Ranger Will Have a Big Fourth Celebration

CISCO'S GAS RATE NOT CUT BY COMMISSION

AUSTIN, June 27.—Cisco residents will continue to pay a gas rate of 75 cents a thousand cubic feet with 10 per cent discount for payment of bills in 10 days, under an order issued today by the state railroad commission.

The rate has been in dispute since Oct. 26, 1931. At that time the city by ordinance ordered a reduction to 50 cents. Community Natural Gas company appealed and on May 1, 1932, submitted to the city a proposed sliding scale rate.

In issuing the order today the commission said: "In the present unsettled and distressed condition of our country and of this particular municipality, the commission finds no reason why a rate which prior to and since acquisition of the property by the Community Natural Gas company has prevailed and which has not heretofore been complained of, should not, for the distressed period, be continued."

Brown Twins In A.A.U. Events at Milwaukee Friday

EASTLAND, Texas, June 27.—Elmer and Delmer Brown of Eastland, who attend Abilene Christian college, are numbered among the half dozen athletes who Friday and Saturday will participate in the junior and senior National A. A. U. events at Milwaukee. En route to Milwaukee the group and their coach stopped in Eastland Sunday.

Elmer and Delmer are to be entered by Coach Weems of the Abilene college in the 100 and 200 meter dashes and the broad jump event in the junior meet. They will also participate in the 100 and 200 meter dashes and the 1,600-meter relay race in the senior meet Saturday. The Browns have the distinction of being the first freshmen from A. C. C. to enter a meet similar to the one to be held in Milwaukee.

After competing in the events at the meet the group of athletes plans to attend A Century of Progress in Chicago.

Sudden Death Takes Father of Mrs. J. B. Hunter

Word was received in Ranger today by Mrs. J. B. Hunter of the sudden death of her father, S. C. Wise, 76, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. Busby, at Lockney, where he was visiting. He made his home in Big Spring prior to his death.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed today, but burial will be in Fort Worth, either Friday or Saturday.

The decedent had been a resident of Johnson county for a number of years, later moving to Big Spring, where he was in business for a number of years. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Hunter of Ranger, Mrs. L. Busby of Lockney and Mrs. Henry C. Lee of Mexia, and four sons, V. A. Wise of Fort Worth, John Wise of Dallas, Clyde Wise of Denison, and Melvin A. Wise of Big Spring.

Meroney Is Elected Oil Co. Club Head

Magnolia Petroleum company agents and district manager met at the Hotel Brownwood Tuesday evening and organized a club, to be known as the Magnolia club.

This was the first group meeting and agents were present from eight counties from over this section of the country.

J. E. Meroney, Ranger agent for Magnolia and the youngest member in the Magnolia Club from a point of service with the company, was elected as the first president and Ranger was selected as the next meeting place. The next meeting will be held on Monday, July 2.

Last Rites For W. S. Michael Said Tuesday, 2:30 P.M.

Funeral services for W. S. Michael, who died late Sunday evening at a Cisco hospital where he had been rushed for treatment for injuries sustained in an automobile accident near Romney, were conducted from the First Methodist church of Eastland at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by the Rev. Frank L. Turner of the Cisco Methodist church.

Burial was in the Eastland cemetery with Masonic rites conducted by the Ranger Blue Lodge of which he was a member, with the Cisco Commandery of which he was the first commander, furnishing the escort. Masons from virtually every lodge in the county attended.

Mr. Michael was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, Woodmen of the World and Modern Woodmen and each of these orders were represented at the funeral.

Mr. Michael was a member of the Methodist church and the members of the Martha Dorcas class served the noon meal for the family and relatives at the home Tuesday.

The body was brought from Cisco to the home in Eastland where it remained until time for the funeral Tuesday afternoon and where it was viewed by a large number of friends.

The Hammer Undertaking company of Eastland had charge of the body.

Mosiah Temple of Fort Worth, of which Mr. Michael was a member, wired D. J. Jobe of Eastland to purchase flowers for that institution to be sent the family and in a letter to Mr. Jobe extended sympathy to the widow and members of the family.

Eastland business houses out of respect to the deceased closed their doors for the funeral hour, 2:30 to 3:30.

Pallbearers were the four members of the Eastland county commission's court, County Judge C. L. Garrett and Don Parker, assistant county auditor.

Survivors are his widow, who was Miss Ada Allen and whom he married at Pearl, Texas, Oct. 6, 1890, and three sons, two daughters and seven grandchildren as Mrs. M. E. Kemp, Cisco.

Grandchildren — Colvesta and Ruben Smith; Carroll Jr., Billy Fred, Michael, and Freddie Ladell Michael and Bobby Kemp.

William Spencer Michael was born at Boone, N. C., Nov. 9, 1868, and came to Texas about 1888. He came to Eastland county a few years later, first residing on a farm in the Salt Tank community near Rising Star. Later he was a teacher in the Rising Star public schools, and then engaged in the mercantile business being employed for sometime by the H. H. Anderson company at Rising Star.

He was also engaged for a number of years in the banking business serving at different times with banks at Ranger and Cisco. He was appointed internal revenue collector for this district and served in this position for about six years, resigning the place to become auditor for Eastland county in which capacity he served for about 11 years or until his death.

The funeral Tuesday was attended by a large crowd made up of people from all parts of the county. The floral offering was unusually large and beautiful.

Mr. Michael was a good citizen, a good neighbor and a good official. He was always active in matters for the promotion of the better interests of his town, county, state and nation and was universally loved and respected by all who knew him; he was modest, unassuming and even tempered and man whom none had naught but praise and commendation for.

Another common theory associates rain with battle. That, also, is wrong, Humphreys declared. To the rain-soaked troops of 1914-18 the idea seemed reasonable. Many thought the constant thunder of artillery was blasting the sky open. Humphreys said it was not.

Plutarch, in his "Lives," called attention to the fact—Humphreys said it was coincidental—that rain often occurred after great battles. He listed these theories to account for this:

1. The Olympian gods, outraged by man's conflicts, sent showers to cleanse the gory earth;
2. The clash of swords on shields, cries of the wounded and other sounds of battle "shocked"

Innumerable Ideas to Bring Rain Cause Weather Man Only to Laugh

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The weather man looked exasperatedly at a hill of letters telling President Roosevelt how to break the drought and announced:

"No power on earth can make it rain."

All the ideas on how to produce rain—and they are innumerable—just produce so many good laughs at the United States weather bureau. W. J. Humphreys, meteorologist to whom most of the well-meaning suggestions are referred, is getting fed up with sticking factual pins into pet theories.

The popular notion that noises such as are made by detonation of cannon or dynamite can shake the sky loose of its moisture burden is entirely fallacious, Humphreys said. Against the weather bureau's advice, the government once tried out the idea in a drought-afflicted part of Texas. It didn't work and the weather men laughed up their sleeves.

Other rain-making ideas, all worthless in Humphreys' opinion, include:

Sprinkling clouds with electrified sand.

Boring holes in the sky.

Spraying dust in the air.

Blood-letting (practised at one time by Australian natives).

Abuse of idols and images.

Imitative tableaux. Once in Esthonia three men climbed trees. One was equipped with a torch to simulate lightning, another with a kettle which he beat in imitation of thunder, and the third with a small sprinkler. This was to demonstrate to the gods what was wanted.

For Constable

W. A. (Kid) Hammett of Ranger, who has announced his candidacy as Constable of the Ranger precinct.

W.A. Hammett Is A Candidate For Ranger Constable

W. A. Hammett of Ranger, known throughout Eastland and Stephens counties as "Kid Hammett," makes his official announcement today for Constable of Ranger precinct.

Mr. Hammett needs no introduction to the voters of this precinct as he is well known by all as he has lived in Ranger for the past several years and has been a peace officer at one time or another over a long period of time.

He has served as deputy sheriff, constable, policeman and special officer on several occasions.

Mr. Hammett said in making the announcement that he was seeking the office purely on his own merits and promises that if the people see fit to elect him that he will serve them with fairness and justice at all times.

He is making no special promises to the people and only promises that he will enforce the law as near as he knows how. Mr. Hammett says that he is a Democrat and is asking that his friends and all others who can remember him with their votes in the primary in July.

CANDIDATE IN RANGER

John White, candidate for county treasurer, was a visitor in Ranger today in the interest of his race.

ACCIDENT AT WELL NORTH OF BRECKENRIDGE

BRECKENRIDGE, June 28.—Two men were killed and two others overcome by gas fumes at the Baker Parquet oil well five miles north of here today.

The dead were: Leland Price, 24. Waddell Greenstreet, 25. Joe Williams, 25, was in a hospital believed in a critical condition.

S. A. Fry, 40, also was caught in the gas filled pit. He was rushed to a Breckenridge hospital. Doctors said he would recover.

Bill Tucker Has a Serious Accident

Word was received in Ranger Monday that Bill Tucker, formerly of Ranger, and who has been working in Graham recently, sustained a serious accident that may possibly cause the loss of sight in one or both of his eyes.

He was holding a container of muriatic acid, the reports received here said, when in some way the cork in the container blew out, scattering the acid over his face. His condition was considered dangerous and it was feared he might lose his sight, doctors at Graham indicated.

Two Good Boxing Bouts On Card For Elks Fights

Wire received in Ranger late Wednesday afternoon from Charles Lay, promoter for the Elks wrestling and boxing card Monday evening in Ranger was to the effect that Woodie Windham of Fort Worth and Jackie Woods of Waco had been matched for a 6-round fight. Woodie has fought on several occasions in Ranger and is plenty tough. The Waco boy says that he has been trying for some time to get Woodie in the ring as he expects to put him out in 3 rounds. This argument will be settled Monday night, it being the first number on the card.

A ten round fight between Bill Donowho of Ranger and Jimmie Scallons of Dallas is the second event on the card. These two husky fighters fought to a draw last Monday night and the fans are anxious to see this box go for ten rounds. Bill was not satisfied with the short bout and challenged Jimmie for a return fight—it was readily granted and Jimmie said it usually took him about seven rounds to get his knockout wallop working.

The main event of the evening will be the 2-hour time limit wrestling match between Si Holt of Fort Worth and Red Rogers of Dallas. Si won the match last Monday on a foul and Red protested to the referee and the commissioner, and finally to the spectators, but he was told that because of his roughness and foul tactics he had lost. Si promises the fans that he is going to get rough from the first blow of the whistle and not give one inch to Red and beat him down from the start. This will be one of the best wrestling matches that has been held in the Ranger arena.

Ladies will be admitted to the show with each ringside paid admission.

One of the best crowds of the season was present last Monday night and a large crowd is looked for on the coming fight.

HOUSING BILL SIGNED TODAY BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The Housing Bill, one of the major efforts in the administration recovery program, designed to stimulate construction throughout the nation, was signed today by President Roosevelt.

There is no indication, as yet, however, as to the personnel of the board that will administer the measure. The bill provides for improvement of housing standards and conditions with mutual mortgage insurance.

President Roosevelt approved a joint resolution to amend the settlement of war claims acts of 1928 and a joint resolution providing an additional appropriation for expenses of special committees of the House for the fiscal year, 1936.

Meanwhile, it was explained, the President is making steady progress toward the appointment of various boards and commissions. It was indicated all of them might not be filled before he leaves Saturday for Hawaii and he would complete the job from the cruiser Houston.

Faced with a busy week, Mr. Roosevelt later in the day hoped to put the finishing touches to his address he will make tonight at 9:30 p. m. EST. (8:30 CST).

Joseph W. Harriman Sentenced to Prison

NEW YORK, June 27.—Joseph W. Harriman, former president of the Harriman National Bank and Trust company, today was sentenced to four and a half years in federal penitentiary for falsifying records of his bank.

He was sentenced on 16 counts, each of which drew a penalty of four and a half years. The judge agreed the sentences be run concurrently.

The indictment charged the falsification of records to the extent of $1,713,223 and the misapplication of $600,000 of the bank funds.

Motorcade to Visit Towns of County to Advertise Pageant

F. C. McClung, producer of the March of Time Pageant, to be held in Ranger on the Fourth of July is trying to locate a real old car—some model about 1906 or 1907. This car will be brought into Ranger and placed in the auto episode at the pageant program. Any one knowing of a real old model car will please let Mr. Moore know.

It was planned today to have a small motorcade leave Ranger on Monday morning, visiting towns and advertising the pageant and other features of the celebration.

The motorcade, which will be headed by the loud speaker car belonging to McClung, will visit Olden, Eastland, Cisco, Rising Star, Desdemona, Gorman and Carbon before returning to Ranger and will probably stop off in several of the rural communities for a few minutes while on the trip.

Witt Addresses Eastland Voters Wednesday P. M.

Edgar E. Witt of Waco, present lieutenant governor of Texas and candidate for governor, spoke before a small group of Eastland county voters gathered on the east side of the courthouse lawn Wednesday afternoon, in the interest of his candidacy. He was introduced by Judge Milburn McCarty of Eastland, a boyhood friend.

