Among the Mexican citizenship, also Prof. Davis said that they had responded cheerfully and generously.

The Sentinel feels very grateful in reporting this good piece of news, and the whole county will no doubt join the faithful leaders who have earnestly pushed this great humanity work in our midst in rejoicing over this good result because with the joining in of these forces our whole county stands out solidly for the Red Cross Work and our Uncle Sam. This is doing things the "Nacogdoches Way."

TWO MORE GOOD RED CROSS REPORTS

Chairman R. E. Davis this morning received reports from Liberty and Friendship in the Red Cross Drive. These communities reporting as follows: Liberty 115 members. Friendship 65 members. The report from Liberty is an extra good one, that community having gone beyond the quota assigned. The Friendship report also shows up well. Several other communities are yet to report before a complete tabulation of membership has been made. It is a large building. With the county working in the Red Cross, it is a business as usual. The county officers are happy again.

The county officers are happy again. The county officers are happy again. The county officers are happy again. The county officers are happy again.

Some of the papers are boosting Hon. Beaman Strong of this city as suitable "timber" for congress. Mr. Strong is as strong as his name indicates, moral and of the affairs of his life, and a man we could support whole-heartedly and enthusiastically if he throws his hat in the ring.

No, friend, it is not against your patriotism to raise porkers for profit these days. Consider the Nacogdoches lady who just this morning sold a mighty good pig which she had raised in her home lot, for twenty-one dollars, and some cents. Besides raising her own meat she had one to spare and sold it at a good profit. Patrioticly speaking, she is feeding herself in pork and contributing her part toward feeding the rest of the world. Plant plenty pork—it's patriotism.

The News sends New Year greetings in advance to its esteemed contemporary across the Angelina and trusts that the vision of Editor Gibbs may be expanded during the coming weeks to where he will be able to see more than our majestic Standpipe in Lovely Lufkin.—Lufkin News.

The advance greeting from our esteemed contemporary across the creek is received in the most spirit in which it was between and we rejoice to have had to read it. It is a good thing to have a neighbor who is so patriotic.

The advance greeting from our esteemed contemporary across the creek is received in the most spirit in which it was between and we rejoice to have had to read it. It is a good thing to have a neighbor who is so patriotic.

Something very analogous to this, it is believed, is going to be the effect on the American Nation of the War Savings campaign. Not only are millions of individual citizens going to begin to save, but this habit of economy and saving is going to be a collective movement, a movement not of individuals alone but of the Nation. The habit of saving food formed now has a deeper incentive than ordinary. We are saving now not alone for selfish reasons, we are saving now from patriotism, saving not alone for ourselves but for our country. The combination of patriotism and thrift is, indeed, going to make the War Savings campaign an epoch in our national life. It is not only going to be a thing of tremendous advantage to the Nation as a whole, and affect our whole national life. It marks the beginning of a new era in American life, an era of economy, good sense, and patriotism.

Hon. C. B. Collins, who has been assisting Mr. B. F. Bonner of Houston in the great Red Cross Drive, is home again and states that he is glad to be back in Lufkin. Lufkin is a good town, Mr. Collins says, and he is glad to be back here again on the food conservation work for this district, and in this important matter he should have the co-operation and support of all loyal citizens.—Lufkin News.

Each day I get poorer and weaker.

My stockings are feedless,
My trousers are seatless,
My God, how I do hate that Kaiser.

WANT SEED CORN.

Mr. Trimble, a representative of the Department of Agriculture, was in the city Friday and arranged with the three banks to purchase seed corn for the drouth stricken section of West Texas.

The department wants for this purpose three thousand bushels of corn of Yellow Dent, Strawberry or White variety, and will pay $2.50 per bushel for it, shelled, as soon as sacks for this purpose arrive. Either bank of the city will receive it.

This corn is to be used exclusively for Texas farmers in the drouth stricken section, and it is a matter which should have the co-operation of East Texas farmers, since a good price is offered for it. In fact, it would have been a great charity well bestowed if we had presented these distressed people with seed corn and other seed, and we must certainly give them all preference possible on the present proposition.

The banks have generously agreed to purchase the seed corn, and it is hoped that the farmers will be able to get their share of it.

THE BATTLE OF THE BELL

Something very analogous to this, it is believed, is going to be the effect on the American Nation of the War Savings campaign. Not only are millions of individual citizens going to begin to save, but this habit of economy and saving is going to be a collective movement, a movement not of individuals alone but of the Nation. The habit of saving food formed now has a deeper incentive than ordinary. We are saving now not alone for selfish reasons, we are saving now from patriotism, saving not alone for ourselves but for our country. The combination of patriotism and thrift is, indeed, going to make the War Savings campaign an epoch in our national life. It is not only going to be a thing of tremendous advantage to the Nation as a whole, and affect our whole national life. It marks the beginning of a new era in American life, an era of economy, good sense, and patriotism.

A letter received from Mr. D. K. Cannon advises that he with his wife will move to El Paso within a day or so, where more comfortable quarters can be obtained. His friends will be gratified to know that he continues to improve. His new address will be "Hendrick's Sanatorium, El Paso, Texas," and any mail so addressed will be delivered.

Mr. Cannon, who has been assisting Mr. B. F. Bonner of Houston in the great Red Cross Drive, is home again and states that he is glad to be back in Lufkin. Lufkin is a good town, Mr. Cannon says, and he is glad to be back here again on the food conservation work for this district, and in this important matter he should have the co-operation and support of all loyal citizens.—Lufkin News.

CHRISTMAS NIGHT.

A merry Christmas to come and
The coming more carless than all!

Lonely waiting hours and days have passed since my father on Christmas night, Earth has given a old with a burden of care, but at Christmas it always is young—the heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair. The environments and surroundings of our home is the same as two years ago. Through the loving watch-care of our God three of us are left; the other dear ones are gone—scattered over life's pathways. Alone we sit tonight, with that sweet peace; the outbreking conflicts cannot disturb. Just 30 years ago our eldest daughter, Della, was the young and happy bride of A. V. Simpson, just a little while ago his precious body was laid in the Nacogdoches cemetery, while she is left a lonely widow to battle with life's cares and this cruel war. We take no note of time, only at its loss.

