TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD NOT BE FEDERALIZED

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 27.—The new Texas National Guard infantry and cavalry regiments will not be called into federal service, according to a telegram received by department headquarters. The telegram does not further define the status of the guard. The Texas guard cavalry officers' school at Leon Springs will end Feb. 8. The cavalry regiments for which these officers were being trained were to have been federalized January 2.

Nacogdoches county has both a cavalry and an infantry company, which this ruling affects, and it seems that the boys will not get to see service after all. The cavalry officers, including Capt. W. E. Thomson, Lt. W. W. Lee, Lt. Ernest Spradly, and others, are now in Leon Springs training camp.

The final figures of the subscription by districts will be promptly announced upon receipt of the final reports from the Federal Reserve Banks."

The Sentinel is requested to announce that the campaign for the collection of War Savings pledges will go on after Thanksgiving on account of the weather being so bad as to hinder the solicitations the past week.

PROHIBITION ACT UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Motion for Rehearing in Prohibition Test Case Was Overruled.

(By Associated Press.) Austin, Nov. 27.—The attorney general's motion for a rehearing of the state-wide prohibition test case, was overruled by the court of criminal appeals today with the quashed significance with the issuance of a court mandate, which is custom is followed, will be Friday. The step will be taken and the prohibition act will be declared unconstitutional. Prendergast dissented.

The attorney general held that portions of the act which forbid the transportation of and receiving and delivering of intoxicating liquors, to be unaffected by the decision of the court of criminal appeals, and the Travis county district court, upon the petition of the attorney general, enjoined various railroads in the state from committing the above named acts. One railroad has appealed to the third court of civil appeals to dissolve the injunction and constitutionality of these features of the law, which will likely be carried to the supreme court.

The Attorney General stated today that Comptroller Tenzel had announced that he had not issued licenses for the sale of liquor.

BRITISH FOREIGN OFFICE CONFIRMS THE REPORT

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 27.—The foreign office confirms the report that the British law officers of the crown, in co-operation with French authorities are considering the question of the extradition of the German emperor. The foreign office says that the law officers have not yet made their report, and consequently no action has yet been taken.

AGAIN ASK ALLIES MITIGATION ARMISTICE

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 27.—Dr. Solf, the German foreign minister, has asked the allies once more for a mitigation of the armistice terms and requested permission of delay in delivery of railroad rolling stock until February 1st, on the ground that difficulties were caused by back conditions and lack of lubricating oil.

TO COMMITTEES OF W. S. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN

Owing to the bad weather and health conditions we cannot expect you to make the house to house canvass as planned, before Thanksgiving day. Your willingness to do this, despite these conditions is most gratifying.

Just as soon as the weather clears up, and the streets become less impassable, take up the work as planned and push it through with your characteristic energy and thoroughness.

BARUCH APPOINTED SECY TREASURER

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Bernard M. Baruch, chairman of the War Industries Board, has been offered the post of secretary treasurer to succeed McAdoo. It was understood today whether he will be nominated is open to question.

SIMS WILL BE APPOINTED ADMIRAL IN NEAR FUTURE

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commander of the American naval forces in Europe since the Americans entered the war, has been selected for promotion to the rank of Admiral, when that vacancy in the list occurs next month, through the retirement of Admiral Austin M. Knight, commanding the Atlantic fleet. Rear Admiral Graves will fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Sims.

SEVEN SOLDIER BOYS RETURN HOME TODAY

Seven Nacogdoches soldier boys who have been in training at Camp Travis, have been discharged, and arrived here today. They are: Lonnie Baker, Luther Lee, Richard Stone, W. F. Whitaker, T. F. Fresh, and two others, whose names we did not learn. The boys have been in training about three months. They report that they are glad to get back home again, now that the year is over, and they could not hope to go across. Nacogdoches friends are glad to welcome them back to citizenship.

The Sentinel is in receipt of a communication from Sgt. Jas. H. Power, who is in training at Camp Strickland, Ala., in which the young man says that Texas had more men represented in Sunday school than any other state. The young man says that only one state came within 117 of Texas, and that was Tennessee.

ABOUT DEATH OF PVT. JOE STRICKLAND

The Sentinel made mention a few days ago that Private Joe Strickland, of Garrison, had died from wounds received in action. The young man is a brother of Mr. R. B. Strickland, a progressive farmer of the Garrison country. His brother received the following telegram several days ago: Washington, Nov. 21, 1918. R. B. Strickland, Garrison, Texas. "Deeply regret to inform you that it is officially reported that Private Joe Strickland, infantry, died October 10th, from wounds received in action."

PROGRAM FOR FOOD CONSERVATION WEEK

The campaign for food conservation will be held throughout the United States during the week of December 2 to 7. The outline of the program was published in the county press last week, but is given again here.

