Breckenridge will be his host during the evening of March 8th. Dr. C. M. Bales, commander of the Breckenridge Legion Post, of Breckenridge, has invited Legionnaires from cities and towns in the 17th district to be in that city on the night of Thursday, March 8, to meet and hear the National Legion commander.

Happy Kitchen Is Coming to Ranger Tuesday, March 20

Coming! The Happy Kitchen. It's Cooking School time for this city, and this newspaper announces with a great deal of pleasure that it will bring the Happy Kitchen as a compliment to the housewives here and vicinity. There will be no charge for admission and you are invited to attend as the guest of this newspaper.

The date will be March 20, and the school will continue for four more days, and will be held in the lower floor of Masonic building, 2 to 4 o'clock each afternoon. The Happy Kitchen School of Cookery will be under the direction of Mrs. Martha McDonald, noted home economics and food lecturer. She brings to the women of this city the newest ideas in food and kitchens, the newest frills and ruffles in kitchen artistry.

More than a score of new and different recipes and menus will actually be prepared and cooked right before the eyes of her audience by Mrs. McDonald. An entirely new program will be prepared each day. The Happy Kitchen under her leadership is not limited to matters entirely of cooking, but takes up all the important phases of home making, such as color in the kitchen, advice on the latest and newest labor saving devices used in the preparation of foods and her talks will be full of suggestions that will brighten your kitchen for a whole year.

If you want to hear about the latest fashions in foods and the way to make them with less work and more fun and receive a lot of entertaining surprises, plan to attend the Happy Kitchen when it comes to this city. All Eastland, Stephens, Palo Pinto and Erath county women are invited. Free prizes will be given away daily.

LOS ANGELES.—Ivan Follett, Santa Barbara health inspector and food expert, came here to study pure food laws preparatory to drafting ordinances in his town and was stricken with ptomaine poisoning and forced to enter a local hospital.

COMMISSION WILL WORK ON BREAD BONDS

AUSTIN, Feb. 28.—Governor Ferguson's signature of the $7,750,000 relief bond bill was awaited today by the state bond commission to speed the sale of "bread bonds" for relief of destitute persons in Texas.

Commissioners were to meet after the governor's signature to ascertain whether relief funds can be made available by private bond sale. Otherwise the legal processes of advertising and opening bids from prospective buyers will delay actual cash receipts.

Legislative mandate that the $2,750,000 unsold portion of relief bonds from a previous issue be cancelled and reissued along with $5,000,000 additional bonds will cause some delay.

The legislature directed the bonds be issued in denominations of $50, $100 and multiples of $100 to make them attractive to small investors.

The extra session of the legislature expired at 2:05 a. m. today, after passing bills for a moratorium until Feb. 1, 1935, on forced sales of real property in Texas and for the examination of refiners properties and records by the railroad commission in the campaign against illegally produced oil, and a centennial independence celebration for Texas in 1936.

Pioneer Citizen Of Erath County Buried Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at Russell's Chapel, six miles south of Gordon, for John Lemuel Deaton, 62, who died suddenly at his farm home in Erath county Tuesday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. J. A. McQueary and Rev. K. C. Edmonds.

The decedent had been a resident of Erath county for 51 years and had lived in the same home since 1883 and was considered one of the oldest settlers in the county. He was well known in Eastland county.

He is survived by two sons, C. N. and W. F. Deaton of Ranger, and four daughters, Mrs. W. A. Parr of Dallas, Mrs. Ralph Rector of Dallas, Mrs. George Bryant of New York city, and Miss Ruby Deaton of Dallas. His wife died last July as the result of a rattlesnake bite.

Active pallbearers were Charlie Lusby, John McClure, John Williams, Willie Boggess and T. S. Pittman.

Farmers Who Moved In 1933 May Sign Cotton Contracts

Word has been received by J. C. Patterson, county agent, to the effect that farmers who have moved onto farms that were under 1933 cotton contracts whereby the tenant or owner agreed to plow up a percentage of the acreage planted to cotton, would be eligible to sign contracts this year.

There had been some question as to whether or not these farmers would be eligible to come under the plowup plan, but the telegram has made it clear that they would be. Friday of this week is the last day on which these contracts may be signed and all information must be contained on the contracts so that they will not have to be returned for corrections.

PWA Offices Are Being Discontinued

FORT WORTH, Feb. 28.—All but a skeleton force was discharged at the state offices of the PWA here today as orders to discontinue the office were carried out. More than 200 applications which have not been serviced remained on hand, but these will be forwarded to Washington in their original form, according to Chairman Ike Ashburn of the Texas PWA advisory board.

SERMONS WRITTEN IN 1510 RIPPON, Wis.—A book of German sermons by John von Keyserberg, published in 1510, is one of the prize possessions of the Rev. A. Tilger, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church here.

To Conduct Free Cooking School

Mrs. Martha McDonald, famed culinary expert, who will direct and supervise the Ranger Times Free Cooking school, beginning March 20 and extends through March 23. Mrs. McDonald is not a newcomer to Ranger, as many will remember she conducted a recent school for The Times which drew warm approval as a very successful one. She is a widely known authority and lecturer on the art of cooking and home economics. She will demonstrate the newest recipes for all dishes, many of them never before shown or told here in Ranger and will explain how the drudgery of kitchen work may be turned into a pleasure, making any kitchen in reality and actually a "Happy Kitchen." Housewives from Palo Pinto, Erath and Stephens county towns, as well as all Eastland county are invited to be the guests of The Ranger Times during this Free Cooking School.

Grammatical Error In The President's Letter Pointed Out

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Whoever made the error in President Roosevelt's letter to Speaker Rainey the white house failed to reveal today.

There were four possibilities, including the president himself. The disputed sentence read: "I don't care who you tell this to."

Grammarians pointed out the word should have been "whom" instead of "who," and also that well worn maxim that "a proposition is a bad word to end a sentence with."

Mr. Roosevelt's secretaries, questioned about the honor, said with a twinkle in their eyes, that it must have been a typographical error.

Dr. Kuykendall In Accident Tuesday

Word was received in Ranger Tuesday night by Miss Alla Rae Kuykendall that Dr. and Mrs. Kuykendall, who were enroute to Oklahoma where Mrs. Kuykendall's mother is seriously ill, had been in an automobile accident near Gainesville.

Neither Dr. nor Mrs. Kuykendall were seriously injured, the message stated, though the car was damaged. Repairs were made and the trip to Oklahoma was continued.

Staff and Colony to Have Preaching Services Sunday

Rev. Ephraim D. Conway will meet appointments both at Staff and Colony. Services will be at the Staff Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, and at the Colony district schoolhouse at 7 o'clock Sunday night. The subject of sermon to be preached at Staff is "The Spirit of the Prophet Elisha in This Age." At Colony, "The Forgiveness of Sin."

The pastor wishes to emphasize the need of united co-operation of the entire membership of several churches of the Ranger circuit with the boards of stewards of the active participation necessary to make a successful church.

Oldest Army Flier Is Being Tried On Profanity Charge

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Texas, Feb. 28.—Maj. William C. Ocker, oldest army pilot in point of service, pleaded not guilty today in his trial on charges he spoke profanely of a superior officer.

Ocker was "grounded" after an eye examination. His remarks purportedly were made because of that action.

Bobby Davidson to Wrestle Goodwin At Ranger Mon.

The headline that battle at the Elks arena Monday night will feature Bobby Davidson, Bridgeport, Conn., strong boy, who defeated "Tiger Billy" McEuin last week, and Peck Goodwin, mid villain from Breckenridge.

This match should be a whale of a tussle as the boys are two different types of wrestlers. Davidson will depend almost entirely on his strength to win, while Goodwin will do anything that is unfair to triumph over his opponent.

Wildcat Hood of Oklahoma City, who was disqualified by Commissioner Murphy two weeks ago for eye-gouging, will return for a match with Sammy McLauren, in the semi-final event.

An eight-round boxing match between Joe Rivers, El Paso 135-pounder, who is no stranger to local fans and Bobby Driggers, Monroe, La., who is making his debut here, will round out the card.

John White In Race For the Office of County Treasurer

John White, who is a pioneer citizen of Eastland county inasmuch as he has lived in the county since he was three years of age, is a candidate for the office of county treasurer, subject to the action of the democratic primaries in July.

Mr. White lived for a number of years in the Staff community, where he is well known and respected, and has been deputy tax assessor for some time. His formal announcement will be found on another page of this paper, in which he tells the policies he will follow in carrying on his campaign.

TOTAL RURAL SCHOOL AID IS $30,000

Salary grants out of state aid for Eastland county schools for 1933-34 total $13,582, according to B. E. McGlamery, county superintendent.

In addition to these grants the state aid fund will pay approximately 12,000 for transportation aid in the county and about $4,000 for high school tuition for boys and girls of the rural districts. The grand total for this year, Mr. McGlamery thinks, will reach about $30,000, which is the largest amount ever paid the county from rural aid funds.

Despite the fact that the depression has affected the schools of the county they are now in the best condition financially in the past two years, Superintendent McGlamery says.

Following is the manner in which the salary grants out of state aid are distributed among the schools of the county:

FORCED SALE MORATORIUM IS NOW A LAW

AUSTIN, March 1.—A moratorium on forced sales of real property in Texas became effective today when Governor Ferguson signed the senate bill to that effect.

Beginning today, a debtor faced with a forced sale of his property may go into district court and upon proper showing before the judge, secure temporary stays of sale.

No stay may extend beyond Feb. 1, 1935, the date of self-limitation in the bill.

Tax delinquency of more than two years shall constitute a barrier to such relief, but it may be removed if the judge finds the debtor to have a substantial equity in the property involved.

March 6 is the next date of scheduled foreclosure sales in Texas. A temporary 30-day moratorium had been enacted last February to allow legislative consideration of the act.

Battalion Officers Will Meet Sunday

W. C. Hickey, captain of Co. I, National Guards, has been notified of a meeting of battalion officers, to be held in Wichita Falls Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, to which all the officers of the company are invited.

Sporadic Hunt For Pretty Boy Is Pushed Today

LOS ANGELES, March 1.—The sporadic hunt for Charles "Pretty Boy" Floyd was resumed in South California today in the wake of the arrest of Ed Davis, identified as an escaped Kansas convict.

Within a few hours after Davis had been taken into custody, a squad of heavily armed detectives left for an undisclosed destination. The detective captain said they hoped to find Floyd at the end of their journey.

No trace, however, was found of Floyd, the officers revealed on their return.

Davis was linked by federal authorities with the Kansas City union station massacre of June 17, 1933.

TWENTY-FOUR DYING AFTER PICNIC MEAL

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif., March 1.—A community dinner of 22 Filipino lettuce pickers, to which their two American employers were invited, today resulted in the agonizing death of nine workers.

Fifteen others, including two white employers, who partook of what they thought was a delectable dish of mushrooms, were expected to die. No hope for recovery of any of the men was held.

The Filipinos were employed on a ranch. Heavy rains last week brought up large beds of fungi in the hills around the ranch. The men spent Tuesday gathering what they believed were mushrooms and invited their employers to dine with them.

All ate heartily. Late Tuesday night they became ill and were brought to the county hospital. Since late yesterday the men have been dying at the rate of one every two hours, doctors said.