While looking over my memory picture my father's and mother's home, the happy place of my childhood hours. In fancy I look into the long hall where cobwebs hang like funeral wreaths. Gentle footsteps seem to fall, familiar faces look into my eyes. With bowed head I pushed the door ajar and enter my mother's room. In the light that filtered through the dusty windows floated visions of all whom she had loved and lost in the long ago. Every nook and corner seemed replete with the past and every fibre of my being thrilled with emotion, which the surroundings alone inspired. For a moment I forgot I heard the patter of child's feet upon the floor—it was only the noise of a small bunch on the carpeted floor.

Summers, Grant Powell, Chas. Rusk, Willie Harper, Jim Fenley.

ATTENTION! Sick Women

To do your duty during these trying times your health should be your first consideration. These two women tell how they found health.

Hellam, Pa.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and a displacement. I felt all rundown and was very weak. I had been treated by a physician without result, so decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial, and felt better right away. I have not had a headache since last April and doing all my housework, which before I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly the best medicine I have ever taken when in this condition. I give you permission to publish this letter."—Mrs. R. R. CHURCHING, R. No. 1, Hellam, Pa.

Lowell, Mich.—"I suffered from cramps and dragging down pains, was irregular and had female weakness and displacement. I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which gave me relief at once and restored my health. I should like to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's remedies to all suffering women who are troubled in a similar way."—Mrs. ELISE HEIM, R. No. 6, Box 83, Lowell, Mich.

Editor Sentinel:
Wherever you go in the state of Texas, boys from Nacogdoches are found making good in all the activities of life. The Beaumont country is no exception to this rule.

Among the boys H. F. Perritte, is pastor Robert Street Church; August Stevens, who has a good position with the Gulf Refining Co. at Port Arthur, and Edgar S. Smith, a successful contractor, and others. I hope you will be able to get some of them.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A PASSENGER TRAIN

On account of the curve which interfered with the view, the train was close on the obstacle when it was observed by the engineer. The train, according to reports, struck some of the timbers before it could be stopped, but its momentum had been so lessened that derailment did not occur and no one was injured.

Considerable time was required to clear away the timbers from the tracks but finally the train proceeded on its way to encounter a second barricade this side of Haysland. This obstruction was observed in time to prevent accident.

Sheriff Smiley was a passenger on the train, having boarded it at Carthage, and Thursday he and other officers were busy trying to locate the would-be wreckers.

Tracks of at least two persons, it is said, were found about the obstructions but up to the time of going to press no arrests have been made. So far as known, no special reason existed for the attempt to wreck this particular train. It did not carry troops, unless among the regular passengers were some men on furloughs, and it is not known locally to have carried any very large sum of money or other valuables.

A. S. Meador, who is with the Coast Artillery Co., came Wednesday night for a short visit with the homefolks.

WARNING AGAINST DAMAGE TO CATTLE

The following letter is sent to all agents for the Southern Pacific lines, and contains information that will be interesting to many:

Houston, Tex., Dec. 21, 1917
To all Agents:
Information has reached us to the effect that a certain organization which is in opposition to the purposes of this country and the best interests of its people in the prosecution of the war against the enemy nations has planned this winter to use concentrated dynamite powder for killing or maiming cattle and other animals and food crops.

Agents and others receiving this circular will please notify all cattle men, shippers, feeders, breeders and farmers in order that they may take necessary precautions to guard their stock against these possible attempts, and to exercise proper diligence in preventing unauthorized persons from having access to stock at any time.

Station agents and others will redouble their precautions to avoid possible damage while stock of any kind is in their possession, cautioning trainmen in connection with the subject matter.

The management will cordially appreciate the co-operation of all its employees in this and all other matters in which the interests of the government and the people are at issue.
W. B. SCOTT.
Mr. B. F. Hartt and family, who have been residing near Nacogdoches the past year, are moving to Huntington where they will make their future home.

MARKETS NEEDED BY THE FARMERS

Presence of Thriving Cities Near By, Important to Residents of Country.

MERCHANTS DO THEIR PART

Town and Rural Community Are Dependent Upon Each Other—Cooperation Alone Brings Prosperity to Both.

(Copyright) Residents of towns and cities everywhere are beginning to realize more acutely the fact that, except under very unusual conditions, these communities will prosper and develop only in proportion to the prosperity and development that comes to the farming sections which surround them. Realizing this fact, commercial clubs and chambers of commerce have in recent years been devoting as much of their attention to developing the country districts as they have to securing new industries and attracting new residents. They know that as the country about the towns becomes more thickly settled and as the farmers become more prosperous the more money will be spent in the towns and the faster these towns will grow. It is largely for this reason that the residents of the towns and cities have been doing more and more to aid the farmers in growing bigger crops and in improving marketing conditions.
The towns and cities have contributed more and more liberally toward the building of good roads in the country districts and have paid a large part of the expense of maintaining agricultural experts to assist the farmers in growing bigger crops and getting more money out of their crops when they are placed on the market.

Not One-Sided Proposition.
But this is not a one-sided proposition. If the city is dependent upon the country, so is the country dependent upon the city. What the farmer raises is worth absolutely nothing to him unless he can sell it at a price that will pay him a fair return on the money and time invested in its production. The farmer, without markets, would be in the same fix as a storekeeper without customers. In almost every case the farmer is dependent upon the near-by town or city for a market for at least his perishable products.

In the language of the street, it is a fifty-fifty proposition. The town needs the country and the country needs the town. The farmer needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in securing a market for his products. He needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in getting good roads over which he may haul his products without losing more time than the products are worth. He often needs the assistance of the storekeepers in helping him over a period of financial stringency.

Storekeeper Needs Farmer's Trade.
On the other hand the storekeepers need the business of the farmer. He does not ask the farmer to sell him his products on credit even though at the time he may be hard pushed for cash, and may need more credit badly. He does not ask the farmer to help him build a sidewalk in front of his store.
He does not ask for the business of the farmer provided that he can sell the farmer the goods he needs at as low a price as he can secure them for elsewhere.

But does he always get the farmer's business? Ask the mail-order man in the big city or ask the postmaster or the express agent in any town or city in the country. They could, if they would, tell of thousands of dollars sent away to the big cities to pay for goods that could be purchased just as cheaply and much more conveniently in the nearest town or city. These thousands of dollars, when sent to the mail order houses in the big cities, never come back. They do not help to build good roads past the farmers' houses. When the next crops are harvested, the mail order man won't buy any of the farmer's products. The potatoes, the tomatoes, the melons and other things that the farmer raises may lie and rot upon the ground so far as the mail order man is concerned.