On Sunday, December 1st, special Hoover messages will be read in all churches. During the week the messages will be read in all fraternal and other organizations.

A public meeting will be held Tuesday, December 3rd, and a speaker will address the meeting upon the food problems. Meetings will be held during the week over the county and speakers will convey the messages to the people.

Wednesday, December 4, the women's clubs will be asked to hold meetings and have exercises based upon the program furnished by the state administrator.

Friday, December 6, all public schools will be asked to hold special exercises based on a program published in National School Service and forwarded to the schools directly by the committee on public information. This program will reach the schools about Nov. 30th.

This program may be varied to suit local conditions. In this county it will be very likely followed just as published. It is possible conditions may prevent a large public gathering at a central place on Tuesday of conservation week, but there will be meetings over the county.

The food administration has mailed the Hoover message to all ministers and fraternal organizations. The schools will receive their program direct from Washington. The county food administrator has copies of the message which will be sent to any who did not get a copy from headquarters.

The whole food administration, from the national organization at Washington to the deputy county food administrators in the outlying sections asks the cooperation of the people during conservation week for the relief of the world.

TEXANS ARRIVE FROM THE GERMAN PRISON CAMPS

(By Associated Press.) PARIS, Nov. 27.—American prisoners from the German camps reaching Metz are being cared for by the Red Cross, and everything is being done for their comfort. The following Texans are among those arrived: Thos. R. Phillips, Dallas, Wm. Lummus, Captain; Floyd Edeock, Elgin; Eddie J. Hoffman, Castel, Llano county. Physical Condition Good.

American Headquarters in France, Nov. 27.—Examination of the Americans released from the German prison camps show no evidence of reported inoculation with malignant and contagious diseases. Their physical condition is as good as could be expected.

LOCATION OF TWO AMERICAN DIVISIONS

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—Location of two divisions (Texas and Oklahoma troops of the American army in France, on November 7th, four days before the signing of the armistice, was announced, with the names of the commanding generals, by the war department today as follows: The Thirty-sixth at Conde-en-Barrois, Major General W. R. Smith; Ninetieth at Villers Dey Dun and St. Dizier, Major General Henry T. Allen.

MOBILIZE MEN UP TO FORTY YEARS OF AGE.

(By Associated Press.) AMSTERDAM, Nov. 27.—The Czech-Slovak department of national defense has mobilized the active reserves for the years of 1895 to 1899, and ordered all men under arms up to forty years of age to remain in the service, says a Prague dispatch.

EDITORIAL NOTICE.

I have had the good fortune to get the appointment as telegraph editor of the Galveston News, that "staid old lady by the sea," and I am passing my editorial and reportorial connection with The Sentinel to my son, Mr. Joe Gibbs.

The young Mr. Gibbs has been actively associated with Mr. Haltom and I in the publication of The Sentinel the past three years, chiefly as linotype operator, but when for any reason I have been called away he has carried my work on with such good efficiency that the change was not visible. He has been educated and trained especially for newspaper work, is full of life, pride and ambition, and it will be just like him to try to publish a better paper than his "daddy" did, in all of which I hope he will succeed.

Mr. Haltom, "the old reliable" who has remained steadfast with the people of Nacogdoches county in both the lean and the fat years for so long, and who has been serving his county the past year and a half as a member of the local Exemption Board, will soon be through with the government position and able to return to active participation in his newspaper work. The two gentlemen will make a team that can and will take care of the newspaper and printing wants of the community in the most approved manner and I bespeak for The Sentinel the continued good favor which it enjoys.

In retiring from The Sentinel, I want to express my appreciation for the good favor I have enjoyed with the people of the city and surrounding country, and assure all that it is with much reluctance that I sever my relations with you, which do only because of the larger work and better opportunity for advancement that good fortune has brought to me. I shall always cherish with fond recollection my sojourn with the people of the Stone Fort City, than whom there are no more patriotic, better and chivalrous in the world, who richly merit all the good things that a glorious future can bring. My family will continue to remain with you for awhile, and I go to my new work with a feeling of assurance that they are among sympathetic, worthy friends, who will extend to them every neighborly courtesy in my absence.

Your grateful friend,
O. M. GIBBS.

NACOGDOCHES MEMORIAL.

The idea has been suggested through the columns of The Sentinel for an appropriate memorial for the soldier boys of this county. Following out this suggestion, Mrs. Geo. H. Matthews suggest the use of the Old Stone Fort in this capacity. Mr. Jno. W. Byrd submits the following plan: The lot to the rear of the county court house, and owned by the county, be used as the site. That Nacogdoches apply for a Carnegie library, and at the same time put up a like amount for the building of the memorial in connection.

