TWO KILLED IN GARRISON MINE

Special To The Sentinel

Garrison, Texas, Oct. 15.—Faustino Valley, a Mexican, and Bill Burney, a negro, were accidentally killed while at work in the lignite mine of the Garrison Coal & Oil Co. here about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The tragedy was the result of the while up on the chute and running coal car coming loose from the cable back on to the workers in the mine. The negro was killed instantly, but the Mexican lived until he was carried to his home.

Esquire Williamson, justice of the peace of the precinct, held an inquest and rendered a verdict of accidental death in accordance with the above report.

The Mexican had been with the mine since it first begun digging coal, and was a good, quiet, hard-working fellow. He came here from some other mine, and but little is known of him or of his residence back of here. The negro was also a good hard-working man. He is survived by his wife and several children.

The mine carries liability insurance for its employees, and the survivors of the deceased will be reimbursed so far as the monetary value can recompense.

STRUGGLE FOR FLESH OF SLAIN BATTLE HORSES

Paris, Oct. 15.—American Red Cross relief men just returned here from Budapest tell a harrowing story of the extremes to which the civil population were reduced when the Bolshevik and Russian armies struggled for the mastery of the city and staple food supplies disappeared from the market.

As the troops swept on, leaving behind them cavalry and artillery horses killed in action, men and women from the Budapest suburbs, made desperate by privation, descended upon the battle-fields and vied with one another for the meat supply thus made available. They fell upon the carcasses, cutting away chunks of meat with pocket-knives and cleavers and carrying them off wrapped in old newspapers.

BRITISH WILL SWAT THE PESTIFEROUS RODENT

Lodon, Oct. 15.—Rats do a yearly damage in the United Kingdom of $200,000,000, or nearly five dollars per head of the population, according to generally accepted figures. The pre-war estimate of this damage was $75,000,000. The seriousness of the situation has resulted in the inauguration of a country-wide campaign, headed by the Board of Agriculture, for the destruction of the pests.

THE HOME OF SATISFACTION

PRESIDENT EAGER FOR SOLUTION

Washington, Oct. 15.—President Wilson will not sanction the adjournment of the National Industrial Conference here until every possible means of finding a solution of the present industrial situation has been exhausted, White House officials said today.

Despite his illness, the president is understood to have been informed of the tense situation resulting from the controversy over labor's proposal for the arbitration of the steel strike. He was said to feel that this should not endanger the ultimate success of the conference.

CANNING PLANT FOR NACOGDOCHES

Mr. W. G. Cross, Assistant Auditor and Manager of the Stores of the Shreveport Division of the Industrial Transportation Company is in the City today assisting Mr. W. E. Jones in checking up the business of the Fenley Store and the one at Chireno, which are being taken over by the Company and says that while they are going to put in a number of other stores in this country, they are contemplating the erection of a Canning plant in Nacogdoches. Mr. Cross also says that the Company is making plans to remodel the Fenley Store by re-arranging the fixtures and placing it on an up-to-date Self Service Plan and to put in a special Delivery Service.

This Company is selling its securities in this County and the money is being used for the purpose of developing the business here and is not being sent away, and if the people of Nacogdoches and vicinity will lend the Company the proper support, they will build a business here that will be much to the advantage of all concerned. A canning plant here would furnish a market for many of the products of the farm that are now going to waste and could be sold direct to the consumer through the many stores operated by this Company.

$521.10 RAISED FOR THE SALVATION ARMY HERE

The drive in Nacogdoches last week for funds for the Salvation Army was a success, the sum of $521.10 being raised. The committee having the campaign in charge, and the young ladies who so unselfishly and tirelessly applied themselves to soliciting funds for this meritorious cause are entitled to ungrudging commendation for their laudable work.

Following is a letter sent out by the committee to various business firms:

Dear Sir:

We are coming to see you soon—that is, if you don't mail us a check in the meantime. Not that we want to come, but because we feel that we ought to.

We know that you are sick and tired of "drives," "campaigns" and all appeals for funds. So are we. We all are, but this is just one more case where we feel as if we all should help and do our part.

What we are asking is funds for the Salvation Army home work. The Salvation Army did a noble work in France. They are now continuing this work in many ways at home, wherever there is suffering to be relieved. They now have thirty-six workers in the Corpus Christi storm district alone, helping relieve suffering there.

You know, and we know, that the Salvation Army is and has always been absolutely clean and unselfish in its work. All of Texas is helping raise funds for them, and Nacogdoches County should do her part.

We will call on you in the next day or so for your subscription. Now we urge you, we beg of you, to consider this appeal. We beg of you to be as liberal as you can possibly see your way clear to in your subscription, and be ready with it when we call on you.

We will not bore you or take up much of your time, but we appeal to you to help in this work, to do the very most you possibly can for this cause.

We are not asking you to do this for us. We are not doing this work because we want to or because we enjoy it. We don't enjoy doing this work any more than you would, but we are doing it because we feel that it is our duty to do our part by this band of consecrated, unselfish workers for suffering humanity.

Very sincerely,
THE COMMITTEE.

If you prefer you can make it unnecessary for us to call on you by mailing your check to W. W. Lee, Secretary.