No Credit From Mail Order Man.
The mail order man won't sell the farmer 2 cents' worth of goods on one day's credit no matter how badly the farmer may need the goods or how little ready cash he has to pay for them. If the farmer's horse burns down, the mail order man is not going to sell him any lumber on credit so that he may build another home.
He will take what cash he can get the farmer to send him and there his interest in the farmer ends. If the farmer has no money to pay for what he needs, the mail order man will find others to help swell the stream of dollars which is building up the great fortune and helping build up the great city in which he lives. Let the home merchant help the farmer when he needs it. And the local merchant

NACOGDOCHES "BUILDED BETTER THAN SHE KNEW"

New Year's Greeting to Nacogdoches:

In looking back and reviewing the year 1917, Nacogdoches can boast with pride of a banner year, unprecedented in its annals for civic and substantial improvement.

It is hard for the citizen not stopping and thinking, to realize its actual progress in the year just closed. During the year many thousands of dollars have been expended in improvements, both in a public and private nature.

To begin with, one of the important, if not the most, was the boring for and securing an abundant supply of pure artesian water for all its purposes, which, together with improvements of its water system, building concrete tank, laying new lines, installing pumps, air compressors and other modern machinery required the expenditure of more than five thousand dollars. The fire fighting apparatus for the use of the most efficient and valiant volunteer fire company anywhere to be found, has been changed from a two-horse fire wagon to two motor-driven fire trucks, modern and up-to-date, and the purchase of a thousand feet of new fire hose, at a cost of thirty-five hundred dollars.

Many dollars were spent in permanent betterments for electric light plant, and the city council has out a contract for additional machinery costing fourteen thousand dollars, to be delivered and installed within the next few months, which will double its present over-loaded capacity, and when complete, the light plant will be second to no city of twice its size in the state.

Funds have been secured and contracts let for a forty-thousand dollar sewer system and disposal plant, adequate for the demands of almost the entire city, which is now in course of construction to be completed within the next sixty days.

More than twenty-eight hundred dollars has been used during the year in street and bridge improvements. A new tractor and street grader has been purchased at a cost of about fifteen hundred dollars; many street lights have been installed, and other improvements made in this department, making the streets compare most favorably with any town or city in this section of the state. All this has been accomplished by the city council without a raise in the tax rate, which is as low as the lowest, and much lower than that of a large majority of our neighbor cities, and its bonded indebtedness less than any of them. And at no time during this or any other year has a dollar of the city's script had to wait a day for the cash.

Fifty thousand dollars has been expended during the year by the U. S. government in the erection of the post office building, which is now practically complete, furnished and ready for occupancy by the post office department.

The Stephen F. Austin Normal has been located by the state in the city grounds for which about thirty thousand dollars has been paid for by the people, and deeded to the state, and but for lack of funds of the state, the $150,000.00 school building would now be in course of construction. By the way, in this connection wouldn't it be possible for some of our public-spirited capitalists to in some way arrange to furnish the state the funds needed at a low rate of interest for erecting the building and let it go on now? The investment would be safe, and at the same time increase the demand for investment of idle money.

So much for public improvements.

Thousands of dollars have been expended during the year by leading citizens in new buildings, improvements and enterprises, among which may be noted a most substantial and imposing three-story brick on the site of the old county court house, south side of the public square, built by E. H. Blount and Thos. E. Baker, each floor of which has been leased and will be at once occupied by leading business concerns of the city.

Hooks & Hayter have built and have in operation a twenty-five-thousand feet daily capacity saw mill plant in the city limits.
H. W. Draper has in operation a new grist mill, near the N. & S. E. depot, Robert Lindsey built a large commodious warehouse on the H. E. & W. T. grounds near the depot, for the handling and storing of grain, hay, peanuts and potatoes produced by the farmers of the county, which he has sold to Mr.
John Schmidt. G. H. King erected a large warehouse on the N. & S. E. grounds near the depot for the same purpose, which is now owned by Mr. Schmidt.

Mr. John Schmidt has erected and put in operation a potato curing plant on the N. & S. E. R.
R. of adequate capacity, for storing and curing the sweet potato crop of this and adjoining counties. Mr. Schmidt has repaired, remodeled, modernized and furnished the old opera house on Main street, which he has leased to a vaudeville and picture show company, soon to be opened by them for the amusement of the city. He has under contract and in progress, the work for the rebuilding and remodeling of the brick livery stable, and adjoining brick house on the court house plaza, leased to the Nacogdoches Garage Company for the display and sale of different automobiles, motor cars and motor car supplies, who will soon be ready for business in the new quarters. Mr.
N. D. Naman, during the year, purchased three of the brick houses of the city, the first of which, on Main street, he has improved with a handsome pressed brick front, and swinging awning, now the home of the Queen picture show, operated by our veteran picture show man, J. H. Brandley. On the second on Main street, work is progressing with a pressed brick and cinder front and awning, which is occupied by the retail grocery store, another new business enterprise of the city. He has also let the contract for a pressed brick and plate glass front for his two-story building fronting our court house plaza, on which the work is soon to begin.

Gray & Mast erected on North street, below the court house, a large building which is leased and occupied by Ramsey Manufacturing Plant, which manufactures house building supplies.
Mr. D. H. Barnett rebuilt, repaired and enlarged the old and unsightly blacksmith shop on the south-east corner of the square, in which is now run a modern blacksmith and wagon shop, in the front of which is the City Garage, managed by Jim Horn.

