

Probe Shows Ferguson Presided at Relief Meet

PEEPING THRU THE KNOTHOLE

with BILL MAYES

Last night we reluctantly went to Breckenridge to attend the annual banquet for teachers, school officials and sports writers of the Oil Belt. We went reluctantly, but came away feeling glad we went.

We forgot to take our pencil along and had nothing on which to take notes except a paper napkin, which blew out of our lap early in the evening, which is probably a good thing and anything from the banquet quoted in the paper might be grounds for a libel suit. The whole thing was a burlesque. When Jake Sandefer, toastmaster, called on one of the Oil Belt coaches some member of the Breckenridge Lions club would answer the introduction and tell about the team from the high school represented by the coach introduced. The talks were all full of good, clean humor that kept the crowd laughing and the coach impersonated squirming in his seat. Maybe the burlesque hit near the truth in places.

Out of town visitors, as well as we can remember, were Superintendent Green and Coach Dewey Mayhew of Abilene. They reported that L. E. Dudley and Prexy Anderson started to the banquet but got hung on the first 3.2 bar just over the county line. From Eastland came Principal Palm, E. E. Layton and Coach "Red" Petty; from Cisco, Superintendent Robert Cluck, Principal Brandon, Coach Dexter Shelley and Captain Latch of the Loboes, and Benny Butler, sports scribe of the Cisco Daily News. Pop Boone, dean of the West Texas sports writers from Fort Worth was present and made a 200 word talk, as did the other sports writers present.

Ranger took over the largest delegation. It consisted of Supt. R. F. Holloway, Coach Eck Curtis, A. N. Larson, J. J. Kelly, and Captain "Stump" Warden. We went along for the ride and the free meal.

After hearing the coaches compare notes in the lobby before the meal we became quite discouraged over football prospects in the Oil Belt this year. In fact we noticed particularly that some peculiar disease must have hit the leftmen remaining over to play this year. All have lost weight from last season, some of them losing as much as 10 to 15 pounds and all of them losing around three to five pounds. Boys who weighed around 174 last year weigh in this year at about 164, those who weighed 165 have dropped off to between 155 and 158, while those under 160 last year have wasted away to mere shadows. We began to fear the coaches were going to have to recruit some of the pep squads to keep the weight average up. That is until we heard J. Gordon (Spoon) Weir of Abilene.

He said that the greatest misrepresentation of facts he had ever read had appeared in sports columns this year. He said that Loran Flippo had been reported as weighing 260, where, as a matter of fact he had never weighed more than 255 and had lost weight until he weighed only 253 now, but was gaining again. He said he went out to the Abilene field the day before to see the team work out and had to ask which one was Flippo. They all looked the same size to him.

Shotwell had little to say, as usual, but Mayhew said he was going to take one of the worst beatings of his life when he met Winters today. Everyone in hearing distance laughed.

Shelley and Petty very wisely said little about their teams, as they are now in the Oil Belt and do not know the standards by which teams are judged.

Which consumes all our time, if not all our space, so we will have to let everyone draw on their imagination as to the outcome of the Stephenville game. We understood that Coach Curtis allowed them to play four of the graduates of last year because they would help the team out considerably, but word has trickled into this department that the team is recruited from a number of ringers from over the town, with only one eligible man on the squad. Which may or may not be true, but the team is to be limited to the four ineligible requested, all of whom graduated this past spring.

These pre-season games are getting along in the class with the first half of the Twilight league season, if rumors can be believed.

COUNTY FAIR AWARDS MADE; LARGE CROWDS

Attendance at the Eastland county fair last night, the second night of the show, exceeded that of the opening night by several hundred. The program presented last night was also well presented and well received.

Tonight's program will be as follows:
7:30—Opening concert by Eastland band.
8:00—Bewley's Chuck Wagon Gang.
9:30—Rural community entertainment.

Saturday afternoon a feature of the entertainment will be a football game at Maverick Field between the Mavericks and the Decatur Baptist College team. Saturday night's program will be as follows:

7:30—Opening concert by Eastland band.
8:00—Rising Star will put on program.
9:00—Gorman will put on a program.
10:00—Street Dance.

Awards to exhibitors in the agricultural department and women's department will be published Sunday.

War on Crime To Be Started By Government

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 22.—Carefully drawn plans for a long-time war on crime including a tightening of criminal codes of the states and nation, were revealed here today.

The first step will be taken at Austin tomorrow. Another will be taken soon in Washington.

Joseph Keenan, assistant United States attorney general assigned by President Roosevelt to aid in the drive on racketeering and kidnaping, outlined the program. He will go to Austin tomorrow for a statewide meeting of Texas mayors and outline plans for local cooperation with the government in the anti-crime war.

Former Sheriff Admits Slaying

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 22.—John Lott, former sheriff of Altacosa county, surrendered to Sheriff Albert Hauser, following the fatal shooting of Ed Leahy on Produce Row near the city market house today.

He declined to discuss the shooting, said by his friends to have been provoked because of Lott's implication of Leahy in the slaying of the former officer's son. The latter was killed about a month ago at Jordantown. Leahy was shot three times. He died instantly.

Envoy to Austria

APPEAL FILED BY LONE STAR IN GATE RATE

AUSTIN, Sept. 22.—An appeal from the railroad commission order reducing the gate rate for natural gas from 40 cents to 32 cents was filed in federal district court here today by the Lone Star Gas Company.

At the same time an injunction was asked to prevent distributing companies from complying with the commission order or violating contracts with the Lone Star Company.

The company filed a 38 page bill of complaint attacking the commission order on numerous grounds, including alleged unconstitutionality. It was asserted the order, in fixing six per cent for annual return and two per cent for depreciation, interfered with interstate commerce.

Ford To Comply With NRA Code

DETROIT, Sept. 22.—Henry Ford, who alone of the major industrialists turned a deaf ear to the NRA, today took steps that will bring his huge plant in strict compliance with all terms of the automotive code, a board official revealed.

Effective Monday, workers in the Ford plant are to be placed on a 32-hour week, the United Press informant revealed.

Whether he would go one step further and publicly endorse the governmental recovery act remained problematical but those better informed expected a silence compliance and continued absence of the Ford name on the role of NRA co-operators.

Coy Oakley Jury Deliberating Case

SULPHUR SPRINGS, Sept. 22.—The jury deliberating the fate of Coy Oakley, charged with murder in connection with the death of Bernice Clayton, 3, was expected to report today to District Judge Charles D. Berry.

The case against the young healer, whose brother, Paul Oakley, is under 50 years sentence in the case, was given to the jury last night.

BAILEY MAY TESTIFY IN KIDNAP CASE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 22.—Unrelenting prosecutors turned the government's legal force on the seven Twin Cities "money changers" in the Charles F. Urschel kidnaping trial, while death threats of the terrorist, George Kelly, hung over the courtroom today. Harvey Bailey, notorious criminal, was ready to testify that he was not one of the conspirators in the $200,000 abduction, though he was captured on the farm in Texas where the oil multimillionaire was held.

An accusing finger was pointed for the first time at the St. Paul and Minneapolis defendants, who are accused in connection with efforts to dispose of $10,000 of the marked ransom bills, obtained by Kelly and Albert Bates from an Urschel intermediary.

