

Bull Town Bulletins

By Bill Ellis

MOST OF THE TALK this week is concerning the tragedy involving the seven deaths in the Chicago area which have been blamed on people taking what they believed to be extra-strength Tylenol, when the capsules had been filled with cyanide poison.

What kind of mad-man could perpetrate such a thing, in which innocent people—strangers—would be killed? It is a mind-boggling situation, since most people cannot imagine what would cause someone to act in this manner.

Psychologists have been quoted as saying that it is a very unusual situation when a person does something in this manner, which could cause the deaths of total strangers, and for no apparent reason.

The sad part about this situation, in addition to the fact that it affected innocent victims, is that they each were attempting to make themselves feel better, either to relieve a headache or cold symptoms, when the end result was a very untimely death.

Another unfortunate side effect is that a well-known product has been adversely affected, probably to the point that it may never reach its former status on the drug counters. People may develop a suspicion in regard to Tylenol products that would make it virtually impossible to again be a success in the marketplace.

And prior to this past week, Tylenol was the most popular pain relief medicine on the market.

The whole situation is regrettable. It is hoped that the perpetrator of all this madness would be caught, although at this point the chances of an arrest appear dim. At least society might get the opportunity of asking the person "why?" if the guilty party could be caught.

MEASURES DESIGNED to tighten control over abuses in the food stamp program have been announced by the Department of Human Resources, which administers the program in Texas.

Marlin Johnston said food stamp recipients in Texas have been instructed to sign each book of food stamps as soon as it is received so that no one else can use the stamps, and to have their food stamp ID card with them and be prepared to show it to their grocer whenever buying food with food stamps.

In addition, the department has redesigned the food stamp ID cards using special serial numbers and a new code to verify that the authorized family representative or family member is the only user of the card. All food stamp recipients will have the new cards by November 1.

In the past, Johnston said, the agency had limited controls over how many ID cards were issued to a family, since a family member or its authorized representative could claim to have forgotten or lost an ID card, and obtain new cards. This facilitated some program abuse through duplicate participation, Johnston said.

The coding of the card is an innovation developed in Texas as an alternative to a more costly federal proposal that all food stamp ID cards carry the photograph of the participating family member or its authorized representative.

Johnston said 390,300 Texas households receive food stamps in a typical month with the average monthly food stamp allotment per household being $135. There are three people in the average food stamp household, with 61 per cent of the recipients being children.

Audits and investigations conducted routinely by the department indicate a 1.8 per cent fraud rate in the program, Johnston said. Food stamp allotments per month in Texas total about $53 million.

Shepherd Wins Week's Top Prize

Billy Shepherd won the fifth week of the Bovina Blade's football contest, with a near-perfect score, considering the circumstances.

Shepherd was one of three contestants correctly picking 13 games, missing only the Baylor-Houston game which was a tie and an automatic "miss" for all contestants.

Shepherd gained first place honors by missing the tie-breaker score by only two points. He picked Bovina to beat Cooper 34-7, when the actual score was 34-8.

Second place went to Ken Horn, whose tie-breaker score was eight points off. Horn picked Bovina, 28-6. Third place went to Mike Lance, who missed the tie-breaker score by 12 points, on a guess of 26-12.

Twelve contestants correctly picked 12 games, missing by just one having a shot at the weekly prize. They included Joe Harris, Houston Bartlett, Renee Bartlett, Rocky Bartlett, Chet Hawkins, Dean Stanberry, Tom Ware, Tommy DeLeon, Greg McClaran, A.M. Wilson, Patsy Lance and Mike London.

Of all the contestants entering, only Todd Ware hit the Bovina-Cooper score squarely on the head, but unfortunately he did not figure in one of the top scores for the week.

Roger Harris, Wayne Thatcher and Larry Wiseman lead the race for grand prize after five weeks with scores of 50.

Shepherd's good week elevated him into a tie for second with Brad Lance with a score of 49. Charles Gilbreath, Joe Harris and Jeanie Kerby are next at 48. Scores of all leading contestants may be found on Page 4 of this issue.

Whitten Has Champ At Friona

Bret Whitten, Bovina FFA member, exhibited the Grand Champion Heifer at the Parmer County Prospect Steer & Heifer Show last Saturday in Friona.

Whitten's animal was judged first in its class, and then beat out Friona's Roddy Berend for the banner. Kevin Smith had a fifth place and Ted Clayton a sixth place heifer in class judging.

