidence of the people in the belief that he will back up his statements.

Lieutenant Governor Hobby is occupying the governor's chair at Austin this week while Governor Ferguson is away at the National convention. This is the second time he has had this honor, and he fills the position with good grace and ability.

A thousand dollars, money derived from a legacy belonging to an old university of the city, will be spent in building nice concrete sidewalks on the school campus. A belt of the same, connecting all parts of the city, would make the old town famous, add to the convenience of the people, and enhance the value of all property.

Is it possible that there is not a man in town with nerve enough to get up a petition for sidewalk improvement on his street? If it can not be led with individual petitions, covering the various streets, The Sentinel will gladly make and compile a list of all the names favoring the enterprise furnished us. Who will be the first to enroll?

We glean from the Daily News of that city that a grist mill is being added to the industrial enterprises of Lufkin. The new mill will grind meal, chops, etc., for both the retail and wholesale trade. This strikes us as being a good home enterprise, cutting out the middle man in the production and sale of chops, and we shall watch its operation with interest.

The Democratic National convention, now in session at St. Louis, is busy making some new history for the nation by writing a platform and nominating standard-bearers that will insure a connected succession of the old party. Save the little "Love" feast that will have to be disposed of, everything is harmony and good cheer, generating inspiration that will go through the campaign to success.

In the way of public utilities Nacogdoches has systems of waterworks, electric lights, telephone plant, fire department, paved square together with some of the leading streets, schools and churches second to none for a city of its size in the state. Prospective, we have in near approach a magnificent government postoffice building, made possible by the patriotism of the community. All these enterprises have been worked out and secured one at a time with the collective effort of the people of the community, and thus far we have builded wisely and well, but we have yet much to do. To go with our paved public square, and leading from it to these good schools and churches we need a connected belt of sidewalk, with which people could get about over the city dry shod. In addition to this good advantage the improvement would give us free mail delivery with all the convenience and prestige such an enterprise would afford, and we must conclude that our patriotism is on the wane if the people of the city do not take advantage of the opportunity.

CIVIC PROGRESS.

Not many people know that the city of Nacogdoches is the proud possessor of public utilities superior to those of other cities many times her size, due to the progressive spirit pervading the citizenship and the city council.

Early one recent morning a small party including two newspaper men, in a smoothly running Buic, made a rapid survey, and in the fresh air refreshed their minds with what had been wrought.

Within the last few years the fourteen-acre school campus of sylvan beauty has been adorned with handsome buildings and concrete walks, the total value of the property being far in excess of one hundred thousand dollars, the high school building just completed costing one-third of this sum.

Paved streets, concrete sidewalks and electric lights, representing an outlay of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, have conquered mud, dust and darkness. The waterworks connected with an artesian well carry to homes and business houses water as pure and clear as ever gushed from limpid spring. If an attempt is made again with the open pond of evil fame a spontaneous riot of huge proportions, endangering life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, would probably get beyond the control of the local constabulary.

The new court house a djail between the business section and the Southern Pacific depot are substantial additions to civic attractiveness, and the fifty-thousand-dollar postoffice building, though long delayed, is again due to arrive soon and rear its head on the public square of the ancient city that has imbibed the spirit of modern push.

As all these improvements, costing a half million dollars, are owned by the public neither their use nor one cent of the revenue derived from their control inures to the exclusive benefit of a private person.

Drive golden wedge to where we have gone.
And lose no time in marching on. —Cato.

EVIDENCES OF REAL EDUCATION

A professor in the University of Chicago has evolved a series of test questions for the educated, which he avows, are best evidences of a real education. If you can say "yes" to all the questions you are truly educated, the professor says. Here the questions:

Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you espouse them?

Has it made you public spirited?

Has it made you a brotner to the weak?

Have you learned how to make friends and keep them?

Do you know what it is to be a friend yourself?

Can you look an honest man or pure woman in the eye?

Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Will a longly dog follow you in the street?

Can you be high-minded and happy in the meanest drudgeries of life?

Do you think that washing dishes and hoeing corn is just as compatible with high thinking as piano playing or golf?

Are you good for anything yourself?

Can you be happy alone?

Can you look out into the world and see anything but dollars and cents?

Can you look into a mudpuddle by the roadside and see a clear sky?

Can you see anything in the puddle but mud?

THE NORMAL.

From Monday's Daily.
Chapel exercises on Thursday and Friday were given over to drill on Mrs. Leman's new song, "America for Me." Patriotic songs and their use in this section of Texas have not been given the attention they should have, to say the least of it. There are all too few such songs and the few now sadly neglected. Mrs. Leman's production should fill a very urgent demand for patriotic music in the schools of Eastern Texas.

Among the recent entries to the Normal student body are Misses Beaulah and Hazel Brooke of Carthage; Mr. L. H. Windham of Manning; Mr. Emmons of San Augustine; Mrs. Edna Mallard of Lufkin; Miss Parlee Samford of Center; Miss Edna McCuiston of Nacogdoches. The Misses Brooke are the daughters of Judge A. G. Brooke of the Ninth court of civil appeals.

Mr. Adams was called away on business Thursday afternoon, returning Sunday from Center.

Messrs. Rushing and Tindall were in Alto Saturday in the interest of the Normal. Mrs. Rushing accompanied them on the trip.

Rev. O. T. Hotchkiss, pastor of the M. E. Church conducted chapel exercises today. Bro. Hotchkiss took for his theme, "Success in Life Depends Upon a Wide Decision in Selecting a Life's Work, and a Determination to Do Good in the World."

