GERMAN OFFENSIVE HAS MATERIALLY SLACKENED

Teuton Drive Weakening While the Allies are Rallying for a Counter Attack.

After six days of terrific fighting the German offensive in France is beginning to show signs of losing its momentum. The progress of the enemy has materially slackened, and the form of the dent made in the Allied line west of Cambrai has begun to resemble the familiar wedge-like salient, instead of the broad, straightforward movement of an offensive which carries all before it.

At its apex this wedge has gone beyond Albert, to the south of that place, and is to the westward of the old Allied line as it stood a year ago when Von Hindenburg began his strategic retreat.

From this point the line runs off to the northeast at a gentle angle, with the line to the south running back until it reaches the Oise river.

In spite of tremendous exertions, and terrible losses, the German efforts to widen the tip of this salient were defeated on Tuesday. The British lines have stood firm to the north, and have forced the Germans to turn southward.

Three Circumstances.

NEW YORK, March 26. While there has been no major change in the situation in the past 24 hours, three circumstances of real importance are to be noted.

First—The battle to north of the Somme, between Arras and the old Somme battlefield, has more and more tended to stannize itself.

Second—There has been a marked increase in the intensity of the German effort south of the Somme, between that river and the Oise, particularly in the plain of Sauterre, east

COUNTY TO COLLECT AUTO LICENSE TAX

AUSTIN, Texas, March 26. By the enactment by the legislature of an amendment to the law creating the state highway commission, the collection of registration fees will be greatly facilitated, according to Chairman Hancock, of the commission. When this law becomes effective 90 days after adjournment of the present session, owners of cars shall pay their registration fees to county tax collectors in the counties in which such owners may reside. At present the registration fee must be paid at the headquarters of the commission at Austin.

For this service, the tax collectors shall receive one-half of the cost on the collections made. The law has not been amended so that one may be registered quarterly instead of semi-annually as now provided. The commission is also authorized to construct as many as 10 miles of new road annually instead of two and one-half miles as under the present law.

A Word to Our Farmer Friends

Never since you were born has the welfare, not only of our nation, but of the entire civilized world, depended upon American farmers as it does today. Thoughtful men at home and abroad realize the Great War can be won for Democracy and Civilization only in case the farmers of this country produce unusually large crops of food and fibre during 1918.

Nobody doubts that American farmers will do their level best to "stand behind the man behind the gun" by producing the increased yields that will be sorely needed during the coming year and the year after that; but the problem that confronts farmers is, how can they raise larger crops with a reduced supply of farm labor? It can be done in one way only—by substituting up-to-date implements for human muscle wherever possible.

Improved farm implements not only make the farmer's work easier but they enable him to do better work, and more of it, at less cost. They represent a more profitable investment now than ever before because the yields they produce are selling, and will continue to sell, at unprecedented prices. Up-to-date implements are easier for the farmer to buy now than in the past, because their purchase price represents less corn, cotton, peanuts, and livestock than in the year preceding the war.

We sell many types of up-to-date "Farmers Helpers" including Plows, Harrows, Planters, Cultivators, Gasoline Engines, Hay Presses, Mowers, Rakes, and numerous other "farm necessities." Let us know what farm implements you or your neighbors need and we will gladly send full information and quote lowest prices possible.

We sincerely hope the products of American farms during 1918 will establish a record both in size and in money value to the producers and that Nacogdoches County farmers "will stay behind the men behind the guns."

Third—The position of the British and French, who are now practically back upon the lines from which they began their attack in the battle of the Somme, and the facts coming from the British headquarters in France, both seem to indicate that the moment for the counter-offensive is at hand.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS.

HAVANNA, March 26.—Spanish liners plying between Spanish ports and Cuba probably will discontinue their voyages to Mexican ports, owing to inability to secure bunker coal. The American fuel administration has decided not to furnish coal for this traffic.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Interstate passes or mileage books issued to newspaper proprietors by railroads in exchange for advertising need not be withdrawn under Director General McAdoo's order forbidding issuance of interstate passes banned by interstate-commerce law. The director general today modified his law to permit fulfillment of contracts already made with the newspapers, providing they do not extend beyond the end of this calendar year.

TOKIO, March 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The question of a supply by Japan of shipping for American uses has virtually been settled. More details are awaiting conclusion. The government is engaged actively in chartering vessels for this purpose. The war board has 150,000 tons of vessels chartered. All shipbuilders are contributing to the cause, even incurring heavy losses which the Japanese government will make up.

With the American Army in France, March 26.—Two men of an American patrol, while inspecting enemy trenches in the Toul sector early this morning, encountered 15 of the enemy and immediately opened fire with their rifles. They also used grenades, and after a few minutes managed to get away safely, taking turns at covering each other's retreat.

They got back to the American lines without a scratch, but it is known that three Germans were killed and others were wounded.

Two encounters are reported between American reconnoitering patrols and new listening posts.

MORE SOLDIERS WILL GO TO TRAINING CAMP

The local exemption board this morning received an order from headquarters directing them to send seven white men March 30th, and thirty-one negroes April 1st, to the training camps at Camp Travis, San Antonio, and the board is now busy preparing a list of those who will be sent.

The Sentinel is authorized to say that volunteers in Class 1 from the white men will be considered in this list. Some have expressed the desire to go ahead and this is their opportunity. Those who are eligible and likely to call in this draw should be on the alert for notice of their summons as the time for notice is so short, and the war department takes no responsibility for a man failing to get his mail.

THE GOVERNOR SIGNS WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL

The Commissioner's Court of Nacogdoches county voted to invest $2,000 of the county funds in War Savings Stamps. A very good and patriotic movement. It might be well for other counties to follow this example.

Let us hope that another Byrd will come to the rescue in the big battle that is now raging in the European war, and never let up until the enemy is put to rout. If we may go a little further with the wish may we hope that Edison will arouse from his seclusion and strike them with lightning.

The Lufkin News and the Nacogdoches Sentinel throw bouquets and brickbats at each other. Tyler Morning Tribune.

It is the only way to hold down the obstreperous "quill drivers" across the Angelina from Nacogdoches. When you hand him a bouquet you have got to follow it up with a brickbat to make it "justify" with his "pled" form. Some freak is that Lufkin editor.

The editors of the Lufkin News and Nacogdoches Sentinel are about the worst scrappers of paper never to come to blows that we have ever read after. They will come almost to blows but there always happens to be some thing to keep them from meeting and they forget their differences until another misunderstanding and they go at it with renewed vim, but never a set-two yet, except on paper. Jacksonville Daily Progress.

The trouble is that the Lufkin editor won't remain "licked" when we get him down. And then, too, a "fight" on paper is not so hard on the clothes, and is not amenable to a fine.

DO SOME REAL THINKING.

Houston Chronicle.

"I never thought of it in that way." "It never struck me that my little word could have any special effect."

You have often said these very things to yourself or your friends in excusing yourself for mistakes you have made.

In nearly every case was it not that you really gave very little thought to the matter which brought trouble to you and embarrassment to some other persons?

The great drawback to world progress and civilization today is that we do not think as deeply as we should.

We seem unable to concentrate or see the necessity of doing solid, to-the-point thinking on every undertaking in which we engage.

A little superficial thought, and trust to luck for the rest, is the spirit of our dream.

Too lazy to put forth the necessary exertion which thought requires.

Too hard—and you are too tired or too busy. Then wake up before the fact cuts in deeper than while you slept the other fellow did think enough to outwit you.

THE REGULATIONS IN SUGAR FOR CANNING

To All District and County Administrators:

Referring to the rule permitting sugar to be sold for canning and preserving purposes, you will please notify all dealers in your district that it will be necessary for them to obtain a written statement from the purchaser that the sugar will be used exclusively for canning and preserving purposes.

A retailer must continue selling sugar to the consumer in quantities as prescribed by the rules and regulations.

The following is a telegram received from Washington regarding licenses engaged in the canning of food products:

"Special Rule 1-A governing licenses engaged in business of canning food products is amended to read as follows:

"The licensee shall not quote for future packing or delivery, or sell any canned tomatoes, canned salmon, or canned sardines not manufactured and on hand unless the price to be fixed in the contract is subject to revision by the United States Food Administration if it is unreasonable. This rule shall not apply to army and navy requirements."

"Save both butter and lard—and use Vegetable Oils and Vegetable Compounds . . . they are equally good."

U. S. Food Administration

THE United States Food Administration does not step into your kitchen to see if you are playing fair—it simply asks you to

"SAVE ANIMAL FATS"

—and puts you on your honor.

Now the Government isn't asking you to deny yourself good eating, but merely to cook in a slightly different way. In a word, to stop short in the use of lard and butter in your cooking and use vegetable fats instead.

In the production of the needed vegetable fats the country is well equipped. Already millions of pounds of pure, wholesome and nourishing vegetable fats are produced and used each year. Cottolene is a familiar example.

In recommending vegetable fats the Government does not specify any particular product. Cottolene, however, is well known as a pure and wholesome vegetable shortening. Incidentally, it gives delicious cooking results.

Here is the fact to remember when you buy—when you cook—and we quote it from the United States Food Administration:

"It is your patriotic duty to save fat (animal fat) by substituting."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE BILL GOES TO THE GOVERNOR

A dispatch from Austin announces that the house yesterday afternoon (March 21) concurred in the senate amendment to the woman suffrage bill, and that the bill now goes to the governor for his signature. The bill passed in the senate in a vote of eight to five, with four pairs.

The primary bill, as an amendment to the Terrell election law, is not having such smooth sailing, due to an amendment which is construed to have the purpose of keeping the name of ex-Governor Jas. E. Ferguson off the ballot. It is thought that in a free conference that this objection will be removed, and that the bill, which has for its purpose a majority vote for all candidates for official positions, will go through.

