CIRCUS FIGHTING NOTABLE PART

Aeroplane "Circus" Introduced By Germans Now Important on the Western Front.

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, May 14.—The airplane "circus," which was introduced by the Germans two years ago has taken a notable part in the fighting on the western front recently. The use of the word "circus" in this connection has now become recognized among both British and French aviators. It indicates virtually a specially organized troop of picked pilots whose job is simply to destroy enemy airplanes.

The first circus was formed by Captain Boelke, one of the early German star pilots. He collected a number of picked pilots, including the Richthofens, Voss, and Schaefer, of whom the two latter have been killed within a year. Boelke himself was killed in 1916, and the elder Richthofen took over the circus.

On the British side the reply came in a squadron organized by Major Hawker, which the Germans called the "Anti-Richthofen Circus." Ultimately Hawker fell in a fight with Richthofen.

During the fighting of the past few weeks several circuses of picked pilots have been in action on both sides.

THE RED CROSS SERVICE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Monday's Daily

The largest crowd that has assembled for any purpose in Nacogdoches for some time was present at the High School building last evening to attend the special union Red Cross service.

People began to gather long before the time for the meeting, and when the services were begun very available seats in the building, both lower story and balcony, was taken, chairs were supplied in the aisles and many stood in the doors and other places, altogether packing every available inch of the space.

The stage was beautifully decorated with flags, and this with the large choir of ladies dressed in Red Cross uniforms presented quite a patriotic effect.

When the time arrived for the services to begin the choir sang "The Star Spangled Banner," followed with a fervent prayer by Rev. M. C. Johnson who implored a Divine Providence to be with those assembled in the service and to be with the forces who were fighting for world-wide peace and liberty.

Following the prayer "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was sung by the choir, appropriate passages of scripture were read by Rev. C. A. Westbrook, followed with a beautiful and inspiring vocal solo by Mrs. Perry, joined by the choir in the chorus singing, "Keep the Home Fires Burning." "The Red White and Blue" a stately march, and "America with a drill by children of the grammar school, also bearing flags and singing patriotic songs made a happy effect.

With the conclusion of the preliminary exercises of the program, leading up to the address, Hon. Beeman Strong in a few well chosen words introduced Hon. W. B. O'Quinn as the speaker of the evening, and the gentleman responded in characteristic eloquence, with one of the greatest addresses ever delivered in Nacogdoches. He led out with the statement that our cause was not only a fight of democracy against autocracy, but Christ against anti-Christ, the enemy appropriating to itself and its vaunted leader divine favor. He reviewed the progress of the war with all its horrors, the causes leading up to America's entry in the arena, the duties and responsibilities resting upon us in the premises, and what we hoped to accomplish, failure in which the fate that would be in store for us. He also gave a history of the organization of the Red Cross and the great work it is doing, making many pretty word pictures of its ministrations of mercy, and concluded with an earnest appeal for all to do their duty. Neither did he spare from criticism that fellow who would be a slacker, in either service or financial support to the full extent of his ability. The speaker also paid Nacogdoches and her people many pretty compliments, a people among whom he first saw the light of day and had always found loyal to every worthy enterprise.

After the speaking Hon. Beeman Strong again took the stand and reported the progress of the campaign thus far, reading a great list of subscriptions to the fund that had already been authorized and calling for more. In response there were generous subscriptions from all parts of the house, coming as fast as they could be recorded for some bit, and altogether putting the old town well on the way of its quota.

It is the patriotic idea of the promoters to have Nacogdoches "over the top" in advance of the day set for the beginning of the campaign, and when the day arrives to be able to wire headquarters the good news. A number of the communities of the county have already sent in more than their allotments, and idea seems to be spreading to all parts of the county, as it should.

People can contribute to no more worthy cause than the Red Cross, the sole mission of which is the relief of distress wherever found. It is the greatest human agency now at work, and that man who does not have fellowship with its good work, to the full extent of his ability, is lacking in the elements of human kindness and patriotism.

To Resist the Attack

of the germs of many diseases such as Grip, Malaria, ...

What is needed most is an increase of the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off the germs, and clarify the blood so there will be no "weak spots," or soil or germ-growth.

We claim for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself.

HUNTINGTON TRAGEDY: OSCAR G. GIBSON DEAD

Oscar G. Gibson has died at his home in Huntington, West Virginia.

T. W. Greer, of Ora, is charged with having killed Gibson and has been released by Judge Adkinson in bond of $2,500.00.

Yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, an altercation arose between Oscar Gibson and Sturgeon McMullen, an employe of the Hawkins Garage. This altercation took place at the depot, and soon attracted a crowd, among the number J. R. Hawkins, McMullen's employer, who intervened and took charge of Gibson, showing him back away from the fray while another citizen performed a similar office for McMullen. In the melee Hawkins and Gibson became involved in a fight. After being separated, Hawkins proceeded to his garage. In a few minutes Gibson appeared at the garage, Hawkins going to the back of the building, leaving T. W. Greer and others in front, admonishing them to keep Gibson out. In a few minutes the shots were heard, and Gibson fell, getting up, however, and walking away. A .35 automatic pistol was found where he fell. Gibson lived about one hour and thirty minutes after being shot. The wound was in the breast and arm.

These facts were gathered by the News-reporter from parties who were present and will be witnesses at the trial, and they are stated as told to the reporter, with several omissions that are deemed unnecessary to publish at present.

The dead man was about 22 years of age and unmarried. Mr. Greer is 39 years old and has a wife and six children.

At a preliminary hearing before Judge Atkinson this morning, Greer was granted bail in the sum of $2,500.00. The bond was soon signed and bore the names of quite a number of prominent men.

Dr. Davis and J. R. Greer, of San Augustine, arrived early this morning and immediately employed counsel for the defendant and assisted in arranging the bond.

Mr. R. C. Monk of this city is in receipt of a copy of "The Stars and Stripes," the official newspaper of the American Forces in France, which is published at Paris and filled with matter that would be of especial interest to the soldier boys on duty "over there." It is a large, well printed paper, with advertisements interspersed and follows the American style in its makeup. The paper was sent to Mr. Monk by his son, Mack Monk, who is with the engineering forces and doing valiant service for his country in its hour of trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs Mast are entertaining a fine new son, born Friday night.

MRS. J. M. MCCUISTIAN DIES AT MEDINA, TEX.

Relatives in the city received a message announcing the death of Mrs. J. M. McCuistian at her home in Medina, Texas, to which place she and family moved from this county some ten years ago. Her remains will be laid to rest in the cemetery of her home town this afternoon.