His remarks were interesting and instructive, and were well taken by the faculty and student body. We extend to Bro. Hotchkiss an invitation to come just whenever he wants to, and as often as he can.

Mrs. W. E. Thomason was among the visitors to chapel today.

From Tuesday's Daily.

The conductor of the Normal has hit upon a happy plan of asking each member of the faculty to conduct chapel in turn. Superintendent Dirickson had charge of the exercises this morning, and after a song and prayer addressed the body on the subject of "Discipline for Life." Sup't Dirickson's ripe knowledge and extensive experience, together with his attractive style, give him unusual command of his hearers. His remarks this morning were certainly to the point.

Prof. B. G. Carnes was a visitor at the Normal today.

The business men of the city have extended an invitation to the male members of the faculty and student body to a free ride to Weatherly creek bridge where they will be expected to add their influence to an effort to revive the good roads spirit of the county, Wednesday afternoon. We assure the business men of Nacogdoches that they will find us to be an enthusiastic bunch of good roads boosters to the last man.

Mr. Cunningham, former superintendent of Jones county, and now connected with the state department of education, will be in the county tomorrow, and has been invited to address the Normal during his visit. Mr. Cunningham has the distinction of having been looked upon as the most successful county superintendent in the state.

Misses Grace Carnes and Redo McKnight of Nacogdoches are recent additions to the student body.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Normal enjoyed an interesting talk by Mr. D. S. Furman of Dallas at Chapel today. Mr. Furman is an experienced school man, graduate of the State University, and knows the schools of Texas possibly as well as any other man in the state.

How About That Old Wagon?

He now represents the American Book Co., in Texas.

Among the improvements at the Normal is the barrel of ice water to be provided daily henceforth.

The invitation of the citizens of Nacogdoches to the men of the Normal, asking them to take part in the road improvement rally this afternoon on Weatherly creek, was made more impressive this morning by Mr. D. K. Cason in his attractive conversational manner before the student body. Practically every man in attendance at the Normal indicated his intention to go on the trip. Mr. Cason also invited the ladies of the city to a motor trip about the city, to take place at such time as the ladies think best. Mr. Lindsey, who was present, has been named as a committee with whom the ladies of the Normal may register the date chosen and number expecting to take the trip. In extending the invitation to the ladies, Mr. Cason said they wanted the ladies to see the best town in Eastern Texas. A member of the Normal has since been heard to say that he supposed the car ride would be to Lufkin.

MASONS ELECT OFFICERS.

At a regular meeting of Milam Lodge No. 2, A. F. & A. M., held Saturday night, officers for the ensuing Masonic year were elected as follows:

Eugene H. Blount, Worshipful Master.

W. F. Summers, Senior Warden.

Jno. S. Jinkins, Junior Warden.

Thos. E. Baker, Treasurer.

Herbert Shindler, Secretary.

Willis Burrows Tiler.

On Saturday night, June 24th, there will be a joint installation of officers with the Royal Arch Masons, at which time all Masons are invited to be present.

ENDORSE JUSTICE PHILLIPS NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS.

Nacogdoches, Texas.

We, the undersigned attorneys constituting the entire membership of the Nacogdoches Bar, desire to lend our endorsement to the candidacy of Chief Justice Nelson Phillips of the supreme court of Texas, before the Democratic primaries, July 22. Judge Phillips has served with great distinction on the Supreme Court for the past four or five years. He is a distinguished jurist and recognized as one of the great legal minds of Texas, and we take pleasure in commending him to the voters of Nacogdoches county and to the state as worthy in every respect for re-election as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

(Signed) this the 12th day of June 1916.

Beeman Strong, Audley Harris, Geo. F. Ingraham, A. T. Russell, L. G. King, W. E. Thomason, J. F. Perritte, S. W. Blount, E. B. Lewis, A. A. Seale, S. M. King, F. P. Marshall, June C. Harris, J. M. ## SHIPPING TOMATOES.

The tomato growers of Nacogdoches have been shipping out a lot of tomatoes by express for several days past, on which they have been receiving very satisfactory returns, the only complaint being that the express day eats up too much profit. On the shipments thus far about $1.00 per crate, gross, has been realized.

The growers hope to ship in car load lots this week, combining with Appleby for this purpose, in which arrangement the freight charges will not come so high.

To correct a mistake made in The Daily Sentinel yesterday, the fact is here stated that Gen. Haden H. Edwards died in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1865, at the home of a relative. He was on his way to New York to see about the original old East Texas railroad, which he was promoting, to extend from Sabine Pass, via Nacogdoches to Henderson and elsewhere.

He had stopped off at Cincinnati. This was just after the close of the Confederate war, which had interrupted the building of this, the first railroad in Texas, which was the pride and hope of General Edwards. The T. & N. O. from Beaumont to Dallas is the direct descendant of the lamented East Texas railroad—a sad disappointment, yet an improved substitute.

Condy Raguet and his sister, Miss Mary Raguet, were drowned in trying to escape from a burning steamboat on the Ohio river in 1868. They were on a visit to relatives in Cincinnati. The Raguet family and the Edwards family had come from there, or had connections there. They were both leading pioneer families here for many years. There is not one of these names here now, and no descendant.

It is strange and sad to reflect upon the passing of people, who were most important in their day. One hundred years hence, will you be remembered? Can any one point at your tombstone and relate your history? Here rests his head upon the lap of earth
A youth to fortune and to fame unknown
Our duty—, act well your part,
there all the honor lies.
J. E. M.