The senate passed finally today the house fish hatchery bill by Metcalf. This bill amends the fish law so as to permit the federal authorities to take fish from the fresh waters of the state for stocking federal fish hatcheries in Texas.

The senate passed finally the house bill authorizing the state superintendent of public instruction to extend teachers' certificates of teachers who have joined the army; also passed finally the bill by Senator Bee requiring the improvement of sanitary conditions in factories, department stores and other places where female labor is employed.

Senator Gibson had adopted a resolution placing the senate on record as favoring the utilization of all idle labor in the state, the purpose of which is to increase food production in the state.

The McNealus senate bill authorizing the payment of a claim of $7471 in favor of Mrs. J. D. Skellion, daughter of Colonel William Fitzhugh, was defeated when the senate refused by a vote of 9 to 17 to pass the measure to third reading. This claim was for mules sold by Colonel Fitzhugh to the state rangers in 1862.

Senator Lattimore had passed finally his bill making it a felony for any person to contribute to the delinquency of any minor under 17 years of age. Recess was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

When the house met today a resolution was adopted appropriating $200 to purchase a portrait of President Wilson to be hung in the rotunda of the capitol alongside that of George Washington.

A resolution providing for the sale of the box factory at Rusk was referred to the penitentiary committee. A resolution authorizing the board of directors of the state training school for boys at Gatesville to lease adjoining land was adopted.

The bill regulating operations of junk dealers was passed to third reading. The bill providing for the transfer of $362,000 back to the state by the prison commission was finally passed.

COUSINS IN RACE FOR STATE SENATE

Beaumont Enterprise.

Judge W. R. Cousins of Sabine county is in the race for the state senate from this district. He was in Beaumont yesterday on his way home from Austin and announced that he would be a candidate. Judge Cousins is well known throughout East Texas, and feels optimistic over his chances for election. He was born on a farm, worked in sawmills in different parts of this senatorial district, taught school and later practiced law. At present he is serving as county judge of Sabine county, making his home in Hemphill. While he has never held radical views, Judge Cousins believes in the principles of prohibition. During the past several months he has been a leader in patriotic work in his community, serving under the food administration and assisting in the liberty loan campaign.

LET ALL BEWARE OF "THE FINISHED MYSTERY"

A book bearing the title, "The Finished Mystery," has gained some circulation in the United States, and the assistant attorney general of the United States is very busy just now trying to find the source of its inspiration and circulation.

The book is said to contain dangerous and forbidden propaganda, and the assistant attorney general gives warning that he will prosecute any engaged in its circulation. If one should fall into your hands the proper course would be to turn it into the postoffice or some federal officer with information as to where you got it. Don't take any risk on trying to conceal it, or offer it to any one else.

REAL WORK.

Whether you handle a pick or a pen, a wheelbarrow or a set of books; dig ditches or edit a paper, ring an auction bell or write funny things, you must work. If you look around you will see that the men who are most able to live the rest of their lives without work are the men who work the hardest. Don't be afraid of killing yourself with work. Work gives an appetite for meals; it lends solidity to your slumbers; it gives the appreciation of a holiday. There are young men who do not work, but the world is not proud of them. The busy world does not even know their names; it speaks of them as so-and-so's son. The great busy world does not even know they are here. So find out what you want to know and go in and take off your hat and make a dust in the world. The busier you are the less deviltry you will get into, the sweeter will be your sleep, and the better the world will be for you.—Waco Times-Herald.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUSTICE COURT CIVIL APPEALS

The Sentinel is authorized to announce Judge Dan Walker of Center as a candidate for associate justice of the Beaumont court of civil appeals, to succeed Judge Steve M. King.

The Sentinel carried a sketch of the life of this man a few days ago, which readers will remember. As a citizen he is a man of sterling integrity and moral worth; as a lawyer he has long ranked with the best of the East Texas bar, and as a jurist he has been making a brilliant record the past two years. He has always had a leaning to and preference for civil business which the better fits him for the duties of this particular position; in age he is in the prime of life, physically as well as mentally fit for any task, and he is a man who takes pride in keeping up with any task that comes to his hands, all combining in him the most desirable elements to fit and qualify him for the duties of the position.

So far as The Sentinel can learn, the rain was pretty general over the county Friday. There was also good rains in parts of South Texas.

PROM COUNTY CHAIRMAN WOMAN'S COMMITTEE W. S. S.

Dear Vice Chairmen Woman's Committee, War-Savings Societies. What are you doing in YOUR society to stimulate interest in the campaign for Thrift and Saving?

You are doing splendid work in the sale of Thrift and War Stamps. I wish I could make you understand how much I appreciate your co-operation.

That, however, is only a part of the GREAT WORK you have undertaken. If, in your society, you feel that you have done all that is necessary when you have made a record sale of stamps, then, I, as your chairman, have failed in my duty to you.

I cannot urge upon you too strongly the importance of making every activity you have HERETOFORE engaged in subservient to this VITAL one of helping to win the war. It is hard to adjust ourselves quickly to changed conditions, but it is far harder (and don't let us lose sight of that fact) for the boys we are sending "over there," to give up their homes, their careers, their educations, to offer their bodies, their lives, to endure unspeakable hardships, for the protection of our homes, yours and mine, dear friends.

You have been selected for this work because you are leaders in your community, in your clubs, in your churches, and as such, it is your duty to impress your enthusiasm, your zeal upon the members of your societies. If you and your society are doing this, then I say, do not diminish, but increase your efforts.

The hour is a dark one, my friends; the obstacles cannot be over-estimated, the danger sounded too insistently. As sheltered women, three thousand miles from the scene of conflict, it is difficult to realize the character of the peril that confronts us. It is our privilege to help, so I say again, let us all talk THRIFT, practice THRIFT, buy Stamps, sell Stamps and do it NOW. After awhile, it may be "too late."

BOYS IN DEMAND FOR FARM LABOR

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Farmers will generally be willing to employ boys this year. In some sections the demand for boy farm workers will be greater than those sections can mobilize. These were out of the developments of the first week of the nationwide drive to enroll boys between 14 and 21 years of age in the boys' working reserve.

Farmers of the Middle West are especially anxious to employ boys. In Indiana 1,000 farmers have requested boy labor, according to a statement tonight by the employment service of the bureau of labor. Indiana has enrolled 11,200 in the reserve, one county, Steuben, listing every eligible boy. Illinois is pressing Indiana for first place.

Illinois, Indiana and South Dakota have reported they expect to release high school boys for farm work by April 15. In these and several other states the boys are being trained in the schools for farm work. In Pennsylvania the boy reserve director is preparing to send out high school boys who enroll in units of 50. The director of the reserve in each state was notified tonight to report his enrollment figures by April 1.

SIGNS DELINQUENCY BILL

AUSTIN, March 22.—The governor today signed the bill extending the child delinquency act so as to apply to girls, thus permitting girls to take advantage of the benefits of this act.

GIVE "SYRUP OF FIGS" TO CONSTIPATED CHILD

Delicious "Fruit Laxative" can't harm tender little Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Look at the tongue, mother! I coated, your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of your little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which completely fails to irritate for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

CHILDREN FORMER CITIZEN ACCIDENTALLY KILLED

A message was received by relatives in the city a day or two ago, bearing the sad news that the little daughter of Mr. Frank Birdwell, a former citizen of this city, had been accidentally killed, and his little son had suffered a broken leg in a faving accident on the Colorado river. A later message brought the news that the little boy had also died.

The family reside at Ballenger, and he accident happened by an embankment on the Colorado river, on which they were standing or playing, caving in.

Mr. Ed. Powers of this city, a grandfather of the children, went to Ballenger Friday night in response to the message bearing the sad news.

A report of the accident appearing in the Dallas-Galveston News, gives the facts substantially as reported above, reporting Josephine, the little girl, to be thirteen, and Frank, the boy, to be eleven, and that they were attending a picnic party when the accident happened.

Mr. Birdwell was for a number of years engaged in business in this city, leaving here about eleven years ago, and has a number of relatives and friends who will enter into profound sympathy with him and his wife in the tragic bereavement that has overtaken them.

Take Hербine for indigestion. It relieves the pain in a few minutes and forces the fermented matter which causes the misery into the bowels, where it is expelled. Price 60c. Sold by Stripling, Hazelwood & Co.

FROM CAMP TRAVIS

Bill Allen of Nacogdoches, Texas, takes a big part in wrestling. While out at target practice there were several wrestling contests and Allen took all the prizes in Battery E, 344th Field Artillery, and several in the regiment.

Private Clarence Matthews has graduated from the school of Teamsters at Remount Station No. 2, and has been returned to his company for duty.

"There will be no lost motion at Camp Travis. Every movement must be made with a distinct purpose." This is the opinion of Major General Henry T. Allen, commanding the Nineteenth Division, National Army, who has recently returned from a careful inspection of the English, French and American troops in the war zone of France.

The absolute necessity for a coordination of physical activity with mental activity is apparent to those who have seen service or have visited the front in Europe, according to General Allen. With this end in view, the soldiers of Camp Travis are to be given a thorough course of training of such nature that will call into play not only the muscles of the body, but the muscles of the brain.

The success of the allies in a great measure can be attributed to the fact that the average soldier of the allied armies is a clearer thinker, and a more concise thinker, than is the German soldier. The German soldier is often driven, while the soldier of the allied forces are led into combat. Without their officers, it has been shown that the German forces break down. This is not true in the allied forces, where non-commissioned officers and even men without rank have stepped into the breach at the proper time and led their respective units to victory or safety.

A pain in the side or back that catches you when you straighten up calls for a rubbing application of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It relieves the contracted muscles and permits ordinary bodily motion without suffering or inconvenience. Price .5c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Stripling, Hazelwood & Co.

