German Army Will Be Reduced to 100,000

(By Associated Press.)

VERSAILLES, May 7.—Germany today was told the terms upon which the allies and associated powers will make peace with her. The terms were contained in the treaty of eighty thousand words, handed to the German plenipotentiaries at a memorable assemblage here attended by the delegates of twenty-seven nations, which are parties to the peace pact.

Germany received the terms of peace on the fourth anniversary of the sinking of the Lusitania, and 177 days after the last shot was fired on November 11, 1918. At a plenary session yesterday it was decided that 22 nations instead of 13, would be represented when the peace terms were presented.

An interesting feature of the conference arranging the former emperor's abdication was added yesterday when a resolution for a supreme offense of international morality, and the sanctity of treaties, with a provision of trial by a tribunal of the five great nations. The German army is reduced to 100,000 men, including officers. Conscription within her territories is abolished. All forts fifty kilometers east of the Rhine are to be razed, and all importation and exportation and nearly all production of war materials will be stopped. The Allied occupation of parts of Germany will continue until reparation is made, but be reduced at the end of three to five year periods if Germany is fulfilling her obligations. Any violation by Germany of the conditions as to the zone fifty kilometers east of the Rhine will be regarded as an act of war. The German navy is reduced to six battleships, six light cruisers, twelve torpedo boats without submarines, and a personnel of not more than fifteen thousand. All other vessels must be surrendered or destroyed.

Germany is forbidden to build forts controlling the Baltic, and must demolish Helgoland, open the Kiel canal to all nations and surrender her fourteen submarine cables. They may have no military or naval air forces except one hundred unarmed seaplanes until October 1st to detect mines and may manufacture aviation material for six months only.

Germany accepts full responsibility for all damages caused to allied and associated governments and nationals, and agrees specifically to reimburse all civilian damages beginning with an initial payment of twenty billion marks. Subsequent payments will be secured by bonds issued at the discretion of the representation commission.

Germany is to pay shipping damage on ton for ton basis, by the cession of a large part of her merchant coasting and river fleets, and by new construction and to devote her economic resources to rebuilding of the devastated regions she agrees to return to the 1914 most favored nation tariff to allow Allied and associated nations' freedom of transit pre-war debts, unfair competition, internationalization of roads and rivers and other economic and financial clauses.

Germany also agrees to the trial of the former kaiser by an international high court for the supreme offense against international morality and of other German nationals for the violation of laws and customs of war.

Holland will be asked to extradite the former emperor, Germany being responsible for his delivery for trial. The league of nations accepted by the allied and associated powers as operative, and by Germany in principle but without membership. Similarly an international labor body is brought into being with a permanent office and annual convention. A great number of international bodies of different kinds and for different purposes are created, some to execute the peace treaty. These include the commission to govern the Saar until plebiscite is held fifteen years hence, and various commissions for plebiscites in Malmody, Schleswig and East Prussia. Also commissions to carry out reparations, military, naval, air, financial and economic commissions, and an international high court and military tribunals to fix the responsibilities and a series of bodies to control the international rivers.

Certain problems left for solution between Allies and associated powers, notably the details of the disposition of the German fleet and cables, former German colonies, and values paid in reparation. Problems such as laws of air and the opium, arms and liquor traffic are agreed in detail or set for early international action.

In addition to securities afforded the treaty of peace, the President of the United States pledges himself to propose to the senate, and the prime minister of Great Britain pledges himself to propose to the parliament an agreement, subject to the approval of the council of the league of nations to come immediately to the assistance of

INCORPORATED

FROM CARTER GLASS

WASHINGTON, May 5.—"The Victory Liberty Loan campaign is two-thirds over, but subscriptions have been reported for little more than one-third of the loan. "Is it conceivable that the American people who with heart and soul waged the fight for freedom will permit this loan of victory and thanksgiving to fail? Our sons gave of their health, of their strength and of their lives that freedom might not perish. There are one and a half million American boys in France and Germany. Now that the war is ended it would be as reasonable for them to dishonor the nation by deserting the flag as for the nation to dishonor itself by deserting them. Is it a large thing that we are now asked to lend our money to pay the cost of victory? Is American money less willing than American manhood? Let every one of the millions who have bought Liberty Bonds buy Victory notes, and success is sure. CARTER GLASS, Secretary of the Treasury.

SPECIAL SESSION OF CONGRESS ON 19TH

WASHINGTON, May 7.—President Wilson issued a call by cable today for a special session of congress to meet Monday the 19th.

In making the announcement Secretary Tumulty stated that of course it would be impossible for President Wilson to be present the opening day. The president in naming the early day was guided largely by the advice of Secretary Glass, as to the necessity of passing the annual appropriation measures, which failed in the closing days of the last session, say white house officials.

GERMAN DELEGATES REACH VERSAILLES

PREPARATIONS FOR CONGRESS WAS CONDUCTED BY A PEACE BUREAU.

(By Associated Press) VERSAILLES, April 30.—Count von Brockdorff Rantzau, German foreign minister and the other German plenipotentiaries to the peace congress, accompanied by two trains of experts and journalists have arrived.

Germany's preparations for the Peace Conference were conducted by a Peace Bureau organized in February under direction of the foreign office, according to the Cobenz Volks Zeitung. The Peace Bureau is composed of five committees which investigated and reported on various phases of the work. The newspaper article says:

"All questions relating to political economy, commercial policy, colonial problems and international law had to be investigated in order that a comprehensive understanding of the German point of view with reference to these questions could be obtained before the commencement of negotiations."

The five committees formed by the Peace Bureau, consisted of legal, political, economical, commercial and information committees. This last committee was directed to collect all information concerning the negotiations made for them. Each committee was instructed to collect all historical and practical data and information to form a basis for German action at the Versailles congress.

MUST CEASE MANUFACTURE BEER MIDNIGHT TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Agents of the Department of Justice have been instructed to obtain evidence showing which brewers continue the manufacture of beer after midnight tomorrow, when the law prohibiting the use of foods in the manufacture of intoxicating liquors becomes effective. The manufacturers of wine or beer who continue to operate after May 1st do so at their own risk although the department has not indicated its intention of causing immediate arrests.

LENINE, TROTSKY LEAVE RUSSIA

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April 30.—Official advices reaching Washington from a neutral source says the Russian Bolshevik leaders Lenin and Trotsky are seeking refuge outside of Russia, fearing the possible overthrow of the Soviet government. The advices say that Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Switzerland, Spain and the German governments refused to give the haven of refuge to the Russian leaders.

RIGID DISCIPLINE OF A. E. F. RELAXED, AMERICAN LEGION

NEW YORK, April 30.—The rigid discipline of the American Expeditionary Force in France was relaxed during the formation abroad of the American Legion, the proposed organization for veterans of the army, navy and marine corps, says Lieutenant Colonel Eric F. Wood, the temporary secretary. It was agreed that all rank should be laid aside in the meeting room. Generals forgot their stars in the presence of privates, corporals engaged in heated debates with colonels and sergeants greeted majors with terms of affection.

"A most interesting example of American adaptability and one of the type which always caused the French and British officers to marvel was observed at the noon hour," Colonel Wood continued. "Just at that time a brigadier general and a corporal were having a most heated discussion. Then came the call for mess. A minute later, in the street outside the same corporal clicked his heels together and rendered a perfect salute at the approach of the same brigadier from whom he received a command which he acknowledged with a respectful 'yes sir.'"

