FRANK PARSONS ACQUITTED.

The jury in the Frank Parsons case, on trial at Center last week, brought in a verdict of not guilty and the young man was turned loose.

It is reported that the young man confessed to firing the depot at Lutkin, for which offense he was being tried, but claimed that it was accidental. His story was that he went back to see about some money he had left, and approaching the darkness struck a match which he unthoughtfully threw down near a can of gasoline which was leaking. The flames spread so quickly it was impossible for him to check them and he fled to safety. After the explosion he feared to return and left. He also admitted using the ticket around which there was some mystery to get away on.

ANOTHER LUTKIN FIRE.

Another fire alarm was heard in Lutkin this morning about 2 o'clock. The residence on the corner across from the opera house, occupied by Mr. Daniels and owned by Mr. Birtford, was destroyed. Some of the household effects were saved. The fire started in the kitchen, and had gained considerable headway when first discovered. It was not ascertained whether insurance was carried or not.

A HIND GEAR ON AN OWENSBORO

An Owensboro Wagon is built from 'start to finish' in a strong, substantial way just like the hind gear shown above. We have these high grade Wagons for you and we are anxious to have you come in at once and see how you like them. Look at the above gear. Don't you like that sturdy way of ironing? In every place where a brace is needed you will always find a good one on an Owensboro. Come in and see the wagon itself though is the very best way to tell. We want you to own an Owensboro--and the Owensboro is the best wagon to own. Ask any user why.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The price of paper on which we print The Sentinel has climbed so high within the past few months that it is quite a burden for the publishers to hold it. We have long since been obliged of all profit in this department of the work, and any leakage would go through our departments and there is no actual money from the treasury.

In view of these conditions we must insist upon prompt monthly settlement of all subscriptions to the Daily, and annual settlement of all subscription due the Weekly. If you are due more than one month to the Daily, we would of course, be glad to get it all but if you can't meet the whole bill at least pay the current month and we will carry the balance to the next month. With the Weekly we must have settlement of the current year, or make the same concession carrying a greater amount, but with the good crops and good price of everything this year, it would seem that almost every man, unless he has been overtaken with some unavoidable misfortune, could adjust the whole amount.

The Sentinel has always been liberal with its subscribers, and values the account of each worth one hundred cent in the dollar, but we have reached a time when it takes actual money, in large amounts to get the paper and keep the machinery going. Having no quarrels with you in your misfortune, or have an abiding faith in you to come to our rescue in the present crisis, and feel that this statement is sufficient.

George Kiss of Detroit is saying Mrs. Kiss has a number of children she gave a kiss to another Kiss. Now she will miss Kiss, and if Kiss shall miss Miss Kiss, he will probably be devilish enough to kiss some blood-brother—Col. Bailey, in Houston Post.

The Sentinel is going to give considerable attention to road improvement next season, and would appreciate articles from the pen of others on the subject. "In the multiplicity of counsel there is wisdom," and in intelligent discussion we arrive at the best method of handling any proposition that confronts us.

The worst condition of man is when he is too old to work and too ignorant to converse. That condition is liable to overtake those who do not wisely improve their youth. Solomon, prized wisdom far above all earthly things. Youth is the time to lay the foundation, and the habit of accuracy should then be formed. Learn a thing correctly and early in life begin to store away knowledge, and old age will find you interesting and useful.—R. T. Milner.

We maintain that farming is, and should be, one of the most dignified professions in the world, and that the farmer is the hope of this nation. We believe that the farmer is of more importance than the farm, and should be first improved; that the skillful hand and cultured mind are his greatest assets, that the boys and girls are his most important crop. We would kindly among our readers an ambition for more intelligent farming, and would make not only better farms, but better homes.—Grapeland Messenger.

PREDICTS END OF TIME.

Our esteemed friend, Doc Lively, of the Laifkin News, usually so light-hearted, gay and optimistic, has become alarmed with the outlook of conditions, and foresees the immediate end of time. He even inquires: "Are you ready to go?" He is the one man to whom we have always turned when we had the blues and lambasted when we wanted to fight, but after reading his prediction, which he puts with such force, there is no more "fight" in us, and we shall have an immediate consultation with our pastor as soon as the day's work is over—if the whole day is spared to us. Listen to him and you will understand why we, too, are alarmed:

"There is so much out of the ordinary transpiring on this old globe just now that the writer will again insist that the world is nearing the end—it cannot hold up under the pressure very much longer. History records a comparison with the record of this year, and we still have four more months of 1916 staring us in the face. More nations are at war than ever warred before at any one time, and the slaughter is greater than ever in the past. Just now a breach is imminent between South American countries, the United States has thousands of its soldiers on the Mexican border; this free country of ours is threatened with a railway strike without precedent, and if carried out would cripple this land the same almost as would a struggle on the field of battle with some other power. It is presidential election year, and the grandest man who ever occupied the White House is being assailed by the opposition. The fire havoc in cities has been alarming, floods in the country have been appalling, and hurricanes, tornadoes and cyclones have left untold dead in their wake and destroyed millions of dollars worth of property. Besides that, man under the heat of passion are killing one another, and it may be said, even the women, some of them, have become proficient in the art of firearms, and every day the crack of a weapon is heard in some quarter, and a number is the result. Yes, take it from the writer, none of us are long for this old earth, and the crash may be expected at any time. Are you ready for the go?"

LET THE SUNSHINE IN.

Draw up the shades and let the sunlight in.

Sunlight is the tonic of life, bringing cleanliness, health, happiness and optimism with it. The window shade is its enemy.

If you keep down your window shades you harm only yourself and your family. You restrain the best disinfectant from killing the germs that accumulate in your home. Germs live and thrive in darkness.

You draw your shades to keep the carpets and draperies from fading. But while you do that the cheeks of your children fade instead. Better to have faded rugs than faded children.

Beyond the physical effect from the sun is the mental. You feel light, joyous, good natured and optimistic while the sun shines. And who wants to be gloomy, grouchy these days?

Let the sunshine into your home, into your body and all the world will be a blaze of glory to you. Then, you will like living, and in spite of it all the adversities you may meet, you will keep on viewing life from the joyous side.—Shreveport Times.

Dr. Thomas of Woden has been spending the day in the city.

WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH YOUR BOY?

Just at this particular time, with the opening of school just a few days away, there are many parents trying to decide the question of their child's going to school, or staying out to work. Too often is the case that both parent and child think the world is needing the boy just now and if the opportunity is not seized, the world will move on and leave the boy. What will you, Parents of Nacogdoches, do with your boys?

Let us look at a few facts that might cause us to decide the question right. Statisticians show that every day spent in school pays the child $9.00. Uneducated men earn on the average $500.00 per year for 40 years—total $20,000. High School graduates earn on average $1000 per year for 40 years—total $40,000. To get this high school education requires 12 years of school, of 180 days each year which would give a total of 2160 days of school. We see that by attending school this 12 years the boy has earned $20,000 more than if he had not attended at all. This is added for his school days. If we divide this increase by the number of days it took to earn it, we will see that it meant $9 per day to the child. Can your boy earn that much now? Will he ever be able to earn that much per day without education?

These are facts that have been worked out by experts and no doubt are accurate. Any man who will take time to think about this will decide to give his boy an education regardless of the sacrifice that must be made.

Not only parents, but business men also, should consider this. While parents should be the most interested, the business man who would like to see his country produce the best of men, and therefore the best of everything, will not hit a boy that ought to be in school. It is not fair to the boy. The boy is not to blame so much as the father and business man. They are mature and know more the value of an education and should encourage the boy to go to school. Numbers of boys stay out of school because they are offered some little "job" to clerk, when if this was refused they would go to school.