DEATH AT LIBBY

On Wednesday night, October 7, the death angel visited the omhe of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Burt and called from them their little son, Cecil Wilburn. He was one year and 3 days old. It is hard to give our little ones up, how we miss his chatter and his little smiles; but may the fond parents submit their feelings to the will of God, who doeth all things well, and strive to meet their baby in the great beyond, where there will be no sad partings and no more tears to shed. The Saviour is coming to earth again. again to claim this little soul and carry it back to the Father, up to the Heavenly goal.

Now, let us live a life that's pure, and meet him up above and shape the little hand once more, that nature made us love.

His Uncle.

Dallas Texas, Oct., 10.—With spot cotton slowly creeping upward in price, officials of the Texas Division of the American Cotton Association are urging the farmers to hold their crop, or to market it very slowly. Although the recommended minimum price at the New Orleans meeting was only thirty-six cents, it begins to appear that even a better price will be secured, and brokers in the East are predicting publicly fifty cent cotton.

WEEKLY SENTINEL

WALTON & GIBBS, PUBLISHERS

THE RECOGNIZED NEED.

The business interests of two hemispheres are confronted with the immediate task of restoring to a normal basis the economic existence of their nationals. While statesmen are debating the ratification of peace, the average citizen is asking: What about the primal necessities—food, clothing and shelter—and their correlatives—confidence and work?

Neither Europe nor America are what they were before the war. Old conditions have been wiped out. New conditions have arisen. Inter-dependence has been intensified.

The bare skeleton of international trade must be clothed with the flesh and blood of mutually profitable barter and exchange. Europe clamors for restored means of protection; America, for speedy overseas transportation of surplus raw material, and both for the stabilization of credit and exchange.

Three hundred thousand homes in Northern France and Belgium were destroyed during the war. As many more were partially wrecked, but are restorable. At least 2,000 churches and an equal number of public buildings must be replaced. For this there will be needed, according to the obviously conservative estimate of a German engineer, at least 10,000,000,000 bricks, 5,000,000 cubic metres of lumber, 4,000,000 to 6,000,000 square metres of panel glass, 3,000,000 metric tons of cement, 5,000,000 cubic metres of lime, besides tremendous quantities of structural iron products and "enough roof tiles to cover an area larger than that of Berlin."

A ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL

Leading Southern Senators, including United States Senators, have joined in an organized movement to make the birthplace of Theodore Roosevelt's mother, the famous old Bulloch homestead at Roswell, Ga., a permanent memorial.

Both the Georgia Senators, Hoke Smith and William J. Harris, as well as former Senator Thomas W. H. H. Wick, all of whom were active political opponents of the late President, are leaders in the movement.

The Bulloch committee is composed of one member from each Southern State and is headed by Dr. Floyd W. McRae, of Atlanta. It has the co-operation of C. W. McClure, a chairman in Georgia for the Roosevelt Memorial Association, and of E. Y. Clarke, director of the Georgia campaign of the Association.

The birthplace of Martha Bulloch, a Southern gentlewoman famous for her beauty and charm, who supported the Southern cause in the sixties, although the wife of a Northerner and living in New York, is a venerable mansion of the Southern colonial type in a typical Georgia plantation setting at Roswell, near Atlanta. The old mansion was often visited by Roosevelt.

Roosevelt was always popular in Georgia. His devotion to his Southern mother had much to do with this sentiment toward him, but his principles of Americanism made him many admirers among those who did not belong to his party.

ADD GOMPERS ILL

Gompers' illness results, it is reported, from months of unremitting work at home and abroad in connection with the peace treaty, the international labor congress at Amsterdam and the steel strike.

He was stricken upon reaching his home last night after delivering an attack in the Industrial Conference on the United States Steel Corporation for its refusal to deal with the strikers' committee.

Before leaving the city the former editor would like to express gratification in the fact that there is some new sidewalk being put down—and in the business section at that. Mr. G. W. Morris is putting down a cement walk in front of his store on East Main street, adding about 25 feet's insurance against your breaking your neck as you go down that street after the mantle of night has been drawn. Here's hopin' the example will be followed.

"FLYING PARSON" ON RETURN TRIP

Salt Lake City, Oct. 15.—Lieut. Manyard left Battle Mountain, Nev., at 7:58 this morning on the return flight eastward in the transcontinental air derby.

AN OBJECT LESSON

On Friday last there were shipped from the railroad station at this place three emigrant cars of household goods. The owners of the contents of these cars were leaving Nacogdoches because of the impossibility of securing dwellings in which to make their homes. One of these cars went to Beaumont, one to Lufkin and one to Snyder.

The lesson is obvious. If Nacogdoches hopes to grow and prosper its property owners must provide homes for those seeking to locate here. The situation is becoming critical. Good citizens are passing us by because they can find no quarters for their families. Every family locating here would increase the volume of business of our merchants. They would earn good money and spend it in Nacogdoches. Many thousands of dollars which would logically flow in to the coffers of home merchants are diverted to other channels because wage-earners are driven to other fields.

The housing problem is one which should, and probably will, receive the early attention of the newly launched Chamber of Commerce. It is a problem to the solving of which that body of business men and boosters might devote its entire energies for a time with good results, for if our town is to prosper some arrangements must be made for supplying homes to those who would add to our prosperity.

Building materials of all kinds are high in cost, but so also, relatively are rentals, and when all is said the balance has been pretty well maintained when compared to the days of lower prices.