CHINESE PROPOSITION FAVORABLY RECEIVED BY JAPAN

(By Associated Press) PARIS, April 30.—The Chinese proposition to let Japan keep Kiao Chau and the former German concessions one year under the pledge to turn them back upon China's reimbursement of Japan for the cost of capturing Tsing Tao has been favorably received by the Japanese.

ORLANDO GIVEN VOTE CONFIDENCE

ROME, April 30.—The Orlando government was given a unanimous vote of confidence in the Italian senate following a vote of confidence given in the house of deputies. A great demonstration followed the premier's address before the senate.

MANY NEW DANCE HALLS ARE OPENING IN LONDON

LONDON, April 29.—Every day sees the opening a new dancing room in London. "There is not a public hall to rent in the city or a private hall either," said an old ballet master who is now a ballroom dance manager. "House agents, particularly in Kensington, have entered the spirit of the search, and are canvassing the owners and tenants of private houses who may have big rooms to let. A private house has an advantage over a public hall as it can keep open until the next day if it likes, while a public hall must close at midnight."

"Anyone teaches dancing now. Girls who have just learned set up as teachers in dance halls, and, working four or eight together, in one hall, earn from $20 to $30 a week each."

SOLDIERS OF THIS COUNTY BE ALLOWED TO VOTE

SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL. LUFKIN, May 1.—Attorneys Jas. L. Perkins, Jr., of Rusk and Keester Denman of Lufkin filed a writ of mandamus in the district court here this morning, permitting all returned soldiers to vote in the elections of this year, although they haven't paid the required poll tax. This applies to the district of Nacogdoches, Cherokee and Angelina counties.

Judge Gulm granted the writ, requiring all election judges to accept and count the soldier's votes.

The above attorneys were not employed by anyone to sue out this writ. They did it on their own accord without cost to anyone except themselves.

ITALIAN NEWSPAPERS SAY ENTEENTE MUST REVISE DECISION

(By Associated Press) ROME, April 30.—Rome newspapers commenting on Orlando's speech to the parliament and the vote of confidence in his government by that body declares that now that the Italian people and parliament have voiced their solidarity with the government, it remains only for the entente to revise its decision regarding the Adriatic adjustment.

SAYS THERE NO BOLSHEVISM IN WEST UKRAINIANS

STANISLAU, West Ukraine, April 30.—"There is no disorder and not a bit of Bolshevism among us" Premier Isidore Holubowicz of Ukraine told the correspondent of the Associated Press the other day. Only recently we expelled two agitators from Moscow who were disguised as members of the Red Cross. We are very anxious to have an allied mission visit us and see the facts with their own eyes.

"Thus far the Associated Press correspondent is the first foreign journalist to be sent among us. We want the Americans to know us as a people who demand their rights and are willing to die for them. We are just plain, common people without an aristocratic frills."

We believe that President Wilson's ethnology plan is the only possible settlement of all these disputes. We are willing to abide by any fair division by unprejudiced persons after they are properly acquainted with the subject."

Premier Holubowicz had been discussing with the Associated Press correspondent the failure of the Allied Mission to compose the differences between the Poles and Ukrainians over the Lemberg oil region which has been one cause of the fighting over the possession of the city of Lemberg. He pointed out that the Ukrainians declined to accede to the request of the Allied Mission to stop fighting, because they believed the commissioners were disposed to favor the Poles.

"As at present organized there are two Ukrainians," resumed the premier. One of these is composed of 5,000,000 Ukrainians in Eastern Galicia; the other upward of 30,000,000 in the Ukraine provinces of Old Russia, of which Kiev is the capital. On January 8 we proclaimed a union of the two Ukrainians and our present relation is that of federated states. At the head of the directorate of five of which one, General Petlura, our representative; while four other persons represent the greater Ukraine on the directorate."

"Our relations now are largely a matter of exchange of commodities. Greater Ukraine furnishes us with sugar, wheat, leather and money. Nominally General Grekow is at the head of the army, though ours is separately commanded."

"For the moment we are fighting the Poles while the others are fighting the Bolsheviks, who are in possession of Kiev. However, there are among our troops many Cossacks from Poltava and elsewhere. We are absolutely of the same race as the Kiev Ukrainians, speak the same language and have the same customs. The only difference is in the matter of religion. We are largely Roman Catholics while the people of Greater Ukraine are orthodox. However, every religion is free among us."

SHOULD INVEST PUBLIC FUNDS IN LIBERTY NOTES—SMITH

DALLAS, April 30.—The subject of the investment of public funds in notes of the Victory Liberty Loan is regarded as a very pertinent and important matter by Frank M. Smith, Federal District War Loan Director today. The letter reads: "I know of no good reason why we should not obtain subscriptions amounting to some millions of dollars in the aggregate from city and county authorities through the investment by them of their sinking funds in notes of the Victory Liberty Loan. Thirty of Dallas and Galveston, and the county of Dallas have made such investments and in hundreds of cases such investments can legally and properly be made. When the government was issuing long term bonds legal questions have arisen on this subject, but the fact that we are now selling short term notes maturing long before many of the obligations of the city and county authorities should open for us a very fine market. I ask you to give this matter your most earnest consideration and to approach the authorities in your district promptly in order that they may have time to arrange a matter of this sort."

CHINESE DELEGATION MUCH DISSATISFIED

(By Associated Press) PARIS, May 2.—The Chinese delegation to the peace conference is expected to issue a statement today concerning the settlement of Kiao Chau dispute, effected by the council of three at the peace conference. It is understood that the Chinese representatives will express keen dissatisfaction with the decision.

"NEVER DID ANYTHING BUT GET A GOOD BATH"

SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL. DALLAS, May 1.—Private John Quincey Goghly of Stephenville, Texas was aboard the Tuscania. He jumped for his life and was picked up by a destroyer. He went to France and saw the whole show. Of course he pretends that he "did nothing." Men of this type never do anything except brave death, fight like demons, suffer like heroes and then buy Liberty bonds out of thirty dollars a month. "Honest I don't consider anything but when I thought I was drowning I did believe I was going to make some sacrifice. All I got was a bath though. Buy say one thing does make me good and sore and it is these fellows with money who talk about the sacrifices they have made. Why it was really nothing when I got my bath, but these fellows haven't even been sprinkled. How would you like to be in a country where your money is worth absolutely nothing, where your millions or thousands of dollars have about as much value as a pebble in a gravel heap."

George Salem has a prosperous little business in Dallas. Yesterday he received a letter from his sister in Assyria. The first message that has come to him from his home land for four and a half years. "It brought to him the news of the death of his father, mother and brother. Mr. Lebanon, Salem's home, lies in one of the more fertile sections of the country. Its soil is as rich as that of any blackland farm that can be found in Texas. It's all laid waste now. There are no crops, there is no food that money can buy. It's people are starving. The people of this country have been spared that fate and out of gratitude to the government and the people of this country who have stood between them and a like fate the Assyrians are buying Victory Liberty bonds. In the fourth loan the Assyrians in Dallas were the first organization of foreigners to go over the top and they are on the job to the finish."