As the trial neared the stage where the government would rest, Joseph Keenan, U. S. Assistant Attorney General, announced the government agents had evidence that linked Kelly with the old Capone gang in Chicago.

Though authorities would not admit it, it was learned they were near the point of asking that Illinois national guardsmen be called out to search every house in Cicero the day Kelly's death threat letters were received from Chicago.

The plan was called off because it might hinder the administration plan for a national curb of crime.

The government was ready to rest its case after testimony against the seven twin cities defendants.

Order Is Issued To Treat Wells

Judge George L. Davenport of the 91st district court issued an order Thursday in the case of W. H. Dill vs. Texwa Oil company permitting the receiver to contract with the Demulsion corporation of Dallas to treat two wells of the Texwa Oil company, which are located near Brownwood with a hydrochloric acid solution and providing for the payment of $1000, for such treatment out of one-half of seven eighths of the oil produced.

Light Wines Not Legal In Tarrant

FORT WORTH, Sept. 22.—There was a slip 'twixt cup and lip in the Tarrant county local option election. While the county went overwhelmingly for 3.2 beer and believed it was doing so for light wines, it has developed that the county did not vote for light wines.

The local option ballots read "for" or against "3.2 beer." The state ballots read "for" or "against" 3.2 vinous and malt liquor of 3.2 alcoholic content. Legal Adviser Jesse Brown said the county will have to hold another election to get wines.

Farmer Confesses To Killing Wife

DALHART, Texas, Sept. 22.—A 54-year-old farmer confessed to Sheriff Ralph Queen today he shot his wife after wringing from her accounts of intimacies with another man.

The middle-aged farmer, Marvin Turner, said his wife confessed after a 22-calibre rifle he had armed himself with accidentally discharged, wounding the woman seriously.

The shooting was investigated by the sheriff. He said Turner first claimed his wife committed suicide but later revealed he shot her when confronted with evidence indicating a struggle.

PURCHASE OF FARM SURPLUS BEING URGED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—Top speed was ordered today for execution of a new relief program involving government purchase of farm surplus and distribution to the needy.

President Roosevelt threw $75,000,000 into the efforts to raise commodity prices and expand relief at one stroke. He directed officials of the agricultural and relief administration to expedite the plan in every way.

The government recently purchased and distributed 100,000,000 pounds of pork. Now it is supposed to do the same thing in varying proportions with beef, poultry, cotton seed and dairy surpluses. Likewise surplus cotton will be bought, made into clothing and given to the destitute.

Mrs. Etta Moore to Be Buried Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Etta Moore, who died in Ranger Thursday afternoon, are to be conducted today at Fort Chadburn, Texas, with interment in the Fort Chadburn cemetery this afternoon following the services.

The decedent, who was 45 years old, is survived by one brother, "Bud" Stokes, and a daughter, Miss Johnnie Moore.

The body was taken to Fort Chadburn by Killingsworth, Cox & Co.

COMPLAINTS TO BE FILED WITH LOCAL BOARD

The compliance board of Ranger, of which D. L. Jameson is chairman and which was formed on instructions of Gen. Hugh Johnson, administrator of the national recovery administration, has been completed and detailed instructions as to its duties are now awaited from the administration at Washington.

The temporary instructions, under which the board is to operate until such time as the other instructions are received are quoted, as follows, from a bulletin sent out by the recovery administration:

"The NRA compliance board is the local representative of the national recovery administration and that it is not affiliated with any other organization.

"Pending receipt of detailed instructions on procedure, the board should take under immediate consideration all complaints which have been filed with the local committee and which have not been acted upon. The first step in acting upon complaints is to contact the employer complained of and inform him of the nature of the complaint against him and ascertain his conception of the facts.

If the employer cannot establish that the cause thereof has already been eliminated, explain to him that if the complaint is true, it should be rectified immediately. It should be remembered that failure to comply in most cases is due to misunderstanding. Every possible means should be used to obtain voluntary compliance by a tolerant attitude and a patient explanation.

If the employer fails to comply after having his obligations fully explained to him, he should be given an opportunity to appear before the board and state his case.

"This hearing is to give the employer every opportunity to make a voluntary statement of his side of the case so that any misunderstanding may be cleared up or, if, after every attempt at conciliation, the employer persists in non-compliance, a report of his case may be forwarded to Washington with a recommendation that his Blue Eagle be removed by federal authority.

"The compliance board shall have no powers of enforcement except upon express directions from Washington."

Part of Amarillo To Remain Dry But County Wet

AMARILLO.—Although every precinct in Potter county voted to legalize sale of 3.2 beer in the recent plebiscite the paradoxical fact remains that a portion of Amarillo, county seat, will continue dry.

The explanation for this seeming inconsistency lies in the fact that the portion of the city extending south of 29th avenue is in Randall county, which voted dry.

All the other Amarillo precincts voted 2 to 1 for beer with the exception of one, in which no local option election was held, it having never voted dry.

Inconspicuously enough El Taos, Amarillo's most celebrated night club, and other amusement centers are situated in the part of the city which lies in dry Randall county.

Amarillo by its vote for beer became the only college town in the Panhandle in which sale of 3.2 brew will be permitted. Canyon, home of West Texas State Teachers college, and Plainview, site of Wayland Baptist college, voted strongly against beer. The vote was closer at Lubbock, where Texas Technological college is situated, and Clarendon, home of Clarendon junior college.

With classrooms in the Amarillo city auditorium the Amarillo junior college will be situated in the very heart of the Panhandle's only beer distributing point.

THREE GUESSES

BANDITS ROB CHICAGO BANK; KILL OFFICER

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Six machine gun bandits held up a federal reserve bank in the Loop today, seized four money bags and fled under cover of a dense smoke screen, killing a policeman in the escape.

Two nationally notorious gangsters, George (Machine Gun) Kelly and Verne Miller, are suspected, police disclosed.

Machine gun clips found in the bandit's car fit only a special, small type of weapon constructed by Miller, authorities said. Timing the robbery exactly, the bandits descended on the bank car, in which two messengers and two guards were riding just as the car pulled up to the door of the bank.

Using two automobiles, they operated ruthlessly, shooting down the policeman in cold blood a few blocks from the holdup scene after one of the automobiles collided with another machine.

Authorities were unable to estimate the amount of loot. Police said they suspected Kelly and Miller, mainly because of the special machine gun equipment and because of a map of the United States with the state of Kansas heavily thumbred over was found in the wrecked car.

Both Kelly and Miller have been fugitives since the Union Station massacre in Kansas City, Mo.

Shoot to Be Held At Range On Sunday

Jack Roach, captain of the Ranger rifle range, today announced that a shoot would be held Sunday afternoon, to which all members of the American Legion Rifle club are invited to be present.

The crowds at these shoots are increasing each week, Roach stated, and with the approach of the deer hunting season it is expected that more will be practicing over the range.

Former Ranger Man Dies In Fort Worth

Word was received in Ranger today of the death of Dr. J. B. Stackable, formerly of Ranger but more recently of Fort Worth. His death occurred at 11 o'clock this morning.

Funeral services are to be conducted at St. Mary's church at Fort Worth Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Stackable lived in Ranger for a number of years, leaving here some three or four years ago to take up his residence in Fort Worth.

