MASS MEETING ATTRACTED A LARGE ATTENDANCE

After Patriotic Speeches, The Nacogdoches County Patriotic League Was Organized

The patriotic pulse of Nacogdoches was sounded last night and it resounded with an energy that is a guarantee of the same red blood that has always flowed through the veins of its citizenship.

Pursuant to call of Hon. J. C. Harris and others, a large crowd assembled in the district court room. In fact, it was the largest crowd that has responded to any public speaking engagement in recent years and very few present seemed filled with enthusiasm in the mission that brought them together.

Mayor Geo. H. Matthews called the meeting to order, introducing Hon. J. C. Harris, who explained the object of the meeting, reviewed the horrors of the war and outlined in the presence of the way of supporting the Liberty Bond, Liberty Stamp and other means of raising money, the Red Cross, Food Conservation, and cooperation in loyalty areas of the municipality.

Mr. Harris, in a speech of high quality and high character, pointed out the necessity of a patriotic organization in this county, which was unanimously adopted, and Mr. Harris was elected temporary chairman and W. S. Davis, temporary secretary.

At this point Judge W. M. King was introduced and he spoke with a most eloquent patriotism, pointing out the danger of which the nation is menaced, that any man who might have any doubts as to the necessity of a patriotic organization, who is a man who

A Word to Our Farmer Friends

Never since you were born has the welfare, not only of our nation, but of the entire civilized world, depended upon American farmers as it does today. Thoughtful men at home and abroad realize the Great War can be won for Democracy and Civilization only in case the farmers of this country produce unusually large crops of food and fibre during 1918.

Nobody doubts that American farmers will do their level best to "stand behind the man behind the gun" by producing the increased yields that will be sorely needed during the coming year and the year after that; but the problem that confronts farmers is, how can they raise larger crops with a reduced supply of farm labor? It can be done in one way only—by substituting up-to-date implements for human muscle wherever possible.

Improved farm implements not only make the farmer's work easier but they enable him to do better work, and more of it, at less cost. They represent a more profitable investment now than ever before because the yields they produce are selling, and will continue to sell, at unprecedented prices. Up-to-date implements are easier for the farmer to buy now than in the past, because their purchase price represents less corn, cotton, peanuts, and live stock than in the year preceding the war.

We sell many types of up-to-date "Farmers Helpers" including Plows, Harrows, Planters, Cultivators, Gasoline Engines, Hay Presses, Mowers, Rakes and numerous other "farm necessities." Let us know what farm implements you or your neighbors need and we will gladly send full information and quote lowest prices possible.

We sincerely hope the products of American farms during 1918 will establish a record both in size and in money value to the producers and that Nacogdoches County farmers "will stay behind the man behind the guns."

Cason, Monk & Co.

Use a Cultivator this year—it will pay and we will guarantee that it will.

WILSON TO SPEAK FOR LIBERTY LOAN

WASHINGTON, April 3. President Wilson today accepted an invitation to speak at the "Liberty Loan Drive" in Baltimore Saturday the first of a series of addresses at American centers to mark the start of the "Liberty Loan Drive" in Baltimore. The president will also review 18,000 troops who are being sent to the front in Europe. The president's address will be broadcast from the White House.

The occasion of the address is the start of the "Liberty Loan Drive" in Baltimore. The president will also review 18,000 troops who are being sent to the front in Europe. The president's address will be broadcast from the White House.

This is our way of saying "Thank you" for your patriotic service. We are offering you a special discount on all our goods during the month of April. This is our way of saying "Thank you" for your patriotic service.

We ask all our friends and customers, whom we believe want to be patriotic, and desire to see our government make a grand success of its every undertaking, to assist in this great need and to help us do our duty. By doing your shopping early in the morning and early in the evening you will not only be helping us do our patriotic duty, but you will be "putting your sholder to the wheel" and helping move the great machinery of DEMOCRACY on to a great triumph and "over the top," putting to rest those who oppose this world-wide need.

Thanking each and every one for all past favors and courtesies and praying that those of every family who have gone out to fight for right, DEMOCRACY, may soon come back to their respective firesides crowned with a victory for this great country of ours.

We are, your friends.

LUFKIN, TEXAS

People who have been over the country lately say that young corn is growing off nicely and that the drought is not hurting as bad as it would seem.

To the Nacogdoches Sentinel: Why don't you send off someone and get a little pep for your town? See what we are doing down here, don't you? Lufkin News.

Excuse us, please. We much prefer the even tenor of our way with everybody loyal to the cause of the country, to a revival of the ancient custom of the whipping post, and while rigid measures may sometimes be necessary, which the law seems too slow and in which people of this section would also lose patience and temper, we pray that the necessity may not come to us. And we will certainly not "send off" to get material for the purpose. You can have all the "pep" of this kind, together with the notoriety it furnishes.

It has leaked to us through our special grape-vine telegraph service that the government will, in all probability, abolish the Nacogdoches postoffice and serve the patrons of that village from Lufkin with a double-daily rural auto service, beginning just as soon as the gravelled road to the river has been completed. We congratulate Nacogdoches. All things come to those who learn to labor and to wait—and that good little town has waited long.—Lufkin News.

That is spontaneous imagination that would do credit to the Kaiser in his mad rush against the allies, and the author should be interned for the duration of the war. If the Ancient Order of Free and Accepted Masons had not taken the Lufkin postoffice in, and given to it a corner in the lower story of their building, through which to keep up with the movements of the Mother Lodge at Nacogdoches, and for the receipt of such other mail as they may need in the affairs of their social and business life, Lufkin would have no postoffice at all, which Nacogdoches has an imposing government building designed especially for the service in which to keep the mail for herself and her neighbors. The only thing in which Lufkin excels is her standpipe and we can't understand why she will not stick to the text.

The Jacksonville Daily Progress announces that it has made application for membership with the Associated Press and the Lufkin Daily News is pleading with its patrons for a patronage to justify it in the forward step. In the meantime The Sentinel is today in receipt of blank application for membership, blank bond, etc., which it hopes to have properly filled out and forwarded within the next few days, and thus it now looks as though all East Texas will soon be getting its news hot off the wires, the next minute from the scene of action, which is in keeping with the spirit of evolution. A few years ago we printed our papers on hand presses and the progressive press was thought to be making a great advancement. The folding machine was the next good improvement, and at last came the linotype machine which sets the type as fast as a stenographer can write the copy on a typewriter. The last thing left for us is to get the news by wire, and when we do this we will be in a class with our progressive neighbors of the cities, enabling the smaller cities which have already become used to the other modern improvements the same advantages enjoyed by the larger places.

The Sentinel is very grateful to the many friends of the paper who have already expressed their desire to cooperate in any way in their power with our effort to get a telegraph news service. Nothing is too good for such loyal, noble people, and The Sentinel promises here and now that it will spare no effort to adjust its affairs so that it will not only be able to give the readers of the paper news while it is news, but will furnish a better advertising medium for the patrons of this department of the paper by reason of the increasing interest it will enlist with the better service, and the greater circulation. Beginning on the first of the coming month, which will be next Monday, a representative of the paper will make a systematic canvass of the town, followed with a canvass of the rural routes, in which all will be invited to pay up their arrears, if they are in the "red," and some advance subscription if they feel able, which will be put into a fund for the support of the better service. As soon as enough money is secured—and we have no doubt that it will be forthcoming—the contract will be closed with the Associated Press for one year's telegraph news service and you will get your war news at home at the same time they are getting it in Houston and other large places.

SAPP GIVEN 99 YEARS IN TRIAL AT BRYAN

The Sentinel today has the following to say from the Beaumont Enterprise: Sapp from the Beaumont Enterprise kept a correspondent at Bryan and a reporter in closer touch with the details.

A verdict of guilty and the assessment of punishment as ninety-nine years in the penitentiary marked the end of the trial of E. E. Sapp at Bryan, late yesterday afternoon. Notice of a trial was given.

Sapp was charged by grand jury indictment in Liberty county with complicity in the murder of his wife on November 7, 1914, in the "Big Thick cut," the case having been before the public for more than two years. Sapp, who is about 35 years old, married Mrs. Ellen I. Partain, aged about 60 years. She was wealthy.

The case which has just closed was in the Eighty-fifth district court, presided over by Judge H. S. Morehead, in whose court the case was set for March 4, but did not go to trial for several days due to efforts of the defense to gain further time.

In the case just closed Lou Sapp, brother to E. E. Sapp, was subpoenaed as a witness, not being a defendant. In the previous Sapp cases both brothers were tried on a murder charge growing out of the death of Dick Watts. At Bryan was the first time E. E. Sapp's case actually had been brought to trial. All witnesses who had testified in the previous Sapp case were summoned.

The first evidence in this case was introduced on March 11. The case went to the jury yesterday morning and the verdict was brought in at 5 p. m.

Sapp, according to word received from Bryan, accepted the verdict without a quiver of a muscle. He paced a little when the clerk read the sentence and leaned forward in his chair to speak a few words to one of his attorneys. But there was no show of emotion. The defendant seemed tired and weary of the whole proceeding.

Sapp will remain in jail at Bryan while his attorneys endeavor to secure another trial.

FEED YOURSELF.

No greater campaign was ever inaugurated than the one now being promoted to encourage the people of this county to grow something with which to feed themselves this year. A campaign of this kind would be good for us at any time, but it is especially important at this time when the world is starving and the word comes down to the line to the effect that we must feed ourselves if we eat.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

Every man should have at least one wife and one garden. He should provide his wife with all of the tools necessary to properly cultivate the garden. And, if need be, he should help her make that garden a success. We must feed ourselves or face a possibility of not being fed. Food is at a premium now and not becoming easier to obtain to any noticeable degree. And the price isn't the only thing which is making food hard to get. There may come a time in the not too distant future when the man of millions will be unable to buy all he wants to eat. You can do it on that vacant lot and exercise will do your wife good.—Beaumont Enterprise.

A BARRAGE.

The newspapers, in chronicling the daily war happenings at the front make frequent mention of the barrage fire; few, however, really understand what constitutes a barrage. The following extract explanatory of the meaning of the word will likely prove of interest to our readers: "A barrage is a protective wall or curtain of fire placed in front of infantry advancing to the attack until they have reached their final objective, and made it secure. The distance the shells are thrown by the batteries is accurately timed so that the curtain moves forward only so fast as the line of soldiers. If the soldiers move too fast, they overtake their own barrage and therefore, the attack is generally timed to a walk across 'No Man's Land.' Shrapnel is the usual shell employed in barrage, each shell bursting about ten feet above the earth and throwing the shrapnel bullets forward about 200 yards. This makes it impossible for the enemy to rush to meet the attack."—Ex.

MOSS ADAMS TO MANAGE COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Nacogdoches, Texas, March 27th, 1918. To the Democrat Voters of Nacogdoches county:

I have been asked by the friends of Governor Hobby to act as chairman for this county in his race for governor, and in accepting this, I felt that he could have gotten others that would have done him more good, but that is not now the question, as I have been appointed and have accepted, and in doing so I accepted for myself and my friends, and I want your help.

In agreeing to accept the chairmanship for the governor in this county, I realize that during these strenuous times, we should lay aside as much partisanship as possible, and do that which will be best for the whole people of Texas, the United States and our allies.

Now is no time for political stews, pow-wows or washing time for dirty linens, but we should, collectively as one individual, enter into the selection of a Governor that will do that which is for betterment of the whole state and her interests.

