

RANGER DEFEATS EASTLAND BY 46-13 SCORE

TEXAS RANGERS BEAT DECATUR BY 30 SCORE

The Ranger Junior College Texas Rangers won their first conference game at Lillard field Friday afternoon by a score of 3 to 0 when Charley Black place-kicked a field goal from his 24-yard line which sailed straight between the uprights on the goal post to give the Rangers the lead which they maintained throughout the remaining five minutes of the game.

Both teams fumbled repeatedly throughout the first half of the game, due, so officials of the game said, to a slick ball that the backfield men could not retain in their grasp when they were tackled.

To open the game Decatur kicked off to Ranger on the 15-yard line and Weaver returned the ball to the 36-yard line before being downed. Roy Brown, who did practically all the ball carrying for the Rangers, fumbled on the first play and Decatur recovered. On the first play the Indians fumbled, but recovered and then fumbled again to lose the ball to Ranger. Weaver attempted a pass, which was intercepted by Grogin, who fumbled when tackled and Ranger recovered, only to lose the ball to Decatur on their first line play on another fumble. This kept up throughout the first half, with a few fumbles made in the last two quarters of the game. Decatur accounting for nine miscues throughout the game and Ranger six.

The teams were evenly matched on defense and offense, neither team being able to gain any ground throughout the first half. Ranger making five first downs, with the aid of fumbles and penalties, and Decatur making four in the first half by the same method. Only one Ranger first down was earned in the first half, while Decatur earned two.

In the second half the two teams again battled in mid-field, the only threat made by the Indians coming in the third quarter when Decatur took the ball on their 32-yard line and Beasley and Bryarley accounted for a first down when Bryarley got off the longest run of the game, a 17-yard canter. Ranger drew a 15-yard penalty and Dick Murray was taken out of the game with the ball on the Ranger 18-yard line.

Beasley lost three and then gained it back on the next play and was held on the third and a lateral pass failed to gain and the ball went over to Ranger on her 18-yard line. Brown made five yards around right end and Daniels picked up one, but Ranger drew an off-side penalty and Daniels got off a good kick that carried high and the wind stopped it and turned it out of bounds on Ranger's 27-yard line, where the Indians again began a threat that looked for a while as if it might be turned into a touchdown, but their threat was stopped when passes failed to click.

Ranger's only chance to score came in the last quarter when Gipson kicked out to Brown on the 45-yard line and he returned it to the Decatur 36, where he was stopped. Weaver's pass to Daniels was good for 19 yards and a first down on the 17-yard line, where Brown made three yards, Daniels one, and Brown lost three. Charley Black was then called on to kick the goal.

Standing on the Decatur 24-yard line Black placed the ball through the exact center of the goal uprights, a nice kick for a total of 34 yards and a ball game.

Decatur came back in the last five minutes with a barrage of passes, most of which were incomplete, but enough were snagged to gain considerable ground. One thrust was stopped by "Squint" Williams who intercepted an Indian pass on his own 40-yard line, and the other was stopped by John Bray, who turned the same trick on his 21-yard line. The Rangers tried three line plays and kicked out. Danger and the Indians attempted four more passes as the game ended.

Passes—Ranger attempted 12, completed three for a total of 49 yards, had two intercepted and seven incomplete; Decatur attempted 22, completed five for a total of 77 yards, and had two intercepted and 15 incomplete.

Punts—Ranger punted 13 times for an average of 35 yards and Decatur punted nine times for an average of 39 yards.

Penalties—Ranger penalized 11 times for a total of 75 yards, Decatur 12, for a total of 85 yards.

RUSSIANS ARE ELATED OVER NEGOTIATIONS

MOSCOW, Oct. 21.—Russia displayed unconcealed jubilation today at the prospect of recognition by the United States, and regarded the exchange of letters between President Roosevelt and President Kalinin as the most important event in recent history.

Officials were openly enthusiastic. Popular enthusiasm was apparent. Wherever people gathered prospects of recognition was the only topic of talks.

The news denominated the front page of newspapers and evoked comment throughout the country. Officials said Litvinoff, foreign minister, would leave in a few days for Washington.