Mrs. McCuistian was the daughter of the late J. W. Power, a former well known pioneer citizen of this county, and she spent the larger portion of her life in this county. She has three children—all that came to bless her home—buried at North church. She is an aunt of Messrs. J. H., J. F. and W. F. Summers, Mrs. Mary Birdwell and Mrs. Mary Rector. Immediately surviving her are her husband, Mr. J. M. McCuistian, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Power, who made her home with them. She also has four half-sisters living, Mrs. G. W. Faulkner, Mrs. Dan Hodges, Mrs. Dora Patterson of this county, and Mrs. Kate Simpson of San Antonio.

Mrs. McCuistian was seventy years old the sixth day of last October. She was married to Mr. McCuistian in the county Oct. 9, 1867. She united with the Baptist church early in life and was a devoted and consecrated Christian and a good neighbor who was loved and admired by those who knew her.

The many friends of the lady and her surviving family, residing in this section, will be pained to hear of her death and will enter into profound sympathy with the surviving husband who has lost the companion with whom he lived so long.

MRS. SALLIE COPELAND DIED AT DENTON

From her brother, Mr. D. A. Lee of this county, The Sentinel gets the information of the death of Mrs. Sallie Copeland, wife of Sam Copeland, which sad event occurred at her home in Denton on April 27th.

Mrs. Copeland's maiden name was Miss Sallie Lee, and she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Lee of the Shaely Grove community, in this county. She is survived by her husband and five children.

The Copeland family's real home was at Wichita Falls, but they had been residing at Denton the past two years to give the children the benefit of the school and be with them in the meantime. The remains of Mrs. Copeland were carried back to Wichita Falls for interment.

Mrs. Copeland has many friends among the older settlers in this county who will be pained to learn of her death, and who will enter into profound sympathy with the surviving members of her family who have sustained such a great loss.

SUGAR RULING

All wholesalers, jobbers and retailers MUST NOT, after May 15th, sell to manufacturers, regardless of size, sugar for manufacturing purposes, except upon presentation of certificates issued by the Federal Food Administrator for Texas. Manufacturers do not include hotels, restaurants, boarding houses and public eating places, whose products they sold for consumption on the premises, nor bakers, but include all OTHER users of sugar for manufacturing purposes.

It will be necessary for all manufacturers to apply to the Houston office, or the County Administrator for blanks to be filled out and returned to the Houston office, or the County Administrator for blanks to be filled out and returned to the Houston office and based on the statements furnished sugar certificates will be issued. Those starting in business prior to April 1st, 1918 will be taken care of on a percentage basis, but those starting since that time will have to secure permission direct from Washington and receive the recommendation of the County Administrator.

The above will be effective until June 1st, 1918, and on or before that date another statement will be issued.

The new regulations do not affect the present regulations covering the sale of sugar for preserving purposes without securing the signed statements.

Write me for blanks.

R. B. WALTHALL,
Nacogdoches County Food Administrator.

AUXILIARY REPORT.

The Holly Springs Red Cross Auxiliary met Sunday afternoon May 12th.

Much interest was manifested by the crowd present, however, the community was not fully represented on account of inclement weather. Rev. Kendrick delivered a very appropriate address on the subject. His words were so direct and effective that the crowd should not delay in raising the prescribed quota. The people of this place were not content to stop in giving the required amount, but went "over-top" by several dollars when the good men of the community liberally contributed to the Red Cross supply fund.

LOCAL DEALERS DO BUSINESS IN OPEN

Know They Must Face the Music
 if Their Customers Are Displeased.

MEET PATRONS FACE TO FACE

Mail Order Men Prefer to Sell at Long Distance Rather Than Deal With People in Their Own Cities.

(Copyright.)
 One of the stock excuses of the man who orders goods from a mail order house is that there are many things that he wants that the local merchants do not carry in stock, and that it is necessary for him to send away
 from town to get them.

This explanation may be all right on the theory that a poor excuse is better than none, but it fails to pass muster when it is subjected to a little scrutiny.

Ask the man who offers this as an excuse for his dealings with the mail order man why he does not go to the local merchant and ask him to order the articles desired if they are not to be found in the merchant's stock. The merchant will very gladly do this, and the merchant and customer will both profit. The merchant can sell you whatever you desire at as low a price
 as the mail order house can make you on goods the same quality and he can make a small profit.

The customer will profit from the transaction because he will be dealing with a merchant who stands back of the goods that he sells, and who is easily accessible in case the articles purchased do not prove to be all that the customer had expected.

Give Home Merchant Preference.
 Why not try this plan the next time you need something which you can not find in any of your home stores?
 The merchant in the average street
 town cannot carry in stock everything that all of the people in his town may want at all times. It would require a capital many times larger than the average merchant can command to do this. But he does the best he can.
 He ordinarily does carry in stock at all times many things for which there is no general demand, in order that he may meet the needs of his customers to the greatest possible degree, but there is a limit to his purchasing ability. He is always ready and willing, however, to make every effort to meet the demands of the community. Why not, then, give him the preference over the far-distant mail order man if you must have something which is not to be found in the local stores? He will do the business in a satisfactory manner, give you as quick if not quicker service and more satisfactory treatment, and the chances are that he will give you better values for the money. Finally, whatever profit is to be made off the transaction will stay at home and do its bit toward making the merchant and his town and, incidentally yourself, more prosperous.

No business can be transacted as satisfactorily at long range as it can when the two parties to the transaction meet face to face. The only exception to this rule is in the case of the mail order man himself, who can transact his business with greater success to himself at long distance than he could if he had to meet his customers face to face. That is the reason that he does business by mail instead of selling to the people in his own city. If the goods which the mail order man advertises in his alluring catalogues were the bargains that he represents them to be, he would not have to go outside of the confines of his own city to sell all the goods he could possibly obtain. But the average mail order house not only does not make any effort to sell goods in its own city, but will not sell to anyone residing within the city limits. The mail order man does not want to meet his customers face to face. He can do business better so far as he is concerned if his customer is some hundreds of miles away from his office.

Does Business in Open.
 The man who sells goods over the counter, on the other hand, does business in the open. He cannot hide behind a corporate name or talk to a displeased customer from behind the locked doors of private office. He knows that he must face the music in case he is a party to any transaction that won't stand the light of day. He knows that he must satisfy every customer with whom he may be dealing or he will lose not only that customer
 but probably others who will soon know all the facts if he does not do the square thing by any one of his patrons.

There is no reason in the world for any person to send his money to a mail order house because he cannot find the article he wants in his local store. The local merchant is in business for the very purpose of getting you what you want. He has the information that will enable him to get desire to help farmers near Austin with their work several

KEEPING UP WITH MEN GOING ABROAD

(By Associated Press.)
 WASHINGTON, May 11.—Although Americans are going overseas in large numbers, the ordinance department has been able to keep up with the new program, and all going abroad are fully equipped with arms, the ordnance bureau announces.