SPOILS HANDSOME FACE OF HUSBAND

Sherman, Texas, June 9.—Because she regarded her husband as too attractive to other women, Mrs. L. P. Gathright told authorities here, she poured a quart of concentrated lye on his face and body while he slept early today burning out both of his eyes and badly burning and disfiguring his body.
 "I did not want to kill him, but I did want to put his eyes out and spoil his handsome face to other women, so I poured the lye on him," is the statement the sheriff said she made to him today.
 Gathright, who is 45, and who owns a restaurant here, it is said will recover, but will be totally blind. He requested that his wife be not arrested.

JUDGE WM. PIERSON SPOKE SATURDAY

Judge Wm. Pierson of Dallas addressed a crowd of voters assembled on the public square late Saturday afternoon, speaking in the interest of the candidacy of Hon. Chas. H. Morris for governor.
 Judge Pierson had an engagement to speak at the court house earlier in the afternoon, but the train on which he came was late and the latter place was selected. In the course of his address he made a rather severe arraignment of the administration of Governor Ferguson, charging him with graft and high finance, etc., and promised that the man whom he championed would do differently if elected.

J. B. Brown, one of the Sentinel's good friends from Melrose, was a pleasant caller at the office today.

SIDEWALK LETTER.

Doches, Texas, June 13, 1916. Editor of The Sentinel:
 For several issues of your valuable paper you have agitated sidewalks. I am with you on the proposition. But if you lived on Pilar Street you would be uttering against putting out twelve and one-half or sixteen cents a square foot on a sidewalk proposition on this street, which should be named "Gentleman's Cow Street." For thirty-one years the writer has lived on this street, and for all of that time it has been used for cow purposes. Every drove of cattle that come into town is driven over this street, and no one knows except the dwellers in the annoyance that this cow street produces. The mayor of the city has been appealed to and his only answer is that the city has to have an outlet for this class of products for commercialism. Now I have appealed to the contractor for sidewalks and asked him if he could make me a sidewalk that nothing but a human being could walk on, and if so would have one put in front of my premises. I stated to him that if he could construct a sidewalk that a cow or horse would slip up on and break their infernal necks that I wanted him to go to work at once, but he turned me down. Now if this cattle proposition is not stopped on Pilar street I am going to apply for an injunction to forever prohibit the driving, leading or stock in any manner carry or drive back along this street with a cow and calf. One of the them was in the middle of the street and the other split the sidewalk.
 JNO. S. DOUGHTIE.

W. F. Butler of Woden was a visitor to the city Saturday.

STENO-TYPEWRITING

Is the Greatest Single Forward Step in the History of Shorthand.
 It makes the typewriter do double duty, take the dictation down as well as take it up. It uses the abbreviating power of the English language the same as the Byrne Simplified Shorthand but with printed characters on all standard makes of typewriters instead of with the pencil. The typewriter has proven to be the most efficient of modern office appliances. The business man likes it because it enables him to turn out his correspondence with speed and accuracy. But he has realized that there was still a weakness in his correspondence from the fact that what he dictated was recorded first with the erring pencil and that which did not go down correct could not come back correct.
 He now welcomes the Steno-typewriting because he sees his dictation going down accurately in print to come back accurately transcribed. Steno-typewriting is simple because it is done mechanically. It is legible because it is printed. It is rapid because it is executed with the eight nimble fingers of the hand instead of one cramped around a pencil.
 Steno-typewriting notes are interchangeable. It is so legible that one stenographer can read another's notes backwards. Steno-typewriting may be written at a good commercial rate of speed with a pencil in the absence of a typewriter.
 There perhaps, never was a system of note taking that has caused so much favorable comment as has Steno-typewriting. It is admitted to be the logical way.
 This most modern method of note taking can only be had in this part of the country at the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas. The school that is not only the largest of the kind in America, but does the most thorough practical work in Book-keeping, Shorthand, Steno-typewriting, Telegraphy, Cotton Classing and Business Administration and Finance. There is always a good demand for its graduates and there hasn't been a time in five years that it could supply the demand for its graduates of Telegraphy.

 A large 230 page beautifully illustrated, pictorial, catalogue will be sent free to those who request it, stating the courses they would likely be interested in.

FERGUSON DEFENDS HIS ADMINISTRATION

Waco, Texas, June 10.—Governor James E. Ferguson formally opened his campaign for re-election this afternoon in the auditorium, an audience of about 2,500 being present. The Governor arrived here at 11:40 this morning, coming on a special train from Austin. There were 496 people on the train, including a number of State officers.

HOG CHOLERA IS REPORTED IN COUNTY

Jas. D. Greer, county agricultural agent, informs The Sentinel that there is some hog cholera scattered over the county, and that it will take quick work to stamp it out.
 Those having hogs afflicted with the trouble are requested to notify Mr. Greer at once and he will come as quick as possible. Address or phone him at Nacogdoches.
 G. W. Butler of Woden was registered in the city last night.

MARRIED SUNDAY-NIGHT. ENDORSES EX-SLAVE HOME.

