LANSING SPEAKS BEFORE CONFERENCE

ALLIES MUST FEED GERMANY IF DANGER OF BOLSHEVISM IS TO BE AVERTED

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, Mar. 12.—The world's affairs have reached a crisis, said Secretary Lansing in his speech. He emphasized that the allies must feed Germany and permit Germany to sell her products in foreign markets if the danger of bolshevism is averted.

He said that not pity but self interest compelled the allies to see that anarchy is crushed in the former German empire.

"Today starvation and want are portions of the German people. Violence and murder stalk in her streets. Her political, industrial and social institutions are tottering. The flames of terrorism are sweeping westward. This is no time to allow sentiments of vengeance and hatred to prevent checking this conflagration, which will soon be at the German borders, threatening other lands. There is no time to be lost if we would save the world from the despotism of anarchy."

Tamez is alleged to have shot and killed an aged Mexican named Saenz, while the latter was plowing in a field near Cuero, in the summer of 1911.

INTRODUCES BILL TO APPOINT A PURCHASING COMMITTEE

(By Associated Press.)

AUSTIN, Mar. 12.—Following the recommendation of a special house committee that the state purchase the Goodnight buffalo ranch and herd, Representative Lee Satterwhite introduced a bill proposing the appointment of a commission consisting of the governor, the comptroller, the land commissioner, the commissioner of agriculture and the president of the Agricultural and Mechanical College to negotiate the purchase.

The bill explains that the ranch owned by Charles Goodnight, in Armstrong county, consists of 3,453 acres of land, 160 buffalo, 24 cattalo (a cross between cattle and buffalo), and 136 Karakuli sheep. An appropriation of $100,000 is asked to purchase this property. An additional appropriation of $50,000 to buy adjoining lands, in the event the commission decides they are needed, is requested.

Proponents of the measure propose that the A. & M. College conduct an experiment station in an effort to make the Cattalo a commercial success. They also predict that the ranch under state management will have a source of revenue in addition to conserving and perpetuating the buffalo specie.

A story circulated here is that at one time only one bull and the cows remained of the immense herds of buffalo that roamed the plains of North America. Colonel Goodnight owned these animals, and from them the parks of the nation have been stocked, and the present Goodnight herd has grown.

The story goes that Colonel Goodnight was several times forced to sacrifice numbers of animals at almost beef prices in order to continue his project, and now he is growing old, and in an effort to prevent the breaking up of his ranch and herd, the state is asked to continue his work.

MILITARY GERMANY HAS CEASED TO EXIST

(By Associated Press.)

OLD REGIME PASSES WITH THE ADOPTION OF THE MILITARY TERMS BY COUNCIL.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, Mar. 11.—As the result of the adoption by the supreme council of the military terms of the German disarmament, as they go into the peace treaty, military Germany will go out of existence.

The terms provide for the sweeping reduction of the military establishment down to one hundred thousand men, with four thousand officers to be recruited by voluntary system in twelve years.

The effect of this is to limit Germany's military strength to less than the number of men in Switzerland's army. Arms and munitions are limited to a quantity sufficient for a hundred thousand men. The balance will be turned over or destroyed. German forts along the Rhine will be destroyed and the general staff abolished.

IN TENDER MEMORY.

The Death Angel entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stephens February 26th, 1919, and took away their darling girl, Villa, age about eight years old. The remains were laid to rest in the Union Springs cemetery in the presence of a large host of friends and loved ones.

It was hard to give her up, but she has gone to a better world than this. Her sufferings were great. Little Villa received burns on her lower limbs. She bore up under her sufferings well for about three weeks when something else set up, and the blessed Savior took her to a better world.

Now she is in the happy sunbeams of her blessed Savior who said "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me."

Villa is gone. Her place is vacant. Her sweet smiling face is missed. Weep not dear parents, and loved ones. We can meet her where peace and harmony will reign forever.

Her sufferings are forever ended. Villa will be missed in her home where we see her vacant chair. But turn your eyes heavenward. You will find dear Villa there.

Written by a friend and one that loved her.

THE BRITISH DEMAND.

It has been announced that the English delegates to the peace conference have been instructed to demand England's full cost of the war as well as indemnities to the relatives of marines who were killed.

There will be argument pro and con over this announcement, some claiming that the damnable Hun should be made to pay the cost because he was the cause of it, and that it would be a good thing if he were wiped from the face of the earth.

But there is another way to look at it, and it has such vital points as the league of nations, and the peace of the world concerned.

It has also been contended that the allies will have to administer justice to Germany with some degree of leniency in order to induce Germany to join the league of nations.

As yet no announcement has been made on what stand America will take on this question, and it is not for the Sentinel to make further comment.