Artillery and machine guns are already in France, in sufficient quantities, it is said, to meet the immediate demands.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy
 hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp, of dandruff—that awful scurf.
 There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine
 on your hair! Try it!

COURT AFFIRMS HINDI DEV'S CASE OF GAS WARFARE

Old Form of Gas Warfare First Used as Surprise Has Been Discarded.

LONDON, May 11.—The gas warfare has developed to a very considerable extent since its first use as a surprise weapon by the Germans at the second battle of Ypres. Then the gas cloud or "wave" was released from ground cylinders, but now gas is emitted in the trenches and discharged by pipes leading through the parapets.

This form of attack has now been largely discarded, for it depended for effectiveness on the prevailing wind blowing from the right quarters. It soon became apparent that the gas shell
 was a far more important weapon than any gas cloud or wave, for its action is independent of the wind and a continuous barrage of gas shells can be kept up so that the whole target area is continuously poisoned.

Though entirely surprised by the first German gas attack, the British and French quickly devised defensive measures and every soldier was supplied with a gas mask. The box respirator which every allied soldier
 now carries is an absolute protection against all forms of gas provided that it is put on at the first alarm and is not removed until the danger is past.

But it is very difficult to fight hour after hour without removing the respirator. There can be little speech, and a man can neither eat, drink or smoke.
 During a gas attack there must be as little unnecessary moving as possible, for violent movements of the body are likely to displace the mask and let a little of the poisoned air into the lungs. Gas attacks are now used largely by both sides for the bombardment of back areas and lines of communication. The shifting of hostile battles and as a barrage previous to an infantry attack, when their effect is often supplemented by gas cylinders.

The effect of a gas attack is much worse
 and lasts much longer in closed spaces, such as trenches and dugouts, and is more effective in towns and villages than in the open. There are many kinds of gas now in common use. There is a purely suffocating gas; a tear gas, which attacks the eyes; a sneezing gas, intended to make an easier assimilation of the poison gas which accompanies it; and lastly the mustard gas, which is an eye, lung and skin irritant.

Gas shells in most cases contain a mixture, designed to produce a double effect. The shells are fired by guns of all calibre,
 and gas "mines" and "torpedoes"
 are discharged from trench mortars.

The majority of gas casualties recover quickly provided they have been only slightly exposed to the fumes before they put their respirators on. The effects of the irritant mustard gas are not usually serious, the most cases recovering in two or three days. It is generally stated that the gas attacks of the French and British are more potent even than those of the Germans, while the Allies' respirators are much better than the German because the Germans have not been able to get rubber enough to use it plentifully in these instruments. The German mask is of leather or treated so badly that German gas casualties have been inordinately
 heavy.

BELGIANS GRATEFUL FOR AMERICAN AID

PARIS, May 11.—In all 6,015,614,000 pounds of foodstuffs have reached the Belgian civil population through the Commission for Relief in Belgium from November 1, 1914 to October 31, 1917. It is announced. "It is due to the marvelous generosity of the United States of America
 that the Belgians have escaped destruction through famine," says the Information Belges, a publication edited at Havre under the auspices of the Belgian government. "They will never forget it," it adds.

The average distribution of foodstuffs for the Belgian population during the three years referred to above was 5,480,000 pounds daily.
 Importations into Belgium
 would have reached much greater figures had it not been for numerous sinkings by German U-boats of ships loaded with foodstuffs for the Belgians.

Helps

There are two goods of patriots: Optimist and pessimists. The optimist feels victory in the air. The pessimist throws a fit every time the Germans gain 200 yards. The Sentinel is an optimist.

After so much war work and war talk, the forthcoming Chattanooga will be a happy diversion which will not detract from any of the missions of the service but enable us to take it more happily. Get your season ticket now.

Because a few of the more liberal are subscribing generously to the Red Cross fund, don't get the idea that your subscription will not be needed. Everybody should have fellowship to the extent of his ability, in this great cause. Either of the banks of the city will give you a receipt for the amount.

The Timpson Times announces that it has perfected arrangements to add the Associated Press service to its daily issue as soon as the local telegraph office can arrange to handle the work. And that reminds us that the Sentinel experienced no delay from this quarter, and has received perfect service since its installation, for all of which we are very thankful.

If you have only one dollar or a thousand dollars you can spare to the fund of the Red Cross, call on one of the banks and contribute it at once. It is impossible for the committees to see all in fact, it is a cause for which no committee should be needed and you should feel equal interest with them. Your contribution will bless some one in distress, and if you give it in the right spirit, it will bless you.

We will admit that our neighbor up the creek has within its borders a man who makes a most excellent brand of peanut candy—but why on earth the an don't move to Lufkin is one of the unexplained mysteries. Lufkin News. Oh, little Lufkin, don't you cry. You'll be a city, bye and bye.

The facts and figures in the latter of Thrift Stamp Sales turned the Lufkin News, and it is squirming. In one paragraph the exchange says: "April 17th is ancient history. The Nacogdoches Sentinel may not know it, but many things have happened since that date." In many things have happened and the Sentinel is ready for a comparison of the next official report which will soon be forthcoming. But to make sure of not being caught in another trap. The News in its comment follows up with another paragraph: "The dear old Sentinel finds some discrepancies in our Thrift Stamp figures. And the Sentinel may be right. Even our neighbor across the creek cannot be expected to be wrong all the time."

There is only one place in Texas where seventeen full-page advertisements could possibly be sold in one day—and the name of that place is Lufkin. Hello, Nacogdoches, shake up your receiver hook; we can't hear you. Lufkin News.

That is an odd number, and we guess the contemporary is correct in the statement that it could occur nowhere except in Lufkin. Recent issues of Nacogdoches papers have carried sixteen, twenty and other even number of pages, but we have no record of any having carried exactly seventeen. The distinction is yours—and we observe that you need it.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Aills have returned from a visit to relatives and friends at Jacksonville.

THE RED CROSS SERVICE WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Monday's Daily. The largest crowd that has assembled for any purpose in Nacogdoches is going to be Red Cross jubilee day. The indications are that practically every district in the county is going to be over the top with their quotas by that time and will be at the county seat to help celebrate instead of for the purpose of soliciting more subscriptions.

Plans are rapidly maturing for the program of the day. Waverly Briggs, one of the most distinguished Red Cross orators of the entire country will be here to deliver the address of the day. The committee feels very fortunate in getting Mr. Briggs here for the occasion. He was up until a few months ago, the managing editor of the Galveston News, but left the News for a period to take up Red Cross work upon the urgent insistence of Mr. E. C. Simmons of the Simmons Hardware company of St. Louis who is manager of the Southwestern division of which we are a part. Mr. Briggs' headquarters are now in St. Louis and it was only from the fact that he was to be in Texas a few days at this particular time that the committee was able to secure him. He is a very eloquent speaker and will have a message which everyone in Nacogdoches county should hear.