Funeral Is Held Wednesday For a Child At Olden

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church of Olden Wednesday for Jimmie Ray Brown, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lester Brown, who died at St. Louis, Okla.

The services were conducted by Rev. K. C. Edmonds, assisted by Rev. H. B. Stephens of St. Louis, Okla., who conducted the services in that town before the body was shipped to Texas. Interment was in the Olden cemetery following the services at the church.

The child was a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus A. Howell, of the Magnolia Petroleum Company at Olden.

Robbers of Bank At Mesquite May Be Barrow Gang

DALLAS, Mar. 1.—Four bandits who boasted they were members of Clyde Barrow's gang held up the First National Bank at Mesquite, 12 miles south of here, and escaped with between $1,500 and $2,000 today.

The leader of the bandits walked into the bank, accompanied by a man armed with a machine gun. The other two bandits remained near the entrance. The assistant cashier, the only person in the bank, was forced to lie on the floor. The bandits seized all the money in the cage, walked to their car and sped away after circling the town square.

The assistant cashier's description of one of the men, tallied closely with that of Raymond Hamilton, believed possible one of the other men might have been Barrow, himself.

The assistant cashier said the leader told him: "We mean business. You are fooling with Hamilton and Barrow now."

Roosevelt Asks Guarantee Upon Loan Bank Bonds

WASHINGTON, Mar. 1.—President Roosevelt plans to send a special message to congress today asking guarantee of the principal of $2,000,000,000 of home loan

LITTLE WORK TO BE GIVEN UNDER PLAN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A new and comprehensive program to meet the unemployment situation and to replace the CWA will be launched this spring to continue for a year, President Roosevelt announced today.

The program will be based on the experience of the past nine months, which has shown unemployment must be faced on more than one front, it was pointed out. With this in mind the new program has been divided to meet the following situation:

1. Distressed families in rural areas.
2. Stranded population living in single industry communities in which there is no hope for future re-employment, such as miners in worked out fields.
3. The unemployed in the urban areas.

President Roosevelt plans to divert for this relief the $950,000,000 recently appropriated by congress. He believes that sum will be sufficient to carry the program through.

On the question of the care of the needy in the rural areas, a white house statement said:

"Their security must be identified with agriculture. They must be placed in position of self-support. In many places of the country this calls for a change from commercial farming and dependence on a single cash crop, to the raising of the various commodities needed to maintain the family."

"Relief funds, therefore, will be expended on behalf of rural families in a manner and to an extent that will enable them to achieve self-support. Work for wages from relief funds is not an essential part of this phase of the program and will be provided only insofar as it is necessary to accomplish the primary objective."

The statement said some of the methods to be employed included building or rebuilding to provide adequate farm homes; the provisions of seeds and stock for other commercial purposes and opportunities to these workers to earn incomes through part-time employment.

In addition the administration is for a planned distribution of the regular jobs on highways and other public works carried on in farm areas.

Sixth District Interscholastic League to Meet

The district interscholastic league meet will be held in Breckenridge on April 6 and 7, it was announced following a recent meeting of the league directors of district 6.

The meet will be the first of the district contests ever held in Breckenridge. For the past two years the district meet has been in Ranger, for a few years before that in Stephenville, and prior to that time in Abilene.

Reorganization of the league this year provides that district winners shall go to regional meets before entering the state contests in Abilene.

The nine counties in district 6 are Callahan, Eastland, Erath, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Shackelford, Throckmorton, Knox and Haskell.

New contests this year at the district meet will be those of choral singing and a volley ball tournament for senior girls.

Cottonwood Cagers District Champions

Cottonwood, Callahan county basketball champions, defeated the Breckenridge team Saturday night to win the district 6 championship. The final score was 30 to 25.

In the first night game Friday Cottonwood defeated Goree 40 to 19, Carbon defeated Sagerton 45 to 19 in the next game.

After Breckenridge, playing its first tournament game, had defeated Dublin 26 to 25 and in the following game which Cottonwood played against Carbon, the former was victorious by a score of 39 to 25. Saturday night there were several games which by matter of routine eliminated the losing teams and led up to the final game which decided the victor of the tournament.

My Trip To The Century of Progress

By JODIE R. JORDAN
Rising Star, Texas

The City of Chicago
The fourth largest city in the world has:

- A population of 3,375,000.

Facts in Brief of the Fairgrounds
424 acres comprise the fairgrounds.

Every inch of the fairgrounds was once under the surface of Lake Michigan.

Funds mainly raised by bond issue subscribed by private citizens.

127 insurance companies underwrote the exposition against fire and wind.

The "Hall of Science" contains a corillion.

The world's largest loudspeaker were installed (and still are) on the grounds.

Over 400 scientists from every part of the world aided in preparing the science exhibit.

The largest and most expensive solid metal fence encloses and protects the grounds.

60,000 chairs were furnished visitors.

The travel and transport building has the world's largest unsupported roof.

Over 2,000,000 persons can be accommodated to and from the exposition by various means of transportation.

A water-pumping system capable of pumping over 25,000,000 gallons per day supplies the exposition grounds.

Special automobile parking zones are laid out west of the grounds; 50 cents per day.

Young with wheel chairs carried people to all parts of the fair grounds.

A charge of 50 cents was made on entering the fair grounds.

Forty-four states, four territories, and 14 foreign nations participated in the exposition.

14,079 teachers.

A school enrollment of 508,438.

291 motion picture and vaudeville houses.

Only 15 legitimate theatres.

604 hotels with 83,037 rooms.

525 special and private universities and colleges.

10 major universities.

If I had taken one minute to look at each exhibit shown there I could have stayed 180 days and nights. I only stayed five days and nights. Imagine what I did not see.

The most interesting exhibits I believe that I saw were in the "Hall of Science." For example: Modern plant for making phosphorous and phosphoric acid.

Ammonium treated wood it was proved would not burn.

Iodine crystals were made by sublimation. Heat applied to the bottom of the glass globe causes the iodine to vaporize. As the vapors rise to the cooler parts of the globe, they crystallize.

The transparent man, showing every organ of the body separately by an individual light for each part.

A rail that Abraham Lincoln split on a farm in Coles county, Illinois, 102 years ago.

Cross section of a tree about 6 feet in diameter contracting and expanding, showing cambium layer, pith, medullary rays, etc.

A large globe about 10 feet in diameter showing every chemical element its atomic weight density where found, etc.

Cell divisions in the plants.

In fact you botany and chemistry sharks would enjoy your work better if you could see these exhibits. Then there is one more I would like to mention in this building and that is the development of the human embryo through 90 different stages. More people spent more time observing this than any other exhibit in the Hall of Science. Each stage was preserved in a large glass container placed in the all, each stage was very distinct.

The next most interesting building in my estimation was the Travel and Transport building:

Clay moulds showing Blackstone hills of South Dakota. Yellowstone National Park. Glacier National Park, Mt. Evans, Lindbergh Pass, Berthold Pass, Pike's Peak and many others with highways and waterways with cars being pulled up and down the hills by the use of a chain attached beneath the car. Just to look down on one of the little moulds gives one a vivid imagination of the real hills, mountains, etc. One of the largest maps I have ever seen was made on the wall, about 24 feet high by 30 feet long, showing the main cities and highways of the United States.

Another interesting thing found here was another large globe showing every kind of coin in the entire world. Each coin (enlarged a number of times) was placed vertically on the globe, one beside the other making a complete circle of the globe. Each coin was labeled of course. This building is 125 feet high, 200 feet wide. In the dome the story of the Century of Progress was dramatized.

In the "Hall of Religion," I saw an exact model of the Ulm Cathedral in Germany. This model was composed of 4200 pieces of wood. It took 7 seven years to make the model. The real cathedral will seat about 30,000 people at one time. There was a cup there that it was supposed that Christ drank from. One of the largest churches in the world was represented there. It was "The Chicago Temple." It was 560 feet above sea level; 80 feet by 128 feet; cost $3,500,000, and it has aided 113 other churches in Chicago since 1858. The present building is the fifth one on the site.

Hall of Social Science: A few of the many interesting things seen there were:

World's smallest theatre (holding about 25).

U. S. navy department model, showing ships U. S. model and South American model. The unit of federal government preserving wild life is the U. S. Biological survey. Also in the Social Science group was an exhibit of the Boulder Dam project power plant which puts out 1,835,000 horsepower.

The "Sky Ride" that you hear many people speak of is a "Creative, ingenious man—Strength, heights, power, harnessed to serve him." Two steel towers 625 feet high, one-half mile apart were connected by cables over which ran rocket cars to be ridden for sightseeing and for the thrill.

A few of the foreign countries represented were as follows: Virgin Islands, exhibits were beads, bead bags, turtle shells, large leaves, tapestry and basket work. Hawaiian headquarters, Hawaiian grass huts and a small city shown in the distance. Only one room of this was shown. Porto Rico, flowers, tapestry, needle work, rugs and basket work. Czechoslovakia, beautiful cut glass, clothes and all kinds of expensive dry goods. In fact their exhibit was gorgeous.

Sweden, jewelry, rugs, dry goods, glass ware, etc. were their main exhibits. However, outside was found a Swedish American liner whose length was 600 feet, width 78 feet, H. P. 18,000, and speed, 17 1/2 knots.

The Federal Building Court of State reminds us of our faith in our country. Forty-four states and four territories were represented. The Texas exhibit was not completed until about the first of August. Several other states were late also. We should be proud that we were not last as it seemed we were going to be. The states as a whole had wonderful exhibits. In my estimation California ranked first, Florida second and I heard Texas had a very good exhibit later.

General Motors Building.
The gifts of mechanical power intrigue our minds.

This was an exhibition of all G. M. C. The main thing of interest here was the making of the Chevrolet. One man was placed on each little job, doing only one thing. Models of first and last car of each make was shown.

Nash (not a G. M. C.) was shown in a glass revolving show case about 100 feet high.

Just before entering the travel and Transport Building, we inspected the President of Mexico's special train, several coaches consisting of president's private office, clerk's office, kitchen, bedrooms, bathrooms and every other convenience possible.

The world's largest dual service locomotive, length 103 feet, 5 inches, height 16 feet, weight 518,000 pounds, water capacity 18,000 gallons, steam pressure 275 lbs.

S-49 Submarine
To be demilitarized on or before Dec. 1, 1936. It is the largest in the world, weighs 1000 tons, 240 feet long; can be entirely submerged in less than one minute. It cost $3,000,000 and was formerly of the U. S. Navy.

"Gordon of Ghost City" at Columbia On Saturday

A Chapter of the West's most romantic past is recalled by Universal's colorful serial, "Gordon of Ghost City," at the Columbia Theatre next Saturday. Buck Jones, who stars in the serial, gives an interesting explanation of the peculiar term, "Ghost City," which figures so prominently in the title and in the action of the picture.

"Forgotten cities which were the focal points of the frenzied immigration of the 'gold rush' days, made 'boom towns' overnight by the wave of fortune hunters, rest today desolate on desert, prairie and mountain land, haunted skeletons of former greatness—tombs of dead days of adventure, romance and sweep of empire.

