SEPARATE DEPARTMENTS FOR
BANKING AND INSURANCE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 25.—The work of drawing up a bill providing for the separation of the State Banking and Insurance Department was begun here today at a meeting of the legislative committee of Texas insurance men. The committee was appointed by John M. Scott, deputy state insurance commissioner, and includes 12 insurance representatives.

Said a Mouthful

During war time a lady went into a meat market and asked for 15 cents worth of porterhouse steak. The butcher replied: "Madam, you said a mouthful."

Of course the butcher was sarcastic and not any too polite. If we desired to "say a mouthful" to the people of this community it would be condensed into the statement that the dollar saved and deposited at our Bank will prove one of the best friends you can make in a life time. Just try it and see.

PEDDY FORCES LOSE IN U. S. COURT

New Orleans, Oct. 24.—The name of George E. B. Paddy, fusionist nominee for United States senator from Texas, will not be printed on the ballot in the November elections, under a decision handed down late yesterday by the federal judge sitting in the case here.

The court held that it was without jurisdiction to grant the relief requested by the Paddy faction, which urged that the court force the secretary of state of Texas to print Paddy's name on the ballot.

NO VERDICT YET

Corsicana, Texas, Oct. 25.—The jury in the injunction case seeking to keep the name of Earle B. Mayfield off the democratic ticket as a candidate for United States senator resumed its deliberations this morning. There was no indication as to when a verdict might be returned.

No decision had been reached at noon.

UP TO SUPREME COURT

Austin, Texas, Oct. 25.—The hearing on the injunction suit against Secretary of State Staples seeking to prevent him from certifying the name of Earle B. Mayfield as the democratic candidate for senator was expected to get under way in the Supreme Court shortly before noon today. Luther Nickels is here to represent George E. B. Paddy, the republican candidate, and E. B. Trammell is representing Mayfield.

That an injunction suit such as that seeking to keep Mayfield's name off the ballot must be joined by a county or district attorney or by the state was the chief contention of Trammell in the opening argument this morning. He declared it could not be brought by a private citizen, and urged that the motion to stay the Corsicana proceedings be granted.

Assistant Attorney General Sutton declared a district court is without authority to restrain the secretary of state or local election boards.

Nickels upheld the constitutionality of Section 9, Chapter 88, of the Laws of 1919 concerning primary elections. He said it converted political rights into legal rights which may be litigated by interested parties.

U. S. REPRESENTED IN GREAT OIL INTERESTS

London, Oct. 24.—Arrangements for American oil interests to be represented jointly by Franco-British companies in Mesopotamia are being completed. The oil concessions were formerly owned by German and British concerns, but the German interests were later transferred to the French. Americans obtained interest through scaling down Franco-British shares.

500 NEW POLICEMEN

Chicago, Oct. 24.—Five hundred new policemen will be added to Chicago's police force this week. Chief of Police Charles Fitzmorris announced Sunday, bringing the total to 6,100 patrolmen, the largest force in the city's history.

BOYS AND "SLUNGSHOTS"

Corsicana, Texas, Oct. 21.—Talmadge Vandiver, 16, son of A. S. Vandiver, while flipping a pin with a rubber band at the high school Thursday, stuck the pin in his right eye and the attending physician says that in all probability the sight of the eye has been destroyed.

The above should serve as a warning to many boys in Nacogdoches who persist in making trouble for others with their "slungshots" or "nigger-shooters". Complaint has reached us that several little girls at school have been injured by shots from these weapons in the hands of thoughtless boys. It is against the law to have these "flippers" in one's possession, and some child may lose an eye or sustain other serious injury unless the practice is stopped.

FREEZE IS REPORTED

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 24.—The first freezing weather of the winter was reported yesterday from Northwest Texas. Light rain fell elsewhere in Texas Sunday night.

WORLD'S CHAMPION STOCK JUDGES ARE IN A. & M.

College Station, Texas, Oct. 23.—Three out of four of the members of the team that won the International Championship Livestock Judging at Atlanta, Georgia, in the fall of 1920 and toured Europe the following summer as a reward for their accomplishments are students of the animal husbandry course of the A. & M. College of Texas this year. Those who are entered here are Alva Debnam, Lamesa; Jack Turard of Hillsboro and Gordon Gillespie, Coleman. Gilbert Weiting of Marlin is the fourth member of the team, who is not in A. & M.

Also many others who have been engaged in the Boys' Club work under the direction of the Extension service of the college are freshmen of the college and as all of these young men have had similar training to that of the boys who represented the state in the international contest the college has excellent material for turning out one of the best agricultural classes in the history of the college four years from now. These young men are excellent prospects for the college team that represents Texas at the Inter-Collegiate contest held in Chicago each winter in connection with the international livestock exposition. Texas A. & M. college has won twice over the teams of the leading colleges and universities of the United States and Canada. The first time was in 1913 and the second time in 1919. When the huge bronze bull trophy is won three times by the same institution it becomes the permanent property of that institution. Two institutions, Texas A. & M. College and Purdue University, have won the present trophy twice.

He will make the race in place of Frank G. Robinson, who resigned both from the office and the race last week after he had been arrested in connection with the killing of Fred Roberts. W. J. Cody was named by the commissioners court to fill out Robinson's unexpired term.

TO EUROPE FOR LUNCHEON. BACK HOME FOR DINNER

Selridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich., Oct. 23.—"It soon will be possible for a business man in New York to leave at 6 o'clock in the morning, arrive in London or other European metropolis in time for lunch, transact business there and return before dark," declared Brigadier General William Mitchell, assistant chief of the army air service, and holder of the world's record for speed, prior to his departure for the East.

General Mitchell predicted that within a comparatively short time a flying machine will be developed which will hurl through space at the speed of 500 miles an hour, capable of carrying half a dozen passengers and their baggage.

Only one barrier now remains between this achievement and success and that is the inability to perfect a device which will supply sufficient oxygen to pilot and passengers.

SIX-YEAR-OLD BOY PREACHES SERMON

Baltimore, Oct. 24.—Newton W. Hastings, Salisbury, Md., 6 years old, Sunday conducted services in the St. Paul's Methodist Protestant church. The youthful preacher is a son of Paul Hastings of Salisbury. For the last six months he has been speaking before congregations in Salisbury and nearby towns.

His father says that the boy has had no Biblical instruction other than the Bible stories and passages which have been read to him in his home and at Sunday school.

WAY OF TRANSGRESSOR

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 24.—Victor Innes, suspected of complicity in the unsolved disappearance from San Antonio, Texas, of Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis, today was released from prison after serving seven years and was immediately rearrested by federal authorities on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

Innes has been serving a term on a charge of larceny after trust in connection with funds of the Nelms sisters. The sisters disappeared about eight years ago. Trial was attempted in Texas, but inability to produce the corpus delicti caused the case to be ruled out of court. Innes was a Portland (Ore.) lawyer.

OPEN PORT LAW INVOKED

Austin, Texas, Oct. 23.—Governor Neff this morning issued a proclamation placing the entire city of Marshall under the open port law. The order is effective at noon today.

ARMY PLANE OFFICER CAUGHT WITH WHISKEY

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 23.—According to an authentic report that reached Laredo Sunday morning, customs forces and a United States marshal from Laredo at a point 50 miles north of this city seized a United States army airplane which was in the act of taking on a cargo of Mexican booze in the chaparral and took into custody an army officer whose name is not given, and his mechanic. The officer, mechanic and booze were brought to Laredo and the airplane is held in the aviation field hangar here.

This is the first time that an army airplane, piloted by an army officer, has been seized here for violation of the prohibition laws and censational developments are expected. There were 10 to 15 sacks of booze in the seizure.

SHERIFF CANDIDATE SELECTED AT CORPUS

Corpus Christi, Texas, Oct. 24.—The Nueces County democratic committee Monday afternoon, sitting in special session, nominated H. B. Johnson, prominent stock farmer and capitalist, for the office of sheriff.

He will make the race in place of Frank G. Robinson, who resigned both from the office and the race last week after he had been arrested in connection with the killing of Fred Roberts. W. J. Cody was named by the commissioners court to fill out Robinson's unexpired term.

TO CONNECT WITH PAVING

From the Lufkin News, 21st.
The county commissioners court of Angelina county has agreed to connect the Lufkin-Nacogdoches highway up on the north end of the paving on North First street. This statement was made The Daily News by City Manager C. N. Humason, who added that the county commissioners were simply waiting until a contract could be closed with the H. E. & W. T. railway on tunneling under the railway tracks just outside the city.

This plan of the county officials is to run the road to Nacogdoches under the Southern Pacific tracks at a point just about 100 yards outside the city limits. A written contract with the railroad is necessary for this and both the railroad and the county commissioners are waiting until the terms of the contract are agreed to and drawn up in writing.