Whitten received $200 prize money for his efforts, in addition to his banner, and also won the show's showmanship trophy.

Cap Naegle had a first place in his class in the steer division. Whitten had a second place steer in one steer class, and a third place steer in the market steer division's second group of animals. Cap Naegle had the fifth place steer in one of the market steer classes.

Band Booster Club Meets; Honors Given

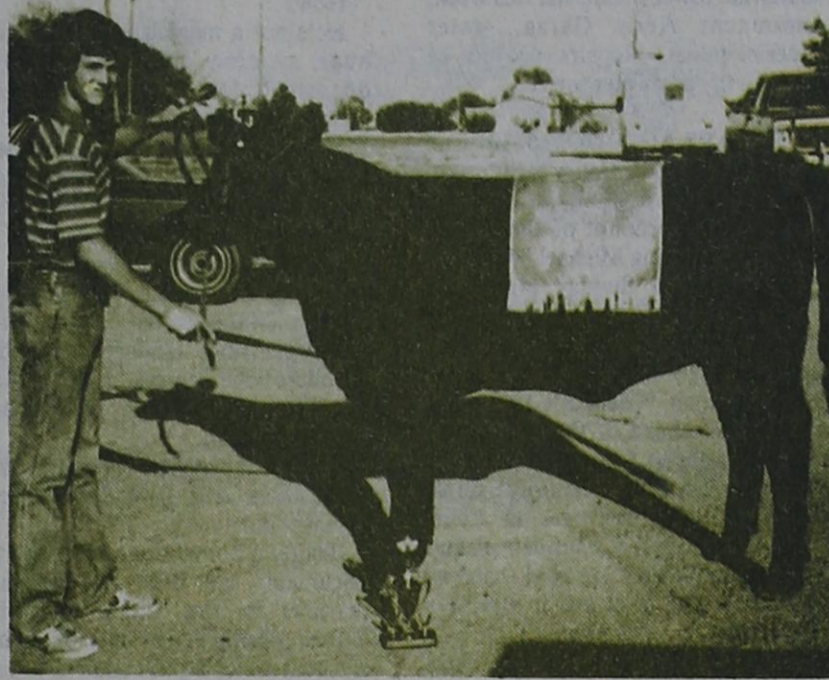

The Bovina Band Boosters will meet Monday, October 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the Band Hall.

The back door only will be open for the meeting. Every member is urged to attend.

Top squads were announced for recent games: Bovina-Amherst, squad number four, David Villarreal, George Karvonen, and squad number seven, Stephen McClaran, Vicky Tamez, Maria Florez and Rey Duran.

For the Morton game and Amarillo parade, squad number four won (Villarreal-Karvonen), along with squad number five, Marie Pesch and Ruben Uriegas; for the Bovina-Dexter game and Lubbock parade, winners were squad number five (Marie Pesch-Uriegas).

Top squads are chosen weekly by the Boosters, with various parents helping pick the winning squads.

CHAMPION HEIFER....Bret Whitten, Bovina High School FFA member, exhibited the Grand Champion Heifer at the Parmer County Prospect Steer and Heifer Show last Saturday in Friona. Whitten also won the show's showmanship trophy, which is shown in front of his animal.

SHEPHERD WINS...Billy Shepherd was the weekly champion in the Bovina Blade's football contest. Shepherd accepts his check from Bovina Blade employee Nelline Spicer.

First Freeze Contest Is Underway Locally

The 18th annual First Freeze Contest, sponsored by The Bovina Blade, is underway.

Those wishing to enter the competition can write the forecast of the first killing freeze on a postcard and mail it or bring it to The Blade office on Third Street. Do not forget to write the date on which you enter, the time and your guess of the date of the freeze.

If more than one person predicts the same date, the entry received first will be declared the winner.

Contestants are cautioned not to confuse the first frost with the first killing freeze.

Deadline for entering the contest is 5 p.m. Wednesday, October 20.

The person coming closest to guessing the exact freeze date will earn a $10 cash prize, along with the title, "Champion First Freeze Predictor of Bovina, 1982."

The contest is conducted by The Blade because of the widespread interest among residents of the area in the first freeze. The interest is prompted by the effect of the freeze on the overall agricultural situation in the Bovina community.

Past champions include Charles Smith, 1965; Mrs. E.L. Cochran, 1966; Cathie Trimble, 1967; Johnnie Horn, 1968; Mrs. Rita Mast, 1969; Dalton Morrison, 1970; Mrs. Flossie Rhinehart, 1971.

