Italy Threatens To Withdraw From Conference Today

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, April 23.—The facts of the deadlock over the Italian claims in the Adriatic are as follows according to the Petit Parisien: President Wilson proposed that Fiume, which is not mentioned in the Treaty of London should be a free city, but attached to the Jugo-Slav customs system, and that the London treaty be subjected to a total revision. Italy refused to accept the proposal, whereupon President Wilson withdrew, leaving Italy alone with the representatives of the other signatories.

President Wilson is said to have changed his views as regards Fiume, and is now inclined to give it absolutely to the Jugo-Slavs.

Premier Orlando threatens to return to Italy today unless there is a satisfactory adjustment of Fiume and the Dalmatian questions. Premier Lloyd George is trying to persuade the Italian leader to remain in Paris longer while he continues his effort to reconcile the opposing viewpoints.

In a statement issued today by President Wilson explaining his position on the Adriatic question he declares that Fiume cannot become a part of Italy. He points out that every condition concerning the Adriatic settlement have been changed since Italy entered the war upon the promises of the pact of London, the Austro-Hungarian empire having disappeared.

INFORMAL CONFERENCES HELD DELEGATES TRADE CONVENTION

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 23.—Informal conferences were held here today by the delegates to the national foreign trade convention, which will open tomorrow under the auspices of the National Foreign Trade Council with representatives of practically every industry in America present. "Foreign Trade Essential to American Industry" is the theme of the three-day convention.

The government has assigned representatives of practically every industrialized foreign trade and to explain conditions pertaining to it. In addition fifty or more papers will be read leading authorities in the industrial world.

The department of State assigned representatives to its consular service to explain the progress of foreign commerce, and give information concerning modern trade tendencies abroad. The Department of Commerce is represented by experts from its bureau of foreign trade and domestic commerce. A special representative of the Pan-American Union will discuss conditions essential to a successful trade with nations of this hemisphere.

At the opening session tomorrow the general subject will be "America's Need for Foreign Trade." Papers will be submitted dealing with America's financial equipment for foreign trade, the interest of labor and agriculture in foreign trade and effect of tariffs. Special attention will be paid to the value of foreign trade to the Mississippi valley and other interior sections. In this connection a number of group conferences will take up sectional problems.

Keen interest centers around the question of the American merchant marine's relation to foreign trade, which will be taken up Friday. American shipbuilding and the future standing of America's merchant fleet will be considered at that time.

Edward N. Hurley, Chairman of the United States Shipping Board, and the head of chambers of commerce and other industrial and business organizations are on the program for addresses tomorrow.

A special group of advisors qualified to present information concerning trade conditions in every country in the world is at the service of the various committee and group conferences. Most of these advisors have served in foreign countries either as representatives of the government or of leading American industries.

NEGROES AND WHITES FIGHT IN CHICAGO

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 23.—One negro will probably die as the result of a series of sanguinary fights between the whites and negroes in the South Side black belt.

The racial feeling is gaining intensity on account of the encroachment of the negroes into the residence district of the south belt. A number of bombs were exploded recently.

CRISIS IN BUDAPEST IS SEVERE TODAY

(By Associated Press.)

BUDAPEST, April 23.—The crisis here is worse than on April 3rd. Apprehension is felt that there will be a violent swing to anarchy, with the Socialists losing control to the bolshevik leaders. Looting which was hitherto held in check or legalized and assassination of aristocrats is feared.

A MINUTE OF THE SINGING CONVENTION AT LILBERT.

The Nacogdoches union singing convention met Friday night, April 11th in the Libbert community.

Singing was arranged for Friday night and Saturday morning, Saturday afternoon. New officers were elected. Prof. Battles was elected president, Mr. John Cobren vice-president and Miss Eureka Morton secretary. The quartet book was adopted for this year. It was decided that a teacher may use any book he wishes in a school, and may sing in any other book provided he has enough to supply the singers with.

Singing opened Sunday morning about 9:30 o'clock and closed at 12 o'clock, opened again at 1:30 o'clock, and sang a few songs which closed the convention.

The people surely had two nice dinners on the ground Saturday and Sunday. They treated their visitors nice and gave them a warm welcome to join in the singing. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. There could not have been a better convention anywhere. There were plenty of good singers and good leaders, but many more could have made it better. Many thanks to the Libbert people for the kindness they showed to the visitors, and the good dinner they gave us during the convention.

