MARKETING PEANUTS.

The marketing of the large crop of peanuts which Texas has grown this year presents a new problem and has caused many inquiries to be addressed to the Extension Service of the A & M. College. While I have not had opportunity to make a minute investigation, I have gathered some information which warrants me in advising farmers not to rush their peanuts to market. The oil mills are now engaged in crushing cotton seed and they will not care to buy peanuts until after the cotton seed is out of the way. Only a few mills are now making orders on peanuts and prices are 70 to 75 cents for best peanuts sacked and 71 to 76 cents for best peanuts in bulk. At the present prices for cotton seed and with due regard for the value of peanut oil compared with cotton seed oil, my judgment is that peanuts are worth more than 75 cents per bushel and I feel warranted in advising farmers to hold their peanuts for I believe that before spring peanuts will sell at 80 cents per bushel.

Attention has already been called to a recent experiment at College Station in the feeding of peanut meal to hogs. It is demonstrated that hogs fattened on peanut meal will be accepted as hard flesh whereas hogs fattened on peanuts are discounted by the packers about 10 cents per pound on account of soft flesh. Therefore, the farmer who has a peanut crop and feeds the meal to his hogs will make a gain of 1 1/2 cents per pound in his pork, besides he will keep on his farm the fertility which he has extracted from it in growing the peanuts. In one of two places mills are offering peanut meal for peanuts pound for pound. The farmer can well afford to make this exchange for the meal will add 1 1/2 cents per pound to the value of his pork compared with the peanuts.

Even at present prices of approximately 75 cents per bushel, the peanut proves to be a profitable money crop. At the low yield of 40 bushels to the acre it makes a gross income of $30 and this compares favorably with cotton at the present price of 15 cents per pound, because at one acre a bale to the acre the returns from the peanuts are more than the gross returns from the cotton and the cost of producing the peanuts is considerably less. Besides, the peanut hay may be reckoned at $7 to $10 an acre.

HULIN CRANE, JR., IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Crane in this city will be pained to learn that their bright little son, Hulin Crane, Jr., was recently the victim of a very serious automobile accident in which he came near losing his life, but will be cheered to learn that it is now hoped that he will survive his injuries.

In a letter to a friend in the city, written from his home in San Antonio, Mr. Crane gives the following account of the misfortune:

"You have probably heard of my boy's misfortune, but for fear that you have not, will say that he was run over by an automobile on the afternoon of the 27th, and seriously injured, and we thought until Saturday morning that he was fatally hurt. The front wheel of the car passed over his stomach, badly injuring his kidneys from which he had several hemorrhages, and we were very much afraid until Saturday morning that his bowels were either crushed or paralyzed, and that an operation would have been necessary not later than twelve o'clock on Saturday; we however, succeeded in getting passage from his bowels before that time.

"A careless, reckless fool was the cause of it, running over him in the street and knocking him off his wheel. He managed to roll and crawl to the sidewalk, but the fool was running so fast that he ran up over the curb and ran over him after he had fallen on the walk. The doctors tell me unless some new trouble should develop that we have every reason to hope for him to come out of danger."

NEW HEALTH OFFICER.

At the meeting of the city council last night Dr. J. D. Deal tendered his resignation as health officer, which was accepted, and Dr. R. F. Lockey was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Dr. Deal has been faithful to the trust committed into his hands as city health officer, doing what he could to improve the sanitary conditions of the city and giving the people the benefit of his professional knowledge in matters pertaining to the safeguarding of their health. Dr. Lockey will be equally faithful in this most important service, and should have the co-operation of the people.