"Their desolate charm, mystery and puzzling memories have been faithfully translated to the screen by the unusually exciting episodic drama, and the actual appearance of 'ghost cities' that exist today, dotting the sun baked landscape of California, Nevada, Arizona and other western states, is revealed in all the picturesque detail of sagging timbers, empty windows and weed-grown streets, where most of the hair raising escapades of the picture occur."

Actually, within a radius of only a hundred miles or so from Hollywood, there are to be found abundant "locations" in which to film such a picture as "Gordon of Ghost City." Bodie, Aurora, Rhyolite, Panamint, Skidoo, Goldfield—these are only a few of the desolate villages which are only a few hours' drive from Hollywood. All of them could relate a glamorous history of reckless, quick-triggered men who at one time made their now empty walls echo to fusillades of six-gun music. Now their only useful function is to serve as curiosity spots where tourists safe in rubber tired smooth riding automobiles may gape and wonder at their hollow cadaverous frames.

"Gordon of Ghost City," inspired by Peter B. Kyne, one of the West's most faithful story tellers, uses the intriguing locale as the setting for a story of unusual action, color and romance, with Jones pitted single handed against a desperate band of cattle rustling outlaws using the deserted "Ghost City" as a base of operations.

Eleven more of the thrilling episodes are scheduled, according to Manager Garner. An all-star cast includes Walter Miller, William Desmond, Francis Ford and Hugh Enfield.

Flatwood Home Demonstration Has Good Meet

Flatwood Home Demonstration Club met in regular session Thursday with Mrs. W. A. Justice. All members were present. Mrs. Burl Turner gave a very interesting talk on the council meeting of a few days ago, and she also brought out one section of the traveling library and quite a few books are being read that way.

Miss Ramey was present and talked on our garden project, and stressed the sewing and having our foundation patterns. We would like to pass along the rice crispie cookies recipe that Mrs. Burl Turner demonstrated at the Civic League meeting:

1-3 cup butter or other shortening; 1-2 cup brown sugar; 1-2 cup flour; 1-4 teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon vanilla; 1 cup rice crispies; 1 egg; 1 cup pecans.
Cream sugar and shortening together, add well beaten egg, sift dry ingredients together and add to the other mixture, then add rice crispies, nuts and vanilla. Drop on well greased sheet and bake in moderate oven 12 minutes, or until brown. Be sure to leave space enough between cookies for them to spread and still not touch each other. Drop a good teaspoon of the batter for a cookie.

The club will meet with Mrs. Lole Lyster March 15. Everyone invited to come.

Turkish Movie Stars Fought By Dervishes

ISTANBUL.—The film industry in Turkey had a most inauspicious debut at the holy village of Eyoub on the Golden Horn at Istanbul.

Enraged by the "unholy" make-up on the faces of the actors, and the operations of the cameramen, a group of Bektashi dervishes attacked the company. They were pacified without any serious casualties.

Dartmoor Prisoners Spurn Church's Aid

LONDON.—Dartmoor prison has long been reckoned one of the toughest of British penal institutions. The prisoners mutinied there in 1932.

Now the Bishop of Exeter thinks the trouble is that they do not have compulsory attendance at Sunday service.

Instead of being to chapel, the convicts lie on their beds and read novels, the bishop told the house of lords. Rude songs were sung at the prison concerts, he charged.

Out of a total of 200 Church of England prisoners, the Sunday congregations of ten numbered only five, said his lordship.

And the growing tendency towards impudence in modern crime is reflected in the conduct of the prisoners. The prison chaplain was threatened that if he didn't make the concerts more amusing, the prisoners would get him dismissed, said the bishop.

The bishop himself withdrew his application to hold a service for the inmates after the mutiny, when the governor told him that he could not be responsible for his safety.

We are glad to report that Edgar Garret is improving after having been seriously burned about the face and hands at midnight Friday when a gasoline truck tank exploded. The truck, belonging to a Brownwood man, had sprung a leak and had been taken to Mr. Garret for repairs. The explosion was so loud that many thought one of the gasoline plants had blown up.

GUN TRAPS MURDEROUS

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The menace to human beings by gun traps was stressed by the Pennsylvania Game Board. Three men hunting 'coons had a dog killed and narrowly escaped being wounded themselves when the animal stepped on a wire attached to a shot-gun trap. Upon searching the vicinity, three gun traps were discovered. Two were baited with meat and one had a wire sprung along the full length of a log. The man responsible for the setting of the traps was sentenced to three months in the county jail.

LINCOLN, Neb.—Nebraska

nimrods have been invited to participate in a statewide crow shoot, sponsored by the Nebraska Isaak Walton League. Predictions have been made that the large, unloved, black-plumed birds will fall in great numbers during the contest which will continue throughout 1934. Awards are to be made to the crow hunters turning in the largest number of "scalps" for the year.

30-HOUR WEEK IS URGED BY LABOR HEAD

WASHINGTON, March 1.—A 30-hour week under manufacturing codes to increase employment was urged today at the NRA protest round-up by John Frey, secretary of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor. Forty hours now is the average.

Frey's expression of the federation of labor view was not news to NRA Administrator Johnson, who already is determined to attempt further expansion of employment under codes. He is expected to present his program during or shortly after the conference which convenes next Monday.

A 10 per cent reduction in hours with a 10 per cent increase in hourly wages, is widely believed to be the program Johnson has in mind. This would mean a 36-hour week.

President Roosevelt will address the opening session of the code conference at 11 a. m., Monday, the white house announced today.

Students to Make Up Choruses for "Crashing Thru"

"Crashing Thru" contains many featured choruses and dances. There are three choruses of high school girls, one chorus, dressed in old fashioned full skirts and picture hats, dance a pretty minuet. Later they feature the song "Every Time My Heart Beats," and dance a fake-tan dance. These girls are Camilla Hunt, Sammy Ruth Matthews, Mavis Murray, Vivian Champion, Betty Jean McMillen, and Juanita Ames.

Another group try out for radio broadcasting as they, in black and white costumes, feature the song and dance, "Gosh Darn." These girls are: Mary Alice Yonker, Lettie Lou Simmons, Merle Stewart, Corinne Benson, Lillian Harcrow, and Ruth Smith.

Another group, dressed in blue and yellow militaristic costumes, give a clever cane drill to the tune of "Whistling My Blues Away." These girls are: Vonceil Strong, Elizabeth Turner, Bernice Reuser, Ollie Bryan, Dorothy O'Donnell and Maxelle Shirley.

A chorus of boys and girls from the Junior College will feature the songs, "Shadow Waltz," and "Pettin' In the Park." Those in this chorus are: Ruth Hearn, Ann Marie Kelly, Jessie Mae Grant, Marie Galloway, Helen Goforth, Dealva Shirley, Wayne Mitchell, Keith McLaughlin, David Nichol, Bobbie Powell, Willard Vaughn and George Allison.

Bridegroom, 72, Fails to Get Job

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—Not only did a brilliant idea of a 72-year-old CWA worker fail to solve the problem of keeping a job, but it placed him in a worse position than ever.

The man, whose name was not divulged, was discharged when it was found he was single and had no dependents. Two days later he reappeared at the CWA headquarters and demanded his job. "I've been to Reno," he said. "I got married. I got a dependent." Informed that his action didn't help matters, he became indignant. "If I'd known that, I wouldn't 'a' got married."

CANTON, O.—Canton City council is considering curtailment of the city's street lighting system as an economy move. The city pays the Ohio Power Company approximately $140,000 per year for street lighting and is already in arrears to the company, according to council.

FAMOUS STILLMAN RANCH CUT UP INTO FARMS

Near Raymondville in the magic valley is the historic Stillman ranch, a 22,000-acre tract of land. It was part of the estate of the late James Stillman of the National City bank of New York. Well, the ranch has been sold and is to be cut up into onion and cotton farms. Its purchaser paid a million dollars for the property.

Away back in the days of the war between the state the founder of the house of Stillman, a New Englander, pitched his tent at Brownsville on the banks of the Rio Grande. He became a heavy purchaser of Texas acreage. He was a financier as well as a banker. Across the Rio Grande in Mexico was Bagdad. Texas cotton was carried across the river and sold to the blockade runners of that period. They filled the holds of their ships with contraband fleecy staple, rushed the blockade, and the shippers made huge fortunes in England and elsewhere. Well, the founder of the house of Stillman made history. His son and his grandson made history. Now the lordly little ranch of bygone days will be cut up into small tracts for the cultivation of the spicy onion and the stuff of which "the garment of democracy" is said to be woven.

RURAL RETAIL TRADE MAKES FINE SHOWING

Federal department of commerce figures show retail trade in rural areas to have increased 45 per cent in dollar volume over January, 1933. At the same time trade, between December and January, 1934, declined 40 per cent as compared with a 45.5 per cent drop a year ago. Rural sales for the full year of 1933 were about nine per cent in value above 1932. The year 1932 on the other hand registered a drop of 16 per cent from 1931. In 1933 the dollar had not been revalued. In 1934 revolution came. Incidentally, more than a billion dollars has found its way into the pockets of the farmers of America in bonuses since Franklin D. Roosevelt was inaugurated on March 4, 1933.

COMPULSORY CONTROL OF COTTON PRODUCTION

President Roosevelt has given his sweeping endorsement to the principle of compulsory cotton production control. He so advised the chairman of the house and senate agricultural committees. Removing all doubt about his stand, the chief magistrate approved the aim of the pending Bankhead bills to limit cotton marketed from the 1934 crop to 9,500,000 bales through federal taxation. More-over national legislators and officials are said to have been led to believe that the President would approve federal compulsion where other crops are concerned should it be a success in the case of cotton. In other words, the acid test will be given the cotton control plan in the year of our Lord 1934. Two million Southern cotton farmers are vitally concerned.

Industrial Recovery Shows Increase Over the Nation

AUSTIN.—Industrial recovery has proceeded with quickened pace during the past two weeks and now appears to have gained sufficient headway to insure continued expansion during the next few months by its own momentum unless some totally unforeseen emergency arises, according to Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director and statistician in the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas.

"Although such disconcerting prospects as possible labor disturbances and a relapse of business with cessation of government spending under the CWA cannot be ignored, ameliorating circumstances are already visible," he said. "Strengthened governmental powers for arbitrating disputes and the probability of a more cooperative attitude among responsible labor leaders should greatly moderate labor troubles; and the normal spring pickup in industry, together with the merging of CWA activities with the more permanent structure of the PWA should greatly improve the employment situation. Moreover, the bulk of the funds provided by the federal emergency budget remains to be spent and, in addition, farm bonus payments scheduled for disbursement during 1934, approximate one billion dollars.

"Business prospects, therefore, on the basis of existing facts for the first six months of the year are the brightest they have been since the depression began. From the longer-term point of view, however, not much can be said until the government's policy on fundamental problems are more fully matured. There still remains to be developed a sounder banking system, a more closely articulated transportation system, a comprehensive program of agricultural readjustment and an international policy which will open foreign markets for our agricultural and industrial products. It may reasonably be expected that these problems will be considerably clarified during the next six months and that as a result, the more distant outlook from the new point of vantage thus created may be less hazy than it is at present.

"The future danger lies in the possibility that the impending sharply rising business trend may be credited entirely to the emergency measures which have been adopted whereas much of the business improvement would doubtless have taken place had no such radical measures been adopted. In evidence of this fact we need only to inspect the curves of industrial activity in the leading commercial countries of Europe where the low point in the depression was reached in the summer of 1932.