The official government paper in its editorial, said President Roosevelt's initiative would be greeted warmly "not only by public opinion in the United States and the Soviet Union but by friends of peace everywhere."

The Soviet Union, the newspaper said, would adhere to the principle of mutual non-interference and collaboration.

"Experience shows that under normal relations it is easier to create a propitious atmosphere for discussion and regulation of disputable questions."

The letter, found by senate investigators, was said to be written on stationery of the R. F. C. It was addressed to the chairman of the board of the Chase bank, and referred to previously undisclosed discussion of transactions in Seaboard securities. Couch denied knowledge of the letter.

Texas Woman Is Only Member of DAV of World War

DALLAS.—Somewhere on the high seas eastward bound from Galveston is a little French war bride from Dallas who probably is the only woman eligible to membership in Disabled American Veterans of the World War.

She is Mrs. Arthur A. Palmer. She is returning to France to care for her aged parents, remnants of a once wealthy noble family who live in a small chateau on the outskirts of Paris. Her husband remained behind to participate in a local drive of the D. A. V. after which he intended to sail to join her in France.

Marguerite Le Drugen, before her marriage to Palmer, served with the United States treasury department and in the quartermaster's department in Paris during the war. She suffered injuries to her eyes when German bombers destroyed an American warehouse.

After the armistice she worked with the American Red Cross. It was at a Red Cross ball that she met Palmer. They were married Oct. 4, 1919.

Before the war the French girl taught her language in a London school, and later was a French movie actress, in which capacity she traveled in many foreign countries. In Shanghai she became acquainted with Herbert Hoover, then a mining engineer in China.

None was injured by the bombs.

Buckaroos Defeat Brownwood By 12-2

The Breckenridge Buckaroos defeated the Brownwood Lions 12 to 2 at Brownwood Saturday afternoon.

The Brownwood score came when Taylor's kick was blocked and he attempted to run it back and was tackled behind his goal line.

The first Buckaroo score came in the second quarter when Taylor passed to Hodges for five yards and he raced 42 yards to the two-yard line. A five-yard penalty was given Breckenridge for off-side and when line plays failed Taylor passed to Collins for the touchdown.

The second Buckaroo score came when Hodges, on a spin, raced 52 yards to score. Both attempts to kick goal failed.

FARM STRIKE IS POPULAR RENO DECLARES

DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 21.—Stimulated by prompt action of national and state governments in the interest of agriculture, the national farmers holiday association today pushed forward its farm strike.

Milo Reno, president, said he would confer with organized labor, particularly representatives of the railroad roups in Chicago Monday to talk over possible cooperation of industrial workers in the strike movement.

Not even the national holiday headquarters could estimate the number of farmers in 27 states supporting the holiday, who went on strike today. If present plans materialize, there will be no violence, except as necessary to prevent eviction of farmers from their homes.

Reno hoped to enlist several million farmers. Farm bureau leaders, who will not participate, and other recognized agricultural experts here predicted not more than 10 per cent of the farmers in the Mississippi Valley would be enrolled.

Holiday leaders feel the present strike will result in high-way picketing to force non-participants to keep produce and livestock from markets. In previous strikes picketing was resorted to in some communities.

Rather, Reno said, the strikers will concentrate on preventing mortgage foreclosures.

National officers were greatly encouraged by the reception of the strike call by governors of mid-west states and the national administration.

"For the first time in the history of America," Reno said, "we are getting a sympathetic hearing. Washington is at last aroused. The governors of nearby states, while they could be giving us more support, at least are sympathetic. That's something unheard of in the past."

"I predict we will win this strike."

Marriage Business Boomed After the 'Gin Law' Repeal

FORT WORTH.—The marriage business boomed here during September, first month after repeal of the "gin marriage" law became effective.

There were 218 marriage licenses issued during the month as compared with 68 during the same period last year. Officers attributed the increase to repeal of the law that required a three-day notice of intention to wed.

Couples, they said, are staying at home to marry rather than to adjacent states as they did before.