Much to their dislike the senior German officers in the zone occupied by the Americans have been made to wear their uniforms and salute the American officers. The Germans have much to learn yet, it seems.

It would be well for us to remember that a smile is always worth while, and that it is the only known cure for the frown.

Some of the Russians are asking an allied intervention that will give them a return to the old gala days of the past when they dined in a cafe where dinner cost $10 instead of the $2.50 they now pay, and call America a great and fine nation when we talk of intervention.

A prominent Irish leader has announced that Ireland has talked gently with President Wilson long enough, and that should Wilson not give consideration to the Irish question that the League of Nations will be defeated by Ireland's strength in the United States.

Now comes the news that the German General Staff is said to be directing the Bolsheviks, and that the old imperial regime of Germany is not dead, and expects to win out of the Russian chaos all that they failed to win in the war.

The Houston Post today makes report of a man in Pennsylvania who has sent his money to a Houston bank to be deposited, saying by way of explanation that he wanted it to be in a safe place, as there were too many robbers there.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.

Dr. W. H. Bruce, Osteopathic Physician, Redland Hotel.

The membership of the United States in a League of Nations would constitute an "entangling alliance" such as Washington admonished the nation against, is fallacious.

The whole theory of the League is against entanglements. Its sole purpose is to maintain the peace of the world and those who think that any future dispute with such a League in existence would surely embroil us in quarrels which we are not concerned ought to consider our attitude without such a League.

There was no League in existence in July 1914. There were two groups of allied nations and a number of neutrals. After the war began, everything possible was done by our government to keep our nation out.

But not belonging to either group, and desiring above all things to keep out, into the mealstorm we plunged nevertheless. One thing is very clear now. No general European war between two groups of strong nations, while balanced as to military power, can be fought hereafter without pulling the United States in, regardless of its desires.

Nations at war for their very existence do not observe treaties or international law. Great Britain early in the game put an end to our trading with Germany, and undoubtedly violated our rights on the high seas.

When Great Britain paralyzed our profitable commerce with Germany, then to all intents and purposes the United States forcibly became an ally to Great Britain and France so far as Germany was concerned, and Germany was not long in giving the direct provocation that could not be resisted.

The exigencies of a war for existence affect nations precisely as they do individuals. When the crisis comes, no report is so desperate as that it will not be employed if it promise even a hope of salvation.

When England began to tighten the blockade of Germany, she knew that it was but a question of time until the United States would be drawn into the war on her side. She knew that Germany's play was to attempt to force the United States into resistance of England's interference with the freedom of the seas.

If other European wars come the history of the recent war will be repeated. If the groups are evenly matched and include practically all of Europe, one side or the other will force us in.

So the argument that membership in a League to prevent war might complicate our relations with Europe and embroil us with European politics fall to the ground. We are not isolated as in Washington's time, and to depend for security upon isolation that does not exist is to lean upon a broken reed.

There are other possibilities staring us in the face. Unless there be a League of Nations capable of settling most of the war-breeding disputes that arise, there is but one sensible course for us to pursue, and that is to get that navy that shall be second to none, and to maintain an army capable to effective and immediate response in emergencies.

The nation most likely to provoke aggression will be the isolated nation so-called, the nation that erects insuperable trade embargoes, that does not regard international trade as an exchange of products, but a process of selling its surplus at high rates for cash and buying as little as possible for its customers.

Apparently our statesmen and captains of industry are already preparing to double-cross the rest of the world—even our allies—in the matter of trade and industry, upon which the bread and meat of their people depend. Our internal policies are quite as calculated to breed war in the future as German ambition was in the era which has just closed.

We must look at these things frankly. Unless there be a League of Nations to guarantee the peace of the world, we may just as well get ready, for next time we may not have the British Grand Fleet to shield us during the hazardous months which may be required to put us upon an adequate defensive basis.

With a League of Nations the United States would be the nation most secure from attack; without such a League and without a great navy and army the United States would be the least against attack.

What has taken place in the great war means much to us provided we have the vision and the statesmanship to apply the lessons to be drawn from it, but if we ignore the lessons and the opportunities it has brought,

SOLDIER'S LETTER

Cussangy, France, Feb. 10. Mrs. C. W. McLain, Nacogdoches, Tex. Received your letter of Jan. 13 last night, and certainly was glad to hear from you once more. Well we are having a swell time over here and have been. We have got ten days furloughs to visit the large cities in France. I haven't gone on a pass yet, but hope to go on one if we have any more. We are confined to our village at present. There was one case of spinal meningitis, as they call it. Don't think that was what was wrong with the boy.