BURGLARY AT MT. ENTERPRISE

At Mt. Enterprise Herald. Last Saturday night the Carroll Northern depot was burglarized during the early part of the night while a snow was giving a performance about two or three hundred yards away, and about $66 was taken from the safe. The combination had not been turned off before the closing of the depot and the looters had easy access to the cash.

Entrance was made into the building by prying the ticket window open with a bar.

Parties on the streets saw the burglars make their "get-away" but no arrests have been made at this time.

This is the third successful raid that has been made on the depot in the past few months and no arrests have been made on either occasion. The two times prior to Saturday night whiskey was taken, this being the first time that money has been stolen.

ED. POPP DIED HERE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Ed. Popp who was knocked off the railroad bridge at Poe Saturday morning by a moving freight train, and who was brought to this city Saturday afternoon for treatment, died at the sanitarium after his arrival. The attending physician informs The Sentinel that he was so badly broken up in the accident that it was impossible to do anything for him.

The remains of the unfortunate young man were laid to rest by the side of his father gone before in Dorr Creek cemetery at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, and the funeral service was attended by many sorrowing friends.

Mr. Popp was about twenty three years of age, and is survived by his mother, four brothers and two sisters. The brothers are Leonard Popp of Junction City, Ark.; George Popp of Topeka, Kan.; John and Charlie Popp of this city; George Popp, who lives so far away, was home on a visit when the accident happened. The sisters are Mrs. Lee Barnhart, residing near Nat, and Mrs. Jim Scoggins of Leesville, La. He was a native of the county, and it is the universal verdict of all that he was an upright, honorable young man, well-liked by all who knew him. He lived with his widowed mother at Poe.

Further particulars about the accident seem to confirm the idea that Mr. Popp was struck by a freight train of the T. & N. O., but as to how can only be deduced, as there were no eye-witnesses, and the train crew seem to not have seen him by passing on. When the officials of the road learned what had happened, they sent out a special train to bring the remains of the young man to the sanitarium.

PART WORN GARMENTS

The American Red Cross is making a special drive for part worn clothing, shoes, etc. to be shipped to Belgium and Northern France for the use of destitute men, women and children in those parts. The Red Cross desires to impress upon the American people that this is not a regular line of activity on the part of that organization and is distinct from their organized refugee work. This present "drive" was undertaken at the request of the Belgian Relief Commission, after the careful investigation of its merits, but with the distinct understanding that this great organization would lend its help to meet the pressing need, while not, however, accepting this as a regular activity. The call is for many tons of partly worn clothing, and I ask all branches throughout the county to cooperate with Mrs. Z. T. Mast whom I asked to take charge of the enterprise for the county.

C. D. ATWELL, Chairman, county chapter.

MORE BILLS SIGNED

AUSTIN, March 23.—Governor Hobby today signed the house bill repealing the Allison liquor law which prohibits the interstate and intrastate shipment of intoxicating liquor into Texas. He also signed the senate track removal bill, which permits railroads to remove or relocate tracks in cities of 5,000 or over, and also approved the house bill fixing the compensation of county commissioners, placing them on a straight salary basis.

Self Defense DEFEAT BACKACHE AND KIDNEY TROUBLE WITH ANURIC.

Many people in Texas are afflicted with rheumatism and kidney trouble, and have found Anurie to be the most successful remedy to overcome these painful and dangerous ailments.

The lucky persons are those who have suffered, but who are now well because they heeded Nature's warning signals to cure their trouble with that wonderful new discovery of Dr. Pierce, called "Anurie." You should promptly heed these warnings, some of which are dizziness, headache, irregularity of the urine, or the painful business of urination, or any of the dangerous forms of kidney disease, such as stone in the bladder.

To overcome these distressing conditions take plenty of exercise in the open air, avoid a heavy meal, drink freely of water and at each meal take Anurie Tablets, dissolved in water. You will, in a short time, find that you are one of the firm indorsees of "Anurie."

All druggists sell Anurie for five cents, or Dr. V. M. Pierce, Invalide Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10c. for trial package.

JACKSONO, Tex.—"I am more than well pleased with the Anurie Tablets. I was disturbed five to eight times at night and sometimes more. I was so well pleased with the first supply of Anurie that I went to town and bought two bottles. It is the only thing that ever gave me any relief for the kidneys and I want the world to know it. I think Anurie is the best medicine on the market today."—A. J. MILLER.

Dr. Pierce's Tablets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Put up in elegant vials and sold by all druggists. They are truly "GOD'S REMEDY." Contains absolutely pure—harmless and efficient.

PLANS BEING MADE FOR LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

A good representation of the committee appointed by County Chairman June C. Harris to assist with the work of the next liberty loan campaign met with the chairman Saturday night, and discussed various plans and propositions, and all seemed ready to enter enthusiastically upon the task.

After the discussion a committee was appointed to meet at the office of the county superintendent this morning where they will gather statistics as to the relative strength of the various communities, and the names of committeemen in these various communities to assist with the work. These names will be published when the organization is perfected.

A press committee was also appointed who will systematize the reports, to the end that there may be no conflict in statements.

Many other matters were discussed, some of which will be taken up at a subsequent meeting. Mr. Harris recently attended a meeting at Shreveport, at which Mr. Hoopes, chairman of the district, was present, and listened to a message from him in which he was impressed with the seriousness and paramount importance of the people rallying to every demand, and every one doing his bit to the point of great sacrifice. He hopes to get his organization in thorough working shape in advance, and when the time comes, to push the campaign to the utmost limit. It is a work which every citizen of the county should support, and with the intelligent and energetic leadership we have in evidence, The Sentinel cherishes the hope that old Nacogdoches county will rally with her part in this as she has in all other patriotic matters.

SPANISH SHIPS TO GET COTTON

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The war trade board tonight announced that it had granted export licenses for raw cotton to Spain in sufficient quantity to load four of the Spanish vessels that have been waiting in United States ports for some months pending the conclusion of the agreement which was announced March 8. These ships will be permitted to clear when loaded.

This action of the war-trade board, it was said here tonight, will provide the cotton necessary to fulfill the normal requirements of the Spanish mills, and should relieve any fears that may have existed in Spain as to the possibility of a cotton shortage.

Under the agreement Spain permits free export to the allies of certain commodities in return for which the United States permits, in so far as it is consistent with its conservative policy, the export to Spain of the necessary supplies of cotton and other commodities to insure the continuance of her economic life and to cover genuine Spanish requirements.

IN THE TOOLS FOR STEALING A YEARLING

City Marshal Woodlan looked up David Rashery, colored, yesterday on a complaint charging that he stole a yearling from Prof. G. B. J... some weeks ago.

Rashery is the negro who sold the meat from Mr. Geo. F. Raubold, reported in this paper last week. According to the complaint he stole the yearling previous to the invasion of Mr. Raubold's meat store, and sold it for $5.00. As noted in the former report, Rashery has been at work at Trimpson, but he came home for a Sunday visit, and the marshal picked him up while he was here.

LEGISLATURE WILL ADJOURN WEDNESDAY

AUSTIN, March 24.—Plans for sine die adjournment of the present special session of the Texas legislature at noon Wednesday were completed yesterday afternoon when the senate adopted the house concurrent resolution on that subject.

A number of bills were passed by both houses during the afternoon session before adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Governor Hobby's office is being deluged with the measures presented for his signature. The woman suffrage bill, now in his hands, is expected to be signed Monday.

A NEW GARAGE

Mr. Albert Bright has leased a lot on the Williams property, down East Main street, on which he is building a garage for his growing business.

Mr. Bright has won a good reputation as a workman and automobile man, and with his new location hopes to enjoy a greatly increased business. The building will be of sheet iron and concrete, designed for the convenience of this enterprise, and will be large enough to handle a good business.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT AT APPLEBY SATURDAY

While the people along the route were coming away from the funeral service over the remains of Mr. Melvaine at Appleby Saturday, Mr. Cullen Faulkner, driving an automobile, is reported to have run into a buggy in which Mr. and Mrs. Dick Dale were driving, turning the buggy over and throwing the occupants out.

The Sentinel is not advised as to just how badly the occupants of the buggy were injured, but it is known that they received a pretty severe shakeup and a number of bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale were taken in the car by Mr. Faulkner and carried to the home of Mr. Roland White, where they received medical attention.

The horse driven by Mr. Dale is reported to have been a young animal, which did not drive well, and for this reason he failed to get him out of the way sufficiently to allow the car to pass. The horse came to a halt when the buggy was overturned, and fortunately considerable damage was thus averted.

WEST END SCHOOL ALSO DOING ITS BIT

Some time ago the pupils of West End school were organized for the purpose of purchasing thrift stamps and war saving certificates, also for the purpose of increased food production. Many of the pupils have planted gardens and from the sale of vegetables expect to purchase thrift stamps. Up to date we have bought $150.00 worth of thrift stamps and war saving certificates.

As fast as we can earn more money more stamps will be purchased. If anyone in Nacogdoches needs some gardening done or anything else that a boy can do, phone me and I will send you a good reliable boy. The girls desire to work also. Col. W. Y. Garrison of Garrison, has been in the city today on some business in connection with the district court. Mr. Garrison is one of East Texas' most prominent business men, being at the head of many enterprises, and owning extensive interests over the country. He has made his home at Garrison continuously since the establishment of the town, which was named for his father, Capt. Jim Garrison, who was also one of the county's most prominent citizens in his day. The son has carried off the work where his father left off, taking the lead in building up his town, and taking a prominent part in many other affairs of the country.

MARRIED SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. S. B. Lang and Miss Mattie Alders of Oil City were married at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mr. Dan Lang, over at the mill, Saturday night, County Judge J. F. Perrite officiating.

The Sentinel joins friends of the happy couple in congratulations and good wishes.