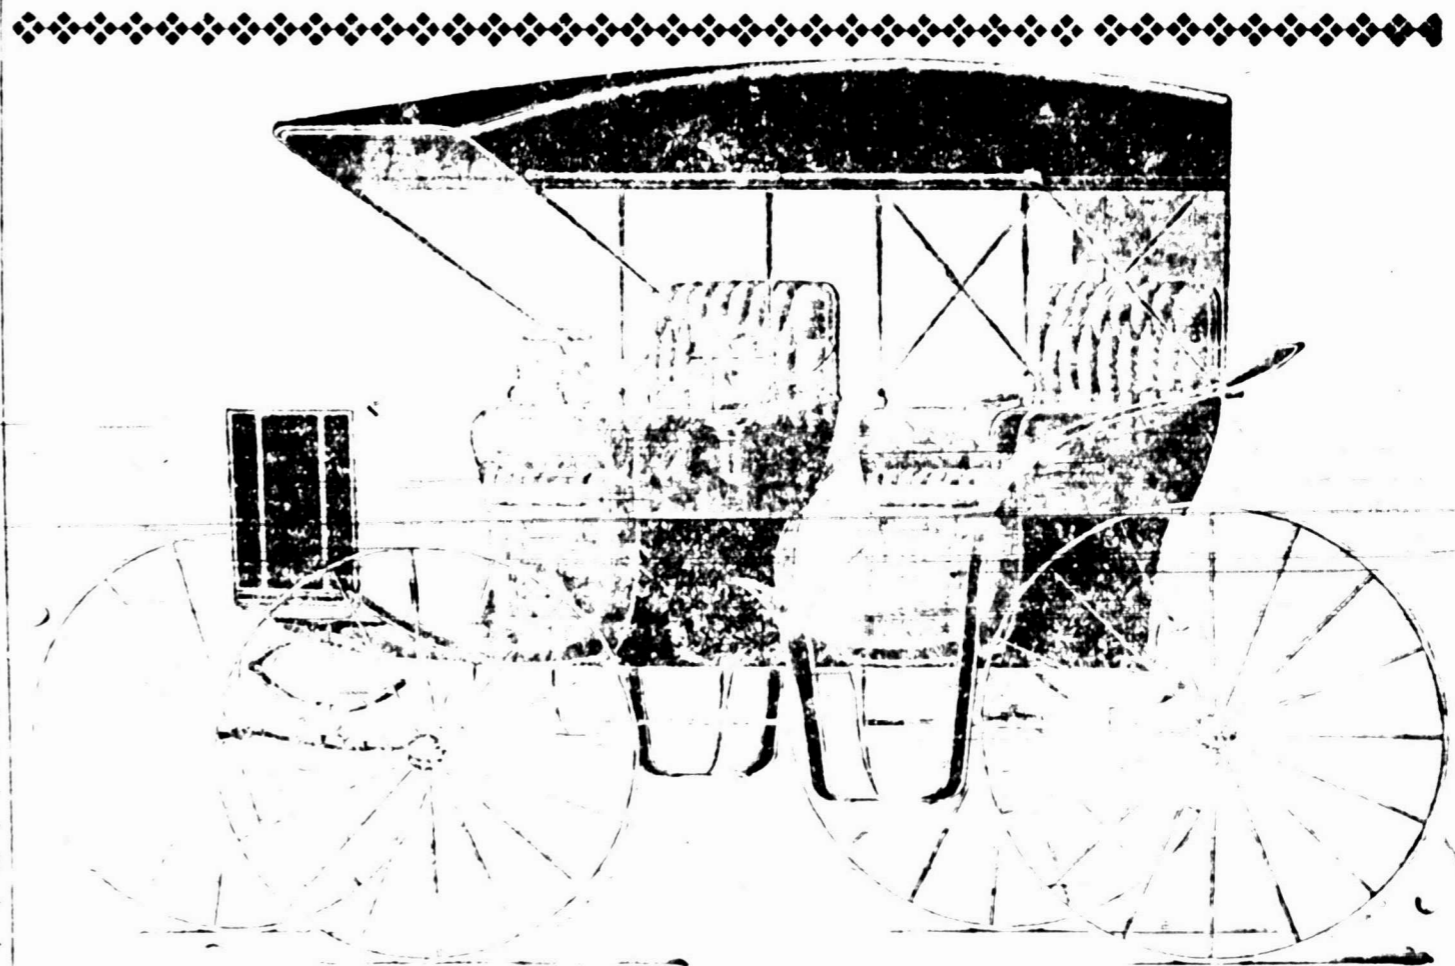

GINNERS' REPORT.

Following is the ginner's report, issued by the National government, which caused the sensational increase in the price of cotton:

Cotton of the growth of 1916 ginned prior to September 25 amounted to 1,062,991 bales, counting round as half bales, the census bureau today announced in its second ginning report of the season. That compared with 2,903,829 bales ginned prior to September 25 last year 3,395,752 in 1914 and 3,246,655 in 1913.

Round bales included in the ginnings numbered 83,327, compared with 32,412 last year, 33,394 in 1914 and 26,983 in 1913.

Sea Island bales included numbered 31,260, compared with 19,091 last year, 13,927 in 1914, and 10,270 in 1913.

GEARHART WILKINS WITH THE DEAD

Mr. Gearhart Wilkins, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county, living some four miles south of town, died yesterday afternoon following a long illness, on several months' limitation and his remains will be laid to rest in Oak Grove Cemetery at five o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Wilkins was born in Berlin, Germany, 1845, came to Texas, and grew to manhood on his native land. He came to Nacogdoches twenty-seven years ago, since which time he has made his home continuously in this community. He was the father of eight children, three of whom, two sons and one daughter, survive. One of his sons and his daughter reside in this city, and the other son is a member of the Texas National Guard. He deceased is also survived by his widow who shared life with him.

Mr. Wilkins was a thrifty, law-abiding citizen, and was highly respected by those who knew him. He also had many warm personal friends who will enter into profound sympathy with the bereaved ones left behind.

PRESBYTERIAN MEETING.

The protracted meeting at the Main Street Church will begin on Sunday, October 15, and Dr. J. C. Barr of New Orleans will arrive on Monday the 16th, holding his first service that evening. The choir of this church is requested to meet tonight at 7:30, and practice for the revival. We earnestly desire all the co-operation our friends and brethren of the other churches can give us, in personal presence, prayers and singing.

A COUNTY TREASURER FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

On Wednesday of last week S. H. Holcomb, County Treasurer, was arrested and placed in jail on a charge of embezzlement. An examining trial was held Monday before Justice of the Peace M. S. Lee, and Mr. Holcomb's bond was fixed at $2,000 to await the action of the grand jury. The bond was paid the day after.

Mr. Holcomb was raised in this county, and has been county treasurer for the past six years, and he has many friends who come to regret the charge which have been preferred against him.

A. W. Coker, the successful candidate for treasurer in the recent primary, has been named to fill the unexpired term. Indictments were registered against several Thursday charged with gaming, and who are said to have won money from Mr. Holcomb.

This incident is a very regrettable affair among our citizens - Poll County Enterprise.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

In the rush of other matters yesterday, The Sentinel failed to give the automobile accident suffered by our townsmen, Luther Swift, and the narrow escape he had with losing his life Sunday afternoon.

While going along the north east corner of the public square, and catching another car one driven by J. T. Walker, a colored chauffeur, here down upon him, and partly passed over him before the car was brought to a stop. The driver was also watching the other car and driving slowly.

Fortunately Mr. Swift escaped with only a few slight bruises, a lacerated finger, and a bursted coat.

Judge Perritte received a communication a few days ago requiring a list of the number of insane patients for this county during the past twelve months, and upon investigation he finds thirteen. The information being gathered for the purpose of being submitted to the next legislature with recommendation for better provision for the care of insane.

When New York gets through with its local strike, let us hope that its people will have sufficient vision to foresee what the great railroad strike would have been, and support the man who saved them.

Smaller farms, more winter pasturage, more forage crops, more livestock and poultry and more fertilizer, more terraces, better farming is what it takes to save any country. No country can be improved by neglecting things that are for its best interest—Lindale Reporter.

An automobile load of joy riders in Shreveport, and similar aggregations in two different Texas towns were caught in serious wrecks and some lives lost in each according to reports appearing in yesterday's papers. As Doc Lively would say, "it is time to watch your step."

The Trades Day in Nacogdoches Tuesday attracted a very large number of people from all over the county and was greatly enjoyed by all. The exhibits were extra fine. There is no reason why this county should not have a fair every year.—Garrison Weekly News.

The ginners' report, just out, shows a still further shortage in the production of cotton, as a result of which the price jumped up about seventy points, making cotton worth sixteen cents and upward per pound today. A still further shortage is expected, and it now looks as if Clarence Ousley's prediction of twenty-cent cotton will come true.

If crime and litigation decreases as fast in Nacogdoches county the next few years as it has the past year, we can soon cut the term of our district court in twain, and people who are troubled with so much jury and witness service will be relieved of much worry and loss of valuable time. Let us hope that the reign of reason is uprooting the reign of passion, and that the good record may be sustained.