Oh well, I guess the first of April will catch us in the States or on the way. Say Sis, I just got four very small wounds—just did bleed. They are on my left foot and leg, and one on my left arm above the elbow. If you can see the places it is more than I can. Well I guess you know how a coal of fire burns, don't you? Well, that is just how a machine gun bullet feels. It was a small, or rather small pieces of shrapnel that got me in the leg and foot. The first place was on my arm. I got hit there on Oct. 8, and got the shrapnel on Oct. 9. Never left my Co. until Oct. 12. I had the chills and fever. They used to call us tin soldiers at Ft. Worth, but I guess they have changed their minds a little now. Old Mike was in Hdq. Co. and didn't get in the fun on Oct. 8, but he came up that night. Well, I had my part of the fun. Rather rough, playing—some of those Huns had real bullets.

You ask if I was glad the war was over. Well I guess all the dead men are glad. Oh, say, you ought to see us boys skating on the duck pond as we call it. Gee, but we have some fun. But all of us are a little blue and lonely at present, and will be until we reach home. Well, Sis, don't ever worry 'anay over me, I am all o. k.

Don't believe you could kill me. If you can't read this get a Jay's lawery he can. I have been trying to correct my mistakes and can't read this myself. Oh, well I was in a hurry when I started this, but have lots of time now. Just found out it was one hour until dinner time. Oh, well, some of the boys went and tried to stop G, as we call a machine gun bullet but flesh isn't a very good back stop. And they should have let them hit them and picked them up for souvenirs. Guess you know what I mean don't you. Hal hal!

REVIEW OF THE PAST WEEK OF THE LEGISLATURE

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, Mar. 10.—With the end of the regular session of the Texas legislature in sight, proceedings are changing. There already has been filibustering to prevent the passage of some measures and legislators are realizing many embryo laws which they have fostered through committees and sheltered carefully throughout the session will die in the closing day.

Approximately 1,000 bills have been introduced thus far. Many of them were local bills dealing with school districts and road law, but others embraced a wide range. It is estimated 25 general bills have been passed. Others are in various stages of passage and it is expected that about twenty five more will receive the approval of both houses and the governor and become laws. The last previous session produced 56 general acts.

Much important legislation is to come up at the special session which has been promised by Governor Hobby for June. Hope of passing the general appropriation bills at the regular session has been abandoned. Members doubt that any considerable number of the necessary revenue bills can be passed at the regular session. Although a special session is limited to consideration of bills mentioned by the governor in his call, a number of members have hoped the governor will revive their pet bills which expire with the present session.

Two big bills were disposed of last week. The rural school bill with a $2,000,000 appropriation for rural schools for each of the next two years is ready for the governor's signature. The resolution for a constitutional amendment to authorize $75,000,000 bond issue for a coordinating system of hard surfaced roads has been adopted by both houses.

Among the bills undisposed of are: The bill to abolish the fee system in payment of public officials has been passed by both branches, but is held in conference committee, which is trying to adjust amendments.

The proposed blue sky law has passed the senate but has never come up for consideration in the house.

The house bill to put a 2 per cent gross production tax on oil is tied up in the senate.

Two different bills to fix a minimum wages for women have been passed by the senate and the house, and an adjustment of them has not yet been effected.

The various ranger bills to which so much attention was directed by the Canales investigation remain to be coordinated and passed.

Several bills of great importance or the development of oil lands are in the senate from the 23d senatoria district is not yet decided. Hearing of testimony was concluded last week on the claims of D. W. Glascock and Archie Parr for the seat and the committee recessed until tonight.

MARCH, 15TH DATE FOR CAMP LOGAN ABANDONMENT

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, March 11, 1919.—March 15, has been set as the date for the abandonment of Camp Logan, the big army camp which has been in operation here since the United States entered the war, according to a recent announcement by Colonel Charles D. Palmer, who has arrived to direct the work in connection with the turning over of the camp site to the former owners.

ATLANTA BUSINESS MAN IS ENTHUSED

Since Taking Tanlac Almand Says He Feels as Well as He Ever Did.

"If you had seen me before I began taking Tanlac you would hardly believe me to be the same person," said A. F. Almand, a well-known seed chaut of 21-3 Peters street, Atlanta, Ga.

"For more than a year," he continued, "I suffered terribly with stomach trouble. After eating anything I would always have gas on my stomach and would constantly belch up my sour, undigested food. I suffered with heartburn constantly and was extremely nervous, my liver was sluggish and I was bilious, too, I felt languid and tired out most of the time and often felt so bad that I could hardly attend to my business properly."

"I heard of so many people praising Tanlac that I began taking it, too, and by the time I had finished my second bottle I had gained nineteen pounds. I never suffer now with heartburn or indigestion and am not nervous like I was before, I sleep well and get up in the morning feeling fine and ready for a hard days work."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith.