Mr. Witt briefly outlined his platform, stressing his demand for curtailment of the crime wave, and reduction of taxes, including the abolishment of the poll tax and a cut in the automobile license registration fee.

The speaker said he was in hearty accord with President Roosevelt's National Recovery program, including the act's guarantee of right of labor to bargain collectively through organizations of their own choosing.

As one move to help in reducing the crime wave Mr. Witt advocated a more closely unified state constabulary, providing better methods of apprehending criminals. He also advocated quicker trials for criminals, surer convictions for the guilty and greater assurance that the punishment assessed would be meted out to them in its entirety where it was not shown that clemency was merited.

Mr. Witt, a war veteran himself, advocated the removal of all veteran relief agencies from political influence and said that he believed the government should discharge its duties to those veterans of all wars that were entitled to relief.

Guy Mayo Dies of Heart Attack at Home in Ranger

Guy Mayo, 51, operator of a cleaning and pressing plant in Ranger and one of the best known citizens of the town, died suddenly at his home, 305 Mesquite street, Wednesday night.

Funeral services are to be held at the Central Baptist church of Ranger Friday morning at 10:30, conducted by Rev. H. H. Stephens, assisted by Rev. H. B. Johnson. The body will be taken from the Killingsworth, Cox & Co. funeral parlors to the home at 8 o'clock Friday morning, where it will remain until time for the funeral services. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery following the services at the church.

Active pallbearers will be the tailors of the city, composed of Bill Clardy, J. A. Sloan, S. P. Boon, G. M. Rogers, Jesse Weaver, and E. L. Rogers. Honorary pallbearers will be his host of friends throughout the city.

The decedent was born in Columbus, Ga., Feb. 19, 1883, and moved to Texas in 1905. In early manhood he joined the United States army and saw service practically all over the world. He moved to Ranger in July, 1921, and was married to Miss Nellie Crenshaw of Thurber Nov. 18, 1915.

He had been in apparent good health up to the time of his death, though he did say a day or two before his death that he believed he was catching a cold. He went to bed Wednesday night feeling well and apparently suffered a heart attack about 10:30. He awoke his wife while he was struggling to get out of bed and she called a neighbor, but he was dead before he could arrive.

He is survived by his widow, two brothers, Henry Mayo of Weatherford, Okla., and Cyril Mayo of Claremore, Okla., and two sisters, Mrs. C. A. Rawlins and Mrs. Adie Hickman, both of whom live in California.

Oldest Car in the County Is Wanted

C. J. Moore, chairman of the automobile committee of the March of Time pageant to be held in Ranger on the Fourth of July is trying to locate a real old car—some model about 1906 or 1907. This car will be brought into Ranger and placed in the auto episode at the pageant program. Any one knowing of a real old model car will please let Mr. Moore know.

W. D. UPSHAW, NOTED DRY, TO SPEAK HERE

William D. Upshaw, ex-congressman from Georgia and noted dry leader, will deliver a series of three addresses in this immediate section beginning with an address at the First Baptist church in Rising Star, Sunday at 11:00 o'clock. All of Mr. Upshaw's addresses will be made in the interest of the "dry cause."

Mr. Upshaw, known as the "orator on crutches," and often called the "successor to Bryan," kept Washington on its ear during his eight years in congress where he attacked the "naughty drinking high-ups," will speak at the Olden Baptist church at 3:00 p. m. Sunday on "America's Greatest Battle." At 8:00 p. m. Sunday night he will speak at the First Baptist church in Ranger when his subject will be "The Blue Coat and the Red Flag."

Monday night at 8:00 o'clock Mr. Upshaw will appear at the First Baptist church in Breckenridge for an address.

Tuesday night, July 3, he will speak at the First Baptist church in Eastland at a county-wide rally. The general theme of the speaker on this occasion will be, "Making and Keeping Texas Dry."

Sponsors of the meetings at which Mr. Upshaw will speak, it is said, offer a dollar bill to any person who goes to sleep during one of his speeches. This, it is stated, means that the audience will have a breezy time when the "Georgia Cyclone" is turned loose.

Baptist Revival to Start In Ranger On Monday Night

Announcement was made in Ranger today that a Baptist revival meeting would start Monday night on the vacant lot across from the city hall. The preaching will be done by Rev. John A. Lovell, radio preacher, who is well known throughout this section of West Texas.

Seats will be furnished to take care of the crowds and parking space will be sufficient for all who care to attend.

The public is cordially invited to hear this old-time gospel and all singers are urged to come and have a part in the meeting.

The meeting will start promptly at 8 o'clock and will be held in the open air on the lot in front of the city hall, Ranger. This meeting is sponsored by Rev. Lovell and friends who secured his services for the Ranger meeting.

All the people are urged to attend.

Scouts Will Plan Summer Encampment

Raymond Steele, Scoutmaster of Troop 9, Boy Scouts, has urged all members of the troop to be present at the first station Friday evening at 8 o'clock to make plans for going to the summer encampment at Camp Billy Gibbons.

The encampment is to start on July 10 and plans for the camp must be made and all boys in the troop are urged to be present.

MISSED WHITE WOLF STEVENSVILLE, MONT.

The rarest of all animal killers in the west—a white wolf—was sighted recently on the Miller Burnt Fork sheep range. June Miller shot the freak but missed. It was the first time in 25 years that a white wolf has been reported in western Montana.

COLLEGE STATION.—Absentee landlords and their tenants will save much time in getting farm allotments of cotton and exemption certificates under the Bankhead Act if absentees will name promptly persons to act for them. C. A. Cobb, chief of the AAA cotton section has advised Texas A. & M. Extension Service officials.

Absentees' agents must be supplied with power of attorney on forms expected to reach Texas by the end of June, and will be available in the offices of cotton production control associations.

Time for filing applications for individual farm allotments of cotton and tax exemption certificates will be limited, Cobb said, but deferred specifying the limit. Landlords, cash tenants and tenants renting for a fixed share of the crop, or their authorized agents, are eligible to sign Bankhead applications for allotments and certificates, it was pointed out.

Certificates will be issued to individual producers, whether landlords or tenants, each receiving his proper share of the total allotted the farm, Cobb said.

Deposits Showing Increase In Texas

AUSTIN.—Checks cashed during May by member banks reporting to the Dallas Reserve bank totaled $460,000,000, 26.8 per cent less than in May last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Deposits of $394,000,000, however, made a more favorable showing; time deposits of $121,000,000 having been the same as April and only 3.2 per cent less than in May a year ago, while demand deposits of $273,000,000 increased slightly over April and 90 per cent above May last year. Total loans remained practically the same as in April, but as $187,000,000 they were 12.2 per cent less than in May, 1933. Loans on securities other than government declined 7.6 per cent from May a year ago and on other types of collateral declined 14.3 per cent. Government securities of $146,000,000 owned decreased 8 per cent from April but increased 62 per cent over May last year.

Famous Contract Expert Is Dead

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 27. Milton C. Work, celebrated master of whist and auction and contract bridge, died in a hospital here today. He had been ill a week of heart disease. He was 69.

Work was a America's oldest bridge expert, both in age and length of tenure in the public eye. He began his experting back in 1881 with whist, the game of society, and the upper crust generally.

He survived when whist changed into auction and auction to contract.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL
 And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks puny, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
 For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a tick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
 It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
 But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

Campaign Expense Accounts Must Be In By This Week

AUSTIN, Tex.—First campaign expense accounts will be required this week from state-wide candidates.

When they total up and find out how much they have spent already, a tightening of the candidates' purse strings may be expected. A limit of $8,000 is set on expenditures for the first primary and $10,000 for both primaries of the candidate gets into the runoff election.

Practically 10 times that amount is spent in the campaign. The law is so poorly drawn that its enforcement never has been attempted. Individuals may spend what they like in behalf of candidates.

Texas Corn Crop Is Needing Rain Before July 1st

COLLEGE STATION.—The Texas corn crop is desperately in need of rain by the first of July according to crop specialists at Texas A. & M. College.

Unless adequate moisture is forthcoming by that time, they said, the crop will have passed the stage where rain will increase yield of grain.

Texas farmers planted about 5,250,000 acres of corn during the spring for feed and forage for livestock, but this huge investment is declining each day that dry weather continues.

Suggestions for salvaging the drought-damaged crop and for replacing corn with later feed crops were offered. Where corn has made a good stalk growth but only a small amount of grain, the crop should be cut soon to utilize the full feed value of the whole plant.

Where there is enough corn acreage to justify, the greatest value can be obtained from the dried crop by putting it in a silo. If ensilage cutters are not available, the corn may be cut with row binder, sled cutter or by hand and put in a trench silo.

Dried crops put in silos need at least twice as much water applied as normal green crops. There is little danger of getting too much water on a crop put in a trench silo, the specialists said.

If the corn acreage and the number of livestock do not warrant expense of making silage, the corn should be cut and shocked without delay to get the full feed value.

Grain sorghums, cowpeas and sudan grass were suggested as replacement crops if corn fails, provided rain comes within "a reasonable time." For Central and South Texas hegari, darso, Spur feterita and Blackhul kafir were suggested as the best varieties. Shrock and darso were suggested for eastern and southeastern parts of the state.

If these substitute crops are planted between now and Aug. 1, or even by Sept. 1, they may be expected to produce fair crops under favorable conditions.

Lyric Wins Close Game from Arcadia

The Arcadia theatre soft ball baseball team visited Eastland Thursday morning, where it played the Lyric team a return game of the three-game series. The Lyric crew came out on the long end of a 13 to 10 score to even the series. The first game was played last Friday morning in Eastland with the Arcadians having a slight edge on the Lyric team. The winner of two games out of three will be guests at a dinner to be furnished by the manager of the losing team. John Burke of Eastland and B. E. Garner of Ranger are both anxious for their teams to win in order that their theatre employes may be guests at the dinner.

It's Great To Lose Fat and Feel Years Younger

We picked out this letter for fat folks to read today—read every word.

"I give you my full permission to print this letter. I used Kruschen Salts for reducing. I lost 30 lbs., since I have been taking it. I praise it to everybody I know that is fat. And I also feel years younger." Miss Edna Hunn, Algiers, La.

A jar of Kruschen Salts lasts 4 weeks and the cost is trifling. Are you taking Salts to reduce or to please your palate?

Just try Kruschen for a month—besides losing fat you'll gain in physical attractiveness—skin grows clear—eyes sparkle with health. Take half a teaspoonful in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—you feel cooler in hot weather—get it at Paramount Pharmacy or any drugstore in the world.

Candidate

V. V. Cooper, candidate for Commissioner, Precinct No. 1.

V. V. Cooper Is Candidate For Commissioner

V. V. Cooper of Ranger, former commissioner of Precinct 1, is a candidate for the position again this year, subject to the action of the democratic primaries of July 28.

Mr. Cooper has served as commissioner of Precinct 1 during the years when much of the progress in road building and in constructive work of all kinds was under way throughout the county, and particularly in his precinct, and he was always actively connected with every project that would aid the people residing in his precinct.

It was during Mr. Cooper's administration as commissioner that most of the rural roads in the precinct were relocated and rebuilt and throughout his term of office he maintained all county roads in his precinct.

Several bridges of considerable importance, including the steel span over Lake Eastland, the Colony creek bridge at Merriman and the steel structure over Colony creek at Panhandle, were constructed under his supervision or contracts were let for their construction.

He was on the commission that contracted for and watched after the building of the Eastland county courthouse, the building being constructed, the sidewalks laid and the landscaping plans carried out with a saving of more than $1,000 out of the $300,000 voted for the purpose.

He was also instrumental in the opening of the City-County hospital in Ranger and had an active part in all the work of the commission, helping to plan and carry out many worthwhile projects.

Mr. Cooper is seeking the office of commissioner of Precinct 1 by strong solicitation of the citizens of the precinct because of his past record as a commissioner, and the many constructive projects for the good of the entire county that were originated, planned and carried out during his term in office, as he was actively engaged in each of the movements, and, if elected, plans to become just as keenly interested in the good of his entire district as he was during the years he served the people of his precinct.

Flora Ida Haynes, 55, Died Tuesday

Mrs. Flora Ida Haynes, 55, daughter of Harry and Cynthia Ann Hamlin, died Tuesday morning June 26, at the Blackwell sanitarium, after an illness of several weeks.

The decedent was born November 22, 1880 in Comanche county where she has lived all of her life except for about two years that she and her family lived at Big Spring.

For more than forty years she had lived a devoted Christian life, being a loyal member of the Church of Christ. On October 13, 1909, she was married to William M. Haynes, and to this union four children were born.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the Oakland cemetery. John O'Dowd, pastor of the Rising Star Church of Christ, officiated.

Her survivors are: her husband, one daughter, Ruth Haynes, three sons, Roy, John and Billy, all of Gorman; four sisters, Mrs. A. J. Harrison, Jayton; Mrs. J. D. Crow; Mrs. J. W. Woody, Gorman, and Mrs. C. D. Vandiver, Rogers, N. M., and one brother, R. D. Hamlin, Midland.