There are boys in our midst now who are trying to decide whether to go to school, or to "terk soda", or run a delivery. Won't you help them, fathers? Mr. Business Man? It behooves the men of our country to see that the boys are in school and that they do their best to get the education that is being paid for by the tax payers. Therefore, let every father answer the question: "What will you do with your boy?"

What a sad commentary a person pronounces upon himself when he disclaims the importance of book farming! All scientific knowledge of every kind, from the simplest to the most complex, is in the books. All there is of importance in medicine, law, theology, etc., is in the books. There was a time, centuries ago, when books were so few that only the rich could own them and ignorance among the masses was universal. But even wisdom of the world was preserved in books. Outside of books one can learn a great deal from observation and experience. But the knowledge upon which our civilization is based is congested and stored away in the books. All that experience has proven to be worth while is in the books, and the most valuable agricultural knowledge we have is the PAINFUL EFFECT OF Rheumatism, Lumbago, Gout.

It is now asserted with confidence that these painful effects due to uric acid in the system are entirely eradicated. A new remedy, called "Anurie," has been discovered by Doctor Pierce, which he has 37 times more potent than lithin, and is the cause of a drainage outward of the uric acid with which it comes in contact within the body. It will ward off backache, headache, and the darting pains and aches of rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia—of those diseases which are caused by too much uric acid, such as gout, asthma, sciatica, renal calculus. "Anurie" prolongs life because old people usually suffer from hardening and thickening of the walls of the arteries, due to the excess of uric acid in the blood and tissues.

Send Dr. Pierce, chief physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for large trial package, or obtain 50c. package now at druggists.

NEW BANK COMMISSIONER.

Austin, Texas, Sept. 1.—Upon his return to his office yesterday Governor Ferguson announced the appointment of Charles O. Austin as commissioner of insurance and banking to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John S. Patterson. Mr. Austin has been deputy commissioner of banking since his appointment to that position by Mr. Patterson on March 1 last, and for 11 years prior to that time he had made his residence in San Antonio. No announcement has been made as to who will succeed Mr. Austin as deputy commissioner of banking.

Mr. Austin was born in Missouri 41 years ago; was educated in the common high schools and at an early age went to work in a country bank. Afterwards he became bank examiner for the State of Missouri. He then became cashier of the Mechanics National Bank of St. Louis. In 1902 he went to Chicago as vice president of the National Bank of North America. In 1904 his health failed and he retired from the banking business and came to the Southwest, where he has since been president of the Missouri Bankers' Association and one of the vice presidents of the American Bankers' Association. For the past 11 years he has resided in San Antonio, there engaged in various enterprises.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. Obtainable everywhere.

Mr. D. C. Mast, one of the Sentinel's good friends from Melrose, was a pleasant caller at the office yesterday. Mr. Mast says that his community has fine crops of feedstuff, and will make a pretty good turn out of cotton, not seeming to have been cut as short as some communities report.

Rheumatism Follows Exposure.

In the rain all day is generally followed by painful twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Sloan's Liniment will give you quick relief and prevent the twinges from becoming torture. It quickly penetrates without rubbing and soothes the sore and aching joints. For sore, stiff exhausted muscles that ache and throb from overwork, Sloan's Liniment affords quick relief. Bruises, sprains, strains, and other minor injuries to children are quickly soothed by Sloan's Liniment. Get a bottle today at your Druggist. 25c. d-w

W. S. Perritte, a substantial farmer of the Attoyac country, was in the city today looking after some business interests.

WHY NOT GO GET HIM?

Editor Sentinel: I was talking to a stranger a few days ago who told me that Ben Wettermark, the fellow who robbed the people of Nacogdoches county out of many thousands of dollars a few years ago, is now a banana millionaire in Central America. He said he saw Wettermark at Bluefields, a small and unhealthy town at the mouth of the San Juan river, and that Wettermark is doing well. I am not sure that Bluefields is in Nicaragua or Honduras. I rather think however that it is in Nacaragua. One of Wettermark's neighbors is Major E. A. Burke, the abounding treasurer who looted the treasury of the state of Louisiana several years ago to the tune of $50,000. He is also doing well in Central America. I mention this merely for the purpose of calling attention to the fact that if a man was to sell half a pint of whiskey in Nacogdoches he would be followed to Morocco, brought back and tried and sent to the penitentiary, whereas a banker who makes a get-away with thousands of dollars of money belonging to the poor people of the county is assisted in getting away, and protected even after he gets away. As soon as I finish a certain work that I now have in hand I am going to Honduras—next year, for the express purpose of writing a story on absconding Americans, and I promise in advance that it will be well worth reading. I will wager my old hat that not a single effort has ever been made to get Wettermark and bring him to trial. But oh you bootlegging coon, you are my meat! I want to ask sheriff-elect Luther Prince if he feels like taking a turn in the direction of Honduras? If somebody would take pains to play the role of detective they would see a letter leave Nacogdoches in the next few days for Honduras. Perhaps it might be mailed at some other point just as scores of letters have been mailed to Wettermark from Houston and other places. HENRY C. FULLER.

Constipation the Father of Many Ills.

Of the numerous ills that affect humanity a large share start with constipation. Keep your bowels regular and they may be avoided. When a laxative is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the indigestion. Obtainable everywhere.

WANTS PASTORIAL WORK.

GROOM 85; BRIDE 23; IN CLEBURNE WED.

Cleburne, Texas, Aug. 31.—R. A. Oakes of Perry, 85, and Miss Alice Duff of Alvarado, 23, were married in Cleburne Wednesday by Justice of the Peace E. L. Stovall. The couple left on the 3 o'clock interurban for Fort Worth, where they took the International & Great Northern to Marlin. Oakes looks much younger than his years number. The bride is a pretty brunette.

Are You Looking Old?

Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at forty. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most effective in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

Philip Sanders, son of Mrs. Will T. Sanders, has been added to the force of the county clerk's office.

Mr. Sanders is a good stenographer, and a very competent, energetic young business man and will prove a valuable addition to the office.

Bad Temper from Bad Liver.

You can generally blame your grouch on a lazy liver. Liver ills are back of coated tongue, bad breath, biliousness and muddy, sallow complexion. Insufficient flow of bile leaves impurities in the liver which poison the entire system. Po-Do-Lax is Nature's remedy. It stimulates the activity of the liver, increases the flow of bile, and by its laxative quality carries off the waste matter and clears the complexion. At your Druggist, 25c. d-w

RAILROADS WILL ACCEPT MEASURE

Chicago, Sept. 3.—"The railroads will accept under protest." This was the statement made Saturday night by Hale Holden, president of the Burlington, who has acted as spokesman for the executives in the railroad dispute, when informed by the United Press of the passage of the Adamson eight-hour law and the action of the brotherhoods in calling off the strike.

"Of course, we will take no arbitrary or hostile action," said Holden. "The only thing we are looking for at present is the convenience and welfare of the public."

How To Give Good Advice.

The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and is an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere. d-w

IMPORTANT TO CATTLE AND HOG OWNERS

County Agricultural Agent, Jas. D. Greer, informs The Sentinel that there is some black leg and hog cholera over the county, and that if prompt treatment is not administered, there is a possibility of alarming spread. Mr. Greer has already made demonstrations of the method of vaccination in several communities, and will be glad to serve the other communities of the county if they will arrange to have mass meetings of the citizens and take hold of the matter with some earnestness. It is impossible to cover the county in a house-to-house canvass, but if the people of a community will come together and learn the demonstration, they will be prepared to care for their own cattle and hogs.