1200 WAR MOTOR TRUCKS SOLD TO GERMAN SYNDICATE

With American Forces in Germany Oct. 11.—Twelve hundred motor trucks abandoned by the German army in the area taken over by the Americans as part of the armistice material were sold recently to a syndicate of German automobile dealers. This deal virtually completes the work of the Coblenz branch of the United States Liquidation Commission, which has been under the direction of Junius G. Adams, of Asheville, N. C., special commissioner of the American Army of Occupation.

Continuation of disposal of surplus army material in occupied Germany will hereafter be under direction of a general sales board of the American Forces in Germany, of which Lieutenant Colonel T. H. Kruttschnitt has been appointed as chief. The army board will be under the supervision of the liquidation commission with headquarters in Paris until the final stocks are sold.

The sale of surplus property of the American army at the Antwerp base which also has been completed brought to the government $14,000,000, most of the goods disposed of to the Belgian government, bringing a better price than could have been obtained in the United States.

By the sales of a part of surplus stocks of the American Forces in Germany much of which was sold to German civilians, the sum of $11,000,000 was realized. Among the materials sold recently to German dealers was 2,000,000 pounds of candy of a kind not particularly in demand among the American soldiers.

NO RECOMMENDATIONS AS TO ARBITRATION

HE HAD SUFFERED FOURTEEN YEARS

Hicks Says Since Taking Tanlac All His Troubles Have Disappeared

"Tanlac made a well man of me after I had suffered for fourteen years and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get relief," said E. A. Hicks, a well-known merchant of Bakewell, Tenn.

"I was in miserable shape," he continued, "and ten years ago I became so much worse that I had to quit working at my trade and bought a store where the work would be lighter on me. I had hardly any appetite, and after forcing down anything I would become nauseated and begin vomiting. Gas pressed so on my heart that I would almost smother to death and would be in so much misery that I would have to go to bed."

"I tried everything I could think of but got no relief till I started on Tanlac. By the time I had taken half a bottle I was feeling like a new man. When I had taken three bottles I found I had gained ten pounds and my food did not hurt me at all. My appetite picked up right away and now I don't have a bit of trouble with gas or indigestion and everybody round here is talking about how well I am looking. I sure do feel fine and it was nothing but Tanlac that fixed me up."—All druggists sell Tanlac.

DON'T SHIRK YOUR DUTY.

You would be a very unnatural parent if you did not wish to give your boy or girl the best educational advantages that are in your power, very thoughtful parents if you sent him to the first school that mailed you a catalogue, and an unpardonable parent if you entered him in school without first investigating its location, sanitation, equipment, character of student body, faculty, system of discipline, and above all the moral surroundings. Yours is the duty of investigation, comparison, and ultimate decision.

Your boy or girl is the hope of your life. In him or her is centered your most cherished ambitions. His or her value cannot be measured by dollars and cents, but his or her value must be measured by the training which he received in home and in school. If the local school were an ideal place for your boy or girl, you wouldn't think about sending him away from home. Under present conditions, they doubtless need more self reliance, because they lack the power of initiative, are wanting in breadth, the scope of vision, haven't learned how to study, can't make for themselves, and are ignorant of the fine art of a business career. If so, their education should be continued in business training school where discipline really means something, where personal supervision by the faculty is constant, where our service is rendered above everything else, and where manly and womanly character and conduct are held paramount to all other considerations.

Our thoughts are centered upon the welfare of our girls while here in school as well as their future business career. We have secured the services of Mrs. Martha Gilliam as "Dean of Women." Mrs. Gilliam is well qualified for the great responsibility of caring for the hundreds of young women who are fitting themselves to take the places of our splendid young men who have answered our country's call for trained business men. Mrs. Gilliam has traveled extensively; observing the positions and conditions of women. She is actively interested in church work for the betterment of woman-kind. Her deep interest and sympathy for young women gives her at once a place in the hearts of the students, she will try as nearly as possible to fill the place of Mother to each girl.

Our 28-page catalogue will tell you as to the financial standing of our institution. It will tell you of the endorsements by the best business men, ministers, lawyers, and bankers. It will give you the experience of young people who came to us with limited means, and in short time in the school, what their success and future has meant to them. We know you are bound to be interested, so ask us to furnish you with the proof. Our large, beautifully illustrated catalogue is free, if you will fill out this coupon and mail to us.

EDUCATION FOR ADULTS PROVIDED

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 14.—Dr. H. M. Tory, president of the University of Alberta, is advocating a plan to provide education for adults as a part of the regular school system of the province.

Dr. Tory served for two years as executive head of the Khaki university, the famous military institution which gave educational advantages to 50,189 Canadian soldiers in France and England during the war.

"My work with the soldier," said Dr. Tory, "convinced me adult schooling is an important phase of educational work. The men in the army did harder and better work in their studies and covered more ground in a given time than is usual in ordinary schools.

"The success of the Khaki university emphasized the necessity of providing educational advantages for grown-ups in the civilian population. Thousands of men and women, who missed education in their youth either through neglect or lack of opportunity, would be eager to attend school, again or take college courses if they could do so without having to interrupt their work. Adult schools would prove of benefit to native citizens and of special advantage to foreigner settlers. In time they would raise the standards of national enlightenment and make for better citizenship."

"FLYING PARSON" IS FAR IN THE LEAD

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 10.—Hundreds of miles ahead of the other west-bound flyers, Lieut. Maynard, the "flying parson," was ready this morning to resume his flight to the Pacific coast from Cheyenne, Wyo.