Brown shirts of the Nazi regime have replaced the patriarchal robes of Oberammergau, scene of the Passion Play, and the Hitler salute is the greeting to visitors in the far-famed Bavarian town. In the recent election, she was chosen again for the part which she played in 1930.

CARNIVAL IS BIG SUCCESS; DRAWS CROWDS

Big crowds again visited Ranger Friday and Saturday nights and on Saturday afternoon to attend the last two days and nights of the three-day celebration staged by the merchants of the city for the entertainment of the out-of-town visitors.

The crowds this year were even larger than the ones which attended the trades carnival held last year, proving that they are popular with both the residents of the city and the citizens of the rural sections.

The Ranger High school band entertained the crowds again Friday night and the high school pep squad was on hand to hold a pep rally for the Eastland-Ranger game and to add to the entertainment features.

Saturday night the ever-popular American Legion Tickville band put on one of their programs under the direction of Dr. Harry A. Logsdon, after which free boxing performances were staged.

"There is plenty of war talk in Europe, but it is all bunk." This was the reassuring message Ralph D. RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA TO BE DISCUSSED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Formidable obstacles in the path of American recognition of Soviet Russia will confront Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinoff, Russian foreign minister, when they meet in the White House to bring the two nations together after 16 years of diplomatic estrangements.

Political experts expected the obstacles to be overcome and recognition to come from their series of talks.

The goal is the exchange of ambassadors between Washington and Moscow and the stimulation of profitable trade between two of the nations.

The obstacles they must overcome are:

- 1—Financial claims. Russia's obligations to the United States are of three kinds; the defaulted $187,000,000 loan made from the United States treasury to the Kerensky regime. Some $90,000,000 of miscellaneous notes given to American bankers by the Czarist government. Individual claims of American citizens for property confiscated totaling about $300,000,000.

- 2—Communist propaganda in the United States.
- 3—Trade relations. It is possible that during the visit Litvinoff an economic treaty may be negotiated. The R. F. C. is considering an advance of $75,000,000 for the purchase here by Russia of cotton and non-ferrous metals.

BULLDOGS ARE TOO MUCH FOR THE MAVERICKS

Teams Play on Even Terms Through First Half of the Game.

Ranger's Bulldogs, after getting off to a bad start against the Eastland Mavericks, came back strong to run up a score of 46 to 13 before the final whistle blew Saturday afternoon at Maverick field.

The Mavericks threw a scare into the Bulldogs early in the game when they marched through to a quick touchdown after Anderson fumbled on the first play of the game and Eastland recovered on the Ranger 48 yard line.

Three plays by Eastland, with Garrison doing the ball carrying, lost eight yards and he kicked out to Gray on the 20 yard line and the ball was returned to the 30 yard line. Another fumble, this time by Gray, gave Eastland the ball and Eastland marched down the field to the first score of the game; a short pass, Garrison to Taylor, accounting for the score. Tully kicked the goal.

Ranger came right back to tie the score, two plays after the kickoff failed to gain and Cole kicked out to the Eastland 22 yard line. Eastland failed to gain and Garrison's kick was blocked and Anderson recovered it for Ranger on the 17 yard line. Britt made 15 yards around end and Anderson went over for the touchdown and kicked the goal.

The two teams battled on even terms throughout the remainder of the quarter, with Ranger in possession of the ball on the Eastland 25-yard line when the second quarter started. Eastland drew a five-yard penalty and Britt raced 20 yards for the second Ranger touchdown and Anderson kicked goal.

The Mavericks took to the air, a long pass Tully to Chick gaining 55 yards and placing the ball on the one yard line. Tully hit the line twice before he could get it over and his attempt to kick goal failed, the score being 14 to 13 in favor of Ranger. Late in the quarter Joe Briley slipped around right end, shook off a couple of tacklers and raced 33 yards for a touchdown. Anderson failed to kick the goal.

Eastland did not threaten throughout the second half of the game, while the Bulldogs came back with a variety of plays that kept the Mavericks guessing and scored four more touchdowns before the game ended.