This is a very important matter for two reasons. First, if the matter is neglected, the farmers of the county are likely to lose heavily in the death of the cattle and hogs. Secondly, if an outbreak of considerable proportions were to visit the county, a market for these products in this section would be destroyed for several years to come.

With the process of vaccination, which is very simple and cheap, both losses can be avoided, and the disease permanently stamped out.

Get in touch with Mr. Greer, and when he makes a date for your community, get all the farmers out. And let him make the date for the reason that any other arrangement would cause confusion in serving the different communities of the county.

FORECAST SENDS COTTON UP $4.00 A BALE

New Orleans, Aug. 31.—A sensational advance which reached $4.00 a bale up from the lowest of the day, accompanied by the heaviest and most frenzied trading witnessed in the local market since the memorable sessions during the so-called Sully pool of several years ago was scored in cotton today after the government report on August condition and the forecast of 1916 production of 11,800,000 bales was announced. The percentage of condition 61.2 on Aug. 25 was well below the average expectations, most bullish traders expecting not lower than 63. The figures were the lowest ever issued by the government for August. At the best of the day December went to 16.16c and October sold up to 15.99c. Trading months registered a bulge of 77 to 84 points up from the low level of early trading and 62 to 64 points above yesterday's close. The market closed at a net gain for the session of 56 to 58 points, or about $3 a bale.

HUGHES COMPLETES REST.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 31.—Chas. E. Hughes today ended his four-day rest in the mountains at Estes Park and returned east on a 2,000 mile journey that will carry him in seven days to Portland, Me. Most of this time will be spent in traveling and there will be comparatively few speeches. In the 21-hour ride from here to Kansas City there will be only one formal address at Topeka, Kas.

PREPAREDNESS

How It Helps Coughs and Colds

Buy your bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar now, and quickly stop the coughs and colds of early fall.

Early fall brings croup, bronchitis, asthmatic breathing, troublesome night coughs, whooping cough, and tickling, irritable throat.

It aggravates the distressing cough of weak lungs, and the chronic coughs of elderly people. It gives "snuffles" to infants and children and provokes adenoids and sore inflamed throats. Give Foley's Honey and Tar freely. It is so soothing and curative, relieves hoarseness and gives a healing coating on the inflamed mucous lining of the throat. It stops coughing easily and quickly and relieves croup before the child has a chance to really harm the children or scare the parents. The last dose is just as good as the first, and a less amount is needed than of any other cough syrup.

No one is to get only the original FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, for it is the only genuine, and contains no opiates. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.,

BUILDING GOOD ROAD.

Our friend, D. W. Burrow was a pleasant caller at the office Saturday afternoon, and while in gave an interesting report of some good road work being done on the Nacogdoches and Appleby road in the stretch from Campbell's school house to Appleby.

This work is under the supervision of Dixon Greer, the overseer, and is being done in a donation of labor by citizens, the county contributing an equal amount to the work. The road is being graded up where necessary, many little crooks are being straightened, and the whole put in first-class shape, reflecting great credit to the civic pride of the community.

Mr. Burrows says that Mr. Greer is proving a most capable superintendent in this work, and that already his name is being mentioned for county commissioner from the Appleby precinct at the first opportunity.

Check a cough or cold in the lungs before it develops a serious case. BALLARD'S HORE-HOUND SYRUP is an effective remedy for all soreness or congestion in the lungs or air passages. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all druggists. eod

COTTON SOARING.

The government crop report, which reported unfavorable conditions, caused the price of cotton to go soaring, and The Chronicle announces that spots went up to 16.15 in Houston.

This is the highest price paid in several years and gives hope of still further rise—but the price is too good to take any risk on. With the disturbance that is in existence all over the world, many things could happen to paralyze business, and if The Sentinel had a thousand bales it would change hands on this most attractive quotation.

BOY KILLED BY TRAIN DOWN AT HUMBLE

J. D. Conlee, aged about eight years, was instantly killed in the Houston East and West Texas railway yards at Humble Friday morning. The boy was dragged more than two hundred feet, his head and arm mashed and his body terribly bruised.

Justice F. K. Wise held an inquest, but was unable to determine the exact details of the accident. The boy was playing on a sand pile near the track just prior to the accident. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Conlee. The funeral is being handled by Westheimer's Humble branch.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

WETTERMARK DISCUSSION.

There has been much discussion, on the streets, today of the letter from Henry Fuller, appearing in yesterday's issue of The Sentinel, in the matter of the whereabouts of Ben Wettermark, and the criticism he offers of officers allowing such characters to get away with their sins.

Mr. Fuller's argument that such criminals should be punished with more severity than the bootlegger or other offenses of less magnitude, is logical in so far as the moral aspect of the condition is concerned, but his criticism of local officers in the premises will not bear the analysis of good reason. It would cost the sheriff several hundred dollars to recover and bring back to trial a criminal from Central America, and the only remuneration he would receive in return would be the usual fees which would lack much of re-implementing him for the money expended in the effort. If, on the other hand, the jury should turn him "scott-free," as they often do in this section, the outlay would be a clear loss, and very few officers are able to sustain such a loss, while such an unreasonable demand should be made of none.

In such cases as this the state should give more aid than it offers at present. Rangers are kept in the employ of the state for the purpose of suppressing riots and apprehending outlaws within the border, but none of them are sent out after characters of the kind under discussion herewith. If neither the state nor the county will give assistance in such an important matter, we can not expect the sheriff to go to such great lengths.

And this reminds us that when we go to the legislature we are going to "pass a law" providing a separate means of finance for such cases as this—with possibly a separate court to try them in. We will also include with this law provision for the constables of the country who want to break up bootlegging but can't do so without breaking themselves up. Many doubtless do not know that there is no pay provided for the constable who runs down a bootlegger for the reason that he has to turn him over to a higher court for trial and has to depend upon the generosity of the sheriff and the higher court to re-imburse him for his services. These conditions obtain as a result of the abominable fee system which furnishes the opportunity for graft on the one hand and poverty for legitimate service on the other.

Coming down to the personality of Mr. Wettermark, it is doubtful if any activity would be employed in his prosecution by the people he injured, if he were brought back, for the reason that much of the bitterness has died out. He "took the chance" which wracked him and the people he was serving, but not with criminal intent, and for this reason many would be disposed to draw about the mantle of charity and give him another chance. The sentiment is sublime when properly used, but it too often defeats the ends of justice and wrecks the efforts of those who are endeavoring to enforce the law.

As a concluding observation, we think that Mr. Wettermark should, if he is as prosperous as he is represented, re-imburse those he robbed in this community, and until he does so, his crime will carry the intent which can never justify him, and which would demand that a state as big as Texas should provide means for his punishment.

About every turn of the market these days is sensational. Whether cotton skyrocketed or wheat slumps, the rise and fall of prices come well within the sensational. Meanwhile the man with wheat or cotton to market should keep cool.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Tarrant county will have a local option election September 25th. In the past local option elections have been confined mostly to those counties which had no large cities, until the majority of them are dry, now the tendency is to invade the more populous sections. Corpus Christi was voted dry a few weeks ago to the surprise of many for the reason that Corpus is largely a resort town where many wealthy people visit in the summer, and this gives added inspiration to the forces promoting prohibition to tackle the counties which have large cities like Fort Worth, Houston, Dallas, and others.

The East Texas farmer has never had such an opportunity before, and may never have again, as he now enjoys to make money on the farm. All kinds of produce will bring a fancy price; he has the opportunity of the employment of methods offered him free to increase the yield of his acreage; his cattle and hogs can be treated free and saved from disease, and every condition that is possible has been provided for his benefit. Now let him read the parable of the talents in which he will get the lesson that he who fails to make his opportunities multiply will have that which he possesses taken away from him, and make the best of the great opportunity that it with him.