NEWSPAPERS FIND SPIRIT CONCILIATION ORLANDO'S ADDRESS

(By Associated Press) PARIS, April 30.—Commenting on Premier Orlando's address before the Italian parliament the newspapers find a spirit of conciliation marking the address. As a result the newspapers express the conviction that the resumption of conference over the Italian question will be possible, and that ground for a satisfactory understanding may be found. Ital, it is pointed out, obviously intends to give Orlando a free hand in dealing with her interests.

HEALTH TALK

SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIP BY DR. H. LEE SMITH.

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course and the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin and clean bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours with lemonade. The anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and, as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, butter, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salaratus has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic, called "Iron-Tic" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

TREATY BE SIGNED EARLY NEXT WEEK

IF WORK CARRYING OUT LAST PHASE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS PROGRESS FAVORABLY.

(By Associated Press) If the work carrying out the last phase of the peace negotiations progresses according to the plans outlined in the Paris dispatches, the treaty ending the great war will probably be signed early in the week beginning May 5th.

The treaty will be presented to the Germans next Monday. The reports indicate that there will be no oral conversations except the mere formalities when the treaty is handed over.

Fifteen days will be given the enemy to consider the treaty, with an additional five days or a week for an exchange of views between the allied and German delegations.

Thus, if present plans are followed, May 27th should see peace reigning between Germany and the allied and associated governments.

PLAN TO PUT BAPTIST DENOMINATION BUSINESS BASIS

(By Associated Press) DENVER, May 1.—When the Northern Baptist convention assembles here on May 31 for a week's session, it will have before it a proposal to place the affairs of the denomination on a strictly business basis with specialists in charge of each branch of Baptist activities. A plan of financing by a budget system with one nationwide campaign to raise money for the year's work also is to be suggested.

The plan is a revolution in church managements and national leaders in the denomination already have shown a divergence of opinion regarding it. The efficiency plan is a result of work by the National Committee of Northern Baptist Laymen appointed at the last convention. It contemplates the creation of a general promotion board of 140 members chosen from each state and each national organization in the denomination. This board would meet once each year, to consider the needs of all organizations and to pass on their yearly budget of expenditures which would be submitted to the board of promotion.

The subscription plan of finance one submitted by the Interchurch Federation of New York City for a subscription campaign similar to the United War Work Campaign, in which thirty religious denominations would participate. The money would be apportioned among the denominations on a basis of membership and would go to carry on the world program of missions, reconstruction and religious education.

Opposition already has appeared to this plan and a convention fight on the measure is freely predicted by ministers who have followed developments.

Ten thousand Baptist churches in every state north of the Mason and Dixon line are represented in the Northern Baptist convention. The local committee opened headquarters in Denver in March to begin preparations and every available room in hotels and private families has been listed so that all the delegates may find shelter.

Other important measures to come before the convention are plans for reconstruction work in devastated Europe. Missionary leaders have recommended assistance to church in Europe in rebuilding their houses of worship. A great educational campaign in connection with foreign missionary work also has been recommended, together with an elaborate educational plan in this country. It is said that the church's world program will be on a far-greater scale than any previously attempted.

666 has more imitations than any other Chill and Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations. They are dangerous things in the medicine line.

PETITION ALLOWING THE SOLDIERS TO VOTE.

Talmadge Treadwell, relator, vs. No. 3450, T. C. McMullen, et al. respondents—In the District Court of Angelina County, Texas.

On this the 1st day of May, A. D. 1919, came on to be heard this cause, and all parties being before the court and announced ready for trial, having been duly served with notice and filed, answers herein, the court, after hearing the pleadings of the respective parties, the testimony of the witnesses and the argument of counsel, is of the opinion that the petitioner, Talmadge Treadwell, and all soldiers, marines and seamen holding an honorable discharge from the army or navy of the United States of America who are residents of the counties of the counties of Angelina, Cherokee and Nacogdoches, State of Texas, the said counties comprising the second judicial district of the state of Texas, and who have not paid their poll tax because at the time such poll tax was due and payable and could have been by them paid they were in the service of the United States as soldiers, marines or seamen, and who are in all respects otherwise duly and legally qualified electors and voters, tho' having paid no poll tax as aforesaid, are legally and constitutionally entitled to vote in any election held during the current year in the State of Texas, provided, however, that in case of elections where the law requires and property owning qualifications, such soldiers, marines or seamen must be able to meet such qualification. Conceding that the question at issue may be involved in some doubt, it must be recognized that before a right or privilege of one who has offered his life to the services of his country in time of national peril and great calamity is to be taken away, there must be a clear and unequivocal constitutional warrant for doing so; and, further, it must be conceded that where there such as instrument as the constitution of the state of Texas grants certain rights and benefits and at the same time imposes corresponding burdens, if the rights and benefits are taken away, the burdens are at the same time lifted and relieved. I therefore resolve the doubt in this case in favor of the maimed and wounded soldier, marine and seaman, and all others similarly situated as petitioner herein within the Second Judicial District of Texas, who seeks to have a voice in the government he so loves.
Uncle Sam Reid, who lives out in the Shady Grove community, who is well known all over the county, happened to the accident to fall off of his front porch a few days ago, and bruised himself up pretty badly, but no bones were broken. Mr. Reid is 91 years of age and is probably the oldest man in the county.

HER SALARY EQUALS INCOME OF $10,000

Dear Mr. Walden: The training I received in Walden's Business College enables me to earn a salary equal to, or greater than the income of $10,000, safely invested.

I completed the business and short-hand course in 12 weeks and went from the school room into a business office and thanks to the thorough training you had given me and that you give to all your pupils, I was able to give satisfaction and my salary has increased so rapidly that I now earn each month nearly as much as I could have earned in 12 months before taking your courses.

Think how long it would have taken me to earn enough to pay for a $10,000.00 farm, or other investment, and then consider what a few months in your school did for me, and what it will do for any ambitious young man or woman, that is enable him or her to command a salary as great, or greater than the net profits from a $10,000 farm, or investment and one will have idea of the great value and the advantages of a course in Walden's Business College. I commend your school to all who desire a practical and money-making education.

THE SMOOTHEST SMOKING TOBACCO

Smoke over your problems: A little drawin' on a fren'ly pipe often saves a heap of drawin' on a bank account.

Velvet Joe

Velvet is a friendly tobacco in the truest sense, because, like friendship, it has been allowed to ripen naturally—nothing forced or unnatural.

There are "hurry up" ways with tobacco but only patient ageing (two years in wooden hogsheads) can bring out the mellowness that sets Velvet apart.

You know what mellowness is—now think of a good friend who is never harsh to you.

There you have the big thing about Velvet—mellow friendliness.

You and Velvet—begin your friendship today.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

HALTOM & GIBBS, PUBLISHERS

THE LOAN SITUATION.

The situation of the Victory Liberty Loan at the present moment, over the nation as well as our own county, is anything but a tribute to the patriotism and gratification of the American people.

Up to this morning only twenty-seven million, six hundred dollars had been reported to the Federal Reserve Bank at Dallas, out of a total quota of ninety-four million, five hundred thousand. A comparison with the Fourth loan will show how we stand in the corresponding period of the Fourth loan—that is to say in the first thirteen days, fifty-seven percent of the Fourth loan had been subscribed and reported to headquarters. During the present Victory Liberty Loan the first thirteen days show twenty-nine percent only subscribed, which represents a very serious condition of affairs. Even if there were twenty million dollars in transit the loan would only be fifty percent subscribed, and the time is over two thirds over.