We would appreciate being with them again.

MISS EURETHA MORTON, Secretary of the Nacogdoches Singing Convention, Etowah, Texas.

Reports from the bedside of Farm Wisener today indicate that he is still alive, but that he is very low.

"BEAT GERMANY TO FORMER SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE."

(By Associated Press.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 23.—"Beat Germany to her former South American trade" is the slogan of a committee formed by the Louisville Board of Trade, which is trying to bring more than 250 Kentucky manufacturers and jobbers in close relation with Latin-America.

To provide information concerning the trade, an auxiliary department of the Louisville Board of Trade will be established. This body will keep in direct communication with the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce at Washington, the Consular Service, the Philadelphia commercial museum and like organizations.

The committee chairman asserted that fifteen Louisville manufacturers already are trading extensively in South America and that other Kentucky firms are dealing on a smaller scale.

The Farmers' Truck

The Ford One Ton Truck may well be classed as an agricultural necessity, it fits into and fills as many wants on the farm. It is a reliable bearer of farm burdens, not only doing the work of several horses quicker and better than the horse, and does not "eat its head off" when not working. The aggressive farmer has only to consider the possibilities the Ford truck and he is ready to buy one. We judge this to be so from the way farmers are buying them. Truck chassis $550 f. o. b. JEWISH WAR SUFFERERS.

The following telegram is self-explanatory:
"Dallas, Texas, April 16th, 1919, 4 p. m. V. E. Middlebrook, Nacogdoches, Texas.
Governor Hobby has by second proclamation extended the period of the Jewish War Relief campaign indefinitely in order thereby to give backward counties full opportunity to raise the entire quota. Please continue campaign until full quota raised. Please telegraph immediately amount already raised. Situation very urgent. Alex Sanger."
This telegram has just been answered as follows:
"Alex Sanger, Dallas, Texas.
Two Thousand Two Hundred Nine Dollars Twenty One cents raised. V. E. Middlebrook."
The quota for Nacogdoches county is one-fifth of the United War Work Drive which was sixteen thousand, five hundred dollars. So, our quota is Three Thousand, Three Hundred Dollars. At this writing we are one thousand and ninety dollars and seventy-nine cents short of our quota. We have been apprised of some small donations not yet turned, in all put together might possibly raise the amount in sight to twenty-three hundred dollars, which leaves us one thousand dollars short.
The central committee for Nacogdoches county feels that it has patiently and vigorously organized the county as effectively as reasonably could be done through the mails in the time we have had for the work. Ten days ago the State Chairman called for the full report from all county chairmen as to basis of organization, how it had been effected and probable results. In response to our report to this inquiry Chairman Sanger wrote us at length, telling us that no county in the State had been more thoroughly and systematically organized than Nacogdoches county, and bespoke in advance a full quota for Nacogdoches county. The committee feels that its work merits a full quota; but above this, the committee feels that suffering humanity demands of us a full quota. Let us not lose sight of the fact that in these days of world stress, devastation, suffering and death, it is no excuse to say, "There have been so many drives; there have been so many calls; we have been called upon so often to donate, it is time to stop." Just so long as there is want, suffering and misery and we are not suffering and can, to any degree, contribute to relieve suffering; we must heed the call to humanity. To do less is to shirk our duty to our fellowman and to our Christ who in the agony of death poured out His soul in prayer to the Father, saying: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." If we be followers of the lowly Nazarine, we are willing to drink of the same cup from which he drank; but we are not called upon to do this. The climax of the call to us to duty and service is not death that others might live; but with Christian fortitude, out of our abundance to contribute that others may live and by doing so, prove God that He may pour out upon us blessings we shall not be able to contain.