John McLain, son of Bob McLain, who went with a bunch of young men from this city several weeks ago to secure employment in the government works, has returned home.

Wallace Adams of Garrison is in the city today.

MR. HOLLIS MAST DIED THIS MORNING.

From Monday's Daily. Mr. Hollis T. Mast, cashier of the Farmers & Merchants State Bank, died at his home in this city this morning at 10:00, with pneumonia, following influenza. Mr. Mast has been ill for about two weeks, and much uneasiness was felt for several days before his death. Mr. Mast was born and raised at Melrose, moving from there here some years ago, and engaging in the banking business here. He is survived by his wife and three children, Tucker and Carson, and a baby of several months; five brothers, Henry, Blum, Albi, Eugene and Leonard, and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Mast, all of whom he leaves behind.

Mr. Mast was married to his second wife, Miss Prudie Wilson, of Shreveport, some two years ago, the baby being born several months ago. He was a member of the Methodist church of this city.

Nacogdoches has suffered a great loss. Mr. Mast was one of the most loyal, progressive young citizens of the city, ever giving ever striving for the public welfare, and subjecting his private interests to the welfare of the community. It is not within the bounds of the mind of man to conceive of death as a beautiful thing. It is the end of all things mortal, life's work on earth has been brought to a close. The Grim Reaper ever trods among the walks of men choosing not whom he would but carrying out the inexorable law of life, which in the end is death. May the visit of the Death Angel be but the means of transportation to the home in Heaven where the reward of work well done, and where the river of life flows everlasting.

Cason, Monks & Co., undertakers, have charge of the funeral, but the hour has not been announced.

Peace be to his ashes! Community on any and all occasions serving, giving, planning ever for the advancement of the city in all moral, civic, religious and patriotic enterprises. His death is one of the greatest losses the city has suffered in a long time. It is with a tear in the eye, a depression of the heart, that the citizens of Nacogdoches hear of his demise. No mere pen can paint the character of the good man, the many good things he has done—enough to say that he was a model type of true citizen.

Mr. Adlai Mast, who is in training at San Antonio, Mr. Eugene Mast from Kentucky, brothers of the deceased, came to the bedside. Mr. Leland Mast, another brother, who lives in Lubbock, is himself sick and could not come.

Both of these ideas are very good, and by all means Nacogdoches should have the memorial. The Sentinel is not much of a stickler for mass meetings of this character, in view of the fact that usually more argument and discussion results than action. This is a matter that should come to the attention of a commercial club or progressive league, but as Nacogdoches has none—a sad admission—a mass meeting will have to be called before the matter can be properly handled, and it should be done immediately.

Mr. O. M. Gibbs, former editor of this paper, left yesterday for Galveston, where he will assume the position as telegraph editor of the News. Modesty forbids extended mention, but Mr. Gibbs has done a great work in the newspaper line for Nacogdoches, and his many friends in this city regret to see him go, but wish him well in his larger field of endeavor.

NACOGDOCHES BOYS ON THE CASUALTY LIST.

The names of Henry I. Lunsford, Garrison, Henry F. Fulghum, Garrison, and Henry C. Dodd; Chirno, are contained on the casualty list issued today, as died of disease. Pvt. Myron M. Massey, Nacogdoches, wounded, degree undetermined, Pvt. Harry Knaus, Chirno, killed in action, and Pvt. William E. King, killed in action, were on the list yesterday. Two of these names have been reported in this paper previously. Three of the other four have laid down their lives willingly for their country, and for the continued reign of the cause of the Maker in this world of his. The Sentinel joins friends of the bereaved ones in extending sincere sympathy.

A little explanation as to the heavy toll from Nacogdoches county in the past few days might not be amiss. The war department, which has been behind in making up the casualty lists is now catching up with the work. The newspaper lists now being only several days behind the wire to the relatives, and are much larger—leading us to believe that the lists will all soon be in. To those who are receiving notification of their relative's death now, since the war is over, we can only remind of the christian faith in the Supreme One, whose promise of life everlasting is only maturing for those of your loved ones—who so nobly gave their lives for the cause.

Protect the Children.

Children are as likely to get the grip and influenza as grown-ups. Foley's Honey and Tar give quick relief from all kinds of coughs, croup and whooping cough; covers raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing coating, clears air passages, checks straining, choking coughing. Contains no opiates. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

WAR SAVINGS SOCIETIES AND THE SCHOOLS.

With the abatement of the influenza epidemic and the opening of the schools throughout the county, there is a corresponding and gratifying activity in War Savings societies in the schools. Those organized last spring have resumed work with energy and enthusiasm, and from every point of the compass in Nacogdoches county comes reports of the organization of new societies. These are accompanied by the most patriotic letters, assuring the committee of their commendable determination to "stay with the job till the finish."

