MANY AMERICANS IN INTERIOR OF MEXICO ENTIRELY AT MERCY OF VILLA.

(By Associated Press)
EL PASO, June 18.—Interest in the Mexican developments shifted today to the interior of Mexico, where many Americans are at the mercy of the Villa forces should Villa start a campaign of reprisal because American troops crossed the border Sunday night and drove his men from Jaurez. Efforts to warn these Americans were made repeatedly but communication is uncertain and few replies have been received.

The American Mining Co. has ordered its employees to return to the United States through Torreon, and avoid passing over territory under Villa's control.

GERMANS HOLD EXTENDED CONFAB

OFFICIAL GERMANY HAS NOT DEFINITELY COMMITTED ITSELF ON PEACE TERMS.

(By Associated Press)
While sentiment in the German cabinet is reported almost unanimous against signing the peace treaty, official Germany has not definitely committed itself on the amended peace terms.

German leaders held an extended conference at Weimar yesterday, and the amended terms are expected to be laid before the National Assembly today.

Opinion in Paris is divided as to the eventual attitude of the Germans. It is believed, however, that the Germans, knowing the certain results of refusal to sign, will agree to sign. Those familiar with the changed treaty say that the Germans can, if they wish, make it appear that they gained concessions by negotiation.

In the meantime Marshal Foch, commander in chief of the Allied armies, has issued orders preparatory to an advance eastward from the Rhine.

American forces are ready to start at a moment's notice in battle formation toward the interior of Germany.

SENATOR DEFENDS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

SENATOR McCUMBER SAYS OP-

LEAGUE IN CAMPAIGN

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 18.—Declaring that the opponents of the league of nations conducted a campaign of misrepresentation, and distortion Senator McCumber of North Dakota, republican member of the foreign relations committee, told the senate today that the covenant offered was the only prospect of preventing future and more terrible wars.

Replying to the arguments of many republican senators, he upheld the league as entirely consistent with the American constitution and devoid of any ability to dangerously entangle or curtail American interests.

Do You Buy Or Sell Hay At $40.00 Per Ton?

When paying 2 cents per pound for hay do you stop and think about those "little patches" of grass that you could have saved but which you DIDN'T SAVE?

Be a seller. It is more pleasant and profitable to sell hay at $40.00 than it is to buy at the same price.

We want to sell you a mower and rake. We'll make money when we sell and you'll make money when you buy.

Let's get together on this important matter. It's money that you, it's profit to us—but it's mighty hard on the fellow who has been selling you hay at 2 cents per pound.

Next spring will you be buying or selling hay?

It's up to you.

AGED LADY DIED IN CITY LAST MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. Sarah Grant, aged 92 years, 2 months and 15 days, died at the home of her son, Chas. Grant, Monday evening at 7:30, two miles south of Jefferson Tuesday, by Cason, Monk & Co., for burial.

Mrs. Grant had been a member of the Methodist church for three quarters of a century. Her long life of service in the church was ever marked with kind deeds to those with whom she came in contact, and ever exalted in the service of the Maker. She was a sincere and true mother and friend, doing good wherever she could. May the bereaved members of the family left behind gain comfort in the knowledge that her life has been so lived that the flight of the spirit will be merely a transition to that heavenly home above where she will receive eternal reward for her good works on earth, is the wish of The Sentinel in extending condolence and sympathy.

GERMAN SENTIMENT IS AGAINST TREATY

HOWEVER NO STATEMENT HAS BEEN ISSUED BY THE GERMAN CABINET

(By Associated Press.)
WEIMAR, June 18.—No statement has been issued by the German cabinet regarding the Allied reply to the German counter proposals, but the Associated Press learns that the sentiment is almost unanimous against signing the peace treaty.

INGRAHAM INSURANCE AGENCY

ALL KINDS OF INSURANCE

WILTON P. INGRAHAM, Mgr.

President Wilson hopes to leave Paris about June 24th or 25th—provided the Germans sign the peace treaty. If this is all the President is depending on he might as well go ahead and do what?