The tunneling under the railroad (trestle) is on the right side outside the city limits. The portion of road that the county commissioners will grade to the city paving is estimated to be near a half a mile in length. This work will remove one of the worst portions on the road between Lufkin and Nacogdoches.

ANOTHER ONE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 23.—Henry Young of Waco, announced candidate for United States senator by the State's Rights Democratic Party, announced here today that he will file action in the federal court at Waco within a few days to compel the secretary of state to certify his name as a senatorial candidate. The State Supreme Court recently denied a motion by Young for permission to file mandamus proceedings.

INVESTIGATING HOLOCAUST

New York, Oct. 23.—Two separate inquiries were launched today into the origin of the fire early yesterday in which fifteen lives were lost, seventeen persons injured and 150 made homeless. The fire marshal is in charge of one and an assistant district attorney another. The fire is thought to have started under a stairway in a five-story tenement.

GINNING REPORT

Washington, Oct. 25.—Cotton ginned prior to October 18th amounted to 6,962,034 bales, the Census Bureau announced today. Ginnings prior to October 18th last year amounted to 5,497,264 running bales, Texas ginnings this year were 2,637,395; last year 1,738,558.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE FOR LIVESTOCK SHOW

Those who are in charge of the Purebred Livestock Show to be held here Saturday, November 18, state that it is going to be by far the biggest and best show yet held by this organization.

The commissioners court has granted permission to hold the show on the vacant lot south of the courthouse, and also to use the vacant space surrounding the courthouse, as well as the basement of the building. This insures ample room for all kinds of livestock. The grounds will be cleaned up and plenty of pens and hitching posts will be provided, so that all show animals will be safe from danger and yet will be within easy reach of all visitors.

Standard, uniform pens for hogs will be furnished by the show. These pens will be made in sections, so that they can be set up to fit any requirement. Loading and unloading racks of sufficient size and weight will be ready for each load of hogs, so that there will be no unnecessary work or worry in unloading.

All poultry will be exhibited in standard pens by the show.

You are urged to begin now to get your stuff in shape for this exhibit. Don't worry about whether the other fellow is going to win with his or her exhibit, but get your own stuff in shape and let us know how much space you will require.

We will be glad to provide all the space you need.

OHIO LANDLORD BARS CHILDLESS TENANTS

Lorain, Ohio, Oct. 24.—U. G. Dewell, purchaser of eight houses formerly owned by the Emergency Fleet Corporation, Monday announced that he would not rent them to families without children.

"I'll do better than that," Dewell said. "To each baby born in my houses I will give a $5 savings account."

Dewell said he was prompted to make this offer because he had read an advertisement offering houses for rent at $2 per month less to families without children than with.

"That does not give the kiddies a show," he said.

BOOZE MUST GO

New York, Oct. 23.—Federal Judge Hand today handed down a decision dismissing the motion of foreign and American steamship companies for a permanent injunction restraining federal prohibition agents from putting into effect the bone-dry ruling of Attorney General Daugherty. He extended the stay temporarily, however, providing the steamship companies file an immediate appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Judge Hand's decision in favor of the government on all points. His decision was rendered on the specific matter of the application of foreign lines for an injunction protecting from seizure ships carrying liquor under seal on the east-bound voyage from the United States.

DR. LYMAN ABBOTT DEAD

New York, Oct. 23.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor in chief of the Outlook, died yesterday as the result of an attack of bronchitis he contracted several months ago. He was 86 years of age.

Dr. Abbott returned to this city two weeks ago from Cornwall, Conn., where he had been in ill health all summer. His condition at that time was reported as much better, but several days ago he suffered a relapse and a complication of diseases.

Dr. Abbott succeeded Henry Ward Beecher as pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church in Brooklyn and was known throughout the country as an author, preacher and authority on legal affairs. He was a great friend of Theodore Roosevelt and created a sensation 10 years ago when he offered him $1 a word for everything he would write.

SCHOOL MATES REUNITED

Temple, Texas, Oct. 21.—After a separation of 40 years during which time they resided within 35 miles of one another, Mrs. Emma Herrod of Temple and Mrs. Sophia Fink of Marlin met in Marlin recently. The meeting was accidental. The two were schoolmates in 1882.

AMERICAN LIVING STANDARDS

The American people are paying more for housing, clothing, food and amusements than they did before the World War. Comparative figures just made public show they are paying 35 percent more for housing, 30 percent more for clothing, 21 percent more for food, and almost double what they did for amusements. These figures do not merely indicate expenditure for they also represent better values, better quality hence higher living standards.

During the period of intensive production immediately following the commencement of the World War, the housing problem became acute. States had been enforcing laws intended to improve sanitary and other conditions of renting properties, and these laws, especially in the large cities had eliminated many tenements thereby forcing renters to secure higher priced properties. Eliminated properties were improved to meet the war demand and were used so long as industrial activity continued. With the slackening of production, however, these were again vacated and are for rent, millions of dollars having in the meantime been invested in modern apartments and tenements. Building operations still continue, there having been invested in building construction for the first eight months of 1922 $2,382,872,000 of which 31 percent was for houses.

War conditions affected wearing apparel. A trade journal recently said: "Never before have so great values both of material and workmanship gone into both ready-made and custom-made clothing, in proportion to price paid for the one and wages for the other—both men and women are wearing better clothes." Again, higher wages have had much to do with the change brought about, a change so complete at many lines of cheap clothing have been entirely discontinued and are represented only by hold-over stock in retail stores. What is true of garments is also true of millinery, and boots and shoes.

While increased transportation costs since the war have enhanced the prices of food commodities, especially those of meats, and early fruits and vegetables, consumption of the same has largely increased. More than 40 percent of foodstuffs consumed are now transported from producer to consumer, an increase of nearly 65 percent in the last ten years. It may be true that producers are not getting for their products anywhere near a fair price, but it is also true that the prices charged by retailers do not prevent these products being used as necessities rather than luxuries in families of average incomes. Whether or not these products really constitute better food, that is, food better suited to sustain life, may be an open question; still the fact remains that the average life is 1.4 years longer than it was a decade ago, according to life insurance tables.

The people are playing more today than ever before. This may be partly reaction from the strenuous days of the war period and partly due to increased average incomes. According to theatrical journals they are spending every week more than $60,000,000 for amusements, not including the cost of operating nearly 10,000,000 pleasure automobiles. Such an amount seems all out of proportion to deposits in national banks amounting to $18,000,000,000, and in savings institutions totalling $14,000,000,000, yet it is only $31.20 per capita per year. But it is large when ten years ago the per capita was only $19.60. Possibly the richest nation on earth can well afford this expenditure and possibly so much play has a great deal to do with the longevity of its people.

Granted that the living standards today are a little "inflated," that they are a little higher than they should be, income and expenditures considered, there is no disputing the fact that they are better indicative of American conditions than those before the war were. The distinct and permanent advance in housing, clothing, and food more exactly comports with the social and political status of the American people, and conforms more readily to their economic opportunities. Why there is no reason for believing there will be retrogression so long as the business stability and industrial peace. In these matters the humblest citizen is frequently more interested than he is aware, a fact which argues strongly for more intelligent consideration of industrial controversies, for the people largely create conditions under which they live.

Certain it is that one lesson of the World War should not be overlooked and that is work and work alone creates wealth—labor to produce and thrift to save. While larger income permits better living, it must be maintained to continue higher standards attained. There must also be proper balance between work and play, and amusements must not be at the expense of necessities. Withal there must be equitable division of the profits of production to the end that all enjoy higher standards and cooperate in maintaining them.

Several states will hold referenda on the sale of wine and beer at the coming election. These expressions of popular will are promoted by those in opposition to the eighteenth amendment. It is well understood that of themselves the verdicts, whatever they may be, will have no legal effect but should the votes show a majority of assent in favor of loosening the restrictions of the Volstead law it is hoped by the sponsors that they will have a moral influence on congressmen leading them to liberalize the alcoholic percentage.

SEEKING PUBLIC SENTIMENT

In Ohio the secretary of state refused to place on the ballot an initiated amendment providing for wine and beer. He took the ground that a referendum would be illegal because in conflict with the federal constitution. However, the supreme court in a mandamus proceedings orders the amendment submitted, the court holding that the secretary of state had no power to withhold a proposed constitutional amendment from the suffrage of the people when a petition in proper form and with the required number of signatures was filed with him. The court took the further view that it is not within the province of the secretary of state, the chief supervisor of elections, to pass on the constitutionality of an amendment. Naturally that function would lie upon the supreme court to pass on its constitutionality. Being in conflict with the federal constitution it might be held to be of no avail as it would not be in practice, so long as the Volstead law remains unaltered.

As far as Ohio is affected a liquor fight always insures a full vote. With few exceptions some phases of the liquor question has entered into Ohio elections annually for more than 30 years. In the earlier stages the "drys" were the aggressors and the "wets" were on the defensive. When the state voted "dry" a few years ago the positions were reversed and the "wets" became the attacking party. While the "wets" have been regular losers for a number of years they do not give up hope, though each defeat they have suffered has been greater than the preceding one. Whatever the result it is likely to find expression in a full vote and as such will be valuable in showing whether sentiment has changed. Such is the primary purpose of the movements.