In this year the Commercial Guaranty State Bank increased its capital stock from sixty to one hundred thousand dollars.
The Wilson Grain company increased its capital stock from fifteen to thirty thousand dollars.
The Nacogdoches Cotton Oil Mill has added the necessary machinery to its plant for crushing peanuts, manufacturing peanut oil, meal and cake, and other products of this important crop.

the city have increased their

Pains and Aches Caused by Kidneys

Many, when attributing ailments and aches to some disease occurring in their system, when often the real and more serious cause is weakness of the kidneys. Rheumatism, headache, dizziness, urinary troubles, backache, neuralgia, and many other ailments are caused by kidney disease. The kidneys are the filters of the blood, and when they become weak and inefficient, the blood is not properly purified, and the waste matter accumulates in the system, causing the various ailments mentioned.
When the kidneys are strong and healthy they filter out from the blood the poisonous waste matter. When they are weak or overworked they fail to do this, and the waste matter accumulates in the system, causing the various ailments mentioned.
Foley's Kidney Pills are prepared expressly for the purpose of dissolving all poisonous substances and acids that lodge in the kidneys, and to cleanse and strengthen them. Thousands of men and women in all parts of the country testify to the wonderfully satisfactory results they have had from taking Foley's Kidney Pills.

nesses during the year, and new business enterprises commenced.
Numbers of new, modern dwellings have been built and remodeled in different parts of the city. Many new residents have swelled our population, some purchasing homes and others renting, leaving scarcely a vacant house now in the city.

The combined individual deposits in our three splendid banks, as shown by their December statements, is near two million dollars. With this unparalleled era of prosperity and improvement for the year, the city and county of Nacogdoches has added greatly to its enviable reputation.

For loyalty to the government and patriotism of its citizens the quota for the first call for the purchase of Liberty Loan Bonds was $112,000.00, to which $170,- 000.00 was subscribed. The second call for $174,000, $250,000 taken. The army U. M. C. A. asked for twenty-five hundred, and more than three thousand dollars was given. The American Red Cross demanded 6851
members by December 25th.
Its membership is now nearly ten thousand. In addition to this, the good ladies of the city and county have made several thousand bandages, sweaters, socks, and other articles, which have been forwarded for use of our soldier boys now in the service of the country's war.

The 1917 record of the city and county is one, I am sure, every citizen can point to with pride and satisfaction.

With my very best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year for each one of you and the earnest hope an expectation that with a United effort, the coming year will be the best, I am very respectfully yours,
GEO. H. MATTHEWS, Mayor.

VISITOR PLEASED WITH NACOGDOCHES PROGRESS

R. S. Pape, of Garland, Arkansas, is a business visitor to the city today. Mr. Pape was formerly a citizen of this county, having conducted a mill at Poe switch with his father, some several years ago. Speaking of the city, Mr. Pape said he had never seen a place grow as had Nacogdoches in the past few years.
With new buildings and improvements on every side he thought we had the nicest growing place in this section. Thus does Nacogdoches claim the attention of her visitors and thus does Nacogdoches continue to grow.

NACOGDOCHES' PROGRESS.

Elsewhere in today's paper will be found a communication from Mayor Geo. H. Matthews, reviewing the building record of Nacogdoches for the year, and a close study of it will convince the reader that the old town has taken a great stride forward in the year now drawing to a close. Not only have we "built better than we know" this year, but it follows an annual growth of equal strides for the past several years, in the course of which we might enumerate the new courthouse, the new school buildings, the paving and other improvements in the light and water plants, and many magnificent residences, all leading up to the development of the splendid little city into which the old town is merging. And the greatest feature of all is that there was an actual demand to meet the requirements of actual natural conditions that has inspired each improvement, making it the more permanent and substantial.

This development, and the development of supporting conditions with the growth of the country, calls for continued activity in the building line, and 1918 will bring up its share. We need more modern business houses right now, and some of the old buildings can be remodelled and put in shape to meet this demand. We need many new residences and rooming houses, and the city will find the opportunity. We need, and have room, with the most ideal location, for more industrial enterprises, and they will come to us as the opportunity arises.

Last but by no means least, we need to have a general widening in the matter of the city building, with a view to the utility to the civic attractiveness of the city, and secure for us free mail delivery, a service to which we have been entitled many years but for this lack of civic pride.

Summed up, the conclusion of the whole matter is that Nacogdoches is on the way with an era of industrial and commercial development as rich as her historical prestige, and he who gets in the way will be run over by the onward march of progress.

The Sentinel extends to its patrons and friends the greetings of the season, wishing for each and every one, singly and collectively, all the happiness and prosperity that a good year could bring.

Let us not forget, remember that this is the last month in which you can pay your poll tax and preserve your franchise at the ballot box. The signs of the times at this distance indicate that we are going to have some warm times in political matters this year, and you would be very lonesome without this valuable permit.

Yesterday's issue of the Houston Chronicle gave space to Mayor Geo. H. Matthews' letter about Nacogdoches' progress in full as it appeared in this paper, and this wide-spread publicity of the good message will be worth much to this city in an advertising way. Our mayor is a great booster as well as a worker in the ranks, and loves the town over which he presides.

MRS. J. H. SUMMERS IS WITH THE DEAD

From Wednesday's Daily.
Mrs. Emma Richardson Summers, the beloved wife of Mr. J. H. Summers, died yesterday afternoon about 4:00 o'clock.

The funeral service will be held at the family residence this afternoon at 3:30, followed with interment in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Summers was born January 15, 1851, and if she had lived until the fifteenth of the present month she would therefore have been sixty-seven years of age. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Henry Mast and Misses Pearl and Sallie T. Summers, and five sons, Messrs. Frank, Tom, Elbert, J. H., and Jim Summers. She had been in declining health for some months, and while she doubtless regretted to leave her loved ones, as they regret to lose her, death comes as a relief to her, relieving the agonies of the suffering which she has endured and opening up the way for rest in that home where there will be no more suffering, and no more partings, for which she made preparation in her life-time.

Mrs. Summers was a member of the Baptist church, in which she lived a consecrated Christian life, and throughout her suffering she has been attended by the prayers and solicitude of the Christian people of the city who were familiar with her condition. She has spent her whole life in this community, and it comes to a close in a sweet benediction, reflecting the beauties of a Christian life coming to its reward. Those who know her best attest her sterling worth as a neighbor and friend, and her church feels keenly the loss of one of its most highly esteemed members.

The Sentinel joins the many friends of the surviving members of this good family in feeling of profound sympathy, and would commend them to the God she loved and depended upon for years to sustain them in their hour of great grief.

REVENUE COLLECTOR WILL COME HERE

In a communication received by this paper, Collector of Internal Revenue A. S. Walker, announces that a federal income tax officer will be sent into this county on a date to be announced later and will remain a reasonable time. He will have his office at some convenient place, and will be there every day during his stay here, ready and willing to help persons subject to the income tax, make out their returns without any cost to them for his services.