A visitor to the Trades Day meeting in this city remarked on how well dressed the people of all classes and sexes were, and how prosperous they looked as compared with a few years ago. There was a time when many people gave but little attention to their personal appearance, but that time is passing with all classes. To be sure, "the dress does not make the man," but it makes him look a whole lot better, and will be of material assistance to him in engaging the attention of his neighbors and those with whom he comes in contact both socially and in a business way.

A traveling man who makes a good part of his trips through the country in an automobile said to The Sentinel man this morning that the people of the towns do not really know how fast old East Texas is coming into its own. At every farm passed now may be seen several good Jersey or other good blooded calves, and several hogs in the pens, good crops of feedstuff abound on every farm, and everybody is happy. No longer do you hear the wail of hard times, but to the contrary farmers are rejoicing with each other on how much they can have and how much more they hope to make in the future. It is great.

SHALL WE SUSTAIN IT?

In past issues of this paper The Sentinel has had much to say about the splendid work being done by Miss Bess Mason in the organization of classes of domestic science and promoting the study of this valuable branch of education in the rural schools of the county.

We have had much to say because much has been done. This most capable and energetic lady has aroused a great interest with the girls of the rural schools, which in turn has reached in the homes of the rural communities, and the county has been greatly elevated thereby, proof of which is offered in the splendid exhibits these girls recently furnished for the Trades Day display in this city. Further proof may be found in all the homes served.

The present tendency of education—and it is a happy condition—is to train the hands as well as the heads. That education which does not fit people for useful citizenship is of no practical value and falls flat. Through the work being done by the department of agriculture, supplemented with appropriations by the county, trained men and women are being sent into the rural districts and the producers are being served with advantages that have hitherto been enjoyed only by the larger towns, and as a result of this great work conditions have been greatly improved and life has been made more glorious. As the Sentinel sees it, it is the greatest public service ever inaugurated, and instead of reducing any feature of it, it should be enlarged upon as opportunity affords.

Observing the splendid work she has done here, two other counties have made application for Miss Mason's services, and are insisting upon a contract with her. They offer her a thousand dollars a year with a car as a conveyance to visit the points she would serve. Some of the schools of the country are also anxious to contract with her, but she has labored faithfully, and at a great sacrifice to inaugurate the work in this county and does not want to leave it until it is fully developed, but it is now up to the commissioners court and the citizenship of the county to determine whether or not her services shall be retained in the work. The state department will contribute $250 to the work and it has been suggested that if the county will contribute $500 then another $250 could be easily raised in donations from the citizenship.

In justice to Miss Mason we are due it to her to settle the matter at once, otherwise we would deprive her of the opportunity of work elsewhere, or lose the opportunity of securing her services. The commissioners court will meet next week, and it should be settled at this time. And we believe we would voice the sentiment of a great majority of the people of the county in the statement that the appropriations should be made and her services retained.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Salty Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

HAPPINESS IS ELUSIVE

Many young people think of little except how they can have a good time. If there is work to do it is only something in their way to be gotten rid of as soon as possible, no matter how. They think they can live as a butterfly does when in its glory, and sip honey every hour from everything they see.

To find something entertaining, to be amused, is all that they think of. This is very natural, and it is well that they can look on the bright side of life. But they should know also that life is not all a play spell.

There are duties to be performed, and real happiness comes only after work is well done. Happiness is not found when sought as the chief thing in life. Entertainments cease to entertain. The brilliant companion does not please always unless there are sterling qualities of character back of the brilliance. Work is the blessing of mankind. Play is relished more after work is done.

There ought to be some earnest purpose, some worthy aim in the heart of everyone. Live not for the present moment. Live to be and do. There are consequences to all our acts. Folly soon brings a bitter harvest which no one can escape reaping. There are innocent joys to which all, especially the young, are entitled. But it should be learned that living to some worthy purpose brings the truest enjoyment.—Milwaukee Journal.

RUTHLESSNESS OF THE RIGHTEOUS.

A great deal of harsh feeling, revenge and plain meanness is disguised under the sugar coating of righteous anger. Anger of the righteous variety animates the allies against the central powers, the central powers against the allies. The crusaders of the Middle Ages felt that their passionate attack upon the Moslems was vindicated by the sacredness of their wrath. The modern reformer strikes hotly at the old guard, and without compunction, for he knows his cause is just. The defender of outworn institutions fights against these attacks in a white heat of honest rage—for he is the forlorn hope of civilization in his own eyes. We all feel ourselves holiest when we are hopping mad.

A small boy was crying upon the main street of a suburban town. His face was dirty, and he dug dirty fists into his eyes to wipe the humiliating tears. Before him stood a lady whose eyes flashed fire. A holy resentment against dirt blazed in her face and trembled in her voice. "It's a scandal, a disgrace to the community," she declaimed to her escort, stamping a fashionably shod foot. "He is never clean, he is always barefooted, he carries all the diseases that can be accumulated. Look at that underwear!" She stooped, opened the boy's shirt with dainty fingers and pulled out a fold of soiled clothing. "How hideous! A breeding place for vermin! Go home and tell your mother that you are a disgrace to the town!"

The reformer is the necessary of men; the muckracker has an honorable profession. But it is possible for them to forget, in the glory of the charge, in the exhilaration of achievement, that they deal with people, with men, women and children, and not with monsters. It is easy to imagine oneself Sir Galahad in a field of dragons. A little kindness toward our enemies, though we may find it difficult to follow the Biblical injunction and love them, is a happy tempering in the attitude of those who attack the hydra-headed evils of old-fashioned methods in politics,

NACOGDOCHES EXHIBITS AT EAST TEXAS FAIR

Mr. R. C. Anderson, in conversation with The Sentinel reporter, informs us that he was in charge of an exhibit sent from this county to the East Texas Fair at Timpson, and is highly pleased with the good results enjoyed. Prizes were awarded the exhibits in which he was in charge as follows:

- Best registered Jersey bull, first and second prizes, were awarded to T. E. Burgess.
 - Best registered Jersey cow, T. E. Burgess was awarded an extra premium in a sack of Bewley's Best Flour offered by Wade McLain, and thus brought the Nacogdoches premium back home.
 - Best two-year-old Jersey heifer, second prize, D. K. Cason.
 - Best pen three head Jersey cattle, one bull and two cows, second prize was awarded to T. E. Burgess.
 - Best trio Leghorn chickens, first premium, Mrs. R. C. Anderson.