Prospects of bad weather over much of the course faced the flyers remaining in the aerial derby from Mineola, N. Y., to San Francisco. Cold weather and snowstorms in the west and winds and rains in the eastern half of the country have interfered with schedules.

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and muddy as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."

WEEKLY SENTINEL
ALTON & GIBBS, PUBLISHERS

HE WILL MAKE GOOD.

Joe J. Gibbs, editor of The Sentinel, came up from Nacogdoches Saturday night and spent Sunday with his father and family, returning home Sunday night. Mr. Gibbs has resigned his position with the Sentinel, effective with this week's work, and will leave Friday for Houston, where he goes to accept a very lucrative position with the Houston Chronicle. His family will join him in the Bayou City in the course of a few weeks and will make it their future home. Modesty forbids an extended comment from The News, which is edited by his father, on the rapid advancement the young man has made in his chosen profession, but we rejoice that he, like many others who have gone out from this school and this town, is making good.—Garrison News.

EVEN ENVIES US OUR FREAK PIG.

The American Express Co. was called upon this morning to handle a hog shipped out of Nacogdoches, and routed through here to Tyler. The hog was pretty much like all other hogs living in this climate with the exception that it was different. In other words this hog had six feet instead of four, which is customary. After ascertaining where the animal was from, the newspaper reporter was not surprised, and deliberately walked away from the scene. Tomorrow there is no telling what that town will try to palm off on an unsuspecting public.—Lufkin News.

OUR DEAD IN FRANCE.

Although no final action seems yet to have been taken in the matter, the decision probably will be to leave our soldier dead abroad and permanently improve and beautify the American cemeteries in Europe. Practically everyone who has given the matter serious consideration believes this to be the right way.

There are sentimental reasons for this action as well as practical ones. In a cablegram to the war department, General Pershing said:

"The graves of our soldiers constitute, if they are allowed to remain, a perpetual reminder to our allies of the liberty and ideas upon which the greatness of America rests. I recommend that none of our dead be removed from Europe unless their nearest relatives so demand after a full understanding of all the sentimental reasons against such a removal."

"I believe that could these soldiers speak for themselves they would wish to be left undisturbed where, with their comrades, they fought the last fight."

General Pershing, himself a soldier, probably knows what he says. The brave boys who died "over there" are held dearly in the hearts of Americans as they could possibly be of buried here. Their memory is as glorious in either case.—Exchange.

THAT AWFUL BRIDGE.

Lufkin News.

A News reporter has been offered free ride to the Angelina river bottom, on the Angelina county side of the dividing stream, if, when he is deposited back at his desk, he will undertake in his feeble way, to describe the thing called a bridge there that the traveling public is depending upon in going from one county to another.

It is doubtful if the reporter will have time to make the inspection, for that is so dangerously near the town of Nacogdoches that he fears it might cause trouble, as it learned that the editor of a certain newspaper up that way has some one continually maintaining an air patrol on the border on the look-out for suspicious movements. Certain it is that this is no time for hostile demonstrations, with the winter coming on, the country beset with strikes, food prices hitting on all four cylinders and a nation dying of "thirst."

But back to the subject. Let the dead past bury its dead! From what can be learned second-hand, this slough bridge is more than half a mile long. You manage to get your car on the "runners" on either side (the floor of the one-time bridge having been worn away by time in its annering flight) and traveling this way for a given length, you find that several spans of the structure, over the main body of the slough, have collapsed and rest practically on the ground and on the earth nearby, being several feet below the level which you negotiated at the outset. By and by, if you are not ushered into kingdom come while down in the low ground of sorrow described, you come to an abrupt end; that is, you will have to manage somehow to get up on the bridge again to complete the journey. One gentleman who crossed over yesterday afternoon says that the least "rise" will put a stop to travel, for the water will hide the middle section from view.

Without dwelling upon the subject further, for it has been dwelt upon enough in the past, it will be said in conclusion that surely it must be a "bridge of sighs." We are told that we should never cross bridges until we come to them, but when we do come, and then can't cross, things have come to a head of a pass.

A MAN'S VALUE

The man who becomes conceited, and begins to act as if he were the only man in the world, and as if he were destined to live on earth forever, is a man with a screw loose about him somewhere. The true significance of a man's value, when calculated in an infinite way, is alarmingly small. True, seemingly mighty things can be accomplished by man, but the hand of time never fails to demolish them.

Every creature is of God's own inspiration. No being has the right, who knows better, to think himself with a greater soul than his brother. The purpose you are serving is the purpose for which you were created to serve; and the purpose your neighbor is serving is the one he was created to serve. Identically this is just like one vessel is made for one thing, and another vessel for another. One of these vessels, created by the same hand for a certain purpose, would have no privilege to boast superiority over the other.

Watch your step, my dear friend, when you feel an inspiration to poke fun at some one else. The law of retribution is as sure as fate, and its punishments are always heartless and relentless. If your neighbor has, to you, peculiarities which grate upon you, rather try to admire them as God given characteristics rather than condemn them too hastily. E. S. S.

In Interest of Farmers

An attempt to have the federal government fully consider the economic needs and requirements of the farmers of this state, is being made by the Texas Chamber of Commerce. President J. S. Cullinan of the state chamber believes the time is opportune for a full presentation of the difficulties under which the agricultural interests of the country are laboring.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the state chamber, President Cullinan urged that immediate action be taken to have the industrial conference, now in session at Washington, consider the question of equivalent values. As a result of the meeting, the following telegram was sent to Franklin K. Lane, chairman of the industrial conference:

"We desire to go on record as urging the imperative need of placing the farming interests, farmers and farm labor on equal basis, all factors considered, with recognized industrial, transportation and other labor, in hours of production, service and compensation for same. Texas, a great agricultural state, is vitally interested in this subject, as under present conditions farm production of living essentials is very seriously hampered by lack of farm labor."