Ranger's fourth touchdown came in the third quarter when the Bulldogs started a drive that went 80 yards for the score. Four first downs in a row by Britt, Briley, Anderson and Gray put the ball on the Eastland 30 yard line. Gray slipped through tackle for 25 yards and Anderson hit the line twice for the score. His attempt to kick goal was blocked.

Just as the third quarter ended Gray again slipped through tackle for 22 yards and a touchdown and Anderson kicked the goal to make the score 33 to 13 for Ranger.

After the kickoff Cole intercepted an Eastland pass on the Maverick 32 yard line and another march for a touchdown was started. Briley made seven yards and Anderson stepped off eight for a first down. Briley then made three and Britt seven for another first down on the Eastland eight yard line. Anderson made half the distance and Briley made it to the one-half yard line. Anderson required two lunges at tackle to carry the ball over. Anderson again failed to kick goal.

Another intercepted pass led to the last Bulldog touchdown when Anderson snared one of Garrison's passes and was downed on the Eastland 49-yard line. Gray stepped off 27 yards to the Eastland 22 yard line and both he and Garrison, who finally downed him were put out of the game. On two plays Briley made a first down, Britt made seven and Briley plunged through left tackle to make the coveted goal line. Anderson kicked the goal and the final score was Ranger 46, Eastland 13.

Anderson, Briley and Gray stood out at ball carrying for Ranger, with Britt coming in for a large share of the round gaining from his position at left end. Cole was exceptionally good on breaking up Eastland passes and on snatching one of the three touchdowns.

GREATH THINGS: Fear the Lord, and serve him in truth: for consider how great things he hath done for you.—1 Samuel 12: 24.

PUDDLER JIM DAVIS GIVEN CLEAN BILL BY JURY OF HIS PEERS

Senator James J. Davis of Pennsylvania has been on the rack for a long time. A federal indictment charging violation of the lottery laws of the nation was returned against the Pennsylvania labor leader and politician two years ago. He was the director general of the Loyal Order of Moose. He was acquitted by a jury in a federal court after a trial lasting three and one-half weeks. It was his second trial, the first having ended in a jury deadlock a year ago. G. Miller, head of the Moose propagation department, won a verdict of the jury that gave Davis his complete vindication.

Senator Davis was born in Wales. He came to America when a little lad. He was given a job as a breaker boy in a coal mine. He evolved into a steel worker and labor leader. He was known as "Puddler Jim." He invaded the political field. He became a leader of the Pennsylvania republicans. He was in the cabinet of two republican presidents as commissioner of labor. He won a seat in the senate of the United States. He became the head of the Loyal Order of Moose. Now he will be candidate for reelection next year and Gov. Gifford Pinchot, making the race as an independent republican and backer of the Roosevelt policies, will be a rival contender. There is no land like this. "Puddler Jim" Davis has had a successful past, but a political bird with a broken wing, it is said, "never flies high again." Of course, there are exceptions.

HISTORIC TEXAS RANCH MAY DEVELOP RICH OIL DIGGINGS

Now it is said the King ranch has been leased to the Humble Oil company and that $3,500,000 was paid for the lease. Moreover, it is said that the Humble Oil company plans one of the largest exploration projects in the history of the petroleum industry.

This ranch, containing a million acres, spreads its vast domain over nine counties. It was founded in the early 50's of a dead center by Capt. Richard King and Captain Mifflin Kenedy. Later they divided their holdings. Captain King died many years ago. His widow placed the management of the ranch in the hands of Richard A. Kleberg, who married her daughter. Richard J. Kleberg died in 1932. Cong. Richard J. Kleberg, Jr., assumed management of the property.

Thousands of Texans and thousands of tourists from afar have visited the palatial ranch home of Santa Gertrudis. It is an historic spot and away back in the early days of Texas the Kings and the Kenedys and the Klebergs were the compatriots of Sam Houston and among the builders of early Texas. It must be true that all things made by the hand of man are perishable and pass away.

A lot of frisky motorists tear along the streets and laugh when a pedestrian has to jump to keep from getting killed. If the tables could be turned and these gay motorists should be obliged to take a high dive or a quick jump to save their hides, what joy it would give the law-abiding citizen.