The Victory Loan authorities feel that unless some great big effort is made this district will be faced with disgrace. Everything possible has been done to acquaint the people of this district with the necessity for the subscription of the loan. It is now purely up to the citizens of the district, and the nation as to whether they will continue to give the support to the government that played such a large part in the successful conclusion of the war. The subscription of the loan must be made purely through patriotic appeals to the people. No coercive measures can be used. Will we do it?

In Nacogdoches county many subscriptions have been reported, but we are far from our quota. The organization has been delaying the big effort until the tank was secured for Nacogdoches. The date for the tank was much later than was expected, and hence the campaign has been somewhat delayed in this county, and we will have to make a mighty effort if we sustain our reputation in the matter of patriotic endeavor. It has been announced that a tank will visit Nacogdoches tomorrow. No doubt a large crowd will be in the city to witness its exhibition. This is the opportunity for the citizens of Nacogdoches county to wake up and get busy, and make a mighty effort to subscribe the county's quota. The Sentinel has enough faith in the patriotism of the fathers, mothers, relatives and friends of the soldier boys, who have and are now returning from the battlefield, to believe that they will do it.

THOSE SORRY BRIDGES.

Have you ever traveled over the bridges across the creeks in our county, the county of Rusk, and other East Texas counties? Do you know why they bulge away up in the middle so high that it is difficult to get over them. Do you think it is for the purpose of holding the water in a kind of hog-back shape so that it will pass under the bridge without spreading out to each end of the bridge? No, it is not that. The men who build our bridges know better than that. They know that it is not possible to run the water under the bridges in a boiler-like shape. We gave the reasons not long ago in these columns, and hoped that our bridge builders would not follow that five hundred year old custom any longer. Here is the origin of this East Texas architecture of bridges:

Several hundred years ago in England it was necessary to run little boats in all the streams of that country in order to market the farm products. So the bridges were built in a bow shape so that the boats could pass under them at all stages of the water. All of our East Texas people are of English stock. Their ancestors built the bridges in England. When they came to America they held to the old custom, and their descendants are still holding to it for no other reason in the world than the fact that it is the way their fathers built them. One of the first settlers at Pinehill dug his well a hundred or two yards from his residence, and when some one asked him why he did it he said: "Simply because I always saw them about that distance in Alabama where I was raised." But there will come a time when the old English bridge will have to give way to the modern scientific bridge planned by an engineer. But there are some old customs which we dare these educated chaps to interfere with—planting corn in the dark of the moon; stopping still when a rabbit crosses the road in front of you, and making a cross mark to prevent bad luck; never starting any new job on Friday unless you can finish it before night; making cuds for cows when they lose 'em; and spitting likely that it may go over the top. THE POOL HALLS WILL GO

The law passed by the last legislature closing the pool hall was to have gone into effect May 1, but owing to an injunction having been issued by Federal Judge Wilson of the Northern district of Texas against the enforcement of the law, no effort is being made to enforce it and owners of pool rooms are not observing it.

The operators of the pool halls may just as well close up, however, for the doom of their places has been sealed in Texas. A court injunction may prevent temporarily city and state officials from enforcing the state law, but it will be only a temporarily lease of life for public pool halls.

The demoralizing effects of pool halls are well known and the Texas legislature did well to abolish them along with saloons. They are notorious gathering places for idlers, vagrants and gamblers and they promote crime and viciousness while they serve no good purpose. While it has been illegal to gamble in pool halls, it is common knowledge that certain forms of gambling go on in them, for it is difficult even for proprietors who try to prevent it to succeed entirely.

In some respects the pool hall is worse than the saloon, for the pool hall tends to claim too much of the time of those who frequent them. When the government started to enforcing the work or fight rule last year, in connection with the draft, the pool halls were the first places the officers headed for to gather in the loafers.

Just one day before the law was to go into effect the police of Houston made a raid on a local pool hall and the result was that ten complaints were filed against the proprietor for violation of the law which prohibits minors from entering pool halls. The evil influence that such a place exerts over youth led the legislature some years ago to close them to boys under 21 years of age.

As an enemy to industriousness, ambition, thrift and good morals the pool hall in Texas will not be tolerated. A court injunction which stops enforcement of an act of the legislature will not be a permanent bar against carrying out of the will of the majority of the people of the state.—Houston Post.

RISK RICHES ON ONE TOSS—AND WINS

"If you can make one heap of all your winnings, and risk it all on one turn of pitch and toss," etc.

Well, William A. Bridges did that—but he didn't lose—nor have to start again at his beginnings.

He won—and from all accounts, he won big—so big that he does not know how big he did win.

The tale, as it sifts down from away up among the tall pines of Shelby county, runs this way: Oliver H. Polley, a well-known capitalist and land holder, with a streak of sporting blood running through his system, owned nine hundred acres of land over in Louisiana, 30 miles below Shreveport, lying along the Red river. William Bridges wanted an interest on the mineral rights of the land and had made repeated overtures to Polley with a view to acquiring an interest. Finally Polley, one day said:

"I haven't much faith in the value of the oil rights of the land, anyhow, and I will throw 'heads or tails' with you to see whether you have one-fourth interest in the mineral rights or whether you let me alone about it, never mentioning the matter again."

This seemed a fair proposition to Bridges, who also is a game sport, at heart, and accordingly, the coin was tossed in the air and William Bridges won.

The deed was duly executed and recorded, and in a short time a development company was given a lease on the land and began drilling for oil. In due course a gusher was brought in, which has been steadily producing a small fortune every day since.

People from Center, arriving in Beaumont Saturday afternoon brought the information that Polley and Bridges are now considering an offer of one and one-half million dollars for the holdings.

Mr. Bridges' being a most devout church member, it is said, is now considering several things. One question that is bothering is: Whether he acquired possession of the land through gambling. If so, was it wrong? If it was wrong, what could be the right thing to do, now, under the circumstances?

Gentle reader, what would you do were you in William Bridges' place?—Beaumont Journal.

THE HIGH COST OF DYING.

The high cost of dying should not be blamed entirely on the undertaker. The people are largely responsible for this expenditure. When death comes too many of us feel the best way to show our love for the departed is to spend a lot of money in mourning dress and in funeral arrangements. As a matter of fact, none of this expenditure in any way helps us to show our respect for the dead, nor does it convey to the world any indication of the grief we feel. It is not necessary to advertise the fact. The widow who wears black for a year, then blossoms forth in gay colors does not mean that she has ceased to mourn at the end of the year—she is merely living up to one of our foolish customs. She would be showing more wisdom should she refuse to invest even a nickel in mourning paraphernalia but would instead, use what money she may have in educating her children that they might be self-supporting when they become men and women. And she certainly would be showing more respect for her dead husband, for she would be doing exactly what he would want her to do. The cost of dying is rather high, but it could be materially reduced if all of us would show a measure of common sense.—Beaumont Enterprise.

THE BOND ISSUE.

The people of Nacogdoches county must not forget that the road bond election comes up the 27th of this month to determine whether or not Nacogdoches county will vote a bond issue of $800,000 for the construction of good roads in this county.

This issue has been explained several times in this paper before, so it will be useless for us to further discuss its requirements. The thing we must do is to begin to work earnestly in the interest of the voting of the measure, and not go to sleep on the matter.