The latest trend is toward colorful furniture. But that's nothing new to mothers whose children have been playing with crayons and water colors.

Farmers Making Wheat Contracts Will Be Checked

COLLEGE STATION. — How many Texas farmers carried out their domestic wheat allotment contracts with the AAA will be determined early next month, Texas A. & M. College Extension Service announced today.

The compliance check is nearly three-fourths complete up to June 16. Reports from 69 counties show that 9,515 farms of 14,135 involved in contracts have been inspected. Only two of 11 counties which have not yet reported are large wheat producers.

Only 6 per cent of the inspection reports have been returned to supervisors for correction, according to extension officials, who expressed pleasure with the small amount of error.

Inspection work, which includes not only the measurement of wheat land and the contracted acreage but also the use to which the contracted acres are put, is under the direction of John R. Edmonds, former extension district agent, has headquarters at Amarillo, and more than 200 supervisors, most of them county and community committeemen, are engaged in the work.

Extension officials pointed out that the drouth insurance feature of the AAA wheat plan makes the first time that American farmers have had any crop insurance to protect them from the vagaries of nature and that the plan is helping Northwest Texas farmers through a difficult situation. Regardless of the size of this year's crop, a contracting farmer is to be paid benefits of nearly 20 cents a bushel on 54 per cent of his average five-year production.

Agricultural adjustment does not always mean acreage reduction, extension officials pointed out. Contracting farmers in the wheat and corn-grow programs were permitted to plant food and feed crops for hay and forage without limit because of drouth conditions.

The idea behind the AAA, officials said, is the adjustment of production "to secure the best prices and also the best general welfare."

Laws Now Stress Safety of Tires

The laws of an increasing number of states and cities are recognizing the fact that cheap and unsafe tires are the leading cause of accidents, other than those caused by careless acts of drivers. This bears out the experience of racing drivers, who in the early days called a racing event a "race of tires."

For the past 15 years, Firestone has been vitally interested in providing the utmost safety in tires, for their tires have been on the winning cars at Indianapolis each year during that period. Firestone engineers recognized the fact that the higher speeds of modern cars would bring not only public opinion, but legal action, to bear on the importance of safe tires for all motorists.

Minneapolis and St. Paul put on extensive campaigns in which police tagged worn and unsafe tires leaving a notice for the owner to replace the tires under penalty of a fine, if further check-ups found the matter unattended to. Some New England cities have recently taken legal steps to force drivers to obtain safe equipment. Other states have included tire inspection and headlight inspection in their safety campaigns. England has laws covering use of unsafe tires.

A defective tire in Stockton, Calif., recently cost the owner $13,500. A judgment for that amount was returned against this owner after a blowout caused her car to collide with another. The judge ruled that the cause, an unsafe tire, constituted negligence.

The chief cause of blowouts was found by Firestone engineers to be internal friction of the cords, causing heat. To counteract this, Firestone developed the patented gum-dipping process which soaks each cord in liquid rubber. This process also helps to weld the tire into one strong unit. Firestone is the only company using the process which adds eight pounds of pure rubber for every 100 pounds of cord. The proof of the effectiveness of this construction is the fact that all of the 33 racing drivers in the Indianapolis race this year chose Firestone tires and there was not a single tire failure.

JEFF DAVIS' KEY FOUND

OLD POINT COMFORT BEACH, Va.—The key which locked the heavy, grated doors behind Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, when he was imprisoned in Casemate No. 2 of Fort Monroe after the collapse of the Southern States' cause, has been found in the possession of Charles E. Flynn of Phoebus, Va. It is a folding key made of brass. Flynn found it after a truck had smashed through the door of a storehouse in the Fort, in which the key had been used for a number of years.

GANDER REPLACED DOG

UNION, Wis.—Paul Christianson, farmer near here, has no need for a watch dog on his premises. An old gander performs that duty with great efficiency. If an intruder puts in his appearance, the gander hisses a warning. If the trespasser still remains, the gander grabs a bill-full of flesh and hangs on.

CCC CAMP ADOPTED MOOSE

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK, Mont.—Civilian conservation corps workers at the Anaconda Creek camp in Glacier Park claim they have the most unusual mascot of any CCC crew in the nation. The boys adopted an orphan moose calf, found begging food one morning by the camp cook.

LONGER INTERVAL TIME AUSTIN.

An enlarged college campus with greater distances between buildings has forced the University of Texas to add two intervals to the five minute interval formerly allowed pupils to get from one class to another.

July 20 Ray Hauser, a Ranger youth, inspired by the tree-sitting craze that was sweeping the nation following endurance flights by aviators, climbed into a tree with the announced purpose of breaking all existing records.

July 24 oil men of this section were watching with interest a 5,557-foot test being drilled just south of the Ramsower field.

July 31 the Ranger National Guard unit left for its annual encampment at Palacios.

Aug. 1 the Powell No. 1, Cranfill and Reynolds was reported making 3,500,000 feet of gas at a depth of 859 feet. The well was just southwest of the Gray-Hightower pool south of Ranger.

Aug. 5, 100 men were put to work by the Lone Star Gas company on a new 12-inch gathering line from the northwest part of the gas field to its plant No. 4, five miles northwest of Ranger.

Aug. 31 Robert Raymond Calvert, 19-months old, was killed when he was struck by an automobile at his home in Ranger.

Aug. 31 a 40,000,000 foot gasser was brought in in the Warner-Quinlan No. 1, Hittson, west of Ranger.

Aug. 31, W. R. Ely, chairman of the State Highway commission, announced that improvements would be made on Highway No. 1 through Eastland and Callahan counties and the plans would be ready within a few days. The project was expected to give work to a number of men for several weeks.

Sept. 5 T. A. Tune was elected post commander of the Carl Barnes post of the American Legion; E. H. Earnest was elected first vice commander; A. N. Larson, second vice commander; D. W. Johnson, adjutant; W. C. Hickey, finance officer; S. L. Golden, historian; Max L. tar, chaplain and Carl C. Cooper, service officer.

Sept. 6 A. H. Seely gave the Lions club quite a scare when he gave a talk on nitroglycerin, stating that a bottle he held in his hand contained a quantity of the explosive. The bottle was "accidentally" dropped and a blank cartridge was fired from a pistol. Considerable confusion resulted.

Sept. 7, $1,500 was announced as the goal in the Child Welfare club's annual drive for funds. The drive started on Monday, Sept. 8, with nine teams canvassing the town for contributions.

Sept. 8 the Ranger High school and the Ranger Junior College opened with record attendance, 425 being registered in the high school the first day and 85 in the junior college.

Sept. 11 Joseph Webb, 19, was instantly killed when he was run over by a freight train in the Texas & Pacific yards in Ranger. The youth's head was severed from his body.

Sept. 11 three men held up the Hall Tire company in Ranger and escaped with the safe, containing $85 in cash and $52 in checks. Members of the American Legion Rifle club, which was in session at the time of the robbery, pursued the bandits almost to Staff. The next morning the safe, minus the money, was found in a field near Staff.

Sept. 17 Arkansas McLaughlin, captain of the Bulldogs for the 1930 season, was declared ineligible by the district committee.

Sept. 22 Buddy Mack Dutton, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Dutton of Ranger, was bitten by a pet wolf belonging to a neighbor. The wolf was killed and his head sent to Fort Worth to determine whether or not it was mad.

Sept. 22 Al Wilson, famous flying ace, visited in Ranger, landing at the Haughland Airport.

Sept. 22 two men were held in connection with the robbery of the Hall Tire company on Sept. 11, while one escaped while being transported to the city jail. Bullets fired after the fleeing man by Officer Hammett failed to stop him.

DESDEMONA

Miss Lillie Buchanan returned Sunday morning from Mentone, near Pecos, where she had visited her sister, Mrs. A. T. Wilhite and family, for two weeks.

Guy Bruce left Tuesday for Gladewater to visit his sister, Mrs. Bill McKain.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Acrea and Sam Fincannon spent Sunday at Glen Rose.

Robert Howell is here to spend the summer with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Z. L. Howell. He will return to S. M. U. at Dallas in the fall.

Miss Penelope Robert returned Saturday from Georgetown where she had attended the Summer Assembly at Southwestern Methodist University the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Ford and daughter, Miss Oleta Britt, and Mrs. S. E. Browning and daughter, Miss Capitola Browning, drove up to Ranger Monday afternoon.

Mitch Bailey was a business visitor at Ranger Thursday.

Clayton Williams drove up to Ranger on business Thursday.

Rev. Z. L. Howell drove over to Jordan on business Monday.

Mrs. Dora Cotton left Saturday for her home in Dalhart after having visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, for several weeks.

Mrs. Cotton has many friends here who were delighted to see her and regretted she could not stay longer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bedford were business visitors at Ranger and Eastland Thursday.

Mrs. Roy Ashburn and two children accompanied by Miss Mollie O'Rear, drove up to Ranger on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGuire and two daughters, Misses Latrell and Idell, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Ried and children and Zollie Koonce and family left Wednesday for a fishing trip on the San Saba river, about ten miles from the town of San Saba.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce and Miss Latrell McGuire returned Saturday but the others remained for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Shreveport, La., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Horace Lane and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weir and little daughter, Wanda Beryle, and their nephew, Edward Earl Weir of Kilgore, came Wednesday to visit Mrs. Bill Parks, sister of Mrs. Weir, and other relatives and friends who are delighted to see them again.

A very enjoyable social meeting of the Methodist Missionary Society was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. N. Williams.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Williams, who then led the devotional. All joined in singing, "Blessed Assurance," and then the secretary, Mrs. S. E. Snodgrass, called the roll, and scripture verses were given as responses.

The closing chapter of the book, "Christianity and Industry," was then studied. Misses Edra Parks and Latrell McGuire gave parts of the chapter in place of some absent members.

Miss Penelope Robert read from the minutes of the Missionary conference, the report for the year of the work done by the societies of the Cisco district. This report had been given at the Fort Worth meeting by Mrs. W. E. Barron, who gave it in a very unique manner as a fairy story.

A social hour was then enjoyed after which the hostess served delicious ice cream and angel food cake to the following members and visitors: Meses. Charles Lee, Z. L. Howell, S. E. Snodgrass, A. C. Robert, Ed Parks, John Mendenhall, Mattie Henry, W. C. Bedford and Misses Edra Parks, Penelope Robert, Agatha Geaway and Latrell McGuire.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bratton and daughter, Cleve Jean, who have been living at Gregg City, near Longview, came in Wednesday and visited until Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Robert.

On Thursday evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, who had Mrs. Dora Cotton, mother of Mrs. Davis, also with them. Miss Madeline Robert, who had been visiting the Brattons the past month, came home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glanton and little son, Frank Dillard Glanton of Omaha, Neb., arrived Saturday to visit his mother, Mrs. R. K. Glanton and his sister, Mrs. W. E. Barron and family.

On Sunday and Monday there was quite a reunion at the Barron home as Mrs. W. Harrison and family came down from Ranger and Mrs. O. A. King and family from Fort Worth, being all of Mrs. Glanton's children except a son who lives in St. Louis.

Mavor A. C. Robert, Thomas Browning and W. C. Bedford went to Eastland on business Monday and remained to hear C. C. McDonald, candidate for governor, speak at night.

On Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Birge of Amarillo visited for a short time with old friends here who are always glad to see them back to their old home. While here Mr. Birge turned over his property.

Returning to their home in South and Eastland on boom days and until he moved to Washington, that man does move fast.

were popular young people of our town. Their many friends are glad to know that they and their four children, two boys and two girls, are getting along splendidly in Amarillo.

Monday afternoon Rev. Z. C. Chambless conducted funeral services at Brazos over the remains of Maxine Ford, only son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ford, who lived for several years at the Lone Star Gas Co.'s camp north of town, but now live near Eastland.

The little fellow was an attractive child but had suffered nearly all of his life from a tumor on the brain, which caused his death. Many friends went from here to the funeral. Sympathy is extended the sorrowing parents.

Whether the slate will be picked up by the 44th legislature, meeting next year, or by the "fighting 43rd" legislature which may have a third special session in September, is problematical.

Shadows of East Texas' oil derricks fall long across the legislative slate. Demands for food and clothing may be scrawled by the destitute as the supply of relief dollars from the sale of "bread bonds" dwindles.

On the same slate there is a new challenge, written in the bold hand of John F. Wallace, member of the state board of control:

"The legislature should adopt a policy of either caring for all our insane, our tuberculars, our unfortunate, or stop pretending to do so."

The state board of control also is writing figures. The 44th legislature will be asked to appropriate thousands of dollars for the operations of public institutions, schools and colleges. The aggregate total amount needed will not be ascertained until budget hearings, now being conducted, have ended.

Wallace has found state hospitals to be in the most "deplorable and distressing condition" of any time within his knowledge.

He said 285 patients are sleeping on mattresses placed on the floors of hospital corridors. There are no beds for them, nor places for beds. Four hundred more are waiting for admittance.