TO THE FARMERS OF NACOGDOCHES COUNTY

I am, as some of you know, encouraging the growth of watermelons for shipping purposes this season. I understand that some of you are making a skin game, and taking to your friends that I figure on getting you to plant these watermelons, and when you have done so, and brought the melons to the city for marketing, that the chances would be for me to tell you that I failed to find a market for same, and that we would sell them at a sacrifice in this case.

I beg to say that that is not my intention, neither do I expect to reap a big profit or excess profits from the watermelon growing. I simply encourage growing watermelons for shipping for one main reason, that is, an asset in selling the farms of Nacogdoches county. However, I do expect to make a profit but I expect to make you a profit out of the watermelon growing, also in the increase of the value of your farms.

I wish to say that it will cost me approximately $250 to even encourage the growth of watermelons in this section, and will say frankly that I feel it more to your interests than to mine, to help me out in this proposition.

Referring above as to what it will cost me I certainly think if I am willing to spend that amount each and every farmer who is within eight miles of Nacogdoches should be willing to plant as much as one acre of melons for shipping purposes this season.

I don't know what the market on melons will be this season, and I have no contract signed by any produce house agreeing to accept my melons at all, but I have letters, which were read at the meeting, from two of the best produce people doing business in the country, stating that they would gladly enter this section if the acreage on watermelons will justify them doing so. I also have letters from several buyers of produce, stating that they will gladly buy our stuff and try to help me make a distinct success.

Now, if any of you feel that you do not wish to help me in this proposition, and think that it is a skin game, as some similar propositions have been, I will be frank with you. I do not want you to get in the game. It is just as new with me as it is to you, and the farmers over East Texas are making a success of the watermelon growing. Why shouldn't we? There is not but one reason that I can see, and that is, going after it, staying with it after we get it, we will certainly succeed.

Stripling, Haselwood & Co., of this city, encourage the growth of watermelons in this section, and have reduced the price of Tom Watson melon seed from $1.25 per pound to 75c, if purchased at once. Those desiring seed may obtain them from that firm.

ABOUT SOLDIER'S BONUS.

Section 1100 of the Revenue Act of February 21, 1919 authorizes the payment of a bonus of $60 to officers, field clerks and nurses of the army upon honorable separation from active service by discharge, resignation or otherwise. This bonus is not payable to the heirs or representatives of any deceased soldier.

Those who are discharged hereafter will receive this bonus on the same roll or voucher upon which they are paid their final pay.

Those who have been discharged and have received their final pay without the $50.00 bonus, should write a letter to the Zone Finance Officer, Lemon Building, Washington, D. C., stating their service since April 6, 1917, the date of last discharge and their present address to which they desire their bonus checks to be sent and enclosing with this letter their discharge certificate or military order for discharge and both, if both were issued.

Upon the receipt by the Zone Finance Officer, Washington D. C., of this information and the soldier's discharge certificate, this officer will cause checks to be drawn and mailed to the claimants in the order in which their claims were received by him. The discharge certificate will be returned to the soldier with the check.

It is estimated that at least one million and a quarter persons have been discharged from the service who are entitled to the benefits of this act, and while payments will be made as expeditiously as practicable, it will manifestly take considerable time to write and mail this many checks.

(By Associated Press)

A conference between the railway executives, the bankers and Director Hines is being held today, discussing the depletion of the railroad funds. Hines hopes that the outcome will be a co-operative plan for financing the railroads privately.

BILLS PROPOSE REPEAL OF THE STATE LEPER'S HOME

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Mar. 11.—Two companion bills introduced into the House by representative W. H. Bledsoe, propose the repeal of the act creating a state leper's home and the creation of an act to provide for the isolation of lepers.

Mr. Bledsoe explains that the committee appointed to locate the home reported that it is impracticable to do so. He also says that there is a surprising number of leprosy cases in Texas and immediate action is necessary. He says further that he has been assured that within two years the Federal government will be prepared to take care of leprosy victims. His proposal is that the $25,000 appropriation for the establishment of the lepers' home be made available for the caring of lepers until the Federal government can take them over, and that the building of a home be abandoned.

MUST BE WORTHY HEROES SACRIFICES

(By Associated Press)
LYONS, Mar. 10.—Former premier Viviana at a meeting of the French association for the league of nations, said that to make the league a reality we must count less upon the goodness of men than on the interests of nations.

He said that thousands of our children have fallen to deliver us from the nightmare of war, and if we fail to demonstrate that the institutions of liberty are stronger than those of autocracy, we would be unworthy of the heroic testament those heroes have transmitted to us.

RELATES STRANGE OCCURRENCE OF THE WORLD WAR

(By Associated Press)
BEAUMONT, Mar. 11.—One of the strangest of the many strange occurrences of the world war which has come to the surface since the signing of the armistice, is that related by Emmett Lee, carpenter's mate, U. S. N., who is on a visit here to his parents after six months service in the navy.