After the services were over at the Christian church last night, and as the crowd was dispersing, Mr. E. D. Forte and Miss Iba Gee drove up to the church and were married by the pastor. The happy couple attended the service and requested the pastor to wait for them, after which they retired to a buggy in waiting and drove up when the crowd has broken away.
 The bride belongs to one of the good families of the city, and is a lovable christian young woman who is loved and admired by those who know her. The groom is an energetic young farmer of the community, in every way worthy of the fair bride he has won, and in his new relationship will take his place with the good citizenship of the country.
 The Sentinel joins the many friends of the happy couple in congratulations and good wishes.
PROMOTING EX-SLAVE HOME.
 A. C. Churchill, president of the institution, is in the city soliciting funds with which to build a home for ex-slaves at Sherman, Texas. The institution has been incorporated under the laws of Texas, which will hold those engaged in promoting it, and operating it, to strict accountability for all moneys contributed.
 Many of these old darkeys are now unable to work and have no means of support, making them a charge upon the various communities of the state, and many of them suffer hardships in consequence. Rightly managed, an institution of this kind would be a most worthy charity, and The Sentinel is in hearty sympathy with the move.

ENDORSES EX-SLAVE HOME.

Nacogdoches, Tex., June 14, 1916. Editor Daily Sentinel:
 In yesterday's issue of your paper I note that A. C. Churchill was in town asking aid for the promotion of an ex-slave home to be located at Linden, Texas.
 This article puts me in a rambling mood which took me back to early childhood. My father was a large slave holder, and I was raised among them, and know them like a book. Several of his slaves were pure Africans, and never did learn to speak English only very broken. For the old-time darkey I have a great veneration, and respect, and I am in hearty accord with the promoters of this institution for the care of these old people in their old age, and last days on earth. No set of people who were in their condition were more loyal during the war between the states; they were the backbone of our country. When the men and owners were at the front, these old slaves were the only protection of womanhood of the Confederacy, and on several occasions I have witnessed their loyalty to mother and the children. They were ready to surrender their lives for the protection of the white women and children of the Southern Confederacy.

The stain for new woodwork

For staining furniture, floors, base-boards or beamed ceilings—inside or outside—use a stain that penetrates deeply into the pores of the wood and holds its color.

DEVOE

THE GUARANTEED
OIL WOOD STAINS

For all work of this kind we recommend DEVOE Oil Wood Stains because they are made with pigments instead of aniline. The colors are unfading, and since they are mixed with oil we can guarantee that they will not raise the grain of the wood as water stains do. DEVOE Oil Wood Stains leave a surface that takes varnish or wax polish perfectly. We can supply these stains in mahogany, walnut, Flemish oak, etc.

PICNIC AT FAIRVIEW.

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday, Friday, according to previous announcement, there was a popular and most enjoyable picnic at Fairview, which place is just four miles east of Nacogdoches on the route of the old King's Highway. It was indeed a grand success in every way desirable. The weather was fine and the people were in a cheerful mood. The dinner was fine, too, and plentiful, to excess. It was served at noon and served in a most satisfactory manner.

The forenoon was taken up by some exercises by the school children under the direction of the teacher, Prof. Allen.

The afternoon was devoted to the privileges of candidates for office in the approaching elections. Mr. Candidate was there with both feet and in his most attractive style. Audley Harris was in the chair as master of ceremonies, and he filled the chair in a most masterly and ceremonious manner to the delight of all present. He called the roll of candidates in the order of their announcement in The Sentinel, giving to each one an allotted time and opportunity to speak.

The response was ample in number and in verbiage, and more. The crowd was not sad when this part of it was ended. However, everybody said it was good to be there, and the fair ladies of Fairview are truly fair to view.

GOOD ROADS BOOSTERS WILL MEET TOGETHER

Will Gather at Mich Weatherly Creek Wednesday Afternoon to Discuss Matters.

People of Garrison, Appleby, Maytown and Nacogdoches who believe that the time is ripe for road improvement in Nacogdoches county, and who realize the importance of good roads, has agreed to come together in a joint meeting at the creek this side of Uncle Mich Weatherly's next Wednesday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock at which time methods, ways and means will be discussed, and such action looking to the launching of a campaign for road improvement as may seem wise will be taken.

Every one interested in road improvement is invited to attend this meeting, and as far as possible free transportation will be furnished those who wish to go from this place.

Those who wish to go from here, and have no way, are requested to leave their names with Swift Bros. & Smith drug store, or Tucker-Sitton Hardware store not later than 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, and all who can do so conveniently may take along a lunch which will be enjoyed in picnic fashion on the grounds of the meeting. For this feature a committee will look after the matter of providing ice.

The cars will leave here promptly at 4:00 o'clock, arriving at the meeting place promptly at 5:00 o'clock, and all who expect to attend will please remember this schedule.

The Sentinel trusts that the people of the various towns, and the people of the country who are likewise interested, will rally to the importance of this meeting, and lend their presence. No country ever comes into its own until it has good roads—and we will never have good roads until we build them. The quickest way to build them is for the people to get together in an intelligent way, and patriotically promote a plan that will burden no one and yet distribute its blessings equally to the section of country covered.

All these matters will be threshed out in an intelligent way at this meeting, and a cordial invitation is extended to all who will to come.

A BASEBALL TEAM IS NOW ASSURED

A Manager Has Been Secured and is Busy Assembling Team for Service.

It is now a settled fact that Nacogdoches will be a part of the East Texas Baseball League with a good team of its own.

The first requirement was to secure funds with which to finance the enterprise and a subscription was taken for this purpose, to which many people responded liberally, and while some more money will be needed, enough has been secured to make those promoting the enterprise feel safe in going ahead and rely upon the patriotism of the community for the balance.