"Although Texas and the southwest are doubtless reaping immediate benefits from the administration's policy of production control as it relates to oil, and of both production control and bonuses in connection with cotton, it should be recognized that the measures so far adopted and now under consideration are of an emergency character and that a long-time program for this region remains to be developed.

"Current statistics of Texas business are making an increasingly better showing in comparison with those of a year ago. Commercial failures are 67 per cent fewer in number and liabilities of failed firms, 79 per cent less in amount than a year ago. Lumber production, according to reports from the Southern Pine association increased 10 per cent. Retail sales in 86 Texas department stores and specialty shops increased 28 per cent, and collections were 6 per cent better than a year ago. Cotton manufacturing plants in Texas showed marked increases in operation as reflected in bales of cotton used, cloth produced and sold, and in unfilled order at the end of the month. Building permits increased 16 per cent."

OAK GROVE

The recent cold snap sent the temperature two degrees lower than the one did a week ago—18 above zero here.

J. E. Cannaday was a business visitor in Gorman and Rising Star, making both trips in company with Pastor A. A. Davis of the Baptist church of Carbon.

Mrs. M. E. Hazlett is spending this week with her grandson and wife and Mrs. Grace Cannaday of Pleasant Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hastings visited in the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Lockhart in Pleasant Hill community last Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Petree, a fine boy, last Wednesday. Mother and babe are doing fine. Now that the farmer is eliminated from the CWA program, he doesn't have to run into town every other day to see if his name is on the working list. All he has to do is to ask the "Ole Oman" and she tells him yes, its there, every day. Just hitch the mules to the plow and go down the furrow.

R. D. Scarlett and Miss Jessie Robinson were happily united in marriage at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Cannaday at high noon Saturday, Feb. 24. R. D. is the son of W. E. Scarlett of Star route, Carbon, and Miss Jessie is daughter of C. B. Robinson. We join their many friends in wishing these young people a happy and prosperous journey through life. They will be at home to their friends after Sunday, on the old Hickson farm.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to our many friends who were so good to us during the recent death of our beloved husband and father, and for the beautiful floral offerings. Such kindness and words of consolation helped us greatly during this sorrowing hour. May God's richest blessing rest on each of you.—Mrs. Ida Duke, Mrs. Aaron White, Mrs. Joe McKinnon, and Mrs. Robert Carter, Thurber, Texas. (Adv.)

Less work—more fun

ONE of the red letter events of the year for women is almost here. A cooking school it is, to be sure, but what a cooking school!

This year's cooking is done in a kitchen much different from that of grandmother's day. There are hours and hours less time needed in cooking—there's less work and more fun. Today's kitchen is a real "Happy Kitchen,"—or ought to be. If your three-meals-a-day seem just a succession of toast and eggs and potatoes and roast beef and pie, our cooking school is made to order for you! And if you've already found the secret to pleasure and fascination in mixing dainty new dishes and dressing up the old stand-bys in colorful new fashions—you'll love the cooking school just as much.

There will be romance—mapping of uncharted seas of the kitchen—at the cooking school. Each session will glow with new ideas, appetite thrillers, the simple secrets that make cooking happier and easier. We invite you to hear dozens of practical suggestions that make kitchen hours more fun and more joy—to see demonstrated before your very eyes those inspired touches that raise the meal and its preparation to the realm of a happy adventure.

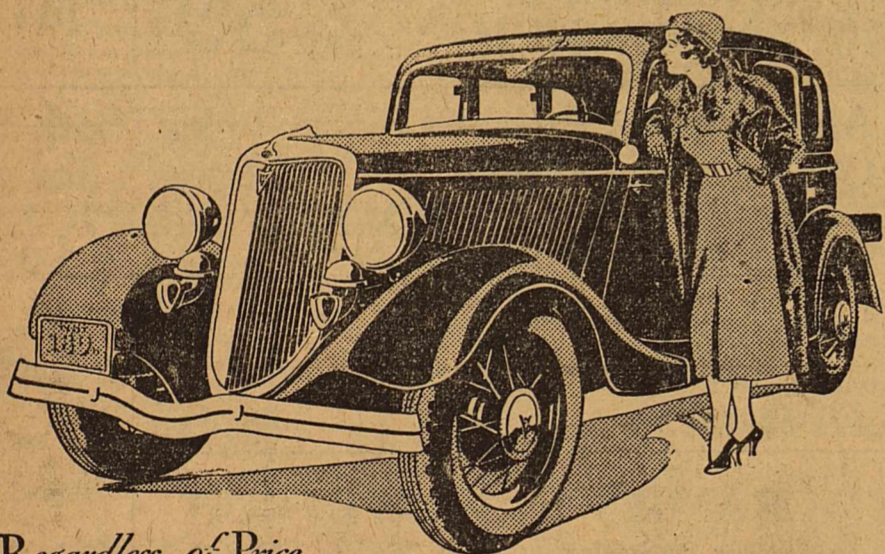

Remember—everything shown in our cooking school has been tried and tested by a whole staff of "Happy Kitchen" experts. Months of planning have gone before. There are four afternoons of enjoyment in store for you . . . come as our guest!

The Cooking School will be under the personal supervision MRS. MARTHA McDONALD, noted "Happy Kitchen" expert

Judge the new FORD V8 on what it will do

Thousands of people who can afford to spend two or three times as much for a car, are today choosing the Ford V-8 for 1934, instead. Here are some of the reasons.

POWER. The Ford V-8 for 1934 gives you better than 80 miles per hour with the quicker acceleration and greater smoothness of an 8-cylinder motor. Power has actually been increased by 12 per cent over last year's model.

COMFORT. The Ford V-8 for 1934 offers more actual body room than many other cars that cost considerably more. It offers you new Clear-Vision Ventilation, with the window in one piece. It offers you free action for all four wheels—plus the comfort of Ford Cantilever Springs and the proved safety of a front axle.

SAFETY. With the new Ford V-8 you get an all-steel body, safety glass, welded steel-spoke wheels, exceptionally low center of gravity and more braking surface per pound of weight than any other American-made car we know of.

ECONOMY. Gasoline economy is increased by two or three miles per gallon with the new Ford V-8. Test runs show that the new engine will give 20 miles per gallon at 45 miles per hour.

NORTH STAR

The fall sowing of winter grain is looking fine and with the acreage of spring oats that the farmers are sowing, it looks as though they are trying for an early feed crop. The mild winter has been fine on livestock.

From the looks of the gardens, everyone intends to try to have a full pantry this year. They plan to have flowers, too, as all are busy spading yards and making flower beds.

Mrs. Henry Hill of Okra visited her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Balding, this week.

Here of late all we hear is "reduction, reduction, reduction." When our husbands come in from town after dark and we have the chores all done and supper waiting for them, they have this for their alibi: "Dear, I had to meet with the reduction committee." How do we know? All we hear is corn, cotton, peanuts and hog reduction.

NEW SCREEN SWEETHEARTS

Charles Farrell and Bette Davis, popular screen lovers, are appearing in "The Big Shakedown," sensational First National drama, coming to the Columbia Theatre next Sunday. Supporting this handsome couple are such luminaries as Ricardo Cortez, Glenda Farrell, Allen Jenkins, Philip Faversham, and Henry O'Neill.

EASTLAND CO. HEALTH ASS'N. HOLDS BANQUET

Tuesday was a busy day for the Eastland County Health association, which terminated its planned activities with a banquet at 7:30 p. m., on Connellee roof, and a dance following.

Guests within a radius of 150 miles, including those interested in the association, physicians and their wives, and officials, to the number of 45, attended.

Fleming Waters, supervisor of Eastland county sanitation work, presided as toastmaster.

The incidental program opened with a voice solo by Miss Maxine Henderson of Olden, in a dramatic rendition of "I Love Life," and "False Prophets," with Miss Marguerite Adamson of Ranger as accompanist.

Miss Wilma Beard of Eastland presented Misses Jackie Belew and Helen Rosenquest of the junior high school in a group of dance numbers with Miss Beard at the piano.

Joe Caruthers of Cisco also charmed his audience with a group of ballads, closing with "A Perfect Day," with Miss Griffith of Cisco as accompanist.

The first address of the evening was given by Dr. F. T. Isbell, county health officer, in a discussion of public health program, in which he specially commended the work of the county health nurses, and stated "sanitation is at the root of all health."

County Superintendent of Schools B. E. McGlamery was presented, and expressed his appreciation of the work of the nurses in the rural communities, and that this general sanitation department had effected a great deal of improvement in rural schools and grounds.

Superintendent of Cisco schools, R. N. Cluck, the next speaker, emphasized the improvement in the work of the school children, who had been given "a meal a day" through the direct relief program, and commended the work of the Cisco nurses in their work of revealing the defects among the school children, and that as a result of this survey the Cisco Lions and Rotary clubs, with other civic organizations, would take up the work of remedying these defects.

Dr. E. Roy Townsend, city health physician, was presented, and stated he thought all people should be inoculated against preventable diseases, and expressed his opinion that socialized medicine was on the way, and that physicians would be paid by the state to care for general health conditions.

Mr. Waters then presented Mr. Driscoll, Eastland county CWA administrator, who pledged 100 per cent co-operation of the Texas relief commission in the carrying out of the program for sanitation work.

Hunter M. George was then presented by Mr. Waters, and Miss Joiner, head of Eastland health nurse work, both of whom merely acknowledged their introduction.

The banquet was closed in a pleasing talk by Mr. Waters concerning the work of his department, and what he hoped to accomplish for the good of humanity.

County Bar Asks Additional U. S. Judge Be Named

The Eastland County Bar association of which Judge Earl Conner of Eastland is president and Mrs. C. C. Robey, also of Eastland, is secretary, met recently and passed by unanimous vote a resolution asking that an additional United States district judge be appointed for the northern district of Texas.

The fact that there are only two judges actively in the district; that the docket is badly crowded with more than 1,000 pending cases, and that within the past nine years it has been necessary to call eight district judges from out the state, three of whom presided in the district for a total period of 22 weeks, were among the reasons urged as to why the appointment should be made.

The secretary was instructed to forward a copy of the resolution to each of the United States senators from Texas and to each Texas congressman.

Grand Chancellor To Visit Eastland K. P. Lodge Tuesday

The Knights of Pythias planned for a big reception to be held next Tuesday night in K. of P. hall, honoring the grand chancellor, L. L. Hoge of Austin, who will be their guest at that time.

The Pythian Sisters temple will co-operate in furnishing the entertainment and refreshments for the affair.

John White Makes Announcement as County Treasurer

To The Citizens of Eastland County:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of Treasurer of our County I wish to make the following statement.

My parents moved to Eastland County when I was three years of age and settled on a farm in the Staff community and this county has been my home continuously since.

Since my life has been lived before you, I invite and urge your careful investigation of this very important phase of any candidate's qualifications.

It shall be my desire to have the campaign for this office kept on a high plane, free from any mud slinging tactics. My opponents' faults (if any) will not be mentioned by me.