The citizens of Nacogdoches county are very fortunate, as we are in the midst of plenty, having just gathered a bumper crop and the same was marketed for a fancy price and our bank deposits show that there is plenty of money yet among us; on every hand there are evidences of our prosperity and growth, as on every hill-top there stands a modern school that points to our growth in educational lines; then again in traveling through the county viewing these schools you travel in the shadow of the wires of the telephone that make neighbors of strangers of a few years ago; and again through the fields where these wires run there are facts that show you that our farming class have struck a rapid pace and are using modern equipments; once again we have four newspapers in our county that scatter the news of the day and week from town to town and from border to circumference, and these are papers that would do credit to the big cities; and then lastly you see going into every portion of this county rural mail service that equips the people living in the towns as to what is going on in the world, and through this medium is circulated throughout the latest style books and you see now in the rural districts the very latest styles and tastes.

Governor Hobby has the good will and esteem of the people of Texas and during the last special session of the legislature aided in the writing of more good laws than for the past 10 years, as for instance, statutory prohibition, zone laws, prohibiting sale of whiskey to soldiers, vice laws, woman suffrage, etc.

In passing all these good laws, Gov. Hobby has laid aside partisan politics and is doing all he can to promote the general upbuilding of the state and in doing this he is aiding in a very material way to make it a factor in the winning of the war; as he had at all times shown a willingness to do whatever would help in promoting laws to safeguard the citizen and soldier in these trying times, as on the 21st inst. Governor Hobby signed state-wide prohibition bill, making Texas dry from center to the outmost edge, and in signing this bill said that he left the constitutionality to the courts of the country, as the will of the people as expressed through their representatives, showed to be overwhelmingly for state wide prohibition and that he would not let personal views override the people's wishes through their representatives expressed.

And again in approving the Woman's suffrage bill, Gov. Hobby at one stroke of his pen has done more towards making Texas fit to live in than any other governor, as the women will insure clean politics and those who are not clean need not offer, as the suffragists are going to vote on principles and not men, and this is what has been needed for so these many years, and if nothing else had been done by the governor this alone will commend him to the good citizenship of this state, as there is no argument to answer the question, but that what is good for men is also good for the women, and then we can always rely on the women doing those things which will better the state and society, and when you hear some one howling against woman suffrage he's away behind or is afraid to come out in the open with his views, and the only regret that I have is that we did not have it years ago to clean Texas at one sweep and not have had to wait so long for it to come.

It is to be regretted that every voter in the county will not have the privilege of knowing Gov. Hobby before voting time and having had an opportunity to hear him in person give his views on the issues, but this is impossible, as this is such a big state and at this time the duties of the governor's office on the account of the war will keep him at Austin, as it is not possible for him to be away from the capital for any length of time, therefore his friends must look after his campaign.

In accepting the chairmanship for the governor in this county, I did it believing that Gov. Hobby's record was such that any citizen unless prejudiced, could heartily endorse his stand on all issues, and especially his work at the last special session of the legislature, and in this campaign Gov. Hobby's friends shall rely on the voters-suffragans and suffragists to read the issues and vote for the man that will best fill the governor's chair, and we shall be satisfied, as all we ask is to keep in mind that which is best for the state. In conclusion, asking my friends to do what they can for Gov. Hobby, and if you have any suggestion to let me hear from you, I am,
MOSS ADAMS,
Chairman.

Disciples Emergency Drive. (Contributed) The Disciples of Christ in this country find war conditions precipitating an emergency of serious nature upon all their eleemosynary work. Their leaders are moving strongly to meet the situation.

At this writing, State Conferences are in progress. A team of eighteen missionaries, college presidents and missionary leaders is touring the country and creating wonderful enthusiasm. Their hearts are in this drive.

People are stirred to the depths. A pastor in the middle west said, "I have always been a conscientious worker, but as I look back my ministry seems as nothing in comparison with what it should have been. I realize more keenly than ever that I stand between a suffering Christ and a sorrowing, sinful world. Henceforth, no occasion is unimportant, no service insignificant."

Business men are attending the conferences in large number, and everywhere they are a bulwark of strength. They stand for large measures. They urge vigorous and immediate prosecution of the task. The chief women are present in every conference. There is but one voice from them, it is for complete consecration and for untiring service.

State apportionments have been made. They are larger than anything the church ever faced before, but they are received in a spirit of devoted courage. Reports already in give promise of success. A western church has already secured pledges aggregating five times their total missionary gifts of last year. This is but one of many rays of hope already apparent. The Disciples in this state have held a stirring conference and are already organizing and prosecuting a campaign to reach every member of every church in the state.

The Emergency Drive contemplates the raising of $2,250,000 before June first to reach the goal of the Mea and Millions Movement, $5,200,000, and to provide an extra million or more for the immediate relief of the war emergency.

A LADY HELPER FOR THE LIBERTY LOAN.

Mrs. Claud De Van Watts, special representative of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee, who is assisting in perfecting the organization throughout the state, was in the city yesterday meeting with the workers of this great cause and assisting in getting an organization worked out.

The National Liberty Loan Committee was appointed by Secretary McAdoo and his wife, Elinor Wilson McAdoo, who was elected chairman. This committee in turn appointed a chairman in each of the twelve Federal Reserve districts, and state chairmen in every state in the union who in turn appointed the county chairmen.

During the last Liberty Loan campaign the women had organizations in 181 counties, from many of whom the department received excellent reports.

The women ask your co-operation, and express the hope that the Woman's Liberty Loan Committee will be an aid in securing an oversubscribed quota in the Third Liberty Loan campaign.

Mrs. Z. T. Mast has been appointed chairman for Nacogdoches county. Mrs. Mast has put aside many duties to accept this very important appointment.

Mr. June Harris, county chairman, welcomes a woman's committee, and states that the co-operation in Nacogdoches county will go "over the top" in the third Liberty Loan campaign.

HON. EARLE B. MAYFIELD WITHDRAWS FROM RACE

AUSTIN, Texas, March 26.—Earl B. Mayfield tonight announced his withdrawal from the race of governor. On October 1, in a speech at Tyler, Mr. Mayfield made the proposition to Governor Hobby that if the governor would convene the legislature in special session at once and submit legislation that would absolutely close every saloon and brewery in the state, he would withdraw from the race for governor.

"I wanted to see the time come in our state when a man could be elected on account of his ability and not on account of his friendship for the brewers," said Mr. Mayfield in his announcement of withdrawal. "that time has come and I am ready to make good my part of the proposition which I made in the Tyler speech."

COUNTY RECEIVES MONEY FROM HIGHWAY COMMISSION

County Treasurer W. Y. Hall yesterday received a check from the Highway Commission for $998.51, as the county's part of the automobile tax. This money is passed to the credit of the fund for construction of public highways, and will be of some help. The remittance does not double the remittance for the half year reported last year, and since there are really more cars instead of less in the county, the fact is apparent that some automobile owners have forgotten to pay their tax.

THE GREAT WAR HAS MADE CIGARETTES A NECESSITY.

"Our boys must have their smokes. Send them cigarettes!" This is a familiar appeal now to all of us.

Among those most in demand is the now famous "toasted" cigarette—LUCKY STRIKE. Thousands of this favorite brand have been shipped to France. There is something homelike and friendly to the boys in the sight of the familiar green packages with the red circle.

This homelike, appetizing quality of the LUCKY STRIKE cigarette is largely due to the fact that the Burley tobacco used in making it has been toasted. "It's toasted" was the "slogan" that made a great success of LUCKY STRIKE in less than a year. Now the American Tobacco Co. is making 15 million LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes a day.

A good part of this immense production is making its way across the water to cheer our boys. The Red Cross has distributed thousands of LUCKY STRIKE Cigarettes.

It shows that Swift & Company sells the meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost!

Proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat, and other by-products covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and the profit of $1.29 per steer as shown by Swift & Company's 1917 figures as follows:

Average price paid for live cattle per steer	$84.45
Average price received for meat	68.97
Average price received for by-products	24.09
Total received	93.06
This leaves for expenses and profit	8.61
Of which the profit per steer was	1.29

WOMEN CONTROL TOWN'S DESTINY

Can Make or Break a Community Through Exercise of Their Buying Power.

THEY HOLD PURSE STRINGS

It is Estimated That at Least 80 Per Cent of Retail Purchasing is Done by Feminine Shoppers.

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.)
It has been said that the hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rules
the world and nowhere is this more literally true than in the world of trade. The woman is the purchasing agent of the household and man, as a rule, is very glad to have her handle
the job.

It has been estimated by some students of the merchandising game that 80 per cent of all retail buying is done by women. This may be a high estimate but a visit to the retail stores of any town or city is enough to convince one that the figures are not too high. The preponderance of women among the buyers is sufficient, at any rate, to make not only the retailer but the manufacturer and the wholesaler realize that it is the women that they must please with their merchandise.

Because they do by far the greater part of the buying in any community, the women have a responsibility that they do not always appreciate. The women of a town, through their buying power, can make or break the merchants of a town and as a natural consequence they can make or break the town. It is in their power to make it a prosperous town or a dead town.
When the women of a town acquire the mail order habit, the town may just as well begin making arrangements for its own obsequies.

Hard to Understand.
Just why a woman, who is a shopper by instinct and a shrewd judge of values in merchandise, should succumb to the lure of the mail order house it is difficult to understand but, unfortunately, some of them do. No one knows better than the woman who has had some experience in the buying of merchandise how difficult it is to distinguish between the genuine and the imitation even after a close inspection. The good shopper, when on buying bent, does not always take the first article that is offered for inspection. In fact this is the exception rather than the rule. The merchants know it and expect it. They expect a woman, if she is a good shopper, to "look around a little."

If a woman should walk into a retail store and purchase the first suit that she tried on, for instance, the shopkeeper would probably be fatal to the storekeeper or the saleswoman.
The chances are that she will try on a dozen suits, look at as many more before she selects one that suits her taste or pocketbook, and the storekeeper not only expects but wishes her to do this. He wishes her to be satisfied as he knows that a satisfied customer is the best advertisement that he can obtain.

Taking a Chance.
This same woman, however, may order a suit from a mail order house on the strength of nothing more than a pretty picture and an alluring description. She has not even the opportunity to try it on, to say nothing of the chance of examining the fabric, noting the exact shade of the material and inspecting the workmanship. She is taking chances on the suit fitting her,
on the material being good and durable, the shade becoming to her and the workmanship of such a character that the suit will not fall to pieces.
The woman who takes such chances cannot be called a shrewd shopper.

It might be more easily understood why mere men, unaccustomed and averse, as a rule, to shopping excusions, should fall a victim to the catalogue habit. He might find it easier to order from the picture in the catalogue than to go to a store and look for the article that he wanted or he might take the position that he wouldn't know what he was getting anyway if he went to the store and he might as well take a chance on the mail order gamble, but why the woman who knows what she wants and knows that she is getting what she wants when she gets it should buy on the "sight unseen" plan—well, that's another question altogether.

Woman's Greatest Opportunity.
Women are taking a more and more prominent part in public affairs all the time. They are aiding now in many parts of the country in gaining the affairs of state. Even where they do not have the ballot they are playing a big part, individually and through their organizations, in the conduct particularity of local governments, yet in the one field where they can do most to help build up their communities
they may be overlooking their opportunity. With the buying power in their hands they can do more for their community by steadily supporting

THE MEAT MARKETS MAY RESUME SALES NOW

The lifting of the Food Administration ban upon the use of meat on Tuesday, throws wide open the use of meat in all forms to the American public for the next thirty days. Administrator Peden sends the following message on the restoring of Tuesday to a meat consuming day to the meat market men and butchers of Texas:

To the Meat Market Men and Butchers of Texas:
"Effective, Tuesday, April 2, 1918,
the restrictions placed upon the sale of meat by all public caterers and distributors is lifted for a period of thirty days; and all Butchers and distributors of meats may resume business on Tuesdays as heretofore.