The promoters have contracted with Tom Cherry of Houston, a student of the A. & M., to manage the team. It will be remembered that Mr. Cherry played with Nacogdoches some last year, and is said to be a very competent man for the place. He is now busy assembling a team and is endeavoring, as far as possible, to get college boys who have ability and training in the game for the team here.

Mr. Cherry will report in Nacogdoches on the 15th of the present month and be ready for service on the 19th. Nacogdoches team will open with three games at Crockett, followed with three games at Rusk, and return home for six games.

The East Texas League will be composed of teams promoted by Palestine, Crockett, Jacksonville, Rusk, Lufkin and Nacogdoches, and the schedule will be arranged so as to keep all teams busy during the season.

A REMARKABLE STATEMENT

Mrs. Sheldon Spent $1900 for Treatment Without Benefit. Finally Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Englewood, Ill.—"While going through the change of life I suffered with headaches, nervousness, flashes of heat, and I suffered so much I did not know what I was doing at times. I spent $1900 on doctors and not one did me any good. One day a lady called at my house and said she had been as sick as I was at one time, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her well, so I took it and now I am just as well as I ever was. I cannot understand why women don't see how much pain and suffering they would escape by taking your medicine. I cannot praise it enough for it saved my life and kept me from the Insane Hospital." Mrs. E. Sheldon, 607 S. Halsted St., Englewood, Ill.

Physicians undoubtedly did their best, but in this case steadily and could do no more, but often the most scientific treatment is surpassed by the medicinal properties of the good old-fashioned roots and herbs contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complication exists it pays to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special free advice.

LIST OF EXHIBITS.

The following is a list of exhibits necessary for each girl of the Home Demonstration work, entering for state prizes:

Twelve quart-jars of vegetables, fruit or vegetable products, one of which must be tomatoes, prizes $10, $7, $5, $3.

Six glasses variety jellies (this is a separate exhibit but is required to make up the whole) $5, $4, $3, $2.

Two bottles tomato catsup $5, $4, $3, $2.

Two jars Dixie relish $5, $4, $3, $2.

Two jars B. S. chutney $5, $4, $3, $2.

Six cans tomatoes, in tin, $5, $4, $3, $2.

Six cans peaches, in tin $5, $4, $3, $2.

The girls will also be judged on making of the caps and apron, and on the writing of the history of the crops.

These are the Dallas Fair prizes, and we are going to make our county list of exhibits conform to this. The four girls having the best all-round exhibits will receive scholarships to the Encampment school at the Dallas fair Oct. 14-29.

We feel sure that every girl is going to do her best to make the work count something for her.

News has been received in the city that Mr. T. J. Humphreys, a most elegant and prominent old gentleman of the Cold Springs community, is seriously ill with paralysis, with which he was stricken some days ago. Mr. Humphreys is one of the oldest surviving natives of the county and is a Confederate veteran.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when 50 cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

ICE SERVICE.

Mayor Matthews has received the following letter, which he hands us for publication:

June 5, 1916.
Mr. Geo. H. Matthews, Mayor,
Nacogdoches, Texas,
Dear Sir:

I have just received from Mr. P. G. Whaley of Marshall, Texas, copies of correspondence that has passed between yourself and him with regard to the prices our company is charging for ice at Nacogdoches, and Mr. Whaley requests that I write you direct in regard to this matter.

First, I beg to say that Manager Marshall at Nacogdoches some weeks ago invited our attention to the fact that a revision of our prices at Nacogdoches should be taken under consideration, and discussed, in view of the fact that the rates were not quite satisfactory to our patrons, and I advised him I would make it a point to get to Nacogdoches, or meet with our other associates in Marshall, Texas, at the earliest opportunity, and discuss it, but press of other matters, and the fact that I have been absent from home during some weeks past has prevented our doing this up to this time, and hence the matter has been held in abeyance.

I beg to say further in this connection that we realize fully the necessity of meeting the views of yourself and the other good people of Nacogdoches in the matter of prices and service to the fullest extent possible, and that we must retain the good will which is so necessary to the successful operation of any commercial enterprise, and that we are not only desirous of meeting the views of our patrons, but that we will do so, if necessary, at the risk of reducing the earning of our property below a fair return on such investment, though I am perfectly assured that you do not ask or expect us to do that.

In view of our assurance from many sources of your reputation for eminent fairness and intelligent grasp and understanding of commercial problems, I am prompted to place before you certain facts in connection with the ice business, which are usually not understood and frequently misapprehended by the general public, but which are necessarily incident to the operation of the ice business, which is seasonal, and can operate at an approximate full load capacity only three and one-half to four months in each year. As a result of this, every plant operating to serve the commercial business, as is ordinarily the case throughout the country, operates at a loss during a considerable portion of the year, for the reason that it is not practicable, as you will agree, to close down its plant, and dispense with its organization during 6 or 7 months of the year, and that it must furthermore continue to serve its patrons who want service during the winter months even though it does so at a loss, as otherwise it would fail to give the service to which its patrons are entitled, and which they demand and expect.