I do not wish to boast of my qualifications, but for your information, I wish to state my education obtained in the public schools of this county, and the time spent in one of our state schools, together with the past year's experience as deputy in the Tax Assessor's office, has prepared me for the duties of the position to which I aspire.

My reason for seeking this office, of course, is the fact that I need the salary that I may support my family, but if you honor me with this trust, I shall regard it as the most important office within my best to conduct its affairs in such manner as will not cause you to regret having placed your confidence in me.

JOHN WHITE, Candidate for County Treasurer.

Ragweed Blamed For Hay Fever

PHILADELPHIA.—The ragweed, and not golden rod, is the chief cause of hay fever, according to Dr. Louis Tuft, associate in immunology of the school of medicine, Temple University.

"There are three forms of hay fever—spring, early and late," Dr. Tuft told a group of physicians here. "The blossoms of trees cause 5 per cent, or spring cases; grasses such as timothy cause 60 per cent, or early cases, and ragweed causes the remaining 35 per cent, late cases."

Mae West styles are to be fashionable for men—provided, of course, the men have any money after their wives and daughters go Westian.

Broadway America Clubs Are Being Organized Today

H. A. Kyler, field representative of the Broadway of America, was in Eastland county Thursday, planning meetings in the three towns along the highway, for the purpose of forming Broadway of America booster clubs.

A meeting was called for Eastland at 10:30 in the morning and another in Ranger for 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time he was to explain the club plan.

He stated today that 90 per cent of the towns along the Broadway of America from San Diego to Central Texas had formed these clubs and that much good was being done by the organization through the interest being shown in the highway by the club members.

GETS COOLIDGE FURNITURE

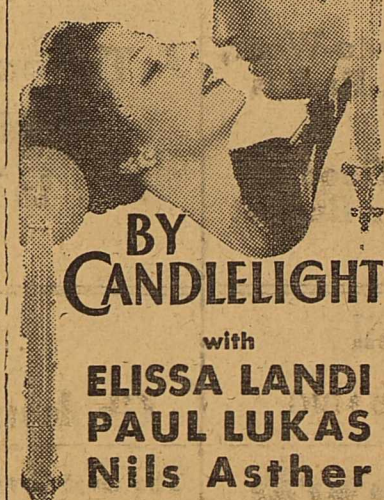

NORTHAMPTON, Mass.—The desk and chair that the late President Calvin Coolidge used while practicing law in this city, and three volumes of newspaper clippings, a historiote of his career, were presented to the Forbes Library here by his widow, Mrs. Grace Coolidge.

FALL RIVER, Mass.—Fined $20 for drunken driving after his automobile had hit a traffic stand, injuring a policeman, Stanley Hughes raffled off his automobile among his friends and the tickets netted him $32. Then, before he could pay his fine, somebody stole the money.

Farm Loans May Be Made Soon at Local C. of C.

At a meeting of the Breckenridge Credit Corporation, held in Breckenridge the latter part of last week, W. C. Hickey was appointed to handle the loans made to the farmers of this section through the corporation, which replaces the Regional Agricultural Credit Corporation of Fort Worth insofar as this section of the state is concerned.

Rufus Cox of Carbon was appointed county supervisor and all applications made for loans will be forwarded to him for approval and will then be sent to the Breckenridge Credit Corporation after receiving approval by him after he has investigated the case.

Applications for loans will be received in Ranger as soon as details concerning the applications is received from the regional office at Houston. These loans will be in addition to the feed and seed loans, which are of a temporary nature, as the organization will be permanent.

Information on these farm loans, which will carry an interest rate of between six and six and a half per cent per annum, can be obtained through the office of the chamber of commerce within a short time, it was stated at the meeting.

Cattle Shipments From Texas Show Good Increase

AUSTIN, Tex.—Shipments of Texas livestock to Fort Worth and interstate points totaled 3,615 cars in January, compared with 3,113 cars during January last year, an increase of 16 per cent, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Comparable figures for the various classes of livestock were as follows: cattle, 2,094 and 1,706 cars; calves 741 and 618 cars; hogs 233 and 290 cars, and sheep 547 and 499 cars.

It will be noted that of the various classes of livestock a decline in shipments occurred only in the case of hogs. The drop amounted to 20 per cent. On the other hand, receipts of hogs into Texas from other states amounted to 324 cars against only 193 cars in January last year, an increase of 70 per cent. The excess of receipts of hogs from other states over shipments out of the State was 91 cars. The greatest increase in receipts in shipments occurred from the states of Kansas, Iowa, Missouri, and Nebraska, and the largest markets—Kansas City and Omaha.

A sharp decline occurred in the number of sheep shipped to the Fort Worth market amounting to less than half that in January, 1933. On the other hand, marked increases in shipments of sheep were made to Colorado, Illinois, Missouri, Oklahoma, Iowa and Ohio, and to the market at St. Joseph. The Kansas City market received only about half as many Texas sheep as in January last year.

Marked increases in shipments of cattle, calves and sheep occurred from the Trans-Pecos district. There also was a sharp increase in numbers of sheep sent into this district from sections in which grazing conditions were less favorable.

Other districts in Texas showed marked increases in numbers of livestock shipped in comparison with January last year. The North Plains especially showed a marked increase in shipments of sheep and the South Plains in cattle and calves.

Teachers of the Oil Belt to Meet At Big Spring

Big Spring will be host to members of the Oil Belt Educational Association which will meet for a two day convention March 16 and 17.

O. G. Lanier of Ranger, Secretary-treasurer of the association in a letter to superintendents and principals of the district, informed those in receipt of the letter of plans for the coming meet.

The convales will open at 4:00 p. m. March 16 with a meeting of the superintendents and principals in attendance who will discuss "Team Work in an Educational Program." That evening, at the Settles hotel, there will be a banquet at which time many educational leaders of the state will speak.

Among the speakers who will at different time address the teachers of the association are: Dr. J. L. Henderson, University of Texas; Dr. J. D. Sandefer, president of Simmons University, Abilene; L. A. Woods, state superintendent of schools; J. O. Guleke, member of the state board of education and H. F. Alver, member of the state department of education.

The program for the second day of the convention is one of which is along the educational motif.

Lanier, in his communication, urged all who plan to attend the banquet send in their reservation by March 16, to Superintendent W. C. Blankenship, Big Spring.

Lancaster Bank Robbed by Bandits

LANCASTER, Texas, Feb. 27.—The Bank of R. T. Henry & Sons of Lancaster, a private institution, was held up and robbed of an undetermined amount of money during the noon hour today.

The assistant cashier, and only one employe on duty during the robbery said two men entered, threatened him and a customer with guns, seized the loot and fled in a Chevrolet coach driven by a third bandit.

Although officials refused to estimate the amount of loot, one intimated it was more than $1,000.

HENS LIKED DIET SOUTH ORLEANS, Mass.

Richard D. Bessom lined his hen house with wallboard to keep the chickens warm during the winter, but the hens decided that they would rather eat than be comfortable. Less than a week later there was little wall board left because the chickens had pecked at it until most of it was gone. It was explained that the sugar cane fiber, of which the board is made, proved to be such a delicacy the Rhode Island Reds couldn't resist it.

The proposal for the so-called "soldier bonus" was offered by Senator Long of Louisiana as an amendment to a bill loaded with veteran appropriations.

Charter Granted For County Fair

The directors of the Community Fair of Eastland will meet Friday, 2 p. m., in the offices of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

At the meeting a report will be offered by Milton Lawrence and Donald Kinnaird, legal advisor and president of the association respectively, who have returned from Austin where a charter was obtained for the association.

In a few days plans for the fair grounds which have already been sent to PWA officials at Fort Worth will be sent to Washington for final approval.

Members of the association are confident that the plans for the project will be approved.

In the fair ground project are included plans for the erection of a stadium, an auditorium which can be employed as a gymnasium, a half mile track, an exhibit building, and other forms of buildings which will provide all the necessary equipment to make the annual fair more successful.

E. Bedford Jones, Eastland, is the acting architect.

County Fair Plan Ready For Approval

Milton Lawrence and Donald Kinnaird, legal advisor and president of the Community Fair of Eastland county, respectively, presented the charter which has been granted by the state of Texas, at the directors of the association's Chamber of Commerce.

Saturday, Kinnaird, Lawrence, and E. Bedford Jones, acting architect on the project, were of the decision to leave for Fort Worth to obtain the approval of the legal and engineering department of the PWA. After their approval, the plans of the project will be sent to Washington for final approval.

Former Eastland Woman Is Dead

Eastland friends have been notified of the death of Mrs. Hilda Rubin, 39, wife of Maurice Rubin, formerly of Eastland, who died suddenly at her home in Oklahoma City.

Mr. and Mrs. Rubin had lived in that city since 1927, and then came to Texas, going from here to Cincinnati, Ohio, and returning to Oklahoma City, their previous residence from 1917 to 1920.

She left five children, two boys, two daughters, and an infant girl nine days old.

MANY CASES TRIED

The month of February has been a rather busy one for Criminal District Attorney Grady Owen who has tried 34 cases including the Mrs. May King Murder case. Of the 34 cases tried convictions were secured in 31, two were acquitted and the May King case resulted in a mistrial.

Masons Celebrate Geo. Washington's Anniversary Fri.

A crowd of 100 Masons attended the George Washington celebration of the Ranger Masonic Lodge Friday night, with representatives present from over the entire 73rd district.

Rev. J. M. Bradford, pastor of the First Baptist church of Dublin was the principal speaker, taking as his subject, "Little Things." He said that Washington was faithful to the little things in life and that was one of the reasons for his greatness. His message was one of the best ever heard in the Ranger lodge.

M. L. Granstaff, superintendent of the Caddo schools, brought an interesting message on Washington as a Mason. His message was well received.

Judge W. P. Leslie, associate justice of the court of civil appeals at Eastland; Burette W. Patterson, judge of the 88th district court; Clyde L. Garrett, county judge; Dr. H. A. Logsdon and W. S. Adamson of Ranger brought greetings from their several vocations.

"Chief" Williams was awarded a bouquet of flowers as a token of appreciation of the 47 years he has been a member of the Masonic Order. "Uncle Bob" Smith was also awarded a bouquet as he has been in the lodge 37 years. It was learned later that Fred Dreinhof had been a Mason for 37 years as he and Mr. Smith entered the order the same year.

Invocation was pronounced by Rev. H. E. Johnson, and Rev. H. H. Stephens pronounced the benediction. At the close of the session a luncheon was served by the Eastern Star chapter of Ranger.

Lions to Sponsor Local Talent Play

J. E. Meroney, president of the Lions Club, announced Saturday that Miss Madeline White had arrived in Ranger to begin rehearsals for a local talent play to be sponsored by the club.

Miss White will direct a group of some 30 Rangerites, including some members of the Lions Club, in the play, "Crashing Through," which is to be presented at the high school auditorium on the night of March 8.

The program, including the entire east of the play, will be published after selection of the cast and other details in connection with the presentation of the play are completed.

Emergency Crop Loans Offered to County Farmers

Farmers seeking loans from the $40,000,000 emergency crop loan fund will be directed in the near future where to apply in their respective communities, stated William I. Myers, governor of the Farm Credit Administration. Rules and regulations covering such loans are now being prepared.