INTERESTING LETTER TO AUTOMOBILE DRIVERS

Nacogdoches, Texas, Sept. 29th, 1916.

Editor Sentinel:

It will doubtless surprise many—perhaps all—to know that I have something in my mind; but have, and really believe it to be a matter of interest to every one in the county. I so wish that I could write so as to enlist the interest of the people on such an important subject.

It is the matter of our use of automobiles, or, rather one might say, their "misuse." I believe that nothing less than a Divine Providence has saved us from an appalling accident and perhaps, as a result, many deaths.

Some months ago, upon the call of Mayor Matthews a meeting was held that, for Nacogdoches, showed real enthusiasm. A committee of five prominent men, all good thinkers and who not only have had experience in the use of cars, but who really enjoy their use, and who are anxious that no injury to person or property shall result from driving, were appointed to prepare and submit to a meeting of citizens—the meeting to be called by the committee—certain rules and regulations governing the use of cars, for the acceptance or rejection by the "Nacogdoches County Automobile Association"—which association was formed at the first meeting called.

Now, as I was a charter member of the Association, and had the pleasure of nominating the committee of five, I want to again respectfully ask them to devote the time required, prepare their recommendations, call another meeting (which I hope will be attended by every car owner and his family in the county and by any and all others who will) and let the Association adopt rules and live as nearly as is possible up to them; such rules to govern the use of cars to the end that our people may be spared from such an experience in our midst as is occurring daily in other sections, viz. the horrible mutilation and death, and in some instances, incarceration of human bodies. Many of our streets are narrow and rough. Some of our country roads are narrower and rougher. Driving cars in many of these places, particularly at the speed at which many of we young folks, and quite as many of you old folks (men and women, too) is not only dangerous to the occupants of the cars, but to drivers of other vehicles and to pedestrians, as well, all of whom have an equal right to the proper and sane use of the roads. As a good, clever thinking people, we should get our heads and hearts together and with a oneness of purpose, take such steps as will inure to the general welfare and general good feeling of all.

That there is yet some prejudice upon the part of some good people to the use of automobiles is true. In some instances they have a just cause for complaint where the courtesy of car drivers is not extended. Likewise I think car drivers have cause for complaint in instances where just regard for their rights is not shown, but I believe that most men are "gentlemen," and that a very large majority of the ladies are "gentle-ladies," and that all are willing to be genteel and courteous if a proper understanding is had and if we all really and seriously undertake to live "agreeably to our profession."

I remember well, years ago when the use of the old tar bucket wagon, with the North Carolina bed about three feet higher, at each end than in the center was considered "putting on some style," and when later the red wheel thimble-skein Suffered From Lame Back, Weak Kidneys and Dizziness.

Dear Editor:

"Last winter I suffered terribly from lame back, weak kidneys and dizziness, and uric acid in the blood caused rheumatic pains. I sent to Dr. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., for his new remedy, 'Anurie.' As soon as the box of tablets came by mail I commenced taking them, and reaped untold good from their use."—(Signed) Mrs. Kate Thompson.

Note.—This "Anurie" is adapted especially for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine and urinary troubles. The physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, in Buffalo, N. Y., have thoroughly tested this prescription and found it 37 times more potent than lithia. 50c. at all drug stores, or send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package.

wagons made their advent, and a very few of the more prosperous farmers could get such a wagon, he was dubbed by his less fortunate or less progressive friends as "having the big head," "putting on airs," in taking his folks to meeting, and to the circus in "that thing." Still later came the old fashioned spring hack, and some of them had "standin' tops"—and really a fellow who could get one of "them things" was looked on with suspicion. Still later the top buggies, surries, etc. All of these have, when first introduced, had their critics and in every vicinity there were those who would really and sincerely doubt anybody's ability to be "real honest" and "play the game fair" and be able to own such.

Times have changed and all these things are in general use today and the many who own them have full fellowship with their good neighbors. Automobiles are here. Airships will soon be. As an owner of a car, my experience is that they are an expensive luxury, and yet I am fully convinced that we can't take it with us when we go, and personally I never had the slightest objection to any man spending his money for red wagons, spring hacks, surries or buggies (particularly if he bought them from me)—in fact, I am willing for him to have all of them (whether he buys them from me or not) and have an automobile besides if he is able to own it and discharge his other obligations, and whether you or I either are willing that people should have automobiles, a great many (about 500 in this county) have them now and a great many others will soon have them, some of them whether they discharge their other obligations or not.

So, if we can get the five gentlemen referred to herein to call the Association together, and if the Association will enlist as members, the Car Owners and Drivers in the county and adopt rules for their guidance that are safe and courteous alike to themselves and to all others, and give publicity to the rules so adopted, and we live up to them, we will find beyond a doubt that the whole people, whether they "rise up and call us blessed" or not, will at least appreciate our interest in the safety and pleasure of the people, and we will so heartily and generously co-operate with each other as that very soon every honest and right-thinking man will respect the others' rights and comforts, and the prejudice heretofore existing will soon be forsaken and forgotten.

Sincerely trusting that we may get together upon some practical, easily understood basis along this line that will result in the avoidance of road accidents, and will bring us into a closer and altogether friendly and helpful relationship one with another, and assuring you of my anxiety to render such aid along this line as is possible, I am,

Sincerely,
D. K. CASON.

CATALOGUE FLOOD.

When the rural mail carriers for routes two and three passed this office this morning their vehicles were loaded as long as they could pile on a piece of mail order catalogues, addressed to patrons along the route, and the first idea that struck the writer was that it was a "mail order flood."

Of course, this "flood" is a little different to that experienced by Father Noah and his household, but if the intention of the promoters is carried out, the effect will be almost as disastrous. The country would be stripped of its cash by concerns that have no community interest with us, and who would grow fat with our downfall; the mails are burdened with the cumbersome loads for which the country has to pay the price, and the price of paper is given another advance by reason of the great consumption. As patriotic people, we hope those who receive them will be careful in investing their money with the illuding bid, and remember that if our country ever comes into its own, and we enjoy that community prosperity which we all crave, we must give first consideration to home and home people.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knawton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

Mr. Todd, the manager of this district, informs The Sentinel that the Southwestern will, in the near future, re-construct its new lines, stringing copper wire and setting new poles, to conform with the standard of the company's equipment, through which better service will be offered.