Notwithstanding many brilliant and useful measures stand as a monument to the credit of the present National administration, if the great railroad strike which is now threatened is avoided with legislation, it will eclipse them all, saving the country from a calamity that would wreck the business and industrial life of the nation overnight, and the people of the nation will call the wise leader, who has steered the old ship of state over so many rough seas lately, blessed. And when another election time rolls around they will exhibit their appreciation in a more substantial way by giving him a victory that would make Senator Culberson blush in comparison with the victory he recently enjoyed.

If President Wilson had done nothing else worth while in the past, and the future offered nothing of importance with his services, the genuine statesmanship he employed in stopping the railroad strike on the very threshold of its inauguration would commend him to retention in office. There are few men in the world who would have gone up against the corporate interests in defense of the people at large as he has done in this and other instances, and at the same time he has never been guilty of a radical move that might injure the legitimate business of the country. We have cause for rejoicing that we have such a man at the head of the affairs of the country in these delicate times, and if the masses of common people at large have any intelligence of self-protection they will keep him at the helm as long as he will consent to serve.

WETTERMARK DISCUSSION.

Judge Guinn and Hon. Moss Adams inform the editor of the Sentinel that he was in error in one feature of the editorial discussion of the Wettermark case appearing in yesterday's paper, but correct in the remainder. The point in which The Sentinel erred was as to provision for bringing back refugees from justice in capital cases on requisition. These gentlemen advise that the legislature has appropriated a sum of money for this purpose, which is used at the discretion of the governor. It can not be used in hunting or apprehending criminals, but when one has been located in another state, placed under arrest, and application made for requisition, the governor may at his discretion make draft upon this fund for the expense of bringing him to the state line. There is no appropriation for misdemeanor cases as noted, and in the event of failure to convict, the sheriff would get no remuneration for his work or the expense of bringing him from the state line.

Sheriff Spradley has a communication elsewhere in today's paper in which he explains his connection with the case, and assuming that his statements are correct, he fully vindicates himself of any dereliction of duty. What he will do with the present information and the new condition, or what future sheriffs will do, we are not advised.

Previous to his misfortunes, and the unload of the burden upon the community, Mr. Wettermark is said to have been one of the most useful citizens Nacogdoches ever had, and there seems to be no bitterness against him here by even those who suffered in the crash. But, the precedent is too bad to condone, and to attempt to justify him with sentimental reasoning would be to invite a repetition from others. Mr. Fuller is correct in the main idea of his reasoning and The Sentinel was correct yesterday, except for a technical error. At the same time no blame can be attached to officers for any dereliction of duty in this particular instance for the reason that it would have bankrupted the sheriff to have hunted the refugee down in a foreign country.

With these observations, the water is getting too deep for further discussion by The Sentinel.

LABOR DAY SEES CONGRESS BUSY

Washington, Sept. 4.—Senator Reed of Missouri today introduced a resolution to authorize the interstate commerce commission to investigate the effect of the eight-hour day law on the cost of operation of railroads and to report to congress in December. The resolution will be called up for consideration tomorrow.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Labor Day brought no cessation of activity to congress, which, having spent nearly all of last week on measures warding off the railroad strike called for today, hoped for adjournment Wednesday or Thursday. Many members already had fled to political fields or to their homes, leaving fag ends of legislation to be finished by depleted houses. No reports have been received of trainmen on any railroad failing to get brotherhood instructions and, in consequence, striking. Freight traffic everywhere is as nearly normal as is possible under the circumstances.

The Webb bill to allow American exporters to organize common selling agencies abroad, whose immediate passages President Wilson favors; the revenue bill and the Porto Rican citizenship bill, were to be acted on in the senate.

Congressional leaders planned to postpone consideration of the immigration and the Owens corrupt practices bill and further railroad strike measures suggested by the president until the next session.

ADMIT SUBMARINE NOT A WAR VESSEL

Washington, Sept. 5.—To the proposal of the entente allies that neutrals accept the principle that all submarines are vessels of war, the United States has dispatched a reply, which, it is understood, holds to the principle that the characteristics of each individual submarine must govern the case.

At the same time advices to some of the diplomats here today announced that Norway, Sweden and Spain had forbidden their harbors to merchant submarines on the ground that they "were indistinguishable" from war craft.

The memorandum from the allies was sent to all neutral powers. Copies were sent to each of the entente allies.

To the contention in the allied memorandum that it is difficult, if not impossible, for warships to distinguish between armed and merchant submarines, the American reply is understood to point out that it is equally difficult to distinguish between sailing merchant vessels which may have masked batteries.

RAILROADS ENJOIN HIGHER RATES

Houston, Sept. 2.—What promises to be the hardest fought battle ever staged between the railroads of Texas and the state railroad commission had its inception Saturday when Houston attorneys for the Texas roads secured a temporary restraining order in the Fifth United States circuit court at Atlanta, Ga., to prevent certain increases in rates recently authorized by the commission from being cancelled. Federal Judge Pardee granted the petition filed by counsel for the roads and set Sept. 28 for a hearing for temporary injunction.

The history of the fight between the railroads and the commission dates back more than two years. It also involves the controversy growing out of the now famous Shreveport case the recent decision of which almost preceded an order by the state railroad commission of Texas cancelling increased rates granted to the Texas roads.

BANDITS WRECK AND LOOT TRAIN

Laredo, Texas, Sept. 4.—Twenty-five Mexican soldiers and eleven passengers were killed last Thursday when a constitutionalist train was wrecked by bandits claiming allegiance to Carrero Torres, according to advices reaching the border today. The bandits butchered the train guards and carried away everything movable, these advices say. The wreck occurred between San Luis and Tampico, below Cardenas.

SHERIFF SPRADLEY REPLIES.

Nacogdoches, Tex., Sept. 6, 1916. Mr. H. C. Fuller,

Houston, Texas.

Dear Henry:

Your communication to The Sentinel concerning B. S. Wettermark and the officers of Nacogdoches county, created considerable comment, pro and con. I appreciate your sentiments expressed, that the high-class violator of the law should be treated with the severity of the law just as the detestable bootlegger. You are wholly wrong when you class Ben Wettermark as a wanton criminal. Often men are driven to desperation and commit rash acts by force of circumstances unavoidable. Ben Wettermark made bad bets of speculation and lost. Some commit suicide, some murder, trying to cover their shame. Wettermark is charged with forgery with the hopes that he would save his name and his creditors. But again he lost. It was suicide or flee; he chose the latter. When Ben Wettermark went down, the business interests of Nacogdoches lost their best friend.

I was sheriff at the time of these troubles, and the Spradley family lost many thousand dollars in this failure. The last trace we had of Wettermark he was in New Orleans trying to raise money to return home. He failed. I had every sailing vessel leaving New Orleans, and those that had recently left, searched. Weeks later I received a letter from the Sheriff at Los Angeles, Cal., guaranteeing to deliver Wettermark to me at his office if I would give a bank guarantee of five thousand dollars for the kidnapping job. I made this proposition known to the citizenship of Nacogdoches; a mass meeting was called and largely attended, and after much speech-making, a subscription list was started to raise the five thousand dollars, and one hundred and fifty for the additional expense of bringing him from California. The list of donations reached even thirty-five dollars. I then took the matter up with the Bankers Association and received a letter from W. L. Davidson, banker at Beaumont, and a heavy loser in the Wettermark failure, and he said that he had lost enough on Wettermark and that they did not care to lose any more.

Now, Friend Henry, please tell me what I should have done under those circumstances, keeping in mind the enormous expense of the trip to South America and an unlawful mission, as there was no lawful means of getting him from that country at that time. Wettermark was indicted by the grand jury since for apparent and perhaps some imaginary violations of the laws and the indictments are filed, but from legal authority I understand that each and every one can be quashed when the motion is presented in Wettermark's presence.