While it is recognized that the industrial activity of the state is rapidly expanding and in need of proper economic provisions, the state chamber also intends to see that the best interests of the farmers are given intelligent consideration at the hands of the Washington conference.

GOOD FOR US ALL

Nacogdoches citizens realized that in order to keep up with Lufkin in a progressive way, they would have to organize themselves for work, as had Lufkin, so the y-called a meeting last week for the purpose of organizing a Chamber of Commerce—an instrumentality that will mean more to the town than any other one thing they could have done. What is good for our neighboring towns would be good for Alto.—Alto Herald.

TRIP POSTPONED

On account of the recent rains the proposed trip to see the fine hogs on the 21st. inst. will have to be postponed to a later date, which will be announced in due time. Watch the county papers for the date.

THE FLAG OVER OUR CITY HALL

Out in the cold and dark of the night,
Where the wind sweeps 'round my mooring;
Out where the ghosts hide from the fright
Of the midnight's black down-pouring,
Here you have left me in shame and disgrace,
Alone in the desolate weather,
In vain I have tried to hold in their place
My stars and stripes to-gether.
Ah, once I was hailed "Old Glory"
by you—
You carried me proud and aloft;
You revered me, respected the red white and blue
And freely your bats to me doft.
Where patriots gathered you pointed ed with pride
To the flag that knew no defeat;
You swore my defence, where'er I abide,
To carry me not in retreat.
But now I'm forsaken, tattered and torn
And my stripes are strings now instead
Of the silken folds that you oft have borne
Waving proudly above your head;
My stars in their field of blue still shine
On your bustling streets below
Neglected, denied, they shall not decline
Where breezes of liberty blow.
As long as a thread of me still clings
To the staff o'er the City Hall
I'll spread the protecting eagle's wings
O'er the dangers of you all.
But if your civic pride runs true
To the virtue of your race
Do homage to your flag—its due—
Put a new one in my place.—By Dr. Walter Sivley.

Well said doctor; you have spoken E. S.'s sentiments exactly—and lots of others, as to that. This is something in Nacogdoches that has been creating a lot of talk lately. If the talk were commendatory it would be gratifying, because it reflects on the town. But unfortunately the line of gab which you can hear in Nacogdoches any day, about a certain thing is anything but flattering to all of us who love Nacogdoches.

Yes, there is entirely too much talk about that old, torn, tattered and extremely well delapidated flag which trembles in shame, because of its own appearance, over the city hall. Now, Nacogdoches can do better than that. A town with the money and spirit of Nacogdoches can not afford to let that unsightly reflection on its civic pride continue to dangle and tremble like a bunch of old strings another day. It is all a matter of unthoughtfulness and carelessness and the writer feels sure that once the matter is called to the attention of the people, it will be happily adjusted.

Nacogdoches is taking on a new spirit and Nacogdoches should have a new flag to grace the building which it is pleased to call its city hall. Who will be the first in the move to get a new flag? "Throw away your hammer and get a horn." E. S.

Sometimes.

Sometimes we feel like total losses and full fledged failures—but that is usually just before we discover exactly where we are Sometimes we get to thinking of our little world of selfish interests so deeply that we insulate ourselves from every beautiful chance in life.

Sometimes we forget our "Thank-you's" and "Let-me-help-you's."

Sometimes tiredness creeps on and we are thoughtless and cross and unlovable, and maybe mean—and thus build a fence around our finest interests, so that those who would help us most, can't find us to help.

Sometimes we do really worthwhile things—then spoil them all in one fell swoop of impulse all unintended.