L. G. Council was a visitor to Nacogdoches today, but on being spied by a reporter and compelled to acknowledge his destination, stated that if nothing was said about it he would return on the first train back, as the little village across the Angelina possessed no attraction for him, a fact that was very apparent from the earnestness of his manner. Latribu News, Saturday.

M. H. WOLFE INDORSES HOBBY FOR GOVERNOR

DALLAS, Texas, March 23.—M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, chairman of the statewide prohibition committee, today gave out to the press of Texas a statement praising Gov. Hobby and the legislature for passing and signing laws pertaining to the whiskey question and having "ended the honor traffic in Texas."

Mr. Wolfe says Gov. Hobby is entitled to the confidence and support of all loyal citizens. The text of the statement follows:

"Governor Hobby and the special session of the legislature have ended the liquor traffic in Texas."

"Five separate and distinct liquor laws have been passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Hobby. Beside these the legislature ratified the constitutional amendment looking to Nation-wide prohibition."

"First—The ten mile zone law creating 'dry zones' around all army camps in Texas."

"Second—The law prohibiting the issuance of liquor licenses outside of an incorporated town."

"Third—The bootlegging bill providing severe penalties for selling liquors without license."

"Fourth—The re-enactment of the Allison law and incorporating the principal features of the Webb-Kenyon act prohibiting the transportation of any kind of intoxicating liquors into dry territory."

"Fifth—The statewide law prohibiting the manufacture, sale and transportation of intoxicating liquors anywhere within the State of Texas."

"All of these laws are cumulative and reinforce each other with the distinct provision that if the course, for any reason should declare one section void, the other sections shall remain in full force and effect."

"Some of these laws may be attacked in the courts. However, it seems certain that enough of the provisions of the different laws will hold good to effect the finish of the liquor traffic in this state."

"It is the deep conviction of many that this is the best job of liquor legislation ever recorded by any State in the union."

"This splendid achievement, for which the prohibitionists in Texas have been fighting for many years, should bring joy and gratitude to the hearts of hundreds of thousands of Texas' most progressive citizens."

"The credit for this remarkable victory is due largely to Governor Hobby. By calling the special session of the legislature and submitting the question of liquor legislation he made it possible for the prohibition forces to secure immediately the coveted goal which it would have taken from one to three years to secure through any governor yet to be elected."

"In making this statement I am not unmindful of the fact that Governor Hobby has always been an anti-prohibitionist, but when a public official is willing to lay aside his personal views and aid the people to get what they want it stamps him as a statesman of the highest type, worthy of the deepest consideration and entitled to the confidence and support of all loyal citizens."

"For these reasons and others not here mentioned, I do not hesitate to say that the prohibition forces of Texas are under lasting obligations to Governor Hobby for this great and gratifying service performed in behalf of the people during the most stressful and heart-breaking hour the world ever saw."

"As I see it we would be ingrates if we should fail to reinforce him in every way possible while he faithfully and ably administers the tasks as Governor of Texas, and furthermore to give him our heartiest support in the present campaign for the high office of Governor."

PRESIDENT SIGNS RAIL CONTROL BILL

WASHINGTON, March 21.—President Wilson today signed the bill bringing railroads under government operation and control until 21 months after the end of the war.

TELEPHONE

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Notwithstanding the good prices that have been enjoyed for all kinds of produce, and the new era of prosperity that has been over the county, a number of you have failed to pay for your paper this winter, and in so doing you have unconsciously added to our burden.

With the present high prices of paper and labor there is no profit whatever in the subscription department of a paper the size of the Sentinel at the present price, but we have hoped to tide over without increasing it, and when we lose or fail to collect a dollar that has been earned it represents a net loss. We feel that those who have failed to settle up have not realized the seriousness of the burden that has been placed upon us, and that it is more a matter of carelessness than otherwise.

With this statement, we hope that every one who is behind will make a remittance at once. Postoffices and rural routes reach every community, and it will be but a little trouble to mail us a money order for the amount, the date on the wrapper showing it.

And those who feel able could help as greatly by remitting a year in advance and let us have the use of the money while we are earning it on a scale in which there is no profit. This is not exacted, but would certainly be appreciated.

We are bending every energy and employing every resource at our command to give you a representative local paper, and if we sustain it, we must have your co-operation.

At a meeting of ladies in this city yesterday a bright little girl of some four summers who was present made the declaration that "God was everywhere—even in Shreveport and Lufkin." The charity and innocent faith of a child is truly wonderful.

The Sentinel is swamped with poetical contributions—some good and some that will not pass muster. In gratification of the wishes and encouragement of the talent, we wish that we could print it all, but our first duty is to our readers, and we fear that the cruel waste basket is going to find a new recruit to go with its bulging consignment of "bureau" material.

Buy some more war saving certificates and get ready for the next liberty loan. Those who have been spared from actual service in the great war, and in further appreciation that our homes and women and children are not exposed to German ruthlessness, should be inspired with so great appreciation that they would invest every dollar they can get hold of, and make any further sacrifice necessary to preserve the blessings we enjoy.

The war news coming to us from the great battle the past two or three days has been somewhat oppressing, but we should not lose heart, for there is nothing yet that can be construed as disastrous. Germany is making her supreme effort, in which she is sacrificing multiplied thousands of lives, and if she can be held in check a few days she is bound to spend much of her force which will enable the allies to react and pursue their course in a more substantial manner. The dispatches in today's papers indicate that this condition is already obtaining. So much is involved in the great battle in which armies of millions of men are engaged that big things are bound to happen on both sides, and in computing losses by the thousand is not so big a feature after all.

It is certain that Lufkin, our neighbor down the line, is not going to be troubled with any more pro-German agitation for awhile, and while people must be careful, and should not be too quick to censure, all loyal Americans will admire the spirit of loyalty manifested by the citizens who put a stop to it in the quickest and most effective manner. With many of our sons and brothers giving up their lives for the cause for which our country is aligned, and with sacrifices being made by the people at home, it is no time and the people are in no frame of mind to tolerate the propaganda that is promoted for their destruction. For the adopted German who is really loyal, we have the most profound respect and admiration, and he is never included in any reference to the enemies of the country, but for the sneaking individual who will enjoy our protection, and all the opportunities afforded with citizenship, and seek to betray or disorganize us we have no patience. All such should be interned at the first outbreak, and it is vital to the interests of our country that they should be.

JUDGE KING IS OPTIMISTIC WITH-OUTLOOK FOR SUCCESS

Judge Steve M. King of Beaumont, who has been spending a day or two in the city looking after some business interests and shaking hands with old friends, made The Sentinel a pleasant call this morning and in answer to inquiry as to the outlook for success of his race for congress, he expressed himself as being well pleased with the encouragement he was receiving from the different parts of the district, and while he expects a spirited contest, he feels in all things equal to the occasion.

In discussing the various issues that will come before the people—or rather the issues that are already before the people and which are being thrashed out—he said that he would favor woman suffrage, first as a matter of justice, there being no valid reason why the women should not enjoy the privileges of the ballot, and secondly because the ballot would be purified and made more sacred with this good influence added.

In speaking of another great issue which has been before the people for some years, Mr. King said that congress had submitted the cause of prohibition to the states, and that while the question of submission was not at present an issue before the people of this state, but should three-fourths of the states adopt the issue, which will surely be done, it would then devolve upon congress to pass such laws as may be necessary to the proper enforcement, and he would work to the end that legislation may be provided which would insure effective prohibition.

In speaking of the war, he said it was the great and paramount issue before the people today, and that he was already doing his bit, in every way possible, to co-operate with the government in the encouragement of a better support of the government, more food production, conservation, etc. It is a fact that Judge King has been devoting much time lately in addressing gatherings in these causes over the country. If elected to congress he says he will stay by the administration in the successful prosecution of the war until the ends of world-wide democracy and universal peace are obtained. And those of us in Nacogdoches who know him best will vouch for his loyalty in every feature of this matter.

Hon. Arthur A. Seale of this city has consented to serve as campaign manager for Judge King, with headquarters at Nacogdoches, and he will be assisted by other friends. Mr. Seale is a live-wire, and can be depended upon to promote a most interesting campaign.

HOME FOR DISABLED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS

Nacogdoches, Texas, March 26, 1918.

Dear Readers:
The writer of this article asks the good citizens of this city and county to come to the assistance of our government and to locate in this county one of those many homes for our crippled boys. Let's all get together and show our brave boys who are sent to pieces for us, that we appreciate their sacrifice. Since our boys are fighting, dying and being torn to pieces for us it is not about time to prepare places for them to regain their health? We owe this to them and our country, to repair the damage this monster war makes. Our government will appreciate our help which we are honor bound to give our government, and our brave boys. Where is a better place, with better surroundings in homes, in natural beauty and health-giving climate than our dear Nacogdoches-county?

What better trade could we learn our boys too disabled to follow their former occupation, than gardening and poultry raising?

The climate, our soil in our county will, with little attention make a better living for anybody than anywhere else.

Just picture yourself, dear readers, the glory and satisfaction to be privileged to be able to repay through kindness and actual help, some of our debt to them.

Now let's all get together, and show our boys to put another shining page in the glorious history of our beloved city and county.

A CITIZEN.

THRIFT STAMP SALES ARE STILL BOOMING

If any one has an idea that the thrift stamp and war savings certificate sales are on the lag, they are very much mistaken. To the contrary, it is going steadily on, and each day makes a good showing within itself. Yesterday morning the postoffice sales amounted to $2,548 before noon. In this list there was a one thousand-dollar certificate for Mr. John Shepherd of Cushing.

The sales at the postoffice this morning amounted to $1,380.00, among those taking stock in the noble enterprises being Mrs. M. J. Harvey, $500; Little Misses Margie and Francis Huey, $200.00, each; Little Miss Charlotte Baker, $100; Tom Wilson, Baker, $100; Joseph Locke, $100.