It is required by the law that borrowers, as a condition to receiving an emergency loan, must furnish proof of cooperation with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The nature of proof of cooperation will be similar to that recently announced as applicable to other borrowers who apply for loans under the Farm Credit Administration.

Each applicant must obtain clearance through, or furnish a certificate of cooperation with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. The production control associations will make available lists of those who have signed acreage control contracts. Farmers who are on this list, if otherwise eligible to borrow, will be able to obtain loans.

County councils of the production control associations will certify to representatives of the Farm Credit Administration the names of any farmers who, while not signing acreage control contracts, are cooperating by not increasing their production contrary to the acreage control program.

Where county councils have not been set up, Farm Credit Administration representatives will be instructed to make no loans to farmers who are planning to increase production.

For the time being, according to Governor Myers, the various regional emergency crop loan offices will handle the applications for loans from the $40,000,000 fund, and these offices will be under the immediate direction of the Emergency Crop Loan division, which is placed under the supervision of the Production Credit Commissioner, S. M. Garwood, and the governor.

TROOPS MOVED TO FRONTIER START RUMORS

VIENNA, Austria, Feb. 27.—Heavy troop movement along both sides of the Czecho-Slovakian frontier coincided today with sudden imposition of a censorship of all messages.

The censorship, applied in the early hours of this morning, resulted in elimination from dispatches of any reference either to the troop movement or to reports that Archduke Otto of Hungary or some other Hapsburg might be made king of Austria.

Governments of Czecho-Slovakia, Roumania and Jugo-Slavia have announced that they would regard any such restoration of the Hapsburgs as a cause for war.

Farmers May Sign Cotton Contracts Friday, March 2

Miss Mary Campbell, in charge of the cotton acreage reduction contracts in the Ranger territory, has been notified by J. C. Patterson, county agent, that for one day only cotton contracts can be signed by farmers who have not already signed up.

The letter from the county agent explaining this additional day reads as follows:

"For one day only, Friday, March 2, we will write cotton contracts. Providing such contracts may be completed and mailed to this office that night or delivered by the producer in person to this office by noon Saturday.

"No contract may be accepted that requires mailing for signatures. Any such contract improperly obtained or requiring additional information automatically dies as there will be no time for returning contracts for changes.

"I am questioning the following telegram which I have received but have not yet had a reply: 'If any producer fulfilled a 1933 contract on another farm and this farm was under 1933 contract by another producer, contract is not acceptable.'

"If there are producers who want to sign, send them over Friday."

Wife of Adjutant General Is Dead

FORT WORTH, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Henry Hutchings, 69, wife of the state adjutant general and known as the "mother of the 36th Division" died here today of heart trouble.

She was found dead in her bed at 6:45 a. m. by her daughter, Mrs. W. N. James of Austin. Mrs. Hutchings had been ill for nearly three months. Death occurred about 6 a. m., doctors said.

Her husband, Adjutant General Henry Hutchings, was in Austin at the time of death, confined to his bed, due to a sprained back received yesterday in an automobile jolt.

Mrs. Hutchings won the title "Mother of the 36th Division" during the World War when she took a leading part in providing entertainment for soldiers.

Northern Ohio Is Flooded With Counterfeit Bills

CLEVELAND, O.—Printing press "money"—counterfeit variety—is floating about northern Ohio in the greatest volume in recent history, according to federal secret service agents.

Petty hoodlums, squeezed out of bootleg rackets, are being enlisted to the new trade by underworld distributors from the backroom money plants of New York city, the agents assert.

"Bad bills," include all larger denominations, fives, tens and twenties.

Poison Ivy Gas Found Dangerous

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—Gas from burning poison ivy is as poisonous as the shrub itself, Dr. T. B. Beatty, state health commissioner, and B. P. Spry, state director of safety of the CWA in Utah, disclosed after an extended study.

CWA workers, employed to clean up nearby canyons, were warned against touching the deadly weed, but nothing was said about the danger of burning it, Dr. Beatty said.

Smoke from the burning poison ivy causes irritation similar to that of touching it, he explained. While the workers were supplied with heavy boots and gloves to protect them, several cases were treated. It was later discovered the victims had gathered around fires on which poison ivy burned.

Scouts to Finish Clothing Drive Next Thursday

Ranger Boy Scouts are continuing their drive for old clothing, dishes, furniture or anything of the kind that can be used around the homes of the needy of the city. The drive will be completed Thursday, March 1.

The boys began gathering clothing Saturday in compliance with the request of President Roosevelt that the national good turn week be observed throughout the nation.

Anyone who has clothing, dishes, cooking utensils, bedding or any other items they can contribute to the cause can call Scoutmaster Lemma at the Texas Electric Service company or at 132-R, or the fire station and the boys will call for the contribution.

BRVAN, Tex.—Forty-three years ago Frederick E. Giesecke, young member of the staff at Texas A. & M. College and his young wife built a home at College Station.

Since then they have reared a family, and he has become College Architect, Director of the Engineering Experiment Station, and a recognized expert in his field. Years ago they moved away from the home they had built as a young married couple.

Recently the house became vacant. Dr. and Mrs. Giesecke had it renovated, and moved back in where they started 43 years ago.

AIR CONTRACTS DENOUNCED BY KARL CROWLEY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Charges Walter Brown and airline operators combined to "lobby the McNary-Water airmail act through congress" were made today by Karl Crowley, post office department solicitor.

Under questioning by Senator Austin, Rep., Vermont, Crowley said the evidence on which Postmaster General Farley based the recent order cancelling all domestic mail contracts showed that "these contractors and Mr. Brown worked together in lobbying the bill through congress."

Brown's administration of airmail matters, he said, was "not in the public interest."

SHE ATE ALL-BRAN TWELVE YEARS WITH FINE RESULTS

Delicious Cereal Relieves Constipation

Read this very enthusiastic letter:

"Something like eleven or twelve years ago, I began eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. When I started, it was called simply Kellogg's Bran, and I believe it was one of the first products of the kind on the market.

"My friends often laugh at my fondness for ALL-BRAN. It gives such a clean taste in the mouth, and I do not feel satisfied until I have had my ALL-BRAN.

"If the Kellogg Company should ever stop manufacturing ALL-BRAN, here is one who would be greatly disappointed."—Miss Amy Person, University Park, Iowa.

Science says that ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regularity. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. How much safer than taking patent medicines—often harmful. Just eat two tablespoons daily for most types of constipation. For serious cases, try it three times daily. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Sold in the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

January Sales Above Those of One Year Ago

AUSTIN.—Retail dollar sales continue to make a favorable showing in comparison with the corresponding month a year earlier, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. In January, sales of 86 Texas department stores and specialty shops reporting to the bureau were 28 per cent above those of January, 1933. Five cities reported increases in dollar sales of 25 per cent or more. They were El Paso, Houston, Port Arthur, Waco, and Temple.

Department stores with an annual volume of $500,000 or more showed an increase in dollar sales over January, 1933, of 29 per cent while department stores with an annual volume of business of less than $500,000 reported an average increase of 33 per cent. Men's clothing store sales were 31 per cent above those in January last year; women's specialty shops, 18 per cent above; and dry goods and apparel stores, 17 per cent above.

Although the percentage of credit sales to net sales was 2 per cent greater than in January, 1933, the percentage of collections to outstanding accounts was 6 per cent higher.

MONTREAL.—One of the oldest child games—playing horse with a broom—resulted in the death here of Pierre Orhans, aged 20 months. He was fatally scalded when his "horse" balked and upset a pot of hot coffee over him.

There's a time-tested, harmless, preparation, compounded by a specialist in nervous disorders, for the relief of Sleeplessness, Irritability, Nervous Indigestion, Nervous Headache, Restlessness, the Blues and Hysterical Conditions.

Sport Doesn't Weaken Heart

CHICAGO.—The popular idea that heart disease and athletics go hand in hand was disproved by an explanation of the need for education of cardiac disorders by Mrs. Gertrude Howe Britten, executive director of the Chicago Heart association.

"The general health effects of physical exercise are part of the bill of rights of every individual," she said. "Instead of impairing the heart, such exercise should build up the healthy and give the individual more resistance to all diseases."

"The modern trend toward athletics cannot be counted as a cause of increased cardiac deaths. With proper knowledge of heart conditions, athletes do not exercise

Game Wardens Used As Aids to Police

BOSTON, Mass. — Criminals will find little refuge in the remote parts of Massachusetts. A force of 50 game wardens has been put at the disposal of the police for the purpose of pursuing law-breakers into the little-known spots which they might choose as hiding places until the persistence of pursuit has weakened.

Each game warden knows his particular district thoroughly and has been well trained in law enforcement. In the past wardens have proved the value of their training by leading authorities to hide-outs and just recently led them to the ruins of a burned car which had been used by killers in fleeing from the scene of a double killing and hold-up in Needham.

Club Women Explain Yard Improvements

"Native shrubs should be planted in clumps as they grow in nature," stated Mrs. E. E. Todd, yard improvement demonstrator of the Bass Lake Home Demonstration Club, Gorman. Mrs. Todd is using red bud and red haw plants in the screen plantings.

Mrs. Todd has transplanted her roses from the bed around the house to a rose garden where they can be cultivated as roses need from time to time each year. These bushes have been planted four feet apart, giving plenty of room for cultivation and growth.

A tile cutting bed, the hollow cement tile placed one foot in the ground for sub-irrigating the cuttings grown there, was made last year. Four hundred and twenty-five cuttings are in the bed at present. These plants are to be used in her yard and the yards of cooperators of the club.

Whose Fault?

Unpruned rose bushes are likely to produce a great quantity of relatively small flowers or no particular shape and value for garden purposes. Pruning is done for two purposes; to conserve the energies of the plant by directing its vitality into those branches which can best use it, and still further to concentrate it into the proper number of flowers which the plant can develop to perfection.

When roses are not pruned, nature takes care of part of the work by starving some of the stems and the bush is unsightly. For these reasons, I prune my roses every year, states Mrs. R. D. Vandeford, yard improvement demonstrator of the Reich Home Demonstration Club, located west of Cisco.

The best method of pruning is to leave only the clean, straight growth of last year. It will be necessary to remove some of last year's growth at times from old vigorous plants in order that each shoot may have room to develop. The shoots left should be evenly distributed in order that the plant may be well balanced.

Wait until the last severe freeze before pruning roses. The top eyes of the rose canes always begin to grow first, and this growth is not lost when the roses are pruned. The lower eyes are safely dormant and the bushes will grow off after a late pruning.

Three methods of pruning may be used, first, hard pruning, con-

Mrs. Vandeford states she has used all three methods of pruning and finds the hard pruning gives better results.

Leafy Vegetables Should Be Served to Families Three Times a Week

Leafy vegetables should be served to families three times a week; starchy vegetables each day and some other vegetables once a day; tomatoes three times a week. In order to have this diet for my family the year round, fresh or canned I have made my garden plans to take care of same, states Mrs. Olive Mason, Farm Food Supply Demonstrator of the Elm Home Demonstration Club, west of Gorman.

STUDENT DRINK DROPS

MILWAUKEE.—With the advent of repeal, student drinking has decreased noticeably, in the opinion of Charles Coburn, manager of the student union at Marquette University here. His reason is that most students find the new liquor system a bit beyond their means, but having tasted it, they are no longer content with the pre-repeal variety.