Also, Mike Spears, 1972; Gary Cox, 1973; Mrs. Donald Kay Kerner, 1974; Mrs. Bill Bradshaw, 1975; Mrs. Radford Venable, 1976; Cathie Trimble, 1977; Wendy Stanberry, 1978, and J.L. Pruitt, 1979.

Also, Susie Pruitt, 1980; and Houston Bartlett, 1981.

TYLENOL PILE....Billy Whitecotton of Bovina Super Market shows the stack of Tylenol which he pulled off his shelves last Thursday after hearing the news concerning the tainted Tylenol capsules which caused seven deaths in Chicago. Some of the bottles on BSM shelves had the same batch number (1910) as the last bottle which contained cyanide, although no tainted pills have been found outside the Chicago area.

Bovina vs Steers In Dist. Opener

The Bovina Mustangs open District 3-2A play Friday night at Farwell, when they visit the Steers' home stadium in what is expected to be one of the most exciting games of the season.

Gametime on Friday, and for the remainder of the season's games is 7:30 p.m.

"We're looking forward to the game. It's a big rivalry, but a friendly one. We know the Farwell coaches, and know they will be out to beat us, just as we want to beat them," said Bovina coach Larry Helton.

Helton said that the two teams should be fairly even, based on what he had been able to learn about the Steers. Both teams run basically the same offense, and similar defenses. Like Bovina, the Steers are a good passing team, and it was their passing which almost earned them an upset win at Friona last Friday.

Farwell has a veteran backfield, with Alan Eubank, number 12, the signal caller. Santiago Lucio, number 24, is a runningback, along with Robby Armstrong, number 42. Roger Robertson, (44) is a wingback, along with Jimmy Bernal, (40). Both are targets of Eubank in the Steers' passing attack.

Although the Steers are only 1-4 for the season, Helton warns that their record is deceptive. For instance last week at Friona, Farwell was nursing a 10-7 lead in the fourth quarter, and driving for another possible score when Friona forced a fumble. Friona got a couple of long runs, then a fumble on a reverse try on a kickoff, and in less than seven minutes made the score 27-10, although Farwell led in first downs and total yards.

"I feel that whoever wins this game has a good chance to make the playoffs, especially since two teams qualify this year—plus the loser isn't completely out of it," Helton says.

Runningback Joe Black is expected to miss the game due to a strained muscle suffered against Lubbock Cooper. Danny Silva will take his place on offense, and Andy Alexander will man the spot on defense.

Also giving the team a lift was the appearance of Jon Riddle, who was badly burned prior to Bovina's homecoming game. Riddle was back in school Monday, and is making remarkable progress after his injury.

"The kids are ready. We all expect a great game," Helton concluded.

Election Officials Are Named By Commission

Appointment of election officials for Parmer County highlighted the regular meeting of the Parmer County Commissioners last Monday, September 27.

Those appointed, along with their alternates, were as follows: Precinct 1 (Black) Mrs. Glyn Hamilton, judge, Mrs. Joan Euler, alternate; Precinct 2 (Friona) Fred Florez, judge, Mrs. Fred Florez, alternate; Precinct 2-1 (Friona) Danny Kendrick, judge, Mrs. Bruce Shafer, alternate; Precinct 2-2 (Friona) Jerry R. Lewis, judge, Mrs. Mary Ford, alternate. Precinct 3 (Bovina) J.E. Sherrill, judge, Mrs. Gloria Atchley, alternate.

Also, Precinct 4 (Farwell) Mrs. Billie Blain, judge, Phil Garrett, alternate; Precinct 5 (Lazbuddie), Alton Morris, judge, E.A. Parham, alternate; Precinct 6 (Oklahoma Lane) Clarence Johnson, judge, Harold Carpenter, alternate; Precinct 7 (Rhea), Raymond Schueler, judge, Carl Schlenker, alternate; Precinct 8 (Lakeview) J. Dee Willard, judge, Mrs. Russell O'Brian, alternate.

In other business, the payment for the audit of the county's books was approved to Brown, Graham and Company, in the amount of $4900.00.

The court approved payment for physical examinations for two children picked up by the Texas Department of Human Resources, in the amount of $42.00.

A discussion was held concerning the fees of office and service of citations for the Sheriff's office. After comparing county fee lists, a motion was passed to double the existing fees of office for the sheriff's department effective November 1, 1982.