LOYD GEORGE GOES OUT

From the Houston Chronicle. After one of the most dramatic careers in British history, and after maintaining a nonpartisan coalition government for six stormy years, David Lloyd George tenders his resignation to make way, not so much for a new ministry as the return of old time politics.

With his downfall, the allied and associated governments complete the obiteration of their great war ministers. There isn't one left. Orlando, Clemenceau, Wilson, Lloyd George and a Jap whose name we forget, have all been shelved.

The Treaty of Versailles still stands, albeit in a tremulous, wavering, palsied sort of way, but those who signed it, those who sat in the great council, first of five and then of four, have lived to see the thumbs of the multitude go down.

Why is this thus? What did these men do, or fail to do, that they must taste the hemlock of public ingratitude? Who will take their places, and what policies will be substituted for those they shaped?

It is not so serious, but merely an unfolding of the usual human drama? Are we witnessing not a genuine repudiation of basic programs, but only the shifting sands of politics?

One wonders, hopelessly, as the throngs of men in every land mill and stampede. One wonders if it means much, or comparatively nothing; whether there is constructive purpose behind all the clamor and confusion, or whether it is naught but the old hunger for office manifesting itself.

We in America, who labor behind a rather rigid political machine, who have our written constitutions, our fixed dates for elections and our schedules for every kind of change, find it rather hard to understand how and why a government should go out of power overnight and practically without notice.

We are inclined to attach too much significance to such an event, since, after all, it is only a perfectly nat-ral consequence of the European method, or, in this instance, of the British method.

It is by tradition, rather than by law, that a British ministry resigns whenever it finds itself without the support of a majority in parliament. That is precisely what happened to Lloyd George even though parliament is not in actual session.

The present parliament, or more accurately, the present house of commons, is composed of 707 members. Of this number the "coalition" controlled something more than 500.

The "coalition" was composed mainly of liberals and conservatives, with the latter contributing a majority. When the conservatives, therefore, decided to withdraw and go it alone, the "coalition" ministry had no hope of mustering sufficient votes to remain. It merely quit while the quitting was good, and in the face of such circumstances as made quitting inevitable.

A. BONAR LAW

Andrew Bonar Law, who will be the new premier, is a Canadian by birth. He is a business man and carries the tactics of business with him into his political career. He was one of Lloyd George's five members of the war coalition cabinet and on two occasions as chancellor of the exchequer the house of commons voted him budgets of $3,500,000,000 and $3,250,000,000.

Mr. Bonar Law has always been noted for his firm stand on any question he took up. He was a determined opponent of the Irish republican movement and crossed swords with Lloyd George on the latter's proposal to resume trade relations with Soviet Russia. Of him former premier Asquith said: "I have for many years been engaged in giving and taking blows from Mr. Bonar Law, but they never left any rancor behind them." He was first elected to parliament from the Blackfriar division of Glasgow as a unionist. He was born in New Brunswick, Canada, in September, 1858.

If the arms reduction conference did nothing else, it at least evoked a beautiful speech from Mr. Hughes.

The brilliant suggestion to fingerprint everybody leads to the equally brilliant idea that each of us carry number plates front and rear.

Who Gets the Most For His Money?

THE fellow who buys haphazard—or the chap who put his every-day purchasing on a business basis?

The latter, of course. He is the one who reads the advertisements and discovers just where he can buy what he wants. He is the one who realizes the great value of advertising when it comes to the important business of spending his hard-earned money.

The well-informed shopper always has the advantage when it comes to stretching the dollars. And you can't possibly be up-to-date on the shopping news unless you make a practice of reading the advertisements.

The advertisements show you how to save money—and steps—and time. Watch them carefully.

Anything that increases your purchasing power is working hard for you.

Make the advertisements serve you well. Read them regularly

WHY NOT GET FUN OUT OF LIFE

Sinclair Lewis is right; a lot of Americans do not get enough fun out of life.

The young intellectuals challenge conventional life and thought because it is regimented and standardized. Davenport is put in front of fire-places, not because the owners want them there, but because other people have them put there. Mr. Babbitt installs a cigar lighter in his car, not because he thinks he gets fun out of a harmlessly glittering automobile accessory, but because he thinks it gives "class" to his machine. Doing things because other people do them, or doing them in sincerely to impress other people is one good way of leading a dull life.

Fun comes by being one's self. The exterior act should reflect the one within. The davenport is in its proper place when it is where you want it as a being living your own life; and not giving a fig for artificial mass standards. Golf is a good game if you play it because you like it. But it is a poor pastime if you find it but another way of doing what other people do. You might rather play marbles or hopscotch, if marbles or hopscotch better releases your fun instinct.

The remedy for much of which the young intellectuals complain lies in questioning ourselves as to why we do things. Have our opinions come to us ready made from our parents or from our environment, or have we thought things out for ourselves? Do we put cigar lighters in our cars for the convenience of cigar smokers or to acquire a sham "class"? Why not do more things, think more things, feel more things, that are really our own? That's one way to have fun.

Men want to make things and do things that reflect themselves. They want to create, in the spirit of play, things beautiful or odd or interesting. They get fun out of life to the extent in which the things they make or do reflect what they really are. But as long as the chief business of life lies in coming out better than our brothers in the competitive struggle the brighter business of making life interesting and creative must wait.

Seemingly in the New Jersey case everybody has been jailed except the detectives.

THE LOCAL PAPER

Speaking of what a newspaper does in a community the late United States Senator Davis, of Illinois, made an address in which he said:

"Every year each local paper gives from $200 to $1,000 in free lines to the city or town in which it is located, in boosting, praising and for lodges, churches, schools, societies, etc. The editor in proportion to his means, does more for the town than any other man in it, and he ought to be supported because a local paper is one of the town's best features. Today the local papers are doing more for less pay than anything on earth, and it's a fact in many cases of free notices."

TEACHERS ARE VICTIMS OF MAGAZINE SALESMAN FRAUD

Palestine, Texas, Oct. 21.—Several Palestine school teachers were victimized here by a young man claiming to be agent for several well-known magazines and offering club rates, collecting as high as $5 from some of the teachers.

One of the teachers had only $1 with her, which the agent took and told her she could mail the balance to "the house," which she did that evening. She received a letter yesterday from the publishing house, stating that they had no representative on the road; that her letter was only one of many that had been received from different towns, and asking for a description of the young man.

STATE WIDE SALE OF POPPIES NOVEMBER 11

Plans for the annual state-wide sale on Armistice Day, November 11, by all units of the Texas department of the American Legion Auxiliary have been sent out to units of the auxiliary from state headquarters at Austin. It is expected the sale will be the most successful ever held by the state department, according to Miss Ada May Maddox, state secretary.

Proceeds from the sale of poppies on November 11 will be divided equally between the state department and the local units according to an announcement from state headquarters there. It is expected at the state office two-thirds will be appropriated to the state hospital fund to carry on the auxiliary work for disabled former service patients in hospitals, and the remainder will go to establish a state welfare fund. The welfare funds is designed to assist disabled veterans outside of hospitals.

The executive committee of the Texas auxiliary has authorized local units to choose between Armistice Day and Memorial Day for poppy sales. Blue and gold, and crimson poppies will be sold on Armistice Day. Directions also have been sent out to units on ordering poppies, which should be done by October 31, it was stated.

Last year approximately $7,000 was raised by poppy sale, according to State Secretary Maddox. It is the aim of the state department to increase receipts this year above the high mark of last.

"Slimy Taste"

"When I feel stupid, get constipated, or bilious, I take a good dose or two of Black-Draught and it sets me straight," writes Mr. George B. Haislep, of R. F. D. 2, Columbia, S. C. "It cleanses the liver and I feel all right, and have not used any other medicine as I do not see the need of it. I am a guard at the State Reformatory, and have been for three or more years. When I first heard of

BLACK-DRAUGHT

and the good medicine it was, I had been having a tired feeling when I'd get up in the morning. I would be stiff and sore, and had a slimy, bad taste in my mouth, but didn't think so much of it till I began to feel stupid and didn't feel like eating—then I knew I needed medicine. It was then I began Black-Draught, and I felt all made over, ready for any kind of work, ready to eat and sleep. So, for any return of this trouble, I take Black-Draught, and for 25 years it has been my medicine, and I wouldn't be without it at all. My work is constant. I am on my feet a lot. I am out of doors, and fresh air and Black-Draught are all the medicines I need. I recommend it to others for I know it is good."