Senator Small Quizzes Westbrook At Investigation In Senate Today.

AUSTIN, Sept. 22.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson who now holds no official position with the state, has presided over all but one of the meetings of the relief and rehabilitation commissions, Lawrence Westbrook testified today.

"Do you mean to say," asked Senator Small, "that Mr. Ferguson, who is not under bond, not under oath, not a member of the commission, without official capacity, has presided over meetings of the commission?"

"The facts speak for themselves," said Westbrook, referring to the approved minutes of the commission.

The relief director is being cross examined in the Senate investigation of relief administration in Texas.

Senator Small also questioned the witness in an effort to show that county relief committees throughout Texas were appointed through political machinations.

Mavericks Meet Decatur Baptist College Saturday

Coach S. J. Petty of the Eastland High School is fast rounding his charges into form for their initial game Saturday afternoon with the heavy team of the Decatur Baptist College. Although he has only a bare half dozen letter men from last year as a nucleus around which to build a team the coach says the prospects are looking good and that he has a scrappy bunch that won't be whipped before the game starts.

The boys that are showing most promise at this time are Garrison, Trully, Gilky and Simmons in the back field; Taylor and Maxwell at the end positions, Gary, Laney and Kitley at tackle; Kellett, Railey and Frost as guards and Cook, Allen and Baker at center, said Coach Petty. He says that the squad will not be handicapped much by injuries, although there is a possibility that Laney will not be in condition for service Saturday because of an injured knee.

Sickness among the boys has hampered his efforts to some extent and some of them may not be in condition Saturday for this reason. Allison was out of school Monday and Tuesday because of illness.

Coach Petty realizes that in meeting the team from Decatur Saturday that he is possibly giving his boys their toughest assignment of the season for their first game. (Continued on page 4)

Reports Are Sent To Washington on Rio Grande Storm

DALLAS.—Maury Hughes, chairman of the state recovery board, has sent detailed information to Washington relative to damages done by the tropical storm in the Lower Rio Grande valley.

The information was supplementary to his recommendation that NRA wage and hour provisions be suspended in the valley until reconstruction work is finished.

Suspension of the 30 cents an hour wage and the eight hour day for common labor was suggested by Hughes following a hearing at Brownsville last week.

Officers Seeking Four Bank Bandits

HAYS, Kan., Sept. 22.—Kansas and Oklahoma officers searched today for four machine gun bandits who robbed the Farmers State bank of $3,000 yesterday, shot the president and kidnaped a dozen persons in their mad flight.

The 12 hostages, including a girl bookkeeper, were released, unharmed, and the outlaws had apparently escaped, despite efforts of a large posse.

The last authentic reports of the bandits came from a point near Holyrood, Kan., where they freed the bookkeeper.

10-Cent Loan On Cotton Predicted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.—A loan of 10 cents a pound on this year's cotton crop to farmers was predicted by Senator Bankhead after a conference with President Roosevelt and agricultural experts of the administration.

Stephenville Yellow Jackets to Play in Ranger Saturday

TEAM TO HAVE FOUR OF LAST YEAR'S SQUAD

Game Will Be First Test of Strength of 1933 Bulldog Eleven.

The Ranger Bulldogs will be seen in action Saturday afternoon for the first time this season when they take on the Stephenville High School Yellow Jackets in a practice game at Lillard field. The Bulldogs have been working out for the past three weeks and Coach Curtis reports that they are all in good condition for the game.

A special price, that equals the Saturday specials in the Ranger stores, is being offered for this game, with a price of 25 cents for adults being made. It was thought by Coach Curtis that by making the price of the game only 25 cents a large crowd would come out and everyone would be able to see the game.

The game is to be called promptly at 3 o'clock in order that the Stephenville team can get back home early.

In order to give the local team a little more competition, the fast Class B team from Erath county and will try out as many of the year's stars who graduated last June and who are not eligible. This concession was allowed by the Ranger coach in order that the Yellow Jackets might present a more formidable array of football talent on the field here.

The yellow-clad gridsters from Stephenville have won the Class B district title for two years in succession and have shown some of the Class A teams some real football the past two years. By using the four stars from last year's team the jackets will be much stronger than they will be when they enter conference competition later in the season.

This will be the first encounter between the two teams since the opening game of the 1931 season, when the two teams met for the first game of the season at Lillard field.

This afternoon two other teams in the Oil Belt get under way with Mineral Wells playing at Breckenridge and Winters playing at Abilene.

Saturday afternoon will see the remainder of the Oil Belt teams in action with Eastland playing at San Angelo, Brownland playing the Decatur college team at Maverick field and the Cisco Lobos playing Gorman at Chesley field.

Although Curtis has not given out his starting lineup, it is expected that he will start his strongest team against the Yellow Jackets and will try out as many of the candidates for positions on the team as the game justifies.

Barbers defeated the Rotary club team, which was fortified somewhat by outsiders, in a four-inning soft ball game Thursday afternoon, taking the long end of a 15 to 9 score.

The Barbers made 13 hits to score their 15 runs and were aided by eight errors on the part of the Rotarians, who made nine hits during the four innings to score their nine runs.

Long hits featured the game from start to finish, while strikeouts predominated when the Rotarians were not knocking out base hits. "Andy" Anderson was strike out king of the day, whiffing three times out of three times at bat.

Grazing Land Sells at $25 a Section

By United Press
PECOS, Texas.—Land sold for 40 cents an acre, cheap as in the Indian days, in Loving county recently.

Four sections of grazing land, sold by U. S. Deputy Marshal John Camp, under an execution brought by the defunct Plainview National bank of Plainview, brought $25 a section.

The bank bid in the land.

BEER PUT OUT BLAZE

By United Press
BURLINGTON, Vt.—Occupants of a Burlington business block have beer to thank for prevention of a possible conflagration. A fire started in the basement of the building. The flames melted copper coils through which beer was pumped to a first floor restaurant. The resultant flood of foaming brew extinguished the fire.

HOOKS AND SLIDES

How's That?
WHEN the announcer bawls out the lineup to the stands at this time next year, the fan who has not seen the Yankees play ball for several months may be astonished. For the pitcher probably will be somebody named Hemingway, the catcher another person named Hemingway, and the right fielder (shades of the old man!) still another lad named Hemingway.

Already the process of reorganizing the club is under way. There will be a few familiar monickers in the new roster, such as Gehrig, Van Atta, Chapman, Dickey, Gomez and Allen, but the other people of the cast will be guys from Peoria.