"I wish to thank the Butchers and meat distributors of Texas for their voluntary act of closing their shops upon Tuesdays, and now ask that they hold themselves in readiness to return to a program of closed stores and shops upon Tuesdays, and now ask that they hold themselves in readiness to return to a program of closed stores and shops when the Administration
again finds a new emergency exists.
I would ask that the butchers and meat distributors maintain their organizations, created for the purpose of co-operating with the Food Administration, and that they regard the period of thirty days not as a Holiday, or a departure from the general principle of conservation of all foods, because the need of economy in America is greater than ever."
"E. A. PEDEN,
Federal Food Administrator for Texas."

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look, Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour-bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.
Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative.
Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.
Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Mothers of Texas, Prepare!

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman passes through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress often caused by severe organic disturbances. Many women in Texas would testify just as do the following:

WHEATLESS DAYS —OPTIONAL IN HOMES

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The food administration gave notice today that in stating that wheatless days were optional in private homes it intended none of the restrictions on consumption of wheat products.

"The food administrator," an official says, "is merely asking the American people to reduce their per capita consumption to not more than one and one-half pounds per week. If this can be done without the observance of wheatless meals or wheatless days, the food administration will consider that its request is being observed."

If I Were a Farmer.
If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious
as to require the attention of a physician, such as Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup.

Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.

This would require an outlay of only $1.10. By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.

Farmers and others who live at a distance from a drug store should keep in the house a bottle of BAL-LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It may be needed at any time for cuts, wounds, sores, sprains or rheumatism. It is a powerful healing and penetrating remedy. Price 25c, 50c,

CAMP TRAVIS

Private Ben Lawson spent last week with friends in Appleby and reports a nice time.

Private Thomas B. Berryhill returned this morning from Muhl, Texas where he visited homefolks and relatives.

Corporal Wm. N. Booty is a pleasant caller on Lower Hts, tonight.

Private Chas. W. Haney is on the sick report this week.

From the way Corporal George W.
Wessels is staying on his job we think he will soon have his squad trained well enough to get the Kaiser.

Private Clarence Matthews has been transferred to the 345th Field Artillery. He recently graduated from the teamsters school and will probably be appointed to that grade in his new organization.

Corporal Frederick Ford, Co. 56, 156th depot brigade, Camp Travis,
has been promoted to the rank of sergeant. Sergeant Ford and his parents reside at Nacogdoches.

The following men whose home is in Nacogdoches have been recommended for promotion:

Private Joseph C. Lee, recommended for sergeant.

Private Earl W. Williams, recommended for corporal.

Private Homer C. Blackburn, recommended for corporal.

These men have made very rapid progress and are well qualified to fill the positions which they are recommended.

There is a decidedly erroneous impression among many that a special permit is necessary to visit the camp.
This is not the case. The authorities at Camp Travis are desirous that the persons interested in the camp and the soldiers visit them when possible that they may see American soldiers in the making, that they may see the benefits accruing to those persons who are citizens of a democratic country.

Owing to the crowded condition of hotels, boarding houses and rooming houses in San Antonio, it is to the interests of those contemplating visits to have their friends or relatives engage accommodations for them before they arrive. The soldiers are drilling every day except Wednesday and Saturday afternoons and Sundays.

SURGEONS agree that in cases of cuts, Burns, Bruises and Wounds, the FIRST TREATMENT is most important. When an EFFICIENT antiseptic danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man gency. Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $1.50.

George W. Flournoy, who has been with the Wagoner's Headquarters, 345th Machine Co., was in the city today, en route to his home in Chireno, where he goes to visit relatives and friends a few days. Mr. Flournoy recently suffered a long illness in the course of which he has developed a light attack of tuberculosis, and he was given an honorable discharge from the service. After a little visit home he will go to a higher climate to make his home. He regrets very much to have to abandon the service of his country just at this time.

Do You Sleep Well?

Cold Settled In His Back

"Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief."—Ed Veltou, Rogera, Neb.

Ed Veltou, of Rogera, Neb., writes:
"I have used Foley Kidney Pills for backache, the result of catching cold which settled in my back. Foley Kidney Pills always give me prompt relief and I can cheerfully recommend them."

The reason Foley Kidney Pills act
so satisfactorily is because they naturalize and dissolve the poisonous waste matter that remains in the blood because the kidneys do not do their work properly in filtering and casting out from the system uric acid and other poisons.

Relief usually follows in a few days and such symptoms as pain in the sides or back, stiff joints, sore muscles, rheumatism, too frequent action of the bladder at night, and other painful and annoying ailments disappear. Foley Kidney Pills contain no harmful ingredients. They are safe as well as quick acting.

Mr. W. H. Wood arrived home today from Marlin, where he went to be ficiently improved to be able to return

tures of his extended visit, he says that he did not know what a good pa-

For Bilious Troubles.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness

FLOUR REGULATION.

Households shall adopt maximum ration of wheat flour, (or its wheat equivalent contained in such wheat products as victory bread, macaroni, wheat breakfast cereals, etc.) of one and one half pounds of wheat flour per person per week.

Observance of wheatless days and meals will aid households in meeting this new requirement, but are no longer obligatory.

For the next thirty days, beginning April 1st, the meatless day regulations are entirely suspended.

Although wheatless days and meals are optional in households they remain obligatory in all public eating places and clubs.

The "Daylight Saving" arrangement fit in so automatically and smoothly that it adjusts itself to the better conditions and manifests its wisdom from the outset.

And now its strawberries. Those good old strawberry short cakes "like mother used to make" will taste mighty good in these days of war pestilence and wheat famine. Just to admonish you: be mighty careful of the wheat and sugar which goes to make up a delicious short cake.

The Sentinel greatly appreciates the encouragement it is receiving in its ambition to give the town a real representative title daily with all the advantages of the metropolitan papers in the metropolitan towns, and if the signs of the times do not fail, we goods" within the next few days.

When the Americans get there—on the battle front—the news will be more interesting to both us and the enemy whom they are marching against. They are ready, fit and fine, for the fray, and as Judge Middlebrook so aptly put it in his address last night, wherever the American soldiers go there is a tale to be told.

Some one suggested that "Behind every dark cloud there was a silver lining." The headline reports of our big dailies of the past few days must be that silver lining. The great German drive of last week, which had us all standing on our nerves has vanished into the distance and now as the allies press on to certain victory we see the silver lining, beautiful in all of its grandeur. May the lining grow more "silvery."

The money we are now investing in war saving certificates and liberty bonds will come back to us next fall for our surplus produce and cotton, together with accrued interest as well as the inflated prices. These are great times for the farmers and business world, and in appreciation of them every man should put his shoulder to the wheel and do his utmost to profit by them, both for the service he can render his country in so doing, and for the increase it will bring to his own prosperity.

Three more days and the great Third Liberty Loan Drive is on. We suggest now that you begin counting out your change and make ready to assist in this great drive for humanity. It may be that one man among us could be found who would be able to take the full Nacogdoches county allotment, but the better report and the one which would speak loudest against Kaiserism would be a report showing that seven thousand five hundred citizens had each taken a fifty dollar bond. Let us get together on this big drive.

Pretty soon, maybe, the Nacogdoches people will be waiting at the train every day for the first editions of the Lufkin News, carrying Associated Press accounts of the big battles and other important news. O, boy, won't that be fine—for Nacogdoches.—Lufkin News.

Mistaken again, my dear Alphonse. The Sentinel started this idea for real A. P. stuff, and is as busy as the proverbial cranberry merchant working out the details for inauguration of the service. The good people of old Nacogdoches are rallying to its support, as they do for every worthy enterprise, and The Sentinel will have a news stand in the shadow of the Lufkin stamper before our boastful neighbor gets its preliminary application on file. Come to Nacogdoches.

KEEP ON INVESTING.
Buy some war saving certificates and get ready for the next Liberty loan. Those who have been spared from actual service in the great war, and in further appreciation that our homes and women and children are not exposed to German ruthlessness, should be inspired with so great appreciation that they would invest every dollar they can get hold of, and make any further sacrifice necessary to preserve the blessings we enjoy.—Nacogdoches Sentinel.

If every person in Texas would buy just as many war saving stamps and liberty bonds as he feels it his duty to buy and then would double his purchases, we might make a showing as good as the Lone Star State ought to make. But there are too many persons who think that they have done their full duty if they buy one liberty bond and invest twenty-five cents in thrift stamps. We must get away from this policy of pinching if we are to become known as a community or state that boasts a policy of patriotism.—Beaumont Enterprise.

THE BLACK DEATH.

Houston Chronicle.
There are too many people trying to make themselves and others believe that the world is passing through an unprecedented period of suffering. More than one blatant voice is being raised to announce that Christianity has broken down; that humanity is near the end of its rope, and that modern civilization is about to go up in one grand sheet of spontaneous combustion.

This appeal to morbid emotionalism is not only unwarranted, but extremely dangerous, because it is far more likely to unbalance ignorant and superstitious minds, and thus create the opportunity for widespread confusion than is the purely physical shock of war.

In the year 1334 there was a terrible plague in China, which tradition attributes to an extraordinary combination of flood and drought. For the next 12 or 15 years Asia and Europe were subjected to the most singular weather conditions—some writers going so far as to declare that the atmosphere of the later continent actually stunk.

In 1345 China was scourged with a second plague in which 13,000,000 people are said to have perished. This plague swept over the Himalayas, through India, Persia, Arabia, Armenia, Mesopotamia, and finally into Mediterranean countries. Pope Clement was informed that 24,000,000 died in Western Asia alone.

In 1347 the plague appeared in Italy, France and Spain, ravaging Germany and England a year later. City after city went down before the fearful malady. London was reached and withered within three months after it struck the British coast. Florence was literally depopulated; Paris 100,000; Constantinople was reduced by two-thirds, while the death rate in Cairo ran as high as 15,000 a day. Dupuy estimates that upward of 75,000,000 died throughout the world in a period of four years, while Hecker thinks that Europe alone lost 25,000,000, or one-fourth of its population.

The mental shock was necessarily profound. Fanatical preachers interpreted the affliction as a curse of God and people fled to ecstaticism for consolation and relief. Self-inflicted torture grew popular as a means of repentance and purification, and the sect or more properly, perhaps the obsession of the flagellants sprung into being. Contrition became an all inspiring purpose. Not only was private business neglected, but both state and church were threatened with inattention. Men, women and children flogged themselves publicly and persistently in an ecstasy of zeal to assuage the divine wrath.

The Jewish race was singled out for persecution, because it was thought to embody the spirit of anti-Christ. At Strassburg 2000 Jews were burned on a great scaffold erected in their cemetery. At Mayence 12,000 were done to death. Princes and noblemen seized upon the excuse, which such an occasion seemed to offer, and encouraged this awful treatment in order to gain plunder. The Jews became crazed with the idea of martyrdom, and in many instances like that of Elsingon, burned themselves in their own synagogues.

Meanwhile the religious ecstasy went raging forward, from whipping to contortions, and from contortions to hysteria, until in 1374 the so-called dancing mania broke out to carry off still other thousands in a form of insanity, which has puzzled psychologists for the past four centuries.

We who think we are living in such a terrible age, or that there is no risk in getting morbid and losing our poise, will do well to remember such things as these and take warning. The plague of the black death was tragic in itself, much more tragic than the present war, but the awful consequences to which it led, largely because men lost their heads, were still more tragic.

DIGEST OF NEW STATUTE PUNISHMENT FOR DISLOYALTY

Following is a brief digest of the new statute defining and providing a punishment for disloyalty. This law is now in full force and effect:

Any person who, when the United States is at war, uses language concerning the United States or its territory or continuance in the war, or concerning the armed forces of the United States, or its flag, or the uniform of its army officers, which is disloyal or abusive and calculated to bring the same into disrepute, or is calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, is guilty of a felony.