Up to this writing, less than two hundred dollars has been received from the entire county outside of the Nacogdoches Independent School District. The very reason for assigning quotas, state, county, city and school district is that there are and have been so many calls to duty during the world stress, that it is necessary for each state, county and subdivision of the county and each individual of the subdivision to do his part in the work that the burden may fall equally upon all. As American citizens, as Texas citizens and as citizens of a christian commonwealth none of us can afford to treat lightly the call to mercy. To do so is not only to fall short of duty but by our own acts to deny ourselves the right to lay hold and claim the promises of God who makes the light shine out in darkness; who numbers the hairs of our heads; who claims the cattle upon the thousands of hills; who makes seed time and harvest; who multiplied the meal in the widow's barrel and who makes our own hearts rejoice when we meet the call of humanity regardless of creed and relieves the suffering of God's creatures wherever on the globe dispersed. Won't you do your part and claim the right to the blessing?
Sincerely yours,
V. E. Middlebrook, I. L. Sturdevant, E. H. Blount, County Chairman.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS

In San Antonio there are several historical associations that have the leading purpose of perpetuating noteworthy events and people of the early days of Texas. Two leading periodical publications are now running articles of this kind as serials. One of the two is a new magazine called The Texas Eagle, which takes up matters chiefly connected with San Antonio de Bexar. The other is the aged San Antonio Express, which widens the field, and, among other subjects includes the Nicaragua invasion, led by Gen. Wm. Walker. This event proved a grand fiasco. Walker's army was totally demolished, and he was formally shot. Nacogdoches was one of his recruiting points and this was an interesting topic for the town and for Texas, about the year 1855.

Love of adventure had much to do with the settling of Texas, and the shaping of the government. The noted Aaron Burr met his downfall by "starting something" of this kind. When a politician or a speculator back "in the states" got smashed, he was often listed as "gone to Texas." Fortune hunters were also thus listed. For instance of such characters, take Sam Houston, Davy Crockett, Travis, Austin, Burleson, Bowie, Rusk, Edwards, Blake, Hotchkiss, Nelson and various others who came to Nacogdoches during the first third of the last century. Nacogdoches was then considered as Texas. The fates of such men were varied, some rising, some falling.

Davy Crockett was one of the latter class and an Alamo martyr. He left Tennessee in 1835, because he got defeated for congress. He was sorely disappointed in his ambitious aspirations. So he went to Texas, crossing the Red river east of where Clarksville turned south to Nacogdoches. He was a man of attractive personality and quite a bunch of young men joined him. At Nacogdoches he tarried a few weeks and he was lionized by the town. A big dance was pulled off in his honor at the finest residence in the town, that of the oldest and most notable resident, John S. Roberts, one of Jackson's heroes at the battle of New Orleans, Jan. 8, 1812. Gen. Jackson was a Tennessean, Roberts was a cosmopolitan from Louisiana and elsewhere, stopping now for a half century rest as owner of the "Old Stone Fort," and an elegant residence, fronting north across the public square or plaza, face to face the Stone Fort fronting south at one hundred yards. It was a picturesque landscape well worthy of admiration and remembrance. But to the dance. In frontier parlance this was called a fandango, the Mexican name for a rough rollicky shindig, politely termed a cotillon or square dance. It was varied with waltzes or round dances thrown in for rests. A gay and festive time it was and all the red blood of the town participated. Among them was Sam Houston in the very prime of life, Bennett Blake and possibly Tom Rusk, Whitaker, Smith, Millard, Travis, Bowie and others of youthful years, just the type to enjoy the fun. And the girls, well they were simply equal to the occasion. Crockett led the first set with the hostess, Mrs. Roberts. After this he took his turn at the fiddle with Uncle Wiley Rusk, the famous cotillon fiddler.

Mothers Thank Us
Keep your growing girls free from colds and weakening coughs and you are helping them to healthy vigorous womanhood. Thousands of mothers have written letters of thanks, telling what Foley's Honey and Tar has done for their daughters in ridding them of coughs that "hung on" and weakened them just at the age when the young girls required all the physical strength they could command. Foley's Honey and Tar is noted for its quick effect on coughs, colds and croup. Mrs. A. G. Sanders, Cottontown, Tenn., writes: "We use Foley's Honey and Tar as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure our two girls when they have colds."

"After the ball was over," next day, Crockett was chatting with his assembled new friends who had gathered around him on "Peck's Corner" across obliquely from the Stone Fort when the crowd called on him for a speech. That suited him exactly. When he finished he was warmly applauded by his hearers and told that several wanted to go with him to San Antonio. Then he set the day to start and he went up to the office of May John Forbes, on the second floor of the old Stone Fort, adding to it, "as long as Texas does not join the United States." He said he was done with the United States, forever more. So, he went on and met his fate in the Alamo butchery, fighting to death with Travis and his fellow heroes.