Now, my Friend, Fuller, if you desire the job of bringing Wettermark back, and crown your name with glory, I will appoint you Deputy Sheriff with all the authority that the sheriff has, and assist you in arranging all the legal documents obtainable, and bid you God-speed to Honduras, where you can find Ben Wettermark, who will gladly meet you with a handsnake, but bear in mind that they have a law in that country, and they respect it very much, as "Birds of a feather flock together," they say.

Let me hear from you, Friend Henry.

CONGRESS TAKES FLING AT EUROPEAN ALLIES

Washington, Sept. 5.—An amendment to the revenue bill authorizing the president during a war in which the United States is not engaged to withhold clearance from vessels which discriminate against American shippers; to withhold privileges accorded to other nations from American ships, and to use the army and navy if necessary to prevent departure of offending vessels from United States ports, was adopted today by the senate.

An amendment of Senator Phelan of California was adopted authorizing the president by proclamation to deny the use of the mails, express, telegraph, wireless or cable facilities to citizens of nations which do not accord to Americans all facilities of commerce, "including the unhampered traffic in the mails." This amendment, it was declared, was aimed particularly at British interference with American mails.

The Chamberlain amendment prohibiting admission of halibut and salmon into the United States except when in bond from an American port, also was adopted. The amendment is directed against Canadian fisheries on the Pacific and to urge development of American fisheries there.

An amendment to the tariff commission section by Senator Gallinger was adopted, broadening the commission's power so that it shall observe the effect of tariff laws on industry and labor and also observe the effect of "economic alliances." An amendment by Senator Sterling, directing the commission to investigate the cost of production here and abroad, was rejected.

The treaty for the purchase of the Danish West Indies for $25,000,000 was ordered favorably reported to the senate today by the foreign relations committee by a unanimous vote of senators present. It was to be reported later today and an effort made to have it ratified before adjournment of congress.

Administration leaders said late today that Senators La Follette, republican, and Reed, democrat, had forced them to abandon hope of passing the Webb bill to permit American collective selling agencies in foreign countries. Senator La Follette gave notice he would filibuster the bill to death.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a letter from Prof. L. B. Tindall, dated at East Bernard, ordering the paper sent to him at that place. Mr. Tindall was a well known teacher of this county. He has been elected superintendent of the schools at East Bernard, in which he will have a very pleasant and profitable work.

THE FALL TERM OF DISTRICT COURT CONVENCES

From Monday's Daily.

The fall term of district court convened at ten o'clock this morning with his honor, Judge Guinn, presiding.

The first matter to engage the attention of the court was the organization of the grand jury, and the following gentlemen were impaneled for service:

W. M. Cox, foreman; Ben Moore, Frank Powers, G. E. Parlin, E. L. Tillery, J. H. Higginbotham, J. H. Davis, G. E. Matthews, George Hogan, D. E. Payne, J. V. Bond, W. E. Hanna.

The grand jury repaired immediately to the grand jury room where they took up the investigation of an infraction of the law in the county that may come to their knowledge.

The dockets of the court will be handled as follows: This week, non-jury civil business; next week, jury civil business; third and fourth weeks ordinary felonies; fifth week, capital felonies; sixth and seventh weeks, unfinished business.

There is very little new business on the dockets this time, and Judge Guinn hopes to make a clean-up.

DISTRICT COURT.

The following business was posed in district court yesterday:

F. L. Neeley vs. J. S. Neeley, divorce, dismissed.

Jas. R. St. Clair vs. Polly A. St. Clair, divorce, dismissed.

Ned Brown vs. Maggie Brown, divorce granted.

F. M. Treadway vs. M. F. Treadway, divorce granted.

Commercial Guaranty Bank vs. P. C. Meador, judgment by default.

Geo. S. King et al., vs. J. W. Webb et al., dismissed as to E. F. Webb and judgment by default against other defendants.

M. F. Williams vs. S. E. Hall, dismissed.

Mrs. R. D. Whitaker vs. B. P. Moore et al., judgment by default.

J. P. Davis vs. D. M. McDuffie, judgment by default.

Mrs. E. A. Blount vs. Edgar Ennis et al., judgment by default.

The Good Roads Movement.

Many people have never heard of the great work that is going on in the way of good roads. And again the great move to create a Grand Public Highway across the United States from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, and still other such schemes. These matters are attracting great attention from great minds and are greater in importance than it would appear to the average mind at first view.

The utility merits of good roads are never disputed, and the commercial or business purposes alone are not all. A great highway shaped up in suitable mode and located sensibly would prove a great public pleasure as well as a useful proposition.

For automobiles—especially this would draw an amazing patronage. And the more pleasure of the outing and sight-seeing would by no means be the leading sentiment. The big highway would be extremely useful from a business standpoint.

It should reach many noted points of interest to tourists, such as noted battlefields, cities, and historic localities or scenic attractions of any kind. One of these should be the historic and picturesque old town of Nacogdoches, "The lovely mother of Texas."

DANGEROUS CALOMEL IS SELDOM SOLD NOW

Calomel Salivates! It Makes You Sick and You Lose a Day's Work—Dodson's Liver Tone Acts Better Than Calomel and Is Harmless for Men, Women, Children—Read Guarantee!

Every druggist here, yes! your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason: Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it while Dodson's Liver Tone is safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. "Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist. A large family-sized bottle costs only 50 cents and if you find it doesn't take the place of dangerous, salivating calomel you have only to ask for your money back."

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine, no sick headache, biliousness, ague, sour stomach or clogged bowels. Dodson's Liver Tone doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all next day like calomel.

Take a dose of calomel tonight and tomorrow you will feel sick, weak and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work!

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up with your head clear, your liver active, bowels clean, breath sweet and stomach regulated. You will feel cheerful and full of vigor and ready for a hard day's work.

You can eat anything afterwards without risk of salivating yourself or your children.

Get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and try it on my guarantee. You'll never again put a dose of nasty, dangerous calomel into your stomach.

VALUABLE HAY CROP.

Mr. M. L. Jackson, a well known farmer of the Melrose country, was a caller at the office this morning, and while in gave an interesting account of a hay crop he made this year.

Mr. Jackson "sodded" five acres in Johnson grass and has already cut fifteen tons of hay from it. He hopes to get five tons more, which will give him twenty tons on the five acres.

The entire expense of putting out the sod and cutting will be within the range of twenty-five dollars.

It would be hard to find a more valuable crop than this has proven, and the at same time another evidence is given of the adaptability of this section for growing hay crops.

Just received, a car of syrup cans. See us before you buy. Branch & Goldsberry.

MEXICAN CONFERENCE.

New London, Conn., Sept. 5.—

Members of the United States Mexican joint commission arrived here late today from New York aboard the presidential yacht Mayflower, prepared to enter tomorrow on the conference from which the Washington administration hopes will come a mutual understanding upon which future relations between the two governments can be founded.

Luis Cabrera, Mexican minister of finance and head of the commission named by General Carranza, will preside at the first meeting tomorrow morning.

Secretary Lane, heading the American commission, will conduct the afternoon session, and the two will alternate as presiding officers thereafter.

The American commissioners are anxious to give the conference as informal a character as possible.

Secretary Lane believes that more can be accomplished through a free exchange of ideas among the six men than could be hoped for from a formal presentation by each side of its desires.

In accordance with General Carranza's preferences, the question of border military conditions will be first discussed.

It seems likely that the withdrawal of General Pershing's troops from Mexico, the main object which the Mexican commissioners have been instructed to impress, and the terms of the protocol to cover future questions between the two countries will be first considered.