PREPAREDNESS How It Helps Coughs and Colds

Buy your bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar now, and quickly stop the coughs and colds of early fall.

Early fall brings croup, bronchitis, asthmatic breathing, troublesome night coughs, whooping cough, and tickling, irritable throat.

It aggravates the distressing cough of weak lungs, and the chronic coughs of elderly people.

It gives "candy" to infants and children and provokes adenoids and sore inflamed throats.

Give Foley's Honey and Tar freely. It is so soothing and curative, relieves hoarseness and puts a healing coating on the inflamed mucous lining of the throat. It stops coughing easily and quickly and relieves croup before this dreaded thing has a chance to really harm the children or scare the parents. The last flow is just as good as the first, and a less amount is needed than of any other cough syrup.

Be sure to get only the original FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR for it is the only genuine, and contains no opiates.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONER DIES AT AUSTIN

Austin, Texas, October 1.—William D. Williams, railroad commissioner, died at his home here at 1 o'clock, Sunday morning of heart trouble, after a protracted illness. His death was sudden and unexpected. He had returned from California about a week ago, but had been unable to go to his office in the capitol, the long trip having injured him.

He was born at Mount Vernon, Ky., August 35, 1857, coming to Texas in 1875, and located at Seguin, where he engaged in ranching and cattle raising. He studied law at Seguin and was admitted to the bar in 1878. He moved to Austin in 1881 to practice law. After eight years he moved to Fort Worth.

He first came into public life in Fort Worth when he was elected city attorney, serving eight years. He resigned to make a campaign for the legislature. He served through the twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth and thirtieth legislatures.

In 1909 he was elected mayor of Fort Worth, but served only two months, resigning to fill a vacancy in the railroad commission. In 1910 he was elected for the unexpired term of two years, and in 1912 was elected for the full term of six years beginning in 1913.

CAPTIVE BANKER FORMER TEXAN IS HELD IN MEXICO

Ballinger, Texas, Sept. 28.—Friends of Jo Wilmeth, the Chicago banker who is being held in a Mexican jail at Sabinas, Mexico, pending the payment of a $10,000 fine, are active in an effort to secure the release of Wilmeth.

Mr. Wilmeth was for 30 years a banker of this city, leaving here a year ago to accept the position as inspector for the National Live Stock Bank of Chicago. He had been a citizen of this county since the county was organized and has many friends here. It is presumed that Mr. Wilmeth was looking after his bank's interest in Mexico when held up and put in jail and the fine demanded for release.

The first information of his trouble reached here today in a telegram from a friend who happened to be on the border and heard of his arrest.

It is a good thing that it has long since been discovered that there is nothing in a name. A minister named Wolf is arranging to hold a religious meeting in a Louisiana city.

Reforms of any nature are plants of slow growth, and the reformer usually gets "his'n" in the neck. But we must have the martyr in peace as well as war, and we would not discourage the man with a new idea.

With the high price of cotton and all other products of the farm we are now enjoying, and the hope that we will continue to enjoy this happy condition for several years to come, should inspire the people to clear up and put into cultivation every idle acre of land in East Texas this winter. No enterprise would be more profitable or is more needed.

The Tenaha Messenger announces a change of publishers, Mr. C. L. O'Bryan, who has been with the paper the past three years going to Chandler, Texas, where he will publish the Chandler Times, and Mr. M. L. Dunning of Kiowa, Okla., assuming the reins at Tenaha. Mr. O'Bryan has done a good work at Tenaha the past three years, and we commend him to the people of the new field, at the same time wishing for the new publisher of the Messenger success.

Almost every new invention opens up a field for talents heretofore wasted. In the long ago before the motion picture how many Charley Chaplins, as funny in their walk as the one we know today, must have gone through life without feeling the breath of fame. How many actors, from the day of Euripides down, only failly successful in the "legitimate," needed but the greater freedom of the unspoken drama to make them great. Before the linotype made possible the modern magazine and newspaper how many aspiring authors, who would have been able to write the up-to-date short story correctly to the last detail, flickered but a trail of unreadable blank verse tragedies. Before the phonograph how curtailed was the field which good music was heard and appreciated, and how wide is that field now, and how great its searching of the world for talent. And have there not been great pitchers and base-runners, from that bright day when Odysseus saw Nausica and her maidens playing ball, down to the comparatively recent time when the modern game of baseball was invented; yet all forgotten because they had no chance to prove their prowess?—San Francisco Bulletin.

J. D. Faulkner, a well known young man of this county who enlisted with the Texas National Guard, where he has been engaged the past several months, arrived home yesterday, having received an honorable discharge from service as a result of suffering a motorcycle accident which disabled him some weeks ago.

Some people think that the only thing they have to do towards the upbuilding of their town is to "rake in the money." They have no civic pride and take no interest in those things pertaining to town development. The only thing they care about is taking in the money and shoving it to the rear of a bank vault. They want all they can get out of a community, yet they are not willing to devote a part of their time and give a share of their money towards those things that are absolutely necessary to community life.—Timpson Times.

The visit of Judge Kittrell of Houston brought quite a literary and spiritual treat to the people of Nacogdoches which they will not soon forget. At the school building Saturday night the judge talked about the man Sam Houston, whose name all loyal Texans revere, and at the Methodist church yesterday morning he talked about the man Jesus who came to save our spiritual lives. Those who heard the distinguished visitor at either or both services were charmed with his eloquence and logic, and would be pleased to hear him again when opportunity affords. In addition to his eloquence as a speaker, Judge Kittrell is one of the most prominent writers of the state, doing editorial work on the Houston Chronicle, and with the combination of service he is doing a great work for Texas, both materially and spiritually.

SMALL SUCCEEDS WOOD

Austin, Texas, September 27.—Secretary of State McKay was advised Wednesday by Secretary Kirk of the State democratic executive committee that J. O. Small, also of Wellington, to be the nominee for this position to succeed Mr. Wood. The latter resigned because he was appointed postmaster at Wellington.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED.