Any person who, when the United States is at war, writes or prints in any manner or in any language any of the things denounced as unlawful in the first section is guilty of a felony. Any person who, publicly or privately, mutilates, defaces, defiles, defies, tramps upon or in any way casts contempt upon the flag of the United States or any of its officers is guilty of a felony.

Any person who, when the United States is at war, knowingly displays or has in his possession for any purpose any flag, standard, color, ensign or coat of arms of any nation with which the United States is at war or any political division thereof is guilty of a felony.

If an offense under this act be committed in the presence of an officer or in view of a magistrate, arrests may be made without warrant and any officer may stop the unlawful words or acts.

Prosecution under the act may be where the offense is committed or in Travis county.

It is the duty of every person who hears, sees, or knows of any violation of this act to immediately report it to an officer and it is the duty of such officer to forthwith cause the arrest of the guilty party.

Punishment in each case is from two to ten years in the penitentiary.

FARM LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

Applications for charters for forty-eight National Farm Loan Associations are pending and are being granted as they meet conditions required by law to wit: when a group of farmers composed of ten or more apply for loans that are approved and accepted for $20,000 or more. Loans are now being closed at the rate of $1,500,000 per month. Rate of interest is 5 1/2 per cent, payable semi-annually. One per cent added annually operates to discharge the loan, principal and interest in 34 1/2 years, with the option to the borrower to pay part or all of loan after five years.

To be eligible to borrow, the applicant must be a farmer residing on the farm, or if residing elsewhere, farming and stockraising must be his principal business, and the farm be operated personally, or by hired labor. Farmers needing the facilities of this bank during the summer, or to take up and extend land notes maturing in the fall, should join an association, or organize one in the territory where no association is now in operation, and send in applications during the spring and summer, to the end that appraisements can be made, loans accepted and titles examined before the money is needed, and thus avoid any delay in taking up and extending loans.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston has closed loans to date to the amount of $6,100,000.

Nacogdoches county has two Farm Loan Associations organized—at Garrison and Nacogdoches.

Nacogdoches has had about $30,000 closed and approximately $100,000 pending.

FIRST WOODEN SHIP TO BE NAMED NACOGDOCHES

Houston Post.
"Nacogdoches" is the name which has been selected for the first wooden vessel to be launched on the Houston ship channel for the Emergency Fleet corporation of the United States shipping board. The name was selected by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, the first lady of the land.

This is the ship to be launched Saturday by the Universal shipbuilding company as part of its flag-raising day ceremonies. It will be the most notable event which has occurred in the development of Houston as a deep water port in many, many days.

Miss Nina Cullinan, daughter of J. S. Cullinan, president of the Chamber of Commerce, has been accorded the honor of being selected to sponsor the 3500-ton vessel.

The flag raising program at the Midland Bridge company's yard will commence at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, according to present arrangements. Following the ceremonies there, the party of officials and invited guests will proceed to the Universal yard, where the flag raising program will start at 4 o'clock.

District Superintendent Charles N. Crowell, of the fleet corporation has been in Washington, but is expected back in the city in time to participate in the exercises. Similar exercises will be held in all the shipyards in the country where the government vessels are being built. To date 17 wooden ships have been launched.

GERMANS COMBINE INDUSTRIAL PLANTS

AMSTERDAM, March 20.—(By Mail)—A leading German manufacturer, writing in the Norddeutsche, Allgemeines Zeitung, says:

"Out of 1700 spinning and weaving mills only 70 are still running at high pressure, while in the boot and shoe industry 1400 factories have been amalgamated into 300. In the oil industry 15 factories working at high pressure have been formed out of 720 works previously existing. In the silk industry the number of spindles has been reduced from 45,000 to 2500."

FRENCH OFFICIAL ESTIMATE OF GERMAN LOSSES IS 300,000

WASHINGTON, April 1.—A French official estimate of the German losses in the great battle on the western front puts their total casualties as between 275,000 and 300,000 men. The Germans are sending most of their wounded to Belgium, it is declared, to conceal from the German people their heavy sacrifices.

It has been possible to identify, the dispatch says, nearly 100 German divisions, more than 10 of which were twice engaged. Some of the divisions, it is declared, had to be relieved at the end of the first day after losing more than half of their men.

After an 11-days offensive, during which the Germans have recklessly pushed forward their attacking waves, one may gather a fairly accurate estimate of their losses.

In the first place it has been possible to identify nearly 100 of their divisions since the beginning of the offensive, more than 10 of which were twice engaged. Several divisions had to be relieved at the end of the first day, having lost more than half their men. Such was the case of the 45th and 88th. The latter has been really entirely wiped out. Among those that suffered the most are the 5th, 12th, 28th and 107th divisions, as well as the 2nd (Prussian Guard), the 16th, 21st and 66th divisions of reserves.

In the second place, an enormous number of corpses were found on the battle ground and the prisoners on being questioned acknowledged the extent of the losses of their respective units.

To conceal from the German people the heavy sacrifices that their offensive methods required, the Germans are sending most of their wounded to Belgium. It is not an exaggeration to estimate the total of their losses at between 275,000 and 300,000 men.

U. S. TROOPS RUSHING TO THE BATTLE FRONT

The beginning of April, a month whose dates are written large on the pages of American history, finds the soldiers of the United States hastening to take their place in the zone of the fiercest fighting. There have been American troops involved in the struggle since the morning of March 23, but General Pershing is now leading more than 100,000 of his men, but just how many is yet unknown, to a point assigned to them by General Foch, the leader of the Allied armie sin France. These men may even now be in the battle line and America waits news from them with confidence that they will compare well with the veterans of France and Great Britain. A report from General Pershing to the war department states that the situation along the battle line is improved. He did not give any information regarding the movement of his troops.

BRANDS REPORT FALSE.

To the Sentinel:
I understand that there is a report being circulated about Nacogdoches that I pulled my gun during the school contests recently pulled off in your city.

I did not pull my gun on any one at any time, during the contests—I would be glad the good citizens of Nacogdoches would investigate—but did all I would to adjust matters while I was on the ground.

This is some campaign "dope" and nothing more than could be expected, and is now being circulated by sympathizers of those recently defeated in some civil suits which were tried in the district court recently, against me for false imprisonment.

I do not expect to be drawn into any "mud slinging" contests. What this county needs is a clean campaign by all candidates, and I stand on my own record, and have no ill feeling against any who oppose me. In fact, I will, if elected sheriff, give enemies the same service as those who assist me; in an official way everybody looks alike to me.

With the kindest feeling towards all, I am,

Very sincerely,
T. G. VAUGHT,
(adv. dw.) Candidate for Sheriff.

NEXT OFFENSIVE MAY BE AIMED AT ITALY

VIENNA, via London April 1.—On the lower Pave in the Asiago region and the Laghi basin, Italian reconnoitering thrusts were repulsed, according to an official statement by the war office.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Imminent danger of an attack by the Austrians in great force upon the Italian lines was emphasized today at the Italian embassy. Recently the embassy published a statement that no less than 40 divisions had been gathered by the enemy along the battle lines and now information comes that the troops had received the essentials of food and munitions for which they have been

Well Known North Fort Worth Man is Elated Over Pep Pills

Says "They Are the Finest Tonic in the World."

Mr. E. Becker, 210 West Fourteenth street, North Fort Worth, says: "I had been sick for years; was completely 'down and out'; had tried numerous remedies, but none of them helped me; my condition was serious. "A friend recommended Pep Systematic Pills and finally induced me to try a box. After taking the first bottle I began to improve. I am now on my fifth bottle and am enjoying fine health. Before taking Pep Systematic Pills I was so nervous I couldn't sleep; had no appetite at all; was getting weaker every day. Now I sleep like a baby and eat like a school-boy.

Recalling the Italian advance warnings with the tremendous onslaught of the German and Austrian armies on the Isonzo last year, the Italian embassy says—now it earnestly hopes attention will be paid to the danger which now impends.

The war department's weekly review referred today to the probability, that failing to break through the combined British, French and American troops on the western front, the German general staff will direct its effort at another point and the Italian military men are confident that the Italian line north of Laka-Garda will be the selected spot.

The immediate objective of the Austrians is expected to be the city of Brescia, on the east side of the lake, and an attack may be directed on the west, with the purpose of breaking into Lombardy. The principal Italian munitions and supply factories are located in Lombardy and Piedmont and besides securing these, the Austrians might put themselves in position to swing northward into French territory, reinforcing the Germans from the south against the French right wing.

Great quantities of supplies have come to the Austrian army from Russia, according to the embassy. The Germans recently announced that they had foregone claiming the rich stores of food in the Russian Ukraine country in order to meet the more pressing need of the Austrians.

DEFECTIVE GAS MASKS BLAMED.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Charges that German spies are interfering with the manufacture of gas masks intended for use in France were made in the senate today by Senator Thomas of Colorado, who declared that in one factory 2900 out of 5000 masks were found packed with those that had passed inspection, he said.

Senator Thomas declared the masks had been damaged by small perforations and asserted the work was done by persons in the factory.

Senator Thomas asserted that the United States now faced a serious situation. The German drive, he declared, had not ended.

"Is there any significance in the fact that these labor conditions exist now, or is it only a coincidence, the Colorado senator asked, referring to the reports of strikes in various parts of the country.

He added he believed them to be part of German propaganda.

Declaring that union labor is responsible for the Kansas City labor trouble, Senator Reed of Missouri, said it will be a "very dark day for organized labor" if it interfered with war industry.

DRASTIC LOYALTY LAW IS FAVORED

WASHINGTON, April 2.—In favorably reporting a bill to impose drastic penalties on disloyal acts, the senate judiciary committee today adopted an amendment by Senator Poindexter of Washington prescribing imprisonment for 20 years and $10,000 fine for "whoever shall, by word or act, support or favor the cause of the German empire or its allies in the present war, or by word or act oppose the cause of the United States therein."

The committee also approved the same penalties for persons obstructing government war bond issues and for willfully "atempting" as well as actual attempts to obstruct recruiting or enlistment in the army.

WAR AGAINST TURKEY.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—A Resolution proposing a declaration of a state of war between the United States and Turkey and Bulgaria was introduced in the senate today by Senator King of Utah and recommended to the foreign relations committee.

Thrift and Your Capacity to Earn. Thriftlessness and poverty go hand in hand. Thrift creates in the person who practices it the qualities of character that make for earning. It is a subtle thing, but certain. Think of the most thriftest person you know. Has he self-confidence? Would you trust him with your money? Is he reliable? Does he hold his job? Would you hire him? Is his counsel sought by his associates? Does he inspire others? The man who earns is self-confident, reliable, steady, wise, inspiring. Thrift develops the qualities that win.

We are still building war ships. We need your old scrap iron. Old boilers, old stoves; just any kind. Don't wait. Bring it to Nacogdoches Oil Mill, and get the cash for something that is of no value to you. McAdoo Bros. Nacogdoches Oil Mill.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Remedy acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of catarhal deafness that cannot be cured by this medicine. Write for circulars to Dr. J. C. Hall, 109 South Broadway, Toledo, O.

SHE COULDN'T EVEN RAISE UP IN BED.