TO BEGIN BALLASTING T. & N. O. RIGHT-OF-WAY

The Dallas Evening Journal of October 6 stated that the Southern Railway would spend $200,000 in ballasting the right of way of the T. & N. O. between Dallas and Beaumont. Work on the job to commence right away according to the Journal. Concerning the work the Journal says:

The Southern Pacific Railway will spend $200,000 ballasting the right of way of the T. & N. O. tracks between Dallas and Beaumont during the next eight months, it was announced Friday by A. R. Atkinson, division passenger and freight agent of the Southern Pacific.

The tracks will be ballasted with a preparation known as burnt ballast, consisting of lignite and black clay. The total stretch is more than 280 miles long. Work will begin immediately and will be completed some time next year.

The tracks are now ballasted with gravel and dirt. The preparation of lignite and clay is made at plants operated at Kaufman and Timpson. The burnt ballast has a high absorption power and has been tested out on many railway lines in the Southwest, and found successful.

JUSTICE WILL RESIGN

Washington, Oct. 21.—Associate Justice William R. Day of the Supreme Court has decided definitely to resign from the bench in view of his duties as umpire in the German Claims negotiations. He is expected to formally present his resignation as justice to President Harding early next week.

REORGANIZATION APPROVED

Washington, Oct. 21.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today approved plans for the reorganization of the International & Great Northern Railroad in Texas and authorized the new corporation to issue $44,150,000 at par value in stocks and bonds. The proceeds will be applied to the interest charge of $2,199,000, which the system must meet annually. The reorganized company will acquire ownership of the Austin Dam Suburban railroad and the Galveston, Houston and Henderson road. The commission estimated the property will be able to maintain its solvency from earnings.

YOUNG LADY OF JOAQUIN MEETS HORRIBLE DEATH

A special dispatch from Joaquin, Shelby county, under date of the 17th, inst., contains the following account of a heart-breaking tragedy.

Miss Uble Trammel, age 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Trammel of this vicinity, was burned to death at Haynesville, La. The accident occurred at an early hour Saturday morning while the family were in the kitchen preparatory to getting breakfast. Deceased intended to catch the early morning train for her Texas home, and in the rush to prepare quick breakfast, the fire failing to burn, Mr. Dock Wiggins, brother-in-law, in whose home she was visiting, took a bucket and filled it with crude oil, pouring it into the stove, not seeing the few live coals that lurked beneath. The flames shot upward, catching the bucket of oil on fire as he attempted to throw it out of the window. Miss Trammel, who was standing nearby, was struck and her clothing caught on fire, burning her terribly. She was rushed to an emergency hospital where she lived until Sunday morning. Death relieved her suffering at 7:30 o'clock. One hour after her parents had reached her bedside.

The body was shipped home for burial, which occurred Monday afternoon in the family burying ground near Old Fellowship in this vicinity. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends attended the funeral.

Deceased was a niece of Mrs. J. C. Brooks of this place. A beautiful girl and much loved on account of her sweet disposition.

One of the saddest notes of the story is that she was to have been married today (Tuesday) to Mr. Carl Lewis, one of the home boys, and who is utterly crushed by the sad blow. For this event a homecoming of the children had been planned and a general family reunion.

The sympathy of the town and community are extended to the bereaved.

ACTION POSTPONED

Owing to the widespread prevalence of the dengue, the good roads meeting scheduled for 10 o'clock Thursday morning was slimly attended, but few delegates being present. A number of visitors were at the meeting, being urged by its importance, but after a brief discussion it was decided to postpone the conference until the present epidemic has subsided, no specific date being fixed. A call will be made as soon as it is considered feasible to secure a full and representative attendance.

The following gentlemen were present:

John D. Matthews, Wes Boatman, Will Weatherly, C. B. Watkins, T. J. Carl, L. J. Chisum, T. A. Neil, W. P. Norton, G. F. Partin, T. M. Stewart, N. G. Hargis, M. D. Blanton, W. L. Surnaman, J. F. SADIE MOONEY

Sadie, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Mooney of Frost-Johnson mill, passed away Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and was laid to rest in the Oak Grove cemetery Thursday evening at 4:30 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. George Parks, pastor of the Christian church. It was a beautiful service, in which he pointed out the way to the dear one left behind that they may some day join little Sadie in that home of eternal rest, where sad partings will be no more.

Sadie's earthly life was short, the being thirteen years, seven months and six days old. She was a sweet child, winning the love of all who knew her by her kind, gentle way. She leaves a father, mother, three brothers and a host of relations and friends to mourn their loss.

But God knows best. Grieve not, dear ones!

Little Sadie has gone to eternal rest.

SCIENCE TO THE RESCUE

From the Houston Chronicle.

Who has not been thrilled by the story of how the passengers and crew of the City of Honolulu were saved—saved to the last man, and under circumstances which would have made rescue well nigh impossible 25 years ago.

She was steaming along in the midst of a vast ocean, 1405 from Honolulu and 670 miles from Los Angeles, with an unbroken horizon on every hand.

There was the smell of smoke, the feel of heat, and afterward the rushing about of officers and the clanging of bulkheads. Tons of water are poured into her hold until she lists, but still the smoke and heat grow more intense.

It is fire gnawing at her vitals, and sufficient water to quench it would sink her.

A generation ago and despair would have reigned supreme. A generation ago and her complement of 217 human beings would have thought of little but preparing to die bravely, with some near-miracle as their only hope of relief.

Up in his cubbyhole sits the wireless operator, a comparative novice of the sea, but knowing how to send forth those crackling sparks which an Italian first discovered.

The call for help goes forth in every direction, and answering voices come out of the air. Half a dozen ships are turned toward the point of danger and made to plough forward under forced draft. Half a dozen captains stand on their bridges, tense and alert; half a dozen engineers tune up their machines to the highest possible efficiency; half a dozen gangs of stokers sweat before roaring boilers—all willingly, all cheerfully.

A generation ago these captains, engineers and stokers would have been just as willing, just as ready to help, but they wouldn't have known how, wouldn't have heard the call, wouldn't have been able to answer.

What an inspiration it must have been to those threatened people on that doomed ship; what a source of courage in their hour of peril, to hear voices from out of the air, to know that hundreds of strong arms and giant machines were working for their rescue.

They took to the boats, not in desperation, but with hope. They waited patiently, knowing that within a few hours they would behold smoke on the horizon.

And what made all this possible? Science.

Science is our best friend; ignorance our worst enemy.

Give us liberty to think and we shall be strong; not only strong but kinder. Give us liberty to think, to pioneer, to experiment, and we shall achieve wonders.

A joy-killer rises to remark that the ukelele is not of Hawaiian origin and that the kimono is unknown in Japan. It is still believed, however, that they have ice in the Arctic.

OIL FIELD SEEMS TO BE OPENED UP

From the Lufkin News, 20th. Indications point to the fact that Lufkin's oil field has opened up. The developments at the well on the Henderson lands near Ewing seems to warrant this assertion, according to those who have been on the ground. It has been established that a good grade of oil has been found.

H. C. Jennings, who is the operator from twenty to twenty-five barrels of oil per day. One of his drillers, who has had extensive experience in the coastal fields around Houston and Humble, states that the Angelina county well should produce even more. Later estimates from parties who had visited the scene of operation bring estimates of a 30-barrel well.

Progressively the reports seem to have gotten better as they come in one after another. The well is about fifteen miles distant from Lufkin. It is in Angelina county and that means much to the oil industry in this section.

for a revival of faith in the oil possibilities of Angelina. Not that any one in particular was discouraged, but that the developments give those in touch with the situation something very tangible to work on.

There have been men working on oil propositions for some time in Angelina county and they were men who were not easily discouraged. Geologic formations, soil strata and everything else, seemingly, pointed to the fact that there must be some oil in close proximity to Lufkin.

The oil on the Henderson lands was found by Mr. Jennings and his crew at 530 feet. It is a shallow well, but a promising one. In one of the usual tests a few days ago the oil was found. It was not known at first just what the extent of the discovery was and for that reason those connected with the operation were wont to be modest in the premises.

Now it is their friends, business men of Lufkin who have viewed the grounds and showings, who come back with stories of true and apparently well founded optimism. Tests had subsequent to the first report on the well confirm the hopes of all and, it seems, has developed the well far beyond first expectations.

Samples of the oil are in the possession of some of the Lufkin business men and it speaks for itself. There is oil in the above mentioned holdings, and its discovery is no guarded secret. Parties of men have been going to the well almost every day and each group of men come back confirmed in their belief in the future substantial production of the Jennings well. Mr. Jennings stated that he hopes to have the well actually producing under pump by some time next week. It was also announced that other wells would be put down in the immediate future.

ADMITS WAS KU KLUX

Corsicana, Texas, Oct. 21.—Earle B. Mayfield, democratic candidate for the United States senate, admitted he once was a member of the Ku Klux Klan when questioned on the witness stand in the litigation here which seeks to keep his name off the ballot. He said he joined at Austin, but resigned in January when he announced as a candidate for the senate. He said he had attended meetings at Dallas, Gainesville, Longview and Aransas Pass. Mayfield denied that he had ever asked Mike McNamara to swear falsely in the present case, and denied McNamara's testimony that Mayfield had asked McNamara to swear he did not send money to Mayfield.