Most of the objection to the issue comes in the fact that some communities feel that they might be neglected in the matter of roads, and therefore they will vote against the issue. This is not the proper spirit to look at the matter. Even if some of them should, there is no just reason for not wanting somebody else to obtain that which they cannot, and anyway, they would be benefitted in an indirect way.

Last Thursday a million dollar bond issue was voted in Orange county, with a vote of 422 for, and only 35 against. Instances of this kind have taken place all over this section of the state, and we must not fail to do our part in keeping up the connection, and helping build up this section of the state in this way. Last Friday the commissioners' court of Rusk county met, and after some argument, decided to build a first-class highway from Henderson in that county, on to this county, touching near Garrison instead of Timpson.

With this spirit of progressiveness in evidence all around us, and the inclination to "wake up," old Nacogdoches county must not be caught napping and fail to do her part.

"EMPLOYMENT SUNDAY"

Next Sunday, May 4th, has been designated as "Employment Sunday" in all the churches of America, and in nearly 150,000 places of worship sermons will be preached on the obligation of America to return the soldiers, sailors and war workers to civil life occupations when they are discharged from the army.

The movement was started by the United States Employment Service, which is the official medium for obtaining jobs for the jobless. President Wilson cabled an endorsement of the "Employment Sunday" plan from Paris, and leaders in the nation, both in government and the church, have endorsed the plan and are working assiduously upon it.

Hundreds of Texas ministers have pledged their support, and it is expected that the Lone Star State will take the leadership in this movement throughout the entire country. Not only are the Texas ministers planning to preach upon the subject of employment, but they have opened temporary registration quarters in their studies and churches. Large posters bearing the significant slogan "After the Welcome Home—A Job" will hang in a prominent place in many of the churches and in some instances sub-committees on employment have been selected to assist the United States Employment Service.

Twenty-three officers of the United States Employment Service in Texas are bending every effort to comb out jobs for the soldiers and sailors who are discharged from the military service, and with community cooperation such as that made possible by the churches on Employment Sunday, it is pointed out by the officials of the Service in Texas that every man will find a job when he comes home.

HOW TO DEVELOP A REAL LOVE FOR EDUCATION WITHIN THE CHILD.

How to develop a real love for education within the child is one of the greatest problems which confront the teachers and parents today.

First, pupils must be inspired by teachers who are ever ready and who are anxious to reach the heights of greater attainments; teachers that have their work and children at heart. They must possess the qualities that will gain the love and respect of the pupils.

The parents and teacher must work together in trying to develop within the child a love for education. They must both show their utmost interest. The acquaintance of parents with their child's teacher is of great value because it means intelligent, sympathetic cooperation. The teacher cannot know what a mother knows about her child, and a teacher often knows things about the child which the parent does not know. Both are teachers of the same child; both can do better by him by working together.

The surroundings have a great deal to do with the desire the child has for acquiring an education. Everything in the school room should be in order and the exercises of the day should be carried forward according to an arranged program. The rooms should be swept, the fires should be built and the first and second bells should ring with exact punctuality. In the same manner each recitation should come at an appointed time throughout the school hours. The strictest order and neatness upon the part of all the students should be required. All the furnishings of the school room should be such as to inspire the holiest, loftiest and noblest ambitions in the child. A school room should be surrounded with an army of beauty as will constantly inspire them to higher and nobler achievements. Without beauty there cannot be many attractions in the school room for the child and he will soon grow tired of attending school under such conditions.

Furthermore the work must be made interesting. This can be done by teaching the practical things, the things that have to do with every-day life. In other words the school must be adapted to the community which it serves, and equip young men and women for the industries and professions accessible to them for lifework after school is over, since "Education is that training which fits us for the duties of life." You may ask yourself these questions: What is your school doing to make your boy a self-supporting and self-respecting citizen or to equip your girl to earn her own living or to make a home? What opportunities does your community offer to your boy or girl? How can they earn their bread at the age of twenty? The measure of efficiency of a school system is not the number of university graduates it produces but the number of pupils who receive from the school a sufficient degree of education to prepare them for useful occupation.

The very best literature should be put in the hands of the pupils. They should not be allowed to read anything but good wholesome literature either in the home or school. When the habit of reading good literature is once cultivated by a child he will have no desire for "cheap" reading matter.

Every pupil must be taught patriotism since this teaches children to love their school and creates an interest for history. Investigators have for some time been testing pupils in the school room regarding their conception of patriotism and their feeling of loyalty to their country. The results indicate that most graduates from high schools and colleges, do not as a rule, have warm patriotic feeling. This is not true of all college graduates but it is apparently true of the majority of them. They would not sacrifice their property or their lives for their country's welfare. There are pupils who can recite a whole text book in civics but who could not make any response to the question, how does the government of your town assist you in doing what you like to do. If a pupil thinks of his town as being cold and indifferent, how can he develop a love for it? In other words can he be patriotic when he is not aware that his own welfare is dependent mainly upon the protection which his country gives him, and the advantages which it guarantees him? Pupils should be taught to be aware of the debt they owe their country. They should be led to see how we are dependent upon others, how we are all members of one body and how wretched we would be if we were not helped by others. He should be led to see how in the school all are members of one body. If any member is not loyal, if he will not serve his school, then he should not be in the school. When this idea is worked out very concretely, every pupil can be made to feel a careful employer often asks young men and women applying for a position of trust. It is an open acknowledgement that the possession of a bank account places its possessor on a higher plane—is a guarantee of respectability and accomplishment.

AN ACCOUNT OPENED AT THIS BANK IS A LONG STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

that the school serves him and he should serve it.

Then the pupil is led to study community life—with the emphasis upon life. He is made to see that the community is a great living organism and there is government in order that people may get the most out of life, and just as in the home and in the school all are members of one body, so it is with the community and finally the inquiry extends to the nation and in the same concrete way as the pupil has learned that the home, the school and the community help him, and that he must be loyal and in the time of need he must sacrifice, so with the nation. "His country" then becomes a living reality to him. He knows now what it does for him and this will arouse his affection and secure his loyalty.

The fundamental thing in developing patriotism in the children is to make them feel the human character of their country. This means that they must be conscious of good deeds which the country is performing for them. Then their appreciation can be aroused. When a child is shown how the country aids them to get an education or to achieve what they wish, and protects them from disease and harm of all kinds it will create within him a love for education so that he may be able to give his hands, his thought and his heart to his country when it is in need.

We must bear in mind:
1. Any school which does not teach children to think clearly and to a purpose is a failure.

2. Any school which emphasizes bread winning above soul building is a failure.

3. Any school which unfits children for bread winning is a failure.

4. Any school which strives to place wages above confidence is a failure.

5. Any school which makes skill seem of more importance than right living is a failure.

6. Any school which places wealth above health is a failure.

7. Any school which leads children to think it smart to get another's money is a failure.

8. Any school which teaches that it is an admirable thing to get something out of life without giving something equivalent in return is a failure.

9. Any school which does not make every child in it better both mentally and morally is a failure.

The Flow of Meat

Two-thirds of the live stock in the United States has to be raised in the West.

One-half of the consumers of meat live in the East.

In other words, most of the live stock is one or two thousand miles distant from most of the people who need it in the form of food.

Fifty years ago, when live stock was raised close to every consuming center, the country butcher could handle the job after a fashion.

But the job got too big.

Now millions of animals have to be moved hundreds of miles to millions of people. Somewhere on the way they have to be turned into meat.