Queer and eccentric characters arriving in Texas were numerous. Among these was a Louisiana Frenchman family by the name of Jean. They came there about 1825 and his son was born there, who in early years became a resident of the Big Bend section near Marfa, on the Rio Grande. He was a family there in Mexican frontier life. One son named Alfred Jean adopted the name as if spelled Johns, according to the way it was pronounced. He married a beautiful Mexican senorita, grew rich on a ranch, moved his family to San Antonio, built a nice brick residence on Alamo Heights in which he lived until his recent death. His Mexican widow and her accomplished daughter then returned to Marfa to live. They rented out their home here.

I am so glad you are back to your loving and anxious ones, and hope that you feel as well as you look, and how I would like to ask you a thousand and one questions but when I try to I grow weak and my speech fails me, but we certainly want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the kind words, that you spoke of our dear boy and what a good name you all gave him and make us happy to know that we have not strived in vain or in teaching our children to live right, and we want to thank you for the protection of our child because he was so young, as you boys so nobly done, and boys it seemed that you should have brought him back, but it was not our lot. We have to be one of the unfortunate families, that are heartbroken by this grim war, but bless your hearts you did all that you could, and that was to his resting place and do that which we could not and that was to sing the last sad requiems and bow your heads in prayer, and we want to thank you again for putting that headstone marker, and for the decoration made of iron, that will be everlasting, and boys we hope and know for this and your trying hardships that you are all better men, and we extend to you our heartfelt wishes, the best of success in the future, with love.

Calomel is quicksilver and acts like dynamite on your liver.
Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It erases into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system. When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate. Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

HONORING THE BRIDE.

The following report of an affair given in honor of Miss Ruth Lloyd, of this city, is taken from the Bryan Eagle: The largest and most beautiful affair of the spring, distinguished for its charm and brilliance, was the reception Thursday afternoon from four to six, by Mrs. Edwin J. Jenkins, when in response to imitations, a large and fashionable assemblage of women called to meet Mrs. Edwin J. Jenkins. The honoree is a charming young bride of a few weeks, and the meeting of so lovable a woman was quite a pleasure to the guests. She is highly educated and accomplished, and is possessed of those attributes of character that will speedily surround her with many friends in this, her new home.

In honor of the hour the hospitable Jenkins' home was aglow with soft lights and myriads of exquisite blossoms. Dainty Miss Julia Belle Graham who was much admired, opened the door and in a sweet manner extended first greeting to the incoming guests. The reception hall was a bower of beauty, with an effective arrangement of American beauty roses arranged in wicker baskets and wall pockets. Here a welcome was extended by Mrs. J. M. Lawrence P. T. Ramsey, J. T. Haurway, Floy Danab.

Passing into the music room the guests were graciously welcomed by Mrs. Edwin J. Jenkins, who presented the lovable honoree, Mrs. Edwin G. Jenkins, and standing with them in line were, Miss Mary James, Miss Margaret Zuber and Mrs. Nelson Dulaney. Magnificent Killarney buds, held in crystal vases and white baskets were artistically arranged on the piano and pedestals. On the handsome mantel, nestling and soft plumosa fern and bows of pink marine, pink buds were reflected in the mirror behind, their beauty standing out in charming relief.

The dining room adjoining was very handsome in its arrangement of Easter lilies and bride's roses, great clusters being arranged in crystal receptacles on buffet and cabinets, and hanging from an arch in one end of the room, was an artistic basket bowed with maline and filled with long stemmed roses, and lattice, above being twined with ferns and rose buds. Mahogany pedestals held exquisite white lilies. An elaborate cluny cloth overlaid the polished table, in the

WILTON RATCLIFF DIED FORT WORTH THIS MORNING

A telegram was received in the city this morning stating that Wilton Ratcliff died at Fort Worth in the early hours of today.

Mr. Ratcliff has been suffering with tuberculosis for the past ten years, and death comes as a sweet relief from the intense pain which he has borne so patiently for so long a time.

He was born in this city April 21, 1874, therefore being 45 years of age yesterday. He was a son of Judge W. G. Ratcliff, well known pioneer citizen of Nacogdoches.

Surviving Mr. Ratcliff to mourn loss is his wife, and little daughter, Ruby, and brothers Edgar Scott, Gordon and a sister, Mrs. A. P. Loden, and a half sister Mrs. Guy Guinn, and Mrs. W. G. Ratcliff, step-mother.