Hastings Says Daughter's Rapid Recovery on Tanlac Has Caused Rejoicing. "I believe in giving everything its due, and I want to tell you right now I sure rejoice over what Tanlac has done for my daughter," said J. C. Hastings, a well known farmer living at Alief, Texas. "Two years ago," he continued, "she began to go down hill with stomach trouble and neuralgia and the agony she suffered was something awful. Most everything she would eat disagreed with her and gave her no end of trouble. Many a time she would wake up in the night with such terrible neuralgia pain in her neck, chest and shoulders that she wasn't able to speak or raise herself up in bed. In fact, she was helpless and was so tired and worn out by morning she would hardly be able to get up at all. She got to the point where she spent most of her time in bed and had to give-up her housework and I was really afraid she would never get well at all. "I read in the papers where one of my friends had taken Tanlac and that caused me to get a bottle for my daughter and I want to say right here that she has got hold of the right medicine at last. She says she feels like a different person since she started on Tanlac. Why, instead of laying in bed like she had to do before, she is the first person up on the place now and is strong enough to take up her household work again. I haven't heard her complain in some time and if I didn't know it was relieving her I wouldn't be here buying more of it for her. I have so much faith in Tanlac that I expect to keep it in the home all the time. Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby-Weatherly Bros., in Sacul by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins and in Chireno, in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

SALARIES INCREASED

Is your school out yet? You ought to double your present salary before school opens in the fall. You can earn the increased salary not only while school is open but during the entire spring, summer, fall and winter. Therefore you will draw twenty-five to fifty per cent more salary during a year than you would at the same rate teaching only during the school terms and spending your savings after school is out. The door to the world of business is open. Everywhere help is needed and excellent pay offered. Do not allow the war to cripple or paralyze our trade. Take the places of the young soldiers who have gone, by getting our commercial training. In three months you will be ready to accept a good position and make money to invest in Liberty bonds, war savings certificates or thrift stamps, saving yourself and your friends from higher taxation to secure war revenue. At the same time you draw an income on your investment and furnish capital which Uncle Sam needs at once.

What you can do in business, you can do as well in Civil Service. Your ambition to travel to see our great capital or Washington, D. C. is easily achieved. Uncle Sam offers good salaries to beginners who are properly trained. Our graduates are successful in this work. Many enter school with Civil service in view; many decide upon it after they enter and large numbers of our former pupils have changed their business positions for Government positions. Our women are serving their country in the Red Cross and in organized campaign work; our men in the great movement to finance the war by aid of every citizen. Your call is open; you can do the work they cannot do. Show your patriotism; as soon as you are free from school duties take up this work and make your choice for the service. Our large catalogue is free for the asking. Fill in and mail the following blank. Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

THRIFT THOUGHT TODAY

Make it your personal duty to spread the news of War Savings stamps. Understand the plan yourself and then explain it to someone else.

Thrift and Saving "No!"

The man who cannot say "No" to himself can seldom say "No" to any one else. It's a very good thing to be able to say "No." The ability to do so reveals self-control, discrimination, firmness, and the courage of one's convictions. Try saying "No" to yourself when next you are tempted to spend needlessly. Try it when you want badly something you are well aware you can do without. One good "No" earns another. The publicity committee wishes to announce the formation of the "Acre of Cotton Club" and to urge every able-bodied man and boy in the county who can possibly do so to take out membership in this club. Each member is to devote an acre of land to "Uncle Sam's Patch," plant it in cotton, give it his best attention, and invest the profits in War Savings Stamps. No member will be asked to give a cent to the government; he is to do the work for himself, make all that he can out of the acre, and lend his profits to Uncle Sam, who will pay him a good rate of interest therefor. If some man or boy is willing to do his bit in this way, but lacks the acre, some patriotic neighbor who has it to spare should be glad to lend it for this purpose. If a member's acre does not yield a whole bale of cotton, two members can join together to make a bale, and divide their profits according to weight. Now is the time to plant. Enlist immediately and send in your name either to the War Savings Society in your community or to Box 86, Nacogdoches, Texas. Make it your personal duty to spread the news of War Savings Stamps. Understand the plan yourself and then explain it to someone else. How large should your thrift coin be? For one week make a list of every single expenditure. Be honest with yourself, put the little ones down as well as the big; The foolish as well as the wise. Then be your own judge and jury. Submit that expense account to the judgement of your own conscience. Check items against these two questions: "Could I have gone without?" If I had, would it have impaired my health and efficiency? Put the acknowledged waste in one column and the necessary expenditures in another. The sum of the first column divided by seven will give you your daily thrift coin. Honor it, whether it be a dollar or a penny. And keep up that expense account. The children's W. S. S. was organized at Libert. Early Closing Proclamation.

To every business man in Nacogdoches. The following letter received by me from E. A. Peden, Federal Food Administrator in which I heartily concur: "On March 17th, we issued to all Food Administrators in Texas a questionnaire on the subject of universal early closing in the afternoons for the purpose of establishing both employers and employees to devote an hour's time or more before the evening meal to the cultivation of war gardens, which gardens are now of greatest importance as a means for conserving those commodities so greatly needed by our soldiers and their Allies in Europe. Without a single exception, every reply favors the idea. The fact that many stores are held open indefinitely into the night, with no special closing hour, consuming not only fuel and lights, but preventing both employer and employees from that freedom and recreation which they could so well enjoy if these establishments and all their competitors would close earlier and at a uniform hour. By doing so not a dollar's worth of business would be lost to anyone. The same volume of trade would continue just the same but it would be handled in a shorter period of time. Therefore, first, for the purpose of conserving lights and fuel; second for the purposes of beneficial recreation; third, for the purpose of cultivating of war gardens, the Food Administration requests and strongly urges that beginning April 1st and until September 1st, all places of business in the state of Texas voluntarily and by mutual consent shall close their establishments on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, as follows: Manufacturing plants, wholesale establishments, and all those who can possibly see their way clear to do so, at 6 o'clock p. m. Retail establishments, such as butcher shops and stores catering to the trade of employees who make their purchases while en route home in the afternoon, at 6:30 p. m. In recommending the hours mentioned due consideration has been given to the new daylight saving plan, also effective April 1st. No request is made in reference to Saturday afternoons, except that manufacturers and wholesalers as far as they can possibly do so, should close at 1:00 p. m. on Saturdays. Having carefully studied this question of uniform closing and having made observations from personal experience with large organizations I wish to give my hearty personal endorsement of the plan, and feel no hesitation in saying that employers will get more work and better work with more "pep" and more enthusiasm from their employes by closing five afternoons every week at the hours suggested than they will by holding their forces on until seven, eight and nine o'clock. Throughout the older states this is no experiment. It has passed the experimental stage. It has been tried out with wonderfully satisfactory results, and those establishments which have had the plan in effect for several years would not think of returning under any consideration to the old slipshod methods of irregular closing hours. The Food Administration has no authority to issue an order covering the above proposition. This is simply a plain earnest request to help us put over successfully this war measure for the benefit of increased food and feed production in general and for our war gardens in particular, however, in communities, cities and towns where an overwhelming majority of the business establishments by mutual consent agree to close and one merchant or a small selfish minority refuse and continue open for the self evident purpose of taking advantage of the loyal and patriotic majority, the local administrator with a strong committee should promptly endeavor to bring this minority by moral suasion into cooperation but failing therein should report the matter to my office for further action. Drug stores, garages, newspapers, public eating houses, places of amusement, cold drinks, cream and fruit stands and also manufacturers working on government contracts are to use their own discretion in reference to this program of early closing. The titanic battle now in progress along the western front emphasizes the fact that we at home should with one accord arise to our full height in a supreme determination to prove to our boys "over there" that we will stand behind them to the last ditch with all the food they may need, so distributed as to be where-wanted, when-wanted. These are the times for maximum cooperation. Why not make the above plan unanimous? Yours very truly, E. A. Peden. Knowing as I do the high standard of loyalty and patriotism of the citi-

MR. ROSCOE HAUSER WILL MOVE TO HOUSTON

Mr. Roscoe Hauser and his splendid family have rented out their splendid home on Houston street, and expect to move to Houston, where Mr. Hauser will establish his headquarters with the house which he is representing in this district. The home place has been rented to Mr. T. B. Ramey, who recently moved to this city from Brady, Texas. Mr. Ramey is representative of the Brownsville Grocery company. Mr. Hauser's family will not leave Nacogdoches until after the closing of our public schools, wishing to remain here that Roscoe Jr., may have opportunity to finish this term without interruption or change. The family have vacated their residence for Mr. Ramey, but will continue their residence here the remainder of the school term. Nacogdoches citizens will regret the removal of this splendid family from our midst.

COLORED RED CROSS.

The members of the Red Cross Sewing Circle (colored) met at 2:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church and held a very interesting meeting. Several members were added. These who belong to the circle are putting forth every effort to make it just what it ought to be. A prize is being offered to the woman who does the neatest work on the bandages, etc. Three new members were added to the society. The next meeting place will be at the Baptist church. Rev. Moore, pastor of the First Baptist church, made a very interesting talk to the members. He encouraged their interest and in every way urged them to keep up the work being done in behalf of our soldiers, who are doing their bit for the dear old U. S. A. O. D. McNEAL, Reporter.

Cincinnati Man Discovers Drug that Loosens Corns so They Lift Out. Good news spreads rapidly and druggists here are kept busy despatching freezone, the recent discovery of a Cincinnati man which is said to loosen any corn so it lifts out with the fingers. A quarter of an ounce costs very little at any drug store which handles drugs; but this is said to be sufficient to rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or callus. You apply just a few drops on the tender, aching corn or toughened callus and instantly the soreness is relieved and soon the corn or callus is so shriveled that it lifts out without pain. It is a sticky substance which dries when applied and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. This discovery will prevent thousands of deaths annually from lockjaw and infection heretofore resulting from the suicidal habit of cutting corns.

FROM MRS. GILLETTE

Battle Creek, Mich., March 29, Daily Sentinel: This Sanitarium is a great place. There are over one thousand patients and guests here now. It costs the management over two thousand dollars a day to operate. There are people here from all over the western hemisphere, ranchers from Mexico, wheat growers from Canada, movie actresses from New York and just yesterday people from everywhere I've met Mr. McClure of magazine fame here, also the Hon. Lawrence Crow, a personal friend of Lord Northcliffe's and one of the brainiest men I've ever known. Miss Burke, of movie fame and I are often together. People think Texas is the favorite lair of Jesse James & Co. I always hasten to tell them on being introduced that I was deborned early. People here trying to reduce and people here trying to fatten. If you will read Bro. Giles up they will even agree to fatten him. And the pretty nurses! Oh, my! I keep close watch on Mr. Gillette knowing his fondness for the fair sex. Uniforms of white and uniform of khaki do look so nice together. I saw seven thousand new troops come in today. It was a most inspiring sight but they seemed small compared to our boys. Hope to be home soon, entirely well. When the orchestra plays Dixie I stand up every time. Some more southern people have the habit now and we make a very creditable showing. With best wishes, Elizabeth Gillette.

BRITISH THANK WILSON FOR QUICK AID SENT

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Lord Reading, the British ambassador, today sent to President Wilson a message of thanks on behalf of the British government for "instant and comprehensive measures" which the president took in response to the request that American troops be used to reinforce the allied armies in France. An embassy statement announcing that the message had been sent through the state department, said: "The knowledge that owing to the president's prompt cooperation the allies will receive the strong reinforcements necessary during the next few months is most welcome to the British government and people."

If I Were a Farmer.

If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician, such as Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds and croup, Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains, Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation. This would require an outlay of only $1.10. By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow

Keeping Our Soldiers Strong

Early in the world war experience proved the extraordinary value of cod liver oil for strengthening soldiers against colds, pneumonia and lung troubles.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS
+++++
(By J. E. M.)