The attorney for Mayfield asked that the case be withdrawn from the jury and the jury dismissed, just before the noon recess. He charged that one man on the jury had expressed an opinion unfavorable to Mayfield.

MAYFIELD MUDDLE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 21.—A motion asking the Supreme Court to order the Corsicana District Court to stay its hearings in the Mayfield injunction case until after the Supreme Court has passed on the appeal from the temporary injunction was filed in the Supreme Court by David B. Trammel, attorney for Mayfield, today. Conflicting jurisdiction is alleged. Trammel also filed a motion to advance the Supreme Court hearing.

NACOGDOCHES BOY IS CHOSEN CLASS PRESIDENT

Waxahachie, Texas, Oct. 21.—At the student elections held at Trinity University last week, John Charles Johnson of Nacogdoches was elected to the presidency of the freshman class for the first three months' term. This is the largest class in the school as over a hundred and fifty out of an enrollment of three hundred and fifty are first year students.

John Charles, or "Nacogdoches" as he is familiarly called by the students, was also successful in making the Glee Club this year. This is considered quite an unusual honor as there are very few Freshmen in the club. Last year there were only two first-year students who had the ability and initiative to make this organization. Each spring the Glee Club makes a week tour, under the direction of Clark Leaming, dean of the Conservatory of Music. It is expected that Johnson will be one of the students to make this trip.

Student self-government is being installed in Trinity. The boys dormitory, Beeson Hall, has a separate council, composed of officers elected from the students staying at the hall and two boys from each class. Johnson and Claude Robert Willis of San Antonio are the freshmen representatives on this council.

Although the only representative from this thriving East Texas city, Johnson is doing much to bring Nacogdoches before the students of Trinity.

TERRY'S TEXAS RANGERS AGAIN HEADED BY MCGEE

Austin, Texas, Oct. 21.—At the closing session of the fifty-first annual reunion of the Terry's Texas Rangers Association Thursday, Major George T. McGee of San Marcos was re-elected president of the association and at his request two women were elected vice presidents, being Mrs. W. T. Wroe of Austin and Mrs. William Owens of Elgin. T. M. Rector of Manor also was elected a vice president. T. H. Davis of Austin was elected secretary-treasurer and Rev. W. R. Minter of Austin chaplain.

The date and place of the next annual reunion will be announced later by the president. The reunion, although attended by less than a dozen members of the remnant of this famous regiment, was voted a success.

BRITISH POLITICS

London, Oct. 21.—It is generally accepted as definitely settled that Lord Curzon will remain secretary for foreign affairs in the new cabinet and thus will represent Great Britain at the Turkish peace conference. All political parties welcome the prospect of an immediate general election. The Conservatives feel it would strengthen the administration if it were able to get a mandate from the country.

ADDRESSES GREAT MEETING

Leeds, England, Oct. 21.—Former Premier Lloyd George spoke at a great meeting of Coalition Liberals here this afternoon. He declared the banner of party strife had been pointed at the recent meeting of Conservatives which voted against continuing the coalition. He said it was for the people to decide whether party or nation came first. He said he stood for the people, and launched a vigorous defense of his administration.

Stella Vitae Arouses Intense Interest Here

OUR DOCTORS

Now that our homes are being visited by sickness, suffering and sometimes even death, our hearts should be filled with love and appreciation for the good doctors of our town.

Few men work so faithfully and receive so little real, heartfelt appreciation and sympathy. Recently I heard a minister say that it was easy enough for God's people to love and trust Him when they were well and happy and prosperous, but it was an entirely different thing when everything went dead wrong. Should we not be faithful at all seasons?

Friends, is not this thing sometimes true of our attitude towards our doctors? Are we as appreciative as we should be for their untiring efforts? It is easy enough to be grateful when all goes well and our loved ones are restored to us, which cannot always be. But when death thwarts every faithful effort, the doctor has put forth (and he has been more faithful, more vitally interested and more hurt over the loss than you in your sorrow can realize), are you so wrapped in your own grief that you become hard and selfish toward him who would be your friend, even to that extent that you say cruel hurtful things about him, unkind and untrue?

Do you not know that no loved one in all the world would have tasted death had the power been given man to save life every time?

And these same good men who answer our calls day and night, rain or shine, deserve the best we have to give. They are true to us in season and out of season. They need our love and appreciation even as we need them. Let us think on these things.

WARNING ON CANCER

Cancer is not hereditary, nor is it communicable. Yet the disease is one dreaded universally, and with cause. For cancer takes a life toll of 90,000 in the United States yearly. Much of this, by proper education, can be avoided.

The medical organizations of the country are alive to the situation. In the week beginning November 12 a

Women by the Hundreds Are Flocking Into the Drug Stores to Obtain a Supply of the Preparation That Has Been Accomplishing Such Remarkable Results in Restoring Health and Beauty and Happiness to the Weak and Suffering.

Few announcements in many years have caused such wide-spread interest among the women of Texas and surrounding sections that made recently regarding Stella Vitae, the preparation that is accomplishing such remarkable results in the "Female Troubles."

Women by the hundreds, many of them showing plainly the effects of their miserable suffering, are visiting the local drug stores and investigating the Stella Vitae treatment. Rich and poor alike, they are taking advantage of the opportunity of regaining their normal health, strength and beauty by obtaining a supply of this vegetable preparation.

Druggists here have sufficient quantity of the Stella Vitae treatment on hand to meet the present enormous demand, but it is not known how long before their stocks will be temporarily exhausted. For that reason local women are advised to act quickly, in order that they may begin the treatment immediately and determine for themselves whether or not Stella Vitae will benefit them as it has so many thousands of their sisters.

The trial is made easy for any woman, because the interests behind the distribution of Stella Vitae have placed the treatment within the reach of every suffering woman, no matter what her circumstances or station in life. Through the liberal money-back guarantee no charge is made if the patient is not benefited.

As a result of this unusual policy, any suffering woman may obtain Stella Vitae and if she does not feel improved after taking the first bottle, the druggist who supplied her will cheerfully refund the purchase price.

This straightforward offer in connection with the distribution of Stella Vitae is made by the Thacher Laboratories in order that no woman suffering from the troubles peculiar to her sex will be denied possible relief. It is not claimed that the Stella Vitae treatment will overcome any woman's disease. It may be that in some cases no medicine will bring relief. Others may need to resort to surgical treatment, but reports from widely scattered sections have already shown that in the majority of cases of women afflicted with what is commonly called "Female Diseases," Stella Vitae does have a wonderfully beneficial effect in relieving the suffering and restoring the patient to normal health, strength, weight and natural beauty.

And it is with the desire of aiding the countless thousands of weak, thin run-down, haggard looking women of America in their suffering, rather than the accumulation of enormous profits, that the Thacher Laboratories are making such wide-spread distribution of Stella Vitae.

It is therefore the positive duty of every suffering woman, not only to herself, but to her loved ones and her present and future children as well, to take advantage of this opportunity to become the normally healthy woman, both in feeling and in appearance, that Nature intended her to be.

general education campaign, to instruct the public in the danger and cure of cancer, will be held. From a similar campaign last year great results were obtained.

Doctors are going about the work of reducing the number of cancer victims in a san and efficient way. Every aid should be given them.

A marriage partaking of the romantic, was solemnized in his office at 11 o'clock Sunday morning when Judge Huston officiated at the nuptials of Mr. A. Z. Skeeters of Lufkin and Miss Catherine Hodges of Appleby. The couple had been married before, but domestic differences occurred and they were divorced. The old love refused to die, however, even under this pitiless blow, and they were again drawn together. The groom is a son of Mr. John Skeeters, a well-known and popular resident of Appleby, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. Dan Hodges of the same community. The Sentinel hopes they may have a calm and happy voyage on the matrimonial sea.

Rev. George Crockett of San Augustine was visiting in the city Tuesday and it goes without saying that he received an affectionate welcome from all who met him. Mr. Crockett was formerly rector of the Episcopal church in this city, and no man of any denomination was ever so beloved by the people here, regardless of creed. His intellectual attainments made him a power for good and his human kindness endeared him to all. It is a pleasure and a privilege to have him visit us.

At his home at 8 o'clock Tuesday night Judge Huston solemnized the marriage of Mr. J. C. Sanders and Miss Exa B. Chestnut, both of Lufkin. It is said to have been an unusually beautiful wedding, and the contracting parties showed their happiness in their beaming faces. Being an enterprising business man, Mr. Sanders naturally wanted this important partnership confirmed in the best town in this territory. The Sentinel joins in wishing that all happiness and prosperity may be the portion of these newlyweds.