Other sales reported are Mrs. Nan Weatherly, Appleby, $100; Dixon Greer, Appleby, $200; Henry Phillip Schmidt, Jr., the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmidt of this city, $1000; Homer Hardeman, $1000. Another list comes from Marshallville with Ancil Fuller $100; J. W. Martin $100; R. T. Bentley $100.

School Report.

And while the citizenship of the country is busy on the enterprise the children of Nacogdoches High School are catching the spirit, and have turned in a report that does them great credit.

The following is a report of the Thrift Stamp Societies of the Nacogdoches Central Grammar School, according to rooms.

- 1st grade in Mrs. Marshall's room, 37 children purchased $33.75 worth.
- 1st and 2nd in Miss Loden's room, 28 children, $226.25.
- 2nd and 3rd grade in Mrs. Ratchell's room 17 children, $57.00.
- 3rd grade in Miss Price's room, 22 children, $336.75.
- 4th grade in Miss Ferguson's room, 43 children, $65.50.
- 5th grade in Miss Hamilton's room, 32 children, $150.50.
- 5th grade in Mrs. Hall's room, 30 children, $390.00.
- 6th grade in H. H. Hall's room, 34 children, $226.00.

Grand Total, $3,385.75.

We wish to explain that some of the children are more able to buy large amounts than others, and while we appreciate the generosity of these, for many of them have drawn out every cent of their savings to lend to their government, we admire the determination and patriotism of the boys and girls who have sold butter, eggs, scrap iron and bottles to be able to donate their "quarters."

The entire school wishes to give three cheers for the fourth grade, which is 100 per cent strong in membership of the Thrift Stamp Society.

STATE AT DISPOSAL OF THE NATION IN WAR WORK

AUSTIN, March 26.—In addressing a joint session of the legislature today, Governor W. P. Hobby declared that he considered it his "highest duty to give President Wilson the heart, strength, nerve and muscle of the manhood of Texas," and asserted that he would "continue to be guided in every thought by what I think will contribute most to the gallant forces on land, sea and in air."

"The State of Texas," he added, "at the disposal of the nation in the present crisis."

The governor referred to the enactment of his war measures by the legislature. Referring to the "loyalty bill," he said the legislature had "made it almost impossible for a disloyal person to breathe in Texas."

The present session of the legislature has made history, he said, and predicted it never would be forgotten. Referring to enactment of the majority primary law, Governor Hobby said "it made it impossible for a minority to rule."

The climax of the legislature's work he added, was the act of "reaching out and gathering to the bosom of Texas women, he said, should have the same right to participate in affairs of state as they do in affairs of the home."

Governor Hobby was introduced by Senator Collins, who said:

"It is not what the governor has said, but what he has done that makes him great."

BOUQUETS AND BRICKBATS.

The Lufkin News and the Nacogdoches Sentinel throw bouquets and brickbats at each other.—Tyler Morning Tribune.

It is the only way to hold down the obstreperous "quill driver" across the Angelina from Nacogdoches. When you hand him a bouquet you have got to follow it up with a brickbat to make it "justify" with his "pied" form. Some freak, is that Lufkin editor.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

The Sentinel man not only throws "brickbats and bouquets" but he throws fits—and when he throws one, he calls us names like that. But always we throw around him the mantle of charity and reflect that we, too, would probably act curious were we sentenced for life to infest such a town.—Lufkin News.

NEW WHEAT PROGRAM PUBLIC EATING PLACES

The following are the new rules for all public eating establishments, and it is a military necessity that they be lived up to, that we may be assured of enough wheat to last us until the next harvest.

Public eating places and clubs to observe Monday and Wednesday as well as the evening meal of all other days wheatless. Public eating establishments not to buy more than six pounds of wheat products per month per guest, or for each ninety meals served. Each person is allowed not to exceed a total of one and one-half pounds of wheat products per week of for 21 meals served. This means not more than one and three-fourths pounds of victory bread containing the required percentage of substitutes and about one-half pound of cooking flour, macaroni, crackers, pastry, pie, cakes and wheat breakfast cereals all combined.

The daily ration is four ounces victory bread and about one-half ounce of all other wheat products and flour combined for each three meals served. A good rule to follow is this: When Victory Bread is used, only pastry made from substitutes alone should be served.

When corn, oatmeal or bran bread is used, victory pastry may be served. One slice of victory bread generally weighs one and one-third ounces.

Two slices may be served, but should be cut very thin. Not more than 20 per cent wheat flour should be used for hot cakes or waffles.

Use corn cakes during the war. Not more than one sandwich made from victory bread should be served at any one meal and the bread must then be cut very thin.

Short-cake should not be served at same meal with victory bread, unless it is made entirely of substitutes.

We now have plenty of potatoes, milk, corn and oats for human consumption and should use these products abundantly. I feel that every public eating house proprietor will face the situation as a good soldier and carry the program through to victory.

Yours very truly,
E. A. PEDEEN,
Federal Food Administrator for Tex.

THIRD LIBERTY LOAN TO BE $3,000,000,000

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Secretary McAdoo announced Monday night that the amount of the third liberty loan would be $3,000,000,000 at 4 1/2 per cent, and that all oversubscriptions would be accepted.

The new bonds will be nonconvertible, but bonds of the first and second liberty loans may be converted into the new 4 1/2 per cent securities.

Authority to issue $4,500,000,000 in bonds in addition to the $3,666,000,000 already authorized and unissued is proposed in new loan legislation prepared for submission to congress so that the total amount which may be issued is $8,166,000,000.

Secretary McAdoo said expenditures of the United States and the allied governments had been much below estimates and that consequently it was not necessary to make the loan larger than three billion dollars.

I FIRMLY BELIEVED IT SAVED MY LIFE

Declares Medicine That Will Do What Tanlac Did For Her. Deserves Praise.

"By the help of Tanlac I have overcome troubles I had begun to fear would end my life," said Mrs. Aline Ramsey, who resides at 363 South Pearl Street, Dallas, Texas, recently. "My stomach has been troubling me for eight years," she continued, "and I had gotten to where I couldn't even eat raw eggs, or drink sweet milk without suffering afterwards. At times my stomach was so gassy and upset that I couldn't retain a thing. For the past two years I have had rheumatism in my right shoulder and arm so bad I could hardly sleep at all and could do no work without feeling completely exhausted. I was badly constipated; had such a glimmer before my eyes I could hardly see and would often get so dizzy I had to lie down. "I took nearly every medicine I ever heard of and tried in vain so long without getting anything to help me that I had begun to think I couldn't get well. Then my nephew from Georgia told me about Tanlac and while I never got much relief from my first bottle, the second got me to eating hearty and sleeping fine. I finished my third bottle with such a big appetite that I could hardly get enough to eat and my stomach trouble and rheumatism were gone. So now I can eat what I want, sleep like a child and am praising Tanlac for my wonderful recovery. I firmly believe it has saved my life and such a medicine is worth praising."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselewood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by A. J. Beck; in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

GIRLS! IT'S YOUR STEP THAT ATTRACTS

Says Women Pay Too Much Heed to their face instead of their corns.

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns—and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace, besides, corns are very easy to remove. "Rub your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out without pain. This freezone is a gummy substance which freezes instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin. Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhances her attractiveness. 3

GIRLS! IT'S YOUR STEP THAT ATTRACTS

Says Women Pay Too Much Heed to their face instead of their corns.

Watch your step! A brisk, lively step is what charms more than a lovely skin, but your high heels have caused corns—and you limp a little. That's bad, girls, and you know it. Corns destroy beauty and grace, besides, corns are very easy to remove. "Rub your feet of every corn by asking at any drug store for a quarter of an ounce of freezone. This will cost little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

A few drops applied directly upon a tender, touchy corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out without pain. This freezone is a gummy substance which freezes instantly and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding skin. Women must keep in mind that cornless feet create a youthful step which enhances her attractiveness. 3

HAVE A THRIFT POCKET AND A THRIFT COIN

A thrift pocket is a character builder—it tests your capacity to resist. You will find it as alluring as the penny bank you once had on the mantle-piece. Select the pocket—any one will do—and then select the coin. Suppose your thrift coin is a nickel. Every nickel you get goes into the thrift pocket. You cannot borrow from the thrift pocket nor lend from it. Experience proves that it isn't wise even to make change from it, and that it is a failure if you do not scrupulously honest with it. Every time it gets over-heavy, go to the post office or to a bank. Thrift stamps are light.

Miss Leah Zeve, Mrs. L. M. Huey, Mrs. Joe Goldsberry, Mrs. Luther Swift, and Mrs. Albert Brewer went to Sacul last Wednesday in the interest of the war savings campaign. All prophesies concerning the trip were fulfilled, and the results were extremely gratifying to those who feel the vital importance of this work as an aid in winning the war. Twelve enthusiastic and earnest women pledged themselves to the task in hand, and organized a W. S. Society under the direction of Miss Leah Zeve and Mrs. Luther Swift. Mrs. O. H. Franks was made president and Mrs. J. W. Lucas secretary. The children were also formed into the Sacul school W. S. S. Miss Eunice Trawick was made president and Miss Ida Lucas secretary. Fourteen were enrolled. Mesdames Whited, Trigg, Fewell, Strong and Tom Summers were the willing helpers who went to Caro on Thursday to lend their assistance to Miss Zeve in her plans for organizing a War Savings Society at that place. Because of the zealous patriotism of the town and surrounding community, there was a hopeful expectancy concerning the visit, which was fulfilled in every detail. The women were organized with Mrs. L. V. Percy president and Mrs. R. R. Coleman secretary. Ten members were enrolled.