The battle is on in Jaurez between the rebel and federal forces. It is stated that the battle can be seen from the house tops in El Paso. A doubt whether the fleeing civilians from Jaurez paused on the house tops to witness the outcome, however.

The British-American air crew, Lt. Arthur W. Brown, American, and Capt. John Alcock, British, have landed in Ireland, completing their trans-Atlantic non-stop flight, in a Vickers-Vimy airplane. This is the first non-stop flight, and they secure the London Daily Mail's prize of $50,000. Nobody denies that it was worth the money.

The Lufkin News has been having troubles of its own the past few days. First, Charlie Bonner, the machine operator of The News, has been appointed postmaster of that city, and has vacated his chair at the machine, and secondly the telegraph operators of that city have gone out on a strike, and consequently the paper is not getting their telegraph service.

Villa has again felt the force of the United States—again having to flee before a cavalry detachment. No doubt he will wreak his vengeance by raiding the American side again. The Mexican situation has been a problem for the United States for some time, and the government has made every effort to avoid trouble with the country, but we doubt if there will ever be any peace of mind on the border until Villa is captured or the United States takes a hand.

Now comes the statement that Mexico regards the action of the United States in crossing the border as a violation of sovereignty. The United States troops went into Mexico to prevent firing on El Paso—drove Villa off from Jaurez, and incidentally this helped the Mexican government—and now the Mexican government condemns the act. Seems to us as though the Mexican government has enough to occupy their attention at home without trying to stir up trouble with Uncle Sam.

True wisdom and greatness of mind raise a man above the need of using the little tricks and devices. Sincerity and honesty carries one through many difficulties which all the arts he can invent would never carry him through. For nothing doth a man more real mischief than to be expected of too much craft; because every one stands upon his guard against him, and suspects plots and designs where there are none intended; inasmuch that tho' he speaks with all the sincerity that is possible, yet nothing he saith can be believed.—Stillingfleet.

“IS THERE STILL A DIXIE?”

“Is there still a Dixie?” asks Life in its “Dixie Number.” Yes, there is still a Dixie. A Dixie in the hearts of some of us older ones, and in that realm of the spirit fancy may summon vision of the most beautiful scenes, the loveliest of faces, and days of cloudless blue. Dixie, the East to which those of us who stand on the rim of the fading day turn in devotion, while the shadows creep! Dixie, the Glory Land of the Past, the golden Lourne of memory's silent rambles, the hallowed Solitude in whose coil depths the lost chords in life breathe, their music into the soul! Dixie, Love's Shadowland, people with the unfettered spirits of the noble and the great, redolent of memories that do not die because they cluster about things immortal, tempted with the dream-fabrics of a nation that drew from out God's boundless deep, and, after four years of romance, poetry and glory, turned again Home! Dixie, the Beautiful and Glorious, the sweetest chapter of History, the noblest Epic of the ages, the Light of yesterday whose effulgence glids the crest of Time's swift onward tide! Dixie, the stainless Mother of the Nation, the indestructible Kingdom of Twilight.

NACOGDOCHES TRADITIONS.

In the last installment of the Nacogdoches traditions several mistakes occurred, as to date and details. But they were not important enough to mar the purposes as to the facts concerning the Hoya home being the oldest house in town, and not changing owners but once, in nearly a century. The street on which it is located is called LaNana from the creek which bounds the lands on the east. This street has been erroneously called Bois D'Arc street, because of many of these very ancient trees along it.

The Nacogdoches street were first surveyed by Capt. A. A. Nelson about the year 1840, and names were then fixed. The south side of town east and west along Pilar street was the most popular at first. There was once a bit peach orchard extending once a big peach orchard extending out on the hillside in front of the Sterne dwelling, taking in the grounds of Jno. S. Doughtie and Charles Hoya. It was there during the decade of 1850 and 1860. Another very old residence next on the west was the Gen. Bondies homestead which later became the George Witkovn home. Next on the west was the Schroeder home, on the ground now occupied by Mrs. Rosa Black. Next came the old Millard place, later the Dave Lee homestead, a very old double log house.