Rev. W. F. Nash, who is serving as county missionary for Polk county, came in last night for a little visit with his family.

STONE FORT BANK MAKES IMPROVEMENT

The Stone Fort Bank of this city is completing some improvements in the exterior of its building which adds much to the convenience and civic attractiveness of the place.

The improvements consist of the installation of a solid glass front, set in diagonally, leaving a lobby-way entrance to the cashier's window, and making the place much easier to find by those not familiar with the premises. In lieu of the old floor in front, a concrete floor has been put down in the lobby-way. Beautiful gold-letter signs have been painted on the front, and the whole combines an improvement that is most attractive as well as afford much greater convenience in the way of entrance, light, etc.

The Stone Fort Bank was established in 1903 with a capital stock of fifty thousand dollars. By safe and conservative methods, and an ever ready willingness to give financial assistance to all worthy enterprises, as well as take care of its customers as far as conservative banking methods will admit, this institution has developed and grown into one of the strongest banking enterprises of the country—and is still growing in strength and usefulness, doing its part toward the development of the industrial and commercial life of this section.

MORAL COMMUNITY.

Our teacher, Mrs. Eula Barrett, has returned from San Antonio, where she has been attending school the past six months. The patrons and pupils met to welcome her, at the school house last Sunday afternoon. After singing some of our school songs and exchanging glad greetings, Mrs. Barrett, in her happy, modest manner, told us many interesting things she saw while away. She spoke of the old missions and the wonderful masonry and skill that was exhibited in their construction; of the many little narrow stone stairways and the grand arched roofs. She says, "I climbed to the top of them if there was any possible way to get up. Then when walking the roof and noting the immense size of some of the stones, even at the top, I was asking and wondering how, in those days, did the christian fathers have the courage to build them?"

She spoke of the thriving German settlements, their wonderful chicken ranches and vineyards, comparing their natural resources with ours. "Why folks, we could have things just as good at Moral if we would try," she enthusiastically remarked.

Well, we are going to try. We have organized an "Improvement Club," with sixteen charter members. Dairying is our first study subject. I will try to keep those interested about our progress.

FREIGHT MOVING FOOD WILL DROP

New York, Sept. 4.—Freight traffic on all railroads entering New York interrupted by embargoes due to the fear of a strike, is moving again today on normal schedules. Railroad men say that little congestion has resulted from the brief embargoes. Large quantities of merchandise have been shipped immediately previous to the issuance of hold-up orders. This being a holiday, shipments will be lighter Monday and the roads will have an opportunity to catch up with the regular order of freight movements.

A task before the railroads is that of demobilizing the forces of strikebreakers assembled last week at considerable expense. A number of these strikebreakers, it is said, were employed on contracts which still have a week, some over a month to run. Provision dealers say that the market will slump during the next few days because large quantities of food-stuffs held by speculators in expectation of famine prices will be dumped on the market.

HORSE BITES OFF A LADY'S FINGER

Timpson Times.

While unhitching the family buggy horse this morning the animal suddenly grabbed Mrs. J. B. Langhorne's hand and bit the index finger off at the first joint. The wound was dressed, and although it is causing Mrs. Langhorne considerable pain no serious complications are expected to result from the bite. Mrs. Langhorne was taken by surprise, when the animal suddenly snapped at her finger as the horse has always been very gentle and no danger was suspected.

F. P. Paine, a well-known business man of Douglass, was in town this morning, going out on a trip today for Austin. Upon the eve of his departure he expressed the fear that the railroad strike might interrupt his return, but said that he was coming back home in a few days if he had to purchase an automobile and come through in it. In fact, he says that he has been contemplating the purchase of a machine lately, anyway, and that he would not be discommod-ed in having to do so on this trip. From Mrs. Paine The Sentinel learns that his brother, Bob Paine, who has been making his home in Atosca county the past ten years, is in the county visiting with relatives and friends, and on account of the Mexican situation, has decided to move back to the county.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Spradley, who went to Mineral Wells some months ago for the benefit of their health, later going to Fort Worth where they have been some time, arrived home this morning, coming through the country in their car accompanied by their son, Brutus, who has been spending his vacation with them. The many Nacogdoches friends of these good people will be rejoiced to learn that their health is much improved, and that they hope to remain with us now. Mr. and Mrs. Spradley were also accompanied by R. C. Linthicum and family who are enroute to Jasper where Mr. Linthicum has purchased a large tract of land and is establishing a ranch. This family has been making their home on a ranch near Fort Worth for some time. They, too, have many friends in the community who are glad to have them return to East Texas. They are making the trip machine lately, anyway, and through the country in an automobile.

TAKING TWO PATIENTS TO INSANE ASYLUM

BOY OF MYSTERY CLAIMED BY MOTHER

Fred, the little boy who has every appearance of being a full blood white boy, and who was taken away from a negro woman at Henderson some weeks ago, finally being brought to this city and turned over to Sheriff Spradley to ferret out the mystery, was claimed by his mother today.

Last night a mulatto woman, almost white herself, and giving her name as Alma Shipp, arrived in the city. This morning she called on Sheriff Spradley and furnished him with references through which she claims she can prove her relationship to the child.

The woman has been making her home at Pinedale about two years, and some months ago she gave the child to the negro woman in whose possession he was found at Henderson.

Thus a mystery that has been baffling officers and citizens alike has been cleared up, provided the proof is substantiated, much of the romance of the story has been destroyed. The child has every appearance of a full-blood white child, and in the absence of proof no one would have believed the story told by the negroes.

GAVE UP THE CHILD.

Mr. J. B. Morrison of the North church community, who has been keeping Fred, the little boy of mystery, pending the investigation, turned the little fellow over to Alma Shipp, the woman claiming to be his mother, yesterday afternoon.

The little fellow left his new home with much protest, and all who have become acquainted with the little fellow learn the tragedy of his life with reluctance. But it was better that it should be learned now than later.

COW HIDES WANTED.

The hide market is strong and prices are high. Until further notice we will pay 16c per pound for all weight, sound, green hides branded included. We advise you to salt the hides heavily as soon as you get it. Put the hide in a sack. Write your name, address, route and box numbers on two tags. Put one tag inside of the sack and one on the outside. Ship by express to A. Golenternek & Co., Tyler, Texas. We remit the day that the shipment is received.

At prevailing high prices for hides, it will pay for every community to organize a "Fresh Beef Club" and enjoy good, fresh meat. The hide will almost bring as much as would your surplus yearling or cow.

We also handle wool at the highest market prices. Horse hides bring from $1.50 to $3.00 each, according to the size. We furnish shipping tags on request. A. Golenternek & Co., Tyler, Texas. 3-23tf

Five days of fun and amusement at the East Texas Fair, Sept. 19 to 23, Timpson, Texas.

W. H. Haney, a stirring farmer of the Needmore community, was a pleasant caller at the office today. He brought a bale of cotton to town which he sold for 15.25, and says that this is the best price he ever realized on cotton. Mr. Haney also reports quite an interesting experience had with a rattle snake a few days ago. The snake took refuge under a negro's house, frightening the inmates of the household away and they came to the field after him to kill it. The snake was 4.8 inches long, and had eleven rattlers and one button.

BE ALIVE.

Be alive to your welfare. No one cares for you as much as yourself. If the street corner shouter tells you that he is your guardian he lies way down in his throat and he knows it. He is looking out for one man and that man is himself.

More lives of trespassers who will not keep off the track than employees and passengers are lost on railroads of the United States every year from accidents.

Keep off the track! Safety first! Be alive to all that surrounds you. Safeguard your life, your property, your health, your life, your children, your happiness.