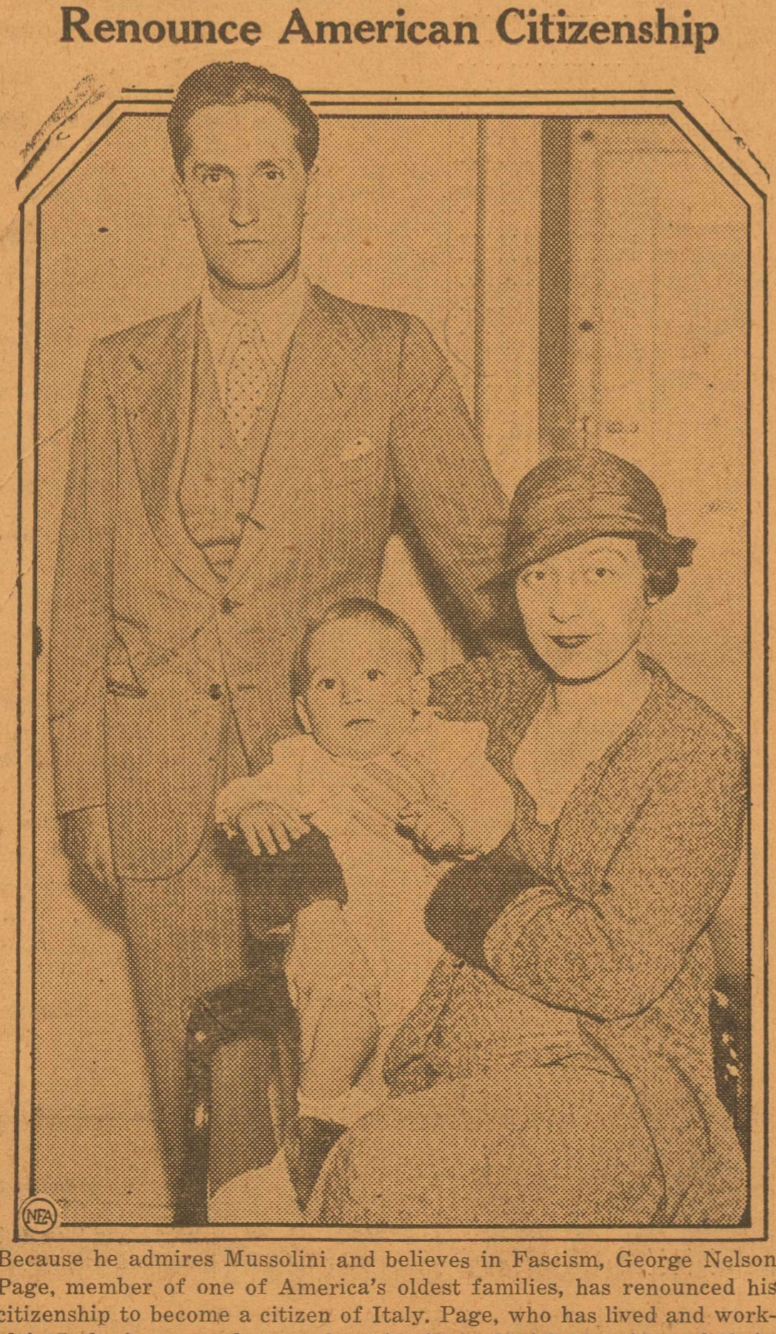

In and Out
THE old King of Swat is on the way out. The folly of retaining Pennock became obvious this year. Joey Sewell, cast away by the Indians two years ago, finally must bend his neck to the blow. A new insider from Dartmouth, "Red" Rolfe, will have the call at shortstop. Jack Saltzgaver, from whom such high things were expected two years ago, will be a regular. Myril Hoag, a bench hand for the last two years, is pretty certain of walking out to an outfield position.

New Pitchers
JOHNNY BROACA, young right-hander from Yale, will be back to vie with Charley Devens of Harvard for pitching popularity. Broaca is the boy who refused to pitch oftener than once a week at Yale, which brought coals of fire onto his ears. Another nitcher who is sure to be in the box scores next year is big Jim Weaver, ace of the Newark pitching staff. There is some question about Jim's status, because he was with the Yankees in 1931, and already has been out on option three times. Before they can move him back to the Yankee bench, the fellow is subject to draft.

Weaver is a gamble in that respect. But a gamble the club will have to take.

Renounce American Citizenship

Because he admires Mussolini and believes in Fascism, George Nelson Page, member of one of America's oldest families, has renounced his citizenship to become a citizen of Italy. Page, who has lived and worked in Italy for several years, here is pictured with his wife and their small son in New York.

Morton Valley

By J. L. FUNK

MORTON VALLEY, Sept. 21.—John Nix had quite a battle with a rattlesnake Friday morning. He found it by his barn but he finally killed it with a rock. It was three feet nine inches long and nine and one-half inches in circumference. It only had 12 rattles but showed that some had been broken off.

There was quite a large crowd attended the calf roping at the States Camp Sunday afternoon. Some of the local boys made some pretty fast time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bond and family visited J. S. Funk and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Henderson and family went to Littlefield Sunday on business.

Guy Stoker went to Snyder Sunday night after his wife, who has been visiting with her parents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Funk visited Mrs. Funk's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frye at Rising Star Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Whatley motored to Strawn Sunday afternoon.

The Morton Valley School District gave Babe Nichols a contract to pick up the children for school on the north end of the district, and extended the regular school bus route west. The patrons of the district sure appreciate the change.

Roy Holman and wife entertained a few of their friends with a party Saturday night. A good time was reported by everyone.

The Morton Valley people are anticipating a great time at the Eastland County Fair this week.

Grandpa Nix is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hensley of Pyote are visiting relatives and friends at Morton Valley this week.

Mrs. Carl Davis and Mrs. J. L. Funk visited Mrs. Cazez on the Harrell lease Tuesday afternoon.

Vernell Cazez, who received a broken leg by being run over by a car in Ranger is improving nicely.

Mrs. Carl Davis entertained some of the ladies of the neighborhood Wednesday afternoon. They were served with cake and punch. Those present were Mmes. Tarver, Bill Wheat, Fay Crouch, Charley Jones, Lester Trout, Byron Graves, Thad Henderson D. W. Funk, Till Wheat Bill Whatley, Jenny Hayes, Marion Harrison, Andrew Beck, J. L. Funk, W. E. Tankersley and Red Westfall.

Everybody reported a very pleasant evening. Cotton picking is well under way in this community. Elmo Funk visited with Shorty McLung at Ranger last week-end.

Mrs. J. R. Tankersley is on the sick list this week. Clifton Tankersley thought his car was stolen Monday. He left it on the Hise Lease for a few minutes and when he returned it was gone. Elmo Funk took him to town to hunt for it and found it at Frank Roberson's garage. Mr. Roberson had gone out to get Tom Butler's car to repair it and went to the wrong place and took Cliff's car by mistake.

SEEK THINGS ABOVE: Set your affections on things above, not on things on the earth.—Colossians 3: 2.

THE PRICE OF A HAPPY MARRIAGE

Those unsavory court proceedings at Los Angeles, where the law is trying to find out whether a former movie star did or did not swipe a young woman's husband, are just about entitled to rank as the most depressing news of the day.

That's not so much because the details are unusually salacious. They aren't; they are probably milder than is usual in a case of this kind. It's just that the whole business displays such a lamentable misconception of the marriage relationship, such a complete failure to comprehend the philosophy that must underlie any successful marriage.

People have been handing down advice on marriage for a good many centuries, now, and the thing has been discussed more freely and frequently in the last few years than ever before. But still the world seems to be full of people who just don't get the idea.

It happens over and over. A man and a woman fall in love, get married, and wait for life to bring them a placid happy-ever-after continuity. Then, pretty soon, he starts flitting about with some other woman, or she begins to tag around with some other man, and the fat is in the fire. There are tears, accusations, angry scenes—and pretty soon the divorce courts have another job, not infrequently of the sort that has to be handled with pitchforks.