To visit our interesting and instructive exhibit at the Texas state fair, Dallas, and Louisiana State Fair at Shreveport, Cotton Palace, Waco, Texas. We invite all our former students, their friends and those contemplating entering a business training school to visit our booth in the Exposition Building, and see our splendid exhibit which has won first honors at these state fairs. Our exhibit this year will be more extensive than ever before; it will be interesting and educational to old and young. We will have demonstrations on some of the most modern office appliances which are taught in our school. Speed demonstrations in Stenotypewriting, exhibition of student's work in Bookkeeping, Business Training, Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Administration and Finance, Penmanship, Cotton Classing and Telegraphy. A visit to our exhibit will show you why we have the largest school of the kind in America, when you are shown clearly why it is that we can make you a more practical and thorough stenographer in three and one-half months with the famous Byrne Simplified Shorthand or Stenotypewriting than other schools teaching other systems can in seven months, and why it is our original copyrighter systems of bookkeeping and business training that we can give you both a course of bookkeeping and business training in less time than other schools can give you a mere theoretical course of bookkeeping, and why it is that our practical department of Telegraphy, the largest in the United States, with a loop of the Cotton Belt train wire, giving every message to our students that goes from Mt. Pleasant to Waco; every station blank and record book that is used by Western Union or Cotton Belt Railroad, turns out practical operators and station men; and that we place our graduates in good positions, also investigate the practical manner in which we teach cotton classing.

From present indications, we will easily enroll 2000 students this year.

Whether you are going to attend one of these fairs or not, write today for catalogue and read what we guarantee to give you, what our former students say we have given them, and what their employers say of their efficiency. Address Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

Mrs. R. W. Haselwood went to Henderson yesterday for a few days visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Haselwood carried her up in his car and returned home in the afternoon.

CHAS. H. HURLEDSON R. R. COMMISSIONER

Austin, Oct. 2.—Governor Ferguson today announces the appointment of Charles H. Hurlerdson of Fort Worth to be railroad commissioner, to fill out the unexpired term of Judge William D. Williams of Fort Worth, who died early Sunday.

C. H. Hurlerdson began railroad life in 1883, first as a messenger boy and then as a call boy for the Texas & Pacific in Fort Worth. George W. Deats, master mechanic of the Texas & Pacific, was his first employer.

His rise in railroad service was rapid. He went to Denison as a freight brakeman for the M. K. & T. and before he was 21 years of age he was a freight train conductor. A few years later he was made a passenger train conductor, being the youngest man in that capacity on the entire M. K. & T. system.

From train service he was appointed a construction superintendent, and constructed the Hillsboro yards and directed several other big jobs for the M. K. & T.

Hurlerdson next became division superintendent for the M. K. & T. with headquarters at Smithville. He was injured in 1912 in a collision between two trains at LaGrange.

In 1914 Hurlerdson was appointed general manager of the State railway, with headquarters at Palestine.

He has been a close friend of Governor Ferguson since the days twenty years ago when they were fellow employes on the M. K. & T.

Hurlerdson was notified in Palestine Sunday night of his appointment by Governor Ferguson to succeed Williams.

FALL PLOWING.

By J. O. Morgan, Professor of Agronomy, A. and M. College of Texas.

Just at this time we wish to emphasize the importance of fall plowing for the heavy clay soils covered with large quantities of stubble or coarse litter of any kind. Fall plowing makes available the large stores of natural fertility in clay soils by permitting the free circulation of air and moisture through them during the winter months. It also enables these soils to absorb readily and store up for future use the winter's heavy rainfall.

Plowing under large quantities of organic matter in the fall gives sufficient time for this material to decompose by the time the crop is planted. Otherwise the crop derives little benefit from it.

Carefully conducted experiments, as well as farm experience, have spoken emphatically in favor of plowing soils of the type mentioned above in the fall rather than in the late winter or spring. The question is no longer debatable. Act now and decrease the fertilizer bill next spring.

Loose sandy soils if plowed in the fall will suffer considerable loss from leaching during the winter months. This is especially true if the land is left bare. Such soils should not be plowed until late winter or early spring. It is advisable, however, to defer plowing until immediately before planting, as the seed bed will be loose for best results.

MOTHER LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

It Brings Relief To Boy Standing His Watch Deep in Mud.

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains (he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.

SPACE BASIS FOR MAIL.

Washington, Sept. 28.—The space basis for compensating railroads for transportation of mails will be put into effect November 1 throughout 90 per cent of the service, the post office department announced tonight, under a provision of the last post-office bill, which authorized partial installation of the system to test its possibilities. Final decision as to whether it shall be made permanent is left by the bill to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The 10 per cent of the service in which the present weight basis will be retained is the "closed pouch service," consisting of mails transmitted in locked sacks and handled in baggage cars by agents of railway companies.

U. S. SENATOR CLARK DIES.

Little Rock, Oct. 1.—United States Senator James P. Clarke, president pro-tem of the United States senate, died at his home here at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Senator Clark suffered a stroke of apoplexy Friday and never regained consciousness. Physicians and members of his family, however, minimized the seriousness of his condition so that news of his death came as a shock. The physician said that the senator first complained of feeling ill when he returned to his home from his law office Wednesday afternoon. His indisposition continued Thursday and Friday, and the stroke of apoplexy occurred about 6 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Senator Clark was born at Yazoo City, Miss., August 18, 1854. He was educated in the schools of his native state and in 1878 graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia. He began the practice of law in Helena, Ark., in 1879. In 1886 he was elected to the lower house of the Arkansas legislature, and served through the session of 1887, and in 1888 he was elected to the state senate, where he served until 1892. He was elected president of the senate in 1891. He was elected attorney general of the state in 1892, and in 1894 was elected governor and was inaugurated in January, 1895. He served only one term, as he declined the Democratic nomination and resumed the practice of law in Little Rock. In 1903 he was elected United States senator and re-elected in 1909 and for his third term in 1915.

He was elected president pro-tem of the senate in 1913 and re-elected in 1915. His present term as United States senator will not have expired until March 4, 1921. Senator Clark was married in Helena, November 15, 1883 to Miss Sallie Moore. She and a son and two daughters survive.

Dr. and Mrs. Deal have been prominent and useful in all the affairs of community interest in Nacogdoches, and have drawn about them a great host of friends whose good wishes will follow them into their new home, trusting that prosperity may attend them and they may come back to us at some time in the future.

TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place. "Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headaches, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

REV. C. C. HOFFMEISTER IS DEAD.