Cushing school reports six societies, all patriotically named: The Woodrow Wilson, the Liberty, the Victory, the Booster, the Betsy Ross and the Tiny Tots. This school has a membership of 200 active workers.

The Appleby school reports they have two societies, with a membership of 100 energetic and thrifty War Savers. They have honored the brave young men, who so early in the war gave up their young lives for their country, by naming these two societies: the Jennings B. Crow and the Arthur Collins War Savings Societies.

From the Friendship school comes a most "friendly" letter from the secretary, Miss Tessie B. Neel, assuring us that their society is most harmoniously at work and planning patriotic programs for their regular meetings.

The Fern Lake school, Miss Alberta Murphy, secretary, also reports interest and enthusiasm on the part of their society.

Mr. Irion Simpson, who is in the navy, is in the city visiting his mother and brother, Link, on a short furlough.

GIGANTIC POTATO.

The "potato editor" of this paper has been bamboozled, buffaloed, bluffed out, and signed an armistice and quit. Read the following:

Mr. J. A. Spurgeon, who lives nine miles south of this city on the Angelina river, brought a sweet potato of the Porto Rico variety to this office yesterday afternoon, which weighed fourteen pounds when gathered, and thirteen after it was cleaned, and had had time to dry.

This is the largest potato we have ever seen, and is somewhat of a freak, and at the present price of potatoes, would bring some little bit of pin money all by its lonesome. Only East Texas and Nacogdoches can grow these kind of potatoes.

Large stores of food have been found in the castle of the former Kaiser in Berlin. William was of the stripe that believed in the adage of talking much and doing little.

It is said that the Germans are rushing the matrimonial bureaus on arrival back in the land of their birth. Truly the German is a warrior—four years is not enough to satisfy him.

The war is over, the first freeze of the season is reported on the way, hog killing time is here and the "pork and sausage" editor of the Sentinel is in a receptive mood. "All's Well That Ends Well."

"The pen is mightier than the sword," it is said. The Kaiser must have set down on one, judging by the despatch with which he jumped out of his country.

Some uneasiness is being felt by relatives of soldiers from whom they have not heard from in some time. This delay in news from them is explained by the fact that some of the mail ships from Europe are months overdue, caused by a congestion in that country. There is no cause for worry, as the war department notifies the relatives immediately in case of mishap to one of the soldiers.

The liberated district of Belgium is rejoicing now in the triumphal return of their soldiers. Never did a country lay down an honorable principle and fight for it more gloriously than the Belgians. Bleeding as no country ever has, suffering and dying a thousand times over, but ever standing to their cause. Every person in the land knows the story of the sacrifice that Belgium made, and the cruel indignities they suffered. It has been graphically described as the pen of the most talented writers in the country could express. Now with the triumphal march of victory back into their homes, no matter how desecrated or destroyed they may be, they carry back with them freedom and victory. They have a right to celebrate—the Belgians saved the life of the world.

That Terrible Backache.

Mrs. C. Hyde, Homestead, Mich., writes: "I had that terrible backache and tired out feeling, scarcely able to do my work, but find by using Foley Kidney Pills that I soon feel like a new person." Foley Kidney Pills help the kidneys throw out poisons that cause backache, rheumatic pains and aching joints. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

Homer and Lawrence Loden are confined to their home today, suffering an attack of the flu.

SECY. MCADOO HAS RESIGNED

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—William G. McAdoo has resigned as secretary of the treasury and director-general of railroads to return to private life, after six years of office.

The resignation of McAdoo took official Washington by surprise. President Wilson for the fourth time is facing the necessity of filling a vacancy in his cabinet, in nearly six years of office. It is believed that the President may decide to make some other member of his cabinet head of the nation's railroad system. It is not known whether he will fill separately the office of secretary-treasurer and director-general of railroads.

Mr. G. R. Tennell, a barber of Palestine, and a former citizen of this city, is in the city today.

The fire department made a run to the home of Mr. Dee Brown this afternoon, but the fire did not materialize.

FROM A SOLDIER BOY.

On June 18, 1918, I was removed from the 35th Co. of Infantry, and assigned to the Depot Brigade, to await orders from the war department. I was told that my next service would be in the C. W. S.

I remained in the Depot Brigade until November 15th, when orders came for me to report for C. W. S. duty at Cleveland, O. I was the happiest "Yank" in the world. I had failed to make an officer of the infantry on account of physical disabilities, but now I was higher than that—so far as my salary was concerned.

I left Camp Travis on the evening of November 16th. That evening will never fade from my memory, when I went into my Pullman and said good-bye to Texas.