Most of this, probably, could be avoided if young husbands and wives could only realize that there isn't any easy recipe for the happy-ever-after business. Marriages aren't made that way. They are built up on disillusionment, disappointment and sorrow, as often as not, and you have to work with all your soul for the rewards that a successful marriage offers.

There are bound to be times when a wife feels her husband is a stupid, obtuse and thoughtless brute; there are bound to be times when a husband feels that his wife is flighty and unreasonable. But what of it? Human nature is imperfect, and it probably always will be. The price of a successful marriage is forbearance and forgiveness and a determination to make a go of it.

But so many people won't realize that. They expect marriage to be one long idyll. It isn't; it never has been and it never will be; but when they find that out they cry to heaven that they have been shamefully used, instead of gritting their teeth and pitching in to make a success of it anyway.

A CHALLENGE TO LABOR AND INDUSTRY

In a time like the present the horizon is fairly cluttered up with signs and portents. None of these is much more significant than the sudden epidemic of strikes—an epidemic that has broken out in the last month or so and that is giving the federal doctors one of the busiest seasons they will ever have.

Whatever else these strikes may mean, they at least prove that industry is no longer stagnant. They didn't put in an appearance during those dull months when we were at the bottom of the depression. They're coming now for a number of reasons, but chiefly because things are picking up. Men don't strike when the plant is closed down for lack of orders.

And the strikes present—to a nation which already has a century's supply of problems to settle in a few months—a new problem; one that carries a double-barreled challenge, one barrel for industry and the other for labor.

It is a challenge that must be read in the light of the NRA program. The National Labor Board's ruling, which emphasizes the fact that the law guaranteeing the right of collective bargaining means exactly what it says, is part of the background for these strikes, and it conditions their significance.

First of all, the problem challenges the directors of industry. It is a test of their spirit of fairness, of their willingness to co-operate in the tremendous experiment of the new deal. Labor has gained a great victory in the Industrial Recovery Act; the industrialist who seeks reprisals and wants to "put labor in its place" is piling up trouble, not only for himself but for the entire country.

Secondly, the problem challenges labor itself. It puts upon labor the necessity of developing some broad-gauge statesmen. It calls on labor to take the long view of things, to exercise patience in places where patience comes hard, to get rid of the racketeer and the self-seeker.

Both of these challenges must be met. The present outbreak of strikes could, if unchecked, lead to a catastrophic situation. It can, if the leaders of the contending forces meet the test with intelligence and patriotism, be the forerunner of a new era in American industrial history, an era in which both sides can profit as never before.

If Mr. Roosevelt doesn't shoo a little money this way soon we may be reduced to the extremity of eating the blue eagle.—Bloomington Grove Times.

Since the Exchange Has Threatened to Move—

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

ABE PLOUGH, president of Plough, Inc., in telling what newspaper advertising has done for his business, says:

"In 1910 our firm invested $187.00 in newspaper advertising. In recent times, we have invested as much as $1,000,000 a year in advertising—mostly in newspapers. I use the word 'invested' instead of 'spent' because in 1910 we sold less than ten thousand packages, whereas our products, are now selling at the rate of 48,000,000 packages a year.

"If, like Elbert Hubbard, I were asked to publish a credo, I should say, (1) manufacture products of merit; (2) sell them at popular prices; and (3) advertise them consistently in newspapers—weekly as well as daily papers.

"I firmly believe newspaper advertising has played a major part in whatever measure of success we have enjoyed."

Everybody should read the classified ads. Most everybody finds use for them, for they are of great value to both buyer and seller.

TUC Will Have An Inexperienced Line This Season

By W. WINSTON COPELAND
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 FORT WORTH—The success of Texas Christian university's football team this year appears to depend on its line and how well young players hold up under severe fire.

The performance of several newcomers in the victory last Friday over Austin college heightened the Frogs' outlook for retaining the Southwest conference crown and brought smiles to Coach Francis Schmidt.

Schmidt, however, is not holding out any false hopes. He realizes this year's squad so far does not measure up to last year's champions.

Particularly pleasing to Schmidt is the accurate passing of left-handed Dan Harston of Dallas. He also has fine running attack. Harston is considered the "find" of the year and may push the veteran Johnny Kitchen out of the full-back job unless Coach Schmidt finds a place for both of them.

The terial attack used in the first game, is taken as an indication Schmidt will resort to an open game this year. Most of his backs are light and fast, offering promise of a powerful broken field game.

Jack Wallace, Texarkana; Charles Casper, San Antonio, and J. Coleman, Waco, all veterans, are light and speedy backs. Once in the open either of the three are dangerous ball carriers. An efficient short pass designed to enable his speed merchants to get through the first line defense is one of the angles on which Schmidt is expected to concentrate.

Kitchen, a good passer and a capable plunger, with several inexperienced but capable men make up the rest of the backfield material.

With two star ends, Captain Jack Graves of Beaumont, and Jack Langdon of Cleburne, as regulars and W. Myers of Jacksboro, with two varsity letters to his credit, and J. Jacks, Fort Worth, an experienced man, as substitutes, that department seems qualified to give a good account of the line.

On the one-sided game with Austin college the line play was ragged with the opponents breaking through repeatedly to smear ball carriers.

Cy Perkins of Olney, is a veteran and strengthens one side of the line at tackle. At the other tackle there are several promising candidates but none with very much experience. Of these, R. Allison, Dallas, is the most experienced. He has yet to make a letter. His chief competition is from three new men, Willis Cannon, Fort Worth, Jury Truelson, Dallas, and M. Godwin, Hot Springs, Ark., each weighing 220 pounds.

Two lettermen guards, L. Bassinger of Fort Worth, and Bud Taylor, of Austin, got first call against Austin college. Each weighs around 180. P. Hill, 220-pounder from Pampa, is a promising heavyweight for a guard post.

If the tackle problem is quickly solved, Schmidt may be able to shift one of the heavier tackle candidates to a guard post.

Darrell Lester, a 200-pound sophomore from Jacksboro, looks like the best bet for center, although Heard Floore, a Fort Worth player with the squad last year, is a strong contender. Both lack polish and need experience.

With his first conference game set for Oct. 7 against Arkansas university, Schmidt will have much time to experiment with his men. His first two games of the conference schedule are against Arkansas and Texas A. & M., rated as the best teams in the conference.

These games will be the real tests of his 1933 team, Schmidt believes.

Texas Geology Is Over 400 Years Old

AUSTIN, Tex.—Studies of geological Texas, which date back to at least 400 years to a crude map purporting to show some of the physical features of what is now Texas, have culminated in a 1,007-page volume prepared by Dr. E. H. Sellards and two assistants.

Studies of Texas geography and geology began as early as 1520 when iPheda coasted from Florida to Vera Cruz and back again, and mapped the Gulf Coast. More than a decade later, Cabeza De Vaca, who ws shipwrecked near Galveston, journeyed across South Texas and into Mexico, making notations of the terrain as he traveled.

An evening banquet, and "open house" in Elks club ballroom at 8 p. m.

Noted visitors from all over the state will be in attendance. The full program will be published in this paper of a later date.