The state school for the feeble-minded here is operating at full capacity—1,000. Seven hundred are on a waiting list.

In a single county jail 59 insane patients have been held waiting for hospitalization. One county judge refused to conduct any more sanity hearings. There would be no room for the unfortunate persons if they were adjudged insane.

Hundreds of tuberculars are ment in state hospitals.

The Texas relief law allows 3 per cent of state relief funds for the hospitalization of indigent tuberculars. The relief commission ruled that beneficiaries of that fund must have been on the indigent relief rolls.

For that reason only 52 patients have been placed in private institutions in El Paso and San Antonio since the law became effective last March 1, Wallace declared.

"The legislature must make more room or we shall utterly fail in our obligations to society and to the unfortunate of our state," he said.

The state now is caring for approximately 20,000 wards in public institutions.

Mrs. Jeanette Gordon, 25 years old, sister of Mrs. J. W. Hooks, who has been a patient at a local hospital for the past month, died Monday. The decedent's illness came shortly after her return from Hollywood, Calif., where she visited six weeks.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. W. W. Alexander, one daughter, young Susie Gordon, and sisters, Mrs. Hooks and Miss Katherine Howard.

Services were conducted Monday at 6 o'clock from the home of Mrs. Gordon's grandfather, J. W. Eudaly, 625 Hill avenue, with the Rev. K. C. Edmonds in charge. Interment immediately followed the service at Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Gordon has made Ranger her home for a number of years and has a host of friends who mourn her passing.

POWDER HORN SHOWN BRECKENRIDGE, Tex.—Albert L. Goff has put on display a 175-year-old powder horn, made during the Revolutionary War and handed down through the generations to the eldest son of each family. Inscribed on it is: "Made at Fort Edward, North Carolina, Nov. 5, 1758, by Jacob Gay."

One day a hurricane struck Louisiana, and the next day Senator Long began his filibuster in Washington. That man does move fast.

Capitol Statues Are Given Baths

AUSTIN, Tex. — Stephen F. Austin and Sam Houston had a bath this week. Not the men themselves, but the marble statues of them by Elizabeth Ney which stand in the south entrance of the state capital. After the capitol walls received their annual coat of fresh white paint, the statues looked smutty by contrast. They were scrubbed with brushes.

WET KANSAS PROPHESED GOODLAND, Kan.—Dry Kansas will be wet yet, in the opinion of Sen. Charles E. Miller, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. After working in 60 of the state's 105 counties he became convinced the voters would take the prohibition amendment out of the state constitution next November.

DEADWOOD, S. D.—Two Bit Gulch is booming again. The Monarch gold mine recently shipped a four-pound gold brick worth $1,622.88, to the Denver mint. The Monarch had been idle for years until it resumed operations last fall.

Texas Retail Sales For May Show a Decided Increase

AUSTIN.—Retail dollar sales in Texas during May made a very favorable showing, according to Dr. F. A. Buechel, assistant director and statistician in the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas.

Reports from 88 stores covering all sections of the state show an average increase in dollar sales of 11 per cent over April and 22 per cent over May, 1933. Sales for the year to date averaged 30 per cent above the corresponding period last year. Although every city from which reports were received made a favorable showing, those cities which were above the average compared with their showing in May and the year to date, 1933, were: Abilene, Corsicana, San Antonio, Temple, Tyler, and Waco. The "all others group," consisting of stores in smaller towns, made the best comparative showing.

Of the various types of stores, men's clothing stores had the largest increase in sales compared with May last year, followed in order by women's specialty shops, smaller department stores, dry goods and apparel stores, and larger department stores. Compared with April, the smaller department stores made the largest per cent gain, followed in order by men's clothing, larger department stores, dry goods and apparel, and women's specialty shops.

Collections of outstanding accounts also were highly gratifying. In May 36.9 per cent of accounts outstanding were collected against 31.5 per cent during the same month last year.

Bug Has Headlight Cleburne Man Says

CLEBURNE.—You have heard of the lightning bug with its "tail" light, but have you ever heard of a bug with a headlight? R. H. Deering brought back one of the latter type from an outing party on the Brazos river. It had two lights on its head, spaced so as to resemble the headlights of an automobile. The insect could make the lights go on and off at will.

The bug died in captivity but has been placed on exhibit.

Charles Ponzl, convicted swindler recently released from jail, must leave the country—intact, we hope.

Ranger to Celebrate The Fourth of July

of the big event, which is to begin promptly at 4:30.

Eleven events have been arranged on the program and prizes are to be given in each event.

The first event will be a boys' free-for-all swimming race, for boys between the ages of 8 and 12 years. First prizes will be a $2 book of swimming tickets and second prize will be a $1.00 book of swimming tickets. The race will be for 70 feet.

In the second event, girls between the ages of 8 and 12, will compete at the same distance in a free-for-all race, the prizes being the same as in the above event.

Event No. 3 will be a boys race for 150 feet, for boys between the ages of 8 and 13, with the prizes the same as in the first event.

The fourth race will be a mixed race, for boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 12, at a distance of 150 feet, with the same prizes being offered.

Events five, six and seven will be diving events, which will be arranged later, and in which only a first prize of a bathing suit will be made.

The feature attraction of the water carnival will be a men's bathing review and beauty contest for men of all ages. The prize will be an ice cream cone, cigar, bar of candy or any other five cent item to be selected by the winner.

Following the bathing review a water polo game will be staged between the members of the Lions Club and members of the Rotary Club. No prize has been announced for this event.

A kiddies bathing review will be staged for youngsters under six years of age will follow the water polo game. A suitable prize, possibly a bathing suit, will be awarded to the winner.

The last event on the program will be a girl's bathing review, sponsored by the merchants of the city. Any girl wishing to enter can contact a merchant of Ranger and be entered as his entry in the contest. Merchants who wish to enter contestants can do so by getting in touch with Calvin Brown. The prize for this event will be a complete bathing ensemble.

RATTLERS NOW HARMLESS
SMILEY, Tex.—The once deadly rattle snake is getting pretty innocuous. Development of serum with which to treat snake bites has made the latter hardly more annoying than a bee sting. Alva Lloyd Bell, 12, was struck in the chest by a big rattler. A doctor treated him and the next day Alva Lloyd was about his boy's business as though nothing had happened.

Adam Johnson Back As Relief Administrator

AUSTIN, June 28.—Adam R. Johnson, storm center of state relief suits that brought his ouster April 9, was back in the saddle today.

He was reelected as state relief director by a 5 to 4 vote and given pay for the time he has been out.

Fears that Johnson might make reprisals on recent appointees on the state relief administrative staff were quieted with announcement he would remove none who cooperate.

Miss Marie Dresden, college-trained social worker from Wisconsin, who replaced Johnson last April, had not given an answer to a request of the commission that she continue as a social service consultant under Johnson.

Home Owners May Get Federal Loans

FORT WORTH. — Two thousand Fort Worth home owners probably will secure loans under terms of the new national Housing Act to repair or rebuild homes.

Secretary Luther T. Meacham of the Real Estate Board predicted.

The current real estate survey made by the board shows that 50 per cent of the residence structures in Fort Worth need some type of improvement—either painting, carpenter work, roofing or plumbing.

Macham anticipated the program would be a great aid to the construction and building industries.

COULDN'T PRONOUNCE IT CHICOPEE, Mass.—The clerk of the Chicopee board of registrars of voters started to pronounce it, then gave up the idea, when he pulled from the box the name of Alexis Pappatrianfillopoulos, merchant.

VOTE FOR THOMAS L. BLANTON For Congressman 17th Congressional District of Texas

This advertisement paid for by friends and supporters of Tom Blanton and run without his knowledge or consent because he remained at his post of duty in Washington looking after the people's interests while his opponents were campaigning against him.

REMAINED AT POST OF DUTY

Since reaching Washington last December and until Congress adjourned, Thomas L. Blanton was actively engaged in his official duties, working long hours each day, and giving little or no thought to his approaching campaign for re-election.

Since January 1 Mr. Blanton's opponents have been actively campaigning against him, but notwithstanding this Judge Blanton remained at his post of duty, faithfully and diligently protecting the interests of his constituents and with an abiding faith that under such crucial crises as daily confronted our President, the people at the polls would take good care of the man who would support the President and stay on the job, and "Carry On" at his own personal sacrifice.

After 12 years of continuous Republican misrule, all posted persons admit that during the short period the Democrats have been in control, they have passed more constructive legislation of real benefit to the long suffering American people than has ever been passed before by any previous administration and no man has done more to accomplish this than has Thomas L. Blanton.

SENIORITY IN CONGRESS COUNTS MOST

John Garner is now vice-president because Uvalde kept him in Congress 30 years; Henry Rainey is now speaker of the House because Illinois kept him in Washington 30 years. Jo Byrns is now Democratic majority leader because Tennessee has kept him in Congress 26 years. Buchanan and Blanton now help to handle all appropriations, and Hatten Sommers controls the Judiciary committee, Sam Rayburn the Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee, Fritz Lanham the Public Buildings Committee, and Marvin Jones the Committee on Agriculture, which means much to their districts and Texas, because their districts have kept them in Congress.

In Congress seniority means everything and Tom Blanton's ripe experience, his knowledge of the rules and precedents, his intimate knowledge respecting all government business, and his Appropriations Committee membership are valuable assets his district has already paid for and acquired so why throw them away by replacing him with some virtually unknown, inexperienced and untried man.

Tom Blanton is needed in Congress not only by his district and his state, but by the nation. Read the following excerpts from editorials and letters from over the country praising him for his valuable services and asking for a continuation of them.

OH! RARE TOM BLANTON
The recent statement of Frederick Vinson, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, that Congressman Thomas L. Blanton of Texas would not be overpaid if his salary were raised to fifty thousand dollars per year, is no more than others in congress have said about that remarkable man.

Blanton during his long service in congress has blocked more bad legislation than any other member. Nothing escapes his vision.

He has put through more good legislation than any other member.

Blanton is always in his seat when congress opens and has never been known to miss a roll call. He is always the first to arrive at a committee meeting, and always knows to the greatest detail every matter that comes up for consideration.

It was Blanton who discovered that insane World War veterans were being robbed by many of those appointed their guardians. In one case a guardian for 155 insane World War veterans was charged with having gotten more out of their estates than they had gotten. Blanton got legislation through putting the matter of the estates of insane World War veterans under the Veterans Bureau and knocked out the exorbitant fees that unconscionable attorneys, acting as guardians, had been getting.

There is no man in congress more familiar with parliamentary laws, practice, and procedure, and Blanton uses this knowledge often with surprising results. Blanton knows more ways for obstructing and defeating bad legislation than any member of the House. His achievements along that line would fill a big book. He is the terror of the treasury raider.

With Blanton everything is open and above board. With him and some of the courage of the steel. To know him is to hold him in the highest esteem and respect. Few men in public life are as unselfishly working for the good of others. His example is exalting and inspiring to those who seek honesty and purity in public and private life. His influence in congress has steadily grown until he is now one of its most powerful leaders.

George Terrell is going back to Texas when Congress adjourns, and he is not coming back. He decided last night it is not worth the candle.

"At my age, I could not hope to remain in Congress long enough to reach a prominent position on any of the important committees," he told newspapermen.

"And no one can command much influence until he has been in Congress 15 years or longer and has become chairman of some important committee."

When George Terrell who has been Commissioner of Agriculture for the State of Texas, and has held other important positions after serving here two years, admits that a new member is helpless, and cannot expect to perform service of value until he has stayed here ten years, it is quite an argument against sending a new man to Congress.

Through years of hard work Blanton has already acquired his influential position on the most important committee there—the Committee on Appropriations—which frames the big supply bills of the nation.

THANKS 17th DISTRICT FOR BLANTON
Congressman Clarence Cannon, of Missouri, Chairman of the Committee handling certain appropriations, with 23 years of experience in the House of Representatives, and author of the new Revised Rules and Precedents in 12 Volumes, in his recent speech in the House on April 25, 1934 (Record, page 7792) said: "Mr. Chairman, no reference to the personnel of this Congress would be complete without mention of the other of the two brilliant Texans to whom I have just referred. It has been my privilege to serve in various capacities on the floor of this House for 23 years this month. In that time I have observed no Member who has rendered able or more conscientious service than the gentleman from Texas, Judge Blanton. In the legislation which he has supported, in the legislation which he has opposed, and especially in the vast sums of money which he has saved the Federal Treasury, no Member of the House in the last quarter of a century has surpassed the wise and courageous and resourceful gentleman from Texas, Thomas L. Blanton. (Applause.) And speaking in behalf of the people of my State—and expressing, I am certain, the sentiments of those of every other State in the Union—I desire to thank the citizens of the Seventeenth District of Texas for sending Judge Blanton here and keeping him here all these years. His services to the House and to the country have been invaluable." (Applause.)