To exemplify the foregoing, I beg to submit the following data taken from the records of our operation at Nacogdoches, which records we will gladly and willingly throw open for your inspection, or that you might have them inspected, if you care to do so, by any competent accountant to verify the figures, these being for the six months ending April 30th last, namely:

Amount of ice sold in Nacogdoches during that period, 328 tons	Average amt. sold daily, 1.8-10 tons
Cost per ton for making (covering fuel, labor, factory supplies, and all engine room expenses)	$5.25
Cost per ton to sell (covering wages of drivers, feed and outfit of teams, wagons, outfits, and other selling expenses)	$4.48
General expenses (covering insurance, taxes, maintenance, repairs and manager salary)	$4.92
Total cost of each ton of ice made and sold	$14.65
Average price realized for each ton of ice sold	$ 8.93
Net loss on each ton ice sold	$5.72

In submitting this data I beg to say further, based on a long experience and acquaintance with the cost of operating ice plants all over the south, that this is a fair sample of the usual results of ice plant operation, and in some cases the deficit is much larger, especially as plants grow older, and the cost of upkeep increases. You will perceive at a glance of course that these high costs are caused by the fact that the unavoidable expense of keeping the plant in operation and giving the service must be pro-rated over the actual amount of ice produced and sold, instead as is frequently done theoretically, over the amount the plant could produce, and this of course holds true as to the remainder of the year's operations, the lowest cost being reached during the 3½ or four months if mid-summer business when the plant can operate at its full capacity.

We are endeavoring during recent years to impress upon our friends and patrons as much as we can the fact that the service, or, in other words, the delivery, is an operation in itself, and service for that, but that a certain amount or volume of business is which costs about as much per ton as the manufacture of ice, and that to give good service means to reach every customer during the morning hours of the day, and that these teams must be fed and the outfits maintained during the dull season.

It is apparent from the foregoing that the ice business in some aspects similar to other public service operations, such as electric light, except that its product is not delivered automatically, but is dependent upon man's labor, and that hence competition in the ice business in the smaller cities and towns destroys the earning capacity of the properties unavoidably, as in the case of two plants for instance, there are two full expense accounts both for the manufacture and for the delivery end, with the tonnage and revenue divided, and no ice plant can possibly operate on half of its revenue under the most favorable conditions.

In the figures given above, there is no interest whatever on the investment taken into account.

In conclusion I beg to assure you that we shall at once give attention to the matter of prices in Nacogdoches, and will formulate a new schedule, making as much reduction as seems to us possible under the existing conditions, and I trust and believe that it will meet with your approval and that of our friends and patrons in Nacogdoches.

Yours sincerely,
C. W. DAWLEY,
President.

THE EXCELSIOR OIL CO.

Well No. 1 of the Excelsior Oil Company was baled to a depth of about 2000 feet Wednesday. The amount of oil drawn out is sufficient to assure that it will be a producer even if deeper drilling develops no more. Samples sent to Shreveport graded 46 to 48 per cent, which is the highest grade yet found in Texas. It has a rich amber color and a consistency about like that of the crude oil distilled from cannel coal before petroleum, or liquid bitumen, was discovered.

While the well is being baled many Carthaginians visited it and returned with bottles of the oil, which was tested in various ways with satisfactory results. A boom in leases is the natural consequence of these developments.—Carthage Register.

SIGNIFICANCE OF CHILDHOOD.

"The birth of a little child reveals God; the helplessness of a little child proves providence; the innocence of a little child implies immortality. Surely no little one sent into an earthly home, even but for a day, and bequeathing these beautiful and sublime lessons, can be thought to have come and gone in vain."

Old Folks Saved From Suffering

Mrs. Mary A. Dean, Taunton, Mass., in her 87th year, says: "I thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley Kidney Pills have proven most beneficial in my case."

Mr. Sam. A. Hoover, High Point, N. C., writes: "My kidney trouble was worse at night and I had to get up from five to seven times. Now I do not have to get up at night, and consider myself in a truly normal condition, which I attribute to Foley Kidney Pills, as I have taken nothing else."

Mrs. M. A. Bridges, Robinson, Mass., says: "I suffered from kidney ailments for two years. I commenced taking Foley Kidney Pills ten months ago, and though I am 61 years of age, I feel like a 16-year-old girl."

Foley Kidney Pills are tonic, strengthening and up-building, and restore normal action to the kidneys and to a disordered and painful bladder. They act quickly and contain no dangerous or harmful drugs.

Comptroller of Public Account—H. B. Terrell, Austin; Charles B. White, Dallas.

An application for the filing of his name as Comptroller was received Tuesday morning from J. M. Terrell of Dallas, but it was not made out in proper form, Mr. Waples said, and therefore was not considered.

HORRIBLE CRIME AT WILLS POINT

Wills Point, Tex., June 7.—Mrs. H. F. Goodnight, 70, was killed, her husband, who is president of the Van Zandt National Bank here, was fatally injured, and their daughter, Mrs. R. J. Morau, was beaten into insensibility in their home about 3:30 o'clock this morning by persons who used either a large hammer or an axe as a weapon. Physicians said although Mrs. Morau probably would die, it was only a question of hours before the death of Mr. Goodnight would make the crime a double murder.

No motive is known for the killing. The house was found in order this morning, with no signs of attempted robbery and nothing, as far as known, was missing. The Goodnight home is in the outskirts of the town.

According to the story told by R. J. Morau, son-in-law, he was awakened about 3:30 o'clock by the screams of his wife in an adjoining room. He found her unconscious in her bed. Morau sought Mr. Goodnight, but found him in an almost dying condition in his bedroom on the second floor.

Mrs. Goodnight was found in the cellar, dead, having been carried from her bedroom on the second floor to the basement.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give a trial. I still use Gardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Gardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Gardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

Get a Bottle Today!

Her head was crushed in the same manner as other victims. She had evidently died almost instantly.