Having secured one of the best speakers in Red Cross work for the day the committee is now busy completing arrangements for the great parade. It has been decided to include other units besides the women relatives of soldier and sailor boys in the parade, but these will have the place of honor. Arrangements will be made to close the stores just in the afternoon, so there will be nothing to detract from the exercises which will be held on the college campus.

The parade will form shortly afternoon with the mothers, wives, sisters, sweethearts or other near women relatives of soldiers and sailors occupying a place of honor and followed by many other organizations which are being worked out now. It is planned to leave room for citizens to fall in line so that all may take part. A section will be reserved for the colored folks who are expected to work out some plans with the committee. The parade will form on the college campus and will march down through the city and back to the campus where the speaking and other exercises will be held.

A number of things have been contributed to the Red Cross to be sold for the benefit of the big drive on this day—the proceeds of which will go to the cause. John P. Davidson has given the committee a nice Jersey heifer. There is a pig or two—perhaps more. These are all going to be put in the parade and by Saturday it is expected that there will be a nice showing of this nature.

Manager Naman wants a number of Dominecker roosters brought in to be used in the parade if necessary. The little Dominicker represents the fellow who can, but won't contribute and it is planned to represent these fellows by having the Dominickers led at the rear of the parade. At the present time no one—absolutely no one has been found who could be classed as a Dominicker, and it is unlikely that there will be when the campaign closes.

Communities are reporting that they are over the top right along. Speakers went to Twilight last night and that district went 155 per cent at the close of the meeting. Manager Naman is very anxious for all districts to report promptly when their quota is secured so that the county can be just as early as possible in reporting its quota secured. It would be safe in reporting that it will go over the top right now, but no report is going to be made until the subscriptions have been turned in.

Everybody in the county should be in Nacogdoches Saturday May 18th, because there never has been a circus here which will equal that day.

Judge S. M. King has been in the city today on his return from Shelby county, where he opened his campaign for congress last week, and has been kept pretty busy receiving the greetings of his many friends.

To Resist the Attack

Monday's Daily. The largest crowd that has assembled for any purpose in Nacogdoches is going to be Red Cross jubilee day. The indications are that practically every district in the county is going to be over the top with their quotas by that time and will be at the county seat to help celebrate instead of for the purpose of soliciting more subscriptions.

Tuesday night, May 7th, county Chairman C. D. Atwell visited the Washington school (colored) east of Appleby and had a rousing meeting. This community however is working under difficulties. All the men are members of the Red Cross, but some good American has been telling these colored patriots that the women members will be compelled to go to France and work. Therefore the Washington district can not boast a single woman member, thanks to another mysterious propagandist.

Saturday, the 11th, Mr. Geo. T. McNess and Rev. C. D. Atwell attended a picnic at the Tom Maroney farm at 2:30 p. m. and helped to raise their quota. Everyone responded to the call for new subscriptions after the address. At 4 p. m. they went on to Blake and were met with a large and enthusiastic crowd. A working organization was formed with the following officers: Chairman, Mrs. Myrtle Thomason, Vice-Chairman, Mrs. R. W. Sullivan, Secretary, Miss Jennie Seale, Treasurer, Mr. R. W. Sullivan.

This organization pledged themselves to meet their quotas. Sunday Mr. Naman and Rev. Atwell visited Harmony. The rally here was prevented by a sad accident, however. Just before the time for the meeting two young men nearby were struck by lightning, one of them being killed and the other seriously injured.

On Thursday a party composed of Red Cross and thrift stamp workers motored to Swift and Shady Grove. Mrs. Atwell went in the interest of the Red Cross and reports a good gathering at both points. They are anxious to do as much work as possible, and their meetings are well attended.

Friday Mrs. Atwell, Mrs. T. Trigg, Mrs. J. M. Sanders and the Misses Atwell went to Rock Springs (Twilight) to organize an auxiliary. The following officers were elected: Chairman, Mrs. W. H. Handy, Vice-Chairman, L. A. Sitton, Jr., Secretary, R. M. Burke, Treasurer, L. A. Sitton, Jr.

There were a number of enthusiastic women present and ready for work. They bought muslin for bandages, which they began making at once. On Monday the 13th, they held their second meeting, a report of which will be published next week.

Saturday Mrs. Beeman Strong Miss Zeve and Mrs. Atwell spent the day in Chireno and Attoyac. At Chireno Mrs. Atwell inspected the work already done, as well as instructing the ladies in the making of several new garments and bandages.

In Attoyac the first working meeting was held Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Atwell found a fine attendance, and great enthusiasm concerning the work a hand. If this splendid interest keeps up Attoyac will be one of our most productive organizations. At present they are an auxiliary to Chireno, with 70 members, but are working to raise their membership to 100 in order that they become an independent branch.

MRS. J. M. M'QUISTIAN DIES AT MEDINA, TEX.

Relatives in the city received information of the death of Mrs. J. M. M'Quistian at Medina, Texas, May 11, 1918.

Let me announce emphatically my opposition to the Emerson Bill, now pending in congress which has for its purpose the fixing of a maximum price of twenty cents per pound for cotton. This bill, as admitted by its author, had its inception in the brain of the cotton manufacturer in the east, who have been fixing the price of cotton for the southern farmer for sixty years by the manipulation of the cotton market. Now, they find they are unable to do so by this method and turn to Congress with a request that they be permitted to further impoverish the cotton farmer of the South through an act of Congress. They are even unwilling to embody in the bill a guarantee of this price, but insist upon a maximum of twenty cents per pound, with the privilege of forcing it lower if possible, and, under the bill, it would be possible for cotton to go as low as three cents per pound. Cotton cannot be produced under present conditions for twenty cents per pound.

The statement can be made without fear of contradiction that the cotton farmer has not made a single dollar profit on cotton up to the season of 1917. In a small area in the New England States, not over one-fifth the size of the State of Texas, devoted to the manufacture of our cotton, there is more wealth than is possessed by every cotton farmer from Virginia to Texas. The manufacture of cotton in New England and the State of Ohio is not authority on the cost of producing cotton in Texas. Three years ago we bought gingham at ten cents per yard and now pay twenty-five; ducking at fifteen cents per yard and now thirty-five; domestic ten cents per yard and now twenty-five cents, and bleaching nine cents per yard and now twenty-two and a half cents per yard. These prices are fixed by the manufacturers of New England. They not only insist on fixing the price of cotton they buy from us, but they claim the right and do fix the price of manufactured cotton which they sell to us.