The people of Texas have been used to so many soldiers that they seem to be afraid of us. But believe me, when I got into Oklahoma everything changed. At every station the ladies would serve the soldiers and sailors with some kind of refreshments. Nobody seemed to be afraid of us. All day long we indulged in merry luxury. The further north we got the more hospitable the people were.

When we landed at St. Louis everything was bleak and cold. That is, it was cold to us. But no sooner than we left the train several ladies took us in cars and drove us over the city.

I left St. Louis at 5:00 o'clock in the evening. I spent most of the time from St. Louis to Cleveland in the Pullman and smoker, talking with a number of New Englanders. They asked me all sorts of questions about Texas.

When morning came we were in the state of Ohio. At every station crowds of young ladies would gather around the car windows, and talk to us. Take it from me, there are some beauties in Ohio. They are not all in Texas. But of course you know I can never forget the sweet lassies of dear old "Nac."

FOOD ADMINISTRATION CONSERVATION PROGRAM

The county food administrator has just returned from Houston where he attended a conference of the food administration officials of the state. At this conference plans for the forthcoming conservation week were discussed together with other things appertaining to the food administration business.

This gathering was addressed by Hon. Franklin D. Fort from the national food administration headquarters at Washington. Mr. Fort stated that the national administration had taken the view that the law under which the administration had been able to enforce restrictions in the consumption of food became null with the signing of the armistice. Technically the law would not become null until peace was officially declared, but Food Administrator Hoover believes that the signing of the armistice ended the war so far as the American people are concerned.

The administration has set in motion the machinery which will gradually remove the restrictions upon the consumption of food. It is expected that prices will remain and be more vigorously enforced than in the past. Wilful violators of the law will be prosecuted to the limit in the future instead of being permitted to make nominal contributions to the Red Cross and continue business.

The keynote of the address delivered before the county food administrator of this state by Mr. Fort was the necessity of impressing upon every individual in the United States that it was his or her patriotic duty to practice the strictest economy in the use of food. "Democracy has won the war," said Mr. Fort, "but it may lose the war unless it realizes its responsibility toward the starving millions in the war area in Europe."

Bolshevism and anarchy are the things which are feared now. Russia presents the best example of the condition which is feared most. Should the condition which exists in Russia spread over Germany, Austria, Rumania, Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Turkey the voracious allied countries would be facing a more serious situation than they faced before the fighting stopped.

Bolshevism does not believe in the private ownership of property. Its leaders teach that no individual is entitled to own anything. Further than that there is among the Bolsheviks a group which is called internationalists. They believe that there should be no private ownership of property anywhere in the world. Under its tenets title to property of any character in Nacogdoches county should be vested in the government, such as exists in Russia and all participate in it alike. Under such conditions there is no incentive for individual effort—in fact everybody does nothing. To illustrate how this theory is working out it is only necessary to observe the conditions in Russia. Here we have resources, yet with more people and a great country or wonderful resources, yet with more people facing starvation than anywhere in the globe. Its transportation system is wrecked entirely and food and fuel cannot reach the cities from the interior. Manufactured products which are necessary to the people of the interior are not available to them and this creates suffering everywhere in the land.

The food administration is conducting a nation-wide campaign for conservation. Its slogan which was, "Food will win the war," has been changed to "Food will win the world." Democracy has won the war, but democracy stands a good chance to lose the war unless it realizes its obligation to the people who have been freed from absolute monarchs and militarism and now have a chance to organize democratic governments.

W. S. DAVIS,
County Food Administrator.

REPORT OF THE WAR SAVINGS SALES

The War Savings committee has received from state headquarters report of sales in Texas up to November 13th.

This report shows that sales for Nacogdoches county up to that time were $361,680.97, against $588,180 assessed and $600,000 pledged.

Furthermore, the report shows that in the 250 counties in the state, Nacogdoches county is 45th. Though 200 counties are lagging in this great and important work, it is a matter of sincere regret that 44 counties are ahead of Nacogdoches—there should not be one. With our resources, with our intelligent grasp of conditions, with our vaunted patriotism, no county in the state should lead Nacogdoches county.

Of the 44 counties that have preceded the precedence over ours, five are East Texas counties. Rusk—lose to the top—Gregg, Smith, Anderson and Wood. It is unthinkable that these five counties should take this precedence over Nacogdoches county, the oldest, the richest, the most intelligent, and certainly, the most loyal county in East Texas, if not in the entire state. dw.

NACOGDOCHES BOYS IN FINAL DRIVE.

Incoming casualty lists tell eloquently of the splendid part played by Texas boys in the closing days of hostilities. The past week has added about half a hundred to the known dead and wounded of the 360th Infantry and other 90th division organizations have suffered.