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Washington, D. C., May 26, 1933.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.
My Dear Colleague: As I told you on the floor of the House a few days ago, I am planning to retire from Congress the 1st of next January to accept a judgeship in my own State; but at the time I told you of my contemplated plans it had not occurred to me that it would be but a few days until our active service together shall have ended.

Under these circumstances I cannot refrain from expressing to you what is in my mind and heart concerning your services in Congress as a Representative of a great constituency and to reaffirm my appreciation of your never-ceasing diligence, industry, and fearless devotion to duty at all times and under all circumstances. In my public and business career of nearly 40 years I have not known any man more faithful and devoted to the interests of his country than you have been in all these trying years of these terrible economic times in which we are living.

Often have I been amazed at not only your parliamentary skill and cool, deliberate judgment, but I have wondered at your never-failing skill and ability in overcoming the opposition. I wanted to say to you from the very depths of my heart and in all sincerity that, in my judgment, no district in the United States ever had a more faithful or honorable Representative in the Congress than the district you have so ably represented.

I do not know your plans for the future, but in parting may I say that I shall devoutly hope you may continue to represent your district here; that the masses of the common people of America may continue to have at least one great champion of their cause continue in Congress; and that the Treasury, where the people's money is deposited, may have a real watchdog.

With kind regards and best wishes, I shall continue always,
Very cordially and sincerely yours,
A. J. MAY.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Committee on Labor
Washington, D. C., May 31, 1933

Hon. M. B. Harris,
Adjutant Vernon D. Hart Post, No. 100,
The American Legion, Stamford, Tex.

Dear "Buddie": Because I am a veteran of the World War, am a member of the Veterans' Affairs Committee, am Chairman of the Committee on Labor, and am thoroughly familiar with all veterans' legislation here, your Congressman has just shown me your letter to him of May 28. You condemn him because he backed the President and voted for the economy bill, and I note your threat that you intend to fight him and the President, and unless Blanton appoints you postmaster, you will use your influence as district committeeman of the American Legion to defeat him for re-election.

Thomas L. Blanton and I have served together here for years. He has always been a loyal, staunch friend of the veterans of all wars. When he voted for the President's economy bill he was assured that the Bureau would do no injustice to any veteran. In the last Congress Blanton was the third Member to sign the petition that forced the Patman bill to be passed in the House to pay the bonus in cash to veterans.

At his own expense Blanton spent months investigating Col. Charles R. Forbes, former Director of the Bureau, whom the Department of Justice afterward indicted and sent to the penitentiary. At his own expense Blanton investigated numerous hospitals in the United States, including old Hospital No. 25 at Houston, and on one day caused about 200 tubercular patients to be transferred to Prescott, Ariz., and Fort Bayard, N. Mex. At his own expense Blanton made the Staples and McNorris investigations to insure justice to veterans. At his own expense Blanton spent his entire vacation investigating Col. Frederick A. Fenning, and he personally conducted the trial of Fenning before the Judiciary Committee, and forced Fenning to resign and make retribution to several hundred shell-shocked veterans put in insane asylums and robbed by Fenning. At his own expense Blanton spent several years investigating the inequities and injustices carried on in the Bureau by Maj. William Wolff Smith, general counsel, and conducted the trial of Major Smith before the Committee on Military Affairs, forcing Smith to resign, and to return to the Government money he had unlawfully collected.

I mention the above to show that you are in error when you say that Blanton "has had a change of heart." Thousands of veterans scattered in every part of the United States have appealed to Blanton, and he has never yet turned one of them down. Blanton is helping now a committee that is conferring with the President to remedy injustices, and he is a personal friend of mine, and of Patman, Rankin, Browning, Jeffers, Mrs. Rogers, and others here who handle veterans' affairs.

Very sincerely yours,
WILLIAM P. CONNERY

The Speaker's Rooms,
House of Representatives, United States,
Washington, D. C., April 15, 1933.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House of Representatives.

Dear Tom: Congress has been running at a very high rate of speed. I am warned by the House physician that a number of members are overtaxing themselves.

I have been watching you and your work. You are overworking. You are rendering a splendid service. I know of no one who works harder than you. For the next few weeks there will not be so many important measures coming up, so I suggest that toward the end of the month you take a rest. I sincerely hope that you will accept this suggestion in the spirit in which it is intended.

Very truly yours
Henry T. Rainey,
Office of the Majority Leader,
House of Representatives, United States,
Washington, D. C., June 5, 1934.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

My Dear Tom: As we approach the close of the session, I do not wish to fail to express my deep appreciation for your kindness and valuable support.

In this connection, may I say that during all my long service I have never served with a Member who was more diligent in his effort to render real service to the people, not only of his district but of the entire nation, and who watched appropriations and expenditures more closely than yourself. It will never be known just how much money you have saved to the people by your watchful care, your ability, as well as your close knowledge of parliamentary procedure and governmental affairs. It has enabled you to render a real and a great service.

With best wishes, I am, sincerely yours,
JO BYRNS.

House of Representatives, United States,
Committee on Appropriations,
Washington, D. C., June 17, 1933.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House Office Building.

Dear Tom: I am familiar with the splendid record you have made in Congress and as a member of the Appropriations Committee for economy, and I wish to join with our Democratic majority leader, Hon. Jo Byrns; Democratic Chairman Cannon, of the subcommittee; and Hon. John Boylan, of New York, in their commendation of your services.

You will recall that just before the Republican administration expired on March 3, 1933, the District appropriation bill was pending in conference and you refused to sign the conference report because you thought the amount carried in the bill constituted too great a burden upon the taxpayers of the Nation. The night before Congress adjourned you led the fight against this bill and succeeded in defeating the approval of the conference report. Your act in that fight has been vindicated by the President and by the Democratic Congress, who reduced the Budget and this appropriation bill in record with your contentions, thus saving over $6,000,000 in this bill alone.

I am not unmindful of the fact that you and I have never agreed upon prohibition, that you are a pro and I am an anti, but this question should be relegated to second place when it comes in conflict of the crying need of reduction and retrenchment of the enormous expenditures of our Federal Government.

I commend you for your many accomplishments and your great energy in the interest of economy. Your friend,
JAMES P. BUCHANAN,
Chairman Committee on Appropriations.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, United States,
Committee on World War Veterans' Legislation,
Washington, D. C., June 23, 1933.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House Office Building.

Dear Tom: When you go home, I want you to tell those ex-service men for me that they will make a serious mistake if they turn against you after all you have done for them, and especially will do themselves an injury if they help to deprive themselves of the benefit of your services in the future. Assuring you of my very kindest regards and best wishes at all times, I remain,
Sincerely your friend,
J. E. RANKIN,
Chairman of Committee.

From Postmaster General James A. Farley:
Democratic National Committee,
Washington, D. C., June 16, 1933

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House Office Building.

My Dear Congressman: I want you to know that I greatly appreciate the support you gave the administration during the session just closed. I feel certain the people of the country generally realize that more beneficial legislation was passed at this session of Congress than ever before in the Nation's history.

For the part you played in these remarkable accomplishments I want you to know that I am personally grateful.

With best wishes, I am, sincerely,
JAMES A. FARLEY, Chairman.

United States House of Representatives
Washington, D. C., May 27, 1933.

Hon. Thomas L. Blanton,
House of Representatives.

My Dear Mr. Blanton: I realize you hardly know me, as my first service in Congress began last December, when I succeeded Judge Crisp as Representative from the Third District of Georgia.

I have carefully considered and critically analyzed all proposed legislation and listened attentively to practically every argument and colloquy occurring in the House since my entry into Congress, and it is my candid opinion that your untiring efforts in behalf of economy during this period of our greatest distress deserves grateful recognition by the Nation and the plaudits of our people.

May you live long to continue the splendid service which so few are disposed or capable of rendering.

Very truly yours,
B. T. CASTELLOW,
Political Ad.

Crawford, Gaynor, Farrell in Arcadia Films

"SADIE MCKEE" IS CRAWFORD'S NEW VEHICLE

Gaynor and Farrell Re-United in "Change of Heart."

A week of really outstanding screen entertainment has been announced beginning today by B. E. Garner, local city manager of the Arcadia and Columbia theatres. In addition to excellent feature bookings carefully selected short subjects have been booked to make the entertainment complete in every detail.

The picture starting the week Friday is "Let's Fall in Love," featuring Edmund Lowe and Ann Southern. This picture is the latest in musical entertainment and promises to be a very good picture. The short subjects on this bill include a Stoopnagle and Bud 20-minute short subject, "The Inventors," and a 10-minute Oddity.

Saturday Jimmy Durante and Lupe Velez will be seen in their latest picture, "Strictly Dynamite." A Betty Boop cartoon, a travelogue and a Pathe News reel will complete the bill for this day. Sunday Warner Baxter returns to the local screen in "Such Women Are Dangerous," which promises to be a very good picture. On this same bill a 20-minute musical short subject, "Girl Trouble," and a Paramount News reel will be offered.

The really big picture of the week comes to the Arcadia screen Monday and Tuesday, when Joan Crawford will be seen in her latest film, "Sadie McKee."

This time, she is the daughter of a cook who leaves home to enter upon a career filled with dramatic interludes. The little servant girl, Sadie, ends up as the wife of a multimillionaire but not until she has fought a number of emotional battles to achieve her goal. Franchot Tone, Gene Raymond and Edward Arnold are the men in her life and the brilliant cast also features Esther Ralston, Jean Dixon, Leo Carroll, Earl Oxford and Gene Austin. All are excellent. Much of the credit must go to Clarence Brown who has directed with the same skill that marked such of his successes as "A Free Soul," "Letty Lynton" and "Looking Forward."

A 20 minute short subject, "Pardon My Pups," and a technical cartoon support this bill. Wednesday and Thursday the Ranger theatre goers will have the chance to see once again Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in their latest picture, "Change of Heart." This picture reunites Farrell and Gaynor for the first time in several years and is heralded as their best. A Charlie Chase comedy and a cartoon conclude the bill for those days.

The Columbia theatre is booked Saturday with Ken Maynard in "Honor of the West," which promises much hard riding and fast shooting. On this same bill the serial, "Perils of Pauline," will also be shown and also a Bosco comedy. Sunday the Columbia will show "The Lost Patrol," which picture stars Victor McLaglen and Boris Karloff. A cartoon, oddity and a ten minute comedy support the bill for Sunday.

Off-Beaten-Track Based On Famous Novel of Desert

Said to be daringly different and intensely dramatic in theme and treatment, RKO-Radio Pictures' "The Lost Patrol" presents Victor McLaglen, Boris Karloff, Wallace Ford, Reginald Denny and a strong supporting cast in a colorful story of gallantry and suffering on the desert of Mesopotamia.

The story, based on the famous novel by Philip MacDonald, centers about the plight of 11 men, members of a British cavalry detachment which is lost on the bleak sands without knowledge of its orders, its exact whereabouts, or its destination, when the commanding officer is killed by sniping Arabs.

Taking refuge in an oasis, the soldiers become virtual prisoners there when the Arab enemies slip up on the camp at night, kill a sentry and steal their horses. A ring of death about them, the men react in various ways to the strains of waiting for the inevitable doom. As the invisible enemy strikes again and again, and the ranks of the patrol grow ever thinner, the drama is said to move swiftly to a tremendous climax. John Ford, whose list of direc-

Ahijah and the Divided Kingdom

1 Kings 11:25-14:31 Turbulent times were found in olden days as well as the present age.

His great building program and expenses in keeping a luxurious court in idleness could only be maintained by the imposition of taxes which fell with crushing weight on a pauperized people.

Jeroboam, a name signifying "the people became numerous," an able, industrious and brave young man, was chosen of God to be Solomon's successor.

In a very dramatic way the prophet "Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve pieces."

He explained that the ten tribes were to be given into the hands of Jeroboam because of Solomon's sins but the southern kingdom which included two tribes, Judah and Benjamin, were to be left to Solomon.

shall reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shall be king over Israel.

But to accomplish this he was to listen unto the Lord, follow his commandments and walk in his ways.

But Jeroboam must have boasted of his talk with the prophet for Solomon sought to put him to death; a mere hireling aspiring to the throne was not to be thought of.

Reboboam, arrogant young son of Solomon and Naamah, a heathen woman, succeeded his father in the kingdom.

How the leaders in church work, God's plan for carrying on His work, need to stop, meditate and listen by prayerful study, to the still small voice, to lead them from victory unto victory.

Navy is Planning To Increase its Personnel 29,500

By MACK JOHNSON United Press Staff Correspondent WASHINGTON—The Navy expects to expand its present enlisted strength of 82,500 men to 112,000 and its officers from 5,800 to 7,900 by 1941 to pace the greatest peace-time, naval construction program in this country's history.

The three-point program is: 1—Annual expansion of personnel until 1941. 2—Building of 102 ships, mostly replacements, in the next five years, costing more than $500,000,000.

Ship-Plane Program The ship-plane program, already authorized under the Vinson Bill, begins this year with a $90,000,000 construction plan for 225 planes, one heavy cruiser, three light cruisers, 12 destroyers, two destroyer leaders and six submarines.