While this organization was being perfected, Mesdames Fewell and Summers formed a children's War Saving Society, with Miss Thelma Lilly president, and Miss Lessie B. Lilly, secretary. Twenty children were enrolled. It is believed that every citizen at this strategic point known as Caro will at once realize the importance of the message: "Our first duty is to economize, to avoid waste, and to place all available resources at the disposal of the government."

Miss Zeve wishes to announce the appointment of Mrs. Joe Goldsberry as vice-chairman of the women's work for the county; and of Mrs. George Fewell as chairman of the county organizing committee.

Master Alton Thomason will give a reading in the interest of the War Savings work next Saturday evening at the Queen theatre.

Mrs. Frank Sharp, local chairman, reports the organization of the Cason-Monk War Savings Society. This youngest of the Nacogdoches societies is a vigorous and most promising infant, boasting a membership of lucky thirteen. Mr. R. C. Monk is president, Mr. Bowden Cason, secretary. It will set a pace that will be worth watching—and keeping up with.

All prospective investors in War Savings Stamps (and that should mean all of us) are reminded that this is "bargain week." That is to say, the price will be increased on April 1, and on each preceding "first." Do it now.

On March 25th, the Presbyterian U. S. A. War-Savings Society, was organized, with Mrs. Zero Cox, president, and Mrs. John Teutsch secretary.

On March 26th, (Tuesday) an organizing party went to Martinsville. It consisted of Miss Zeve, Mrs. Joe Goldsberry, Mrs. Z. T. Mast, Mrs. M. Johnson, Mrs. George Birham. By special invitation the party arrived in time for dinner at the hospitable home of Mrs. L. C. Brown, where a delightful repast was enjoyed by the visitors. In the afternoon meeting was held, and the women of Martinsville were formed into the Martinsville War Savings Society.

While this work was in progress, Mrs. Joe Goldsberry organized the Martinsville school, U. S. S., with Mr. Fulton Fuller, president, and Miss Audrey Hanna, secretary. Nineteen members were enrolled.

A recent breaking afternoon was concluded by the sale of $400 worth of stamps to Martinsville merchants. An organizing trip will be made to Shady Grove on Wednesday evening, by special invitation.

A party consisting of Mrs. Percy Blount, Mrs. B. F. Hardeman, Mrs. C. B. Brewer and Miss Irene Clevenger, made an organizing trip to Needmore on Tuesday. Miss Clevenger enrolled 14 school children, with Prof. Tindall president, and Miss Lucy Griggshy, secretary. The women were also organized, with Mrs. Oliver president, and Miss Clara Singleton secretary.

Make a beauty lotion for a few cents to remove tan, freckles, sallowness.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply you with three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Yes! It is a harmless, and the beautiful results will surprise you.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR YOUNG LADIES AND YOUNG MEN

The demand for telegraph operators was never so great as at the present time. The government demand has taken large numbers of operators out of their former places. Railroads are sending men out to get more operators, and are offering special inducements to commercial school students. Several different railway companies have offered to place every graduate on their lines. The largest telegraph school in America—equipped with wire of a main line railroad, all telegraph and freight blanks and books of record, tickets; and in fact everything just as complete as found in the best equipped railroad offices—the best practical teachers to be obtained, thoroughly experienced in commercial and railway telegraphy, station and freight work—the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, is unable to supply the demands of the railroad, Western Union, and Postal telegraph companies for operators. Just received a message from a leading railway company reading: "Can you furnish us with all the operators we need, we furnishing them with free transportation over our line from nearest points?" Just as surely as you complete our course and B. Y. P. C. organizations are urged to attend these meetings, our church expects quite a number of representatives of the different churches of the county to attend these meetings.

Very sincerely,
JNO. H. PERKINS,
Candidate for County Clerk

P. S.—Now that Gov. Hobby has signed the suffrage bill I ask the thoughtful consideration of the good women of Nacogdoches county before they go to the coming primaries.

BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL.
Begins on next Monday, April 1st. We are expecting a large attendance. Members of country Sunday schools as well as B. Y. P. C. organizations are urged to attend these meetings. Our church expects quite a number of representatives of the different churches of the county to attend these meetings. Homes will be provided for those from a distance.

Brothers Gardner and Beaguchamp will arrive in time for the Sunday morning service on March 31st, and we will have a mass meeting at 3:00 p. m. to which all churches in the city are invited.

LUFKIN CITIZENS HORESWHIP PRO-GERMAN TALKER

Chastisement Administered on Public Square. After Which the Man Was Jailed.

Yesterday morning about 10:00 o'clock indignant citizens of Lufkin seized a man by the name of G. Ledsinger, who put up at the best hotel and posed as a real estate agent, and administered a chastisement with horsewhips to him.

As we gather from the report of the affair, appearing in the Lufkin News, Ledsinger spent awhile in Lufkin about a year ago, and at that time, which was prior to the entry of the United States in the war, he was free in the declaration of his friendship and admiration of Germany, but as this country was not in broken relations with the Huns at that time, no challenge was made of his course. But a different spirit is in the air now, as he found out. After the declaration of the war he left Lufkin, returning about three weeks ago, and since his return he has been making himself obnoxious to loyal citizens with the same line of discussion until the temper of the Lufkin people could not longer endure.

The chastisement occurred out on the public square with no attempt of concealment of identity by those engaged. His arms were drawn around a post and several whips were brought into play. Officers came to the rescue and carried Ledsinger to the county jail where he is being held for Federal authorities.

Ledsinger denies that he meant to display a spirit of disloyalty, claiming that he was born in Tennessee, a Georgian by adoption with a wife in Atlanta, Ga., that his father was on the staff of General Forrest in the civil war, that he has a boy in the aviation service at Dallas, and two nephews in the army. If the latter is true, it is peculiar that he should manifest so much disloyalty in discussing the matter, and the Lufkin people could not understand it.

A LETTER FROM JOHN H. PERKINS.

To the Voters of Nacogdoches county: An impression seems to be quite general among those who are not personally acquainted with me, that I am a son of Will or Charles Perkins, and as such, would be in comfortable circumstances and would not need a public office.

I wish to say to those of you who are under this impression that I am a poor man who works every day for a living. I am a son of Dick Perkins, who was a farmer in Rusk county (my native county) and who died when I was a child. My father died a poor man and I have had quite a struggle for more than 20 years as a drug clerk in making a living for my family. All I own is a home and a job in a prescription case. I am with the firm of Swift Bros. & Smith, and want to keep my job as long as I can, because I have to live; can't quite work and devote all my time to electioneering. I am not going to worry the voters with a general house to house canvass. Don't believe they want it. I give each voter credit for having enough sense to vote for the man he thinks would serve him best as county clerk.

My ambition is to better myself (every man owes that to himself and family) from a standpoint of health and a more remunerative occupation. I am capable of filling the office of county clerk and promise, if elected, to be faithful in the discharge of every duty. Look up my career, investigate my record and see if I am not worthy of your consideration.

Very sincerely,
JNO. H. PERKINS,
Candidate for County Clerk

P. S.—Now that Gov. Hobby has signed the suffrage bill I ask the thoughtful consideration of the good women of Nacogdoches county before they go to the coming primaries.

COULDN'T DO LICK OF WORK FOR 9 YEARS

Johnson Tried All Kinds of Medicine Without Results—Tanlac Brings Relief.

"I was so crippled up with rheumatism for nine years that I couldn't do a lick of work, but since taking Tanlac I can jump up and crack my heels together like a sixteen year old boy," said J. M. C. Johnson, of 1730 North Howard street, Dallas, Texas, and now in his sixty-fourth year.

"Nine years ago," he continued, "I had a bad spell of typhoid fever that left me with a terrible pain in my side and also in my back, where I had been hurt when I was a boy. Rheumatism got me in its grip and the pain I suffered in my arms and shoulders and lower limbs almost drove me distracted. My nerves were all worn out so I could hardly get any rest and many a night I was too miserable to close my eyes at all.

"I had taken so much medicine the last nine years without getting any relief that I had little faith left in anything, but when one of my friends spoke to me about Tanlac and praised it so highly, I decided to try it and was certainly surprised when I noticed a decided improvement by the time I had finished my first bottle. I slept better, my nerves grew stronger and from then on my improvement was rapid. After taking five bottles I feel young and invigorated and a whole lot better than I have in a long time. I have full use of my arms once more and to prove it I can rub the back of my head with either hand, which a few weeks ago I couldn't have done to save my life. My nerves are all right now, I sleep like a rock and my rheumatism has completely disappeared except from my finger tips, I have every confidence in Tanlac and am going to keep it up for some time, as I mean to get a job as soon as cool weather comes."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Hazelwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

Health About Gone.

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. _____ had us get Cardui. . . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health. I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

ORGANIZING OIL COMPANY AMONG HOME PEOPLE

Mr. G. W. Cavin, a well known citizen, has been very busy the past few weeks organizing an oil company for the development of a large tract of land he owns, which bears fine oil indications, offering the stock in the new enterprise first to his home people.

The tract of land on which oil development is proposed is located in San Augustine county, and there is 6,000 acres in the tract, extending up to a connection with the Cotton Belt railroad. Mr. Wm. H. Drumett, a well known geologist of Houston, has made a close inspection of the property, and renders the opinion that there are six stratas of oil on it, ranging in depth from 1100 to 3000 feet. He also finds a strong gas pressure, and inclines to the opinion that the field would be of a gusher variety.

The new company is known as the Sabine Oil & Gas company. As soon as sufficient stock is sold to equitably finance the enterprise, active drilling operations will be begun, and the field thoroughly and systematically exploited, which it is hoped will be in the next sixty or ninety days.