A Lufkin special to the Shreveport times under date of the 24th says: "Southbound Cotton Belt Passenger Train No. 401 and the log train of the Philip A. Ryan Lumber company, collided Monday mornin gat Pollok, 10 miles north of Lufkin. Several persons were injured, but no one was killed. Ten engineer of the log train jumped when he saw the passenger train swing around the curve just above Pollok and sustained severe bruises and sprains. The wreck was caused by the Cotton Belt train running without orders."

I will gin regularly every day until November 1st, and expect to be through and close down for the season on that date. Please bring your cotton in as fast as you can. W. J. Clevenger. 10-dwtf

"My Platform is the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States."
---George Peddy, Candidate for United States Senator

Help George Peddy to Rescue the Democratic Party and to Uphold the Constitution

The Constitution Versus Ku Kluxism

"No religious test should ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States."—Article VI, Constitution of the United States.

"In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and PUBLIC trial, by an IMPARTIAL JURY of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; TO BE CONFRONTED BY THE WITNESSES AGAINST HIM; TO HAVE COMPULSORY PROCESS FOR OBTAINING WITNESSES IN HIS FAVOR, AND TO HAVE THE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL FOR HIS DEFENSE."—Article VI of the first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States, submitted by the first Congress of the United States and ratified by the States.

"Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fine imposed, NOR CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENTS INFLICTED."—Article VIII of the first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

These are fundamental principles of our government, as expressed in the Constitution, and they are fundamental principles of the Democratic party.

The principles and practices of the Ku Klux Klan are in violation of these provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

It has set up a religious and racial test for office, by decreeing that only members of the Klan shall hold office and that only native born, Gentile, Protestants shall qualify as members.

It is presumed to try men for various offenses, and on various pretexts in SECRET, thus denying a PUBLIC trial.

It has tried such accused without an IMPARTIAL JURY, and without CONFRONTING THE ACCUSED WITH THE WITNESSES AGAINST HIM, but confronting him only with masked and hooded men.

It has denied such accused the benefit of COMPULSORY PROCESS FOR OBTAINING WITNESSES IN HIS FAVOR, and without giving him THE ASSISTANCE OF COUNSEL FOR HIS DEFENSE.

IT HAS INFLICTED CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENTS.

All of this is in plain violation of the Constitution of the United States and the very fundamentals of our Government and of the Democratic party.

Members of an organization adhering to such a program and indulging in such practices are obviously opposed to the Constitution of the United States and therefore are enemies of the Constitution of the United States.

Members of such an organization cannot be said to be Democrats, for all of this is alien to the very spirit of the Democratic party.

Good Democrats have no choice but to defend their party principles and the principles of the Constitution against the conspiracy of this organization to elect one of its members to the high office of United States Senator through the machinery of the Democratic party.

There is no higher pledge binding any American than the pledge to defend the Constitution and the principles of our Government against all who would destroy them.

No man who adheres to such an organization and accepts the support of such an organization is eligible to be a Democratic candidate, for he is thus opposed to the principles of the Democratic party.

No man who adheres to such an organization and accepts its support is eligible to hold the office of United States Senator, for he cannot take the oath of office without reservation and evasion.

That oath reads as follows:

"I, John Doe do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will SUPPORT AND DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES AGAINST ALL ENEMIES, FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC, that I will bear faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, WITHOUT ANY MENTAL RESERVATION OR PURPOSE OF EVASION, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. SO HELP ME GOD."

The Ku Klux candidate cannot take that oath without reservation or evasion. He is not qualified, therefore, under the Constitution, to hold the office of United States Senator.

George Peddy has come forward as the defender of the Constitution and the champion of Democratic principles in this crisis.

"My platform," he declares, "is the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States."

He proposes to rescue the Democratic party from the alien organization which has captured it and it is the duty of all good Democrats to assist him.

No Democrat took a pledge in the primary to assist in turning the party over to an organization which is against the most fundamental principles of the party.

On the contrary all true Democrats are bound to defend the principles of the party and to uphold the Constitution of the United States.

A vote for George Peddy is a vote in support of the principles of the Democratic party, of the Bill of Rights, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

Thomas Jefferson said:

"Equal and exact justice to all men, of whatever state or persuasion, RELIGIOUS or political. * * * Freedom of religion, freedom of press, and freedom of the person under the protection of the habeas corpus, and trial by juries impartially selected. These principles form the bright constellation which has gone before us and guided our steps through an age of revolution and reformation. THE WISDOM OF OUR SAGES AND THE BLOOD OF OUR HEROES HAVE BEEN DEVOTED TO THEIR ATTAINMENT. THEY SHOULD BE THE CREED OF OUR POLITICAL FAITH, the text of civic instruction, THE TOUCHSTONE BY WHICH TO TRY THE SERVICES OF THOSE WE TRUST; and should we wander from them in moments of error or of alarm, LET US HASTEN TO RETRACE OUR STEPS AND TO REGAIN THE ROAD WHICH ALONE LEADS TO PEACE, LIBERTY, AND SAFETY."—(From the first inaugural address of Thomas Jefferson as President of the United States.

A Man of Ability and Character.

George Peddy has all the qualifications to make a great United States Senator.

He is a man of outstanding ability and sterling character.

His life, in public and private, has been clean.

He is fearless, honest, and unshackled.

He is a stalwart advocate of the fundamentals of the Democratic party.

He was a leading advocate of woman suffrage in the Legislature when that reform needed friends.

He has been an outspoken advocate of prohibition, both state and national, ever since he was able to think.

He was a leading advocate of education in the Legislature, believing that it should be extended to every class and every section of the State.

In line with this he advocated and voted for the establishment of an Agricultural and Mechanical College in West Texas.

He is abreast of the times on all national and international questions.

He believes that the products of Texas should be given equal consideration with the products of the big manufacturers of the East in any tariff bill that may be enacted at any time. The Ku Klux candidate is an advocate of the ruinous policy of free raw materials and should be elected and have his way, the livestock producers, the wool producers, and the farmers who produce cotton seed, peanuts and similar products would suffer. This is an added reason why the Ku Klux candidate should be defeated and George Peddy elected.

However, he is making this race primarily to rescue the Democratic party from an alien organization which has seized its machinery and to prevent that organization from sending one of its members to the United States Senate in the guise of a Democrat.

Party Pledge Has Been Invalidated

No Democrat who voted in the Senatorial primaries need feel that the party pledge is being violated in casting a vote for George Peddy for United States Senator.

THE PARTY PLEDGE WAS INVALIDATED IN THE PRIMARY ITSELF AND NOT BINDING FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

1. Because a fraud was committed against the voters when a secret oath-bound organization entered the primary and voted in a solid mass—more than 100,000 strong, for one of the candidates as a member of that organization. They voted, not as Democrats, but as members of that secret organization. They voted for the candidate, not as Democrats, but because he was a member of that secret organization. The primary for Senator, therefore, was not a Democratic primary in fact, and every real Democrat was released from his or her pledge.

2. Because the secret, oath-bound organization which has obtained control of the party machinery adheres to a program which denies the most fundamental principles of the Democratic party as enunciated by Thomas Jefferson and expressed in the party's platforms from the beginning. Men who adhere to such a program are not Democrats and can not be Democrats and any party controlled by such men and by such an organization can not be a Democratic party. To support such a party is to oppose the principles of the Democratic party. This not only releases the voter from the party pledge, but makes it the duty of all real Democrats to vote against the Senatorial candidate named by this secret organization.

3. Because the convention at San Antonio, purporting to be a Democratic convention, refused to reaffirm the party's allegiance to the principles of the Bill of Rights, the principles of the Constitution and of the Declaration of Independence. This was a repudiation of the principles of the Democratic party and released all Democratic voters from the party pledge.

THE CITIZEN'S HIGHEST DUTY

4. Because no party pledge should come before the citizen's duty to support the Constitution of his country and to protect the principles of the Constitution against its enemies no matter what name they masquerade under. Even if the pledge had not been invalidated, honorable men and women would be called upon to put patriotism above party and to vote to defeat this un-Democratic and un-American movement in its effort to control the Government. If the Republicans of Texas can place patriotism above party and vote for a life-long Democrat like George Peddy, surely Democrats can vote for such a Democrat in the interest of their country and the principles of their party.

Even if the Ku Klux Klan was not the kind of organization it is, the fact that it entered the Democratic primary as an organization and voted as an organization for one of its members would invalidate the pledge.

The Republicans of Iowa and North Dakota are disregarding their primary party pledge this year and will help elect a Democratic Senator for a similar reason.

In Iowa, a state organization of Republicans, composed of men who voted in the Republican primaries, was launched at a meeting recently held at Des Moines at which 200 delegates were present, and will work for the election of the Democratic candidate for United States Senator. The Democratic candidate will be elected for this reason. The sole cause of this action was that the Non-Partisan League entered the Republican primary as an organization and nominated one of its own members for United States Senator on the Republican ticket.