At 5 p.m. that day a public hearing was held on the proposed county budget, with three members of the public attending: Forrest Osborn, Steve Struve and Dale Hart, as well as Bernie Gowens, who explained the budget.

Man Unhurt As Truck Overtakes

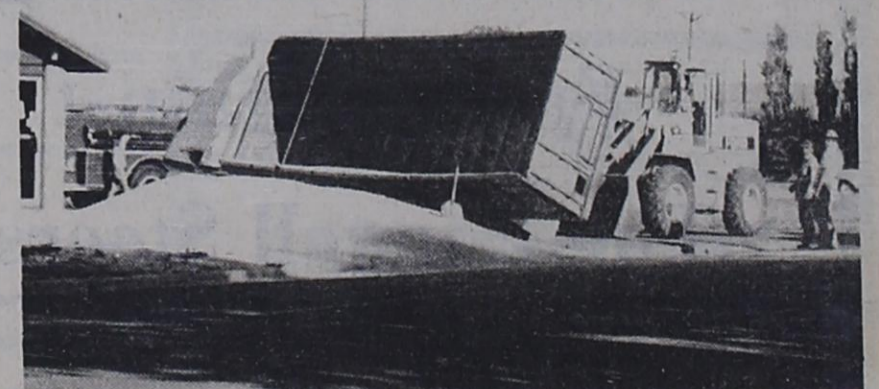

No one was injured, but a load of corn was spilled Sunday afternoon when a loaded grain truck overturned in the 300 block of Third Street.

The truck was driven by Joe Miles, and was owned by Roy Queener of Grady, N.M.

According to Bovina City Marshal Ron Averitt, Joe Miles did not notice in time that a pickup-truck, headed the same direction (northbound) was stopped to make a left turn.

He over-corrected, hit the curb on the east side of the street, and the truck flipped over. The corn was spilled into the street and on the lawn of the new Parmer County Tax Office building.

No citations were issued in the incident, and Miles was not injured in the mishap, which happened about 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

TRUCK WRECK....The grain truck shown above emptied its load sooner than expected here Sunday afternoon in a freak accident. Most of the load of corn was spilled onto the lawn and parking lot of the Parmer County Tax Office, corner of which is shown at left. (Glasscock Photo)

Deputy Sheriff Henry Minter on Tuesday gave the Blade a reconstructed account of the vehicle collision involving Michael Wiseman, which occurred Sunday afternoon. Favaela allegedly went through the stop sign at the intersection going approximately forty miles per hour. His vehicle hit Wiseman's 1973 Ford pickup just ahead of the right door, pushing it across the two lanes of the highway, and when it came up against the curb, it turned over in Rouel Barron's front yard. Favaela's pickup spun around and stopped heading south with the back end in Barron's driveway.

After a third-week scoring fiesta which saw 41 entrants tied with 12 points or better, reality took hold in this fourth week of the Bovina Businesses Football Contest and only 18 competitors scored above 11 points.

Microfiche Camera Makes Heavy Paperwork Easy

By STEPHEN V. NYGARD
 Daily News Staff

James E. Denney claims he can put 18 file cabinets full of documents into a single shoe box.

How? He's not a magician, but he has a huge camera that reduces the documents onto small sheets of microfilm, called microfiche.

Denney said some government agencies and private companies are awash in a sea of paper work and overflowing file cabinets and he wants to come to their rescue.

Denney's company, Timely Information Management Enterprises, Inc., open since January, is working on microfiche projects with the Law Revisions Commission and a local accounting firm.

"This is the answer for people who have cases and cases of paper," Denney said.

Behind a bolted door (many of the documents are both valuable and private) in the Julale Shopping Center, Denney and two assistants are busy using a giant camera to take the picture of thousands of documents on microfiche, a type of film card.

"Our customers are realizing a savings in space and time," Denney said.

He said the microfiche is indexed, making it easier to find documents and harder to misplace them.