Officers were puzzled early today as to the motive of the crime and the identity of the slayer. Although the sheriff's and city marshal's departments were rigorously working on the case, it was said that nothing could be ascertained until Mrs. Morau regained consciousness and related her story of the attack on the aged couple and herself.

As far as known here, no person had any grievances against the Goodnight family, and it had been almost definitely established that robbery was not the object.

ARREST SON-IN-LAW.

Wills Point, Tex., June 8.—R. J. Morau, son-in-law of H. S. Goodnight, president of the Van Zandt National bank, who with his wife were killed in their home early yesterday, and Mrs. Morau seriously injured, was arrested late yesterday and formally charged with murder.

After being taken into custody, Morau was removed from Wills Point by the county sheriff and other officers and it is believed they were en route to Canton.

DISTINGUISHED PYTHIAN WILL VISIT DOCHES

Mr. Geo. B. Griggs, a prominent lawyer of Houston, will be here Friday, the 16th. Mr. Griggs is supreme representative of the Knights of Pythians, and is Texas manager of the insurance department of the order. He will meet with the K. of P. lodge on Friday night and deliver a short address on Pythianism and fully explain the insurance department.

It is to be hoped that all members of the Lodge will attend this session and it is especially important that those who carry insurance in the order should be there as they will receive information that will be beneficial to them.

Mr. Griggs is a gentleman of pleasing personality and you will find it a pleasure to meet with him.

DEAD BUT DON'T KNOW IT.

South Mansfield Star: A young man down east says one of our exchanges hung himself because some people found fault with him. Should this practice become general, the trees would be full of preachers, school teachers, doctors and editors. The preacher, the teacher, the doctor or editor that nobody finds fault with ought to hang himself because he is dead and doesn't know it.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Smith went to Nacogdoches Sunday, going through the country in their automobile. The purpose of their visit was on account of the illness of Mr. Smith's sister, who, it was thought, would undergo an operation. Advices from there Monday, however, were to the effect that the operation would not be had and that the ill one was doing fairly well. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will remain there all this week.—Center Champion.

SINGING AND DINNER.

At Walnut Grove, Friday, July 14, 1916, there will be an all-day singing and dinner on the ground.

Everybody invited to come and help in the benefit of the cemetery. All singers, and also candidates, are invited. A full program will be arranged.

LARGE BOX SENT TO COMPANY B

Relatives and friends of Company B., 3rd Infantry, responded liberally to the call made in the Times, for a gift box of good things to eat, magazines, tobacco, etc., to be sent them last Saturday night. Wells Fargo express company is sending all boxes free of cost, when the smaller packages are made up in one large box and sent to some individual in the company. Shipment was made Saturday night on the 12:13 train and reached the boys this morning. The box was addressed to Capt. R. R. Morrison, Company B., 3rd Infantry, Harlingen, Texas. W. C. Johnson is due a great deal of credit for the interest taken in soliciting contributions from the business men to purchase the tobacco.—Timpson Times.

THE HARMONY PICNIC.

Friday, July 12, has been selected for the big picnic at Harmony. An effort is being made by the committee to secure one of the candidates for U. S. Senator to address the people on that day. Further notice will be given after arrangements are made. The county candidates will also be given a chance to make talks. We are going to invite Nat and Melrose baseball teams to play here that day.

Did you ever hear of Harmony not having plenty of good things to eat? Well just come and find out. You candidates come and bring your speech along. Everybody cordially invited.

COMMITTEE.

HERE'S YOUR CHANCE TO JOIN THE ARMY

Harlingen, Tex., June 10. The Timpson Times, Timpson, Texas.

Lieut. Col. John S. Hoover has been appointed chief recruiting officer of the Texas National Guard. He will send a recruiting party to each company's home station to recruit the companies up to full strength.

They will visit Timpson in the near future. And all able bodied men of military age will have an opportunity to enlist, and will be assigned to their home company, Co. B., 3rd Infantry, T. N. G. This will be your opportunity to join us on the border young man. And if you believe in preparedness, enlist and come on, for we are being rapidly prepared, and now have one of the best companies on the border.

Capt. R. R. MORRISON, Com. Co. B., 3rd Inf. T. N. G.

A PRACTICAL RURAL SCHOOL.

For the purpose of showing the citizens of Nacogdoches County what the well planned, correctly taught rural school may bring to the country, I am giving you the correct history of a school in the rural districts of Linsville, La., and I ask the citizens of Nacogdoches county to read carefully and see if such a school would not be profitable in your district and at the same time I would ask you to well consider as to whether it would be a difficult problem to maintain such a school. Linsville is a rural community far from the railroad in a hilly region in Northern Louisiana. Five years ago it had all the marks of a backwoods community with no ideals of growth. Some of the marks were its box-car shack used for school, its farm run to weeds, and its traditional school open from four to six months in the year. The beginning was made by the citizens themselves—not all of them to be sure, only the most energetic. These few succeeded in building a two-room school which was a marked improvement over the previous school-house. At the present time, the two-room building has been enlarged into a fine six-room structure set in large grounds, sodded with grass, and dotted with shade trees. It has other improvements that signify a growing community with definite standards of its own. There is a shoproom for the boys, a well-equipped home-economics department for the girls, sanitary drinking fountain, and the life. Local social life, formerly of no community avail, now offers interests for the children, the young men and young women, and the older people of the community.