Swanson, pointing out that many ships in the Navy are operating considerably below the 85 per cent "safety line in peacetime" crew complements, sees the personnel question as one of the most serious problems confronting him.

gress, no provision is made for increased crew strength, he said. The present shortage, it was said, kept 60 destroyers from participation in the recent fleet review in New York harbor by President Roosevelt.

The Navy plans to ask Congress for 7,500 men at the next session. The request, it was explained, would have been only 5,000 men but an urgent demand the past year for 5,000 men was pared by Congress to 2,500.

Aviation Expansion Most of the officers' increase is to take care of aviation expansion. There are 997 officers in the aviation branch, but this number will be increased to 2,087, according to plans.

The Navy plans to ask for the following enlisted strength increases: 1936, 3,500; 1937, 8,500; 1938, 3,500; 1939, 4,500; 1940, 1,000, and 1941 1000.

Increases after 1938, high naval officers said, would be principally to supply the air force because treaty strength in the ship numbers will have been reached.

CALIFORNIA GIVES WOMAN DEATH VERDICT

LOS ANGELES, June 23.—Nellie May Madison, dark-haired and middle-aged, convicted slayer of her fourth husband, was destined today to become California's first woman to die on the gallows. A superior court jury spurned leniency and returned a verdict of death for the alleged murder of a man the defendant insists is alive. The verdict was as astounding to the courtroom as was Mrs. Madison's plea that a man shot to death in her apartment was a stranger, and not her husband, Eric Madison, studio employe and reputed scion of a former Danish politician. She told the jury her husband, cashier in a studio cafe, abandoned the marital union the night the "stranger" was slain in her apartment. She has not seen him since, she said. Mrs. Madison denied killing the "stranger."

Willows Is Nice Place For Picnics

The Willows pool, recently drained and thoroughly cleaned is the place for Ranger citizens to spend their picnic hours as tables and benches are available and all the conveniences needed to make one comfortable can be had at the new pool.

The pool is being sponsored by the service clubs of the city, and money is taken in goes into the play ground fund and it will be to the interest of all Ranger citizens to drive by and visit the pool. There is plenty of shade and parking space.

Thousands of Women Benefited By Cardui

The benefits many women obtain from Cardui give them great confidence in it. "I have four children," writes Mrs. J. L. Norred, of Lagrange, Ga. "Before the birth of my children, I was weak, nervous and tired. I had a lot of trouble with my back. I took Cardui each time and found it so helpful. Cardui did more to allay the nausea at these times than anything I have ever used. I am in very good health and believe Cardui did a lot of it." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

Clint Small Will Speak In Ranger At Celebration

Speaking engagements for state and county candidates are being arranged for the Fourth of July by the committee in charge of arrangements, it was announced today, and plans for the speaking are going forward nicely.

At the grove near the Willows a speaking stand will be arranged with loud speakers so that all may hear, and seats will be arranged. Ice water will be on hand and a complete speaking program will be scheduled.

Senator Clint Small, candidate for governor, who had been invited to speak in Ranger on the afternoon of July 4, wired today that he would be unable to be present in the afternoon, but that he would be on hand in the morning.

Arrangements were then made to have Senator Small speak at 10 o'clock, which will open the speaking engagements. County and district candidates, in addition to other state candidates, will be on the schedule for the remainder of the day, it was stated today, and the speaking will continue throughout the afternoon.

Tobacco Exports Showing Increase

NEW YORK—Leaf tobacco was the third most valuable export product of the United States last year, according to a study just completed by the Chamber of the United States. Foreign sales of leaf tobacco amounted in value to $82,094,000 in 1933 as compared with $64,983,000 in 1932. They constituted 5 per cent of the total value of United States exports last year.

Exports of American cigarettes even exceeded foreign sales of wheat and of corn in value last year, according to this report. Exports of cigarettes were valued at $4,895,000 in 1933 as compared with a value of $4,769,000 for wheat exports and a total of $2,653,000 for corn exports. One of the important factors accounting for the volume of foreign sales of cigarettes produced in this country is the world-wide recognition of their quality, American ingenuity being responsible for many improvements in this product, such as the use of only the mild center leaves of choice tobaccos, the introduction of the toasting process and other modern manufacturing methods. Total production of cigarettes in the United States last year exceeded 111,000,000,000.

BLUE EAGLE REMOVED FROM HOSIERY MILL

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The NRA refused to yield in its controversy with the Harriman Hosiery Mills, Harriman, Tenn., today, and made clear that despite shutdown of the plant it did not intend to restore the Blue Eagle to the firm until NRA requirements are met.

HARRIMAN, Tenn., June 26.—The Harriman Hosiery mill struck a drastic crescendo in its controversy with the NRA today by ordering the closing of its plant because of the "persecution" of Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, recovery administrator.

"Action of General Johnson and the NRA has convinced us that they intend to wreck this concern and make its operation impossible," the company's notice of closing, to employees, said.

Colony Community To Have Indians In the Ranger Pageant

A committee from the Lions Club, composed of Colonel Brasher, president of the club, J. J. Kelly and W. C. Hickey, went to the Colony community this morning and contacted L. C. Cooksey, principal of the Colony school, to secure his aid in having Colony represented in the March of Time Pageant to be staged in Ranger on July Fourth.

Mr. Cooksey had already begun plans for securing the people from his community needed in the Indian episode and had his cast selected. He is cooperating in every way possible with Ranger, as is the entire Colony community, in making the pageant the biggest thing of its kind ever staged in this section of the country.

This makes two episodes of the pageant, to be furnished by the rural communities, that have been cast in the last two days and other contacts with the rural communities are to be made this week in order to make everything in readiness for the occasion.

FLY MILLION MILES

CHICAGO—To fly a million miles is the coveted goal of an air transport pilot, and United Air Lines now has 20 pilots on its New York-Chicago-Pacific coast planes, each of whom has flown a million miles, including six men who started to fly the air mail in 1919, who get their millionth mile during the month.

Texas Pays Fifth Largest Gasoline Taxes of Nation

HOUSTON.—Texas, producer of 42 per cent of the nation's petroleum, pays the fifth largest gasoline tax bill of the 48 states, a check of tax figures showed today.

State and federal taxes combined to add four cents to the price of every gallon of gasoline sold in Texas. This figure is only the "gas tax," and it does not include other taxes that are levied on crude oil as it moves from well to refinery.

Tax statistics revealed that Texans pay an annual tax bill for domestically refined gasoline of $28,479,350.

New York with $43,344,695 in annual gasoline taxes leads the nation. Between New York and Texas are California, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Illinois with less crude oil production than one East Texas well could give and with 2,000,000 more people than Texas pays $27,833,011.

Three states and the District of Columbia pay only half as much as Texas. The rate is two cents a gallon. Ten states pay three cents. In that group are New York, Pennsylvania and California. Fifteen states including Texas pay four cents a gallon.

Other states include city and county taxes. The highest rate is paid by Florida and Tennessee. Motorists of those states pay seven cents in taxes for every gallon of gasoline their automobiles use.

The nation's gasoline tax bill in 1933 was more than $500,000,000. This figure is approximately the wholesale value of all automobiles manufactured in 1933.

Since the first gasoline tax was levied in Oregon in 1919, United States motorists have paid $3,500,000,000 in motor fuel taxes.

In 1933, individual Texans paid more gasoline taxes per capita than the resident of any other state, despite the presence in their own backyards of the greatest pools of petroleum ever discovered.

Olden Church to Have a Revival

Announcement was made in Ranger today by K. C. Edmonds, pastor of Olden Baptist church, that the annual revival of that church will begin Sunday, July 1 and that a great time is expected by the church as well as the pastor. The Rippitoe Brothers, singers of religious songs and known over this part of West Texas will be in charge of the music and the public is cordially invited to take part in some way in all the services to be conducted during the revival.

BURGLARS ROB A & P GROCERY EARLY SUNDAY

Burglars literally broke out of the A. & P. store in Ranger early Sunday morning, according to a theory of Chief of Police Jim Ingram.

About 1 o'clock Sunday morning Patrolmen Pledger and Roach discovered that the back door of the A. & P. store had been opened and notified employees of the store.

A checkup hurriedly made at the time revealed that someone had broken the inside hasp on the rear door and had removed a bar from the inside. This could not have been done from the outside of the door, Chief of Police Ingram stated, indicating that the burglars had broken the lock in order to get out.

A small amount of cash and some small checks were missing and this morning an inventory of the stock was being taken to determine how much had been taken in merchandise, though it was thought that the loss would be light. A few packages of cigars were missed in the first few minutes of the checkup, but the entire morning and most of the afternoon was spent in checking the stock in order to determine the exact amount of the loss.

As no skylight or doors, other than the back door which had been jimmied from the inside, had been damaged or broken open, it was thought that the only way the robbery could have been committed would have been by the burglars hiding in the store Saturday night at closing time and waiting until everything was quiet about the town before leaving by breaking open the back door, which was padlocked on the inside.

Good Bouts Will Be Returned Next Monday By Elks

The Elks card last night was one of the best seen in Ranger in some time. The six-round fight between Bill Donowho of Dallas and Jimmy Dupree of Ranger was thoroughly enjoyed by all the fans and a return engagement was arranged for next Monday night as the fight was declared a draw by the judges and referee.

The wrestling match between Si Holt of Fort Worth and Red Roberts of Dallas was full of action and plenty rough. Holt won the first fall and Roberts the second. The bout was forfeited to Holt on account of roughness by Roberts. This match will also be on the card again next Monday night and the fans will be assured of plenty of action.

The match between Pat Swanson of Fort Worth and Curly Bishop of Waxahachie was slow and draggy. The big boys were slow and between the times they were lying on the floor and twisting one another's toes they were stalling around, never getting much interest in the main event.

There was a fair sized crowd present and the fans enjoy a real match. Charlie Lay, present promoter for the Elks, is giving the fans a more consistent show than any promoter in some time and he is working out a schedule that will be well received in Ranger. The proceeds from these athletic contests all goes to charity after expenses are paid.

Sen. Gus Russek Given Jail Term

HOUSTON, June 25.—State Senator Gus Russek, who pleaded guilty to charges of misapplying $51,000 in funds of the First National Bank of Schulenberg, was sentenced to serve four months in a New Orleans jail and fined $5,000 by Federal Judge T. M. Kennerly, here today.

Charles A. Vogt and Otto G. Vogt, who have both served as cashiers of the bank, were fined $500 each and given suspended sentences of 13 months.

The three men pleaded guilty to the charges April 27, but Judge Kennerly delayed sentence until today.

Alameda-Cheaney Will Have a Part In Big Pageant

R. B. Canfield and F. D. Hicks, committee from the Ranger Rotary club working in co-operation with the general pageant committee, made a trip to Alameda and Cheaney communities Monday afternoon where they met several citizens of the communities and Mr. Jesse Blackwell was appointed chairman of the Cheaney-Alameda committee in arranging plans for getting 10 men to assist the Ranger committee in staging the epic in history of Coronado and his 12 Spaniards in searching for the seven cities of lost gold.

Mr. Blackwell assured the committee that these two communities would be glad to co-operate and invited the committee back Thursday evening to go into the matter more in detail. A political rally will be held Thursday night and Ranger citizens are urged to attend. Several have signified their intention of attending the meeting.

Mr. Blackwell also stated that a singing was being planned for the Cheaney-Alameda communities and that announcement was going to be made later in regard to this.

Scouts Will Have Concession at Ranger Pageant

A meeting of the district committee for Boy Scouts of Ranger was held in the office of the Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon.

Wade Swift offered the concession for all soft drinks, candies and other things to be sold at the March of Time pageant to the Ranger scouts provided the scouts would help in the advance sale of tickets. The proposition was accepted and the scouts were given the downtown section of the city in which to sell the tickets.

The annual summer camp at Camp Billy Gibbons was discussed and C. E. May was appointed to look after transportation for the scouts and W. C. Hickey appointed to make arrangements for tents and equipment.

A. J. Ratliff offered the use of one of his trucks for hauling the scout equipment to the camp, but asked that someone else be selected to haul the equipment back to Ranger at the end of the camp.

Anyone who has a car and can make the trip to the camp on July 10, taking scouts to the camp, can get in touch with C. E. May and arrangements will be made to have the boys assigned to the cars.

Fisherman Tells of 160-Pound Catfish

AMARILLO, June 25.—J. H. Harris, G. L. Curtis and Harris' three sons returned from a fishing vacation in Mexico with some swell yarns and something else—the fish to back them up.

Besides a 35-pound cat, the party came back with 175 pounds of other fish. They fished in a Mexican lake 120 miles south of Eagle Pass. "You can go out any evening there and see fish jumping by the hundreds," Harris said. "The biggest fish ever caught in the lake was a cat weighing 160 pounds."

Mebbe so, Mr. Harris, mebbe so.