The sad news has been received by friends, that Rev. C. C. Hoffmeister died at Jefferson City, Tennessee, on last Sunday. This consecrated minister was known and loved throughout Presbyterian circles throughout Texas Synod, and he was the pastor of the Main Street Church in this city for several years. What makes this death extremely sad is the fact that Mrs. Hoffmeister, a most cultured woman, who was beloved of all who knew her, died at Jefferson about three years ago, which leaves the younger children—three girls and two boys—without father or mother. We feel sure that the sympathy of hosts of Christian and Masonic friends goes out to this bereaved family and will be answered by their prayerful devotion to God's throne of grace.

While we are reading about the big business of the country, in which big exports are being noted, it will be interesting to note that Nacogdoches county is doing a part. And if it could keep up the record of yesterday, the old county would soon get in the headlines as one of the prominent factors.

Agent Greve informs The Sentinel that there was billed out from his station yesterday fifteen cars of cattle, twelve cars of cotton, one car of cotton seed, and five cars of cotton seed products, making a total of thirty-three cars.

How Catarrh is Contracted.

Mothers are sometimes so thoughtless as to neglect the colds which their children contract. The inflammation of the mucous membrane, at first acute, becomes chronic, and the child has chronic catarrh, a disease that is seldom cured and that may prove a life's burden. Many persons that have this loathsome disease will remember having had frequent colds at the time it was contracted. A little forethought, a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy judiciously used, and all this trouble might have been avoided. Obtainable everywhere. dw

ATTENDED RE-UNION.

Capt. Jno. S. Doughtie, Judge S. W. Blount, and Messrs. S. M. Adams and Frank Sublett attended the Confederate re-union held in San Augustine yesterday, making the trip in Mr. Sublett's car.

These gentlemen bring back quite a glowing report of the affair. At 10:30 in the morning a parade with 198 old soldiers, a brass band and the W. O. W. in uniform rank made an interesting number, which was followed at 11:00 o'clock with an address by Capt. Jas. W. Truitt, himself an old veteran and one of East Texas, most talented speakers. At 12:00 a barbecue dinner was spread that was great, there being more than the great crowd could consume, all prepared in the most approved manner. At 2:00 o'clock an old fiddlers contest supplemented with some recitations, was enjoyed, and followed by an eloquent address by Congressman Martin Dies. A business meeting of the old soldiers was held at 4:30, and the program called for a dance, with Capt. E. I. Kellie as leader, for eight o'clock last night.

The occasion was the fifteenth annual re-union of the Sabine River Camp, United Confederate Veterans, who were entertained by the citizens of San Augustine county and John H. Brooks Camp U. C. V.

Editor Sentinel:

AFTER SIX YEARS OF SUFFERING

Woman Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Columbus, Ohio.—"I had almost given up. I had been sick for six years with female troubles and nervousness. I had a pain in my right side and could not eat anything without hurting my stomach. I could not drink cold water at all nor eat any kind of raw fruit, nor fresh meat nor chicken. From 173 pounds I went to 118 and would get so weak at times that I fell over. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and ten days later I could eat and it did not hurt my stomach. I have taken the medicine ever since and I feel like a new woman. I now weigh 127 pounds so you can see what it has done for me already. My husband says he knows your medicine has saved my life."
Mrs. J. S. BARLOW, 1624 South 4th St., Columbus, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound contains just the virtues of roots and herbs needed to restore health and strength to the weakened organs of the body. That is why Mrs. Barlow, an chronic invalid, recovered so completely. It pays for women suffering from any female ailments to insist upon having Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DISTRICT COURT.

In the suit of Mrs. Hillen vs. the H. E. & W. T. Ry. Co., which was on trial when The Sentinel closed out typesetting yesterday, the jury brought in a verdict of $4000 in favor of the plaintiff, to be divided into two parts, $2000 for the lady and $2000 for the children.

In the case of Wash Irving, which was set for yesterday, a plea of guilty was entered and the court assessed a verdict of ten years in the penitentiary against the defendant. This case has been of considerable interest for the reason that two offenses grew out of the same trouble. Several years ago the defendant was given five years in the penitentiary for assaulting a negro woman. While his case was on appeal he is charged with having killed the negro woman, but had to serve his first sentence before he could be tried for the second. The evidence was of circumstantial nature and he was convicted for second degree murder under the law of an old statute.

The case of John Burkhalter, in which the defendant is charged with the murder of a man named Manning, has been continued for the term on plea of the defendant.

The Irving case having been finished up so quickly with a plea of guilty and the Burkhalter case having been continued, the court has worked itself out of a job, and Judge Guinn informs us that recess will be taken until Wednesday of next week, and that he will return to his home in Rusk this afternoon where he will spend his little vacation with his family. District Attorney O'Quinn will also return to his home, at Lufkin.

Ed. M. Weatherly, one of Garrison's prominent citizens, and owner of the famous Weatherly Wells, was in the city yesterday afternoon looking after some business interests.

Rev. G. W. Smith of Tyler was in the city today returning from some point in Shelby county where he held a protracted meeting.

THE MAN WITH A DREAM.

He may be right or he may be wrong,
He may be false or he may be true—
The singer is often more than the son,

The idea more than the man, perdue!
But right or wrong, there's glory in it—
Full to the brim each glorious minute—
When the man with the dream goes forth to see
What the world and the man and the dream may be!

And the ship may sink and the brave go down,
And the wrong may triumph and know no rest—
But one man more may have won a crown

For trying a little to do his best!
And the dream won't hurt and the seed may blow
In a fertile heart that will come in time

To help it sprout and help it grow
In the sun and rain of a kinder clime!

IT IS SO WITH DREAMS, AND THE MEN THAT DREAM—

None ever knows what there is in store
Till he follows the path of the luring gleam,
Or whether it led to peace or war;
For without the dream there is never a deed
That is worth the hour it costs to do—
And the man with the vision in this day needs—
For the man may be false, but dream is true!

CARRANZA'S MEN

RESIST CROSSING

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 28.—That the crossing of the Mexican frontier by armed American soldiers is virtually considered as an act of invasion to be repelled by armed force is revealed in a message received today by Consul Andres Garcia from Colonel Jose Riojas, chief of arms at Ojinaga, relative to the trespass committed in the Big Bend district on September 19 and 21. For this act, General Funston has since ordered a court martial of the offenders.