How many income-tax payers will there be in this county? If you can guess how many married persons living with wife or husband will have net incomes of $2,000 or over and how many unmarried persons will have net incomes of $1,000 or over, this year, then you know.

Returns of income for the year 1917 must be made on forms provided for the purpose before March 1, 1918. Because a good many people don't understand the law and won't know how to make out their returns, the government is sending in this officer to do it for them. But the duty is on the taxpayer to make himself known to the government. If he doesn't make return as required before March 1 he may have to pay a penalty ranging from $20 to $1000, pay a fine or go to jail. So if you don't want to take chances on going to jail, you had better call on the income-tax man. If you are not sure about being subject to the tax, better ask him and make sure. Whether you see the income tax man or not, you must make return if subject to the tax. The Collector suggests that everybody start figuring up now his income and expenses so as to be ready with the figures when the officer arrives. Expenses, however, don't mean family expenses, money used to pay off the principal of a debt, new machinery, buildings, or anything like that. They mean what you spend in making your money—interest, taxes paid, hired help, seed, stock bought for feeding rent, (except for your dwelling), etc. Income includes about every dollar you get.

A CHIRENO CITIZEN IS WITH THE DEAD

Chireno, Tex., Dec. 31, 1917.
Mr. A. K. Layton is numbered with the dead.

The subject of this sketch was born in Claiborn Parish, La., Oct. 20, 1849. His father, like most men of his day, soon after this son was born moved to Texas and settled near Black Jack, in Nacogdoches county, where the lad grew up to young manhood, married, and continued to live in the same community until death called him from the walks of men. He died at the ripe old age of sixty-eight years, and leaves six children, four daughters and two sons, to mourn their loss.

Mr. Layton was sick four years with Bright's disease, which developed into dropsy. He died a peaceful, happy death surrounded by friends and relatives, and has gone to his reward.

Bro. Layton, when a young man, joined the Masonic Lodge at Chireno, and had a true and tried sense of the balance of his life, had the stations of a brother, was a secretary a number of years, and was a useful and active member among us.

Resolved, That in the death of Bro. Layton the community has lost a useful citizen, Masonry one of her devoted members, his family a kind and loving father. Though he is dead, he still lives in the memory of his friends.

The craft will mourn in vain for his return, but we are happy in the thought that we believe he has gone to that spiritual house prepared for the faithful, and while we shed the sympathetic tear, we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things for the best.

Humbly and reverently invoking the blessings of an all-wise God to look after His loved ones, while we commit his body to the silent tomb, earth to earth and dust to dust, we confidently expect to meet him in the resurrection morn where partings will be no more.

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and furnish a copy of these resolutions to his relatives.

MRS. CLIFTON WELLS IS WITH THE DEAD

Monday's Daily.
Mrs. Clifton Wells, wife of Clifton Wells, and aged 62 years, died at the family home in this city at 2 o'clock Sunday morning and was buried in the Oak Grove cemetery yesterday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Massey, pastor of the Methodist church, performing the last sad rites.

Mrs. Wells had been sick only a few days, her death resulting from pneumonia.

Deceased was a daughter of the late Capt. James F. Hunter, who was for many years the County Clerk of this county. Of her father's family there survives her mother, one brother, Clifton, of Purcell, Oklahoma, and three sisters, Mrs. A. R. Ward, Mrs. T. C. Ward and Mrs. J. C. Lyon all of Nacogdoches.

She was the mother of nine children—two of whom survive her and are among the best of our citizenship, Messrs. Bosen and Donley Wells. Her husband, who was deputy county clerk in this county for a period of forty years, also survives her.

Mrs. Wells was born in Nacogdoches and has lived here throughout her life. She was a lifelong member of the Methodist church and a sweet consecrated Christian woman, faithful to her religious profession and the church of which she was a member.

In the passing away of this dear, saintly mother, our city grieves with those who mourn her loss. With heavy hearts we learned the sad news and stood with bowed heads because we realized that one of our most precious mothers had been taken by the death visitor. There was none who touched hands with her but who felt a benediction because of her having lived. She loved those she knew and was ever ready to comfort and help when the cares and troubles of life became a burden. With her passing away in the Savior who had meant so much to her in this life she closed her eyes in death with that same faith that she had in life, and her soul went home to God.

Today's a new heart in heaven boys, the angels their singing the welcome home song, and while in life we stand in grief over her departure from amongst us, we rejoice to know that her life will be continued in that better land and like the sparkling sunbeam she has gone to bask in the smiles of the Lord and to drink forever from the crystal fountain that flows from the hills of eternal life—the great White Throne of God.

With our citizenship we extend sympathy to her loved ones in this their sad hour.

The undertaking department of Tucker-Sitton Co. had charge of the funeral arrangement.

AMERICAN INSURANCE CO. BUYS LARGE TRACT

In a sheriff's sale at the court house this morning, J. B. McConico, of Lufkin, representing the American Insurance Co., at Galveston, bid in the large tract of land known as the Horse Shoe Island tract, paying $5,150.00 for same, the tract consisting of 886 acres of land. There was lively bidding on this tract.

Mr. McConico gave out the information that it would be converted into farm lands.

Five other tracts were sold at a constable's sale. A large one consisting of about 190 acres 4 miles south of Garrison was purchased by Mrs. E. A. Blount, for $1500, and another of fifteen and one-half acres, composing town lots at Garrison, was bought by the defendants, paying $470.00 for the same.

Pains, Dizzy Spells

Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of Whitwell, Tenn., writes: "I suffered with bearing-down pains. . . . The dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk, I would just pretty nearly fall. Was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me. . . . He got me a bottle. . . . It helped me so much that he got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better. The dizzy spells and the bearing-down pains . . . left me entirely."

PEACE IN VICTORY SAYS LLOYD GEORGE

London, Dec. 28.—"Achievement of the purpose for which the allies are fighting is essential to the future freedom and peace of mankind," said Premier Lloyd George in a letter which he sent today to the labor congress. The premier's statement is regarded as the British reply to the German peace offer.

Premier Lloyd George in a letter which he has sent to the labor conference, said that a statement on war aims could only be made in agreement with Great Britain's allies. The question of a fresh joint declaration, he added, was being constantly kept in view by the entente allied governments.