Lee gives a graphic description of how, while his ship was cruising about on the lookout for submarines, one of the enemy undersea boats appeared on the starboard side, cleared for action and opened fire on the American craft.

Much to the joy of the Americans, the German's shot went wild and passing over the American vessel scored a direct hit on a sister submarine which had emerged on the port side and was about to open fire, bringing the American boat in line of a cross fire from the enemy guns.

Immediately the tell-tale oil splotch designated there was no further worry about that one, and the Americans soon compelled the other to submerge.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Sweattland of this city, and Dr. W. W. Dunn, of Lufkin, left today for Chicago where the doctors will take a special six-weeks course in medical science.

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference in Brands

The Encyclopaedia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco: "... on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed... the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavor and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco. Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple test with several tobacco brands: pour some tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrant your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

RULES GERMAN OFFICERS ON DUTY MUST WEAR UNIFORMS

COBLENZ, Mar. 6.—German officers and men on duty in the zone occupied by American troops must wear uniforms, in public compliance with an order issued by General Dickman. The order is the result of a tendency on the part of German senior officers to appear in civilian clothes because of their dislike at being compelled by an order to salute the American officers.

Mr. H. M. Briley arrived in the city Tuesday and has accepted a position with the firm of J. M. Greene. He will have charge of the cleaning department of the plant, and will also do soliciting. Mr. Briley comes to our city well recommended from his former employers of Sour Lake, Texas, with whom he has been connected the past 2 years in the same capacity.

SOLDIERS SIXTY DOLLAR BONUS.

Mr. Editor:
For the benefit of the returning soldiers who are entitled to the $60 bonus, I give you herewith, copy of letter, making application for the bonus, which I think meets the requirements, as promulgated by the Associated Press dispatches, of several days ago.

It is to be noted that the soldier making this application did all of his service at Camp Travis. If a soldier has done service at more than one camp, or in different places, and under different commands, he should give his entire service, and where he served, in his application.

It is required that each soldier have his discharge recorded, and I would suggest that he keep a verbatim copy of his discharge; and that he register the letter making his application, and containing his discharge. Keep a copy of your letter also.

Truly yours,
V. E. MIDDLEBROOK.
To: Zone Finance Office, Washington, D. C.

From: Phines S. Oliver, 3986822, Private Headquarters Co. 85th Inf. Discharged.

Subject: Sixty Dollar Bonus.
I hereby make application for the $60.00 bonus provided for honorably discharged soldiers.

I went into the service as select drafted soldier, Sept. 6th, 1918, under the Local Exemption Board, Nacogdoches Co. Texas. On said date I was sent by said board to Camp Travis, Texas. My entire service was at Camp Travis, except 17 days at Camp Burleson, shooting range, which was an adjunct to Camp Travis.

I was in training at Camp Travis from the 7th day of September, 1918 until I was honorably discharged, on the 25th day of Jan. 1919.

I herewith inclose my honorable discharge (I have no other certificate) from the service of date Jan. 25th, 1919; and I make application for the $60.00 bonus, provided for soldiers who have been honorably discharged. My posts office address is, Attoyac Texas.

Judge J. M. Marshall and County Attorney Langston King attended justice court in town Monday morning, and Judge Marshall honored this office with a pleasant call while here. He informed us while in that he and Commissioner Guy Blount had just returned from a business visit to Dallas, where they purchased another road grading machine and conferred with contractors in the matter of repairing the court house floor, getting some bids and information that will be submitted to the next term of Commissioners' Court.

GERMANS FLOCKING TO OCCUPIED AREA

COBLENZ, Mar. 8.—Disturbances in Berlin and other parts of unoccupied Germany have resulted in such increase in the number of civilians eager to reach the bridgehead area, where conditions are more normal, that the American forces of occupation have been compelled to take steps to prevent Germans from all parts of the country from overrunning the occupied zone along the Rhine.

THE ADVENTURES OF TWO FRENCH STRAGGLERS

PARIS.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—The adventures of two French stragglers, Sergeant Lesques and Private Levesque, who, becoming separated from their units after the battle of Charleroi, remained in hiding for more than four years in German occupied territory are told in the newspaper LA VICTOIRE. In the early days of the war, civilians helped the two soldiers but as the German domination became weightier, they took to the woods.

They made their home in the forest of Sapogne in the vicinity of Sedan. Their dwelling was a dugout so concealed that it was never discovered, although the forest which harbors wild boar and other game was a favorite hunting ground for German officers. The French stragglers lived on wild animals, hare and other game. One German who ventured into too close proximity of their dugout is also buried where he fell.

They made one attempt to escape in 1915, but on the Dutch frontier they were shot at by the German sentries and the sergeant was wounded, so the two of them returned to their forest. The severe winter of 1916 brought them terrible sufferings. They were snowed in and almost starved.