Do it yourself. Think out your own problems. Listen to advice, but decide for yourself. You must face the bill, and your judgment in nine cases out of ten will prove the safest.

Safeguard your patriotism from the assaults of the smooth tongued demagogue posing as a friend of the common people. Cast him out as a venomous viper. Avoid the disturber who would have you dissatisfied with your lot and put you at enmity with your employer with whom you should enjoy the friendliest relations in a co-operative spirit.

Above all safeguard your soul and conscience from the approach of anyone who proclaims that we have no God and no master.—Leslie's Weekly.

The dispatches announce that Greece is laying aside her neutrality and will enter the great conflict. Gradually the whole Eastern Hemisphere is being engaged in the mighty conflict, and as substantially it is being consumed in the wake of the war. Just what the outcome of it all will be and when it will end, grows more mysterious with the dawn of each day, and we are almost persuaded that our Lufkin contemporary has the matter down about right in his prediction that the end of time is drawing near. Certain it is that the end is drawing near in the lives of countless thousands of people, the end of prosperity is at hand for many hitherto flourishing nations, and but little remains to wipe out that which gives any hope of any future life. In the contemplation of it all, we have much to be thankful in the realization that grand old Uncle Sam has kept out of all entangling alliances, and that her banners still float over a happy, prosperous, peaceful nation.

PREVENTION WORK IN EAST TEXAS

College Station, Texas, Aug. 29.—Under the Weeks Law and in accordance with an agreement between the State Forester and the Secretary of the United States Department of Agriculture a fire patrol system having for its object the prevention and control of forest and woodland fires will be inaugurated in the East Texas timber belt counties beginning September first and continuing until not later than December 31. Six Federal fire patrolmen with headquarters at Linden (Cass County), Longview (Gregg County), Tenaha (Shelby County), Lufkin (Angelina County), Livingston (Polk County) and Jasper (Jasper County) have been appointed by the State Forester. Each patrolman has been assigned a district covering the territory lying within a radius of from 20 to 25 miles of his headquarters and is expected to visit all parts of such district at regularly repeated intervals during each month of the patrol season. An agent of the State Forester, Mr. Geo. W. Johnson, Tenaha, Texas, will devote his entire time to the supervision of these patrolmen.

In his district the patrolman's duties are to prevent and extinguish (as far as practicable) all forest and woodland fires. Preventive measures are educational in their scope. The causes of fires and the serious damage done by them to the humus cover of the soil (a fertilizer abundantly supplied by nature at no expense) and to the tree itself, whether it be old standing timber or young seedling reproduction, must be explained to residents and citizens. Control measures lie in the extinguishment of fires, by the patrolman himself if they are small or with the aid of neighboring residents if they are more serious. The posting of fire notices which state the injurious effects of fires and solicit the co-operation of residents in their prevention is an important part of each patrolman's duty. Private owners should post their lands urging all persons to be careful not to start fires. When posting lands against hunting, fishing, or general trespass, a clause should be included against fire. The State Forester will furnish general fire notices free upon request and advice as to how specific notices may be worded.

Forest fire laws defining the offense and fixing penalties for violation were passed by the Texas Legislature as early as 1883; additional clauses were added in 1884 and 1907. The last Legislature passed an Act of 1915 defining the duties and prescribing the authority of the State Forester in regard to forest and woodland fires. Probably the strongest agency in preventing and controlling such fires is the attitude of residents in the affected district toward them. With public sentiment thoroughly aroused to the real damage resulting from the widespread and unrestricted use of fire carelessness will cease, indifference on the part of individuals will change to active support and irresponsible persons will be controlled. Every farmer and other owner of property in rural sections should rally to the support of fire control measures. Every town dweller should lend his influence to make them effective.

When one considers the extent of the present cutting operations in the pine timbered areas of East Texas the fact that the timber will be cut out in a comparatively short period of years is evident. Fires destroy the young seedling growth which under normal conditions would restock the cut-over areas and as a consequence the source of our future supply become problematical. Should the cutover lands be destined for agricultural development rather than for the continued production of timber the loss of humus, as a direct result of burning, would be a serious handicap to their fertility.

Under the Weeks Law Texas may benefit from Federal appropriations to the extent of $10,000 when State appropriations for fire prevention over certain definite sections amount to at least this sum. At the present time Texas is cooperating with the Government to the extent of $2500. As the people become acquainted with the nature of this work and approve of it, both State and Federal efforts will unquestionably be extended.

FORMER COUNTY BOY MARRIES WEALTHY WIDOW

From the Alpine Avalanche the information is gleaned that Rev. Jas. T. Tartt, who was reared at Garrison, where he has many friends, was recently married. The report of the wedding follows:

"No wedding that has ever occurred in Alpine, created more surprise than that of Rev. Jas. T. Tartt and Mrs. Kate Nevill, which occurred at the home of the bride in this place, Monday evening, Rev. Pierce pastor of the Baptist church at Marfa, officiating. The bride is a woman of many charming characteristics and has many friends both here and in other Texas towns. The groom was until Sunday, pastor of the First Baptist church at Alpine, and is generally popular with all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. Tartt and two children left Tuesday morning in their car for Boston, Mass. where they expect to spend the winter.

"The bride was the widow of R. L. Nevill, a wealthy ranchman, who left her and their two daughters well provided for. She is an intelligent and handsome woman, in the prime of life. Rev. Tartt's friends have good cause to congratulate him upon drawing a capital prize in the wedlock lottery.

Mrs. E. D. Williams and Mrs. Gibbs and little son arrived home Saturday from a week's visit with relatives and friends in Center, returning in Mrs. Williams' car.

WHAT THE STRIKE WOULD AMOUNT TO

Chicago, Aug. 30.—Slason Thompson, director of the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics, said today that figures only could attempt to produce a picture of the immensity of a strike such as that threatened by the railroad brotherhoods.

"It is really too stupendous to comprehend but here are some of the outstanding facts," he said, "A strike would affect railway operations on 260,000 miles of main track and over 390,000 miles of all tracks, yard tracks and sidings. The companies operating this mileage own over 65,000 locomotives, 56,000 passenger coaches and 2,400,000 freight cars—representing alone an investment of over three and three-quarter billion dollars.

"The net railway capitalization involved is about $16,500,000, or about one-eleventh of the entire wealth of the United States.

"The human element involved include more or less directly the peace, happiness and daily subsistence of a people numbering, according to the latest official estimates, 102,574,000; the investments of over 102,574,000 vestments of over 630,000 owners of railway stocks and probably as many more holders of railway bonds and the wages of some 1,700,000 employees whose yearly compensation amounts to something like $1,400,000,000.

"The freight movement in September and October is at ways the heaviest of any period of the year. Normally nearly one-fifth of the traffic of the year is condensed into these two months. It is then that the movement of grain reaches its greatest proportions.

"The freight revenues of all the care of railway employees States in September and October, 1915, amounted to over $418,000,000 and the promise for the two months in 1916 was for well over $460,000,000, of which the care of railway employees would be about $198,000,000, while that of all trainmen would be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000.

"While it is clearly impossible to forestall what an extended strike of all trainmen would cost the public and the railway companies, it is not so difficult to estimate what it would cost the trainmen themselves. Assuming that 300,000 of them will walk out, it means that for every day they were severed from the payroll they will lose $1,260,000. It has been stated that the four brotherhoods possess $15,800,000 with which to finance the proposed strike."

PRESIDENT SIGNS CHILD LABOR BILL

Washington, Sept. 1.—President Wilson today signed the child labor bill. The ceremony was witnessed by Secretary Wilson, Senator Robinson, Representative Keating, Julia Lathrop, chief of the children's bureau of the labor department, and a large group of men and women interested in the legislation.