The packers solved the problem. They set up plants where the "live haul" and the "meat haul" were in the right balance. They built up distributing systems—refrigerator cars, refrigerating plants, branch houses. They saved time, money and meat everywhere. The stockraiser benefited in better markets and higher prices; the consumer, in better meat and lower prices.

As the country grew, the packers had to grow, or break down. Because of its present size and efficiency, Swift & Company is able to perform its part in this service at a fraction of a cent per pound profit.

The State of Texas, County of Nacogdoches.

On this the 26th day of April, A. D. 1919, this court being in special session, came on to be considered the petition of F. H. "For the issuance of bonds and levying of the tax in payment thereof."

And those opposed shall have written or printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the issuance of bonds, and levying of the tax in payment thereof."

J. A. DREWERY, Dentist, Nacogdoches, Texas, Office West Side Public Square

Mr. D. S. Hume, special representative of the War Savings Department is in the city to organize the War Savings work in the county for 1919. Mr. Hume addressed the high school yesterday morning, and the grammar school this morning. He says that these pupils were enthusiastic workers last year, and that there is no disposition on their part to discontinue their stamps.

Mr. Hume says the records show that of the hundreds of War Savings Societies in this county in 1918, that Alazan is the only one to make a report of a reorganization for the work in 1919, which is not much to the credit of the county.

Having traveled over every county in Northeast Texas, Mr. Hume says that while he met with some show of indifference in some counties that after the work was explained to them, with the program for 1919, they have become enthusiastic workers. He also says he has found the ladies in this and other counties to be more patriotic workers than the men.

He will be in the city several days yet, and expects to complete an organization which will prove enthusiastic and efficient in the work. It seems that Nacogdoches county seems to be lagging somewhat in the matter of War Savings Stamps, as well as some other phases of the government work now that the war has ended. It is with regret that we note this, in view of the brilliant record that we made during the war. Was this fire of patriotism only temporary, that will burn itself out thus soon? It is about time that we were waking up and doing our part.

NACOGDOCHES W. O. W. VOTE TO BUILD HOME FOR ORDER.

At the regular meeting of Liberty Elm Camp, W. O. W., last evening, a resolution was submitted to a vote of the order, as to whether a $5 assessment per member per year, for five years was to be levied, and was unanimously adopted.

The first payment will be due Oct. 1st of this year. There are 465 members of the camp, and this will mean something over eleven thousand dollars derived in this manner for the construction of the home.

The Williams property on East Main street has been purchased, and it is proposed to construct a modern three-story brick building, which will provide much better quarters for the order, which is already so large, and which is growing rapidly.

TRAINED NURSE NOW TESTIFIES

Says She Feels Much Better Since Taking Tanlac—Gains Nine Pounds.

Mrs. F. O. Forrester, a trained nurse residing at the Grand Central Hotel, Denver, Colo., is but one of this high profession who have testified to the merits of Tanlac. Mrs. Forrester recently said:

"I had been in miserable health seven years, suffering from indigestion. Everything I ate would sour, and even cold water would cause me much distress. The pains in my chest and about my heart were almost unbearable at times and I suffered terribly from neuralgia. I would have vomiting spells daily and for three months couldn't retain a thing on my stomach but oatmeal. Often at night I would wake up feeling like I was smothering to death and would have to get up out of bed and stand on my feet awhile to get my breath.

"One of my friends who knew of my condition and who had been benefited by Tanlac advised me to try it, I did so and my relief has been remarkable. Really I feel like I have been made over again. I have already gained nine pounds in weight and intend to keep on taking Tanlac as long as it does me as much good as it is now."

INFERNAL MACHINES FOUND IN MAIL

NUMBER PACKAGES ADDRESSED BURLERSON, WILSON, PALMER, ROCKEFELLER, OTHERS.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 30.—Post-office inspectors in New York City reported today the discovery there of seventeen infernal machines put into mail addressed to prominent officials, including Burleson, Secretary of Labor Wilson, Attorney General Palmer, Associated Justice Holmes, United States court, John D. The bombs were similar to that which exploded former Senator Harwick of Georgia, injuring Mrs. Harwick and a negro maid. The packages did not bear sufficient postage, but it is believed that some may have gone through.

MRS. M. W. P'POOL APPOINTED CHAIRMAN S. A. CAMPAIGN

Mrs. M. W. P'Pool, Nacogdoches Texas, has been appointed the Salvation Army Home Service chairman for this county and will, with the committee which she will organize, raise at least fifteen cents per capita of population for the Salvation Army Home Service fund.

With the money which the Army expects to raise in this campaign, the work of the organization will be extended along a variety of lines. The general aim is to assist every human being in need of help. The specific means of carrying out this general purpose are many.

The Salvation Army maintains slum settlements—centers of neighborhood relief; rescue homes for unfortunate women (and 85 per cent of the women passing through the homes are restored permanently); maternity hospitals, industrial homes which provide temporary employment and shelter and give vocational training; workmen's hotels, children's homes for orphans and neglected children; young women's boarding homes, fresh air camps and the missing friends' bureau.

Other forms of activity include Free Employment Bureaus, work among prisoners and the families of prisoners, the distribution of free ice, coal, wood, clothing, medicines and cash.

The money will also provide for the equipment of community buildings in every city or town of this state where an army corps is established. In San Antonio, the maternity hospital and rescue home must be enlarged to accommodate unfortunate girls and a place must be provided there for temporarily sheltering homeless children. Similar institutions will be established in Oklahoma and Louisiana as soon as possible. It is planned also to establish a hospital, home for aged and infirm and like institutions such as the army is supporting in other parts of the United States and throughout the world.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and it doesn't start your liver and it straightens you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

URGE ESTABLISHMENT OF A STEAMSHIP LINE SAN FRANCISCO TO RIO DE JANEIRO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The establishment of a steamship line between San Francisco and Rio de Janeiro is being urged upon the Brazilian government by Victor du Cunha, consul general from Brazil in San Francisco and, according to his statement, negotiations have been opened between Brazil and the United States looking to that end.

Mr. du Cunha's plan calls for a monthly sailing from both this city and Rio as a beginning, the service to be increased as conditions warrant. Since it is expected that France will shortly release the thirty ships loaned to her by Brazil, many of which are of large tonnage, there would be no difficulty in providing the carriers. These vessels were among the fifty German craft which were seized by Brazil during the war.

NEARLY EVERYBODY CAN BUY VICTORY LOAN BONDS

DALLAS, May 2.—Frank M. Smith, federal district director of war loans, said today: "I sometimes hear people speak of not being able to afford to buy bonds. These people mean they have not at the moment in the bank the full amount for the bonds which they have been asked to purchase. I would remind these people that the old philosopher who advised, neither a borrower nor a lender be, has no place in the scheme of things today. We won this war by mortgaging our future productiveness and energy, and we must pay for it by the same means. The question is not have we enough money to pay for your bonds in full, at this time, but whether or not you can possibly pay for them within the next six months. Patriotism, good sense and courage are called for at this time."

LABOR SITUATION TODAY CHARACTERIZED SCATTERED STRIKES

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 1.—The labor situation today in the Central West states is characterized by scattered strikes, some unrest over prevailing high prices, and continued unemployment in many cities, while the big grain producing states are calling for an army of men to garner the immense 1919 crop.