R. H. Hansford's Father Dies at His Oklahoma Home

Word was received in Ranger Tuesday morning of the death of Col. W. S. Hansford at Tahlequah, Okla., where he had been ill for the past three weeks. R. H. Hansford of Ranger, son of the deceased was at his bedside at the time of his death, having left Sunday for Tahlequah upon receipt of word that his father's condition was serious.

W. S. Hansford was a colonel on Gov. W. H. Murray's staff and made his home in Tahlequah and Oklahoma City.

Funeral services are to be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Survivors are two sons, R. H. Hansford of Ranger and Ted Hansford of Oklahoma; one daughter, Mrs. Edith McCleskey of Oklahoma, and three grandchildren, Jessie, Freddie and Billy Hansford.

Safer Fourth Is Plea of Doctor

AUSTIN.—Taking note of the approach of the great patriotic National holiday, July 4, which this country has celebrated for 138 years, Dr. John W. Brown, state health officer, calls attention of the people of Texas to some of the dangers of careless celebrating. Each year on the 5th of July one reads of the appalling number of accidents which occurred over the Fourth.

It is not alone the wounds received from explosives that increase our death toll. Injuries from automobile accidents, splinters, nails, and other penetrating wounds in which dirt may be carried into the skin heighten the hazard of tetanus or lockjaw. Such wounds should be promptly treated by a physician.

If the days pleasure includes a swim, caution should be used and no attempt made to do more than your strength will permit. If a drowning takes place, artificial respiration should be started at once and continued until a doctor arrives.

Automobile accidents have usually one of three causes—exceeding the speed limit, driving on the wrong side or failing to grant the right of way. It can be seen that the chief factor in auto accidents is the judgment of the "machine" within the machine. Caution should guide the holiday activities so that the day may be remembered with joy instead of sorrow.

First Cattle Checks Sent to Farmers

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 25.—Farmers in Montana, North Dakota and Texas today received their first cattle checks from the federal government it was announced at the emergency drought relief office.

Payments totaling $364,000 on 3,119 have been made in part payment for cattle in the Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Texas.

ELEVEN HELD IN SLAYINGS IN OKLAHOMA

MALESTER, Okla., June 26.—Eleven persons were under arrest today as Pittsburgh county authorities sought a solution of the triple slaying of three highway workers from Canadian.

A bootleg liquor quarrel was thought a cause of the killings. Six men were taken into custody last night. Five others, including two women had been arrested immediately after discovery of the body of Homer Beasley in a wooded section west of Canadian.

Later the bodies of Bill Gann and Hobart Watkins were found. A hurriedly written note on the back of a campaign card found near the body of Beasley, appeared to have been written by Gann: "Jack Rackley, Bill Moore and George Baker killed Hobart and Homer and maybe me."

Rackley, Moore and Baker were among the group under arrest. Beasley and Gann had been shot. Watkins had been hacked and stabbed with an ax and a knife.

Charges Against Dr. Jarrell In Job Selling Dropped

TYLER, June 26.—Charges against Dr. Jarrell of Tyler, filed in connection with alleged sale of state jobs, were dismissed here today. Dr. Jarrell resigned his membership on the livestock commission Oct. 11, 1933, after testifying the day before at a legislative committee appointed to inquire into reports of state job-selling.

Royce Williams and D. H. Williams, brothers, told the committee they had turned over to Dr. Jarrell approximately $2,000 collected on representation that the donors would be given employment on the commission. Dr. Jarrell said he was entirely innocent of the charge.

Congress Left President Power Of a Dictator

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 25—Congress has left President Roosevelt dictatorial powers such as no chief executive before him ever demanded.

From the amount of gold in the dollar to the amount of water in a quart of oysters, President Roosevelt's word is supreme. From the Texas oil wells to the New York stock exchange his signature is all powerful. He can tell the Georgia farmer how much cotton to plant, the Illinois banker how much interest to charge, and the Pennsylvania coal miner how many hours to work.

There is hardly any phase of American life which the president's influence, empowered by law, does not touch. The republican senatorial-congressional committee today compared Mr. Roosevelt to Mussolini, saw in his mounting powers "an end to liberty" and called them an expression of the "socialist idea."

The democrats retorted that the president must have these extraordinary powers to combat the depression. They point with pride to progress so far made and insist that President Roosevelt has no idea of making himself an American dictator. The president himself says little, works hard, sets up new recovery aids and prepares for a lengthy vacation.

The specific powers of the president are divided among these 12 major programs:

1. Business control through the national recovery administration, with authority to regulate through codes the minutest details of competition.
2. Agricultural control, including processing taxes to help the farmer, and crop control regulations to help him help himself.
3. Labor control, through the NRA wages and hours provisions and through the new labor bill providing for arbitration of disputes.
4. Stock market control, with a board appointed by him to administer the securities act, which outlaws doubtful practices and sets up rules under which brokers and exchanges must operate.
5. Communications control, affecting the telephone, the telegraph and the radio and designed to co-ordinate them.
6. Oil control, through the petroleum administration. (Not as effective as the president would like because of the failure of congress to pass a more comprehensive bill.)
7. Railroad control, through his federal co-ordinator, with power to scale down capital indebtedness, eliminate useless competition and abandon non-paying lines.
8. Tariff control, giving Mr. Roosevelt authority to adjust tariffs 50 per cent in either direction and thus govern the country's international trade.
9. Monetary control, including regulation of the currency and expenditures of a $2,000,000,000 fund to stabilize foreign exchange.
10. Banking control through the federal deposit insurance corporation and the reconstruction finance corporation.
11. Industrial finance control, through the loans to industry act, wherein the administration can lend $550,000,000 to those concerns which measure up to federal standards.
12. Relief control, wherein the federal emergency relief administration supervises practically all relief activities in the country and shoes to the penniless city and cows to the drouth-stricken farmer.

Streamlined Buses To Go Into Service

The first five of the 15 new streamlined buses ordered by the Southwestern Greyhound Lines have been delivered and put into service over the line from Dallas and Fort Worth to El Paso.

Combining the very latest developments in equipment of this nature, the new buses provide maximum travel comfort plus added protection against road failures, as a result of dual engine features which operate together or independently of each other.

With the addition of these new buses by the Southwestern Greyhound Lines, the Dallas-El Paso territory will continue to enjoy bus transportation equal to the best in the nation. Ten additional new buses have been ordered and will be placed in operation between Dallas and St. Louis via Tulsa within the next two weeks, providing service from St. Louis to El Paso without a change in buses, and requiring only one change (at El Paso) between St. Louis and Los Angeles.

GARDENIAS CHEAP
NEW ORLEANS.—Gardenias, that white, highly fragrant flower which sells for 75 cents to $1 each in Western and Eastern cities, can be bought for five cents apiece here. In quantities, the price is proportionately lower.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED
When John Hunter Yates retires from the presidency of his huge industries to spend the rest of his years doing the things he has always wanted to do, he is forty-nine years of age, comparatively a young man. He wishes to include his society daughter, Elisha Landi, in his plans for the future, but she cannot account for his strange emotions. Believing him to be in a form of second childhood, she refuses his plea, thinking his adventuresome mood will wear off. Not wishing to relinquish his final grasp on youth, he takes with him to Europe Blossom Bailey, beautiful young actress willing to take advantage of the Yates' millions, whom he met at one of his wife's social functions. He does everything possible for her while in Europe and she is extremely grateful to him for his generosity. While there, they meet Anthony Zukowski, former piano teacher of the music-loving Yates. Zukowski has written a symphony, which Blossom urges Yates to sponsor. Yates does, and Zukowski is an immediate success. Blossom falls in love with Zukowski, but because of Yates' kindness, she remains loyal to him. She makes Yates take her back with him to New York. He does, but Zukowski follows. Yates asks Blossom to marry him and tells his wife he wishes a divorce. She tells him she believes Blossom has another lover. Zukowski, insanely jealous, has a detective trace her and finds that Blossom has been visiting Zukowski at his apartment. He goes there and tells Blossom he has planned to leave New York for Europe the following week, but Blossom demands, saying she wishes to be loyal to Yates.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Zukowski stared at Blossom coldly. "You're white and free and over twenty-one."
Blossom turned to face him. "Don't hate me, darling. I hate myself plenty. Don't you see I can't leave him? I mustn't. I've hurt him enough as it is. He was an important man when I met him. And what is he now? A futile old man who sits at home waiting for me to treat him terribly. I've got to make it up to him somehow. He's been so awfully good and gen-

"I remember how I took you in my arms... like this..." (Posed by Elisha Landi and Frank Morgan) rous, and I'm all he's got. How can I walk out on him now?"

Zukowski spoke savagely. "I'm sorry for you. Sure he was a great man in his own world—but he's just an old fool in the new world he stepped into—a ridiculous—"
Blossom put her hand over Zukowski's mouth. "Stop trying to be a villain. There are no villains—only people—human beings—ill trying to learn how to play a sonata... and most of them fail." She patted him on the cheek. "A little sorry for people."
She turned and walked out quickly. The door shut quietly behind her. Zukowski stared a moment, then grabbing his hat he rushed out after her. The door banged loudly.
The large room was empty. Not empty of furniture, but of the vital life that had deserted it so quickly. So hotly the large piano in the corner seemed the only object of life in the room. The pale, white eyes retained something of the life that was born in the tapering fingers of Zukowski. The man's soul never fully departed from the instrument. The fireplace, with its glowing logs, made eerie, ghostly shadows on the keys. Zukowski sighed here there. Zukowski's sight had been there.
The knob of the bedroom door turned slowly. The door opened quietly, as though in mute sympathy for the anguish of the humans who entered the room. John Hunter Yates, pale, aged walked slowly to the small table upon which rested the unfinished food.
He stood for a moment, his gaze slowly sweeping the room. His eyes rested for a long moment on the photograph of Blossom on the piano. He reached into his pocket and drew out a gun. He fondled it for a moment, then dropped it into a nearby wastebasket. With one last look around the room, he walked out. The door closed behind him quietly... quietly... once again the room was alone... alone with its sympathy for mortals...
The butler admitted Yates into the foyer of Blossom's apartment. Yates waited until the butler had departed with his coat and hat, then turned to look into the large mirror on the wall.
The reflection was haggard, worn. He stared a moment, then suddenly drew back his shoulders. His mood fell from him in an almost physical change. He twisted his sad lips into a smile, adjusted his necktie, statted his hair. John Hunter Yates was once again a man. His step was springy, youthful, as he walked into the living room where Blossom waited.
She looked up with a warm smile as he came in. Her mood, forced and feigning, was gay. "I've been waiting here for hours. The dress rehearsal was simply marvelous... you should have been there. Everybody thinks we've got a hit. What best you can do, I suppose is to remember the beauty and do the best you can to forget the ugliness."

Vivid flashes of Paris, of Zukowski, of the symphony, sidewalk cafes, Zukowski in his seedy clothes, Zukowski, grand and magnificent leading the huge orchestra bowing to the plaudits of an admiring world, rain, fog... London... holding Yates' hand... playing duets with Yates... pictures flashed through Blossom's mind. She stared into Yates' eyes.
"I'll never forget the day you brought me the camellias in Paris." Hell reached up and touched Yates' heart. He blinked... his eyes were moist. "I'll never forget the night I first saw you in the garden... your face... white and misty in the moonlight. I remember how I took you in my arms... like this..." His arms encircled Blossom tenderly. "And kissed you..." His lips found hers passionately, a passion that was to be only a remembrance, a long-forgotten camellia. His lips drew away slowly... like this. It was like kissing a ghost then... and now...
His arms drew away from her body, but his eyes held hers steadfastly, with yearning that only she and Yates understood.
His voice was soft. "Good-bye."
And Yates was gone. The door closed quietly... in sympathy...
The key turned in the lock and John Hunter Yates was in his office. The long rows of empty desks stretched out before him eerily. Once again his face was haggard, worn. John Hunter Yates had become an elderly, beaten man. Youth... but a myth. The Yates organizations... something practical... something for Yates to love... a patch on the wound. Youth had demanded for its services.
Yates walked down the aisle past the desks, crossed to a door and let himself in. Through Miss Gower's office to his own private office. He switched on a light mechanically lifted a paperweight from the desk and picked up a sheet of paper. He stared at it. It was a memorandum.
"To, Mr. Yates. From Miss Gower. Tomorrow you will be fifty years old."
Yates stared a moment, then rose and walked to the huge map on the wall depicting the growth of the Yates companies. He walked back to the desk. His gaze found the pleading, wistful expression came to his eyes.
Suddenly he reached for the phone and started to dial. Midway in his dialing he stopped—he couldn't remember what number he was calling. He hurriedly thumbed the telephone book and stopped at "Yates, John Hunter."
He started to dial the number...

HAD "RAT" TROUBLE
VANCOUVER, Wash.—County Clerk Oral Cain had "rat trouble" in her automobile motor. Her car behaved peculiarly on several occasions and after a second visit to a garage mechanic discovered a half-starved rat imprisoned under the hood.

Strange that everybody should list what congress did during its recent session, and then blame it all on the president.