"I want to say that with real emotion I sign this bill," the president said, "because I know how long the struggle has been and what it is going to mean to the health and to the vigor of the country and also to the happiness of those whom it affects. It is with genuine pride that I play my part in completing this legislation. I congratulate the country and felicitate myself."

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Gardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Gardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Gardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill. RESOURCES MOBILIZED, SAYS WIZARD EDISON

New York, Sept. 1.—The work of the committee on industrial preparedness of the naval consulting board, it was announced here today, will "almost surely" be turned over to the new council of national defense created by the army reorganization bill.

The announcement was made by Thomas E. Edison, chairman of the naval consulting board, in a letter to the committee on industrial preparedness, in which he called attention to the five months' labors of the committee in connection with federal measures for public defense, which have just become laws.

Mr. Edison credits the committee headed by Howard E. Coffin with "having laid the foundation for a true industrial preparedness in this nation," points out that the three original objects of the committee have been accomplished. These were: To mobilize the business men of America and their output against period of emergency; to procure legislation making possible the placing by the government of the annual orders for munitions in small quantities with American manufacturers not producing munitions, and to organize the country's skilled labor as an industrial reserve.

Timpson-Times.
 W. A. Smith has returned from Dallas, Greenville and other Texas towns, where he went to meet and talk with the horsemen of the state concerning races for the East Texas Fair. Timpson, Sept. 19-23. Mr. Smith says that they are all talking about the East Texas Fair and that our purses are double those of other places much larger than Timpson, and that some real competitive races are assured at the fall meet. Some of the best horses in the state will attend the Timpson meet.

H. F. GILLETTE HAS AVAILABLE INTERESTS

Newspaper readers are familiar with the report that was published a few days ago to the effect that a big oil gusher had been brought in at Goose Creek. The gusher choked down for a few days and for a time it was feared the well would be lost, but it has been brought back into operation, and is producing 25,000 to 34,000 barrels of oil per day, as a result of which excitement is running high in the field, and prices on lands and leases in the vicinity are soaring.

Mr. H. F. Gillette of this community owns sixteen acres of land adjoining the property on which this gusher was brought in, and was called back to the field Saturday night in the matter.

Barring any accidents, and with the employment of good judgment in handling the matter, Mr. Gillette's holding ought to make him a very rich man, and his many friends in this section trust that he will reap everything that is coming to him in the enterprise.

Mrs. Floyd Aten and children arrived from Tyler this afternoon to join Mr. Aten in making their future home with us. They will be at home, as soon as their household effects arrive, in a house belonging to J. H. Summers on Houston street. Mr. Aten is connected with the job department of The Sentinel.

CONTEST CLOSES.

Miss Jane Holt is Winner of Majestic Range.

The Big Free Range Contest closed August 31st. Miss Holt receives 37,049 votes. More than 30 little girls were working hard for the Baby Majestic and it was a great contest in every way. All the contestants received large votes and much interest was shown to the very last minute. For lack of space we are unable to publish the standing of the more than 30 contestants but give the four leaders as follows:

JANE HOLT 37,049
IRENE TILLERY 17,678
MARY BIRDWELL 14,613
VERA SMELLEY 12,670

The contest was such a "Big Thing" that we are "Doubly Glad" we had it. We do not have a contest every day but we have "Everything in Hardware" at all times. We are here to serve you and will always do our best to please you. Call on us when you will.

PARENTS.

That Son or Daughter, What About Their Future Success

Their ability to think, to do, to act according to the dictator of a well trained mind will measure their success.

How to give them the most of this important training in the shortest time and at a reasonable cost, is the question that a catalogue from America's largest business training school will answer. Whenever a group of parents get together, whether it be in the home, in the store or at a convention, and the question of the kind of an education to give a boy or girl comes up, some well informed parent and patron of the Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, will tell of the advantages of this famous institution and what wonderful results it accomplished for his son or daughter in a remarkably short period of time. He will tell of his child's success since graduating in this institution and will emphasize the fact that the training received was broad and thorough, both from a business and moral standpoint. Write for a catalogue of the Tyler Commercial College today. Read the many endorsements from students showing their success. Read the endorsements of business men as to the thoroughness of training. Read the description of our extensive practical courses of study, and you will see that the Tyler Commercial College is not the small business college you have been accustomed to hearing of, but it is an educational institution that ranks among the foremost of the country. When your son or daughter has graduated from this institution they will hold a diploma that represents efficiency, and will not only be a passport into the best salaried positions, but will be unquestionable evidence that they have achieved a great accomplishment.

Irregular bowel movements breed disease in the body: You should purify and regulate the bowels using Prickly Ash Bitters. It is mildly cathartic and strengthens the stomach, liver bowels. Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special Agents.

Don't Think A Modern Windmill Looks Like This

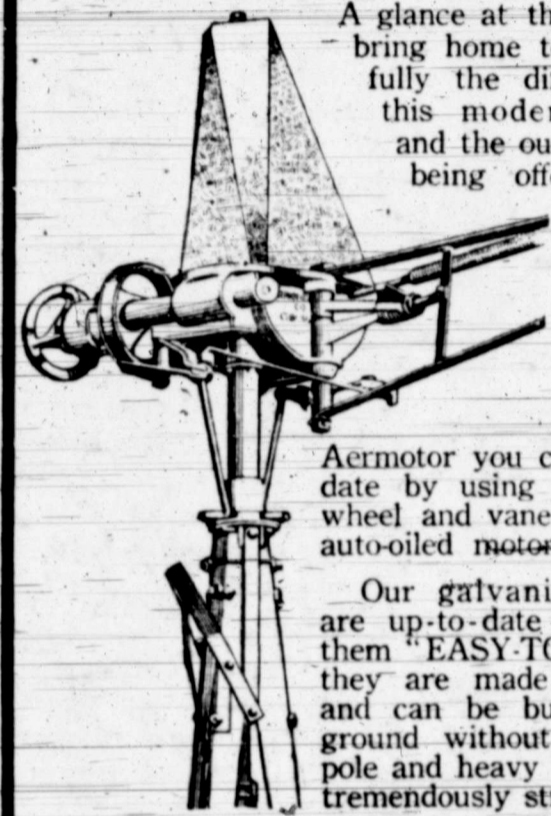

The same kind of ingenious, inventive ability that has perfected the automobile, flying machine and submarine has been at work on the windmill.

You would not think of buying an automobile with the transmission gears uncovered and exposed to dirt and water. Nor would you buy one which required that each bearing be oiled separately. We simply urge you to use the same good judgment in selecting a windmill.

There is ONE, but ONLY ONE, thoroughly modern and up-to-date windmill.

You will find in it every feature which you know to be desirable in a windmill. It runs in the lightest wind, it is strong and durable, all working parts are inclosed and flooded with oil from the supply in the gear case. The oil supply needs replenishing only once a year. The brake and furling device are simple and effective.

A glance at this illustration will bring home to you very forcefully the difference between this modern wind motor and the out-of-date windmills being offered for sale. If you have a mill of another make it will pay you to replace it, on your old tower, with an Auto-Oiled Aermotor. If you have an Aermotor you can bring it up to date by using your old tower, wheel and vane and installing an auto-oiled motor.

Our galvanized steel towers are up-to-date also. We call them "EASY-TO-BUILD-UP," as they are made in 7-foot lengths and can be built up from the ground without the use of gin pole and heavy tackle. They are tremendously strong.

Progressive windmill dealers in every locality are taking up the sale of the Auto-Oiled Aermotor. Ask them about it, or write us direct for fuller information. Aermotor Co., 2500 West Twelfth St., Chicago, Ill.