Paris, Dec. 27.—France will not accept a peace based on conditions before the war, Foreign Minister Pichon declared in replying to the chamber of deputies today to the peace terms of the central powers outlined to Russia. He asserted that Germany was endeavoring to involve France in its negotiations with the bolsheviks, but that war would go on whether or not Russia make a separate peace.

America Replaces Russia.

The foreign minister said Germany was seeking to affect the negotiations with the Russians, re-establishing a commercial relations in the meantime, believing that in this way the bolsheviks might be frustrated later. Referring to the terms which the Central powers offered to the Russians, as published today, he said:

"Germany is trying to involve us in her maximalist negotiations. After suffering as we have, we can not accept peace based on the status quo. By agreement with our allies we are ready to discuss direct propositions regarding peace, but this is indirect. Russia can treat for a separate peace with our enemies or not. In either case the war for us will continue. An ally has failed us; an ally who in preceding years carried off great victories. It is a great success for our enemy, but another ally has come; from the other end of the world a democracy has risen against Germany's appetite for conquest."

"At the conference in Paris a program was drawn up and in consequence unity of action on the part of the allies will make itself felt, even to Macedonia. Germany and her allies have undertaken the impossible task of conquering the world. The world will conquer them."

"In this war, France will have played a great role, for as Roosevelt has said, she will have saved humanity."

M. Pichon declared that the secret treaties published by the bolsheviks had not compromised France. He said the German diplomats who were pretending to show indignation were the very men who sought to negotiate a secret treaty with the old regime in Russia; who attempted to draw Mexico into war against the United States, and organized plots in Argentine.

After referring to the German declaration that Alsace and Lorraine would never be surrendered, M. Pichon said:

"The question of Alsace-Lorraine does not effect France alone. It is a world question. It is a territorial problem, but a moral problem. On its solution depends whether or not the world shall have a durable peace. This statement was greeted with applause. The occupation of Jerusalem, M. Pichon said, was a victory for the civilized world. He added that the city would be given an international status."

SHORTEST ROUTE WILL BE ASSIGNED FREIGHT

Washington, Dec. 27.—Order number one, to be issued shortly by Director General of Railroads McAdoo, will provide for the pooling of all traffic and facilities, the common use of terminals, tracks and equipment, the hauling of freight by the shortest route regardless of billing or routing and the retention of all present officers and employees of railroads.

One effect of this order will be to give a number of railroads terminal facilities, which they do not have now in big cities. The Baltimores and Ohio probably will enter New York City at the Pennsylvania station.

Washington, Dec. 27.—One of the first acts of the government in assuming operation of railroads will be to reduce large salaries now paid to the railway executives and increase in some measure the wages of the railway workers.

Securities to be issued while the government is in control will be at interest rates not less than 4 per cent and the issues will be made under joint authority of the director general and the interstate commerce commission.

President Wilson, when he outlines the government's plans, in his forthcoming address to congress, will ask that the government be empowered to buy any quantity of new railroad securities. All earnings over and above an amount to be agreed upon will go to the government.

Congress will be asked to appropriate a large fund, probably two hundred million dollars, for the immediate supply of rolling stock to handle the flood of traffic which has swamped the roads.

The director general will have authority to decide whether the government shall also assume operation and control of the express companies.

SOUL, ACID STOMACHS, GASES OR INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" neutralizes excessive acid in stomach, relieving dyspepsia, heartburn and distress at once.

Time it: In five minutes all stomach distress, due to acidity, will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest stomach sweetener in the whole world, and besides it is harmless. Put an end to stomach distress at once by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by fermentation due to excessive acids in stomach.

A CHRISTMAS WEDDING.

(Contributed)

At the first Christian church at Nacogdoches, Thursday, the 27th of December, by the Rev. T. F. Weaver, Miss Laura Lore of Nacogdoches, and Rev. Ben West of Ennis, Texas, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony was short, beautiful and impressive. Only a few friends and relatives were present.

The bride is one of our dearest and best of girls, and has held an important position as teacher for several years. She has been principal of the North Church school for the past year, and resigned quite recently to try her fortune in a new role, that of wife, to one of the best of young men, Mr. West, a minister of the Christian church at Ennis.

The bride was dressed in a lovely traveling suit of dark blue, and looked the personification of gentle, loving womanhood. May happiness attend them wherever they go.

MYSTERIOUS VESSEL OFF BRAZIL PROVES GERMAN

Beunos Aires, Dec. 27.—Brazilian papers received here today sustained the accounts of the German Corsair-off the Brazilian coast a few months ago. The reports say the mysterious vessel was identified as a German, and that it unloaded an immense amount of heavy cases at Curiquoa and Armacao.

Several days later the steamer returned to Armacao with additional cargo which the newspaper accounts say it is believed she received from a larger ship out of sight of land. From Armacao the vessel proceeded to Caloura, where another part of the cargo was unloaded.

These ports are not guarded, and it is asserted that the cargoes landed were smuggled away mysteriously. Later the German vessel was sighted close to shore at San Pedro de Madera, where two persons now are under arrest as a result of their relations with the crew. They are charged with being spies.

The newspapers say the steamer disappeared as mysteriously as she came, and that Brazilians believe she is unloading supplies for a submarine base.

MRS. J. P. DORSETT PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

From Friday's Daily.

At the family home 7 miles west of town, at 11:30 o'clock last evening, Mrs. J. P. Dorsett the beloved wife of J. P. Dorsett, passed to the great beyond.

Mrs. Dorsett had been sick since Sunday—and today her friends stand bowed in grief at her untimely death.

In her passing away she leaves her husband and five sweet little children to mourn their loss; and one of these, we learn, lies now at the point of death from pneumonia.

This sweet christian mother had just reached the age of thirty years, and hearts are saddened to learn of the plucking from life of one with all the promises that life holds so well in store for her. Its little ones who lose just here for mother has gone and the tender hearts can come no more to the motherly love and kindness and have aches and pains kissed away.

Burial will take place this afternoon at 3:30 in the Gravelly Ridge Cemetery, Cason, Monk & Co. will have charge of the funeral obsequies.

The Sentinel extends condolence to the bereaved.

Calomel Today! Sick Tomorrow!