Every enterprise in times of peace even, is dependent on the farmer; the world looks to him for food and raiment and now, in times of war, the very success of our soldiers depend on the American farmers. He has never failed his government and he will not fail it in this great conflict, but I insist that he must be given a fair chance.

Much has been accomplished for the farming industry by our present Democratic Administration in Washington. The Federal Reserve Act, the Rural Credit Act, the Cotton Futures Act, the Farm Loan Bill and many others looking to the betterment of the farmer and the improvement of farming conditions. I favor an amendment to the Farm Loan Act, so as to permit the farmer to borrow at least seventy-five per cent of the conservative value of farm lands. As the law now is, only fifty-five per cent can be borrowed from the bank. The object of the law is to place a home within the reach of the tenant farmer, and in most instances they are unable to pay the fifty per cent cash that is required under the law. The amendment advocated by me would give an opportunity to the farmer to obtain one and pay for it on easy payments and at a low rate of interest.

Congress should continue liberal provisions not only for the extension of the scope of the department of agriculture and all other agencies for the improvement of country life. LABOR "I want to pay a tribute to labor in industrial plants that is highly merited and to say that it is not only their right but their duty to organize for the betterment of their working and living conditions. The Democratic Administration is to be commended for having established the Department of Labor, through which the interest of labor can be promoted. The bureau of safety in that department should be organized upon

WILL YOU BE ONE?

IMMIGRATION.

After the war is ended, I predict that a great tide of immigration from Europe to America; and I will favor an enactment of stringent laws by the congress for the purpose of restricting immigration to the end that no undesirable shall ever be permitted to enter this country.

WAR

The overshadowing issue now in every American home is the war, and its successful prosecution and speedy end. I unqualifiedly pledge my best efforts in supporting President Wilson in the prosecution of the war. I shall favor every measure looking to the material and moral welfare of our soldiers, both in the camps of this country and on the battle fields of Europe. Germany must be defeated. America must furnish not only the wealth and resources, but the men. These men must live under sanitary conditions and in moral surroundings. They must be adequately clothed, sheltered, fed and armed. Upon the American congress, acting for the American people, rests the responsibility of these tremendous tasks. I am proud that I am from a family of patriots, who from time immemorial have with unfaltering courage stood by their country when it was in need of their services. They have fought in every war in which this country has been engaged. Many lie in unmarked graves on nearly every battlefield in the United States, and I thank God they did not run away, but always fought for what they conceived to be right. Two of my brothers and myself have seen service in the United States army of volunteer soldiers. Two of us have crossed the ocean to do our bit when the nation needed us. Our discharges all read "Service honest and faithful." I have labored faithfully in every capacity in which I have been called upon to serve since war has been declared. Should the people send me to Washington, as their representative in congress, I will go with the glow of patriotism in my soul, with a steadfast purpose to put my shoulder to the wheel and push with all my might the plans and purposes of our beloved president in a successful prosecution of the war. The welfare and comfort of our boys over there will be uppermost in my mind, and I will work to the end that they may speedily and successfully terminate the war and return safely to their homes to enter again the pursuits of peace made safe by victory.

PROHIBITION

The present congress has eliminated the question of prohibition from national politics by virtue of the submission to the states of an amendment to the Federal Constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. The states are rapidly ratifying this amendment and when the legislatures of three-fourths of the states shall have ratified the same national prohibition will have been realized. I favor all measures which will have for their purpose the putting into effect of this amendment so that the object of the amendment may be realized and will work faithfully to that end.

DEEP WATER

The Sabine Pass, the Port Arthur canal, the Sabine-Neches canal, the Neches river to Beaumont, the Sabine River to Orange, as well as Taylor's Bayou for about two miles should be deepened to a depth of at least thirty-two feet, with appropriate widening of all channels; the harbors of the ports of Sabine, Port Arthur, Port Neches, Beaumont and Orange should be widened and deepened. The present depth is wholly inadequate to accommodate the large and growing commerce that is seeking outlet to the markets of the world. There is now a tremendous volume of tonnage passing through these channels and the same is increasing rapidly. I want to emphasize the importance also of these ports to the nation in the prosecution of the war. With these channels widened and deepened, the ports of this district would become logical places for the establishment of a naval base. The ship building industry has grown to tremendous proportion and ships are being constructed and launched for the use of the government. The great refineries in the vicinity of these waterways are furnishing the very sinews to the American navy and navies of the allies. These great industries are giving employment at good wages to thousands of citizens. Besides these industries, these channels are beginning to carry the commerce from the mills and farms of East Texas. Deep water means reduced freight rates and enables the producers of farm and manufactured articles to get their products to the markets of the world at less expense and enables them to buy the stuff they need at a cheaper figure. These improvements would directly ben-

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up any corn or callus so it lifts right off

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without a bit of pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezone, costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried as it is inexpensive and is said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know this.

BRENHAM WOMEN WILL HOLD MOCK ELECTION

BRENHAM, May 13.—The women of Washington County will hold a mock election May 23 at the Brenham public library for the purpose of instructing women how to vote in the forthcoming July election. The voting will be conducted in the same manner pursued in regular elections and the purpose is to teach the women the fundamental principles of government, and the absolute necessity of a knowledge of the laws controlling elections, especially as they are applied to women.

EIGHT STEEL SHIPS FINISHED LAST WEEK

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 14.—Eight steel ships, totalling forty-eight thousand, one hundred and fifty tons were completed during the seven days ending May 11th.

Fourteen vessels were launched with a total tonnage of fifty-seven thousand, one hundred, of which seven were steel with a total capacity of thirty-two thousand, one hundred tons.

This brings the tonnage to be delivered to the government under the direction of the shipping board to more than a million tons. A hundred and fifty nine ships have been completed.

WOMEN EXEMPT FROM REGISTER

When the new law allowing women to vote in the primaries was first passed it was generally understood that all women who desired to vote would have to register with the tax collector of the county in which they reside. Our tax collector went so far as to procure the necessary blanks for the purpose and arranged to visit the different voting precincts of the county to give the women opportunity to register with the least possible trouble. But a late ruling from the attorney general's department is to the effect that this requirement is for the cities of over ten thousand population. To be absolutely sure of his bearing, our tax collector wrote the attorney general in the matter and is in receipt of the following reply, which is self-explanatory: Austin, Texas, May 10, 1918. Mr. J. C. Melton, Tax Collector. Dear Sir: Replying to yours of the 9th inst., making inquiry as to the necessity of women registering in your county, beg to advise that I am herewith enclosing copy of an opinion heretofore rendered by the Department, from which you will note that we hold that it is not necessary for women to register if they reside in a city of ten thousand and inhabitants, or over. Yours truly, B. F. LOONEY, Attorney General.