Pioneer newspapers in Nacogdoches are not all remembered now. When the noted and ill-fated Dr. Long brought his heroic and faithful wife from Natchez, Miss., to Texas, about 1820, to seek his fortune and make history, he brought with his colony of companions many useful articles, and among them a printer's outfit, with which a newspaper was attempted, without success. A newspaper was issued soon after, at San Augustine, Texas. There is probably no living witness now who can testify to the existence of a newspaper at Nacogdoches previous to the original old Nacogdoches Chronicle, which was begun in the early fifties and operated till 1860. The first editor and proprietor was E. W. Cave, who was called a little Yankee, because he was a man of small physique, and was from the north. He was what is now called a "live wire"—a term not then used because we then had no electric wires. News in that day came "by grape vine." His motto, printed as a regular head line was "Independent in all things—neutral in nothing." There were several ins and outs about the years 1845 and perhaps earlier. One of these was by a man named Floyd Kendall, who was an uncle of Dick and George Muckleroy, being their mother's brother. He was from Cincinnati, Ohio, the home of his ancestors. He was a scholarly, dignified desperado, a high-toned scrapper who pulled off bloody stunts and ended life by suicide, in Huntsville, Texas. He had a partner in the paper. The name of the paper, and the partner not remembered. One of Cave's ten strikes was to win the hand of the beautiful and popular daughter of the late Adolphus Stern, a leading Texan patriot, whose home was what is now the old Hoya homestead, on LaNana street. Cave lived after marriage where Mrs. Will Sanders now lives. His Chronicle was printed in a building now owned by Pat Jenkins. It stands now back of the Methodist parsonage. It then stood on the present lot of the parsonage. John Orton and "Uncle June Harris" were "printer's devils" in the office later on. They became good spellers and they were far from being bad little devils, though they made "pi" out of type and threw it into "hell" without much kissing. That was shop lingo. Cave became one of Sam Houston's earliest and warmest supporters. Houston was daring in politics as well as in war. Hence he was often independent, refusing to be influenced by party. This made Cave a welcome advocate of Houston in his many political battles. In one race for Governor or Houston lost, but in another he was elected. He made Cave his secretary of State. Cave never returned to Nacogdoches to live after this. When his duties at Austin ended, he moved to the city of Houston, where he lived many years and died. When Cave quit the Chronicle, the paper went into the hands of H. C. Hancock, another northern man. The war of the Confederacy put the Chronicle out of business, and Hancock became a heroic Confederate Captain. He was killed in the battle of Mansfield, La. The Chronicle made several weak but vain efforts to again get into business. About the year 1870, R. D. Orton became owner of the outfit of the Chronicle and revived it under the name "Nacogdoches News." Willie Haltom became the printer's devil. He never did entirely turn it loose. Giles M. Haltom still handles it under its belligerent name of Sentinel. Giles is himself an Orton by maternity, and his paper is the chronicle in a similar sense. But in truth, Dick Orton said the original old Chronicle outfit to May Jack Davis, father of Hugh B. Davis, and David moved it to Rusk, where he then lived, in 1873, but soon afterward moved it to Cleburne, taking Jim Hogg with him. The Cleburne Chronicle was started in this move, and perhaps Governor Hogg started from this event. When the Nacogdoches News was in Dick Orton's hands it was located on the second floor, in the Orton brick, a two-story building located about where the express office is now. J. E. Shook of Rusk was associated with him. There are very few men in Nacogdoches today who knew E. W. Cave, and his paper. Among those who can remember him are J. S. Taylor, E. H. Hoya, George F. Ingraham, John Rusk and just a few others, all move boys at that time, 1850 to 1860. There have been several other papers, and other editors of different names, coming along during these changing careers. But all seemed to derive their origin directly or indirectly from the old time Nacogdoches Chronicle. The name Sentinel appears more appropriate during the present war, but the memory of the old Chronicle name seems sacred.

Helps Sick Women

Cardui, the woman's tonic, helped Mrs. William Eversole, of Hazel Patch, Ky. Read what she writes: "I had a general breaking-down of my health. I was in bed for weeks, unable to get up. I had such a weakness and dizziness, and the pains were very severe. A friend told me I had tried everything else, why not Cardui? ... I did, and soon saw it was helping me. ... After 12 bottles, I am strong and well."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Do you feel weak, dizzy, worn-out? Is your lack of good health caused from any of the complaints so common to women? Then why not give Cardui a trial? It should surely do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women who suffered—it should help you back to health. Ask some lady friend who has taken Cardui. She will tell you how it helped her. Try Cardui. All Druggists

AN ALIEN-ENEMY WAS ARRESTED IN THIS COUNTY

Was Abusing the President and Expressing Wish That This Country Would Be Brought to Knees.

Friday's Daily
Sheriff Luther Prince went to Maytown yesterday and took in charge a man named Frazer who is charged with abusing the president of the United States, and openly expressing the wish that Mexico would join hands with Germany and crush this country. The sheriff brought the prisoner to town and put him in jail where he will hold him pending advice from the Federal authorities.

It is reported that Mr. Frazer has been at work at the mill at Maytown the past three months, and for the past several weeks has been especially free in expression of his disloyalty to this country and admiration for Germany. Lately he had become so intolerable with the loyal citizenship about the mill that they notified the officers which was followed with the arrest. It is also reported that no mail came to his personal address, such mail as he received coming addressed to Box 44, which aroused further suspicion. Mr. Prince took from him an envelope addressed to Mrs. Catherine Frazer, cor. 14, Delzoo st., Detroit, Michigan. This is probably his wife and his original home.

In discussing the matter with the sheriff upon the occasion of his arrest, Mr. Frazer is said to have been very abusive, stating that he did not care for life, that the government and religion were both failures, and intimated that he was ready for any fate. The sheriff finally overcame him without having to render any serious violence, but says that he thought for a time that he would have to apply drastic means to take him. Many people about Maytown give voluntary testimony as to the expressed disloyalty of the man, and state that they would have reported him sooner, delaying in the hope that he would mend his way.

31 COLORED SOLDIERS LEAVE FOR CAMP TRAVIS

Monday's Daily
The Local Exemption Board sent out thirty-one colored boys from this county today, who will report at the colored division at Camp Travis and be put through the mill of training to fit them for soldiers in Uncle Sam's army. The boys were put in charge of M. P. Bell for the trip.

To all outward appearances the boys go forward willingly, some of them gladly, to their bit in defense of their country, and The Sentinel believes that they will acquit themselves with honor on the battlefields and thus preserve the good name of the famous old county which sends them to the front.

- Following is the list of the boys who were trained:
- R. T. Weaver, Cushing.
 - J. D. Jones, Nacogdoches.
 - Will Richardson, Cushing.
 - Naman Krer, Garrison.
 - Edling Garrett, Manning.
 - Otis Robinson, Garrison.
 - Aaron Johnson, Nacogdoches.
 - Aaron B. Moreland, Caro.
 - Vessie Redmond, Garrison.
 - Jesse Charlton, Luffkin.
 - Forrest Perry, Nacogdoches.
 - Archie O. Brooks, Woden.
 - Alf Thomas, Appleby.
 - Henry Fensley, Nacogdoches.
 - Rivers McKnight, Nacogdoches.
 - M. P. Bell, Nacogdoches.
 - Jonathan Fears, Caro.
 - R. E. Pettus, Nacogdoches.
 - Roy Gassaway, Nacogdoches.
 - Louis Dupree, Sexton.
 - Johnnie Sparks, Nacogdoches.
 - Ira Jefferson, Appleby.
 - Claud Walton, San Augustine.
 - Clayton Shepherd, Woden.
 - Oscar Rogers, Woden.
 - Ira Singletary, Caro.
 - Lonnie Bussey, Nacogdoches.
 - John A. Sanders, Douglas.
 - Archie Yarbrough, Garrison.
 - John C. Scott, Nacogdoches.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath—Candy Cathartic.

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish bowels—you always get relief with Cascarets. They immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and head clear for months. They work while you sleep.

TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL TEXAS FARMERS CONGRESS.

Plans are rapidly being completed for the 21st annual session of the Texas Farmers congress, which will be held at the Texas A. & M. college, College Station, on July 29th to 31st. The week previous to the Farmers Congress will be given over to the regular Short Course work at school which is conducted annually by the A. & M. college at which time subjects are studied that are essential to the better agricultural methods in this state. Most of those attending the Farmers short course will remain over for the three days session of the Farmers congress. At this time men of a national reputation will address the general sessions of the congress as well as the sectional meetings of the affiliated organizations.

The Texas farmers congress is made up of the agricultural and industrial organizations devoting their energies to the building of better agricultural methods, and to the making of the home and social life on the farm both pleasant and profitable. For many years the work has been done by the congress has been felt in many sections of this great state. Each year this influence has been spreading, until today the home and social life on the farm is much better than it was a few years ago. The boys and girls of the farm are equipping themselves to stay on the farms rather than leave them. There they realize they may enjoy all the pleasures and have all the conveniences of the city dweller. To these boys and girls on the farms as well as the older people we must look for food to feed our great armies as well as those of the Allies. The secretary of the Farmers congress received a letter from Col. Ousley a few days ago in which he says in part, "I am pleased to learn that the officers of the Farmers congress are proceeding with the plans of the regular session and the regular work this year as usual."

"It is the view of the department of agriculture and the college that all of the normal activities in behalf of the agricultural development and rural welfare should be continued and maintained at full efficiency. By all means, I trust that you will make plans, not for any extraordinary undertakings, but for the orderly and well considered undertakings that have so long marked the course of the farmers congress and out of which has come so much good for the agricultural and rural life of Texas."

These words coming direct from Col. Ousley make it all the more important that we make this year's sessions of the farmers congress far reaching in an educational way to the farmers and their families. With this in view the executive committee has seen fit to adopt a full war program. It will be built along the lines of conservation of food, feed, live stock and soils. These subjects will not only be discussed at the general sessions of the congress but the affiliated organizations are making their programs to conform to the same lines.

The organizations now affiliated with the Texas farmers congress and who will hold meetings in connection with same are: State horticultural society of Texas, Texas dairyman's association, Texas swine breeders association, Texas field crop improvement association, Texas farm boys club association, Texas bee keepers association, woman's council, Texas poultry raisers' association, Texas truck grower's association, Texas experiment association, Texas federation of fairs, Texas horse breeders association, Texas Jersey cattle club, Civic league of Texas, Texas railway development agents association.

To any and all of these meetings the public is most cordially invited and urged to attend, especially farmers with their families. The business man, professional man and minister will find that three days spent attending the farmers' congress will be the best investment he can make, aside from the real pleasure and enjoyment that he will get from the meetings and by mixing and mingling with his friends and coworkers.

The expense of attending is small compared to the real benefit and profit derived from the meetings. A registration fee of fifty cents per day will be charged to take care of the current expenses and meals which are served in Sbia hall are at cost. Most likely thirty-five to fifty cents per meal will cover this cost. No charge is made by the college for the use of the rooms in the dormitories, where all visitors will be made perfectly comfortable. Two buildings will be set aside for the use of women and girls exclusively. Begin now to make your plans to attend the farmers congress and also the farmers short course. You will enjoy the outing of a few days with your family and the good that you will derive cannot be over estimated.

Thrift Stamps—good investments.

Ugh! Calomel Sickness; Salivates!

Please Try Dodson's Liver Tone

I am sincere! My medicine does not upset liver and bowels so you lose a day's work.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bowels and should never be put into your system. When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside and can not salivate. Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children as well.

SEVEN BOYS GO TO THE TRAINING CAMP

Saturday's Daily
The following young white men left at noon today for Camp Travis where they go to enter the training camp and prepare themselves for service in Uncle Sam's army:

- S. B. Burk, Trawick.
- Elan G. Blakey, Melrose.
- Jesse H. Duncan, Chireno.
- Felix H. Briley, Nacogdoches.
- Fritz M. Teutsch, Chireno.
- Wayne Albritton, Chireno.
- Jesse M. McLain, Caro.

All these gallant young men volunteered, previously expressing the request that they be allowed to go at the first opportunity. There were several others who are also ready to go at the first opportunity. Such men make great soldiers and the country is going to hear from them with a report of the discharge of faithful service. As has previously been announced, an installment of thirty-one negroes will be sent out Monday.