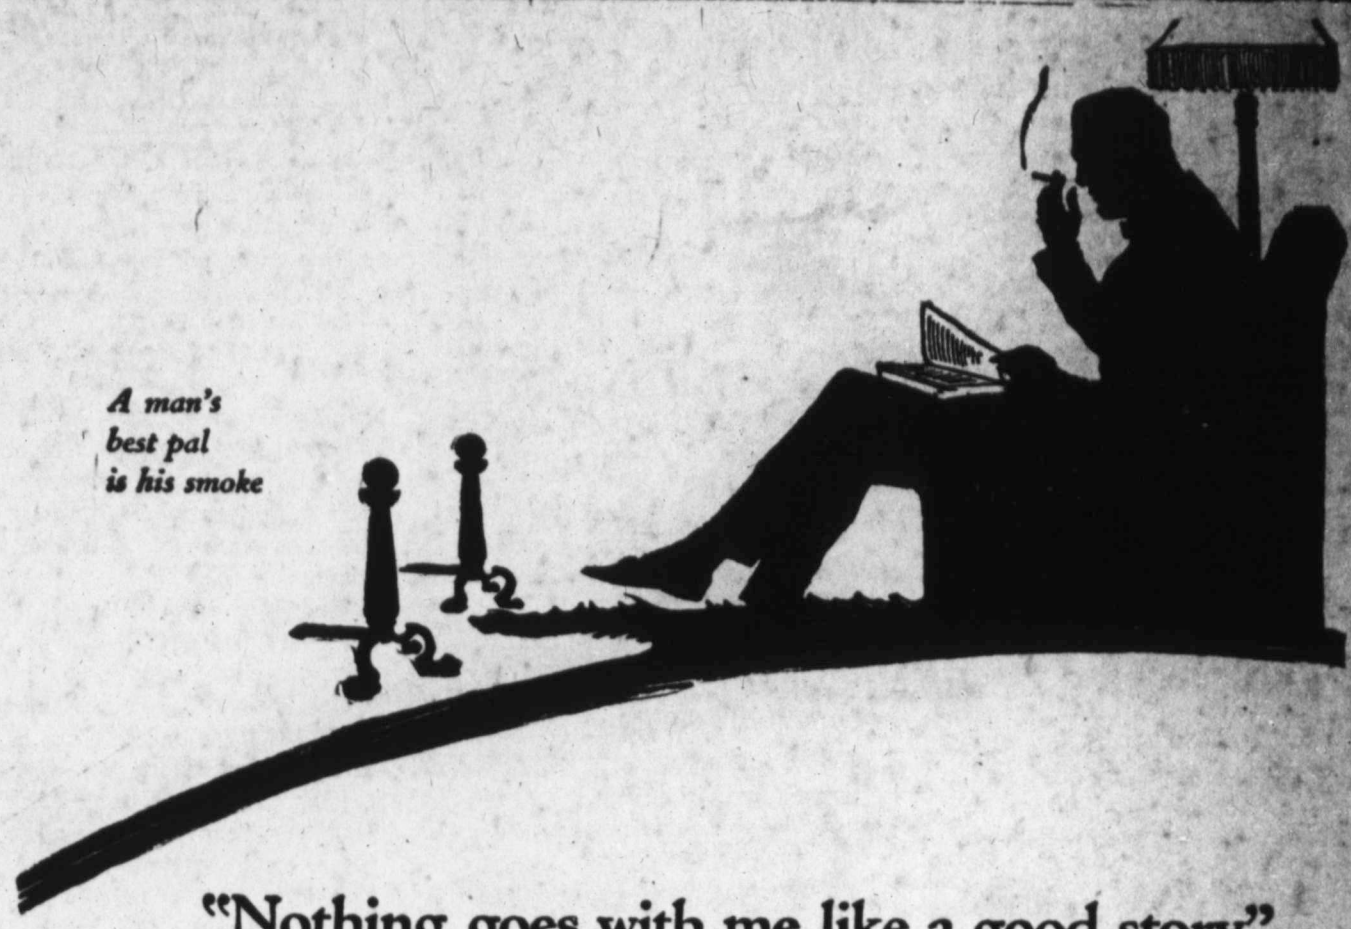

Sometimes we start off all wrong and then have not the courage to turn around and begin anew.

Sometimes we get our "wires crossed," and sometimes our brain feels fagged, and our thoughts lie down, and our feet grow cold.

Sometimes we don't know what is the matter with us—but we do know that something is!

Sometimes we wonder about everything.

But all of these things are natural—sometimes. So when we feel them coming on, let's kill them in the bud.—George Mathews Adams, in Beaumont Journal.

RURAL CARRIERS EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Nacogdoches, Texas, to be held on November 8, at Nacogdoches to fill the position of rural carriers at Garrison and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The examination will be open only to male citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form No. 1977. This form and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

Admission of women to the examination will be limited to the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of duty.

If your child starts in its sleep, grinds its teeth while sleeping, picks at the nose, has a bad breath, fickle appetite, pale complexion, and dark rings under the eyes, it has worms; and as long as they remain in the intestines, the child will be sickly. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE clears out the worms, strengthens the stomach and bowels and puts the little one on the road to health and cheerfulness. Price 30c. Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

NACOGDOCHES NOT ALONE

Have you noticed that everyone walks in the center of the streets in Alto, and that they have abandoned side walks. The reason of this is that the weeds have taken the walks. The Kemp News suggests to its readers that if a crop is to be grown on the walks that something be planted that is more profitable and we think that is a good suggestion.—Alto Herald.

When the chest feels on fire and the throat burns, you have indigestion, and you need HERBINE to get rid of the disagreeable feeling. It drives out badly digested food, strengthens the stomach and purifies the bowels. Price 60c. Sold by Stripling, Haselwood & Co.

INJURED BY FALL

W. E. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Watson, suffered a painful injury Saturday evening when he slipped on the slick pavement, fell and seriously bruised his side. Sunday morning, however, he was resting very well, and it is thought that he will in a few days be entirely recovered.

The rain Saturday and Sunday has made the routes of travel very dangerous for both pedestrians and cars. Mr. Watson is the only one so far known to have received injury from them.

HAS GOOD WORD FOR US

After an auto trip about Nacogdoches yesterday afternoon, Mr. Sam Loeb, head of the Hip-Hip-Hooray Girls Co., playing the Majestic Theatre this week, expressed himself as being very much pleased with the appearance of the residential districts and with the signs of prosperity displayed in the business houses. Playing through the various cities of Texas and Oklahoma as Mr. Loeb has done for a number of years, he naturally has a wonderful chance to make comparison and to watch the development of the various communities. He is very enthusiastic over the appearance of Nacogdoches and is predicting a wonderful future for the city.

When interviewed this morning Mr. Loeb was busily engaged in overhauling numerous of the chorus costumes—all silks and satin.