In North Dakota the regular Republican organization, including the State Republican Committee and the Republican National Committeeman, is supporting the Democratic candidate for United States Senator and will elect him. The reason for this in North Dakota is the same as that in Iowa. The Non-Partisan League entered the Republican primary as an organization and nominated one of its members as Republican candidate for United States Senator.

In each of these States the Republicans regard the primary pledge as invalid because an alien organization voted in a solid mass for one of its members. Two Democratic candidates for the United States Senate will be elected because of this.

TEXAS PLEDGE DOUBLY INVALID

If that is true in Iowa and North Dakota, how much more true is it in Texas where the organization is one of secret membership, pledged by oath not to disclose their membership? In these other states the organization which has seized the Republican party is at least composed of members known to all men. They seized the Republican party openly. But in Texas the Democratic party was seized by secret methods and with no foreknowledge on the part of the rank and file of the voters. If the pledge in the Republican primaries of Iowa and North Dakota has been invalidated, then the pledge in the Democratic primary for Senator in Texas is doubly invalid.

George Peddy is attempting to rescue the Democratic party from this un-Democratic and un-American organization. He is calling upon Democrats to uphold the principles of the party. The Democratic party in Texas is in danger of being branded before the world as the party of Ku Kluxism. George Peddy seeks to save it from the stigma and thus save the party in the United States as a whole. If Ku Klux control of the Democratic party is permitted to succeed it will mean the death-knell of the influence of the Democratic party in National affairs.

As upholders of the Constitution of the United States, and in the interest of the Democratic party itself, it is the duty of real Democrats in Texas to ignore the invalidated party pledge and vote against the Ku Klux candidate.

WAY TO RAISE MONEY FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES

(By Texas Educational News Service) Austin, Texas, Oct. 20.—"Raising the tax is not the way to get school money," said E. E. Davis, rural specialist, University of Texas, in an investigation for the Texas Educational News Service. "We have to teach 1,250,000 children," he said. "At $65 a child, one-half what fair schools cost according to the United States Commissioner of Education, Texas would need some $70,000,000 a year. That would require a tax of about $2.57 on the $100. Added to other taxes it would be too heavy for Texas farmers and business men. It would strangle business."

"If Texas is to school its children it must get money from sources now paying a fair share. Consider these instances. One concern is assessed at $480,000. Yet its manager said a train load of its product passing before our eyes was 'worth half a million.' An oil company is assessed at $150,000. Yet its bookkeeper said it produced and sold $6,000,000 worth of oil a year. An Eastern oil company having Texas connections recently declared a 400 percent dividend. Should not these concerns pay a fair share toward educating Texas children?"

"Money from such sources will enable Texas to have good schools without placing heavier taxes on farms, shops and stores. Texans rate their children highly. But they must meet this question at once and obtain for them their dues without increase of valorem taxes."

BONAR LAW IS PREMIER

London, Oct. 20.—Andrew Bonar Law appeared to be making rapid progress today in forming a cabinet to replace the fallen coalition government. It was announced that Marquis Curzon and the Earl of Derby have agreed to serve under him in any capacity. Bonar Law cannot officially announce the formation of his ministry until he is elected head of the Unionist party to succeed Austen Chamberlain. It is generally conceded this election will be only a formality.

TREATED AS TRAITORS

Mexico City, Oct. 20.—Mexicans who during a period of disturbance attack foreigners or their property are to be regarded as traitors and will be dealt with accordingly. This was the provision of a measure submitted to the Department of the Interior by President Obregon for formal presentation to the chamber of deputies.

JIM HINES KILLED SATURDAY

From the San Augustine Tribune. Mr. Jim Hine was killed on the street in front of Clark, Downs & Co. store Saturday by being struck over the head several blows with an axe handle in the hands of Arvie Neal, son of H. W. Neal. Eye witnesses to the deplorable affair say that Mr. Hines was not aware of the approach of Neal, who came up behind Hines. Sheriff Wilkinson immediately arrested Neal and placed him in jail, charging him with murder. The case was brought in the Justice Court where an investigating trial will be held, same having been set for Tuesday, but postponed by the county attorney because of Neal not having secured legal representation, and same will be held at a later date.

Mr. Hines died about 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, his skull being crushed in.

INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS GO TO SUPREME COURT

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 20.—The Court of Civil Appeals late last night certified to the State Supreme Court the questions recently presented to it as to whether the plaintiffs in the Corsicana injunction suit were the proper persons to seek such injunction. The injunction restrained the secretary of state from certifying the name of Earle B. Mayfield as a candidate for the United States senate. The Supreme Court will rule on the issues presented as to the manner in which the injunction was sought, it was said.

Straughan Testifies

Corsicana, Texas, Oct. 20.—James P. Straughan of Fort Worth testified today in the injunction suit seeking to keep the name of Earle B. Mayfield off the official ballot as a senatorial candidate. He said none of the money collected by him was given to Mayfield or his campaign managers; he said all was expended by Straughan himself for the local campaign. Straughan told of collecting about $850.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Ed Hartley and son, George Hartley, recently convicted of manslaughter, were taken from jail at Camden at midnight last night and shot to death in a vacant lot near the jail. ANOTHER OIL WELL SPUDS IN

Mr. William Lawlor of the Nohol-den Oil Co., of Boston informed a Tribune reporter this week that his company spudded in their well Friday at 5:13 p. m. The new well is located on what is known as Black Slough, about 7 1-2 miles south of San Augustine. He says they have a good rig and expect to complete the well within a month unless some bad luck happens to them. They are after shallow oil strictly.—San Augustine Tribune 19.

MAYFIELD ON THE STAND

Corsicana, Texas, Oct. 19.—Earle B. Mayfield resumed the witness stand today in the litigation which seeks to prevent his name from going on the official ballot. He was questioned about 20 minutes and excused for the pre-ert. It was said he probably would be recalled. The questions asked him concerned bills for the Mayfield headquarters in a hotel at Dallas. The plaintiffs alleged the bills remained unpaid. The defense attorneys asked Mayfield to identify a letter to Mike McNamara at Graham and who signed for the registered letter. Mayfield said his name was placed on the receipt by another person.

Reading of the depositions then began. One by McNamara said McNamara collected $200 and sent it to Mayfield by registered letter. He said Mayfield had requested McNamara to collect the money.

A deposition by J. H. Davis of Sulphur Springs said Davis received $215 from Atticus Webb, superintendent of the Texas Anti-Saloon League, from Morris Mayfield from Mayfield's headquarters.

Rev. Atticus Webb's deposition telling of the activities of the Anti-Saloon League was read. It denied that Mayfield had paid or agreed to pay money to the league during last July, August and September for any purpose.

The reading of certified copies of Mayfield's expense returns was then begun by plaintiff's attorneys.

RANGERS RELIEVE GUARDS

Austin, Texas, Oct. 19.—Martial law at Denison will be lifted at 6 o'clock next Saturday evening, October 21, announced Governor Neff late Wednesday. In this connection the governor announced that martial law will be replaced at Denison by the open port law.

A detachment of state rangers operating under the port law will be sent to Denison and will be in charge of Captain Tom Hickman. There are now 125 officers and men at Denison, who will be relieved next Saturday. Martial law was declared at Denison on July 25, last. Conditions justified the change, the governor said.

GRAND JURY REPORT

The grand jury for the fall term of the Nacogdoches County District Court concluded its labors Friday and was discharged. The following is the full text of the report:

To the Hon. L. D. Guilan, Judge of the Second Judicial District:

We, your grand jury impeled for the September term of the district court of Nacogdoches county, submit this, our report of our labors for this term. We have been in session 26 days and have had before us numerous witnesses from all parts of the county, and have diligently inquired into and investigated all character of crimes and violations of the penal laws, both felony and misdemeanor. As a result of our labors we have returned into your court 82 indictments for felonies and 34 indictments for misdemeanors.

We find the moral conditions of the county improved in the last six months and crime in our midst is not so prevalent as heretofore. We do not mean that our county is clear from violation of the law or from violent abuse of moral standards. Violations of the liquor law are still more numerous than should exist and we request at the hands of the good citizens who believe in abiding the law and enforcing the laws as they stand on our statute books to be more vigilant and diligent in assisting the future grand juries and officers, whose duty it is to enforce the law, than they have been heretofore.

We also find an appalling condition existing with reference to those who are summoned before the grand jury to appear as witnesses, in the fact that they evade appearing before the grand jury and when they do appear they seek diligently to withhold information sought, thereby lending their assistance to those who are engaged in open, defiant violation of our criminal laws. Perjury is not uncommon, especially among the young men who have purchased and drunk home-made whiskey from bootleggers.

We have found in our investigation that it is not uncommon for white people, especially young and middle-aged men, to attend unbidden and uninvited dances, social gatherings and religious service of the negro race, and in almost every instance where disturbances have arisen at these negro gatherings they have been caused by virtue of this fact. This practice on the part of the white people we unqualifiedly condemn as not being conducive to peace and harmony and unbecoming to race. We do not mean by this statement to condemn the orderly attendance of white people at these assemblies where they are especially invited and places provided for their accommodation.