Those present at the meeting, Wednesday were Mmes. W. E. Kellert, T. R. Faulks, J. R. Woods, H. A. Collins, Pearl McEachern, J. A. Watson, E. R. Chandler, J. N. Taylor, R. H. Harrison, C. I. Melton, A. M. Armstrong, D. J. McDonald, and Curt Williams.

Junior Thursday Club

Initial Meeting The Junior Thursday club held its initial meeting in the community clubhouse at 4 p. m., Wednesday with interested young clubwomen in attendance.

The club is sponsored by the Thursday Afternoon club of Eastland, the oldest in point of federation and the first to foster a junior organization here.

The purpose of the club is similar to that of the senior organization; a course of study throughout the year, the building up of the public library, and an initiative interest in the children's section of the library.

The club meetings will be held

The course of study will open with the next meeting, on the fourth of October.

The session Wednesday afternoon was presided over by their president, Miss Joyce Johnson, who opened the procedure with the personal introduction of each officer, with the exception of the secretary, Miss Sadie Brewer, absent on account of illness.

Miss Edna Day, vice president, was presented; Miss Maurine Davenport, library chairman; Miss Aline Walker, critic; Mrs. J. F. Collins, historian, and Miss Mary Pearl Juddins, reporter.

Mrs. F. M. Kenny, president of the senior club, was introduced, and the club was cordially greeted in a pleasing address of welcome on behalf of the sponsoring club.

Mrs. Kenny concluded by announcing that Mrs. Wayne Jones of the Thursday Afternoon club, was the appointed sponsor for the junior club.

A musical program was presented under direction of Miss Loraine Taylor, chairman.

Miss Wilma Beard was charming in a voice solo, "Smiling Through," with Miss Taylor at the piano. A sailor clog was done in costume by Emmalee Hart, Doris Hennessee and Johnnie Lou Hart.

A reading was given by Lurline Ross.

At close of program a dainty tea plate was served of nut sandwiches, mints, and iced tea, by Mrs. Frank Hightower, hostess for the day.

Members present were Misses Wilma Beard, Ima Payne, Dolores Tanner, Lucile Brogdon, Maurine Davenport, Loraine Taylor, Irie Payne, Edna Day, Mary Pearl Juddins, Joyce Johnson, Aline Walker, Mmes. Harry B. Sone, Arthur Vaughn, Frank Hightower, J. F. Collins. Guests were Mmes. F. M. Kenny, J. O. Brothers, Charles Fagg, Jack Ammer, and S. J. Petty Jr.

Miss Sadie Brewer will be leader and hostess at the next meeting. The subject for discussion will be "When Dances Were Prayers."

Mrs. W. E. Brashier and Miss Mary Carter entertain

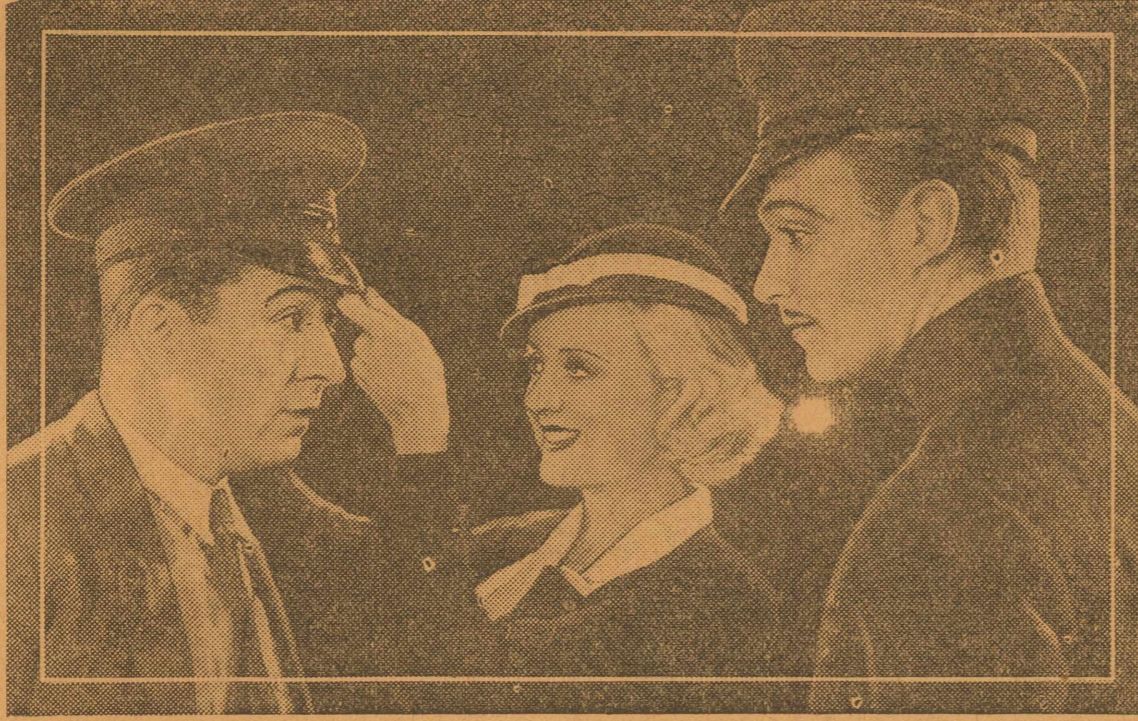

Miss Faye Blankenship of Kaufman, who has been visiting friends in Eastland the past few days, was the honoree of a pretty card affair, given by Mrs. W. E. Brashier, and co-hostess, Miss Mary Carter, at the former's residence on Wednesday night.

The rose motif was carried out in all details of the attractive arrangements in tallies, and matching bridge covers, and bouquets of pink roses were used in adornment throughout the rooms.

High score favor in the game, a novelty porcelain set for kitchen use, was awarded Miss Lavelle Hendrick.

The honoree was presented the guest favor of handsome silk hose.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tate entertained with a noon dinner Thursday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hendrix's fourteenth wedding anniversary. The table was centered with a large white cake decorated in pink and green, surrounded by a bank of green leaves and red berries. Those enjoying this pleasant occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Trimble and John Edward; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Thurman, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stubblefield, Mrs. Clyde Brymer, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tate and daughter, Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Prickett of Brownwood were last week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fields. Miss Alice Gentry of Lubbock is visiting friends in Carbon.

The Carbon community fair was a success considering the trying times we are under and poor crop year. The crop exhibits were good but not so many varieties as formerly shown. The women's department was good. The livestock showing was extra good and shows that people are turning back to the raising of better stock. The entertainments both nights was splendid. All in all the fair was all right.

Rev. and Mrs. Davis had as guests the past week his father and mother of Elgin.

Mrs. H. L. Bray and two children are visiting Mr. Bray in Kilgore, and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Barnett are occupying the home in Mrs. Bray's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson were guests of his brother, Dr. T. G. Jackson, and family, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Norris of Fort Worth were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Greer.

Mrs. Walter Wyatt had as guests over the week-end her three grandsons of Olden, D. M., Bobbie and Joe Collins.

Mrs. Elbert Stevens and Mrs. J. B. Scoggin of Brownwood, Mmes. Will Jenkins, John Bell, George Tomlinson and Cooper Gunter of Zephyr were Monday afternoon guests of Mmes. Kirk and Stafford. This party had attended a big birthday dinner in Gorman and brought the scribbler a generous portion of the birthday "fixins."