The original noted old John Roberts place, fronting on the south side of the public square, came next, and was also a very old house. The court house then was a square framed building in the middle of the square. It was moved to the west side of the public square in 1857 or 1858. A brick court house superceded it, built midway on the south side of the square. This event was celebrated by a grand ball, an old-time cotillon. Miss Cora Clute and Miss Sallie Johnson of Douglass were two girl attendants. Miss Julia Taylor, Miss Helena Rusk, Miss Julia Irion, Miss Rosine Stearne were there. It was indeed a “hot time in the old town tonight.” Uncle Wiley Rusk was the fiddler.

Next on Pilar street west, came Rimmeles Grocery, and his home, now the Hoya land office. Then on the same side of the street, only the lone house, now being Mrs. Hyde's all else being vacant to the Banita creek, and near it on the east bank, set a small shack of an abode occupied by a mysterious aged negro woman, “Old Jimney.” The boys and girls steeled their hearts, because she was said to be a witch. The Banita house is there now. The tall old Pecan tree that sheltered Old Jimney's house is gone. Another noted house on Pilar street, stood back of where the present Masonic lodge now stands. It was very old, and of peculiar construction. It was built of timber cut and split with axes, and of mud and moss. It had an upper floor, many rooms, porches, alcoves, etc. It was early known as the Piedras house, or the red house. In more modern days it was used as a hotel. It had many notable and eventful experiences, and had seen its day as the most eventful house in town.

Main street had not been discovered when Gen. Piedras lived in this old house on Pilar street, and got his leave of absence in the battle of Nacogdoches, in 1833. The big road ran down Pilar street, and went on westward around the south side of Irion hill, which was then too steep for ascent. And all around where the depot now stands was dense woods and thickets of briars. The town boys had swimming holes all along there in the “Little Creek,” and others in the “Big Creek” at the upper and lower fords.

LETTER FROM CAPT. R. K. SIMPSON.

Dear Homefolks:

For awhile it looked very much as if we were going to pull out soon, but now no one seems to have any idea. It all depends, more or less on whether the Germans sign the peace treaty or not, I suppose. But I do wish we could know definitely that we are to go home soon, or that we are to be here a known length of time. As it is we are hoping to go soon, but have no assurance at all when it may be.

The regiment is fully equipped with automobiles, motorcycles and side cars, trucks and tractors, now. The only horses in the regiment are forty officers mounts and polo ponies.

It is remarkable how quickly the men have learned to handle the tractors; now they go out to the target range and drill just as if they had always been doing it and one tractor takes the place of twelve horses, and of course can do a great deal more.

Motorization of light artillery is an experiment, and we are the experiment—although there has been some motorized artillery all through the war, with the guns carried on trucks. In this arrangement a gun with a caisson is drawn by a caterpillar tread tractor, and can go almost anywhere that a tank can go, and many places where horses cannot go.

I had some little trip last weekend. Friday I got a pass to Wiesbaden, took my “Ford,” my orderly and took my time, stopping and looking at places on the way down. Went to Coblenz and from there followed along the west bank of the Rhine up through the most gorgeous and picturesque part of the Rhine valley, passed through Boppard, Seltz, Oberwesel, Bacharach, Bingen and then to Mainz, where we crossed the river and went northeast to Wiesbaden.

The Rhine valley particularly this part, and at this time of year, is one of the prettiest as well as most magnificent parts of Europe. The cliffs along both sides of the river are studded with castles and old ruins, all of them having their own history. And Wiesbaden itself is some place—population about 120,000 and is nothing but a pleasure resort—just one big marble hotel after another. Everything is cool and white, with parks, statues and fountains everywhere.

I didn't get to see so much of it as I would have liked to, in just two days. But I certainly did live in luxury those two days.

That place is in territory occupied by the French and they are quite a bit more lenient about fraternizing than the Americans. At a cabaret I saw English, Italian, Belgian, American and French officers and German civilians dancing with German and French girls.