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK

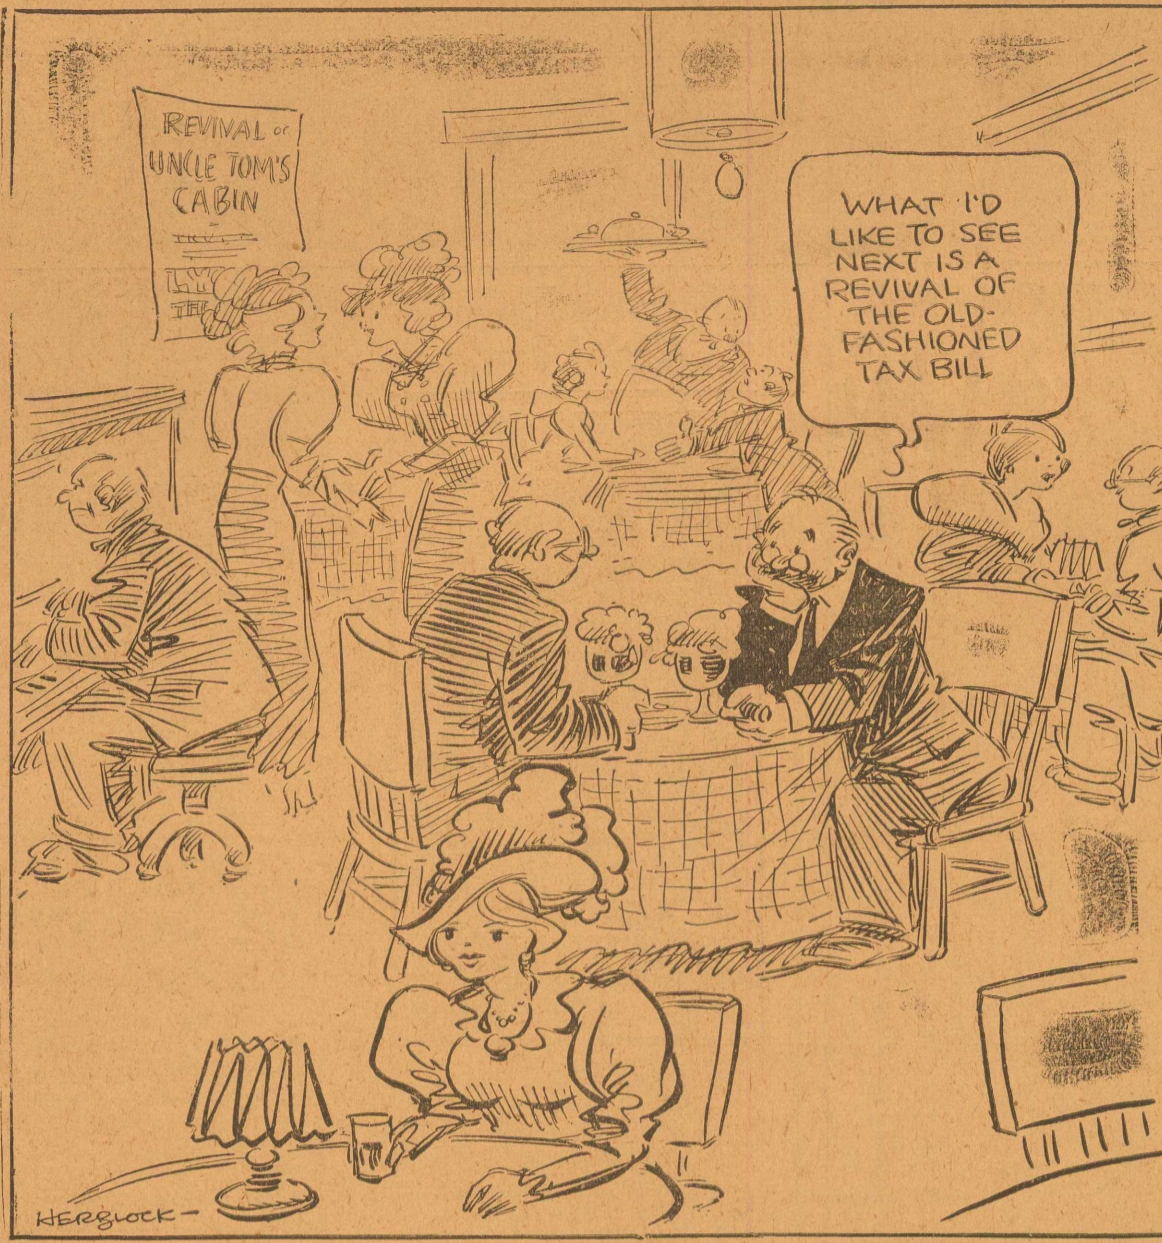

By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma

We have some citizens with strange ideas in this wonderful country of ours. For instance, those who think the government should enter into every line of business in direct competition with its citizens. The mere mention of private enterprise to these strange citizens produces the same effect as a red rag produces on a bull. It seems if they had their way they would consign all those who believe in private enterprise to the uttermost depths of the infernal regions.

I met one of these gentlemen the other day. Frankly, he looked like an ordinary citizen—just like the rest of us. His special bug was printing. He thought the government should go into the printing business in a big way. He spoke about the government printing envelopes, etc., and said they should print letter heads and all sorts of printing. He thought it would be a good idea to leave his order at the post office and get a cheaper rate. I told him that it is a long way to Washington. His reply was that it didn't cost anything to ship them.

I have met some nuts in my day, but he is the best one I have ever met. When I told him that it was my opinion that every dollar's worth of printing done by any business concern should be done in a shop in their home town, for what is spent in their own home town helps them he proceeded to flare up. Well, I am still alive and still believe in private enterprise and in buying at home.

Since the Good Old Days Seem to Be Coming Back

Six Ford V-8's Win European Alpine Trail Race

Six Ford V-8 cars piloted by Dutch drivers triumphed conclusively over five European and two other American entrants in the fifth annual running of the grueling five-day International Alpine Trail over 1,165 miles of Swiss, Italian and French mountain roads, according to official reports of the race just received here.