The officers of the company are Geo. W. Cavin, president and general manager; Dr. C. C. Pierce, vice-president; S. M. Adams, secretary-treasurer; G. H. King and T. Tilford, directors. These gentlemen are all well known business and professional business men of this city, who can be depended upon to conservatively and wisely manage the affairs of the enterprise, who have faith in the proposition and who will enter upon the service with the same earnestness that characterizes their conduct with their individual affairs. These gentlemen have also enlisted with them as stockholders. Messrs. John Schmidt, Frank Sublett, Jno. R. Thomas, Sam. Strippling, A. W. Hunt, Oscar Matthews, N. G. Roberts, B. M. Isaacs, Arthur Marshall, T. E. Baker, Ben Wilson, M. A. Barnaman, E. H. Power, Judge L. B. Griffin, Langston King, J. H. Sullivan, C. C. Rheid, W. E. Gintz, and other prominent citizens of recognized business judgment and integrity.

The plan that has been adopted with which to quickly finance the enterprise is a most generous and safe one. For each $10 invested a safe $30.30 and a $10 share in the company is decided to the stockholder. The stock is all paid-up and non-assessable, which is another attractive feature.

Of course, all wild-cat oil development carries with it an experiment. It didn't all the wealth of the world would be invested in the oil business. While this is true, many great fortunes have grown out of a small investment, and if the fellow thus investing had not taken a chance, he would not have reaped the profit. Oil prospecting is now in progress in San Augustine, Sabine, Nacogdoches and other counties, and with the favorable report from the geologist, it is not unlikely that a strata passes some-where through this section, and it is not improbable that the whole section of East Texas, lying between the oil fields of North Louisiana and the Gulf of South Texas.

Mr. Cavin's development is connected with the enterprise will take pleasure in exhibiting the maps of this proposed field and furnishing any information desired in the matter. They believe they have a good proposition, and it is their ambition to enlist home people as far as possible with them.

"It must be remembered that this issue of treasury certificates will be followed next week with one equally as large, after which will come the Liberty bond campaign, and the bankers of this district should be prepared to meet the demand."

"The deputy directors of the various states have been of great value to us in this campaign, and the work of the deputy directors for each county in this state is very much appreciated, as this result could not have been obtained without their loyal support."

"Adams, Director of Sales."

Misses Opal, Alvie, Allie, Needham, Elmer, Needham and Mrs. Mock Gatliff motored over from Cushing Saturday to do some shopping.

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Salty Skin and Miserable Bowels come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to unkind misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—no need to lose time or energy. Get a box from any drug store and keep your feeling good for months.

BREAD RATIONING SYSTEM IN GREAT BRITAIN

The bread rations in Great Britain, pounds eight ounces per week, per man engaged in heavy industrial work or in agricultural work to three pounds eight ounces per week per woman unoccupied or in sedentary life. Other rations are as follows for both sexes:

Cereals—12 ounces per week.
Meat—2 pounds per week.
Butter, Margarine, lard, oils and fats—10 ounces per week.
Sugar—8 ounces per week.
Rations included under the head of cereals are oatmeal, rice, tapioca, sago, barley meal, corn flour, maize meal, dried peas, beans and lentils. If the full bread rations are not used the amount saved can be taken in other cereals at the rate of three quarters of a pound of cereals for every pound of bread saved.

Extensive use may be made of fresh vegetables and fruits, and in particular of potatoes which are not included in the rationing scheme. The meat rations include the average amount of bone, which may be taken as one-quarter of the weight of the actual meat. Any parts of meat bought without bone must count for one-quarter of a pound more than the actual weight. The consumption of milk and cheese must be restricted.

In addition to the voluntary movement there are numerous definite regulations. The making of bread is subsidized and rigidly controlled, and it cannot be sold until after it is twelve hours old. Making of light fancy pastries, muffins, crumpets and ornamental cakes and buns is forbidden. All stocks of tea have been purchased by the food controller and are sold at cost. Sugar was issued at the end of December, 1917, and sugar can be bought by every household only upon presentation of the card. There are elaborate regulations in restaurants of the sale of meat, sugar, bread and flour and the amounts and days and hours of sale. An extension to individuals of compulsory rationing for other commodities than sugar is being worked out.

IMPROVING TRACK BETWEEN DALLAS AND BEAUMONT

The following report, taken from the Beaumont Enterprise, will be of interest to the people of this section as we are located on the line:

R. J. Barry of Houston, district superintendent of the Texas & New Orleans railway, spent yesterday in Beaumont, and while here commented on traffic conditions. Mr. Barry said his company was ballasting and otherwise improving its line from Beaumont to Dallas, and that large quantities of freight were being diverted over that division that formerly was handled by other lines. This diversion is in keeping with the "shortest-route" policy adopted under government supervision of the railroads.

Mr. Barry told of the vast amount of new rolling stock required by the roads, some of which is being built and assembled in Houston. He was optimistic as to the future of transportation in this section, and had many interesting things to say with regard to the movement of war freight.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

+++ NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS +++

(By J. E. M.)

San Antonio and Nacogdoches have had numerous instances of connection and association in the long-ago. Such events began about the close of the eighteenth century.

First came personal adventures and individual fortune hunters, coming from various localities, both east and west. But the first really important event worthy of emphasis was the beginning of a permanent settlement of the town about 1776 by a band of people of mysterious origin, under an intelligent leader, probably from Spain via Louisiana, whose name was Gil Y'Barbo. His descendants by the name are living in the county to this day, and they have always held to the tradition that this ancestor had the Stone Fort erected, presumably as the nucleus of a mission, and for defense and general use. Why it was not set by the points of the compass is a puzzle considering how skillfully it was built. This thought also applies to the famous old missions at San Antonio, which are justly the wonder of all who see them.

The Y'Barbo colony had previously been prosperously located at the point where San Augustine, Texas, now flourishes, but had been suddenly forced, by the Spanish authorities, to move west further from the French border. They went via an Indian town of the past which stood near the present site of Liberty, thence to San Antonio, and thence back east to Robinson's Ferry on the Trinity, and finally via the Tejas Indian settlements about Alto and Douglas to Nacogdoches, where they found an abandoned group of temporary dwellings. Here they ceased from their fateful wanderings.

Thus San Antonio and Nacogdoches were next-door neighbors, and there was no other road in Texas, but the Camino del Rey, a mere trail between the two towns.

About the beginning of the nineteenth century the fame of Texas as a land of hope spread abroad and caused a rush of immigrants. A large percentage of these were ambitious adventurers, or fortune-seekers. The Austins, Sam Houston, David Crockett, Travis, Milam, Bowie and Fannin came to Nacogdoches, as did many others of similar type, went to Antonio, while in like manner many San Antonio Mexicans went to Nacogdoches to live and die. The names Montes, Moxa, La Cerda, Menchaca, Martinez, Gonzales, Chirino, (not Chirino) and others were among them. The Americans nearly all returned to Nacogdoches. Later some went to San Antonio. Mrs. L. T. Barret was born there. She was Miss Angelina Thomas, and her father died in San Antonio. He left relatives there, Uncle Jake Lewis and Nathan Wade were in the beginning fights of the Texas revolution which preceded the fall of the Alamo. Sam Houston refused to join at that time, arguing that it would be better to go back east and organize a government and an army. There may have been a tinge of jealousy or rivalry that caused the other leaders to stay and precipitate the trouble. Houston was sensible and cool, as the end proved; the others were rash to the extent of their ruin.

San Antonio uses the names of these noted Texas heroes in the naming of streets. There is a Nacogdoches street which starts from the east side or rear of the original old Alamo grounds, as if it were the original old road. This old road is now the site of the Austin road, so called. And there are some peculiar old Mexican houses on this and other streets. They seem to have been built without floors, with low walls of mortar and stones.

Yes, San Antonio is a quaint old town, and thus shows it is akin to Nacogdoches.

Mr. J. N. Gilbert has returned from a pleasant visit to his sister and other relatives and friends at Kaufman, and feels better for the trip. Mr. Gilbert has not enjoyed as good health as he would like for some time, but his friends will be glad to learn that he is gradually improving, and hopes to soon be as strong as of yore.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. Surely get a small bottle of Keweenaw Danderine from any drug store and get it.

A CENTER MAN RESISTS THE SELECTIVE DRAFT

The following report of a Center man resisting the military selective draft appeared in this week's Center Champion, and is reproduced for the general information it contains.

Matters of unusual occurrence came up here Saturday morning when Grady Hayes, who had been summoned by the local board to appear for entrainment for Camp Travis refused to obey the board's order. The board at once directed that Mr. Hayes be arrested and carried to the Camp by an officer. This action being too late for the train that morning, he and sheriff Swamy left on the afternoon train, via Longview. The case was carried before Judge Russell at Texarkana, Monday, and the local board was sustained.

The case has attracted considerable attention since that time and the Champion feels that in justice to all, that a statement of facts should be here recorded.

Mr. Hayes registered on the 5th of June, 1917, as a single man. He was called for physical examination during the fall. December he was married and in making out his questionnaire he gave this as an exemption, stating fully the reasons therefor. He was, however, placed in class one by the board. On or about February 20 a new ruling by the Provost Marshal was made, wherein it was stated that all cases wherein registrants had married since registration time, that the cases should be reopened and that proof of the fact that they did not marry to evade military service could be submitted. The case was reopened and the board again classed Mr. Hayes as a first class citizen.

Following the action of the court Mr. Hayes expressed himself as being willing to proceed to the service, and those attending the trial returned here.

His counsel, Judge H. B. Short, sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Federal Judge Gordon Russell, of the board, went to Texarkana with Monday, J. W. Shotwell, secretary of the board, went to Texarkana with the records of the board and at the trial it was developed that the young man had secured all rights before the local board and the district board and the court sustained their action. Mr. Hayes then proceeded to Camp Travis for service.

Following the action of the court Mr. Hayes expressed himself as being willing to proceed to the service, and those attending the trial returned here.