Well, I have hopes of being home by September if not before.

Your son,
CAPT. R. K. SIMPSON,
10th F. A. A. E. F.

SAYS BOYS OF 90TH AND 36TH
WILL DELIVER THE GOODS

(By Associated Press.)
AUSTIN, June 18.—“They are not only deserving, but they will deliver the goods,” writes Major Clarence Test, from Europe, concerning returning soldiers of the Texas divisions (90th and 36th). He urges a concerted move to secure employment for the discharged soldiers and says:

“Our system of schools established since the armistice has given large numbers of them the elements of an education not possessed by them when they entered the army. Illiteracy, which existed among the men to a larger extent than one would think, has been almost entirely eliminated by our post schools, and a very large number of men seriously pursued courses in business training, commercial law, agriculture, higher educational branches and a very large variety of vocational subjects.”

A letter from Mr. W. H. Wood, to The Sentinel says: “On the 9th inst. I left Nacogdoches without your permission, but hereby beg forgiveness. I came in my Chevrolet car, by Alto, where I saw, oh, so many tomatoes in the fields. After leaving there a hard rain hit me, but got to Palestine, where I spent the night, and at five o'clock in the morning it began raining again and by the aid of storm curtains and the chains got to Athens for dinner and that evening over in Navarro county in a skip of the pike road some 2 miles in the black sticky prairie. I came through by the help of two big negroes and one white man with 4 big mules, struck the pike and had no more trouble, except three punctures and one blow-out. Arrived in Brownwood at 2 p. m.

A big new discovery
in cigarette blending

The big thing about Chesterfields is their unique blend. The Chesterfield blend is an entirely new combination of tobaccos. It is a most important development in cigarette making.

As a result, Chesterfields deliver a new kind of cigarette enjoyment — just like a “bite” before bedtime when you're hungry — they SATISFY!

It took the finest selections of TURKISH and DOMESTIC tobaccos and no end of skill and patient experiment to get this blend right.

Was it worth it? Say — just smoke a Chesterfield fresh from the moisture-proof package. You'll say it was worth it, all right!

SAYS DESTINY OF WORLD LIES
IN SPIRIT OF AMERICAN YOUTH

(By Associated Press.)
DALLAS, June 18.—A call to the service of mankind was sounded and the belief expressed that the destiny of the world lies in the spirit of the American youth, by Dr. Edgar Blake of Chicago, secretary for the Sunday School Board, Methodist Episcopal church, in a baccalaureate sermon to the members of the graduating class for 1919 of the Southern Methodist University here. The graduates numbered seventy-two.

The challenge of the times, Dr. Blake declared, are to the young man and young woman of today as they were to Christ more than nineteen centuries ago. The great decision for every person to make, he said, is whether to serve self or life—a life of usefulness, guided by the desire to serve.

666 has more imitations than any other Chill and Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations. They are dangerous things in the medicine line.

Mrs. C. D. Stinson entertained most delightfully Thursday afternoon quite a crowd of friends in honor of the Misses Zeve, whose going away so many friends are so deeply regretting.

Mrs. Henry Garrison of Austin, guest of Mrs. Carl Monk, and Miss Bland of Jefferson, guest of Mrs. Ford Simpson, were interesting out of town guests. WIFE BEATING QUITE COMMON IN GERMANY

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, June 14.—Henry de Halsalle, author of a work on Germany, told an audience at Holburn the other day that "wife beating is quite common among the German middle and upper classes and that the law of Prussia sanctioned it."

"I once stayed a few days in the house of a Berlin merchant," said the speaker, "and one evening heard issuing from a room upstairs a woman's cries and the sound of blows. Presently my host appeared and I asked him the cause of the commotion."

"I have just been giving my wife her Saturday thrashing," he said. He added that he administered the punishment every week end whether she deserved it or not.

"You must never let your wife forget that you are her lord and master," declared the German, rubbing his hands with evident satisfaction."

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer. A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from healthy and never sore, tender or the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and irritated.