THIRTY THOUGHT

Desiring to help "Win the War" by supporting President Wilson and his administration to the end that the United States may furnish every available soldier (well fed, clothed and equipped) to make Democracy safe and all peoples free, the following have promised to purchase War Savings Stamps in amounts given below, between now and January 1st, 1919:

CAMPBELL DISTRICT IS "OVER THE TOP"

Mr. W. D. Burrows, an enterprising citizen of the community, called at The Sentinel office Tuesday afternoon and informed us that his community known as the Campbell School District had "gone over the top" in the Red Cross contribution. The quota of the community was placed at $100, and at a mass meeting of citizens last Sunday afternoon $120 was raised in fifteen minutes. Mr. Burrows says that they have more contribution in sight. He also says that the colored people of the community are responding generously with their part, and that all are entering heartily and cheerfully into the noble cause.

SPRADLEY WILL SPEAK

The Sentinel is in receipt of a communication from Mr. A. J. Spradley requesting notice of the announcement that he will speak on the streets of Nacogdoches Saturday afternoon, after the Red Cross demonstration. He says: "I will devote the first part of my talk to the Red Cross, its noble principles and purposes in standing behind our boys that are fighting, bleeding and dying that Americans might retain their cherished rights of Americanism. Then I want to show that we at home are trampling under foot the very principles that our brave boys are fighting for on foreign soil, depriving our citizenship of the guaranteed freedom of the press and freedom of free speech. This will be coupled with the outrages perpetrated on Jas. E. Ferguson when he was robbed of the office that a great majority of the free voters gave him."

BRIGADE INFANTRY TO BE ORGANIZED

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, May 15.—Adjutant General James A. Harley has announced that three regiments of infantry, practically amounting to a brigade, will be raised in the state of Texas as soon as the organization of two brigades of cavalry, now under way, is completed.

The authorization for the infantry brigade probably will be made within two weeks, General Harley declares. Several men throughout the state have asked permission to raise infantry companies, Harley said. He declared that these permissions in all probability will be granted. The impression that a man in a deferred class who joins the new cavalry or infantry automatically will be placed in Class A-1 is erroneous, General Harley declared. "The standing of such men in regard to the draft will remain precisely as before," the general said, adding that it probably will be two months before the new guard is federalized. "However," Harley continued, "I have received assurances that the new guard will be taken into the federal service without delay. It is my idea that each troop will have intermittent drill for some weeks before mobilization. As soon as possible, mobilization will take place and then the new guard will be increased by the infantry brigade."

THE SODA FOUNTAINS MUST GET CERTIFICATES

THIS WOMAN SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, One of Thousands of Such Cases.

Black River Falls, Wis.—"As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation, I cannot say enough in praise of it. I suffered from organic troubles and my side hurt me so I could hardly be up from my bed, and I was unable to do my housework. I had the best doctors in Eau Claire and they wanted me to have an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me so I did not need the operation, and I am telling all my friends about it."—Mrs. A. W. BINSER, Black River Falls, Wis.

It is just such experiences as that of Mrs. Binsler that has made this famous root and herb remedy a household word from ocean to ocean. Any woman who suffers from inflammation, ulceration, displacements, backache, nervousness, irregularities or "the blues" should not rest until she has given it a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. "KEEP THE RECORD STRAIGHT."

The Lufkin postoffice is leading all the other East Texas postoffices in the sale of Thrift Stamps. It is not doing business in a fine federal building, either.—Lufkin News.

The above editorial pot-shot appeared in the Lufkin contemporary several days ago, and The Sentinel delayed taking notice of it until we could examine the records—and thereby "keep the record straight."

For the information of a general nature it contains. The Sentinel reproduces the report of Louis Lipsitz, state director of the War Savings work, filed April 17th, which is the last, for all the surrounding counties. In this report Rusk county leads, with sales to the amount of $242,630.89. Cherokee with sales to the amount of $168,388.41. Nacogdoches is third with $110,171.62. Shelby county has to her credit $62,309.48, San Augustine $29,467.00, and Angelina brings up the rear, at the tail end, with only $22,596.55. And this is in the town where they have such a big flag pole!

Events of the past few days have demonstrated that the British people made no mistake when they decided to "Let George do it."

A Nacogdoches bootlegger is said to be peddling a brand of liquor called the "Restaurant Service."—When somebody asked him why he had chosen the name he said: "Well, the worse it gets, the more I charge for it."—Lufkin News.

And he says his best trade is coming from Lufkin. Customers will even meet him at the bridge, which is the dividing line of the two counties, and it is also reported that the writer of the above will lay aside his bay rum when he can get "Restaurant Service."

If you have no money, and cannot help in any other way, you can talk and write, and thus encourage others.—Tyler Morning Tribune.

That gets our number. We have no money—if we had we would invest to the last farthing in the enterprise of the war, but have given the paper over in unlimited amount to every helpful enterprise that has for its purpose this great cause, one member of the firm is devoting whole time on the draft board, and we shy at nothing in which we can contribute in lieu of money. As noted by the contemporary, everyone can do something, and the right kind of service is the equivalent of money so far as it goes.

"PRAYER OF THE BELL."

This pretty little story has its setting in the town in which Mr. D. H. Barnett of this city was reared:

There is a little town about sixty miles south of Birmingham on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, called Verbena. The town is well-named. It is a haven of the old-fashioned Southern flower. It is peopled by simple farmer folk. Some substantial citizens of Montgomery keep summer homes there.

There are few sounds about the place. An occasional rattan wagon rattles down a red dirt road, drawing an empty wagon to the general store or home, pleasantly back toward the Chilton County hills. Occasionally a gentle wind causes the leaves of the oak trees that shade the town to sigh one of those sighs of content that men breathe after a good meal or a good sermon, or a well-rendered piece of music.

It is as peaceful a place as can be found in Alabama or any other place. It might well have been modeled after Goldsmith's "Sweet Auburn."

But there is a new sound there now. It is the Angelus of Strife. It calls the people of Verbena not only to worship, but to deeds.

Every afternoon at six o'clock the bell of the Verbena church rings. It continues to ring for two minutes, and while its brazen voice is lifted the people of Verbena stand and pray.

With heads uncovered and bowed, each man, each woman, each child, each saint and each sinner, repeats these words: "God bless our President, our soldiers, and the Nation, and guide them on to victory."

When the sound begins the observance of its call is universal. Men halt in the streets. Wagons are pulled up on the road. Women rise from their knitting or pause in their cooking, for they have early suppers in Verbena. The plowman halts his work, and each repeats the prayer.

Verbena calls it "The Prayer of the Bell," and it is said that men who have never been known to pray before, answer its call dutifully.—Exchange.