"One would hardly believe the enormous sums spent upon wardrobes for an attraction of this kind," he said, "and then there is the constant wear and tear to be reckoned with. It requires absolutely all of my wardrobe lady's time to prepare the costumes for each evening's performance—pressing, mending, etc. Twenty-eight trunks are required to carry the wardrobes for the lady members of the company, but it has always been my idea to present each production complete in every respect, and I spare no expense to carry out each detail, realizing especially that beautiful gowns appeal to the feminine members of our audience."

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—what portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will supply strength you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

E. S. WANTS INFORMATION

Lufkin folks seemingly are the most peculiar people in the world. An ordinary sixlegged pig, which never attracts any attention here in Nacogdoches, like to have run 'em crazy while on a train passing through the town the other day. And the sixlegged pig did not do a thing but grunt—but over that they like to have gone into spasms. It is reported that they even interviewed their mayor about the matter. Of course he had nothing to do with it—but just such conduct as that is what is continuously making our neighbor look more queer and suspicious. We are at loss to know whether their's is a case in which sympathy is needed, or just some good old, honest learning. Which? E. S. would like to know.

SUBSTITUTE FOR NEWS PRINT PAPER

Chicago, Oct. 14.—That newsprint paper will have to be made from the straw of wheat and other grains in a few years if the destruction of Canadian pulpwood forests continues at its present rate, was the assertion of C. Price-Green of Toronto, industrial commissioner of the Canadian National Railways, here to attend the Exposition of Chemical Industries. The straw, he said, now is largely wasted. "With but one-fiftieth of the world's population, the United States consumes one-half of the world's production of paper," he said. "At the present rate of consumption and destruction by fire, insects and fungus growths, one is forced to the conclusion that the time is not far distant when a substitute for spruce in the making of news-print paper will have to be found, and one of the most likely sources of supply is to be found in the vast quantities of straw from the grain-growing areas, which at the present time is being wasted."

One edition of Chicago's largest newspaper, he declared, requires the spruce of thirty acres of forest.

Sincere Gratitude.

MANY AVIATORS MEET ILL FATE

MINEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Three aviators had been killed, four of the sixty-two originally entered put definitely out of the running, and the status of several others remained unknown early today when the army's great trans-continental air race over a fifty-four hundred mile course between Mineola and San Francisco was resumed.

The three men killed yesterday were Major D. H. Crissey and Sgt. Virgil Thomas, who met an almost instant death in a crash in Salt Lake City, and Sgt. W. H. Nevitt, observer for Colonel Gerald Brandt, whose plane crashed at Deposit, New York.

CHAPTER OF AMERICAN LEGION ORGANIZED SATURDAY

There was something doing in the Old Town Saturday afternoon when a large crowd of enthusiastic ex-service men met at the court house and organized a local chapter of the American Legion. Boys were there from all parts of the county, ignoring the many things which tended to keep them away, and the local chapter of this grand order was organized just like the American arms won the war—with a crash.

The assembly consisted of real soldiers from the battle fields of France—service men, for the most part. Of course there were visitors and ex-service men who did not get across present, but all honors were strictly for the men who faced in shooting distance of the enemy along the Rhine and who had helped carry Old Glory through thundering cannonade and crashing shells.

The house was called to order at 3 p. m., Albert Reese being elected temporary chairman and Cecil Gaston, secretary. The program was started off by the rendition of some very impressive, from-the-heart, little talks from the boys who had served in the trenches, and along the Rhine in the Army of Occupation as well as from our sailors who had seen active service with our grand fleet in the icy and U-Boat infested waters of the North sea.

Major Thompson, A. T. Mast, Culbertson Denmond and one or two others whose names could not be obtained, delivered some mighty sound thoughts on just why Nacogdoches should organize and support a chapter of the American Legion—this mighty organization which is destined to become a worthy successor to the U. C. V., and the G. A. R. that sprung from the Civil war. The Legion is showing its colors everywhere against anything anti-American and is doing much to rid the country of the Bolsheviks.

Business was gotten down to with characteristic army-like efficiency. The program went off without a hitch. There was a good crowd present and every ex-service man who was down there affiliated himself with the new chapter.

After a motion to go into a permanent organization was passed, a committee on permanent organization was appointed with Claud Thompson as chairman. This was a wise selection, for Mr. Thompson saw much active service with the 5th Marines. He was wounded at St. Mehiel and commissioned from the ranks as Lt. This committee is to make a report to the chapter next Saturday at 3 p. m., another meeting of the chapter being called for that purpose.

As stated above, the next meeting will be held at the court house next Saturday, October 19th. There is so much enthusiasm among the boys over the organization that it is thought an enormous crowd will be present at the second meeting. All of the service men say that the ex-service man who is not a member of the Legion is an unfortunate person. "We want every ex-service man in the country to be at the celebration on Nov. 11th," said First Lieutenant Bates yesterday while commenting on the subject. Lt. Bates served in France several months and was both painfully and seriously wounded while there. "Tell every soldier, marine, or sailor, whether he saw actual service or not, we want him and need him in the local chapter of the American Legion," was a statement made by Capt. W. W. Lee.

People of Nacogdoches county are proud of the part their boys played in the war, and it is indeed particularly gratifying to them to see the boys of Nacogdoches who were ex-service men still have that indomitable, soul-stirring spirit in abundance, which manifestly made the American soldier the best soldier in the world. May their names live forever.