The 36th division has played a more important part in the final operations than many have supposed. It has been in all the closing operations of the great Fourth French Army. An official statement given out by General March on Nov. 15th, last, says: "The 36th division has been serving with the Fourth-French Army and when last reported, Co.

Health About Gone
Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. — had us get Cardui. I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic
She writes further: "I am in splendid health... can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Greatly Benefitted by Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. MRS. T. C. SITTON DIED THIS MORNING.

Mrs. T. C. Sitton died this morning at her home in this city at 1:00 o'clock, after a long illness. She was some eighty years old, mother of Mrs. J. A. Spears, Mrs. Judge Thrash, and Sam Sitton, all of this city. The remains will be shipped to Rock Springs today, where they will be tenderly laid to rest at 3:00 o'clock this afternoon.

Thus another sainted old mother has passed into the great beyond, to take up her abode with the Giver of human life, who has prepared a home eternal. Mrs. Sitton was respected and esteemed by all who knew her, being a sweet christian character whose true worth was felt and known by the recipients of the many kindly acts which her hands found to do. Her loss will be keenly felt by the whole community.

The Sentinel joins the many friends of the good lady in extending sincere sympathy to the bereaved ones left to mourn her loss.

Many Nacogdoches parents are being made happy today. The mail ship from Farnee arrived in New York the other day with the largest consignment of mail that city has ever known, and now the letters are finding their way over the country. Many parents had not heard from their boys in many weeks, and some were very uneasy about them.

MORE COUNTY BOYS KILLED IN ACTION.

Mr. John Strickland of Garrison received a telegram this morning announcing that his son, Joe Strickland, of Garrison was killed in action September 12th. Fred C. Lachtleben, of Garrison, was killed in action recently. Henry L. Lunsford, son of Geo. M. Lunsford, died of pneumonia.

This is a total of seven Garrison boys who have made the supreme sacrifice in the last seven days, and is quite remarkable for a town of that size.

All Nacogdoches county deeply sympathizes with the loved ones of these fine young men left behind, but may they be consoled with the thought that their sons have proven their patriotism and their manhood.

IN MEMORY OF HOLLIS T. MAST.

A soldier in the service of humanity has fallen. A captain serving the flag of Brotherly Love has marched gallantly to the Land Beyond. A friend whose life-work will be remembered by posterity has returned to His Father's House, leaving countless mourners in grief and dejection.

From the busy marts of life and from the scenes of successful activity, Hollis T. Mast was called to his last reward.

In his untimely death, Nacogdoches has lost an invaluable citizen; his parents, a loyal son; his wife an adoring companion; his boys, a wise, sympathetic, devoted father; his brothers, steadfast support and guide; the offering and needy, a generous friend, an every-ready helper; and every good cause, a fearless, faithful champion.

Foreful of character, genial of manner, generous of spirit and purse, he stood "four square." He was a pillar of strength in time of stress, an inspiration in time of need, his everfort an impulse radiating from a heart overflowing with kindness for the needy and distressed.

It is hard to associate death with one so strong, so vital, so necessary to the community life as Hollis T. Mast. One says, "He could not die, so strong, so vigorous, so resolute, so full of confidence, so busy with all the needful activities of the time, so much still to be done." But, in the fullness of his strength and powers, without the shadow of weakening disease or corroding disappointment, he passed away, victor, not vanquished, and with this thought, we who loved him, must find consolation.

May the lesson of his useful, busy life inspire us, and his splendid virile qualities guide us to do good and noble things, for in so doing, we honor the memory of a good and noble man. It is written, "The Lord has given and the Lord has taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." The tribute of a friend.

REMAINS OF MR. MAST LAID TO REST THIS P. M.

The remains of Mr. H. T. Mast, who died in this city yesterday, will be laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. J. L. Massey, pastor of the Methodist church in this city will preach the funeral.

All of the business houses will remain closed during the ceremony in honor of the good citizen and many relatives and friends will gather at the cemetery to pay their last token of respect to the one whom all loved.

The pall bearers are Messrs. Horace Wilson, Merton Blackburn, Ed. Gaston, C. A. Hodges, I. L. Sturdevant and W. U. Perkins.

WAR SAVING SOCIETIES AND THE SCHOOLS

With the abatement of the influenza epidemic and the opening of the schools throughout the county, there is a corresponding and gratifying activity in War Saving Societies in the schools. Those organized last spring have resumed work with energy and enthusiasm, and from every point of the compass in Nacogdoches County comes reports of the organization of new societies. These are accompanied by the most patriotic letters, assuring the committee of their commendable determination to "stay with the job till the finish."