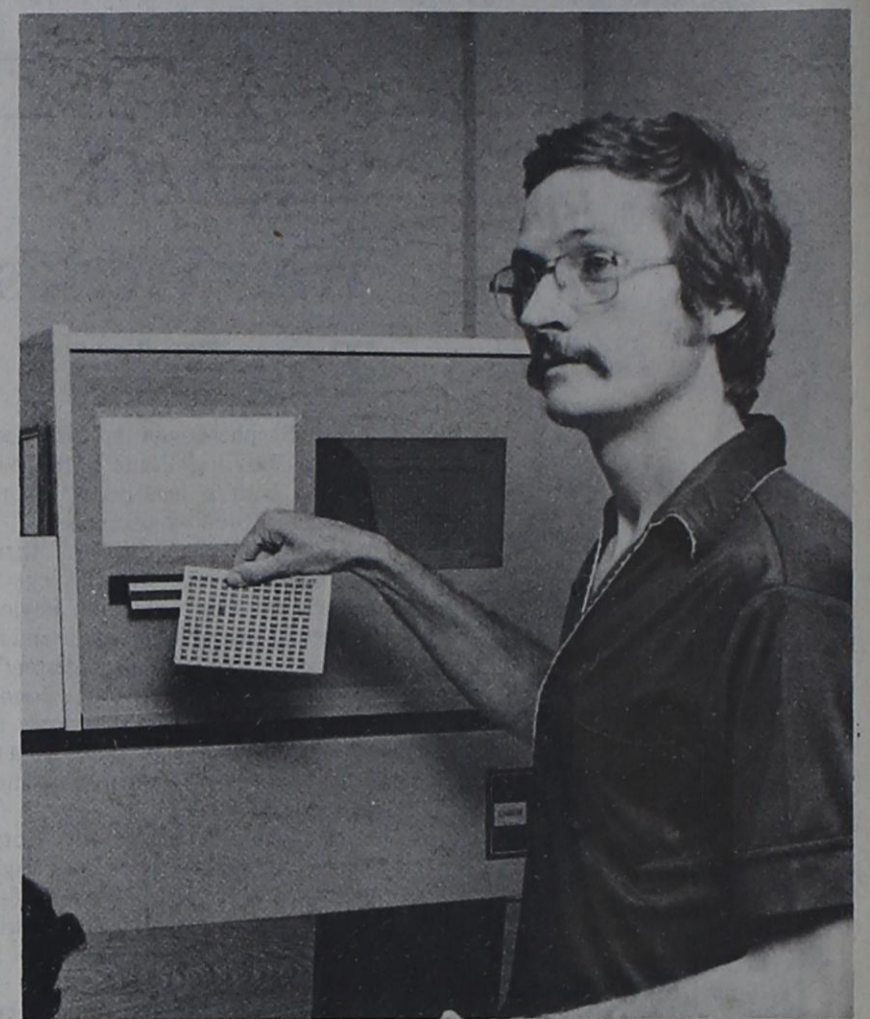

"It's one thing to keep records, it's another to keep them safe and immediately retrievable," Denney said.

To retrieve a document, the customer simply slips an indexed microfiche card into a reader-printer machine to look over or make prints of documents.

Other advantages to storing reduced-size documents on film, Denney said, is that termites don't eat film, and the film quality is guaranteed by its maker for 99 years.

Microfilm-stored documents are acceptable in court, Denney added.

Denney, 33, said he started T-I-M-E with just $5,000 and he has more contracts in line. He said he wants to provide complete micrographic services and will expand his business to include standard 35mm microfilm services when a customer wants it.

Most of Denney's work experience lies in computers. He spent 15 years as a data processor for banks on the U.S. mainland and he runs a sister company to T-I-M-E called TRIAD Computer Developers Inc. It offers software and computer operating services. Denney and his wife, Peggy, a freelance court reporter, went to Guam in 1979 on invitation from his in-laws, Dr. Don and Jeannie Warner, currently residing there.

Before starting up T-I-M-E, Denney had computer analysis and design contracts with the Department of Education and a local bank.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Denney of Friona, and is a graduate of Bovina High School.

DONALD WRIGHT, Deaf Smith Electric Board member from Dimmitt, is pictured getting ready for the harvest, the Dimmitt Harvest Days Celebration, that is. The combine is a 1931 model that, until this month, has not been started since 1953. Donald stated, "Looking at the cost of equipment and fuel in the past, makes one realize how costs have increased. This 42 per cent increase in electric rates, caused by the expiration of a ten-year contract with our power supplier would not seem as massive at an average of a four per cent increase per year for the past ten years."

Cooperative Announces 42 Per Cent Rate Increase

Effective November 1, 1982, members of Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative will have their electric bills computed under a new rate schedule.

"In these days of steadily rising costs, Deaf Smith REC is fortunate to wait this long before implementing a rate increase," stated Board member Donald Wright of Dimmitt.