After satisfying himself previously that American soldiers had been over into Mexico, Colonel Riojas said that he ordered Major Jesus Gallegos, commanding the San Antonio district to keep a strict watch and send back any patrols crossing the line. On the 19th, the Carranza soldiers who went to order back a party of 22 Americans exchanged shots with them. The message continues:

"The 21st, another group of nine Americans passed above San Antonio. Five of our men were sent to tell them of the order issued. As before, the Americans opened fire which was answered. An American horse was killed and pools of blood were found, which showed that some of the invaders had been wounded. This clash took place four leagues from the river, demonstrating that the main authors of the trouble were the Americans and not my troops."

Colonel Riojas said that the American commander at Presido, Texas, was convinced that his own men were at fault and had offered to make satisfactory amends.

BANDITS WRECK AND BURN TRAIN

Mexico, resulting in the loss of several lives, and in a few minutes later a south-bound train, composed of passenger and freight cars, crashed head-on into the wreckage, which was set on fire by the bandits, resulting in the loss of a score or more lives, according to T. B. Hohler, British charge at Mexico City, who arrived here today.

Mr. Hohler, who is en route to New York and Washington, said he had to travel from Mexico City to Aguas Calientes and then to San Luis Potosi in order to reach the border as a result of the wreck. The bandits tore up the track previous to the wreck, Mr. Hohler said he was informed. Many of the passengers were believed to have been burned, he said.

GREECE HAS DECIDED UPON CO-OPERATION

London, September 28, 12:14 a. m.—The council of Greek ministers has decided, in agreement with King Constantine, upon a co-operation with the entente powers, says a Reuter dispatch from Athens, dated Wednesday. The Greek battleship Hydra has joined the allied fleet according to a Reuter dispatch from Athens. There is an unconfirmed report, the dispatch adds, that the Greek battleships Spetsai and Psara and four Greek destroyers have also joined the combined Anglo-French naval forces in the Mediterranean.

"The Greek ministerial council, held in Athens Tuesday evening," says a wireless dispatch from the Greek capital, "will be followed by the resignation of the Kalogeropoulous cabinet and by the issue of a proclamation from King Constantine to the Greek nation."

"Immediately on his return from Tatoi to Athens the king was summoned to a secret council of the Germanophiles, General Dousmanis, former chief of the Greek staff, and M. Streit, Queen-Sophia, sister of the German emperor, was present at the conference."

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little stomach, liver and bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleaning at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

COTTON IS BOUND TO HIT 20 CENTS

Austin, Texas, Sept. 28.—That cotton will ultimately reach 20 cents, in the event there are no changes from present conditions, is the opinion of the state warehouse managers, F. C. Weinert and Peter Radford. A short time ago the warehouse and marketing department, through Messrs. Feinert and Radford predicted that cotton would reach 18 cents because of the fact that there was no top crop, and they insist that this will soon be justified and that the staple will go still 2 cents higher. They point out that in the face of heavy selling by the producers, prices have remained practically unchanged; that practically all of the cotton in the state has been brought into sight and sold, which has placed the producer in such a financial position that he can gradually market the balance of his cotton and get for it its intrinsic value.

"The means of procuring cheap money and facilities for storing cotton, notwithstanding the onslaught of heavy sales, we believe has been one of the prime reasons for maintaining the price," declares the warehouse managers.

Continuing, they said: "The condition of the crop, limited supply, the consumption of the last two years, the demand from all sources, healthy trade conditions and advanced prices procured by the spinners and manufacturing agents for the finished product, warrant 20 cents per pound in the primary markets, and we are of the opinion that if the producer will wisely and gradually market the balance of his cotton and relieve the present overweight, it will in itself rise until he will receive the intrinsic value."

They also pointed out that the producer has been the predominating bear by selling as fast as gathered, and if the position of the market had not been so strong his actions would have greatly depressed prices.

6000 MORE MEN TO BE SEASONED

Washington, Sept. 27.—National Guard organizations from New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, District of Columbia, Virginia, New York, Alabama, Georgia, Connecticut, Florida, Michigan, Minnesota, Colorado and California were ordered to the Mexican border today by the war department. Some 6000 men are affected.

What Does Catarrh Mean?

It means inflammation of a mucous membrane somewhere in the head, throat, bronchial tubes, stomach, biliary ducts or bowels. It always means stagnant blood—the blood that is full of impurities. Left alone, it extends until it is followed by indigestion, colds, congestion or fever. It weakens the system generally and spreads its operations until systemic catarrh or an acute illness is the result.

Peruna

Is the nation's reliable remedy for this condition. It restores appetite, aids digestion, checks and removes inflammation, and thus enables the membranes, through which we breathe and through which our food is absorbed, to do their work properly. Forty four years of success, with thousands of testimonials, have established it as the home remedy—Ever-Ready-to-Take. Its record of success holds a promise for you.

WILL ADDRESS PEOPLE

ON PUBLIC SQUARE

A. C. Churchwell, president of the old folks ex-confederate slaves home which will be built in this community, will address the people who will listen to him out on the public square next Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the interest of the institution.

As has previously been noted in the paper, a plot of land has been purchased and work has been begun on the erection of a home for the old colored folks who survive days of slavery. These old darkies were true to their masters, and have since been true to the white people of the country. They are now too old and feeble to care for themselves, and it is a most worthy charity to care for them.

Easier to Stop Now.

It is easier to check a bronchial cough now than later. Coughs grow worse the longer they continue. Foley's Honey and Tar stops tickling in throat, allays inflammation and irritation, restores sore and discharging membranes to healthy condition, opens congested air passages, good health. Do not gripe, Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dwl

Mr. E. M. Weeks, a well known and highly respected citizen of this county, who has been making his home at Chireno for several years, took the train here last night for San Angelo, where he goes to join Mrs. Weeks and the children and make their future home there. The children went on several days ago. Mrs. Weeks has been in San Angelo for the past fourteen months, and it was the advice of the physicians that she could not live in a timbered country again; hence the family will make their home in San Angelo. Mr. Weeks will stop at Waco en route and close up a contract with the Tom Padgett saddle company by which he will represent that well known firm in the west. The people of Nacogdoches county regret very much to lose the citizenship of this good family, but trust that they will enjoy the blessings of good health and prosperity in their new home.