Education Board Moves to Stop Juggling of Bonds

AUSTIN, Tex.—The State Board of Education has moved to stop Texas school districts from "juggling" their bonded debts.
Attorney General James V. Allred was asked to prepare blank forms on which the true status of interest, sinking fund accounts, tax income and levy, and a record of taxable values, may be recorded for each school district.
The data, sworn to by district officials, will be required of every school district asking the state board to buy its bonds.

It has been reported that many school districts have levied necessary taxes for bond retirement, but have collected only about 30 per cent of the revenue. Others have reduced taxable values by half to so reduce their income as to be unable to pay interest and sinking fund allotments due on district bonds.

Backed by legislative enactment, the State Board of Education has required a strict accounting of interest and sinking fund held by the state school fund. Many districts have defaulted on the portions of bond issues held by individuals.

One Dallas securities company, which has distributed over $100,000,000 in Texas municipal obligations during the past 20 years, observed that "a number of communities are now seeking to willfully repudiate their obligations, demanding without justification that principal, as well as interest, should be reduced."

"They have purposely withheld payment of interest coupons and maturing principal where funds were available for payment, in an effort to drive the market for their obligations down."

"A number of communities have purposely increased their general operating expenses to a point where the full available taxing power is used for this purpose, leaving nothing for debt service."

"The property owners located in the repudiating districts are, therefore, being subjected to the maximum legal tax levies and the public officials are lavishly spending the full proceeds of collections without making any payments to its creditors," the manager of the securities company said.

The Board of Education is making an effort to preserve the credit of Texas securities on the bond market.
It now has a cash balance of $1,476,000 to invest in short term

U. S. Treasury certificates because refund bond offerings of $941,000 have failed. Treasury certificates will be preferred unless more desirable Texas securities can be found.
"Too much moratorium legislation," has been blamed for the alleged efforts of many school districts to avoid honest debts.

Man's Shoulders Break Boy's Fall

EL PASO, June 25.—A 5-year-old El Paso boy owes his life to Manuel Quintana.
The boy tumbled from a second story window and fell on Quintana's shoulders.
The youngster was not injured. Quintana, 53, was treated for bruises.

WOMAN JURY WAS SEVERE
JONESBORO, Ark.—Craig head County's first all-woman jury assessed the maximum penalty for Bill Calvert, convicted of storing intoxicating liquor in a public place. There was little mercy displayed, Calvert reflected as he contemplated the $750 fine on a conviction of having 40 bottles of "home-brew."

Consumption of Cotton in Texas Shows a Decrease

AUSTIN.—Further slackening in Texas cotton mill activity occurred during May, according to reports to the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas. Consumption of cotton in Texas mills totaled 6,419 bales, 6.2 per cent below that of April and 16.6 per cent less than in May, 1933. Cloth produced, 6,512,000 yards, was 2 per cent under April and 7 per cent below that of May last year. Sales of 3,968,000 yards were 21.5 per cent above those of April but 65 per cent below a year ago. Unfilled orders amounting to 13,164,000 yards were 14.7 per cent above April but 21.4 per cent below May last year. Active spindles were down 4 per cent from April but up 15 per cent from May, 1933, while spindle hours were down 7 per cent and 8 per cent for the two periods respectively. Comparisons were May of last year are somewhat distorted because of the artificial stimulus given the textile industry at that time by the National Recovery Act.

MORMONS PLAN SHAFT
GENEVA, N. Y.—A large granite shaft will be erected shortly on Mount Cumorah, sacred Mormon hill, located between this city and Palmyra, to mark the spot Joseph Smith, Mormon prophet, discovered, according to legend of the Latter Day Saints, the sacred plates of gold.

TWO GOT DEGREES
CLEVELAND.—L. B. Weidlein and his daughter, Margaret Jane, both received Bachelor of Science degrees at Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, this year. Weidlein was graduated in 1929, before the institution was authorized to confer degrees, so was awarded a B.S. 25 years later.

WATERBURY, Conn.—State Attorney Lawrence L. Lewis gained a crate of apples through theft of his automobile. When police found the machine abandoned, the fruit reposed on the rear seat.

Why Not A Spring Vacation?
Are you one whose vitality is always lowest in the spring? Do you have what you term "a snappy case of spring fever?" You're probably just run-down and worn-out after a hard winter. What you'd better do is stop right now, rest awhile, and get in trim to carry on for another year.

LARGE CROWD HEARS SPEECH BY McDONALD

Stressing his eight-point platform announced Jan. 2 of this year, C. C. McDonald, Wichita Falls candidate for governor, brought his candidacy to the voters of Eastland county in an address delivered Monday night from the Eastland county courthouse steps. The audience, conservatively estimated at 1,500, was made up of men and women from all parts of Eastland county and from all walks of life, and was by far the largest audience yet to hear a candidate for governor here this year. Mr. McDonald was the candidate for this high office to speak in Ranger.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Beulah Speer, former Eastland county school superintendent, who was introduced by Judge Earl Corner of Eastland. Mr. McDonald said in part: "I pledge my full support and cooperation to President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his entire recovery program, for social justice, for a more just division of the national income, and a greater buying power and opportunity for property ownership of all kinds by the masses."

"As the federal government is now furnishing capital to finance railroads, banks, insurance companies and other private corporations I favor extending like assistance by the government to those who do not own a home to enable heads of families to purchase homesteads."

"To be plain, I favor a constitutional amendment that will permit the state to extend its credit and guarantee the payment to the extent of one-half the purchase price not to exceed $2,000 to any one family."

"I pledge a continuation of the state policy of reduced appropriations, to consolidate duplicate offices and to abolish useless jobs and the fee system."

"I oppose the future issuance of any tax exempt bonds or securities in the state or nation."

"I favor: (1) The two years equity of redemption law; (2) the final repeal of all ad valorem taxes on real estate and personal property for state purposes leaving such property to be taxed for county and local purposes only."

"I favor: (1) A registration tax on all notes, mortgages, deeds of trust and liens recorded or filed, and a maximum contract interest rate for the use of money, of six per cent per annum and no more, such indebtedness not to be collectible by law if such tax is not paid or if excessive interest is charged."

"(2) The guaranty of bank deposits law."

"(3) The capital stock tax on all corporations, limited partnerships and joint stock associations."

"(5) Such laws as may be necessary to place upon the tax rolls and collect the tax on all property now escaping taxation."

"I favor: (1) Such tax laws as will impose and collect a reasonable tax upon the intangible assets of immense value now escaping taxation on all business operating under a franchise or permit or charter which confers the privilege of monopoly."

Good Hecklers Are Declared To Be Greatest Need of Campaign Season By Political Writer

AUSTIN.—What the Texas political campaign needs is some good hecklers. Candidates are talking generalities and platitudes. A few good hecklers would make them be specific.

Nearly all candidates for governor in some speech or other have used an old age pension, as a talking point. Audiences are left to believe that they can go blithely down life's pathway, regardless of the future, if only they elect that particular candidate for governor.

A good lusty-lunged heckler would ask some questions about it. He would inquire who is to pay the pensions, and how. He would ask if it is to have a fate like the mothers' pension. The state legislature neatly got credit for a mothers' pension law and shifted the burden to the counties. County commissioners were authorized to grant such pensions from county funds, if they saw fit.

The heckler would ask what age he will be required to become eligible for a pension. He would ask if indigence is to be a prerequisite, and if the aged man or woman is to be required to take the pride-breaking oath of pauperiship.

An indigence clause as a prerequisite to Confederate pensions was so distasteful to public sentiment that it is ignored. Some pensioners, made rich by oil strikes, are reported to continue as state pensioners.

Many of the planks being voiced by candidates are subject to pertinent inquiries. Lack of questioning indicates that public interest has not been stimulated by them.

All candidates are for easing the tax burden. How they are going to do it varies with the candidate. A heckler might ask each one how adequate appropriations are to be made if the state income is reduced in face of an overdraft of nearly $5,000,000.

"How about insane sleeping on floors for lack of buildings?" is a question that might give a candidate considerable pause. Most of the candidates have foreseen that some such question, if unasked, at least may have arisen in the minds of voters. They are ready to answer with a plan for shifting the burden of taxation.

"Equalize it," is the phrase heard from the political stump. The sales tax was one of the early methods proposed. Then the little fellow figured out that he does most of the buying, and it has been dropped like a hot potato. A tax on mortgages and notes (the big fellows hold them) has taken its place. Now the little fellows who sign the notes and mortgages are asking if the big fellows will not add just that much more on to his charges in interest and fees.

Other candidates would tax the chain stores. Chain stores made such a showing when it was attempted that legislators shied off. Other industries, singled out to take the burden off the land and the little fellow might get hecklers to ask the candidates the questions they will ask when bills for the taxes reach the legislature. But they save their ammunition. They know campaign promises are brittle.

A candidate who is sincere and "knows his stuff" will welcome a heckler. He quickly can gain sympathy of an audience in an impromptu exchange with a heckler.

Gangland Almost Wiped Out In the Chicago Territory

By ROBERT T. LOUGHRAN. CHICAGO, June 26.—Gangland, the world famed empire of the lawless, has crumpled and fallen.

During the years of prohibition, Chicago was noted as the playground for gangsters but a survey today revealed that gang rulers have abdicated, leaving a disorganized army unable to continue illicit trafficking in all things at fancy prices. Fast gathering dust in luxurious headquarters is evidence that a crusade of law and order virtually has wiped out gangland.

Dismantled breweries, distilleries gone to seed and jail sentences for many chiefs are some of the results of the relentless war carried on by federal and state authorities in Chicago for two years. A crime report issued by Mayor E. J. Kelly showed a drop of 3.1 per cent in Chicago crime in the first five months of the year from the same period last year.

Prosecutions were the weapons of the crusaders. They were aided by a co-operative spirit among criminal judges. The drive, at the outset, disorganized the notorious Capone syndicate by wholesale convictions for income tax violations. Al (Scarface) Capone, its leader, is serving 10 years in Atlanta penitentiary. Others of his aides are serving terms ranging from one year to five years for similar offenses.

William (Klondike) O'Donnell, of the West Side, his gang practically wiped out by murders and jail sentences, has become a "gentleman retired."

George (Bugs) Moran, North Side mob leader, is a "gentleman" farmer. His associates are scattered everywhere.

Joe (Polack Joe) Saltis, back of the yards terrorist, has retired to his northern Wisconsin summer resort. His family lives in a sumptuous house in Beverly Hills, a suburb.

Edward (Spike) O'Donnell, leader of the South Side "blue-eyed Irish boys," has given up everything, even his coal business. When he recovers from a broken hip he expects to embark for London to tell Scotland Yard how to handle mobsters.

Horse Comes Back But Mule Slipping

LUBBOCK, Texas.—The horse is coming back in a big way on the South Plains, but the mule appears to be slipping.

More than 2,000 horses were shipped here for distribution during the eight months ended June 15, and other South Plains points reported similar increased demand.

Mule owners, on the other hand, sold off their stock to get money with which to buy horses.

The reason for the horse's greater popularity may lie in the fact that the horse costs less. Mules shipped to the cotton areas of Fort Worth, Memphis and Atlanta brought an average price of $78 a head. The average price for horses shipped in was only $51.

Horses imported here came largely from Colorado, Wyoming and other northwestern states. Prices ranged from $25 for old animals to $200 for the best types of Percheron draft stock.

South Plains farmers expect costs to be one of their best money crops. Hundreds of brood mares have been shipped in. One Lubbock rancher recently bought 350, another 100.

One incidental result of this comeback of the horse is expected to be that a larger percentage of the crop acreage will be planted to feed for home consumption. The automatic effect will be curtailment of crops of which surpluses exist. It also will mean utilization of land taken out of cotton or other cash crop production.

Bullock to Have Revival Meeting Beginning Friday

Rev. C. J. Cloud will conduct a revival at the Bullock Methodist church, beginning on Friday night, June 29, and continuing for ten days.

Rev. Cloud has a splendid record as a pastor and Rev. E. D. Conway, pastor of the church, feels that he and the members of the church are very fortunate to have him to conduct the revival meeting this year.

The date of the meeting had to be moved up because this was the only available time. Rev. Cloud could be secured to conduct the services.

There will be services both morning and night. The hour for the morning services will be announced later. The group prayer meetings before the evening services will begin a little before 8:00 o'clock. Group leaders will be appointed to take charge of the various groups.

The pastor of the church will return from Dallas before the opening day of the revival. He is attending the Texas pastor's school which is in session at Southern Methodist University. Rev. Collins of Olden will preach Sunday morning at Staff and Sunday night at Colony in the absence of the pastor.

Womars' Canary Becomes Nudist

EL PASO, June 25.—One of Mrs. Fred Velasco's canary birds has gone nudist, and Mrs. Velasco is pretty upset about it.

"I don't know what made him do such a thing, especially at his age," she said.

"The loss of his beautiful green and yellow feathers hasn't made him the least bit self-conscious," Mrs. Velasco said, "although he's a terrible looking thing."