The new rate will consist of a 42 per cent average increase over the previous rate. This does not indicate all rates have increased 42 per cent, but rather an average of all services combined on our system will increase about 42 per cent based on 1981 usage.

The wholesale power contract which our power suppliers have been governed by the past ten years expires this month. In addition to increases in the wholesale power, normal operating expenses have continued to increase due to inflation. These two items are responsible for the proposed rate adjustment.

Deaf Smith Electric has postponed this rate increase as long as possible. Now more than ever before, fixed expenses account for the largest portion ever, of our total cost of service. For example, wholesale power cost, depreciation, interest, and taxes alone amount to 89 per cent of the total cost of electric service. These are expenses that are completely beyond the control of cooperative management and the Board of Directors.

Wright explained, "We realize people of this area share the concern over the rising cost of production which includes cost of electricity, and trust you understand our plight and efforts to minimize these inevitable rate increases."

When heat and air make the difference

A crowd gathered in the country square, curious to see the large, strange-looking contraption of paper and cloth. The on-lookers laughed at Joseph and Etienne Montgolfier as the two men ignited the pile of straw and rags beneath their invention.

The unbelieving crowd gasped as heated air began to fill out the paper and cloth of the world's first hot-air balloon as it climbed steadily to the then-astounding altitude of about six thousand feet.

As the inventive partners had managed the dynamics of heat and air to give flight to their idea, you and SPS and the High-Efficiency Add-On Heat Pump can make a difference with the everyday management of heat, air and electricity in your home.

When you install a High-Efficiency Add-On Heat Pump you increase the heating efficiency of your existing furnace, and add cooling efficiency next summer. You also qualify for a special electric rate from SPS for seven months of the year. Call us to see what your savings could be.

You and SPS, partners managing electricity, make the difference.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT YOUR VISION

1. One in every 10 Americans is over 65. Each day 3,000 more Americans celebrate their 65th birthday. As people grow older, they tend to accept a little blurring or loss of vision as inevitable, which it is not. Your Optometrist can diagnose and correct a wide range of vision impairments. This is why it is advisable to see your Optometrist at least once each year if you are 55 or older.
2. Quite often, a thorough optometric examination can detect symptoms of glaucoma, cataract, macular degeneration and other eye diseases before a patient experiences any problems.
3. Sometimes a thorough internal eye examination can indicate systemic diseases such as diabetes, high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis, brain tumors and other conditions before the patient is aware of any general symptoms.
4. Cataract, a common occurrence among our Senior Citizens, is a gradual clouding of the crystalline lens of the eye. This is the lens that does the focusing for us.
5. Glaucoma is a condition where increasing pressure within the eye causes damage to the retina and results in loss of vision unless detected early. Your Optometrist screens patients for glaucoma.

This message is brought to you in the interest of better vision by Drs. Armistead & Smith, Optometrists, Littlefield, Texas.

Mustangs Beat Cooper, 34-8

Paul Topliff arranged the Bovina-Cooper game while he was still head coach at Bovina. So he really had no one but himself to blame when his old team came back to haunt him last Friday night.

The Mustangs made the Pirates walk the plank to the tune of 34-8. And lest you think that was a runaway—it could have been a lot worse, considering that three BHS touchdowns were called back due to penalties.

Once again, it was a super second-half effort that brought about the victory for the Mustangs, as the host Pirates were hanging onto an 8-6 lead at the half. Bovina outscored Cooper, 28-0 in the second half.

"We hurt ourselves in the first half with mistakes. But after some halftime adjustments, we took over and won it easily. I was real proud of our players, who never 'lost their cool' in the hard-hitting game," said Mustang mentor Larry Helton.

Bovina took the lead in the first quarter when quarterback Dale Gilbreath kept from a yard out. The kick try failed, for a 6-0 Mustang lead.

Cooper took advantage of a blocked Bovina punt in the second quarter for their only touchdown of the game, having only about a 25-yard drive. The Pirates ran over a two-point conversion for the 8-6 lead.

"They never really drove on us all night. Their touchdown was from close in, and outside of that, they never mounted a drive," Helton said proudly.

After the halftime adjustments, the Mustangs went to work, and produced in rapid succession scores from Richard Shepherd, on a 17-yard run, and Shepherd again on a 15-yard run.

After the second TD, Gilbreath hit Andy Alexander with a two-point conversion for a 20-8 Bovina lead and the Mustangs had some breathing room.