The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow on the train from Dallas, and carried to the residence of his father-in-law Mrs. J. W. Weeks, from whose home the funeral will occur, the body being laid to rest in Oak Grove cemetery at 5:00 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

As stated Mr. Ratcliff has been suffering for some ten years with an incurable disease. About a year ago he went to Hot Springs, North Dakota, in the hope of it proving a benefit to his health. Such was not the case, however, and some two months ago he returned to Fort Worth, where he was at the time of his death.

Mr. Ratcliff was well known in this city, having been raised here, and it is with great sadness of heart that they learn that a friend and comrade has passed the Great Divide into the Unknown. He was formerly connected with the Wilson cigar factory here, later being engaged with Mr. Weeks in the Weeks & Ratcliff drug store.

It is always with sadness that we are called upon to record the passing of a human soul into the Beyond, and are sometimes constrained to exclaim with Byron "O God! it is a fearful thing to see the human soul take wing; in any shape, in any mood." But then again, as Shakespeare says: "Towards die many times before their death; The valiant never taste of death but once."

Of all the wonders that I yet have heard, It seems to me most strange that men should fear, Seeing that death, a necessary end, Will come when it will come."

May the bereaved loved ones of this good man be comforted in the knowledge that he died like a man, and that through all the years of his sojourn on this mortal earth that his life has been so shaped and lived, that all those with whom he has come in contact with have been made better for the association, and that the world has been made better by his having lived in the sincere wish of the Sentinel in extending condolences to the bereaved members of the family in their hour of great grief.

AUSTIN, April 22.—A short course in agriculture will be given to soldiers discharged at Texas demobilization points, according to T. W. McClenahan, state farm specialist, federal department of agriculture, who has just finished a conference with the commanders of Texas camps.

He states that the soldiers are interested in the work, and that in addition to giving instructions, efforts will be made to secure positions for the student farmers upon their completing the prescribed course.

SMITH SAYS SPLENDID FEELING OVER THIS DISTRICT OVER LOAN

Special to The Sentinel.
DALLAS, April 22.—Mr. Frank M. Smith, Liberty Loan Federal Director for this district said today that the first report from this district showed a splendid feeling on the part of the citizens and people as regarding an opportunity to subscribe to the Liberty Loan as a privilege rather than a stern duty. I always knew that the patriotism of the people of this district was true and deep but there is a refinement of feeling brought about by our experience of the last two years which is showing itself in the attitude of the public today. They realize the sacrifices made for them and are anxious to do their part. The star of this great southwest is going to shine bright in the firmament of patriotism when this war is recorded.

Presido county, with Marfa as its county seat, oversubscribed its liberty loan quota of one hundred and five thousand dollars by 10 o'clock Monday, and threatens to treble the amount before the other counties of similar wealth and population have reached their goal.

One of the first callers at Victory Loan headquarters in Shreveport Monday was Mrs. Marie Stone. Her son Malcom Cullom was the first Louisiana boy to give his life in the war. To the chairman she remarked: "I thought I had given everything, but I find that there is just a little more that I can do, so I have come to do it." Shreveport also reports first team to raise its quota in the city was composed of three Greek citizens, P. Vaky, J. K. Theo and George Grevas, who solicited among banana vendors, bootblacks, fruit dealers and restaurant men. Within three hours they went seven thousand, five hundred dollars over the top.

Houston reports the greetings of the day. "Will Houston raise its quota." The answer "I'll say she will."

If you like the Sentinel, tell us, as we appreciate it when you tell us.

The young man was brought to the hospital in this city, and reports from his bedside this morning are to the effect that he is barely alive and is not expected to live.

Sheriff G. W. L. Woodlan and his first deputy, A. D. Wall and County Attorney L. G. King were notified immediately, and went to the scene, making a thorough investigation and search, and returned about two o'clock this morning with Charles Pullen, 81 years of age, and is now lodged jail, charged with the shooting.

From the information we are able to ascertain, it seems there was a deal of mystery as to who did the shooting, as young Wisener was an excellent young man, without an enemy in that section, apparently; therefore no motive for such an occurrence.