Three of the winning Fordas driven by a Dutch team captained by Dr. J. J. Sprenger van Eyck captured the coveted Coupe des Alpes, while the three other Fords won the first three places in the individual competition for the Coupe des Glaviers. The first two tied for first place with the best score of any of the dozens of contestants in the five classes competing.

The annual Alpine contest is probably the most severe test of motor car endurance and performance conducted in Europe. It is open only to stock cars as sold to the public. Its route from Merano, via St. Moritz, Turin and Grenoble to Nice, includes the ascent and descent of 12 major passes, with steep winding roads, scores of dangerous "hair-pin" turns and a never-ending variety of road surfaces, which test alike the stamina of the cars and the skill of the drivers.

Most difficult of all the passes is the Stelvio, in the Orler Alps between Italy and Switzerland. It rises to 9,150 feet above sea level. The highway leading to it is the highest automobile road in the world. In the course of the 11-mile climb from the valley the drivers were forced to negotiate 52 "hair-pin" bends before reaching the snow capped top of the mountain.

The Ford cars and other competitors in the principal class were required to make the ascent of this difficult pass at an average of 28 miles an hour. Many were forced to stop along the way to replenish the water in their violently steaming radiators but the Ford cars came up the pass in formation without a halt and continued their journey without adding water.

At the final inspection of the competing cars at the finish in Nice where penalties were imposed for faults in condition, the Ford cars were passed without penalty and the drivers complimented by the judges upon the condition of the cars, both mechanically and in appearance.

Prison System Has Half Million Dollar Saving for Year

By United Press
HOUSTON.—Economy in the Texas prison system will enable the system to return to the state about $500,000 of its 1933 appropriations, according to Chairman W. A. Paddock.

Paddock said the system spent about $1,303,000 during the fiscal year ended Aug. 31, and that the legislature appropriated $1,860,190. Of this sum, $580,690 was spent for salaries.