They owe their lives to an old Belgian poacher and smuggler who, throughout all the years of their adventures, helped them with provisions. They are now in a French hospital recovering from the effects of their privations.

Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARY BOYD, 1421 6th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

IN MEMORIAM.

On last Tuesday morning, February 25th, a mother in Israel fell asleep when the redeemed soul of sister Sallie Rushing crossed over Death's turbid stream to be with her Lord whom she loved and whom she had served so long. As she closed her eyes to things earthly, she opened them to things heavenly. Like the great Apostle Paul, she could say, "For me to live in Christ and to die is gain."

She fulfilled her mission well and by her labor of love quietly diffused virtue as the stars diffuse light and the flowers perfume. The influence of her noble life still lives, and will seem as a beacon light to direct others to safety.

She was born Feb. 10, 1850. On Dec. 4, 1867 she became the happy bride of Rev. J. B. Rushing, than whom God never made a nobler spirit.

In the pioneer days of Texas, they built for themselves a home in the Shady Grove community. There they lived for over forty years and reared a family of noble sons and daughters. This is the first death in the family.

There are four sons, as follows: W. H. Rushing, who is now superintendent of the public schools at Groveton; J. G. Rushing, a prominent physician at Center; A. E. and O. P., druggists at San Augustine. The daughters are: Mrs. D. L. Campbell, of Appleby; Mrs. Tennie White, of Appleby; and Mrs. Dick Dale. One brother survives her, Mr. H. C. Stack.

She was converted in early childhood, and when Shady Grove Baptist church was organized she was one of the charter members. On moving to Appleby about ten years ago, she transferred her membership to Bethel church. For several years she was confined to her room on account of her afflictions, but she bore her sufferings patiently.

Bereaved ones, a precious jewel awaits you in Heaven. Death is but the transfer station to the child of God. The grave is not the goal of life, so for the time being we must part, but not forever. There will be a glorious dawn, we shall meet to part never on the resurrection morn. Her pastor,

"Foley's Honey and Tar is the best cough medicine I ever tried," writes E. B. McDowell, R. F. D. 1, Box 119, Arlington, Tenn. "My son had influenza. He had the worst kind of a cough. UNIVERSITY INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE.

The object of the University Interscholastic League is to foster in the schools of Texas the study and practice of public speaking and debate as an aid in the preparation for citizenship; to assist in organizing, standardizing and controlling athletics in the schools of the state; and to promote county, district, and state interscholastic contests in debate, declamation, spelling, essay writing and athletics.

The University Interscholastic League of Timpson District is composed of all the schools of Angelina, Nacogdoches, Panola, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine and Shelby counties.

The executive committee, whose duties are to have immediate charge of the district meet and to organize and promote county meets and contests of the following school men scattered throughout the district: Superintendent A. J. Holmes, San Augustine, director of debates and declamations; Dr. C. A. Lanier, Henderson, director of spelling; Supt. W. B. Hargis, Pineland, director of essay writing; Supt. R. F. Davis, Nacogdoches, director of athletics, and Supt. W. H. Butler, director general, who shall have general charge of arrangements for the district meet held at Timpson April 11-12.

Officers throughout the district are earnestly urged to create interest in the various literary and athletic activities in their respective counties and to especially organize and encourage those features that come under their immediate and direct supervision.

Our league has grown from a membership of twenty-eight schools in 1911 to nearly three thousand in 1918. The organization should have the active cooperation and enthusiastic support of every teacher and parents in Texas, and every child in the public schools of the state can and should be interested in at least one of its various activities.

NEW REGULATIONS RANGER FORCES

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 8.—A bill proposing new regulations for the state ranger force has been introduced by Representative W. H. Bledsoe, chairman of the ranger investigation committee, and others.

The new plan is to limit the force to one headquarters company and four other companies. The headquarters company shall consist of a captain, a sergeant, a corporal and four privates. Other companies shall consist of a captain, a lieutenant and fifteen privates. In case of emergency the governor has authority to increase the force to meet conditions. Captain, lieutenants and quartermasters are to be appointed by the governor. Others are to be appointed by the governor through the adjutant general.

A new rate of pay has been proposed, as follows: Captains, $200 monthly; lieutenants, $150; sergeants $100; privates, $90. In addition to this salary a $30 per month subsistence allowance while at stations and $3 per day and railroad fare when on detached duty is proposed.