Dr. Will Guy of Dublin was a Carbon visitor Monday.

Truly Carter and Maurice Vaughan were visiting in Necessity Sunday.

Mrs. Ellis Boles is on the sick list the past few weeks.

DERRICK SHADOWS

By V. MARIE STEPHENS

Don't you just love it . . . oh, my dear, we simply eat it up.

And have you heard? No! Not really? Oh, isn't that a shame!

I feel so badly about it . . . why, I'd have trusted that man to the end of the world. Tut, tut, and tat! Ummmm.

But don't you just love it? Sure you do . . . frankly, we all do, maybe.

Gossip . . . with what wide eyes and big ears do we take it in. Oh, grandma! And with lacy nightcap and honeyed words the wolf lies back and waits.

Waits to strike at someone you called friend . . .

At someone you pretended to care for . . .

At that man or woman you played double with.

No, gossip has no rules to her smooth game. She doesn't give the other fellow a chance to draw weapon. She strikes coyly . . . slyly . . . without effort.

And the person injured looks about in dazed wonder and mutters . . .

"But I don't understand . . . I don't know what you're talking about . . . surely . . ."

And there you are. It's started and there is no end. And if the wound can be healed . . . the scars remain . . . and how wide are the world's eyes to scars.

Says wise Webster . . . Gossip is the spreading of groundless rumor; the act of carrying tales; idle talk.

And are you sure you don't realize it is idle talk, groundless rumor, just a tale? Are you positive the thing happened like you told it?

And do you believe everything you hear . . . and repeat it?

Is your head a sieve? From the ears to the mouth and out again.

Of course you love it . . . we organize our clubs on it, write our letters about it, entertain with it. We all do . . . you and I . . . and you, too, mister.

So, gather around reading public, and let us tell you about ourselves . . . and you.

The reason you tell me the thing Sue told you, and the reason I pass it on to Sadie is: somewhere back in your life you've had a similar experience. Of course you wouldn't have the world-to-know it, but isn't it nice to know someone else has made the mistake . . . or maybe a worse one?

Oh yes you do . . . you know that's the reason.

So the next time you repeat gossip . . . add a postscript. Tell 'em you know all about it because you've done the same thing . . . that's why your story is so vivid.

Be sure you know what you're going to tell, be sure it is true, be sure you are guiltless . . .

And you won't tell it.

Arlington Downs Is Ready For Racing Season

By United Press

ARLINGTON DOWNS, Tex. — Five feature days have been announced by Paul Waggoner for the racing meet here October 19 to November 11 which will mark the revival of legalized horse races in Texas.

Bookings have been made for 1,200 horses to compete in the meet and more are certain to be entered before the first barrier is lifted, Waggoner said.

The Arlington inaugural opening the meet, will be attended by Vice-President John Nance Garner and Postmaster General James A. Farley. Two year olds and over will run six furlongs for a $1,200 added stake.

The Waggoner Handicap, October 28, for three year olds and over offers a $2,500 added purse for a mile and a sixteenth.

Texas Derby day will be November 4. It will be for three year olds at a mile and a quarter for $2,000 added.

Closing feature of the meet will be the Armistice Day Dallas Handicap for two year olds with a purse of $2,000 added for three-quarters of a mile.

No races will be held on Sundays, Waggoner announced. Seven races will be run daily with $600 to $800 purses posted, he said.

Construction has been started on 300 additional stalls costing $50,000. More than $300,000 has been spent in preparation for the meet, Waggoner said.

Second Saturday of the meet will be auction day for race horses.

Wheat Growers Who Sign Contracts Are Eliminating Gamble

Growers who sign contracts under the national wheat adjustment program are removing some of the gamble in wheat farming, according to M. L. Wilson, chief of the wheat section in the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

"We ask the contracting farmer to reduce acreage and meet certain other requirements," says Wilson, "and in return he receives adjustment payments which assure a parity return on the part of his crop which is covered by the processing taxes."

"The farmer who says out of the plan is under no regulations or compulsion, but neither has he any of the protection or stabilizing features offered in the wheat plan. In short, he takes greater

Arcadia Saturday Floating Gardens Planned for Park

Raul Roulien and Gloria Stuart share principal honors in the new Fox musical romance, 'It's Great To Be Alive.'

OTTINE, Gonzales County, Texas.—A rival for the floating gardens of Xochimilco, Mexico, on the San Marcos river in Texas is being planned.

The gardens will form a part of the Ottine state park for which land grants are being secured by State Park Chairman D. C. Colp of San Antonio.

A 500-acre tract is planned with gardens as a central feature.

"There is vegetation at Ottine that cannot be found elsewhere on the North American continent," Colp said. "Many people travel to Mexico to see the floating islands of their national park. Should this park be developed, we can offer them something as strange in floating islands."

The park site is being offered as a landscaping project under the national recovery program.

TOOK PILLS FOR 30 YEARS, THEN CEREAL BROUGHT RELIEF

Mr. Forsythe Endorses ALL-BRAN for Constipation

If you suffer from headaches, loss of appetite and energy or any other of the frequent effects of constipation, read this voluntary letter:

"After taking pills and tablets for about thirty years for constipation, I started to take your ALL-BRAN three times a day according to directions. Today I can eat cheese, and that is binding, and certainly feel fine."—Mr. Ed. Forsythe, Box 219, Youngstown, N. Y.

Science says ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. In addition, ALL-BRAN is rich in blood-building iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using patent medicines—so often habit-forming?

Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. In serious cases use with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Black-Draught For Gas After Meals

"About five years ago, I suffered at my stomach quite a good deal," writes Mr. M. H. Venable, of Persia, Tenn. "It would smother, have a lot of gas, and bloat. A friend asked me why I didn't take Black-Draught. I took little doses after meals and my stomach trouble was over and has not come back. Now I only take a dose every once in a while."

* Children like the new, pleasant tasting SYRUP of Black-Draught.

Review of the Quarter
"Be strong and of good courage; for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest," is the first golden text of this past quarter. In studying these various characters with their success and failures in mind, we trace God's plan and works through them to the coming Messiah.

Always God was with them when they opened their hearts to him, to lead them from victory unto victory.

Joshua and Caleb were men of faith, courage, obedience and strength making a stirring story of their lives. These were men who "wholly followed Jehovah."

Three women, Deborah, the judge who led her people to victory in their darkest days, one who talked with God; Ruth, the heathen daughter-in-law, who learned to love the God of Naomi and was blessed with a happy life in line with the coming Messiah; Hannah, the praying mother, whom God heard and blessed, giving her Samuel for a son to rear for God; whose lives are beautiful stories. These stories will live forever and ever, be encouraging to women to pray, love and worship with great adoration for the Messiah who came and now sits at the right hand of God to make intercession for all who falter and fail in this life.

Samuel, Saul, David, Jonathan and Solomon are notable characters for study but through it all is how well they let God work through them to the fulfillment of His plans.

Samuel was faithful to Jehovah and his people, prevailing in prayer.

Saul leads us to hope great things for him in his early life only to disappoint us in failing to follow God in later life, dying an ignoble death withdrawn from God's protection by his own disobedience.

David, the sweet singer of Israel, gives us much beauty to remember. He failed but he always came back to God for forgiveness, acknowledging his sin and worshipping God.