Cushing School reports six societies, all patriotically named. The Woodrow Wilson, The Victory, The Booster, The Betsy Ross and The Tiny Tots. This school has a membership of 200 active workers.

The Appleby school reports they have two societies, with a membership of 100 energetic and thrifty War Savers. They have honored the brave young men, who so early in the war gave up their young lives for their country, by naming these two societies, The Jennings B. Crow and The Arthur Collins War Savings Societies.

From the Friendship school comes a most "friendly" letter from the secretary, Miss Tessie B. Neel, with the assurance that their society is most harmoniously at work, and planning patriotic programs for their regular meetings.

The Fern Lake school, Miss Alberta Murphy, secretary, also reports interest and enthusiasm on the part of their society.

PRAISE IN "VIOLENT TERMS"

Collier's Weekly Writer Says Officers and Privates Are Emphatic in Telling About Salvation Army Work.

(By James Hopper, in Collier's.) The reason that we wanted to see the Salvation Army hut was that, all the way up here, everyone we talked to, from general to private, had gone out of his way to enlist us in a violent and (it seemed to me) unreasonable partisanship. That is why I went into the Salvation Army hut, to see.

It was night, by this time, and the place we entered, lighted only by a few sputtering candles, was made vast and mysterious by the great shadows which massed in the corners and pulsed in the depths of the high ceiling. It was, as a matter of fact, I think, some big deserted barn, but it had the aspect of an old and ruined cathedral. At first this is all one saw—the old, thick stone walls; the floor of beaten earth, smelling damp; the high ceiling, patched, where there were holes of suspicious shape, with white squabs of felt canvas, the candle lights, each with its humid little halo. Then we saw that beneath the candles were tables, and about the tables chairs, and that at some of the tables men, American soldiers—coated still with the mud of the trenches, their steel helmets upon their heads, their gas masks beneath their chins—sat reading or writing.

Here, by the counter, was another group of soldiers. One of them, back from his turn from the trenches, was holding forth to others who had not yet been there. He was a young lad, very young (how very young most of these soldiers look!), a stripling of a lad, tall and lithe. His attitude toward what he had just been through was one of intense and eager satisfaction. He was like a freshman just out of his first football game still athrill with it, and tremendously anxious for the next.

One of the boys further away stepped on the counter for attendance. A moment after the canvas screen behind parted—a young woman appeared. She was a young woman and most becomingly gotten up in a khaki-colored costume which had something about it of military chic. And when she spoke it was with a low, well modulated voice, and her eyes were bright and frank. Many of the soldiers came forward now to be waited on, and she did this graciously as any queen fairy-tale queen, I mean, who loves her people very dearly and is bound to share their worries and their troubles and is filled with tenderness for their hardships and their perils—we could see she was adored.

After she had attended to many wants we introduced ourselves, and she invited us behind the canvas screen to see her kitchen. The kitchen was merely the farther end of the building; like it, it had grimy stone walls, a damp earthen floor, and an absurdly high ceiling patched with canvas. But on the ground was a field range, and there were, besides, a deal table, several rough chairs, barrels, boxes, and cans of provisions, and in a corner a little tent which was her home. We sat at the table and, while observing secretly meanwhile the fact that she possessed humor and tolerance and understanding, a mind as beautiful as her external charm, we pursued our severe investigation (though now we knew). We asked why The Salvation Army, around these "diggins," was more popular than other organizations. She deprecated such talk, of course. She said the other organization was an admirable one and that it and hers worked together in mutual helpfulness and amity. But when we pressed our questioning she at last admitted that perhaps the reasonable partisanship of the soldiers of the sector was due to the fact that her hut made hot chocolate and doughnuts and pies (once more the chocolate, doughnuts and pies!). She called her helpmates, two blond Salvation lassies, and asked them statistics on the subject, and they said the record was this: one day they had made fifty pies and two thousand (I say two thousand) doughnuts.

As we talked there had been a number of heavy detonations nearby, and I, wishing to show I had been in this sort of thing before (man will always show off before woman), said: "You have a battery stationed near by, haven't you?" But she, in a rapid parenthesis, answered negligently: "Oh, these are not detonations; they're arrivals," and went on with the subject thus disturbed. Now, a departure is when you shoot at the other fellow, and an arrival is when the other fellow is shooting at you (and coming close). For the first time I noticed, hanging on one side a steel helmet, on the other a gas mask. A dinner engagement is a dinner engagement; our watches, shake them as we might, now told us it was time for dinner with the brigadier general, and so, no, thank you (for the moment) the brigadier general at all, we said good-bye and went to dine with him.

MRS. W. E. MCADOO DIED LAST NIGHT.