About $100,000 was used to rehabilitate prison buildings damaged by the August, 1932, hurricane, Paddock said.

Raising of food to be consumed by prisoners on the prison farms was one of the greatest savings effected, Paddock said.

Ranger Bulldogs

Bulldogs attempted Jacoby, playing tackle on the defense, made many of the Ranger tackles and he and Britt made passing a hazard for the Mavericks, which accounted somewhat for their failure to make more of them click.

Ranger punted six times for an average of 25 yards, Eastland punted nine times for an average of 39 yards.

Ranger drew nine penalties for a total of 95 yards, Eastland drew 13 penalties for a total of 80 yards.

Ranger made 18 first downs to five for Eastland.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Oct. 22.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the Lord. . . . For the day of the Lord of hosts shall be upon everyone that is proud and lofty, and upon everyone that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low; . . . and the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the Lord shall be exalted in that day" (Isaiah 2:5, 12, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Job said: 'I have heard of Thee by the hearing of the ear; but now my eye seeth Thee.' Mortals will echo Job's thought, when the supposed pain and pleasure of matter cease to predominate. They will drop the false estimate of life and happiness, of joy and sorrow, and attain the bliss of loving unselfishly, working patiently, and conquering all that is unlike God" (page 262).

21 Days of This and That

Acceding to Your Daily Times
Gathered and collected, clipped and torn, taken from the files of your very own local daily, we look back over 21 October days.

Reviewing 21 summer-fall days, we find Mrs. Saule Perlstein and young daughter, Doris, returning from the homeland.

Protecting our youngsters, Miss Beatrice Lott, state health nurse, arrived, and still is, in Eastland county.

Drifting into the realm of clubs, the Junior New Era organization betook itself to Hagaman lake for a picnic supper and boat ride.

Following the pace of tea tables and Madeira, the New Era club opened with a reception and fine arts program at the Gholsen hotel.

Back to trees and mosquitoes and things, the local Hassen company employes covered the asphalt miles to Hamlin to join brother employes in a camp bake.

From Beysour, Syria, came word from Mrs. D. Joseph, left in the native land. Mr. Joseph recently returned to resume duties with the Joseph Dry Goods company.

With wedding jitters and nervous thrills, the bells ring. Miss Orel Carter became the bride of John Finis King; Geraldine Forrest of Thurber and Raymond Birch of Gainesville drew the matrimonial spotlight for the moment.

Miss Rose McEver, accompanied by a group of sixth grade girls, branched out in a F. U. N. club. Plans hint there may be a lot of it before the year is out.

While celebrities reigned supreme, Mrs. Mills Davenport and daughter, Mary Edlo, dined with 1,000 other honored guests at the Farley-Garner breakfast, Fort Worth.

Meanwhile, Ranger's only twins-to-be-born-at-the-West-Texas-clinic celebrated their third birthday. And while cakes are in order, we recall the surprise dinner prepared by children and friends, honoring Mrs. Martha Rawls on her 83rd birthday. A bon voyage for another year.

And so, having ransacked the files and necessarily omitted stacks of important social items, due to limited space, we bid a reluctant adieu to old papers and dust.

Looking forward, we hope you'll co-operate with us. What did you do yesterday? Today? Tomorrow? As sleuths... the society columns depend on you.

Standard Workers Training Class Closes

The lodge will be entertained with a Halloween party Oct. 31, with Mrs. Claude Barney, Travis street, hostess.

Times Cuts Rates On Lodge Notices
There has been some misunderstanding concerning the notice run in Thursday's Times with reference to the price of lodge announcements. As was stated, the local paper has worked out a rate of 25 cents per insertion for notices of not more than 40 words.

This price refers only to lodge notices and fraternal organizations. The Times does not charge for news stories concerning social events, local class and club meetings, or full reports on fraternal meetings.

This rate, which is half the regular advertising rate, was placed as low as possible in order that every lodge might be able to run its notices each week. An accompanying notice will be inserted in the social column without charge.