I Guarantee Dodson's Liver Tone

Don't take nasty, dangerous calomel when bilious, constipated, headachy. Listen to me!

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it causing tramping and mause. If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

MR. PUGH COMING

County Superintendent Layton authorizes The Sentinel to say that Prof. L. L. Pugh, the rural school inspector, will return to the county and finish up the work of inspecting the schools of Nacogdoches county January 24th and 25th.

All schools expecting to enter this contest for state aid should be ready in advance for his coming.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greeting: You are hereby commanded to summon J. W. Cook by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county to appear at the next regular term of the county court of Nacogdoches, Texas, on the third Monday in January, A. D. 1918, the same being the 21 day of January A. D. 1918; then and there to answer a petition in said court on the 2nd day of August, A. D. 1916 in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 1323, wherein F. H. Pullen is plaintiff and J. W. Cook and Perry Stone are defendants, and said petition alleging that on September 16th, 1915, defendant, J. W. Cook executed to plaintiff his promissory note for $350.00 with 10 percent interest after maturity, due and payable 12 months after date, containing a clause of 10 per cent attorney's fees if said note was placed in hands of attorney for collection. That on the same day, defendant J. W. Cook executed and delivered to plaintiff a mortgage lien on the following described personal property, to-wit: one gray mare mule 4 years old; 1 bay horse mule 5 years old, one bay horse mule 8 years old; 1 black horse mule 8 years old, the last two mules described in said mortgage known as the Mat Martin Mules; that said note is due and payable at Nacogdoches, Texas. Plaintiff prays judgment for his debt, principal, interest and attorney's fees, and a foreclosure on said mortgaged property above described, for general relief, etc.

Herein Fail Not, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return hereon, showing how you have executed the same.

DELCO-LIGHT

The Complete Electric Light and Power Plant.

San Augustine, Texas, July 20, 1917

Mr. J. R. Dickerson, Delco Light Dealer, San Augustine, Texas.

Dear Sir:— You ask me how I was pleased with my Delco Light Plant. Will say that I am highly pleased with it. It makes so fine light—the very best. Simple in operation and the cost of running expenses is practically nothing compared with the service it gives. I have run my lights, fans and iron for 5 days and nights on one charge of the batteries without running the engine, with good lights and I could have run a week. Anyone will make no mistake when they buy the Delco Light. I would not take twice what my plant cost me if I couldn't get another like it. You can use my name for reference.

Yours very truly, I. E. ROBERTS, Tax Assessor.

ABLE ADDRESS ON FOOD CONSERVATION

Dr. R. L. Wilbur, formerly of the faculty of Leland Stanford University and now chief of the division of conservation of the food administration, delivered an address on November 15 before the federal food administrators of America, which that organization declares more clearly sets forth the actual needs of the administration than any document which has yet been issued.

"With the shipping shortage and the food shortage no one can foresee whether we are going to get through and still be at war next summer. You can't sit down and demonstrate it. You have got to recognize that practically the only food that we can send—and we know it has got to go to the allies—is the food that we don't eat, and the only way to save that food is not to eat it.

"The only effect you can get to bring that about is a mental, psychological effect. You can't seize the food away from the people. You have got to control action through the minds of the people, and you have got to get at them in every possible way.

"As a physician, I found that one of the most difficult things ever presented to a person was to try to change the habits of a lifetime, to get a man to stop drinking, or to get him to stop eating something that he liked, even though it gave him the stomachache every time he ate it.

"You ask a hundred million people to change within the course of a few months their eating habits and you demand something that is absolutely vital, but it is the most difficult thing you could ask a people, and you have got to make it work and you have a wonderful machine set up with which to do it.

"There is going to be revolution after revolution in Russia this winter because of the programed food situation. You can't get away from it.

"You know that unless we can find some way to feed France and England, they are going to find some way to get out of the war on the best possible basis.

"Unless you feed the neutrals they are going to let the Germans behind the lines in one way or another.

"Food conservation is the first defense of the American people of the left flank of the French-British-American line.

The Germans have made a cowardly submarine attack on that line. They are attacking it to prevent the bringing up of supplies and reinforcements to that army and to the people back of that army. A large part of that supply is food. We are vigorously resisting that attack and it is now a critical thing, because we can not see any conclusion of this war satisfactory to us unless we can see the comparative, if not the absolute, defeat of the submarines.

"Every American citizen must serve in resisting that attack and it must be held back until we can get our full forces into action.

"You have something in this

GIVE 'SYRUP OF FIGS' TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has a sore throat, diarrhea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

CASCARETS' WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a well barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

food conservation movement that is the most powerful thing to present to the American people, if it is presented right. Don't think this is a woman's job as so many people seem to think. It is a job for the biggest man, the biggest group of men you can get. Don't forget, we can only send what we save, and we can only save what we don't eat. The individuals under our present machinery, the members of the food administration are the ones that must act.

"In this country we are either going to settle the great problem of society from above by the men of intellect and power, guiding the forces, or they are going to be settled for us from below by the radical individuals and groups taking things into their own hands.

"Take the socialist vote; take the vote in Chicago and in New York, and see what it means in the face of war, when that kind of turmoil is going on at the bottom. Either we are going to have some changes from below, or direct this thing from above and get some kind of control of it.

"You must appeal through new avenues. What are those avenues? Primarily they are the school, the church, the fraternal and patriotic orders, the labor unions, the commercial travelers and so on. The most progressive individual in the United States today is the American child. The first to buy Liberty Bonds are the American boys and the American girl in every community. Let these things be done their parents do, and they have saved this food conservation before their parents' eyes.

They are making the parents behave themselves in many homes, because they have grasped it. You have to get at the school and keep at the school all the way through. That means that you have to get at the teachers. You have also to get at the church, and the Sunday school and the preacher.

"There is another thing—you are business men, many of you; these people, the teacher, the preacher, the writer, the lecturer, the newspaper reporters, the cartoonist, these people that affect sentiment, are not business men—they haven't the business mind. They are on a salary and often a very poor one, too, but they guide the mind of this country, and they guide the sentiment, and the business men of this country do not. If you want to prove that, run for office in an American community as a representative of big business, and see where you get off.