Mrs. W. E. McAdoo, wife of W. E. McAdoo, of the firm of McAdoo Brothers, junk dealers of Atlanta, Ga., who have been making their home in this city for the past several months, coming here from Corsicana, died at the Sanitarium last night. It was not known when this article was prepared where the body would be interred, but most likely, in Kentucky, where the relatives of the lady are. Mrs. McAdoo leaves her husband and Nita, a daughter, of 12, to mourn her loss. Mr. and Mrs. McAdoo have proved good citizens since coming to this city, and all Nacogdoches is made sad with the news of her death. The loved ones of the deceased left behind have the profound sympathy of the citizens of Nacogdoches.

MEMORIAL.

Yes, we want a Memorial Hall. We citizens of old Nacogdoches. The name which stands for all that is brave, loyal, generous and heroic, the champion for Liberty's cause, and who has never failed in pushing forward and accomplishing any good work for the betterment of her people. We must be up now and doing for our brave boys who have shown us who and what they are. Their home-coming must be made the greatest home-coming ever. I think a Memorial Hall is a fine idea, but should the reconstruction day fall heavily on us, financially, I mean, have we not a Memorial Hall here which ever stands as a monument to the heroes who fought, and died, to free this beautiful land from the Mexican yoke. It has sheltered at one time or another most of the men whose names go to make Texas history. Why then not put the relics of the awful war with those relics we have of the past, also have, we hope to secure the names of the fallen heroes, and place the tablet on the walls of the Memorial. I believe the most appropriate place for them to be, so we welcome a library, relics, anything else that will help to keep in memory the history of the past.

HEALTH TALK
SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIP
BY DR. H. LEE SMITH.

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza is a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of sene, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours with lemonade. The anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and, as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (oparatus has been dissolved in a quart). After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Fruite" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

MRS. LEE GOLDSBERRY DIED YESTERDAY.

Mrs. Lee Goldsberry died at her home out at the Frost-Johnson mill yesterday afternoon after a brief illness. The remains will be laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery this afternoon, the hour not having been announced when this report was prepared.

COUNTY'S QUOTA ABOUT RAISED IN U. W. W. DRIVE

County Chairman J. D. Ellington informs the Sentinel that the quota for Nacogdoches county in the War Work drive will be raised when all the reports are in, but here will be no over-subscription, as was asked.

The quota for the city of Nacogdoches will possibly be raised when the reports are all in. Some thirteen communities in the county, responded to the call and have gone over the top. A few did not even make any campaign. Cushing (phoned in yesterday that they were over the top, and Chireno reports that they will go over. Garrison has made good report, and is probably over. Spring Hill seems to have made the best report of any community yet reported. Their quota was $75.00, and they have turned in $107.60.

TRY THE SCALES

The scales seldom fail to reveal the truth, they are a fair gauge of health. If you are losing weight and are not feeling up to the mark, it is high time to replace the loss and build up the powers of resistance.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

A unique combination of tonic and nourishment, having definite tonic and nutritive properties, enriches the blood, restores weight and imparts vigor and tone to the whole system. If you feel yourself losing ground, try Scott's Emulsion—the Strength-Builder.

OFFICERS BE INSTALLED ON MONDAY THE SECOND

The Sentinel announced several days ago that the newly elected officers would be installed on the last Saturday in this month. Since making this announcement County Judge Perritte has received a communication from the attorney general's office holding that installation before the first of December would not be legal. Therefore Judge Perritte authorizes the announcement that the officers will be installed Monday, December 2nd, and that they should take notice and have their bonds ready. The blank bonds may be secured at the county clerk's office.

Mrs. Josh Ivey and Miss Wanton Wright, who are staying with her, are all confined with the influenza.

THE SOLDIER SPEAKS.

We have fought your fight, we have spilled our blood, and the graves of our pals are green; We have gone where you sent, through battle and scourge, and we've come through with Victory clean, The years of our lives are shortened by far That the hopes you cherished might bear And all we ask, that the fighting is done, Is treat our dead pals square, And "Brotherly Love" may go for some, Who haven't been seared by the flame; And petting the Hun may do for the breed Who answer a coward's name, But ask us to take the hand of a beast, While our comrades' blood drips red, And we'll say to the teeth of such infamy: "Remember the boys who are dead." There may be those who would build their wealth With trappings of German mould, And maybe there live a pitiful few Who would revel in Prussian gold; But the men from the trenches in Flanders field Are strong in the pride of race, We are journeying back to the Westland To look our friends in the face.

We are coming back with the joust with death,

To the old remembered ways, To tread in the paths of ambient peace, And we seek neither honor nor praise; But the ghost of the pals we left behind Call out from the new turned loam, And all that we ask, is remember the boys— Our pals who will never come home. —Captain L. B. Myers.