HORSES RECALLED

NORTH ADAMS, Mass.—"Maggie" and "Maude," veteran fire horses pensioned to the city farm four years ago, were recalled for emergency duty when the recent severe blizzard crippled the city's motorized apparatus.

With This, I have worked out my plans to plant the required number of feet, adding extra for vegetables to sell or give neighbors.

In addition to the plan for the garden, Mrs. Mason has built a hot bed four by twenty feet, this for the purpose of starting early plant and growing some green vegetable the year round. The hot bed has the hollow cement tile installed for the purpose of sub-irrigating.

HORSES RECALLED

NORTH ADAMS, Mass.—"Maggie" and "Maude," veteran fire horses pensioned to the city farm four years ago, were recalled for emergency duty when the recent severe blizzard crippled the city's motorized apparatus.

With This, I have worked out my plans to plant the required number of feet, adding extra for vegetables to sell or give neighbors.

In addition to the plan for the garden, Mrs. Mason has built a hot bed four by twenty feet, this for the purpose of starting early plant and growing some green vegetable the year round.

The hot bed has the hollow cement tile installed for the purpose of sub-irrigating.

Inn At Warm Springs Razed for Modern Cottages

WARM SPRINGS, Ga.—Historic old Meriwether Inn, a Georgia landmark for the past 50 years and the patients, and guest hotel of the Warm Springs Foundation, is being razed.

The three-story rambling frame hostelry, long regarded by Foundation officials as a serious fire hazard, has been ordered down to make way for a series of modern patients' and guest units as extensions of Georgia Hall, the new building constructed from funds donated by Georgians.

The new units will be one-story structures and will form annexes to the Georgia Hall. They will be connected by porte cocheres and will conform in architectural design to the hall, which combines the lines of ante-bellum days with the graceful architecture of the Greek era.

It will take about three months to build the first of the modern patients' units. It will occupy the present site of the Inn, and it is hoped to complete it for the spring visit of President Roosevelt, who is founder of the Foundation and president of its Board of Trustees.

Before President Roosevelt founded the Foundation as a center for the treatments and after-care of infantile paralysis patients in 1926, Warm Springs was used as a summer resort by Columbus, Atlanta and George people from nearby towns.

In the days of the stage coach (the one that used to run between Talbotton and Columbus is at present in the Foundation's Museum), when journeys of several days were a matter of course for a 50-mile run, the old Meriwether Inn was the center of attractive hoop-skirted, and pantalooned Southern belles and gray, top-hatted, bewhiskered Southern colonels, who knew how to mix and partake of real mint juleps.

The old register of the Inn has been bound and preserved along with the other relics of the old South of those days. Many famous names are contained in the volume.

When President Roosevelt first came to Warm Springs, the Meriwether Inn was managed by a Tom Loylass, one-time Georgia editor, who went there for his health.

Home Economics Pupils In National Essay Contest

Miss Jimmie Morgan, teacher of home economics at Ranger high school, has entered her students in a nation-wide essay contest in which university scholarships are the major awards.

This educational project for home economics students is known at the national meat story contest, and, according to Miss Morgan, is of material assistance in developing a well-rounded study of this subject in foods classes. Inaugurated in 1924 by the National Live Stock and Meat Board and conducted in cooperation with teachers, the event is said to have increased yearly in scope and popularity. In many high school home economics departments from coast to coast, it is looked upon as the high point of the year's instruction.

Since all essays must be in the hands of the judges by March 15, the girls are losing no time in selecting their topics and assembling their material. The essays must deal with some phase of the subject of meat or the live-stock industry.

State, and district winners and a national champion will be selected. Women nationally prominent in the field of home economics will judge the essays. Subject matter, method of presentation and neatness are all considered in making the awards, it is said.

Forty-six states were represented in last year's contest. The national champion was Miss Reva Lincoln of Athens, Pa., who is using her scholarship this year at Pennsylvania State College. A rush of early entries in this year's contest, indicates that it may set a new all-time record, according to the Board.

Doctor Declares Commandments Are Outmoded

PHILADELPHIA.—The Ten Commandments, according to Dr. Steart G. Cole, have been outmoded by present day living conditions.

They no longer serve even as ideals for youth, he told a surprised audience of clerykmen and Sunday School teachers attending the 50th anniversary exercises of the Temple University School of Theology.

Modern youth, Dr. Cole asserted, gets its morals by contagion and propinquity, just as it gets the measles.

"The former generations probably found the Ten Commandments just as hard to keep as they are now, but at least they served as ideals," he said.

"Today life is not so simple and I find it increasingly hard to tell even my own children just what I believe is right. The Ten Commandments were adequate for the older agricultural civilization under which we lived in this country. They are not nearly enough today.

"How can the church hope to control the moral teaching when it is itself in conflict?" he asked. "There is a bitter clash now going on in every denomination between a religion that reflects the old culture from which we have just come and a religion that reflects the new, strange experimental civilization we are only beginning."

East Texas Oil Field Has Found Legal Advisor

TYLER, Tex.—The great East Texas oil field has found a leader and a legal advisor in F. W. Fischer of Tyler, attorney.

Fischer arose from an obscure position behind a plow to one of conspicuous prominence in the oil industry in Texas. It was Fischer who started filing injunctions in the federal courts against the State Railroad Commission when it started laying down oil prorations orders regulating allowables for the vast field.

And, it was Fischer who led the Panama Oil Refining Co., and dozens of other independent companies, in an attack on that portion of the National Recovery Act which has to do with regulation of the oil industry and the industry's code of fair competition.

Since the Panama decision against the government by Federal Judge Randolph Bryant of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Fischer has become the "great mouth-piece" of the independent refiner and producer in East Texas. Under his legal wing he protects those who are in hot water because of "hot" oil.

The life of this tousled haired attorney, who seems to have a perpetual smile, reads like a Horatio Alger, Jr., book. He was born on a farm 20 miles from Wheeling, W. Va., in 1886, the 11th of 13 children. His mother was an immigrant Irish woman whose ambition was that her children should learn to "read and write"—an advantage she had not had.

Fischer managed to complete the fifth grade reader, a third class arithmetic and a Blue Back Speller. That was the extent of his education.

In 1900 he moved to Oklahoma where he studied from borrowed law books and was admitted to the bar in 1907. He later moved to Wichita Falls, Texas, and in 1927 to Tyler and the oil field.

Fischer gained statewide notoriety when he accused the Texas Highway Commission of "stealing" a hundred million dollars" from the state. In the court room he is dangerous to opposing counsel, and if given a cigar he is even more so.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a substitute. 25c a dozen. ©1931 C. M. Co.

RANGER IN 1920
The year 1920 was one of fires, crimes, violent deaths and much excitement which resulted from the intensive drilling and building of 1919. To group the various fires and crimes would be almost impossible and the chronological order in which they occurred, along with the better news, is the most logical way to list the happenings.

Early in January sale of 2.75 beer was declared illegal over the nation, but that apparently worried Rangerites little, because bootleg whiskey was plentiful. Chief Parish finding many stills and locating at least one truck of liquor, at about the time a price of $3 a barrel was placed on Ranger crude, and it was announced that Ranger was linked with Chicago by a giant pipe line.

Work was begun on the present post office building about Jan. 10, which was reported to be rented for $12 a year, while a lot on the corner of Main and Austin streets sold for $100,000.

A man was seen to throw a switch in the P. & Y. yards, wrecking a train, killing one man on Feb. 8. On Feb. 13 Bill Shamblin, who was charged with the fatal shooting of Policeman Alf Gordon was sentenced to 15 years. On Feb. 21 four fires destroyed the Heybold stables, the El Paso hotel and the Hazzard residence at an estimated loss of $60,000. On March 2 an attempt was made to burn the Young school and on May 6 the Mission Garage burned, 28 cars being destroyed, the loss being listed at $90,000.

May 24 plans for an interurban from Dallas were discussed and it was thought likely work would be begun soon thereafter.

A contract on $4,500,000 worth of county roads was let and work was begun almost immediately. On June 12 the Ranger Times celebrated its first anniversary.

Several shootings, including the slaying of a hotel manager and a truck driver occurred during the summer, but the highlight of the crime occurred on Sept. 9 when three hijackers entered the Oklahoma Cabaret in broad daylight and held up the place. John Barnes, in attempting to stop the robbery, was shot in the neck and ankle while the men obtained amount of loot, including a diamond ring, a diamond stud and $1,100 in cash from Leon Wilson, the manager. The bandits were located and captured in a hotel on Oak street and were later sentenced to 10 years each on two counts of robbery and assault with intent to murder, after they confessed when it seemed that there was enough evidence to convict them.

Shortly after, on Sept. 15, two entire business blocks on Pine street burned and a blind fiddler named Houghton was fatally burned. Sometime later arson and murder charges were filed in connection with the fire and a man confessed.

Plans for bringing water from the Clear Fork of the Brazos were discussed, and later dropped and the Leon Power Plant was completed to furnish electricity for surrounding towns.

But crime soon crept back into the pages of Ranger history. A dope ring was unearthed and 13 suspects arrested and it was found they kept their cache of dope in a safety deposit vault in one of the banks. A young girl signed a statement to the effect she was a victim of white slavery and two were arrested and turned over to federal authorities. As the year ended plans were progressing nicely on a "White Way" for Ranger.

Texas & Pacific Station in Ranger Robbed on Mon.
The Texas & Pacific passenger station in Ranger was robbed sometime between noon and 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, the thief taking $31.61 from the cash drawer.

After the westbound train left Ranger at noon there was no one in the office until it was opened just before arrival of the Sunshine Special in the afternoon. When employees opened the station office about 4 o'clock it was discovered that the cash drawer had been rifled. Some 26 pennies, which were in the cash drawer along with the other money, were not disturbed.

Entrance to the cash drawer was gained by inserting a brake shoe pin off a railroad car in the edge of the drawer and prying it

Complexion Cleared Up
"At one time," writes Mrs. Lizzie Falls, of Paris, Texas, "my complexion was muddy and bad. I felt tired and dull. Did not feel like doing anything. My system seemed clogged. WHAT HAS HAPPENED

Allen, a youth in Mato Grosso and confirmed woman-hater, falls for Joan, a girl who has been forced to stop off at Mato Grosso because of the sickness of her brother. When the brother dies, Allen, who has been against the advances of Taggart and Frenchy. He goes into the jungle to kill Taggart, in order to raise funds to get the girl out of the community. Taggart sends a man after the youth to kill him, but a jaguar kills the assassin. Taggart also lures Dr. Parrish, a physician, away from the girl with the promise of information on the cure for the disease. But Allen has been here.