IN THE VICINITY OF VLADIVOSTOK

Showing an American Y. M. C. A. man distributing bars of chocolate to Czech-Slovak soldiers in Siberia. The Y. M. C. A. gave chocolate, cigarettes, etc., to the men on the extreme front lines and sold them elsewhere. Writing paper, pens, ink, moving pictures, concerts, etc., were always free to the men. Because of the very heavy expense incident to shipping all kinds of supplies overseas and then hauling them to the front, the Y. M. C. A., ordered by the war department to charge cost plus transportation, was in some cases forced to charge the soldiers more than the same goods would have cost them in the United States, with the result that the organization has been severely criticized. In view of this criticism, the army officials finally came to the Y. M. C. A.'s rescue, with the result that the boys overseas are now buying canteen supplies in many cases much cheaper than they can be bought in the United States.

"GOODIES" FOR ITALY'S FIGHTERS

"MOVING DAY" ON ITALIAN FRONT

The photo above, one of the latest from the Italian front, shows a number of Y. M. C. A. workers and soldiers taking the makings of a "Y" hut to an isolated army post so that it can be put up. It gives an illuminating idea of some of the difficulties incident to war work.

Pershing Issues Order Designating Y. M. C. A. to Supervise Athletics.

Paris.—General Pershing's position regarding the Y. M. C. A.'s management of athletic activities in the American expeditionary forces is set forth in the following army order:

"The Y. M. C. A., with the approval of the commander in chief, has organized a department of athletics and is prepared to give every assistance in the development of general athletics and the arrangement and management of competitions between military units.

"It has a large number of specially trained physical directors in mass play and other athletic activities now in its ranks in France. One of these will be attached to the staff of each division and separate unit, and will be designated in orders as the division (or unit) athletic director, and under supervision of the division athletic officer will be charged with the responsibility for the arrangement, management and general conduct of athletic activities throughout the unit."

In another section of the order, provision is made for mass athletics and competitions for every possible man, an all-point company athletic championship and official A. E. F. championships in a wide variety of sports. "Keep Fit for Home" is now the slogan. If the period of demoralization is not to be, as Doctor Mott has put it, "a period of demoralization" for many men, attractive, constructive physical activities must immediately be substituted. To a certain degree a continuation of military drill will meet the situation, but the games and play, informal and competitive, will be found the best agency to meet the call for physical well-being.

There will be physical expression of some sort, particularly during the leisure time of the soldier. Shall it be destructive, disorderly and dull—orderly, constructive and interesting? The army has decided for the latter. It has adopted a program maintaining a wise balance between the amount of drill necessary to maintain military efficiency and discipline and the amount of play necessary to keep men physically stimulated, and so the responsibility for the play side of this program for the 2,000,000 men in France is placed upon Y. M. C. A. athletic directors, experts in their profession.

INTERSCHOLASTIC MEET POSTPONED FOR TWO WEEKS

The interscholastic meet of the schools of Nacogdoches county, which was to have taken place in this city today has been postponed until Saturday two weeks from today. The reason of postponement was due to the rain, which prevented the rural schools from getting here today to participate.

A handsome list of prizes with over a hundred dollars valuation was offered by the merchants of the city and the Nacogdoches schools wanted to be fair to the rural schools, and would not take advantage of the unfortunate weather conditions which prevented the rural schools from participating, and carry out the meet.

It is announced that the best interscholastic meet ever held in the county is being planned for the later date, and that the necessary preparations to this end are being made.

EXTENDS THE LIFE OF COMMISSION APPEALS

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Mar. 8.—An extension of the life of the Commission of Appeals, which was named to help clear the dockets of the Supreme Court, from June 1920 to June 1923, is proposed in a bill now before the house.

In urging court reforms, William Hodges of Texarkana, says, "I have just examined the cases recently decided by our Supreme Court and the two Commissions of Appeals in the last four numbers of the advance sheets of the Southwestern Reporter. There are thirty-one of them. Seven had evidently been advanced and considered out of their order on account of the issue involved. One was an original order proceeding in the Supreme Court. In twenty-two cases the records show that a period ranging from five years and one month to six years and two months had elapsed between the rendition of the final judgment in the Courts of Civil Appeals and their decision for the first time in the Supreme Court and the Commission of Appeals. In the other cases, more than four years had intervened between the judgments."

Mr. Hodges cites an incidence of a case which was filed in the trial courts July 29, 1910. On December 11, 1918, the case was decided in the Supreme Court and reversed and remanded. He points out that it is possible that this case go through the entire process again before a final decision is given.

PRETTY CHURCH WEDDING AT HIGH NOON TODAY

One of the prettiest and most prominent weddings that The Sentinel has recorded in some time took place at the Methodist church in this city at high noon today when Miss Ruth Lloyd of this city was united in wedlock to Mr. Edward Jenkins of Brownsville, Rev. J. L. Massey, pastor of the church, performing the ceremony.

A large crowd assembled at the church and the ceremony was opened with a duet by Mrs. Robt. Lindsey and Miss Willie Gramling, rendering an excellent selection.