The Times requests that all social events and items of news be reported promptly in order to place the activities of the city before the reading public. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

Sunbeam Band and Auxiliary Study Japan

Mae West Film "I'm No Angel," Sensational Hit
With all the traditional works of the old Wild West shows, Mae West, screendom's current sensation, comes to the Arcadia theatre tomorrow in her newest release, "I'm No Angel," which will have the day run.

Mae set herself a difficult task bettering her first picture, "She Done Him Wrong," which lifted her to the top of the cinematic ladder and made her a world idol, but she has succeeded!

From every standpoint—story, star performance, songs, wisecracks, production value—"I'm No Angel" excels Miss West's previous picture.

It is a modern yarn, skillfully concocted by Miss West herself, presenting her in the picturesque characterization of a rowdy wisecracking carnival dancer and singer. She becomes a lion tamer, has nerve enough to put her head in the lion's mouth, and becomes a sensation in a big New York circus. There she captivates society millionaires.

Miss West contributes an acting performance that explains why Paris has acclaimed her as a successor of Lillian Russell, Relane and Bernhardt. She sings five "scorch" songs, dances a glorified shimmy number known as "the midway," wears tights, enters a cage with savage lions, and wisecracks.

Her supporting cast is a splendid one, headed by Cary Grant as her "tall, dark and handsome" sweetheart. Kent Taylor, Edward Arnold, Gregory Ratoff, Ralf Harold, Dorothy Peterson, Gertrude Michael, Russell Hopton and William B. Davidson also have prominent roles.

"I'm No Angel" was screened skillfully by Wesley Ruggles.

Urges Sportsmen to Recover Waterfowl Crippled By Guns

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Pointing out the tremendous annual wastage in ducks and geese crippled or killed during the open shooting seasons and never recovered, W. C. Henderson, associate chief of the Bureau of Biological Survey, U. S. Department of Agriculture, in a statement issued October 14, on behalf of both the Advisory Board, Migratory Bird Treaty Act and the bureau, urged American sportsmen to unite in a campaign to reduce these losses. The statement follows:

"Authorities estimate that for every two ducks killed and brought to bag, at least one bird is crippled and probably lost. This becomes appalling when it is realized that probably 15,000,000 ducks are counted into the bags of American gunners each season. It means that at least 7,500,000 birds are crippled and lost. They are not included in the gunner's bag, and they are not included in the numbers of birds that return north to rear young. In such cases the stock of breeding birds is thus seriously decreased without any resulting benefit, except to the creatures that prey on the unfortunate cripples.

"The picture is not a pleasant one. However, most of this inhumane and wasteful crippling can be prevented if gunners will refrain from shooting birds at long range, and from using shotguns of a gauge too small to be effective.

"Flock shooting, the indiscriminate firing into a flock of birds in the air or on the water, is a prolific source of crippling and is properly regarded with disgust by experienced sportsmen.

"Every gunner should make conscientious efforts to recover his wounded birds. Those acquainted with the wolfowl situation are genuinely concerned over the relative scarcity of these birds, caused by overshooting and by a series of disastrous breeding seasons due to the long-continued droughts. Every sign plainly indicates that the future of the sport of duck shooting depends entirely upon our ability to protect now the diminishing supply of breeding birds. Federal and State conservation authorities are applying emergency measures by restricting open seasons and reducing bag limits. It is strange that, with these evidences before their eyes, so many individual gunners make only half-hearted efforts to find and retrieve their crippled game. If, on the other hand, every gunner will do his utmost—will in fact make it the first rule of sportsmanship to recover his wounded birds—the number of breeding birds going north in spring will be larger by several millions than will be the case if this appeal is ignored.

Work On National Guard Camp To Be Started Soon

By United Press
FORT WORTH.—Work on the $114,343 improvement project at Camp Hulen, Texas national guard encampment site, probably will start within 30 days, according to Gen. John A. Hulen, 36th division commander.

Funds for the job were granted by the federal war department. Construction of a 600,000-gallon storage tank is first on the improvement list.

Other improvements for the camp, located at Palacios, are to be laying of concrete floors for 1,430 enlisted men's tents and 100 mess halls. If sufficient funds are left, the frames and concrete floors will be built for officers' tents.