We take this occasion to express our thanks to our sheriff, G. W. L. Woodlin, for his assistance and support through this term of the grand jury and for his conduct of his department so far as it is directly controlled by him. However, we find that some of the peace officers in the rural districts have conducted themselves on various occasions in a way that is not becoming a good private citizen and far beneath the dignity of an officer who is clothed with power and authority to enforce the law and prevent violations. They, themselves have indulged in practices which are immoral and in many instances violations of the criminal laws.

Most of the time through our sittings we have had present the district and county attorneys, who have been diligent and untiring in bringing to light violations of the law and seeing that justice is administered. We find them at all times courteous and fair and at the same time firm and uncompromising with crime.

We earnestly recommend to the court that a very much needed improvement be made to the jail, as we consider it a very unsafe place in which to confine desperate prisoners. The easy access which the public has to the jail and its inmates makes it very unsafe for the officer going in and out of jail, and would suggest that the commissioners court at the earliest opportunity build around the jail a proper safeguard in the way of a substantial enclosure.

Respectfully submitted by, Dixon Greer, Foreman, R. W. King, M. W. Dewberry, John H. Perkins, Lee Gaston, R. B. Strickland, J. L. Covington, J. C. Dowdle, W. D. Lambert, Z. T. Stripling, W. S. Beeson.

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS SEDAN

Exceptional interest has been aroused by the practical arrangement of the interior.

The entire rear compartment furnishings—seat, seat cushions, back cushions, seat frame, foot rest, carpet and all—can be removed from the car in a few moments.

The front seat is then tilted forward, giving a gross clearance of twenty-two inches through the rear doors.

In this way, a space of sixty-four cubic feet in the rear compartment is made available for loading.

When the rear seat fixtures are back in place, the interior is complete and attractive in appearance. Its convertibility is not apparent to the eye.

Business men, farmers, salesmen, campers, tourists and everyone who has occasion, at times, to carry bulky articles or luggage, will readily appreciate the great utility of this construction.

COUNTY FAIR VISITORS GET QUARTERS IN JAIL

Millersberg, Ohio, Oct. 21.—The county fair was on. The town was crowded. Two men applied for rooms at the hotel. The clerk informed them that all rooms were filled but that they might get good sleeping quarters in the jail.

When they protested the clerk explained that the last prisoners had been released the week before and that the bastille was cleaned up so that if the visitors to the fair could not obtain rooms elsewhere, they might have a safe and comfortable sleeping place in the jail.

PRAYER OF A NEW MEXICO FARMER

Lord, I am only a nestor, a New Mexico dry farmer. Thou knowest that when wheat was $2.00 per bushel, and I had sugar and flour in the house and cake and pie every time I wanted it, I was not satisfied and voted for a change. Thou knowest that I wore a Harding badge and Bursum button and was faithful in all things G. O. P. Even so Thou knowest that I believed in the Dawn of a New Day and that wool would advance in price that I would get $3 for what, 15 cents per pound for leaf and 20 cents per pound for pork. Lord, two years have gone never to return and I am too poor to buy the necessary Rockefeller for my Henry, but I still wear a Harding badge but now it is on the seat of my overalls. Lord, I am thankful for one thing and that is that Harding has been able to make Jack rabbits taste good in the summer time. I pray Thee that Thou wilt keep them replenished so that I shall not want. Likewise, Lord, Thou knowest that I have always believed that A. B. Fall to be the greatest Texas statesman that ever voted sheep in New Mexico and owned mines in the domain of Pancho Villa. He was my friend and the friend of Rockefeller even unto the Wyoming oil fields. I am glad, O Lord, that Thou hast prospered the railroads that they have been enabled to keep up the freight rates when my corn would not pay the expenses of gathering and I pray Thee that Thou wilt continue to uphold Treasurer Strong and that the State Auditor may be able to collect interest for many years on the state funds for his own bank account for it is a righteous cause. Teach me to pray.

"Our Father who art in Washington, Harding be Thy name, his Kingdom come, his will be done, even in keeping the soldiers out of bonus. Give us each day our daily corn bread that Wilson tried for two years to make us eat and that Harding had us eating in three months; lead us not into temptation to vote for a Democrat and Harding's be all the power and Mellon's be all the money and Rockefeller's all the oil, forever and forever, Amen!

ENGLAND IN THROES OF POLITICAL CRISIS

London, Oct. 19.—The Lloyd George coalition received its death blow at the hands of the Conservative party today when the Conservative members of the house of commons and government ministers voted to appeal to the country as a Conservative party. This creates the greatest political confusion and uncertainty the country has known for years. The next move certain to be made is the resignation of government leaders in the commons and Austen Chamberlain and his associates, Lord Balfour and Lord Birkenhead, from the cabinet. It is expected that Premier Lloyd George will then present his resignation to the king and advise his majesty to summon Conservative leaders to form a government.

CHLORINATOR FOR LUFKIN

From the Lufkin Leader. Lufkin is now assured of pure water since the chlorinator has been installed at the city lake.

This water purification system is now used by many of the large cities and the city council is to be commended for the installation of a plant of this kind in Lufkin.

The chlorine is received here in drums and is distributed through the water mains through the chlorinator, which purifies the water and destroys all vegetable matter or other substance which might cause typhoid fever or other sickness.

The city water is now as pure as thing for any city. You need have no fear of bacteria germs coming from any water and that means a great the city stand pipe. They are all killed before the water reaches the stand-pipe.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas
County of Nacogdoches
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Nacogdoches County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon W. C. Monroe and Monroe, partners, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return date hereof in some newspaper published in your county to appear at the next regular term of the county court of Nacogdoches county, to be held at the courthouse thereof in Nacogdoches on the 3d Monday in November, 1922, the same being the 20th day of November, 1922, then and there to answer to a petition filed in said court on the 5th day of July, 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1629, wherein, A. J. Spradley is plaintiff and W. C. Monroe and Monroe are defendants. Said petition alleging that plaintiff is a resident of Nacogdoches county and defendants are persons who moved from place to place and have no fixed residence, and for cause of action, plaintiff represents that on or about the 1st day of June, A. D. 1921, at the special instance and request of the defendants, plaintiff sold defendants fifty thousand feet of hardwood timber for which defendants, and each of them, promised to and agreed to pay to plaintiff the sum of four dollars per thousand feet, due and payable as said timber was cut and shipped by the defendants. Plaintiff says that defendants were camped upon plaintiff's premises and cut said timber and sawed it into blocks and shipped over the Houston East and West Texas Railway Company's railroad, and while so camped on plaintiff's premises and so engaged in cutting said timber, defendants were using two horses which belonged to plaintiff and while using said horses negligently caused the death of both of them. That said horses were of the value of seventy-five dollars each and plaintiff says the defendants, and each of them, promised and agreed with plaintiff that they would pay him the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, the value of said horses. Plaintiff says that all of said indebtedness is due and though often requested, defendants have failed and refused and still refuse to pay plaintiff the sum of their indebtedness to him, which is the sum of Three Hundred and Fifty Dollars, or any part thereof. Plaintiff says that he duly and regularly demanded of defendants the sum of said indebtedness more than thirty days prior to the filing of this suit and that he has employed attorneys to represent him and is entitled to a judgment for Twenty Dollars attorneys fees against defendants.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that citation issue to said defendants, and each of them, that upon a final hearing hereof, that he have judgment against said defendants, and each of them, for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars and for twenty dollars and fifty cents the amount of his debt, and for twenty dollars attorneys fees, for cost of suit and for general and special relief.

Herein fail not but have you before said court, on said first day of the next regular term thereof this writ with your return thereon showing how you have executed same.

Given under my hand and seal of said court in the town of Nacogdoches this 12th day of October, A. D. 1922

(Seal) J. F. Perritte,
Clerk of the County Court of Nacogdoches, Texas.

Tanlac Demand is Greater Than Ever in History

MODERN PLANTS HAVE INCREASED CAPACITY OF 62,240 BOTTLES A DAY. BUT MAKERS ARE STILL BEHIND ORDERS—MEDICINE PUBLICLY ENDORSED BY BEST PEOPLE EVERYWHERE.

During the first seven months of this year 3,584,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold and a new world record for a proprietary medicine is established.

Tanlac's wide spread and ever increasing popularity is the strongest possible proof of its unquestioned merit. No product, no matter how extensively advertised, could continue to establish world records for sales year after year if it did not produce actual and positive results.

Tanlac is composed of the most beneficial roots, herbs and barks known to medical science. The formula is ethical and conforms to all pure food and drug laws, and although Tanlac's superiority is abundantly supported by leading authorities it is the people themselves who have made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it and have told other millions what it has done, while thousands of the best people in every community have given public statements of the great benefits they have received by taking it.

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate and Start World of Trouble

Calomel is mercury, quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.