While Joan is alone, Frenchy attempts to force his attentions, but Taggart prevents it, and the two go into the jungle to look for the girl. Both try to double-cross the other. But, Taggart wins and kills Frenchy.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

When Taggart returned, Allen went up to him. "I wasn't around this morning when you were inviting me to go." "Why?" asked Taggart with forced cheerfulness. "Were you thinking of putting in a bid?" "Yes—how do you go about it?" "Like this," said Taggart and he gave him a quick jab in the jaw which staggered Allen and knocked him against the bar. Then, like an uncoiled spring, he rushed back at the man and a fierce fight ensued. Allen was pretty well battered up from the fracas. His arm was twisted and wrenched, and his face and body bore signs of the conflict. But Allen insisted on making light of his injuries and getting ready to leave Malango, to take the boat up the river. He wanted to go to his shack to get his bag, but Dr. Parrish volunteered to do that for him. Just as Dr. Parrish was about to get out of the hut, with Allen's bag, he

Sunday School Lesson

JESUS' TESTIMONY ABOUT HIMSELF
Text: Matt. 11:2-12:50
The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for March 4

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of The Congregationalist

What did Jesus say concerning himself? It is instructive to note that when John the Baptist, who had been thrown in prison, sent his disciples to Jesus inquiring whether he was the Messiah whose coming John had predicted, and for whom he had prepared the way, Jesus did not answer by making great claims for himself, or by speaking in any theological and metaphysical terms, such as historic Christianity and the great creeds have used.

It was in accordance with the simple life and teaching of Jesus that he should point to the outward evidences and send the disciples back to John to report the things that they had heard and seen.

If Christians everywhere since the day when Jesus was on earth had interpreted the divine character of the Master and expressed their belief in him by emulating his example in loving thoughts and in good deeds, what a different world we should have and how much nearer the great organized forces of religion would have been to the realization of God's will!

It is not in theories concerning Jesus, but in the fact of the response to his life, that men recognize his divinity and find life in him.

Cleanup Urged By Health Officer

AUSTIN, Tex.—The warm days of spring will soon be here and the Texas State Department of Health urges everyone to see that their property is cleaned of the winter's accumulation of trash. It is only through individual responsibility and effort that one can have a clean and neat appearing city.

In planning your spring cleaning start with the house itself in the attic and work down, not forgetting the basement. Attics and basements are the greatest collectors of refuse and therefore dust and dirt that the house possesses, and their neglect often constitutes a serious fire hazard. Do not forget to screen against flies and mosquitoes. The better the job of cleaning, and with a garbage pail kept tightly covered, the fewer flies there will be, because flies love dirt and filth and breed in garbage and other filth.

Under the C. W. A. sanitary project pit privies and septic tanks may be installed at no cost for labor, also private water supplies may be sanitized. This will be a great improvement in rural sections and towns that do not have a city water supply or sewer system.

We are prone to judge people in small measure by the kind of yard keepers we think they are. Many times you have heard some one say "No, I don't know the people next door but they cannot amount to much because their yard is cluttered with tin cans and papers and their garbage can is always open." Do not let your neighbors be able to pass judgment on you on such grounds.

"You're sure a pretty picture, lady," Allen murmured. "Mrs. Allen to you," Joan answered. (Posed by Donald Cook and Peggy Shannon) was met by a group of men headed by Taggart. "Going some place, Doc?" Taggart asked. "Why, yes. What do you want?" Taggart pointed to the bag. "I want to take a look through that." "What for?" Parrish inquired. "Just a matter of form, Doc. I lost a wallet with three hundred dollars in it. We're searching everybody." "You won't find it here, but you can go ahead and search," said Parrish. Taggart shrugged his shoulders doubtfully. "Go ahead, fellows." And one of the men, reaching into the duffle bag, pulled out the wallet. "Is this it?" he asked and handed the wallet to Taggart, who took it and examined it carefully, counting the money inside. "It's all here, too," Taggart replied. "Guess he was counting on saving it until he got to Rio. Then he looked at the bag and became surprised. "Say—that's Allen's bag. I guess we got the wrong fellow. Sorry, Doc. My apologies."

Parrish saw through the entire frame-up and realized that in some way he must spare Allen the outcome of it for the sake of Joan. "I had enough nerve to steal this wallet," acting reluctantly, "but haven't nerve enough to see you blame an innocent man." He looked straight at Taggart. "What are you getting at?" inquired the latter. "I stole that wallet," Parrish was genuinely calm, with a resigned look on his face. "Then what's it doing in Allen's bag?" "I put it there," Parrish lied. "I was going to borrow the bag along with your wallet."

Taggart looked Parrish straight in the eye. "There's no exception to that law about stealing," he said. "If you took that wallet, it's your finish."

"Yes, I know," said Parrish completely resigned.

"That story won't let Allen out, it looks pretty good to me."

"Let's get this over with," said Parrish. "I stole it and I don't want a trial."

"Blame him on down, men. I'll meet you there."

"As they passed Allen's shack, Parrish asked a few minutes to say

There's nothing ahead of me. You two are young. Life's just beginning for you now. My life's finished. It's been a pretty rotten mess and this is a decent way out. If you love Joan as much as I do, you'll let me go through with this and get her out of this."

"What do you take me for?" asked Allen, angrily. "They kill you and we get away free. Well, it won't work. You're not going to do it."

But Parrish pushed him aside and went out to the men.

"I'm going through with this, Parrish," said Taggart as he came out.

"So am I," said Parrish and he walked alone down to the end of the dock and then into the river among the crocodiles.

When the boat came in Taggart visited Captain Peterson, Chita, unobserved by anyone, listened outside the window.

"Miss Leeson's not going with you," said Taggart.

"But why?" asked Peterson.

"Never mind why. You do as I tell you or you won't get at all—except maybe to the bottom of the river."

Chita straightened up. She knew now that Taggart had tricked her over and she leaped upon a barrel calling loudly, "Taggart say Parrish steal his wallet. He's a liar. Nobody steal his wallet. He put it in Allen's bag because he wanted to kill Allen and get the girl. Parrish, he die to save his friend," she turned toward Allen, "to save you and that girl."

There was a frightened expression upon Taggart's face as he came into the scene. The men became menacing and Taggart grew full of fear. Allen was upon him, followed him to the upper deck and a fierce fist fight ensued.

"You made a law that just about suits your case," Allen declared. "No, no," pleaded Taggart. "Give me a break."

The same kind of a break that you gave Parrish," Allen declared. The lad got a hold of the man and with a quick jerk forced him into the river.

The boat sailed out of Malango with Captain Peterson marrying Joan and Allen, and as they sat on the sun-deck Allen murmured, "You're sure a pretty picture, lady."

"Mrs. Allen to you."

The End

It is futile for us to speak in honor of our Master except as we honor him by following him and making our lives like his. It is as true today as it was in the day of Jesus himself that the spirit of Christ is manifest in acts and words of blessing.

Those who live in the spirit of Jesus cannot ignore the blind and the deaf and the lame, the sick and the sinful. No correctness of theory, no soundness of doctrine will make our lives speak forth the glory of God and the praise of Jesus unless our words of faith and profession are backed up by lives of love and usefulness toward our fellow men.

Here in human life was the testing ground of the divinity of our Master, and here in human life is the testing ground of all who would share that divine life with him.

How accurately Jesus describes the people of his own generation, their prejudices and insistences on unimportant things, and their carelessness and perverseness in the presence of truth! Is our generation very different?

Do not the great mass of our people still cavil, and complain, and enter into controversy over unimportant things, neglecting the soul of truth and the presence of the Master who still would lead us into lives and acts of love and goodness?

Wisdom still is justified by her children.

From this picture of Jesus and his own generation, how inspiring it is to turn to Jesus himself in the prayer of thankfulness to our father and his simple appeal to all

Science says Today use a LIQUID Laxative

1. Regulate intestinal action gently—no "purging"
2. Measure dose to suit your individual needs
3. Avoid Bowel Fatigue and the laxative habit

Here's Why:

Harsh laxatives often drain the system, weaken the bowel muscles, and in some cases even affect the liver and kidneys.

A doctor will tell you that the unwise use of harsh laxatives often does more harm than good.

Fortunately, the public is fast returning to the use of laxatives in liquid form.

A properly prepared liquid laxative brings a perfect movement. There is no discomfort at the time and no weakness after. You don't have to take "a double dose" a day or two later.

In buying any laxative, always read the label. Not the claims, but the contents. If it contains doubtful drugs, don't take it.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a prescriptional preparation in which there are no mineral drugs. Its ingredients are on the label. By using it, you avoid danger of bowel strain.

The liquid test:

This test has proved to many men and women that their trouble was not "weak bowels," but strong cathartics.

First. Select a good liquid laxative. 2. Take the dose you find is suited to your system. 3. Gradually reduce the dose until bowels are moving regularly without any need of stimulation.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the highest standing among liquid laxatives, and is the one generally used. It contains senna, a natural laxative which is perfectly safe for the youngest child. Your druggist has Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

Applications for Production Loans Being Received

Applications for production loans to farmers and stockmen in Eastland county are now being received by R. A. Choat, secretary-treasurer of the Breckenridge Production Credit Association. According to Mr. Choat, all loans will be made on a business basis and according to the security furnished by the applicant.

"The loans that will be made in this county and the other six counties served by the Breckenridge Production Credit Association must be good loans and loans that are collectible if the association is to continue as a permanent service to farmers in this and other communities, as intended," Mr. Choat said.

"Fortunately, not all farmers in this county need credit," he continued, "but for those who do the association stands as a business organization—not as a charity institution. Loans may be obtained for periods of 3 to 12 months by any eligible deserving farmer or stockman who needs credit and has security; but if a farmer or stockman is eligible for credit it must be extended on a business basis."

Each applicant has to state in his application what property he is offering to secure the loan, Mr. Choat said. Security for these loans will consist of first liens on crops, livestock or other personal property on which a lien, or chattel mortgage, may be taken to secure the loan adequately. The lien may be taken on property already in the possession of the borrower, or to be purchased with the money borrowed. It is not intended that production loans shall be secured principally by mortgages on real estate. Where this type of security is taken it will be regarded only as additional collateral.

Mr. Choat said that the charges on production loans would be as low as possible in keeping with business credit. A small fee is charged to inspect the property offered as security by the applicant, but usually no charge will be made for inspection if the loan is not granted.

The minimum amount that can be loaned to any one eligible borrower is $50.00. The interest rate is 3 per cent above the discount rate of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, and charged only for the actual number of months the loan is outstanding. The present discount rate of the

ONLY THE CENTER LEAVES FOR Luckies

1. Luckies do not use the top leaves... because top leaves are under-developed... they are not ripe... They would give a harsh smoke.
2. Luckies use only the center leaves of the finest tobacco plants... because the center leaves are the mildest, tenderest, smoothest.
3. Luckies do not use the bottom leaves, because bottom leaves are inferior in quality. They grow close to the ground, and are tough, coarse and always sandy.

Lucky Strike presents the Metropolitan Opera Company

Saturday at 1:50 P. M., Eastern Standard Time, over Red and Blue Networks of NBC, Lucky Strike will broadcast the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York in the complete Opera, "Lucia di Lammermoor."

This picture tells better than words the merit of your Lucky Strike. Luckies use only the center leaves. Not the top leaves, because those are under-developed—not ripe. Not the bottom leaves, because those are inferior in quality—they grow close to the ground and are tough, coarse and always sandy. The center leaves are the mildest leaves, the finest in quality. These center leaves are cut into long, even strands and are fully packed into each and every Lucky—giving you a cigarette that is always round, firm, completely filled—no loose ends. Is it any wonder that Luckies are so truly mild and smooth? And in addition, you know, "It's toasted"—for throat protection, for finer taste.