E. M. Jarrell of Nat is a business visitor in the city today.

MISS CHARLEY STINSON PLEASES MUSIC LOVERS

By special and urgent requests of many of Miss Charley's friends and former patrons, her mother consents to have the following one of many just or complimentary criticisms republished:

An appreciative audience last night at the Philomathean clubhouse thoroughly enjoyed the piano recital given by the charming Miss Charley Stinson. Their pleasure in her work and their appreciation of it had indeed a meaning, for a large number of the people present represented the keenest and most cultured of Stockton's musical set. Among these were Mrs. Bess Smith Zeigler, Mrs. John Raggio, Rev. Father A. Bandini, Mr. Gilbert Reek, Mr. and Mrs. Eban Kilmer. Their appreciation alone was a compliment to the ability of the pianist.

The program was short, opening with the scintillant Octave Intermezzo (Leschetisky), and in direct contrast was followed by the deep, melodious Romance of Schumann, which in Miss Stinson's interpretation was almost organ-like in its depth and quality. Paderewski's Theme Varié completed the first group, all of which were given with grace and assurance.

Lysbert's The Fountain was a lovely encore. The second group, to use newspaper parlance, were "brevities"—exquisite, lovely musical brevities played with an intelligence that made them glow under the swift, skillful fingers. In this group were McDowell's March Wind; Leschetisky's Arbesque, Raff's La Fileuse, and the most beautiful and perhaps the most modern of them all, in style of composition, Rachmanoff's Prelude in G minor.

Three lovely Chopin numbers were given followed by a really fine rendition of Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody, VIII. Other encores given during the program were Sequidilla (Albeniz) and Macdowell's To a Wild Rose.—Stockton (Cal.) paper.

NACOGDOCHES OIL MILL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

The rain didn't stop 'em. They were all there Friday night with the pep, the interest and enthusiasm that made the meeting a success regardless of the rain and other obstacles. It is that spirit, though, that has made it a success and will continue to make it a success in the future.

The Nacogdoches Chamber of Commerce met Friday night the second time in its history and had a very enthusiastic meeting. Approximately 50 members were present, making a splendid representation of the business men of the town.

The house was called to order at 8:30 by temporary chairman, A. A. Seale, who read the minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

Then the report of the committee appointed to recommend the board of directors was read. K. P.'s ENTERTAINED PAT M. NEFF LAST NIGHT

Last night was a big night in Nacogdoches. The K. P.'s pulled off one of the biggest things that has occurred here for many a day. The house was packed to the limit. Everyone present wore a smile on his face, and there was absolutely no place for the grouch. Fun, pleasant and a desire for everyone to enjoy himself were the dominating features of the occasion. Several cases of bevo and other sodas, together with a supply of cigars, were disposed of in no time. Sandwiches disappeared as if by magic.

Promptly at 8:30 Hon. S. M. Adams called the meeting to order and directed attention to the fact that the meeting was in honor of one of the state's most distinguished men—Hon. Pat M. Neff. Mr. Adams made a very appropriate little opening address, in which he disclosed the fact that Mr. Neff had here in Nacogdoches an intimate friend who would introduce the visiting candidate for governor of Texas.

Mr. C. W. Butt was the man referred to by Mr. Adams, and upon the surrender of the floor by Mr. Adams, Mr. Butt came forward and made a few remarks. He stated that he had known Mr. Neff for years, and that he knew him to be a man of the highest honor. Delight was expressed by Mr. Butt upon having the privilege of introducing to his Nacogdoches friends his friend from Waco. Mr. Butt's remarks were few, but to the point. He mentioned the fact that Mr. Neff was a better speaker than he, and that he would with pleasure give the rostrum over to him.

Mr. Neff came forward and was greeted with a heavy cheer. He started with expressing his delight at being among such real hospitable people—such as Nacogdoches has in her town. "I feel both happy and honored to be at this meeting and accept of your most kind greetings, my brother," were his words to Mr. Butt. He had no idea that Nacogdoches had this size lodge. It compares favorably with some of the lodges in the largest cities—but I suppose some of you are visitors. However, I wish all of you under the sound of my voice were K. P.'s, because it is an order that stands for the very highest in the elements of benevolence, charity and friendship.

Mr. Neff said that he was unprepared to make a speech; that he had no idea such a large body of enthusiastic friends would be present to welcome him. "I thought that there would be some 15 or 20 persons up here, and that we would just get together and have a nice little chat." However, Mr. Neff could not help but mention a few things of charitable nature which the grand order is doing all over Texas today. "One of the first $500 donations sent to the storm sufferers at Corpus Christi was from the K. P.'s and the K. P.'s have since sent over $4,000." He concluded his remarks by saying that he was inexpressibly delighted at the ovation Nacogdoches had given him. He said that he had not come here for such, but was called here on legal business of a very important nature. But the good friendly welcomes everyone had accorded him warmed him up indeed. He was loudly cheered at the conclusion of his speech, for everyone enjoyed his remarks.

Lunch was then prepared. Mr. Eugene Blount was appointed toastmaster of the occasion and it can be truly said that he rendered satisfactory service. It was not three minutes after he had taken charge of the situation before the entire house was convulsed with laughter. It is the unanimous opinion that Mr. Blount will serve at many an occasion as toastmaster. He just simply can't be beat.

The lunch was attacked forthwith and the viands were highly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Neff left last night for Waco, his home.