Jonathan gives us the story of a great friendship, founded upon principles that live today. "A friend loveth at all times."

Solomon is an example of answered prayer in the right spirit. He was given wisdom, riches and power to build the great temple. He is also an example to all who forget God. When his riches grew he became powerful and exercised it without God's help. God became angry and Solomon's life was clouded in dishonor and defeat.

We might glimpse each of these character studies as a great painting. Looking at it we can see the sweep of beauty as God's plans are followed but as dabs of paint when self is exalted.

We are weaving the tapestry of life. We would love to have it perfect and in likeness to Christ but how broken and rough must be the threads. It will be beautiful only as we obey.

"Serve the Lord with all your heart."
"Be strong in the Lord and in the power of his might."

For the LOVE of EVE

by Lucy Walling

BEGIN HERE TODAY
EVE BAYLESS, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, marries DICK RADER, a construction superintendent. Dick is sent to take charge of a construction job in the Adirondacks. It will require at least a year to complete but Eve refuses to give up her work and go with him.

MOVA ALLEN, copy writer, dislikes Eve and is constantly causing trouble at the office. She is responsible for several mistakes for which Eve is blamed. Mona is friendly with TIBBON BEEBE who continues to force unwelcome attentions on Eve.

Unknown to Dick, Eve has been playing the stock market, borrowing money from her mother and sister. She loses this, as well as all her savings and $400 Dick left in the bank.

Eve is lonely and misses Dick. She begins to wonder if she should not give up her job and go to him. On Thanksgiving day she writes him a long letter telling him that she is willing to come to Pine Forest.

The day before Christmas a telegram for Eve was delivered at Bixby's advertising office. Arlene signed for it.

"From Pine Forest, N. Y., no doubt," she said to Mrs. Penney. "I suppose Eve's husband is wishing for an extra Merry Christmas. He certainly is the answer to a maiden's prayer—and I don't see how Eve dares to be so casual about him."

Mrs. Brooks expressed the same sentiment to her oldest son Christmas morning. The Rader doorbell had been ringing incessantly for many minutes before her own sounded. She hurried to see who her caller might be and opened the door to face Dick, who stood that in hand, with a worried look on his face. He all but ignored her Christmas greetings in his haste to ask about Eve.

DICK'S telegram, lying on Eve's desk when she arrived at the office that morning, had been a shock. Her Christmas at home had been most unsatisfactory, due to the fact that she missed Dick so and none of her relatives seemed to sympathize with her. Women of her mother's type knew but one code after marriage—duty to husband and family.

Eve noticed the ashes in the tray next to Dick's favorite chair. Wearily she sank into the chair and tenderly stroked the arms because Dick had been there so recently. She closed her eyes and tried to picture just how he looked, wondering whether he were thin, tired and sad looking or robust and happy. Miss McElhinney would know, she thought bitterly and her resentment against Dick and the girl increased as she pondered over the latter's story of Dick's Christmas.

CHAPTER XLII
BUCKEYE did not give up her job at Bixby's next morning. Instead she burst the letter she had written to Dick.

"I'll have to keep away from Mrs. Penney and Marcy," she decided. "They always put me in a sentimental mood. After all, there's no more reason why I should give up my work than that Dick should give up his!"

It would be foolish, she assured herself, to give up the comforts she enjoyed in Lake City for the privations under which she was sure Dick lived in Pine Forest.

In mid-December he wrote to her: "When it snows up here it snows and stays snowed! We have had to burrow our way through the drifts for several weeks now and there's no knowing how long it will be before this blanket of snow thaws."

Dick did not seem to mind the hardships of this life in the woods. Indeed he did not even consider such primitive surroundings as hardships. He never wrote to Eve that he missed her and she failed to read between the lines. Through each letter always concluded, "with all my love—Dick." Eve wanted more proof than that of his steadfast devotion.

Of course they had planned it all. She had been blind to fail to see it before. That was why he had not notified her sooner of his plans. Uncontrollable sobs broke from Eve and her body shook. A last she went to bed.

It was then that she found Dick's Christmas gift. He had placed the package under her pillow. Ev drew it out and unwrapped it. Inside was a cameo pin with an old gold setting.

Of course Dick was hurt because Eve had not confided to him her plan to go home to visit her parents. She had had plenty of time to do so. It had only been the day before Christmas when he found that he could get away from work long enough to make the trip to Lake City.

She was disappointed that he made no reference to the coming holidays. Her resentment grew until she felt she had a real grievance because he failed to show concern over the Christmas ahead. The day was to fall on Wednesday and Eve felt that Dick should come home to spend a week or 10 days. Her better judgement told her it would be a long expensive trip to make and that Dick's work was too important for him to leave it to others at this time.

Let's go inside," Dick suggested as they approached the building on which he had worked so long. After the matinee they followed a throng to a popular Christmas restaurant where they dined and

MRS. BROOKS had a key to the apartment which she gave Dick. After he had gone she shook her head mournfully. "The poor dear!" she said. "To come all that way for Christmas and then find nobody at home. I'll ask him to dinner."

Dick found himself placed next to Dorothy McElhinney at the dinner table. If he missed the companionship of his wife he suffered nothing from lack of solitude. Miss McElhinney gave him her undivided attention, engaging in a sprightly conversation and causing him to laugh frequently. When the dinner came to an end Dick lingered in the pleasant living room of Mrs. Brooks' suite. Later when Miss McElhinney noticed that he was becoming restless she suggested a walk and directed his footsteps toward the theater district.

TEN days before Christmas she mailed a box to Dick which she took great pleasure in packing. There was the pair of skates he had wanted for years. Eve was sure they would mean more to him this year, perhaps. Then at any other time. She shared with him the homemade fruit cake and Christmas cookies her mother had sent her. Kate Bayless' holiday

Eve destroyed the flippant reply she had composed. She had the grace to admit to herself that the present situation was her own fault. But something perverse it Dick this.

Thus the breach widened.

New Drilling Order Causes Confusion

AUSTIN.—Reports that federal or state governments might stop "wildcatting" for oil has led many Texas operators to confuse a recent order issued by the state railroad commission.

The order held no permits for drilling under regulations governing well spacing would be issued unless the commission first held a hearing on the application. The oil and gas division explained no permits are required except under the spacing rule, and that any well located the regular distance from property lines and other wells may be drilled without a permit.

The only requirement is that a notice of intention to drill be filed with the commission.

Guaranteed Against Breakage From Heat in the Oven

The Heat Quick Bottom is a patented feature found exclusively on GLASBAKE. The deflecting ridges are scientifically placed on the bottom of each utensil to distribute the heat evenly over the entire bottom area. No scorching hot spots or cold spots can possibly exist on GLASBAKE. The heat quick bottom not only saves fuel but insures even baking. Besides when you see the heat quick bottom rings you know it is the genuine GLASBAKE.

GLASBAKE Oven Ware saves your time in three distinct ways. First—in the oven. Foods bake quicker in GLASBAKE. Second—in the serving. The same dish used in the oven is used at the table. No transferring from baking dish to serving dish to consume time and waste heat. Third—in the dishwashing. GLASBAKE cleans readily—and you know it's clean. Saves washing extra serving dishes, too.

And just notice these new and amazing low prices.