A somewhat similar situation obtains in central and western Canada, where returned soldiers are refusing to farm work on the ground that they should till land only when it is for their personal use.

Despite this rather unsettled state of affairs, many districts report conditions as good as those prior to the war so far as unemployment is concerned; labor is represented as following a sane policy in enforcing wages commensurate with prevailing high prices, and both labor and industry generally predict steady improvement.

There is perhaps greater unemployment among miners than in any single industry, according to reports gathered from authoritative sources by The Associated Press. In Ohio, 12,000 coal miners have been idle since Jan. 1, because of "lack of a market." Other thousands have been idle in Indiana and Iowa; in Illinois 70,000 miners work only two days a week, while 20,000 others are without work; most of Missouri's 40,000 unemployed are of the mining industry, and in Arkansas 2,500 coal miners are striking for higher wages.

In the copper and iron mining districts of Michigan there is little idleness, but mines are operating only three-fourths of the time because of market conditions.

On the other side of the scales, Kansas has sent out a cry for an army of 220,000 men to harvest the 11,000,000 acres of wheat, the largest wheat acreage ever planted by a single state. Harvest will start in southern counties about June 20; wages, according to E. E. Frizell, federal harvest labor agent, probably will approximate $4 for labor and $7 to $8 for experienced harvest hands. Kentucky, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa and Nebraska report a substantial shortage of farm workers. Nebraska is advertising in other states for laborers at from $50 to $75 a month, the state labor commissioner announced. Unemployment in other industries agree that the farm labor shortage is due almost entirely to a disinclination on the part of returned soldiers to take up that work.

The robust young warrior from Iowa or Nebraska, born and reared a farmer, has now tasted city life and hankers for smart clothes, a haircut and a clerical job rather than a return to the stoical routine of the farm, labor representatives and employment officials say. Whether offers of high wages will alter this condition remains a question.

In Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin labor officials contend that while wages are the highest ever paid in dollars and cents, they are also the smallest in purchasing power. Duncan McDonald, president of the Illinois state federation of labor, said the spirit of unrest is due to disappointment of the workers who had "felt the war would bring better things for labor."

In Wisconsin, where unrest over high prices is manifest on the streets rather than in the shops, many factories are working fewer hours instead of laying off men. There are 2,500 men on strike in the state, according to labor officials.

Rapid improvement is reported in Ohio where the unemployment peak was reached in January with 152,000 men idle. The situation was aggravated by revocation of war contracts. The situation in Oklahoma is reported good despite the 2,000 strikers; Arkansas reports only 1,500 unemployed, aside from 2,500 striking miners, and Texas reports there is just about a job for every man in the agricultural districts and oil fields.

NEW PRESIDENT URUGUAY KEEPS PROMISE TO URCHIN

(By Associated Press)
MONTEVIDEO, April 29.—One of the first acts of Dr. Baltasar Brum, on assuming the presidency of Uruguay was to substitute a little street urchin for the brightly uniformed military guard that had been sent to his residence, in keeping with a custom of long standing. The boy used to sell lottery tickets and newspapers to Dr. Brum at the Central Railway station. Three years ago he told Dr. Brum "when you get to be president, I want to be your door keeper."

Dr. Brum smiled at the prophecy and said if such a thing ever happened to him he would not forget the request. Just before his inauguration Dr. Brum sent for the boy and kept his promise.

There are doubtless many others whose names have not been recorded, due to absence of wounded officers who were witnesses of brave acts. Those and to all who stuck manfully to their tasks during the operations, the Regimental Commander expresses his appreciation. All officers and men who remained on the firing line throughout the operations displayed great bravery under the galling fire of enemy artillery and machine guns. They have established a high record for the regiment by their personal example.

Colonel, 325th Infantry.

Following is a letter from Corporal Muckleroy:

Cerouse, France, April 10.

Dear Mother:

How are all you by now? I am just fine. I haven't received any mail from any of you in a long time. I have been writing often but can't hear.

Everything is going good with us all now. The weather is a little rainy but that don't hurt, only makes less work. Some days we don't get out at all, but we can't have a ball game if it rains so that is all it means.

I hope you all are having good weather at home for I know this is the busy time of the year. I must say that I am having it much easier than I have had any time in the last 15 months. I have done things that it looks impossible for a man to do and live since I have been in France, but I have done fine, and am in fine health.

Enclosed I will send you a copy of the citation which I received for my work in action. I received lots of credit from all of my officers. I stayed with my work under heavy shell fire when I would be so sick from being gassed that I could hardly live and could have gone to the hospital by saying the word, but I wouldn't do it for it was a trying time and we needed all the help we could get. I lay down to try to get a little sleep, lots of nights with a dead man by my side, but we got to where we didn't mind that if we could only get a little rest from the awful gas and heavy shells that would jar the ground when they would burst near us.

I am sending you a picture that I had made in Bordeaux a few days ago. Everyone says it is just like me, you see that I am just a little taller in the face than I was the last time you saw me.

I hope to be home by the 10th or 15th of May.

With lots of love to all. Lovingly, your son.

CORPORAL ROBERT G. MUCKLEROY CITED FOR CONSPICUOUS BRAVERY IN ACTION

Headquarters 325th Infantry American Expeditionary Forces, France, 15 March, 1919.

General Orders No. 2.

1. The Regimental Commander takes pleasure in citing to the command the following officers and enlisted men for bravery in action and devotion to duty under most trying circumstances during the Meuse-Argonne operations October 10-31, 1918.

EXTRACT.

Corporal Robert G. Muckleroy, Hdq. Co.—For conspicuous bravery near St. Juvin, France, during October 1918. He took charge of the issue of rations at a heavily shelled cross roads, remaining constantly on duty, at constant risk of his own life.

2. The total disregard of personal safety in the performance of their duty calls for the highest praise. Their conduct under fire will ever be a source of pride to all members of the 325th Infantry.

3. There are doubtless many others whose names have not been recorded, due to absence of wounded officers who were witnesses of brave acts. Those and to all who stuck manfully to their tasks during the operations, the Regimental Commander expresses his appreciation. All officers and men who remained on the firing line throughout the operations displayed great bravery under the galling fire of enemy artillery and machine guns. They have established a high record for the regiment by their personal example.

W. M. WHITMAN.

Colonel, 325th Infantry.

PEACE TERMS DELIVERED TO THE GERMANS TODAY

France in case of an unprovoked attack by Germany.

The Germans by the treaty restore Alsace-Lorraine to France, accept the internationalization of the Saar on a temporary basis, and agree to territorial changes towards Belgium and Denmark. In East Prussia she cedes most of Upper Silesia to Poland and renounces all territorial and political rights outside of Europe as to her own or her Allies territories and especially Morocco, Egypt, Liberia and Shantung.

Germany also recognizes the total independence of German-Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland, according to a statement issued by the committee of public information.

The preamble names as parties of one part, the United States, the British Empire, France, Italy and Japan are described as the five allied and associated powers, and Belgium, Bolivia, China, Cuba, Ecuador, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, the Hedjaz, Honduras, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Czechoslovakia and Uruguay, who with the above are desired as the Allied and associated powers, and one other part of Germany.

The war terminates when the treaty comes into force, and subject to the treaty provisions, official relations with Germany will be resumed by the allied and associated powers. The league of nations may question Germany at any time for violation of the neutralized zone east of the Rhine as a threat against world peace.