As has been our custom for a number of years we will continue after today to close our ware house at six o'clock p. m. and deliver no goods after that hour, but please take notice that this is new war time, and is one hour earlier than heretofore. Nacogdoches Oil Mill. 301dw

WOMEN MAY REGISTER ANYWHERE IN COUNTY

AUSTIN, Texas, March 29.—In an opinion given the comptroller today, Attorney General Looney held that the county tax collector may accept a woman's registration who may possess the qualifications of a voter under the provision of the woman suffrage act at the court house of the county or at any other place in the county where the tax collector may be engaged in the occupation of collecting taxes. For the purpose of collecting taxes the opinion asserts that the collector's office is at such places as he may collect them as provided by law. This will save women going to county seats to register during the seventeen days available between June 26 and July 12. They can register with deputy collectors sent over the county.

G. W. Morris has purchased the interest of his partner, R. M. Griffith, in the grocery store and will continue the business at the same old stand. He says that he is very grateful to his former customers, and hopes to hold them with as many new ones as possible with his new business.

H. C. Rich, a former citizen of the county who is now making his home in Angelina county, has been in the city today.

Mr. J. R. Dickerson, Delco Light Dealer, San Augustine, Texas.
Dear Sir:— You ask me how I was pleased with my Delco Light Plant. Will say that I am highly pleased with it. It make so fine light—the very best. Simple in operation and the cost of running expenses is practically nothing compared with the service it gives. I have run my lights, fans and iron for 8 days and nights on one charge of the batteries without running the engine, with good lights and I could have run a week. Anyone will make no mistake when they buy the Delco Light. I would not take twice what my plant cost me if I could not get another like it. You can use my name for reference.
Yours very truly, I. E. ROBERTS, Tax Assessor.

IN MISERY FOR YEARS

Mrs. Courtney Tells How She Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Oskaloosa, Iowa.—"For years I was simply in misery from a weakness and nothing seemed to do me any good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and got relief right away. I can certainly recommend this valuable medicine to other women who suffer, for it has done such good work for me and I know it will help others if they will give it a fair trial."

PERSHING OFFERS ARMY TO FRANCE

PARIS, March 29.—General Pershing called on General Foch at headquarters yesterday, according to information, and placed at his disposal the whole resources of the American army for employment in the battle now in progress.

"I come," L'Information quotes General Pershing as saying, "to say to you that the American people would hold it a great honor for our troops were they engaged in the present battle. I ask it of you, in my name and in that of the American people."

"There is at this moment no other question than that of fighting—in infantry, artillery, aviation—all that we have are yours to dispose of them as you will. Others are coming which are as numerous as will be necessary. I have come to say to you that the American people would be proud to be engaged in the greatest battle in history."

General Foch placed General Pershing's offer before the council at the front, L'Information says. The council includes Premier Clemenceau, Commander-in-chief Petain and Louis Loucheur, minister of munitions.

BAYOR HUTCHESON IS THE NEW FEDERAL JUDGE

Mayor J. C. Hutcheson of Houston has been nominated United States district judge for the Southern District of Texas, and John L. Terrell of Fort Worth has been nominated United States marshal for the Northern district.

There has been considerable contest for these places, and it was generally conceded that Hon. Thos. H. Ball of Houston would receive the appointment for judge.

Mayor Hutcheson announces that he will resign as mayor of Houston and accept the appointment.

COUNTY BOY LEAVES A FRENCH HOSPITAL

Going out with the engineer reserve to France was Jefferson Gaston, belonging to a well known family residing out a few miles from town. He volunteered in the cause of his country, and so far as we have record has never wavered in the discharge of any duty.

Yesterday his mother, Mrs. Emma Gaston, received a telegram from France which read: "Leaving hospital; feeling fine."

It is not known whether the young man had been sick or wounded, but all will rejoice in the news that he is again out and feeling fine, as he expresses it.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a fewishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

RAISE MANY POTATOES IN VERY SMALL SPACE

Nacogdoches, Texas, 3-27-18.
Dear Sentinel:
I see in your paper where a party at Lufkin offers to give instructions for $1.00 how to raise 50 bushels of potatoes on ten square feet of ground. I would like for you to publish for the benefit of the people free of charge, how to raise several bushels of Irish potatoes on 8 or 10 feet square of ground. I guarantee a sure crop if directions are followed.

Spade up about ten feet square of ground thoroughly about 8 inches deep, put about 3 or 4 inches of well rotted home raised fertilizer on the ground; then mix thoroughly with the ground; then wet the ground equal to a good rain; lay your cut potatoes with 2 or 3 good eyes, all over the bed, 3 inches apart. Cover the potatoes 5 or 6 inches deep with dried leaves, dry pine straw, or any dry straw. Then cover the leaves with 3 or 4 inches of dirt and fertilizer, mixed; then give the bed another thorough wetting, and sprinkle every few days as they need it until they have quite bearing. In about 7 weeks you will have a solid bed of the finest, cleanest potatoes you ever saw, and as you carefully take large ones out others will continue to grow on for several weeks. I have been very successful in raising potatoes this way, especially if it is a dry time.

I advise all who can to try this plan, and if successful, and pleased with the plan, to report through The Sentinel, and for the benefit of others who have no room for garden.

I forgot to state it would be best to put poles or rails around this bed about a foot high so as to keep the bed and sides in their place.

Respectfully,
A. D. C.

EARLY CLOSING PLAN GETS GENERAL APPROVAL

County Administrator Walthall informs The Sentinel that he finds general approval of the plan for early closing here, only a few hesitating, and congratulates the people of this city on their ready response to do anything in their power to conform to any patriotic duty exacted of them.

By the new arrangement the dry goods stores agree to close up at 6:00 o'clock; the grocery stores at 6:30; restaurants at 8:00; barber shops at 7:00 and the drug stores at 10:00—new time, which will be an hour earlier than the old.

Mr. Walthall is very much in hopes that all will observe the new rule, and requests the publication of the following extract of the ruling from the Food Administration in the matter:

"If a selfish minority refuse and continue open for the self-evident purpose of taking advantage of the loyal, patriotic majority, the county administrator, with a strong committee, shall promptly endeavor to bring this minority, by moral suasion, into co-operation, but failing therein, should promptly report the matter to the Federal Food Administrator for further action."

The trading public can do much to co-operate with this service, and should do so. Let the people of town, and their orders in early, and let the people of the rural districts come to town earlier if they wish to do any trading.

The purpose of the plan is to enable the clerks of the business houses to get out in time to raise war gardens, and take some open-air exercise in conservation of their health. When once we become accustomed to the plan no one will suffer any inconvenience or financial loss by it, but to the contrary we will feel so much better for the out-door exercise that we will have better efficiency when on duty.

CLOTHING FOR THE BELGIANS

The Nacogdoches county American Red Cross chapter wishes to make the following report:

Responding to the call for used clothing for the immediate relief of the stricken men, women and children in Belgium, approximately 1750 garments were shipped today.

This was done under the personal supervision of that patriotic and energetic worker, Mrs. Z. T. Mast, who personally phoned, wrote, called for, received, and finally saw to the packing of six huge boxes containing the above-named garments.

Mrs. Mast states that responding to this call, in addition to Nacogdoches preparer were: Garrison, Melrose, Trinity, and Oak Ridge.

She wishes also to state that should those communities who were unable to get their garments here in time for this shipment, desire to do so, they may still send them in to the Red Cross Rooms, or phone Mrs. Mast, as the committee in charge intend to make other shipments later.

MORE PARTICULARS OF A VERY SAD TRAGEDY

Mr. E. H. Power arrived home last night from Ballenger where he went to attend the funeral of his grandchildren, the little daughter and little son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Bridwell who lost their lives in a cave-in accident, previously reported in this paper, and brings some clippings from the local papers which give more particulars.

The following clipping records the little girl, and a subsequent clipping reports the death of the boy, also together with report of funeral service; the second being omitted because it is largely a reproduction of the details recorded in the first:

"Josephine Bridwell was instantly killed and her little brother, Frank, was seriously hurt when the river bank on the Colorado river near the home of W. A. Taylor, one mile above the city, caved in about three o'clock Friday afternoon.

"Josephine and Frank are the children of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Bridwell. With several other children they were out picnicking as there was no school Friday, the teachers having been given a leave of absence to attend the teachers meet at Brownwood.

"The children carried their lunch, and according to the account of the tragedy given by those who escaped, they were picnicking under the banks of the river, when without a moment's warning the bank gave way, burying Josephine under the dirt and rock. Frank narrowly escaped, all of his body being caught under the avalanche and his head only escaping. The other children escaped.

Those nearby were attracted by the children's screams and rushed to their aid, and although heroic work was done in removing the dirt from Josephine, she was dead when uncovered, and all efforts to resuscitate her failed. Her body was placed in a car and brought to the Bridwell home on Eighth Street.

"Frank Bridwell suffered a badly fractured lower limb, his leg being broken in two places, and he was otherwise bruised. Medical aid was summoned and the little boy was carried to the sanitarium.

"Mrs. W. A. Taylor was arranging to spend the afternoon on the river with the children and they had preceded her to the river, having been gone from the house only about thirty minutes when the accident occurred. None of the children had been playing on top of the bank and no one was on it at the time it caved in, and apparently without any cause the bank gave way.

"At the time of the tragedy Mr. Bridwell was out of town, having gone to his farm. The mother was at the store, at The Fair, and both were notified of the tragedy as soon as the news was received in the city, and as soon as a runner could go after Mr. Bridwell.

Josephine and Frank were both popular with their best of playmates, and the tragedy brings a shock to the entire city, and the many friends of the heart-broken parents sympathize with them and stand ready to do everything possible to lighten the great sorrow so suddenly brought upon them."

Mrs. Mollie Richardson, who has been with relatives at Dallas for some time, has returned to this city and is receiving the greetings of her many friends.

VERY COMPLIMENTARY TO OUR REPRESENTATIVE

County Superintendent Layton is in Receipt of the Following Letter Which is Complimentary to W. E. Thomason.

Austin, March 27th 1918.
Supt. G. B. Layton, Nacogdoches, Texas.

Dear Mr. Layton:—
I am writing this line to give you the facts in regard to the services of your representative, Hon. W. E. Thomason, in the passage of the county superintendent's salary schedule. Thomason was a staunch supporter of the measure, gave it his usual close attention and succeeded in steering it successfully through the house under conditions very unfavorable. In fact, I think it really remarkable that he succeeded in getting a salary schedule enacted into law, and my reason for writing you is that when Thomason goes home you can take him by the hand and congratulate him as a friend of the county superintendents.

Another thing I can say in Thomason's favor is that he has been always the consistent friend and vigorous supporter of every progressive educational measure that has been introduced into the legislature since he has become a member of that body. He has won some remarkable fights when fighting against some of the brainiest lawyers of the state, and I do not hesitate to say that, in my opinion, he is worthy of all the honor that can be bestowed upon him by his constituents.

Sincerely,
W. F. Doughty,
State Superintendent.

SENATE ADOPTS DRAFT CHANGE

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The resolution amending the selective draft act by requiring registration of youths reaching 21 years since June 5, 1917, and estimated to add 700,000 more men to the roll of eligibles was adopted late today by the senate. It now goes to the house.

Senator New's amendment providing for compulsory universal military training of men between 19 and 21 years, but deferring their military service until after majority, was rejected by the senate 36 to 26.

REPRESENTATIVE THOMASON HAS RETURNED HOME

Hon. W. E. Thomason, our representative in the state legislature, arrived home last night from Austin, and says that he is glad to get back to old Nacogdoches again.