Mr. Pullen does not deny the shooting to the officers, but maintains that he was after another man and thought Wisener was the man he was after. When Pullen learned of his mistake he immediately began to look for the officers to surrender to them.

Pullen is being held here pending the outcome of young Wisener condition, and should he die will be charged with murder.

Mr. Wisener is a son of Dick Wisener of the Douglas community, and an excellent young man who was well known and esteemed, and the entire community was greatly shocked to learn that he was the innocent victim of the assassin's shots.

PARENTS DAY PROGRAM WAS VERY INTERESTING

The Parent's Day Program rendered by the pupils of West End school was very interesting and much enjoyed by all who attended.

Quite a number of the mothers were present and it reminded us of the day when we had our "say."

These little "get-together" meetings are of great benefit as they increase cooperation. Our teachers deserve more praise than we usually accord them for the interest they take in our children.

The program showed that both teachers and pupils had worked. The decorations were very pretty and artistic and all bespoke of the season of the year.

Prof. Davis made a very interesting talk. One point appealed to me especially, to not kill the beautiful birds.

Work done by pupils showed that West End ranks right up with other schools. Some drawings showed good talent.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 22.—Complete text of the revised covenant of the league of nations was received at the state department today.

INTERESTING DATA REGARD LENGTH OF SCHOOL TERMS

(By Associated Press.)

AUSTIN, April 22.—In an argument favoring the constitutional amendment proposing to remove the fifty cent limitation of taxation for educational purposes, Frederick Eby, professor of the history of education at the University of Texas, has compiled some interesting data regarding the length of school terms in Texas.

The average length of the term of city schools of the state in 1878 was 159 days, his statement says; of the country schools 73 days. He brings this down practically year by year to 1918, during which time the average term of city schools was 152 days, and of country schools 126 days.

The average length of school terms of continental United States in 1870 was 132.1 days; on Texas it was 140 days. In 1915 the nation's average was 160.3 days; Texas' 135 days.

Compared with other states in average length of school terms Texas ranks thirty-ninth, the highest average being that of Rhode Island, which is 194.3 days. "Upon the removal of the tax limitation depends the future of the independent school district in Texas," says Professor Eby.

BROWNSVILLE MAN HAS COTTON KEE HIGH NOW

BROWNSVILLE, April 22.—E. J. Puig, former United States vice-consul at Matamoros, Mexico, is racing with the cotton world for the first cotton of the 1919 season.

Mr. Puig has about five hundred acres of cotton this year, of which 150 acres is already knee high, and already has squares all through it.

Those familiar with cotton growing say there is every reason to believe this particular spot of cotton will have bolls within a month, that they will be bursting probably before the middle of June. The earliest cotton produced in this section ready for baling, in the past eight years has been July 4. Mr. Puig will endeavor to have a bale ready sometime before that date, baring his expectations on the present rate of progress.

How Diphtheria is Contracted.

One often hears the expression "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had simply led the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. If your child has a cold when diphtheria is prevalent you should take him out of school and keep him off the street until fully recovered, as there is a hundred times more danger of his taking diphtheria when he has a cold. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease being contracted.

WOMEN PUT UP ARGUMENTS IN TEXAS DIVORCE CASE

(By Associated Press)

DALLAS, April 22.—For the first time in the history of Texas and probably for the first time in the history of the south, women attorneys thrashed out the evidence and made the argument in a divorce case before one of the district courts here.

A verdict was rendered in favor of the plaintiff who alleged cruel treatment.

The defendant (the man in the case) was not present in court when the verdict was rendered. He was represented by a woman attorney appointed by the court to look after his interests.

RAILROAD MECHANIC DELIGHTFUL REMEDY ALMOST IN DESPAIR FOR A LAZY LIVER

Went Down Hill So Fast He Had to Quit Work—Tanlac Ends Trouble.

"I have already gained seven pounds since I began taking this Tanlac and am still gaining at the rate of a half pound a day," said Sam Cook, a well-known mechanic for the Texas & New Orleans railroad, living at 1915 Keene street, Houston, Texas, recently.

"For more than a year," continued Mr. Cook, "I had been suffering with catarrh of the stomach and was going down hill so fast that I was almost to despair. My food would sour soon after eating it and seemed to roll up into my throat, and I would puff up with gas until I was miserable. I had a cough that worried me a great deal, and especially in the mornings, I would cough up quantities of phlegm. I was given to understand by those who examined me that my condition was very serious and was put on a diet of raw eggs and sweet milk. I kept going from bad to worse until I was almost a nervous and physical wreck. I got so weak and lifeless that I felt I could go no longer and asked for a lay off from my work, fearing I might not be able to take up my job again.