ADOPT THE MONTANA PLAN

Montana has a state council of defense and the council has made a rule requiring all men to labor, to do five days' work a week upon pain of prosecution under the broad powers given the council. All able-bodied men, all men who are able to labor, should be compelled to labor.

Montana is only setting the pace, declares the Ohio State Journal, and "the Hun is not half slaughtered yet." As long as there is a Hun soldier to slaughter, there is work to be done in the United States. Civilians must do it.

All the idlers, the luxurious rich and lazy poor should be drafted for the industrial army of America.

George M. Bailey of the Houston Post has the correct idea: "No able-bodied man living in idleness, millionaire or pauper, ought to have one swallow of victuals unless he works. Texas has a state council of defense. Why shouldn't the Texas council of defense adopt the Montana plan?"—Fort Worth Record.

There are four urgent reasons why you should act at once in selecting your Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet. Read

1 MILLION HAVE BEEN CALLED IN THE DRAFT

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, May 11.—More than 1,300,000 men have been called in the draft so far and either are in France, in camp, or under call for service before June the 1st.

It is indicated that more men will be called in June than summoned in May and a progressive monthly mobilization will continue as the campments expand.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There is no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can not salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless. Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, swollen tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you drink Dodson's Liver Tonic, you get better than horrible calomel, your money is waiting for you.

FROM CHAUFFEUR TO SECOND LIEUTENANT

CAMP TRAVIS, May 11.—From chauffeur to a second lieutenant with an alluring assignment is the stride made by Roy C. Campbell, for some months a sergeant in the Ninetieth division here. Lieutenant Campbell now is at Camp Cold, Gettysburg, Pa., attending a training school for officers assigned to the tank service. Campbell enlisted in 1915 and went to the front with General Pershing. Upon his return to Fort Sam Houston, he entered the school for chauffeurs and mechanics, where his ability quickly showed itself. He later was chosen by Major General Henry T. Allen as his private chauffeur, and his promotion soon followed.

Captain W. E. Thomason of Nacogdoches was in the city for a short time yesterday in the interest of the company he has organized in Nacogdoches with a membership of 107, calling at The News office while here to pay his respects to the force and assure them of the pleasure he and other Nacogdoches folks derived each day from the exchange of wits of the editors of the two papers. Captain Thomason impressed us as a man capable in every way for the discharge of his duties in the efficient handling of a company of men, and with his enthusiasm and previous military training will be in a position to bring his troop to the front in short order.—Lufkin News.

Maytown has the distinction of being the first district "over the top" in the second Red Cross war fund campaign. Maytown sending in her check Friday was for an amount about $1500 over the quota and requested that she be accorded the honor of being the first district in the county over the top if her check was here first. Campaign Manager Naman turned the check over to the treasurer and wrote the Maytown people a letter of congratulation.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Petty and little grand-daughter, Willie May Durrett, of Mahl, were visitors to the city today, and made this office a pleasant call.

Stop the "Snuffles"

If you want to make your distressed babies easy and comfortable, give Foley's Honey and Tar. It is just what they ought to have for feverish colds, coughs, "snuffles," and wheezy breathing. It stops croup, too. Foley's Honey and Tar tastes good and the little ones like it. It contains no morphine, chloroform or other drug that you wouldn't like to give to young children. Do not accept a substitute. Mrs. E. H. Carter, Schoolfield, Va., writes: "My baby was stricken with a severe cold and cold-cough—wouldn't sleep and was very restless and it ached all over him. He has been better all day since." Stripling, Hazelwood & Co.

If Swift & Company Made No Profit

The cattle raiser would receive only 1/8 cent a pound more for his cattle

So small is Swift & Company's profit on any single transaction that if it were turned over to the cattle raisers of the country, they would receive only 1/8 cent a pound more for cattle than they receive now.

Swift & Company pays for live cattle about 90% of the amount received for dressed meat and by-products. The remaining 10% pays for packing-house expense, freight to market, operation of distributing houses and profit. Swift & Company's actual figures per head for 1917 on over two million cattle were as follows:

Receipts		Payments
From By-products	$24.00 26%	Paid for Live Cattle	$84.45 91%
From Meat	$68.97 74%
Total	$93.06	Total	$93.06

* This net profit of $1.29 per head averages 1/8 cent a pound live weight.

And out of this small net profit dividends must be paid to shareholders.

LIGHTNING KILLED MANY YESTERDAY

Two Others Stunned While Three Were Returning From Church.

Monday's Daily While the eighteen-year-old son of J. B. Christopher and two sons of W. J. Christopher were returning from church yesterday, and when near the home of W. J. Christopher, lightning struck a pine tree near the boys and deflected, in the course of which the shock killed the son of J. B. Christopher and stunned the other two boys, one escaping with slight injuries but the condition of the other appearing serious for some time.

The Sentinel was unable to learn the names of the boys or other particulars. The Christopher families reside in the Alazan community, and are among the good citizens of the county.

The remains of the young man who was killed will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Gravelly Ridge at 2:00 o'clock this afternoon.

VOCATIONAL TRAINING.

The one topic of daily interest, most universally discussed, is the war. The United States is fighting one of the most successful nations of the world—ourselves yet unprepared for the monstrous warfare we have entered upon. Our eyes have been opened to one startling fact by reason of the war, and that is that notwithstanding we boast that our free common schools one of the chief pillars of the Republic are the best in the wide world, in the training that a young person should receive to fit him or her for work in life, the United States ranks with Russia and China. Our schools are assuredly open to every child in the land, but the hard necessity of earning bread and butter finds that not one-half our children are able to take full advantage of these schools beyond a certain grade, and at eleven years of age scholars begin leaving the schools to work for a living.

Have not we seen, ourselves, in this very county of Nacogdoches many a stalwart boy of thirteen years kept out of school to run the plow because his father thought he needed his labor in the field to sustain the home? Can it be that there are father-farmers who think more of a kernel of corn than they do of their son's training for life?

Although we have nearly thirteen millions of persons engaged in agriculture, less than ten per cent of these millions could boast of any training in agriculture. We have as well in the U. S. A. ten or twelve million workers in manufacturing and mechanical pursuits, and of these not one-quarter of one per cent have been able to acquire an adequate training for their life's work. The German at manhood's estate is ninety-eight per cent a trained man. He is not only a soldier, but has acquired a peaceful vocation or calling that makes him doubly efficient. If as a youth he has to work in the shop or on the farm to earn a living, he must also spend six to ten hours a week, for several years in the study of a vocation, the instruction being gratuitous and given in the evenings on a Sunday. Bismark in 1871, when he welded the various German provinces into one imperial German empire, planned none the less for soldiers of peace to make Germany the power that she is today in many things, than he did to round out the soldier cohorts for war.