Germany cedes to France five thousand, six hundred square miles in the southwest, and to Belgium two small districts between Luxembourg and Holland, totaling 989 square miles. She also cedes to Poland the southeastern tip of Silesia, beyond and including Oppeln, most of Posen and East Prussia, 27,686 square miles.

She loses sovereignty over the northeastern tip of East Prussia, forty square miles north of the river Memel, and the internationalized 729 square miles, and the basin of the Saar, 738 square miles, the southeastern third of east Prussia and the area between East Prussia and the river Vistula north of latitude 53 will have its nationality determined by popular vote, 5,785 square miles, as will be the case in part of Schleswig, 2787 square miles.

Germany will consent to the abrogation of the treaties of 1839, by which Belgium was established as a neutral state, and must agree in advance to any new convention the allies may make to replace them.

Germany must recognize the full sovereignty of Belgium over the contested territory of Moresnet, and over part of Prussian Moresnet and renounce to Belgium all rights to circles of Upen and Malmedy. Germany renounces her various treaties with the grand duchy of Luxembourg, and recognize that it ceases to be part of the German Zollverein and accept in advance any international agreement concerning Luxembourg reached by the Allies.

FIUME BE FREE FOR THREE YEARS

YOUNG MAN, YOUNG LADY

Will You Give Orders or Take Them? Poverty is no Barrier—You Can Succeed! And Your Country Needs You Properly Trained.

The one thing absolutely necessary to success in the rugged determination that makes one grit his teeth, clinch his fist, and say "I Can Be Cause I Will." Your place in the world depends not upon circumstances, but upon you. Whether or not you will attain a high position in the work of your choice; whether you will give orders or take them; whether your pay will be "wages" or "salary"—all this depends upon your determination. First, last and all the time, he wins who turns a resolute face to the grim old world and answers its challenge with an unflinching, "I can succeed and I Will."

The supply of "average" workmen is usually greater than the demand. That is why the unskilled live so often in dread of idleness, with its specters of humiliation and discouragement. The market for untrained help grows narrower with every invention of a labor saving machine and with every "examination" safeguard adopted by states or employers. The demand of today is for business trained men and women to manage the business affairs of large commercial houses "What Can You Do?" Every office of business demands the keeping of books, the filling of contracts and other legal documents, the use of shorthand and the typewriter, or the operating of a telegraph key.

Young man, young woman, can you do these things that are so much in demand in these trying times of reconstruction? Say to yourself, "I will prepare; I will succeed," write for our catalogue today, asking for our credit plan if necessary. State confidentially your financial condition, and the course you are interested in. Make the start. DO IT NOW. Girls and boys this is your opportunity, you are needed to render honorable and efficient service. Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas. America's business training University will prepare you. It has helped more than twenty thousand boys, girls, men and women.

EARLE WILLIAMS MARRIED IN TRINITY SUNDAY

Mr. Earle Williams was married to Miss Edith Besser at Trinity Sunday afternoon at 6:00 o'clock, the happy young couple coming on to this city, where they are now at home.

The bride is known to many people in Nacogdoches, having attended the business college here for some time. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Besser of Doucette, and is a beautiful and accomplished young lady who will make a fitting queen for the home for which she has been chosen.

Mr. Williams is well known here, having been reared in this city. He is a son of Mr. Bolivar Williams. He is very popular and has many friends here, who join the Sentinel in extending congratulations and good wishes to the young couple in their new relationship.

LIBERTY LOAN TANK WILL ARRIVE TONIGHT

The Liberty Loan authorities in the city have received a message announcing that the train bearing the tank will arrive in this city tonight, and that it will be here all day tomorrow, from where it will go to Timpson the next day.

The tank will be in action here tomorrow, and no doubt a large crowd will be present to witness its exhibitions. A speaker will come with it, and the local committee has arranged for other measures to make an interesting successful day in the way of selling bonds.

In this connection it might be well to state that the quota for Nacogdoches county is $310,000, and that to date there has been something less than $50,000 subscribed. We should start to work in earnest tomorrow, as we have only three days left in which to subscribe our quota, the campaign ending on the 10th. The quota of the county is about three-fifths what it was last year, and if each person will buy at least three-fifths as many bonds as he did in the previous campaign we will be successful.

Following is the program that has been arranged for the day:

The stores will close from 1 to 3 p. m. during the time of speaking and parade.

The parade will be led by the band, which will be composed of soldiers in uniform and citizens, led by captain Shindler, and which will be formed at the City Hall.

A special invitation is extended to all of the soldier boys from all parts of the county to come in and take part in the parade.

RESULT CAMPAIGN IN THIS DISTRICT IS DISAPPOINTING

Special to The Sentinel.

DALLAS, May 6.—Frank M. Smith, federal district director of War Loans, said today: "The result of the Victory Loan campaign has been disappointing. Only Travis county Texas, Dallas county Texas, and DeSosa county, New Mexico went over the top Saturday. I would feel very depressed about the matter if I did not retain my faith unshaken in the absolute loyalty and good sense of the people of this district. Nothing can shake that faith. But I must point out in the most earnest and serious manner at my command that the failure of any one citizen to do his duty may mean the failure of his community or county, the failure of many would place the whole citizenship of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona in a wrong light before the country and before the world."

In a campaign message sent out today, Mr. Smith said: "My earnest advice is 'get into debt.' The old fashioned moralists used to tell us that debt is a disgraceful condition. 'Neither a borrower nor a lender be,' etc. Modern experience shows us that the finest thing in the world morally and financially is to be in debt in a good cause. The man who obligates himself to buy notes of the Victory Liberty Loan is going to work harder, save harder and produce more, thus serving his own best interests, those of his dependents and his fellow man.

"Some men can save without having. Some binding obligations which forces them to save. Others cannot. Everyone can serve better when they have an honorable obligation to spur them on. Get into debt to Uncle Sam. He is an easy creditor and pays dividends on thrift in money and sold satisfaction."

A nice, pleasant purgative that also has a genial stimulating effect in the liver and stomach is one reason why Prickly Ash Bitters is so well liked by people who have used it. They find it a good medicine for the whole family. Price $1.25 per bottle. Stripling, Haselwood & Co., Special agents.

FIUME MAY BE MADE INTERNATIONAL PORT

REPORTED GERMANS SERVED NOTICE ON ALLIES AND MAY LEAVE.

While nothing has officially been made public regarding an agreement under which Italy consented to resume the interrupted participation in the peace conference, a report reaching London, however, declares that it is proposed to make Fiume a neutral port for a period of two years, after which time it will be turned over to Italy.

German newspapers are printing reports from Versailles to the effect that the German representatives have served notice on the Allies that further delay in the presentation of the peace terms will result in the Germans leaving for Berlin. There has been no intimation in Paris that the Germans are demanding immediate action or that the delegates have left.

Barbed wire cuts, ragged wounds, collar and harness galls heal up quickly when BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is applied. It is both healing and antiseptic. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

King and they have not been notified of his expected arrival home, it being the intention of the young man to slip up on his parents this afternoon.

J. W. Carraker of Cushing was a visitor to the city yesterday.

Dr. C. M. Paine from Livingston is now the physician at the Mayo mill.

Ben Tucker has returned from a business trip to Shreveport.

Hon. Steve M. King of Beaumont is visiting in the city.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