But Shepherd wasn't through scoring. He tallied on a seven-yard run, and then topped off his game with a run for two points which upped Bovina's lead to 28-8 in the final quarter.

Joe Black rounded out the scoring with a seven-yard run, and the PAT try failed for a final margin of 34-8.

Henderson Griggs, who caught three passes for 41 yards, had a 35-yard scoring play called back by a yellow flag and a call of "illegal procedure" which Bovina coaches have yet to find on game films.

Some stellar defensive play was evident in the game, also. On the kickoff following Bovina's go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter, Cooper's runningback was hit a lick by Bovina's Jose Gomez, and he coughed up the ball.

A little later, Joe Pat Wright also laid a good hit on the backfield ace, and so did Terry Glasscock, and by this time most of the fight was going out of the Pirates' attack.

Bovina rolled up 391 yards total offense, which should keep the Mustangs as the area's top offensive team. Wright gained 101 yards on 16 carries; Shepherd added 82 steps on 13 tries. Gilbreath passed for 151 yards, completing 12 of 18 attempts. Alexander was the leading receiver with five catches for 52 yards in addition to his PAT catch.

Griggs added three catches and Shepherd and Glasscock two each. Jay Judd was a defensive standout for the Mustangs, with several tackles and two quarterback sacks.

In five games to date, Bovina has outscored their opponents, 106-13 in the second half.

Strake Talk

FROM YOUR NEXT LT. GOVERNOR

This may be my last column in this series. We began this column ten weeks ago, hoping it would be a success. And judging from the response of the readers, I would call it an unqualified success. The mail has been very favorable. The columns that drew the most response were those dealing with education of our children, the property tax issue, and the issue of Mr. Hobby raising funds for the ACLU to use in that organization's crusade against prayer in schools and in defense of pornographers.

I have made a point in these columns that Texans need a Lt. Governor who is in touch with the people he is supposed to serve. Mr. Hobby is clearly out of touch with the thinking of Texans, and, in my opinion ought to be retired.

Mr. Hobby's lack of understanding can be illustrated: Texans are overwhelmingly in favor of President Reagan's efforts to transfer power and responsibility back to the states. I agree that Texans can do a better job for Texas than Washington can. Mr. Hobby disagrees. The vast majority of Texans do not believe they ought to be forced to pay for the education of the children of illegal aliens. I have compassion for these children—but I must confess that I care more for Texans who are faced with the burden of supporting their own children in hard economic times. Mr. Hobby disagrees. Most Texans think our Right to Work law should be incorporated in the Texas constitution. I agree here, too. But Mr. Hobby disagrees and has fought the effort. The list goes on and on.

The problem with continuing my column is a simple one—money. We originally budgeted for ten columns, and we have now reached that point in our budget. If we are successful in raising more campaign funds, you are likely to see more columns. I hope so, for this seems to be a good way to get the issues to the people.

These columns are needed. Without them Mr. Hobby will clearly avoid the issues and seek to confuse us with 30-second TV commercials created by his image builders. If you would like to see these columns continue and would like to help in that regard, please send your contribution. If you can't make a contribution, I assure you that your opinion will be equally important. Please write to me at Texans for Strake, 1213 W. 34th, Austin 78705. Let's keep in touch.

Around The House

By LAURA JACOBS
 Nutrient density is an important consideration when choosing foods and planning meals.

Nutrient density is a food's nutrient content—how much nutrition it provides—as compared to the number of calories it contains.

To determine nutrient density of a food, compare its number of calories for one serving with the amount of nutrients, such as vitamins and minerals.

Foods with low nutrient density have many calories and few nutrients. To get enough nutrients from these foods requires large quantities of them—at a high-calorie cost.

On the other hand, foods with high nutrient densities supply significant amounts of several nutrients—and relatively few calories.

Low nutrient-density items include high-sugar and high-fat foods, such as soft drinks and chips.

High nutrient-density items are watery, fibrous foods such as vegetables, which are low in sugar and fat.

To get the most nutrition at the lowest calorie cost, remember these food facts: Instant meals made in a cup or bowl may not contribute much protein or vitamins A and C because they contain only small amounts of meat and vegetables.

Usually, plain foods are less expensive, have fewer calories and contain more nutrients than those with rich sauces.

Foods with the highest percentages of U.S. RDA are not always the best selection, because a food with a high percentage of a certain nutrient improves a diet only if the diet is short in that nutrient.