The teachers of the school are correspondingly progressive. The course of study utilized fits the needs of the community. Its teaching includes problems of sanitation and personal hygiene of definite importance to the children and adults. The reading course selects the subject-matter from life and nature-environment. The most forceful factor in the new community life began with the establishment of a school farm and plant nursery of about two acres as part of the public school. This farm was cleared of trees and brush; stumps were removed; and posts cut and hauled. The lumber for fencing was cut on the land and saved at a nearby saw mill on shares. All this work, including the building of the fence, was done by boys with the assistance of the principal. The only outlay of cash for this construction was $1.50 for nails and barbed wire.

The land was divided into plots and cultivated by the boys and girls of the agriculture classes. Fruit trees of every kind suitable for this climate were planted during late winter and early spring. Hickory, haws, and many other trees were planted and later grafted and budded. A spray was added to the equipment, and lessons were given in spraying fruit trees, vegetables, etc. The principal and the boys made excursions through the neighborhood spraying orchards, potato patches, and gardens to destroy injurious insects and other pests. These excursions afford the school opportunity to reach the patrons direct and give them valuable first-hand lessons. The work has become part of the school curriculum, and the community looks to the school for advice and help of this sort.

In order to promote the social, educational, agricultural, and material advancement of the community, a School District Fair Association was organized. This association held its first annual fair on October 1., 1914. Among the important results achieved were increased appreciation on the part of the boys and girls for their opportunities in farm club work, and the new community interest in local industrial possibilities.

With agricultural co-operation secured, it was comparatively easy for the community to begin other phases of social development. The school started this by interesting the people both old and young in games, which were played on the school grounds and enjoy themselves playing volleyball, tennis, and other games. Literary societies meet in the school building, where many things of community importance are discussed.

Before the establishment of the new school with its new relationship to the community, only the smaller children attended the school; the older ones sought work and entertainment elsewhere. At the present time the young men and women of the community, ranging in age from 21 to 26 years, attend. The farmers have learned to look to the institution for help in their agricultural problems. They find it more profitable to have their sons and daughters in school than to keep them at work on the farm, with no vision of their own and no aid beyond that which they themselves can give.

Let's see what community in Nacogdoches county will be the first one that can give to the world a similar history to that of Linsville, Louisiana. Yours for better schools. JOHN B. STRIPLING. June 13, 1916.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Hall have returned from a big visit to their children out west. They went first to Bryan, where their son Oscar Hall resides, and next to San Antonio, to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, the latter being their daughter. They were accompanied by a son of Mr. Ollie Hall of San Augustine.

Miss Jordan of Martinsville was registered in the city last night.

From the very first the Dort has scored a success. Now it is dominating its price-class. Engineering experts have been surprised to find the price so low. Motorists have been quick to recognize in the Dort an unprecedented value. No car at anywhere its value has the horsepower, sturdiness, class, dependability and allround thorough-going quality of the Dort. No car in its class is so well equipped. French design motor, bore 3 3/4 inches, stroke 5 inches; the work of Etienne Planche, former Peugeot engineer. Beautiful hand-painted body, pure stream-line. Full cantilever springs, 50 1/2 inches long. Weight only 2080 pounds. 22 miles to a gallon of gasoline; irreversible steering; sturdy frame and rear axle.

ALL TIRED OUT. PLAY AT TRINITY.

Hundreds More in Nacogdoches In the Same Plight.

Tired all the time. Weary and worn out night and day; Back aches; head aches. Your kidneys are probably weakened.

You should help them at their work. Let one who knows tell you how.

Mrs. W. H. Wood, North St., Nacogdoches, says: My bladder was inflamed and my kidneys acted too freely. The kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I lost my rest and in the morning felt exhausted and as though I hadn't had any sleep. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and soon got relief. They have also been taken by other members of the family with excellent results.

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wood had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo N. Y.

SYNOPSIS.

ACT I—Archie has an adventure and tells of his love for Rose. "A Guaranteed Proposal." Robert makes a confession. Silas tells the story of his life. Rose gets a bad scare, and Rose gets better acquainted with her old pal, Bill. Archie tries to defend himself. Mose makes a mistake. The doctor defines love. "Come on and take it, then." ACT II—Archie tries "This beautiful sunshine," and gets to the point at last. "Oh, Lordy!" Rose in love. "Cheer up, Rose! I ain't a kinking!" Rose is afraid. I just think you've got the purtiest eyes." Uncle Silas is willing. "It be all right, Doc!" Silas proposes—to have some ice cream. Mose to the rescue. Rose learns the truth. Bill to the defense. "No ye won't Bill!" ACT III—Scene 1: Bill on track of the "right steer" at last. "Rose loved me first, an' she'll have me now!" "Curse ye! I'm square with ye now!" Just an accident! "For Rose's sake!" Scene 2—Phil and Dorothy come to an understanding. Rose is still "powerful sot in her ideas!" Silas springs a new sensation and incidentally a new and not altogether welcome "Dad." A reconciliation and a parting. "My poor little girl!" ACT IV—Afternoon tea. Bill finds hothouse flowers too fragrant for his nose. "I didn't mean to come afore ye got your clothes on!" A little domestic tiff that blows over satisfactorily. The guaranteed proposal falls. Silas is very much married. An old friend unexpectedly turns up. "Merciful heavens! It is Rose!" "Back to the prairie!" "This!" "Louder, please!" Miss Maggie Brandon, the primary teacher of the school is directing the play. Admission 15c and 25c, proceeds for the benefit of the school library. A cordial invitation is extended to the general public. Music will be furnished by the Campbell band.