"Above all, you must keep in touch with the women of America. Now, there is one thing about food work that is different from other kinds of work, and that is it is hard to visualize the results actually obtained. The Red Cross has in it the element of service; and after a week's work there are so many sweaters, so many socks, so many bandages rolled, and the person who has served visualizes that service, and see what she has done. It is a difficult thing to bring about in the food conservation.

"You have to realize that the

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girl! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a small bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves greasy particles of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots flinch, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

women of this country are knitting, and when people knit they think. And the women of this country are thinking as they never thought before, because their boys and their husbands, their surroundings, everything has been thrown into the war, and when 1,000,000 or 10,000,000 women begin to think about a problem, when women have reached the position they have in this country, they are going to do a great deal. You must keep these women thinking right and realizing that this work of food conservation is their work to a large extent, and you need to devise methods that make them feel a participating interest in all of this.

"The world has reached a situation where food is fundamental. If you had a $20 bill in one hand and a loaf of bread in the other, and you had had nothing to eat for three days, and you could take your choice, it would not be hard for you to decide which to choose. That is the position the world is in today. The $20 bill does not count. Food counts, and we have to understand that one can not eat food that has not been grown, one can not go to the bank and get credit for food that does not exist; that when next spring comes around, we will have just the unconsumed part of the food that went into the ground last spring. The only way we are going to get the food that is needed for war purposes is by saving it, and the only way that can be done is by continuous spirit of service in this food conservation movement in the food administration."

COAST ARTILLERY BOYS ENJOYED BIG DINNER

With the compliments of Capt. C. I. Shindler, The Sentinel is in receipt of a copy of the menu card for the dinner enjoyed by the boys of 7th Co. C. A. C., Galveston, family and guests to the people of this section where the company was organized. Let The Coast Artillery.

The card is a beautiful piece of printing with a picture of a soldier bearing a flag. The cover has the motto "The Spirit of the Officers and Privates in the Order in which they come, followed with the menu of the dinner enjoyed Christmas Day.

The menu embraced oyster cocktail, baked turkey and gravy, cranberry sauce, oyster dressing, celery, queen olives, sweet mixed pickles, sweet corn, candied sweet potatoes, cream mashed potatoes, fruit salad, pumpkin pie, mince pie, gelatin, fruit cake, oranges, mixed nuts, bread, cigars, cigarettes, cocoa.

The many friends of the patriotic young men of this section will rejoice with the news that they enjoyed the great dinner, which they richly deserve, and trust that all of them may live to enjoy many more as good.

FIVE EXECUTIVES ADDED TO SERVICE

Washington, Dec. 28.—As the first practical step in the government's operation of railroads, which began at noon today, Director General McAdoo drafted the railroads' war board into the government service to work out plans of unified operation and submit them to him for approval. The following five railroad executives, each a leader in the business of transportation will work out the plans for welding 250,000 miles of railroad into one great continental system for winning the war. Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway. Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the board of the Southern Pacific. Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania. Hale Holden, president of the Burlington. Howard Elliott of the New Haven.

SAVE AMPLE SEED FOR COTTON CROP

Washington, D. C.—That cotton growers should save at least twice as much seed as their acreage next season will require for a single planting in order to be prepared for emergencies, is the suggestion of specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture in a statement issued today. It is feared that the high prices being paid for cotton seed by oil mills may tempt farmers immediately to dispose of every bushel not actually required for a single planting of next year's crop. It is of special importance at this time, the specialists say, that ample provision be made for replanting, which often is necessary. It is pointed out that climate conditions in parts of the cotton belt may make necessary next spring, as they did last spring, a replanting of the crop several times in order to get a stand.

A reserve of one bushel of cotton seed for every acre to be planted might be taken as a basis, the statement says, for calculating the total amount of seed that will be required next year. This reserve would provide for the first planting and a replanting, in case this should be necessary, at the rate of a half bushel to the acre. Farmers, who ordinarily use a higher rate of planting than this should increase their reserve supply of seed accordingly. Those who use a lower rate may not need so large a reserve, but it would be safer to reserve liberally and then reduce, if there is a leftover, after a stand of cotton has been secured.

Only the best seed should be saved for planting the next crop, the statement says. Badly mixed seed or seed of a degenerate variety is not discriminated against at the oil mills, but no farmer should plant such seeds if a supply of a better seed is available. An increased yield will be the result of the use of pure seed if pure seed is planted.

Growers are again urged to arrange for special care in the ginning of their planting seed. Every precaution should be taken to avoid admixture with other varieties. To do this successfully it is necessary to clean all the ginning machinery, especially the roll box, before ginning the lot from which seed is to be saved for planting. This seed should not be allowed to fall into the seed conveyor but on the floor, where it can be sacked separately.—Office of Information, U. S. Dept of Agriculture.

C. E. Coats, who visited his father, C. C. Coats here, during the holidays, left today for his home in San Augustine county.

Soon Over His Cold.

Everyone speaks well of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy after having used it. Mrs. George Lewis, Pittsburg, N. Y., has this to say regarding it: "Last winter my little boy, five years old, was sick with a cold for two or three weeks. I doctor'd him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold." dw Messrs. E. L. Ruark and J. W. Still of Mt. Enterprise were business visitors today, making the Sentinel office a pleasant call while here.

New Year Greetings

Beginning this the New Year 1918, we want to thank all who have traded with us both large and small buyers. We have been carrying the largest stock of retail groceries ever carried in East Texas.

This year our stock will be one-third larger than we carried last year. All heavy goods we buy in car load lots. We pay cash and buy the very best grade of goods. Our sales each month amount to about the amount of our stock carried, consequently our stock is always fresh. We have new, up-to-date scales and give you every pound you buy. We want your trade. We will give full weights, full measure and just as close as can be made to give us a fair profit. We offer nothing at cost as a leader, with the view of making it up on other articles. If you can only give us part of your trade we will be grateful. If we can have ALL your trade we'll be delighted. Whether much or small it's appreciated. And if you can't trade with us drop in any time and chat with us. We'll always be glad to see you.

In conclusion we wish for you and yours a most prosperous New Year.

"In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds."—Earl C. Ross, Publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kan. dw

Captain Robert Wilson, who is stationed with the training camp at Waco, is making a little visit to friends in the city. He looks to be in fine health, and reports his family to also be enjoying fine health. Mr. Wilson is another true soldier who resigned a good position to enter the service of his country.