In speaking of the work of the special session, Mr. Thomason says that it was the smoothest-running session and prepared more constructive legislation in the length of time it was engaged, than any session in the history of the United States, and from his conversation we gather the idea that through the good co-operation enjoyed much of the political strife has been removed from the state.

When asked what bearing the law regulating the salary of county commissioners would have with the commissioners of this county, Mr. Thomason said that the law was made on a basis of last census, and that if his memory served him correctly, the commissioners of this county would be allowed to render service at the rate of $4.00 per day up to a limit of one thousand dollars per year. He has promised to give us a text of the new law as to its relation with this county when he has opportunity to prepare it.

In speaking of the Woman Suffrage legislation, and in answer to inquiry about the matter, Mr. Thomason says the women who wish to vote will have to register their names with the tax collector. They have seventeen days in which to do this from the time the law comes into effect, which would be on and after June 27th, for the seven consecutive days.

As to the normal matter, in which this town is so vitally interested, was resting with no opportunity to successfully revive it, Mr. Thomason did not have any special legislation at the called session, but was constantly on

END STOMACH TROUBLE, GASES OR DYSPEPSIA

"Pape's Diapesin" makes sick, sour, gassy stomachs surely feel fine in five minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, or you belch gas and eructate sour, indigestible food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach-headache, you can get relief in five minutes by neutralizing acidity. Put an end to such stomach distress now by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapesin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder caused by food fermentation due to excessive acid in stomach.

The EDISON TONE TEST PROVES

that Thomas A. Edison has perfected an instrument that Re-Creates the human voice. An Edison Re-Creation differs from a talking machine reproduction in its fidelity to the human voice and the music of human-played instruments. Every music lover knows that the talking machine merely imitates, but

The NEW EDISON

Re-Creates the human voice with such fidelity that no one can distinguish between the singer and the New Edison.

Sounds incredible, doesn't it? But it is true. Before audiences totaling more than 1,000,000 people, great artists—Metropolitan stars—have sung in direct competition with the New Edison and defied the audience to detect any difference. Not one listener could tell when he was listening to the artist and the New Edison together and when to the New Edison alone.

We would appreciate having you drop into our store to hear this wonderful instrument. Five minutes of your time that you might never see again would be well spent in any case of the work.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons. 41

Mr. Z. T. Mast, who has been quite sick for several days at his home on North Fredonia street, is reported as some better today. This good citizen has many friends who are praying for his speedy recovery.

IN MEMORIAM

Whereas it has pleased the Almighty to take from our midst, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed members of Liberty Baptist church, Bro. E. M. Weatherly, more commonly known as Uncle Mitch.

Uncle Mitch was born Jan. 11th, 1831, and has lived in Nacogdoches county since 1894. He was married to Miss Sarah E. McCuiston in 1853, and unto them was born nine children, five of whom survive him, they honored their parents, and have made good and useful citizens.

Bro. Weatherly was always alert to the needs of his community and country, having volunteered his services as a soldier in the civil war, and fought heroically for principals that he believed to be right.

He united with the missionary Baptist church in Sept. 1877, and has been a consistent member; always consistent in his christian duties as far as his health and age would even permit.

Bro. Weatherly departed this life February 19, 1918. In his death the church has suffered an irreparable loss, the community a good and useful citizen.

The church offers its sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones, Committee.

You can save money by feeding some ground whole pressed peanuts with your corn for mules and horses. It can be fed straight to hogs in pasture and is the best and cheapest feed you can get.

For hogs confined in pen for fattening it should be fed in connection with corn or rice bran. For your cow it is just as good as cotton seed meal, Nacogdoches Oil Mill. 9-3td-3w.

Miss Minnie Draper, who had been in the city visiting her brother H. W. Draper, and family for some days, has returned to her home in Siloam Springs, Ark.

GOOD NEIGHBOR AND CITIZEN WITH THE DEAD

CHIRENO, Texas, March 2.—The subject of this sketch (Mr. R. M. Davis) was born at Chireno, Texas, March 22, 1862, where he grew to young manhood, and has lived continually until death called him from the walks of men.

He was a grandson of the K. W. Davis, one of the foremost citizens of his day and time and is known throughout East Texas for his charitable acts and deeds of kindness.

He died February 15th, of pneumonia, being sick only a short time and was buried by the Masonic fraternity February 17, of which he was a useful member—and I can truthfully say that he lived up to the principles and tenets of the order as he understood them, always ready to visit and attend the sick and to administer to the unfortunate wherever he found them.

He leaves a brother and two sisters, and a number of relatives to mourn his loss and I can truthfully say that I believe he lived up to the teachings of the order as he understood them.

He was buried at the Chireno cemetery with Masonic honor, attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

While we drop a sympathetic tear or mourn for his untimely death we bow in humble submission to him who doeth all things for the best.

We will miss his presence and will never again hear his voice raised in defense of the principles he loved so well.

But let us ever remember that we are born to die, and ere long we will be laid within the narrow limits of the silent tomb.

Trusting that an All-wise Providence will cheer the heart of his widow and comfort her in times of trouble, and that the two little boys will make useful men, and prove themselves worthy of every trust committed to their care.

MATTHEWS RE-ELECTED TO THE OFFICE OF MAYOR

In the city election held here yesterday, much activity was shown to ward the close of the day, there being a total of 301 votes cast in the election.

Considering the interest that was seemingly shown before the election day this was an extremely heavy vote, as many expected that the voters would not turn out, but as the day wore on, the voters began to show much interest in the election causing a good vote to be polled.

Judge Matthews led in the Mayor's race, having a total of 11 more votes than his opponent. In the race for Aldermen, Price led with 291 votes having polled a larger vote than Cox. The scattering votes were for men not candidates.

Those elected were Geo. H. Matthews, Mayor; W. F. Price and Zeno Cox, Jr., Aldermen.

The following results were shown:

For Mayor: Geo. H. Matthews 156 H. H. Cooper 145

For Aldermen: Zeno Cox, Jr. 278 W. F. Price 291

Marcus Smith 2 Walter Peterson 2 Bob Burrows 1

Mr. Price was elected to succeed G. H. King, who was not a candidate for re-election, and Mr. Cox was elected to succeed himself for another term.

HOME GROWN STRAWBERRIES ARE NOW ON THE MARKET

Home grown strawberries have been placed on the market here for the past two or three days, and are finding good sales among those whose pocket books cannot withstand the temptation caused by this luscious, juicy fruit.

Like all early products, the strawberry is drawing a fancy price for the dealer and probably will until the yield begins to assume its normal stage.

These early sandy-land strawberries are the first harbinger, generally, of the South's splendid fruit crop and always arrives with the first summer weather we experience. Most of us spend our winter months smacking our lips over the advanced taste we have of the strawberries we get in early spring, and the smacking is not in vain because the taste of the strawberry is always satisfying and were we not allowed the advanced smacking we certainly could not survive when we came down to the real taste of the article.

With this the reporter just can't help saying that the Nacogdoches strawberries always did taste better to us than any other strawberry we have ever eaten, anyhow, and that's saying a whole lot.

He Can Rest Fine Now.

"I suffered greatly from kidney and bladder trouble," writes F. B. Fairbank, 55 Grand River ave. W. Detroit, Mich. "Had to get up six or seven times during the night. STOKER-LOWERY.

Mr. Clarence Stoker and Miss Alnetta Lowery, a very prominent young couple of the Etoile community, were married in the office of County Judge J. P. Perrite at the court house in this city yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, that gentleman performing the ceremony. The happy young couple left immediately on the afternoon train for Dallas where they go to visit the father of Mr. Stoker, who resides in that city.

Their many friends join The Sentinel in congratulations and best wishes.

3RD LIBERTY LOAN ROUNDING INTO SHAPE

April 6th will open the campaign for the 3rd Liberty Loan. Nacogdoches will do her portion on this as she always has done in the past. An organization has been perfected to sell these bonds in every nook and corner of this great county.

Mr. June C. Harris has been selected by representatives of our government to lead the fight. As lieutenants he has gathered about him the best we have in talents, patriotism, and the will to exercise their talents and patriotism. Each school district in the county has given its best in boys to go to the front. On this third Liberty Loan drive the best of each school district is leading their district on this drive. The best at home is supporting the best on the front.

The allotment of Liberty Loan bonds for our county is around $375,000.00. This amount will be apportioned among each school district. The loyal and generous school districts are going to get the prominence and honor that rightly belongs to them. When their statement was made before the committee they said: "We haven't a school district in our county that won't 'come across' and shoulder their portion of their loan."

This great campaign opens April 6th.

After a long winter the system becomes filled with impurities caused by dry, strong diet. In hot weather these impurities cause sickness. Get rid of them now by taking Prickly Ash Bitters. It will purify the blood, liver and bowels and put the body in shape for summer work. Price $1.25 per bottle. Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special Agents.

WAR STAMP SALES.

Private G. K. Solomon, of Battery "F" 64th Artillery, located at Galveston, who is spending a furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Solomon, at Caro, was in the city today, being accompanied here by his father. Private Solomon has just recovered from a serious attack of pneumonia, which settled in his left ear, giving him much trouble. He was forced to visit Nacogdoches today to have his ear treated by one of our local physicians and an examination revealed the fact that an operation was necessary, the attending physicians having to lance his ear drum. He stated to the Sentinel reporter that he expected to obtain relief now and was much in hopes he would soon be enabled to get back to his command.

This Woman Found Relief.

Backache, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains, dizziness, and like symptoms are caused by disordered kidneys and bladder. Mrs. Thos. H. Davis, Montgomery, R. F. D. 3, Ind., writes: "I doctored for months without relief. I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and got relief. Eight bottles cured me." Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dwl

Noel Roberts, son of Mr. E. M. Roberts, is reported to be quite sick with typhoid fever. He has been carried to Tucker's Sanitarium, where he can be given every advantage in treatment.

RED CROSS REPORT.

The local branch of the Red Cross has just made the following shipment: 141 pairs of pajamas, 13 convalescent robes, 26 pairs bed socks, 69 hospital bed shirts, 4 sweaters, 1 helmet, 3 pairs wristlets.

Work on surgical dressings and making of triangular bandages is being carried on at the work-room this week, also cutting out of hospital bed shirts to our circles in the near-by localities.

This was done under the personal supervision of that patriotic and energetic worker, Mrs. Z. T. Mast, who personally phoned, wrote, called for, received, and finally saw to the packing of six huge boxes containing the above-named garments.

Mrs. Mast states that responding to this call, in addition to Nacogdoches proper were: Garrison, Melrose, Trinity, and Oak Ridge.

She wishes also to state that should those communities who were unable to get their garments here in time for this shipment, desire to do so, they may still send them in to the Red Cross rooms, or phone Mrs. Mast, as the committee in charge intend to make other shipments later.

WHAT TO USE TO PREVENT APPENDICITIS

Nacogdoches people should know simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, flushes the ENTIRE bowel tract so completely that appendicitis is prevented. ONE SPOONFUL Adler-ika relieves ANY CASE sour stomach, gas or constipation because it removes ALL foul matter which clogged and poisoned your system. The INSTANT action surprises both doctors and patients. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

It soothes, heals and cures. Stripling, Haselwood & Co. dwl

BOY SCOUTS ATTENTION

The Boy Scouts Headquarters at New York City have notified me that the registration papers have been mailed, and there will be a meeting at the Stehe Fort Saturday night to reorganize the troops. We take this opportunity to say that while we sincerely desire all earnest boys between the ages of 12 and 18 who are willing to work hard and become real scouts, let no boy apply who does not feel able to qualify himself in a reasonable time for promotion. We have much public service ahead, and hereafter the privileges of the hikes and entertainments will open to active scouts only. Remember the time is Saturday night. M. C. JOHNSON.