A beautiful chorus was given by Mrs. Clyde Stegall, Mrs. I. L. Sturdevant, Mrs. Ellis Gaston, Miss Mintie Price, Mrs. Edith Lloyd, Miss Ida Monk, Mrs. Merton Blackburn, Miss Mintie Blount and Mrs. Percy Blount. After the chorus Miss Elinor Thomas sang in a rich sweet voice, "I Love You," lending a sympathetic spirit to the happy occasion.

A basket of rose petals was strewn down the aisle as the pretty ring bearers, Geo. Barham, Jr., Marjorie Hisey, Lamar Acker, Jr., and Marguerite King, dressed in white led the way to the altar.

The ceremony was with double ring. The bride was dressed in navy blue, with bronze shoes and hat to match, combining with natural beauty to typify the epitome of all that is happy and lovely. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Winnie Davis King was the maid of honor, and was very beautiful, dressed in white with a white hat. The ushers were Miss Nannie Wright, Miss Mary Price, Miss Martha Nelson and Miss Valerie Oash.

The church was beautifully decorated with bamboo vines with white roses interspersed, and with a large bouquet of lilies of the valley at the altar.

The bride and groom left this afternoon for Dallas and other points to spend their honeymoon.

Miss Lloyd is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lloyd of this city, and is a popular and gifty young lady who will make a fitting queen for the new home that the young man has asked her to share with him.

While the bridegroom is not so well known to us, he is equally well known and respected in his home town, and comes well recommended.

The Sentinel joins the many friends of the contracting parties in extending congratulations to the happy young couple in their new-found happiness, and trusts that the new relationship will be a happy one in which love and harmony will reign supreme.

Why Colds Are Dangerous

You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you. Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ disease, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of these diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

A STEP BACKWARD.

While all the civilized world is looking towards the United States to feed and clothe the starving millions in Europe and the near East, and while our own government is asking our farmers to increase the products of their farms in order that we can supply the stricken nations with the necessities of life, our County Commissioners Court by its vote of three to one at its monthly session held on Monday, March 10th, decided to reject the offer of the government, by voting down the co-operative agricultural work of the government and to A. & M. College of Texas in our county.

For what reasons the court took this action, it is hard for any progressive, patriotic man to understand, unless it is that they either believe that the farmers of our county know all there is to learn about agriculture, or that they consider them too thick headed to be able to accept any teachings along agricultural lines.

For the past nine years we have had in our county an agricultural agent whose business it was to go on the farms of the county, and assist the farmers in the improvement of their crops and stock, and to show them a method of saving their soil from the heavy rains that fall here every year, by terracing their fields. Not only did we have the services of this man, but scientists in every branch of agriculture visited the county during the year and assisted the farmers in solving their special problems.

By arrangements with the government at Washington, this service cost the county eight hundred dollars a year, this being a part of the county agent's salary, the balance being paid by the government. Nacogdoches county depends upon her agriculture for her wealth. We have no large manufacturing interests, neither have we coal or iron mines from which to draw our income, therefore any movement put forward to increase the productivity of our farms means the increased wealth of every person living in the county.

It is only fair to the taxpayers of the county that they should know who are the members of the Commissioners Court, who so far forgot their duty to the progressive element of the county, and whose money they are spending for some projects less worthy than the work of an agricultural agent. We all agree that we should have good roads, and enough money is spent every year to have good roads in the county, but do we have them? We must admit that we do not, we spend money for the building of the roads, but what does our court do to keep the roads in good condition.

At the session of the court last Monday quite a number of farmers were present, and quite a number spoke in favor of the work, and asked the court to apportion the eight hundred dollars from the county's funds in order to continue the work. After hearing the various speakers, Judge Marshall placed the matter before the commissioners, whereupon Commissioner Blount made a motion that the work be continued in the county. This motion was seconded by Commissioner Seale. Upon the motion Commissioner Blount voted for the work, while the other three commissioners voted against it.

I do not believe the deep thinking progressive farmers of our county approve of the action taken by their commissioners.

GEO. T. M'NESS.

LUFKIN ROAD BONDS READY

As a result of Judge Robb's visit to Austin a few days ago, two Angelina county good road bonds are now ready to go on the market, and the third one will be ready inside of thirty days. The three referred to are the Zavalla, Huntington and Redland bonds, totalling $210,000, and as soon as they are disposed of, work will begin, it is supposed, within a short time.

Authority was granted to sell $20,000 of the Redland bonds that were held up, owing to the war, this road being the one leading out of Lufkin to the Angelina river, and which has been under discussion for quite awhile. Many people will rejoice when this thoroughfare is finally completed, and an all the year road perfected between the towns of Lufkin and Nacogdoches.—Lufkin News.