UNITED STATES TAKES OVER THE DUTCH SHIPS

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Upon Holland's refusal in the face of German threats to put into effect her voluntary agreement for restoring her merchant marine to normal activity, the United States government tonight requisitioned all Dutch ships in American waters. At the same time Great Britain was taking over Dutch vessels in British ports. A total of 77 ships of probably 600,000 tons was added to the American merchant marine by the requisitioning.

Another 400,000 tons are put into the allied service by Great Britain's action. Most of them will be used in the food carrying trade between the United States and Europe.

President Wilson's proclamation taking over the ships was issued only after word finally came from London that Holland's delayed reply was a rejection of the British demand. The government had waited more than 48 hours beyond the time when Holland had been requested to make a decision as to whether she would carry out the original pact or submit to requisitioning.

Every effort was made to avoid drastic action as transfer by agreement was sought rather than by seizure, although the latter is an exercise of sovereign rights justified in international law and practiced by all nations.

As late as 6 o'clock tonight it was discussed that President Wilson during the day had been informed of the Dutch reply with the request that he indicate whether or not the requisitioning should proceed. He decided to await the formal reply, which proved unacceptable, although under other conditions it might have served as a basis for negotiations.

The president's proclamation was issued immediately authorizing the navy to take over the vessels which will be equipped and operated by the navy department and the shipping board, the Dutch crews being supplemented by American civilian sailors.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday (Wednesday, March 20) and filed the following report with the court, which is self-explanatory, reviewing the business they transacted, and other matters:

Nacogdoches, Texas, March 20, 1918. To the Honorable L. D. Guinn, Judge of the Second Judicial District of Texas:

We, the Grand Jury, empaneled for the February term of the District Court of Nacogdoches County, beg to make now our final report to your honor:

We have been in session eight days, five at our first meeting and three this time. We have returned 18 bills of indictment, being 17 felonies and one misdemeanor. We have diligently made inquiry into every violation of the law, had a great number of witnesses before us, but, while a grand jury can hardly finish its work, we ask now to be finally discharged.

We are glad to say that we find crime diminishing in our county. The greatest number of inquiries have been in bootlegging cases and gaming, but we see that these two violations are on the decline. We heartily enforce the action of our worthy county attorney, Mr. Langston King, for his efficient service and help during our sitting and commend him for his diligence and efficiency.

Oregon, Ill.—I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for an organic trouble which pulled me down until I could not put my foot to the floor and could scarcely do my work, and as I live on a small farm and raise six hundred chickens every year it made it very hard for me.

We have visited and examined the jail and we find it in a fairly good sanitary condition and neatly kept, save and except the bedding. We find some of it that looked old and dilapidated, and we suggest that some improvement might be made there. We found only three prisoners in jail. We will say that we found the tanks of disinfectants in a leaking condition and some had leaked out and was running on the floor. This ought not to be, and could be remedied.

THE VOICE OF SONG.

(By Purvis Spradley)
Singing through the night,
Ages of delight;
The song holds its own,
Calm the summer sea,
Wild the turbulent storm,
You will constantly hear the voice of song.

Through village and country,
Foreign lands divine;
World of happiness and delight,
Constant wandering with the throng,
You will hear the voice of song.
Terrors absolute reign,
Horrs wild and terrible,
Cannot drown the voice of song;
Strangers wandering through distant lands,
Their hearts will lighten as they hear
The calm, sweet voice of song.

Wander far, and wander near,
The world is wide and long,
But wherever you abide,
You will hear the voice of song.
In the trees the winds sing,
On the earth animals sing,
And the joyous happy world,
Letters its vengeance of mighty,
With the voice of song.

It calms the old age,
Sweetens—the path of the new,
Makes life a dream,
Makes you and I strong,
In simplicity's faith.

Our paths may be far apart,
We may part never to meet again,
We will constantly be reminded
Of each other by the voice of song;
Sadness may be felt,
Bad news center around,
All our world will brighten,
At the voice of song.

Powers, strong and numerous,
Against us may abide,
But the voice of song,
With us constantly will abide.

Try This For Sour Stomach.

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly. Eat but little meat and none at all for supper. If you are still troubled with sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets before going to bed.

Mr. D. D. Selman, a well known citizen of Lufkin, was a visitor to the city yesterday, and made this office a pleasant call while here. Mr. Selman is a candidate for tax assessor of his county, and while he was not soliciting votes up here, the neighborly county having not yet been taken over by Nacogdoches county, yet we found him to be such a pleasant, affable gentleman that we have decided to run down to Lufkin and vote for him if the election officers will honor our poll tax receipts.
We wish to thank our visiting friends and neighbors for their interest during the illness and death of our dear husband and father, and should any of you ever meet with such misfortune, may you find the same loving hearts and hands we found. Mrs. Martha Mellwaine and Children.

ANOTHER NACOGDOCHES, CASE.

It Proves That There's a Way Out

For Many Suffering Nacogdoches Folks.

Just another report of a case in Nacogdoches. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Nacogdoches with Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. B. Eaves, Nacogdoches, says: "A dull ache settled right over my hips and the pains bore down on me like a weight and almost wore me out. Sharp, darting pains ran into the back of my neck, causing headaches and spells of dizziness and I had other distressing kidney disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Stripling, Haselwood & Co.'s Drug Store, gave excellent results and I gladly tell other kidney sufferers of my experience so they may have the same good benefits."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Eaves had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Messrs. W. Y. Garrison and J. H. Langston, who have been attending court in the city a day or two, made The Sentinel office a pleasant call this morning, and expressed much admiration with the good printing plant they found in operation. Mr. Garrison as a business man who has numerous industrial enterprises, is quick to see the value of machinery in its relation to saving labor, and was especially interested with our line-type machine which has the capacity to take the place of four or five workmen.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

Mr. E. Chandler was among the Garrison visitors to the city today.

Messrs. J. B. Lilly and W. H. Barr were among the Appleby visitors to the city today.

J. B. Reneau is among the Garrison citizens doing jury service in the city this week.

T. R. Hartt, one of The Sentinel's staunch friends from Garrison, was a pleasant caller at the office today.

Mr. W. P. Barry, a good citizen of the Linn Flat country, was in town today, and honored the office with a pleasant call.

C. T. Simmons, a well known citizen of Appleby, was among those coming to the city this morning to answer summons for jury service in the district court.

Clyde Chatman, who has been enjoying a furlough with the homefolks in the city, returned to Galveston to take up his duties with the soldier boys at Fort Crockett.

The first case to be taken up is a suit of E. W. Spradley vs. the Shreveport Fertilizer Co., which was on trial when this report was gathered.

This is the last week of the court for this term.

Mr. R. T. Weaver of Cedar Hill came in Friday to see his homefolks for a day. His sister Miss Annie

Forgot What He Needed

From the Republican, Mr. Gilad, Ohio. The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when a young gentleman came to this office and asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know" "What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except Chamberlain's. I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lose faith in stores where substituting is permitted to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

Mr. A. A. Snell, a well known oil man of Beaumont, was a visitor to the city today, coming up for a conference with Mr. Cavin in the matter of drilling a well in his new field. Mr. Snell is said to have had a most successful record in extensive drilling operations in the various fields of the country, and Mr. Cavin feels that if he can secure him that it will have much to do in insuring the success of his field.

Mr. J. N. Beasley, a prosperous farmer of the community, in company with two of his nieces, Misses Ada and Ora Burk, were pleasant callers at the office today (Friday) and Mr. Beasley expressed the hope that a good rain was approaching.

Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has stood the test of time and can be depended upon.

places very scarce when in town, now they tell us woman suffrage is very near, so if some of the candidates want our support it will stand them in hand to look around and find more convenient hitching posts.

There is a great deal of sickness around here now. It seems to be of style to have one kind of measles, so of course, we have both. The family of Mr. George Grimes had their share and are now done with them forever. He is now recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Mr. T. E. Burgess' folks have also been on the sick list with measles and Miss Jessie lost several days of teaching on account of them.

The little son of Mr. Tom Rusk died last week and was buried at Shady Grove.

Little David Washburn was brought home from the Tucker sanitarium last week where he was operated on for abscess of the lung.
Mrs. Mamie Pack visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wratten, last week.

There have been many changes since last year. Some have married, some have died, and some of our boys have gone to the war.
We are all trying to raise feedstuff and foodstuff for our country, and help feed our boys in the trenches. While our city folks are giving money we are giving the sweat of our face.

When last in the neighborhood our Methodist pastor, Bro. Brown, spent the night with Mr. Joe Avgy, Bro. Brown will preach at Rusk school house next Saturday night.
Miss Nannie Walker is still at the Smith hospital, studying to be a trained nurse.

Mrs. Foster, mother of Mrs. J. Washburn, died week before last, and was buried at King graveyard.
The little stranger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dale, is doing fine. The fond parents say they are going to name him after our good president. There is also a new arrival at the home of Mr. Harris.

Leonard Popp, a former citizen of this county who is now making his home at Junction City, Ark., has been in the city today. Mr. Popp came down in response to a message announcing the tragic death of his brother Ed. Popp, who lost his life in a railroad accident Saturday.

Upon returning to his school at Hickory Flat Sunday afternoon, Prof. J. B. Stripling stated to the reporter that this week would wind up his term, and that the school would be closed with an entertainment Friday night, to which friends are invited. Prof. Stripling has enjoyed a good school with this community, and the entertainment will doubtless be a most brilliant and enjoyable event.

Mr. J. M. Burns, a prominent planter of Timpson, in company with Mr. Douglas Crow, an automobile dealer of Houston, was a visitor to the city yesterday. Mr. Burns had just purchased a Franklin car, and was getting his first lessons in driving it down here, Mr. Crow instructing him. Mr. Stroud Kelley, cashier of the Cotton Belt Bank of Timpson, came down in the afternoon and accompanied him home.

J. W. Perkins of Mayotown, is in the city today.