"I had heard the boys about the plant talking about Tanlac and some of them said to me, 'Sam, why don't you try Tanlac?' So I did, and do you know it has almost like a miracle with me. I am just now on my third bottle and my wife is making all my clothes larger so I can wear them. I feel as young and hearty as I did twenty years ago and am gaining in strength and energy rapidly. I'm eating on the place and if my wife didn't yank me out of bed in the mornings I would oversleep myself. Tanlac is simply wonderful and I can't praise it enough for giving me back my health."

Mrs. Cook witnessed her husband's statement and said: "When I heard what Mr. Cook's trouble was called, after he was examined, I was distressed almost to death. I felt if it was so he would soon be taken away from me and then what would me and my little children do. But Tanlac soon dispelled all my fear and my husband's wonderful recovery has made me the happiest woman in Houston."

Tanlac is sold in Nacogdoches by Stripling, Haselwood & Co., and Swift Bros. & Smith.

CHURCH ACTION CONCERNING SOLDIER'S ENTERTAINMENT

We, the Bonita church assembled in church conference April 20, 1919, declare the right of the church to speak her mind affecting the moral and spiritual status of soldier boys, hereby record our gratitude to any individual or entertainment committee who may show kindness to any of our soldier boys or furnish safe and wholesome entertainment for them. But we hereby enter our protest against the custom of entertaining them with public dances. We heartily condemn it as being contrary to the vital principles and spiritual standards of the Christian churches inasmuch as many of the soldiers are members of the churches, and inasmuch as most of their parents are members of some branch of the Christian church, and furthermore as the church stood solidly behind the army with their prayers, money and moral influence, the voice of the church should be heard.

We condemn promiscuous dancing as being an evil which tends to drift our youths away from God and from the Christian church, and has a strong tendency toward lowering their moral standard. We hereby make our appeal to the Nacogdoches County Soldiers Entertainment committee to discontinue dancing in the future as a feature of the soldier entertainment program.

This action was taken by the church and entire community who were present and expressed themselves by rising vote.

Much Improvement In Peace Situation

Germany's acceptance of the Entente ultimatum to send full powered delegates to Versailles closes what threatened grave consequences to the work of the peace conference.

An actual meeting is unlikely until April 28. In the meantime the Italian situation is the source of much worry.

President Wilson has prepared a statement to be issued soon if the deadlock over Italy's claim to Fiume is not broken.

Hugo Haase, former secretary of foreign affairs of Germany, and now leader of the Socialist minority in an article written for the Freiheit reminds the readers that Germany is loved nowhere in the world, not even by the neutral countries, and that nowhere any belief in the real change of Germany's attitude. The writer sharply criticizes the German policy and prets against her threats regarding Poland and the Saar region, which he argues will serve no purpose, but will incense the Entente. Administration officials in Washington were advised in a confidential cablegram from Paris today that in the consideration of the problem confronting the peace conference, such as Italy's Adriatic claims, and the questions of alliance to protect France from future aggression President Wilson would take no action which would in the slightest degree jeopardize the league of nations or conflict with its fundamental principles.

It is announced in Berlin that appointments for an election such as voting booths lists and clerks are all in readiness for an immediate plebiscite on the peace terms, which can be completed all over Germany in 48 hours, according to information obtained from sources close to the government.

The preparations have been going on secretly for several days, and it is stated that if the terms are published in the morning, the referendum will be taken next day and the answer go to the Entente within the next forty-eight hours.

Economy Baking Powder No matter what size you buy There is a Big Saving Special attention is brought to the fact that the 10-cent seller of Calumet Baking Powder produces just as big a saving in proportion as the 1-pound size because Calumet Baking Powder has a greater leavening strength. There is no waste in the materials it is used with. The last spoonful is as good as the first. You use only half the amount usually required by other powders; therefore, it will go twice as far. It is a big saving over the cheap "Big Can" kind. The 10 cent size of Calumet Baking Powder shows a great saving, the same as with the other sizes. You Save When You Buy It You Save When You Use It