President Wilson having become aroused to the startling and woeful lack of our institutions to arrange and enforce vocational training of our youth, appointed in July a commission known as "The Board for Vocational Education," and in February, 1917, congress passed the so-called Smith-Hughes Vocational Education Act. By this act the Federal Government is to co-operate with the states to maintain education in agriculture and all trades to all the boys and girls who might otherwise go out absolutely untrained for life's work. Up to a certain amount each year the Federal government gives each state that will work under the above act a sum equal to what the state itself will raise and appropriate for this same purpose of vocational training. The respective

Big Camps Have Bell Service

The Bell Telephone System has supplied complete telephone systems for the National Army Cantonments and National Guard Camps.

Each has been equipped with a complete telephone system consisting of a switchboard and a modern cable distributing plant, and supplied with especially trained switchboard operators.

Long stretches of open wire and cables, containing from fifty to one hundred pairs of wires furnish trunking and toll facilities to nearby cities. Where the camps are remote from any large town or city, toll switchboards have been installed.

Telephone equipment which under normal conditions would require from nine to ten months to manufacture was manufactured and installed in less than four months, to meet the military needs of the Nation.

SHORTAGE RICE FARMERS IN BEAUMONT COUNTRY

(By Associated Press) BEAUMONT, May 13.—

Unless a sufficient number of rice farmers can be found at once there will be 2500 "slacker" acres in Chambers county. The land which it is desired to cultivate was in bad condition in the early spring, according to T. A. Jenkins of Winnie. Numerous farmers moved away. The recent rise in the Trinity river, however, washed the salt water out and the land now is in fine condition.

Mr. A. E. Baker, a well known citizen of the Chireno country, accompanied by his little son, Charley Baker, were visitors to the city Saturday afternoon, and made this office a pleasant call while here. The little boy is just recovering from an automobile accident which he suffered some six weeks ago when a passing car ran over him and broke one of his hips. He still gets about with a limp, and it is feared that the injured member will always be a little shorter than the other, but hopes are entertained that he will have good use of it save for the apparent short step.

J. E. Reese and Clifford Mast of the Coast Artillery Co., have been visiting with the homefolks in the city a day or two, and their friends are pleased to see them looking so fit and fine.

AN IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL

The funeral services held over the remains of Mr. L. C. Brown at Martinsville yesterday is reported to have been one of the most impressive events of its kind ever held in the community.

A great host of sorrowing relatives and friends from different places assembled to pay their last tribute of respect to one who had stood the test of time and had in all things proven true to every test of good citizenship, loyalty, integrity and sincere friendship for those with whom he was associated.

The pastor of the Melrose circuit conducted the service, followed with a eulogy on the life of the good man as he had known it by Judge Middlebrook of this city.

Mr. Brown was about sixty-two years of age at the time of his death, and had resided in the community all his life. He is survived by his widow, together with three sons, Messrs. Jas. Brown, Atticus Brown and Vernon Brown, three daughters, Mrs. Joe Summers of San Augustine, Mrs. E. M. UNABLE TO DO ANY WORK FOR SEVEN YEARS SAYS RAINEY

Nothing Reached His Case Until He Took Tanlac—Has Gained Fourteen Pounds.

"I have been laid up, unable to do any work for the past seven years," said Samuel L. Rainey, of 1450 East Texas street, El Paso, Texas recently. "I suffered from a complication of troubles," he continued "that seemed to puzzle those who examined me and no treatment of medicine did me any good. Some said I had rheumatism and others said something else and I took so much strong medicine that my stomach became all upset and my nerves completely shattered.

"My feet pained me so at times I couldn't stand on them and would swell until I couldn't get my shoes on. Great knots, the size of hen eggs would come out of my body. I had terrible pains in the back of my head running on down the small of my back, and at times I couldn't move without help. My stomach was in such a bad condition I had to live on liquid diet for weeks at a time and even this would sour and cause my heart to flutter and almost cut off my breath. I was so nervous and miserable I never knew what it was to get a good night's sleep and no one knows the suffering I had to endure.

"My folks have spent lots of money for me and I have taken enough medicine of different kinds to stock a small drug store, but nothing seemed to reach my case until I got Tanlac. I have gained fourteen pounds, and while I don't claim to be well, yet, I'm so much better and am improving so fast that I have good reason to believe my troubles will soon be a thing of the past. My appetite is fine and everything I eat seems to agree with me perfectly. My nerves have quieted down and the swelling and pain have subsided until I can sleep and rest well and I'm simply feeling better in every way than I have in several years."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith, in Woden by M. J. King, in Garrison by Garrison Drug Co., in Appleby by A. J. Beck, in Douglas by Campbell & Watkins, in Chireno, and in Nat by E. M. Jarrell.

THE YOUNG MAN'S OPPORTUNITY.

There is a greater demand today than ever before for the young man who thoroughly understands the cotton business. Such as: Classing, stapling, averaging, buying, selling, shipping, exporting, keeping of Gin Records, merchants books and other blanks necessary to the business. The representatives of the largest cotton concerns, as well as the merchants and warehouse managers, have highly indorsed our course of instructions. They say we are meeting a long felt want. Bonded warehouses alone require hundreds of young men. We have expert instructors with practical experience in every detail of the business and have installed in this department a cotton exchange board with telegraph instruments attached. Here our students are taught to read price quotations as they come in from Liverpool, New Orleans and New York markets. They are also given the ginners and government reports on production and the probable effect on prices. Nothing is left undone to make our students efficient in the work. The cost of the above course complete is $25.00 for tuition and $5.00 for books and material. Time for completing is from four to six weeks, owing to the ability of the student. Students may enroll at any time. There is such a great demand for work of this kind, that we have large and enthusiastic classes throughout the year. Enter at once. You may take bookkeeping and business training, shorthand, typewriting or telegraphy along with cotton classing if you like. Fill in blank and mail today. Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas.

CHEROKEE COUNTY WOMEN ENDORSE JOHN C. BOX

The ladies of Jacksonville and Cherokee county have formed a "John C. Box Club" with numerous and increasing membership, declaring they do so because:

"Judge Box is clean and upright in private and public life, able in argument, strong in speech.

He is a student of history and governmental affairs, a working, constant friend of Christianity, education, prohibition, good government and whatever promotes human-betterment, and a Democrat from boyhood.

He is a son of the plain people, born among them on a little East Texas farm, climbing upward by labor and study and worth, enjoying their confidence and devoted to them in heart, word and deed. He is a friend of labor, and to use his own words, "the man who is not the friend of laboring people is not a friend to mankind."

We, the women of Cherokee county, want the women of other counties to know what kind of a man they now have a chance to send to Washington.
